Jehovah's Witnesses

Witnesses, has announced the tri-annual visit of circuit supervisor Gerald D. Grizzle of Brooklyn, New York, during the week of May 26 through May

The visit has precedence in the Scriptures where Paul said to Barnabas: "Above all things, let us return and visit the brothers in every one of the cities in which we published the word of Jehovah to see how they are," as recorded in Acts

The program will begin Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. with the congregation's Theocratic Ministry School and Service Meeting followed by a 30-minute spiritual discussion by Grizzle. Wdnesday through Sunday, time will be devoted to door to door missionary service each day. Grizzle will join ministers from the Pampa Congregation in making calls on residents in the community to discuss the confusion found in religion today and its significance.

At 8 p.m. Saturday Mr. Grizzle will chair a Bible question period, "New Things Learned," which consists of audience participation, followed by a 30-minute talk dealing with suggestions for improving one's personal ministry. Highlight of the week will be Sunday at 10 a.m. when Grizzle discusses "Education That Equips You For Life." All meetings are free; no collection is ever taken. The location of all meetings is at 1701 Coffee Street, Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.
