8 Planes Carry Out Threat

Guerrilla Action Strafes Road

By United Press International
Israel warned Lebanon today against guerrilla operations then sent eight planes to strafe a public road in the Al-Akoub guerrilla area near the border. Israeli planes also struck Egyptian positions near the Suez Canal.

A Lebanese military spokesman in Beirut said four civilians were wounded when the Israeli planes strafed an agricultural truck and a civilian car on a public road leading to the village of Hasbaya. He said Lebanese anti-aircraft batteries forced the Israeli planes to flee. Jordan reported a 30-minute border clash with Israeli forces in the southern Jordan Valley. Tel Aviv found its relations with France deteriorating over the French government's demand that an Israeli admiral be recalled from Paris for his part in the so-called gunboat affair. Paris dispatches also reported that Israeli pilots and maintenance crews sent to France some time ago to pick up 50 Mirage jets sold to Israel had quietly returned to Israel. The bought-and-paid-for jets were embargoed by France.

Previous Egyptian statements on the gunboat affair accused the Israelis of stealing the vessels from France Christmas Day despite the French total arms embargo to Israel imposed a year ago.

France suspended two generals from their jobs in its Foreign Ministry and then announced Thursday it had demanded the recall from Paris of Adm. Mordecai Limon, Israel's chief-arms-buyer in the French capital.

French Demand "Unjustified"
The first official Israeli comment on the matter said the French demand was unjustified and France had only herself to blame because of her embargo on shipments of arms to Israel.

"The Israeli government does not regard as justified any action that may imply criticism of Israel or any of her representatives" including Limon, the statement from Tel Aviv said.

The gunboat affair, according to the statement, arose from the "unjustified continuation of the (French) embargo. . . . A chill pervaded French-Israeli relations.

At a diplomatic reception in Paris Thursday, President Georges Pompidou of France greeted Israel's ambassador to Paris, Walter Eytan, with a stiff handshake and then, without speaking, turned to other guests.

"Refute All Rumors"
From Cairo, Al-Ahram

commented the French counter-measures "refute all rumors about an imminent shift in French policy" to lift the embargo and praised them as "decisive."

Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser, in a New Year's speech in the Sudan, pledged to double his armed forces, to a million men to fight what he called the "very difficult" battle with Israel.

Israel's armed forces chief of staff, Lt. Gen. Haim Bar Lev, said in an interview published today that the chances for a new Middle East War are slight but "nonetheless, the Arabs may do anything foolish or desperate."

"Our approach," he said, "is that we should be ready for war at any minute."

After Lull, GNP To Top $1 Trillion

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two fiscal reports indicate that the U.S. Gross National Product (GNP), which did not grow very much in 1969, will top $1 trillion in 1970.

In an annual report, the Commerce Department said Thursday the U.S. economy will grow at an annual rate of 7 per cent during the first half of the new decade and reach a GNP of $1.4 trillion by 1974.

The GNP, which measures the dollar value of the nation's total output of goods and services, increased 83 per cent during the 1960s. Actual production volume — excluding the effect of inflation — was up to 50 per cent during the decade.

Data Resources Inc., of Lexington, Mass., said its computerized forecast put the nation's GNP at $991 billion, up $58 billion from one year earlier. But it said real growth was estimated at 1.5 per cent, compared with 4.9 per cent in 1968.

Data Resources also predicted there would be no recession in 1970, but a continued slowing of the economy with a rise in unemployment to an average of 4.4 per cent.

"The benefits of growth were widespread," the Commerce Department said. "Expansion of the nonfarm industries generated nearly 17 million new jobs, while the rising productivity of private industry was reflected in an increase of almost 30 per cent in output per man-hour."

Of 143 manufacturing industries covered in detail by the report, 19 were expected to grow by 10 per cent or more, 58 by 5 to 10 per cent and 66 by less than 5 per cent.

Anticipated Gains . . . The greatest anticipated percentage gains are 19 per cent in mobile homes, 17 per cent in industrial trucks and 15 per cent in elevators and moving stairways.

Some projected gains for 1970:

Chemicals, up 6 per cent to $32.3 billion; containers, up 5 per cent to $20.5 billion; electronic computing equipment, up 17 per cent to $4.9 billion; food products, 20.3 per cent to $56.5 billion; household durable goods, up 4 per cent to $12.7 billion; life insurance, up 8 per cent to $36.4 billion; mobile homes, up 19 per cent to a record 475,000 units; newspaper publishing, up 5 per cent to $7 billion.

The Commerce Department said median family income is now about $8,000 and is headed toward $10,000 by the mid-70s.

New York Battles Bus Fair Raise

NEW YORK (UPI) — The city battled today to prevent a 30-cent fare on its buses and subways looming from a $120-million contract settlement with two transit unions that narrowly averted a crippling strike.

It was inevitable the price would rise from 20 cents to at least 25 cents after Mayor John V. Lindsay announced late Thursday he would go before the Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) and propose a plan to hold the fare to 25 cents.

"A 25-cent fare would be sad enough," said Lindsay. "A 30-cent fare would be a tragedy for every working man and woman in the city."

The mayor also said he had scheduled a meeting with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, prior to today's board meeting, "for an opportunity to present this plan for his consideration and support."

He called his plan "feasible and realistic" but did not reveal its details.

The settlement between the MTA and the Transport Workers Union (TWU) and the Amalgamated Transport Union (ATU) was reached Thursday, less than an hour before the 35,000 workers represented by the unions were scheduled to walk out.

The two-year contract provided for a 5 per cent increase in the average $4.01 an hour wage immediately and a 10 per cent increase effective July 1, 1971 for the last six months of the contract.

What Happened To Ceiling On Gov't Spending?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Whatever happened to the $191.9-billion ceiling Congress set on this fiscal year's government spending? It's alive, not so well, and was recently estimated by the Budget Bureau to have bloated to about $194.4 billion.

But one of its key backers insists the ceiling, despite its elasticity, has had a salutary effect in helping keep a lid on the budget.

The budget ceiling was imposed by Congress in July. It was supposed to cut President Nixon's spending plans for the fiscal year by $1 billion.

Having thus paid their respects to the virtue of saving, congressmen then went about their usual business, which is spending.

Nixon now is calling attention to Congress' spending habits and can be expected to mention it frequently as he suffers the complaints of voters incensed.

Army Bombers Back On Job After New Year's Truce

SAIGON (UPI) — U.S. B52s went back on the attack. Guerrilla troops assaulted a South Vietnamese border bivouac and terrorist bomb exploded in Saigon today after a New Year's truce marred by fighting.

American and government soldiers resumed their offensive operations at 6 p.m. Thursday (5 a.m. EST Thursday) and the Communists ended their three-day standstill at 1 a.m. today (noon EST Thursday).

Military spokesmen said the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese violated the 24-hour Allied truce 111 times, killing six Americans and wounding 11 while losing 123 men slain in retaliatory Allied strikes.

The U.S. Command keeps record only of what it calls "enemy-initiated" incidents. This includes cases in which U.S. troops fired first at guerrillas approaching their positions. The command makes no breakdown of who fired first.

South Vietnamese headquarters said it lost 25 dead and 72 wounded in 39 incidents of fighting during the Communist truce but kept no breakdown of losses during the shorter Allied cease-fire.

Six flights of B52 bombers came in early today for post-truce raids against what were described as bunker complexes and weapons positions 61 miles northwest of Saigon along the Cambodian border.

Farther south along the Cambodian frontier, 115 miles southwest of Saigon, guerrilla troops were thrown back trying to overrun a South Vietnamese armor bivouac this morning. Government troops, reporting light losses of their own, said they killed 15 of the attackers.

In Saigon, a terrorist bomb before dawn destroyed an American jeep parked in the Cholon section, wounding four Vietnamese women, military spokesmen said. The terrorists who planted the time bomb escaped.

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew concluded his overnight visit to the war zone today and left for Nationalist China to continue his 10-nation tour of Asia.

While in Vietnam, Agnew visited two combat bases and got briefings from both American and South Vietnamese officials. He visited wounded GIs in a field hospital before his departure.

At one of the forward outposts, the vice president told U.S. troops not to believe what they read in "certain publications" about antiwar sentiment in the United States and said the American public was 100 per cent behind them.

Letter Suggests Reason For Kidnaping Woman

LONDON (UPI) — An anonymous letter suggested today that Mrs. Muriel McKay, a missing wife of a newspaper executive, was kidnaped by an irate father whose 12-year-old daughter was corrupted by racy stories in her husband's newspaper.

Mrs. McKay, 55, vanished from her $72,000 home near Wimbledon's famous lawn tennis club Monday. Her husband, Alex, is acting chairman of the mass circulation Sunday newspaper News of the World which recently serialized the memoirs of the letter-writer.

The letter — was pushed through the letterbox of the Hornsey Journal, a local newspaper in north London, Thursday night. The newspaper said today the writer claimed he would hold Mrs. McKay until the News of the World vowed to stop printing "filth."

The writer, who misspelled several words and printed in block capitals throughout the letter, said the News of the World and the Daily Sun, both owned by Australian Rupert Murdoch, "do not worry much about all the kiddies' souls."

"They pay out hundreds of thousands of pounds for no-good girls to write their stories. So why should they not pay me for murdering Mrs. McKay?"

The letter did not demand a specific amount of money.

"I lost my 12-year-old daughter because she was influenced by the money these dirty girls get paid for telling everyone about it," the letter said.

The writer said his daughter had been living with married men and had contracted venereal disease.

"I will let Mrs. McKay go if the News of the World and the Daily Sun publicly announce that they will not corrupt our kiddies any more by printing all that filth, thousands of pounds for no-good girls to write their stories. So the letter concluded.

Pampa Door Becoming Noted In Area

A holiday door in Pampa is gaining area-wide recognition in a presentation today in Amarillo.

Mrs. Bob Curry, 1126 Charles, won a second place prize of $25 and a trophy presented in special ceremonies today by the High Plains Center for the Performing Arts.

The door of the Curry home was featured in a front page picture of the Pampa Daily News on December 25.

Two Candidates File For Posts

Two more candidates have placed their intentions to seek office with Democratic Party secretary Bob Baker in the Gray County courthouse.

W. E. Beck, of McLean, justice of the Peace Precinct 5, and Mrs. Jess Graves of Lefors, justice of the peace for Precinct One, announced today they will again be candidates for the posts they now hold.

Pampa Youths Nominated To Military Academies

Two Pampa Youths, Charles Winston Lanehart and Paul George Thomas are among 41 area youths, who have been nominated for appointments to vacancies in military service academies, according to 18th District Congressman Bob Price.

Lanehart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lanehart, 2222 Chestnut was nominated for entrance at the Naval Academy and the Merchant Marine.

Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Thomas, 1909 Williston, was nominated for the Merchant Marine.

"I believe a service academy education is one of the highest privileges any young man can experience," Price said in announcing the nominations. "I am particularly pleased we were able to nominate this year almost all of the 18th District students who requested consideration," he added.

The nominees will be notified regarding the scheduling of their scholastic and physical aptitude examinations. Price noted Academic Boards of the various academies will study the records of the nominees and select for admission the ones whose all-around performance indicates the greatest likelihood of success in the academy.

County Judge Ill

Gray County Budget Still On Drawing Board

By ALETHA DAVIS
News Staff Writer

Gray County commissioners this morning tabled action on the pending final budget decision for county operations in 1970.

Auditor Ray Wilson reports that budget completion will probably not come before mid-January due to end of the year requirements of his office. Annual reports on county expenses for 1969 are now being tabulated.

Action taken by the court which was not attended by Judge S. R. Lenning Jr., due to illness, included regular bill payment and a report from Ray Duncan, representing the Gray County Insurance Association.

The good news offered by the representative came in the form of a decrease from the insurance rate requirement. The original estimate and figure heard by the commissioners involved a $51,992 policy premium. The figure presented the court this morning was an adjusted $43,398 and Duncan stated that this rate is subject to audit and the possibility of an even lower rate is pending a county road mileage adjustment. Commissioners, for Precincts two, three and four turned in exact mileage counts for inclusion in the new rate cost. Duncan reported that the main rate variable comes in roads in insurance rates.

The new proposal which was accepted by commissioners who had approved a binder policy includes general liability, automobile liability and workmen's compensation for county employees. The hospital codes in the plan include malpractice, general liability, automobile liability and workman's compensation for hospital employees. An estimated $1,000 rate for the Perry Lefors Field is included. McLean Airport operates on a city-county basis with the city carrying airport insurance under the contract

Jaek Graham appeared before the court for an explanation and clarification on his office budget. The proposed budget allowed only a $122 annual increase in salary. Commissioners made and approved a motion that the across-the-board $50 raise for county employees included the veterans service officer who is paid solely by Gray County. Graham is also included in the county retirement program.

County payroll checks for January include the raise approved by commissioners.

Fund transfers were approved by commissioners on recommendation from the treasurer's office. The motion includes a $40,000 transfer from Special Fund to General Fund; $10,000 each from Road and Bridge Funds, one two and four to General Fund and a $20,000 transfer to the Salary Fund from the General Fund.

Two interested citizens attended today's session.

Stork Has No Immediate Plans In Pampa Area

No New Year's baby has made its appearance in Pampa as of noon today.

And there are no likely prospects, according to hospital officials.

That storks may be having transit problems was apparent in a wire story datelined Fort Worth.

A young ambulance attendant helped a grounded stork make an early New Year's Day delivery when Mrs. Betty Simpson, 21, an expectant mother, was being taken to a hospital.

The ambulance became involved in a collision with an automobile. The attendant assisted in the birth of a daughter for Mrs. Simpson while waiting for a second ambulance to arrive.

Earning Ceiling For Elderly Stands To Draw Full Benefits

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The National Council of Senior Citizens says a study indicates it would be neither desirable nor feasible to let the aged earn all they can and still draw full Social Security benefits.

A removal of the earnings ceiling, the council said, "is neither socially desirable nor politically feasible since only about 10 per cent of the elderly would benefit and this 10 per cent comprises those least in need of additional income."

The council also said removal of the ceiling would cost $2.5 billion a year and it doubted workers would willingly pay extra Social Security taxes to finance this.

About 25 million Americans draw Social Security benefits, and, effective Jan. 1, they are getting a 15 per cent across-the-

Cell Got A Little Warm In City Jail

A small fire, that was put out almost as quickly as it began, broke out Thursday in a cell occupied by three men in city jail.

Two boys, who were watching police dispatching services at the station first smelled the smoke, checked on it and told officers where the fire was. Police rushed quickly to the cell, but the fire had already been put out by the three prisoners.

Police said some paper in the cell had caught fire somehow. The three inmates told them they were heating coffee.

Officers, however, said the prisoners had no coffee in their cell.

Funeral services for Fred Dyer, 57, will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at the Baptist Church in Holiday with the Rev. Darius McKay, pastor, officiating. Owens-Brumley Funeral Home of Wichita Falls will direct services. Burial will be in Holiday Cemetery.

Mr. Dyer died Wednesday after suffering a heart attack at his home in Holiday.

He was born in Arkansas and formerly lived one mile west of Pampa on the Jackson Lease. He was employed with an oil field service company while in Pampa. All three of his children attended Pampa elementary schools before the family moved to Holiday about 20 years ago, according to his sister-in-law, Mrs. Charlie Pipes, 200 W. Craven.

Survivors are his wife, Virginia, of the home; two sons, Jack, serving in the Navy, aboard the USS Prairie; and Frank, Holiday; one daughter, Mrs. Harold Wilson, Holiday; seven grandchildren, four brothers, two sisters, and the sister-in-law.

Ceiling ...

The ceiling on spending was written to be broken, especially by Congress but also to the extent of $2 billion by Nixon to cover uncontrollable increases like interest on the soaring national debt.

On Dec. 31, the National Debt stood at $371.3 billion—$6.3 billion more than the permanent legal ceiling of $365 billion imposed by Congress in April. A temporary debt ceiling of $377 billion expires June 30. It is almost certain Nixon will have to ask Congress to raise the limit on the National Debt.

Meantime Nixon has let it be known he doesn't think much of the ceiling anyway, and intends to spend less than it would allow him. He told lawmakers recently the ceiling tended to work in reverse. He said having fixed it, Congress lost some of the zeal for specific, individual cuts that actually would result in some savings.

A floating ceiling or not, Nixon says he still plans to spend this year $192.9 billion—just what he said he would spend at the start of the year.

No Application Needed For New SS Benefits

Social Security beneficiaries need not apply for the 15 per cent benefit increase just signed into law by President Nixon.

"Every one of the 25 million men, women and children now on the benefit rolls will receive the increase automatically," Robert M. Ball, Commissioner of Social Security, said today.

"The first regular check in the new amount," Commissioner Ball said, "will arrive April 3, the usual day for delivery of benefit checks covering payments for the month of January and February will reach beneficiaries later in April, probably in the week of April 20."

Refiguring the benefit amounts of the 25 million men, women, and children now on the benefit rolls is a tremendous task, Commissioner Ball pointed out, and it must be done without disrupting the regular benefit payment cycle.

About one out of every eight Americans is now receiving a social security check each month, Commissioner Ball said. As of the end of December, these monthly payments totaled $2.2 billion and the monthly total will go up by $345 million to more than $2.5 billion as the 15 per cent benefit increase becomes effective. The average retirement benefit of $100 a month will rise to $116 per month; a couple 65- or older receiving the average couple's benefit of $170, will have their benefit increased to $196; the average benefit for a family made up of a disabled worker, wife and one or more children will go up from $237 to $273; and average payments for a widow and two or more children will rise from $254 to $292."

TV Tubes Across Nation Centered With Rose Floats

PASADENA, Calif. (UPI)—The flower-bedecked floats that millions of viewers at home and at curbside oohed and aahed over in the 81st annual Tournament of Roses were on display in a park here today.

An estimated 1.5 million viewed the floral extravaganza in person along the 5 1/2 mile parade route. Millions more throughout the world watched the event on television.

A total of 60 befowered floats ranging in cost from $3,000 to $40,000—were complemented by 21 bands and more than 200 equestrians.

The parade took only two hours and three minutes to cover the length of the spectator-lined route.

Curbside space was at such a premium that some spectators began arriving as much as 18 hours in advance.

Grand marshals of the parade were the Apollo 12 spacemen Charles L. Conrad Jr., Alan L. Bean and Richard F. Gordon Jr. They poked along the parade path at pace slow even for earthmen—2 1/2 miles an hour.

Close behind the marshals were Rose Queen Pamela Dee Tedesco and her six princesses on the queen's float.

For the second year in a row, the city of Los Angeles walked off with the sweepstake award. The city's float depicted an enlarged Bonza display decorated with 2,000 orchids and 8,000 roses.

Union Oil Co. won the grand prize for the most beautiful commercial entry in the parade.

Americans Kicking 'Cig' Habit

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Several years after the surgeon general's report linking smoking and cancer, Americans are beginning to kick the cigarette habit in record numbers.

The National Clearinghouse for Smoking and Health said Thursday a decline in cigarette consumption, which started in 1968, accelerated last year.

In 1968, consumption declined by one billion cigarettes although the adult population increased by two million, the clearinghouse said. For the first seven months of 1969, cigarette consumption declined at a rate three times faster than the previous year.

The number of Americans who have stopped smoking is now known. The Senate Commerce Committee quoted one estimate that seven million persons may have stopped during the last two years.

After the 1964 surgeon general's report, Congress ordered a warning label put on cigarette packages. Even so, smoking kept increasing.

"In all likelihood, cigarette advertising on radio and television will end next Jan. 1. The Senate has passed a bill to outlaw such advertising and the House probably will accept it."

New State Law Holds Cities, Counties Liable

AUSTIN (UPI)—A new state law went into effect which will allow Texans injured in accidents caused by government vehicles to sue the government agency responsible.
The new law, called the "Texas Torts Claims Act," limits governmental liability to $100,000 per person and $300,000 per accident. Punitive or exemplary damages are prohibited.
The law also makes governmental units liable for personal injuries or death caused "by some condition or use of real or personal tangible property that would make a private person, under the same circumstances, liable to a private licensee."
Damages resulting from government vehicles acting in emergencies and damages suffered during a civil disobedience.

Pentagon Survey Reveals Number Of GI Deserters

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Pentagon survey showed Wednesday that since July 1, 1966, 1,403 GIs have crossed international boundaries to desert in foreign countries.
The total, the Defense Department said, does not include men who were already in the foreign country at the time they became absent without leave (AWOL), or those who merely overstayed their leave after entering the country for legitimate purposes.
The Pentagon said that in only 107 of the cases was there any clear-cut evidence the desertion was a protest against the Vietnam War.
The department also said 371 of the deserters have returned, 468 others were alien members of the U.S. armed forces who deserted to their native countries, and 349 were in serious financial trouble or had other personal problems at the time of their departure.

Nevertheless, as of Dec. 18, there were 576 American deserters in Canada, 88 in Mexico, and 85 in Sweden. The rest were scattered through a score of countries.
As far as records go, this situation is unprecedented and is the result of a general increase in military absenteeism.
The Army, for example, listed its rate of "absentees over 30 days"—technically desertion—at 21.4 per thousand in fiscal 1967, 29.1 per thousand in fiscal 1968 and 42.4 per thousand for fiscal 1969, which ended last June 30.
Corresponding rates for the Marine Corps for the same three years were 26.8, 22.4 and 40.2.

Air Force and Navy rates were far lower, probably because unfavorable living conditions in these two services are less likely to be encountered.
The Air Force rates for the three years were 42, 44 and 63, a slight increase. But the Navy showed a decrease—9.7, 8.5 and 7.3—possibly due to an anti-desertion program.
WASHINGTON—Agriculture Secretary Clifford M. Hardin, saying small-town life must be made more attractive:
"We must... create in and around the smaller cities and towns sufficiently good employment opportunities.

LEAVES 891 LATER
WINDSOR, LOCKS, Conn. (UPI)—A traveler whose flight was delayed at Bradley International Airport by the weather Saturday found another way of getting off the ground.
He walked into an airport bar, put a $100 bill on the counter and invited other snowbound passengers to join him.
"When I drink that up, let me know," he said. He boarded his flight $91.00 later, according to the bartender.

AVALANCHE IN JAPAN
NIKKO, Japan (UPI)—An avalanche killed two students Friday in Nikko National Park as they were attempting to rescue eight other students trapped in an earlier avalanche.
Police said a third youth in the rescue party was reported missing and a fourth suffered serious injuries. All of the eight students trapped in the earlier slide freed themselves.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—The new year starts with an odd mix of announcements concerning television offerings in the near future.
We learn, for instance, that Mr. Tiny Tim, the well-known falsest crooner, will introduce his new bride—known to one and all as Miss Vicki, in her video performing debut on CBS-TV's Ed Sullivan Show Jan. 11.
There and then, friends, Mr. Tiny Tim and Miss Vicki will offer a duet. It is their first singing appearance together. Happy New Year.
Draws Highest Rating
Mr. Tiny and Miss Vicki, you may remember, were married recently on the NBC-TV late-night series of Johnny Carson, who thereby benefitted when the holy vows drew the highest ratings in the show's history. In New York City alone, the program drew an estimated 84 per cent of the viewing audience.
CBS-TV, meanwhile, in its wide range of upcoming activities, will offer not only Tiny Tim on the Ed Sullivan Show, but also two new courses on its college credit series, "Sunrise Semester."
Beginning the week of Feb. 2, the courses—for the spring term—will be "Iranian (Persian) Culture and Civilization" and "The Social Anthropology of Africa."

Yet again on CBS-TV, viewers will see on Feb. 6 the second one-hour prime time conversation between former President Lyndon B. Johnson and reporter Walter Cronkite, "Story Concerns Bomb Halt."
The second program will concern, in the main, the story behind his decision to halt the bombing of North Vietnam.
CBS-TV, it should be noted, had great success with the prime time rerun recently of a children's drama, "J.T.," which first appeared during a Saturday morning.
A surprisingly fine one-hour drama about a lonely Negro boy in Harlem, "J.T.," was rerun Dec. 22, in the time slot that usually delivers "Gunsmoke," and got a remarkably strong rating.
At any rate, the second "CBS Children's Hour" play, "Summer is Forever," will be shown in the daytime on Saturday, Jan. 24. Written by Alvin Erezet, it concerns the secret sharing of a plan and dream by a hard-bitten New England lobsterman (Gary Merrill) and a vacationing Boston boy who establishes a rapport with him.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—The 1969 bear market's lows finally have been realized, judging from its recent technical action, says Wright Investors' Service. Blue chip leadership is strong. Dow Jones industrial average volume reached a new high during last week's rally, and the utilities are gaining noticeably more attention than at the earlier 1969 lows. The firm looks for growth in quality common stocks in 1970.

The real bear-market low was seen in late July and a base for a new bull market has since been unfolding, according to Trend & Value. The firm defended on the grounds that a shift to less severely restraining monetary policy seems to have become more likely, a cyclical trough in corporate post-tax earnings is in sight and both the monetary restraint and the earnings attrition appear to have been well overdiscounted at current levels.

Seasonal patterns—as tax-loss selling pressures give way to normal reinvestment demand—should work in the market's favor during the next two or three weeks, says Goodbody & Co. The firm, however, does not advance at this time.
Investors anticipate a significant rise in stock prices after the first quarter of 1970, according to a survey conducted by Paine, Webber, Jackson & Curtis. Investor expect to see a worsening of business condition in the first quarter, but as expects to increase their market activity during the quarter to take advantage of depressed prices, the survey indicated. Expectations of high stock prices after the first three months are based largely on anticipation of a major U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam, prospects for better business conditions, higher corporate profits, easier money and curtailment of inflation.

SINKING DEVELOPMENT
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Chris Brose's demonstration of a newly developed, two-man submarine Tuesday was something less than successful. It sank.
Brose escaped without injury and the vessel was later refloated.

FACE HORRIBLE DEATH
ST. AGNES, England (UPI)—When the power went out at Mrs. Zelle Wooton's cottage, she urgently telephoned the local electricity board.
"My fish are in danger of dying a horrible death," she told them. So the board quickly set up a gasoline-driven generator at her home and kept it going to heat her tropical aquarium until power was restored 10 hours later.

VIOLATES RULE
ADELBERG, England (UPI)—Charlie's Bar at the Brunell Hotel refused to serve Jane Waterfield Tuesday.
The reason: She was wearing a mod costume which violated the bar's house rule that no belly buttons are allowed in public.

Your Horoscope

JEANE DIXON

SATURDAY, JAN. 3

Your birthday Saturday: In the year ahead your career is marked by many actions done with impatience or little time to work out details. Seldom will anything you do during this period be subject to a chance for correction of errors — you have to be right the first time.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Boost your morale by putting on your finest attire. Get chores done quickly and concentrate on enjoying your contacts and relationships.

Routine journeys turn out to be fun.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): New attachments hold much appeal. On all sides, Saturday should offer you peace and beauty. Go sight-seeing or tour some favorite scenery.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): If you will get up and get started early, doing your full share cheerfully, everyone else tends to get into step with you. Plan a party for the evening.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Take a cheerful approach to life Saturday. You'll attract others of the like mood.

Arrange a pleasure trip or plan some sort of festivity according to the weather and your local climate.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Take full advantage of the cooperative attitudes of people around you. Organize your hospitality so that all are shown your welcome. Social contacts made now promise to be of lasting satisfaction.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): A brief journey may produce a bit of unplanned luck. You have a better chance of meeting new and interesting people Saturday.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Use a bold, forthright approach, and go after what you want. There is a chance to add something long desired to your possessions.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Take positive action to balance your budgets and obligations. Clear the way for some serious rearrangements coming up this Spring. Seek entertainment, social activity in the evening.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Keep your sense of humor going bright and strong. Your family may want to know the fine details of financial matters.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): You can get the cooperation of a wide range of people for a new venture Saturday. Your diet will bear watching, as your appetite is quite active now. The lighter the leisure-time entertainment, the better.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Consider your position Saturday morning; review your plans and economic progress carefully. Then put it all out of sight and mind for a personal holiday mood.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): The initiative is in your hands Saturday; the sooner you do what you can with it the better.

Make Home Weathertight For Winter

There's hardly a homeowner who hasn't said to himself: "Next year, I'll winterize the house BEFORE the first snowfall."

If your home is still unprepared for bad weather, it isn't too late to catch up on chores you should have done earlier. Start now to check on any necessary repairs and make them before winter really sets in. These are the areas you should check to be sure the house is protected against possible damage from frosty temperatures, heavy winds and snow.

Insulation — Proper windows are essential to good insulation. Tests show that the most effective combination against heat loss and high fuel bills is insulating glass in weatherstripped wood windows. Once a custom feature, insulating glass is now available in all styles of ponderosa pine windows, which are also factory-weatherstripped and preservative-treated against weather abuse. With insulating glass, the seasonal chores of hanging, maintaining and storing storm windows are eliminated — making house winterizing much less of a chore.

Roof — Loose or damaged shingles need immediate attention to prevent leaks. If the roof already leaks, chances are you need a new one, because roofs tend to wear out uniformly — and one leak is generally the sign of many more to come. Heavyweight asphalt shingles, designed by the manufacturer to last from 20 to 25 years without maintenance, are a good investment. In most cases they can be applied right over the old roof, which means the job can be done any time of year and there's no added expense for tearing off old roofing. Self-sealing shingles, which carry a U.L. label for wind-resistance, give additional weather protection.

Gutters and Drains — Cluttered gutters and drains must be cleared to prevent water overflow and water seepage under the eaves.

Flashings — Loose flashings should be resealed with roofing compound to prevent damaging water seepage. Be sure to check around the chimney and all vent pipes.

Masonry — Cement or mortar used to construct the chimney can deteriorate with age. Water can enter where openings develop and seep into the house. The chimney should be re-pointed if seriously aged.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am still haunted by a letter from a teenage girl who wrote that her widowed mother frequently had a man staying with her all night. She wanted to know what to tell her friends who asked, "Whose car is that in your garage?"

You simply told her to say, "It belongs to a friend of my mother's." That was good advice as far as it went, but I think she needed more help than that.

I speak from painful experience because my teen years were spent in such an environment, and the scars are still with me. My mother also had a gentleman friend who frequently stayed all night, and everyone in our town knew it. I suffered knowing that my mother was being gossiped about.

I had many girl friends from "nice" families who liked me as a person, but there were no "stay-at-home" — over night" invitations, because their mothers didn't want them staying overnight at my house. And now that I am a mother, I can't blame them.

I wish you would tell that girl to work extra hard to prove herself as a superior person, a leader, a top student, and to try hard to overcome her social handicap. It is very sad for a young woman to have as her guiding principle, the determination to be as unlike her own mother as possible. Yet that has been my story.

So bitter and resentful was I of my own mother that even though I am now married and have a family, I can hardly stand to have her around. It has been an uphill struggle to conceal my true feelings from my own children. (No use to poison their minds; children need a good grandmother image, too.)

You would perform a great service if you could spare that girl some of the misery I lived through when I was her age.

I had no one to confide in, and there was no "Dear Abby" to write to.

Tell her this for me, will you, please?

BEEN THERE
DEAR ABBY: You have told her very well, and thank you for writing, but may I presume to give you a bit of advice?

Without condoning your mother's behavior, may I ask, why do you remember only this one part of her life? Do you know anything of the circumstances, the man (or "men?") in her life, and what your mother's "needs" were? Your mother was a woman alone, but as such, obviously she didn't abandon you.

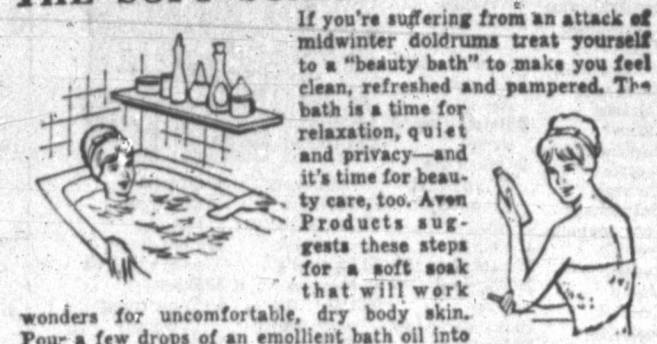

Try to recall some of the positive aspects of your mother's life. I can't believe that anyone is all "bad." And one more thing, perhaps it's time for a little compassion. "Judge not, lest ye be judged."

WONDERING
DEAR ABBY: I have become very much interested in a young man, and several times recently I have been invited to have dinner with him and his family. One thing bothers me! After dinner, toothpicks are passed around, and everyone takes one and goes to work picking his teeth right at the table! I don't claim to be an aristocrat myself, but isn't this considered bad manners?

DEAR ABBY: Someone wrote and asked you if all the letters are sent to you unopened.

All the letters received here at the St. Augustine Record addressed to "DEAR ABBY" are sent to you, unopened. But occasionally we will receive a letter addressed to the newspaper, and after opening it, we

THE SOFT SOAK

If you're suffering from an attack of midwinter Goldrums treat yourself to a "beauty bath" to make you feel clean, refreshed and pampered. The bath is a time for relaxation, quiet and privacy—and it's time for beauty care, too. Aven Products suggests these steps for a soft soak that will work wonders for uncomfortable, dry body skin. Four or five drops of an emollient bath oil into a tub of hot water. Wash with an emollient-based soap, then soak for 10 minutes. Dry gently, wrapping yourself in a soft, fluffy towel. Apply a perfumed skin softener to problem areas such as heels, legs, knees and elbows.

The cozy glow of a fireplace sets a convivial mood in any room. And, its impact can be doubled by paying decorative attention to the surrounding wall area. Here, hardboard wall panels — in unfinished woodgrain — lend an appropriate aura of warmth.

Decorative Fireplaces Spark Room Decor

Fireplaces have blazed into new popularity. Once considered heart and hearth of the Colonial home, fireplaces of various styles, shapes and sizes are now a sought-after feature in all types of residences—including contemporary homes, townhouses and apartments.

The reasons are obvious. Fireplaces add an undeniable touch of warmth and graciousness, are a comfortable conversational gathering place, and can easily become the decorative focal point of a room.

The decorative impact of a fireplace can be doubled by giving it a dramatic background. A non-descript, old-fashioned fireplace can be remodeled into a striking conversation piece with the aid of hardboard wall panels.

Hardboard panels come in a wide selection of finishes, allowing selection of whatever style suits the room—and fireplace. There are, for example, warm woodgrain finishes, delicate damask-patterns and a number of interesting textured finishes. Rugged hardboard panel siding—with a hand-hewn look—is beautifully appropriate as a backdrop for Franklin stoves, and for rustic-style vacation homes.

The panels are available in standard 4-by-8-foot sizes that are easy to cut, handle and install. They are extremely sturdy, resistant to dents, marks and scuffs, and can be damp-wiped clean—a bonus for fireplace walls which tend to get smudged and sooty.

Panels may be installed on studs or over furring strips applied to the existing wall, with space about the size of a matchbook cover between each panel to allow for natural expansion. Waterproof cartridge-type adhesive is ideal for a nail-less application. Matching moldings, baseboards and color-matched nails are also available with most unfinished woodgrain panels.

Forget about matching thread color to every last stitch when hemming dresses or skirts or when turning up the pant legs of son's trousers. With a new product, all you need is a steam iron for "permanent stitching sewing." The new material is a cobwebby bonding net that holds through washings, dry cleanings and even the brimstone heat of a dryer. And it is invisible. Just place the material between the two layers to be fused and press on both sides for about 10 seconds with a steam iron. If you decide to change a miniskirt to a micro, the bonding can be removed as it was applied; using steam iron, the manufacturer says.

Christian Science

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday is "God", and includes this definition from John: "God is a Spirit; and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth."

The Lesson-Sermon also includes passages from Mary Baker Eddy. One of the selections is: "Not materially but spiritually we know Him as divine Mind, as Life, Truth, and Love. We shall obey and adore in proportion as we apprehend the divine nature and love Him understandingly, warring no more over the corporeality, but rejoicing in the affluence of our God."

First Presbyterian Church

The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be observed at the First Presbyterian Church at both the 8:30 and the 11 a.m. worship services, this Sunday. Rev. Martin Hager, pastor, will use "The Royal Priesthood" as his sermon topic, with the text being taken from First Peter 2:1-10. Holy Communion will be served by the pastor and the Elders.

At both the worship services, Carrel Cory will sing "Lord God of Abraham" by Mendelssohn. Mrs. Fidella Yoder, Church Organist, will present as the Offertory, "O Thou Kind and Gracious Father" by Schreiner. There will be no Youth Fellowships this Sunday night.

Prayer For New Year's Is Offered

A prayer for the first Sunday in 1970:

O God who is inconceivable to our minds but ever-present in our hearts.

We turn to You, trusting not in our goodness but in Your mercy to assure us of a hearing.

Forgive us, Lord, for all the things we did in 1969 which we ought not to have done;

And also for the things we should have done, but did not get around to doing.

For impatience, irascibility, intolerance and anger; for many subtle forms of dishonesty and deceit; for being very attentive to our own wants but unmindful of the needs of others; for being too busy to take time to be kind;

Forgive us, Lord.

Help us to face the year ahead with hope, with courage, and with a renewed determination to do the right thing.

It is not easy for us to do this, for we are weary, Lord. Weary of a war in which we no longer believe but seem unable to end;

Weary of confrontation and clashes between generations, division and distrust between races.

Refresh our spirits, Lord. Renew our capacity for compassion. Restore our commitment to justice.

And please God, let there be peace.

Guide the President of the United States in all the difficult and fateful decisions he will have to make this year.

Endow our lawmakers with wisdom, and make them mindful of their duty to put the common good above any private interest.

Instruct the consciences of our judges, that they may fairly uphold both the legitimate rights of defendants and the legitimate rights of society.

We do not have the nerve, Lord, to ask Your blessing on the aged, the sick, the lonely, the handicapped and the hurt; for we know that they already are the special objects of Your fatherly concern.

We thank You for Your great patience with us in the past. Bear with us another year, Lord, and we will try to do a little better.

Amen.

Calvary Baptist Has Story Hour

The Children's Hour, co-sponsored by the Calvary Baptist and Central Baptist Churches, meets each Thursday afternoon at Calvary.

Spanish children in Pampa are welcome to attend the class which presents Bible lessons by flannel-graph. Some 40 children attend the class which meets for one hour beginning at 4 p.m.

Recent activities of the group include a Top O' Texas Kiwanis sponsored party to mark the holidays.

Mrs. Jack Robertson presented the Christmas story in flannel-graph as a part of the program which included songs and fellowship, and a visit from Santa.

The Adult III Class of Central provided sacks of fruit and nuts as an added treat following gift distribution made possible by the Kiwanis.

Vatican Approves Removal Of Several Popular Saints

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—The controversial new Roman Catholic universal calendar went into effect New Year's Day minus such popular saints as Christopher, Nicholas, Valentine, George and Barbara.

The Vatican announced last May it would remove them and other saints from the calendar, meaning that they need no longer be mentioned in special prayers on their feast days.

However, they remain in the Roman martyrology—the official roll of saints—and they may be venerated by particular churches, religious communities, individuals or nations.

Many Catholics resented the downgrading of their favorite saints.

Pope Paul VI explained at the time that his intention in ordering the calendar reform was to shift the emphasis of worship onto the basic Christian tenet of the Resurrection of Christ and redemption of mankind.

"In the course of time, the multiplication of (saints) feasts... has often driven the faithful to particular devotions, in such a way that their minds have been somewhat diverted from the fundamental mysteries of our redemption," he said.

The reform swept out much sanctified deadwood—saints whose origin was doubted or whose deeds probably were mythical. Few, if any, theologians believed the story of St. Christopher carrying Christ across a river, for example.

Under the new calendar, Roman Catholics everywhere are obliged to make 63 mentions during the year, including those to Mary, St. Joseph, the angels and the apostles—instead of more than 150 under the old calendar.

In addition, 95 saints are listed for veneration by Catholics in their home cities or nations.

Outside of these lists, veneration is entirely optional.

Texas Baptist Evangelism Conference Date Disclosed

PORT WORTH—A farm western film star and 15 other speakers highlight the Texas Baptist Evangelism Conference meeting in Fort Worth's Tarrant County Convention Center, Jan. 12-14.

Dale Evans, who, with her husband Roy Rogers, gained fame in many western movies, headlines the list of featured speakers. She is scheduled to address the conference on Tuesday evening.

Also appearing on the program is Dr. C. M. Ward, an Assembly of God radio preacher from Springfield, Mo. Dr. Ward, whose radio U.S.A. is heard all across America, delivers the keynote message Monday night.

Other speakers include Dr. Edward B. Lindaman, a scientist with the North American Rockwell Corporation; Dr. Harold J. Ockenga, former Boston Congregationalist pastor who has recently been named president of Gordon College, Wenham, Mass.; Dr. Kenneth Chafin, director of evangelism for the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Ga.; Dr. Robert H. Wilson, pastor of the St. John Baptist Church in Dallas; and a number of other Texas Baptist pastors.

From 10,000 to 12,000 persons usually attend the conference. It is particularly popular with pastors in Texas and adjoining states and is considered to be one of the best attended meetings in Southern Baptist life.

Music for the conference has been arranged by the church music department of the Baptist General Convention of Texas in Dallas. It will feature special music by opera singers Robert Hale and Dean Wilder; the Tarrant Baptist Association Choir; and a choir comprised of state Baptist ministers of music.

Conference theme is "This We Believe" and features doctrinal messages on Biblical subjects.

Dr. C. Wade Freeman, Texas Baptist evangelism director, has said, "This year's program is one of the finest we have ever assembled and we believe it can be of great value to our pastors and laymen across our state."

A HAPPY SOUL

Some time ago I met a man, who was looking for Christ and His Church. He desired some Course; so we studied all of the Conversion in the New Testament to see how those people became members of Christ's Church.

Then he would know what to do for the Lord, enabling himself to become a member of God's Church.

As we continued to study the New Testament, we especially noted the Conversion of the Philippian Jailer and his response to the Gospel of Christ, (Acts: 16:33), (Romans: 1:16), (Cor.: 15: 1-5).

I asked "can you think of any better time to obey the Gospel?" He answered, "No."

1—He Believed on Jesus as God's Son... John 8:24; Acts: 4:4; Rom.: 10:17... In accordance with the Scriptures.

2—He Repented of his past Sins. Luke 13:5; Acts: 17:30; Acts: 3: 19. In accordance with the Scriptures.

3—He confessed the precious name of Jesus. (Rom 10:9; 10; Acts: 8:36; Matt: 10:32 — In accordance with the Scriptures...

4—He was scripturally (BAPTIZED) for the following reasons. In accordance with the Scriptures...

—Acts: 2: 38 - He was baptized for the forgiveness of all his past sins.

—Mark 16:16 - He had to be baptized before he could be saved.

—Gal. 3:26; 27 - He entered INTO Christ by faith, and Christ entered into him by baptism.

—Matt.: 28:19; 20 - Acts: 10: 48 - He was baptized in the name of the Lord.

—Acts: 22: 16; He was baptized in order to wash away all of his past sins.

—Romans: 6: 3 - He became as a Dead man when he was buried in Baptism.

—Romans 6:17 - He was baptized OUT of whatever he was in before... Acts: 19: 1,5.

—First Cor.: 12: 13 - He was baptized into the Body of Christ. Which is the Church? Col.: 1: 18; Col.: 1:24.

If you haven't Obeyed The Gospel of Christ, do so at once; then become A HAPPY SOUL. This man did... Acts 8: 28-40.

Burgess Wins, Pampa Meets Ardmore Today

HOBBS, N.M. — Pampa most staged one of its stented comebacks, here Thursday night, but fell short in the fourth quarter and dropped to the losers bracket in the 11th annual Hobbs Invitational basketball tournament.

El Paso Burgess spurred to a nearly 11 point lead, fell behind and then came back to tie Pampa, 48-45. The Harvesters now meet Ardmore, Okl. at 4:30 p.m. today in a losers bracket contest.

Ardmore blew an 11 point lead and lost to Abilene Cooper, 73-50. In other action Hobbs bombed defending champion Odessa High, 119-62 and Yalata Eastwood downed Perryton, 61-62. Perryton meets Odessa and Hobbs and Eastwood meet at 8:30 p.m. today.

Pampa, in a new 1-3-1 shuffle offense couldn't get going in the early round and had eight turnovers in the first period. The Harvesters led, once, 2-0, then 6 1/2 senior Gus Bailey went to work for the Eagles with 12 first period points and a 19-10 Burgess lead when the quarter ended.

Pampa couldn't make any kind of a comeback in the second period and trailed by 11 points most of the way. The Harvesters cut the margin to eight at one time but that's as close as they got and in termination ended with Burgess owning a 29-18 lead.

But the Green and Gold began finding the range in the third period and with senior Jim Gallman, Mike Edgar and Randy Marsh finding the range Pampa tied the count at 36-36 then Gallman and Edgar goaled for a 40-36 Pampa lead when the quarter ended.

Burgess came surging back in the final period and after tying the count at 41-41 took a brief 44-43 lead. Pampa regained the lead once at 45-44 on a goal by Gallman but Bailey goaled and Jose Sandaval hit two free shots for a 48-44 margin and it was all over.

Pampa scored just five points in the final period. For the game the Harvesters hit 47 per cent of their shots, a fantastic 62 per cent in the final half.

Burgess, now 10-4 hit 41 per cent from the floor, 65 per cent in the first half.

Gallman led Pampa scoring with 17 points but the 6'6 senior was held to seven in the first half. Sophomore Mike Edgar contributed 15 points, eight coming in the first half. Gallman also led the team in rebounds with seven while Edgar and sophomore Richard Buntun pulled off six each.

Bailey paced Burgess in scoring with 20 points, 14 of these in the first half and 12 of them in the first quarter. He was the only Burgess player in double figures.

Chiefs Will Try To Break Oakland Whammy Sunday

By CHARLIE SMITH
UPI, Kansas City
Can the Kansas City Chiefs win?

Sure, they can. But I don't think they will.

As one who has followed the Chiefs since their days of infancy in Dallas, I've seen some mighty impressive victories. But 1969 doesn't seem to be the time and Oakland Coliseum definitely isn't the place.

In blunt language, the Oakland Raiders have the whammy on the Chiefs. The Raiders have won seven of the last eight meetings. They've won by big scores (42-6 in last year's Western Division playoff) and small scores (27-24 and 10-6 this season).

The Chiefs played probably their finest game of the year, considering opposition, when they met Oakland in Kansas City Nov. 23. The Chiefs' offense moved the ball well all day and scored 24 points, all on substantial drives. There were no cheapies.

But the Chiefs yielded five interceptions and two fumbles. Oakland's George Atkinson and Dan Conners scored on pass interceptions.

That's the kind of thing that happens to the Chiefs when they play Oakland.

Kansas City coach Hank Stram decided he had to keep the ball on the ground at Oakland Dec. 13. He did. But the result was the same. When the Chiefs defense had to stop the Raiders, it couldn't. Oakland held the ball the last five minutes.

That kind of thing can frustrate a team.

A Kansas City victory would come as no great surprise. It's the kind of team that is capable of rising to great heights and, honestly, there isn't a hill of beans difference in the personnel of the two teams. The only thing Oakland has that Kansas City doesn't is Warren Wells, the fly-by-night long bomb threat.

The Chiefs' answer to Wells is Otis Taylor, who has on occasion wrecked defensive secondaries. But Taylor has never had a big day against Oakland.

One advantage Kansas City will have is the fact it's terribly difficult for one team to beat another three times in one season. Not just the Chiefs, but any team.

West Texas Ends Break, Host ENMU

CANYON — West Texas State University's Buffaloes end their Christmas break Saturday night in Buffalo Field House by hosting the defending national NAIA champions, Eastern New Mexico University's Greyhounds.

The Buffaloes cagers returned to work Tuesday and are aiming to snap a five-game losing streak. They won their first three games of the season, but have now dropped five in a row.

In Eastern New Mexico University, the Buffaloes will be facing one of the strongest clubs on their schedule. The Greyhounds have four starters, including A-1 American Greg Hyder, returning from their national championship team.

Eastern has a 6-2 mark this season and support a three-game winning streak. The Greyhounds last week captured the Rocky Mountain Conference Holiday tournament.

In an early game at 6 p.m., the Buffalo freshmen host Amarillo College. The young Buffs have a 6-2 mark, while Amarillo College's Badgers stand 3-7. The varsity game starts at 8 p.m.

Texas, Lions Prove A Point

By United Press International
The University of Texas Longhorns took President Nixon off the hook by winning its Cotton Bowl game with Notre Dame, 21-17 New Year's Day.

The President had been under fire ever since he presented the Longhorns with a plaque as the No. 1 team, when they won their game with Arkansas, Dec. 6.

After the game was over the Longhorns presented the game ball to Fred Steinmark, a former defensive Longhorn star whose concussive left leg was amputated shortly after the Texas-Arkansas game.

Penn State defeated Missouri, 10-3, in the Orange Bowl. Southern California topped Michigan, 10-3, in the Rose Bowl and Mississippi upset Arkansas, 27-23, in the Sugar Bowl.

Victory Unbelievable

There probably wasn't a spectator in the Cotton Bowl who believed Texas would go for a tying field goal when they trailed, 17-14, and were deep in Notre Dame territory with time running out.

Twice during the drive the Longhorns were successful on fourth-down gambles and finally went over for the winning touchdown with 66 seconds left on Billy Dale's push from 3 yard out.

The victory was the 20th in a row for Texas and evened Notre Dame's bowl record at 1-1. The last Irish bowl game was 45 years ago.

Penn State Coach Joe Paterno, publicly miffed at Nixon's earlier plaque presentation to Texas, had the honor of seeing his No. 2-ranked Nittany Lions upset Missouri and maintain the nation's longest winning streak at 20 straight. Penn State is undefeated in its last 30 games.

The Lions scored 10 points within 21 seconds of the first period and the Penn State defense stood off Missouri's highly touted offense by intercepting seven passes, an Orange Bowl record, and recovering two fumbles.

Kicks Field Goal

Mike Reitz kicked a 29-yard field goal with 3:44 left in the first quarter and the Lions recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff. Quarterback Chuck Burkhardt passed to Lydell Mitchell for a touchdown on the next play. Henry Brown's 33-yard field goal in the second quarter ended Missouri's scoring.

Michigan, without the sideline assistance of Coach Bo Schembecher, hospitalized with a "gastric disorder," couldn't stop a Southern California's go-ahead drive in the third period that was climaxed by Jimmy Jones' 33-yard scoring pass to flanker Bob Chandler.

The Trojans, making an unprecedented fourth straight Rose Bowl appearance, scored on a 25-yard field goal by Ron Ayala in the first quarter and Tim Killian matched this effort with a 20-yarder in the second period.

Quarterback Archie Manning threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to Vernon Studdard and scored on a 17-yard run to lead Mississippi's victory over third-ranked Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl. Fullback Bo Bowen set the tempo with 69 yard TD run for Ole Miss in the first period. Cloyce Hinton booted a record 52-yard field goal and added a 36-yarder for the Rebels.

Arkansas' Bill Montgomery threw a 47-yard TD pass to Chuck Dicus and a six-yard scoring strike to Bruce Maxwell. Bobby Burnett ran 12 yards for another Razorback score and Bill McClard kicked a 35-yard field goal for Arkansas.

NFL, AFL Title Games Should Be Close Ones

Editors note: Here's how the NFL title game shapes up in the opinion of United Press International writers who regularly covered home-games of the contenders this season.

Minnesota

By ROBERT PENICK
UPI, Minneapolis

In three seasons, coach Bud Grant has built the Minnesota Vikings into the powerful team that meets Cleveland Sunday for the National Football League title.

Grant has developed an explosive offense, a punishing defense, and an attitude expressed in the team slogan "40-for-60" — 40 men for 60 minutes every game.

The Vikings downgraded their 51-3 victory over the Browns Nov. 9 as not representative. But the vote here is that Minnesota will win by 27-10 to enter the Super Bowl.

Grant's offense scored more than 50 points three times. The defense registered two shutouts, yielding one touchdown or less in six of 14 regular-season games for a 12-2 record.

Quarterback Joe Kapp, in a 52-14 victory over Baltimore, tied an NFL mark with seven touchdown passes and set club records with 28 completions for 446 yards. Gary Cuozzo won two big games as a "relief pitcher."

Receiver Gene Washington, a prime deep threat, can distort defenses into double coverage to free underrated John Henderson and John Beasley.

Bill Brown and Dave Osborn are power runners and superb blockers, and reserves Clint Odoms (133 points) and Gary Collins (14 games) could start for many teams. The offensive line anchored by all-pro center Mick Tingelhoff had his best year and tackle Ro Vary is a potential superstar.

Former Brown Fred Cox, who sets league scoring record for kickers with 121 points, is deadly from inside the 35 and dangerous from midfield.

The defensive plan is to give up short yardage and prevent the quick strike. The longest pass completion against the Vikings was 5 1/2 yards, the longest run 34 yards.

They yielded only 133 points in 14 games for a league record and opponents averaged less than 200 total yards a game.

The rush line of Carl Eller, Alan Page, Jim Marshall, Barry Larson and Paul Dickson caught opposing passers 49 times for 404 yards lost, forcing 30 interceptions and numerous incompletions and short gains.

Yes, the "40-for-60" team should do it again Sunday.

Editors note: Here's how the AFL title game shapes up in the opinion of United Press International sports writers who regularly covered home-games of the two contenders this season.

Oakland

By JOE SARGIS
UPI, San Francisco

Take an offense geared to quick scores, place a quarterback such as Daryle Lamonica in charge, blend in a deep and talented defense and you come out with instant success.

That describes the 1969 Oakland Raiders. That's why I pick the Raiders to defeat the Kansas City Chiefs for the third time this year and win the AFL title — by a couple of touchdowns.

If you need more to go on than that, throw a bouquet or two to managing general partner Al Davis, the man who selected the talent and nurtured it, and to young coach John Madden, who turned the boys loose to "do their thing."

And do it they did, all the Raiders, as they won 12 regular season games, lost one and tied one. While most are proud of the record, it still ranks a bit to have lost their only game to Cincinnati and that tie with Miami.

Lamonica, who eventually finished the season with 35 touchdowns passes, has a pair of speed burning and talented receivers at his beck and call. In Warren Wells and Fred Biletnikoff, not to mention tight end Billy Cannon, who always is there as a secondary target.

Wells finished with 14 touchdown catches and Biletnikoff with 12. That ranked them 1-2 in the league.

Since the "bomb" is the easiest and fastest way to score, Lamonica often throws long on the very first down. And to mix things up, he sometimes runs trap plays on first down.

An offensive line manned by Bob Stribus, Gene Upshaw, Jim Harvey, Oso and Harry Schuch, of course, makes it all possible. On defense, it is more of the same.

A front four of Ike Lauster, Ben Davidson, Carleton Oats and Tom Keating keep the pressure on rival quarterbacks and give up ground begrudgingly.

Behind that foursome operates a trio of fast and sure linebackers — Gus Otto, Chip Oliver and Dan Conners — and behind them are Nemiah Wilson, Willie Brown, George Atkinson and Dave Grayson, regarded by many as the best defensive backs in pro football.

The Cleveland Browns will defeat the Minnesota Vikings by two touchdowns Sunday and prove they have been all season the most underestimated of all major pro football teams.

To followers of the Browns, the championship game Sunday in Minnesota recalls the 1964 NFL championship game in Cleveland. According to the intelligentsia of the sports world, the Baltimore Colts had won the championship already, by defeating the Green Bay Packers in the West.

The 1964 Browns were considered laugh champs, who owed their position on top of the Eastern Division to the collapse of the New York Giants.

The result of that game was Browns 27, Colts 0.

Similarly in 1969, many consider the Browns' presence in the title game, the fault of the Dallas Cowboys, rather than the achievement of the Browns.

The Vikings on the other hand, are seen as the coming power of the NFL. They do not have behind them the long years of success of the Browns, but they beat Cleveland twice in 1969, in a preseason game and 81-3 on Nov. 3.

As the score of the Vikings game shows, the Browns have been at least as inconsistent in 1969 as they were in 1964, have a hunch that Sunday they will be the team they were twice against Dallas and once against Green Bay.

The Browns have in Leroy Kelly and Bo Scott two superb running backs to go with the best combination of receivers in the league in Mike Morin, Paul Warfield and Gary Collins.

Bill Nelsen is a quarterback who seems to be at his best when the chips are down in bad weather.

In Gene Hickerson and John Demaris, Cleveland has two of the fastest-running guards in pro football.

The Browns defense fits Tom Landry's description as "rubber bands." They've given up lots of yardage and lots of points that turned apparent easy victories into close ones.

But the addition of Jim Kanicki, recovered from an injury suffered in pre-season, the growth of rookie cornerback Walt Summer and rookie linebacker John Garlington, and the $30,000 at stake, should give the rubber bands some steel Supply.

Arkansas Players Aren't Asking Who Manning Is

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Elisha Archie Manning III. That's who.

Manning and his University of Mississippi Rebels answered the now famous "Archie who?" question with an electrifying 27-22 upset victory over third-ranked Arkansas in the New Year's Day Sugar Bowl Classic.

Manning completed 21 of 35 passes for 273 yards and a touchdown and ran for 39 yards and another score to earn the Sugar Bowl's most valuable player award.

Manning's key offensive play was the triple option. "They completely stopped our running game," he said. "We knew we would have to go with the wide stuff."

Coach John Vaught said the offensive show was called mainly by Manning. "I sent in a few plays, but Manning called the game," he said.

Although surpassed in total yardage by the Razorbacks, 527-427, Manning and his Rebels combined the big defensive plays and an awesome scoring punch that held off a valiant Arkansas comeback bid. The Rebels finished the season with a 7-3-1 record, including upsets over Georgia, Louisiana State and Tennessee.

Manning, a 20-year-old junior business major from Drew, Miss., rambled 18 yards on a fourth and one situation for a first quarter touchdown and tossed a 47-yard scoring pass to wide receiver Vernon Studdard in the third period.

Manning took a jarring blow on one of those slick triple option handoffs to fullback Bo Bowen, who then darted 69 yards right up the Arkansas middle for the Rebels' first touchdown. It was the longest run anyone had made against the Razorbacks during the season.

Following the game, the soft-spoken Manning exhibited a badly mangled tongue, bitten when he was struck below the chin by a Razorback who must have thought Manning still had the ball.

Cloyce Hinton accounted for the other Mississippi points with a Sugar Bowl record 52-yard field goal in the second period and a 36-yarder in the third quarter. Mickey King kicked all three extra points.

Arkansas' Bill Montgomery threw 34 passes and completed 17 of them for 336 yards. They included a 47-yard touchdown strike to Chuck Dicus, the 1969 Sugar Bowl most valuable player, in the second period, and a six yard scoring throw to fullback Bruce Maxwell in the fourth period.

Arkansas trailed 14-0 at the end of the first quarter after sophomore Bill McClard missed 22-and 32-yard field goal attempts. McClard kicked a 35-yard field goal in the third period in the Razorback's second half rally.

The other Arkansas points came on a 12-yard touchdown slash by tailback Bill Burnett in the second period. The Razorbacks ended the season with a 9-2 record, losing to Texas in another heartbreaker.

Safety Glen Cannon of Ole Miss, cousin of former LSU Heisman trophy winner Billy Cannon, personally throttled three Arkansas scoring attempts. He batted down a third and long-yardage pass by Montgomery, intercepted a Montgomery pass in the end zone and pounced on a fumble by Dicus with 1:15 left in the game. Cannon, who had seven unassisted tackles and defended against six Montgomery passes, said later he regretted having to play against Dicus.

A tall man with dark hair followed Steinmark every step he made. It was Father Fred Bomarr, an Austin, Tex., priest who was with Steinmark during the surgery that cost him his leg. Bomarr was prepared to catch Steinmark if any wide play should carry out of bounds.

Former President Lyndon B. Johnson came to the Texas dressing room after the game, and shook Steinmark's hand. Johnson told Steinmark he would like him to come to the LBJ Ranch for a visit when he had the opportunity. Steinmark said he would like that.

Steinmark left the dressing room quickly before any of the swarms of well wishers could offer the words to him they had saved for the occasion. His trophy, the ball, went with him.

The Lighter Side Television Programs

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Among the year-end awards being handed out this month was one bestowed upon Daniel Patrick Moynihan, counselor to the President, by an organization called Federally Employed Women Inc. (FEW).

Moynihan was presented or confronted, with the group's annual "Undistinguished Service Award" as the person who "contributed the most to discrimination against women."

Among other things, he was cited for his wry interpretation of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, which was designed to open up more jobs for women by ruling out the consideration of sex as a condition of employment.

When asked if he had any women on his staff, he is alleged to have replied: "The Civil Rights Act of 1964 forbids me to inquire as to the sex of our employees."

Wonderfully Droll Remark
"By me, that is a wonderfully droll remark. Assuming that Moynihan meant to be jocular. There is a possibility, I suppose, that he really doesn't know whether the people who work for him are male or female. But somebody around his office must have been peeking."

According to FEW, which is dedicated to the attainment of "opportunity and equality for women in government," Moynihan "has yet to employ a woman."

If Moynihan does have an antifemale bias, it apparently stops at the office door. According to his biography, he was married in 1955 to Elizabeth Therese Brennan, a name that has a distinctly feminine ring to it.

I am therefore prepared to give him the benefit of the doubt and assume that his hiring of an all-male staff was purely coincidental.

Interviews Job Applicant
Projecting this thought a bit, let us try to visualize what it might be like when Moynihan is interviewing a job applicant:

"Let's see. It says on this form that your name is Doris Jane Dinkle, you are 29 years old, you are married to Harry V. Dinkle and you have two children. Are those facts correct?"

Yes, Mr. Moynihan.

"Then I regret to inform you that I cannot hire you."

"Why not?"

"Because you addressed me as 'Mr. Moynihan.' The word 'Mister' is a masculine term and has a sexual connotation which is forbidden by the 1964 Civil Rights Act."

England's Age Of Majority Has New Voting Privilege

LONDON (UPI) — Britain's Parliament may be called on later to pass additional legislation designed to protect "adult" teen-ager' contract, if there are indications they are getting a rough deal in the hard world of business.

Parliament may be called on later to pass additional legislation designed to protect "adult" teen-ager' contract, if there are indications they are getting a rough deal in the hard world of business.

From today, 18 year-olds may make binding contracts, hold and dispose of property, obtain mortgages, insure their lives, marry without parental consent, make a will, act as a trustee, buy or rent a home and give blood.

They may be hypnotized for public entertainment and be sent betting circulars.

May Give Consent
They may give their own consent to have medical or dental treatment. They may not be made wards of court and they may not be legally adopted without their own agreement.

From Feb. 16, when new electoral rolls are published, they will be entitled to vote in both parliamentary and local government elections.

They still may not become members of parliament, be liable for jury service or sentenced to prison as adults.

With addition of the 2.25 million, that would mean nearly six million new voters would join the electorate in Britain's next parliamentary general elections, expected next fall.

As a result, one-fifth of all Britain's eligible voters are likely to be under the age of 25. All three main political parties are aware this could decide the result of the elections. They already are making a major pitch for the young voters.
