Committee Gives Amazing Report On 1941 Attack

WASHINGTON, June 14 (AP)—The house military committee said today "mismanagement" on the part of an army engineer colonel contributed to delays in pre-war defense installations at Pearl Harbor. Also it said the major stockholder of the company doing the installing job was a German-born Californian who acquired American citizenship three months before the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Had an aircraft warning system been completed on schedule, the committee said, it "might have robbed the Japanese attack x x x of much of the element of surprise."

Principals in the formal report, submitted to the house by the committee without comment other than the verbal statement of Chairman May (D-Ky) that "the next move is up to the war department."

Hans Wilhelm Rohl, who, the committee said, came to the United States from Germany in 1913, was naturalized in 1941, and was a major stockholder in Hawaiian Constructors, a joint contracting venture which held $125,000,000 in contracts for work in Hawaii, Alaska, and South Pacific Islands.

Colonel Theodore Wyman, Jr., 56-year-old veteran of the last war, an engineer officer in charge of defense construction in the Hawaiian and South Pacific areas at the time of the Japanese attack, and now stationed overseas.

Less than two months before Pearl Harbor attack, it added, the department gave the company a contract to begin construction of an air route by way of Christmas Island, Canton, Nandi, New Caledonia and Australia.

"How did it so happen that after nearly thirty years without taking the steps necessary to becoming a citizen, he suddenly began using every possible effort to become naturalized in order that he might be permitted to go to Hawaii just a little less than three months before the attack on Pearl Harbor?" the committee asked.

Evidence in its files, the committee said, "indicates that on the morning of the attack" on Pearl Harbor, "Colonel Wyman was at the home of Rohl, having spent the night there; that he rushed to his office in civilian clothes and in a drunken condition; and that he changed from his civilian clothes to a uniform in the presence of all of his office help, women as well as men, shouting orders to everybody."

Gen. Walter C. Short, down through the lower echelons, and particularly Colonel Theodore Wyman, Jr., did not x x x register any complaint x x x and were directly at fault for failing to give the necessary orders to proceed with the construction work promptly."

Committee investigators said that so far as they knew Rohl still is in business in Los Angeles.

The committee began its investigation nearly six months ago, following an inquiry by a California legislative committee.

Explosives Poured On US Owned Guam Island

By J. B. KRUEGER

AP War Editor

Big guns as well as a swarm of carrier planes poured explosives on U. S.-owned Guam and other Marianas Islands during the heavy three-day strike against these enemy defenses flanking the Philippines, Tokyo radio acknowledged today.

Adm. Chester Nimitz, commander in the Central Pacific, reported the carrier task force sank 13 Japanese ships, damaged 16 and destroyed 141 planes, but did not claim that surface ships bombarded the islands.

He and Tokyo agreed that Guam, Saipan and Tinian Islands of the group lying approximately 1,500 miles south of Japan were the principal targets. Guam, southernmost and largest of the group, was seized by the Japanese in the first six days of the Pacific war.

Chungking revealed that the Chinese desperately defending Changsha, key point on the Hankow-Canton railway, were holding their own.

Changsha is besieged from three sides and the invaders at one point were within six miles of the city.

Mokmer airdrome on American-occupied Blak Island off Dutch New Guinea is now in use by Fifth army aircraft planes, Gen. Douglas MacArthur disclosed. This meant the Allies have a new base within 880 miles and heavy-bomber range of the southern Philippines.

MacArthur's troops continued driving westward on Blak toward two other airfields, Sorido and Borokoe. One infantry column was within half a mile of the latter.

The Japanese invasion of India launched with fanfare months ago, was fast receding.

Farmers Report Dams Completed

Thirty Howard county farms have reported completion of tank dams, 19 have reported terraces, and two, elimination of prickly pear, the AAA office announced in reporting "unlimited" and earthen dam conservation practices reported thus far for 1944.

The 30 farms completed 33 tank dams, with net yardage of 71,982. Four of the dams are extra large, containing 3,500 cubic yards or more dirt each.

The 19 farms reporting terraces listed a total of 492,329 feet of terraces. A total of 301,779 feet of terraces has been inspected on 15 of the farms and found to meet specifications.

Total acreage cleared of prickly pear was 504.5, two reports showed.

The practices must be inspected prior to approval by a field engineer and must meet specifications as outlined in the 1944 Texas Handbook, before payments can be issued.

All the practices are "unlimited," with exception of earthen dams, which have a $300 limit to the allowance for each farm.

US Makes Air History In All-Out Assault

Germany, France Bombed By 1500 Heavy Aircraft

By GLADWIN HILL

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 14 (AP)—Fifteen hundred U.S. heavy bombers—the greatest single striking force in air history—attacked France and Germany today in concert with up to 750 American heavies which struck Hungary and Yugoslavia from Italy.

The oil lifelines for Hitler's thirty war machine were hit hard, part of the big task force from Britain hitting the oil refinery at Emmerich, Germany, while the Mediterranean force attacked half a dozen oil refineries in Hungary and Yugoslavia—including the Shell Koolak, five miles south of Budapest, the largest in Hungary.

Other Britain-based Fortresses and Liberators aimed their bombs at six enemy air bases beyond the beachhead in the unrelenting campaign to wipe out nests of German air force opposition. Others hit bridges in France and Belgium.

Supreme headquarters announced that in the first seven days of invasion 6,000 individual flights were made by the Allied air forces with the loss of 554 planes—less than one per cent of the attacking force.

In that time 42,000 tons of bombs were dropped. The Eighth air force led with about 16,000 sorties and the Ninth had 15,500.

The American force aggregating upwards of 1,500 bombers and fighters attacked among other targets the Le Bourget and Criel air fields at Paris, Etampes-Mondestr and Chateaudun in France; Brussels-Melsbroeck and Eindhoven in Belgium.

Meanwhile, another American heavy bomber force, the German radio said, surged up from Italy for an attack on Hitler's Europe which underwent heavy attacks from the south in the Munich area both yesterday and last night.

In direct support of troops battling in Normandy, large forces of American Marauders and Havocs and fighter-bombers swarmed across the sun-glistening channel all day.

Supreme headquarters said Allied air chiefs planned to press the two-way air campaign across the channel with tactical and long-range, strategic bombing to split the Germans' dwindling air force into even greater feebleness than it has showed over the battlefield so far.

It is now authoritatively reported that the Luftwaffe has been reduced to around 3,000 planes against the Allies' front line force of more than 11,000. The Germans are said to have 500 single-engine fighters massed at fields in the battle region which is under this current intensive attack.

Pilot Killed In Crash

SAN ANTONIO, June 14 (AP)—Lieut. Robert Conrad Fink, Baltimore, Md., pilot assigned to depot operations at Kelly Field, was killed in the crash of an Army plane on a farm near Mound at 1:10 p. m. Tuesday.

Lieut. Col. Alfred O. Senger, chief of the supply division of the San Antonio air service command, and Maj. Robert H. McDonnell, chief of the specialized depot branch, were passengers in the plane but were not injured, according to the Kelly Field public relations office.

Bond Buyers Bite Into Quota With Determination

With the first two days of the bond drive over, and a total of $209,864.75 bonds sold, statistics show that 14 per cent of the overall quota has been achieved along with 15 per cent of the E bond quota.

If bond buying continues at this rate, Ted Groehl, chairman, said, the drive could be wound up in two weeks instead of dragging out through the entire month.

Total E sales to date are $66,827.50 against a quota of $435,000. Overall quota is $1,590,000.

Men from the local service clubs were out in force Wednesday morning to canvass downtown business houses for the Fifth War Loan Drive. Nearly fifty men were on hand to receive kits and bond materials, Ted Groehl said.

Each man was also given tickets to distribute to the premiere showing of Blag Crosby's picture, "Going My Way," which will be shown at the Ritz on June 22nd. Admission will be by bond only and beginning today each bond purchaser will be given a free ticket to the show.

Service club men present at the 9 a. m. meeting were Elmo Wasson, Mele J. Stewart, C. E. Higginbotham, Robert Stripling, K. H. McGibbon, W. M. Gage, J. H. Crook, A. V. Karcher, J. H. Greene, Tom Rossion, Ira J. Driver, Charles White, J. P. Kenney, R. B. McEwen, T. B. Adkins.

The service club workers left bond headquarters with enthusiasm and promises to return with bond pledges before closing time this evening.

Headquarters reported Wednesday that at least one more out of town firm had reported participation in the drive. Safeway stores has pledged itself to buy $2,000 in bonds in the county.

Reminders were made to the public not to forget the official lowering of the colors to be conducted at 8 p. m. today at the courthouse lawn. The post will furnish the army band, a detachment of WAC and soldiers who will stand retreat while the flag is lowered. In the reviewing stand will be Col. John Kenney, commander.

SEE-SAW BATTLE RAGES IN FRANCE

Germans Send Four Armored Divisions To Hold Bastion

By WES GALLAGHER

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 14 (AP)—The Germans have flung four armored divisions into fierce fighting to hold their eastern battle-line bastion of Caen, the Allied command announced tonight, and heavy fighting is raging at Montebourg and Troarn at opposite ends of the 100-mile front with both towns changing hands in the last 24 hours.

The savage German counteraction on the eastern flank in Normandy followed a British drive 23 miles inland outflanking Caen from the west, and the armored struggle is rising in intensity.

The four Nazi armored divisions were hurled into the area between Caen and Caumont, 20 miles southwest, seized in the hard British punch.

The U.S. Fourth division fought the Germans fiercely for Montebourg, 14 miles southeast of the strategic port of Cherbourg, and the great guns of the British battleships Rodney and Ramilles thundered in support of the British fight to hold Troarn, town seven miles from Caen taken in an outflanking drive on that bastion to the east.

Both Germans and the Allies have fought into and been thrown out of Montebourg and Troarn in the last 24 hours, headquarters said.

The greatest single striking force of planes in war's history—1,500 American Liberators and Flying Fortresses—battered targets in France and Germany today in air support of the invasion.

Striking as he often did against Field Marshal Erwin Rommel in the African desert, Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, Allied ground commander, sent tanks rumbling south of Bayeux along the central sector of the front.

A fierce German counter-attack was made on British forces in newly-captured Troarn in an attempt to blunt or cut off a Montgomery pincer coming to flank Caen on the east.

It was the old Montgomery tactic of attacking on the flanks to cut off a large force of Germans and take them prisoner or destroy them rather than push them back.

On the western end of the Allied beachhead, now enlarged to a 100-mile fighting front, American sent armored forces to break a deadlock at Carentan, six miles across the sea. The German radio acknowledged a Nazi withdrawal west and north of Carentan "to spare German lives."

This several-mile withdrawal would put Americans between half and two-thirds of the way across the Cherbourg peninsula at its narrowest point.

A Transocean broadcast said the Nazis had lost Tilly-Sur-Seules, which several times has changed hands. The Germans said Allied tank thrusts south of Caumont and near Tilly-Sur-Seules were broken up and destroyed.

The Allies, added today by fair weather, already have seized a foothold in France of 600 to 700 square miles, and captured more than 10,000 prisoners. Allied officers estimate 250,000 Germans are engaged in Normandy. Berlin, apparently trying to picture Allied successes as due to overwhelming numbers, has placed the figure of Allied soldiers as high as 500,000.

The Allied drive has placed the ground forces out of range of warships in many places on the bridgehead for the first time. American and British battleships still are supporting the flanks of the battle area, but the center is rolling on with the aid of air support only.

The whole Normandy invasion has depended to a great extent on the Allied air superiority, it was said at headquarters, and the Allied bombardment and strafing attacks have had "marvelous" delaying action on German reserves despite frequent bad weather.

Federal Tax Sales Are Still Lagging

Sale of federal use stamps for motor vehicles continued at a slow pace Wednesday morning, with only 6 stamps issued since their sale opened Saturday morning at Big Spring postoffice.

Only 16 days remain in which to purchase the stamps, which are $5 each, before the deadline set under federal regulations.

Motion Overruled For Rehearing in Littlefield Case

AUSTIN, June 14 (AP)—The Court of Criminal Appeals today overruled the state's motion for a rehearing in the case of Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron, whose conviction of assault to murder Dr. Roy Hunt of Littlefield was reversed by the high court last March.

The Appellate Court reversed the conviction because the trial court (in Lamb county) admitted improper testimony tending to show that Mrs. Ruth Newton, wife of Dr. Newton, was in Littlefield on the night of the roadside shooting of Dr. Hunt.

This testimony was to the effect that Dr. Hunt received three phone calls from a person he identified to guests in his home that night as Mrs. Newton. He informed the guests who called but in their testimony the guests did not say that it was Mrs. Newton.

The state contended this was admissible testimony but the court ruling on the rehearing motion rejected this contention.

Mrs. Newton was indicted with her husband but has not been tried.

The attempt on Dr. Hunt's life occurred on the night of May 21, 1942.

Seventeen months later Dr. Hunt and his wife were found brutally slain, in their Littlefield home, by their six-year-old daughter. A former convict has been indicted in the slaying but has not been tried.

Troops Capture Important Point Near Orbetello

ROME, June 14 (AP)—Fifth army elements have swung around the heavily-defended strong point of Orbetello, 71 miles northwest of Rome, and captured the important junction of highways No. 1 and 74, some four and a half miles beyond the town, Allied headquarters announced today.

Reconnaissance elements pushed still further north.

"In the coastal sector our troops, having encountered increased resistance south of Orbetello, developed their strength in the mountains and late June 12 cut the road junction of highways No. 1 and 74. Reconnaissance elements are moving farther north," said a headquarters communique.

To the east the Eighth army advanced 60 miles north of Rome. Gains also were made both east and west of Lake Bolsena and Allied troops were closing in on Narni, seven and a half miles below Terni and 43 miles due north of Rome.

Meanwhile the Eighth army continued to march up the Tiber valley on a broad front and armored units penetrated several miles north of Magliana.

These troops were advancing under heavy shell fire directed from observation posts high in the hills. Two thousand shells screamed down on the forward troops two days ago, the Germans apparently having determined to give every possible shell from their dumps as they fell back.

The Germans were planting teller mines whenever they had time, and continued demolitions on a wide scale.

Tattered remnants thrown in to slow the Allied advance even included a number of cavalry units and much horse-drawn artillery.

Cotton Amendment Downed By House

WASHINGTON, June 14 (AP)—In a major victory for the administration, the House beat down today the Senate-approved Bankhead-Brown cotton textile amendment to the price control extension bill.

The vote came after House Majority Leader McCormack of Massachusetts, told the House President Roosevelt would veto the measure extending price controls for another year, if it contained this amendment.

Declaring the proposal was inflationary, McCormack declared: "I cannot conceive of the bill becoming law with this amendment, unless over the veto of the President."

Southern Democrats voted almost solidly for the cotton textile amendment, revising textile ceilings to reflect a parity price for raw cotton and assure textile mills a reasonable profit.

Package Store Owner Killed In Shooting

FORT WORTH, June 14 (AP)—William Eldridge Selden, operator of a package store at Azle, was killed and State Liquor Inspector Paul L. Jordan wounded in a shooting last night near Azle, 14 miles from Fort Worth on the Jackboro highway.

Cooperation Of French, Allies Is Impaired

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—In the final hours before the start of the invasion of France, General Charles De Gaulle is reported here to have suddenly canceled the orders of several hundred French officers scheduled to land with the first waves of Allied troops.

Reports from General Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters to the highest military officials here disclosed today that as a result, cooperation between the French population and Allied armies has been impaired in the occupied Normandy areas.

This is true, according to officials who are investigating the situation now, even though De Gaulle finally relented to the extent of allowing twenty French officers to go along with the forces assigned to liberate their homeland.

De Gaulle's action with respect to the officers is said to be probably the most important new factor entering into the background of a proposed meeting between President Roosevelt and the leader of the French National Committee here either late this month or early in July.

This action of De Gaulle was understood to have strengthened the White House and State Department decision against recognizing the liberation committee as France's provisional government.

It was to obtain such recognition that De Gaulle sent word he would like to see the President.

Another thorn in the side of the White House and State Department is the doubt being cast upon the validity of Allied invasion currency used by Eisenhower's troops.

Mr. Roosevelt went into the currency question yesterday at his press conference.

The French committee, he said, had urged that Allied troops fighting on French soil not use American dollars as they did in North Africa. So it was decided to issue francs at an exchange rate of 50 to the dollar and 200 to the pound sterling. This decision, as well as the design of the money and other details, the President said, was worked out with representatives of the French committee.

DOWNTOWN STROLLER

AT BOND HEADQUARTERS
If you want to get a look at types of gas and prevention of gas effects take a stroll downtown past Swartz's window. Through the assistance of the Chemical Warfare division of the AAFBS, the store secured a display that includes incendiary bombs, gas masks, smoke grenades, various types of gas such as Lewisite and Mustard; cluster and magnesium bombs, and various protective capes and ointments. According to CLARINDA MARY SANDERS, who helped to decorate the window, handling such loaded tools was nerve wracking work until it was finished.

Bond headquarters at the gas company resembles Grand Central Station these mornings with men and women both reporting for bond kits, wanting to purchase bonds, and the telephone ringing like mad with people wanting various information.

Wednesday morning the service club men were present at 9 a. m. at headquarters to start on a canvas of the downtown business areas. K. H. MCGIBBON and JACK SMITH were bragging about the number of workers their clubs had present—each one pushing up the figure every time they talked.

MRS. G. T. HALL was down early Wednesday morning also to get her kit for the College His. P. T. A. CLUB which was on tap to sell bonds. It was only 10 a. m. but she claimed she had done a day's work already. And that is the case of most of the women who are getting up early these days to get "things done up" before going downtown to sell bonds.

Only One Inquiry Made

Only one inquiry regarding elementary summer school was received Tuesday morning by W. C. Blankenship, superintendent, and expectations were that plans for elementary school this summer would be abandoned. Only four students had reported Monday they were interested in a summer session. The only remaining possibility of holding such a session appeared to be whether teachers planning to serve wished to check with other students whose names had previously been submitted as prospective summer school students.

PIN-WORMS GO! New Treatment Gets Real Results

Anyone who has ever had Pin-Worms knows how tormenting and embarrassing this affliction can be, and how hard it is to eliminate the irritating creatures once they get a foothold inside the body. Millions of people—rich and poor, children and grown-ups—have suffered in silence with the misery of Pin-Worms, and doctors have tried for years to find a way to deal with the pest. Old-fashioned worm "cures" usually don't work on Pin-Worms. Today, thanks to an important scientific discovery (a remarkable drug known as gentian violet), a new and highly effective treatment has been hailed by doctors. This drug is the vital element in P-W, the new Pin-Worm tablets developed by the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son, America's leading specialists in worm medicine.

P-W seems to get to the source of Pin-Worms. The small, convenient P-W tablets act in a special way to destroy the creature. Don't take chances with Pin-Worms! Just ask your druggist for P-W, and be sure to follow the directions. P-W means Pin-Worm relief!

"If everyone is working like the women on this drive," Mrs. Orme said, "the bond quota should be made in far shorter time than anticipated."

Groups Work In Bond Booths Tuesday

Women bond salesmen at downtown booths Tuesday included a group of women from the Kiwanis Queens, West Ward P. T. A. Girl Scouts and leaders, and members of the B. & P. W. club.

Those workers from the Kiwanis auxiliary were Mrs. S. M. Smith, Mrs. W. B. Hardy, Mrs. John Davis, and Mrs. Clyde Walts. Women from the West Ward P. T. A. were Mrs. John Newman and Mrs. A. B. Brown. Scout workers were Peggy Toops, Mrs. M. S. Toops and Mrs. Walter Brown.

The Business and Professional Woman's club, which has agreed to handle all sales at the Ritz theater for the duration of the drive, were Mrs. L. A. Zubanks and Elizabeth Stanford.

Clubs and organizations to take over sales on Thursday will be the Trainmen Ladies at the State National bank; the Engineer Ladies at the First National bank; Firemen Ladies at Bond Headquarters; and B. & P. W. at the Ritz.

Mrs. Douglas Orme, women's bond chairman, said that during the first two days of the drive every club appointed to serve had sent representatives in quantity and some clubs had even volunteered to serve more days than they had been assigned. "If everyone is working like the women on this drive," Mrs. Orme said, "the bond quota should be made in far shorter time than anticipated."

Rains Improve Range And Crop Prospects

AUSTIN, June 14 (AP)—May rains greatly improved Texas and crop prospects and one result is an anticipated wheat crop of 61,095,000 bushels, second only to the record 1931 production of 67,983,000 bushels, the U. S. department of agriculture reported.

The report, based on conditions of June 1, said ranges were 88 per cent of normal compared with 79 per cent a month earlier. Exceptions to generally good conditions were in parts of the Pecos-El Paso area, some counties in the South Plains and others in the northwest plateau.

The department's report forecast better than average crops of oats and barley, an average peach crop, good prospects for pears and largely favorable citrus prospects.

War Bonds Buy Block - Busters

By WILLIAM F. BONI
AP Features
WITH STILLWELL'S FORCES IN THE MOGAUNG VALLEY — An order comes from headquarters for you to pick up stakes, head for a new assignment and in cleaning house among the months' accumulation of jungle-molded papers you come across one as yet unfulfilled request.

It is for a brief story to be used in connection with the new war bond drive.

At first like any other correspondent, you wonder why anybody need be urged to buy bonds — wonder whether, perhaps, you as a profession have not painted war's picture in enough of its horrible clarity. You wonder that and then you wonder whether the man who buys a bond realizes what share that gives him in the war effort.

When he puts down money for a bond, he doesn't know where it goes except into the war effort. Thus it gives him a share in the war as a whole.

His bond may pay for gasoline that powers a tiny liaison plane which rescues a badly wounded

BOMB BOMBS—War loans buy the block-busters that rain on Nazi Europe and help speed the war's end.

Merrill marauder from the Burma jungle just in time to save his life. It may be in a bomb released from a P-40's wing rack which smashes a Japanese battery and thus weakens the retreating enemy's artillery which has been pounding Chinese infantrymen in the Hukawng-Mogaung valley for almost six months without a break.

That bond may go into a truck which an American negro boy handles over a road hub-deep in mud or possibly the load of sorely needed medical supplies which that truck is carrying.

It may be represented by the uniform of a gentle, efficient nurse at a forward field hospital or by a carbine which "Uncle Joe" Stillwell slings over his shoulder when this soldier's general takes off on one of his frequent inspection tours of the front lines.

That bond puts you as a buyer aboard an aircraft carrier whose planes bomb Palau or in the bomb bay of a Flying Fortress on a mission over Berlin; in a landing barge scraping the beach on a north New Guinea coast; in a P-51; a torpedo that sinks a Japanese supply ship bound for Rangoon or in a Tommy gun that drops a Jap sniper out of a tree in north Burma.

That bond gives you all the privileges without any of the hardships or the hardships of a fighting war. You needn't slog along through mud that makes each step an effort nor fill your nostrils with the stench of enemy dead. You needn't subsist for days on canned rations nor sleep nights on end in a slimy foxhole. You needn't take cover from strafing by Zeroes nor sweat out hour-long artillery barrages.

Tighter Editorial Control Laid Down

WASHINGTON, June 14 (AP)—Director Elmer Davis of the Office of War Information was disclosed today to have laid down a "tighter editorial control" over the contents of magazines OWI publishes for overseas distribution.

Acting Chairman McKellar (D-Tenn.) of the Senate Appropriations Committee had criticized a recent issue of Victory (Cap. V) magazine, an OWI publication printed in several foreign languages, for an article which he said led people to think that United States is promising relief to "take care of 20,000,000 people, wandering homeless in Europe."

McKellar's statement and Davis' reply were contained in testimony released after executive hearings on the $1,527,518,000 war agencies appropriation bill containing $58,625,000 for the OWI, an increase of about $30,000,000 over the current year's appropriation.

What's the Cost of a Wooden Cross?

Every white wooden cross that marks the grave of an American fighting man is paid for in full—with a gold star, a handful of bitter-sweet memories . . . and an empty heart at home.

It's tough to die alone, far from your loved ones, with the feel of the metal that's biting out your life—but some fighting man is dying that miserable death right now, because our country asks it of him.

When a Victory Volunteer asks you to double your bond buying during the Fifth War Loan, think of the cost of a wooden cross before you answer—think of the price some soldier—and his family—is paying at that very instant. Then pledge every dollar you can. Because you have an American heart—because it's your country and your duty.

And Here Are 5 MORE Reasons for Buying EXTRA Bonds in the 5th

1. War Bonds are the "best," "the safest" investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the War.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

Ring Dust In His Eyes— Dancing Master Makes Comeback

By JAMES JORDAN
AP Features

PITTSBURGH — Billy Miller, Pittsburgh's "Cinderella Boy" of boxing, is knocking on the lightweight title gates these days after winning 26 straight fights in little more than eight months of a so-called "comeback."

The elusive little Irish dancing master gave up boxing as a bad job almost three years ago. Bad luck had dogged him consistently, through an in-and-out career that, apparently, got him exactly nowhere in the ring.

Quit The Ring
He'd win a few. Then something would happen and he'd falter. Eventually, managers and promoters turned thumbs down. When he did fight, it was for peanuts. So he quit the ring.

But the lure of the ropes and resin was ever-present, and Billy continued to haunt the gymnasiums. He kept in shape with occasional workouts, by running, and by wrestling the freight he hauled—and still hauls—on his big semi-trailer truck.

"I wanted to fight, and still thought I could make something of it if I had any luck at all," the retiring, soft-voiced battler said. "But I couldn't get a good fight, and I didn't want to fight for nothing."

One day he approached Harry Pittler, manager of Ossie (Bulldog) Harris and other fighters—and that was when his meteoric rise really began.

"I didn't have too much hope for him," Pittler says. "On his record he didn't look like the 'name' fighter he has become. But he was so polite and so sincere I couldn't turn him down."

While Pittler's guiding hand undoubtedly had much to do with Miller's rise from obscurity, the genial manager gives most of the credit to Harry McManus, his trainer, who helped Billy with his footwork until he earned the "dancing master" title.

His first important victory under Pittler's management came over Benny Goldberg several months ago—only the second defeat in Goldberg's quite impressive record. It was then Billy knew he was "in."

Miller isn't a terrific puncher, but wins his fights through his masterful footwork, a flicking left hand and a fast right.

Perfect Gentleman
The perfect gentleman outside the ring, inordinately polite and actually bashful among strangers, Miller is the antithesis of what the man in the street expects of a top-flight boxer. There is no brusqueness, no braggadocio about him. Instead, it always is "yes sir," and "no sir," and when he signs an autograph it is "thank you."

BILLY MILLER

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON

NEW YORK, June 14 (AP)—This week's Red Cross golf show at Wykagyl, arranged on rather short notice, had more than $10,000 advance ticket sales plus $28,000 worth of program ads.

Wonder how the no-tournament U. S. G. A. feels about that? One reason for excelling the open and amateur for the duration was the long and expensive preparation required.

Slingin' Sammy
Sammy Baugh turned in times of 18.8 and 12.6 seconds in the calf roping contest at a recent Abilene, Tex., rodeo. Football folks will say he always was handy at throwing that cow hide.

Service dept.—
Eddie Waitkus, former Cubs' first sacker now in New Guinea, is worried about his old club's standing. "Every time we get a box score out here I have to sneak around corners," Eddie writes.

George Titus, last year's Holy Cross grid captain, doesn't plan to play football at the Chapel Hill, N. C., navy pre-flight school next fall because it might interfere with his training. And George Connor, the big Crusader tackle, has the same idea about the midshipmen's school at Notre Dame, which he will enter in July.

Since the first wholesale transfer of army baseball players, which almost wrecked the team, Fort Bragg, N. C., has lost Alvin Klutts and Charlie Lockman, both good minor leaguers, as well as the one and only Van Mungo.

Cleaning the cuff—
Dick Triptow, the De Paul U. basketball player, signed with the Cubs, Erwin, Tenn., farm as an outfielder right after his graduation.

Knute Rockne, Jr., is in the Aleutians with the armed forces. His younger brother, Jackie, has just taken preliminary vows in the Franciscan order.

Ray Dumont, who hopes to have 25,000 folks see his test of "reverse base running" at Wichita, Kan., Aug. 11, is trying to get "Wrong Way" Corrigan as one of the base umpires.

Vitamin B-1 Gives Gus New Outlook

NEW YORK, June 14 (AP)—Those vitamin B-1 tablets, to which Mel Ott attributes his remarkable home run surge, have given ancient Gus Mancuso a new lease on life.

One of the oldest catchers in the major leagues in point of service, with the exception of Rollie Hemaley, of the New York Yankees, Mancuso apparently has won the New York Giants' first string receiving job from Ernie Lombardi.

Inserted into a revised lineup on May 23, the swarthy 38-year-old Texan made two hits and drove in a pair of runs. Since then, Gus has been hitting timely, drawing frequent bases on balls and handling the pitchers flawlessly. Including Tuesday's game, Mancuso has caught 15 of the last 19 games and made 16 hits in 43 at bats for an average of .372. Besides, he has coaxed nine free passes.

"Yes, I've been taking the same pills Ottie has and they're wonderful. I take a shot every night before I go to bed," Gus says.

Mancuso credits the vitamins for his increase in speed. Of late, he has been going from first to third on an outfield hit and has even outlegged a couple of infield hits.

Beavers Clean Out Concho; Ready Stream For Fishing

The hopes of many a fisherman are expressed by W. F. Kellis, publisher of the Sterling City News-Record, in an article which he wrote recently for Texas Game and Fish magazine concerning North Concho river and the return of the beaver.

It's hard to visualize North Concho as one of the best flaking streams in the country, but years ago it was recognized as such and was

Youths Recruited For Summer Jobs

AUSTIN, June 14 (AP)—When the manpower situation became knotty in East Texas Horace Kirshner, area director of the War Manpower Commission, figured high school students below the draft age could solve summer problems for many an employer.

Kirshner staged a 30-day recruitment campaign and to date 374 of 767 youths who registered have jobs in railroad, food processing and pulpwood industries.

Some of the results:
The Judson consolidated high school football team is working for the Texas and Pacific railroad at Longview.

The Palestine and Frankton high school teams are working for a pulp mill.
The Henderson high school team is working in a tomato packing shed.

Gas Assn. To Start Research Program

HOUSTON, June 14 (AP)—The Natural Gasoline Association of America is organizing a cooperative research program to study the new problem of corrosion of high-pressure production equipment. Thomas S. Bacon announced today before the meeting of the Southwestern division of production, American Petroleum Institute.

Bacon, a research engineer for the Lone Star Producing company, Dallas, said that a NGAA committee recently appointed to study this problem "has concluded that it is of such magnitude that the industry should superimpose a centralized research program on the various individual research efforts that are under way at present."

Among high-pressure fields in which corrosion occurs, said Bacon, are Chapel Hill in Smith county, Long Lake in Anderson, Willow Springs in Gregg, North McFaddin in Victoria, Opelika in Henderson, Orchard in Fort Bend, Katy in Waller and Cayuga in Anderson.

High pressure fields in which corrosion has not been observed include Agua Dulce in Nueces county, Caplin in Galveston, Flour Bluff in Nueces, Labella and Lovells Lake in Jefferson, Riverdale in Nueces and Willow Slough in Chambers county.

Britain has supplied over 80 per cent of the current stocks of U. S. Army post exchanges in England.

Women Pair Off For Quarterfinal Tennis Matches

DETROIT, June 14 (AP)—The eight seeded players in the women's division were paired off today in quarterfinal matches of the national clay court tournament at the Detroit tennis club, taking the play away from Francisco Segura of Coral Gables, Fla., and Billy Talbert of Indianapolis, who are threading their way toward the men's finals.

Top-seeded and defending champion Pauline Betz of Los Angeles faced fifth-ranking Shirley Fry of Akron, O., and second ranking Doris Hart of Miami, Fla., opposed sixth seeded Catherine Wolf of Elkhart, Ind. Other pairings were Dorothy May Bundy, No. 3, Santa Monica, Calif., vs. Connie Clifton, No. 8, New Smyrna Beach, Fla., and Mary Arnold, No. 4, Los Angeles, vs. Nancy Corbett, No. 7, River Forest, Ill.

Meanwhile, Segura and Talbert were expected to head the advance in the men's division to the quarterfinals leading up to Sunday's finals. Top ranking Segura hammered out a 6-0, 6-2 decision yes-

Armstrong Returns To Madison Square Garden

NEW YORK, June 14 (AP)—Henry Armstrong, former triple crown champion, returns to the Madison Square Garden ring tomorrow night against Bummy Davis, a dangerous left hand puncher. Henry, who lost a 10-round decision to Ray "Sugar" Robinson in the last previous appearance at the Garden, was a 2 to 1 favorite.

Today over Mack Taylor of the University of Detroit, and Talbert eliminated Gene Vash of Chicago, 6-1, 6-2.

Segura's opponent today was Bill Sayres of Detroit, and Navy Lt. A. W. Angstadt of the Grosse Ile, Mich., naval air base was to meet Talbert.

Miss Betz, complaining of a lame shoulder opened her title defense by defeating Ruth Miho of Los Angeles without the loss of a game. Miss Bundy wasted little time in a 6-0, 6-1 conquest of Gloria Thompson of St. Louis. Eighth-ranking Robert Lewis of Salt Lake City defaulted.

Six Arrested At Park.

PHILADELPHIA, June 14 (AP)—Acting upon baseball fans' complaints, vice squad detectives went into Shibe Park yesterday and arrested six men on gambling charges in the doubleheader between the Boston Braves and the Phillies.

From five of the men, accused of bookmaking, the detectives took a total of $4,210. The sixth man, they said, served as a "look-out," who was supposed to tip the others off to the presence of police.

WMC NUDGES WORKERS WITH A GENERAL HINT

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE WASHINGTON, June 14 (AP)—Now what kind of war job could you recommend for a gigolo, politely known as a professional escort for lonely women?

Ideas like that today. A liontamer? What could he do? WMC says he could be a mounted policeman or a cowboy.

All of that is not a complete list of the jobs which WMC says the above could fill. But it gives you an idea. The list is called the "job family."

BENEFICIAL AIDS PROVIDED IN BILL FOR GI JOES AND JANES

WASHINGTON, June 14 (AP)—Educational, loan, unemployment and job-finding aids are provided for "G. I. Joes and Janes" in a bill now awaiting President Roosevelt's signature.

Here are some questions and answers to guide service men and women attempting to determine their prospects under the congressionally approved "G. I. Bill of Rights" for returning World War II veterans:

Committee

In a section of the report dealing with Rohl's "personal background," the committee said "Rohl knew, and was in some degree associated with, a man by the name of Werner Plack, who, according to evidence on file with the committee, was connected with the German consulate at Los Angeles and who later, according to reports, proceeded to Japan and thence to Germany."

Q. To whom does it apply? A. Generally speaking to any man or woman who "shall have served in the active military or naval service" for as much as 90 days at any time after Sept. 16, 1940, and prior to the close of the war, who is discharged under conditions "other than dishonorable."

Q. Who is entitled to unemployment compensation and how much? A. A veteran may draw $20 for each week up to a maximum of 52 weeks for unemployment occurring within two years after discharge on the basis of four weeks compensation for every week of active service.

Q. Could a veteran, though unemployed, be denied payment? A. Yes, if he leaves "suitable" work voluntarily, without good cause, is discharged for misconduct, or fails to apply for "suitable" work to which he has been referred by a public employment agency.

Q. What educational benefits are provided? A. The government will guarantee a minimum of one year's schooling for any veteran of 90 days or more service whose education was interrupted by the war and up to four years where the student's progress and length of service justifies. The student will select his or her own school.

Mrs. Farmer Resigns From Committee

HOUSTON, June 14 (AP)—Mrs. James F. Farmer of Fort Worth has submitted her resignation as a member of the state democratic executive committee, and withdrawn her name as an independent candidate for presidential elector, Chairman George A. Butler of the state committee announced today.

Mrs. Farmer is a sister-in-law of Chief Justice James P. Alexander of the state supreme court, before which the pro-Roosevelt forces are seeking a mandatory injunction to compel the state committee to certify the names of their electors of the July primary ballot.

Smith Asks For Bond Support

Rev. H. C. Smith appealed today to Lions to respond to Fifth War Loan appeals as a matter of good citizenship.

There is no point in dragging out the campaign, he believed, when it is a matter of good citizenship to get about doing the job as rapidly as possible "so that we can get it behind us in a few days and go on to some other things that need to be done."

Rev. Smith, who is chairman of the bond drive speakers committee, said that he was "amazed that we have not already exceeded our quota" in view of the remarkable demonstration given by Allied troops in invading the continent.

"It seems to me," he said, "that American people would be literally flocking to bond booths." If there were no patriotic or citizenship angles involved, he said, then it would still be "a smart thing to do by investing in bonds to scotch against another depression."

Jack Douglass called attention of the club to the Flag Day retreat at 8 p. m. on the courthouse square, and Ted Groebel, bond drive chairman, urged members to get busy on the bond campaign.

Texas Today Shape Of Japanese War

By WALTER LIPPMANN While the general shape of the German war has been fixed and clear since the Moscow and Teheran conferences, the same cannot yet be said of the Japanese war. Great political developments of the utmost military importance must take place before the plan of the Japanese defeat is settled.

We must bear in mind that though Japan is an island empire with a navy, her war-making power is primarily the army. Alexander Kiralfy, a leading authority on the subject, tells us that "the Japanese Navy has been a floating wing of a powerful army occupied with offensive operations."

To defeat it, we must find the means of organizing a superior army on the mainland of Asia. We can bomb Japan from China and from the Pacific islands that we intend to take, and we can blockade Japan from the oceanic side. But we cannot assume that a very strong army can be defeated by sea and air power alone.

FDR Approves Bill For Court Martial

WASHINGTON, June 14 (AP) — Against the recommendation of the secretaries of war and navy, President Roosevelt has approved legislation providing for starting the Pearl Harbor courts martial before Dec. 7, 1944.

Presidential Secretary Stephen Early announced that the President approved the legislation last night, several days after the June 7 deadline for the trials had expired.

In an accompanying statement, the President expressed confidence that Congress does not intend for investigations of the Pearl Harbor raid to interfere with the war effort in any way.

While Rear Admiral Husband E. Kimmel and Maj. General Walter C. Short, commanding at Pearl Harbor when the Japanese struck, have waived the statute of limitations as to trial in their cases, an indefinite number of other persons are affected by the legislation.

Rains Save Mexico From Power Rationing

MEXICO CITY, June 14 (AP) — Monday night's heavy rainfall saved this capital from drastic rationing of electric light and power, local government officials said.

Water behind the dams of the great hydroelectric plant at Necaxa had almost become exhausted, they said, and a few more days of drought would have made severe rationing inevitable. The Necaxa plant supplies all this region with electricity.

Engineers returning from Necaxa said that the water behind the dams was rising rapidly. In a few hours it had risen over four feet and continued pouring in.

Railway reports indicated that the downpour was general throughout southern Mexico, causing considerable damage to tracks and upsetting traffic. Especially was this the case throughout the state of Vera Cruz and the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, where long stretches of track were washed out. Other railway lines which suffered from inundations were those from here to Acambaro, from here to Queretaro (the Laredo Line) and from Guadalajara to Colima and Manzanillo.

Mrs. Odis White left Tuesday evening via American Airlines for Carson City, Nev., where she will spend several weeks. Enroute she stopped in Los Angeles, Calif., and visited with Mary Ruth Diltz of Long Beach and former resident of Big Spring.

Postoffice May Provide Mail Notes

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — A householder wishing to pay a small bill by mail may soon be able to do so by using a new safe and inexpensive method proposed by the postoffice department.

Early action by the Senate Post Office Committee is expected on a House-approved bill, providing a postal-note system for transmitting small amounts of money by mail. The bill would permit postmasters to issue such notes in fixed denominations of 10 cents, 50 cents, one dollar and in multiples of 50 cents up to and including $10. Odd cents would be included in the form of adhesive postal-note stamps. These would cost five cents each.

Saving to Public

Under the new revenue act, fees for regular postal money orders up to $10 range from 10 to 19 cents. Orders may be purchased for amounts up to $100, but since 70 per cent of the business is for sums of $10 or less, the new low-cost service would represent considerable savings to citizens. It would relieve the post office department of considerable book-keeping. The accounting necessitated by the present money order system has cost the department at least one cent on each money order issued—and during the last fiscal year over 348,000,000 were handled. Banks, too, have found the handling of money orders burdensome and have requested relief from the post office department.

The post office department hopes, too, that the new system will discourage people from sending coin, currency and postage stamps in the mails.

The notes would be valid for two calendar months from the date of issue, could not be endorsed to another person. If their cost should exceed expectations, the postmaster general would boost the fee to six cents, or, if feasible, lower it to three cents.

Like System in 1800's

The post office department has had authority to issue postal notes since 1911, but in order to tack on the odd cents, it had to get the law amended by Congress. For a while in the late 1800's a postal note system operated and the number of notes issued doubled at that time.

The department pointed out in its report to the House Post Office Committee that the post office is the only organization that provides to all the people a way to transmit money. Banks and other organizations performing a like service are located only in cities and large towns and along railways, it explained.

Col. Leroy Rainey Named Temporary Commander Of Unit

The 34th Flying Training Wing, which has headquarters at San Angelo and has jurisdiction over fields at Big Spring and several other cities, has a new temporary commander, Col. Leroy A. Rainey, recently returned from combat duty.

The new commander succeeds Col. Walter H. Reid, who now has command of the army air field at Monroe, La.

The training wing has jurisdiction over bombardier schools at San Angelo, Midland, Big Spring and Childress and is assigned two four engine transition schools, at Fort Worth and Liberal, Kas., and two twin-engine training schools at Del Rio and Dodge City, Kas.

Col. Rainey received his wings and commission as a second lieutenant at Kelly Field in 1933. He served in several posts and at outbreak of war joined the Second air force as squadron commanding officer and later became bombardment group commanding officer. Shortly afterward he was transferred to the European theater to command a Flying Fortress group, where he saw service in raids over Sardinia, Corsica, Sicily, Africa, Italy, southern France, southern Germany and the Balkans, leading 53 raids and amassing 337 combat hours. He has been decorated 17 times. He returned to the states several months ago and reported to the Flying Training Command at Fort Worth before going to San Angelo.

Solons Puzzle Over Leaks In Censorship

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Senators trying to find the source of censorship leaks pursued today a trail crowded with potential suspects.

Convinced, he said, that hundreds of employees of the State Department alone had access to secret war files, Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) confessed he felt "lost."

Less pessimistic, Senator Reed (R-Kan.) said that while the post-office subcommittee "hasn't struck pay dirt," it "may have hit a vein."

The committee learned from questioning State Department division heads yesterday that scores of employees, down as far as the $1,620-a-year level, could have had access to correspondence between Miss Vivien Kellens, Connecticut war plant operator, and Count Frederick von Zedlitz, a German living in Buenos Aires, and now on the State Department blacklist as a representative of Herman Goering's metals syndicate, Metallgesellschaft.

The investigation was prompted by the broadcast of excerpts from the letters by Drew Pearson, news commentator, and their publication in a speech to the House by Representative Coffee (D-Wash.)

Under committee subpoena, to make his action "formal," Censorship Director Byron Price submitted the original correspondence to the committee yesterday.

An Advertisement Addressed to Buyers of BLACK MARKET Gasoline

Phillips 66

Phillips production of 100-octane gasoline could fuel enough Flying Forts to drop 3,000 tons of bombs on the "Invasion Coast" every day!

Gasoline shortage on the home front is a grim reality, and gasoline rationing is our American system of sharing the available supplies fairly, in accordance with car-owners' essential needs.

Why is gasoline short? . . . Re-read the headline above. It is presented not in boastful spirit, but in explanation of one of the vital military uses of the gasoline which you cannot purchase.

Remember, Phillips is only one of many producers of 100-octane aviation gasoline, of butadiene for synthetic rubber, of various fuels for ships and tanks and combat cars. The petroleum raw materials which go into the literally oceans of these military fuels are obviously not available for the manufacture of civilian supplies of gasoline.

Every Black Market purchase reduces the already greatly diminished pool of gasoline which must suffice for our country's essential transportation needs. That is why no thinking, patriotic American will be a Black Buyer. And without Black Buyers there can be no Black Markets.

So do your patriotic part to break the Black Market in gasoline: Endorse every gasoline ration coupon in your possession. Don't accept any gasoline at any price without giving up coupons. And most important of all, use the legal gasoline you buy for essential driving only.
