

Elizabeth Attends British Parliament

LONDON.—P—King George VI opened a new session of Parliament today and in a speech written by his Social list ministers called for nationalization of the British gas industry and for a curb on the powers of the ancient House of Lords. He gave top priority, however, to economic recovery.

Both houses sat together in the lords' chamber for the ceremony starting the third legislative year under the Labor government.

Seated on a gold throne, the King read his 15-minute speech slowly and deliberately with scarcely a pause. On his left sat the Queen; on his right, Princess Elizabeth, attending her first state opening and looking demure in a long-skirted dress of dusty pink crepe.

In 10 words the King announced the government's momentous decision to trim the authority of the lords: "Legislation will be introduced to amend the Parliament Act, 1911" (their authority is set out in that act).

A high government source confirmed that this cryptic statement was announcement of a cabinet decision, reached yesterday, to limit the power of the Peers.

"A bill will be laid before you to bring the gas industry under public ownership in the completion of the plan for the coordination of the fuel and power industries," the King said, giving a preview of the Socialist program for the coming year.

No mention was made of nationalization of the iron and steel industry, another Socialist objective. Political observers expressed belief that the government might be holding off on this until it could restrict the Lords' authority and thus make sure the Lords could not obstruct such a move.

"The first aim of my ministers," the King declared, "will be to redress the adverse balance of payments, particularly by expanding exports."

He said his government would continue to participate in the work of European reconstruction but in hand in the recent conference in Paris.

"The present obstacles to cooperation and understanding between the peoples of the world," he said, "have strengthened the determination of my government to support the United Nations, and to seek by that means to promote the mutual trust and tolerance on which peaceful progress depends."

"It is my earnest hope," he said, "that the forthcoming conference of foreign ministers will result in a measure of agreement leading towards a Democratic and self-supporting Germany which will not threaten world security, and to the satisfactory settlement of the international status of Austria."

"I trust that a treaty of peace with Japan, which will contribute to the welfare of all the peoples in the Far East, may be concluded at an early date."

The new legislative projects outlined in the King's speech, drafted by Prime Minister Clement Attlee and his ministers, numbered nearly a score. The plan to clip the Peers' See BRITISH, Page 8

VA Called to Pay 'Honest Debts'

AUSTIN.—(P)—The Veterans Administration today faced criticism that its "failure to pay its honest debts" is jeopardizing county vocational schools in Texas.

American Legion State Commander George Berry said yesterday that VA is $2,842,532 in arrears in its payments to the state board for vocational education in the months of July, August and September.

"The Veterans Administration has allowed its own debts to pile up," Berry said. "Yet we find the VA very zealous in making collections from veterans holding on-the-job training positions and who have been overpaid small amounts."

He called on the VA to "pay its honest debts" so that the vocational program for veterans could continue. He said many counties could not advance the money necessary to pay salaries due teachers through the VA program, causing the teachers unnecessary embarrassment.

No One Injured in Rear-End Collision

A rear-end collision at 4:45 p. m. yesterday caused approximately $175 damage to the 1942 Ford sedan of Tom G. Wise, 607 E. Brown St., and the Ford sedan of S. Cuyler and Craven Sis. intersection.

City police reported this morning that a 1946 International truck, owned by the Pampa Ice Mill Company, driven by J. M. Smith, 401 Perry St., and the Ford sedan were both traveling south on Cuyler when the accident happened following the sudden stop of a line of cars preceding the ice truck. The truck was not damaged according to the report. There were no injuries.

President Calls Thursday Meeting On Food Crisis

WASHINGTON.—(P)—President Truman today summoned congressional leaders to the White House for a conference Thursday on Europe's financial plight.

The White House said invitations are going out today for the meeting at 1:30 p. m. (EST) Thursday for what Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross described as a "further discussion of emergency foreign aid."

The group is the same as the one which met with Mr. Truman Sept. 29.

In addition to the Republican and Democratic leaders in both houses, it includes the chairman and ranking minority members of the Foreign Affairs and Appropriations Committees and Senator Taft (R-Ohio), chairman of the GOP policy group in the Senate.

Presumably the conference will consider the outlook for emergency stop-gap aid to Europe as well as the outlook for a European recovery plan based on Secretary of State Marshall's self-help proposal, and the possibility of a special session of Congress.

Ross would not elaborate beyond his brief assertion that emergency foreign aid would be the topic. Invitations went to:

Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich), president pro tempore of the Senate and chairman of its Foreign Relations Committee; and Senator Connally (D-Texas), ranking Democratic member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Chairman Eaton (R-NJ) and Rep. Bloom (D-NY), ranking minority member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Senators McNamara (R-Mass) and Majority Leader Hulett (R-Ind.) of the House and former Speaker Rayburn (D-Texas), now minority leader of the House.

Senate Minority Leader White (D-Mo.) and Senate Minority Leader Barkley (D-K). Chairman Ender (R-NH) of the Senate Appropriations Committee and Chairman Taber (R-NY) of the House Appropriations Committee.

Ross did not indicate what cabinet officers or other administration officials might attend.

Children Faithful To Dad's Instructions

OKLAHOMA CITY.—(P)—Farmer Earl Carter of Hominy, Okla., doesn't know Oklahoma City very well.

When his car broke down in the suburbs late Sunday night he went to look for an open garage—telling 11-year-old daughter, Caroline Sue, and seven-year-old son, Jesse Don, to wait in the car for him.

First he couldn't find a garage. Then he couldn't find his automobile again in the strange city. Yesterday afternoon, 20 hours later, an ever-widening police search reunited the frantic father with his children.

They were playing beside the abandoned car, hungry but still faithful to their instructions. "Daddy said to wait," said Caroline Sue.

Psychiatrist Testifies Ross Was Insane

LA GRANGE.—(P)—Dr. W. J. Johnson, bald, gaunt, heavy-jowled Texas psychiatrist, today testified as the defense rested its case that Dr. Lloyd Ross charged in the May 25 roadside slayings of four persons, was insane on that date.

The announcement by Chief Defense Attorney Fred Bunnell that this defense rests case as a surprise.

Only last night he said that there were several others who would be called to the stand to testify in behalf of the brilliant young 43-year-old surgeon.

The trial began Monday, Oct. 13. Following the end of the defense testimony a recess was called.

It had been expected that Dr. Ross' wife might be called to testify.

The Harvard-educated surgeon is accused by the state of killing San Antonio Investment Broker Willard York, Mrs. Willard York, their son and the broker's aged mother, Ross is from San Antonio.

Johnson, a San Antonio psychiatrist, and the defense's last witness, testified that the handsome, black-haired defendant, was insane May 25, that the Yorks were shot on a Canal County road, and "is insane now."

He said there was a paranoic trend in the type of insanity he attributed to Ross.

Johnson, wearing a tan suit slightly buttoned at the waist, was questioned for the defense by Julius Schleyer: "Did you make any mental examinations of Dr. Ross?"

Dr. Johnson: "Yes, I saw him six or seven times and was with him as much as five hours at one time."

Schleyer: "Is Dr. Ross sane or insane?"

Dr. Johnson: "He is insane."

Schleyer: "Was he insane on May 25, 1947?"

Dr. Johnson: "He was insane on that date."

Schleyer: "Is he insane now?"

Dr. Johnson: "He is insane now."

Schleyer: "When he went to Stahl Lane and shot and killed four people and wounded a fifth, did he understand the nature and consequences of his act?"

Dr. Johnson: "He did not."

Ross is being tried in the slaying of Mrs. Willard York. He is indicted also in the deaths of the three others. All four were friends of the doctor and his wife.

U.N. Assembly Is Nearing Vote On Greek Case

NEW YORK.—(P)—The United Nations Assembly drove toward a final vote on the Greek case today with all signs pointing to an overwhelming victory for the United States in its demand for a U. N. watchdog commission in the Balkans.

Delegates held a special session last night to speed up the debate. U. N. officials predicted balloting would begin late this afternoon. Only seven nations—White Russia, the Soviet Union, Australia, Britain, Cuba, Greece and France—remained on the speakers' list, which has been closed.

The American resolution for a watchdog commission previously was approved 36 to 6 in the 57-nation Political Committee and oppositionists questioned whether a four-pronged attack by the Soviet bloc yesterday would change any of the votes on the Assembly floor.

The proposal has a two-thirds majority of the 57 delegates present and voting to pass.

Secretary of State George C. Marshall was expected back from Washington today and a delegation spokesman said he might come here for the final balloting. The Greek case was one of the major American proposals stressed by the secretary in his Assembly Policy speech last month.

Andrej V. Vishinsky, Russia's chief delegate, keynoted the bitter Soviet opposition to the American plan with a 59-minute speech yesterday. He repeated the charges that the United States and Britain—not Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria—were responsible for conditions in Greece and renewed Soviet demands that American and British military personnel be withdrawn from Greece immediately.

Pland, Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia joined Vishinsky in his attack.

HOLLYWOOD REDS NAMED

Actor Menjou Believes Film Writer Is Head

WASHINGTON.—(P)—Adolpho Menjou told House investigators today he has "heard" that John Howard Lawson, film writer, is head of Communists in Hollywood but cannot prove it.

Between puffs on a cigarette, the dapper film actor also testified to the House Committee on Un-American Activities that he believes Herbert Sorrell, head of the conference of studio unions, is a Communist.

With a wave of his hand, he said he would question the loyalty of anyone publicly associated with Sorrell.

Before questioning Menjou, the committee made public testimony he gave a subcommittee in secret in Los Angeles last May 15.

This disclosed that Menjou declared at that time that Hollywood "is one of the main centers of Communist activities in America."

He also expressed the opinion then that "it is the desire of the masters in Moscow to use movies as a propaganda medium toward the ultimate end of an overthrow of the American government."

Menjou said he has no doubt that Communists in the United States are agents of Moscow and are engaged in "treasonable activity."

He urged that Congress outlaw the Communist party because "it is not a political party; it is a conspiracy to overthrow the government by force." He also suggested that Congress should "require propaganda pictures to be labeled as such."

There has been an amazing change in Hollywood since the House Committee started its work, Menjou volunteered.

He emphasized that he does not consider any movie producers to be Communists. On the contrary, he said, they are "patriotic Americans."

Robert E. Strang, chief investigator for the committee, put the transcript of the secret hearing into the record when Menjou was called to reaffirm his previous testimony and elaborate on it.

The transcript disclosed that Menjou, along with his views on communism, gave the subcommittee some opinions on Hollywood figures. He said:

"Of Eric Johnson, head of the Motion Picture Producers Association, I think he is running for the presidency. He will never get it."

"The only gun Mr. Chaplin ever heard go off was a pop gun in his studio, yet he is a military expert."

"As for individuals with un-American leanings, Menjou's word to the subcommittee was this: 'We have many, many dangerous directors and actors.'"

He told it: "They have a picture called 'North Star' on orders from Washington. I am told, I have no proof. It was a dreadful picture that drew a picture of Russian life as idyllic."

"The orders of John Howard Lawson to the Screen Actor's Guild were in every picture put in Hollywood—I think of propaganda, particularly in the expensive set, so that it cannot be retaken. That was their orders."

Waiting to follow Menjou to the witness chair were John C. Moffitt, movie critic and reviewer, and Miss Ann Rand, a novelist and movie writer.

Miss Rand testified briefly yesterday. See UNAMERICAN, Page 8

Company Requests Capacity Increase

HOUSTON.—(P)—The Tennessee Gas Transmission Company of Houston has asked the Federal Public Commission in Washington for permission to increase the capacity of its natural gas pipeline system.

The proposed project—which would cost about $150,000,000—would increase the company's pipeline capacity by 450,000,000 cubic feet daily.

The increase was requested to meet the additional demands of customers and to serve new markets in eastern New York state and New England, company officials said.

Poultry Industry Drafts New Plan To Save on Grain

WASHINGTON.—(P)—Poultry and feed men came forward today with their second plan to eliminate poultry sales Thursday from the food campaign.

After working late into the night, industry spokesmen announced they were ready to bring the Citizens Food Committee a specific new proposal to save grain for Europe by taking it away from chickens.

"We think we've got something acceptable," said an official of the National Poultry Producers Federation, whose first suggestion was rejected last night by Charles Truman, Food Committee chairman.

The federation, working in cooperation with the commercial feed industry, said the new plan would be in shape for Luckman to take to a meeting of President Truman's cabinet Food Committee this morning.

In the afternoon the poultry and feed industry men planned to meet again with Luckman, who last night declared his intention to restore chickens and turkey to Thursday menus if an adequate substitute means of conservation were offered.

The first industry plan boiled down to this: abolish poultry sales Thursday, and monthly installments of $1,000, thereafter—until paid with the exception of March because of interest payments on bonded indebtedness. The final $1,000 is paid after the 1948 Board of Equalization meets.

The contract calls for a specific valuation of buildings by consideration of foundations, walls, roofs, plumbing, wiring, depreciation and present condition.

Most mercantile business stocks will not be inventoried, but oil well supply houses will have their stocks inventoried.

The survey, latest method of establishing a fair equalization of city taxes to be drawn up, according to city of Pampa officials and officials of other cities, is being made by the city in conjunction with the Pampa Independent School District.

The engineering company will also furnish the city a full and complete set of records with suitable steel filing cabinets for storing them.

The cakes were coconut, Lady Baltimore, angel food, devil's food, sponge, and chocolate.

Lampshade Hats With Battery-Powered Lights Is Latest in Arizona

DOUGLAS, Ariz.—(P)—Latest thing in millinery for Douglas women are lampshade hats equipped with battery-powered lights to show off desert scenes painted on the chapeaux.

Lampshades illustrating hand-painted scenes of Arizona form the basic structure. The trimming is of ribbon, flowers or fringe and the shades vary from pill boxes to conical. Inside the top of the hat is a battery which powers a light that illuminates the hat when a button is pressed.

Tax Evaluation Payment Plan Is Approved by City

The City Commission this morning voted unanimously to accept the tax evaluation survey contract of the Southwest Appraisal Company of Fort Worth after deliberating on the inventory method to be followed by the engineers.

The contract price, $6,250, has been broken down into monthly payments with first $500 to be paid on or before November 1, an additional $750 to be paid on or before December 1, and monthly installments of $1,000 thereafter—until paid with the exception of March because of interest payments on bonded indebtedness. The final $1,000 is paid after the 1948 Board of Equalization meets.

NEW YORK—Michigan has been stamped as the No. 1 team of the nation by the nation's sports writers participating in the weekly Associated Press football poll as a result of its fourth straight lopsided victory.

After digesting Saturday's results that included a 49-21 Michigan romp over Northwestern, 147 of the 186 writers participating in the most extensive AP poll in history, voted first place to the Wolverines.

Michigan led last week but its margin was not as secure. Notre Dame remained a strong second choice on the basis of total points but drew only 21 firsts. On the basis of ten points for a first place vote, nine for second and so on, Michigan had 1790 points to 1553 for the Irish who dined Nebraska, 31-0.

Since the two top teams never meet it is possible that their relative merits never will be determined. Michigan faces Minnesota this week while Notre Dame plays Iowa.

Ten writers thought Texas had the best ball club in the land and there were enough others who were impressed to give them third place in the standings with 1351 points. Texas dined Arkansas, 21-6, in preparation for a rugged struggle with Rice.

Pacific Coast football, on the way back after a few slim years, was represented twice in the first ten. California, with one first place vote, was fourth after submerging Washington State, 21-6, and Southern California, their chief rival for the Rose Bowl spot, placed tenth on a 48-6 rout of Oregon State. California plays Southern Cal Saturday in the "big game" on the Pacific slope.

Illinois was ranked fifth, moving up a peg on a 40-13 victory over Minnesota, and Army took over sixth place after its easy 40-6 game with VPI.

Georgia Tech's 27-7 decision over Auburn earned seventh place and the Engineers may do better next week as their unbeaten-tied team meets Citadel Saturday.

Pennsylvania, 34-14 winners over Columbia, may face a struggle to hold eighth place as the Quakers meet the revived Navy in one of the week's top eastern games.

Penn State continues to flatten all opposition, smothering Syracuse, 40-0, to lead its season point total soaring to 196. The Nittany Lions face their first test this week in West Virginia, another perfect record powerhouse.

Sports Round-Up

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK—Navy's football team is riding on the crest of a one-man winning streak and you'd be surprised at the amount of enthusiasm it is generating in this sector. The reason is that after last year's Army-Navy game everyone felt sure that Navy had the material for a fine team and they're hoping for another thriller at the end of this season. Commander "Killer" Kane, assistant athletic director and Ensign Dick Durden, who scouts and coaches the Plebes, sounded off at yesterday's football action, chicken and conversation session to the effect that the midshipmen had recovered confidence through that Cornell victory Saturday. "The California defeat set them back for a few weeks but they finally realized they can take over where we left off last year," Durden explained.

GROWING BOYS
Navy's big guns are center Dick Scott and Dick Hawkins, the fullback whose departure from V. M. I. created quite a rumpus—Scott, a line center both on offense and defense, also is the team's best clutch punter, although no one has figured way to have him enter the ball and then kick it—Tackle Dick Shumshak and end Art Markel have developed fast and the second line, from which nothing much was expected, has come along very well. Of course there's nothing much wrong with quarterback Reeves Baysinger and Bob Horne, though there definitely is something wrong with Pistol Pete Williams, who is out with an ankle injury. The schedule is no bargain either, with Penn, Notre Dame, Georgia Tech, Penn State and Army still to come. And to make it tougher, Navy has played four games on as many different fields and will be on the road for two more before returning to Baltimore. The Midshipmen really do things the hard way.

YOUNG IDEAS
One reveals the "inside" of what appeared to be a sporting gesture in the Cornell-Navy game when Tom Bolger, Cornell end, hit the dirt in front of the Navy bench and Coach Tom Hamilton apparently helped him back on the field. What happened, says "Killer," is that Bolger got up under his own power, walked over to Hamilton and remarked: "Isn't this a heck of a game for an old guy like me to be playing."

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS—Schoolboy football ratings shifted considerably last week-end, the most notable drops being Waxahachie and North Side (Fort Worth), which were upset by Waco and Poly (Fort Worth) respectively.

Here are the top 20: 1. Odessa, 2. Wichita Falls, 3. Corpus Christi, 4. Austin, 5. Longview, 6. Marshall, 7. Waco, 8. Corsicana, 9. Waxahachie, 10. Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), 11. Amarillo, 12. Port Arthur, 13. Forest, Dallas, 14. Poly (Fort Worth), 15. Texarkana, 16. Austin (El Paso), 17. North Side (Fort Worth), 18. John Reagan (Houston), 19. Brackenridge, 20. Brackenridge (San Antonio).

Our best information is that the Texas-Oklahoma game won't be played at Dallas again. And not only that, it won't be played at all—either at Norman or Austin.

The University of Texas will play a game at Dallas, as a feature of the State Fair each year, but Oklahoma won't be the opponent.

After the bottle-throwing, referee-baiting, fan-fighting display of Oct. 11, Oklahoma wanted to make the game a home-and-home proposition.

University of Texas officials have made no announcement but it is our opinion that a Texas-Oklahoma game at Dallas is a thing of the past.

We are informed that Texas looks upon the game with Oklahoma as having served its purpose—that since Oklahoma can't win one and has lost eight straight, there is no need of carrying the thing on any farther.

There is a pot of money to be made out of a game at the State Fair as well as the Texas well know. But that doesn't appear to affect Oklahoma any more. They want to play at home every other year and make less.

Our suggestion would be for Texas to schedule Indiana (coached by Stan Bo McMillin) or Louisiana State.

Fred A. Semaan of San Antonio writes to take issue with the statement in the University of Texas Football Information Folder that Bobby Layne "probably" is the best back in Longhorn football history. He also says he has seen similar statements in many newspapers.

He says Layne is a truly great back but what of Oscar Eckhardt, Jim Marley, Rats Watson, Stud Wright, Rosey Stalter, Fred Thompson, Dexter Shelly, Mack Saxon, Harrison Stafford, Ernie Roy, Bob Hillard, Jack Crain, Pete Layden, Speck Sanders, Bill Ford, Nonie Reese and Hugh Wolfe?

"Don't misunderstand," Semaan writes, "Bobby Layne is a great back, but the guy who says he is the greatest in Texas history ought to have his head examined."

Of course, it's all a matter of opinion and there never would be a way to prove it, but any way the Texas football information folder said "probably." That's rather indecisive. That leaves the question open to argument.

Okay, let's say you and him agree. I never saw Eckhardt, Marley, Watson, Wright, Thompson and Stalter play and don't want in on this one.

Horton Makes Bid For PGA Presidency
DETROIT—A—Horton Smith, tall and blond veteran of the game of golf, sounded a potential bid today for the presidency of the Professional Golfers Association.

Discussing the fact that his name has been mentioned in various sections, the Detroit golf club professional said in an interview: "If there is any genuine, widespread desire on the part of the membership to consider me for the presidency, and I should be fortunate enough to be elected, I will accept and do my very best."

Smith's name has come up prominently as a candidate for the job which has been held by Ed Dudley of Augusta, Ga., for the last five years. The PGA will name its president at the annual meeting next month in Chicago.

Odessa, Wichita Falls Again Rated Top Grid Teams in HS Field

DALLAS—(P)—Odessa, Wichita Falls, Corpus Christi and Longview are the four strongest high school football teams in Texas, the Dallas News' poll of sports writers disclosed today.

Odessa, defending state champion, and Wichita Falls, ran one, two for the fifth straight week.

Austin, Marshall, Waco, Fort Worth Poly, Goose Creek and Brackenridge rounded out the first ten teams.

The WAY it LOOKS to Bill Behrman

Those with the sharp eyes, will catch Randall Clay, ex-Harvester backfield star, making the second University of Texas touchdown against the Oklahoma Sooners, on the newscast playing now, through Wednesday at the LaNora, on the game program with the "Egg and I."

This touchdown was the point that set the tie to the Oklahoma Sooners, who disputed Clay's touchdown plunge, claiming his knee touched the ground after he had reached Layne's fumble.

Clay's touchdown against Arkansas, the first Longhorn score, last Saturday, ran his season's total to 26 points, ranking him third among Southwest Conference scorers. Clay is a sophomore at Texas, and is already making quite a name for himself among qualified conference observers in Dallas and other cities in the loop.

His defensive work on Coach Blair Cherry's team has been more than above average, and from his radio broadcast of Saturday's Texas-Arkansas clash, he seemed to be one of the main sparks of the Texas offense.

The ex-Green and Gold ace was a three-year letter at Pampa High School—1943 at end, and '44 and '45 in the backfield, all those years under Coach Otis Coffey. He was a two-year regular guard on the basketball team, making the United Press and International News Service all-state basketball team in the spring of '46. He made the second team of the all-state grid team and won the state discus throw title two years in a row—1945 and '46.

Randall Clay was nominated by Harold V. Ratliff, state sports editor of the Associated Press, as the outstanding state high school athlete of 1945-46. This is a mythical title, of course, and was purely Ratliff's opinion. But we are sure Clay received just praise.

Sporting News announces that Little Rock of the Southern Association has bought Shortstop Alex DeLaGarza from Albuquerque and Outfielder Bob Crues of Amarillo. Both of these stall warts of the West Texas-New Mexico outfit played last season for the United Press and City Drug won two out of three over Peg's Cab.

Joe Wells, of the Coffey Pontiac team, and Jack Standish, of the Brake and Cook team, each ridded high single with a 226. But Ruddle, of Heskew Chambers, rolled high three game series with a 613.

If the total program of the men in power today is advice to eat less—we shall eat less and less and less as inflation increases and a depression is made inevitable.

BOWLING
In the City Bowling League last night, Heskew-Chambers won three games from Montgomery Ward; Leder's Jewelry won two of three over Duencel-Carmichael; Brake & Cook Service Station won two out of three over Peg's Cab.

By The Associated Press
The University of Texas came up with a flock of minor injuries in its first workout since chalking up its fifth straight win last week, and most of the other Southwest Conference teams followed suit.

However, coaches of the seven schools indicated yesterday they expected most of their players to be in good condition for Saturday's tilts.

Coach Blair Cherry put his Texas Longhorns through only a light workout.

Joe Mitchell, Longhorn first string guard, was sidelined with an injured knee and Dale Schwartzkopf, right end, turned out in sweat clothes.

Fullbacks Tom Landry, Raymond Jones, Ray Borneman and Wilton Ferrell are all bothered with minor ailments.

Coach Jess Neely of Rice reported two of his top reserves missing in the first workout of the week.

End Nick Lanza has a twisted knee and Halfback Harold Stoeckbridge turned up with a charley horse.

Texas Christian University got off with a light drill yesterday, a reward said Coach Dutch Meyer for the Frogs' upset win over Texas A. & M. last week.

The Frogs were bolstered by the return to practice of backs Jim Lucas, Jerome Blazek and Otis McKelvey.

Southern Methodist University was in good shape for its game with the University of California at Los Angeles Saturday. Coach Macky Bell said yesterday.

He sent the first team and his top reserves through a light workout while other members of the squad took part in a short scrimmage.

Texas A. & M. has forgotten the 26-0 licking by TCU. Coach Homer Norton declared as he sent the team through all phases of its defensive and offensive game.

John Barnhill, coach of the Arkansas Razorbacks, praised his squad for its fine performance, even though it lost to the University of Texas last week.

"Texas was just too good," he said. "The Porkers did not receive any serious injuries in the Texas game. Baylor, fresh from its fourth straight triumph, went through a long session on defense as it started work for its game with A & M Saturday."

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG news behind the news

By RAY TUCKER SACRAMENTO—Governor Earl Warren has established himself as the enemy of 1948. Republican presidential politics. But his strong, silent, to-or-not-to-be attitude on his prospective candidacy is no mystery to political friends and observers operating in the subliminal or shadowy of the State House dome.

Without attaching any practical value to his strategy, they believe that he would be only too happy to draw down the top honor, and that he might be content with second place under certain circumstances.

In fairness to the Governor, this conclusion is not based on any private or public statement of his. It is based on the general feeling of the subject as mentioned. Like the great majority of politicians, the presidential double winner, General "Ike" Eisenhower, he will not say that "I am not a candidate" any more than he will admit that he is.

Significant—A few weeks ago, which state official close to the Governor set out that certain influential people were forming a "right-wing" Warren bloc. California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Idaho, Montana, Arizona and New Mexico. When he was asked about it at his biweekly press conference, he professed ignorance of the movement. He also added that he questioned the practical wisdom of "a bloc" support for a presidential candidate. So he is thinking in terms of politics.

He has said that he does not want a California delegation attached to his name. But he has pursued the same tactics in the last two convention years, usually releasing them after they declared for him. But, under California's election laws, it is extremely difficult to send an unattached delegation. They will be for him first and last, even if he bids them to their own.

Like other seemingly logical and human factors suggest that he would take first or second place—the latter, of course, only with a man he likes, admires and thinks can win. Not a Dewey, Stassen or even a Taft, but possibly an Eisenhower or a Truman.

Successful—Governor Warren has been in politics almost since he was graduated from the University of California. Like a red-blooded man, especially one who has been so successful at the fascinating game, he loves it. He will be meeting many when he finally leaves the Sacramento office in 1950, and he will be limping into a western, political sin again, as he did when he refused to run with Governor Dewey in 1944.

He might seek the Governorship again, but even "executive" such a state as California could become wearisome. Moreover, California has elected a man as chief executive for two full terms—only twice—the late Hiram W. Johnson and Earl Warren. He could be defeated.

To him, the dull Senate would probably be more tiresome than a third term at Sacramento. Further, Senator Sherman Downey, Democrat, is said to be more powerful now than when he first ran. He has packed up his business and industrial and financial support. He did not have them. It is doubtful if Governor Warren would oppose Senator William P. Knowland, an old friend and the man he appointed to the Senate in 1945. Mr. Knowland, member of a prominent Oakland publishing family, is no more seat-of-the-pants than Governor Warren did not intend he should be.

There is talk that the Governor

LOOKING AHEAD by GEORGE S. BENSON President, Harding College, Searcy, Arkansas

FOREIGN AID AND ITS EFFECTS An understanding of human nature will tell us that when we stop giving aid to European nations, most of the countries there will become angry at us. The more aid you give to an individual and the longer you give it, the more disgruntled he becomes when you stop. This seems to be true of nations. Naturally, now that we have hinted at a little less liberality toward Europe, some have yelled "selfish" and "unsympathetic" at us.

The more we give and the longer we give it, the greater will grow the scorn toward the giver. When finally we have to stop the flow of our money toward Europe, anger will be the reaction. That was true after World War I. America had been very liberal, but when aid was halted, up went the tariff barriers. England campaigned: "Buy Within the Empire." Depression followed.

Following World War II, America again has been extremely liberal. We have spent some 10 billion dollars during each of the past two years. Help we gave to England during the war and since will total nearly 40 billion dollars. We have not been stingy with our food, our goods, nor our dollars, although the lack of our resources has helped to make things tougher for the average American breadwinner.

All the Lend-Lease, all the UNRRA relief, all the goods, all the dollars—what are the results? England is not even on her feet, much less Europe. The crises seem to mount, with England right now facing her greatest crisis since the war. All of these facts must lead us to restudy our aid to Europe, and possible effect of continuing handouts to so many outstretched palms.

Obviously, we cannot keep on giving at the rate of 10 billions a year to Europe for the next ten, twenty, or thirty years. Then what can we do? It is plain common sense that the best thing we can do is to help Europe figure out how she can help herself. We must help Europe to get up on her own feet, and off the necks of American taxpayers. That is the only kind of aid that will ever be worth much to Europe.

The sooner we get Europe to thinking in terms of helping herself, the better it will be for all of us. We might send her food and money till doomsday, but it would only make America poorer and would not make Europe rich. Europe must understand that the problem of rehabilitation is her own problem, first of all, and not entirely ours. We have banded England, and we must help her find the will and way to recover.

STOP "GIVING AWAY" It will be good statesmanship if we can make it clear that America is not in the field to give away anything. We can keep down our trade barriers and buy from Europe. Only in that way can those nations get on their feet and buy from us. There are definite ways to help war-torn Europe without imposing the serious injury of continued, outright aid. The sooner our help gets on this basis, the better for everybody.

Europe needs production. We can supply machinery on the basis that it may be paid for with goods produced. We can keep down our trade barriers and buy from Europe. Only in that way can those nations get on their feet and buy from us. There are definite ways to help war-torn Europe without imposing the serious injury of continued, outright aid. The sooner our help gets on this basis, the better for everybody.

Gray says he sometimes gets lost, wandering around the field. He admits that it would be impractical for other farmers to try to grow such corn—the treatment he gives the stalks is pretty expensive. For one thing, he said he pushed the stalk roots down into the ground at least 18 inches instead of letting them grow upward. He spaded the ground four times by hand. He irrigated it thoroughly, and often.

He cultivated with a garden hose and a grubbing hoe. He fought a one-man war against salamanders and moles. If Russia in effect withdraws from any real participation in effective action by the United Nations, I believe we should proceed without Russia to protect a United Nations which will operate in a limited field.

It is inconceivable to me that this Congress, or the succeeding Congress, will restore OPA. Sen Arthur Capper (R) of Kansas. The Hollywood movie industry will welcome a congressional investigation as a chance to expose ugly rumors, innuendoes and reckless accusations. Eric Johnston, president, Motion Picture Industries, Inc.

Research Takes Us To Better Newspaper

While your newspaper of today has much the same appearance that it had in the years before the war, there are changes being made and scientific advances being discovered that clearly indicate that the general business of publishing is going forward toward a better product.

One of the latest developments of an entirely different principle of newspaper reproduction is the use of newspaper reproduction in the recent announcement of an experimental and research laboratory which will apply electronic discoveries to the phases of newspaper and communications work.

The announcement was made by NEA Service, Inc. newspaper and feature organization, which established a new division, Acme Telephoto, to design and produce color, telephoto and electronic equipment.

NEA laboratory technician envisioned faster transmission of news pictures with higher reproduction quality and transmission of color pictures with the same speed that pictures are now sent by wire. These officials said that simplification of present processes should enable newspapers to print pictures in full color on the same day that they are taken (that is, within 24 hours).

Meanwhile research and laboratory work is being carried forward in other phases of printing so that newspaper will be improved. It will be more adaptable for night-speed work and other mechanical processes will be improved. It may be that within a year or two the modern newspaper will be as different from today's paper as today's is different from the old hand-block and fuzzy printing of 50 years ago.

OFFICE CAT

A poker player, whose wife constantly complained of his late hours, stayed out every day that usual week night. He told the following story of his attempt to get in unnoticed:

"I slipped off my shoes at the front steps, pulled off my coat and slipped into my bedroom, and went to slip into bed with the ease of experience."

"My wife has a dog that on cold nights insists on jumping on the bed with me. So when I began to slide under the covers she turned in her sleep and pushed up the bed."

"Get down, Fido, get down!" she said.

"And, gentlemen, I just did have reassurance of my own to get her hand and she dozed off, again."

In the middle new women put raw donuts on the floor to improve their complexions. Now the variety is required for the same purpose.

Drunk—(to bartender)—Hey, gimme a horse's neck.

Second Drunk—I'll have a horse's tail. There's no use killing two horses.

So They Say

But if this recovery program is to have a chance of success, means must be found for aiding France and Italy to surmount this critical winter as free and independent nations.—President Truman.

The American public is more concerned about high prices and the high cost of living than about any other domestic issue.—Sen Raymond E. Baldwin (R) of Conn.

MARSHALL AND THE REDS

It would be interesting to know whether George C. Marshall's newly announced program to get the Reds out of the State Department stems from himself or from the President.

It may well be Marshall's own idea since he reportedly exercises a free hand in the matter of personnel and administrative matters. He fired at his point blank several times during the past summer for sheltering a little Krepelin inside his department.

TEXAS TODAY

By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff Young Bob Riley Ham of Teague was paid $195.05 for a young calf, but changed his mind. "I want my calf back. I'd be willing to pay a bonus. I don't want my calf killed." The Freestone County boy's calf had been auctioned at the PFA and 4-H Club sales at the Corsicana Fair. It weighed 630 pounds and brought $27 cents per pound.

"I can feed him and in a couple of months, exhibit him at other fairs and win some awards," young Ham said. "He got his calf back, without having to pay a bonus."

How many pounds of cotton can you pick in one day? In Paris, R. S. Ormond, manager of the Beall Bros. store, said that he was young in 1943, he picked 627 pounds in one day on an arm near Hamilton in West Texas.

He and a brother, J. F., used to average 800 pounds a day when in his prime. R. S. said no man ever beat him, but admitted that one he met was almost a match. He didn't name him.

W. B. Gray, an independent oil man with a secret yen to be a farmer, grew a stand of corn 17 feet high near Tyler.

Gray says he sometimes gets lost, wandering around the field. He admits that it would be impractical for other farmers to try to grow such corn—the treatment he gives the stalks is pretty expensive. For one thing, he said he pushed the stalk roots down into the ground at least 18 inches instead of letting them grow upward. He spaded the ground four times by hand. He irrigated it thoroughly, and often.

He cultivated with a garden hose and a grubbing hoe. He fought a one-man war against salamanders and moles. If Russia in effect withdraws from any real participation in effective action by the United Nations, I believe we should proceed without Russia to protect a United Nations which will operate in a limited field.

It is inconceivable to me that this Congress, or the succeeding Congress, will restore OPA. Sen Arthur Capper (R) of Kansas. The Hollywood movie industry will welcome a congressional investigation as a chance to expose ugly rumors, innuendoes and reckless accusations. Eric Johnston, president, Motion Picture Industries, Inc.

Easy Mark for Saboteurs It may not be according to established government practices—at least, pre-New Deal practices—to permit a saboteur to lure and fire lesser bureaucrats at will, as if he were running a private enterprise, but if we kept the payroll on the job, handing secret information to the saboteur, or giving such information to the enemy, our cleaner-uppers would be largely wasting their time.

By requiring a jury trial for every saboteur, judge, or jury we could prevent a lot of "arrangement" for Saboteurs' comrades.

Any clerk or janitor may carry information out of an office if he is careful. It is not possible to watch everybody all the time. No amount of regulations and security training can prevent carelessness such as leaving carbon copies or legible carbon sheets of classified information in a desk drawer over night, or dropping such matter in a waste basket. And even though good security practices call for burning the contents of wastebaskets each evening, none of these routines are airtight.

As matters stand today, there are hundreds of persons in the State Department whose loyalty is in question. It is not an excellent memorandum. It would not be necessary to smuggle a blue-print of a change in State policy toward, say, Greece, or China, to a Red agent. One person at the right place at the right time might catch a whole diplomatic maneuver.

The Marzani case illustrates the expense and difficulty involved in terday, following Producers Jack Warner and Louis B. Mayer and Producer-Director Sam Wood, who charged that Communists and

"party liners" have been trying for years to gain control of the movies. Warner and Mayer were cautious in their criticism, although both said they were aware of efforts of some people in the industry, especially writers, to inject un-American propaganda into the films.

Both insisted they have vigilantly guarded against this propaganda and have cut it whenever it was discovered.

In Hollywood, Lavery said that if Warner would waive the protection afforded him as a Congressional witness, "I shall say him for him."

Another Hollywood notable, Katharine Hepburn, declined comment on Wood's testimony that $87,000 raised at a recent meeting at which she spoke, "didn't go to the Boy Scouts." Wood made the observation when asked by a committee member whether Hollywood Communists raised funds for Communists work.

Called to the witness stand, the frail little San Antonio school girl pointed at the surgeon, "Our family doctor," and said he was the man with the rifle.

A woman psychiatrist, Dr. Ina Boyd, staff member of the State Hospital for the Insane in San Antonio, testified that the doctor, in her opinion, "has been insane at least several years."

The woman doctor, who said she had observed "thousands of insane people," said that the doctor was suffering with a paranoic form of insanity.

"He suffers from delusions," she testified in a "loud voice," "he has a fixed belief, not founded on fact. He thought, for example, that two fellow doctors were spying on him, turning patients away from him."

She said she examined him in his cell at the county jail at New Braunfels, before he was transferred here for trial, and found he suffered "peculiar bodily sensations like something crawling on him."
 "He was unquestionably insane," she said. "He did not know or understand the nature or consequences of his act."

server speculated that the conservative opposition would demand that the whole issue of the Lords authority be submitted to the country at an early general election on the grounds the government has no electoral mandate for reform in the House of Lords.

An informed source said a bill embodying the proposed legislation had not yet been written but such a measure certainly would kill the Peers' powers to hold up a bill for two years.

The King and Queen drove in state from Buckingham Palace through throngs of spectators lining top-straddled streets and were greeted at Parliament Square by a 41-gun salute. Princess Elizabeth traveled alone in a glass-windowed coach.

When the royal family entered the chamber, every eye was on the Princess. Most of the Peers wore black morning coats and striped trousers with their crimson parliamentary robes. The Law Lords made a splash of color with their scarlet and white robes and full wigs.
