Lloyd Bentsen To Bring Campaign Here

Lloyd Bentsen, Democratic candidate for U.S. senator from VOL. 63 - NO. 167 Texas, will bring his campaign to Pampa at a 12:30 noon luncheon Tuesday in the Coronado Inn Starlight Room.

Bentsen is scheduled to arrive at Perry Lefors Air Field at 12:15 p.m. and will go directly to the hotel for the luncheon which will be open to the public at $2.50 per plate.

The senatorial candidate will be accompanied to Pampa by former congressman Walter Rogers of Washington. Rogers served the 18th Congressional District for 18 years and was the sponsor of legislation for the Candian River Dam and Lake Meredith.

cheon will be Rex McAnelly, manager of the Moody Farm Feedlot and a close friend of Bentsen. It was Bentsen, then serving as a county judge at McAllen, who gave the just-outof-college McAnelly his first job as a county agent.

FOR TUESDAY, OCT. 20, 1970 Your birthday Tuesday: This will be a ?year of settling down to decent changes Study of psychology, religion, the power of persuasion are strongly favored. Relations with neighbors improve. Initiative toward material gain takes more effective form; don't walt too long in your promotional efforts. Emotional ties become calmer, deeper. Monday's natives usually sympathize with the underdog, the nameless victim.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Sudden events bring excessive reactions. Ride out the provocation. A chance exists for a profitable short-term sideline from some of the little upsets.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20):Work changes

TAURUS (April 20-May 20):Work changes turn out to be inefficient. Impulsive decisions, untactful complaints only provoke pride and defensive actions. Wait and let others criticize first. Rockefeller Hot On Trail For Fourth Term Governor

Washington Correspondent

He has been running either for governor or president virtually every two years since 1958, but he's still energetic, zestful, unflappable when the booing is rough, capable of turning a dry text almost into a comic strip.

If he beats his unmagnetic but still potent Democratic ad-Arthur Goldberg, the street walk (even in Democratic Brooklyn) or charge a room with electricity as I saw him do this summer at the gover-

Rocky?" He responded: "No, it's true, I like that stuff: There are too many of us who are down there-I won't say in the mud, but in the grass.'

He dealt buoyantly with his own gaffes, like declaring that Democratic Comptroller Arthur Levitt is "in like Flynn." Grinning, he said:

"I can't say things like that any more. The press is here. I got in trouble on that

Mindful of his critics' harping worry. on the difficulties of the now state-owned Long Island Railroad, the governor chopped rght back:

"If we hadn't bought that line six years ago, it would be out of existence and most of those guys would be walking. Or they'd be driving their cars on 26-lane highways and, if they came into Manhattan, John Lindsay would be towing them all ayay, anyway."

Only moments before Rocky at a headquarters opening had refused to be thrown by catcalls from a group of crudely discourteous students. He plunged on, pausing now and again to say to them:

"I'll come to your problem in a minute.1. . I'm telling you-you can talk afterward . . . Quiet down and put those signs down so people behind you can see."
