SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Bible Shows Real Wisdom Is Timeless

Scripture—Proverbs 1:8; 3:3a; 4:1; 6:27; 28; 8:1-11; 10:1-9; 15:1; 18:9; 22:1a; 25:13a, b, 28 Ecclesiastes 1-3; James 3:13-18.

This is a temperance lesson, and we see as we read the references we are given, that some ancient men really were wise, and even in this very modern day, we would do well to heed their advice.

Nearly 3,000 years ago, few men and women were what we of today would call "educated." Few could read and write—only the so-called upper classes—and their "learning" we would find quite crude. However, wisdom belongs to no time or place. The men who have recorded their views for us in our Bible, had lived, suffered, rejoiced, sinned and repented—in fact, they had known all the vicissitudes that are known in this modern world. Out of their experiences they wrote so that down through the ages men might read and profit by them.

Last week we touched upon King Solomon's life, and know that he was renowned for his wisdom. He also sinned, but the best of his thoughts on life are set down in Proverbs, as his praises to God are recorded in the Psalms.

"My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother." There is a great deal said these days about neglected children, problem children and juvenile delinquency.

Sad to say, there are all too many youngsters who are neglected, misunderstood, improperly treated, and juvenile delinquency is a serious problem.

On the other hand, there never was a time when parents tried harder to understand their children's physical, moral and spiritual needs and endeavored to supply them. In spite of statistics, there are more good homes than bad ones, and upright men and women obey Solomon's adjuration, and heed the instruction of their good parents.

How much bitterness would be averted if people would remember, when they are angry with others that, "A soft answer turneth away wrath; but grievous words stir up anger." Jesus is recorded to have been angry in the record of His life on earth, but His anger was just, only roused by flagrant wrongs.

Again we read: "He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a waster." Laziness and lack of interest and pride in work is another complaint about workers in our day.

True it is that work well done, whether it is children's studies and small chores or adults' jobs by which the family living is made, brings a deep and abiding satisfaction.

Ecclesiastes, called the Preacher, is also purported to be written by Solomon. It relates the story of a man who tells of all the ways in which he tried to find happiness and satisfaction on earth, and decided that "all is vanity."

He "gave his heart to seek and search out wisdom; he saw all the works that were done under the sun, and found all vanity and vexation of spirit."

He tried mirth and gaiety—good times, as we say—but of laughter he said, "It is mad," and of mirth, "What doeth it?" Then he tried strong drink—wine—but, as one would expect, that failed to give him happiness—only brought misery.

He grew very rich and powerful, commanding many servants and owning great possessions, but to go back to Proverbs, he discovered that "a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor than silver and gold."

"He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls."

That is the secret of a successful

"Punkin' Time"

It is often a disappointment to see the summer season end. Flowers and leaves will soon be gone. Warm, sunny days will soon be replaced by cold, dreary ones. Outdoor activities will be few.

And yet, there are compensations. Who does not delight in tasting the first pumpkin pie of the season? And who does not enjoy tramping through brightly-colored autumn leaves? And then follows sleigh-riding in the snow, cozy evenings before an open fire; and then Spring again. Each season of the year brings new pleasures to replace the old ones.

Just as God gives us many and enduring blessings in the changing seasons, so does he offer us rich spiritual rewards. Month after month, season after season, and year after year, the Church stands ready and willing to give us comfort, hope, and inspiration. Great success or utter failure may await us. Either may be disastrous. We can better face the many changes in our daily living by attending the services of the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Judge-Retirement Proposal Does Not Meet Requirements

At the bottom of the general election ballot of next Tuesday is proposal No. 8 (the last) for changes to the Texas constitution.

It is assumed, of course, that our judiciary is kept free of politics, and that competent, honest judges who serve for many years are entitled to consideration for their services.

This proposed amendment would authorize the legislature to provide for a retirement and pension program for judges and commissioners of appellate courts and judges of the district and criminal district courts of the state.

The Herald feels that the amendment should be voted down.

State's Traffic Experts Won't Step Before Problem

Texans from the far reaches of the province probably would arch their collective eyebrows if some state agency should burst forth with doctrine advising the populace not to seek insurance until their houses burned down.

Action taken recently to determine whether the City of Big Spring should be permitted to install automatic traffic signals at several new locations amounts to that type of doctrine in my estimation.

However, the city commission is far from satisfied with the count of vehicular traffic, and for good reason.

The engineer's report stated that the traffic volume was well below the minimum requirements of the Vehicle Volume Warrants for fixed time signals at urban locations.

The report also mentions that no accidents of any type were reported at that intersection during 1947 and only two of the type preventable by traffic signals have been listed during 1948.

Small Nations Get Results Talking Back To Big Ones

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER For DeWitt MacKenzie

PARIS — THE LITTLE FELLOWS IN the United Nations are talking back to the big powers and slowly, but surely, they are getting results.

They also know that the big powers need their support for any successful war. Knowing these things, they are treading cautiously, appealing for moderation and negotiation, and absolutely refusing to close any door that might lead to peace.

They succeeded in keeping alive negotiations for atomic energy control. They are scrapping now to keep talks going on control of convention armaments.

Everyone here makes long speeches against war. The little fellows in private conversations complain that the big five have quarrelled so much that they are hurting the UN and disturbing the peace.

DELEGATES OF THE SMALL AND medium countries in the United Nations know they inevitably would be drawn into any war which might result from the big disagreements and urged the five great powers to take every step to compose their differences. For a rare moment, the five great powers agreed that was a good thing.

Youthful Agitators Engineer Riot Lasting Five Hours In Stuttgart

Services will be at the First Methodist Church. Burial will be in Magnolia Cemetery in Beaumont.

STUTTGART, Germany, Oct. 29. (AP)—U. S. military police officials said today agitators engineered the five-hour riot here yesterday in which five Americans and at least 12 Germans were hurt. Thousands of persons took part in the disorders.

Capt. Charles G. Ives, provost marshal for Stuttgart, said squads of teen-age youths whipped the crowd into a fury at the end of a mass demonstration against the high cost of living.

"I don't know whether they were Communists or left-overs from the Nazi regime," Ives told newsmen.

"But most people attending the demonstration were good humored at first. Then, at the end of the demonstration, these agitators started whipping them up. You could really see hate in their eyes. Their true feelings for Americans came out."

About 30,000 persons congregated in Koenigsstrasse, one of the city's principal streets, for a demonstration called by trade unions against high prices.

After the speeches, military police officials said, the crowd began to break up.

But youths apparently planted strategically throughout the crowd began urging attacks on stores and on the German police, these officials said.

THROW STONES

They began throwing stones, smashing windows and halting traffic. German police were unable to handle the mob.

American military policemen were called and formed a line that began pushing the crowd down Koenigsstrasse. As the push progressed, small groups of persons would edge out of the crowd and into ruined buildings. Then they would regroup in the rear of the advancing MPs.

German mounted police arrived in jeeps and rode up and down the sidewalks, breaking up groups of rioters. U. S. officials said the military policemen threw smoke bombs into the crowd, but fired no shots. They arrested 33 demonstrators.

"Stones as big as telephones were hurled at us from the roofs," one MP said.

By 7 o'clock, five hours after the riot began, the streets were cleared when a column of U. S. tanks and two platoons of U. S. constabulary troops arrived.

One MP suffered a knife wound and four others were bruised by stones. German police said two of their men were wounded and at least 10 demonstrators.

First Break In Maritime Strike Comes

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29. (AP)—CIO Marine engineers in San Francisco voted 230 to 56 last night to accept an agreement with employers — interpreted by some as the first real break in the 58-day-old West Coast maritime strike.

Locals of the same union in Seattle, Portland and San Pedro will vote on the agreement tonight.

Union officers were quick to point out the settlement, if accepted, will not mean any split in the maritime strike front, however, adding:

"We do not consider signing the contract will bind us to cross picket lines, because under the contract we can terminate it if we are asked to cross picket lines."

Still on strike are four other unions. The Marine Engineers say they have not been on strike, although all five unions at the outset announced none would sign a contract until all had reached satisfactory agreements with the employers.

A shipowners spokesman said the agreement with the engineers was a significant development but that it could not be termed a pattern for negotiations with the other unions — CIO Longshoremen; CIO Cooks and Stewards; Independent Marine Firemen, Oilers, Waterenders and Wipers; and Radio Operators (some AFL, some CIO).

Principal issues as longshoremen called the strike Sept. 2 included guaranteed continuance of the union-controlled "hiring hall," by which workers were assigned to jobs, and a longshore wage demand of $1.82 instead of $1.67. The employers offered $1.77, and said the courts would have to decide the hiring-hall question. The wage offer later was withdrawn.

Secretary Randolph Meriwether of the Marine Engineers said that union's proposed contract with the Pacific American Shipowners Assn. calls for:

A 5.3 per cent increase in base pay; a 50-cent per hour boost in wages of relief engineers; and an increase in base overtime to $1.71 per hour. The raise in base pay, he estimated, would give chief engineers an additional $33 a month; third assistants, $18.

Nash Estate Is One Of Largest Ever Probated

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29. (AP)—The estate of Charles W. Nash, pioneer automobile builder, is appraised at $43,183,624, making it one of the largest ever probated here.

Assets include two savings accounts totalling $12,771,193, 62,900 shares of Nash-Kelvinator Corp. common stock worth $1,155,787, and bonds in street railways and housing projects throughout the nation.

The estate, according to the official appraisal filed yesterday, also includes assets of $9 million left by Nash's wife, Mrs. Jessie Hallack Nash, who died a year ago.

Nash was 84 when he died last June 6. Most of the estate was left in trust for the benefit of his daughters, Mrs. Ruth N. Bliss, Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., and Mrs. Mae N. Brenton, Beverly Hills, Calif. Nash's sister, Mrs. W. Eldridge Washington, D. C., will receive $500 a month.

Jap Naval Base Being Cleaned Up

TOKYO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Navy Capt. Benton W. Decker, commander of the Yokosuka naval base, said today the former Japanese navy center was "not being built up—just cleaned up."

His answer was in reply to criticism in Washington by Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin. The Russian charged Yokosuka was being converted into a modern base in violation of the Potsdam and other agreements.

Jackie Robinson, Baylor University ministerial student, told the group one of the reasons he didn't drink was because he didn't want to "debauch and wreck my life."

Robinson is a basketball star.

Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor University, presided at the meeting, attended by some 175 persons.

The executive committee, and the board of directors previously had adopted a record budget of $67,500 to finance work of the organization. The recommendation will be submitted to the convention today.

Dr. Walter H. McKenzie, executive secretary, told the executive committee and directors that eight of 12 county-wide elections the past year resulted in dry votes. He said the latest report showed 32 Texas counties totally wet, 82 part dry and 140 all dry.

Dr. McKenzie was praised at a dinner in his honor.

Speakers included J. Hoytt Boles of Denton, executive secretary for the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., in Texas and Louisiana and Dr. Harold G. Cooke, president of McMurry College at Abilene.

Coal Miners Told To Oppose Truman

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 29. (AP)—The 36,000 soft coal miners in the United Mine Workers District 5 were told by District President John P. Busarello last night they must "stand together and show our disapproval by voting against Harry S. Truman."

Busarello did not mention the names of any of the other presidential candidates.

Elsewhere through the eastern soft coal fields, there have been these political action developments.

Officials of UMW district 4 in the Uniontown, Pa., area said miners there would be asked to follow the recommendations of Lewis.

Frank Hughes, president of District 3 in Greensburg, Pa., said he would not attempt to tell his miners how to vote next Tuesday.

UMW members in West Virginia have been asked by their leaders to support Gov. Thomas E. Dewey as "the lesser of two evils."

Littlefield Woman Named To Eastern Star Position

FORT WORTH, Oct. 29. (AP)—Mrs. Flora Beas Boone of Littlefield yesterday defeated three candidates for the post of associate grand conductress of the Grand Chapter of the Texas Order of the Eastern Star.

Automatically boosted to worthy grand matron was Mrs. Esther Baldwin of Wichita Falls. Mrs. Mable Harle of Port Arthur is the new associate worthy matron.

Dr. T. G. Rogers of Decatur succeeded Pat H. Boone of Littlefield as worthy grand patron. Dean Gaudin of Dallas was named associate grand patron.

Mrs. Rebecca Miles of Arlington was re-elected grand secretary and Miss Blanche Earl of Dallas was reappointed grand treasurer.

Three ballots were needed before Mrs. Boone was able to eliminate Mrs. Stella Owens, Dallas; Mrs. Bernice House, Yoakum, and Mrs. Mildred Garlitz, Fort Worth.

Selection of next year's convention site was left to new directors of the grand chapter.

Officers were installed last night at the final event of the five-day convention.

West Rites Set Saturday At Brownsville

BROWNSVILLE, Oct. 29. (AP)—Last rites for Rep. Milton H. West will be held here tomorrow.

The 60-year-old veteran representative from Texas' 15th District died in Washington yesterday. He had been suffering for several months from lymphoma, a disease of the lymph glands.

West did not seek re-election this year because of ill health.

A four-engine army transport plane was to bring the body and Mrs. West and Reps. Pickett and Wilson of Texas here today.

Gov. Beauford Jester said yesterday he is studying the question of how to fill the congressional vacancy created by the death of Rep. West.

Jester said there is a conflict in the state law on when a special election may be called to fill such a vacancy. He said he has asked Atty. Gen. Price Daniel for a ruling.

Lloyd M. Bentsen, Jr., of McAllen, is the Democratic nominee to succeed West in the next Congress in January. Jester said he has no authority to appoint a successor. He pointed out that Bentsen, if elect to fill the short time remaining in West's term, would full seasons in the major leagues gain some seniority over other in which he failed to drive in more freshmen legislators in the 81st than 100 runs—his first year and Congress. his last.

Was There Fraud In The Stevenson-Johnson Campaign?

Here is what Judge Whitfield Davidson, U. S. District Court, Northern District, Fort Worth, found to be the facts:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Court finds that the names and residences of all parties hereto, both plaintiff, defenders and interveners, are as alleged in the pleadings.
2. The Court finds that the evidence makes a prima facie showing of fraud in the election returns certified to the State Democratic Executive Committee from Precinct No. 13 in Jim Wells County, from Zapata County and from Duval County in the Democratic Primary Election held August 28, 1948, in the race for nominee for United States Senator from Texas.
3. THE COURT FINDS THAT THE EVIDENCE THAT SUCH FRAUD IN THE COUNTIES AND PRECINCTS NAMED IS PRIMA FACIE SUFFICIENT TO CHANGE THE RESULT OF SAID PRIMARY ELECTION IN THE RACE BETWEEN THE COMPLAINANT, COKE R. STEVENSON, AND THE RESPONDENT, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, FOR DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR FROM TEXAS. (Boldface capitals ours.)
4. The Court finds that the giving of effect to the fraudulent returns, heretofore mentioned, will result in depriving the complainant, Coke R. Stevenson, and interveners, H. L. Poole, A. G. Johnson and F. A. Harkrider, of their civil rights, in violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States.
5. The Court finds that each material allegation of the amended complaint and the trial amendment is sustained by the evidence.

Justice Hugo Black of the U. S. Supreme Court said Judge Davidson had no right to pass on this matter. NO COURT HAS EVER SAID THAT JUDGE DAVIDSON'S FINDINGS OF FACT WERE INCORRECT.

These findings are a matter of record and have never been set aside. You can find them in Civil Action No. 1640, filed Sept. 25, 1948, in the U. S. District Court at Fort Worth.

Vandenberg Calls Record Of 80th Congress 'Useful'

Sen. Arthur Vandenberg (R-Mich) stepped into the campaign dispute over the 80th Congress last night by calling its domestic record "amazingly useful."

At the same time the Republican foreign policy leader, in Congress stressed what he described as his party's contributions to the nation's bi-partisan foreign policy goal of a "durable peace."

"This peace is possible," he said, "unless it has been permanently blackballed in Moscow."

The chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee devoted a large part of his radio talk on behalf of the Dewey-Warren ticket to the record of the GOP-controlled 80th Congress.

While saying the Republican party "has had its human share of laws," Vandenberg added that it nevertheless "has done more for American peace, progress and prosperity through nearly a century than any other party."

"The Republican 80th Congress stands up to this test," he said, "despite self-serving critics who try rank distortions to make it the 'whipping boy' to divert attention from their own embarrassing shortcomings."

"The unspattered truth is that the 80th Congress made an amazingly useful domestic record in the face of unprecedented difficulties, not the least of which was a sudden lack of executive co-operation."

"It balanced the budget, reduced the public debt, stopped deficit spending and reduced taxes for the first time in 16 years," Vandenberg said, adding:

"Believe me, that is a mouthful in one sentence."

But he said the "cold war in which Soviet Russia threatens our peace and the peace of the world is the top problem of this hour."

"Nothing that Republicans and Democrats are linked in "substantial unity," Vandenberg said the Republicans seek to build that unity into a greater peace force. Then he offered this sketch of the GOP foreign policy position "with no claim to a monopoly of credit."

"We seek righteous peace with collective security against aggressors. . . . We shall never voluntarily desert the council chamber for the battlefield."

"But we decline timid appeasements which hasten the disasters they try to escape. . . . We shall say what we mean and mean what we say."

"We propose universal disarmament dependably protected against bad faith. But we shall walk into no booby traps. We shall keep our powder dry, pending the happy day when reason must substitute for force."

HALLOWEEN

Trick Or Treat Will Become Serious Drive

MENTOR, O., Oct. 29. (AP)—Mischief steps aside for mercy this year as Mentor youngsters celebrate Halloween.

Costumed children punch doorbells on trick-or-treat tours of this village of 1,800 in traditional Halloween style. But loot sacks they carry are stuffed with things for a needy Finnish community instead of the customary candy, nuts and other goodies.

The kids themselves thought up the idea of collecting spoons, thread, needles, buttons and other small useful articles as they make their rounds. They wanted to help in Mentor's campaign to aid the 3,600 people—many of them displaced persons—in Suolahti, a town in central Finland.

Under the leadership of the Mentor Civic Club, this Lake County town "adopted" Suolahti several weeks ago, and now the whole community has rallied behind the idea. The object is not simply relief, but to establish friendly relations with the Finnish community.

The children's Halloween parade here Saturday night will open a month of planned activities to help Suolahti, including a concert, a benefit football game and a Suolahti Thanksgiving dance with Finnish groups from Fairport, dressed in costumes of their native land, performing in folk dances.
