

Northwest Nominates Roy Hawkins GI Product for Heavyweight Spot

TACOMA, Wash. (NEA) — The east coaster of Bernie Reynolds, ex-GI as the most promising young heavy-weight fighter.

Reynolds, the east points out, has scored 20 knockouts in 23 starts. The youngster is rated a knock-out hitter; a tall powerful fellow with a love for the rugged racket. He is said to have speed and every other qualification that goes to make a champ. Experience is his only hurdle.

There's little doubt of Reynolds' talent to date. He has impressed smart and able ring men, is managed by Joe Vella, a New Jersey main-boost-town who discovered him in military camp. Gus Lesnevich, light-heavyweight champ, also has a healthy part of the kid.

Reynolds, it is said, it what was to have been expected from the ranks of the GI's. Some kid like him just had to come along out of the millions of young yellow-jackets. Included in Reynolds' kavo list is the veteran Walter Hafer, Joe Louis' sparring partner, weight 220 or so. Walter went out like a minus tide, only you could see where he went.

Vella and Lesnevich total up good hands for the fighting GI to be in. They undoubtedly will guide him carefully. They know the ropes. Maybe some day the kid will roost on the golden throne of fistiana.

But right here is where the fact was to do a bit of claiming, as the home of a youthful fist; heavy-weight who served with the Air Force in the Burma campaign. The Pacific Coast can't let Reynolds take the full spotlight.

Roy Hawkins, 24, 6 feet 1 inch, weighing 195 pounds, is the Pacific northwest's prize Twenty fights are behind his belt. Seventeen kayoes are his, the latest being cusey Harold Blackhear, Negro veteran of San Francisco.

Hawkins, outboxed for four or five rounds, took to his foot-step, circled Blackhear, jabbing accurately with a left. This attack was mixed with left hooks to the body, right crosses to the chin and heart.

In the eighth Blackhear was so brutally beaten he turned to the referee and pleaded for things to be ended. His left eye was closed tight. His mouth was battered to

Payle Paces Oilers to 5-4 Win at Lamesa

LAMESA—George Payle pitched and helped his Pampa to a 5-4 decision yesterday afternoon over Lamesa's Lobos before 1,000 fans here yesterday afternoon as the Oilers moved to within one game of the three-place Lamesa club.

Payle scattered eight Lobo hits and collected three safeties himself as he and leftfielder Ray Bauer paced the Pampans to a victory via pitching assignments.

Bauer knocked in three runs, with the bases-empty homer in the fifth, and a two-run double in the third, when Pampa outdug four times.

Payle ran into serious difficulty in only one inning—the third, when Lamesa shoved across three runs.

Pampa's win ended the series at a game apiece, with the deciding game scheduled for Monday night. Foster White of Pampa and Chris Hawkins drawing the probable starting pitching assignments.

ROY HAWKINS... the northwest's pugilistic prize package. hamburger. He was rocking and set for the crumpher when he resigned, as they say in Europe.

Hawkins, tough as a Russian wrestler's heel, aggressive to a fault, and a powerful hitter with either hand, is English-Irish. He has a fondness for the game. Insists he'd rather lose to a better fighter than beat a slap-off.

Hawkins is a "dime-eyed" youngster with broad shoulders, wonderful underpinning. He's the physical type that brings out and abs from the onlookers when he drops his robe.

Hawkins is managed by Tex Saikid, Portland veterans ring man, and Charles McPhail, wealthy Tacoma electrical construction contractor. McPhail in his youth also boxed.

Hawkins is now a permanent resident of Tacoma and between fights toys timber avenue which he cruises, cuts and markets. Makes good money there, too. He seeks no lazy way out. Ambition is a part of his makeup.

Saikid and McPhail have retained Jack Chase, ex-light-heavyweight title contender, as Hawkins' special trainer. The Negro veteran will act in a capacity like that of Jack Blackburn with Joe Louis.

Class, a Californian, is enthused over Hawkins' possibilities. He saw Roy cut down and batter his friend, Blackhear.

Hawkins is the best looking young Pacific northwest heavyweight these old eyes have seen. That goes for old Jack Lester, Ed Haven, Frank Farmer, Niz Yenger and all. We've looked 'em all over in the Pacific northwest since the days when Tommy Burns, the Twin Sullivan and such were fighting their way upward.

But this Hawkins is the best of the lot at the 20th fight marker. Roy was born in Spokane but moved to Kelmsath Falls, Ore., when six years old. He is an ardent angler, a versatile, natural athlete.

Hawkins played an all-Oregon prep end on the gridiron and starred on the wing for Portland University of Portland. He is much what they say of Reynolds. Their records are surprisingly alike.

Maybe in the two kids we have a repeater of Bob Martin and Gene Tunney, who came out of the GI ranks of the first world war. It so, only with the chamy.

The Pacific northwest takes Hawkins.

Pennant Picture in Major Loops Changing

By The Associated Press
The pennant picture in the major leagues has taken on a new aspect in recent days all because of a couple of real professionals—Ted Williams and Dixie Walker.

Only two weeks ago experts were predicting a New York Yankee run in the American League flag race while forecasting another nerve-wracking down-to-the-wire finish in the National.

Today the Red Sox, led by Williams, once again the "Terrible Teddy" of the 1941 and '42 seasons, have cut three full games off the Yankees' lead and now trail by nine and a half.

The Dodgers, with Walker hitting with the same old gusto that established him as the "People's Chere" in Flatbush, have opened up a seven game bulge over the second place St. Louis Cardinals.

Dixie drove in three runs yesterday to help the Dodgers sweep both ends of a double header from the Pirates in Pittsburgh, 8-4 and 11-4, and extend their latest winning streak to nine.

Bank Behrman, recently returned by Pittsburgh, won his third straight for the Brooks in the opener, but needed a masterful relief exhibition by Hugh Casey to escape with the win.

The Red Sox took two from the St. Louis Browns in Boston, 4-3 and 12-2.

The Yankees lost a full game from their lead when they were held to a split in their double header with the Chicago White Sox 7-4 and 5-4.

The Cardinals lost a game and a half to the Dodgers when the Braves, behind the seven-hit pitching of Johnny Sand, handed them a 10-3 lacing.

The Giants staged a 16-hit attack, including Bobby Thomson's 19th home run, to defeat the Chicago Cubs 12-6.

Oscar Judd won his first game of the season as the Philadelphia Phillies divided a double header with the Reds in Cincinnati 5-1 and 6-4.

Third place Detroit lost an opportunity to gain on the Yankees when they were held to a split by the Athletics in Philadelphia, 5-0 and 5-1.

Manager Lou Boudreau drove in both Cleveland runs to give the Indians a 2-1 victory over the Senators in Washington.

College Station Wins Swim Meet

TYLER—(AP)—The Texas Amateur Athletic Federation's two-day swimming and diving meet ended here last night with College Station as high-point winner.

The College Station team scored 123 points to win easily over San Antonio and Fort Worth, sharing second place honors with 71 points each.

Austin was third with 59 points and Tyler was fourth with 48 points.

Individual high-scoring honors went to Mike Muckelroy of San Antonio, who earned 18 points.

Mick Anderson, representing the Audobon Swimming Club of New Orleans, won the National AAU Women's 50-meter free style event in 34.2 seconds.

Colleen Green, Dallas, was second (34.7) and Marine McKeller, Austin, was third (36.3).

Other results included: Men's Division: 300-Meter Medley Relay, College Station, first; time, 3:53.4. Team members were Howard Spencer, Jimmy Boyle and Gene Summers.

100-Yard Backstroke, Wade Smith, College Station, 1:10.1.
400-Yard Free Style, Harvey Adamson, College Station, 5:02.6.

Women's Division: 150-Meter Relay, College Station, 2:37.4. Members, Elizabeth Blank, Betty Smith and Matha Bonnen.
200-Yard Free Style, Marjan McKeller, Austin, 2:46.5.

Tyler's Trojans Win Sixth Straight Game

By The Associated Press
Tyler's Trojans have served notice they are still to be counted in the Lone Star League race.

The Trojans won their sixth straight game yesterday, defeating Bryan, 5-2. The victory gave them a percentage of .500 and put them only two and one-half games out of fifth place.

First division teams generally won yesterday. Marshall easily defeated Henderson, 17-7, while Okey Flower held Kilgore to four hits as Longview won, 6-3. Lufkin handed Jacksonville a 6-3 lacing.

Houston Buffs Move to Fort Worth for 3 Crucial Games

(By The Associated Press)
Houston moves into Fort Worth tonight—and the Texas League pennant may hang on the outcome of the three-game series.

Yesterday's results set the stage for tonight—with Houston's lead cut to two games after the Buffs fell to Dallas 5-7. Fort Worth dumped San Antonio for its seventh straight victory, 5-4.

The fast climbing Tulsa Oilers threw Shreveport into a virtual tie with Dallas for third place by dumping the Sports twice, 3-2 and 13-5. Beaumont defeated Oklahoma City in both ends of twin bill, 5-3, 4-1.

Bob Moyer's triple in the ninth inning scored Hal Hirschon and Johnny Creel to edge Houston and end a six-saw contest.

Dallas had come from behind on a four-run first inning spurge, only to have Johnny Hernandez tie the score with a three-run homer in the third.

Hernandez' second homer, in the sixth—led the score again, but Johnny Lipon homered to send Dallas ahead the same inning. Houston went ahead on two runs in the eighth, but Al Pappi couldn't hold the Rebels in the final frame.

The second place Fort Worth Cats used Iry Noren's triple and Ferrell Anderson's single to beat San Antonio after two were out in the ninth inning.

Willard Ramsdell notched his 15th victory in stretching the Cats' winning streak. It was his 11th straight.

By losing both ends of a twin bill to Tulsa, Shreveport dropped its seventh straight game. The results left the Sports in third place by one percentage point over Dallas.

Max Marshall's home run in the fifth inning broke a 2-2 deadlock and gave Bill Lee his fourth win since joining Tulsa. The nightcap was a wild affair, Tulsa scoring five runs in the fourth, two in the fifth and six in the eighth. Jim Shilling highlighted the eighth inning spree with a grand slam home run.

Chet Hajduk and Guy Burtwright hit home runs in a seventh inning rally for Shreveport.

Kent Stirling and Jack McKinney held Oklahoma City to four hits in the opener, then Jack Mackinson limited the Indians to two in the nightcap. Errors accounted for three in Beaumont's runs in the first game.

The general change today also sends San Antonio to Dallas. Beaumont to Tulsa and Shreveport to Oklahoma City.

Prospects Good for Heavy Cotton Crop

PARIS—(AP)—A huge cotton crop is in prospect for Northeast Texas. According to reports, ideal weather and little insect infestation has raised the hope of cotton farmers for a bumper crop in the 13 county Northeast Texas area.

In Lamar County, growers are talking a 30,000-bale yield. Last year, Lamar County produced 15,712 bales and 15,341 the year before.

E. E. Scott Wins Lake McClellan Boat Races

A crowd estimated at 2,700 saw E. E. Scott of Tell take top honors in the McClellan Lake Motor Boat Races, held yesterday afternoon under the sponsorship of the Lake Boat Club.

Scott's 22 horsepower job opened out to take first in its division and then went on to take more honors by winning the open freer-for-all contest.

Carl Baer, Pampa, won first in the 15-horsepower class. In the same class, Frank Harrington, Borger, won second and Weldon Clay, Clarendon, won third.

Other winners were: Shorty Phillips, Pampa, second and Ray Branscum, Pampa, third in the 22-horsepower class. Shorty Phillips also took second in the free-for-all run and E. H. Wood, Pampa, took third.

Man Wanted Here Is Found in Oklahoma

Climaxing several weeks searching by Gray County peace officers and officers of other counties, Sheriff G. H. Kyle yesterday returned Albert Roberts, formerly of Pampa, here from Mangum, Okla.

Roberts, alias J. A. Wright, is charged here with "forgery" and is also wanted for questioning in connection with forgery charges by Wheeler County officers.

Kyle located Roberts in Mangum and wired a hold on him to officers there. Roberts signed a waiver of extradition and was brought back to Pampa late Sunday night.

Married men are not permitted to enter West Point Military Academy.

Pajama-Skirt Combination Makes More Dressing Time for Sleepyheads

New design in sleepwear teams short pajamas (left) with matching wrap-around skirt (right) for respectable breakfast attire.

By EPSIE KINARD, NEA Staff Writer. NEW YORK (NEA) — Now there's a rightie that can go to breakfast. And look as smart and correct as any morning dress at the table.

This bright idea in sleepwear combines short pajamas, in which you can slumber in cool comfort, with a wrap-around skirt that gives you a quick change into thoroughly respectable breakfast attire.

Credit for a design which will win applause from lie-abeds, who wait until the last possible minute before getting up, goes to a 20-year-old Texan, Jean Jackson of Beaumont.

Mrs. Bruce L. Parker, recent bride, was complimented with a miscellaneous shower and tea in the home of Mrs. Herman Foster, 1133 N. Starkweather, Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 with Mrs. Oran Payne as co-hostess.

Arrangements of gladioli decorated the receiving rooms and the honoree was presented a corsage of pink and white gladioli by the hostesses.

Mrs. John Nutting served the punch, heart shaped sandwiches, stuffed eggs, and cookies.

After the guests had registered in the bride's book it was presented to the honoree.

Attending were Mesdames Travis Lively, Jr., William Ragsdale, Mary Lane, Margaret Dial, Parks Brumley, Tommie Stone, W. F. Jordan, Bob Robinson, Guy Farrington, Roy Chisum, and Ross Cornelius; and Misses Va Rue Dyson, Inez French, and Muriel Kitchens.

Sending gifts were Mesdames Mildred Latferty, Tom Lindsey, Albert Doucette, C. L. Halbert, Ervin Ask, Gene Hall, Freda Barrett, H. G. Guill, and Graham Reeves; and Misses Maggie Hollis, Ursula Jones, Adeline Brazil, Maurine Jones, and Jewel Polk.

Sublett Family Has Reunion at Lake McClellan

Children and other relatives of J. N. Sublett, 70, McLean, gathered Sunday at Lake McClellan for a reunion and all day outing.

Mr. Sublett has lived in the Texas Panhandle over 40 years and most of that time has been spent in Gray County. He recalls when McClellan was just a small farming community.

A bountiful lunch was spread at the noon hour and later in the day the group attended the boat races. A picnic supper concluded the outing.

Among the family group present were Mr. Sublett's four daughters, 34 Russell, all but three of his grandchildren.

Relatives attending were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bird and daughter, Carolyn, Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. Guydell Woodburn and daughters, Dana and Marjorie, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Berry and sons, Bruce and Kenneth, Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Villandry, Pampa; Mesdames Dorothy Berry and Pitt Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. Buster Sublett and son Troy Don, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Davis and sons, Ralph and Donald, Miss Mary Edith Amerson, Mr. Sublett, Mr. McLean. Many friends visited during the afternoon with members of the reunion party.

Come As You Are Is Theme for Breakfast

The Crusaders Class of the First Methodist Church enjoyed a "Come As You Are" breakfast in the home of Mrs. Ebea D. Warner, Jr., 1436 N. Russell, Friday morning beginning at 9 o'clock. Mrs. V. Collum was co-hostess.

Mrs. H. H. Boynton took pictures of the group and breakfast consisting of tomato juice, creamed eggs on toast, bacon, snippy doodies, and coffee were served to the following members: Mesdames M. F. Lude-nman, D. C. Dodson, Leon Cook, Miller Haynes, J. D. Wright, Jr., John Michel, George Ford, S. A. Evans, and Aubrey L. Smiley.

Miss Helen Margaret Nickell and Walter Louis Dittberner Rites Are Performed in Presbyterian Chapel

PANHANDLE—(Special)—In an impressive candle-light setting, Helen Margaret Nickell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Nickell, Panhandle, and Walter Louis Dittberner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dittberner, Panhandle, were united in marriage on Saturday evening.

Dr. Francis W. Pritchard, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Amarillo, read the double-ring service in the chapel of that church at 6 o'clock.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Kay Weatherbee, organist, played Schubert's "Serenade". The traditional wedding marches were used for the professional and recessional.

An arrangement of white phlox flanked by candelabra, bearing lighted white cathedral tapers, decorated the altar space.

Attending her sister, as matron-of-honor, Mrs. Cilel Best, Hereford, was attired in a pink linen suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. E. D. Anderson of Amarillo, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man.

For her wedding the bride chose a white wool suit fashioned along princess lines, with a deep flared pleated, with brown and white accessories. She carried a white Rainbow Bible, topped with an orchid and showered with a satin ribbon, knotted with sweepstakes. She carried out the traditions of something old, new, borrowed and blue.

Mrs. Nickell, mother of the bride, wore a gray dress with black accessories while Mrs. Dittberner, mother of the groom, wore a grey dress with brown accessories.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the Aristocrat Cafe to members of the wedding party and guests.

Mrs. Dittberner was graduated from Panhandle High School and is now employed by AAA office in Panhandle. She is a Past Worthy Advisor of the Order of the Rainbow for Girls, Panhandle Assembly, No. 99.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of Panhandle High School. He served three years in the United States Army and is now engaged in farming.

Following a wedding trip to points in New Mexico and Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Dittberner will be at home on a farm east of Panhandle.

WE, THE WOMEN

Languid Look, Lost During War, Is Back in Style

By RUTH MILLETT Maybe you hadn't noticed—but the languid look is back in style. During the war years, the women who once went in for that "beautiful-but-bored" manner became crisp and business-like.

Because they were suddenly faced with doing their own house work, or because they were up to their necks in volunteer jobs, or a combination of both, they didn't have time to cultivate a languid look.

BACK TO UN-NATURE They are spending time dressing up for parties that often aren't worth the effort. But the parties are time-killers, and so is the sudden new emphasis on fashion.

So the women without enough to do are spending long hours in the beauty salons again, taking great pains with their shopping and dressing. And then they don't know what to do with themselves.

So there they are—wearing the languid look. They're all dressed up—but too many of them don't have any really important place to go.

BENEFIT BASEBALL

The Kiwanis softball program, like the Lions Club's park program and the service clubs' teen canteen, is worthy of a good deal of recognition from this community. Not every city of this size is fortunate to have the attention of such organizations focused upon its youth.

We mention this at this time because tomorrow night at Oiler Park the baseball game between the local club and the Albuquerque Dukes is being played partly in the interest of the softball project fund; and those who attend will be contributing directly to the worthy cause.

Not only will they see a regulation game, but they also will be helping to assure the success of the softball leagues, the formation of which is primarily designed to employ the time of young people during the weekdays and to assure their attendance in some church school on Sunday. The value of the program is at once evident, and those who in the past have contributed in one way or another have been gratified with the results.

Kiwanis officials say that within the past four years considerable progress has been made. Not only have the young people been beneficially engaged, but also they have grown in number. This past year it was necessary to build more diamonds, and that was done. Night games are possible, and during the next year drinking fountains, a public telephone, rest rooms and permanent stands are scheduled to be established.

All this takes money, and sponsorship of the baseball game tomorrow night is one way to raise a part of the funds needed. Regular Oiler fans, of course, will be there; and it is recommended that those persons with an erratic interest be present too. All will be contributing to a good cause—and at the same time can see a baseball game.

WASHINGTON
By RAY TICKER
DEFINITION—The word Communism, writes A. L. Y. Haverhill, Mass., "seems to be more prominent than any other today. If Communism is going to cause war, I for one, would like a good definition. Nothing I find in the dictionary satisfies. Does Russia have a monopoly on it?"

BOSS—Naturally, the exercise of such vast, comprehensive economic power forces all authority too verily into other fields. It therefore becomes treason, with death as a possible penalty, to complain against anything from hourly wages to the subway service. In Russia and its satellite countries a secret N. K. V. D. agent is stationed in every block to report on grumblers.

MONOPOLY—Yes, as of today, Russia seems to have a monopoly on this sort of cruel, oligarchic form of government, although she seeks to expand it throughout the world.

FORCE—"The new International Association of Workers is established for the purpose of organizing common activity of the workers of various countries who are striving for a single aim. The overthrow of capitalism, the dictatorship of the proletariat and of the International Soviet Republic for the complete abolition of classes and the realization of socialism—the first step to Communist Society."

TAXES—"President Truman," writes W. E. J. of Houston, Texas, "has stated that he favors lowering of taxes, but that the time is not ready and that the method is bad. However, I cannot discover that he has ever given us any idea when he things a reduction can be made, or what form this tax relief should take. Has Washington any information on these questions?"

ANSWER: Mr. Truman believes that tax reduction now, in view of the high volume of production and wages, would have an inflationary effect. That explains his reference to the "wrong time."

U. S. POLICY ... by Upton Close

American and British administrations are gradually waking up to the fact that there is nothing to gain by making Germany a future enemy.

Two years before war ended Stalin realized this, and began organizing German prisoners of war, from privates to generals, hoping to use them in capturing the friendship and cooperation of post-war Germany. His agents promised Soviet support in preserving Germany as a nation; told the prisoners their only hope was to play ball with Russia.

The German army in Russia now reportedly numbers close to 300,000 officers and men. On it rests Stalin's principal hopes of capturing all of Germany at some critical moment when Britain and the United States will be unable or unwilling to intervene. Doubtless the plan would be to send this army into Western Germany, capture a city and set up a provisional government-of-all-Germany which the Soviets and satellites would recognize and actively aid.

Austria, Italy, Sweden and Turkey may be on the list ahead of Germany—all perhaps depending on results of the effort to capture Greece. But Germany is on the list, we may be sure. And if a Red army once stands on the Rhine and across the Franco-Italian border the rest of Europe will rush to Moscow bearing gifts. Even Britain will not recognize us in a crowd for fear she might be suspected of having known us at some time in her past.

May Increase Steel Production
From time to time for over a year I have reported in this column the venal Morgenthau plan, the infiltration into our occupation forces and our Washington administration of persons friendly to that plan, the bungling and shortsightedness of many acts and policies in the government of all the zones of southern and western Germany. Instead of repeating them here I prefer to point out some of the signs that the governments of the American and British zones are beginning to recognize the dangers of continuing to abuse the German people, when we could as readily make them a friend and future ally.

In Marshall's speech at Harvard he took cognizance of the need to restore responsibility to German business and industry, and of restoring hope to German workers—the recovery of all Europe being dependent on that of Germany.

Way to More Wages
The important thing is that good profits and good wages go along together. The success of an enterprise, as well as the well-being of everyone who gets income, depends upon profits. When corporations have to accept losses, or even meager profits, wages for everybody go down and jobs become hard to find. It is not just chance that brings these two things, small profits and low wages, in the very same years. They belong together.

AIRPLANE CHARGES
SHANNON AIRPORT, Erie, Pa.—By A. Trans-World Airlines Constellation plane fully loaded with passengers en route from New York to Paris, overshot the runway and crashed into a ditch here at midnight last night, but it was understood that no one was injured.

So They Say
Today I tell you that the "globality" of our times is the insistence by any nation that all error, all blame, and all responsibility for failure rests exclusively in any one capital or economic system—Clare Booth Luce, former representative from Connecticut.

QUICKIES
By Ken Reynolds
I do not mean that the change is complete or even substantial, yet, in our handling of occupied Germany, but these signs indicate that a wiser policy is rapidly shaping up.

So They Say
Today the German people are so shattered that there is no national will. But such a will is bound to emerge. It will emerge as an ugly thing if the four-power government of Germany persists in inflicting on Germany that which they themselves proclaim to be wrong—John Foster Dulles, adviser to Marshall at Moscow Conference.

DEATH of a DOLL By Hilda Lawrence

THE STORY: Mark East calls on Dr. Kloppel, the Hope House doctor, to find out what happened about Ruth Miller's death. Kloppel tells him to talk to Mrs. Cashman, the neighbor who first discovered Ruth's body in the courtyard. Mrs. Cashman suggests he see Jewel Schwab, first of House girl on the scene.

XVI A FEW doors from Hope House Mark slowed down and watched two women descend the steps and get into a waiting cab. Not the hostess type, he decided. Board members, with fancy New York names, looking for dust and waste in the kitchen. They were fairly young, smartly dressed, and something had happened to make them laugh. He didn't go in until the cab drove off.

A pale girl came from behind the switchboard and asked his business. "Miss Schwab?" "She's out. Do you want to leave a message?"

"No, thank you, it isn't that important. I've been talking to Cashman and she mentioned it." He stopped because he recognized the look she gave him. The good-natured curiosity slipped from her face and emptiness took its place. She was remembering to forget.

"Do you know Mrs. Cashman?" he asked. "She lives somewhere around here, that's all I know." Her eyes flicked over his shoulder, and he turned to see who was behind him. There was no one. An empty elevator stood open, that was all.

"You'll have to excuse me," she went on. "I'm busy. But if you want to leave your name, I'll see that Jewel gets it."

"No name, I'll call again. That will be all right, won't it?" "Don't be childish, he won't know what you're talking about. He doesn't know Ruth Miller existed."

"Do you?" "Look," Miss Libby flipped the pages of a folder. "I have the dope ten days or two weeks of hearings. The session opened in a crowded Senate caucus room which normally seats several hundred persons.

Stephenville Votes on Bridge-Building Issue STEPHENVILLE (AP) - Commissioners' Precincts 1, 3 and 4 of Erath County were voting yesterday on a $300,000 lateral road and bridge-building bond issue, the second election on the issue.

The bond issue failed by 23 votes in a June election to get the necessary two-thirds majority. Precinct 2, including the town of Dublin, approved a $100,000 bond issue or a similar program last year.

The other three precincts make up Erath County Road District No. 3. If the proposition is approved in this election, each precinct would receive $100,000 with which to build permanent roads and bridges.

But let there be no mistake upon one point. Without a united Europe there is no prospect of world government. It is the urgent and indispensable step toward the realization of that ideal.—Winston Churchill.

right here. I don't know what you're looking for, but if it's trouble you won't find it. Here's the story, plain facts and no color. She was a good saleswoman, no more than that. Not executive material, not even hard enough for head of stock, which isn't as big a job as it sounds. She bought almost nothing in the store, shoes and stockings, that's all. She had no store pals, was never late or absent, and came to the dispensary only once.

"Why did she come then?" "Miss Libby read silently. "Darn," she said under her breath. "But that happens all the time."

"Did you say something, Miss Libby?" He liked the way she blushed when she was caught. "She came because she was hysterical. A customer accused her of giving wrong change and took the place. That time the customer was wrong, and we proved it on the spot, but the girl went to pieces. You can't make anything out of that, it happens all the time."

"I see... Where did Miss Miller come from?" "Come from?" Miss Libby's eyes traveled down a page, and she colored again.

"Sure," Mark pressed. "The job before this one, references—you know what I mean."

"Now Mr. East, you needn't—" "Come, come, Miss Libby. Where did she work before she came here? Even a dish-washer has references."

Miss Libby ground her teeth. "No record," she moaned. "You've got me. But I can explain. You know what last year was like. Normally sane customers going crazy, acting like customers themselves. We took what we could get. Miller was self-effacing and looked as if she needed a job. We took her on. It says here 'never before employed.' I remember now—that I didn't believe it after her week's record came up. She knew how to sell, and she didn't make mistakes. So—"

"So?" "So maybe you've got something after all," Miss Libby said grudgingly.

Later she left for Aliceville and was picked up only last night by the Shreveport, La., officers, Associated Press reports state. There the little family was again sheltered by the Salvation Army. She arrived in Shreveport by truck from Longview, Texas. They had hitch hiked most of the way and had run out of money on several occasions. Shreveport officials last night were arranging to have her sent to Clarksville, Miss., where it is expected she will finally be united with her several-weeks-long husband. The second ship to arrive was the three-master schooner Bruno of Rome, which had been re-named "The 14 Heroes of Ex Zib" in memory of the members of the Jewish underground who died while blowing up a bridge last year near the Ljubanah bridge. Towed into port, with disabled engines two hours after the arrival of the "Return to Zion," she was unloaded without incident. Her 700 passengers appeared to be mostly middle European Jews and Jewish sources said it was believed they had embarked either in Yugoslavia or Italy. They were well supplied with canned milk from the United States and Denmark, with Argentine tinned beef and other food. Of the total of 1,100 persons carried by the two ships approximately 300 were detained temporarily in Haifa pending the arrival of additional British transports for the voyage to Cyprus.

Congress

(Continued From Page 1) on old favorites, like "Home Sweet Home." Shortly after midnight they voted to go there. Back at the cross roads there are such ready-made political issues as:

1. Taxes. Congress voted twice to trim income taxes $4,000,000,000. President Truman vetoed both bills. The vetoes stuck. The bills died.

2. Labor. Congress passed a bill to make unions liable to punishment for many things never before punished. Organized labor and the President denounced it. Congress made the bill a law over a veto.

3. Spending. Republicans and Democrats squabbled all through the session about trimming government expenses. Mr. Truman asked last January for some $37,500,000,000 to run the government in the year that began July 1.

The House decided to whack $6,000,000,000 off the total. The Senate figured $4,500,000,000 would be enough of a slash. They never did get together and split the difference—even though they were supposed to under the 1946 reorganization law which supposedly streamlined Congress.

Congress did make some big nicks in the budget. But right into the closing hours there were arguments about how big. The highest Republican estimate was $4,995,000,000, the lowest Democratic, calculation "in the neighborhood" of $1,000,000,000.

4. Living costs. The lawmakers learned yesterday that prices were high prices. They didn't do much about them except:

Continue rent controls until next March 1. Agree to an investigation. Tightly as it hung on to the strings, Congress dipped into the public pocketbook for hundreds of thousands of dollars to send committees and subcommittees trekking all over this country and a good part of the globe.

Mr. Truman got the nomination of James V. Forrestal under the wire to be the new Secretary of Defense, Forrestal had been Secretary of the Navy. The unification bill was one of the few items of home front legislation on which Congress and the President hit it off in friendly fashion. The session had begun with expressions from Mr. Truman and Republican leaders in Congress of a desire to work together. But GOP chiefs said whatever cooperation had existed ended with those tax and labor bill vetoes. Yet in international matters the bi-partisan teamwork that was apparent in wartime continued to a large degree. In the domestic field, another bill the President wanted and got was one designating the Speaker of the House instead of the Secretary of State as the successor to the Presidency if both that office and the Vice-Presidency are vacant at the same time.
