Solon Hits Case For 'Alibis'

Fuss Rages Over McCarthy Censure

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 — UP — Sen. Wayne Morse (Ind.-Ore.) Saturday accused Sen. Francis Case (R-S. D.), who switched his position on part of the McCarthy censure report, of "alibiing... without any iota of justification."

Case retorted that Morse seems unwilling to consider "new evidence." Morse blasted Case, a member of the special subcommittee which unanimously recommended censuring Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, for withdrawing his support from the charge that McCarthy abused Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker.

"Sen. Case's speech was an interesting rationalization of the position he has taken—but without an iota of justification," Morse said in an interview.

"The Watkins committee report recommends the censure of McCarthy because of the bulldozing, verbal bulldozing which he well-ed upon the person of a great American general," said Morse.

"Case's alibiing his own failure to stand by his own signature, signed to the Watkins report, left the Senate cold and, I'm satisfied will be as unacceptable to the people of the nation as a whole," said Morse.

Debate on the McCarthy censure resolution has been called off until Nov. 29. McCarthy is in the Naval Medical Center at Bethesda, Md., for treatment of an injured elbow.

Meanwhile, Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) said that the Senate has the obligation to settle the McCarthy censure issue finally. He noted that McCarthy also desired a final vote on the issue.

Jackson, on CBS' televised "Capitol Clock Room" program Saturday night, said that if the issue is not settled by the time the Senate is required to adjourn on Dec. 24, then it will have to be taken up in the new Democratic-controlled Congress in January.

Asked whether the 10-day delay in debate will help McCarthy's cause, Jackson said "time will heal a lot of things... on the other hand, it can stir up a lot of things."

Probe Of Veteran Land Deals Asked

FREE SAMPLES LEAVE BANK FROM FRONT, BACK DOORS

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 20 — UP — The St. Louis Globe-Democrat Saturday bannered Friday's $25,000 robbery of the suburban LeMay Bank and Trust Co. on page one.

On a back page was an item about the bank's new advertising gimmick. It sends out cards with pennies attached and bearing this message: "Who says the LeMay Bank and Trust Co. doesn't give away samples?"

Board To Employ Special Agent

AUSTIN, Nov. 20 — UP — The Texas Veterans Land Board at an emergency meeting Saturday ordered a full dress investigation into alleged fraud in the sale of property to ex-GIs under the $100 million veterans land program.

Attorney-General John Ben Shepperd said special investigators will be hired to help the probe. Land Commissioner Bascom Giles said the board will request the state senate General Investigating committee to conduct an investigation.

Gov. Allan Shivers said the board will also welcome investigation by grand juries in south Texas counties involved in the mushrooming investigation, as well as the Travis county grand jury in Austin.

"The guilty parties certainly ought to be punished," Shivers said.

"We want the investigation to be full and complete, and want all the facts to be developed... Let's get the facts before the public as quickly as possible."

The board's announcement followed a closed meeting between Giles, Shivers and Shepperd, which came closely on the heels of a special conference Shepperd held earlier with top state officials and law enforcement officers.

Shepperd said the special investigators will "supplement" state agencies — such as the attorney general's office, state auditor's office and Department of Public Safety — in investigating the veterans land situation.

The investigation thus far has centered in Dewitt, Lavaca, Victoria, Dimmit, Uvalde, Bexar, Guadalupe and Gonzales counties. Most of the deals involve land sold to Negro veterans, mostly in Zavala and Dimmit counties.

The investigation will include a study of "any needed changes in legislative policy," Shivers said.

"If there is any criminal blame, the persons responsible ought to be brought to account."

Blouse Linked To Missing Girl

MOUNT VERNON, Mo., Nov. 20 — UP — A striped blouse bearing what appeared to be bloodstains was found beneath a highway culvert Saturday and identified positively as that worn by a kidnaped 11-year-old Fort Worth, Tex., girl.

Findings of the blouse still but wiped out hope that the girl was still alive.

The blouse was found on U.S. 66 about 12 miles east of Lebanon, Mo., on the known route of a "Texaco" sircrant worker who was held here in connection with his niece's disappearance.

The blouse was identified by Mrs. Etta May Priest, wife of the uncle, Thurman Priest, 45, of Grand Prairie, Tex. Mrs. Priest said it was the blouse she bought for the missing child, Jeannette Earnest.

Priest said "early Saturday he stole the girl for her own protection."

At Rolla, Mo., State Trooper N. E. Tinnan said he saw the blouse Wednesday morning and kicked it off the culvert. He returned to get it Saturday after hearing the alarm on the missing girl.

Tinnan said the blouse was a Dundee (trade name.) It was white with pink and grey vertical stripes. While under the influence of "truth serum" administered Friday night, Priest said absolutely "nothing at all coherent," officers said. But later in his cell "he became coherent for the first time," according to Ed Max, special investigator for the Tarrant county (Fort Worth) sheriff's office, who spent the night in the cell with Priest.

He quoted Priest as saying he did not think the girl was "being brought up properly," because of "trouble in her family." Priest said the "last thing he would ever do would be to hurt Jeannette. I would fight to protect her."

Priest insisted that he remembered nothing of what had happened in recent days. Max expressed the hope he left the girl somewhere along the way and she would be found.

Priest told officers he had $1,000 with him when he left Fort Worth. He had only $370 when he was arrested.

6,000 Letters Ask Donations For TB

Mayor Tom Rose Saturday morning purchased the first sheet of Christmas seals, kicking off the 1954 Gray County Tuberculosis Seal Sale.

An estimated 6,000 letters went in the mails about the same time to county residents — and each of them contained a sheet of seals. The letters asked residents to return a contribution.

No goal has been set by the Gray County TB Board. But, a year ago, a total of $2,118.10 was contributed. The money donated provides free chest X-rays in the county, helps furnish a school nurse, provides patch tests for children and aids in treatment and rehabilitation of tubercular patients.

This year is the Golden Anniversary of the national voluntary tuberculosis movement. In June, 1904 a group of people who refused to believe that tuberculosis was a hopeless disease, met in Atlantic City, N. J., to found an organization to fight the disease. Out of this grew the Gray County TB Board.

The incidence of the disease in Gray County is slight. However, 4,500 free chest X-rays were provided free this year through the co-operation of the Texas Health Department.

Debate on the McCarthy censure resolution has been called off until Nov. 29. McCarthy is in the Naval Medical Center at Bethesda, Md., for treatment of an injured elbow.

Meanwhile, Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) said that the Senate has the obligation to settle the McCarthy censure issue finally. He noted that McCarthy also desired a final vote on the issue.

Indo-Reds To Release Catholics

SAIGON, Indo-China, Nov. 20 — UP — The International Armistice Control Commission for Indo-China said Saturday that the Communist Viet Minh have announced they will allow evacuation of all Catholics who wish to leave North Viet Nam.

However, reports from Haiphong French-held port at the mouth of the Red River Delta said the Communists are holding back many of the Catholic refugees.

The reports from the seaport on Tonkin Bay said that the Reds in the Ninh Binh area of the Red River Delta had forbidden refugees to go to Phatdiem where a control commission team is evacuating Catholics at the rate of about 600 a day.

The reports from the North coincided with the announcement at a news conference here by Indian Ambassador J. Desai that the Reds had said they would allow all refugees who wished to leave.

Desai said that the Reds already had granted 5,200 refugees permission to leave and 2,368 had moved out of the Catholic areas of the north.

Blocking Attempt Charged. Molotov said it appeared the Western powers planned to turn down the Soviet invitations to a European security conference. He accused the Western nations' parliaments of attempting to block the proposed talks.

Reds Offer Bargain On German Arms

MOSCOW, Nov. 20 — UP — The Soviet Union offered Saturday to postpone the Nov. 29 date for its proposed European security conference if the West will delay ratification of the Paris agreements for German rearmament.

Molotov warned that the "danger of war" would be increased if the Paris agreements were ratified and Germany drawn into "militaristic groupings of the Western states."

Such a situation would mean "peaceful European countries will be forced to consider new measures to ensure their security," the foreign minister said in a statement read to Western correspondents by Foreign Ministry Press Chief Leonid Ilyichev.

Blocking Attempt Charged. Molotov said it appeared the Western powers planned to turn down the Soviet invitations to a European security conference. He accused the Western nations' parliaments of attempting to block the proposed talks.

The foreign minister warned that the responsibility for speeding the arms race and increasing military spending would "lie on those who today reject organizing of collective security in Europe."

"As far as the Soviet Union is concerned," Molotov's statement said, "it considers it necessary to warn that the Paris agreements will prepare a new war in Europe."

The statement was read by Ilyichev at a press conference. Molotov was not present. His statement consisted of answers by Molotov (See BARGAIN, Page 2)

FEAR BLACK OMEN OF FUTURE

Excited Natives Report Frogs Locked In Jungle Death Battle

SINGAPORE, Nov. 20 — UP — Excited natives reported Saturday that two armies of land and water frogs were surging back and forth across a swampland battlefield in "a battle to the death" deep in the Malay jungles.

The natives, who considered the frog war a black omen of a coming crisis, said the battle had been going on for four days. They reported that untold thousands of brown water frogs were battling black land frogs in a North Malaya swamp littered with tiny corpses.

Malayan and British officials here had no immediate explanation for the battle.

at the Bronx Zoo, said he never had heard of a frog war. What probably was happening, he said, was that large adult frogs sitting on the edges of the swamp were eating baby frogs just out of the tadpole stage as they tried to get to land.

"Frog species just don't make war on one another," Oliver said.

The natives reported that the frogs were fighting with their powerful hind legs and tiny-toothed jaws.

They said that a similar jungle swamp struggle took place on the eve of World War II.

The battle scene was just a mile outside the North Malayan village of Sungai Patani.

A dispatch from the correspondent of the Singapore Straits Times said the fighting started Wednesday.

Large crowds, since have driven or bicycled to the swampy battleground to watch the strange fight.

"It was a fantastic sight," truck driver H. K. Lim said after watching the black and brown frogs battle.

The latest from dispatches reported that the brown water frogs lost the opening phase of the campaign. They were forced to fall back to a swamp stronghold where they appeared to be reorganizing for another push across the swampland battlefield.

Man In Spain Seeks Books

A man in Madrid, Spain, wants the readers of The Pampa Daily News to send him "some scholarly books, as history, geography, American civilization, novels, stories, children tales, grade books, et cetera — even though useless."

F. R. Melgar, who gives his address as P. O. Box 146, Madrid, Spain, Europe, wrote a letter to E. Roy Smith, Publisher of The News, asking the newspaper's readers to mail the books as printed or educational matter, marked "Books." That way it is not too expensive, he says.

His reason for the request, Melgar states, is "to study and better know the U.S.A., the greatest nation."

New Library Takes Shape

Story and Pictures
By ED NASH
Pampa News Staff Writer

The Lovett Memorial Library, a brick-and-stone structure which is being built by private funds but will be turned over to the City of Pampa, is expected to be completed sometime this week.

A couple of more weeks is expected to see the furniture and equipment installed. The dedication ceremonies, however, are not to be held till after the first of the year.

Here, in the five surrounding photographs, Pampans can see what has been done on the building, what needs to be done and the conveniences that are being included. This is a description of the five photos:

A—This is the outside of the building, looking southwest from a point on Houston near its intersection with Kingsmill. In the left center is the main entrance. To the right, behind the glass windowpanes, are the adult reading room and adult lounge. To the left of the main entrance are the boiler room, lounge, work room and librarian's office.

B—This is an interior "shot" showing a corner of the librarian's counter, the brickwork on the inside of the south entrance doorway and the south window through which can be seen the wooden fence that runs along the entire west side of the building's lot. A fence workman can be seen through one of the window panes.

C—This is the adult lounge, which the building workmen call the "smoking room." At present, there are just chairs and chairs, stacked over the floor. This room is at the northeast corner of the building. If it weren't for the large brick wall, people in the adult lounge could look out the window and see the flag pole, erected at the northeast corner of the building lot at Houston and Kingsmill.

D—This is the "book return" unit, which library patrons will use during the hours the library is closed. It is shown open for books. When the books are inserted, the handle is pulled up and the books drop into the bottom of the container.

E—This is another "interior" shot, but facing just about the opposite way from Picture "B." It faces toward the northeast. Along the right side is the east window which ranges along the front of the building. To the rear in the photo is another window, beyond which is the adult lounge. Workmen's equipment can be seen on the floor.

Wheeler Seal Drive Starts

SHAMROCK — (Special) — The annual Christmas Seal sale will begin Saturday in Wheeler County. The County Tuberculosis Association has sent sheets of seals worth $1.00 to every person in the county whose name and address can be obtained. The extensive mail campaign has been so successful in former years that no personal solicitation are planned.

The seals will be accompanied by letters asking the recipients to forward payment to Jesse J. Dyer, treasurer of the Wheeler County Tuberculosis Association, Wheeler. "Everyone realizes proceeds from the sale are used to combat the dreaded disease, tuberculosis, and we expect the fine response to the campaign we have received in past years," said Dr. H. E. Nicholson of Wheeler, founder and president of the association.

In addition to President Nicholson, and Mr. Dyer, treasurer, other officers of the Wheeler County Tuberculosis Association are: Mrs. Les Barry, first vice president; Harry Wofford, secretary. Directors are: Dr. Glenn R. Walker, Mrs. J. M. Tindall, B. F. Risinger, Sr., H. W. Coffman, L. D. McCauley, Mrs. Clarence Robinson, Jack Miller, A. C. 'Liberal' England Has Color Problem

LONDON, Nov. 20 — UP — Great Britain, long critical of how Americans handled their racial segregation, has a "color problem" for the first time in history. Britons have always prided themselves on being among the most liberal people on earth. But now they're worrying about sporadic but disturbing incidents that have brought the words "color bar" into the headlines. For years the British criticized how Americans handled their comparatively large Negro population. But that was before Britain's Negro colonials began immigrating in large numbers to England. Britain has a Negro population of 60,000 to 80,000 out of a total of 50 million persons. Some authorities believe this is near the saturation point for the tight-knit British economy. About 12,000 more Negroes are arriving every year, mostly from Jamaica. Most of the newcomers have been able to find jobs but there are signs that London, Sheffield and Birmingham — the biggest employment centers — may not be able to absorb many more into their labor forces. But even if the new arrivals would not discourage further immigration, unemployment benefits in Britain are not much less than what the Negroes would earn for a full week's work in their colonial homelands. Ill-feeling toward the Negro immigrants rises chiefly where there is competition for jobs. There have also been incidents over housing, and in relationships between white girls and Negro men. The West Indians are being victimized in many places by rent profiteers, often their own countrymen who have moved here earlier. A near riot broke out in a London suburb when white men objected to colored men talking to white girls. Some pubs have barred Negro

Taylor Takes Asia Command

CAMP ZAMA, Japan, Nov. 20 —UP—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who led the Eighth Army in the final stages of the Korean war, took over Saturday as commander of United States Army forces in the Far East.

Taylor assumed command of all American ground troops on guard against Communist aggression in Korea, Japan and Okinawa in a five-minute ceremony in this former Japanese Imperial army training camp.

The command had been held by Gen. John E. Hull, who will continue as the United Nations military commander and commander of all American Army, Navy and Air units in northeast Asia. Hull was unable to attend the ceremony because of "unforeseen circumstances." A spokesman said his helicopter was grounded at Tokyo by rain and fog.

In a message to Taylor from his Tokyo headquarters, Hull said he knew "of no one I would rather see assume command over all the Army forces in the Far East Command than you."

"I know you will carry out these additional responsibilities in the same magnificent manner in which you commanded the Eighth Army," Hull said.

Taylor, who will retain command of the Eighth Army, moved his headquarters from Seoul to Camp Zama, 15 miles south of Tokyo, and assumed the formal title of commander, Army Forces Far East (AFFE).

Field, Held By The Reds, Is Coming Out Of Hiding

ZURICH, Switzerland, Nov. 20 —UP—American Hermann Field will come out of hiding for the first time since Communist Poland released him Sunday to see old friends and arrange a visit to his father's grave, it was learned Saturday night.

The 44-year-old Cleveland, Ohio architect, fled from behind the Iron Curtain Friday to Zurich, where he was born.

He will leave his hideout here Sunday to call on an elderly Swiss couple who have known the Field family for years, friends said Saturday.

The appointment to see the old friends was arranged by Hermann's sister Elsie Field Doub who flew there Thursday night from London with Hermann's wife Kate.

The United Press was requested by friends not to reveal the names of the Swiss couple. However, a correspondent Saturday visited them at their beautiful villa on a hill overlooking Lake Zurich. The gray-haired woman still refers to Hermann and his brother Noel as "those idealistic boys."

Noel and his wife Herta were released by Communist Hungary earlier this week after serving more than five years in prison—a term similar to that Hermann received in Poland. Both Communist countries found the charges against the Fields false.

Noel Field, 60, a former U.S. State Department official and wartime American intelligence operative, has been described by admitted former American Communist Whittaker Chambers and Hede Massing as having "Communist associations."

Hermann, who was educated at Harvard and studied at Moscow University, also has been described in similar terms.

2796 Enter Junior Red Cross Work

Junior Red Cross enrollment in the schools of Pampa totals 2796 boys and girls. They have contributed $260 towards getting their 1955 project underway which aims to pack gift boxes for children in disaster areas and overseas, according to Homer Craig, chairman.

Enrollment is by classrooms in grade schools and by groups in the Junior and Senior High School. Craig said each school has named their Teacher-sponsor who will cooperate in the program.

Outstanding among the projects sponsored by the Pampa chapter in 1954 was the $100 sent to the Children's Fund; buying Junior Red Cross News and Journal for the High School libraries.

The Pampa Junior Red Cross sent two High School students, one from Lefors, and one from Pampa to the JRC Training Center, and a Lefors High School senior to the Aquatic School in Austin.

The JRC, founded 37 years ago, now includes 19 million American youths.

Taylor Takes Asia Command

CAMP ZAMA, Japan, Nov. 20 —UP—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who led the Eighth Army in the final stages of the Korean war, took over Saturday as commander of United States Army forces in the Far East.

Taylor assumed command of all American ground troops on guard against Communist aggression in Korea, Japan and Okinawa in a five-minute ceremony in this former Japanese Imperial army training camp.

The command had been held by Gen. John E. Hull, who will continue as the United Nations military commander and commander of all American Army, Navy and Air units in northeast Asia. Hull was unable to attend the ceremony because of "unforeseen circumstances." A spokesman said his helicopter was grounded at Tokyo by rain and fog.

In a message to Taylor from his Tokyo headquarters, Hull said he knew "of no one I would rather see assume command over all the Army forces in the Far East Command than you."

"I know you will carry out these additional responsibilities in the same magnificent manner in which you commanded the Eighth Army," Hull said.

Taylor, who will retain command of the Eighth Army, moved his headquarters from Seoul to Camp Zama, 15 miles south of Tokyo, and assumed the formal title of commander, Army Forces Far East (AFFE).

Hutcheson Jr., chief judge of the U. S. Court of Appeals, New Orleans, and Associate Justice W. St. John Garwood of the Texas Supreme Court.

GEORGETOWN, Tex., Nov. 20 —UP—A two-year prison sentence was assessed Saturday to the Rev. Herbert D. Dollahite, former superintendent of the Texas Baptist Children's Home at Round Rock, after he pleaded guilty to a charge of embezzlement.

Dollahite formerly served as Baptist preacher in churches at Port Arthur, Marfa and Round Rock.

The sentence was handed down by District Judge D. B. Wood.

Dollahite was indicted last June 24. He resigned as head of the Baptist Children's Home last May 22.

LAREDO, Tex., Nov. 20 —UP—The first tomatoes of the new season arrived from Mexico Friday via trailer truck and were sold for $7.50 per crate to the A&P food chain for Dallas.

New Bridge Dedication To Be Set

Delegates from Perryton and Miami will meet Wednesday with representatives from Pampa to work up plans for the dedication program of the Canadian River Bridge which is expected to be completed sometime in April.

County Judge Ed Haynes will head the Roberts County delegation with W. B. LaMaster, long-time Hwy. 76 booster leading the Ochiltree county group meeting at Poole's Steak House Wednesday noon, according to Fred Thompson, chairman of the Highway and Traffic committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Thompson said word has been received from State Highway Engineer DeWitt Greer that State Highway Commissioners and top officials of the State Highway Department will be on hand for the ceremonies.

Boom Equals Post-WWII

AUSTIN, Nov. 20 —UP—Migration of manufacturers to Texas during the past five years has almost equaled the state's industrial boom caused by World War II. The University of Texas bureau of business research reported Saturday.

A survey reported by Florence Escott, research supervisor for the bureau, showed that of 122 companies replying, 99 had been established in Texas within the past five years.

The report was made at the request of the newly-organized governor's economic advisory commission.

Sixty-three of the responding companies said they had offices outside Texas, or had moved their operations to Texas from another state. The largest number of concerns coming from any one state was 10 from Missouri.

North Texas was represented in the survey with 48 companies, with 24 from the Gulf Coast area. Nineteen of the responding companies are located in Central Texas, 18 in East Texas, seven in West Texas, four in the Panhandle and two in South Texas.

Factors named most prominently for choosing Texas as a location were the expanding southwestern market and the potential industrial development and population growth of the area, the report said.

Sen. McCarthy's Condition Good

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 —UP—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) was described in general as good condition Saturday although his injured elbow pained him enough to "require some medication."

The Wisconsin Republican is in the naval medical center at Bethesda, Md., for treatment of the elbow. The injury forced a postponement in the Senate censure session until Nov. 29.

A spokesman said that the senator spent "a fairly comfortable" night with "no essential change" in his condition.

McCarthy's temperature has been normal since he was admitted to the hospital Wednesday.

The senator was injured when his arm was shoved accidentally into a glass-top table while shaking hands with admirers at Milwaukee, Wis.

Oklahoma Folks Behind In Gifts

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 20 —UP—Oklahomans are trailing far behind other southwestern states in contributions to the emergency March of Dimes campaign, a report by the Southwest regional office said Saturday.

The report said almost $1 million had been collected in the Southwest area to help pay costs of care of polio patients.

Texas has contributed $484,308, Arkansas $258,995, Louisiana $133,985, and Oklahoma $75,474.

More than one-third of the county chapters of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in the four states have exhausted their treasuries in 1954.

Texas was hardest hit by polio. Texas has the most cases in that state total 2,951, compared with 1,578 last year.

Solicitors were taking contributions on downtown streets in many cities of the four-state area.

Texas Oilmen Get 287 Wells

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 20 —UP—Texas oilmen brought in 287 wells this week, pushing the year's total to 10,750, the Railroad Commission reported Saturday.

Last year's comparable total was only 9,157.

Nine gas wells for the week boosted the total for 1954 to 1,111, well ahead of last year's 1,013.

Dry holes totaled 102 for the week and 8,067 for the year.

Wildcaters drilled 36 oil wells, two gas wells and 88 dusters.

Wife Of Heir Is 'Destitute'

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 —UP—Patricia Wallace Vanderbilt, the fifth wife of Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr., was cared for by "private sources" Saturday after she applied for assistance from the welfare department's shelter for the homeless.

Mrs. Vanderbilt, 32, asked for shelter for herself and her daughter, Nannette, 12, last Wednesday after she was evicted from her East End hotel suite because she was $1,413 behind in her rent.

Mrs. Vanderbilt appealed for help from the welfare department because she was "destitute" and "penniless."

The welfare department gave Mrs. Vanderbilt $6.15 for a hotel room and care and it then arranged for care by a private charitable organization.

The welfare department said Mrs. Vanderbilt and her daughter did not spend the night in the shelter for the homeless but were taken care of by other "private sources."

Mrs. Vanderbilt swore out a warrant after his Reno divorce in 1953 charging the wealthy real estate heir with non-support and she began a separation action in which she sought $1,500 weekly alimony and $35,000 in lawyers fees.

Mrs. Vanderbilt married the wealthy real estate heir in Greenwich, Conn., Sept. 7, 1948. They separated one year later. In 1953, after she started a separation suit in New York, Vanderbilt went to Reno and won a divorce.

She since has brought a second separation suit here challenging the legality of the divorce and accusing him of abandonment. She has been denied a request for temporary alimony.

"She has nothing to sell or pawn on which she can raise funds," her attorney Monroe Winsten said. "Everything already has been sold. She is under a doctor's care and is too ill to work."

Baby Killed, 9 Hurt In Wreck

LAREDO, Tex., Nov. 20 —UP—A seven-month-old girl was killed and nine other persons injured Friday night in a two-car collision 19 miles east of Laredo.

The girl, Lou Alla Bazan, was thrown from a car driven by her father, Delfino Lozano of Bena-vides, Tex., when it collided with one driven by Lewis Sisler, a sailor stationed at the Kingsville, Tex., Naval Air Station.

The injured were Bazan and his wife, Irma Elda Saenz, 3; Misabaz Bazan, 68, all of Bena-vides; Sisler and four other sailors; Robert Jasper Clontz, Arthur Allen Meyers, Rogers Cloyse Nobel and Okeria Sleuder.

Molotov Not on Hand

Molotov himself did not attend Saturday's press conference. The transcript of Molotov's meeting with the Pravda correspondent was read by the Soviet foreign ministry press chief, Leonid F. Ilyichev.

In answering the other three questions, Molotov emphasized in strong terms that the Soviet contends ratification of the London and Paris agreements for the rearmament of West Germany will prejudice all other East-West negotiations on Europe, and particularly Germany.

THE MARQUEE BY DICK KLEINER

Some radio and TV newsmen have nice voices, pleasant smiles and expensive suits, but only the vaguest idea of what makes news. Ordinarily, this lack isn't too noticeable, but once in a while it crops up and is paraded where all can see. John Cameron Swayze was in Ohio, doing on-the-spot interviews with senatorial candidates. He was conducting a street discussion with Rep. George Bender when a fist-fight broke out in the crowd. The alert cameraman swung around to catch this lucky break — live news right before his lens — but Swayze doggedly stuck to interviewing Bender. Wonder what a real reporter would have done with that. Irving Berlin appeared on Bill Cullen's "Stop the Music" (CBS-Radio). All during the program he stared at Cullen, obviously trying to remember where he'd seen him before. Afterwards he asked where they'd met. Cullen was flattered that Berlin remembered. Some years back, Bill ran a charter air service, and used to fly Berlin from New York to his farm in Liberty, N. Y.

Cyril Ritchard, the villainous Captain Hook in the new musical "Peter Pan," sat in his hotel room with flowers everywhere. They were mostly bouquets sent by admirers. "Those," he said, pointing to a fat vase full of fat white mums, "are Tallulah." It was nice to know he appreciated flowers. He couldn't be quite the cad he is on stage — poisoning Tinker Bell, hitting Peter, disliking everything sweet and pure if he appreciated flowers. Actually, Ritchard is a tall, blue-eyed Australian, who has been making a career out of playing fops during the last six or seven years. Before then he'd been in musicals, mostly in England and Australia. The background is ideal for this latest Captain Hook, for Ritchard makes him into a foppish musical comedy villain. The portrayal is triumphant. "Captain Hook is a phony," Ritchard says, analyzing the character he plays. "He's a child's idea of a pirate. He's a ferocious coward. But, then, all big crooks are cowards — without their guns they're nothing. Hook, without his hook, would be nothing, either." Ritchard has been paged frequently to play Hook in London, where "Peter Pan" is revived annually during the Christmas season. "But the scenery by now is so tatty I never did it," he says. This new version, directed by the young American choreographer, Jerome Robbins, suits Ritchard to a cup of tea. "We run neck-and-neck with Barrie," he says, "but everyone wins. Robbins' appreciation of a child's mind gives 'Peter' a dash of mustard. I've always contended this is both a play for children and a play about children for adults. It is both now."

Ritchard says this version might be successful in England "with the people, but perhaps not with the critics, although you never can tell about critics. The British are inclined to be snobbish about anyone but themselves changing British works. I dislike that sort of stuffiness." This, then, is Captain Hook. Hissass!

The mambo trend is getting ridiculous. Jimmy Boyd has a new record out called "I Saw Mommy Doing the Mambo (With You Know Who)" and Ralph Flanagan has mambo versions of "The Little Brown Jug" and "The American Patrol March." There's the "St. Louis Blues Mambo" and Sophie Tucker doing the "Middle-Age Mambo." Just wait. One of these days we'll get the "Mambo Mambo."

Special guests Monday night will be the congregation of the Church of the Brethren in Waka community. The church choir will sing during the Wednesday night service.

Thanksgiving Services Set — A community-wide Thanksgiving service will be held at the First Baptist Church in Miami Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Rev. J. V. Patterson, Methodist pastor, will deliver the Thanksgiving sermon, and Rev. Ed Bridwell, Christian Church pastor, will tell the Thanksgiving story. Special music will be provided by the youth choir of the Baptist Church. Rev. Ray Manning, Baptist pastor, has extended an invitation to the people of Miami and community in general to attend this Thanksgiving service.

Materialism Threatens US, Bishops Warn

BY LEE NICHOLS — WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 —UP— The Catholic bishops of the United States declared Saturday the nation is threatened with destruction by "atheistic materialism" and must "recover and renew its Christian faith" to survive. In their annual statement, the bishops bracketed "Godless humanism" with communism as the "enemy" that has tyrannized "a billion souls" and "threatens the destruction of our own land." They said that despite a reported rise in U.S. church membership, "the trend in public and private morality has been downward" and disrespect for "God's law" is shown in "the lustful self-indulgence which leads from birth prevention to divorce, from broken homes to the broken lives of youthful delinquents."

Attack Materialism — The bishops also attacked a "form of materialism" which they said "reveals itself as secularism in politics and government, as avarice in business and in the professions, and as paganism in the personal lives and relations of all too many men and women."

The statement was issued at the conclusion of the bishops' three day annual meeting here, concluded Friday, and signed in their name by the administrative board of the National Catholic Welfare Conference. The statement did not mention Russia, and referred only briefly to "the fate of Poland and of China, of Yugoslavia and of Hungary, and of so many others" which have fallen under Communist domination. It emphasized that the U.S. Catholic leaders consider "atheistic materialism" at least as great an "enemy" of Western civilization as communism, and devoted most of its space to an attack on materialism.

"Some see the enemy only as a political state or group of states, or merely as an economic system," it said. "Whether it be entrenched in the organs of a foreign state, or in one of our own domestic institutions, it is atheistic materialism that seeks to destroy us. This is the enemy." As additional evidence of the decline of religious influences, the statement cited what it called "the appalling circulation of indecent literature and the low moral level of so much of the public entertainment in these days." The prelates said the Western world has "fallen from its former greatness. . . because so many have fallen away from the faith, or have denatured it by dilution and compromise."

Sailor Tells Of Impressive Rites

(Editor's Note: Navy man Robert H. Kelley, obviously impressed by a military ceremony in Cuba recently, wrote his impressions in a letter to "Stars and Stripes" column of The Pampa News. In his letter, he said it was a rare occasion, and that he thought the people of Pampa would be interested.) By ROBERT H. KELLEY Pillows of fluffy, cotton-like clouds adorned the tropical blue sky here at Guantanamo Bay just before sunset. The tide was full and the salty sea breeze was changing its course to a northerly direction. A tremendous sun sat on the edge of the world like a magnificent jewel on a palette of blue velvet. Palm trees from a hill behind stood like sightless eyes over one of God's most bold and stirring creations. Nearly two thousand sailors, civilians and Marines anxiously awaited the march of a drill team from England, along with an extremely colorful band. As the ghost of darkness put its arm around Guantanamo Bay the drummers began to beat out the rhythm "Tattoo." It was soft music, the kind that seems to make you want to dream. It drifted through the crowd to space and on into a world of dark oblivion. A motionless military salute as the colors were hoisted and the National Anthems of all countries represented in the vicinity were played by the Ceremonial Guard, Drums and Band of "The Royal Marines from Her Majesty's Ship — "Superb."

The royal marines began their march, which was smart and snappy. They were dressed in blue uniforms trimmed in red, along with white belts and hats. Every move and order was executed to perfection. When the sunset had reached its peak, the "Sull" was sounded on the deck and the ship's company on deck faced the colors with a salute, as the White Ensign was lowered to the bugle call "Sunset."

The Guard and Band then marched past the Saluting Base to "A Life on the Ocean-Wave," the Regimental March of the Royal Marines. Black-bellied clouds rolled into the sky while a swell of patriotism took the hearts of all the spectators. With the sun now almost down, it seemed to rim the earth in gold and the black clouds like dark red rubies in a vast pool of liquid silver.

TMA Urges Compensation Maximum Be Increased

Following an address by Victor Grima, director of industrial relations of the Texas Manufacturers Association, the newly-organized Adobe Walls chapter of TMA recommended to the state organization that weekly benefits under the "antiquated" Texas Workmen's Compensation Law be increased from the present low of $25 per week.

It was recommended that the TMA press for this revision of the present law, on the books since 1917, provided seven amendments proposed by TMA are adopted by the legislature, it was decided a meeting Friday in the Hughes building.

Pointing up the inadequacy of present weekly benefits, in the discussion period following the talk, Don M. Conley, director of safety and insurance for the Cabot Companies, showed Texas weekly maximum compensation was not only among the lowest in the nation, but also in a similar position in relation to some of its sister states.

Presiding over Friday's meeting of the Adobe Walls chapter of TMA, organized Oct. 11 in Borger, was J. D. Wilkinson, chairman and president of the First National Bank in Borger. The Adobe Walls chapter which includes Pampa, Borger and outlying towns was formerly included in the Amarillo chapter.

Barnett, wherein is traced the history and the significance of the American Christmas from the time of the Puritans.

Two books on hypnotism were placed recently in the stacks "Hypnosis in Modern Medicine," by J. Schneck, and "Story of a Hypnotist" by Franz Julius. Be sure to test out the phenomenal effect of "variable pitch propellers" in Dynaflo Drive!

MAYBE—among the upcoming crop of new 1955 models—there's another car with an advance that can hold a candle to this one. But we doubt it. We doubt it because nowhere—among the rumors of what's cooking in automotive laboratories—is there anything to compare with what's actually happened at Buick.

So Buick engineers asked themselves—"If you can do it with air, why can't you do it with oil—the oil inside a Dynaflo Drive?"

And to make a long story short—they could, and they did.

They designed and engineered the propeller-like blades inside the "stator" of a Dynaflo Drive so they can change their pitch as much as 75 degrees.

Housewives Again Go Butter Hungry

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20—UP—Housewives are likely to stay out in the cold again next year as far as distribution of government-owned surplus butter is concerned. They won't get any.

A proposal to let taxpayers—who paid for the federal purchases—cash in on some of the cut-rate give-aways and sales was studied earlier this year and finally "temporarily" shelved.

Agriculture Department officials said Saturday there are no moves in the offing to take the proposal off the shelf and they concede "temporary" has turned into "permanent."

Even the National Milk Producers Federation has decided against making any push for domestic cut-rate sales of the dairy product with the new Congress next year.

Several months ago, when dairy surpluses were mounting daily to record highs, the public relations-conscious milk producers strongly recommended a plan to distribute butter domestically to "give the housewife a price break."

But Secretary E. M. Norton said Saturday any renewed effort is unlikely "because they seem to be moving the surplus out all right under present programs."

Although there are still about one billion pounds of butter, cheese and dried milk in federal larders, daily purchases seasonally have trickled down enough to take butter buying out of the limelight.

So far the department has sold and donated—mostly donated—about 1.5 billion pounds of dairy surpluses bought under price support programs since heavy buying began in 1952. They hope to unload lots more overseas under the new billion dollar surplus disposal act.

Losses so far have topped the $500 million mark. Another $375 million in losses is anticipated on current holdings—without counting any losses on future buying.

Elsewhere on the farm front: 1955 price supports—Based on current supplies, wheat will be the only basic crop supported next year at the minimum 82½ per cent of parity allowed in the new farm law.

In a speech this week, Benson said tobacco, cotton and peanuts will continue at 90 per cent. He said corn will be supported at about 88 per cent of parity next year, but if the harvest is again in the neighborhood of three billion bushels, 90 per cent props on corn would return for 1956.

At current parity, dollars and cents props next year would average $2.04 on wheat, compared with this year's $2.24, and $1.58 on corn, compared with this year's $1.62.

REA — The REA has taken a move which could mean a step-up in the granting of generating loans to big super co-ops in power-short areas.

It announced it will ask Congress to eliminate the so-called "state formula" as a basis for determining loan grants. The formula limits loans on the basis of the number of farms without electricity in each state.

REA Chief Ancher Belsen said that since almost all states have 90 per cent or more of their farms electrified, the formula has "outlived" its usefulness.

Dairy props—Secretary Benson has made clear his opposition to any hike in dairy supports. He told a news conference any increase would be a "serious mistake" and bad for dairy farmers.

He said an increase—endorsed by the National Milk Producers Federation in convention last week—would lengthen the period of "adjustment" in the industry and halt current trends toward increased consumption.

Cattle Feeding—About the same as last year or slightly more cattle are expected to be put on feed this winter according to the crop reporting board.

Increases in feeding operations are expected in some of the major corn belt states and in most western states, but decreases are likely in the northern corn belt and in Missouri and Kansas where feed grain and hay supplies are expected to be less than adequate.

Fisherman Lands Record Fish But Doesn't Know What It Is

HONOLULU, T.H., Nov. 20—UP—A half-ton swordfish caught on a homemade lure fashioned from bathroom fixtures has become Hawaii's hero of the hour, and the storm center of a bitter controversy.

The 1,002 pound fish is the largest ever caught on rod and reel in American waters, but the question is whether the giant is a black or striped marlin.

Veteran sports fisherman George Parker Jr. of Kona, Hawaii, boated the monster while fishing alone Saturday night after a thrilling, 3 1/2 hour fight. If the fish is a striped marlin, it is a new world's record by some 310 pounds. But if it's a black, it merely becomes the largest game fish ever landed in U.S. waters with hook and line.

Lines have been drawn, sides chosen, and what started out as a purely academic argument by local ichthyologists and scientists has become a name calling contest.

Still a Marlin

Vernon E. Brock, territorial fish and wildlife director, insists the fish is a black marlin, regardless of its stripes.

After repeated queries and lengthy badgering by the striped marlin backers, the exasperated Brock answered: "I don't care if the fish has pink ribbons down its dorsal fins, it's still a black marlin."

Dudley C. Lewis, Hawaii representative of the International Game and Fish Association, is equally adamant that the prize catch is a new world record for striped marlin.

"The basis of all arguments," Lewis said testily, "is ignorance, and people are insisting this is a black marlin just because we have never seen a striped variety this size."

The man who started the rumpus is 38-year-old Parker, who wasn't even fishing when he made the hookup Saturday. The Kona fisherman was ferrying his boat from Hawaii to Oahu for drydocking, and was trailing a line "just in case."

The monster hit his bathroom fixture lure at exactly 4:00 p.m., and the battle was on with Parker shuttling back and forth trying to play the fish, steer the boat, and call for help over the radio telephone. He was all by himself for more than an hour, and the fish had stripped all but 100 yards of line off the reel. The first help to arrive was the American Navy in the form of an aircraft carrier and an escorting destroyer. They playfully bore down on the hapless Parker at 20 knots.

"I became convinced at that point that the Navy didn't want me to land that fish," the big-boned fisherman explained. "The carrier passed right over the line within 200 yards of my boat and if the fish had ever surfaced, it would have ended then and there. Waves from the prop wash caused me to ship water."

Gets Help

Other boats in the vicinity finally arrived and fellow fishermen jumped aboard to help Parker. His 14-0 reel froze at that point, and they finally managed to slow the brute into shallow water where the fish was boated.

The fish was caught on a 16-ounce fiber glass rod, a Penn Senator 14-0 reel with 800 yards of 130 pound test dachron line.

The argument will be settled by the Museum of Natural History which is being supplied with full measurements, specifications and description along with color and black and white pictures of the fish.

The one man in the territory who could settle the argument, Spencer Tinker, head of the Honolulu aquarium, refuses to get involved in the discussion.

"I don't even want to look at that fish, let alone name it," Tinker said. "There are a few friendships I value too highly to get mixed up in that argument."

The present world record for striped marlin is held by Ralph Nakamura, who boated a 737-pound fish last March in Hawaiian waters just off Barber's Point.

The thing that upset the game fishermen more than anything was that Parker, a native of the island of Hawaii, caught the fish in the back yard of the local fishermen, just five miles off Oahu's Koko Head.

Jury Group To Be Named

Dist. Judge Lewis M. Goodrich will probably name his first jury commission of the new year either Dec. 19 or Dec. 17 — and one of its members will be a woman.

His announcement of intentions came Friday, the day Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd ruled was the first day that women could serve on Texas juries. The voters Nov. 2 approved an amendment to the Texas Constitution requiring women to serve on juries.

The jury commission is the group that uses the poll tax list to choose the names of persons for grand juries, petit juries and special venires. The opening day of 1955 district court will be Jan. 3 and Judge Goodrich said he wants to have his grand jury and petit jury panels named by then.

That is why the jury commission will be named in December. A week ago the judge said he would name a woman. From three to five persons serve on a jury commission. The practice in Gray County has been five.

Westerners Stave Off Fighting Harvesters For 14-7 Win

Big Line Slows PHS Ground Game

By BUCK FRANCIS
Pampa News Sports Editor

The Lubbock Westerners checked the Fighting Harvesters' vaunted running attack at Harvester Stadium yesterday afternoon as it enabled the Hub City team to chalk up a 14-7 District 1-AAAA victory over the Green and Golders before an estimated 4,000 fans.

The Westerner forward wall, which outwitted the Harvester line by 17 pounds per man, held the Harvesters to less than 100 yards rushing for the first time this season. The Green and Golders netted only 74 yards rushing.

The Harvesters did find the air lanes for 102 yards but the inability to move on the ground proved disastrous for the Pampanos. Lubbock, led by Robert Hogue, hard running halfback, ran up a net of 190 yards on the ground but were blanked in the passing department.

Hogue was the game's leading ground gainer with a net of 74 yards on 15 carries. Hogue, however, turned the scoring duties over to two of his team mates. The Harvesters missed three golden opportunities to score in the first two quarters that would have pulled them abreast of the visitors but their potential scoring threats were stopped each time.

A fumble stopped the first threat on the Lubbock nine in the third quarter. The Westerners had earlier been stopped on the Harvester one before they finally scored. The Westerners reached the Harvester one with three plays coming up but the Harvesters threw up the greatest goal line stand ever seen here by stopping the Westerners for no gain on the next three plays.

The drive eventually paid off in a score, though, as the Westerners took over on Pampa's 31 following the punt out of danger and drove for a TD. Robert Benton scored the first Westerner TD on a six-yard run. Benton also converted to give Lubbock a 7-0 lead.

The Harvesters took the ensuing kickoff and drove to their only TD which came just eight seconds before halftime. Sharp sparked the 54-yard TD march with three pass completions that ate up 47 yards.

The payoff came from Sharp's arm as he hit Ed Jim Green for the final nine yards. Stone, Lubbock's star receiver, converted to tie the score, running his conversion string to 16 without a miss.

Don Cathey capped Lubbock's winning TD march in the third period on a one-yard smash. Lewis was the leading ground gainer for the Harvesters with 47 yards on 15 carries. Harlan Boyle followed with 22 yards on nine carries.

Sharp, nursing an injured back, completed seven of 19 passes for 102 yards. Stone was his pet target with three catches for 35 yards. Score by quarters: Harvesters 0 7 0 0-7; Lubbock 0 7 7 0-14.

Scoring: Touchdowns—Harvesters—Green, Lubbock—Benton, Cathey, PAT—Harvesters—Stone, Lubbock—Benton (2).

Baylor Rocks SMU's Cotton Bowl Bid, 33 To 21

Cotton Bowl Berth Goes To Porkers

By FAYE LOYD

DALLAS, Nov. 20—UP—An East Texas whirlwind halfback named Delbert Shofner and the deft quarterbacking of Billy Hooper shattered Southern Methodist pole within one quarter Saturday as Baylor defeated SMU 33 to 21 to send Arkansas over the back fence into the Cotton Bowl game.

The bitterly-fought football game erupted in fistcuffs between Baylor and SMU players as the game ended. Police and coaches broke up the fight without apparent serious casualties.

The loss knocked Southern Methodist, previously unbeaten in the Southwest Conference but tied by Texas, out of title contention. Baylor still can tie for the conference championship by defeating Rice next Saturday, but Arkansas, defeated 7 to 6 by Louisiana State Saturday at Shreveport, still will be most team at the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1 because the Razorbacks beat Baylor.

SMU Leads Early Southern Methodist looked like a winner during the first quarter and led 7-0. Baylor's first quarter score came when Reuben Saage went over from the SMU seven.

Shofner, a six-foot, three-inch sophomore from Center, deep in East Texas, first intercepted a long Nutt pass in the second quarter on the Baylor 13. He danced through surprise defenders into clear field and ran 87 yards down the sidelines for the second Baylor touchdown. Baylor's first quarter score came when Reuben Saage went over from the SMU seven.

Shofner, again, who put Baylor ahead with four minutes, 54 seconds remaining in the first half by bucking over from the one to give the Bears a 20-14 halftime lead. This touchdown was set up when Hooper passed 31 yards to Saage to move Baylor to the SMU 13. Two six-yard rushes by Weldon Holly pushed the Bears to the one.

Shofner made almost every Baylor tackle during the first nine minutes of the game and stayed busy in that department all day. It was he who made the key block when halfback L. G. Dupre, in three plays, made Baylor's fourth touchdown.

Score by periods: SMU 14 0 0 7-21; Baylor 6 14 6 7-33. SMU scoring: Touchdowns, Nutt, Eidom, Marshall, Conversions, Bernet 3. Baylor scoring: Touchdowns, Saage, Shofner 2, Dupre, Holley, Conversions, C. Smith 3.

SIX POINTS FOR HARVESTERS — J. Green, No. 83, falls into the end zone in the photo above for the only Harvester touchdown in yesterday's Harvester-Lubbock contest at Harvester Stadium. Green had just received a pass thrown by Buddy Sharp and was tackled across the goal line. The play covered nine yards. Marjion Stone, No. 85, who kicked the extra point to tie the score at 7-7, expresses joy over the TD play as does Gene Emerson, No. 36. Note official signalling the touchdown.

Wyoming Nips Tulsa On Late Fumble 28-27

TULSA, Nov. 20—UP—Wyoming forged a comeback to win the game Saturday over highly-regarded Arkansas. The winning combination came late in the first half.

After taking an Arkansas punt on the Arkansas 42, Doggett, five plays later, hit end Billy Sheehy on the Arkansas two. On the next play with time running out, Doggett faked a handoff to halfback Chuck Johns who went over standing up.

Doggett then converted for the winning margin. Although beaten Saturday, Arkansas nailed the bid to the Cotton Bowl on the strength of Baylor's 33 to 21 victory over Southern Methodist.

Shows Little Power Arkansas, which lost a 21 to 14 game to Southern Methodist last Saturday, showed little of the heralded power which at one time this season sent it to fourth place among the nation's powers.

Its lone touchdown came a few minutes after LSU scored and was on the Razorbacks' fourth sputtering attempt. Sophomore tailback Buddy Benson hit end Billy Lyons with a 14-yard pass. Lyons took it on the LSU one and twisted over for the touchdown, but Benson's conversion attempt was wide.

The game, played in perfect 60-degree weather, drew 32,000 fans, the largest public gathering in the history of this northwest Louisiana city. Included in the group were Arkansas' Gov. Francis Cherry and Louisiana's Gov. Robert F. Kennon.

Jinx on Hogs A jinx that has plagued Arkansas through the long series with LSU was again Saturday. In total offense, LSU, which won its fourth game of a dismal season Saturday, gained 267 yards, 227 of them on the ground to 161 for Arkansas, and outdressed the Razorbacks, 14 to 12.

Score by periods: LSU 0 7 0 0-7; Arkansas 0 6 0 0-6. LSU scoring: Touchdowns, Johns, Conversion, Doggett. Arkansas scoring: Touchdowns, Lyons.

LSU Upsets Cotton Bowl Bound Arkansas, 7 To 6

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 20—UP—Little Al Doggett, who played both halfback and quarterback to patch up an injury-riddled lineup, engineered a touchdown drive; then kicked the extra point to give Louisiana State a 7 to 6 victory Saturday over highly-regarded Arkansas.

The winning combination came late in the first half. After taking an Arkansas punt on the Arkansas 42, Doggett, five plays later, hit end Billy Sheehy on the Arkansas two. On the next play with time running out, Doggett faked a handoff to halfback Chuck Johns who went over standing up.

Doggett then converted for the winning margin. Although beaten Saturday, Arkansas nailed the bid to the Cotton Bowl on the strength of Baylor's 33 to 21 victory over Southern Methodist.

Shows Little Power Arkansas, which lost a 21 to 14 game to Southern Methodist last Saturday, showed little of the heralded power which at one time this season sent it to fourth place among the nation's powers.

Its lone touchdown came a few minutes after LSU scored and was on the Razorbacks' fourth sputtering attempt. Sophomore tailback Buddy Benson hit end Billy Lyons with a 14-yard pass. Lyons took it on the LSU one and twisted over for the touchdown, but Benson's conversion attempt was wide.

The game, played in perfect 60-degree weather, drew 32,000 fans, the largest public gathering in the history of this northwest Louisiana city. Included in the group were Arkansas' Gov. Francis Cherry and Louisiana's Gov. Robert F. Kennon.

Jinx on Hogs A jinx that has plagued Arkansas through the long series with LSU was again Saturday. In total offense, LSU, which won its fourth game of a dismal season Saturday, gained 267 yards, 227 of them on the ground to 161 for Arkansas, and outdressed the Razorbacks, 14 to 12.

Score by periods: LSU 0 7 0 0-7; Arkansas 0 6 0 0-6. LSU scoring: Touchdowns, Johns, Conversion, Doggett. Arkansas scoring: Touchdowns, Lyons.

Raiders Soar Past Cougars, 61-14

LUBBOCK, Tex., Nov. 20—UP—Texas Tech and sickness combined for a 61-14 victory over the University of Houston Saturday as the Red Raiders put on one of their greatest offensive shows. Texas Tech scored 42 points in the second period to riddle a Houston team suffering from a virus infection or food poisoning. Twenty of the 35 Houston squad members were sick last night and Saturday. All suited up for the game, but many were still very weak.

Texas Tech held a 61 to 0 lead at the end of the third period but Tech reserves finally and mercifully went in to give the remains of the Houston team a chance to score two touchdowns. Then came five touchdowns in rapid succession that saw Texas Tech surge ahead with a 48-0 lead at halftime. Tech picked up 13 points more in the third period before the regulars retired to the sidelines.

Amarillo won over Borger yesterday, 28-6, while Lubbock surprised the Pampa Harvesters, 14-7.

By RAUL (Rabbit) RAMIREZ

UCLA Swamps Trojans, 34-0

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20—UP—The nation's top-ranking UCLA Bruins exploded for four touchdowns in the final period Saturday to defeat University of Southern California, 34 to 0, and captured their second straight Pacific Coast Conference championship.

Playing before the nation's top football crowd of the season—102,548 fans jammed into Memorial Coliseum—UCLA had to get as hot as the unofficial field temperature of 110 degrees in the final period to run up their one-sided score after being held to a singletouchdown for three periods.

Although ineligible to go to the Rose Bowl, UCLA demonstrated it deserved its top-ranking in the United Press coaches' poll with its great defense and ability to catch fire when given the slightest break.

UCLA scoring: Touchdowns: Heydenfelt, Davenport, DeBay, Loud, Ballard, Conversions, Hermann 4.

Sooners Crush Cornhuskers For 18th Straight Victory, 55-7

Win Clinches 9th Big 7 Title For OU

By CARTER BRADLEY
NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 20 — UP — Oklahoma touchdowns scored by eight different players Saturday crushed Nebraska, 55-7, and won Oklahoma its ninth Big Seven championship and 18th straight victory.

But humiliation at the hands of third-ranked Oklahoma before a homecoming crowd of 36,900 did not cut Nebraska out of the Orange Bowl running.

Under Big Seven rules, Oklahoma cannot play in the bowl and Nebraska was entitled to go if Colorado beat Kansas State.

But humiliation at the hands of third-ranked Oklahoma before 56,000 fans was softened by the news that Nebraska will represent the Big Seven in the Orange Bowl at Miami Jan. 1.

Oklahoma cannot return to the bowl this year, under Big Seven rules, and Nebraska backed into the bowl bid when Colorado downed Kansas State, the other Orange Bowl aspirant from the conference.

Nebraska's only score came shortly after the first Oklahoma touchdown. After Nebraska tackle Fev Evans recovered an Oklahoma fumble on the Sooner 20, quarterback Don Erway passed to end Jon McWilliams for the distance.

Oklahoma quickly regained the lead, with quarterback Pat O'Neal passing 21 yards to halfback Tommy McDonald for the score.

The passes made the difference, Oklahoma, which normally gains five times as much yardage on the ground as in the air, gained 109 yards passing the first half to only 99 yards rushing. But in the rest of the game the relentless Oklahoma ground attack piled up 342 net yards rushing compared with 106 for Nebraska.

Oklahoma gained 235 yards passing to Nebraska's 56.

Scores in Order

In the last half, Oklahoma scorers in order were halfbacks Bob Herndon and Robert Burris, fullback Jerry Tubbs, halfback Robert Derrick and fullback Bob Wyatt.

Leake, the Big Seven's top scorer with 77 points, converted three times to lead the scoring with nine points.

Nebraska, which has everything to gain by winning Saturday, faltered after a strong first period showing. At the end Oklahoma had scored 29 first downs to Nebraska's nine.

Oklahoma is undefeated in 47 Big Seven games under Coach Bud Wilkinson and holds the nation's longest winning streak.

The Harvesters drew a 15-yard penalty on the play that shoved them back to the 19 but the Green and Golders came right back to score to tie the score at 7-7. Lubbock, however, went on to win the game in the fourth period, 14-7. (News Photo)

Canadian Captures 3rd Place In 1-A

The Canadian Wildcats won the battle for third place in the District 1-A final standings Friday night by downing the Gruver Longhorns, 21-7, at Gruver.

The victory gave Canadian, who was tied with two other teams for third before Friday's game, a 4-3 conference record.

Clarendon and Memphis, the two teams who were tied with Canadian for third last week, lost their final games Friday with the two teams sharing fourth place honors.

Clarendon bowed to second place Lefors Friday night, 19-6 while Memphis lost to pennant winner McLean on first downs. Memphis tied McLean, 13-13, and when 20-yard penetrations were even at 4-4, the winner was decided on first downs, McLean winning in this respect, 12-10.

In the other 1-A game Friday, White Deer wound up its season with a 32-19 win over Panhandle in a Homecoming tilt at White Deer.

A run-down of Friday's final games:

Lefors 19, Clarendon 6
Lefors jumped into a 7-0 lead in the first quarter and was never headed as the Pirates closed out their season with nine wins and one loss.

Johnny Ray scored the first period Lefors touchdown on a 12-yard run. Tommy Hedrick converted to make it 7-0. There was no further scoring in the first half.

Clarendon narrowed the gap to one point in the third quarter when Max Johnson scored for the Broncos from three yards out.

Billy Earhart of the Pirates gathered in a pass and raced 43 yards for a TD to start the Pirates rolling again.

J. D. Redus then put the game on ice for Lefors when he intercepted a Clarendon pass and dashed 55 yards to paydirt.

White Deer 32, Panhandle 19
White Deer, after coming from behind twice in the first half, won going away in the second half as

McLean look the lead in the third on a 75-yard pass play from Ricky Mantooth to James Smith. Mantooth converted to make it 13-6.

Memphis tied the score on a three-yard run by Davis and Dean Sustaire's conversion.

Canadian 21, Gruver 7
Canadian jumped to a 14-0 halftime lead and then stayed off Gruver to win the final game for both clubs, 21-7.

Two short line plunges gave Canadian its two touchdowns in the first half, a one-yarder by Tommy Hobdy and a two-yarder by Jerry Green.

Dell Krehbiel, who converted after the first two Canadian touchdowns, scored the third TD himself with Garner Schoenhals adding the point.

Ken Mason scored for Gruver.

The Harvesters will play their first home game, Dec. 3, with the Vernon Lions furnishing the opposition. The Green and Golders will host Sudan the following night, Dec. 4.

Buckeyes Rally To Nip Michigan

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 20 — UP — Ohio State came from behind to whip Michigan, 21-7, Saturday to win the Big Ten title, a trip to the Rose Bowl and complete its first unbeaten season in 10 years.

The Buckeyes, led by quarterback Dave Leggett who threw two touchdowns passes, further enhanced their finest season by becoming the first team to win seven Big Ten games in 41 years.

Ohio, completely outplayed by Michigan in the first half, caught fire late in the third period to stop Michigan six inches from the Buckeye goal line, and then launched two touchdown drives that insured the victory. The 82,438 howling fans yelled themselves hoarse and showered the field with paper.

Assured Bowl Berth
Ohio State, in winning its ninth straight game, was assured of the Rose Bowl bid to oppose Southern California in Pasadena Jan. 1. Big Ten athletic directors balloted Saturday night on their choice of a "representative" team to represent the western conference and they traditionally pick the champion.

Ohio, which had rated no better than fifth in the Big Ten before the season, drove at least 99 yards and 30 inches for what proved to be the winning touchdown, a 12-play drive sparked by Howard Cassidy's 52-yard run.

Michigan went into the game with a chance to tie the Buckeyes for the Big Ten title, and at first it appeared the Wolverines would maintain the tradition that had carried them to 33 victories in 89 games with Ohio.

Michigan Score
The Wolverines marched to a touchdown on the opening kickoff. A 27-yard dash by halfback Dan Cline on the first play was the big gainer in the 12-play drive that ended with quarterback Lew Baldacci pitching out to Cline, who raced untouched seven yards to score. Ron Cramer converted.

The Wolverines, showing exceptionally fine power from their single-wing attack, battered the Buckeyes until late in the second period when Jack Gibbs leaped high to intercept Jim Maddock's pass and ran it back 45 yards to the Michigan 11.

On the next play, Leggett calmly fired a touchdown pass to Ted Kries, wide-open in the end zone, for the touchdown. Little Ted Weed converted to tie the score at 7-7.

The teams were deadlocked until Ohio opened up late in the third period.

Score by periods:
Ohio State 0 7 0 14—21
Michigan 7 0 0 0—7

Ohio State scoring: Touchdowns, Kries, Cassidy, Brubaker, Conversions, Weed 3.
Michigan scoring: Touchdown, Cline, Conversion, Kromer.

Missouri Rolls Past Kansas, 41 To 23

COLUMBIA, Mo., Nov. 20 — UP — Missouri's Tigers showed power, passing and ply Saturday as they humbled the Kansas Jayhawkers, 41 to 18, before a homecoming crowd of 29,900.

The Missouri victory evened the 63-game series between the two teams at 28 wins apiece with seven ties. It was the 16th straight defeat for Kansas—longest losing string in major collegiate football.

Missouri struck for two first period touchdowns, added another in the second period and two more in the third before fullback John Anderson led Kansas to three touchdowns against Missouri reserves.

It was the biggest margin of victory since Missouri's 28-0 win in 1944. It also marked the first non-winning season in Jayhawk history.

Scoring Early
Missouri grabbed two touchdowns in the first nine minutes to settle any doubt about the outcome. Vic Eaton intercepted Bud Laughlin's pass on Kansas' second offensive play and the Tigers drove 76 yards on five running plays and a 38 yard pass from Eaton to Harold Burnette. Jimmy Hunter scored on a 14 yard reverse play and Jack Fox kicked the point.

Missouri scored once in the second period and twice more in the third, running the score up to 34-0 before Coach Don Faurot pulled the first team out.

Missouri's reserves allowed Kansas to score its first touchdown as Dick Sandifer evaded the secondary to grab a play from Bev Butler for a 73 yard gain.

Score by periods:
Missouri 14 7 13 7—41
Kansas 0 0 8 12—18

Missouri scoring: Touchdowns, Hunter 2, Eaton, Jennings, Fox, Thomesek, Conversions, Fox 3.
Kansas scoring: Touchdowns, Sandifer, Anderson 2.

Harlem Globe Trotters, Bevo To Appear In Pampa Dec. 16

The fabulous Harlem Globe Trotters, the finest basketball aggregation ever assembled, will make another appearance in Pampa this season.

The Pampa Kiwanis Club, for the third straight year, is bringing the Trotters to Pampa.

The year's Trotter appearance will be Dec. 16, at Harvester Fieldhouse.

Accompanying the Trotters to Pampa will be the Boston Whirlwinds who have been bolstered by the famous Rio Grande cage star, Bevo-Francis.

The Whirlwinds will also be making their third appearance in Pampa.

As has been the case in the past, there will be several vaudeville acts on the program.

A third team, a local "all-star" team will also appear on the program. The all-stars will meet the Whirlwinds and Trotters in the opening game, meeting one in the first half and the other in the second half.

Then the Trotters and Whirlwinds will take the floor for the feature game.

Elmer Ripley, who was the West Point basketball coach until he resigned at the end of the 1952-53 season, is the coach of the Trotters.

New Oliver is the Boston Whirlwind coach. Oliver coached Bevo Francis at the tiny Rio Grande College in Ohio the past two years.

Francis broke just about every existing scoring record in college basketball during his two years at Rio Grande. He averaged better than 50 points per game and has scored over 100 points a game several times.

Although he had two years more eligibility at Rio Grande, Francis withdrew from school last year for financial reasons and, joined the Whirlwinds. Oliver resigned as the Rio Grande coach after last season for the purpose of staying with Bevo.

The two linked a contract with the Whirlwinds, Oliver as coach and Francis as player.

Robert Hall, the ball-handling wizard who was with the Trotters when the team appeared here the first time three years ago, will be back this season. Hall was with another portion of the Trotter organization last year.

Tickets for the big basketball show will go on sale Monday at Malone Pharmacy. General admission tickets are selling for $1.25, reserve seats for $1.50.

For ticket reservations, fans are asked to call Buff Maguire, Kiwanis Club president, at 4-4614.

Both Clubs Helped

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 20—UP—Marty Marion, manager of the Chicago White Sox who has been bedeviled with a "light touch" of pneumonia, said Saturday he thought the big deal between the New York Yankees and the more Orioles "would help both clubs." Marion said he expected to be up and around in about a week.

Manhattan Won't Compete

NEW YORK, Nov. 20—UP—The Manhattan cross country team, rated a strong contender for the NCAA championship, has voted not to go to East Lansing, Mich., site of this year's championships, because one of its runners, Bill St. Clair of Elizabeth, N.J., faces an immediate tonsillectomy operation. The championships get underway Monday.

Giants Test Rams In Pro Feature

By UNITED PRESS

The New York Giants—rolling in luck—and the Los Angeles Rams—rolling in bandages—met at the Polo Grounds before more than 40,000 in Sunday's top National Football League game.

Healthy New York, the campaign's surprise team, has taken advantage of the injury-riddled Pittsburgh Steelers and Philadelphia Eagles the last two weeks to grab a half-game lead in the Eastern Division. And Coach Jim Lee Howell's Huskies are three-point choices to win again at the expense of Coach Hamp Pool's crippled Rams.

With the Detroit Lions boasting a two-game lead in the Western race, Sunday's other key game matches the Philadelphia Eagles and Browns at Cleveland with the home club an 11-point choice. The Browns, trailing the Giants by just a half-game in the Eastern race, can take the lead by winning—if Los Angeles beats New York.

Detroit and Cleveland have five remaining games—one more than the other 10 clubs. The Lions are 13-point favorites to keep driving toward a record third straight NFL championship by defeating the Packers before a capacity crowd. The clubs play twice in five days, meeting again at Detroit on Thanksgiving Day.

In the other games, the Chicago Bears see a 14-point pick against the Colts at Baltimore and the Cardinals are favored by five against the Washington Redskins at Chicago.

The Giants-Rams and Browns-Eagles games will be televised by Dumont and ABC will televise the Cardinals-Redskins contest.

NEW TOGS — Bevo Francis, right, one of the greatest scorers in the history of collegiate basketball, will appear in Pampa with the professional Boston Whirlwinds, Dec. 16. Whirlwind coach New Oliver, who was also Bevo's college coach at Rio Grande the past two years is shown issuing the 6-9 Francis a Boston uniform. The Whirlwinds will meet the Harlem Globe Trotters at Harvester Fieldhouse in their Pampa appearance.

Title Bout On Tap For Local Mat Fans

Pampa wrestling fans will be treated to a championship match Monday night at the Top of Texas Sportsman's Club arena.

Bob Geigel and Pepper Gomez will meet for the Southwest States junior heavyweight title in the feature event of Monday's card.

It will be a return match for the two roughies. Geigel won the first match in the finals of a 12-week, 24 man elimination tournament in Amarillo.

The Amarillo match was a decidedly close contest and the popular Gomez, former college footballer, has been seeking a rematch since that time.

Amarillo was expected to get the return bout but match maker Dory Detton awarded the bout to Pampa.

The title affair will be the best two of three falls with a 90-minute time limit, regulation championship distance as prescribed by Texas rules.

Monday's match here promises to be one of the finest duels ever unreeled in the Panhandle area.

Both Geigel and Gomez are former football stars and both boast of a lot of speed.

Two other matches will precede the championship bout. Vern Taft of Salt Lake City will battle Chel Wallick of Detroit in the semi-final.

The Taft-Wallick duel will also be the best two of three falls with a 45-minute time limit. The two have met on one other occasion—at Amarillo—and fought to a draw.

Trinity Stays Unbeaten 13-0

DENTON, Tex., Nov. 20—UP—Undeclared Trinity stayed that way Saturday to capture a second consecutive Gulf Coast Conference game with a 13 to 0 shutout of North Texas State.

The victory made it 15 straight for Trinity and kept that school the only undefeated college team in Texas.

Trinity's stubborn defense kept the Eagles scoreless for the second time this year, aided by an opportune North Texas fumble.

Both teams kept mostly to the ground with Trinity scores coming in the second and third periods.

Trinity's Bob Sweet and North Texas John Smead divided rushing honors, each netting 77 yards.

Quarterback Charles Arnecke dived over from the one foot mark on the first play of the second period for the first Trinity touchdown. He missed his point try, however.

Sammy Knox fell on an Eagle fumble on the Eagle 42 early in the third period to start the other Trinity scoring drive. Alvin Beal passed and ran to the six, with Mike Treka laking it over.

Sweet added the point.

Score by periods:

Trinity	0	6	7	0

Trinity scoring: Touchdowns, Arnecke, Treka. Conversion, Sweet.

Ablene bounced hitherto undefeated-united Midland 28 to 14 to set up the 1-AAAA hunting, while Houston S. F. Austin knocked defending state champion Houston Lamar out of the running 16 to 14 and win the 7-AAAA berth.

Waco and Galveston had sewed up the Districts 5 and 8 berths last week and El Paso Austin won District 2 honors Thursday night.

Port Neches, the 1953 AAAA state champ, led the four-team parade into the playoffs in that division by whipping Texas City 46 to 14. Garland won the 2-AAA slot by downing Arlington 47 to 27 while Brownwood was knocking out Cleburne's hopes 13 to 12. Sherman took the 3-AAA slot by pounding Denison 37 to 6 and Alamo Heights eased into the 7-AAA berth by defeating Harlandale 7 to 0.

In addition to Midland, other undefeated teams to drop out of that class Friday night were Breckenridge, which had been tied; Seagrave, and once-tied Fort Stockton, beaten by McCamey 40 to 20.

Perryton 11 Dumps Dumas

PERRYTON, Nov. 20 — (Special) — The Perryton Rangers nailed down third place in the final District 1-AA race here Friday night with a 26-20 win over the Dumas Demons.

The game ended the season for both teams. Perryton won seven, lost two and tied one over its 10-game slate.

Perryton had to come from behind twice to overtake the Demons Friday. Dumas opened the scoring in the first quarter when Andy Hicks passed to H. P. Henry for 23 yards and a touchdown.

The Rangers bounced back to tie it up at 7-7 when Don Deerpas passed to Bill Farrington for 52 yards and a touchdown. Deer's conversion tied the score.

Dumas went ahead once again on a TD pass from Jim Bowens to Hicks. The conversion try failed.

Perryton tied the score at 13-13 in the second quarter on a pass from Deer to Farrington that covered six yards. There was no further scoring in the first half.

Perryton went ahead for good in the third quarter when Todd drove over from the Dumas one to climax a 48-yard drive. The third quarter ended with Perryton leading, 19-13.

Todd broke loose on a 67-yard TD jaunt to put the game on ice for the Demons in the fourth period. Deer converted to give the Rangers a 26-13 margin.

Dumas led in first downs, 14-12, but Perryton led in total yardage gained. The Demons gained 178 yards rushing and 187 passing for 365 total yardage. Dumas netted 350 yards on 150 rushing and 200 passing.

Score by quarters:

Perryton	7	6	7	7	27

Sweetwater Springs Upset

1-3A Race Muddled By Buckie Defeat

By UNITED PRESS

The defeat of Class AAA's No. 2 team, Breckenridge, by Sweetwater shared the spotlight Saturday with the advance into the playoffs of such schoolboy football powers as Abilene, Garland, Sherman, Port Neches and Alamo Heights.

Twenty-nine other teams, 17 of them in Class AA and 19 in Class A, also moved into the state playoffs which open next week in those two divisions.

Two districts in Class AA wound up with triple ties and it will be up to the district committees to determine a playoff representative by the midnight deadline Saturday night. They are 18-AA, where Cleveland, Spring Branch and Huntsville were tri-champions, and 31-AA, where Robstown, Falfurrias and Freer shared the crown.

Breckenridge was upset by Sweetwater 18 to 14 to push the Bucks back into a first-place tie with Big Spring in District 1-AAA with one week of play remaining.

Ablene bounced hitherto undefeated-united Midland 28 to 14 to set up the 1-AAAA hunting, while Houston S. F. Austin knocked defending state champion Houston Lamar out of the running 16 to 14 and win the 7-AAAA berth.

Independent Station Sets Pace In TV

NEW YORK, Nov. 20—UP—Things are never dull at WNEW, the independent New York local radio station that is always coming up with some innovation that usually has an impact on the rest of the industry.

Richard D. Buckley, the rather new owner of the station, has decided to prove that his disk jockeys can sell anything, price of item no limit.

As a result, Jerry Marshall, pilot of the "Make Believe Ballroom" program on WNEW, is now handling sales pitches for a 55-foot yacht that sells for $49,000, a mink coat that retails at $22,000 and diamond trinkets valued in the thousands from one of the leading jewelry houses.

Buckley's theory is that "you don't have to sell a lot of necklaces, minks or yachts to satisfy a sponsor," and that disk jockeys number in their vast audiences a few really well-heeled persons who can be jogged into following up a luxury commercial.

WNEW makes a special deal with such sponsors whereby they pay below minimum time rates, if the sales program is not successful.

Collins on Hit Parade

Dorothy Collins returned to her duties as one of the star singers on "Your Hit Parade" on NBC-TV Saturday night.

The wife of Raymond Scott, musical conductor of the program, she was absent when it returned to the air this fall because of approaching motherhood. Deborah Scott was born Oct. 24.

Polly Bergen took over Miss Collins' job for the first part of the season.

Parade on TV

Detroit's annual Thanksgiving Day parade will be televised Thursday morning by the ABC network. It also will bring the Maryland-Missouri football game to television that afternoon.

Crosby Returns

An old familiar voice will return to an old familiar stand Monday when CBS radio tees off the new 15-minute Bing Crosby program which will be heard five nights a week. Bing's national radio debut was made on CBS back in 1931.

The format is going to be as flexible as possible, and the groaner will be doing a lot of talking in addition to his singing. He'll have guests for interviews in the relaxed Crosby manner.

Larosa a Guest

Julius Larosa has been too busy raking in the money via personal appearances around the country since Arthur Godfrey dismissed him from his program to make more than an occasional appearance on TV, but he's going to get in a little steady screen work starting Monday.

Larosa has been booked for two weeks of special guest starring on Monday-through-Friday "Morning Show" of Jack Paar on the CBS network. He'll be there daily through Dec. 3.

Sunday TV

NBC's "Comedy Hour" will consist of a boiled-down version of Cole Porter's old stage musical, "Let's Face It." Bert Lahr, Vivian Blaine, Gene Nelson, Joan Blondell, Jimmy Gleason and Betty Furness will have the leading roles.

Beatrice Straight will star in Sophocles' "Antigone" as part of the "Omnibus" program on CBS. Olympic champion Dick Button also will be on this program, giving an ice skating demonstration "live" from a local rink.

The "Hall of Fame" drama on NBC at 5 p. m. will be "President for a Day," dealing with the time U. S. Sen. David R. Atchison filled the high office for a few hours because "President-elect" Zachary Taylor couldn't be sworn in on a Sunday.

'Cave Man' Denies He Killed Five

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20—UP—A swarthy man, who dwelled in caves like an animal and carried a pistol, denied Saturday he was a hunter of humans who stalked and killed five persons without any apparent motive.

Gaunt, unshaven and ragged Milan Perovich, 33, was booked on suspicion of murder Friday after police flushed him out of his hiding place in the Griffith Park hills after a week-long search.

A young couple, Ruth Burnette, 19, and John L. Orendorf, 23, spotted Perovich last Sunday drinking from a bottle of vodka as he slouched on the side of a hill in Elysian Park.

The couple said Perovich was "such a weird-looking character" they peered at him through some bushes until they heard a shot, and then ran away.

Four more shots sounded as they hurried downhill, the couple said, and the man came lunging crazily down the incline as if after them, a pistol in hand.

Police Officer Jack Klepper, summoned by the couple, seized Perovich.

According to the National Safety Council many home accidents occur on stairways. The number of these accidents is reduced when the stairs are carpeted to cover the slip-prone wood surface.

Prefab Units Play Big Role In Housing

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20—UP—The government looks to prefabricated houses as a potentially important factor in the development of low-cost housing and possibly in permitting withdrawal of federal agencies from this field.

The prefabricated industry, like the entire housing industry, is enjoying a boom this year, but the prefabricated boom is bigger.

Production of prefabricated houses is expected to reach a record 75,000 this year, according to the prefabricated home manufacturers institute—one-third more than last year. The total represents approximately seven per cent of all single-family homes on which construction is being started during 1954.

Federal housing Chief Albert M. Cole told the institute recently the prefabricated house as an accepted standard product and has "assumed a place of progressive leadership in the development of up-to-date homes in the lower cost field."

Important Factor

He said their efforts to develop "good quality, well designed and well equipped private homes at low cost can be a very important factor in accomplishing the purposes of the Housing Act of 1954 and the President's housing objectives."

"The conquest of the lower cost housing market by private enterprise," he said, "will make possible the progressive withdrawal of the government from subsidy and special support programs to serve this need."

The government had prefabricated loan programs during the immediate post-World War II years, and during part of the Korean conflict. It now has none.

The Federal Housing Administration insures loans on prefabricated home mortgages as readily as it insures them on conventional structures. FHA officials express no preference for prefabs over conventional, nor vice versa.

Issues Bulletin

The FHA issues an "engineering bulletin" on each new method of prefabrication developed by any one of the 100-odd prefabricators—not on each new model of house, however.

What is a prefab? By the institute's definition, it is "a house assembled at the building site from factory-produced panels for the walls, partitions, floors, ceilings and/or roof of the dwelling."

Actually, almost all builders—be they convention or prefabricators—use some prefabrication in the homes they put up. Window units, prefabricated roof trusses or wall sections are examples of this.

When did prefab housing start? The English brought to this country in 1884 a panelized house of wood, for use by a fishing fleet. This house was dismantled, moved and reassembled several times.

In the gold rush of 1848, some 5,000 houses were produced in New York for shipment to California.

The modern trend to prefabrication started in the depression days of the 1930's, but today's boom is only a few years old.

Black Eye During War

The prefab industry feels it got a black eye from the temporary housing it put up during World War II, and from the spectacular postwar talk which never produced many houses. Production dropped but since has risen again.

Full public acceptance of the prefabricated home is still a hitch to their fuller development, but the institute forecasts the conventionally built house in price ranges below $15,000 will be a thing of the past in five years.

The prefab house now sells at prices from $6,000 to $30,000 and higher, with the bulk of them in the $8,000 to $12,000 bracket. Depending on local conditions, a prefabricated house may be cheaper, more expensive or the same price as its conventional twin.

Peg O' Pampa

GETTING INTO THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT? . . . Peg's mouth is watering already for some juicy turkey, with dressing, cranberries and all the other trimmings, climaxed by delicious pumpkin pie with whipped cream! . . . Sometimes though, we're apt to think of Thanksgiving as a big meal time, forgetting its significance. . . . Glad they're going to have a city-wide church service in the First Christian Church. . . . It will help start the day off with the first feeling of thanksgiving for our blessings . . . for the freedom we enjoy in our country.

PEG AND MR. PEG certainly enjoyed "Madame Butterfly" in Amarillo this week . . . the music is so lovely, but the story is so sad . . . during some scenes there was hardly a dry eye in the house. . . . the cast did a good job, but the leading lady was outstanding . . . it was sung in English, which made it more understandable, perhaps, but Peg is sort of partial to the Italian version. . . . It loses something in translation. . . . Lots of Pampanos were on hand. . . . Saw Sarah Florence Parker, Joyce Wanner, Dorothy Station, Florence Jackson, Bob Mitchell, Cliff and Betty Whitney. . . . Betty looked especially lovely in a semiformal gown. . . . the John Bradleys, the John Adamises, the Eben Warners . . . saw Eleanor Braly but couldn't locate Cliff. . . . Also noticed Ed Fleming and Peg Gikas . . . Florence Jackson, Ted Gikas, Bob Mitchell, Bill Kerr, Vera Jones, Shirley Epps, and Norma Lantz. . . . may have been more, but that's all eagle-eyed, rubberneck Peg could spy. . . . Sure wish we could hear and see more operas.

PEOPLE ARE STILL TALKING about the grand manner in which Pampa Country Club members were entertained at the opening of the season. . . . their fall formal . . . thanks to the nice hosts . . . the Bob Currys and the Bob Triplehorn and the Ray Kuhns . . . especially glamorous were all the doors to ballroom. . . . all covered with clusters of grapes in tones of pink . . . smart black and gold leaves hung from gold and white miniature trees. . . . Highlight of the evening was a group of young dancers from Jeanne Willingham's dance studio.

A WONDERFUL FASHION SHOW is going to be held in Pampa in March . . . the Council of Clubs are going to work with Celanese and the Pampa merchants. . . . all the garments will be made from Celanese fabrics. . . . they're thinking of putting on three shows . . . and they are going to serve refreshments, too. . . . a woman from the East is going to be here to help with it. . . . certainly sounds like a wonderful affair. . . . with ramps for models to walk on and. . . . Bet it will rival some of those Paris shows. . . . they're planning a Paris in Springtime theme too, Peg was told.

LIFE IS OFTEN STRANGER THAN FICTION. . . . and usually a lot better. . . . thank goodness most of us don't have to go through the sufferings and lamentations of Jordan a hero and heroine. . . . there's a true-life story about Jimmie Jandy that is fascinating. . . . and she has been corresponding with a childhood girl friend for some 30 years. . . . the way Peg understands it, the girl moved away when both were still children, but they have written all these years. . . . sending photographs of their families and exchanging ideas. . . . just recently Jimmie, her husband and her mother took a trip to Florida to visit this friend. . . . and had a wonderful time. . . . the women enjoyed each other as much in person as they did in letters. . . . rather unusual, Peg thinks.

THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK. . . . Who gives not thanks to men, gives not thanks to God (John Lewis Burckhardt). . . . O Lord, who lends me life, lend me a heart replete with thankfulness. (William Shakespeare). . . . Nothing is more honorable than a grateful heart (Lucius Seneca). . . . Gratitude is much more than a verbal expression of thanks. . . . Action expresses more gratitude than speech (Mary Baker Eddy). . . . He enjoys much who is thankful for little; a grateful mind is both a great and a happy mind. (William Secker). . . . Gratitude is not only the memory but the homage of the heart. . . . rendered to God for his goodness (Nathaniel Parker Willis).

HEARD A WONDERFUL PROGRAM at the Twentieth Century Forum tea the other day. . . . put on by five women from Oklahoma. . . . a reader recited that wonderful Longfellow poem, "The Courtship of Miles Standish". . . . think it appeals to the romantic in all of us. . . . the famous line, "Why don't you speak for yourself, John?" just at your hearstrings. . . . the poem was divided in different sections. . . . at the end of the reading of each part, the women sang songs pertaining to the theme of that section. . . . It was unusual and good. . . . one of the ladies, Mrs. John Prescott, is the sister of Margaret Steele. . . . Saw a lot of people there. . . . Mrs. George Friauf, Zenobia Holloway, Sandy Williams, Louis McCrery, Dorothy Overton, Lois Shelhamer, Jane Chamberlain, Mrs. Roy McKernan, Ellen Shipp, Mrs. L. W. Jolly, Mrs. G. W. Ritchhart, Mrs. Ronald Hubbard, the gracious wife of the new Presbyterian minister. . . . Sue Higdon, Roby Laycock, Mrs. Thomas Wade, Mrs. R. D. Falkenstein, Mrs. Clifton High, Ethel Dunigan, Mrs. Charles Robinson, Mrs. A. A. Schuneman, Mrs. E. R. Eaton, Loretta Wilkinson, Dorothy Teed, Mrs. Harold Miller, Jean Braly, Mrs. Bob Curry, Mrs. John Bradley, Jane Rose, Ruth Thomas, Thelma Lutes, Mrs. Ernest Elbert, Alice Warner, Ted Curtis, Mrs. Henry Guidorf, Mrs. Don Radtke and Edith Horn. . . . Inga Pratt, Peggy Daniels, Connie McDaniel and Catherine Jones were busy as hostesses. . . . the table looked lovely. . . . so nice and Fall-ish. . . . there were some women there from Amarillo and White Deer, too.

Evelyn had handsome hubby, Otis along. . . . Dick Crews gave a nice devotional. . . . and the Junior High choir gave a grand program. . . . didn't know Pampa had so many talented young singers. . . . James Austin is certainly doing a wonderful job with them. . . . You can see that they really enjoy singing. . . . he seems to make it fun for them. . . . He certainly doesn't look like a typical choir director. . . . he looks not much more than a high school student himself. . . . Bruce Parker did a good job as program leader.

Happy Thanksgiving!

MANNERS MAKE FRIENDS

A mother who invited 20 six-year-olds to her young son's birthday party says that, without being asked, about a third of their mothers stayed for the party. That means that she had to make the mothers comfortable and serve them. In addition to running the children's party.

Unless invited to the party, the mothers should have left their children, and then picked them up when the party was over.

No matter what the calendar says — women have their own dates for the changing of the seasons, investigators of manufacturers of seasonal products have discovered.

To the feminine mind winter begins Nov. 15 — not Dec. 21 — and lasts to Jan. 13 — not to March 21. Summer starts June 2 — 19 days ahead of the calendar, and fall comes Sept. 7 — two weeks ahead of schedule.

It's easy to figure out why women have their own opinion of when the seasons change.

Summer starts when the kids get out of school, clubs discontinue their meetings, spring clothes go with winter clothes into mothballs, and the kids have to be outfitted with bathing suits and shorts.

Fall comes when school starts again, and with the starting of school the taking up of club activities and a busier social calendar.

Winter comes when the stores start getting in their Christmas merchandise, when the storm winds have to go up, when winter coats have to be bought, when all the jobs put off until "cooler weather" can't be put off any longer.

It ends when flower-decked trees first blossom in the store windows and a woman is sick and tired of the clothes she has been wearing "all winter" and knows that what she needs to pep up her wardrobe is a print dress and a new hat.

And what makes a woman decide it's spring? A few sunny days show her that it is high time to tackle the job of spring house-cleaning. A few shubs start to blossom and start her dreaming of the flowers she is going to have come summer.

10:00—Bishop Seamon Guild, St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, in parish house.

MATURE PARENT Lodge Thanksgiving Is Being Planned

A reader has asked me the most important question any person can ask another. Though I've been asked it many times, I have evaded an answer. After pondering this last letter, I can evade it no longer.

This reader writes: "I am deeply interested in the kind of problems you discuss. However, because you sometimes neglect to define your terms, I often feel that you are withholding some precious information. For example, you recently attacked a mother for self-reproach. What do you mean by this term? I want to know what you mean."

Nobody, I'm sure wants me to define the word "reproach." It means what the dictionary says: censure, condemnation.

What has been asked is the definition of the other word in the term. My reader is asking, "What is our self?"

It is that nature in us which is made in the image and likeness of God.

Thus, when I attack a mother for self-reproach, I am defending this nature, I regard her self-reproach as a form of blasphemy.

If this definition of the self is not acceptable to my reader, I cannot tell her where to look for another. Though modern psychology also uses terms like "self-reproach," it cannot tell us what our self is.

The best it can do is to talk about our "personality" — that mechanism moved by the interaction of our passions, our inherited conscience and what is called the ego. But even our most learned psychologist have to shake their heads when we ask them to define our self.

Yet, without a definition for it, we are condemned to believe that we are ruled by our "personality." In my opinion it is a most destructive belief.

For not to know that we possess a nature which God himself pronounced "good" is to be at the mercy of any nature that our "personality" wants to give us.

BABY

After you have stopped making formula and are giving your baby plain milk, your doctor will probably want you to keep sterilizing the bottles anyway. Check with him each time you take Baby to find out if you may begin doing something easier — pouring boiling water over the washed bottles, or just scrubbing them. It will depend on your baby's size, resistance and the purity of the milk and water supply; don't stop when a neighbor stops. Good thorough scrubbing in hot water is always necessary, of course.

"Are you going to be a baby joggler?" asked the stern-faced nurse of the new mother who was just cuddling her three-day-old baby. The mother stopped instantly, feeling guilty. There is no reason, of course, why a baby shouldn't be cuddled and rocked. But the iron-visaged nurse is right in a way — constant joggling and bouncing of a baby gives him no peace, upsets his stomach, and makes him fretful. There's an in-between that gives him time to be quiet, yet doesn't deprive him of his cuddling.

Baby should be sleeping someplace other than his parents' room by the time he's six months old. To miserably cramped parents, this may seem like an impossible order. But you will find that your going to bed and your stirrings, sneezes and conversation in the night disturb his sleep. There are ways out. If you have a decently large kitchen, you can probably crowd his crib in there, with some rearranging. It's a good place. If you have one of those folding cribs, he can be put to sleep in the bedroom and moved, right in his bed, into the living room when you're ready to retire. A hallway is used by many parents. Use your imagination, but do try to isolate him at night.

How To Pack A Suiter Bag

A "Suiter Bag," a popular suitcase designed especially to accommodate men's garments and accessories, is easily packed; with just a little practice, wrinkles and creases can be eliminated.

1 — Start with the hanger side of the bag, removing all loose fixtures. Place trousers in the bottom of the case one pair at a time, legs hanging out alternately from left to right.

2 — Place jacket in the case unbuttoned on the hanger, tails hanging over the edge where the handle is fastened. Lap the front of the jacket until it snugly fits the dimensions of the case. Important: do not cross sleeves over, but "roll" them lengthwise along the side seams of the jacket. Stuff shoulders with wadded tissue to prevent wrinkles if there is excess padding.

3 — Insert the special folder (it may be a frame, board or similar device). Alternately bring over trouser legs into the case on top of the folder, one pair at a time, smoothing out wrinkles as you go along. Follow with coat tails. Close off the section, and turn the bag to pack accessories in the other side.

4 — Put shoes, soles down, along the hinged end, protected with special shoe bags or old socks. Any additional bulky or heavy items should also be placed in such a way that they will be in what is the bottom of the bag when the case is in an upright position.

5 — Protect shirt collars from wrinkling and save space at the same time by stuffing neckbands with socks and handkerchiefs. Undergarments may be rolled or folded, used to fill corners and prevent other accessories from shifting about.

6 — A permanent part of the bag should be a small sewing kit with extra shirt buttons for emergency repairs. A dressing case, tie fold, pullman slippers and small stud box not only help save space, but make organizing the contents of a bag very simple — especially for the male traveler who tends to forget things when he repacks for the return trip.

Fresh Broccoli And Mousseline Sauce Thanksgiving Day Treat

Because we always try to cook vegetables in some different way for the family Thanksgiving dinner, we have been experimenting with new recipes. We think you'll like these two.

Fresh Broccoli With Mousseline Sauce
Purchase 1 1/2 to 2 pounds fresh broccoli for 8 servings. Cut off tough large leaves (shred and use in a raw salad) and tough portion of stalk. Wash and split each large stalk lengthwise into halves or quarters. Then, make lengthwise gashes in stalk so they cook as quickly as the buds.

Double boiler method: Stand broccoli, either in separate stalks or tied in small bunches, upright in the bottom of a double boiler. Add 1 teaspoon salt and 1-inch boiling water. Cover with the top of double boiler, inverted. Cook until the stalks are JUST crisp tender, 15 to 20 minutes. (Lift the cover 3 to 4 times to permit the gases to escape.) With tongs or 2 forks, arrange on serving dish. Serve with mousseline sauce.

Mousseline Sauce
Three egg yolks, 1/4 cup milk, 1/4 cup margarine, 2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice, 1-16 teaspoon ground nutmeg, 1-16 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1 egg white. Place first 6 ingredients in top of double boiler. Mix well. Cook over hot water (not boiling) until sauce is thickened, stirring constantly. Beat egg white until it stands in soft peaks. Fold into the cooked mixture. Serve at once over broccoli, cauliflower, snap beans, carrots or spinach. Yield: Approximately 1 cup.

Spicy Candied Sweet Potatoes
Four medium sized sweet potatoes, 1/2 cup water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup light corn syrup, 1-3 cup brown sugar, 1 tablespoon fresh orange juice, 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, 1/2 teaspoon ground cloves, 3 tablespoons margarine or butter.

Peel and cut potatoes in half lengthwise. Place flat side down, in skillet with water and salt. Simmer, covered, till tender — about 15 minutes. Combine remain-

Hats that pack well have a disappearing sameness. One hat that adds a touch of variety to the away-from-home wardrobe is called a "flowerpot." It looks like a deep coiffe of velveteen with a cuff in front — but it tucks open in the back to pack in no space at all.

Button it up, it's a suit. Take off the jacket, it's a sheath of a dress. It's the traditional "costume." But in a winter cotton, it could be the perfect solution to the baffling weather that blows hot and cold with no regard to the calendar.

Fashions In Shoes Emphasize Texture

By GAILE DUGAS
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Texture, so important to fabrics in autumn fashions, is equally essential to shoes.

As many as three leathers are beautifully combined for a textured look in suit pumps, opera pumps and sandals. There's an emphasis placed on the new luster leathers that create a high-polished, glowing look. These are the iridescent kid leathers, the polished reptiles, calf and suede.

Heel height depends, this year, on personal preference. The short heel with the high look has earned itself a fashion niche because it offers women both flattery and comfort. So this year it's seen in everything from the suit pump to the stripping sandal. Generally, the very high heel is reserved for evening and for at-home shoes.

Shoe colors are deep and glowing. There's black, of course, in every leather texture. Then come the taupe browns, the deep browns and polished pine. But shoes also are shown in pewter or graphite gray, true blue, deep mulberry red, palmetto and gold, which is reserved for dressy shoes in snake-skin or lizard.

Newest look in the sandal for late-day wear is the closed toe on a delicate stripping sandal. Stripping is used high on the foot, to create an effect that's at once open and closed.

Gay Garnishes Spotlight Holiday Roast

Garnishes serve as spotlights to shine on the star of the Thanksgiving dinner, the pork roast. Good garnishes will enhance it with color and flavor — they shouldn't be allowed to steal the scene. Reba Staggs, home economist, adds that edible garnishes are the most appropriate. The don't have to be fancy. Often the simplest ones are the most attractive.

The vegetables of the meal can be used effectively as the garnish, too. You can arrange small bundles of green beans, broccoli or asparagus on the roast platter and place strips of pimiento or cooked onion rings over them.

Baked acorn squash halves, their centers filled with browned bulk pork sausage butter or margarine have an autumn air. Whipped potatoes, forced through a pastry tube into basket shapes and filled with green peas give texture and shape contrast to a roast. Or you can pile riced sweet potatoes into mounds, top each mound with a marshmallow and broil them until the marshmallows are lightly browned on top.

For shape interest, put spinach in individual ring molds, then turn them onto the platter and fill the centers with tiny onions. Green peppers can be scooped out, cooked and filled with hot buttered corn. Tomato shells filled with a mixture of seasoned rice and chopped green olives and baked are perky garnishes. Or you can broil tomato slices topped with mushroom caps.

The flavor of apples is a favorite with pork. As garnishes, they can take on many a colorful form. You can serve apple rings which have been glazed in a red-tinted, cinnamon-flavored syrup. Or place spiced crab apples around the roast.

Some other "fruit-full" ideas, so good with roast pork include cutting faces in orange shells and filling them with orange-cranberry relish. Arrange bunches of dark sweet cherries or grapes on greens around the roast. Cut jelled cranberry sauce into thin slices and cut the slices into various shapes with cookie cutters. Arrange the cranberry cut-outs on pineapple slices. Serve hot apricot halves filled with mincemeat, peach halves and set them under the broiler until the jelly melts.

Start with these ideas. Then let your imagination go into partnership with your good taste. You'll have a picture-pretty roast meat platter for the holiday. You may even be inspired to use garnishes for eye-appeal in your everyday menus.

If you live on a windy corner, the coat that just wraps around, no matter how lovely, is not for you. You'll need a hand for your purse and maybe the other for a package. You can't cope with a flapping coat in a cold wind.

'Do-It-Yourself' Craze Has Spread To Children's Toys, Council Advises

By CLAIRE COX
NEW YORK — UP — Many of the nation's 46 million children must make their toys this year before they can play with them, according to experts at the Toy Guidance Council.

The council's annual selection of the most outstanding toys of the year included a lot of "do-it-yourself" kits. The idea behind them is that youngsters get more pleasure from toys they have to put together themselves.

Included among the 104 top-ranking toys chosen by experts appointed by the council, a toy industry organization, were scale model airplane sets, sport car assembly kits, building bricks, plastic cities and the traditional logs for making cabins.

Children Imitate Elders
Dr. Emma Dickson Sheehy, professor of child education at Columbia University's Teacher's college, was one of the panel of experts who "psycho-analyzed" hundreds of toys.

She said that the "do-it-yourself" trend is following the pattern set in adult activities. While parents are putting together high fidelity radio - phonograph equipment, she said, the children also like to keep constructively occupied.

Dr. Sheehy has a few basic rules she follows in the selection of toys, and she suggested parents might do well to consider them when shopping. They are:

1. Safety — make sure toys are well constructed and have no sharp edges or corners or parts that come off easily and can be swallowed.

2. Age — Don't even look at a toy without thinking of age of the child who is to get it and what the child is interested in.

3. "Playability" — Select a toy that is versatile, because children use playthings for many purposes. A block may be a bomb one moment or a gun the next.

4. Artistic appeal — Is the toy pleasant to look at? Playthings should not have a carnival appearance, but should combine colors that give a child an appreciation of beautiful things.

5. Durability — In buying things

Good Grooming Reaps Rewards

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

"She was an attractive woman in her middle forties" is a very common description of the woman who takes the trouble to make a good impression.

In order to create that very important good impression, it's necessary to have a neat, extremely well-groomed appearance.

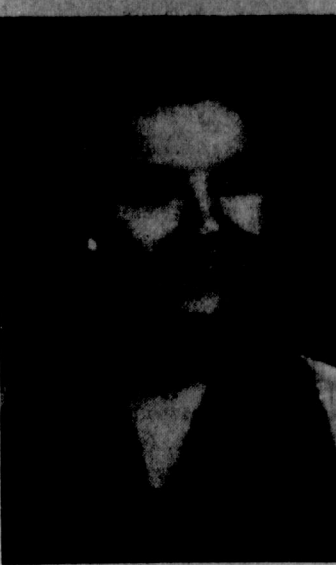

And, of course, this means time and effort on the part of the would-be attractive woman. But time spent on improving oneself, either mentally or physically, has tremendous rewards.

It means being able to walk into a restaurant or meeting new friends with poise and confidence. Then, too, the well-groomed woman can banish self-consciousness and know that she can feel triumphant in that her grooming passes even the most critical test.

Planning for personal grooming is as necessary as planning for any important project. Artful make-up takes practice. Some women use powder for years without ever knowing that the excess powder must be brushed off the face after application.

Another woman may not know that rouge, in order to look like natural coloring, must be carefully blended.

But, it is in practicing and ex-

 Every year around the holidays we like to feature again the recipe for our favorite cake. It is chocolate all the way through, moist, rich with nuts, eggs and milk and is covered lavishly with a glossy chocolate frosting decorated with nut petals. So, once again, at Thanksgiving time, or any other festive time, here are our best wishes for luxurious eating.

Brazil Nut Devil's Food Cake
 (Yield: Two 8-inch layers)
 One-quarter cup shortening, 2 cups firmly-packed brown sugar, 2 eggs, 4 squares (4 ounces) unsweetened chocolate, melted, 1/2 cup chopped Brazil nuts, 2 cups sifted cake flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons milk, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Cream shortening; add sugar gradually and cream thoroughly. Add eggs, one at a time, and beat until light and fluffy. Add melted chocolate and beat well. Mix in Brazil nuts. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt, add flour mixture alternately with milk to batter. Stir in vanilla. Pour into 2 deep greased 8-inch layer pans and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 35 to 40 minutes. Let stand 5 minutes and remove from pan. Cover with glossy chocolate frosting and garnish with Brazil nut petals.

Glossy Chocolate Frosting
 Three squares (3 ounces) unsweetened chocolate, melted, 1 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar, 3 tablespoons hot water, 3 egg yolks, unbeaten, 1/4 cup butter or margarine.

Pour melted chocolate into mixing bowl. Add sugar and water; mix well. Add egg yolks, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Drop 1 tablespoon of butter or margarine at a time in the mixture and mix thoroughly.

Brazil Nut Petals
 Place whole Brazil nuts in cold water. Bring slowly to a boil. Simmer 2 to 3 minutes. Drain and cut into thin lengthwise slices about 1/8 inch thick.

Traditional Holiday Pies Have Interesting History

It's pumpkin-pie and mince-pie time again! These traditional favorites in America since before the War for Independence now are being featured by bakers throughout America to trace the tables in millions of homes at the Holiday Season.

The exact origin of mince pie has been lost in antiquity, but it is known that the pie's ingredients once symbolized the gifts of the Magi and its shape, originally oval, represented the cradle of the Christ Child.

Frequent reference to this Christmas favorite in English literature dating as far back as the Fifteenth century, enabled the American Bakers Association to reconstruct the appearance and contents of the mince pie and customs surrounding it over the centuries.

Always considered an essential part in the Christmas observances in England, the pies once were more of a main course than a dessert. They contained a large portion of boiled pork mixed with minced dates, cloves, mace, raisins, salt and ginger during the reign of King Henry V.

Boiled pork was replaced by finely shredded mutton as the chief ingredient in the mince-meat pies at the time of Henry VIII, Edward VI, and Queen Mary and Elizabeth. Thick rolls of dough were used to line large deep-sided dishes and this in turn was covered with another layer of thick pastry to form the top crust of the pie.

In America, the fruit content

Collars Emphasized Knee-Length Skirt, In Suits, Ensembles Treaders Popular With College Crowd

By GAIL DUGAS
 NEW YORK — (NEA) — Collars, this year, are the focal points of both the boxy suit and the ensemble. It's difficult, in fact, to tell the boxy suit from the ensemble at a glance.

Generally, the coat for an ensemble runs slightly longer than the jacket for a boxy suit. And while the boxy suit is a two-piece ensemble may include blouse, skirt and coat or may be a coat over a slim dress.

Important collar treatments include the choir boy, Puritan, Bustle Brown and Rembrandt. All of these collars are wide and usually deep in addition. These very wide collars often have velvet, satin or fur ascots for added neckline interest.

Surprise element in the ensemble stems from the fact that a tweed coat may be worn over an elegant satin blouse. Satin is used in combination with everything from tweeds to broadcloth, whether in piping or in larger areas.

Both the ensemble coat and the boxy suit jacket are done in light-weight and medium tweeds, all-wool plush, cashmere, camel's hair and vicuna.

ENGAGED

Announcement has been made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Nelda Hendry of Jasper to Neil Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Price of McLean. The couple will be married Dec. 20, in Jasper. The prospective bridegroom is a senior student at Texas A&M College, College Station.

Box Supper Slated By VFW Auxiliary

Plans for a benefit box supper, to be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the VFW Hall, were made at the recent meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary. Proceeds will be used for the annual Christmas party for underprivileged children. All VFW members, their wives and Auxiliary members are invited.

During the business session, Mrs. Sue Smiley was accepted into the group on transfer of members. A membership application was also accepted.

The women voted to give a Thanksgiving basket to a needy veteran's family. The group also voted to order markers for veterans' graves.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served. Hostesses were Mrs. Lee Marlet and Mrs. Jones Seitz. Members present were Mrs. Bill Abernathy, Bob Burrows, Bud Hogan, Larry Pursley, Vernon Stuckey, Frank Yates, Marlet, Seitz and Smiley.

Husband's Night Plans Are Formed By Southwesterners

Southwesterners met recently in the home of Mrs. Ed Culbertson, 828 Malone. Roll call was answered with "gifts to make for Christmas."

During the business session, the women decided to invite their husbands to the next meeting, to be held Dec. 1, in the home of Mrs. Joe Gidden. A scenic film will be shown, secret pal gifts exchanged and new names drawn.

After the meeting, Mrs. Culbertson served "pigs in a blanket," olives, coffee and tea.

Attending the event were Mrs. Kenneth Hamon, Norman Flaherty, Joe Gidden, Brooks Hubbard, Olen Bridges, Murray Sealy, Omer Bybee, Evert Revard and Buck Moore.

LOUIE THROGMORTON ... API speaker

Dallasite To Be API Speaker

Louie E. Throgmorton, renowned after-dinner speaker, will make the featured address at the annual election of officers banquet of the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute.

Get-together is scheduled to get underway at 7 p. m. Dec. 4 in the Bunavista Cafeteria, Borger, with a social hour. Dinner is expected to begin at 7:30 p. m.

Throgmorton, who has spoken at dinners over the entire Southwest, is vice president and director of public relations of the Republic National Life Insurance Co. of Dallas.

He has been in the life insurance business for almost 27 years. Before becoming associated with Republic, he was general agent for Aetna Life Insurance Company in Shreveport, La. There he was active in professional circles and was president of the Shamrock Life Underwriters for two years. And he was also president of the State Association for two consecutive terms.

In Shreveport, Throgmorton was president of the Grand Opera Association, chairman of the Conference of Christians and Jews, director and program chairman of the chamber of commerce membership committee, an elder in the Broadmoor Methodist Church and a member of the library board.

In Dallas, he has been co-chairman of the chamber of commerce membership committee and on the Board of Trustees of Washington Pilgrimage, Inc., Washington, D.C. He gives some 200 addresses a year before civic and business organizations in the Southwest and Midwest.

The 428-capacity cafeteria is expected to be filled for the 1954 banquet, Martin Ledeman, chapter secretary-treasurer, has pointed out.

Oil Briefs

WASHINGTON — Some surprises turned up last week when bids were opened for federal leases of the Continental Shelf off Texas. The Oil and Gas Journal reports in its current issue that though the total of bonuses paid by companies — $23,157,027 — was not impressive when compared to the $129 million paid for tracts off the coast of Louisiana, close examination of the transactions revealed that some individual bids are impressive.

Magnolia Petroleum Co. paid $2,209 per acre for a 1,440-acre tract, almost double the top acreage bid of 1,220 paid at the Louisiana leasing. Magnolia's bid is even more startling in view of the fact that less is known about the Texas tracts than is about the Louisiana area, and operating conditions off Texas are less desirable.

Lowest bid was Gulf Oil Corp.'s $18.30 per acre for one tract. Four other tracts brought less than $20 per acre. There were no tying bids, but Standard of Texas safeguarded itself by tacking 99 cents on to each bonus bid.

Standard of Texas topped all other companies in total amount spent in the Texas bidding, acquiring six tracts with bids totaling about $10,165,200. It also paid the highest bonus for a single tract — over 4 1/2 million dollars for a 5,760-acre tract.

TULSA, Okla. — Sunray Oil Corp. has sold its asphalt and products refinery at Santa Maria, Calif., and its crude oil production in the adjacent area to the Union Oil Company of California. The two companies have announced in a joint statement.

Union acquires the 5,000 bbls. per day asphalt and products refinery in an outright purchase for an undisclosed sum and will buy Sunray's Santa Maria oil production on a long-term basis, the announcement said.

The Sunray plant, originally acquired in 1948, is considerably removed from the company's other refining and sales operations, concentrated principally in the mid-continent area. The heavy crudes produced in the Santa Maria area are readily adaptable for processing at the new petroleum coking plant which Union is building near Santa Maria.

Texas Railroad Commission Reports Four Deep Intentions

Four of the 22 intentions to drill filed last week with the Pampa office of the Texas Railroad Commission had proposed depths of 4,200 feet or more.

They were the Skelly No. 2 S. P. Jackson in Hansford County (PD 7,500); the Texas No. 1 T. I. Harbort (PD 6,275) and Texas No. 1 G. C. Bucher (PD 62,000) in Hutchinson County; and the Shamrock No. 38 Maddox in Roberts County (PD 4,200).

There were 10 others and three gasers reported completed. And there were one amended location and six plugged wells reported.

CHICKASHA, Okla. — UP — A woman can strike her own oil. She doesn't have to marry it.

The women are moving into the oil industry, which until now has been a masculine world, according to Miss Jessie Dearing, believed to be the nation's only woman boss of an oil well drilling outfit. The company also has an all-woman office staff.

"Miss Jessie," as she is known in the industry, is manager of the Little Nick Oil Co., in the heart of the nation's second most active drilling area.

"Many of the younger women are getting into the business," said the 40-year-old Oklahoma woman.

Meaning Of 'Tidelands' Explained

By GAYLORD P. GODWIN
WASHINGTON, Nov. 20—UP—

The recent sale of oil, gas and sulphur leases on the other continental shelf in the Gulf of Mexico off Louisiana and Texas brings to attention again the term "tidelands."

A great number of people use the term without knowing what it means. Many who do know what it means go ahead and use it erroneously. Apparently they figure their listeners understand what they are trying to say.

The correct definition of "tidelands" is lands that are daily covered and uncovered by the rise and fall of the ocean tide.

The Submerged Lands Act signed on May 22, 1953, was known erroneously in Congress and out as "the tidelands act." The real tidelands, the little strips of soil covered by high tide and uncovered by low tide, always have been considered the property of the state rather than the nation.

The Submerged Lands Act actually was a "quickclaim" deed by the federal government granting states ownership of the seabottom extending into the open sea from the 11-foot ordinary low tide outward to the historical boundary of the state, usually one marine league.

These historical boundaries were not to exceed three geographical miles in the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, or three marine leagues in the Gulf of Mexico—if the boundary extended that far when the state entered the union.

A geographical (or nautical) mile is 6,080 feet. Three geographical miles are slightly more than 18 land miles.

After passage of the Submerged Lands Act Congress put through another known as the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act. This asserts ownership by the United States of all submerged seabed beyond those given to the states by the misnamed tidelands act.

The continental shelf is the undersea extension of the North American continent. In geological times it was above the sea. Its slope is gradual from the coast to the edge, where the dip is much steeper. The contour of the escarpment ranges in depth below the sea from 40 fathoms to more than 100 fathoms. The shelf adjacent to the United States contains about 278,000 square miles.

The outer continental shelf of Louisiana was the locale from which the Bureau of Land Management sold about $130 million in oil, gas, and sulphur leases last Oct. 13. Early this month the bureau sold more than $23 million in oil and gas leases off Texas. Undoubtedly, the bureau would have sold more leases off Louisiana had not that state claimed its boundary overlapped areas the federal government believes to be federally owned.

Louisiana's Legislature early this year decided that its coast line extended to the point in the Gulf where the Coast Guard said high seas navigation began, and that the state's historic boundary should extend three leagues seaward beyond that point. In some cases, the legislatively devised would be upwards of 50 miles from dry land. In all instances, the state-determined boundary would be far beyond the traditional three-mile limit.

May Go to Courts
Consequently, this state action threw into dispute some of the tracts offered in the Oct. 13 sale. The bureau withdrew from the Oct. 13 sale 19 oil and gas tracts in dispute. The courts may have to settle the matter.

Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay, overall boss of the Bureau of Land Management, is well pleased with the first sales of oil and gas leases. He predicted, shortly after the Louisiana sale, that the Treasury eventually would realize a half billion dollars from royalties and rents from oil and gas leases on the shelf. He is known to feel that large sums will come from the Texas portion of the shelf, too.

So far, the bureau has sold more than 100 leases in the Louisiana and Texas areas for about $33 million—$11 plans more sales, a BLM official said, "just as soon as we can get squared away."

CHICAGO — The National Council for LP-Gas Promotion, marking its fifth anniversary at a meeting in the Conrad Hilton hotel, re-elected James E. Pew, Philadelphia, as president for the coming year.

Pew, who has headed the group directing the national promotional program of the liquefied petroleum gas industry (butane - propane) since January of this year, is manager of the natural gas and natural gasoline department and a director of Sun Oil Co.

Unpredictable factors worrying the industry, the Journal says, are foreign developments in production and consumption of oil, federal regulation of natural gas production, potential government controls and the apparent trend toward decreased gasoline consumption per vehicle.

During 1954 the United States Post Office expects to handle with customary dispatch a record 54 billion items — roughly equivalent to 20 pieces of mail for every person on the face of the earth.

VET "PROSPECTS" FOR METAL IN COW—When Spick, seven-year-old cow owned by Fred L. Johnson, of Provo, Utah, developed a taste for iron in her system, she didn't satisfy it by eating raisins. Spick went after the metal in its raw form, ending up with assorted pieces of wire and bolts in her innards. So, as seen above, Dr. L. W. Jones, veterinarian, locates the scrap iron with the aid of a metal detector similar to that used by police to see if a convict has a file inside his underwear. At right, Dr. C. T. Jones gives Spick a shot preparatory to going after the metal, while Owner Johnson, center, looks on.

Buyer Habits Will Play Part In Auto Worker Wage Demand

DETROIT, Nov. 20—UP—

The CIO United Auto Workers, in shooting for a guaranteed annual wage in 1955 wage demands, are betting in part that sales and promotion experts can change the buying habits of the American motoring public.

One of the chief causes of the annual lay-offs in the automobile industry has been the seasonal buying preferences of American motorists. Automobile sales slump and spurt periodically each year.

The big spurt comes in the spring and early summer when the public — after being cooped up all winter—gets the urge to hit the road. Harold H. Curtice, president of General Motors, which will be the first company to sit down with the UAW to talk over 1955 demands next spring, picked this spring spurt out last January in discussing the guaranteed annual wage as one of the drawbacks to stable auto production.

It says in a booklet prepared with questions and answers on its guaranteed annual wage plan that if management had to pay penalties for lay-offs it would find a way to prevent layoffs.

"Lay-offs due to seasonal fluctuations in sales will be sharply reduced, if not eliminated altogether, by sales and production policies designed to reduce seasonal highs and lows, and by all the methods that management ingenuity will devise when they have to pay a financial penalty for failure to do so," the UAW booklet says.

Other factors preventing stabilization of employment which were outlined by Curtice were "strikes, in plants of our suppliers as well as in basic industries such as steel, coal and transportation."

The UAW feels these factors can be side-stepped by better planning also.

"Layoffs due to interruptions of work from such causes as material shortages, breakdown of machinery, etc., will be largely eliminated by better management planning," the UAW says.

Company officials, who would have to show this "ingenuity" and "planning," aren't as optimistic it could be done.

Pay Cut Off For Fire Runs Out Of City

SHAMROCK — (Special) — The County Commissioners Court voted this month to discontinue payments to the Shamrock and Wheeler fire departments for runs made outside of their respective city limits. All four county commissioners voted to stop the practice as an economy measure. County Judge D. A. Hunt was not present at the session.

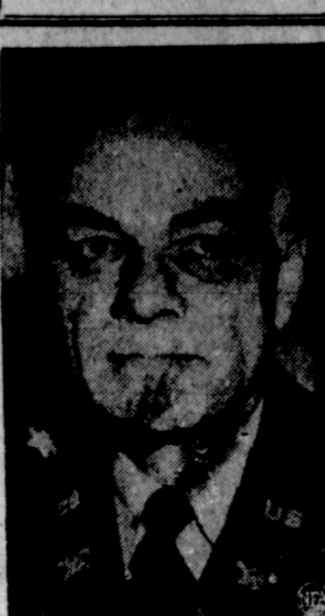

The ruling, which leaves residents of rural Wheeler county without fire protection was made by the court faced with declining revenues. The court stated that other services would also have to be curtailed or stopped unless the tax rates are hiked. The court opposes the raise unless a majority of taxpayers indicate they are willing to pay for the "extra services" in the form of additional taxation.

The Commissioners praised the efforts of members of the two volunteer departments in offering their services without adequate pay but said they cannot spend money they do not have.

"We are reducing the courthouse personnel and are considering further steps to keep county expenditures within its receipts," said a member of the court. "It is not that we want to work a hardship on anybody or deny the public a service to which it feels entitled; it is simply a matter of trimming our expenses to receipts."

Raymond York, chief of the Shamrock Fire Department, and Harvey Wright, chief of the Wheeler department, expressed hope the court would reconsider its action and restore fire protection to rural areas. They suggested rural residents convey their feeling to members of the court.

Houston Firm Gets Barn Job Here

Armed Drainage and Metal Co., of Houston, has been awarded the contract to build the new addition to the county dual-purpose barn in Recreation Park.

County commissioners Friday opened the three bids submitted and chose the lowest apparent bidder. Winning bid was $11,000.

The foundation for the new extension — another 100 feet to be added to the present 190 feet by 70 feet of the present building — is expected to be ready by Dec. 8, according to Wayland Merriman, the county commissioners court consultant engineer.

Erection of the structure should begin shortly after Dec. 8 and be finished by Jan. 10, the completion date stated in the specifications, Merriman said. It will be used during the Top of Texas Fair Stock Show, Jan. 24-28.

The new addition will be constructed of the same material used in the original building — corrugated metal. It will be built off the north end of the present structure.

The Military Air Transport Service carried 80 per cent of all armed forces airmail transported during 1953. The remaining 20 per cent was carried by scheduled commercial airlines.

FREE NATIONS VS. REDS—LINE-UP IN EUROPE—The inclusion of West Germany into NATO has given the free nations a huge lift. When fully armed she will be able to contribute 500,000 well-trained troops. But as far as manpower is concerned, the West is still far behind the Soviet Union and its satellites. Above Newsmap shows how nations line up and approximate military strength for each. Czechoslovakia and Austria don't have any standing army, and Switzerland only has a small police force.
