Swiss Tighten Airline Security

Service To Israeli Temporarily Halted

JERUSALEM (UPI) — Prime Minister Golda Meir asked the ambassadors of 16 nations today to help stop attacks against Israel-bound jetliners and to urge seven airlines to resume cargo flights to Tel Aviv.

The mysterious 47-death crash of one Israel-bound plane Saturday and the nonfatal bombing of another carrying mail for Tel Aviv prompted seven of the 12 airlines serving the Jewish state to suspend, temporarily or indefinitely, shipments of freight or mail to Israel.

Mrs. Meir called in the ambassadors after a speech to her cabinet Sunday night calling on "governments, airlines and private organizations to take the necessary steps to put an end to the running amok of Arab terrorism throughout the world."

She was reported to have repeated this call in the hour long meeting today and to have asked the ambassadors to urge the seven airlines to resume taking cargo immediately.

The Finnish ambassador, Algar von Heiroth, came out of the meeting saying "we were very impressed with how seriously Mrs. Meir viewed the situation."

The Israeli Ministry of Tourism and foreign airline officials said there had been no decrease in the number of tourists arriving in Israel. Passenger flights were not affected.

The session was seen as the beginning of an Israeli campaign to solidify air ties with friendly nations, for the Jewish state is bordered only by Arab adversaries and the sea, making the air corridor vital.

The Israeli press urged revenge against Arab terrorists. Said the newspaper Davar: "The state of Israel has already made it clear that if air links to it are interrupted, air links with Arab countries will be interrupted too. This bill shall be paid."

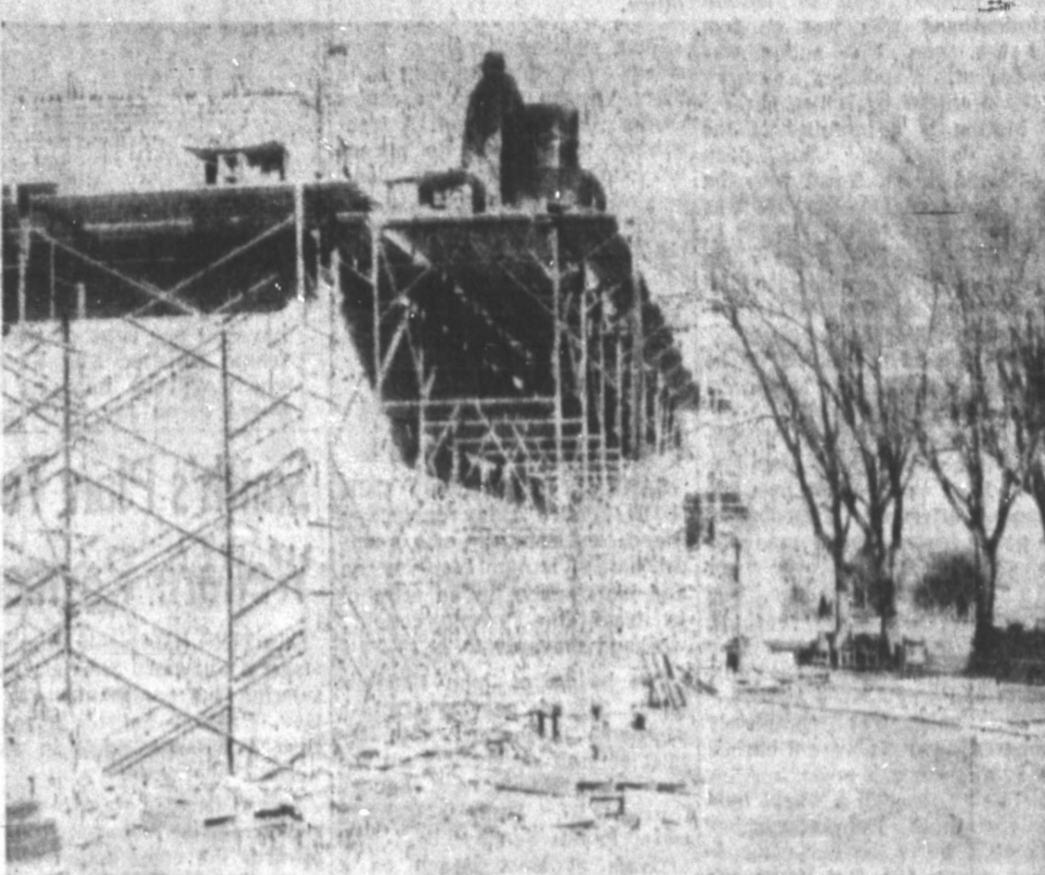

In Bern, the Swiss cabinet called a special meeting this morning to examine whether sabotage was indeed responsible for the apparent explosion preceding the crash of a Swissair plane bound for Israel Saturday.

It was shortly after this crash and the bomb explosion on an Austrian Airlines plane carrying mail for Israel that airlines began announcing they would not take any more mail or cargo to Israel until they tighten security precautions.

The Israeli ambassador to Britain, Ahron Remez, asked the two British airlines involved Sunday night to reconsider and resume the cargo service immediately. His statement said:

"While appreciating your responsibility for the safety of your passengers and crews, your decision can only be interpreted as a capitulation to intimidation and an encouragement to continue air piracy and indiscriminate criminal attacks upon airlines of all nationalities."

Officials Seek Cause Of Blast

WURLENLINGEN, Switzerland (UPI) — The Swiss cabinet called a special meeting today to examine whether sabotage indeed was responsible for the crash of a Tel Aviv-bound Swissair jet that killed 47 persons Saturday.

Airline officials said Sunday all baggage except mailbags was examined before the plane took off from Zurich. The pilot reported what he thought was an explosion in the freight compartment.

"I suspect an explosion in the rear compartment," the pilot radioed. He wheeled the Coronado jet around and tried to return for an emergency landing.

"I can hardly see the controls for the smoke," he radioed in broken transmissions. "I suggest police be there when we return."

... there is nothing more we can do. Thank you for everything."

The plane crashed outside Zurich. There were no survivors. Five Americans and 13 Israelis were among the dead. Swissair said it was suspending all mail and freight shipments to Israel but would continue passenger flights.

The federal investigation commission said there has not yet been a conclusive evidence of sabotage. The jetliner, capable of carrying 116 persons, crashed 14 minutes after takeoff from Zurich for Tel Aviv.

BATTLE CONTINUES

Agnew, Burger Take Blasts At Liberal News Media, CBS

ATLANTA (UPI) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew and Chief Justice Warren E. Burger criticized the news media in separate weekend appearances.

Agnew denounced the "drive" of the liberal press and Burger was angered by a "disrespectful" television camera crew.

Agnew spoke at a $100-a-plate dinner Saturday night that raised $100,000 for the Georgia GOP. He said he does not intend to heed the call of the "liberal news media... to lower my voice."

Law-abiding Americans, Agnew said, "Need a strong voice to penetrate the cacophony of sedulous drivel emanating from the best-publicized clowns of our society and from their fans in the Fourth Estate."

Burger's argument with the CBS Television came before his speech Saturday night to the American Bar Association (ABA) Convention.

Burger said Sunday he called CBS President Frank Stanton to complain about the conduct of the crew.

Burger said the cameramen were "impertinent" when he barred them from covering his speech. He said the bright television lights hurt his eyes and since the function was a nonpublic one, he limited news coverage to non-electronic journalists.

"I'm not running for political office and I'm not up for reelection," Burger said.

"Who do they think they are?" Burger asked, referring to the CBS television crew.

"They have no option on my face or voice. Their conduct was disrespectful and outrageous. The media better find they have to have people who can take care of basic manners."

Cities Need For Reform

In his speech, Burger said the nation needs prison reform which will emphasize rehabilitation and cut down on the rate of repeat offenders.

He said any hope of rehabilitating criminals requires a variety of programs including educational and vocational training and often intensive psychiatric therapy. Burger also called for separate institutions for various categories of inmates, such as first offenders and the very young, all of them staffed by trained personnel.

In committee action:

The Federal Judiciary Committee of the ABA reaffirmed by a vote of 9-0 its Jan. 25 endorsement of the nomination of Judge G. Harrold Carswell to the U.S. Supreme Court. Three members were absent.

DE GAULLE'S SUCCESSOR

Pompidou In US For Frank Talks

PARIS (UPI) — President Georges Pompidou set out for the United States today, ready for frank talks with President Nixon and prepared to face criticism of his Middle East policies.

It was Pompidou's first state visit since he was elected to succeed Charles de Gaulle in July and only the third visit by a French chief of state to the United States.

He was leaving Paris at 7:30 a.m. EST.

Pompidou was expected to draw praise for his country's newly pro-American policies along with criticism for France's stand toward the Arabs and Jews.

French officials said Pompidou anticipated "conversations of total frankness" with Nixon on a variety of subjects, expected to be headed by the Middle East.

There are no questions to be negotiated and the visit was an effort to improve relations between the two nations, which have a history of friendship and mutual aid dating back to the American Revolution.

U.S.-French relations sank to a low under former President Lyndon B. Johnson and De Gaulle but began to warm when Johnson ordered a halt to U.S. bombing of North Vietnam Nov. 1, 1968.

Pompidou and Nixon meet Tuesday for the first time and it has been agreed no communiques on the meetings would be issued in an effort to encourage open discussion.

Among other issues for discussion were France's relations with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), international monetary policy and the growing economic unity of the six-nation European Common Market.

Pompidou has been invited to address Congress Wednesday although some pro-Israeli representatives have threatened to boycott the joint House-Senate session. Organizers of the boycott claim that from 100 to half the 435 members will be gone and some congressmen have threatened to walk out on Pompidou.

Pompidou's other main speeches were scheduled for San Francisco where he was to speak on the problems of youth education and protest; in Chicago where he was to talk about modern life and contemporary city living; and at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York where he was to deliver an address on international economic, financial and monetary problems.

More Toll Roads Are Considered

FORT WORTH (UPI) — Officials of the Texas Turnpike Authority meet Tuesday with officials of the Texas Highway Department to consider proposals for two more toll roads in the state.

The first road would connect Interstate Highway 35, near Hillsboro or Waco, with Interstate Highway 45, which runs between Houston and Dallas. As proposed, this highway would provide a more direct link between Fort Worth and Houston.

The second proposed toll road would run between Dallas and Fort Worth. This road, along the Trinity River, would be north of the present Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike.

Free Road Ahead

Turnpike Authority officials said Sunday they would discuss plans for the two roads Tuesday in Austin with highway department officials. They also were expected to discuss the transition of the present Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike over to the highway department as a free road in four to seven years.

The turnpike connecting Fort Worth to Houston would leave Interstate 35 at either Hillsboro or Waco. The first site, 50 miles south of Dallas and Fort Worth is the point where two interstates, 35E and 35W join. Interstate 35E connects Denton and Hillsboro. Interstate 35W runs north of Fort Worth to Hillsboro.

The interstate then goes on to Laredo.

The Waco intersection would be midway between Dallas-Fort Worth and Austin.

About 50 Miles

Either route would consist of 50 miles of toll road connecting Interstate 35 with Interstate 45.

The second Dallas-Fort Worth tollroad would run through Irving, Tex., and offer a close-cut-off to the Greater Southwest International Airport. The tollroad was considered because of the increased traffic that will develop when the present turnpike becomes a free road.

Even if the two proposed toll roads are approved, construction could not begin for several years. Financial studies would have to be completed before bonds could be sold.

Lieutenant-Governor Candidate Out To Win

By DORIS E. WILSON
News Staff Writer

"I am not a token candidate. I'm running for 51 per cent of the vote. And I am in this campaign to win," so stated former-Democrat-turned Republican Byron Fullerton of Austin, who is opposing incumbent Democrat Ben Barnes for the office of lieutenant governor of the state of Texas.

Fullerton's running mate is Wichita Falls attorney Paul Eggers, who is seeking the top state spot on the Republican ticket.

Fullerton was in Pampa Friday for the Congressman Bob Price testimonial dinner.

It was not Fullerton's first visit to the Panhandle of Texas. "I've been up this way several times when I campaigned for the former Texas Attorney General Will Wilson, who is now assistant U.S. Attorney General."

The lieutenant-governor candidate is 47 and currently is on leave of absence as associate dean of the University of Texas Law School. While campaigning for Wilson, he was considered a Democrat, but in recent years he has worked with the Republicans. In 1968, Fullerton headed the Texas Lawyers for Nixon.

"Label-makers" have tagged him a moderate-conservative. But Fullerton resists labels: "I take issues as they come. But labeling is inevitable. I believe everyone ought to work, so some will say I am a conservative. But I believe everyone should have equal opportunities, so some will say I'm a liberal."

In making the decision to run, Fullerton explained to his family what making the race would mean to them. The demands that would be made of them. "I gave them plenty of time, about two weeks to decide."

"I promised I would run a hard, clean campaign and would make them proud to say I was part of their family. They urged me to get into it. My wife is a great campaigner and both my sons, Gray, 16 and Bruce, 19, will be working with me full-time this summer."

Taxes and leadership are the two key factors in the 1970 campaign, Fullerton believes.

Fullerton said the major political differences between him and Barnes would be: "I would not be fighting with the governor all the time. Leadership is the key issue in this race."

"Without any doubt taxes, the tax burden, is the other key issue. Every person is affected by them. And the little man on the street has virtually no voice in state government. In this last session, Barnes advocated a tax on food. Can you imagine what kind of a person would advocate state taxes on groceries? Taxing food that we need to feed our children!"

"Economy in government and taxes are one and the same thing. You can not consider one without considering the other. Every time you create new services, you create new taxes. We have a lot of things now we do not want nor need. You can only pile on so many taxes and enough more than enough, has been piled on!"

The Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, which lawmen feel have gagged and bound them, is another phase of government that needs revision, according to Fullerton. "To a large extent, law officers today have a tougher time in dealing with criminals and crime than they ever have had."

Rioters Ask For Funds To Appeal

CHICAGO (UPI) — The five men convicted of crossing state lines to incite riots during the 1968 Democratic National Convention have asked their supporters to concentrate on efforts to obtain appeal bonds.

U.S. District Court Judge Julius J. Hoffman denied bond Friday after sentencing the five to five years in prison and $5,000 fines. He termed them "dangerous men."

"We urge our supporters to focus now on the issue of appeal bond," the five said in a statement issued Sunday from the "conspiracy" headquarters in Chicago's Loop.

Second Vote Asked For HEW Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Robert H. Finch, secretary of health, education and welfare, has told Congress he would recommend a second veto by President Nixon of the $19.4 billion HEW appropriations bill unless it is trimmed by at least another $447 million.

An alternative would be to give Nixon authority to withhold some of the funds, Finch said in a letter released Sunday to Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, Wash., chairman of the Senate appropriations subcommittee.

Finch also urged deletion of recently passed House provisions barring HEW from requiring "busing" as part of school desegregation plans, and "galvanizing" freedom of choice school plans.

The letter threatened a veto only on the bill's money provisions and not in connection with the Southern-sponsored amendments passed last week.

As passed by the House Thursday, the measure totals $19.4 billion, $996 million over Nixon's original budget request and $447 million above a $16.8 billion compromise which the President suggested after vetoing the original measure in a nationwide television appearance last month.

The tardy measure finances a year's operations beginning last July 1 of HEW, the Labor Department, the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) and a dozen other agencies.

Both parties have seized it as an election year issue, with Democrats calling for more spending on New social programs and Republicans, led by Nixon, urging cutbacks to contain inflation.

"The quickest and simplest way to solve our problem," Finch said, would be for the Senate to insert a provision permitting President Nixon to hold back some of the spending.

to Tel Aviv was canceled when half the booked passengers stayed away.

Forty-seven persons were killed in the crash of the Swissair jet Saturday, five of them Americans and 13 Israelis. The airliner went down after an apparent explosion in the freight compartment, which contents had not been inspected as had the passengers' baggage.

"I suspect an explosion in the rear compartment," the pilot radioed. "I suggest police be there when we return to Zurich so that matter can be cleared up. There is nothing more we can do. Thank you for everything."

The airliner then crashed into a forest outside Zurich while trying to return for an emergency landing. Two hours earlier, an Austrian Airlines jetliner carrying mail destined for Israel was rocked by an explosion in its freight compartment but returned safely to Frankfurt, Germany.

A police spokesman in Frankfurt said the explosion "must have been caused by a bomb." Authorities offered a $4,000 reward for information leading to the arrest of two men, apparently Arabs, who acted suspiciously while mailing a package to Israel at a Frankfurt Post Office Friday.

Group Retracts Claim
A splinter Arab guerrilla group at first claimed credit for the Swissair crash but later retracted the claim. Biggor Arab guerrilla organizations deplored such sabotage. The Jordanian government expressed its deep regret and said "it is unthinkable that (the crash) could have been an Arab act in any way."

Fearing more of the same, Swissair announced it was suspending indefinitely freight and air shipments to Israel. Austrian Airlines and British European Airways followed suit. Temporary suspensions on such cargo were announced by Air France, Lufthansa, the Dutch airline KLM and the British and Overseas Airways Corp. (BOAC). A BOAC spokesman explained the reasoning behind his line's 48-hour suspension:

"We don't want to take any chances. We want to think out what we are going to do and we don't want to run into trouble while we are thinking."

Those continuing full service to Israel were Trans World Airlines, Turkish Airlines, SAS, the Romanian airline Tarom and the Israeli airline El Al.

Arab Suspects Sought In Mail Plane Blast

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI)—West German authorities are offering a $4,000 reward for the capture of two men, apparently Arabs, as suspects in the explosion aboard an Austrian Airlines plane Saturday.

The airliner was carrying mail to Israel when an explosion in the mailbags blew a 31-inch hole in its fuselage shortly after takeoff. The pilot returned the twin-jet Cacarville safely to Frankfurt.

Federal authorities offered the reward for the arrest of two men who they said acted suspiciously while mailing a package to Israel at a Frankfurt Post Office Friday.

A police spokesman said one of the men spoke a foreign language, possibly Arabic. The authorities tentatively identified one of the men as Mustafa Ahmad Haron, an Arab name. They said the men who mailed the package described its contents as radio equipment.

Suspect Jailed For Aggravated Assault

Richard D. Morton, 20, 916 E. Murphy, a army man home on leave was arraigned before Justice of the Peace E. L. Anderson Sunday on a charge of aggravated assault.

Sheriff's officers stated Morton struck Jerry Hollenshead, 16, 704 E. Fifth. Hollenshead suffered multiple jaw fractures and required surgery for a blood clot near the brain as a result of the assault, which occurred Friday.

Witnesses stated Morton stopped the car he was driving and jumped out to assault Hollenshead who was on foot at the time. The action was apparently a result of a remark hurled earlier by Hollenshead.

Morton is a member of the U.S. Army and has been stationed at Ft. Hood, with the 2nd Armored Division. He was due to report to Ft. Dix, N.J., today to await transfer to Germany, but remains in jail in Pampa in lieu of a two-thousand dollar bond.

Hollenshead is reported to be in good condition in Northwest Texas Hospital, Amarillo. A distraught Pampa mother who told police she "wanted to die" tried to take her own life Sunday afternoon, according to a police report. The woman was apparently upset over her daughter's romance, and reportedly steered the car she was driving into a power pole on Price Rd. about one mile north of Perry Lefors Airport.

The pole was completely sheared away as were 8 barbed wire fence posts. After ploughing through a wheat field belonging to Pampa rancher Skeet Roberts the car came to rest about 150 feet from the point of impact.

Southwestern Public Service employees who were on hand the scene said the woman would have suffered serious injury had she touched high voltage wires which were near the ground after the wreck occurred.

Sherry Mastella, 1008 Neel Rd., called police shortly after midnight Saturday and said she thought someone was trying to break into her home. When police arrived Miss Mastella told them she heard the rear garage door slam and when she went to her kitchen door to investigate she saw a bald-headed man trying to break in.

Miss Mastella also stated she had received obscene phone calls the last few nights. Police checked the neighborhood but found no one fitting the description of the suspect. James W. McDaniel, 1824 N. Banks, was arrested shortly after midnight Sunday for driving while intoxicated. Police said the McDaniel vehicle struck two parked cars near the intersection of Oklahoma and S. Dwight. Justice of the Peace E. L. Anderson set bond at $1,000.

Harold Posson, 308 Magnolia, appeared at police headquarters early Sunday morning and stated $120 had been stolen from his pickup truck. Posson said $40 in rolled quarters and some

Avalanche Ravages Alpine Resort

ST. IGUMUND, Austria (UPI) — An avalanche triggered by a sudden thaw thundered down on this Alpine village today, engulfing a tourist hotel in tons of snow.

Police said at least four persons were killed. Nine more were dug out, apparently uninjured. The hotel was reported destroyed.

Other avalanches blocked the road to St. Sigmund, a town 12 miles west of the tourist center of Innsbruck. Helicopters flew in rescue teams and other aid.

The police said the avalanche that struck the Hotel Alpenrose crashed down before dawn while the village slept. One child was among the dead, the police said. The avalanche swept down from the north side of the Palder-Sonnig mountain, which rises on the south edge of St. Sigmund.

Viet Hero, Fiancee Found Dead

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (UPI) — Police today questioned friends and relatives of a much-decorated Vietnam War veteran and his fiancee, in an attempt to trace the young couple's weekend movements.

The bodies of John Franklin Hood, 24, of nearby Oxnard, who was discharged with the rank of staff sergeant from the Army last month, and Sandra Garcia, 20, Santa Barbara, were found Sunday by early arrivals at East Beach on a sunny, warm morning.

Police said the man and girl were fully clothed, lying together beneath a blanket. They were believed to have gone to the beach Saturday afternoon. Hood had told his parents he was going to spend the day with his fiancee but did not return home that night.

Miss Garcia, an employee of the state Motor Vehicle Department, and Hood became engaged a little more than a year ago, before finished his tour of Vietnam.

Police apparently had no immediate leads on suspects but said they were attempting to trace the movements of the young couple before they went to the beach.

N. Vietnams Push Farther Into Laos

VIENTIANE (UPI) — North Vietnamese troops have begun attacking out of the Plain of Jars in what military sources interpreted today as a sign they want to increase further their holdings in Laos.

The troops, 16,000 strong, captured the 25-mile-long plain Saturday, then attacked a government outpost 10 miles to the northwest Sunday in a probing action that caused no casualties.

Military officials said the attack was not a major thrust but was significant because it showed the Communists are interested in advancing beyond the plain, perhaps toward Muong Suoi, 25 miles west.

North Vietnamese troops last year captured Muong Suoi, site of a government airfield, but were repulsed by the government offensive that drove them completely from the Plain of Jars.

Muong Suoi would give the guerrillas virtual control of the crucial junction of national Highways 7 and 13 and would threaten further the royal

Smith's Plan To Curb Crisis In Welfare Payments Scrutinized

AUSTIN (UPI) — Attorney General Crawford Martin is considering the constitutionality of Gov. Preston Smith's plan to curb a possible crisis in state welfare payments.

Smith decided last week to switch funds that were to go towards the construction of two medical schools into the Welfare Department's treasury. In response, the State Board of Public Welfare announced Sunday the cuts planned for April 1 would not take place if the Smith plan goes through.

But Sen. Barbara Jordan, D-Houston, said she thought the plan was unconstitutional. Defining the Issue The Texas Legislature normally has to approve a plan which involves switching funds from one department to another. Whether the legislature needs to approve Smith's plan is what Martin is considering.

The Welfare Board held an emergency meeting Sunday and announced the cuts in welfare payments slated to begin April 1 would not be needed if the money switch takes place.

Smith promised to avert the cuts without calling a special legislative session even though two of the state's top elected officials — Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and Martin — called for a special session to appropriate funds for the welfare department.

What It Involves Smith said Friday his plan would involve taking $7.5 million from the Texas Tech Medical School Building Fund and $6 million from the University of Texas Medical School Building Fund in Houston.

This money would then be given to the welfare department to pay its recipients. Smith also said he would ask the 62nd Legislature, which meets next January, for money to replenish the building funds.

"Although a special session might resolve the problem, I believe the course which I have chosen is a more certain remedy," the governor said.

Lid Clamped On Investigation Of Family Deaths

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (UPI) — Military authorities have clamped a tight security lid on the investigation of the murders of a Green Beret doctor's pregnant wife and two daughters.

The Army Sunday sent the bodies of Mrs. Colette MacDonald, 36, and daughters Kimberly, 6, and Kristen Jean, 2, to Patchogue, N.Y., where the MacDonalds lived prior to their tour of duty here.

According to the announcement, J.C. Maerkl of Fort Worth, Tex., was taking off from the airfield in his Air America plane when he was hit by a single sniper's bullet.

Capt. Jeffrey MacDonald, 26, remained behind. He is recovering from stab wounds suffered early Tuesday when he said four intruders who may have been on an LSD trip broke into his apartment and savagely attacked his family.

Miss Lollobrigida said in a telephone call from New York Sunday she and Kaufman will remain good friends.

"Our mentalities reflect views of two different, diametrically opposed worlds," said Miss Lollobrigida, 41, Kaufman, 36, a real estate man, once admitted he had never seen any of her movies.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 42-year-old man who has dated many women, but I never married. I've been accused of being too "particular." Perhaps I was, but now the time has come when I would really like to settle down and marry.

Being a normal man, I spent years dreaming about my "ideal wife" — one who would possess all the qualities men want in a wife: beauty, intelligence, charm, character, etc.

I recently re-met an old schoolmate. She is now a young widow. We seem very much "in tune" with each other, and she has all the qualifications I want in a wife, but one — beauty! And heaven forgive me, but in this department she fails miserably.

I keep telling myself that beauty is only skin deep, that people grow old and lose their looks, that charm and character endure forever.

I know I could admire and respect this woman, and even care for her deeply, but could I really "love" her? I tell myself that she can't help what she was born with — or without, and it is childish of me to place something so superficial as "looks." But would a marriage which offers everything else eventually overcome this idiotic dream of having a beautiful wife? What is wrong with me?

"DREAMER!"
DEAR DREAMER: I think you don't really want to get married. Knowing nothing of what you have to offer, I think you're expecting too much. To each his own, but if "beauty," the physical kind, is all that important to you, don't marry a woman who "falls miserably" in that department. But let me warn you, a man doesn't know what "hell" is until he marries a woman who has beauty and nothing else.

DEAR ABBY: This letter is in response to your recent reply to GRANDPARENTS, wherein they were denied visitation rights to their grandchildren by their former daughter-in-law. Your response to them was, in part, "But there are no 'rights' for grandparents, and your former daughter-in-law is now holding all the trumpets."

I graciously beg to differ with you, "Beautiful," but in our fair State of California, under California Civil Code, Section 4601 (which went into effect Jan. 1, 1970), it is within the discretion of the court and if the court deems it advisable for all concerned . . . "any other person having an interest in the welfare of the child . . ." may obtain legal visitation rights.

Let's hope GRANDPARENTS live in California, eh? Very truly yours,

W.D.M. IN SAN DIEGO
DEAR W.D.M.: Thank you for your very informative letter. I was using "last year's" rules, whereby the ex-daughter-in-law was indeed holding all the trumpets. This year, the grandparents get a new deal. Hooray for California!

DEAR ABBY: Please rush this into print for the grandparents who were heartbroken because their ex-daughter-in-law wouldn't let them see their own grandchildren:

Dear Grandparents, Since you don't live in California, you have no legal right to see your grandchildren, so, as Abby says, "Your ex-daughter-in-law is holding all the trumpets."

Well, in that case, you have no moral responsibilities to remember them in your will either. Spend the money while you're living, or leave it to someone who appreciates you. How's that for a trump?

MONEY TALKS
CONFIDENTIAL TO "THE STINKER" IN CHALMETTE, LA.: "I want you to put off in the car for me," constitutes an "order." Had you said, "Will you please put off in the car for me." — that would have been a request. Now, go apologize to your husband.

Scouting Scoops

Approximately 400 fathers, daughters, leaders, and assistants attended the Sunset Neighborhood Juliette Low Event Feb. 13 at First Christian Church.

After Troop Three presented the flag ceremony, the Rev. Wayne Lemmons gave the invocation. After the box supper, Mrs. N. G. Kadingo directed group singing.

Mrs. Steve Odum presented Mrs. J. D. Williams with an appreciation certificate. Mrs. Williams has served the neighborhood as troop consultant and in other scout leader capacities.

Mrs. Odum introduced skits presented by troops of the neighborhood. After the skits, all leaders and assistants were recognized.

Mrs. J. D. Williams presented Mrs. Odum a money tree from the neighborhood. Mrs. Jerry Carter presented Mrs. Odum, retiring neighborhood chairman, a certificate of appreciation from Quivira Council.

Mrs. Carter, Mistress of Ceremonies for the event, is the new Sunset Neighborhood Chairman. She presented Don Rice of Berger a box of Valentine candy for his photographic service.

Sister troops 61 and 136 gave the flag ceremony recently at Lamar Elementary School PTA Fathers Night meeting. Troop 61 is led by Mrs. Wayne Jones, with assistant leaders, Mrs. Jack Hilton and Mrs. J. D. Williams.

Troop 136 leader is Mrs. Tom Collins. Assistants are Mrs. George Eggleston and Mrs. Bobbie Miller. Troop 136 recently completed the Health Aid Badge. With the help of Jim Miser the girls are taking the Junior Red Cross Course and will receive a certificate upon completion of the course.

Junior Troop 18, led by Mrs. Daniel Ginardi, is working on the Needlecraft Badge.

Troop 29, led by Mrs. John Bird, had a combined Valentine and roller skating party recently. Mrs. W. W. Hampton is assistant leader.

Noreen Edith Potts, Harley Gail Smith Jr. Exchange Marriage Vows In Methodist Chapel

Noreen Edith Potts and T-Sgt. Harley Gail Smith Jr., recently exchanged marriage vows in the First United Methodist Church Chapel in Pampa. The Rev. Harold N. Smith, Lincoln, Neb., the bridegroom's brother, performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. H.M. Potts, Woolahra, Sidney, Australia, and the late Mr. Potts. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H.G. Smith Jr., Pampa.

The bride was dressed in a floor-length sea blue crepe fashioned on princess lines with a portrait neckline highlighted with iridescent sequins accented with seed beads. Her headpiece was fashioned of a halo ring of matching blue crepe with a short veil. She carried a white Bible, a gift from her brother, Don Potts of Sidney, Australia, and long stemmed blue carnations. The matron of honor was Mrs. Harold N. Smith, Lincoln, Neb., who wore a blue and silver metallic dress and carried long stemmed pink carnations. Junior bridesmaid, Linda Smith, the bridegroom's niece, was dressed in blue brocade gown and carried long stemmed pink carnations. James S. Crouch, Pampa, assisted as best man. Tracy D. Cary, organist, played "Meditation" from Thal and "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg. The church chapel was decorated with two urns of pink gladioli for the evening wedding service. For the reception in the First United Methodist Church parlor, the serving table was covered with a linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink gladioli and crystal. The three-tiered white iced cake was decorated with blue and white bells and trim. Mrs. James Crouch served cake while Mrs. Josephine Blaylock assisted with coffee service. Mrs. Leon Hinton registered guests. The bride traveled on the wedding trip in a navy pant suit with red accessories. The bride was employed with the Australian Broadcasting Commission in Sidney, Australia.

The bridegroom, a 1949 graduate of Pampa High School, enlisted in the Air Force in 1950 and has recently returned from a 34-month tour of duty in Vietnam.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hunt, and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Schillings, all of Amarillo.

Spring Shawls To Warm Shoulders In Cold Rooms

NEW YORK (UPI)—Some American designers apparently had air conditioners in mind when they put together Spring collections.

The season, normally warm, hardly seems shawl-wearing time. However in many collections being shown fashion scribes in New York there were gobs of shawls. Some in the American designer showings, were shown over long-sleeved, high necklined dresses.

Among such outfits found to be appreciated by a woman in a room made nearly frigid by an air conditioner was a mini-skirted costume in the Oscar de la Renta collection.

Except for the short skirt this could have been a Victorian dress.

TUESDAY, FEB. 24

Your birthday Tuesday: Expansion is the keynote for your coming year and a half. The big payoff occurs from midyear on, but depends on what you do with your opportunities and how strongly your heritage and conditioning stand up under workloads. The tendency is to be your own master; fully employed workers under this influence branch out into independent business experiments on the side.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Put in applications, seek franchises and contracts today. Leave out but do not lend supplies, equipment.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Home life claims your attention, causes distractions from details at your work. Make appointments very early in the day.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Start early. You will be lucky if you get the first word in and luckier yet if you have the last word. Friends are in a rollicking, carefree mood; laugh with them.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Experiments, new methods are better left untested for the time being. Appointments turn out to be both late and impatient.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Do some unaccustomed hard digging for facts, usable exclusive information. You share travel opportunities.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Personal money dealings, letting of contracts, purchasing operations are favored Tuesday. The morning hours are the best, so get going early.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): It is your turn to take leadership or at least the initiative in suggestions. Partnership or group actions are quite lucky. Do whatever you do for your own reasons, without explanations.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Spend the whole day putting everything to rights batted down for Wednesday's storm of confusion. Leave no significant decision for tomorrow if it can't wait a day beyond then.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Everybody has his own idea as to what is appropriate, right, or effective. The main issue now is achieving adequate communication and sharing of goals.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Experimental procedures can be tested now in the actual work. Unexpected calls from relatives provide minor excitement or surprises.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Tend thoroughly to business. Be sure you know or have a record of where everything is, what stage important matters have reached. Where there is only one copy of anything, see that it is beyond any chance of loss or damage.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Your experiments are ruined by people not realizing that they are tests, ignoring instructions.

memo to advertisers

Chatting with a merchant the other day, we mentioned our "ABC figure."

"What," he asked, "is an ABC figure?"

Perhaps what we told him will also interest you.

This newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, an independent, nonprofit organization of nearly 4,000 advertisers, advertising agencies, and publishers.

Its purpose is to provide accurate and factual reports on the circulations of member publishers. In the advertising and publishing industry, the ABC insignia is often referred to as the "hallmark of circulation values."

At regular intervals, an ABC traveling auditor visits our office to check our records. The findings of this physical audit are embodied in an Audit Report published by ABC — the report literally tells us what our circulation is.

Virtually everything an advertiser should know about our circulation is found in this report, facts and figures without opinions.

Few retailers bother to ask to see a copy of our report, yet we want you to know one is available anytime you are interested in the quality and quantity of our circulation audience — the audience for your advertising messages.

What is an ABC figure?

It is our way of assuring you that you get full measure for your advertising dollar in this newspaper.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The Jackie Gleason show is gone from the CBS-TV schedule announced Thursday for next season.

Negotiations between CBS-TV and Gleason have been strained. And although there is always the possibility that changes can occur before the new season starts in September, the comedian's series is, at this point, canceled.

Earlier reports noted that the network wanted Gleason to concentrate on "The Honey-mooners" episodes that have done so well. Gleason, the reports say, wanted to emphasize a variety series.

It is common knowledge in the trade that the comedian's program did best against NBC-TV's head-on competition, Andy Williams, when "The Honey-mooners" were shown. The Gleason series has generally flopped when doing variety outings. Some years ago, Gleason admitted a variety series he did was not very good. Williams, by the way, will be back on NBC-TV next season. And his new CBS-TV competition is scheduled to be "Mission: Impossible."

Skelton Moves To NBC-TV
 Another longtime CBS-TV star, Red Skelton, will be gone from the network. But his series has been picked up by NBC-TV, though sliced from an hour to 30 minutes, and will be the weekly lead-in to "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In." Skelton will go up against another CBS-TV mainstay, "Gunsmoke."

Other canceled CBS-TV shows for next season are "Get Smart," "Petticoat Junction," "Lancer" and the Tim Conway situation comedy. Conway, however, will have an hour variety series on the network.

Some new listings include:
 —The Andy Griffith show, a half-hour in which he plays the headmaster of a contemporary private school.
 —The Mary Tyler Moore show, a half-hour in which she plays a girl who works in the press room of a television station.
 —"Storefront Lawyers," an hour drama about young attorneys who run an office serving the needs of "the under-represented."
 —More New Shows
 —"The Interns," an hour drama about the personal lives of budding doctors in a large hospital.

Oregon Topples Top-Ranked Bruins With 78-65 Triumph

By United Press International
Now that UCLA's 25-game winning streak has been snapped, the top-ranked Bruins can concentrate on capturing their fourth straight NCAA title.

UCLA, beaten handily by Oregon, 78-65 Saturday night, still holds a two-game lead over the Ducks in the Pacific Eight Conference race and can wrap up another NCAA tournament bid by returning to winning ways. Both teams have four conference games remaining.

The Bruins have won 108 games and lost just three since the 1967 season.

Second-ranked Kentucky, paced by Dan Issel's 51 points, overcame a 64-point performance by Pete Maravich to defeat Louisiana State, 121-105.

Maravich, the nation's leading scorer, hit 23 field goals and 15 of 22 free throw attempts in his last home game.

Leads Team To Victory
John Roche pumped in 28 points to lead third-ranked South Carolina to a 79-63 victory over 13th-ranked North Carolina. The Gamecock win sewed up their first Atlantic Coast Conference regular season championship, but South Carolina still has to win the ACC's post season tournament to qualify for the NCAA tournament.

Fourth-ranked St. Bonaventure almost ran Long Island University off the court with an 18-1 burst at the start, but had to struggle in the closing minutes to win its 19th game of the season, 71-61. Bob Lanier led the Bonnies with 34 points.

Pampa Meets Berger In Season Finale

By JIM BURNHAM

News Sports Correspondent

The Harvesters will end their 1969-70 basketball season tomorrow night in Berger against the team that Pampa fought and beat at the close of last year's season to win the second half crown. Although

Pampa is out of the race being

3-5 in the second half, Berger is tied with Amarillo for first.

Berger will go onto the court with a 5-1 second half record and a 25-5 season. Berger,

Amarillo and Monterey are tied for fourth in state standings, all sporting a 25-5 season record.

Berger put down the Harvesters 83-69, Jan. 23. Richard

Buntun led the way for Pampa in that game, scoring 25 points.

Jim Gallman put in 21.

Berger has a tough offensive in players Richard Coffey, Carl

Taylor, Earl O'Steen and Keny

Harper.

Pampa is led by 6'6" center,

Gallman, who is second in district scoring, averaging 19.3

points per game. Two sophomores are on the starting line-up for

Pampa, Buntun and Mike

Edgar. Randy Marsh,

Doug Thompson and Mike

Jordan alternately make up the rest of the team.

Last Friday, the Harvesters

were scraped by the Coronado

Mustangs in a 51-49 contest. The loss broke Pampa's three game winning streak.

Coronado fouled up Berger by downing them 61-60. Berger had been undefeated the second half of district action till this.

Cerrudo Charges To Win San Antonio Open By Five

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—

Ron Cerrudo had seen all but one stroke of his four-shot lead go down the drain in the final round of the $100,000 San Antonio Open Sunday, and he suddenly remembered the great

Arnold Palmer fold of 1966.

"That's when I started playing aggressive," he said.

From that point, midway through the final round, Cer-rudo popped in three birdies on a rain-soaked course and won his second professional tournament going away by five strokes.

He fired a final-round 68 over the 7,000-yard, par 35-35-70

Pecan Valley Country Club

course for a 72-hole total of 273

and first-place money of $30,000.

Dick Lotz, the man who trimmed Cerrudo's lead to a single shot after the first five holes, finished in second place at 278 with a final round of 68 that earned him $11,000.

Six strokes back of the winner, in third place, came

Miller Barber and first-round leader Rod Funseth. They took home $5,900 apiece. Three more strokes back were Al Geberger and John Schlee, each firing 72-hole totals of two-over-par 282.

Cerrudo, 25, bogeyed the second hole Sunday, and Lotz birdied the next three to narrow the leader's margin to one shot. "I remember when Arnold Palmer was so far out in front in the U.S. Open and lost to Billy Casper," Cerrudo said. "That's when I started playing aggressive. I didn't leave it short the rest of the day.

"I was nervous and so keyed up, and it was probably a good thing that Dick was playing so well. He played as fine from fallen in it might have been a different story."

When the two players came to the par-3 12th hole, Cerrudo had a three-stroke lead, and it was there he made the shot he called "the key to my round."

Lotz hit first and almost holed out for an ace, leaving the ball just two inches from the cup and a sure birdie was in the offing.

Cerrudo put his ball over the green, 35 feet from the hole.

But from there Cerrudo used a chipping wedge and knocked his ball in the cup for a birdie to halve the hole with Lotz and keep his lead at three strokes.

"I'm not unhappy," Lotz said after his early charge faded.

"I'm just happy to finish second. I'm just happy to finish at all. I guess Ron was just getting revenge for that state

amateur loss in California."

Cerrudo said he was tired and planned to take the next week off.

But after talking to officials at the Doral Open invitational,

The News believes each and every person would get more satisfaction in the long run if he were permitted to spend what he earns on a volunteer basis rather than having part of it distributed involuntarily.

The Potentials of Youth

"What we're driving at basically is getting youth involved in life in a meaningful way, making use of their capacities instead of trying to hold the lid on all that restless energy."

Speaking was Stephen Hess, 36-year-old national chairman of the 1970 White House Conference on Children and Youth, interviewed in U.S. News & World Report magazine.

Hess, father of two preteen sons, will direct a search for a nationwide approach to the problems, hopes and dreams of two categories of American youth — children (up to age 13) and youths (13 to 25). Hess is well-aware of the difficulties implicit in such a search.

He knows, for example, that students who have caused the most disruption in colleges and universities in recent months are generally among the best scholastically. He is well-aware that the under-13 set is more influenced by television than any previous generation of preteens. He notes that the most recent Gallup Poll shows that 52 per cent of young people now consider themselves independent, rather than Republicans or Democrats, so their political motivation comes from sources other than traditional party appeals.

"We have three basic goals," Hess commented on the White House Conference. "First, we want to find ways to maximize the involvement of youth in our society, especially the governmental process. We want to take advantage of their expertise as youth. . . . Our second objective will be to show adults the quality of life among young people today. . . . The third will be to establish a meaningful dialogue between young people and the government."

Hess, who has been on the job since last December, says that mass media tend to distort youth's image — "When young people hold a protest march or take over a college administration building, that makes news; when a youth produces a beautiful painting or a poem, or establishes a successful business, that doesn't make news." He hopes more of the latter images can be revealed.

He believes that the two-part conference (up-to-13 age group in Dec., 1970, 13-to-25 group in June, 1971) should consider such proposals as a voluntary national service corps, which would not replace military service but would entitle participants to the GI Bill of Rights. The Eisenhower commission recommended such a corps.

"Meaningful dialogue" with the more radical elements in today's youth protest movements may be impossible, as anyone who has read Roger Kahn's "The Battle for Morningglades" will learn. Kahn points out in this book about the 1968 campus rebellion at Columbia University that some radical leaders do not want to compromise.

On the other hand, those same radical leaders were of the type who might have profited from the kind of approach President Nixon has charged Hess with developing.

The federal government is overdue for a broad look at what's bothering young people today. As Hess observes, "There is an over-all crisis in authority that creates a restlessness among youth. . . . what is the role of the home and the schools? . . . what should we expect of organized religion?"

If a White House Conference can obtain even a few answers to such questions, perhaps the generation of '70s will be noted more for solving than for raising questions.

Revised Version

In a recent survey of youthful attitudes toward religion, a 26-year-old junior high school teacher and civil rights and antiwar activist in Cleveland explained her disenchantment with the status-quo-supporting, established churches by saying that:

"Jesus was a political revolutionary who was crucified because He tried to overthrow the Roman Empire."

This bald assertion is incorrect on all counts, of course — unless a new translation of the New Testament has come out revising such statements attributed to Jesus as, "My kingdom is not of this world. . . . Render unto Caesar. . . ." and eliminating Pontius Pilate's "I find no fault in this man."

There are plenty of good reasons for being pro-civil rights and antiwar and for wanting to stake the churches and society out of their complacency. A misreading (or, one suspects, a nonreading) of biblical history is not one of them.

But, alas, every generation manufactures its own myths to justify that which should need no justification.

New Measure Of 'Poor'

It takes $6,567 per year just to be poor.

That's what the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics found in its survey of 39 metropolitan areas early last year. Already a man with a wife and two children who makes $3 an hour in a 40-hour week has become poorer still.

So when people at the low end of the wage scale in America complain about our national spending priorities, as opposed to their personal financial condition, one can see some justification.

Even the fellow in the middle, who at $10,077 per year is considered on a "moderate" standard of living, might well complain. If he earns $14,589 and lives "well," perhaps there is less reason for being concerned. . . . but he does not dare have more than two children, or he'll slip back.

We can all take heart, however. Those pioneering Americans in Anchorage, Alaska need at least $19,035 to live well. Even the Aurora Borealis, at those prices, isn't worth a ticket.

Better Once Than Twice

Bethlehem Steel Corp. has promised its customers that it will not raise prices on basic steel products more than once a year.

These days, that's what's called real economic stability.

Wit and Whimsy

Sandy went down to London for a holiday. When he returned he told his friends.

Sandy — I had a good time, but they are a strange lot of folks there.

Danny (one of his friends) — How so?

Sandy — Well, one night very late — in fact it was early in the morning — a chap came banging at my door. He shouted and hollered in a terrible temper. Imagine! At four in the morning!

Danny — And what did you do?

Sandy — Nothing at all, I went on quietly playing my bagpipes.

In those school districts where freedom of choice plans were in effect last year, there was a clearly discernible move towards stabilization. Both racial groups in the country were recognizing that freedom of choice plans offered a reasonable approach to a solution of the protracted school crisis in the nation. The Supreme Court chose, instead, to listen to the strident voices of militants and to the extremists in Congress, HEW and the media. . . . and moved to strike down freedom of choice and demand unitary school districts based on racial balancing and busing.

So the stage has been set for much great unhappiness and divisiveness. This time, the unhappiness and division apparently won't be confined to the Southern States but will be experienced in other parts of the country. The courts thus are threatening the Republic with a period of great stress and strife.

The Supreme Court, Congress and HEW simply must come to their senses if the United States is to retain domestic tranquility and if the educational system is not to collapse. The Supreme Court must listen to the voice of the people, especially parents — black and white, who indict the racial balance notion as ideological, extremist, destructive of community solidarity and national advancement through education. The hour for a return to reason has arrived.

The requirement of racial balance being imposed on selected school districts in the nation is, most probably, only the entering wedge of a profoundly disruptive concept. If public schools are forced to accept racial balance formulas, how long will it be before every business and industry in the nation is required to accept the same thing?

Some people may think that such a requirement would never be imposed on business organizations because of the patent absurdity involved. Only a few years ago, Americans should recall, the idea of racial balance in a public school would have seemed too ridiculous to consider. In Atlanta, however, the courts have decreed that teaching staffs, including coaches, must be 57 per cent black. A similar requirement is being made in other cities and regions.

The so-called Philadelphia Plan represents the first move towards racial balance in industry. Contractors in that city — and a number of other cities — will be required to hire workers on a racial quota basis. The construction unions are furious — and, for once, they are right. Quotas in schools or industry make no sense whatsoever.

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, speaking in Chicago in mid-February, condemned the quota notion, even though the Nixon administration subscribes to it in backing the Philadelphia Plan. As Mr. Agnew pointed out, no one would want to have a doctor who was accepted at a medical college because of a quota system instead of merit.

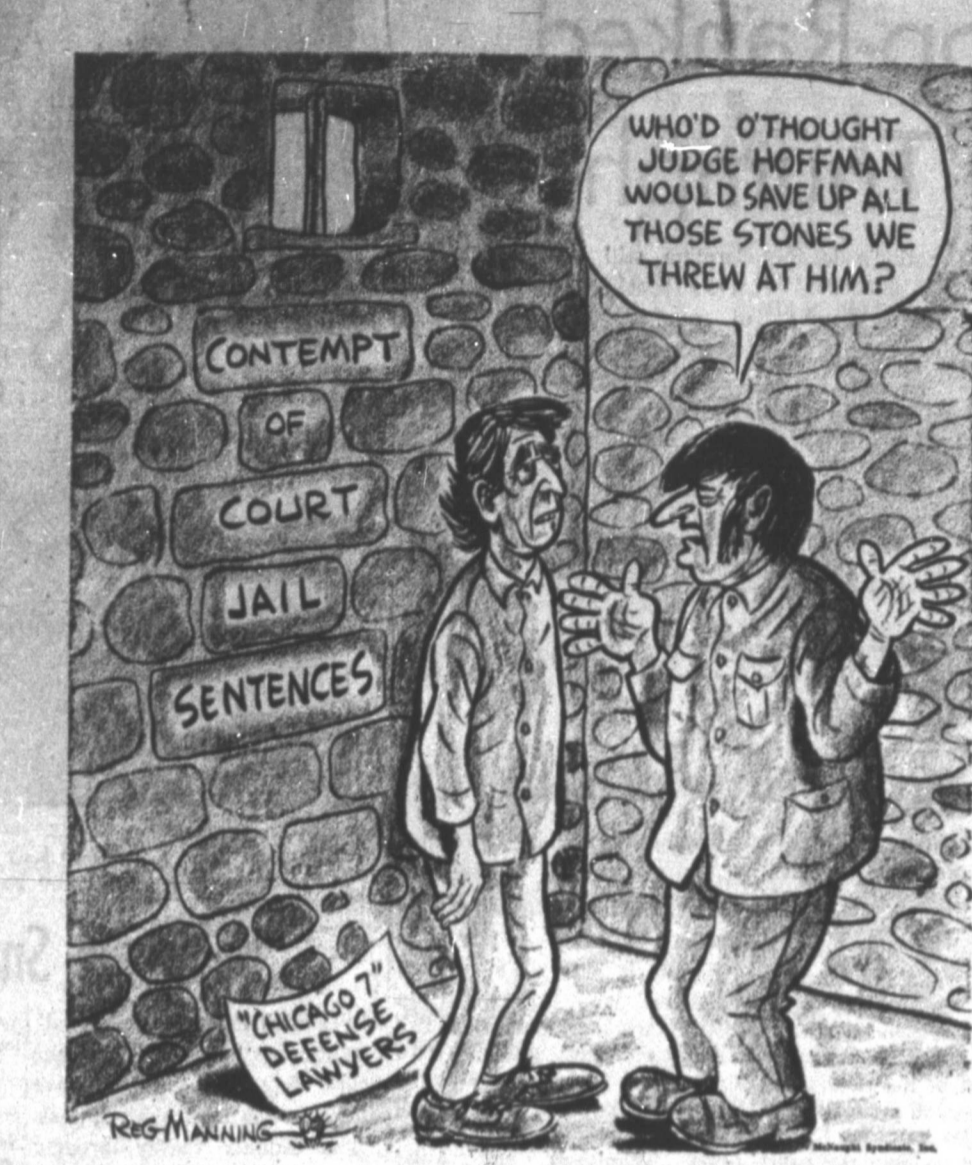

The federal courts and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare have stirred up a hornets' nest in trying to impose racial balance on the schools and in devising attendance formulas that involve busing.

Los Angeles, the West Coast metropolis, is one of the cities currently under court order to apportion students and teachers on a racial balance formula. Gov. Ronald Reagan has termed the plan an absurdity. The taxpayers of Los Angeles will have to spend millions of dollars to implement the plan.

The racial balance concept is the very opposite of what the federal courts have said they sought to achieve, namely an absence of discrimination. Students and teachers now are to be singled out on a basis of race for assignment to specific schools. Thus, almost 16 years after the 1954 school integration ruling, the courts have come almost full circle. Overly zealous application of the integration goal — the substitution of integration per se for traditional educational objectives — have led the courts up a blind alley.

Americans, irrespective of race, creed or color, are deeply dismayed at the racial balance orders of the courts. In several cities, black students have protested assignment to schools with large white majorities.

LBJ's Memoirs Turning Into Bit Of A Twist On History

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Former President Lyndon Johnson's memoirs may turn out to be one of the lesser footnotes to history if they are no more persuasive than the long series of televised interviews he has undertaken with Walter Cronkite.

Watching the latest one devoted to decisions affecting the Vietnam war in 1968, one could only conclude either that LBJ was spinning webs of fantasy or that he had then surrounded himself with some top advisers who could not read the English language and perhaps had a considerable gift for telling falsehoods.

Let's get off the bombing halt business. For all the attention it received at the time and is getting again, that was not the key decision Johnson announced the night of March 31, 1968, when he also said he would not run for re-election that year.

The crucial utterance was his public fixing of a U.S. troop ceiling in Vietnam at 549,500, with the indication that the only new troops going out would be previously promised support forces.

The significance of this decision, though overwhelmed by his declaration of a partial bombing halt down to the 20th parallel in North Vietnam, was tremendous.

It meant the military's request for an additional 106,000 U.S. forces, a 40 per cent increment to those then on Vietnamese soil, had been turned down. Never before had he rejected so important a request.

This was a turning point in the war. It meant the administration had given up, perhaps forever, the idea that it could achieve its objectives in South Vietnam by steadily pouring in more ground manpower.

How and why this happened are of the utmost consequence in gauging the whole Vietnam story.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Had N.Y. State Senator Theodore Roosevelt's policies as governor of New York, the energetic Roosevelt might never have become president. To "kick him upstairs," Platt nominated him to the obscurity of the vice-presidency. The World Almanac notes. He was, however, rescued from the "honorable seclusion" of that office after the assassination of President William McKinley.

Copyright © 1970, Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Talking to Cronkite, LBJ says he initiated a study in Vietnam by Gen. Earle Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, as to future force requirements. Wheeler messaged back the bid for 206,000 more men.

Johnson also says that on Feb. 28, 1968, he issued a memorandum to the secretaries of State and Defense, ordering them to develop "recommendations" with regard to the troop request.

The language of the document, as he lays it out, calls for a broad scope inquiry into the request: What could it achieve? What would Hanoi's reaction be? What would be the response at home?

Here he comes into crashing collision with his then brand new defense secretary, Clark Clifford, and apparently many others.

His (LBJ's) directive may or may not have advised creating a task force for the inquiry. In any event, Clifford, in his famous Foreign Affairs magazine, piece of mid-1969 he was directed, as his first assignment, to head a task force to "determine how this new requirement could be met." (Contrary to suggestions in some published accounts, Clifford never claimed he initiated the review.)

His most telling written sentence is: "We were not instructed to assess the need for substantial increase in men and material, we were to devise the means by which they could be provided."

Moreover, the task force included Secretary of State Rusk, Treasury Secretary Fowler, Deputy Defense Secretary Paul Nitze, General Wheeler, CIA Director Richard Helms, and the President's own hawkish foreign affairs aide, Walt Rostow. Clifford indicates they all had exactly the same view he had as to the narrow limits of their assignment.

Former Air Force Undersecretary Townsend Hoopes, in his book, "The Limits of Intervention," backs Clifford by writing "as the principals understood it, the assignment . . . was a fairly narrow one — to give (General) Westmoreland what he said he needed. . . ."

So LBJ today accuses Clifford and Hoopes of either misrepresentation or stupidity. In Clifford's case, especially, he is impugning an old personal friend and consultant, a longtime aide and helper to several presidents, and a man of the very highest integrity, who cast the key weight in checking the war's upward spiral in 1968.

The Doctor Says

By DR. W. G. BRANDSTADT

Recovery Slow Progress In Peripheral Neuritis

Q—About a year ago, a neurologist told me I have peripheral neuritis. He prescribed vitamin B-1 but the condition seems to be progressing. Is there any cure?

A—This condition is an inflammation of one or more of the branches of one of the nerves that come out of the spinal cord. Since it has many causes — poisoning with lead, arsenic alcohol and other chemicals; infections such as diphtheria, leprosy, German measles, typhus and typhoid; pressure on the nerve by a tumor; injury; poor circulation; and a Vitamin B deficiency — there is no all-inclusive treatment. Finding the cause is the first step but recovery is often slow.

Q—I don't have a corn, bunion or callus on my feet but they hurt all the time. My doctor says it is neuritis and that nothing can be done for it. I am a borderline diabetic. Could this be the cause?

A—Poorly controlled diabetes of long standing is one cause of neuritis but borderline diabetes would not be likely to cause it. A thorough search for the cause by a specialist in diseases of the nervous system might point the way to a cure.

Q—My granddaughter, 22, has neuritis in her right arm. Could the fact that she is a chain smoker cause this?

A—A causative relationship between smoking and peripheral neuritis has been suspected in persons with a deficiency of vitamin B. But, since the vitamin deficiency alone can cause it, the smoking cannot be positively incriminated.

Q—What is the difference between neuritis and arthritis? Can one cause the other?

A—Neuritis is an inflammation of a nerve and arthritis is an inflammation of a joint. They stem from different causes and are rarely associated.

Q—What are the symptoms of calomel poisoning and what is the treatment?

A—Calomel is mercurous chloride. Although most persons can take relatively large doses without poisonous effects, its use in medicine has given way to better drugs. Some persons are sensitive to this drug and get fever, a rash and enlarged tender lymph nodes when a small dose is given. Recovery occurs when the drug is stopped but the recovery can be speeded up by giving vitamin B, calcium gluconate, sodium thiosulfate and dimercaprol (BAL) and avoiding alcohol and tobacco.

Inside Washington

$2.2 Billion Overrun — Nixon Needs New Ceiling

JOHN GOLDSMITH ROBERT ALLEN

WASHINGTON — Despite his projected budget surplus, President Nixon will have to ask Congress for relief under the tight spending limitation approved last year.

A request for an adjustment in the limitation, originally set at $19.9 billion, is expected shortly. Congressional appropriations committees are preparing to handle it routinely in a supplemental money bill.

There may be some critical flack, however. In an election year it is too much to expect that congressional Democrats will view the President's spending difficulties with non-partisan detachment and dispassionate logic.

Actually, however, Mr. Nixon's budget experts have worked fruitfully to cut federal spending in the present business year. They have been trapped by events beyond their control and by the terms of the spending limitation as Congress approved it.

When Congress approved the spending ceiling, designed to cut federal outlays by $1 billion below the administration's April estimates, it provided that budget increases or decreases approved by Congress would raise or lower the $19.9 billion ceiling.

In addition, Congress provided only a $2 billion allowance for "uncontrollables" in the federal budget. Those are the programs in which the government is committed by law to make payments at a given rate — programs such as Social Security benefits, for example, or veteran's benefits.

Both the adjustable spending ceiling and the tight rein on uncontrollables have caused trouble for Mr. Nixon's budget experts.

"EXTREMELY INADEQUATE" — In his budget presentation, the President estimated that the overall ceiling, as adjusted for subsequent congressional action, is $19.7 billion. The actual spending estimate for items under the ceiling is $19.9 billion.

The Bureau of the Budget says all of the $2.2 billion overrun is wholly attributable to increases in those "uncontrollables."

"Thus the $2 billion allowance for designated uncontrollable increases is proving to be extremely inadequate. Outlays for all programs covered by the allowance are now estimated to be $4.3 billion higher than in April and $2.3 billion above the amount permitted in the law," the budget document declares.

"Outlays for other programs are actually running at a level no more than $100 million below the ceiling. This is a leeway equal to one twentieth of one per cent of total budget outlays, hardly any margin at all," says the Budget Bureau.

PENTAGON NO HELP — Oddy, the economy moves in the Pentagon, which were spearheaded by Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird, are no help to the President under the congressional spending ceiling.

Laird was responsible for about $5 billion worth of cuts in defense appropriations. They resulted in about $3 billion worth of spending reductions in the current year.

For example, the Secretary canceled the Air Force MOL — the manned orbiting laboratory in space — and vetoed procurement plans for the Army's Cheyenne helicopter. He also began cutting the overall strength of the armed services with resulting savings below budget estimates.

In all those instances, however, Laird let his desires be known to congressional appropriations committees. The secretary didn't make formal adjustments in the administration's budget submissions for the current year.

Congress made the cuts recommended by Laird and added a few hundred million in additional economies. Congressional leaders claimed credit, of course, for the whole parcel of defense department cuts, including those recommended by the secretary.

Under the adjustable budget ceiling, those congressional cuts correspondingly reduced the spending limit. The action of Congress, as noted by the Budget Bureau, erased the leeway which might have made it possible "for the administration to slide under the ceiling which Congress had previously applied."

Thus the Pentagon's economy campaign was a handicap, for the administration's attempt to live with the spending ceiling.

That explanation will now be quickly forgotten by Democratic critics, who will take as their texts the recent hints by such administration experts as Budget Director Robert P. Mayo that the narrow $1.3 billion surplus for the new budget year may not materialize after all.

Question Box

(We invite questions on economics and the proper functions of government which will not injure anyone.)

QUESTION:—Do closed shop labor unions help promote communism? If so, how?

ANSWER: Yes, they do. Under communism, all individuals are deprived of the right to make their own decisions concerning their own lives since the state controls and regulates all activities. Labor unions help to promote communism inasmuch as they, too, deprive individuals of their right to make their own decisions. Closed shop labor unions have the power to fine a man, expel him, and make him do what they want done or make him lose his job.

The great trouble with closed shop labor unions is that they ployer of the right to select the help and the right to promote on merit rather than on seniority, and this reduces incentive. Anything that tends to reduce incentive will retard production. The result is that we grow more like a communist organization where individual incentive and decision making are eliminated and the big boss determines what each person shall do.

If it weren't for the laws made by Congress which elevate the labor unions to a position of special privilege, they would not be able to promote communism. But Congress has made it legal for the unions to do what is a crime for the employer to do. The unions can combine to create a monopoly and to set prices.

If employers were to do this, it would be a violation of the law and they'd be prosecuted; but the unions are protected and encouraged to do the very same thing.

When unions can use their position of legal special privilege to exert an arbitrary, unearned, high wage, they are diverting wealth from savings or capital into consumption. This retards the accumulation or improvement of tools, which in turn keeps down production and employment. Thus our standard of living goes down, just as it does in Communist territories.

SEND NO MONEY—BUT MAIL YOUR ENROLLMENT FORM BY MIDNIGHT, THURS., Feb. 26, 1970 OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

Out of two families will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family—tomorrow... next week... next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have doubled in just a few short years. They are expected to double again in the few years ahead.

Stop for a moment. Think how such a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept coming on the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average headwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in the famous Extra Cash Plan that...

Pays you $400.00-a-month tax-free cash whenever you are hospitalized.

What a blessing it is when you know you have an extra $400.00 cash coming in every month—beginning the very first day you enter the hospital.

Now, this low-cost Plan, from National Home, enables you to enjoy this protection at once, FREE. Yes, we will provide the first month's coverage for your entire family without cost... to prove the value of this wonderful extra-cash protection for you and your loved ones. Then, if you wish, you may continue at the low rates shown below.

The added protection you NEED!

All benefits of this $400.00-A-MONTH National Health Plan are paid directly to you, in tax-free cash, in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other company! Spend the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctor bills, mortgage payments, to replace savings—or any necessary but costly extra cash—covered fully by usual hospital policies.

Everything costs more these days (need we tell you?) and hospital care is certainly no exception! While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most have found it does not cover all bills that pile up when sickness or accident strikes. That's why National Home developed low-cost Extra-Cash Protection that helps you pay hospital costs or other expenses.

You get your $400.00 per month TAX FREE from your first day in the hospital, and as long as you are confined there, even for life, if necessary. And, when you and your insured spouse are hospitalized at the same time for an accidental injury, this National Health Plan pays you an EXTRAORDINARY DOUBLE-CASH BENEFIT. You receive not $400.00 but $800.00 a month. Your spouse receives not $400.00 but $800.00 a month. That's $1,600.00 in all, in cash payments to you (when under age 65) every month starting the day you go to the hospital for as long as you both remain there.

- PAYS $400.00-A-MONTH CASH for each accident or illness—beginning the very first day in the hospital and continuing for life, if necessary!
- PAYS $200.00-A-MONTH CASH for the first three months, if you're over 65. And, a full $400.00-A-MONTH CASH thereafter—even for life!
- PAYS $1,600.00-A-MONTH CASH when both husband and wife are hospitalized at the same time (when under age 65) for accidental injury for as long as both remain in the hospital—even for life!
- PAYS up to $2,000.00 CASH for complete accidental loss of limbs or eyesight.
- PAYS $400-A-MONTH CASH for each pregnancy requiring a hospital stay, when both husband and wife are insured and have coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits. Coverage begins the very first day in the hospital.
- PAYS $400.00-A-MONTH CASH for a Registered Nurse if your doctor has you hire one within five days following a covered hospital confinement of five days or more.

65 OR OVER? YOU COLLECT IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE BENEFITS.

We have designed this Plan as the important addition to whatever is paid by Medicare—or health insurance you may have with any other company. Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you (not to the doctor or hospital) to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most. Use the tax-free cash any way you see fit. And you will be glad to know the checks will be big ones! In addition to any benefits you may receive from Medicare, National Home pays you $200.00 a month for the first 3 months, and a full $400.00 monthly while hospitalized thereafter... even for life, if necessary!

We can never cancel your Policy!

You can count on this wonderful protection no matter how old you get or how many times you collect from us. Your Policy guarantees that we cannot cancel your protection after you've made a lot of claims or become old—or for any other reason whatsoever. It is GUARANTEED RENEWABLE FOR LIFE! And that's not all. Suppose you have a growing family, this Plan (NH-10-609)...

Pays you $400.00-a-month cash Maternity Benefits!

Ordinary hospital insurance may take care of part of your expenses when you go to the hospital to have a baby. But what about the things you need for the new baby? When both parents along with their dependent children are covered by this Plan, a Maternity Benefit can be added to your basic Policy. Now, if both husband and wife are insured, you get extra cash to use any way you wish. If a pregnancy, childbirth or even miscarriage puts you in the hospital for one day, five days, 10 days—as long as necessary—you are paid for every day of your confinement at the rate of $400.00 a month.

All these added cash benefits.

Added cash benefit up to $2,000.00 cash for accidental loss of limbs or eyesight, when the loss occurs any time within 90 days of the accident. The loss of a limb or eyesight is terrible. Nothing can replace the loss, but a $1,000.00 or $2,000.00 check helps bring peace of mind during the period of adjustment.

Added cash benefit: Coverage for Children (with or without Maternity Benefits) and all your dependent, unmarried children from age one month through 18 years will be covered, too! National Home pays at the rate of $240.00 a month, when your youngster is hospitalized... for removal of tonsils, appendix or any other illness or injury. Yes, you will receive $240.00-a-month cash, month after month, while the child is in the hospital.

Added cash benefit: If your doctor says you need a Registered Nurse full-time within five days after you come home and such a nurse is actually employed, we'll pay you benefits of $400.00 a month. These extra benefits continue for the same number of days that you were in the hospital—even up to 12 full months and total payments of $4,800.00!

We pay your premiums when you are not able.

Should you—the person to whom the basic Policy is issued—be hospitalized for 8 weeks or more, National Home will pay all premiums that come due for you and all Covered Members of your family while you are confined to the hospital beyond the initial 8-week period. Then, if you leave the hospital and must return for the same condition before you have resumed full normal activities for 90 days, we will again PAY ANY PREMIUMS WHILE YOU ARE IN THE HOSPITAL for the total confinement! This means you pay no premiums, yet your full protection remains in force.

These are the ONLY exclusions!

Your National Health Plan Policy covers every kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by: act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your Policy... during the first 2 years only.

This last item is a real help if you already have a health problem. If you are sick before you take out this Policy, you will even be covered for that condition after the Policy has been in effect for 2 years. Meanwhile, of course, every new condition is covered immediately.

Nationally known and respected.

This is the kind of outstanding protection you have read about in Reader's Digest, Parents', National Geographic and other leading publications. The special plans offered by the National Liberty Corporation group of companies are today helping policyowners in all 50 states—and many foreign countries—paying benefits at the rate of more than one million dollars a month.

Grateful Policyowners write...

"Received your check for $880.00. I appreciate having the money sent directly to me so I could decide how to use it."
NICHOLAS CRIST, Green Bay, Wis.

"It was wonderful to receive your check for $555.00. I'm very pleased. It paid real well."
MRS. BESSIE GEISINGER, Kansas City, Mo.

"Everyone should have your coverage. I know I wouldn't be without it."
WALTER TUCKER, Fayetteville, N.C.

Make your decision carefully.

Think how costly a hospital confinement will be. Imagine paying for those indispensable doctor, surgical and nursing services that are not covered by your present insurance.

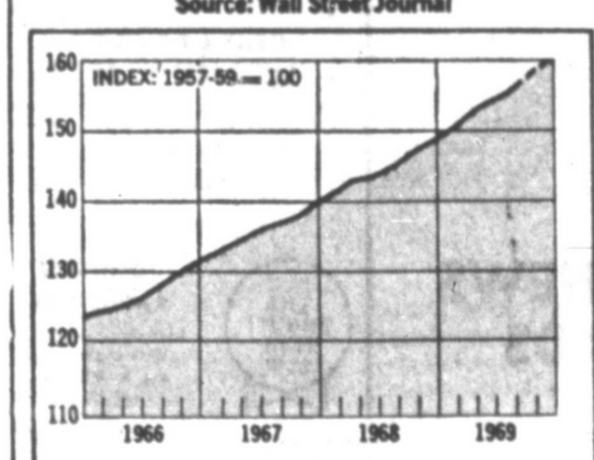

Would you be able to afford the quiet and privacy of a private room and a private nurse, should you so desire? Or a telephone to keep in touch with loved ones? Or the rental of a TV set to help pass the lonely hours? Who would pay your bills that keep on coming in at home? Many folks have lost their life savings, their cars, even their homes trying to meet runaway hospital and medical costs. And no one knows whose turn it will be next.

Why you must act before the date shown on your Enrollment Form—just a few days from today.

Why do we give you so little time to enroll in this Plan—only a few days? Because this is a limited Enrollment Period—and we must receive your Enrollment Form at the same time as all the others in order to pass on to you the savings that come from processing many policies at one time. This highly efficient "mass enrollment" method enables us to give you the broadest coverage at the lowest cost.

We mail you the Policy as soon as we receive your Enrollment Form. When the Policy arrives, examine it in the privacy of your own home. Take all the time you need. It's a very short document, and you'll be pleasantly surprised to discover there is NO FINE PRINT. Then—show it, if you wish, to someone you trust. Perhaps your lawyer, accountant or doctor. Better still—show it to your own insurance man... even though he may be working for another company! If he is a personal friend, has your best interests in mind. So you can believe him when he tells you there is no better bargain available anywhere—at any price!

Medical Costs Skyrocketing!

HERE ARE YOUR LOW RATES.

The following rate chart shows how little it costs, after the first month, to protect yourself, your spouse or any other adult dependent. Each adult, if over, pays the rate shown for his or her age. Naturally, at these low rates, we can issue you only one policy of this type.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium per Adult
16-44	only $3.45
45-49	only $3.95
50-54	only $4.45
55-59	only $4.95
60-64	only $5.45
65-69	only $5.95
70-74	only $6.45
75-79	only $6.95
80 and over	only $7.45

Only $1.90 more per month covers all your dependents...

from the age of one month through 18 years. And then if you wish, just add 85¢ monthly to that, and you're covered for Maternity Benefits, too! Newborn children are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost!

NOTE: The regular monthly premium shown here (for age at time of enrollment) is the same low premium you will continue to pay as time automatically increases as you pass from one age bracket to the next. Once you have enrolled in the National Health Plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state.

Act NOW—'Later' May Be Too Late!

Your family is protected for entire first month—FREE! TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly. (No salesman will call.) Get your Enrollment Form into the mail today—because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any cost. That's why we urge you to act today—before anything unexpected happens.

THESE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Tell how this National Home's EXTRA CASH HOSPITAL PLAN gives you the protection you need—at amazingly low cost!

- How much will my Policy pay me when I go to the hospital?
$400.00 per month. If you're over 65, you collect on top of any Medicare benefits. $200.00 a month for the first 3 months, and $400.00 monthly while you remain continuously hospitalized thereafter. You collect cash not just for yourself, but for all Covered Members of your family when they are hospitalized.
- If I'm hospitalized less than a month—do you still pay cash benefits?
Yes! We pay you for every day you're in the hospital. And there's no "waiting period" before you start collecting.
- When do I collect $2,000.00 extra cash for accidents?
We pay you $1,000.00 extra cash for complete accidental loss of one hand or one foot or sight of one eye, and $2,000.00 extra cash for loss of both hands or both feet or sight of both eyes—even if the loss occurs as long as 3 months after the accident.
- Suppose I am hospitalized for any sickness or accident. What happens if I am again hospitalized for the same condition?
Don't worry! You still collect the regular cash benefits provided by your Policy for as long as your confinement lasts.
- Will you pay $400.00-a-month—even for maternity care?
Yes! Many health plans don't cover pregnancy. But we do, when both parents are enrolled and have added Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits to the basic Plan. You collect cash benefits at the rate of $400.00 a month for any pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in a hospital stay.
- Do you pay me cash when my children go to the hospital? Will any children we have in the future be protected, too?
You collect $240.00-a-month cash any time your child goes to the hospital, when coverage for Children is added to the basic Plan... each time any dependent, unmarried child (age 1 month through 18 years) is in the hospital for sickness or injury. And if you have a growing family—as soon as your newborn child is one month old, he, too, is covered—automatically... at no additional cost to you.
- May I enroll if I am 65 or over?
Yes, you may. Folks any age are welcome to enroll—there is no age limit! Members 65 or over—over 100—are paid $200.00 a month for the first three months, and a full $400.00 a month thereafter. Naturally, it's in addition to Medicare.
- Am I ever allowed to stop paying premiums during a long stay in the hospital—yet still remain fully covered?
Yes, you are! Should you—the person to whom the basic Policy is issued—be hospitalized for 8 weeks or more, this National Health Plan will pay all premiums that come due for you and all Covered Members of your family while you are confined to the hospital beyond the initial 8-week period. You aren't expected to pay us back, either.
- How do I go about submitting a claim?
We invite you to contact Cash Benefits Headquarters direct. Whether you want to submit a claim or just ask us a question, don't hesitate to contact us. As a National Health Plan member, you are entitled to prompt, courteous and direct attention at all times... and you will get it.
- Does this Plan pay in any hospital?
You will be covered in the hospital of your choice except a U.S. Government hospital or a nursing or convalescent facility.
- How do I know what the "catch"—what doesn't my Policy cover?
Get ready for a welcome surprise. Your Policy covers every-thing except conditions caused by: act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your Policy—but even this last "exclusion" is done away with after you've been a policyowner for one year. Everything else is definitely covered!
- What are the requirements to enroll in this Extra Cash Hospital Plan?
You must not have been refused or had cancelled any health, hospital or life insurance due to reasons of health, and, to qualify during this Enrollment Period—you must enroll before midnight of the date shown on the Enrollment Form.
- Besides saving money—are there any other advantages of joining National Health Plan during this Enrollment Period?
Yes. A very important one is that you don't need to complete a lengthy, detailed application—just the brief Enrollment Form in the corner of this page. Also, during this Enrollment Period there are no extra requirements for eligibility, and no "waiting" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your Policy!
- How do I enroll?
Send no money. The first month's protection for your entire family is FREE! Simply complete and mail the brief Enrollment Form to: National Health Plan, Valley Forge, Pa. 19481.
