Conspiracy Against Cuba Is Broken Up

HAVANA, Cuba—AP—Cuban Army authorities said today that a 1,500-man expeditionary force poised to overthrow President Rafael Trujillo of the Dominican Republic had been broken up.

Col. Oscar Diaz, the Army's chief investigator, said some of the plotters, after their plan to invade the Dominican Republic had failed, had conspired against the Cuban government.

The Cuban Senate immediately launched an investigation of the whole affair. Col. Diaz said he had turned over to the supreme tribunal many documents in the case. Diaz said 580 members of the expedition had been picked up, unarmed and without food and water, on Guinchoas Cay, a sandspit 50 miles off the north Cuban coast, 300 miles east of Havana. He said 11 bombing planes also were seized. The men were brought to the camp prison at Camp Columbia, Army headquarters in Havana.

They said they were put down on Cay after refusing to obey an order from the expedition's commander—issued after the party put sea—to attack the Cuban Navy if it were sighted.

Gen. Genovevo Perez, the Cuban Army's chief, announced after a conference with President Ramon Grau San Martin that two of the expedition's ships had been intercepted at Antilla, an east coast Cuban port not far from the extreme northern tip of the island.

These ships, bearing about 800 more men, were brought to Havana early this morning. Gen. Perez said Col. Diaz said the expeditionary force, composed of Dominicans, Venezuelans and Cubans, was headed by Orlando Masferrer, a Cuban who had been expelled from the Communist party. Diaz said the same man headed the alleged conspiracy against Cuba.

Diaz, after informing reporters of the developments at a news conference, permitted the reporters to interview the prisoners. From them, See CONSPIRACY, Page 8

Judge Appeals For Publicity In Juvenile Cases

A West Virginia circuit judge recently urged a change in that state's laws prohibiting the publication of names of persons under 18 that are involved in crimes, according to an article in Editor and Publisher weekly trade magazine of the newspaper industry.

Circuit Judge Lewis H. Miller in his charge to Grand Jury made the following observation: "Newspapers by exposing facts about crime conditions provide necessary public information to bring about reform. If the public is kept in the dark about crime, then it can't be expected to move toward any reduction in criminal offenses. The sunlight of investigations thrown on criminals is the most effective method of suppression I know."

Judge Miller asserted later, "Juvenile crime has increased by leaps and bounds in the last few years, and until we make known the facts this type of crime will continue to grow. "One answer lies in publicity to halt the trend. We can't expect to do much reforming when the delinquents are lost."

Several newspapers throughout the nation also have been urging the movement to publicize names of juvenile delinquents in the hope that this adverse publicity will impress other juveniles with the fact that they too may get the same adverse publicity should they run afoul of the law for petty thievery on up. Most wrong doers fear the newspapers more than they do the law enforcement officers, because of the exposure through publicity.

18 Bales Cotton Ginned at McLean

McLEAN, (Special)—Harvesting and ginning of the cotton crop in the McLean area got under way last week. A total of 18 bales had been ginned at the two gins by Wednesday. Of these, eight had been baled at the McLean Gin, operated by S. R. Jones, and 10 at the Planters' Gin, operated by L. H. Earhman. Prospects for an excellent crop were seen early in August, but the drought during that month is reported to have cut the yield considerably.

LET'S STARVE THAT GARBAGE CAN!

President Truman's Plea to 'Save Food to Aid Europe' Puts America's Wasteful Food Handling on the Spot

One way or another, one-fourth of the food we produce is wasted, enough to feed 20,000,000 persons all the residents of the states shown in shaded areas on the map above.

It is also the same amount consumed annually during the war by the U. S. Armed Forces and the recipients of Lend-Lease combined. One remedy—conserve food and buy less often.

The present habit of throwing away leftovers means that farmers, food processors and distributors "donate" two hours out of every working day to maintaining an "ever-normal garbage can." Out of every 100-acre farm under cultivation, 25 acres are harvested only to have the produce thrown away. Waste begins at the harvest and mounts as food travels down the line to the dinner table.

Wheat for Europe Committee Will Outline Program

A meeting for the Wheat for Europe Relief Committee will be held tonight at 7:30 at the First Christian Church. The committee will outline the work of the drive locally in contacting all wheat farmers and wheat producers in this area for participation in the relief effort.

Rev. Beauford A. Norris, general chairman of the drive locally, emphasized that recent reports from famine areas in Europe made the urgency of such collections more apparent.

The drive is being sponsored by the Church World Service, interdenominational relief organization, and the distribution of the wheat will be handled by that agency, Rev. Norris said.

Arrangements have been made for local elevators to receive wheat or other of wheat credits. Laymen's organizations of several churches are furnishing workers to carry out solicitations, and approximately 40 men will be engaged in this work.

Among those who have already indicated their desire to help in the drive are George Scott, John B. Hesse, Hubert H. Kealey, A. A. Schurman, Ervin Cole, John W. Fall, Jerry Nelson, Kurt Beck, S. G. Suratt, Bob Shoulters, Chick Humphries, T. P. Musgrove, Ivy Duncan, Paul Hill, Garland Frasier, C. E. Carey, Smiley Henderson, Ralph Dunbar, Eddie Gray, Amos Harris, Marshall Hubbard and Carl English.

Meeting Called on Boy and Girl Scouts

Representatives from the four service clubs—Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary and Chamber of Commerce—will meet at 7:30 tonight in the District Court Room with representatives of the Boy and Girl Scouts. It was announced today.

The group will discuss plans for a possible joint financial drive for the Scout organizations. In former years the two groups have waged independent drives for operating funds.

Naomi Hancock Is Named 'Miss McLean'

McLEAN, (Special)—Miss Naomi Hancock, daughter of W. L. Hancock, McLean, will represent this city as "Miss McLean" at the West Texas Cotton, Chermurgie, and Ceramics Carnival at Memphis Oct. 2-4. Miss Hancock was selected by a Lions Club committee.

Cripps Named 'Czar' Of British Economics

LONDON—(AP)—Vegetarian Sir Stafford Cripps took over today as Britain's economic czar. Informed sources said it was the first installment of sweeping changes in the Labor cabinet.

There was general agreement among Britons that Cripps' appointment as minister of economic affairs to lead this dollar-short country's fight for economic recovery at home and abroad was a step in the right direction.

The choice of 31-year-old James Harold Wilson, the so-called "boy wonder" of the Labor government as president of the Board of Trade to succeed Cripps was termed indicative of the government's decision to introduce new blood into the Labor regime.

The resignation of Arthur Greenwood, a veteran labor politician who had been a minister without portfolio, was considered to be a further demonstration of Prime Minister Attlee's determination to bring in younger men to fight the economic battle of Britain.

Cripps, whose new appointment was announced last night, buckled down immediately to the tasks confronting him. He scheduled a meeting with union leaders to discuss the British export drive—ordered in an effort to get more dollars—and means of meeting the proposed targets.

Informed government sources said the further cabinet changes expected would not affect Hugh Dalton, the chancellor of the exchequer, or Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, who with Cripps and Herbert Morrison, the deputy prime minister, make up the big trio of the Attlee cabinet.

Attlee's official announcement said merely that "other changes in the government are under consideration and will be announced later."

The names most frequently mentioned in speculation concerning additional cabinet shifts included those of Defense Minister A. V. Alexander, Transport Minister Alfred Barnes, Supply Minister John Wilmot and Fuel Minister Emanuel Shinwell. Shinwell, especially, has been under a heavy barrage of criticism from inside and outside the party.

The British press, in commenting on the changes, generally followed their party leanings, with the Times of London remarking dryly that See BRITISH, Page 8

Women Report on State Convention Held in Galveston

Four Gray County club women attended the state meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association held at the Galveston Hotel in Galveston Sept. 24-25-26. They were Mrs. H. B. Taylor, Jr., of the Wayside Home Demonstration Club; Mrs. W. E. Melton of the Hopkins club; Mrs. C. H. Anderson of the Worth-while club, and Ann Hastings, home demonstration agent, who also attended the meeting of agents of this district. Around 675 delegates and visitors attended.

Carrying out the theme "Let There Be Light," workshops were organized to shape the 1948 program for the 2,000 clubs in the 12 districts of Texas.

The theme of our convention meeting pertains to the home. Mrs. Gus Rogers of Manor, president, said, "Members of our organization are homemakers first and club women second."

In the 4-H Club workshop a study was directed on ways to encourage club women to assist in 4-H work. Approved reading lists were presented club women in the Educational Committee workshop. Women attending the marketing committee session were urged to improve the quality of their salable farm products and to buy food cooperatively in pooled orders.

Complete reports of the meeting will be given by the delegates at Home Demonstration Club meetings. Miss Hastings said.

The Hopkins club will meet at the Hopkins Community Hall at 2 p.m. Oct. 7.

A meeting will be held at Mrs. A. T. Cobb's home in Lefors at 1:30 p.m. Oct. 8, for Lefors and Save Your Time Clubs.

The Lefors and Worthwhile meetings will be held at 10 a.m. at Mrs. Ernest Edwards' home Oct. 10.

Senate Committee To Meet Nov. 10

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) said today that in the matter of emergency aid for Europe "the immediate question is one of elemental human survival in a free society."

Vandenberg, the recognized Senate Republican spokesman on foreign policy matters, made that statement in announcing he has called the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to meet Nov. 10 in accordance with a request from President Truman. Vandenberg is chairman of the group.

Noting Mr. Truman's request that key Senate and House Committees explore Western Europe's "urgent winter needs for food and fuel," Vandenberg added: "This proposal is submitted separately from plans dealing with long range economic recovery on a self-help basis although they have factors in common."

Mr. Truman asked yesterday that four Congressional Committees study a $580,000,000 fund for European winter aid before he determines whether to summon a special session of Congress.

Explaining why he had not called his committee to meet until Nov. 10, Vandenberg said the State Department "will not be ready with concrete proposals until November 1st."

He added that "other essential reports, including findings of Congressional Committees visiting Europe and also the report of the Harriman Commission, will not be available until that time."

Secretary of Commerce Harriman is directing a study into the question of how much aid the United States can give Europe without injury to its own economy.

With Vandenberg's call for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to meet, three of the four committees Mr. Truman asked to study European aid have now been summoned to convene in early November. The others are Senate Appropriations and House Foreign Affairs.

The fourth committee is House Appropriations. Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.), chairman of it, is now in Europe and is not expected back until next month.

Since his return from visiting Brazil, President Truman has given most of his time to question of aid for Europe, and made two major moves:

1. Called for a campaign against waste of food in this country and appointed a committee to devise ways of increased saving.

2. Asked the congressional committees to meet and study the matter of European aid.

On the President's calling list for the day were Charles Luckman, chairman of the Citizens Food Committee—the group named to push food saving.

Vandenberg's statement added to strong bipartisan backing given the President's course in putting the matter before Congress.

City Commission Okays Change in Electrical Board

The City Commission this morning approved the revamping of the Electrical Board with only one major change.

According to the ordinance pertaining to the Electrical Board, the board is to be composed of the city manager, the city electrical inspector, and three qualified citizens of Pampa.

The major change was the naming of Glen Radcliff to succeed Paul Crossman because the latter does not live inside the city limits. H. P. Mathieu and R. A. Hanchouse were named.

City Manager Steve Matthews reported to the commission that 12 of the 125 new street lights, to be placed within the next 12 months by the Southwestern Public Service Company have been installed. The lights were placed at the following street corners in and near the Wilcox Addition: Locust and Finley; Locust and Henry; Craven and Henry; Barnard and Pitts; Barnard and Graham; Campbell and Reid; Campbell and Schneider; Campbell and Finley; Campbell and Henry; Campbell and Talley; Finley and Gordon; and Finley and Murphy.

The street lighting program in the Wilcox Addition will be continued through the month of October, the report added.

The commission earlier approved the payment of $1064 to August Corday for sewer lines placed in the Gordon Addition in the late 30s and early 40s.

A climax to the long disputed rezoning of the N. Duncan St. sector at its junction with N. Yeager was expected today when the Zoning Board was scheduled to meet with the commission to consider the move. The latest protest over the establishment of a grocery store at that junction came this morning when G. C. Austin, who lives in the immediate vicinity, appeared before the commission and entered his protest to a business section being established there.

Truman Insult Seen as Signal Of Propaganda

WASHINGTON—(AP)—An increasingly violent anti-American campaign by Russian press and radio was predicted today by U. S. officials examining Moscow's propaganda line.

They said the attack on President Truman by a Russian magazine which compared him with Hitler indicates a decision to pull out all the stops.

One official expressed belief the Russians have given up any hope of winning favor from the American public and will concentrate now on trying to discredit the United States in the Soviet Union and abroad.

The "war mongering" accusation against nine Americans by Andrei Vishinsky, deputy Russian foreign minister in a U. N. Assembly address Sept. 18 was viewed as part of the campaign.

The latest Soviet-American disagreement came to light yesterday when the State Department announced that the American Embassy in Moscow has emphatically protested criticism of Mr. Truman in the Russian publication "Literary Gazette No. 39."

Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith protested to Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov that the late Dr. Paul Goebeels, Hitler's wartime propaganda minister, never was mentioned in his diatribes against Allied statesmen.

Molotov flatly rejected Smith's protest, saying the Soviet government "cannot bear the responsibility for this or that article."

In his reply, Molotov added a denunciation of the American press for what he termed its "lying and slanderous articles regarding the U. S. S. R. and its statesmen."

Growing Number Pampa Students Taking Religion

Sunday, Oct. 5, will be the climax of weeks of activities emphasizing the "Go to Church Sunday" drive sponsored by the Pampa Ministerial Alliance. The alliance pointed out one strong indication of the growth of interest in religion this week as it called attention to the growing number of Bible students in Pampa High School.

Under the instruction of Rev. Russell West of the Church of the Brethren, two sections of around 118 students now study the Bible daily in regularly scheduled classes, for which one credit is allowed.

The classes, begun in 1941, were developed through the cooperation of the Ministerial Alliance and the Pampa school system. The scholastic standard of the classes is on a level with other standard subjects. Rev. West has taught the classes for the past five years.

The Ministerial Alliance believed that the youth of this area should have a firm background in one of the most vital subjects to affect their future life—religion. And the Bible and religious history is taught without denominational emphasis. Non-denominational texts are used and no denominational doctrines are treated or discussed. The classes are simply a study of religion from the Bible.

The churches of the alliance are paying 30 cents per member assessment to finance the teaching of this course.

First semester classes emphasize Old Testament study, and second semester work is concerned mainly with New Testament study.

This course is set up as an elective at the High School, and as proof that the students themselves agree on the worth of such a program, an increasing percentage of graduating Seniors show credit for the course in religion on the transcripts.

New Proposal Of 'Cut-Rate' Prices Made

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The government is considering a proposal that it offer some high-priced foods to hungry areas abroad at "cut-rate" prices as a means of preventing further advances in grain and livestock quotations.

Such foods would include dried fruits, citrus juices, fats and oils, dried beans and peas, dried eggs, and canned vegetables. A cabinet Food Committee reported to President Truman last week that this country could spare $650,000,000 worth of these.

Under the cut-rate proposal, the government would buy the food at prevailing market prices and sell it to foreign countries at prices which they could afford to pay.

Foreign countries have followed a practice of spending what funds they have for grains, particularly wheat, because it provides the maximum amount of food energy for each dollar spent.

Likewise, the Army and the State Department have been reluctant to spend relief funds on foods other than grains and flour.

At the Agriculture Department, where the cut-rate proposal was advanced, an aide of Secretary of Agriculture Anderson said it would be "very much cheaper" for this country to subsidize foreign sale of substitute foods than to try to fill foreign needs with grain alone.

This official predicted $3.50 a bushel wheat and corn at the farm if the government attempts to export 270,000,000 bushels this crop year. These grains now average about $2.50 at the farm.

Young Artists Place at Fair

Four Pampa students, students of Miss Mrs. Riley, Junior High School instructor, won prizes and exhibit space at the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo. Students were allowed to submit two examples of their work in one medium. Each of the Pampa students entered two oils.

Roger Long, a student of Pampa High School, placed first and second in his two landscapes.

Erwina McDowell, in the ninth grade, placed first with her still life oil.

Richard Lunsford, in the seventh grade, placed both his oil entries second.

Donald Lunsford, Junior High student, won exhibit space with both of his still life oils.

Paintings of all these winners were exhibited during the fair week. Prize winners were awarded ribbons. According to the entry rules, all paintings were original work and were painted within the past two years.

Wild 5th Inning Gives Yanks 5 to 3 Win in Series Opener

YANKEE STADIUM, New York—The old Yankee big inning formula worked again today as the New Yorkers shattered 21-year-old Ralph Branca's no-hit bid with five runs in the fifth frame for a 5-3 triumph over Brooklyn before a record 73,365 turnout in the opening game of the 1947 World Series.

First Inning—Dodgers—Stanky sent a long fly to Lindell. Robinson drew a base on balls. On Shea's second pitch to Reiser, Robinson stole second. Reiser hit the next pitch to Shea and Robinson was caught in a rundown between second and third with Rizzuto making the putout. Reiser reached second. Walker punched a single into short left field scoring Reiser with the first run of the game. Hermanski watched a third strike breeze by.

Mobile Takes Series Lead With 7-2 Win

MOBILE, Ala.—The Mobile Bears, Southern Association champions, took a 2-1 lead in the Dixie Series last night as they won their second straight victory over the Houston Buffs, Texas League titlists, 7-2.

The teams resumed the battle for the Class AA championship tonight with Al Pappi slated to take the mound for the Texans and Roy Boies for Mobile.

In last night's clash, the Bears opened up on Clarence Beers, the Houston ace, in the first inning, scoring two runs and bounced him out of the box with a four-run outburst in the sixth.

The Mobile sixth-inning romp included a home run by Bill Hart over the centerfield fence with two mates aboard.

Larky Pat McGlothlin went the entire distance for the Bears, yielding eight safeties. He was rapped seven times in the first five innings, but settled down and struck out seven batters in the last four frames.

Houston's first score came in the fourth on Tommy Glaviano's terrific home run over the left-center field fence. The other run came in the fifth on singles by Solly Hemus and Ed Knoblauch, combined with Cliff Dapper's error on Billy Costa's bunt.

Locals Strengthened by Wilson's Return

The Green and Gold Pampa High School Harvesters were bolstered, both offensively and in spirit, yesterday when Jimmy Wilson, fleet running back of last year's team and one of the leading ground gainers in District 1A-A, donned a Harvesters uniform for the first time since he broke his ankle in pre-season scrimmage about a month ago.

It is doubtful whether or not Wilson will start against the strong Vernon Lions of District 2A-A in "Sherman" night but in the eventuality that he does start speculation has it that Coach Tom Tipps will switch Jack Williams, who has capably filled Wilson's shoes during the past weeks, to fullback position from the fullback position.

Harvesters Rank Twelfth in AP Football Poll

DALLAS—(AP)—The two strong-eight school football teams in Texas are Odessa and Wichita Falls with a wide margin, a poll of sports writers by the Dallas Morning News disclosed today.

The defending state champion Odessa eleven was picked for the No. 1 spot by 36 of 43 writers participating, while the Coyotes were given seven first place votes. No one picked either for lower than second place.

Rocky Graziano Unable To Obtain Permission To Fight in Illinois

CHICAGO—(AP)—The Illinois Athletic Commission yesterday barred Rocky Graziano from boxing in Illinois in an effort to reach a settlement with the commission member, said referred to Rocky Graziano, middleweight champion.

Keen said the commission had accepted the War Department's record of Pvt. Rocco Barbellia as that of Graziano, that record showed Barbellia was convicted, sentenced dishonorably discharged from the Army on a charge of being absent without leave in 1942.

Graziano's application for a permit to fight Tony Zale here last July 16 was signed by both names—Rocco Barbellia and Rocky Graziano," Keen declared.

Graziano, who lives in Brooklyn, N. Y., took offense for comment, but his manager, Irving Cohen, said in New York that he had in his possession a letter from John D. Fromm, assistant adjutant at the Leavenworth Prison, which he said stated that Barbellia's dishonorable discharge was "suspended."

"I can only say now," Cohen added, "that when Rocky entered the Army he was a wild kid, up from the city streets, a kid who never had the privileges of most youngsters as he grew up. He had to learn the hard way that the Army wasn't fooling when it gave him a new pattern to live by. The Graziano of today is as different from the Rocky who entered the Army as day and night."

Cohen denied Graziano had participated in fights for "big purses" in 1942. He said he knew of four fights Rocky had in neighborhood rings in 1942, but he said he did not know whether any of these fights occurred while Rocky was supposed to have been on Army duty.

The War Department said records showed that Pvt. Rocco Barbellia was tried by court martial in 1942 and was convicted on a charge of being AWOL. The record showed Barbellia was sentenced to one year in Leavenworth and was given a dishonorable discharge after serving 10 months of the sentence, the War Department said.

3. Austin.
4. Corpus Christi.
5. Waxahachie.
6. Brackenridge (San Antonio).
7. Longview.

Joe Coleman, coach at Odessa who argued he wouldn't have as strong a team as last year, then let his eleven athletes and put itself on the very spot. Joe didn't want it by playing championship ball, has quite a coaching record. Coleman played the game at Waco High and Texas Christian University where one season he was a teammate of Sam Baugh. He started coaching at DeLeon in 1935, moving to Wellington in 1936. He stayed there until 1938 before going to Odessa. Joe was in the Navy from 1942 until 1945. In his eight years as a coach he has produced five district titles and one tie—and the state champ of 1946.

North Carolina's Choo Choo Justice quickly established himself as one of the nation's great backs in his freshman year.

Layne, Justice Duel To Lure 44,000 Fans

AUSTIN—(AP)—Southwestern football fans expect the boys to do everything except eat the piskin out at Memorial Stadium next Saturday.

That's why 44,000 will jam into the big saucer for the first meeting of the University of Texas and North Carolina.

This game will answer a lot of questions about Texas, a team no one can get hot on but one which everybody in the Southwest Conference appears to fear worse than poison. But they're still wondering about the switch to the T formation and whether the Texas line can get the job done.

For one thing, Texas will be the under dog in this game. It's something new—at least new since 1941. The Longhorns have been the favored team in every game for seven years—until now. In fact, this is the first season Texas hasn't been picked to win the conference title.

Furnishing the chief lure-44,000—is the expected duel between two of the finest backs in the country—a couple of guys who should give the All-American pickers worrisome come December. One is Charlie (Choo Choo) Justice of the Tar Heels. The other is blond Bobby Layne, that passin' man from Texas.

Layne, the leading pitcher in the nation last year, has taken up right where he left off. In two games this season he has completed 11 out of 17 tries for 207 yards. And Bobby has played a third of the time, Coach Blair Cherry doesn't even leave him in the lineup on defense.

Razorbacks Have Strongest Defense In SW Conference

DALLAS—(AP)—That iron-bound Arkansas defense that sent the Razorbacks to the Cotton Bowl last season is still at work. But the Arkansas defense that sent the Razorbacks to the Cotton Bowl last season is still at work. But the Arkansas defense that sent the Razorbacks to the Cotton Bowl last season is still at work.

Statistics on Southwest Conference football released today by James H. Stewart, conference secretary, show Arkansas to have allowed only 164 yards rushing and passing in their two games. This is 30 yards better than given up by Texas Christian, second defensively in the conference.

Arkansas has ruled up 776 yards rushing and passing; to lead the offense. Texas, in second place, is 15 yards behind Arkansas.

Little Ken Hollis has contributed 250 Arkansas yards on the ground as leading ball-carrier of the conference. Byron Gillory of Texas is second with 166.

Bobby Layne of Texas tops in passing with 11 completions in 17 attempts for 207 yards; J. D. Ison of Baylor leads in pass-receiving, having taken five for 98 yards; Leon Joslin of Texas Christian is the leading punter with an average of 58.5 on two kicks, with Stan Hollmig of Texas A. and M. second with 47.2 on seven boots, and Bob Goode of A. and M. leads in punt returns with 102 yards on three run-backs for an average of 34.0.

Kilgore Downs Hubbers 10-2

KILGORE—(AP)—Kilgore's Drillers were back in the running for the class baseball championship of Texas.

After losing three straight games to Lubbock, West Texas-New Mexico League champion, the Lone Star League Hillier bounced back to take the fourth game of the seven game series 10-2 last night.

Big Bob Ross fanned ten men in holding the powerful Hubbers to six hits.

The fifth game of the series will be played here tonight.

Two Men Tie for First in The News Weekly Contest

M. W. Sealy and Stephen Yasulski, both of Pampa, took first place honors in the first of the Pampa News weekly football contests. Both men missed only two games of the games listed.

Second place honors went divided among 21 persons all guessing 12 games correct. They were Mary Jo Gallenore, Lawrence Rice, Sid Mills, Don Cole, Mrs. R. H. Sanford, Dan Roche, Jimmy Orr, Clyde E. Frye, Mrs. J. E. Torvie, L. K. Stuebel, Eddie Scheel, Dean Ward, Emer Robertson, Harry Gilmore, Jeff D. Bearden, Phillip Powell, Bert H. Nuckols, Mrs. C. W. Beard, Bob Nash, all of Pampa, and Adrian R. Risner, of Wheeler, and Joe Chambliss, of Leters.

This week's contest appears on Page 5 of today's issue of The News.

Pampa is in Need of More Office Space

If all the talk generated in recent months concerning Pampa's needs were laid end to end they would reach somewhere, we are certain.

This talk, by and large, is the product of people who are interested in the future of Pampa. The future of Pampa is an interesting subject, and all of us should be interested in it—at least, those of us who like the town and expect to stay here.

There is little doubt that an overwhelming majority of us will stay here. It is our home, and we like to see our hometown progress as this one has done.

But there are some things we think that could be done to increase our potential. The potential for a number of years after the land began to be settled, was something the pioneers did not worry about. It just took care of itself. But now that the plans of communities have been built up—thanks to those early settlers—must look around to see what there is left that we might do.

The one thing we have in mind at this time is a new office building for Pampa. We have one large one, and other smaller ones, all of which are good. But we need more. At the city is going to attract those concerns that want and need office space. We need another large office building, because the town is still growing. There have been reports that certain oil companies would like to have an office here, but could not find the space.

An office building is a "potential." It is the sort of thing that might mean the difference in having a small factory of some sort, or not having it. Other things being equal between Pampa and some other city vying for the new business, it is that Pampa had a commodious office building might turn the trick.

Gracie Reports

BY GRACIE ALLEN

I see that President Truman, who I guess ought to know, calls the White House "The finest prison in the world." The "Prisoners of the public" are "Prisoners of the public." If you ask me, I think he's exaggerating.

You can't compare the White House to Alcatraz or Sing Sing. The tenants at those places have it much easier than a president. They don't have to listen to long-winded speeches or pose in funny hats for newspapermen. If they really want to get out, some kind friend can always send them a cake with a saw in it. If someone sent the President a cake with a saw in it, he'd have to eat the cake and swallow the saw. For the benefit of humorous-minded newspaper photographers.

Yes, the presidency is a prison all right, but I'd hate to be the President who'd try to get set up for another four-year stretch next year.

We would be deeply mistaken if we expected a miracle from American economic aid—Gen. Charles De Gaulle.

WHAT ABOUT KOREA?

If the Koreans have been unable to fathom the policy of the United States toward their country they have nothing on some of us. Penetrating our own White House iron curtain has been, for 15 years, a job for a mind reader—or should we say a Guru?

Here is what we have done to the little peninsula: We have done to it what Stalin did to the post-war trusteeship set over Korea by the United States and Communist Russia. It was not clear why either of us should rule the little country which had had the stamens and urge for self-government to keep on resisting Japanese domination after half a century.

It should have been clear in advance that once the Jap was whipped, there would be no enemy of Korea to require our Army to defend—that is, none unless it be Soviet Russia. But we deliberately agreed to let that conquest-bent imperialist occupy half of Korea.

Are we to suppose, then, that the purpose of stationing our troops in Korea was to defend the people against the enemy we had welcomed into their country? And does that make sense?

We did, and do, have one legitimate interest in Korea: We cherish Korean friendship, as we cherish that of all other peoples—I hope. That friendship we had. By our policy, past and still continuing, the Roosevelt policy of appeasing the Soviets, we have slapped in the face our Korean friends who placed a childlike faith in our integrity and intelligence.

Today we can hardly say we have a friendship. There is a rising tide of hatred against us, more bitter, apparently, in the zone we occupy than in the Soviet occupied zone.

Our policy cowardly bludgeoning Communist agents indisputable argument for spreading hatred against us—and drives more and more Koreans into the Communist camp. Lieut. Gen. John R. Hodge, in the name of neutrality toward all "peoples," repeatedly and consistently gives recognition to the 25,000 Communist in the U. S. zone equal to 600,000 anti-Communist Koreans. He has so dignified and elevated to a position of influence the otherwise negligible handful of Communists as to give them—in effect—strong support. This is the old Roosevelt policy, but blame for its continuance must rest squarely on Truman's shoulders. It is the same old policy, fence-straddling, and therefore Communist aiding, policy we have maintained between Nationalist and Communist China.

If the Koreans wanted our troops to protect them we would have some moral grounds for remaining; but they are urging us to get out. They don't want us. We went there without asking them and we remain there against their wishes. This policy leaves us open to the same suspicion of imperialistic design as that of Communist Russia.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG
news behind the news

WASHINGTON
By RAY TUCKER

PROSPECTS—The outstanding political developments of the last two weeks, which saw at least four potential Republican presidential candidates sounding out their chances through nationwide tours have altered 1948 election prospects in a way that amazes Washington observers. They are, in the order of their importance:

Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York is not a sure shot for the nomination, despite the fact that he leads most of the so-called polls of public opinion. He does not command popular interest and imagination any more than he did when he ran against Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1944. His only asset is the politicians' belief he can carry New York with its large bloc of 47 electoral votes.

TAFT—The politicians admire Senator Taft's courage in stomping through the liberal and labor-minded West Coast and they believe that he has given the public, especially the working people, a needed education on the proposals and operations of the Hartley-Taft Law. He has increased his legislative stature on his tour on the West Coast.

But the general belief in Washington and around the C. O. P. circuit is that the Senator from Ohio has ruined his chances for the nomination. The boozing and picketing which marked and marred his journey will make the back-room politicians think twice before they choose him as President Truman's opponent. They will not want to take even the slightest chance of antagonizing 15,000,000 labor union members.

WISH—In fact, many smart Republican politicians wish that their Senator had not made his tour in view of the fact that he said he would base his decision about running for the White House on his current study of public sentiment. Everybody, of course, expects Mr. Taft to enter the presidential tournament. If he does not, it will be a fact admission that not only he but every other G. O. P. candidate has no hope of winning next year.

Even if he announces his candidacy after demonstrations against him, it may weaken the election chances of any other man the party nominates at Philadelphia. For Mr. Taft's political agents, assuming that he does not cop the prize, himself, will sit in on the backroom sessions where the eventual candidate will be named and the final victor will therefore carry the colors and presumably espouse the opinions of the party's Senate leader and policy maker.

Incidentally, Mrs. Taft's sparkling speeches support many Washington politicians believe that she and her husband should be the candidate.

In their opinion, her Seattle statement that "in 1948 a fellow traveler will be a fellow traveling agent in Washington" makes an excellent campaign slogan. National Chairman Carroll Reece has already arranged to circulate thousands of copies of her speech throughout the nation.

WEIGHT—General Eisenhower's popularity with the plain people and especially with ex-G.I.'s and their families has made him a powerful factor and figure in all 1948 calculations. The Chief-of-Staff is taking on political weight every day.

The Eisenhower candidacy is quite unlike "The Pershing boom" of 1920, 1924 and presidential years. It is doubtful if "Black Jack" would have obtained 10 percent of the votes of the men who fought under him. He was not liked by the doughboys of 1917-1918. World War I's European leader, however, has apparently made a hit with the younger generation of soldiers and also with their parents. They do not regard him primarily as a military man but as a statesman and diplomat and he will not detract from that conception of him when he walks out of the Pentagon Building next January to become president of Columbia University.

STUDENTS—Recent newspaper revelations on the increased cost of college education for G. I. students have had immediate repercussions on Capitol Hill.

Common Ground

By R. C. HOLLES

The United Press recently carried a story quoting James Roosevelt, head of the California Democratic Committee, stating that he agreed with the Communist party "that there is not sufficient distribution of wealth in the United States." This also quoted him as saying the Russian system "certainly is not my model."

The article further quotes him as saying "I would like to see it (wealth) redistributed at the end of a period of time. For instance, I think that the practical way of doing it is: if a man earns more in his lifetime than he should be entitled to earn, at the end of that time he should be allowed to leave his children a reasonable amount of money to assure them of a decent education and the fact, perhaps that they won't starve. But beyond that I see no reason why we should gradually inherit this tremendous amount of wealth and keep other people from turning making it on their ability."

That James Roosevelt has no conception of what an education is. No matter how much money a man has left to him, it would not assure him of a decent education. Roosevelt evidently thinks because his parents had money that he is an educated man.

It is hard to believe that Roosevelt is so dumb that he does not see the end results of what he advocates. For that reason it looks as if he is making these statements in order to be popular and get power.

Now of course if he is going to prevent large fortunes from being given to certain persons by a stiff graduated inheritance tax, he will also have to have stiff gift tax so that the creator of wealth can not give his wealth away before he dies. What would happen in that case where the creator of wealth is not permitted to dispose of it in a manner in which he wishes to dispose of it, would be that there would not be very much wealth for the state to take. The result would be that creative talents would not be used to benefit humanity. Thus there would be less tools; thus the workers have to work with poorer tools; thus instead of helping society, Roosevelt's plan would impoverish society.

Of course if this law goes into effect, this scheme will work one time but not any more. In the future wealth will not be created. This plan of Roosevelt's is denying that there is a higher law than the laws made by man. It is denying that each man is owner of himself and all his produces. It is denying freedom—self control, no more or less. It is based on the false premise that the gain of one in creating wealth is the loss of someone else. It regards creating wealth as the same as a gambling game or war where the gain of one is the loss of another. But this is not true. In producing wealth, the gain of one is the gain of all. In creating wealth, the gain of one is the gain of all. It is the loss of all because it retards production.

Another objection to the socialistic, Communist theory of James Roosevelt is that even if people were foolish enough to produce wealth to give to socialists to operate the industry and imprudent in office, they couldn't train people to carry on the creation of this wealth. No one would know into whose hands it would go. If no one could buy it, the state would have to operate it and of course the state would turn it into a political football and place men in charge who would keep the business in control.

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
(Johnson on KPND Monday Through Friday)

HOLLYWOOD—Hackneyed plots found in Margaret O'Brien and other child star pictures get a violent blast in a Marion Hargrove magazine article titled "Farewell to Margaret O'Brien."

I'm going out of my way to take issue, not with Hargrove's criticism of the creaky plots, but on whom he puts the blame.

He blames Hollywood. The average moviegoer wants the dyspeptic-tempered old man won over to sweetness and light by the snagle-toothed grin of a pigtailed, pig-size Pollyanna. They want Van Johnson eating breakfast with June Allyson by a Niagara Falls setting. They want Red Yamarr in a hayloft pursued by the villain and saved by the hero.

Try to give them something different and human, and the picture lays egg. Melodrama has changed but very little since the bustle. Now it has sound and color, but the plots the moviegoers prefer are still as corny as the fiction on which the Pharaohs of Egypt cut their teeth.

LUKAS IN "WHITE TOWER"—The "White Tower" is back on the BKO production schedule, with Paul Lukas in a top role. Gene Tierney will leave her four-year-old daughter with grandma in New York when she returns to Hollywood next month for another film.

Dick Haynes got his pilot's license and immediately was grounded by the studio until completion of the film, "Up in Central Park." Dick can be up—but only in Central Park.

Milton Berle is carrying a torch for Joyce Matthews, who is telling friends rather than having a career than a husband. Brian Donley may deny it, but he's a torch carrier, too.

The sidewalk critics, after a preview the other night, reminded me of the time a producer met Oscar Levant after a premiere and said: "Well, how did you like the picture?" "Frankly," said Levant, "I was disappointed." "And who," snapped back the producer, "are you to be disappointed?" "Well," yelled Levant, "who do you have to be to be disappointed?"

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey just received a pair of mustache pruning shears, compliments of the customers of the Jerry Rothschild barber shop of Beverly Hills, Calif. A dozen top-flight male film stars chipped in—anonymous—on the present. SHEAR AND SHEAR ALIKE. There was nothing political about it, as Head Barber Harry Drucker explained. He said:

"We vote for the man and not the mustache. But recent polls indicate Dewey has a good chance to be president. How's that going to make American barbers look to the rest of the world? As a representative of the American people, Dewey may be up-to-date above the eyebrows, but he doesn't show it in the face."

For a while there I thought people who enjoyed hearing the dialogue when they go to the movies would get a break. But the popcorn eaters are still with us.

Councilman B. U. Carlson, of Long Beach, Calif., pleaded "but something should be done about popcorn eating in theaters. But Deputy City Attorney Allice Arnold ruled it was not a matter for interference by the police or the health department or the dog catcher or anybody else."

So... "Pass the popcorn, Myrtle. Clark Gable make me SO hungry."

Any war of the future—and I am not speaking of some remote war—is so likely to weaken civilization that life as we know it will be destroyed.—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Army Chief of Staff.

The upward race between wages and prices is going to bring rocky times to American workers.—John W. Gibson, assistant secretary of labor.

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Note Book

By HAN BOYLES
NEW YORK—(AP)—Saveth the poor man's philosophy: Live, but it is also true that love is nobody's fuel.

That's why young married couples need an income of some kind. But they don't have to start jaywalking down the road to divorce just because their budget is small. It's only the ten-penny love that demands the big-dollar upkeep.

Now, then, can two loving people live as cheap as one? Well, they can't. The last couple that did it were the Siamese twins. But a couple can live happily together cheaper than they can apart, dueling at each other through attorneys over the problem of alimony.

The biggest problem a young husband and wife face in living on a junior-size budget is to come to the open and mutual realization that being together is worth skipping a dress or a suit of clothes, the weekly bottle of booze, or the annual vacation trip to a postcard land.

The next problem is to be sure that the budget, no matter how small, is deliberately sabotaged occasionally to give you both a night out together on the town. There is no other thrill in life to compare with the delicious terror of a young couple at a beach resort, which they know they can't afford.

The late J. P. Morgan never had so much fun buying a yacht. A couple, on the other hand, that doesn't play hooky with some once-in-a-while foolishness is inviting the disaster or dry rot. Their iron-clad budget will rust all joy into slow hate.

Less quickly do many young couples realize that to make up for the pleasures lost in low-budget living, they must share more deeply in each other's lives. This is endless reward.

I have reversed my belief of many years that a man should perform as few household chores as possible. I still think it is demeaning for a husband to cook all the meals. But the more you do—things you do together—the more a home seems like a home instead of a corral. For some reason modern wives still prefer a husband to a radio in the kitchen. The radio just won't stop and listen.

So—pitch in with a towel on the dishes, men. As Frances tells me: "You only do so about once every Leap Year, but every little bit helps."

Dorothy Stokes on Trial Second Time
HENDERSON—(AP)—Selection of a jury for the second trial of Mrs. Dorothy Stokes, 23, of Garrison, Texas, was expected to be completed today.

Mrs. Stokes is charged with murder by poison of Mrs. Doriene Garrett, her sister-in-law, last March 4.

The state claims that Mrs. Garrett met death by drinking poisoned buttermilk.

A jury failed to agree at the first trial, held in June at Nacogdoches. Eight jurors were selected yesterday.

Testing of testimony from some of the nearly 100 witnesses may begin today if the remaining four jurors are selected.

Jurors selected yesterday were C. D. Beach, Overton, J. J. Haskins, Sexton City, Jesse M. Cooper, Overton; J. W. Dickson, Joinerville, Roy Rogerson, Laird Hill; Leon Leath, Henderson; Ted W. Davis, Carlisle, and Reese Nelson, Liberty community.

"new wine is needed, not only new bottles."

Cripps' new post was one created especially to centralize in one man broad powers for dealing with Britain's economic crisis, specifically for "a much closer integration of internal and external economic policy."

Attlee will head temporarily a new Ministerial Committee on economic planning. This committee, the Prime Minister said, will have scope over "the major issues of both internal and external economic policy."

The new economic boss is a 58-year-old lawyer and trade expert whose previous job—equivalent to secretary of commerce in the United States—called for him to work on whittling down imports and increase exports.

second or third highest man, but he must show good reasons, in writing, to the Civil Service Commission why the second or third highest man was appointed instead of the highest. In addition, the mayor or the commission must present in writing a copy of the reasons to the highest man why the second highest was appointed and also a like copy to the second highest in the event the third highest man would happen to be appointed.

The law makes two provisions for the notification of examinations for vacancies to be filled. It states that notices shall be posted in the main lobby of the city hall or in plain view in the office of the Civil Service Commission. It does not require the commission to advertise, or release it in story form, to weekly or daily newspapers. It further does not direct the Civil Service Commission to publicize the grades of all persons taking the competitive examination either by posting on a bulletin board or by publication in the newspapers, either by paid advertisement or in the news columns. However, the law clearly states that all hearings of the Civil Service Commission, in the event of a suspension or dismissal, must be open to the public.

Other than the notifying of the second and highest man of his highest, or second highest man, on the eligibility list was chosen, the commission, if it so desires, may elect to keep the entire proceedings a secret, as the law does not say they have to publicize the results. This choice is left to the discretion of the commission.

Upon appointment to either force, the new man then serves a probationary period of six months before he has considered a full-fledged civil service employe. During this time, the head of the department may dismiss him if he finds, after a thorough investigation, that the appointment was not made along regular lines or was not made otherwise in accordance with the Civil Service Commission's rules. However, once the probationer has served his six-month period he shall be considered a full-fledged civil service employe.

War Dads Present Distinguished Award To Farmer, Cattleman

FORT WORTH—(AP)—The American War Dads presented its distinguished service awards last night after hearing Brig. Gen. Roger M. Ramey declare "pushbutton" warfare was not "in the foreseeable future."

Claude H. Canady, farmer and cattle raiser of Bloomfield, Neb., received the group's award as the most distinguished citizen at the annual convention banquet.

Canady received the designation for his participation in the alleviation of hunger and suffering throughout the world.

The Nebraska farmer had donated funds to help feed hungry persons in Europe and sent farm horses to Germany to help rehabilitate that country's agriculture.

Gen. Ramey, commanding general of the Eighth Air Force, told the convention that "if there were a war tomorrow, it would be the same tough slugging match that the last one was."

Ramey recommended a strong air force, greater peacetime aircraft production and universal military training.

"The next war, when it comes, will come by air across the Arctic wastes, and with a savagery designed to knock us out of production and fighting status within a few days or even hours," he declared.

Lewis Bicking of Tulsa, Okla., urged the practice of "vigorous, old-fashioned Americanism" to combat the threat of communism.

BIRDS TOLD
A few centuries ago a man's rank or station in life could be told by the kind of bird he used in the sport of hawking. Kings used the gyrfalcon, earls the peregrine, yeomen the goshawk, poor men the creel, and knaves the kestrel.

Spending Money No Problem for Glitter Queens and Kings
By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Spending money is no problem for the glitter queens and kings of the movie factories, but spending time is another matter.

An independent survey (conducted by this independent reporter) shows that movie stars, who work theoretical eight-hour day, spend an average of only 53.2 minutes of actual enacting before the cameras. Also, this vastly unscientific report declares, they double this for makeup (double this for women), 12 minutes to studying the script, 17 for arguing with the director, 14 for press interviews, 25 for miscellaneous functions.

This leaves a whopping amount of time to kill, and some slay the hours aimlessly, others make use of them. Joan Crawford, for example, is an inveterate knitter, as are Deborah Kerr and Jane Powell. Ronald Reagan and Robert Taylor talk politics with anyone around. Fred MacMurray, a frustrated artist, sketches anything in sight, pausing now and then to read the stock market reports.

Cary Grant indulges in guessing games. Lana Turner is one of the few who reads books between scenes and she always has a phonograph playing the latest records. "Gene Kelly figures out his next dance routine. Loretta Young sends things for her children.

Van Johnson answers his fan mail. Clark Gable pulls a chair out on the set and shoots the breeze with the crew. Olivia DeHavilland reads palms. Robert Mitchum gripes.

Then there are some who spend the time laboring over a hot racing form. But they prefer to remain anonymous.
