What Do You
Think Of College Riots?

JOE STEVENS, West Texas State University, Canyon: "I think they have little value and go to extremes."

STEVE BAILEY, Pampa High School, 705 Bradley Drive: "When a student is accepted by a college, he should abide by the rules."

TERRY WILLIAMS, 615 S. Tignor, WTSU: "I think they are started by communist organizations and should be stopped."

Drug Raids Smash Narcotics Network

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Coordinating raids in 10 cities from coast to coast, the FBI has smashed what it called the nation's biggest narcotics operation.

Federal agents pressed a search today for 63 persons who eluded the weekend dragnet. The FBI said it arrested 127 persons Saturday night and early Sunday, critically wounding two, including alleged kingpin Allen Eric Rudd-Marrero, 29, in his home in Coral Gables, Fla.

Federal authorities said 350 agents involved in the raids seized narcotics worth about 2.6 million on the retail market, along with $19,875 in cash, 23 cars and 14 weapons. In a six-month investigation leading up to the arrests, another $5.1 million in drugs was confiscated. They termed the total seizure the largest on record.

"This is the biggest operation of its kind in history," Mitchell said.

Other investigation still are under way, he said, and further raids "undoubtedly" will be made.

"These arrests will diminish the flow of hard narcotics into and within the United States," Mitchell said. "By concentrating on the wholesale dealers, we believe we can interdict supplies sufficiently to curb addiction, particularly among the young people."

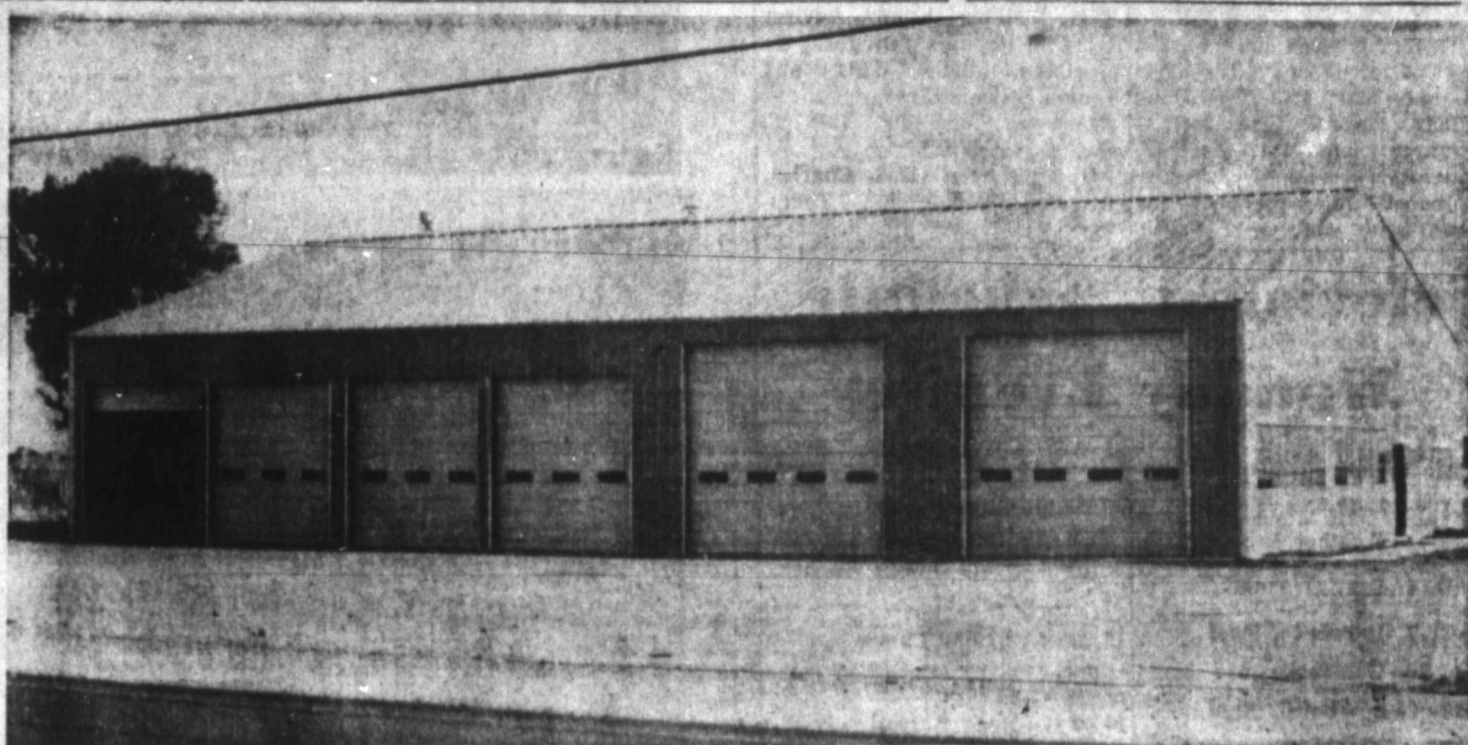

John E. Ingersoll, director of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, told newsmen most of those arrested, including five men he described as "principal subjects" of the narcotics network, were Cuban exiles.

He said they were leaders in a wholesale narcotics federation that dealt in about 30 per cent of all heroin sold in the United States and 75 to 80 per cent of all cocaine.

Agents conducted the raids at 10 p.m. EDT Saturday and 3 a.m. Sunday, seizing most of the suspects in their homes. Most of the arrests were in New York, Miami and Chicago. Others were made in Hartford, Conn.; Washington, D.C.; Los Angeles; Newark, N.J.; Pittsburgh; New Orleans, and San Juan, Puerto Rico.

"It will take a long, long time, if ever, to restructure this operation," Mitchell said.

Three of the suspects attempted to shoot it out with arresting agents and two were wounded critically. They were identified as Rudd-Marrero, who owns a Puerto Rican nightclub, and Esteban Mendonza Orama, of Lomita, Calif., who was shot on a New York City street as he and another man attempted to flee in a car.

NEAR CHICAGO

City Residents Flee Holocaust After 12 Tank Cars Explode

CRESCENT CITY, Ill. (UPI)—Crescent city's 800 residents lived quietly 80 miles south of Chicago's Loop. Even their three-block business district had a low profile, as they say.

Today the town was empty, its people fled from a holocaust of flame and exploding gas. And the business district had an even lower profile. It was gone.

A 108-car Toledo, Peoria & Western Railroad train rumbled through town Sunday morning. It derailed at about 6:15 a.m. Tank cars carrying liquid propane bumped along and began burning. About 7:30 a.m. an explosion involving three tank cars sent a fireball 1,000 feet above Crescent City.

In all, 12 tank cars exploded, destroying downtown and some 15 homes. At least 70 persons were injured and nine hospitalized. Damage was estimated at $2 million.

The cause of the derailment was not officially given, but state police reported somebody sighted a "flaming hotbox" at Gilman, Ill., six miles west of Crescent City. Fire Department Capt. Orvel Carlson—one of the nine persons hospitalized—said he would check into a "possible violation" by the railroad for having tank cars carrying dangerous material hooked together instead of separated through the train.

"I felt like I was on fire. It was like standing in front of a bright red blow torch," Korstick said. He "just rolled and rolled" until he stopped behind a charred section of tank car.

Korstick was taken to the Crescent Hospital, about three miles from the scene. While he was looking back at the city, another tank car blew and another fireball rose. "It appeared to be that of an atom bomb," he said.

Great Iron Horse Bites Dust, Files Bankruptcy

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Rebuffed when it sought a $200 million federal loan to shore its deteriorating finances, the nation's largest railroad, the Penn Central, has filed for reorganization under the Bankruptcy Act.

The railroad, which carries 100,000 commuters daily, lost $62.7 million in the first three months of 1970 and $193 million in 1969. Company spokesmen said bankruptcy would not affect passenger or freight service. All 94,000 of the firm's employees were ordered to continue work.

The action Sunday will prevent the company's creditors from moving for immediate collection of debts pending appointment by a federal judge of trustees to run the firm's affairs.

The petition was the opposite of a normal bankruptcy proceeding. Usually all properties and assets of a bankrupt firm are turned into cash and distributed among the creditors.

Under Section 77 of the Federal Bankruptcy Act, however, covering only railroads, a trusteeship is set up to adjust the line's debts, preserve its properties and keep it operating.

"The court order permits Penn Central Transportation Company to retain possession of and continue operation of the railroad system and to conduct other normal business, pending the appointment of trustees by the court," the firm said in a 25-line statement.

The firm filed for reorganization when the last hope faded for the federal government to come up with a previously promised guarantee for a $200 million loan.

The Nixon administration originally promised to guarantee the loan through the Pentagon but did an about-face Friday when lawmakers balked at government bailing out private industry.

Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., chairman of the House Banking Committee, expressed concern taxpayers would be short-changed if the firm went broke.

The Penn Central appeal for a government loan followed the firm's failure last month to float a $100-million debenture despite offering a huge 11.5 per cent interest. With confidence in the giant utility shaken on Wall Street, Penn Central could not refinance its short-term indebtedness as the loans came due for payment, and was forced to seek the federal assistance.

Election Recount Asked By Cates

Phil Cates, Lerors, a Democratic candidate for State Representative from the 79th Legislative District, announced today he has requested a recount of votes cast in the June 6 runoff election.

In a prepared press release, Cates said he believed he had an obligation to his campaign workers to ask for the recount.

Cates was unofficially announced as the winner in the runoff against Ray Trosper of Higgins. Last week, however, a canvass of vote by the State Democratic Executive Committee in Austin found discrepancies in the vote tabulation and declared Trosper the winner by a small margin.

In his statement, Cates said, "... both my opponent and I have now tasted victory and defeat in the same election and I believe if such a change can be made in one small precinct it is entirely possible that in other counties other larger changes are possible."

Cates said the recount is being requested in accordance with Article 9.38A of the Texas Election Code.

Soviets Offer Loan To Communist China

LONDON (UPI)—The Soviet Union has offered Communist China a loan in the billion-dollar range in an apparent attempt to repair the Sino-Soviet rift, authoritative diplomatic sources said today. But Peking has rejected the offer.

The sources said the loan was offered as a basis for resumption of major Soviet economic assistance and trade with China. Such trade once dominated Peking's foreign economic relations, but it has shrunk to little more than a trickle since the Sino-Soviet split.

Despite the fact the Soviet Union and China are continuing talks in Peking on their border dispute, the diplomatic sources said relations between Moscow and Peking are worsening steadily. The Soviet loan offer was viewed as virtually a last resort to lure Peking into improving relations.

Authoritative Communist diplomatic sources described the border talk, which began last year, as simply a "dialogue of the deaf" that have produced neither progress toward settling the dispute nor closer ties between the world's principal Communist governments.

The government of Chairman Mao Tse-tung apparently is not interested in any settlement with Moscow, whose leadership it mistrusts and has accused of straying from the pure Marxist-Leninist party line and of

Continuance Given In Malone Trial

LUBBOCK (Staff)—A continuance has been granted in the Dr. James F. Malone trial docketed today in Lubbock County Court 2.

Dr. Malone pleaded innocent to a morals charge lodged against him in mid-September by an undercover agent employed by the Texas Technological University's security police.

The charge followed numerous other arrests made during the week following several weeks of surveillance on the campus by an undercover agent.

Dr. Malone had pleaded nolo contendere, but in October that plea was overturned and a plea of innocent was entered.

In granting the continuance, Lubbock County Judge Denzil Beavers said the case was postponed indefinitely until the United States Supreme Court rules on the constitutionality of obscenity laws now on the books.

In October, 1969, a Texas federal court ruled that Texas vagrancy by lewdness statute is unconstitutional. A three-man federal court in San Antonio ruled by a vote of 2 to 1 that the vagrancy by lewdness statute is null and void because it is unclear as to the legal meaning of the term "lewdness."

'Ahhh-ooo-eee, Ahhh-ooo-eee, Ahhh-ooo-eee,' He Hollers

SPIVEY'S CORNER, N. C. (UPI)—A hog farmer dressed in bib overalls cutting loose with a yell resembling a cross between Tarzan's mating call and a fast freight train Saturday won the 1970 National Hollerin' Championship.

"Ahhh-ooo-eee, Ahhh-ooo-eee, Ahhh-ooo-eee," hollered H. H. Oliver, a tall and lean veteran of 61, his voice gaining range and volume to roar beyond a sweltering crowd of 2,500 gathered to hear the contest.

Then to show the crowd at the second annual National Hollerin' Championship that he was no Johnny-one note, Oliver ran through a variety of yells once used in this rural tobacco country in the place of telephones.

"I feel pretty good," said Oliver after five judges proclaimed him the best of the lung busters who had gathered at this dusty crossroads from as far away as Texas and Washington state.

"I don't mean to brag but I had confidence in myself, I had been practicing all during the week."

Oliver, of Goldsboro, N.C., and already a regional champ, said he learned to holler as a boy and had kept it up seriously for 40 years. But it took a little bit of urging to get him to enter the contest.

Women Credited

"The women folks pushed me into it," Oliver said.

Oliver succeeds dairy farmer Dewey Jackson of Roseboro, N.C., who wasn't eligible to succeed himself.

Jackson, nevertheless, gave an exhibition of his "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" yell that won the title last year.

The crowd, standing in 95-degree heat, gave Jackson an ovation and cheered again when he passed a trophy on to Oliver.

Oliver beat out 28 other contestants who took their turn on an improvised stage fashioned from the back of a flatbed truck. There were Rebel yells, Indian war whoops, Army

Five Injured In Plane Crash In Fort Worth

FORT WORTH (UPI)—A private plane smashed into two trees Sunday while it was taking off from the Manahan Air Port. The accident injured five members of a Tarrant County family.

Witnesses said Wilbur Mitchell appeared to have attempted to cut his engines when he saw he did not have enough runway for his takeoff. The plane clipped one tree and smashed into another one. The second tree rammed the right wing into the cabin.

It was believed Mitchell borrowed the plane to take his family on a sightseeing trip. Mitchell, 45, was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in critical condition with chest injuries. Susan Mitchell, a 13-year-old daughter, was in poor condition. Mitchell's wife Beverly and two other daughters, Julia, 11, and Becky, 6, were injured but not critically.

Paul D. Stowe, a flight instructor at the airport, said he saw the plane veer off one side of the runway, crash through a fence and into the trees.

"It looked like they were trying to abort the takeoff," Stowe said. "We pulled the couple and their children from the wreckage. Fortunately it didn't burst into flames."

Brewer Resigns Police Post To Go With Sheriff

Patrolman Joe Brewer, a 21-year veteran of the Pampa Police Department, has resigned to accept a position as a Gray County deputy sheriff.

Police Chief Jim Conner said Brewer's resignation will become effective Tuesday. He will join the sheriff's department as a field deputy July 15.

Brewer joined the police department in October, 1948. He resigned for short periods of time in 1951 and 1953.

Sheriff Rufe Jordan said Brewer will fill a vacancy created by the resignation of Deputy C. L. Wallace in April.

WRONG ELECTION PICK

LEEDS, England (UPI)—A Leeds businessman lost $48,000 on a bet labor would win the general election, Ladbroke's betting office said.

The office said the loss was the largest in the betting throughout Britain, which brought $1.79 million to Ladbroke, and $1.68 million to William Hill's betting office.

The man was unidentified.

ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

Miss Kathryn Tandy Judice

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Judice of Perryton announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Kathryn Tandy to Alan Craig Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thompson of Miami. Vows will be repeated July 18 in Perryton's First Christian Church. The bride-elect attended Transylvania College in Lexington, Ky., where she was a member of Phi Mu, national social sorority; attended University of Hawaii; and was graduated from West Texas State University. She is presently teaching in the Miami public schools. Her fiance attended Texas A&M and is presently engaged in ranching at Miami.

Fall Millinery Goes High-Hat As Milady's Skirt Lengths Go Down

NEW YORK (UPI)—Skirt lengths go down for fall, but heads go high hat for the new season. Crowns are tall, taller, tallest.

"This fall marks a tremendous change in the fashion environment," said the Millinery Institute of America. "Elegance is epitomized in the grace of the 'longuette' and hats take their place as a major contributor to the new elegance."

The institute made its style points in its "Environment '78" collection for fall, shown Tuesday to the nation's fashion reporters. The institute show was one of the openers of the 10 days of semi-annual "press week" in which representatives of press, radio and television will report on the new in all phases of ready-to-wear.

Hats included straight Spanish and gaucho-like shapes, sweeping cavalier brimmed numbers, flurry furs, and crocheted and knitted caps. Designers included Adolfo, Skolnips, Miss Alice, Betmar, Chesterfield, Lady Knox Frank

Dear Abby

by Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Some time ago you ran some letters pertaining to breast-feeding which interested me because I have long held a theory on that subject.

I am convinced that female homosexuality (lesbianism) is caused by breast-feeding. It is a known fact that infants derive an erotic pleasure from breast-feeding. For a boy baby this is natural and good, but for a girl baby to develop an erotic interest in the breast of another female is unnatural and I think leads to lesbianism.

Therefore, it stands to reason that if all girl babies were put on bottles and nipples, and only boy babies were breast-fed, lesbianism could be eliminated.

I am not a doctor, but I have done extensive reading and research on this subject. I am a 39-year-old bachelor and I am not crazy.

BUFFALO THEORIST

DEAR THEORIST: You may not be "crazy," but your theory sounds crazy to me. For thousands of years before the invention of bottles and nipples, all babies were breast-fed. If this caused lesbianism in women, how could the human race have survived with only normal males and lesbians?

Also, how do you account for breast-fed boy babies who turn out to be rip-roaring homosexuals? Sorry, your "theory" doesn't hold water. (Or MILK)

DEAR ABBY: My mother who lives in another state is a regular churchgoer. She recently sent me a letter she had written anonymously to her pastor. It was placed in an unsealed envelope, addressed and stamped. She gave me permission to read it and requested that I seal it and mail it from MY town, so it wouldn't have HER hometown postmark on it.

Abby, I read the letter and was astounded at my mother's pettiness. In it she tells the pastor that he should please quit using the word "IRREGARDLESS" in his sermons as there is no such word. And she also points out that he has used it in his church bulletins. I would rather not mail this letter for her, and would appreciate your views on the matter.

HER DAUGHTER

DEAR DAUGHTER: Write to your mother and inform her that she is in error because although "IRREGARDLESS" is not considered "good usage," there IS indeed such a word, and it can be found in Webster's dictionary.

DEAR ABBY: Thank you for defending "dieters" who try to stick to their diets when they are guests at the table of a friend.

That problem is only too familiar to me because I am allergic to many foods.

I find it terribly embarrassing when my hostess remarks loudly, "Is something the matter with the strawberry shortcake? You haven't even touched it!" (Strawberries give me hives.)

The same hostess would never scold a guest she knew was an alcoholic for turning down her wine.

ALLERGIC

DEAR ALLERGIC: You make a good point.

THE CHAPEL of First Baptist Church was the scene of wedding vows exchanged by Miss Jacquelyn Sue Howard and Marion Eugene Hess on May 29 at 7:30 in the evening. Miss Howard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roy Howard of Woodward, Okla. and former Pampa residents. Mr. Hess' parents are Mrs. Ivan Hess of Amarillo and the late Mr. Hess. The couple is making their home at 5680 Peoria Apt. 206 in Tulsa, Okla.

DKG Members Represent Chapters At State Meeting In Galveston

Six members from the Pampa and Panhandle chapters attended the Delta Kappa Gamma state convention in Galveston last week. Representing Theta Delta chapter were Mrs. Mildred Sullivan, area director; Mrs. Exie Vantine, incoming first vice-president and program chairman; Miss Claudia Everly, and Mrs. Clementine Morgan of Panhandle, outgoing president. From Beta Delta chapter were Mrs. Wilsam Hill, incoming president, and Miss Mary Reeve.

Thursday's activities centered around a Leadership conference, at which Mrs. Sullivan directed a workshop for the presidents of chapters in her area, which includes the 29 counties of the Panhandle and upper north Texas.

Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Morgan, and Mrs. Hill participated in the planning session for the fall regional meetings. Pampa chapters will attend a meeting at Clarendon, October 9, 1978, at which Mrs. Evelyn Laney, Amarillo, and Dr. Madge Davis, Wichita Falls, will be co-directors. Mrs. Sullivan will be the speaker at the regional meeting in Plainview, October 16, with Mrs. Velma Weaver, Dumas, as co-director.

Mrs. Sullivan also joined the other members of the state executive board in planning the state convention to be held in Amarillo June 10-13, 1978.

Miss Frances White of Port Arthur, sister of Mrs. Julian Key, is president of the state organization and presided at all business sessions.

Miss Norma Ewing of Panhandle, a teacher in the Galveston schools, was co-chairman of the convention along with Miss Yvette Rosenthal of Galveston.

Mrs. Helen James of Long Beach, Calif., Southwest Regional Director, was the

YOUR HOROSCOPE

By JEANE DIXON
TUESDAY, JUNE 23

Your birthday today: Sometime in the coming year you will have the adventure of making a fresh start. If you are now in a down-spiral, it will increase until you make sweeping changes. If you are prayerfully seeking the way upward, this year will bring self-fulfillment. Material matters are of no serious concern. Today's natives approach life with equanimity. Most are very nice people to know.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Your mind is open, and big ideas may be close to the truth. You have a rare opportunity to do something unusual that improves your home.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Delay and confusion arouses your spirit and your will to achieve. Your performance goes well and calls for a bit of a celebration tonight.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Look for more information during the morning. If the time is wasted, it's still no loss. The afternoon and evening can be successful and interesting.

CANCER (June 21-July 21): Something you learned some time ago from someone now far away crops up in discussions and is very helpful. Make important decisions later in the day.

LEO (July 22-Aug. 22): Your projects now attract attention and perhaps active support from important people. Give everybody plenty of time, close your deals late in the day.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): The less you say today the less likely you are to encounter misunderstandings. What you do say should be to the point, in plain language.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Find out more details before you accept the glowing reports of the morning. The story is quite different and more truthful by the time evening arrives.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Your ideas on family affairs don't turn out to be very practical because of change and growth beyond your expectations. Stick with that which proves useful.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Family matters are turbulent, perhaps noisy. By the end of the day some issues will be settled. The latter part of the day is important for trouble-shooting, error-correction.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Watch and learn today rather than plunge into experimental activities. Your friends are all on the move now—try not to let contacts lapse.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): At the present your tendency is to jump to conclusions. Circumstances are not so readily evaluated this morning—Be systematic and thorough.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): The day is full of secret deals which are likely to defeat themselves. Stay away from needless involvement, disregard gossip. You have plenty to say later.

TO WED IN AUGUST

Miss Karen Myrle Sidwell, 1344 Williston, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Karen Myrle, to Glenn Russell Wimberly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd R. Wimberly of Midland. Wedding vows will be solemnized Aug. 18 in Pampa's First Presbyterian Church. The bride-elect graduated from Pampa High School in 1967, attended Stephen F. Austin College in Nacogdoches for two years and is presently enrolled in Commercial College of Lubbock. Her fiance graduated from Crane High School in 1963; and from Baylor University with a bachelor of science degree in biology and chemistry in 1968. He attended graduate school at Texas Tech University.

Massive Jewelry To Make Appearance On Fall Scene

NEW YORK (UPI)—The little jewelry box goes the way of the mini for fall and winter. For the upcoming midi skirt era, jewelry makers are advancing massive, bulky adornments for females. A jewelry wardrobe to match the midi mood probably would fit best in a foot locker.

Take love cuffs. These his-and-her bracelets are the size of handcuffs, gold for her and silver for him. They're separated but have locks which open with inter-changeable keys. Designer Stanley Hagler, showing the love cuffs at the accessories held in conjunction with the New York Couture Business Council's 55th national "press week," showed other things that call for large storage space.

A knight's hood, for example. This stainless steel helmet, possibly insurance against a mugging, costs $50. Speaking of hair, one wig development calls for moving in larger wig boxes. Walter Fontaine, designer of a shoulder-wide curly wig, offered it in fantasy colors such as paintbox orange, blue, and green. Into the washer they go when soiled.

Fontaine feels such wigs give a woman a chance to express a colorful mood in these times when society is tense and pensive.

Not only is insurance planned and recommended by the company, but financing is also available.

For this reason, Allstate Insurance Co. urges any prospective automobile buyer to explore all avenues of financing. Compare the cost of coverage offered by local auto dealers, banks, reputable insurance agents and firms in the area.

And finally, check into Allstate's Econ-Rate Finance. First, establish credit through any Allstate agent located in a Sear's store or neighborhood office.

Once credit is established, a membership card is issued and the buyer will have Econ-Rate financing without further credit references for six months.

When the customer is ready to buy, finds out the exact price of the car-exclusive of insurance or financing. Then he visits the Allstate agent whose name appears on the membership card.

The agent will take over from there, showing the client how to save money on the deal.

The new car owner then picks up his money, pays the dealer, and drives away in a brand new car.

Also offered by the company are policies to cover Mortgage Cancellation Plan, College and Career Plan, Starter Life Insurance, and a variety of other ways to help both the young and established family.

New Fabrics Added To Stock At Summers

Summer's Upholstery Shop, 2236 N. Dwight, has announced the addition of two new fabrics to their stock.

Mrs. Carl Summers, owner and manager, said the new material is Olefin fabric and Polyester.

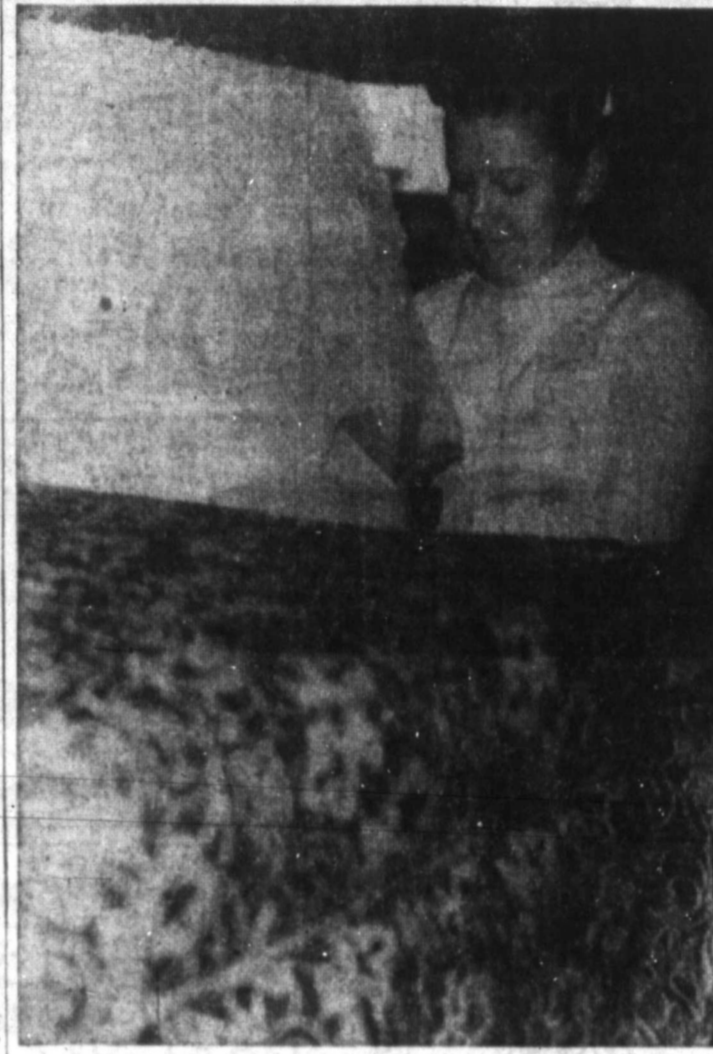

The new fabrics, as well as the old stock, are treated with Scotchguard to prevent soiling. Scotchguard helps the fabric resist oil and water spotting, making it easier to clean.

In highlighting one of the many fabric carried by the shop, Mrs. Summers noted that the fabric had been tested by the manufacturer by dropping a 250 pound mechanical man on the fabric 6,000 times. After this strenuous test, Mrs. Summers said, the fabric showed no signs of stretch or wear.

In addition to the new fabric, the shop also carries a complete line of nylon, tapestry, cotton, velvet and special order items.

"Any kind of upholstery job will be undertaken and we guarantee customer satisfaction," Mrs. Summers said.

Beef Promo Wins Trip For Employee

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar M. Frost, 737 Bradley Dr., will leave July 3 for an expense paid weekend in Las Vegas, Nev., courtesy Western Beef Packers, Inc.

The couple won the trip in an employee promotional contest sponsored by the firm. Frost is supervisor of the Beef Cooler Department at Western Beef Packers.

The contest was a month long affair, judging each department within the plant on efficiency, attitude, and sanitation.

Points were given to each department, based upon its efficiency, attitude and sanitation of the department and it's employees.

The Beef Cooler department won the contest with 211 points. As department supervisor, Frost won the trip to Las Vegas. He and his wife will fly to the city via a company airplane and will stay at the Flamingo Hotel.

Each employee in the department will receive a full day of extra pay as a reward for their efforts in the promotion.

John F. Welch, general manager of the beef packing plant, said the Beef Kill department was runner-up in the contest, with 207 points.

Welch said employee enthusiasm was so great during the promotion that a similar contest would be scheduled at a later date.

FROM A TALL TAIL

Barney was hot on the trail of two men Friday when he encountered a skunk who let Barney know what he thought of him.

"He lost the track when the skunk let go," a deputy said. Barney not only lost his sense of smell and got sick—he was given a bath in tomato juice.

LIFTS SKIRTS-ONLY RULE

CHICAGO (UPI)—Women in the Cook County Public Aid Department don't have to wear skirts to work. They can wear pants.

Two women employees had been suspended in January for five days for wearing pants to work—they had said it was too cold for skirts—and had gone before an employee hearings panel, which recommended a change in the dress code.

Director David Daniel said Friday he was changing his rule because "modes of dress for women are presently in a state of change."

SNATCHED THEN SPRUNG

GRIMSBY, England (UPI)—Twelve schoolgirls, on a tour of the town jail "to see what a prison is really like," accidentally got locked in a cell for one and a half hours. The girls were slipped chocolate between the bars while police rushed 40 miles to get a spare key at another jail.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—The economy "is about midway through its current transition," Goodbody & Co. believes, however, the company says, investor's have "significantly narrowed their time horizons" and appear to be focusing on the short-run rather than the long-run. The firm sees as a consequence "funds, that would ordinarily go into equities are being lured to . . . the bond market."

The market's recent strength has further increased the probabilities that the list is undergoing an intermediate advance "which could last another four to six weeks," TPO Inc. says. The company sees indications of "growing investor confidence which could . . . prolong the drive."

However, it cautions, "the great majority" of equities are "bearish" and will require "weeks of consolidation before turning bullish."

"The silent majority's preference to rather live in an atmosphere of euphoria during a hot summer than resolutely face facts . . . may help the market in the short-run," according to Oppenheimer, Newberg & Neu. But, the firm warns, without a solid foundation "a rude awakening may be in store later on." Thus, it advises, the purchase of "quality stocks" during periods of strength rather than attempting to "increase commitments."

Humble Names Pampa Wholesale Agent

Humble Oil and Refining Company announced recently that Wayne B. Smith will be the Humble Wholesale Agent for Pampa, Gray County, and surrounding area effective July 1.

Smith is presently Executive Vice-President of the Berger Chamber of Commerce and Magic Plains Industrial Foundation. He attended college at Southeastern State and is a graduate of Southwestern Institute.

Smith received Presidential Citation and Citation from Secretary of Navy, James Forrestal. Smith was on escort cruiser that accompanied Jimmy Doolittle on Tokyo Raid during World War II.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have one son in college at Midwestern University and two daughters, both married. Mrs. Smith is a graduate registered nurse, and both are Baptist. Smith is former Mayor of Sweetwater. He is former Lions Club President, 32 degree Mason and a Shriner. He is also member of Texas Industrial Council.

Humble announced that the Bulk Plant at 549 South West St. in Pampa would open July 1 and would carry a complete line of Humble Enco products.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will move to Pampa after July 1.

NEVER REACHED GOAL

LEGNANO, Italy (UPI)—This little Italian town was angry at the Mexican Post Office today.

Two of the town's soccer fans sent congratulatory messages to the Italian soccer team when it defeated West Germany Wednesday and qualified for Sunday's World Cup finals in Mexico City. The telegrams were returned marked "departed without leaving forwarding address."
