Movie Actors, Writers Name Reds

WASHINGTON—Three Hollywood stars told Congress members today that Communists are active in the film capital, but accomplish little except to create disturbances.

Actor Robert Montgomery called the Communists "a small minority who have never succeeded in dominating the actors."

But they create disturbances far greater than their numbers, he said.

Actor George Murphy had much the same story for the House Committee on Un-American Activities, now in its fourth day of hearings on communism in Hollywood.

He estimates "less than one percent" of the Screen Actors Guild are Communists, but they cause constant irritation.

Ronald Reagan agreed he said the Communists have tried to "muscle in" on the movie industry and disrupt it but have not succeeded.

Reagan, president of the Screen Actors Guild.

Montgomery put it this way: "We have had in the Screen Actors Guild a very militant, a very small minority, well organized, well disciplined."

Big sigh went up from a jam-packed audience of friendly feminists when Montgomery took the stand. He wore a brownish-gray striped suit, a white shirt and gray striped tie.

"How much success have the Communists had in dominating the Guild?" Robert E. Stripling, chief committee investigator, asked him.

"Never, never under any circumstances," have the succeeded the actor replied.

Montgomery followed two screen writers to the stand, Fred Niblo, Jr., and Richard Macaulay, who both testified they believe communist influence exists among the writing profession in Hollywood.

Niblo, 44-year-old veteran writer, described the Screen Writers Guild

Chairman Thomas (R-NJ) rapped for order and reminded the spectators, "guests of the committee," are not to applaud.

Montgomery said followers of Communism are often referred to as the "lunatic fringe, and I agree with this."

"However, I don't think any of them would be crazy enough to try to inject any of it into a picture I am directing," he added.

Montgomery said it is his "personal opinion" that the Communist Party is not a political party but "a subversive group."

"Character assassination," he said, is one of its most-used weapons.

Montgomery was on the stand only about 10 minutes. He concluded with a voluntary statement he said was prepared to correct an impression that "there is a small minority" in Hollywood fighting Communism and Fascism.

"The reverse is true," he added.

At one point Montgomery said that although Hollywood Communists are few, they manage to create disturbances far greater than their numbers.

Thomas cut in with: "They even appear at Congressional hearings."

A capacity crowd again was on hand for the hearings and hundreds asked for a chance to get into the ornate hearing room which seats about 400. Extra police were brought in because some officers were bruised and shoved about yesterday by a stampede of sighing women to see Actor Robert Taylor.

REDS CHARGED—Screen Actor Adolphe Menjou took the witness stand in Washington to charge Hollywood with being a 'hoed' of 'un-American, anti-capitalistic and anti-free enterprise' activities. He testified before the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Aid to Europe, Cost of Living To Be Probed

WASHINGTON—President Truman today called Congress back into session Nov. 17 to consider the rising price situation and the European economic plight.

Announcing his action, he told a news conference the crisis in Europe is so grave that he could not wait until January to seek legislation. Congress is regularly scheduled to meet in January.

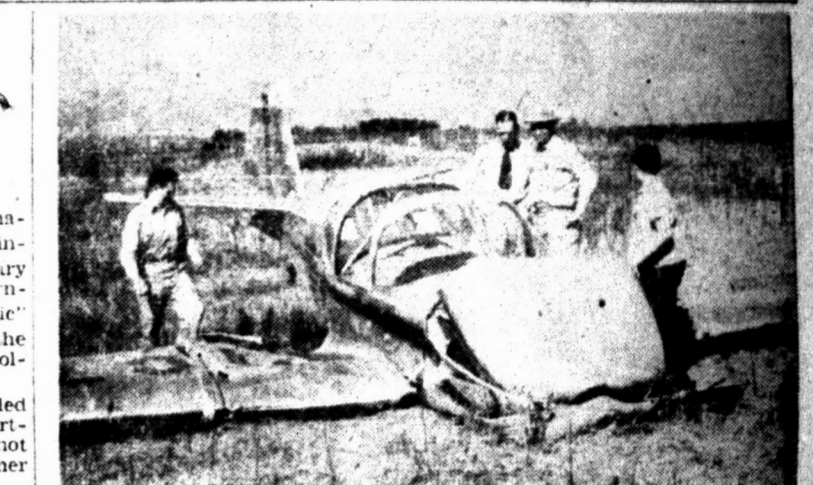

Mr. Truman said he had made the same announcement, giving the same reasons, to Congressional leaders at a conference immediately preceding his meeting with news reporters.

Cabinet of France Is Reshuffled

PARIS—Premier Paul Ramadier said today his newly streamlined cabinet had found it necessary to consult the Parliament concerning the "danger to the republic" which he said was inherent in the Communist and De Gaulleist ideologies.

The government yesterday called the Parliament to a session starting next Tuesday, though it had not been scheduled to end its summer vacation until Nov. 13.

Ramadier told a news conference today the political climate of France, which has suffered too long, is charged with electricity. Nerves are on edge.

THREE PEOPLE narrowly escaped death early Friday afternoon when this 1946 Globe Swift plane crashed in a field south of Pampa (Municipal Airport). Injured were Mrs. John C. Garner, her son, John, and Mrs. Garner's brother-in-law, John C. Garner of Oklahoma City. The plane fell while Mr. Garner was making a second attempt to land at the airport.

Britain Makes New Import Regulations

LONDON—Britain banned tobacco imports from the United States today and announced new cuts in food imports as the government warned that economic collapse would probably mean the end of British democracy.

The new minister of economic affairs, Sir Stafford Cripps, reviewing in the House of Commons Britain's economic crisis, announced at the same time a cut of $800,000,000 a year in government and private expenditures for new homes, new factories, and new plant machinery. He predicted an even deeper austerity for the British people.

Sir Stafford declared Britain would sacrifice some imperial preference in exchange for lower U. S. tariffs. The nation's new economic boss said the British immediately must decide to import less from the United States and export more goods to fend off collapse.

"If our economy and that of Europe should collapse," he said, "our democracy in all probability will collapse too and will disappear, and with it will go the last stronghold of western democratic civilization in Europe."

"Can we discipline ourselves to the task before us or are we going to invite the harsh discipline of events to impose some tragic solution upon us?"

Sir Stafford declared the Labor government expects to balance its overseas accounts by the end of 1948.

Beginning a review of Britain's critical economic position in the House of Commons, Cripps added that the problem of balancing trade with dollar countries was far more difficult than that of balancing "total overseas payments."

Cripps said it was impossible to make a fully accurate forecast but, allowing for various contingencies, "we calculate that we should arrive at an approximate balance of our total overseas payments by the end of next year."

"The problem... of our dollar balance of payments is very much more stubborn of solution and is needed the central problem with which we in this country, like so many other countries, are today faced," he said.

Luckman, in a broadcast yesterday to mayors of cities all over the country, asked them to set up local conservation committees. He urged "full cooperation" by agriculture, industry and the consumer in the campaign to save 100,000,000 bushels of grain for Western Europe.

The AFL distillery workers union claims from 10,000 to 20,000 of its members will be made idle by the liquor holiday.

Mr. Fish, who had been a driller for the Texas Company for 24 years, had previously suffered a heart attack last December.

His father, L. Fish of Lufkin, preceded him in death Aug. 31. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Fish; one daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Lee Jordan of Canyon; a son, John David, Jr., who is serving with the Navy on the S. S. Albatross; six brothers, A. D. and Glenn, both of Pampa, Irvy and Howard, both of Hereford, Ben Fish of Archer City, and Arch Fish of Plainview; four sisters, Mrs. Josie Warren of Malbourne, Okla., Mrs. Grace Kent of Muleshoe, Mrs. C. Hill of Lockney, and Mrs. Nettie Saverance of Dallas.

Dr. C. O. Morgan of Texas A. & M. College, newly appointed director of winter wheat grazing poisoning investigations in this area, with headquarters at the Pantex Experiment Station, arrived in Pampa this morning for discussions with County Agent Ralph Thomas and farmers of this vicinity.

Dr. Morgan said experiments would continue along the lines of his past year, but extremely unfavorable conditions for winter wheat this season would necessarily hamper investigations somewhat.

District Agent Knox Parr accompanied Dr. Morgan here.

U. S. Will Ignore Warmonger Blast By Vishinsky

LAKE SUCCESS—The United States will make no answer, "in kind" to Andrei Y. Vishinsky's blistering "warmonger" accusations but plans instead a strong appeal to the United Nations to reject Soviet demands for curbs on free speech and free writing, an authoritative delegation source said today.

The American policy speech will be made in the 57-nation Political Committee by Permanent Delegate Warren R. Austin and was ready for delivery today.

The delegation source said Austin's half-hour speech was written before Vishinsky's opening committee debate on "warmongering" yesterday and would be revised only slightly. The informant said the U. S. had no intention of being drawn into "cold-shouldering" contest with the Soviet Union.

Secretary of State George C. Marshall has approved the speech, which was described by an American delegation spokesman as "strong," and final changes were made by Marshall's direct approval. The spokesman said the U. S. would present no counter proposals and expressed the belief that Austin would refuse to support any other versions, including the one offered by Australia and Canada.

It was understood that Austin would emphasize freedom of the press and freedom of speech as practiced in the United States and would note that the U. N. Charter provides for freedom of expression and broad human rights.

Japan to Have Bad Weather, Earthquakes TOKYO—The weather here has predicted that the winter will be colder than normal in Japan, with spring far behind.

Dr. Aio Kato, physics professor at Sendai, also had bad news. He reported "extreme" tremors and earthquake conditions prevail in the Kanto area around Tokyo.

Drop Reported in Patronage at Bars ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—A 30 to 50 percent drop in patronage at the nation's bars and nightclubs reported yesterday by James J. Donovan of Norwood, O., president of the National Tavern Association.

Donovan, however, told the association's 10th annual meeting that a "healthy future" was in sight for the tavern business, but he said depended on elimination of wartime excise taxes on liquor.

Arguments in Ross Trial Heard Today

LA GRANGE—Arguments in the trial of Dr. Lloyd I. Ross on a charge of murder began at 10:30 a. m. today immediately after Judge J. R. Fuchs read his 18-minute charge to the jury.

Ross is charged with murder in the May 25 ranch road slayings of four members of the Willard York family.

The arguments for the state were opened by Fayette County Attorney John C. Marburger.

Before the charge was read to the jury, Chief Defense Attorney Fred Blundell made two oral objections. Other objections had been made in writing.

He objected first to the judge's granting of "only three hours and fifteen minutes to argue the case."

Blundell said that it was arbitrary and "too short a time."

The judge overruled first objection but granted the second, which came when the defense objected to the placing of the rifle on a table immediately in front of the jury.

After the objection was granted, the gun and other evidence, including cartridges and a case, were moved.

Judge Fuchs said he would allow state and defense attorneys three hours and fifteen minutes each to present their arguments to the Fayette County jury.

Opening of court was delayed today as defense attorneys studied the charges prepared by Justice Fuchs for the jury. The defense objected and excepted to at least a dozen points. Judge Fuchs said before court opened that he had made a revision in one paragraph or a lengthy charge.

Testimony in the trial now in its tenth day, ended yesterday.

The trial of the 43-year-old San Antonio doctor, native of Ohio, was transferred to La Grange from New Braunfels, near where the ambush slaying took place.

York, an investment broker; his wife, son and mother were slain as they drove to church along the hilly Comal County side-road from their ranch.

The 17-year-old Ann York, only daughter of the broker, was wounded.

Texas School for The Deaf Making Survey in Area

Attempting to corral all deaf and deaf mute children from six to 20 years of age in the state, C. J. Sweeney, field agent of the Texas School for the Deaf in Austin, this morning made an official visit to officials of Gray County seeking information and location on local and county children that are audibly and orally afflicted.

The survey is being made to give all deaf children in the state a chance for grammar, high school and trade school education that are otherwise unable to receive sufficient attention in ordinary public schools because of their afflictions.

Spread over 15 acres of land, the school was first established in 1857 and has been tax supported since then. Its 10 buildings house dormitories, class rooms and work shops where deaf children from well-to-do families to the impoverished, are taught to speak, orally, manually, and the art of lip reading.

The free school gives them every class room exercise and subject taught in the ordinary public school. Normal athletic programs including football, basketball, baseball, archery, and track are offered along with regularly scheduled games with deaf schools supported by other states and ordinary high schools.

Man Held by Police, Charged With Theft

James Creeks, 41, 816 S. Gray St., was held today by city police and charged in connection with the theft of an overcoat, watch and other articles from the automobile of W. E. Cuzick while it was parked in front of the Adams Hotel on Oct. 10.

Creeks, employed as a porter at the Brown Derby Cafe, had the watch in his possession this morning at the time of his arrest by Patrolman J. B. Pritchett.

Papers found on Creeks led police to investigate other activities of the man over the past several weeks.

Scouters to Aid Pampa Council

R. Glenn Singleton, a boy scout regional section executive of the Region Nine office, Dallas, will arrive here tomorrow morning for a two-day visit with the Adobe Walls Council, which has its headquarters here. He will be accompanied by M. M. Ammerman, area deputy regional Scout executive, who has recently been transferred to this section from California.

The Scout leaders will assist local leaders with their part in the nationwide Boy Scout Roundup program. The roundup is a concerted effort by Scout leaders over America to bring better scouting to more boys by "rounding up" all the resources of each unit and planning for a more effective and attractive program in coming months.

The visiting executives will also review the policies and standards of the Boy Scouts.

Singleton has ten years experience in local council work behind him and now serves in an advisory capacity to local councils with special projects. He served as field executive in Galveston and Houston and as Scout executive in Port Arthur and Ardmore, Okla., prior to coming to the Region Nine staff.

While in Pampa, the two men will confer with Scout Executive Hugo O. Olson, V. B. Weathered, council president; Huelyn Laycock, council commissioner; C. A. Hill, council treasurer; Farris C. Oden, Santa Fe Trail district chairman; and L. N. Atchison, finance chairman.

Fingerprint Jobs Reveal Collection Of Small Toe-Prints

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Elmo Potts, Oklahoma City's police fingerprint expert, is broadening his field today.

The pastor's study at Trinity Baptist Church was ransacked yesterday and 50 cents in change stolen.

Potts and his fingerprint kit were quickly summoned. Scattered on floor and furniture was a collection of small, bare toe-prints.

Soviet Hits New High in Fight On Democracy

By DEWITT MACKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Soviet Russia has touched a new high in her aggression against democracy by boldly blazing to the right and the left—De Gaulle's victory in last Sunday's municipal elections and labor's demand for a 57 percent increase in minimum wage scales—said the streamlining was undertaken because:

"We realized that it was necessary in this hour to give the government the possibility of rapid decision and for this end to concentrate authority in a smaller number of hands."

Window Peepers Nabbed by Police

Patrolman Bob Crouch Tuesday night surprised and arrested an unidentified man in the act of window peeping in the 200 block E. Francis.

Crouch was preparing to go on duty with the night shift when he noticed the man skulking around the neighborhood. As the suspect finally knelt down in front of a window to peep through the glass, Crouch nabbed him. A passing police cruiser car picked up both officer and prisoner.

Since Texas at present has no law against window peeping, according to police, the man was charged with, and pleaded guilty to, disturbance of the peace. He told police that he didn't remember what he had done and added: "I may have walked into this house for all I know."

He was fined $10.

Several complaints have been coming into the department over the past year reporting window peepers in that same neighborhood.

Rotarians Make Futile Effort To Convert Kiwanians and Lions

By HENRY S. GORDON (Pampa News Staff Reporter)

The prominent and dignified officers and members of the Pampa Rotary Club yesterday made a heroic but futile effort to temporarily raise the standard of living for the Kiwanis and Lions Clubs when the latter were invited out for lunch with the Rotarians.

Try as they might, Rotarians were unable to make the Kiwanis and Lions see the light of day—mentally.

The annual combined meeting of the three clubs was held in the Palm Room of the City Hall with the presidents of all three clubs striding for the leading role.

Club singing was not up to standard due to the absence of Mrs. Irwin Cole, pianist for the Rotary Club. A feeble attempt to properly substitute for her was made by Lon Kay Bryant who apparently was unable to tell one tune from another when it came time to sing "Carolina Moon."

Poultry Off Menus Today in Some of Nation's Homes

By The Associated Press

Poultry was off the menu today in homes and restaurants which have joined in the government's emergency food conservation program as the citizens Food Committee delayed a decision to eliminate poultryless Thursdays.

The committee also was confronted with another major problem in its campaign to save grain as AFL distillery workers made a new demand to consider postponement of the proposed 60-day shutdown of the distilling industry.

Charles Luckman, chairman of the Citizens Food Committee, did not indicate when a final decision on the two matters would be given. It was reported, however, no change is planned at present in the liquor holiday which is scheduled to start at midnight Saturday.

Luckman, in a broadcast yesterday to mayors of cities all over the country, asked them to set up local conservation committees. He urged "full cooperation" by agriculture, industry and the consumer in the campaign to save 100,000,000 bushels of grain for Western Europe.

Included in the playful antics of the three groups was a "sacred" address prepared, but undelivered, by Rotarian Grover Heard. The eminent orator was heardly interrupted by officers of his own Rotary.

It strikes me that officers of the Lions Club and Kiwanis Club, by announcing the names of committee members appointed to the "Grit-Scout" drive. The committee rosters sounded like the census of Gray County a few years after a baby boom.

Attorney General Eyes Milk Prices

AUSTIN—P—Milk prices today were again under Attorney General Daniel's scrutiny in his state-wide investigation into possible violations of the state's anti-trust laws.

Daniel said yesterday, his staff was just about ready to close the milk inquiry which has been under way for the past 60 days when new uniform increases in milk prices prompted them to take a second look.

The fact that recent milk price rises were identical on all products within a given town, makes it "look like" milk concerns got together, he said.

Daniel promised that if any actual evidence could be uncovered that there was an agreement, further action would be forthcoming from his department.

He said three cases of "open announcements" of price agreement have been brought to his attention. He said the cleaners and pressers in Odessa, baby doctors in Corpus Christi and barbers in Dallas had all publicly announced price increase agreements.

THEY ARE THE younger generation. Take Earl Chapman Jr. of Midland. He likes skulls, and collects them.

His room is full of them. Many are suspended from the ceiling by strings. They include the skulls of lumber wolves, buzzards, badgers, goats, cats, skunks, ducks, rabbits, foxes and other odds and ends of the animal kingdom.

The skull of a cow and a horse, too big to hang, are nailed to the wall. Earl likes to tan furs and is quite good at it, using salt, oil, the sun and his pet hawk Oscar who eats the flesh from the skin and concrete.

Tacked to his wall are the skins of prairie dogs, rabbits, a bull snake. His ambition is to get the skull of an American buffalo. You got one handy?

The baseball season is virtually over, and in a way it's a relief to the kids at Kilgore.

Knothole gangs are synonymous with professional baseball, but what happens when there are no knotholes?

The Kilgore ball park in the Lone Star loop was built to last. It was constructed of steel and concrete. The fence is of steel.

But you can't keep a red blooded young American down. They organized a rivet hole gang!

The high cost of living has hit Junior. School lunches are going up. In Corpus Christi, for example, lunches went up a nickel to 35 cents in the High School and Junior High. Elementary school lunches were unchanged at 25 cents.

Food costs are higher, but the boost there was blunted on a cut in the federal subsidy from nine cents last year to six cents a plate this year.

The kids at Dalhart had better not shoot firecrackers in the city limits. If they do, their parents will pay!

If violators of the city ordinance are juveniles, their parents will be taken into court and prosecuted, officers warn.

This Is Happy

HAPPY went upstairs to dress for dinner, puzzled and uncertain. Timmy greeted her with enthusiasm, and purred happily about her feet as she changed.

When she was about ready to go downstairs again, there was a knock on the door and Joyce came swiftly in.

"Happy, will you do something for me?" she burst out eagerly.

"Of course, Joyce, if I can."

"Happy, make George let me marry David!"

"Joyce, darling—how can I?"

"Oh, don't pretend, Happy. You know George is mad about you; he'd listen to you."

"He's not in love with me, Joyce. He just thinks, after due deliberation, that I might be worthy of being mistress of Sundown."

"Knowing George as I do, that means he's insane about you. You're the first girl he's ever met that he thought worthy of Sundown."

"I'm afraid he's wrong about me, Joyce."

A look of alarm crossed Joyce's face.

"Happy! You mean you've turned him down?" she asked incredulously.

"Don't be silly. He hasn't asked me—not in so many words, so that I could say either yes or no. Happy just wondered what it would work out on."

"Oh, love Sundown, it's a gorgeous place and all that, but I think you had to be in love a whole lot to make a marriage last."

Joyce nodded soberly.

"As if I didn't know! Happy, if I have to say David up, I'd rather die. It would be dying a little, anyway. Oh, Happy, I love him so terribly!"

She held her young face rigid by a fort, but the tears checked and her voice trembled as she spoke. Impulsively Happy put her arms about the girl and said quietly, "Joyce, honey, I don't know if it will do any good, but I'll talk to George. I'll do my best. Maybe that won't be good enough, but I will try."

MADELAINE was dining with friends and Happy and George and Joyce dined by candlelight on the terrace outside the dining room, with its trellis of roses to break the wind and keep the candle-flames burning straight and tall.

After dinner, some of Joyce's friends came to take her off to a party, and George and Happy were alone in the big drawing room.

"Would you like to go over to the hotel and dance? Or drop in on some friends of mine who would be glad to meet you? Or would it bore you to stay here?" suggested George lightly.

"I'd like to sit on the azalea terrace and watch the moon rise over the treetops," said Happy promptly.

George's face lit up, and he held out his hand.

"Good girl! That's what I'd like, too!" he said, and tucked her hand through his arm and walked her out to the terrace.

For a moment she stood still, breathless before the beauty of the view: the mass of azaleas that were like a flight of white butterflies caught in a web of silver-gilt moonbeams, the fragrance of peonias against her face, the dark mystery of the woods that seemed to press close to the velvety lawn.

And as they stood there, George put out his arms and drew her close to him, and his fingers beneath her chin tilted her head back until her mouth lay a few inches below his own. For a moment she lay still in his arms, awaiting his kiss; and then her instinctive gesture of withdrawal slight though it was, caused him to release her. "Sorry—blame it on the moonlight. I always get that old romantic feeling," he said lightly.

"GEORGE, Joyce is deeply in love with David—Happy blurted it out and could have kicked herself, for she had meant to be more diplomatic, to approach the subject carefully.

George stiffened, and his expression, even in the moonlight, was almost hostile.

"I appreciate your interest, Happy, but after all, I've known Joyce all her life, and I know just how fickle she is," he said evenly.

George smiled down at her.

"Happy, if I could feel that she would remain in love with David and be willing to stay married to him, I'd give up my objections," he said reasonably.

"But Joyce always wants what she can't have; and once she gets it, she loses interest. David is not the first man she has wanted to marry, and I feel sure he won't be the last."

"But, George—Happy began.

"Listen, Happy, please let me be the judge of what is best for Joyce." There was an edge to his voice and she saw that he was angry. Suddenly a dark shadow loomed across the green and went slinking out of sight, and to Happy's startled surprise, George gave a little laugh.

"Timmy has gone native, I see," he said lightly, changing the subject so deliberately that Happy's face burned.

"He seems to like it here. I hope you don't intend to be cruel enough to take him back to New York and shut him up in one stuffy room. I'm quite sure he'd hate it now."

George went on talking casually; now on his favorite subject of Sundown and its proud past, and the plans he had for an equally proud future. And Happy listened, answering when it was expected of her, sitting quiet when he seemed to require only an interested listener.

But long after she had said good night to him and gone up to her room, she lay awake, staring into the silvery, scented darkness, uneasy and bewildered.

Wichita Falls to Have Good Water At Lake Kickapoo

WICHITA FALLS.—This city's citizenry, their ears for years ringing with the caustic comments of visitors concerning the demerits of what unquestionably was bad-tasting drinking water and hard washing water, will hold a wake Nov. 22 to mark the passing of its civic blight.

For on that day, the water mains and the household spigots are scheduled to flow with what experts promise will be one of the softest, most palatable supplies in the country. Source of the new water is a new lake, Kickapoo, for which Wichita Falls voted $3,500,000 in bonds.

Especially invited to the wake are the 550,000 officers and men who trained and were stationed at Sheppard Field here during the war.

During that period, citizens, visitors and soldiers weren't even allowed to wash out the bad taste by strolling into the local pubs for a beer. The citizens voted for prohibition, later reversed their stand.

A Sheppard Field reunion is being planned by the Celebration Planning Committee as a part of the day-long festival.

Sentence Is Delayed In Nall Murder Trial

ODESSA.—A jury recommended a nine-year sentence for John L. Nall of Houston, convicted yesterday of murder in the July 4, 1946, shooting of his ex-wife's husband, Glen T. Thornton, but Judge Cecil C. Collins delayed sentencing of Nall at the request of defense attorneys. During his trial, Nall testified that he went "absolutely crazy" when he entered the Thornton apartment here and found his former wife, from whom he was divorced the previous April, with her new husband, Thornton, in a room as he lay in bed.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"Take Pen in Hand"

This column has been running for so long that its readers, in towns like ours all over the country, are beginning to "take pen in hand" and write us what they think.

Some of them take me over the coals for what I say—like the column I ran on planting alfalfa. Others write, "I liked your column yesterday, but..." All of them have different points of view.

From where I sit, that's the way it should be. Everybody's entitled to an opinion—and it's those very differences, and friendly criticism, that make for tolerance and better understanding—whether it's ideas on planting alfalfa or choosing between beer and cider.

The more folks air their differences right out in public, with a neighborly respect for the other person's liberties and point of view, the closer we are to the American principle of individual freedom—whether it's in a choice of crops or beverages.

Locals Out to Return to Bulldogs Drilling Hard Green and Gold Look To Avenge 1946 Loss Handed Them by 'Dogs

Smarting from two straight setbacks, and with last year's 14 to 7 beating handed them by the Plainview Bulldogs, still fresh in mind, the Pampa Harvesters will journey to Plainview tomorrow night to battle the Plainview team in the first conference clash of the season for 1947 teams.

Intensive drills throughout the past two weeks have been seen at Harvester Park as Coach Tipps has been preparing his charges for this all-important conference clash.

The Green and Gold eleven will start tomorrow night's game with the strongest offensive lineup they have yet to field this year. Due to injuries incurred throughout the season, the Pampa backfield has never been at full strength. The backfield of Lafoon, Wilson, Williams, and Mayes, excluding Williams, is the way the boys lined up in pre-season training. Derrell Conklin will be the only backfield man, who began the season with the team, not to be in uniform for tomorrow's battle.

In an effort to cope with Bill Howton, Plainview left-end, who has been acclaimed one of the best offensive ends in the state, many hours have been spent by the Harvesters on pass defense. Howton made the all-district second team last year.

The Harvesters will field a faster and heavier team than the Bulldogs. The Harvesters will outweigh the Bulldogs six pounds per man. The bigger weight advantage coming in the backfield where the Harvesters will outweigh the hosts 10 pounds to the man. The Green and Gold backfield will average 159; the Bulldogs 149. On the line, there will be four pounds difference with the Harvesters averaging 172; Plainview 168.

Hoosiers Actually Sneak Out of Town

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (NEA)—A cab driver, carrying a load of Indiana football players to their train in Cedar Rapids, took a short cut down an alley. The Hoosiers had dropped a 27-14 decision to Iowa in a rough and bruising game. A small subdued voice in the back of the cab murmured: "I told you we'd have to sneak out of town through the alleys if we lost."

Gorillas to Make Final Home Stand With 'Pups Tonite

The feature gridiron battle of the week at Harvester Park will be tonight, when the Pampa High School Gorillas meet the Plainview Bullpups, in the final appearance of the Gorillas at home this season. Kickoff time has been set at 7:30.

Tonight's battle between the Gorillas and Bullpups is being sponsored by the local Lions Club, in an effort to raise money to buy equipment for the Junior Harvesters.

Baylor Seeks 1st Win Over Texas Aggies Since '45

COLLEGE STATION—Baylor's rating Bears will roam onto Kyle Field here Saturday afternoon with intentions of (1) remaining undefeated in the Southwest Conference football race, (2) extending the Texas Aggie losing streak to four games and (3) gaining their first victory over A&M since resuming football in 1945.

The Bears have made only one conference start, but it was a good one. They bumped off the Arkansas Razorbacks, co-defending champions, 17 to 9, after giving the Porkers a nine-point, half-time lead.

The Aggies looked good in their first four games, even in losing to Oklahoma, 26 to 14, and Louisiana State, 19 to 13, but last Saturday against Texas Christian in Fort Worth and Cadets did a complete about face and fell flat, 26 to 0, in their conference opener.

The task of halting their skid will be an extremely difficult one for the Aggies. The Bears have rolled and passed to 1,332 yards in their first four games to 1,084 for the Aggies in five games.

So the Bears will be favored to gain revenge for the 19-13 defeat in 1945 and the 17-0 setback in 1946. The 19-13 game was the only one in which Baylor passed up football during the war years.

The series, now in its 44th installment, began in 1899. The Aggies have won 23 games, lost nine and tied six others.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Wonder if anyone has nominated Pappy Waldorf to be the "Clark Shaughnessy of 1947"? . . . You remember how Clark took Stanford to the top of the Southwest Conference title.

TCU-Oklahoma—The Horned Frogs and Sooners will meet at Pampa Saturday night. Baylor and Texas A&M—Baylor should continue on their undefeated way by beating the Aggies by 10 points.

Arkansas and Mississippi—Arkansas cause I was rearred there, says Willie.

BOWLING

In the Men's Scratch League, last night at the Pampa Bowling Alley, the Pampa Bowl team, out of three from Whozits, and Burnett's who won two out of three over the Cabot Co. Bill Murphy, of the Pampa Bowl team rolled high single with a 213 and high three-game series with 842.

In the Ladies Lone Star League, Modern Beauty Shop won two out of three from Franklin Life Insurance, and Parker's Blossom Shop won two out of three from the Secretaries. Per Crum, of Modern Beauty Shop, rolled high single with a 159 and high three-game series with a 383.

Vice President of Wildlife Group Asks for Resignation of Commission

SAN ANGELO.—(P)—The question of what action the Texas Wildlife Federation plans to take in its disagreement with the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission concerning purchase of Camp Bowie at Brownwood remained unsettled today after divergent statements by federation officials.

Yesterday the president of the federation, Grady Hill, said that the federation has not yet asked for any resignations from the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission—an answer to Vice President Conrad Fath's statement that the federation would ask all commission members to resign.

The WAY it LOOKS to Bill Behrman

Due to the fact that "yours truly" has just returned to Pampa after many years absence, he was very much in the dark about District 1AA football at the outset of the season.

Many have asked "Why don't you stick your neck out, and pick a few like the rest of the guys do?" Well, that situation came to an end yesterday, when into the Pampa News came a letter from the editor.

So with the understanding that Willie will make an appearance weekly, and with all due respects to Major Hoople (who picks them every Wednesday in The News) and other more-experienced contemporaries—here goes Willie.

Pampa and Plainview—Willie signs the boys up at the pool hall figure the Harvesters to be at least 12 points better than the Bulldogs.

Amarillo and Brownfield—Reports state the Sandies looked good in losing to the Odessa Broncs, last week. After the first five minutes of play, the Sandies held last year's state champions to one touchdown. Amarillo by 18 points.

Borger and Electra—Don't believe Electra has won a ball game this year, and after the showing the Bulldogs made against the highly rated Highland Park team from Dallas last week, Willie says they should be 21 points better than the Electra Tigers.

Texas and Rice—The Longhorns, who are ranked by the nation's sport writers as the third best team in the nation, should be at least 14 points better than the Owls, who were picked in pre-season polls to win the Southwest Conference title.

TCU-Oklahoma—The Horned Frogs and Sooners will meet at Pampa Saturday night. Baylor and Texas A&M—Baylor should continue on their undefeated way by beating the Aggies by 10 points.

Arkansas and Mississippi—Arkansas cause I was rearred there, says Willie.

Famed Survivor of Bataan in Hospital

NEW ORLEANS.—(P)—A famed survivor of the Bataan Death March—Major Hans Hornbostel—is a patient at the Veterans Administration Hospital here.

When he was admitted yesterday his sole friends he was suffering from hardening of the arteries, said Dr. Anees Mogabgab, hospital director, said Hornbostel's hospitalization was necessitated by the privation, malnutrition and disease suffered when Hornbostel was a prisoner of the Japs.

Hornbostel arrived here yesterday from Carville, La., where his wife, Gertrude, is a patient at the National Leprosarium.

Some 17 months ago the Hornbostel case attracted nationwide attention when the Major demanded permission to live with his wife in the confines of the leprosarium. Denied that privilege, Major Hornbostel has lived about two miles from the hospital cycling to and from home daily.

Fourth Army to Have New Deputy Chief

TEMPLE.—(P)—Maj. Gen. Andrew D. Bruce of Temple will become the Fourth Army's deputy commander upon departure of Maj. Gen. John Coulter, Gen. Thomas T. Handy, Fourth Army commander, announced here last night.

General Coulter has been ordered to Tokyo, effective the first of next month.

During the war, General Bruce commanded Camp Hood, near here. Later he commanded the 77th (Statute of Liberty) Division in the Philippines campaign. After V-J Day he took command of the 7th (Hour Glass) Infantry Division in Korea.

Bruce won the Distinguished Service Medal for organizing and conducting the tank design center at Camp Hood. A graduate of Texas A&M College, he won five campaign stars with the Second Division in World War I.

Major League Senile Talent Scheduled for Scrap Heap

NEW YORK.—(P)—Old age has crept up on so many Major League clubs that baseball is getting set for its most thorough housecleaning job in years. Much of the average talent is slated for the scrap heap before the 16 clubs start spring training March 1.

The "youth movement" definitely is in full swing in Brooklyn, Cincinnati and Philadelphia. In fact, the Chicago White Sox, last of the "star players" crowd also are undergoing changes that will shake out most of the deadwood.

Since the end of the season, the White Sox have released lefty Thornton Lee, the cunning south-jaw who used to be one of the best in the American League. He still can do his stuff but each year he needs more rest between starts. Likewise the Sox have cut loose Red Ruffing who failed to show many traces of his old New York Yankee form in a few starts for Chicago.

Ruffing is reported headed for a scouting or farm station job in the Yankee organization.

The Chicago Cubs have been weeding out the oldsters, third baseman Stan Hack is gone and so are Veteran Pitchers Claude Passeau and Bill Lee. Billy Jages, the utility infielder who played shortstop regularly for a stretch in September, has been released as a player signed as a coach.

With Bill Meyer, a great hand with young players, taking over at Pittsburgh, there will be more pin slips handed out by General Manager Roy Haney. Jim Bagby, the former Boston Red Sox and Cleveland hurler, already has been sent to Indianapolis by the Pirates and Rip Sewell has been retired and becomes a pitching coach.

Joe Ceri of Georgia leads the punters with a 46.4 yard average on his 12 spirals.

Lindy Berry of Texas Christian has returned the most punts (26) for the most yards (372). Walter Bolden of Richmond has the largest kickoff runback yardage, 241.

Four players have intercepted five enemy passes, with George Simms of Baylor running back the thefts for the most yards—133.

Doak Walker of Southern Methodist leads the major team scorers to date with seven touchdowns and 10 extra points for a total of 52. Wilton Davis, Hardin-Simmons, was third with seven for 42.

Godoy Gets Unanimous Decision Over Marshall

EL PASO.—(P)—Arturo Godoy, South American heavyweight champion, took a unanimous 10-round decision over Jack Marshall, Dixie heavyweight titleholder, before a crowd of 2,200 in El Paso Coliseum last night.

Godoy weighed 205, Marshall 198. The Argentine's fighting, which opened a cut on the bridge of Marshall's nose in the second round, and had the Southerner's face giving a butchered appearance at the end, was the big edge in the fight.

San Antonio Site Of International Boxing Tournament

SAN ANTONIO.—(P)—An international boxing show between amateurs of Mexico and Texas will be held here Nov. 11.

The Mexican team will be made up of eight champions and the runners-up in a Mexico Boxing Federation Tournament at San Luis Potosi, Mexico, which will be held Oct. 28 to Nov. 1.

The Texas team will be made up of outstanding boxers in the 1947 Golden Gloves Texas Tournament.

Southwest and South Have Monopoly On Gridiron's Top-Ranking Players

NEW YORK.—(P)—Michigan and Penn State may dominate football team statistics this week—but when it comes to individual prowess the South and Southwest have a monopoly on top-ranking performers.

For the first time in the memory of National Collegiate Athletic Bureau figures jugglers, griders from one or the other of those two sections are to be found topping each statistical classification for individuals.

Hard-working Charlie Conerly and Barney Poole combined to give Mississippi three leaders for the week. Conerly leads the nation in total offense and forward passing and Poole, who couldn't catch the grades at Army, has been able to catch the passes, thanks to Conerly's accuracy.

Conerly has made 728 yards in 159 plays, which gives him the workhorse title among the leaders, and he's completed 55 passes in 107 attempts, including eight touchdown passes, to corner passing honors.

Poole has caught 21 passes for 183 yards, five of them good for touchdowns. He shares touchdown distinction with Keith Hughes, an ex-tackle at Utah State, who moved out on the flank to pick off five six-pointers also.

Best pass-catching average is held by Joe Scott of the University of San Francisco, who snagged seven for 199 yards and three touchdowns against Marquette last week and has gained 304 yards on 12 receptions.

Joe Ceri of Georgia leads the punters with a 46.4 yard average on his 12 spirals.

Lindy Berry of Texas Christian has returned the most punts (26) for the most yards (372). Walter Bolden of Richmond has the largest kickoff runback yardage, 241.

Four players have intercepted five enemy passes, with George Simms of Baylor running back the thefts for the most yards—133.

Doak Walker of Southern Methodist leads the major team scorers to date with seven touchdowns and 10 extra points for a total of 52. Wilton Davis, Hardin-Simmons, was third with seven for 42.

Saturation Point Reached in SWC Grid Attendance

DALLAS.—(P)—Football attendance in the Southwest Conference has reached the saturation point, there will have to be larger stadiums for it to get any bigger.

Reports from the seven conference members show that 14 home games to date have drawn 298,676 while 17 home games for the same period last year packed in 377,783.

The average is off about 1,000 per game, mainly because Texas and Rice have played fewer home games than last season. Texas and Rice always draw the most fans.

Texas, for instance, had 148,000 for four games last year and has reported 76,000 for two this season. Rice had 28,000 for one this year compared to 69,747 for three last year. Their average is higher for 1947.

The Texas-Oklahoma and Texas A. & M.—Texas Tech games at Dallas and San Antonio respectively, are not included in this year's total although they are considered home games. However, each was about the same each year, so there would

Michigan Ready for 'Little Brown Jug' Clash With Minnesota

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—(P)—A Michigan football juggernaut that hasn't really been tested in four runaway victories this season, will be at top strength for Saturday's "Little Brown Jug" clash with Minnesota—just in case.

Few who saw the Gophers tumble in a 40 to 13 licking last week at the hands of Illinois believe that Minnesota has the depth to press the Michigan steamroller, but the Wolverines won't be caught napping midway of their drive for an undisputed Big Nine title—something they haven't won since Herbert O. Fritz' Crisler first came to Michigan as head coach in 1938.

Three-deep in talented material at every backfield post, Michigan has powered its way to 222 points in its four topheavy triumphs over Michigan State, Stanford, Pitt and Northwestern, scoring to fewer than 49 points any time out yet.

be no difference in the average. In our resentment over rising costs of living and our worry over how to cope with these costs, especially the soaring prices of food-stuff, are we not, perhaps, a little too prone to blame the man behind the counter in the grocery store?

Because we have to dig so deeply into our pocketbooks to produce the coin with which to provide adequate nourishment for our families, have we not come to picture the grocer as a villain with a gun in one hand and a cash register in the other?

Is that picture justified?

Is it not possible that the man who runs the tape on your daily purchases is flinching just a little, too, as he tabulates each item?

Remember, he is just the last of a series of men who handle those commodities before they are price-tagged for you, the consumer. Behind him are the shadowy figures of the producer, the transporter, the processor, the wholesaler, and the distributor. Each of these individuals had added his bit to the final figure you read on the register tape, and each has fought a bitter battle to increase that bit to cope with his own rising cost of operation and maintenance. Every tiny victory for one of those men has been another little defeat for you, and another spark to your rebellion against the grocer.

Is it not quite probable that the grocer is just as innocent as you in the deplorable circle of higher prices which make higher wages which make higher prices in which we all are traveling?

If you will just be fair enough to stop to realize it, the man who operates a grocery has to compete for existence in this inflated world, too.

Incidentally, a check of groceries here and elsewhere reveals that in most cases, food prices in Pampa are cheaper!

Taft Expected to Toss Hat Friday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Friends said today that Senator Robert A. Taft will formally announce his active candidacy tomorrow for the Republican presidential nomination.

This will place the 58-year-old Ohioan who heads his party's Policy Committee in the Senate in a race that already has drawn the formal entry of former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota and probably will have several other participants, including Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

Taft's announcement will be made in a letter to the Ohio State Republican Committee. It will put him in a position to begin an active drive for the 547 delegates necessary to win the nomination at next June's GOP convention in Philadelphia.

The senator is expected to supplement his letter with the announcement of a speaking tour through Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and possibly Texas.

In an earlier Western swing Taft already has laid the groundwork for an attack on the administration of President Truman, who can have the Democratic nomination if he wants it.

NEW PACKARD—Frank Dial Motor Co., 300 N. Cuyler Street, who has recently acquired the Packard dealership for the Pampa area announces that Packard has just become the first in the automobile industry to put into production a complete and all-new line of 1948 cars. These three 1948 Packard Eights are powered by brand-new engines developed since the war. George T. Christopher, Packard president and general manager, said the shift to 1948 models was made "without losing even one day's production, an industry precedent." Partners in the local motor company are Frank Dial and Cliff Ansmus.

subject or trade that the deaf are old enough they are also eligible to pass the Texas driver's license examination providing they otherwise qualify under the state's regulations for passing the examination.

The children are given the regular nine month term with two weeks Christmas vacation, the same as any other school. During summer and Christmas vacation periods they return home to their parents.

After graduation the boys and girls, providing they show the proper initiative and intelligence, are sent to Geudauleit College for the Deaf in Washington, D. C., where they may take courses in engineering, chemistry and in other professions. The girls are given courses in domestic science, beauty culture, typing, and cosmetology, and other courses suitable for female vocations.

Upon graduation from the Texas School for the Deaf, all graduates are found positions by the school. According to officials at the Austin institutions, demand for deaf tradesmen are now heavier than they are able to supply.

Cobina Wright, Sr., to Attend Royal Wedding

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif.—(AP)—Cobina Wright, Sr., prominent American society woman and mother of film actress Cobina Wright Jr., planned to leave for London by plane today for the wedding of Princess Elizabeth and Lt. Philip Mountbatten.

Mrs. Wright told a reporter that she and Mountbatten became good friends after meeting in Venice 12 years ago. "In fact," she added, "you might say that Philip courted my daughter, but then I suppose we shouldn't talk about that now, should we?"

Ross Trial

ed, but she escaped and testified here that the doctor was the man who fired a lever-action rifle into her father's car.

The defense, basing its case on a plea of insanity, introduced evidence in an effort to show the investment broker, friend of the defendant, separated the doctor from a large sum of money, the blood causing the physician to "crack up."

The state indicated it would ask the death penalty.

Under Texas law possible penalties applicable to the case include:

1. If the jury finds the defendant was insane at the time of the alleged offense and sane at the time of the trial the defendant would be discharged as to the offense for which he was on trial.

2. If the jury finds the defendant was insane at the time and insane now the defendant would be confined to a state hospital. (If he later were found sane he would be discharged as to the offense for which he was on trial.)

3. If the jury finds the defendant was sane then and sane now the defendant could be assessed death in the electric chair, life imprisonment or imprisonment for any number of years not less than two in the state penitentiary.

4. If the jury finds him sane at the time of the alleged offense and insane at the time of the trial he would be committed to a state hospital. (If at any time in the future he were found sane he would have to stand trial for the alleged offense committed.)

Most of today's trial spectators were women. Some of them arrived as early as 7:30 a.m. to be sure of a seat.

Ann York, in court today for the first time since she testified, read a movie magazine as she waited for court to open. Her red jacket was a bright spot where she sat inside the railing, not far from the chair in which Ross has been sitting.

The defendant's wife was seated by Mrs. Grace Epsy, who was office nurse for Ross. Also in the court room was Miss Rena Ross, the defendant's sister, whose home is at Alliance, Ohio.

Plenty of Iron in This Man's Body

LANSING, Kans.—(AP)—Three and one-half pounds of metal—including two complete safety razors without blades—was the yield of an operation on the stomach of an inmate of the Kansas State Prison.

In addition to the razors, five metal washers, 401 nails of assorted sizes, a three-inch screw, a couple of two-inch stove bolts, a two-inch nut, a large brass washer, 11 thumb tacks, a quarter-inch screw and 60 small metal objects including paper clips and safety pins were listed by Warden Robert H. Hudspeth in the recovery.

Prison officials said the man, identified as James S. Payne, serving a one to five year sentence for arson, gave no reason for consuming the objects.

The operation took place at the state prison hospital after he appeared there when a nail caught in his throat.

His condition today was described as satisfactory.

WE MAKE REAL ESTATE LOANS

I wasn't kidding when I said I had a 5030 ft. brick building located in the heart of downtown Pampa for sale. It's not very often when business property of this caliber is offered for sale. I have had an offer of $5,000, but would like to have this offer raised before letting it go. If you've got some money to invest in Pampa, it would pay you to look into this, as this property will always be good as long as there is a Pampa.

I've just had listed with me 100 acres of good level land that is well improved. This land lays just out of the city limits. It would make a swell country home, and still be close in. It would be ideal for someone who likes to do a little trading on the side.

I have three 50 ft. lots in a good residential section of the city. Two of these lots have a big double garage located on the rear, that could be easily converted into two apartments each. The other lot is a fine two-bedroom home located on it. I will sell this property together, or will sell separate. But want to sell now.

Need a good two-bedroom home worth the money in a good location. I have one, and I can sell it worth the money. I take $500 for it, and might do a little better if you need it had enough.

You people that are wanting to buy a good house trailer that don't cost you too much, I've got it. It's in good shape, ready to go. I take $500.

WALL STREET STOCKS

NEW YORK, Oct. 22—(AP)—Stocks fell on a narrowly irregular performance in today's market.

Early improvement by selected industrials disappeared in the face of selling orders. While renewed confidence tendencies were evidenced by pivots, offering in the final hour depressed many to their lows of the day, although some stiffening was in evidence at the close. Total transfers ran to around 1,200,000 shares. Declines of fractions to a point or so were plentiful although favorites retained modest gains.

Depressed were Bethlehem, U. S. Steel, Youngtown Sheet, International Harvester, Santa Fe, Du Pont, Grumman Aircraft, Dow Chemical, Anaconda Copper and Electric Power & Light. Dividend news prodded to new 1947 highs, at times, St. Regis Paper, Texas Pacific Coal & Oil, Life Saver Corp. and Burroughs Adding Machine. In higher ground were Lion Oil, U. S. Rubber, Caterpillar Tractor, Owens-Illinois, American Can, Air Reduction and Penney.

Bonds were steady.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 22—(AP)—After selling off several cents during the early trading, wheat staged a rally late in the session on the Board of Trade today.

Spurring the sudden upturn was receipt of a dispatch by the Thimann Grain Company from Hutchinson, Kansas, stating that big dust storm was raging in that important winter wheat area.

At the same time, trade reports from New York flour clients said the production and marketing administrator had purchased more than 1,000,000 hundred weights of flour for export during the past two days.

Corn and oats were lower early on another sharp drop in live hog quotations. Some of the early downturn was canceled.

The December wheat contract made another new 50 cent high at $3.11 1/2 in the late trading.

Wheat closed 1/4 to 3 cents higher, December $3.11 1/2, corn was 1/4-1/2 lower, December $2.25-1/2, oats were 3/4-1/2 higher, December $1.22 1/2-1/4.

Wife Disclaims Any Right to Private Account of Husband

DALLAS—(AP)—Any right of interest in $51,809 deposited in late Tax Assessor-Collector Ed Cobb's private bank account has been disclaimed by his widow, Mrs. Bessie Cobb.

In a contest to the appointment of W. H. Reid, Dallas attorney, as permanent administrator of Cobb's estate, she alleged that the funds have never been a part of her husband's property.

The case was placed in the Irving State Bank by persons unknown to her, in trust for the benefit of Dallas County and to be applied to payment of the checks Cobb left in his cash drawer at the courthouse, the contest said.

Mrs. Cobb said that if a court of competent jurisdiction, however, determines that the $51,809 belonged to Cobb, then she claims the right to be appointed temporary administratrix of the fund.

She said that Cobb's estate consisted solely of 5 acres of land near Irving, household furniture and recreation camp equipment.

Mrs. Dora Bookchin, it seems, had sorted to headquarters that a criminally inclined canine grabbed her pocketbook as she was walking along a Uniontown street and fled, carrying the purse by the strap.

BY JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON—(AP)—"Outlaw the Communist Party," says the witness. "That's how to get rid of communism in this country."

All around the big hearing room people—but not all the people—not their heads yes, yes.

For two days it's been like that at the un-American Activities Committee hearing on whether there's Communist influence in Hollywood.

One witness after another has climbed up on the stand, talked about communism, and then said: "Outlaw the party."

It's easier to talk of outlawing the party than it is to do it. Outlaw it how?

Seeking a definite answer to that question, this writer called a number of lawyers here and in New York, lawyers inside and outside the government. They are men who are specialists in civil rights and liberties.

Bunched together, their answer was: "That's a $94 question."

They didn't agree on how it could be done. They all pointed out that the Supreme Court might throw out a law banning the party.

The answers of these lawyers, some of whom admitted they are puzzled about the whole business of outlawing the Communist Party, are given here:

1. Congress might try to pass a law not only banning the party but making membership in it a crime.

2. The individual states might try to crush the party by outlawing it and making membership in it a crime.

3. Or the states might try to do it this way: By forbidding the Communist Party to appear on election ballots unless it had previously won, say, 50,000 votes in a past election.

The Communist Party has never won 50,000 votes in any state. Total membership in the party is probably not more than 100,000 although many more people than that, in sympathy with Communists, might vote for their candidates.

But then this would certainly follow: The Communists, outlawed by the state and federal governments, would certainly fight through the courts up to the Supreme Court.

And the high court might decide that trying to outlaw a political party is unconstitutional and can't be done in this country.

Even so, where the Communist Party was outlawed by name, the Communists could easily adopt some other name and carry on their work, fighting through the courts any attempt to interfere with them.

One thing to remember is this: The Constitution guarantees the right of free speech.

Rayburn Urges Texans To Back Food Program

COMMERCE—(AP)—Texans were urged to back President Truman's conservation plan by Rep. Sam Rayburn of Bonham, to save western Europe from communism and to keep America out of war.

Rayburn, former speaker of the National House of Representatives, said here yesterday in a speech before East Texas State College students that poverty, not enough to eat and not enough to wear, is a fertile breeding ground for communism.

Urging the citizenry to endorse sufficient expenditures to advance "Feed Europe" program, Rayburn said that if Turkey and Greece go Communist, Italy will follow.

Rayburn was presented the diploma for an honorary doctor of laws degree conferred by the college three years ago by Dr. Frank Young, college dean.

But then this would certainly follow: The Communists, outlawed by the state and federal governments, would certainly fight through the courts up to the Supreme Court.

And the high court might decide that trying to outlaw a political party is unconstitutional and can't be done in this country.

What Have 2 Movies To Do With It?

Most Americans cheered when it was announced June 22, 1941, that Russia was going to help Great Britain and France whip Hitler. And we did help. Winston Churchill, the old foe of communism, when he said anybody who fought fascism was a friend of his.

When the going was still tough in the latter part of 1942 and the early part of 1943, feeling toward Russia was pretty good. She was a little slow in getting started with what she said she was going to do, but weren't we too? That was the way most people considered it.

It was about that time that such pictures as "Mission to Moscow" and "North Star" were being released, and they were shown throughout the country. Few months later, they made us feel even a little better about Russia—the atheist country.

Then the war was over, and the Russians started vetoing everything which appeared to us to be the right way to get the world on its feet. She started delaying tactics on the diplomatic front.

Now, in 1947, start a hunt for Communists in America—including Hollywood. Someone wants to know why those two movies were made. That's the question we can't understand. If the pictures were so bad and out of taste, why did not someone mention it back when they came to the local theaters? How may we ask, do these two pictures enter at all into the hunt for Communists? We want Communists out of Hollywood if they are there, for so much American thought is now being molded on celluloid.

But it would be much better for us, it seems, to admit that we should have condemned the pictures when they came out. If there was something in them we did not wish to glorify, it would be much better, it seems, for us to admit that an apparent ally of war has turned out to be just the opposite when it comes to a struggle for world peace.

The pictures were shown, and most people liked them. And whether there was any "pressure" or "sugging" from Washington that they be produced is not important. Suppose there was pressure? Were we not in league with Russia, and was it not important that the people have a good feeling toward Russia if the war was to be successful.

The time to condemn those pictures was at the time they came out, at the same time declaring that we would not fight the Germans with the communistic Russians on our side.

Let's get on with the investigation of Communists in key Hollywood positions. Who said, or what pressure was brought to bear five years ago for the making of two moving pictures has nothing to do with getting Communists out of high places in 1947.

BAD MAN OF THE BALKANS

by Peter Edson

WASHINGTON, (N.E.A.)—With policing of the Balkans and the rightness of the Truman doctrine of aid to Greece and Turkey still two of the most controversial issues before the United Nations General Assembly in New York, it might be fruitful to force into the open the terms of two treaties between Soviet Russia and Yugoslavia.

American officials admit they don't know too much about what's in these documents. The first was concluded in Moscow in April, 1945. Bear in mind that this was before V-E Day. Yet Marshal Tito, alias Josip Broz, Yugoslav-trained Communist, went to Moscow as head of the army in Yugoslavia and there signed a 20-year treaty of friendship between the two countries.

The official government of Yugoslavia, at that time, was the monarchy under the regency of young King Peter II. The election which ousted the king and set Tito up in power as premier, minister of defense, head of the army and virtual dictator, was not held until November, 1945.

Six months later, Tito returned to Moscow to get his second treaty. Only news about what was in the Moscow press of June 11, 1946, halting the signing of the pact three days before. According to the Moscow papers, this second treaty provided that Soviet Russia would rebuild Yugoslavia's war industries and equip its armies.

TREATY MIGHT BE PRECEDENT FOR TRUMAN PLAN

If these are the terms of the

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

By RAY TUCKER
SACRAMENTO—The conflicting viewpoint of Senator Sheridan Downey and Democratic State Chairman James Roosevelt on how federal water shall be sprinkled across the acres of California's Central Valley threaten another rift in a party already torn by the anti-Truman belligerence of the Wallace-Kenny faction. It adds another burden to the shoulders of the late F. D. R.'s first-born.

Although seemingly a highly technical question that a few smart lawyers and engineers could settle in a few hours, and one which has received scant attention outside California and Washington, D. C., it is the same sort of contest that Mr. Roosevelt's father waged and revealed when he demanded reform of Wall Street and associated interests in the stormy days of the New Deal's birth. The struggle here is a sort of sequel.

Son James, on behalf of small farmers—or so he contends—follows the path of his father's policy, although originally ran as an ultra-liberal in certain respects. Senator Downey has won strong support from conservative, business interests in this stand. Here is the latest story of Democratic difficulties in this electorally important state:

WATER—Central Valley is a long strip of productive land extending up and down the heart of the state. In much of this area water is so scarce that "every drop has to be accounted for" by the users. It may be difficult for non-Westerners, who enjoy normal rainfall, to understand it, but in this region H2O is more precious than Hain and Haig. Without it, farms shrivel in the blazing sun and human beings go hungry or broke. Its lack cursed the early pioneers.

At a cost of approximately $370,000,000, depending on future prices of labor and materials, the federal government plans additional irrigation for the valley by harnessing the vagrant waters of Mt. Shasta Dam, similar storage reservoirs, the Sacramento and San Joaquin Rivers. A neat canal and a complicated system of exchange arteries must also be constructed.

RESTRICTION—The Federal Reclamation Law provides that not a drop of the impounded and hoarded water shall be sold to any farm consisting of more than 160 acres. Mr. Roosevelt stands resolutely by the statute's restrictions. He has the support of the A. P. of L. and the C. I. O., which can organize small farmers more easily. Behind him, too, are New Dealers, other so-called liberals and various groups of "ideologists."

The actual field marshal of this faction is spare, shrewd Max Stern, head of the Federal Reclamation Bureau here, former Washington newspaper correspondent and a protégé of Senator Robert F. Wagner of New York. Mr. Stern has always been a zealot for any cause he espoused, and quit the newspaper game more than a decade ago to dedicate himself to F. D. R.'s "crusade." As a result, a controversy involving water rights has become a blazing, emotional, social, economic and ideological duel.

Senator Downey believes that the 160-acre restriction should be removed from the law. As such an advocate, he has been portrayed as the spokesman for the "big farmers" and against the "little fellows." Political elements who once idolized him that he has deserted them. Conversely he has picked up friends among classes who once opposed him bitterly.

CONTRIVERSY—There appears to be so much to be said for both sides that the violence of the con-second treaty and if they are being carried out, American officials see in them a precedent for exactly what is being done under the Truman plan to aid Greece and Turkey. In that case, Soviet Russia does not have a leg to stand on in her opposition to the Truman plan.

Only difference between the two agreements is that the Truman plan is all out in the open—$100 million for military aid and $150 million for Greece. How much Soviet Russia is pouring into Yugoslavia is kept secret in a covenant not openly arrived at. It is this backing by the might of Soviet Russia, however, which makes Tito the bad man of the Balkans.

There is no denying that Yugoslavia was ripe for a revolution when the war was over. Its government under the regency was probably as bad as they come. And the dominant, land-holding clergy, as in all backward countries, was no model of social uplift. Tito was just the boy to clean out this mess, but he went to extremes.

He has an army and police force that has been estimated at 600,000, with 1000 plants. His government is quick to use this force, including a dreaded secret police called the OZNA, modeled on the Russian NKVD, to put down all opposition. The poor peasants may not like their new masters any better than the old, but there isn't anything they can do about it.

Common Ground

By R. C. HOLLES

The Seeds of England's Socialism

I have been reading a new book that under ordinary circumstances would be very dry circumstantial. The book is a biography of Richard Oastler. It is entitled "A Tory Radical."

Richard Oastler's active work was in the 1830's and 1840's. He might be called the Henry Wallace of that time in England. However he did, not believe in universal suffrage.

This book was called to my attention because it gave the date of the beginning of compulsory education in England. Richard Oastler at that time advocated that the government establish working hours and minimum wages. In 1833, the Parliament passed what is known as a Factory Bill which limited the hours of work of women and children and required children to attend school for two hours a day. This was the beginning of compulsory education in England. The state of Pennsylvania in the United States did not adopt a compulsory education law until 52 years after this law was first adopted in England.

Richard Oastler also believed in tariffs and that the state owed everybody a living whether a person produced it or not. He was a great orator and was able to arouse great class hatred between employers and employees. Oastler was not much of a man to debate. He would evade and make his dirty insinuations sting class against class. Of course he could have been very much embarrassed by the fact that he consented to open debate where he would have had to stick to the subject and where he would not have been able to bring in irrelevant and unparliamentary matter. He was a great Methodist and delighted in quoting scripture. He contrasted Christianity with free trade by quoting St. Paul as saying:

"The husbandman that laboreth must be first partaker of the fruit."
Then he quoted William Huskisson on free trade:
"To give capital a fair remuneration, the price of labour must be kept down."

No man who believes in free trade would ever make such a statement as is quoted as coming from Huskisson. No man who believes in free trade tries to keep any price down. The prices are established by the bidding of the market and by what the individual producer and by what a customer is willing to pay for the services the worker produces.

As to his quotation from St. Paul, the husbandman must not only be first partaker of the fruits, he must get ALL the produce. The only way to measure what he produces is to let all workers help establish values and not to have a group of employers or a group of workers or the government interfere with anyone establishing values. And when that is done the law of competition compels the reduced cost to be passed on to the consumer.

But it was the miseducation of men like Oastler 106 years ago that has led to the condition that exists in England today. Today in England we have the government interfering in most every way with prices, with a free market. The result eventually will be that there will be much more poverty, much more misery in England because of the government attempting to help carry out the policies advocated by Oastler a hundred years ago.

As one economist remarked at that time, "Examined in detail and looked at under the most general aspect, all the great branches of human industry are found to be with order which, growing from the selfish exertions of individuals, pervades the whole. Experience has proved that this order is invariably deranged when it is forcibly interfered with by the state; and thus not laissez-faire, but the undirected exertions of merchants, manufacturers and farmers, but the interference of governments is anarchy. Self-love and social ardor."

Another way of expressing the same laissez-faire philosophy which England has turned its back on and is today reaping the fruits is "Suffering and evil are nature's admonitions; they cannot be got rid of; and the prudent attempts of benevolence to banish them from the world by legislation, before benevolence has learnt their object and their end, have always been more productive of evil than good."

Because we are now seeing the fruits in England and we are also seeing the fruits in the United States of government interference with human initiative, this book becomes a very interesting book to those who are interested in why we have depressions and what causes depression in character and improvement in material well being.

PUNISHMENT
In the Gravegeport prison of the Hague, Netherlands, prisoners condemned to starvation were tantalized by the food aromas conducted from the kitchen into the "hunger chamber" by means of air passages.
An iron ore mine in Lebanon County, Pa., has been in continuous operation since 1740.
