ABOUT OVER - It's been a hot one, but it's about over. Voters of Texas will go to the polls Saturday to select one of these men, Ralph Yarborough, left, or Gov. Balloting Record Is Forecast

County Judge Race Seen As Toss-Up

Three close races - for governor, county judge and county commissioner - and the highest second primary vote in Gray County history today indicated a record turnout at the polls Saturday.

The polls will be open for the Democratic runoff primary from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. Saturday in the county's 18 voting precincts.

A total of 345 absentee ballots late this morning had been registered in the office of County Clerk Charlie Thut, who says it is the highest absentee vote ever in the county for a runoff primary and "pretty close" to a record for any primary. There were still 14 mail ballots out that could be returned by 1 p. m. Saturday, provided they were postmarked before last Tuesday midnight.

There are 6,903 registered voters in Gray County and conservative estimates have it that at least 5,000 of them will turn out at the polls. Others put the figure higher. Actually, there are more than 6,903 persons in the county who can vote, for those 60 and over who live outside Pampa do not have to apply for an exemption, therefore there is no record of the number of such persons.

That is the reason the two voting boxes in McLean ran out of ballots July 24, date of the first Democratic primary. County Demo Secy. Bob Baker this morning said he had sent down an extra batch of ballots to McLean this time.

The extra-large turnout at the polls is expected because three strong incumbents are being opposed.

Chiang Reinforces Protective Island

Commie Raiders Hit Near Formosa

TAIPEH, Formosa, Aug. 27 - UP - Nationalist China said Friday it was rushing more troops, ships and airplanes to Quemoy, Kinmen island, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's little bastion off the China coast, which was attacked Monday night by Red Chinese raiders.

Nationalist spokesmen said troop reinforcements would strengthen the already heavily defended little island which lies only 10 to 115 miles away from the mainland port of Amoy.

Air patrols have been doubled and the navy moved closer to the shipping beaches where the Red Chinese last two divisions in a previous futile attempt to wrest the windswept island from Chiang.

"Naval Party of 40"

Peiping radio announced that a "naval party" of 40 men raided the island Monday and made a successful withdrawal after killing or wounding "more than 10" Nationalist Chinese soldiers.

The Nationalists said the Reds retreated hastily after they had snatched ashore and had "kidnaped" a Chinese Nationalist.

Nationalist officials said the island would be defended to the last man, should the Red Chinese attack again in force.

The Nationalists have dug pillboxes 13 feet thick in solid concrete on the beaches and in the hills. They have honeycombed every possible yard of land with overlapping machine-gun positions and modern artillery pieces.

Quemoy (Kinmen), Chiang's prize, is the largest Nationalist-held island within striking distance from the mainland.

Once Haven for Pirates
The tiny island of some 30,000 population once was a haven for pirates who preyed on shipping along the China coast. Chiang has laced the island with modern irrigation ditches. He has built a modern hospital and said it will care for the wounded when he returns to the mainland.

Demos Get Truman Aid In Campaign

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 - UP - Former President Truman Friday was added to the lineup of Democratic bigwigs who will speak their party's bid to wrest control of Congress from the Republicans November.

The Democratic National committee announced the former president, who has been campaigning from an operation, will make his first major campaign speech at a Kansas City Democratic dinner Sept. 14.

The committee said Mr. Truman has promised to take the stump for Democratic congressional candidates this fall "to the extent his health will permit." Party strategists had not known whether Mr. Truman's condition would permit him to play an active role in the campaign.

Radio, TV Casts Climax Campaign

By UNITED PRESS
The big counties got the attention of Gov. Allan Shivers and Ralph Yarborough Friday, on the eve of Texas gubernatorial runoff, with Shivers in Houston and Yarborough in Dallas.

"This is the showdown," said Shivers Thursday night at Henderson. "I am confident of your decision."

Yarborough, in a daylong campaign at San Antonio, said "our only problem Saturday is to get our majority to the polls."

Schedule Radio Talks
Both candidates scheduled a number of radio and television broadcasts throughout the day to climax the long campaign on the same costly note which has prevailed since June. Total spending through Wednesday topped $423,000, with Shivers accounting for $219,000, and Yarborough $214,000.

Shivers predicted he would win a third term in the Democratic runoff by a "conclusive margin of votes."

"This victory will be one in which all of Texas will share and benefit," he said, "for it will mark the triumph of a principle that Texans hold dear: The right to select their own leadership, even though their choice may not please the national political bosses and the eastern labor bosses and the advocates of centralized government, both home-grown and imported."

Advantage Claimed
He said Yarborough had had the "advantage, in addition to his own well-known muddling abilities, of the combined talents of professional propaganda artists from all over the country - sent into Texas with instructions to beat Allan Shivers, whatever the cost and whatever the means necessary to accomplish that purpose."

But Yarborough, speaking at the Alamo, refused to take credit for one piece of "muddling" attributed to him earlier by Shivers. He denied he had ever attacked Shivers' family or circulated "vile literature" about them.

"I challenge the governor of Texas to name the time and the place where Ralph Yarborough has ever uttered a word against his fine family," he said.

Denies Attack on Family
"It is cheap to attack a man's family and I have never done so," Yarborough said. "By his false accusations, my opponent seeks to smear and blacken my name."

But Yarborough left no doubt of what he thought about Shivers personally. He said the governor's speech at the Alamo Monday night was "almost a sacrilege."

"By immundo, by the flicking of high-powered publicity brushes in paint of many colors, my opponent sought to portray himself as the beleaguered (William B.) Travis and to picture my 645,000 votes in the first primary as an alien army of outsiders," he said.

"That was cheap, that was in bad taste, that was arrogant and it was not in keeping with the high dignity of the governor's office or the respect and reverence all Texans should have for that office."

Brazil Nabs 92 Commies

RIO DE JANEIRO, Aug. 27 - Brazil swung back toward normal Friday following the burial of President Getulio Vargas and the arrest of 92 Communist suspects blamed for the riots that flared after his suicide.

Military authorities and police relaxed security precautions imposed here during the riots that killed four persons and injured 53 in various parts of the country.

Tanks and armored cars were sent back to their bases, and troops were withdrawn from the streets except in Cinelândia, Rio's "Times Square," which had been a focus of Communist agitation.

The U.S. embassy, which had been surrounded by 500 to 600 troops since Vargas committed suicide Tuesday, Friday was guarded only by the military police that customarily patrol the grounds.

Montgomery Ward Stock Fight Begun

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 - UP - Financial wizard Louis E. Wolfson Friday began an all-out campaign to wrest control of the multi-million dollar Montgomery Ward & Co. mail order firm from its ultra-conservative chairman, Sewell Avery.

Wolfson, the 42-year-old son of an immigrant junk dealer, announced his challenge to the Ward management at a press conference Thursday soon after the New York stock market closed.

The financial battle was sure to be reflected Friday in stock dealings. Ward stock on the San Francisco exchange jumped to $78.50 a share after the announcement, almost three points above the New York price of $75.875 at the market close.

Third Big Battle
Wolfson's big announcement heralded the beginning of the third huge battle for control of multi-million dollar corporations this year. Earlier Robert R. Young won control of the New York Central railroad and Patrick McGinnis took over the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad.

Wolfson, who in his short spectacular financial career already has gained control of corporations with assets of more than $200 million, said he and his associates have been buying Ward stock on the open market steadily since early in 1954.

"We believe we now hold the largest block of shares in the company," Wolfson said. He did not reveal how many shares his group held but it is known that 90,000 shares are held by the Affiliated Fund, Inc.

Avery Owns 64,336 Shares
Avery, who has held firm control of Montgomery Ward since 1931, owns only 64,336 shares of the company, less than 1 per cent of the 6.5 million shares outstanding.

Wolfson is a condemned Avery's management of Ward as "a glaring and notorious example of private enterprise in reverse gear."

Ag Days End Today With Tour, Judging

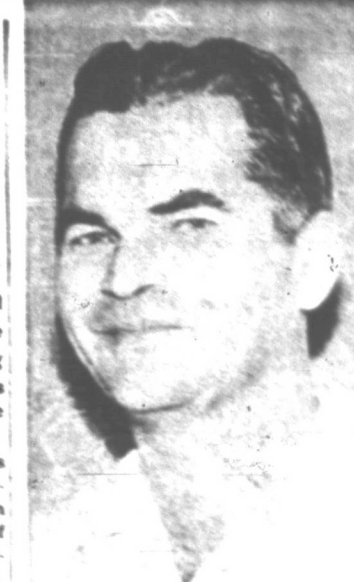

Top o' Texas Agriculture and Livestock Achievement Days were favorably received on the opening day Thursday as some 300 folks attended the evening session of the two-day affair.

Spotlighting Friday's festivities was a tour of conservation and irrigation projects and ranches in the area under the direction of Jim Strawn of the Soil Conservation service, and Ralph Thomas, county agent. Land judging teams of the Future Farmers of America and 4-H clubs in six counties inspected selected fields under the professional eye of James Coover, of the Lubbock Conservation District. Both groups returned to Recreation Park for a solid noon barbecue.

The two-day achievement program comes to a close this afternoon. During the noon barbecue several top Texas livestock, irrigation and conservation specialists will take the speakers rostrum.

Those planning to speak were Bill Wright of the American Hereford Association, A. P. Atkins, member of Board of Directors of National Association of Soil Conservation Districts; Norris Swanson, Amarillo Experiment Station.

Do you think the 83rd Congress merits all the praise given it by President Eisenhower recently?
Fifteen persons were asked that question by the News' Quizzing Cameraman this week. Four persons agree with the President, three disagree, three take the "Middle of the Road" attitude and five persons refused to be quoted.

MRS. BILL MULLINS

The results this week are:
Ernest F. Schmidt, 1216 E. Kingsmill, machinist, "I believe the 83rd Congress did what it thought was best for this country but Congress doesn't always think like we do here at home. In the President's opinion they did a good job and we will have to give him the benefit of the doubt."
Irvin Cole, 1108 Charles, farmer, "Congress deserves most of the credit the President gives it, but only time will tell if some of the changes are for the good of the nation. Congress should help the farmers, laboring people and small independent businessmen and the big corporations can take care of themselves."

Dale Davis, 1021 S. Sumner, TV serviceman, "He thinks they were pretty good, eh, well they haven't done any better than any previous Congress. They have cut down the national budget and that's good."
J. N. Wright, 1237 N. Russell, college student, "They definitely don't deserve all the praise he has given them. No party deserves all the praise given them by their party leaders."
Bruce Brooks, 415 Harlem, cafe owner, "I don't think they deserve that much praise. They have done lots of good things and some that I don't agree with. I will go along with them in their tax cut."

Mrs. Bill Mullins, Ladies, housewife, "I really don't know too much about what Congress has done but 'he' knows better what the congressmen have done for the nation. If he says they have done a good job then who is in a better position to say."
The quizzing cameraman does not pretend to give the view of Mr. and Mrs. Average Pampa, only the opinions of a few persons on subjects of general interest.

Tax Revision Bill Provides Dividend, Retirement Benefits

(Second of two installments) By Washington NEA Bureau
When the time comes for filing that income tax return for 1954, millions of taxpayers will find that the new income tax law has given them a tax break even though it doesn't reduce the income tax rates.

The most controversial tax break in the new law goes to taxpayers receiving dividend income. Retirement income also receives favorable treatment under the new law.

The rules on who is a dependent have been liberalized and the same is true with respect to transportation expenses, insurance and annuity income, and depreciation. And most of the wages received by employees while they are sick will be exempt from tax.

Hundreds of changes have been made in complicated areas such as those involving corporations, trusts and partnerships. Many of these changes give more favorable tax treatment than present law. Others plug loopholes which permitted some taxpayers to escape paying their fair share. For example, windfall profits under F.H.A. loans will be taxed as ordinary income under the new law.

The tax cut on dividend income works this way:

The first $50 of your dividends for 1954 is not included in your income and therefore is not taxed. Dividends in excess of $50 are included in your income, but after computing your tax in the usual way, you get to reduce your tax by four per cent of those dividends included in your income which were received after July 31, 1954. This is called a tax credit.

There is a limit to the amount of the tax credit. For 1954, it cannot total more than two per cent of your taxable income — that is, your income left after subtracting all exemptions and deductions.

The tax cut on retirement income is so generous that most elderly retired persons won't have to pay any Federal income tax.

Social security retirement income was not taxed under the old law but most other retirement income was taxed. The new law gives a tax credit to retired people and widows living on retirement income other than social security which is about equal to the tax credit now given to people living on social security income.

To qualify for this tax credit you must (1) be 65 or over or else retired under a public retirement system established by the Federal Government, a state, county, or city; (2) have earned by working at least $600 a year for any 10 years before you retire; (3) not earn by working more than $900 in any year you claim the retirement credit. The credit will be reduced if you earn more than $900.

The amount of the tax credit is the amount of the retirement income (as defined below) multiplied by 20 per cent with a maximum limit of $240 for each qualified individual. If husband and wife both qualify and each has retirement income, each one is entitled to the credit.

Retirement income is defined as income from pensions, annuities, interest, rents, and dividends up to but not exceeding $1200 each year, minus any amount received under the Social Security Act, Railroad Retirement Acts and certain veterans' pensions exempt from tax.

You cannot claim the credit for retirement income if you file on the yellow tax return — Form 1040A.

There have been important changes to the rules regarding dependents. Under the old law, you couldn't claim your child as an exemption if he earned over $600 even though you furnished over half his support. Now you can count your child in college or under 19 regardless of his earnings so long as you provide more than half his support.

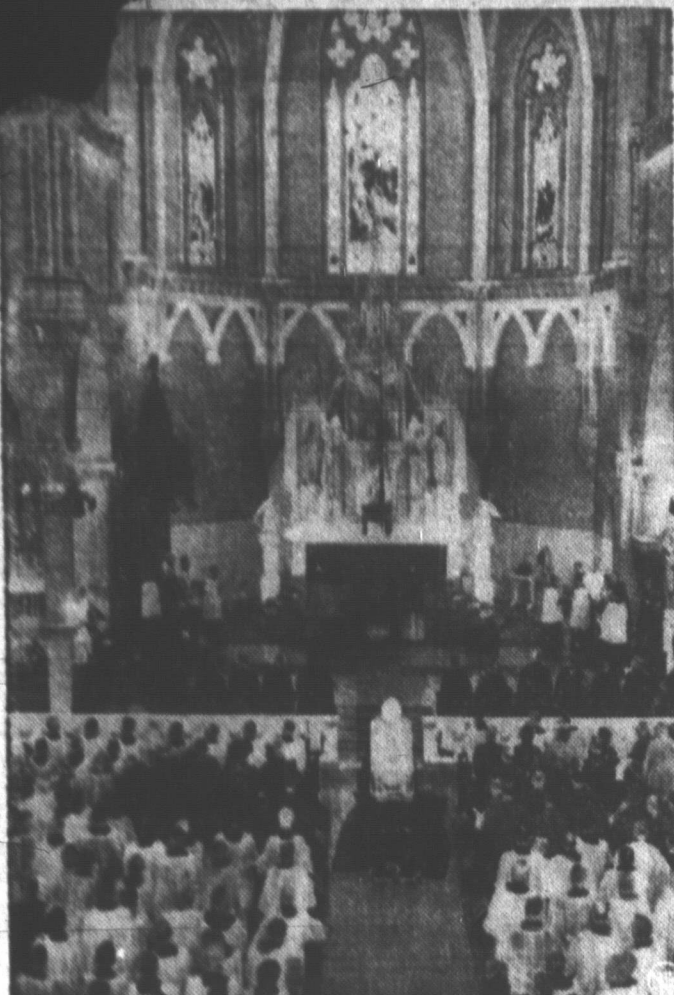

Formerly, you couldn't count any one as a dependent who was not a close relative. Now you can count any one as a dependent if he lives in your household and you provide more than half his support.

Another change provides that where over one-half the support of a dependent is contributed by a group of taxpayers, no one of whom contributes over half the support, the dependency deduction may be assigned to any one of the group provided each member of the group would have been entitled to the exemption except for the support test; the person claiming the deduction has contributed more than 10 per cent of the dependent's support; and the other members agree in writing not to claim the exemption for that year.

The liberalized rules for taxing employee sickness or accident benefits apply if they are financed by employers under a benefit plan. In such a case, if your pay is continued while you are absent from work because of sickness or injury, you pay no tax on wages of up to $100 a week after the first seven days of the sickness or injury. If you are hospitalized at any time during an illness you pay no tax on wages up to $100 even during the first seven days.

These are the changes in the new tax bill of most interest to the average taxpayer. All these changes as well as many other minor ones will be explained in detail in NEA's Income Tax Primer for 1954.

School Race Barrier Falls In Hobbs, NM

HOBBS, N. M., Aug. 27 — UP — The president of the Hobbs school board said Thursday "we intend to open our schools on Monday — desegregated," and added she did not foresee any trouble "though I could be wrong."

"If we can get through the next three or four days we'll be all right," I think," Dr. Demarus Batcher said today.

A group, led by the Rev. Bill Carter, pastor of the Rock Chapel Baptist Church, has led a movement to keep the schools segregated "until the Supreme Court hands down its final decision and makes recommendations on how best to handle desegregation."

Dr. Batcher, a pediatrician, said Thursday she talks to from 30 to 40 parents a day while examining children who are her patients, and "I haven't had a single complaint personally, to our desegregation order."

"The parents who have come to me all seem to feel that the board was following the Supreme Court decision in ordering the schools desegregated," she said.

Rev. Carter said, however, that 8,000 persons already have signed petitions protesting the desegregation order.

Concerning reports of possible violence, Dr. Batcher said she doubted such would come to pass.

Sunday, Rev. Carter said that if the order is allowed to stand and some of the men in the movement "do what they say they will," there'd be violence and possible rioting.

The United Press on Monday erroneously reported that it was the deacons of the church who were planning to lead a riot.

CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER — PRECINCT TWO SECOND TERM

HIS RECORD SPEAKS FOR ITSELF ...

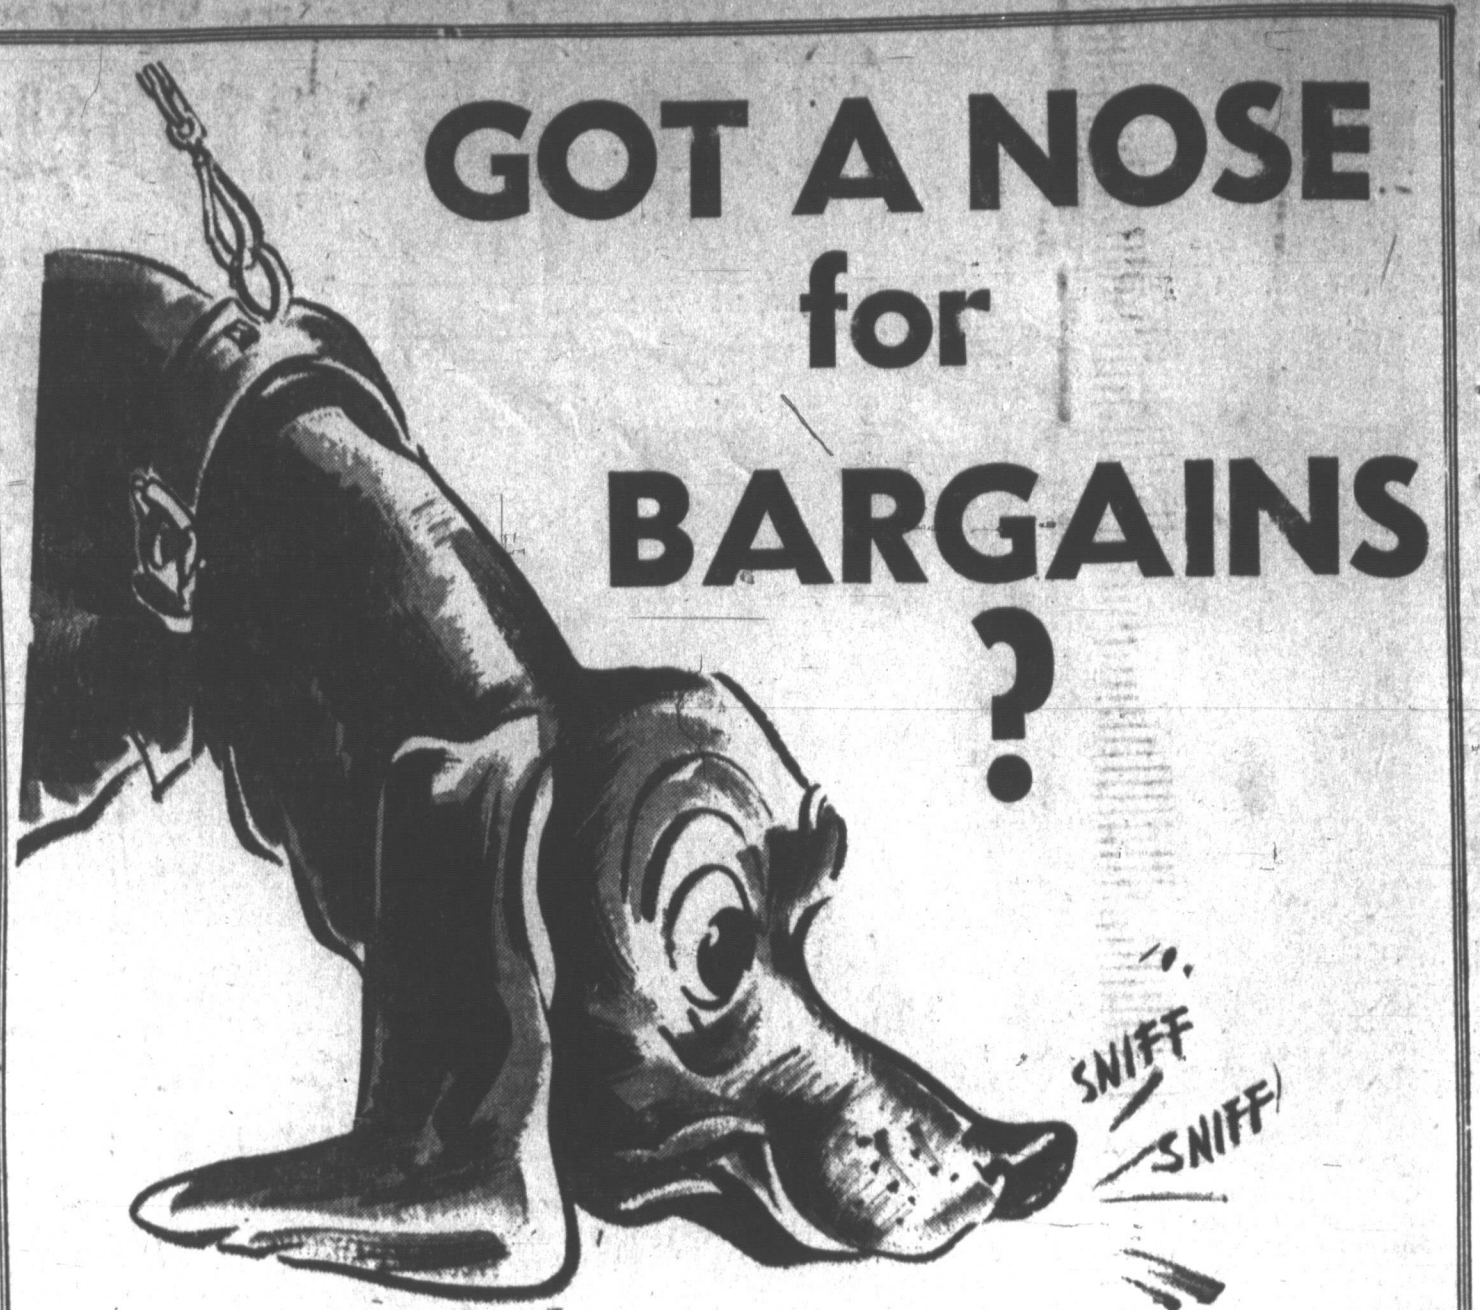

During Bill Jarvis' administration, two concrete bridges have been constructed in Precinct 2 at a total cost of $90.00 per foot. A wood-type bridge would have cost $100.00 per foot. A saving of $2,500 of taxpayers' money.

Two miles on FM 749 at Meers Lake was raised above flood level. He used county machinery and labor to elevate this road, rather than contract the work, thereby saving $1,985.25 of taxpayers' money.

He has cooperated closely with the State Highway Department to build a bridge across the North Fork of Red River on FM 749 at Phillips Camp, thereby linking the two sections of FM 749 which were previously of little use because the river could not be crossed during bad weather.

PROGRESS — He has built roads, maintained them, built a new precinct barn to protect county equipment — all without raising taxes.

Italian Visitor Is Impressed With Panhandle's Flat Beauty

"Wars only solve situations, they do not solve the problems of man's education." Gian Carlo Cillario, a 25-year-old resident of Rome, Italy, who is studying business administration at Harvard, ought to know. He was in the Italian Navy during World War II, was captured by the British when his sub was sunk and was a prisoner of war in Arkansas for a while.

On Vacation He is an exchange student and was in Pampa today during part of a one-month vacation. "I consider it my first visit to the States," he said. He was inspecting the Cabot Companies, the result of his friendship in Rome with Robert Cabot, son of the company's president.

The United States, particularly in the Texas Panhandle, has a "kind of barren beauty," Cillario feels. "The flatness is a beauty in itself."

Admitting that he had a "friendly prejudice" when he came to America, the Italian figures the student exchange program will "teach people how to love this country."

Navy Craft Is Missing

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27—UP—Rescue parties searched Friday for two Navy attack planes missing on a routine training flight and believed to have crashed in what may be the third tragic accident in California in 48 hours involving service planes.

An Air Force B-25 crashed in the mountains 50 miles north of here Friday, killing eight men, and Capt. Joseph McConnell Jr., the nation's top jet ace, was killed Wednesday when he lost control of an F-86H Sabrejet he was testing and it crashed.

BALLOTING

Gov. Allan Shivers has Challenger Ralph Yarborough for an opponent. Both of them appeared in Pampa since the first primary and it is generally conceded the Governor's race will be extremely close in Gray County. On July 24, Shivers got 2751 votes and Yarborough, 2011 in the county.

County Judge J. B. Maguire Jr. is opposed by Former County Judge Bruce Parker. In the July 24 primary, the vote was 1882 for Parker, 1619 for Maguire and 1353 for L. P. Fort, the third man in the race.

County Commissioner W. E. (Bill) Jarvis, in whose precinct (2) Pampa lies, has G. L. (Nat) Lunsford for an opponent. The vote July 24 was 1783 for Lunsford, 1591 for Jarvis and 99 for E. C. Schaffer.

Also on the ballot are two races for Judgeships. Alfred M. Scott and Few Brewster are running for chief justice of the Texas Supreme Court. But only Lloyd W. Davidson is running for the Court of Criminal Appeals. His opponent, Alan Haley, bowed out; but Davidson's name must still remain on the ballot because he has yet to receive half the total vote cast.

Only one other contest is on the ballot. And it is the first time such a thing has happened in Gray County. Both Mrs. Dot Davis and L. D. Rider received 9 write-in votes for Pct. 1 (Letors) chairman, the primary.

School Budget Up $79,082 Over Last Year

A lone taxpayer showed up Thursday night for the annual public budget meeting for Pampa Independent School District — and he had to come from Amarillo. W. F. Martin, representing Natural Gas Pipeline Co., who said he had "nothing special" to talk about, listened as Pampa school approved the budget for the 1954-55 school year — up $79,082 over that of last year.

Biggest increase was in salaries, particularly those of teaching personnel. The figure jumped from $661,472 to $718,194 for those instructing in the white schools and from $116,860 to $17,940 for those in the Negro school.

Grand total disbursement on the budget was $1,218,946. A year ago it was $1,139,864. Total estimated receipts are $1,259,997.

The only decreases were on the interest on serial bonds and the total payment of debt and interest. Everything else either went up or remained the same.

These are the estimated disbursements for the coming year: total administration, $45,912; white instruction, $428,579; Negro instruction, $22,240; operation of plant, $50,370; maintenance of plant, $30,260; auxiliary services, $51,860; fixed charges and current interest, $8,250; capital outlay, $32,500; and debt service, $119,370.

The tax rate will remain the same $1.25 per $100 of evaluation. It is based on $58 million valuation and 98 per cent collections. Of that $1.25, $1.04 will be for maintenance and 21 cents for bonds and interest.

Supports Local School Control Shivers, in his appearance in East Texas where segregation is an important issue, said he believed in "local control of schools, and I will support that principle with every legal means at the governor's command."

"I am opposed to the mixing of white and Negro children in our public schools," the governor said. "It won't work — and the thinking people of both races know it won't work."

The race that will suffer most, if separate schools are abolished, is the Negro race," Shivers said. Other political developments saw backers of both candidates level new charges against the principals.

Shivers' campaign manager, State Sen. Otis Lock of Lufkin, accused Yarborough of questioning the "motives, patriotism, honesty and morals" of Texans living in the Rio Grande Valley.

Lock said a four-page, illustrated circular about the "wetback" problem "even insults the Republic of Mexico." He said it wasn't distributed in South Texas because it was a "smear against the Valley."

Vote Shivers

The folks who have worked and hoped for the re-election of Allan Shivers in tomorrow's second primary may feel a bit more optimistic today than they might have two weeks ago.

The tide of battle is obviously rolling faster toward a Shivers victory. The evidence points to a record second primary vote, and should we get such a vote, Shivers' reelection seems assured.

It has been a long time since the individual vote has carried such importance to Texas. This state has not faced a crisis such as the one it faces in the governor's race this year.

It is encouraging to note that the voters have arisen to the occasion with a record turnout for absentee balloting, a furious bit of campaign activity here at the wind-up of a campaign, and the showing of genuine interest in the campaign. This interest has shown itself in the conversation on the street corners, and letters to editors to various newspapers as well as the pre-election day voting.

This newspaper, which has time and again stated its position in favor of Allan Shivers in this political race, now urges the voters of the area to express their wishes tomorrow in the showdown.

If there should be any borderline opinions at this stage of the game, we invite the voter to investigate the column which appears on this page today under the by-line of Westbrook Pegler.

Read it and shudder, read it and vote.

Foreign Aid To Good Cause, 104 Kings, Queens Take Trip

By HENRY McLEMORE

Not often, but every once in a while, the American taxpayer gets assurance that at least part of the money that this country gives away is being put to good use. Such an assurance came from Marseille last week with the news that King Paul of Greece had chartered a 4500-ton ship, and was taking 104 kings, queens, princes and princesses, for a 12-day cruise. This modern Odyssey is, I believe, just the shot in the arm we Americans need after the billions we poured down the drain in Indochina. Upon reading of the cruise I, for one, felt ashamed of ever hoping that Congress would slice foreign aid.

The cruise also must stand as a gracious gesture on the part of King Paul—a gesture of thanks to Americans for sending Greece the Van Fleet to Greece and saving it from Communism. King Paul obviously wants to show us that he appreciates the fact he can yacht it around, something he probably wouldn't be able to do if Russia had saved him from imperialistic America. My only regret is that King Paul didn't quite do it in a truly royal style. The ship he hired—the Agamemnon— isn't nearly large enough for the ermine and tiara passenger list. It has first-class accommodations for only 90 persons, which means that some of the titled toffs are traveling second-class. And I don't think I'm the only American who feels this way. There must be tens of thousands of us who would have been willing to cut short our two weeks at the beach, or slice the vacation budget a bit, or put off getting a new head-

BETTER JOBS

Apathy Or Ignorance Through Brain-Washing

Thurman Sensing, who writes for Freedom Newspapers, sent me a copy of a letter he received from Mrs. Frances P. Bartram of Colorado Springs. The letter was sent to him, but he thought it was so good that it should be passed on. The writer seems to have about the same opinion of what tax-supported schools are doing in brain-washing the youth of the land as I have. From here on Mrs. Bartram is talking:

"Dear Mr. Sensing: "A recent column of yours is entitled 'National Do You Care?' 'Yes, some of us do care. However, as in the case of other policies of our federal government, we have no voice in the matter. "I imagine that many persons like yourself believe that the public is full of apathy. I don't call it apathy. It is ignorance through brain-washing, or discouragement caused by a feeling of they've-got-us-where-they-want-us-and-we're-helpless."

"Let us take the brain-washing first. I am 43 years old. I was in college when Mr. Roosevelt took us off the gold standard. I was for it. This was because my economics professor was for it. He said it was 'outmoded.' He said we would be better off without it.

"I am now convinced that this man was a Fabian Socialist. He came here from Canada, as a member of a 'commission' to study economics. I believe this commission was established with private money. It maintained offices here for a period of perhaps six or seven years, and does not now exist.

"This man was very positive that the gold standard would be removed. How did he know that? "He was most eager (in a quiet way) to get me the titles of Socialist books upon my request. As I remember they were 'The Coming Struggle for Power' by Strachey, and Spengler's 'The Decline of the West.' "He saw me as a typical middle-class college girl, no experience of handling funds, or being in the business world, lots of enthusiasm, and I had an open mind waiting to be filled with something. I had a Protestant background of morals which did nothing to control my behavior. There were hundreds just like me. So when my generation got their first or second vote, we voted for Roosevelt.

"In my maturity it seems to me that this process of brain-washing is still going on. I have seen television programs recently which involved young people asking their elders questions about government. It was easy to see what they had been taught. There was no knowledge question about the Constitution, only about the United Nations. I myself was taught practically nothing about the Constitution throughout all my school days. I had to get that myself by reading.

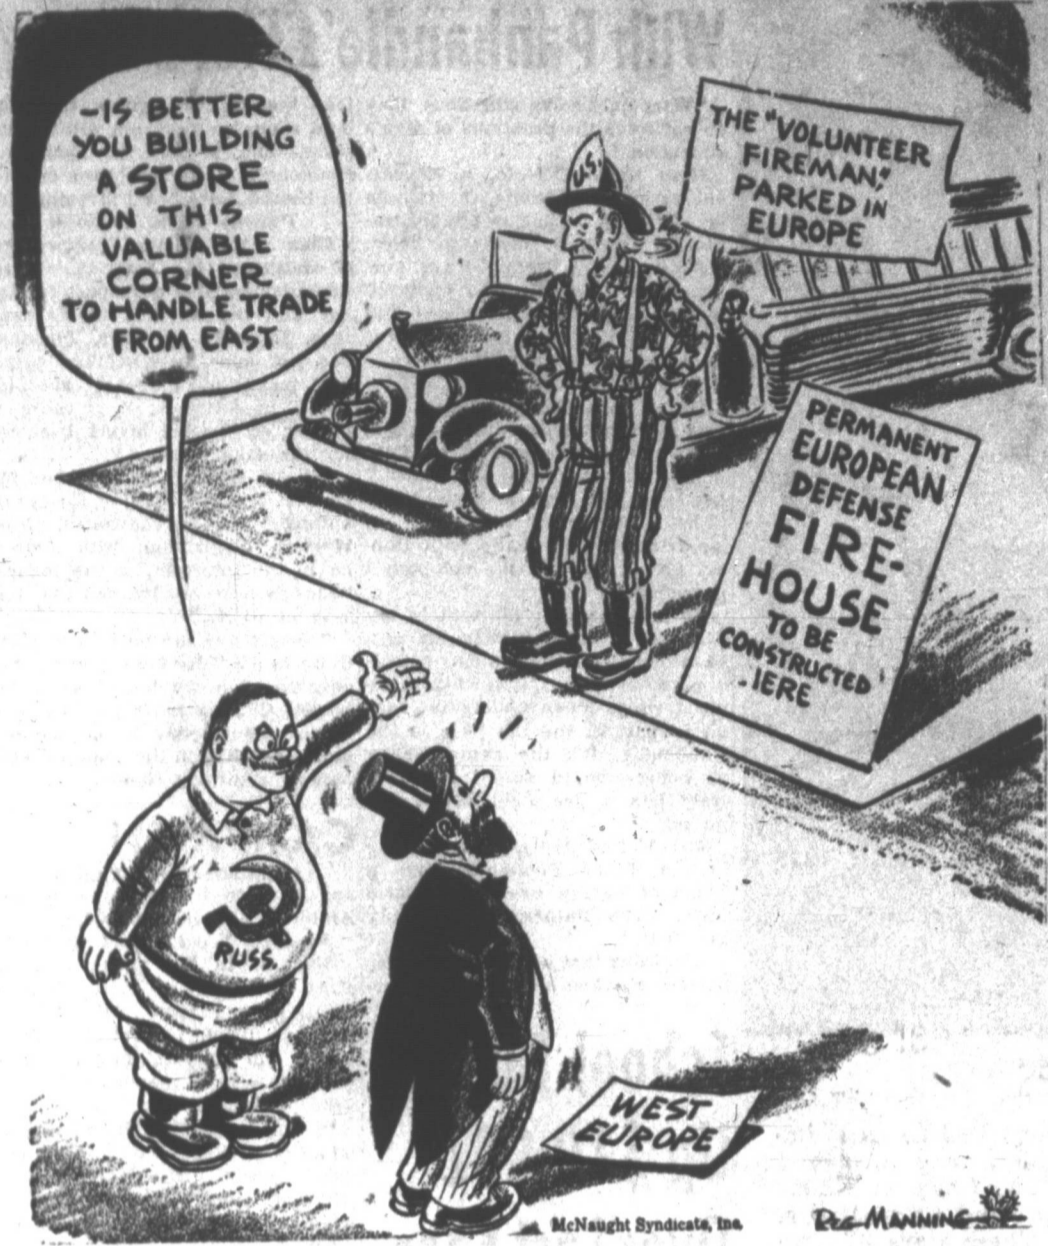

"When you have a situation like this, you are going to get no protests about what is going on.

"What is the prospect for getting these trends reversed? I think it is very small. At the last election we were given a choice of candidates for President of the United States, and there is very little difference between them, only one of them is less so, as it turns out. The President we got made some promises, and although we voters didn't know what he would do, we had to take the chance. He is a well intentioned man. I've no doubt, but he is a soldier by training and mentality, and I doubt if he has too much groundwork in the workings of the Constitution. Therefore he is advised, and by persons who are unelected unknowns. These persons, for their reasons, are advising him to carry out what has already been established, which is the easy way. In fact, even if he were to advocate certain changes, such as this return to gold standard, the people would be lukewarm because of the brainwashing. They would be persuaded, as I was, that it is 'outdated.' "I have given this much thought Mr. Sensing. Everything which happens points in one direction. The plan is to conquer this nation, gradually, by using our own people and money. We are not to be destroyed too quickly, because our labor, know-how, and money is needed as yet. There are innumerable opportunities to further this plan. A giant apparatus such as our federal government is ideal. Nobody can possibly keep track of it, and much of it has gotten away from direct Congressional control. It may be picked and peeled at, but no real changes can be made.

"There are successful efforts to: 1. Eliminate two or more political parties. 2. Control the Supreme Court by appointments. 3. Reduce the power of Congress and place it in the Executive. 4. Tax income and place it in one spot—Washington, D. C. 5. Promote labor unrest by devaluation of dollar so as to keep this group asking for greater and greater wage demands, further devaluing the dollar. 6. Promote one-world government so as to make it possible to control citizens of the United States, eventually by levying a tax on them to be paid to the super-government. 7. Reduce power and prestige of anti-Communists, and in a many more devices, all directed toward the same end.

"Now, Mr. Sensing, with a situation like this, do you really and honestly think that we citizens who know what is happening can do more than pray for ourselves and our children?"

National Whirligig Attempt Made To Frighten Papers From Using Column

By RAY TUCKER

Ray Tucker is devoting this space to an Editorial by R. C. Hoiles, president of Freedom Newspaper, Inc., which publishes ten newspapers in California, Colorado, Texas, New Mexico and Ohio.

One of the hazards of newspaper work was demonstrated in a recent issue of the Washington column by Ray Tucker which appeared on the editorial pages of the Freedom organization.

The column was concerned with the fight in Washington between various air lines to obtain "certification" for certain air routes throughout the world. Of our immediate concern, however, was a telegram received by our organization from John A. Creedy, public relations manager of Pan American Airways, who attempted to pressure us against running the Tucker column, since it was critical of Pan Am.

In his wire, Creedy wrote: "Pan American understands that you may be planning to publish a column by Ray Tucker, distributed by McClure Syndicate for August 18 release, containing numerous scurrilous references to Pan American. We feel it our duty to tell you that we believe a number of these statements to be libelous. You may wish to take into consideration the columnist's obvious bias against the air line that has earned for the United States first place in world air transport."

Such a wire was an obvious attempt to frighten our newspapers and other newspapers from publishing the column on the threat of a libel suit. Though we read the column carefully to determine its best judgment whether the statements in it were libelous, our opinion is not final, for any libel action must be decided by a court. In this instance, it was our belief that there was nothing libelous in the column.

It would seem to be obvious that a newspaper that could be frightened by the threat of such action would not be performing a proper service for its customers — the subscribers. A newspaper that was financially insecure, or one that had not established principles upon which it operated, would be likely to be frightened into not running a column such as this particular contribution of Ray Tucker's.

The Tucker column is also useful for another lesson it teaches and which was not touched upon by Tucker; that is, the example of what can happen to private industry when it seeks the favor of government or permits government to interfere with its operation.

All the furor and stewing in Washington over Pan Am is the result of TWA and other lines seeking to obtain from the Federal government a "certificate" to operate certain routes in certain areas of the world. Of course, there should be no question of whether the government of the United States issues a certificate or not and TWA ought to be perfectly free to operate such a line if it sees fit and to biases with the government and the line's competitors. But TWA and all the other commercial air lines are not in a position to tell the government to jump in the river and go ahead on their own. Because they have the hand of government on them through the granting of special subsidy in connection with hauling government mail and other items, they dare not offend the mighty bureaucrats. Even if they were willing to do so without any government subsidy insofar as concerns a direct government contract, they would still have to obtain a Civil Aeronautics authority "permit" for the operation of the line, certificates, licenses, etc., or find themselves in violation of a flock of laws designed to cripple or interfere with a free competitive market. In virtually all these instances it has been the air lines that went first to government seeking some sort of special consideration, rather than government moving in and taking over operation of the air lines. And now this short-sighted policy is beginning to pinch. Now they are beginning to find out the truth of the statement that the "power to license is the power to destroy." Once the government has been given the opening wedge in taking over control of an industry or an individual right there is no stopping it short of the elimination of the government. By the very nature of government it feeds upon itself and must ever expand and engulf more and more, or it will perish and the people as individuals who benefit from government will be forced into open and natural competition with their fellow men — a situation that is in general repugnant to any bureaucrat.

Republican Senator Young of North Dakota has accomplished something good for this country and I'm happy to say that Ike has helped out in a big way. Working together, they have increased the tariff on imported watches by fifty percent. The internationalists, it was revealed lately, have quietly been trying to destroy the western hemisphere's vital war industries. Among these is the watch industry that employs hundreds of precision workers who are necessary in the making of time fuses and many other delicate instruments necessary in mechanized warfare. The enemies of our country would like to see these workers discouraged and dispersed. To accomplish that, an international cartel has been dumping Swiss watches into the United States at prices ruinous to the American industry. The new tariff should cut a stop to that.

Jonathan Yank

Five years ago I saw the signs of a gathering storm. Typical upstanding Texan were beleaguered, beaten-up and run-out of town in a construction strike in Beaumont. The "law" stood by, picking its teeth with its pistol. He-Texas who refused to join got the same treatment that the Communists of the CIO steel workers under John L. Lewis tried to give the laborers of Republic Steel at South Chicago. In that case, however, a real policeman, Captain Mooney, of the Chicago police department, drew a deadline as the mob tried to massacre a force of laborers, white men and Negroes, who stuck to their jobs inside the plant. When the Communists forced the front rank of their mob across that deadline, Captain Mooney did the only thing left to a real policeman or military officer challenged by anarchy. He let them have it and killed 11 of them, none of whom ever had worked for Republic steel.

In Midland, in a rich Texas oil field, a business agent of a union telephoned for an ambulance first and then publicly beat a typical Texas working citizen so badly that he needed the ambulance and a surgeon. A whole crowd of Texans stood by without raising a hand. Latterly, the unions have been terrorizing Port Arthur. The News-Messenger, of Marshall, the home of the famous Marshall girls who rebelled against the baby-sitters' and lawn-boys' social security tax, has been waving all this paper was for Roosevelt right down the line.

"Fear is not confined to those imprisoned behind the iron curtain," said the News-Messenger on Aug. 18. "There's fear in Texas today. Those in Marshall who said 'it can't happen here' witnessed a demonstration Monday night not paralleled since reconstruction days. Four residents of strike-torn Port Arthur came to Marshall to explain their plight, requesting that their names not be used 'for the sake of our family.' John N. Garner, twice vice president under Roosevelt, is standing along with Yarborough because Yarborough is the "regular" nominee. That is to say, Shivers strung with Eisenhower on a pledge to respect the title of Texas to the oil under her coastal waters. The Democratic party in '32 would have confiscated this treasure for the Washington bureaucracy. That is no worse than anyone who knows Garner expected of him. He certainly knew all about Roosevelt and the weird cult around him who were promoting the dictatorial plot of Col. E. M. House, also a Texan. Garner had scruples against Roosevelt's third term. But what did he do to maintain his scruples? He went back to Uvalde, kept his mouth shut and went on collecting his profits as a country banker. Jim Farley thought Garner showed great patriotism. Well, there is a Democrat for you.

Fair Enough Texas Is Finally Alarmed Over Brutal Union Deals

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

NEW YORK — At last the overconfident Democrats of Texas are beginning to take alarm at the brutal unionism which their own party fostered under Roosevelt and Truman.

Detroit and Flint, Toledo, Akron and Youngstown, South Chicago and the frightened industrial centers of Pennsylvania were not composed of Texans. No! Had the CIO terror struck at Dallas or El Paso, Midland or Beaumont, the breed of he-men would have shown those rats what happens to strangers who go messing around in the affairs of real Americans. Yeah?

Well, it has been happening in the new industrial centers of Texas for five years and now Governor Allan Shivers, an Eisenhower Democrat, is fighting for the vaulted liberties and the swaggering political masculinity of the mythical typical Texan. His opponent is Ralph Yarborough, the "regular" election is actually a run-off between these two, who wound up in a photo-finish in the regular primary in July. Shivers was only a whisker in front of the candidate of the New York Marxian socialists, who have projected themselves not only into Texas but also into England, France and Germany and eastern politico-social "pressure groups." Even should Shivers come home again, the pressure from New York will grow in Texas.

Poor Texas has stood up proudly through an actual campaign of abusive sneers and belittlement. Consciously or not, Edna Ferber threw the biggest rock in that barrage in her hateful and, I thought, envious novel, "Giant," which got publicity far out of proportion to its worth as writing just because it smeared Texas. Miss Ferber has neighbors within a mile of her own home in Connecticut who are evil by comparison with the climatic parvenu of the Texas aristocracy. But they are, as a group, New York reads of various shades. Mrs. Hester McCullough, of Greenwich, learned their stripe when she spoke her opinion of Paul Draper and Larry Adler and was put to torture in the federal court in a judicial district which includes the double-domes of Yale and the Muscovian Democrats of the Democratic and Republican organizations. Had she depended on them, rich though many of them are, she would have been beaten without a fair trial, for her defense fund of $60,000, which got her a hung jury and a moral victory, came almost entirely from other states, including Texas.

The trouble with Texas is venality and complacency. The rich men and the prosperous wage-earners, farmers and merchants thought it could never happen in Texas. Roosevelt and Truman gave them a lesson, rich though many of them are, she would have been beaten without a fair trial, for her defense fund of $60,000, which got her a hung jury and a moral victory, came almost entirely from other states, including Texas.

Mystery Men of Manhattan: A furtive little men whose true business in life is to track down the private telephone numbers of famous men and women. No one, including the telephone company itself, knows how they get hold of the new, guarded numbers so quickly. Forty-eight hours after installation they are packing a slow job. They never use this information as a direct means of income. They pass it on to those who can use it and are paid in favors: leads to income-producing jobs, insurance sales, things like that. They abound in the Broadway and Park Avenue areas. Their counterparts work Hollywood. Doré Schary, film executive, has recently been a printed. He has had his private telephone number changed more than 125 times in four years. Yet within the space of a day the newly assigned number becomes the property of those who should not know it or have access to it. A top stage star has changed her private number three times in eleven months, all because somehow, by some inexplicable means, the mystery men get it, pass it on and overnight she is once again deluged with calls from phony charities, men and women needing financial help and similar disturbers of her peace.

Columnists are offered these numbers all the time, and in return are supposed to print a line or two about some friend of the spy job that most columnists know the numbers first-hand or, if they don't, know what agents or producers can supply them legitimately. The spy informers get the brush-off.

The telephone company is rightfully itself in this matter. It guards private numbers militantly. It feels that since it charges for them, it has the responsibility of keeping them private. But the mystery men get the information somehow—and quickly.

Pampa News Women's Editor

GRACE! Webster defines it as "easy elegance," and poets of the Romantic School lauded it as "fairest air." Charm schools today promote it as a quality whereby a woman is enabled to walk, stand, and act "with beauty."

No matter how it may be defined, it is and always will be an outstanding characteristic of any attractive woman. I am inclined to the belief that all women of any size, can cultivate this quality. It's a matter of the mind. But being overweight tends to have a morale-lowering effect, making it difficult to feel "graceful" or poised.

THE TREND today is toward slimmer and fashions are designed to flatter the lithome figure. Those of us on the plump side are forever feeling somewhat "out of it" and lost beside our trim sisters.

Because of this, dieting is becoming more and more popular and doctors are forever warning us about the dangers of overdoing it, as well as the danger of being too fat. You can't win.

This subject came to my mind because of the number of calls I have had concerning the diet published in Pampa in March. Due to its popularity and because we don't have any more issues of that paper, I decided to steal a little of Peg's thunder and reprint it in this column.

First, of course, there are certain precautions that should be taken, and are printed on all copies of the diet. They are: Check with your doctor before starting diet. Follow menu exactly — add nothing, change nothing. Eat only lean parts of meat. Eat vegetables without butter, salad without oil. Use no cream or sugar in coffee.

Use salt sparingly. Vary preparation of eggs, using minimum of fat. Where no quantity is given amount is of no great importance. Omit all alcoholic and soft drinks. Repeat diet for second week and diet for two weeks ONLY.

If you follow the diet exactly you should lose 20 pounds in two weeks. If you don't need to lose that much, follow it for a shorter time. It is supposed to be designed to give a good nutritional balance for normally healthy individuals. However, be sure to check with your doctor before starting it.

GRACE FRIEND
Dear Grace Friend,
I have come across something that poses a problem to me and, more than likely, to many other drivers here. I think I have a solution to said problem; see what you think of it.

First, the problem. It is the myriad of children permitted to play in the streets. They form a continual hazard to the driver, as well as being aggravating. Some of the youngsters throw rocks at the cars, yell naughty things to the drivers, or belligerently hold their ground in the middle of the street, forcing the driver to go around them. There is also the child who simply does not know how to cross a street, and darts in front of the cars. I have seen mere toddlers out in the streets trying to play with the older children.

Mrs. R. K. Elkins Feted With Coffee
The Friendship Class of the First Methodist Church honored Mrs. R. K. Elkins with a going-away party recently in the church parlors. A member of the class since 1932, Mrs. Elkins and her husband left Thursday for Dallas where they will reside.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Sherman White and Mrs. H. Price Dosier. A corsage of pink carnations was presented to the honoree. Presentation of gifts from the class was made by Mrs. White, president of the group.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth, centered with an arrangement of pink carnations. Mrs. Ben Ogden, teacher of the class, presided at the coffee service, and Mrs. Clifford Ryan registered the guests.

Women attending the affair were Mrs. P. H. Gates, W. R. Campbell, J. B. White, W. A. Hutchinson, W. E. Jarvis, Joe Shelton, Alena Elder, R. J. Davis, Joe B. Williams, Irvin Cole, Ben Ogden, H. Is there any reason why a wife who is tied down by children in the daytime should stay home night after night simply because her husband never wants to go out?
A wife writes: "My husband claims he sees all the people he wants to see during his working day and when he's through work he wants to sit down in his own easy chair and stay there."
"But I am at home all day with two young children, and at least once or twice a week I'd like to go out in the evenings. Who is being selfish — my husband or me?"
"You are both thinking of yourselves but that doesn't mean you're being selfish."
And the way to keep from becoming selfish is either to compromise or figure out a way whereby you can both do what you want to do.

Apparently you haven't been able to work out a compromise but that doesn't mean you have to be the one who never gets to do what you want to do.
It just means you'll have to do what you want to do without your husband's companionship.
Take one evening a week for yourself and decide what you want to do with it. You can find a woman friend to go to a movie or

Just start planning your evening a week out as though you had no husband to depend on for companionship and you'll be able to figure out places you can go and things you can do that don't necessitate having an escort.

MICHIGAN TEEN-AGERS enjoy a canyon cook-out with barbecued beef on buns the mainstay of the meal.

Cook's Nook
Barbecued Beef On Buns Labor Day Cook-Out Treat
By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
How about a canyon cook-out over Labor Day?
We talked with some Michigan teen-agers yesterday who gave us their secrets of a successful cook-out for the gang.

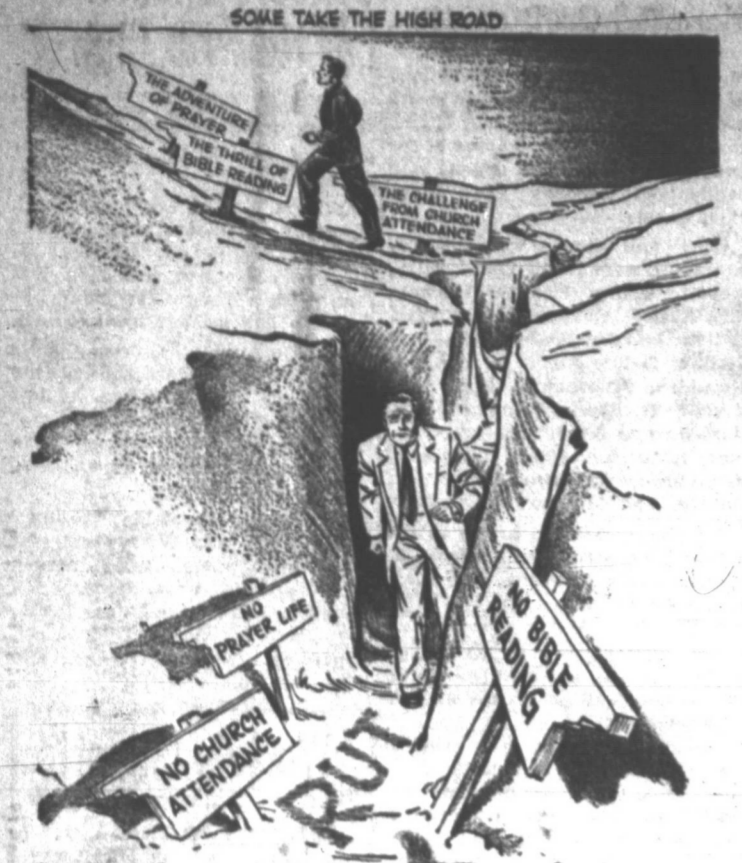

First plan to eat in the cool of a canyon, they advised. Make barbecued beef in bakery buns the mainstay of the meal. Take along potato salad topped with stuffed eggs, whole tomatoes, relishes such as olives, pickles and carrot sticks. Buy a high and handsome chocolate cake and lots of fresh fruit to eat as is. That's for teen-age appetites on a hike.

Surely Michigan's teen-agers eat good!
Barbecued Beef (Makes enough filling for 24 sandwiches)
Two pounds boneless meat, cut in 4-inch pieces, 1 tablespoon shortening, 4 cups chopped onion, 2 tablespoons shortening, 3-4 cup undiluted tomato soup, 1-2 cup catsup, 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, 1-2 teaspoons salt, dash pepper, celery salt.

Brown meat well in 1 tablespoon fat in heavy saucepan. Add 1/2 cup water, cover and simmer until tender — 1 1/2 to 2 hours. Put meat through coarse grinder. Fry onions in 2 tablespoons hot shortening until tender and transparent.

Combine with meat. Add tomato soup, catsup, Worcestershire sauce, salt, pepper and celery salt. Add about 2 cups meat broth to make the mixture moist. Heat to bubbling and serve between buns.
Tip-Top Potato Salad (8 servings)
Six potatoes, cooked in jackets (4 cups, cubed), 1 onion, chopped, 3 hard-cooked eggs, sliced, 1 cup chopped celery, 1 cucumber, diced, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon paprika, 1/2 cup French dressing mayonnaise.
Combine all ingredients except mayonnaise. Chill 4 to 6 hours. Just before serving, add mayonnaise and mix carefully. Serve in lettuce cups.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

Love Is the Heart of the Christian Gospel

Jesus said in Matthew 22:36-40 that love is the greatest commandment. He taught that our first duty is to love God with all our hearts, soul and mind. This is the greatest commandment and the second greatest commandment is like the first. We must love our neighbors as ourselves. We fulfill all the requirements of the Christian life if we do the above mentioned two things.

Our ability to love our neighbor is dependent upon our love for God. The closer we get to God the closer we get to our neighbor. On the other hand, we can easily see how much we love God by the way we treat our neighbors. We can't talk about how much we love God unless our deeds of kindness and service reveal a genuine love for our fellow men. Jesus taught that our neighbors are all the people we can help and serve, no matter where they live, or who they may be.

YOU FAIRWAY DUBBERS BETTER START breaking out your sticks for the upcoming Top o' Texas Invitational Tournament that promises to be one of the best of all time.

The tourney dates, as you know, are Sept. 2-6. But if you aren't vying for a Championship Flight berth you can qualify for the tourney anytime from tomorrow on. This gives the working fellow a chance to qualify early whereas he may not be able to get off for the official qualifying day, Sept. 3.

Thanks to the recent rains the course is in pretty good shape for the tournament.

The Top o' Texas tourney annually draws one of the fastest fields of any tournament in the Panhandle and this year will be no exception.

Rex Baxter, Jr., possibly the most publicized young golfer ever to come out of the Panhandle area, will be on hand to defend his title here. Baxter triumphed Grover Austin, Jr., brother of the host pro, Johnny, in last year's championship final.

Baxter currently holds the National Junior title and only Monday of this week the youthful Amarillo linkster extended highly regarded Billy Joe Patton to 19 holes before losing a tough 1-up decision in the U. S. Amateur tournament at Grosse Point, Mich.

Baxter has numerous tourney titles to his credit. It was believed sometime back that Baxter would not be able to defend his title here because of school duties. Baxter will be a sophomore at University of Houston this fall.

But Pampa Country Club pro Johnny Austin has been informed that Baxter will be able to play in the tournament here before returning to school.

With Baxter in the field, he'll definitely be the man to beat for the 1954 Top o' Texas tourney title.

There will, however, be plenty of golfers in the tourney who'll be giving Baxter plenty of opposition.

To give you an indication of how fast the field here will be, it'll probably take a 73 or better to gain a berth in the Championship Flight. Then you'll probably have to shoot under an 80 to get in the first flight.

There'll be a flight for everyone, though. Even for 100 plus shooters like yours truly.

WONDER HOW MANY BASEBALL fans here would buy a season ticketbook to Oiler home games for $25? Or even $12.50.

We don't think the latter would go over since there just aren't enough fans here to make it worth while. To sell these season tickets at such ridiculous low prices you have to sell a lot of tickets to make ends meet.

Say it takes $50,000 (that is the approximate figure) to operate a West Texas-New Mexico League club for one year. To make the $12.50 plan go over, 4,000 tickets would have to be sold. Well, anyone knows there aren't near that many fans in a town of Pampa's size.

Oilers Win, Stay 1/2 Game Out Of 1st Place

Locals Trim Hubs 3rd Straight Time

LUBBOCK, Aug. 27 — The Pampa Oilers, accomplishing something that few teams have done this season — that of shelling Jack Isenhart from the mound — kept hot on the heels of the league-leading Clovis Pioneers here Thursday night by clipping the Lubbock Hubbers, 10-6.

The Oilers remained only one-half game behind the Pioneers who defeated Albuquerque last night to hold on to their No. 1 spot, 10-7. Isenhart, who had a 9-2 record going into Thursday's game with the Oilers, was battered from the box in the fifth inning. Isenhart left the game with the Hubs still out in front, 5-4, but the Oilers continued their onslaught on three other Hub tossers to take the decision.

The Oilers fought an uphill battle through most of the game here Thursday before finally going ahead in the eighth inning.

The Hubs raced to a 5-1 lead after four innings but the Oilers found their batting eyes in the fifth and it was "Katy bar the door" rest of the way as the Pampanos began hitting the ball to all corners.

Pampa tallied three times in the fifth in driving Isenhart from the hill and the Oilers continued to batter relievers Harry Wise, Milt Ardrey and George McDuff to take the decision.

Lubbock made it 6-4 in bottom of the fifth but the Oilers made up the 2-run deficit in the seventh on Doug Lewis' 12th home run of the season with I. B. Palmer, who had singled, on the base paths.

The Oilers then broke the 6-6 deadlock in the eighth with a four-run uprising to conclude the night's scoring for both teams.

Rudy Tanner led off the Oiler eighth with his second home run in as many nights and scoring what proved to be the winning run. For good measure, though, the Oilers added three more runs before McDuff came in to put out the fire.

Jim Lemons, who relieved starter John Coddington in the fourth and finished up, gained credit for the win his sixth win against eight losses.

The Hubbers could get only one run off Lemons after the youthful right hander took over the mound chores for the Oilers.

Doug Lewis and Gen Hauradou paced the 14-hit Oiler attack with three safeties apiece. Lewis, who had a double, homer and single, drove in four runs.

The Oilers and Hubs will clash here again Friday night for the last time this season. Either Jose Valesquez (12-7) or Sad Sam Williams (13-9) will hurl for the Oilers. Chuck Simmons (10-11) is expected to get the nod for Lubbock.

Coddington, Lemons (4) and Palmer; Isenhart, Wise, Ardrey, McDuff and Benites.

Top O' Texas Qualifying Rounds Set

Qualifying for the annual Top o' Texas Invitational golf tournament will get underway tomorrow and will continue through Sept. 3, the official qualifying date.

All golfers who do not plan to play in the Championship Flight may start qualifying tomorrow.

Those who will try for the title flight must wait for the official qualifying day next Friday.

A West Texas pro-amateur tourney will be held Thursday.

Entry fee for the tournament is $10.

The tourney is expected to draw one of the biggest fields in history of the meet.

Rex Baxter, Jr., the defending champion, will be on hand to try for a second straight title.

A huge delegation from Borger and Amarillo plus several other Panhandle cities are expected to play in the tournament.

In State S-Finals Skelly, Bell Clash Tonight

SHAMROCK, Aug. 27 — (Special) — The Skelly Oilers of Pampa moved into the semi-finals of the Texas Amateur Softball Tournament here Thursday night with a 5-3 victory over K. C. Steak House of Shamrock.

The K. C. loss eliminated the team from the double elimination tournament.

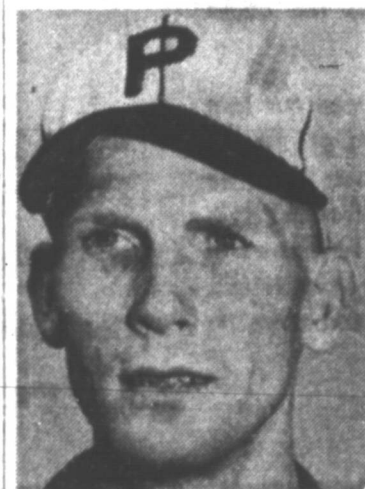

K. C. had previously won a 5-3 decision over La Casa in Thursday night's first game. In the second game of the card, Phillips romped over Cheyenne, 14-3, to move into the finals. Phillips is the only unbeaten team left in the tournament.

Cheyenne and Miami will open Friday's card at 7, to be followed by Skelly and Bell Telephone, both of Pampa, at 8:30. The two winners will then clash in a third game at approximately 10:00. Winner of the third game will meet Phillips in the finals Saturday night.

Bill Fox and Paul Patterson pitched Skelly to its win over Shamrock last night. Patterson, coming on in the third inning, struck out 13 K. C. batsmen.

Cottie Tarbet, who pitched K. C. to its win over La Casa in last night's opening game, suffered the loss in the night's final against the Skelly nine.

Salty Garrett homered for Skelly to lead his mates at the plate against K. C.

League - leading Clovis kept Pampa a half-length away Thursday night by beating Albuquerque, 10 to 7 as Carroll (Red) Dial, ace Pioneers pitcher, won his 100th game in four seasons of West Texas-New Mexico League play.

Pampa kept the pace by whipping Lubbock 10 to 6 while fourth place Ablene staved off Plainview's bid for the last playoff spot by beating the Ponies 6-5. Amarillo was idle.

Dial chalked up his 23rd victory this season after relieving in the seventh inning and giving up only one hit in the last 2 1-3 frames — that a homer by Gil Valentin.

The big righthander won 22 games for Pampa in 1951, 27 for Clovis in 1952 and 28 for the Pioneers last season. His 28 victories last year are the most wins ever compiled by a league pitcher.

Andy Alonso of Ablene won his 22nd game and drove in the winning run in the eighth inning. Alonso circled the bases himself for an apparent inside-the-park homer. He was collecting his "fence money" for a homer when the umpire called him out for failing to touch third base.

The Progressive Baptist Negro team ran over Calvary Baptist 23-1 and a chance to meet St. Paul Methodist in the Junior boys finals tonight at 8.

In the Junior girls game, both teams were fighting it out until the last frame when First Baptist rallied for 11 runs.

Joy Coronis and Sandra Dodd, both of First Baptist, hit homers for the night.

Virginia Jones was the winning pitcher and Sandra Wanger the loser.

First Baptist finished a remarkable season record of 15 wins and one defeat.

Over in the Junior boys league, Virgil Lynch pitched a neat 3-hitter over Calvary Baptist to lead his teammates into the finals.

Progressive Baptist scored in every inning last night for their victory. Their first inning was their biggest inning when they tallied 6 runs.

Only one home run was hit during the game and that came off the bat of Bill Parker of the winners in the sixth with two men on.

Albert King was the losing pitcher but was relieved by Robert Hartley in the 3rd.

Progressive Baptist, with a 14-5 record, will meet St. Paul Methodist, 17-2, in the finals tonight.

Virgil Lynch will probably start for Progressive Baptist and Raymond McKinney for St. Paul.

74 On Hand For Opening Harvester Football Drills

Seventy-four boys were on hand this morning as the 1954 Pampa Harvester grid forces assembled for their initial workout at Harvester Park.

Thirty-eight of the group are listed on the varsity squad with the other 36 on the "B" squad.

Aubra Noncaster assumed command of the Harvesters after seven years as chief assistant. He succeeds Tom Tipps who resigned to join the Texas A&M staff.

Noncaster's assistants are Duwane Lyon and Weldon Trice, the latter moving up from the Guerrillas.

Marvin Bowman replaces Trice as the Guerrilla head mentor, to be assisted by Orville Lewis.

The third local school boy team, the Junior High Reapers, will report next Monday. Reaper coach Deck Woldt said last night that he wants all his boys to report at the Junior High gym Monday at 3 to be issued equipment.

The Harvesters, after this morning's workout, will work out again this evening at 6:30. Two more workouts are slated for Saturday, at 9 a. m. and 6:30 p. m.

Reviewing plays and fundamentals took up most of the time in this morning's workout.

Missing from the workout this morning was Harold Lewis, the only returning regular. Lewis, however, will be on hand for the evening workout today. The Harvester halfback was issued equipment today but was excused from the workout this morning to finish up his summer job today.

The Harvesters will open the season Sept. 17 against Austin of El Paso at Harvester Stadium.

Following are the Harvesters who were on hand for this morning's workout:

Ends—Don Babcock, Bill Culpepper, Jon Cantrell, George Collett, Gene Paul Devers, Don Hinton, Marion Stone, J. D. Swinford, Otis White, Tommy Richardson and Jim Green.

Tackles—Jerry McNaughton, Ben Sturgeon and Burl Kirbise.

Guards—Ray Bonnal, Johnny Claumch, David Mullins, Jerry Neal, Gene Parr and J. R. Cross.

Centers—Rex Fenton, Tommy Rhoten, John Watson and Cecil Reyholds.

GI Climbers Rush Aid To Trapped 3

WESTCLIFFE, Colo., Aug. 27.—UP—Expert Army mountaineers pushed up 14,191-foot Crestone Needle in the Sangre de Cristo range early Friday to rescue three men believed trapped on a narrow ledge at the 12,800-foot level. One of the stranded climbers, Rip Collins, 31, of Lawrence, Kan., was thought to have broken a leg when he fell onto the ledge. Bob Kulstad, 27, of Lawrence and Tony Mueller, 20, of Denver were standing by Collins — and perhaps unable to get off the perilous perch without help. They were warmly dressed against the sub-freezing night weather and had some food in their packs. A rescue team of 11 Camp Carson, Colo., Alpinists set out from here late Thursday, led by Capt. Woodrow L. Christensen of Whitefish, Mont. They expected to reach the distressed trio sometime Friday. A party of six established a base camp on Crestone Needle, one of the most dangerous peaks in the southern Colorado range. Wednesday morning, Mueller, Collins, Kulstad and Clevie McCarthy of Denver started for the top, but McCarthy turned back after a few hours. The other three said they would signal the base camp if they scaled the mountain successfully. McCarthy, Rodney McWhinney, 20, of Denver and Dick Wink of Dallas saw a flashlight signal at the base camp about 7 p.m. But early next morning they detected a distress signal from a ledge at about 12,300 feet. The base camp party worked within hailing distance but could go no further on the icy face of Crestone Needle. McCarthy said they made out from the shouts of the three on the ledge that Collins had fallen and broken a leg. On Longs Peak in the Rockies northwest of Denver, John Dalish, 25, was feared to have perished this week. The Denver law student, a novice climber, disappeared during a storm on the treacherous north face of the 14,255-foot mountain Sunday.

Cop Killers Face Death Sentence

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 27.—UP—Prosecutor Granville Scanland said Thursday the state would ask for the death penalty when three Texans are tried in October on charges they murdered an Oklahoma City detective. The men, James E. Skinner, Herbie F. Fairris Jr. and Raymond C. Price, all of Dallas, have been charged with murder, attempted armed robbery and kidnapping. The death penalty can be imposed for each offense. Detective Bennie F. Cravatt was killed July 16 when he surprised a gang trying to rob a supermarket. Skinner, Fairris and Price waived preliminary hearings Wednesday.

Colleagues Regard Johnson As Man To Unite The Party

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—UP—Fellow Democrats regard Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas as a man with a dedicated zeal to restore unity to his party. Many of them credit Johnson with a large measure of success, although his tactics and strategy have sometimes provoked grumbling, particularly from liberal wing senators who favored a more aggressive stand against the Eisenhower administration. Johnson, however, has insisted on restraint. Mindful that the Democrats have held a near-majority in the Senate, he has felt that they would hurt themselves politically if they used their muscle to stall or obstruct the administration program. Tying these objectives of unity and restraint to his interpretation of the Democratic party philosophy, Johnson has sought to develop and exploit issues on which his party could largely unite. Taxes, farm price supports, tariff and public power are examples. Nothing seemed to delight him so much as finding an issue on which conservative Democrats like Sen. Walter F. George (Ga.) voted with New Dealers like Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (Minn.). His season-end statement when Congress was preparing to adjourn last week reflected pride in such votes. Among examples he cited were a 100 per cent Democratic vote to send the Taft-Hartley amendment bill back to committee, 93 per cent to increase rural electrification funds, 95 per cent for combining Alaskan and Hawaiian statehood bills and 96 per cent to insist on "anti-monopoly" amendments to the atomic energy bill. Johnson's strategy still appears to jibe with what he told the Senate Democratic caucus which elected him floor leader Jan. 2, 1953. "I believe that Democrats can all work in harmony," he said then. "One of my deepest convictions is that there are more vital issues to hold Democrats together than there are issues to divide them. "Fight for Positive Program" "We are now in the minority. I have never agreed with the statement that it is 'the business of the opposition to oppose.' I do not believe the people have sent us here merely to obstruct. I believe we are here to fight for a positive program. Johnson has told friends that he wanted to be a sort of hinge between the conservative and liberal party wings which had been under war for about 15 years under Democratic administrations. His quest for harmony was aided by the return of the Democrats to a minority role. This normally applies a unifying force to a political party. Like his Republican counterpart, Senate GOP leader William F. Knowland, Johnson is a youngster by Senate standards. He was elected Democratic floor leader when he was only 44 and with only four years of Senate service. Unlike Knowland, however, he was already viewed as an "old pro." He had served two years as Senate Democratic whip and spent 11 years in the House, where he was known as a lieutenant of President Roosevelt and a protégé of Rep. Sam Rayburn, former speaker and now House Democratic leader.

Man Found Dead In River
SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 27.—UP—An unidentified man whose body was found floating in the San Antonio River died from a blow on the right temple, an autopsy disclosed Thursday. Dr. G. D. Boyd, county health officer, reported there was no water in the man's lungs whose pockets had been weighted with rocks. Detective Capt. Joe Hester believed the blow on the man's temple came from a car bumper and that a panicky motorist probably put the stones in the man's pockets and shoved the body into the river to hide the crime.

Candidates Spend Nearly $500,000

AUSTIN, Aug. 27.—UP—Total campaign expenditures by Texas' two Democratic gubernatorial candidates Thursday approached the $500,000 mark. In a statement of expenses filed with the secretary of state and covering disbursements through Wednesday, Gov. Allan Shivers said he had spent $219,407.12, compared with expenditures of $214,056.08 listed by Austin attorney Ralph Yarborough. Yarborough tallied contributions of $186,225.35, compared with gifts totaling $209,665.51 listed by the governor. Only 72 per cent of government spending in World War II was covered by taxes and bond purchases by persons and businesses. The government had to borrow the additional 28 per cent from the banks.

HOW VALUABLE IS YOUR TELEPHONE SERVICE? Recently we asked a group of telephone customers to help answer that question by keeping a record of all the calls they made and received for a week. Like others in the group, Mrs. Felicia Littlejohn (above) was genuinely surprised at how much she depended on her telephone service and how it helped her through busy days. Altogether, Mrs. Littlejohn made and received 53 local calls in the seven days and she estimates that they covered a total of 345 miles... all for a few pennies a call. SOUTHWESTERN BELL... Army CO Calls His Boys Pretty

GRANITE CITY, Ill., Aug. 27—UP—The commanding officer of the Army Engineers depot here said Thursday that his troops are just "too attractive" to the local females, but the soldiers accepted the compliment with little enthusiasm.

Col. Frank E. Lambert said he ordered all depot personnel confined to the post for a "cooling off" period after Granite City police broke up a near battle between 100 soldiers and 200 civilian youths Tuesday night. The colonel said he was also instituting a new pass system to prevent so many of his men from being in the city at one time.

"The soldiers seem to have more money to spend than the local teen agers," Lambert said. "The girls liked it but the civilian boys didn't."

Lambert said two of his soldiers were waylaid and beaten by teenage gangs over the weekend. Battle lines were drawn, he said, and large groups of soldiers and civilian youths had gathered to settle the score on a downtown street when police intervened.

Final $2 Payday Is August 30

The portrait of our third president has been getting considerable publicity this past week in the Panhandle area.

In fact, Thomas Jefferson has made his appearance known at Highland General Hospital helping to pay bills on numerous occasions, according to Chet Lander, administrator.

Phillips Petroleum Company in the Top of Texas area during the two-week period, Aug. 17 to Aug. 30, is paying all its employees in two dollar bills. Some 5,560 workers will get their checks cashed in the two dollar denomination, demonstrating the part the company plays in the economy of this area.

Committees of Phillips employees in the Pampa, Borger, Dumas, Amarillo, Gruber and Guyton, Okla., areas worked out the details with banks, merchants and chambers of commerce in these towns. Many merchants are planning two-dollar sales.

Two-dollar pay-day committee members in the Pampa area are Eddie Pulliam, Herman Wallace, E. E. Edwards, D. R. Holleman, A. N. Rogers and R. L. Chase.

State Visit to Yugoslavia BELGRADE, Aug. 27 —UP— Turkish President Celal Bayar is expected here Wednesday to begin an eight-day state visit to Yugoslavia, it was officially announced.

ASC County Committee To Be Chosen

Recently elected community committeemen of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service will meet Monday in the ASC office to select a county committee, Evelyn Mason, office manager reported today.

The three present incumbents of the county committee, Clyde Caruth, H. H. Keahy and J. E. Kirby are ineligible for reelection under an ASC rule.

All three men have served three consecutive terms, the limit under ASC regulations.

Where all three committeemen have served three successive terms delegates to the county convention, at their discretion, may elect one such committeeman to membership on the county committee.

In this case though, all three men are disqualified under present rulings, since they were employed in political activities in the recent Democratic primary.

Community committeemen meeting Monday to elect the three-man county committee to serve until Aug. 31, 1955 are E. G. Nelson, Grandview; John Harnly, Laketon; A. V. Greene, Pampa; and John Dwyer, McLean.

One Good TERM Deserves Another ...

J. B. MAGUIRE, JR., SEEKS TO SERVE THE PEOPLE OF GRAY COUNTY FOR A SECOND TERM AS COUNTY JUDGE

His Record PROVES that He Has Stuck by His Platform ...

- Good Government
- A Greater Gray County

JUDGE MAGUIRE SAYS:

I have carried out my campaign promises to strive for good government and a greater Gray County . . . You have seen my record published and are doubtless aware that it is a record which merits a second term. It is, and always has been, my firm opinion that the holder of an office as important as that of county judge must possess a background suitable to administer the duties required by the position. I am ready, willing, and in all humility, consider myself able to continue to serve my fellow citizens and the best interests of this resource-rich county. My family, religious, civic, fraternal and business life have endowed me with the enriching experience which I feel important to the exemplary conduct of this high office. The people of Gray County, in order that they may cast their ballots intelligently and conscientiously, deserve to know ALL about the man who seeks to serve them. My life and my record are available for any kind of inspection. I have tried to live a good Christian life, pay my just debts, and be fair and considerate of my fellow men. I am proud of my progress in the legal and business fields. A county judge needs to be well backgrounded in both. I am proud of my civic and fraternal work. I am proud that I had the privilege of serving my country at war as a pilot with the United States Air Force. And I am proud of my lovely wife and two fine children who share with me my hopes for making this area a better place in which to live through service to its people. Vigor, diligence, energy, fairness, justice, honesty, integrity, impartiality and devotion to duty will continue to be the watchwords of my office when you re-elect me to a second term as your county judge. I respectfully solicit your vote of confidence when you go to the polls Saturday.

Signed
J. B. MAGUIRE, JR.
