Five divorces and one adoption were granted this morning by District Judge Lewis M. Goodrich in First District Court here.

Thelma Snyder was decreed divorced from her husband, Willis Snyder, on grounds of cruelty and granted the custody of one minor child. The plaintiff's petition alleged the couple were married in 1932 and separated in July, 1947.

A payment of $75 a month, toward the support of her three minor children, was awarded to Lila Middaugh when she was granted a divorce from Ison P. Middaugh. The Court signed the decree on grounds of infidelity. The couple were married in January, 1938, and separated in April, 1947.

Changes of cruelty won a divorce for Alford Sherman from his wife, Eva Lee Sherman, after less than a year of married life. The couple was married in August, 1946, and separated in July, 1947.

Winona Sheer was granted a divorce from Paul Sheer on grounds of desertion. Plaintiff alleged they were married in September, 1917, and separated in 1943.

Olva Hargis was given her divorce from Billy James Hargis on grounds of cruelty. The couple were married for less than six months. Date of marriage was March 29, 1947, and date of separation as July 13, 1947.

The adoption of one minor child was granted by the Court.

Favorable Weather May Save Part of Rice Crop

GALVESTON—(AP)—What is left of the rice crop in the Alvin area after suffering heavy storm damage still may be saved if weather favors the harvesting.

Nearly 90,000 acres of rice are in the area and only a small percentage was harvested before Sunday's tropical storm paid the crop a visit, causing thousands of dollars of damage.

Farmers said that in all probability rice in the milk stage would be blighted and a complete loss, although many said they were optimistic at prospects of saving the ripened grain knocked down.

Citrus growers said they suffered heavy losses on an already predicted small crop.

Phase of New Code Deals With Parking

AUSTIN—(AP)—Don't leave your car or truck parked illegally on a street or highway after Sept. 5, Director Homer Garrison of the Department of Public Safety warned today. You may come back and find it gone.

"The new uniform traffic code, effective Sept. 5, provides that officers may have such illegally parked vehicles hauled away in order to remove a public hazard," Garrison said.

640-Acre Airfield Pulled Out of Hat

DALLAS—(AP)—To magicians who put rabbits out of hats this little story is respectfully dedicated.

It's a story about a 640-acre airfield that was pulled out of a hat.

If you don't believe it, ask Charles R. Rook of Dallas, an ex-OI, who's beginning to believe in magic.

Some time ago Rook, a court bailiff, made an application through the War Assets Administration to buy real estate through a surplus sale. He wanted to build a home, and was looking for a site.

He got a reply yesterday from the WAA.

The letter, signed by C. W. Moehring, regional supervisor for surplus sale disposal, said the airport, runways and all, was his for $500.

Rook's name was pulled out of a hat, the letter explained, that contained the names of other war veterans bidding on WAA property.

Rook, who already had put up $100 earnest money, said he'd send the balance along right away.

The air field, known as the Toyah Auxiliary No. 4, is situated near Pecos, Texas. On the property, protected by a high wire fence, is a glassed-in control tower, and all.

Rook, who doesn't fly, is wondering what to do with it.

He said he understood there was a lake nearby and that he might open up a Dude Ranch for aviation enthusiasts.

Man Fined Here in Liquor Violation

C. R. West, Wellington, was fined $100 and costs in County Court last night, after entering a plea of guilty to charges of transporting liquor in a dry county, before County Judge Sherman White.

West was apprehended by the locally assigned State Highway Patrolmen after a five mile chase east of Letors late yesterday.

The state officially confiscated the liquor, which amounted to almost two cases.

Military

Queer rigs distinguished some of the bands; the Brownsville, Texas, group wore Mexican sombreros, those from Somerville, Mass., just dressed as hags. Crews of the French locomotives wore peasants' smocks. Miners helmets, snowshoes, chaps, or war bonnets suited others. The Kittery, Me., marchers threw potatoes at the spectators.

Far bigger but less frolicsome will be the all-day main convention parade up Fifth Avenue tomorrow. MacDill Field in Florida will have 18 B-29 Superfortresses make two runs over the city during the parade.

Forrestal, last speaker at the opening session yesterday, urged universal military training as necessary to complement the armed forces unification program, under which his new office was created.

"It is a matter of first importance that the military power of the United States be kept vigorous, modern and capable of swift mobilization," Forrestal said.

Our international aims, he said, are to conclude peace treaties as soon as possible, strengthen the United Nations, and "secure for a world a stability that will enable men to address themselves to their daily tasks without the overhanging shadow and fear of war."

It is against the law to picnic twice on the same spot, or within three miles of it, inside of 30 days, in Nebraska.

Germany

(Continued from Page 1) necessary to permit the economically merged bizonal area to regain economic health and allow Germany to "contribute her indispensable part to the economic rehabilitation of Europe as a whole."

Practically all the industries dealt with were granted increased production ceilings. Simultaneously the amount of industrial equipment available for reparations from the combined zones was reduced sharply.

Clay and Douglas emphasized that their action was designed solely to make Western Germany self-sustaining and to harness its potential to work for the recovery of all Europe under the "Marshall Plan" or other similar cooperative reconstruction efforts.

They asserted that Allied plans to eliminate Germany's war-making power and to provide reparations to qualified claimants would not be violated.

Louisville Organizes Little Below Knee Club

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(AP)—Shouting "keep prices down and hemlines up," Louisville's "Little Below the Knee Club" staged a downtown rally Wednesday night and, with a men's auxiliary, declared war on new fashions which call for longer skirts.

A cheering, whistling crowd listened to spokesmen who advanced several arguments for maintaining present hemline lengths.

It was the consensus that:

- 1—Women should not allow Paris to dictate styles.
- 2—Clothing manufacturers are trying to "hoodwink" women into buying new styles.

3—Long skirts are neither attractive nor comfortable.

Mrs. Neslie Cox, who led the rally, said 1,285 Louisville women already had promised to keep the "status quo" of the hemline, and urged that neighborhood clubs be formed.

Play in the Junior Division will start at 7 p.m. at Oiler Park. The Seniors' game will follow immediately. After the games, awards will be presented to all the winning and runner-up teams by the Kiwanis Club.

The night's play will mark the winning of another championship, the losing of a ball game, the finish of another school vacation, the passing of another summer, the end of a lot of work by members of the Kiwanis Club, who arrange and officiate the games, and the completion of volunteer work on the part of a lot of sponsors, who have kept the teams together.

That's a few of the things the night marks, but there are many more things it could signify that will never be mentioned, or even known. There is absolutely no way of measuring the good of a worthwhile program that occupies the time and energy of a large percentage of a town's boys and girls during the summer evenings.

We are told that the percentage of juvenile delinquency in Pampa is lower than in most towns of the same size in this State. If this condition does exist, we feel sure that the Kiwanians' summer program has been one of the greatest contributors.

This does not mean that many, or even some of the kids that participated in the program would ever get into any trouble, but the fact remains that kids are kids, and they can all easily get off on the wrong foot if their time isn't taken up by something worthwhile.

So, as a part of Pampa, we wish to extend our thanks to the Kiwanis Club, the team sponsors and to the others who contributed in making this program a success. We feel that you not only helped the kids to have a better summer, but in doing so, helped to make our town a better place to live.

FORMER HARVESTER COACH Odus Mitchell, who is now football mentor at North Texas State College, Denton, will start his Eagles out for fall training next Monday. Coach Mitchell's boys are favored to successfully defend the Lone Star Conference championship title they grabbed last year.

In fact, the club may well boast the highest percentage of returning lettermen of almost any team in the nation, and the Eagles' piled up an impressive record last year. Nine members of the first string will be on hand again this season. Twenty-five of the 28 men who lettered last season will be out for the Eagles again Monday.

THE LOS ANGELES COLORED Coaters and the ABC Chesterfields, two colored teams who have played exhibition baseball games here the past couple nights, have given the fans some pretty good entertainment, though they have been the second attraction. The main attraction has been the colored announcer, who describes the game as: "Da next man up to bat is Mr. Lee, da center-fielder who is now a'catchin'. Oh! Oh! Dat's all Lee popped out to da Shortstopper da fust time."

Oiler Playoff Hopes Jolted Again, 14-0

ABILENE—The Oiler hopes for a play off berth were given a grimmer severe jolt here Thursday night when the Abilene Blue Sox found the offerings of Dub Scott and Bob Bailey to their liking to pound out 21 hits and a decisive 14-0 victory.

The Oiler, who hit the ball as they played in the series opener, found the going tough last night as Pete Zmitrovic issued only three scattered singles and at one time retired 18 Pampans in a row.

R. C. Otey picked on the first pitch of the ball game for a single into center and after O'Connell followed up with a walk it looked like the visitors were going to pick up where they left off Wednesday night, but Zmitrovic settled down at this point to retire the next 18 batters to face him.

The string was broken in seventh when Al Johnston drew a base on balls to lead off the inning, Riley and Summers then flew out to center and right, respectively, before Ray Bauer drove one through the box to send Johnston to third. Gregory ended the threat by grounding out to first. The other Oiler hit came in the ninth when Summers singled after two were away. Bauer grounded out however to end the game.

The Sox did all their scoring in three innings, two in the first, four in the fourth, and eight in the eighth frame. Joe Bern and Frank Means homered in the big eighth. Don Runge, Dick Meyers, and Milt Martin gained four hits apiece to pace the Sox attack.

Cats' Win Over Beaumont Trims Buffs' Loop Lead

(By The Associated Press) Tulsa just about had the fourth spot in the Texas League Shaughnessy playoff cinched today.

Dallas' 2-1 victory over Shreveport dropped the Sports three and one-half games back of Tulsa. The Oilers divided two games with Houston, winning the overtime opener 3-2, and losing the nightcap, 6-1.

In other games, Fort Worth cut Houston's League lead to just one game by beating Beaumont, 4-1, and Oklahoma City defeated San Antonio, 6-2.

The hot and cold Dallas Rebels backed Tom Pullin in fine style. After Nick Gregory's home run in the eighth inning had tied the one run Dallas had scored in the first, Hal Hirshorn's high fly chased Joe Smaza home.

The game opened Dallas' final home stand of the regular season. Al Rosen, the top batter in the ninth inning scored Jack Tobn and gave Lee Anthony his 13th win of the season.

In the nightcap Al Papai held Tulsa to seven scattered hits and the Buffs had a fairly easy time. Willard Ramsdell notched his 20th win when he limited the Exporters to six hits. Three unearned runs in the eighth gave the Cats the game.

Al Rosen, the top batter in the ninth inning scored Jack Tobn and gave Lee Anthony his 13th win of the season.

THE FRUITS OF STATISM

One thing distinguishes American economic doctrine from all others. That is freedom of opportunity under the competitive system. In both Europe and South America competition is rigidly restricted by government, by cartels and by other monopolistic forces. As Russell Porter writes in the New York Times, "In contrast to the relative freedom with which an American can find work or start a business, move from one place to another, or introduce a new line of goods... no such opportunities exist abroad. Foreign trade associations of producers, wholesalers and retailers guard their vested interests jealously, keeping out new members and keeping non-members out of business in order to prevent 'destructive' competition. Trade unions join with trade associations to restrict competition."

This kind of monopoly, whether exerted by government or by private interests, inevitably paves the way for socialism. The state regulates more and more. Its fingers reach into every pile. Little by little it begins to expropriate business. It becomes the dominant influence in the economic life of the people. It becomes a major employer. The only possible end result is some form of dictatorship.

Furthermore, the American economic system is the only one which has distributed its benefits to the masses of the people. In the super-state—whether it be of the Russian, German or Spanish pattern—the men at the top possess enormous powers, and profit accordingly.

All the rest of the nation struggles along on a subsistence basis. There is no opportunity to improve, to save, to start an enterprise. Punishment for dissenters is swift and brutal. That is the danger when government goes into business—when government tampers with free enterprise and the free markets—when bureaucracy reaches for more and more power. We have only to look abroad to see the fruits of statism.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

news behind the news

By RAY TUCKER
OATH — Obedient John Lewis is throwing all his mighty influence into a supreme effort to persuade the American Federation of Labor to adopt the C.I.O. strategy of an all-out defiance of the Hartley-Taft Law, especially the requirement that union officials make affidavits they are not Communists under penalty of losing all their rights and privileges under the new NLRB Act.

The timid A. F. of L. president, William Green, has not yet made up his mind on the question, but the United Mine Workers boss hopes to make it up for him. He has warned that his UMW organization will not agree to take the oath, no matter what decision the federation reaches.

"I am a white man," thunders Mr. Lewis in his best Shakespearean style, and then he soliloquizes after the manner of Hamlet: "I shall I swear to my skin? No! I am an honest man, but shall I swear to my honesty? No! I am a Christian, but shall I swear to my beliefs? No! I am not a Communist, but shall I swear to my Americanism? No!"

ENTRENCHED—Mr. Lewis professes no concern over NLRB General Counsel Robert Denham's threat to deprive non-swearing officials of their authority to utilize the federal agency's offices, services and protection in obtaining contracts with employers.

He is already so strongly entrenched that he does not feel the need of federal assistance. No competing union seeks to invade the highly specialized and organized field. In his recent settlement with the coal operators, which was the best in industrial history, he demonstrated that he can get what he wants through by-passing all government agencies.

CHALLENGED—He no longer feels the need of an NLRB, although enactment of the original Wagner Labor Relations Act, which he helped to shape, rescued his union from disintegration and bankruptcy. He considers himself so strong that he may even advocate repeal, not only of the Hartley-Taft Law, but of the basic statute establishing the NLRB.

Thus the New Deal experiment of government reinforcement of organized labor has rounded the full circle. Now that the unions' newly won power has been challenged through Congressional enactment of checks and balances, they want entire freedom from federal restraints and regulation.

CONTROVERSIAL—Representative Fred Hartley, co-author of a troublesome program into the laps of President Truman and Attorney General Clark, who seem to be enjoying the political disfigurement and controversy which operation of the law has caused the Republican sponsors.

The Jersey member, who differs from Senator Taft on the ethics and legality of new contracts which aim to evade or nullify their law, may ask the Department of Justice to investigate them with an eye to prosecution. Other experts insist that unions and corporations have no more right to frustrate this statute than they have to balk the effect of the anti-trust, tariff or revenue laws.

Many key G.O.P.-ers suspect that certain Administration members, in cabshots with Messrs. Philip Murray and Lewis, aim to try to discredit the act between now and the 1948 presidential election.

Should the practices which Mr. Hartley criticizes precipitate a year of industrial unrest rather than peaceful relationships between labor and management, the popular reaction might be unfavorable to the Republicans.

NON-PARTISAN—John Thomas Taylor, the American Legion's veteran lobbyist at the Capitol, never suffered such a political snub and congressional defiance as he did when he tried to block introduction of the Van Zandt Bill establishing a sort of veterans' Reconstruction Finance Corporation. He may be rebuffed for his interference by Legion officials at the forthcoming national convention in New York City.

The measure was originally presented to the House by Representative Van Zandt of Pennsylvania, former head of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, which actively promoted the project. Five other members—Representatives Kearney and Woolcott of New Jersey, Keefe of Tennessee, Rogers of Massachusetts, and Spence of Kentucky—sponsored similar proposals. It was a completely nonpartisan enterprise.

UNEASY—When Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire let it be known that he would introduce a companion bill in the Senate, Lobbyist Taylor descended on him, and "descended" is the precise word to define John Thomas's operations. He threatened to defeat Senator Bridges or anything else who dared to father the scheme.

It is understood that Mr. Taylor funded because the program was the brain child of a rival veterans' organization. He has become an easy target for the influence of the more aggressive V. V. We are among World War II veterans.

When George Jams, former deputy chief of the Veterans Administration and now V. F. W. Rehabilitation Director, learned of the Bridges-Taylor set-to, he wrote to Paul Griffith, national commander of the American Legion. He asks if Mr. Taylor spoke only for himself, or if he represented the Legion, or official reaction to the veterans' R. F. C. establishment.

Commander Griffith did not reply. He did better. At the next convention of the Pennsylvania Department of the Legion, he persuaded the delegates to endorse the Van-Bridges program unanimously, and to demand that Congress enact it at the next session.

LEGION TRICKED by Upton Close

When a Communist trick can be put over on the alert, staunchly American executive board of the California Department, American Legion, that's news.

It happened August 10 when a resolution was slipped past that state Legion body which might have been lifted right out of any current Communist front publication. The resolution sounded good enough in its opening paragraph, condemning both Communism and Fascism. But it went right on to adopt the line the Red fronts recently have adopted of plotting Fascism as a greater threat to this country than Communism.

There are about 4,850,000 members of Communist fronts in this country, but if there is an organization aiming at replacing this form of government and this economic system with a Fascist system I have not discovered it. Communists and their friends, however, use "Fascism" as a smear word.

The framers of the resolution named only one little and conspicuous weekly news letter in the Communist group, but listed as Fascist five publications which have made it their primary business to fight Communism. No mention was made of the Daily Worker, the New Masses or Political Affairs, all official Communist organs.

Nothing was said about Henry Wallace's New Republic system. Henry Wallace's defamations sheet, Friends of Democracy's Battle, or the various publications issued or aided by the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith, the giant softener-upper for Marxism.

EXONERATED
On the other hand, some of the five "Fascist" papers and their publishers, condemned in the resolution as "subversive" have been recently exonerated by a federal court after the Anti-Defamation League and its host of rich, influential friends, together with the full power of the New Deal and its Attorney General, tried for nearly four years to connect the accused with the enemy—the Nazi enemy that is.

In fact, the federal judge who threw the case—the so-called Sedition trial—out of court, lashed the federal prosecution for using the court to persecute and harass the accused, and said that after so much effort, there still was no evidence on which to base a conviction. It would be "a travesty on justice" to hold the defendants under indictment any longer.

If these men are subversive all Americans would like them convicted—just as we would like something done about the hundreds of thousands of Communists. But it was probably not the real intention of the Legion board, starting out to condemn Communism, to mention only one Communist publication while attacking five anti-Communist papers.

I believe most of the members of the California Legion board have a fair understanding of the real nature of the "Sedition Trial", but a great many patriotic Americans have not. It is time that all mentally adult citizens get to the bottom of it.

Whatever the record of the defendants—and as I say, the court found nothing subversive in their records—the whole show was cooked up by the Red radicals, the lunatic fringe, who had the ear of the President and the full use of his Attorney General's office.

SOME LEGIONNAIRES SURPRISED
Their aims—conviction or no conviction—were to create a great spectacle, frightening away all opposition to our going into the war beside Soviet Russia, and discrediting and defaming the more outspoken opponents of New Deal socialism. The Communists loved the show because their propaganda organs, playing up the attacks the accused had made on certain Communist organizations and individuals which happened to be Jewish, to alarm the whole Jewish community and try to frighten all Jews into communism.

They wanted (and still want) all Jews to believe that all Americans who oppose Communism also oppose all Jews. In their appeal to the Jews, the Communist Party hoped the trial would condition American thinking as to permit passage of a law that would make anti-Semitism (or their definition of it) a crime, thereby preventing any criticism or exposure of a minority group, however subversive. Behind such a law Communist agents could move freely to overthrow this government.

Their friend, Ellis E. Patterson, then a Representative from Los Angeles, actually introduced such a measure in the House in June, 1946, which the Red press, by the way, ballyhooed by the Red press. So when the California Department, Legion executive board adopted the resolution the other day many an old time Communist treat himself to a belly laugh. It is a fact that nearly all members of that Legion board, however, are pretty wise to the Marxist maneuvers and that—after a steady stream of protests from members—are trying to find out how the resolution was slipped past them.

Simple Assault Charge Results From Strike
CORPUS CHRISTI—(AP)—Sheriff John B. Harney yesterday was charged with simple assault by Herman Wright of Houston, an attorney for the Oil Workers International Union, CIO, on strike in Southwest Texas.

The Nueces County sheriff said Wright came to his office following the arrest of three oil workers since the strike affecting an estimated 1,800 union men, went into effect Sunday night.

The strike was called by the union against oil rigging companies over a wage dispute.

Common Ground
By R. C. HOLDS
What is the Actual Meaning Of Collective Bargaining?

The use of words without defining them, without reducing them to axioms or principles which are generally accepted, causes a great deal of confusion and chaos. In fact, it usually leads eventually to war. Recent public utterances by leading officials of high rank and public industrialists that they believe in collective bargaining is a case in point.

No one objects to collective bargaining if it means that those in the group are only trying to bargain for themselves and will let anyone else make any bargain that it without trying to boycott one party in the bargain. That, however, is not what collective bargaining usually means.

A news dispatch quotes Governor Dewey as saying "The administration of the government of New York state is dedicated to the principle that the principles of union organization and collective bargaining must be preserved."

Henry Ford, II in a paid advertisement throughout the nation said his idea in collective bargaining, I wonder if his Grandfather would. Earl Bunting, President of the National Association of Manufacturers, has publicly endorsed collective bargaining.

Now what do these people really mean when they say they believe in collective bargaining? Do they mean that they believe that groups of men have a right to combine and say they will simultaneously quit work if they cannot get the wages they demand? Would they really call that collective bargaining? Can we have a real bargain made under threats of duress?

Do these people mean that a group of workers has a right to agree with an employer that the employer should hire no one on any terms whether it be for or more than the majority of the workers dictate. If they say that is the true meaning of collective bargaining, then how could there be an individual bargain? Their what is the difference between that and collectivism? Then how can they harmonize that with the Commandments "Thou shalt not steal" or "Thou shalt not covet" or the Declaration of Independence which says all men have certain inalienable rights? Is that not a conspiracy of the majority to deprive an individual the right to use his best individual judgment?

And if that be the case, which it most certainly is, then collective bargaining is bound to grow and grow until it gets so arbitrary and powerful that it will take over the functions of the government. It will substitute the will of the bargaining unit for individual will.

I want to quote what Earl Bunting, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, said when asked whether or not he meant that if the majority wants to set the minimum for wages or establish seniority or determine promotion or the speed with which an individual may learn his trade, an individual employee may not make an individual contract on terms different from those of the bargaining unit.

Here is his answer: "If the majority of the employees voluntarily select a bargaining agent, I think it not at all unreasonable that the bargaining agent should bargain for all of the employees in the appropriate bargaining unit. Individual agreements which are at variance with the collective bargaining agreement would be possible as a matter of good faith."

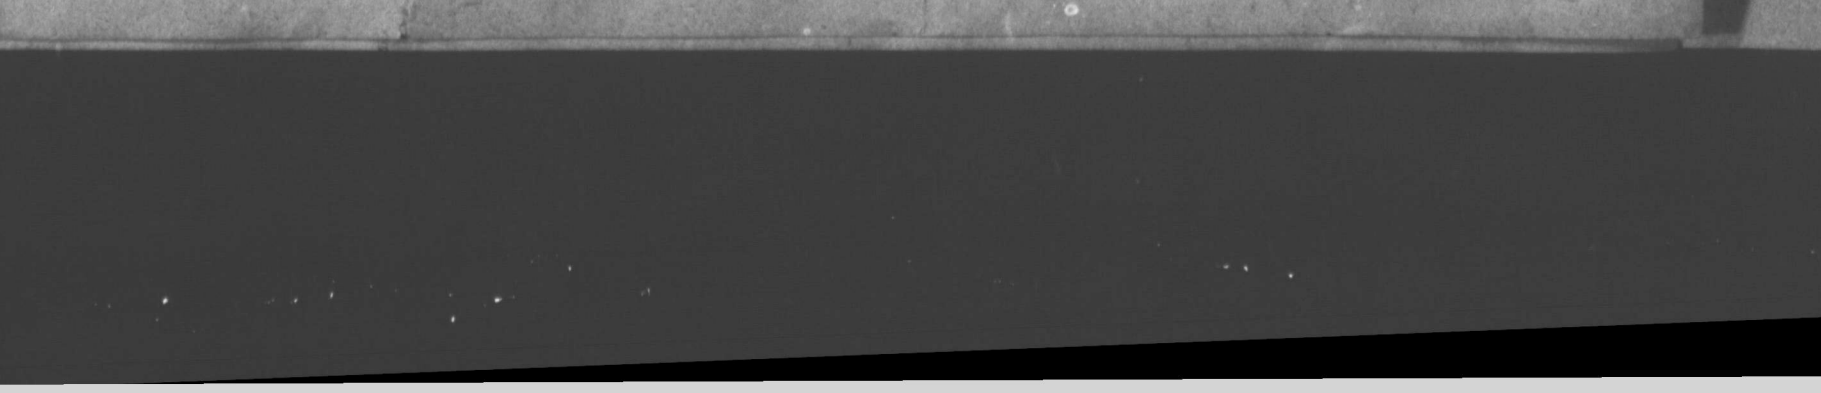

Then Mr. Bunting believes that a man hasn't the right to make an individual bargain. In short, he believes in cartels. In short he does believe in a cartel. In the competitive system, the whole purpose of collective bargaining which takes away from an individual his right to help establish values is an attempt to impede, interfere and destroy a free market—the competitive system.

It is little wonder that we have lost our moral fiber, that we have so much moral adult delinquency, that we have one strike after another, that we have unemployment and fiat money, that we have one war after another when leaders like Dewey and Ford say they believe in collective bargaining without defining it and when the head of the National Association of Manufacturers believes in a form of collective bargaining which denies an individual his equal right to make an individual bargain without the consent of the majority.

Of course Mr. Bunting would not submit to an interview for $1,000. His face would become red; he would be embarrassed; he would be humiliated because he would have to contradict himself or admit that he did not believe in equal individual freedom and that he believed instead in a form of collectivism or planned economy.

Yes, it is important that people define their terms and when they take a position, as Mr. Bunting has taken, that they be willing to test their views to see whether they are in harmony with the Ten Commandments and see whether they have ever been born again or whether they want their will and the will of the majority to be substituted for God's will.

COME ON OUT, COOKIE!

Cherry Says Bob Layne is Tops for 'T' Quarterback

AUSTIN—(AP)—Coach Blair Cherry of the University of Texas Longhorns "just doesn't know" what football observers are talking about when they defer to Bobby Layne as the biggest question in this year's football parade.

"Eck Curtis and I have seen all the top-notch 'T' quarterbacks both in college and professional football. True, there are better ball-handlers, but taken on an all-around basis, we haven't seen any yet that can compare with Layne," Cherry said.

And then Cherry and Backfield Coach Curtis ran through the list including such artists as Lujack, Luckman, Christian, Waterfield, Ratterman, and many others.

"In our 'T' there are three important things, first to think and throw, and next to handle the ball. We've got pictures taken of Layne in spring training and he already handles the ball as well as some of the top pro operators," Cherry said.

Layne was the nation's leading passer last year with 1,115 yards on 77 completions in 140 attempts.

But there's more—Cherry thinks Layne's passing will be more effective this year because of the more diversified attack the Longhorns expect to make.

"We may not throw as many this year but receivers will be wider open and longer gains will result," the graying mentor said.

With Layne's football savvy, natural ability, and great competitive play, Cherry figures him to be ideal for the slot.

Layne, a quiet, mild-mannered 6 ft. 1 in. blonde, weighs 196, is in the peak of condition and is raring to get started in his last collegiate season.

He has his eyes on a professional football career after he graduates next June.

One of Layne's top performances came in the Cotton Bowl game, January, 1946, against Missouri. Layne completed 11 out of 12 passes and figured in all of Texas' six touchdowns.

During the 1946 season Layne accounted for 40 percent of the Longhorn yardage while they rolled to eight victories and two losses.

"All America? I don't know and don't care whether or not we even have an all-conference player on the squad. We're just going to have a fine team playing a good game against some of the best teams in the nation," Cherry said, concluding "but if we have the kind of a team we hope to have, I don't think Bobby will lose any chance for national recognition."

Denison Planning Diamond Jubilee

DENISON—(AP)—This city's famed "mile-long main street" becomes a gigantic midway Sept. 1-8 as Denison celebrates her 75th birthday with six-day Diamond Jubilee.

Mayor W. E. Marico, the City Council and business leaders agreed to bar the long main thoroughfare to all motorized traffic from Aug. 31 until after the celebration.

Only horse-drawn vehicles and pedestrians will be allowed on the street, which will be flanked on either side with frontier stores, chuck wagon restaurants, and bars staffed by gents with handle-bar mustaches and serving root beer.

A world championship rodeo, a carnival and wild west show are among the city-slicker attractions to be offered. Home talent will provide street dances, a formal costume ball, stagecoach rides and sight-seeing tours in bugles with the fringe on top.

Highlight of the celebration will be Saturday, Sept. 6, when the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad will re-enact the arrival of the first train into Denison on Dec. 25, 1872.
