FOR CIVIC AUDITORIUM

City Sets Bond Election Date

By TEX DEWEESSE
News Staff Writer

Pampa voters will go to the polls Saturday, Oct. 24, to make their decision on an $800,000 bond issue for a $1,200,000 civic auditorium to be paid for in its entirety with income from the M.K. Brown Foundation, Inc.

The election day was set this forenoon by unanimous approval of the City Commission.

All registered voters inside the city limits, property owners and non-property owners will be qualified to cast ballots.

First legal advertising required for the election appears elsewhere in today's Pampa Daily News.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Oct. 24 and the city commission room in City Hall will be the only voting place. Election returns will be canvassed on Oct. 29.

The commission also employed R.A. Underwood Jr. of Rauscher Pierce Securities Corp., Dallas, as fiscal agent to handle the $800,000 bond issue.

Underwood has acted in the same capacity for Pampa in many previous bond sales. The fiscal agent's fee of $8,000, minimum set by the state will cover all costs including attorney fees, printing of the bonds, etc.

Underwood told commissioners a period of 25 years has been set up in which to pay off the bonds but they are expected to be retired in 15 years. He added that it was anticipated the interest rate on the auditorium bonds would "be well under six per cent."

Following today's commission meeting representatives of the

M.K. Brown Memorial Auditorium committee and city commissioners met with Herbert Brasher, Lubbock architect, for a further study of preliminary architectural plans for the new auditorium.

Brasher displayed a large architect's drawing of the proposed auditorium building with a theater seating capacity of 1,500 and a dining area for 750 persons which also will serve as an exhibit hall. Also studied was a miniature model of the structure.

Brasher's proposed schedule, assuming that the bond issue carries at the Oct. 24 election, sets up the bond sale on Dec. 1, followed by printing of the bonds and availability of the $800,000 before Jan. 1.

The architect stated if everything proceeds on schedule construction of the auditorium building should be started early in 1971 with a completion date set for one year later, early in 1972.

IN CRASH BLAME

Aircraft Owner Absolves Self

OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) — The owner of the airplane in which 30 persons were killed last week in the Colorado Rockies has absolved himself of all blame for the crash.

"I'm awful sad about the lives that were lost, but I don't see that I could have done anything," Jack Richards said Wednesday.

Richards is president of Richards Aircraft Co. of Oklahoma City which owned both the Martin 404 that crashed and a sister ship that landed safely at Logan, Utah.

The crash killed 13 members of the Wichita State University football team, 14 school officials, coaches, athletic officers and fans and three crew members. The plane was taking the team to Logan for a game with Utah State.

Richards said the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) pronounced the aircraft fit to fly when it was inspected last month. The FAA denied knowledge of the inspection.

Richards said the plane underwent its annual inspection Sept. 8 in Las Vegas, Nev. He said the plane passed the inspection and was certified to fly. He said the certification was noted in the plane's log and he gave the log to federal officials Sunday.

The FAA said the plane was inspected last in 1967. An FAA spokesman in Los Angeles said "to our knowledge" the plane was not inspected Sept. 8 in Las Vegas. Los Angeles is the location of a regional office of the FAA and Las Vegas is part of its region.

"I feel like if the FAA knew some reasons why the aircraft should not have gone up, they should have grounded it right then and saved all these lives," Richards said.

Richards said he could not see how he could be blamed for the crash. He said he relied on the FAA to determine the airworthiness of the planes and since Wichita State leased the aircraft the university was responsible for the passenger's safety.

The FAA revoked the airworthiness certificate of the plane that landed safely in Logan because, the agency said, inspectors found 16 safety violations including "engines saturated with oil" that "created a fire hazard, excessive oil consumption in both engines and an arcing battery cable."

Richards said he did not believe the engines were consuming too much oil.

SWISS ARMY apparently takes a tolerant view of youthful trends. In this photo, long-haired troops move into position at Zurich airport as security against hijackings of airliners. Similar guards were installed at Geneva.

Makes Major Move For World Peace

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon called for a standstill cease-fire in Vietnam and other Southeast Asian battlegrounds Wednesday night in a relatively short report to the nation.

Nixon portrayed his "major new initiative for peace" as possible vehicle attaining "the beginning of the end of war in this country."

The cornerstone of his plan was a proposal for an immediate cease-fire. But he declared: "It has always been easier to make war than to make a truce. To build an honorable peace, we must accept the challenge of long and difficult negotiations."

The proposal for an immediate "cease fire in place" with all forces in all Indochina stopping the shooting and maintaining their positions — was the major new phase of his new proposal.

Nixon said these were the other key elements:

—An All-Indochina peace conference, using the Geneva Accords of 1954 and 1962 on Vietnam and Laos as the "basis for settlement of problems between all states in the Indochina area."

—A promise to pull out all American GIs from Vietnam on "an agreed timetable" as part of a settlement based "on principles I spelled out previously" — which made total U.S. withdrawal contingent on North Vietnamese withdrawal from South Vietnam.

—That the South Vietnamese people be assured the right "to determine for themselves the kind of government they want," which he said would not meet the "patently unreasonable demand" that he attributed to the Communists to "dismantle the organized non-Communist forces and insure the takeover by one party, and ... the right to exclude whomever they wish from government."

—Immediate and unconditional release of all prisoners of war held by both sides ... without exception and without condition."

The cease-fire proposal, Nixon recognized, would be difficult to maintain because "in a guerrilla war ... there are no front lines."

"But an unconventional war may require an unconventional truce," he said. "Our side is ready to stand still and cease firing."

He said an international commission should supervise the truce. Canada, which is a member of the International Control Commission that was set up to supervise the now virtually forgotten 1954 Geneva Agreement splitting Vietnam, quickly volunteered to join any new commission.

Demos Prepare Welcome Mat For Governor

Governor Preston Smith will be the featured speaker at a Democratic Rally and Bar-B-Que Oct. 27. The rally will be held at the Pampa Youth Center at 7:30 p.m.

In addition to Governor Smith, invitations have been mailed to all Democratic candidates in the Texas Panhandle area.

Tickets for the Democratic Rally went on sale at the opening ceremonies of the Gray County Democratic Headquarters, 125 E. Foster, next to the post office building.

The Sing Out Pampa group, which provided special entertainment at the Democratic Headquarters opening, will also perform at the Bar-B-Que on Oct. 27.

"We anticipate a large turn out for the Rally and Bar-b-que to hear Governor Smith and to show support for all democratic candidates in our area," said Harold Comer, Gray County Democratic Chairman.

Tickets are on sale at democratic headquarters in Pampa.

FOR 24 HOURS

Kidnapers Postpone Execution Of Victim

MONTREAL (UPI) — The Canadian government and the terrorists who kidnaped a British diplomat inched closer Wednesday — the kidnapers postponing execution of the diplomat and the government asking them to begin negotiations for his release.

In Montreal, a communiqué from the Front de Liberation du Quebec (FLQ), a clandestine French-Canadian separatist group, announced it would postpone for 24 hours — until noon (EDT) today — any action against James R. Cross, the senior British trade commissioner.

But the FLQ warned repeatedly it is prepared to kill Cross if the government continues to refuse its demands. A letter from Cross urged the government to accept the kidnapers' ransom conditions.

In Ottawa, External Affairs Minister Mitchell Sharp repeated that the government would not bow to most of the ransom demands, but called on the kidnapers to name a negotiator to deal with the government to arrange the release of Cross.

Cross, 49, was abducted Monday morning from his home by FLQ gunmen.

The long list of ransom demands included freedom for 23 jailed separatists, $500,000 in gold, and an airliner to carry the freed prisoners and gold to sanctuary in Cuba or Algeria.

Speaking on a telecast by Radio Canada, the French-language service of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC), Sharp said the government was willing to go along with one of the demands — that the kidnapers' manifesto be read in full over the government-owned CBC network.

"But we must have assurances that, without the imposition of unacceptable conditions, Mr. Cross will be delivered safe and sound," Sharp said.

"As a first step, I invite those holding Mr. Cross to name some person with whom the authorities, or persons representing the authorities, can deal with confidence in making arrangements leading to Mr. Cross' early and safe release."

Government officials said handwriting checks confirmed that letters received from the kidnapers, bearing Cross' signature, were written by the missing diplomat.

Pampa Gets First Snow Of Season

A storm system moved into Pampa in today's early hours and brought its first snow of the season.

Local weather forecast calls for the snow to end this afternoon with a killing freeze to cover the area by morning.

While a snowcover is not clearly defined as a "first frost," to Larry Andrus, 813 Bradley Drive, goes the "weatherman of the year" title. Andrus in a recent "Silent Majority" questioning forecast the first frost for Oct. 3 ... missing it by only five days, which is a pretty accurate "guess" for any "weatherman."

The first big cold front of autumn, rolled southward through Texas today, triggering cold rainstorms in its path and bringing blowing snow to the northwest corner of the Panhandle.

Dalhart weather observers reported moderate blowing snow this morning and a temperature of 27. Snow covered a wide area around Dalhart an inch deep, and observers said half an inch of ice lay underneath.

Amarillo reported blowing snow, but it was not reported sticking. Farther south, in Lubbock, gusty winds up to 35 miles an hour were reported, but no snow. The Lubbock temperature was 34.

The Canadian front blew through the Panhandle Wednesday morning, dropping temperatures.

Leftist Torres Takes Over Presidency In Power Pact

LA PAZ — Bolivia (UPI) — President Juan Jose Torres conferred today with his backers and representatives of labor and students in an effort to form a cabinet for the Bolivian government proclaimed Wednesday by the left-wing general.

Political sources indicated the cabinet probably would be announced later today.

Even as Torres assumed power Wednesday after defeating rightist officers in a struggle for power, army troops fought workers and students in Oruro, a tin mining town 183 miles south of La Paz. Seven persons were killed but details on the clash were lacking.

In Cochabamba, southwest of La Paz, youths heavily damaged the building in which the U.S. Information Service maintains an office. In La Paz, university students seized the American-Bolivian Cultural Center and proclaimed it a branch of the university.

Mobs in La Paz sacked homes of two members of the rightwing military junta that failed in a bid for power against Torres and his left-wing following of workers and students, backed by a ragtag army of peasants from the interior.

The powerful, leftist-dominated Bolivian Workers Center handed the new government a 20-point mandate of the popular forces Wednesday. It called for suspension of payments by the Bolivian government for nationalized Gulf Oil Co. installations, and an independent foreign policy including establishment of relations with the Iron Curtain nations.

Sadat Emerges As Egypt's Interim Prexy

By United Press International

Anwar Sadat emerged as Egypt's interim president today and with a pledge to follow the policies of Gamal Abdel Nasser appeared likely to win the Oct. 15 national plebiscite by an overwhelming majority and to rule Egypt for the next six years.

Unanimously nominated to the presidency by 353 national assembly members meeting in extraordinary session Wednesday night, the former two-time vice president spelled out a six-point program in a 20-minute acceptance speech closely turned to Nasser's foreign and domestic policies.

World Reacts With Praise For Talk

By United Press International

Much of the world reacted with praise today to President Nixon's call for an immediate cease-fire in the search for peace in Indochina. But some governments and statesmen expressed doubt of its success.

South Vietnam said it was in agreement with the proposals. The Saigon government said its statement followed after discussions with the American government.

The South Vietnamese reaction favoring the Nixon plan followed by several hours an unfavorable response by some South Vietnamese officials.

Elsewhere in Southeast Asia, the South Korean and Australian governments issued statements praising Nixon's proposals for ending the war in which their troops also are fighting.

Australia's Reaction

Australian Prime Minister John G. Gorton, whose country has 8,000 men in Vietnam, said: "The Australian government holds strongly to the belief that a just and permanent settlement can only be finally achieved around the conference table."

New Zealand also endorsed Nixon's proposals. Prime Minister Keith J. Holyoake said he approved of all five major points Nixon made.

Japan welcomed the plan and said it was ready to play "every possible role" in bringing peace to Indochina.

Chief Cabinet Secretary Shigeru Hori said the Nixon proposal represents "a great advance" from the previous U.S. stand.

Korea called the plan "sincere and constructive" and called on the Communists to accept the offer in order to restore peace in Southeast Asia.

Foreign Minister's Statement

"Our government welcomes such an initiative of President Nixon," said Foreign Minister Choi Kyu-Hab.

Although the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong did not respond immediately, a British trade unionist just back from Hanoi said the North Vietnamese expected the new proposals by Nixon.

Clive Jenkins, joint general secretary of the Association of Scientific, Managerial and Technical Staffs, writing in the Guardian newspaper, said: "The authorities in North and South Vietnam expected the fresh proposals President Nixon has now made. They estimated he had to react to (Viet Cong Foreign Minister) Madame Nguyen Thi Binh's new proposals in Paris — and that he would have an eye on the U.S. congressional elections in November."

Community Hotel Board In Session

A meeting of the new executive board of the Community Hotel Co. of Pampa was scheduled for 1:30 p.m. today in Coronado Inn.

Members of the board are Crawford Atkinson, newly-elected president; A.A. Schuneman and Floyd Imel, co-treasurers; E.O. Wedgeworth, secretary; William Jarrel Smith, assistant secretary and legal counsel; and Aubrey Steele, vice president.

Oil Breaks Hazardous

HOUSTON (UPI) — Oil pipeline breaks on inland lakes are far more hazardous than the more publicized ocean oil spills, John A. Little and Al J. Smith Jr. of the Federal Water Quality Administration said Wednesday.

"Not only are the sources of the oil spill different, but the methods required for cleanup and the residual effect to the environment are different," they said in a paper delivered at the fall meeting of the Society of Petroleum Engineers.

"While reaction time for both (ocean and inland) spills is extremely critical, it becomes almost the ultimate consideration in the inland spill," the officials said.

They said dispersion is not possible in the inland spill so recovery as fast as possible is mandatory.

Smith and Little urged engineers to share with industry the knowledge gained by individual firms to prevent and improve cleanup methods.

"The day of ignoring oil spills, no matter where or how small, has passed," they said. "We are now in the era of prevention. It is the responsibility of industry, as well as federal, state and local government, to work together."

They said the government is laying plans for control of spills on a state-by-state basis. Little and Smith said they are confident about controlling future ocean spills.

They said ocean spills could be controlled by using chemical dispersants, absorbent materials such as straw and plastic, pump-driven skimming equipment to suck the oil off the water, and "booms which mechanically collect and contain oil."

'Cycle-Car Get Together At Intersection

A car-motorcycle accident shortly after 12 noon Tuesday resulted in no injuries but damages to the two vehicles involved.

A motorcycle driven by Thomas Earl Chumbley, 525 N. Warren and a car driven by Gerald Wayne Walter of Star Route 2 were in collision at the intersection of Browning and Starkweather resulting in $125 estimated damages to the Walter's car and $150 damages to the motorcycle.

HERE ARE some of the beautiful people who will be on the Junior High School stage Monday night when the Bayanihan Philippine Dance Company presents the first attraction in the Pampa Community Concert Association's series of fall and winter concerts.

Dance Company To Perform In Concert

The Bayanihan Philippine Dance Company, just back in the United States after a one-week engagement at Expo '70 in Osaka, Japan, will be in Pampa next Monday night for the opening performance in the Pampa Community Concert Association's 1970-71 season.

The company of 27 dancers and 12 musicians will appear on the newly refurbished stage of Pampa Junior High School. Described as a ravishingly beautiful dance ensemble, Bayanihan has been a regular and welcome visitor to the United States for a dozen years, each time earning rave reviews from the press and tumultuous acclaim from its enthralled audiences.

It made dance history at its first international engagement at the Brussels World Fair in 1958. Following sold-out appearances in New York in 1959 and 1961, the company made a triumphant continental tour of the U.S. in 1964. In 1968, Bayanihan toured Europe and came back to round out the year with appearances in the United States, beginning with a two-week series at San Antonio's HemisFair.

The 1970 season has been holding unanimous world attention. Highlight of the company's current coast to coast tour, which includes Pampa, will be a two-week engagement at New York's Alice Tully Hall during the coming Christmas holidays. It will mark the first time a major dance company has appeared in the distinguished hall.

The San Antonio Express reviewer had this to say about Bayanihan: "Twenty-seven handsome and beautiful Philippine youth comprise the company, accompanied by 12 musicians. Through folk dances and music, the Bayanihan Company portrays the regional customs of its Arabic-Malayan-Spanish-American past, as well as those of the indigenous tribal peoples of the islands."

"The fascination of the performance lies both in the diversity of tempo and choreographic intricacy. The unique nature of the native orchestral accompaniment is as enchanting as the grace of the dancers." Admission to Monday night's concert will be by Concert Association membership card only. There will be no box office ticket sale. Curtain time will be 8 p.m.

The Welfare Index of Pampa was formed in 1954 by a group of school principals, interested community leaders and ministers to see if they could keep from overlapping services in our community. The meetings were held in the City Commissioners Office until a few years ago, when the group decided to join the Council of Clubs and have a regular meeting place. Meetings are held each quarter and officers are elected in the spring for the next year. Ted Gikas has held the office as President of the group for the past three years.

A storeroom for stored furniture need furniture moved to the storeroom. Last year 3240 garments were given to needy people with no discrimination of people. The Rebekah Lodge has given many hours sizing and hanging garments in the storeroom as a volunteer service. We do not believe that any other organization can do so much with $50, do you?

Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets are screened each year by the Welfare Index workers on a voluntary basis so that families who have a need will each receive a basket to help them over the holidays and one family not receive so many that they cannot take care of the groceries.

SAVE WORK in preparing turkey.

Researchers Suggest Ways To Save Work

About 90 per cent of turkeys are related fresh-frozen. Thawing the turkey has always been a chore for the homemaker. But there's a new and easy way. Researchers at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Western Regional Laboratories (USDA), tested both the safety and time of the method. The Poultry and Egg National Board and the National Turkey Federation both recommend the new method.

When do you want to cook your fresh-frozen turkey?

Cook it immediately?

1. Remove wrap. Place frozen turkey on rack in shallow roasting pan.

2. Cook for 1 hour in preheated 325-degree oven.

3. Take turkey from oven and remove neck and giblets from body cavity and wishbone area.

4. Immediately return to oven and cook.

Cook It Later Today?

1. Leave in original wrap.

2. Thaw in running water.

Thawing Time

5-9 pounds 3-4 hours. Over 9 pounds 4-7 hours.

3. Cook or refrigerate thawed turkey immediately.

Cook It Tomorrow?

1. Leave in original wrap.

2. Place frozen turkey in brown paper bag or wrap in 2-3 layers of newspaper.

Thawing Time

Under 12 pounds 10-18 hours.

Over 12 pounds 18-30 hours.

Check turkey often during last hours of thawing and refrigerate immediately if completely thawed.

Cook It Day After Tomorrow?

1. Leave in original wrap and place on tray.

2. Thaw in refrigerator. (turkeys over 12 pounds may take up to 3 days.)

DO NOTS:

Allow thawed bird to stand at room temperature

GINGERED FROZEN FRUIT

2 cans 13½ ounces each frozen grapefruit sections
1 pkg. (1 pound) frozen melon balls
½ cup vermouth OR gingerale
2 tbsp. honey
¼ cup finely chopped crystallized OR preserved ginger
Fresh mint (optional)
Let frozen fruit defrost partially in opened containers according to package directions. Meanwhile, combine vermouth or ginger ale, honey and ginger in saucepan; bring to boil, then reduce heat and simmer 3 to 5 minutes.

When fruit is almost defrosted, measure ½-cup fruit syrup into vermouth mixture (save remaining syrup for use in puddings, frostings and fruit beverages). Place fruit in a crystal bowl set in a second bowl containing crushed ice.

swirl) 1 pkg. (12¼ ounces) fudge buttercream frosting mix
1 pkg. (3 ounces) cream cheese, at room temperature

CAROLYN'S COLLECTIONS

By CAROLYN ANDERSON FRESH ORANGE CAKE

2 Cups flour
2 teas. Baking Powder
¾ teas. Ground Mace
½ Teas. Salt
One and one-third cups Sugar
Two-third cup Butter
2 heaping teaspoons grated orange rind
1 teas. grated lemon rind
1 egg yolk
2 whole eggs
Two-third Cup Fresh Orange Juice

Sift together the flour, baking powder, mace and salt. Set this mixture aside. Cream the sugar and butter. Add the orange and lemon rind. Beat in the egg yolk and the two slightly-beaten eggs. Beat well. Add the flour mixture alternately with the orange juice. Beat well. Pour into 2 well-greased and lightly floured cake pans. Bake in preheated oven at 375 degrees for 25 minutes or until toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean. Allow to cool. Ice with white icing. Decorate with sections of fresh orange.

Surprise Goblins With Maple Cake

Go old-fashioned and make a butternut cake with genuine maple syrup frosting all over it. The little goblins will love it.

Last week we dined at the Publick House in Sturbridge, Mass. It's a great place for eating Yankee dishes. Among other things for dessert, we were offered this old-fashioned butternut cake. Immediately, we decided it was just right for Halloween.

BUTTERNUT CAKE
1 cup butter
2 cups sugar
3 cups flour
4 eggs
1 cup milk
½ tps. vanilla or lemon flavoring
½ tsp. salt
2 tps. baking powder
1 cup broken butternut
Cream butter till smooth, gradually adding half the sugar. Add remaining sugar to beaten egg yolks. Combine with butter mixture. Sift dry ingredients, add to first mixture alternately

Refrigerate or cook immediately.

Stuff bird until ready to cook. Thaw commercially stuffed birds.

MINI-LOAVES of oatmeal, honey.

Oatmeal Honey Loaves Are Popular Recipe For Bread

Both at home and in good restaurants today little loaves of bread are increasingly popular. They seem quite in keeping with the mini-vogue. This recipe makes six 4½-inch loaves.

OATMEAL HONEY LOAVES
2 cakes compressed or 2 pkgs dry yeast
¼ cup lukewarm water
1¼ cups milk, scalded
One-third cup honey
2 tablespoons shortening

1 tablespoon salt
4½ to 5 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 cup rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked)

Soften yeast in lukewarm water. (Use warm water for dry yeast.) Pour scalded milk over honey, shortening and salt. Stir occasionally until shortening melts. Cool to lukewarm. Stir in 1-cup flour; add softened yeast and oats. Stir in enough more flour to make a soft dough.

Turn out on lightly floured board or canvas; knead until smooth and satiny, about 10 minutes. Round dough into ball; place in greased bowl; brush lightly with melted shortening. Cover and let rise in warm place until double in size, about 1 hour.

Punch dough down; cover; let rest 10 minutes. Divide dough into 6 parts. Shape each part to form a small loaf.

Place in greased 4½x2½x2-inch loaf pans. Brush each loaf lightly with melted shortening; cover and let rise until nearly double in size, about 30 minutes. Bake in preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) 30 to 35 minutes. Remove from pans; brush tops with melted butter, if desired. Cool. Six small loaves.

Ham With Yams Start Fall Menu

Fresh or canned yams offer a pleasant variation on what to serve with ham. These two recipes from Louisiana should start you off on the right track. They are both novel and delicious.

LOUISIANA YAM-ONION SKILLET
8 slices bacon, diced
2 small onions, thinly sliced
1½ cups sliced celery
6 medium Louisiana yams, cooked, peeled and cut in chunks or 3 cans (1 pound each)
Louisiana yams, drained
1 tsp. seasoned salt
Dash pepper
2 Tbs. chopped parsley
Erown bacon in skillet; remove bacon and saute onion and celery in bacon drippings until tender. Add yams; sprinkle with seasoned salt and pepper. Mix lightly and heat. Turn into serving dish. Sprinkle bacon and parsley on top. Six servings.

SOUR CREAM TOPPED YAMS
4 medium Louisiana yams, pared and sliced or 2 cans (1 pound each) Louisiana yams
1 med. onion, sliced
2 tablespoons butter
1 cup dairy sour cream
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon dill seed
Freshly ground pepper
Cook fresh yams in boiling salted water 15 minutes or until tender. Drain. Meanwhile, saute onion in butter until tender (do not brown). Remove from heat; stir in sour cream, salt and dill seed. Turn yams into shallow serving dish. Sprinkle with pepper. Pour sauce on top. Serve with broiled or baked ham, as desired. Four servings. Heat canned yams and drain.

PEPPER VINEGAR
"One dozen pods red pepper, fully ripe. Take out stems and cut them in two. Add three pints vinegar. Boil down to one quart; strain through sieve, and bottle for use."

Fabulous fashion put-ons to knit—Hats and caps are a vital part of fashion's important total look this season. Here are four winners to knit quickly and easily, in both pattern and plain stitching.

Knit Caps Make Fall Headlines To Wear With Versatile Styles

By JUDY LOVE

Headlines are making headlines every day, but knit headlines are calling attention to themselves, too. Speaking simply, knit a cuddly, comely little hat and wear it with any length for a more finished look this season. Here are four special headliners—great little caps you can turn out quickly in knitting.

Upper left is an eye-catching cable twist cap just squishy enough to enhance all your casual and fun-time outfits, including pants, of course. It's easy to knit on No. 9 needles.

The lower left is a popcorn stitch, pull-on cap with a great pouffy pompon. Wear this for fun, or let it dress up your favorite dressy coat or suit.

An easy fashion put-on is upper right. This young headliner is a simple garter stitch, using No. 4 needles for the snug edging, then size 8 needles to complete the cap; garter stitch all the way.

If you prefer a brimful of fashion, knit the great little hat, shown lower right. You knitters know the stitch looks more complicated than it is.

Each hat will fit any head size, so get yourself set for headline news, and check your gift list at the same time. Each is a charming, thoughtful gift for good friends.

For directions on all four easy-to-knit little caps, send 50 cents to "Stitchin' Time," Newspaper Enterprise Association, Radio City Station, Box 503, New York, N.Y. 10020. Ask for leaflet S301, and include your name, address and zip code.

KNIT KNACKS

The typical volunteer worker, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, is a woman in the prime of life, somewhere between the ages of 25 and 44. She's married and she's a mother. Her husband's likely to be a white collar worker with a moderate income.

Children Toe Mark With Shoe Fashions

NEW YORK (NEA) — The current adult excitement over fashion co-ordination of clothing and shoes is working its way down to children, according to Jack A. Intrater, president of a leading shoe company. "We are now designing shoes that will fit in with the new looks in fashion," he said.

This is a gradual change in an industry that has been supplying basic styles of children's shoes for years. Children's shoes were once wholesaled on a line basis only. Now, many retailers are purchasing individual styles on an item basis.

"We were once a two-season business," said Intrater. "Now we find that stores are more open to buy and we may see some buyers six times a year with interim designs."

With the new emphasis on fashion, here are some of the important trends:

Selection of colors is increasing so that mothers can co-ordinate shoes with outfits.

The Western influence will be observed in children's shoes with Indian motifs for girls and "Western" motifs for boys.

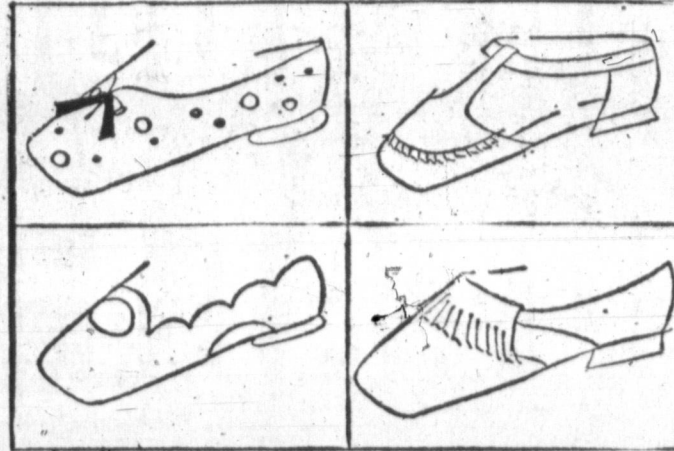

"Sunday-Monday" styles that can be worn both for dress and school are increasing in popularity.

With the imminent arrival of the midi, the upfront look featuring high-rising fronts and the calf-high boot will be popular with girls.

Laced shoes, especially in multitone leathers, are coming

"This is due to the increasing size of children in general and also to the popularity of wearing sneakers or going barefoot," Intrater said.

The new emphasis on fashion and the rise of consumer into fashion for boys. The size ranges and buying customs of retailers are being affected by the changes in juvenile feet — which are getting longer and wider.

awareness of foot hygiene (i.e. that shoes should be rotated rather than worn day after day), will increase per capita purchases of children's shoes, he predicts.

Review Club Has Arabian Program

WHEELER (Spl) — Mrs. Owen Jones and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Buck Jones, presented a program on "Arabia" to the Thursday Review Club recently in the home of Mrs. Anita Brown.

The women showed slides and various souvenirs from Arabia and discussed the dress and customs of the Arabian people. Mr. and Mrs. Buck Jones and family have lived in various cities in Arabia for three years. Jones is employed with an oil company.

A short business meeting was conducted by President Dorothy Malihany. Julia Denson showed a short film on cancer. The hostess served refreshments to the guests. Paula Britt, Mary Kay Christner, Kathleen Cross, Julia Denson, Berniece Hall, Dot Hefley, Wilma Hefley, Geraldine Hollis, Sylvia Lee, Ed Uri Luttrell, Dorothy Melihany, Jo Ann Millett, Mona Patterson, Pam Phillips, Patsy Rarden, Jane Rives, Jody Thomas, Rosemary Vise, Bert Ware, Sharon Wright and Patsy Bateman.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago a man in our small town broke into my home and tried to force his attentions on me. I am a happily married woman and I have never tried to attract this man. I was so embarrassed of what people would say I never told a soul.

Last week the same man broke into another woman's home while her husband was away and tried the same thing with her. She didn't tell her husband because she was afraid he'd kill the man. She is my neighbor and she confided in me. O, yes, he also makes obscene telephone calls to women when he knows their husbands are away. I know because I recognized his voice.

I honestly believe this man is mentally unbalanced. Should I step forward and tell his wife they are newly married and have a small baby. Your advice is desperately needed.

AFRAID TO GET INVOLVED
DEAR ABBY: Telling his wife may accomplish nothing.

Committee Defends Pets' Civil Rights

NEW YORK (UPI)—Are urban problems worsened or lessened when humans dwelling in public housing projects keep a dog, a cat, a canary or fish on the premises?

Some city and housing experts lean to the "worsened" side of the question and that's one reason Dr. Dean Casey White is raising his voice in defense of pets. Dr. White is chairman of the Committee for Pets in Housing. It is unusual in that it does not solicit funds, as it campaigns for the right to own a pet.

In an editorial in Popular Dogs Magazine, Dr. White, of New York, says several city governments nationwide have formed a kind of unofficial alliance to exclude pets from the housing units. In New York and some other cities pet owners are liable to get a ticket if walking a dog not on a leash in the park or street.

Dr. White recalls that the late Dr. Richard H. Hoffmann, neuro-psychiatrist and onetime President of the Institute for Human-Animal Relationship, said this:

"To deprive a shut-in, a child, or a geriatric of the companionship of a pet is cruel and unconscionable."

Dr. White said the anti-pet conspiracy, as he calls it, will only aggravate urban problems. "In an age when juvenile delinquency is on the rise, it would seem that City Fathers would be most anxious to take effective steps toward its elimination," Dr. White said. "Yet they are doing the opposite by trying to ban the most powerful weapon—pets."

Some psychiatrists maintain that pets are an absolute necessity for children in the formative years. The reasoning: A child will not become a juvenile delinquent if his early training includes the responsibility of owning a pet.

Council Advises Parents On Ways To Give Medicine

NEW YORK (Sp.)—Take a cue from Abraham Lincoln, and the chances are you can help prevent an accidental taking of medicine by youngsters in your home.

"It is true that you may fool all the people some of the time," Lincoln said. "You can fool some of the people all the time, but you can't fool all the people all the time."

themselves to medicine when parents are not looking.

If you're not supposed to fool youngsters into taking medicine, what do you say?

Tell them the truth, says the Council on Family Health, a non-profit organization sponsored as a public service by leading members of the drug industry, to promote home safety and family health. Doctors say children should neither fear nor love medicine. They should be taught to respect it as an aid when necessary to good health. Your attitude and behavior are the key for your child's attitude toward medicine, perhaps for the rest of his life.

Mrs. Hackworth Knows Who Will Win

AUSTIN (UPI) — The polls don't mean a thing, says Johnnie Mae Hackworth. Everybody knows already who's going to win this here governor's race.

Why it's a lead pipe cinch, she says. And if the Democratic incumbent, Gov. Preston Smith, and the Republican challenger, Paul Eggers, want to save face, why they'll just bow out of the race right this minute.

"This time I'm positive," she said Tuesday. "No other time have I said I was going to win. But this time I believe it's going to be just a blitz campaign for Texas."

Three times the self-proclaimed prophet from Brenham, Tex., has entered the Democratic primary and three times she has lost.

"Even when I was running before, I knew the Lord was not going to use a Democrat or a Republican," she said.

Last week, the 65-year-old grandmother was visiting Florida when "she got my orders—hasten back to Texas. Run a write-in campaign for governor. This way I'll be neither a Democrat or a Republican."

"I know God did not want me to pay that $1,000 fee (for the primary race) or win the election as a Democrat," Mrs. Hackworth said. "There is a prophesy that God is going to raise up a person that he's going to use and this is going to be without price or profit. So I could not pay the filing fee and fulfill the prophesy."

Mrs. Hackworth was defeated overwhelmingly in her first three tries for governor in 1964, 1966 and 1968. But she is undaunted by these failures and now describes them as part of

God's plan to increase poor showings on charges she was insane. The charges popped up when Mrs. Hackworth was arrested and kept in custody at a state hospital in 1964 on charges of threatening the life of President Lyndon Johnson.

NEW LANDING SPOT

MILLBRAE, Calif. (UPI)—A 66-inch scale model of a Boeing 707 airplane, valued at $2,900, turned up Tuesday in a telephone booth.

The model, owned by Trans World Airlines, was stolen Sunday from a display table at the Hilton Inn near San Francisco International Airport.

An inn security officer received an anonymous telephone call Tuesday telling where the model could be found. It was not damaged.

poor showings on charges she was insane. The charges popped up when Mrs. Hackworth was arrested and kept in custody at a state hospital in 1964 on charges of threatening the life of President Lyndon Johnson.

"I naturally got very few votes in 1966 and 1968," she said. "But I say God loves Nixon, and now the truth is going to come pouring out. I'm going to prove what a false arrest that was."

Mrs. Hackworth made her best showing in 1966 when she received 31,105 votes out of the 1.2 million cast in the Democratic primary.

Pampa To Finish Pre-District Play Against Canyon Eagles

By HARLAN HYSMITH
News Staff Writer

Old man injury zeroed in on the Pampa Harvesters' and knocked six Seniors out of Pampa's game with the Canyon Eagles at 7:30 tomorrow night in Harvester Stadium.

Ricky Harris, tight end, John McCarroll, offensive halfback, Jimmy Clark, offensive right tackle, and Johnny Clark, fullback, all received injuries in the Harvesters' 14-9 loss to Lawton last Friday night. Dewayne Glover, defensive linebacker, and Greg Wilson, offensive halfback and punter, were both hurt in regular practices earlier this week. All of those who were injured should be able to play in the Harvesters' district opener with Caprock here October 16 at 7:30 p.m. They will not, however, be able to play tomorrow night against Canyon.

Therefore, out of necessity, the Harvester line-ups will have some new faces. Starting offensive center will be Keith Coyle (165). Guards will be Mickey Sims (200) and Loren Rice (200). Casey Cameron (170) and Mike Cummings (180) will start as offensive tackles. Tom Watson (155) will be the split end and Mike Brister (170) will start at tight end. In the backfield will be Dale Ammons (175), quarterback, Billy Watkins (160), fullback, Monroe Woods (165), right halfback, and Johnny Roth (154). Left half-

Defensively for the Harvesters will be Jim White (165) and Tibby Rogers (170), ends; Billy Lemmons (200) and Mike Cummings (180), tackles, who all do a great job as the "front four." Linebackers will be Garvin McCarrell (165), Alvin Ferguson (165), and Billy Watkins (160). Defensive halfbacks will be Mike Brister (170) and Tom Watson (155). Dale Ammons (175) will play safety and Larry Knutson (165) will be the rover.

Canyon now stands 1-3 for the season after edging by Lubbock High last week, 16-12. The Eagles lost to Caprock, 14-7, to Spearman, 7-6, and to Clovis, 6-0.

Canyon's head coach Dunny Goode said in a telephone interview, "Pampa will be the best team we've played so far this season. They have a great quarterback and an excellent defense."

Canyon's offense runs from both the "Wishbone T" and the Pro-set. Harvester head coach "Swede" Lee said, "Canyon has a weak offense, but a very good defense."

Top O' Texas Round-Up High School Football

LIBERAL — The Perryton Rangers will be charging into battle against Liberal Friday night at 7:30 p.m. The Rangers are rebounding from a 1-2 season with an upset victory over Caprock fresh in everyone's thoughts. The Rangers are leading their lineup with quarterback Danny McWhorter, a rushing 155 pounder, who call signals like a Vienna Traffic Officer.

The Rangers are running from a primary Texas Triple-Option better known as the Wishbone-T. Backing McWhorter is David Flowers a tough 195 pound fullback who secured a place on the starting lineup as a Sophomore last year.

SHAMROCK — The fighting Irish will be on the road to Guyman, Okla. hoping to hand the Sooner State another Texas romp. The Shamrock team pounded Erick into the dust last week with a 40-6 win with the running abilities of Ricky Gragg and Don Rhodes. Both had over 100 yds. rushing against the Erick Bearcats last week.

Quarterback Lynn Ramsey was injured in last week's game and the Irish reserve leader Randy Tarbet took the helm in the 40-6 defeat. It is not known at present whether Ramsey will be included in the starting lineup for Friday's game.

The Irish have had a lot of depth with their second-team playing the entire second half of the Bearcat game. Big Green are looking mean and have a victory squint in their eyes.

CANADIAN — Christmas has come early for the Canadian Wildcat's with a 40 season and leading in points for first place with White Deer. The Wildcat's will meet the Wheeler Mustangs Friday in Canadian.

The Wildcat's have held their opponents scoreless with the exception of Clarendon who managed to sneak 14 past the tough Wildcat defense. Two members of the Canadian team lead district one-A in scoring they are Harold Pack (155, Sr.) and Bill Lynch (150, Sr.) Pack plays End while Lynch is in the Quarterback slot. Lynch sat out most of last season with a broken leg and now that his mending is complete he is a scrambling, passing signal caller.

The Mustangs have a 3-1 season beating Lefors 26-14, Wellington 23-0, Groom 20-0 and losing to Spearman 25-13. Wheeler is currently in a four way tie for 2-A honors with Silverton Claude and Memphis.

WHITE DEER — Fight, fight and fight some more is the White Deer motto as they are tied with Canadian for first place in district 1-A. The Bucks lost their starting quarterback Rick Hoskins to a shoulder injury in last week's game against the McLean Tigers. Hoskins will be out for the rest of the season and will be replaced by Phil Miller (142, Sr.). Miller led the Bucks to a 20-14 win over the McLean Tigers after Hoskins was injured in the first quarter.

The State second picked Bucks will be meeting Claude for the White Deer homecoming Friday at 8:00 p.m.

McLEAN — The McLean Tigers will duel the Groom Bengal's Friday at McLean. The Tigers almost upset the highly regarded White Deer Bucks last week leading the White Deer team at the half 7-6. This is the first time this season the Bucks were forced to play come-from-behind football and according to Coach J.T. Hill, "The Tigers surpassed our predictions with a big, strong defensive and offensive team."

Groom has been suffering from preseason injuries and last week lost a tough game to Wheeler 20-0. Groom fielded only 18 players and are showing a lot of spirit. They are looking for a win and are overdue, losing their first four outings.

LEFORS — The Lefors Pirates will be hosting Erick, Oklahoma Friday at 8:00 p.m. Erick has given up 40 points to Texas teams this season, while managing to tally a solitary touchdown against the rough-and-ready Irish. Lefors has lost three of their openers winning against Turkey 26-0 two weeks ago.

MIAMI — The Miami Warriors meet the Claude Jr. Varsity tonight in a tough bout. Miami plays an eight man squad and Claude normally fields the better known eleven man team.

Last week the Warriors racked up three safeties against St. Bonham of Amarillo along with three touchdowns to give them a 26-0 victory. Game time tonight is at 7:30 in Miami.

UH To Meet Tulane In Astro-Bluebonnet Classic Opener

HOUSTON (UPI)—Tulane University, led by 6-8 John Sutter will meet the University of Houston in the opening game of the 11th annual Astro-Bluebonnet basketball classic Dec. 11-12 at Hofheinz Pavilion, tournament director Guy Lewis said Tuesday.

Texas A&M, Southwest Conference runnerup last season, will meet Oregon in the 9 p.m. Friday game, in a battle featuring the Aggies' 7-0 Steve Niles and Oregon's 6-9 Stan Love. The championship game will be played at 9 p.m. Saturday with the consolation match set for 7 p.m. The Houston Cougars will be shooting for their 7th consecutive Bluebonnet championship.

Your Horoscope

FOR FRIDAY, OCT. 8, 1970
Your birthday Friday. This is the year of change, moving toward a more meaningful life. You have the chance to lay down burdens which are not really yours, deciding your home and working space. What you can leave behind don't hang on with increasing inconvenience. Emotional ties thin out a bit, quietly. Friday's natives have a strong sense of rhythm, usually soon a special political talents.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Care with money is the only problem of this rather variable day. To keep up with others - there will always be somebody around who spends more than you do.

Taurus (April 20-May 20): Ideas to improve your career come from various people. Be sure you get the fresh viewpoint straight, as your mate and associates won't go along until later.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): You scatter energy over a wide range of activity. Your money is restless and will evaporate readily in any sort of bargain shopping, area or hobby shop.

CANCER (June 21-July 21): Mental pursuits demand much of your time. Try to get your workweek rounded up nicely first. Find or give a good party in the evening.

LEO (July 22-Aug. 22): Apply consistent effort to improving your status in the world. Your earnings now should increase somewhat, in proportion to the extra effort you have put in.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Try more new methods along with the changes you have already achieved in your work. The temptation is to overinvest in equipment and supplies.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): You are most certain to appear odd or at least different Friday. There is nothing for it but to simply be yourself and enjoy it to the fullest.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Ambition leads you forward, perhaps faster than your resources ought to stretch. Home matters offer much satisfaction, the incentive to improve conditions.

AGITARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Friends provide helpful conditions - make full use of them. Take care with what you say in public places. Also remember your friends talk to their friends.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Friends expect far too much of you now, and your status interferes with your perspective. It is time to try new financial possibilities.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Be ready to revise plans that involve estimates of future business. Original work brings you opportunity, perhaps controversy. Distant people suddenly seem much more involved.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Quietly press forward with normal routine. Avoid involvement in matters which must be kept secret. Add a little to your savings account.

Goodell Says Spiro Agnew 'Divisive Rhetoric'

NEW YORK (UPI) - Sen. Charles E. Goodell accused Vice President Spiro T. Agnew of "division rhetoric" Tuesday night while Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller asked the White House to keep out of New York politics.

Agnew has called Goodell, a Republican running for a full term, a member of an "awful liberal-radical coalition" who has left his party. Agnew has supported Conservative party candidate James L. Buckley to the extent of appearing at a fund-raising luncheon on his behalf.

"Such an attack-which by implication casts doubt on my very patriotism and fitness to hold office-raises some questions for the voters for New York," Goodell said at a New York state Liberal party dinner.

Rockefeller, campaigning in Buffalo for re-election, said he had asked the White House to "let us handle our own political problems."

He said he telephoned presidential aides to attempt to keep Agnew from further involvement in the Senate race in New York and that he would discuss the matter with President Nixon.

"Atlanta Game Vital" Says Dallas' Landry

DALLAS (UPI)—Coach Tom Landry admits that his once haughty Dallas Cowboys now "live from week to week" and that Sunday's second home game of the young season against Atlanta "is pretty vital to us."

Landry didn't say so, but probably had in mind what lay ahead for his Cowboys the following two weeks in comparison with the road their chief Eastern Division rival, the St. Louis Cardinals, will have to travel.

While the Cowboys are playing Atlanta here and Minnesota and Kansas City on the road, the Cards—who are tied with Dallas atop the division with 2-1 records—will be hosting New Orleans, then going on the road against off-beaten Philadelphia and the New York Giants.

Even if the Cowboys bounce back from last Sunday's disappointing 20-7 loss to St. Louis by beating the Falcons, they might well turn into November with a 3-3 record compared to 5-1 for St. Louis. And, if they should lose to Atlanta, the Cowboys' four-year division reign might well be at an end.

Landry's face shows the concern which he feels about his club's inability to mount an offense to go with a defense that seems adequate although it is far from the par of recent years.

But, publicly, he remains optimistic. "I feel the offense will play very well Sunday," he told his press corps Wednesday. "It is an uphill, but it will be worth the climb if we make it."

Asked on what basis he voiced such optimism in the face of the club's 1970 history to date, Landry replied without a smile: "I just have a feeling."

The coach made only one switch in the starting lineup which he had settled on at the start of the season. He said he would give veteran Craig Morton his first starting call of the year over Roger Staubach, who was the throtle when the Cowboys beat Philadelphia and the Giants. Staubach also started against the Cards, but was jerked early in the second quarter in favor of Morton, who was unsuccessful in rallying the Cowboys cause one bit.

Landry said there was a "good chance" he would activate wide receiver Margene Adkins, a transfer from Canada, and move rookie offensive lineman Bob Asher to the taxi squad.

"We would hope to use him for his punt and kickoff return ability," Landry said.

Shocker Game Cancelled

According to Pampa Shocker coach Jim Cunningham, the Pampa Shocker-Canyon J.V. game which was scheduled for tonight has been cancelled. The game will not be re-scheduled.

Rams To Fall And Atlanta To Edge Dallas, Pro Picks

By MILTON RICHMAN UPI Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UPI)—The San Francisco Forty Niners are like some of those girls you used to know. They've got themselves a reputation. The Forty Niners are 10-point underdogs against the Los Angeles Rams, but I believe they'll beat them Sunday in the Rams' own backyard.

In other games:
Saturday: Miami over the New York Jets—For the first time ever.
Sunday: Oakland over Denver—Combination Lamonica and a little let-down by the Broncos.

Detroit over Washington—Lions might need all they've got though if Jurgensen has one of his days.
Chicago over Minnesota—Bears gave Lions a rough time. Baltimore over Houston—One way or another Colts somehow manage to get the job done.

Pittsburgh over Buffalo—Steelers finally break into win column.
Atlanta over Dallas—Falcons are beginning to mesh their passing and running games.
Cleveland over Cincinnati—Bengals are having more problems at quarterback than the Browns.

St. Louis over New Orleans—Jim Hart has the hang of things now.
Kansas City over Boston—Chiefs meet an old friend—Joe Kapp—with a different line in front of him.
Philadelphia over New York Giants—I'm getting some excellent reports on Philly rookie Rich Arrington.
Monday: San Diego over Green Bay—Chargers are becoming overdue.

The Colleges
This week's Big Four ones are Nebraska-Missouri, Texas-Oklahoma, USC-Stanford and Ohio State-Michigan State.
I go with the odds insofar as Texas and Ohio State are concerned, but I like Missouri to turn back Nebraska and Stanford to pull one out against Southern Cal.
East: Penn State over Boston College, West Virginia over Duke, Maryland over Syracuse, Navy over Pittsburgh and Yale over Brown.
South: Georgia Tech over Tennessee, Alabama over Vanderbilt, Florida State over Florida, Mississippi over Georgia and North Carolina over South Carolina.
Midwest: Notre Dame over Army, Kansas State over Kansas, Purdue over Michigan, Minnesota over Indiana and Northwestern over Illinois.
Southwest: Arkansas over Baylor, Texas A&M over Texas Tech, Texas Christian over Oklahoma State, New Mexico over San Jose State and New Mexico State over Northern Arizona.
West: Arizona State over Washington State, Air Force over Tulane, Arizona over Brigham Young, UCLA over Oregon and California over Washington.

DREW (BUDINI) BROWN, left, puts the finishing touches on a taping job for Muhammad Ali, who's training for his first fight in over three years. He'll meet No. 1 heavyweight contender Jerry Quarry Oct. 26 in Atlanta.

Orioles Robison Optimistic About Series Performance

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Brooks Robinson heard the whispers of a season. The veteran third baseman of the Baltimore Orioles admits that he wondered if they were true.

At age 32 last year, he had his worst season in the majors and batted just .234. The previous season he hit just .253. He was excellent in the playoffs last year at 7-for-14 but then slumped to 1-for-19 in the World Series.

Even he wondered if he was starting to near the end of the line. "You begin to think about those things in a year like that," Brooks admits.

But now, at age 33, Robinson is one of the most optimistic of the Orioles as they prepare to open the World Series against the Cincinnati Reds on Saturday.

"I feel like I can play forever," he beamed at the Wednesday workout. "Well, not forever, but a long time."

Brooks bounced back from last season's poor season to hit .276 this year—his best mark in five years—and he had seven hits against Minnesota in the playoffs for the second straight year.

Brooks is hoping he'll just be one of the Oriole hitters who'll come alive after their poor performance in last year's World Series against the New York Mets. He was the worst hitting regular at .053 but Dave Johnson hit .053, Don Buford and Paul Blair batted a lousy .100. Frank Robinson was at .188 and Mark Belanger .200. Boog Powell led the regulars and he hit only .263.

The Orioles feel they have an edge in pitching and defense, but they know they can't beat power hitting Cincinnati with averages like that. The Orioles also hit only three homers against the Mets.

In the pitching department, Weaver will be able to use a 20-game winner as a starter in every game. Before Wednesday's one and a half hour workout, he named right-hander Jim Palmer (20-10) to start on Saturday with left-handers Mike Cuellar (24-8) and Dave McNally (24-9) set to go in the second and third games.

The Orioles went through an intra-squad scrimmage Wednesday with no base-running to give Cuellar and McNally a chance to work under simulated game conditions so they don't get stale. Cuellar will go into the series with a week's rest and McNally will have eight days off before his start next Tuesday.

The Orioles were represented by John Reynolds, Jr., their legal counsel and spokesman, and the seven directors of the Umpires Association, Ron Luciano, Harry Wendelstedt, Augie Donatelli, Shag Crawford, Marfy Springstead, Bill Haller, and John Flaherty.

When the series opens in Cincinnati Saturday, Ken Burkhardt, veteran National League umpire, will work the plate. The rest of the six-man crew will include National League Leaguers Tony Venzon at second base and Billy Williams on the left field foul line and American League Leaguers John Flaherty at first base, Bob Stewart at second and Emmet Ashford on the right field foul line.

The Louisville Cardinals will have the Missouri Valley Conference's No. 1 passer and total offense leader, the No. 1 receiver and the No. 2 rusher to throw at the Tulsa Hurricane Saturday when the two clubs meet in a showdown for the league leadership.

Sophomore quarterback John Madeya of the Cardinals took over the passing and total offense lead even in a losing effort last week. He has hit 32 of 66 passes for 422 yards and three touchdowns and despite being 66 yards in the red on rushing his 360-yard total for four games gives him a league-leading 90-yard per game average.

Leonard Dunlap of North Texas State leads in interceptions with six and Ken Duncan of Tulsa is tops in punting with a 42.5-yard average.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (UPI)—Sammy Sneed recorded the 18th hole-in-one of his golfing career Wednesday at the 18th hole of the Old White course at Grenbrier.

Cookie Brinkman, his favorite receiver, has pulled in 14 for 214 yards, while the Cards' Bill Gatti has averaged 72.8 yards per game on the ground. The rushing leader is Randy Jackson, a Wichita State player who is fighting for his life in a Denver hospital as one of the survivors of last week's plane crash which killed 13 of that team's players on a Colorado mountainside. Jackson was averaging 75 yards a game.

Cronin Says "Back To Bats And Balls" As Umps Sign Contract

NEW YORK (UPI)—I'm glad to get back to bats and balls now. That's an important part of the game, isn't it?"

Thus did Joe Cronin, president of the American League, sum up his personal feelings at the end of a long day of bargaining Wednesday that resulted in a pay boost for major league umpires working playoff and World Series games.

Baseball executives averted a possible strike of umpires at the series, scheduled to open in Cincinnati on Saturday, by negotiating a four-year contract in a six-hour session.

The new contract calls for umpires to receive $4,000 for the playoffs through the 1973 season and $7,500 for the World Series this year and next and $8,000 for 1972 and 1973. The umpires had sought $5,000 for the playoffs and $10,000 for the series.

The umpires had declined to work the first games of the league playoffs, and had been replaced by minor league and retired major league officials.

Present at Wednesday's meeting were Commissioner Bowie Kuhn and National and American League Presidents Charles "Chub" Feeney and Cronin, along with Scooty Hadden, attorney for the commissioner's office.

The umpires were represented by John Reynolds, Jr., their legal counsel and spokesman, and the seven directors of the Umpires Association, Ron Luciano, Harry Wendelstedt, Augie Donatelli, Shag Crawford, Marfy Springstead, Bill Haller, and John Flaherty.

Writer's Cramp May Be Way To Stop Cincinnati Bench

CINCINNATI (UPI)—The Baltimore Orioles might like to know there is one thing that might stop Johnny Bench, the Cincinnati Reds' super-catcher, from having a big World Series. Writer's cramp.

The Reds' fans who staged a run on the box office when tickets went on sale for the series are "ga-ga" over their National League champions. And there's no question that home run king Bench is the No. 1 hero in the Rhineland.

"I'm getting 50-60 letters a day," Bench admitted reluctantly as he dressed for a pre-series workout at Riverfront Stadium where the Reds and the Orioles open the World Series on Saturday.

And the dressing stall marked by the sign, "5-Bench" looked it. Piles of correspondence already were stacked waiting him and another load of unsorted mail was in the center of the Cincinnati clubhouse.

Manager Sparky Anderson, in the relative obscurity of the minor leagues a year ago, is getting pounds of mail, too. Most of it, of course, is congratulatory on winning the pennant in his rookie year. Suggestions on how to beat the Orioles, too.

"This young fellow writes that he's my enemy," said Anderson with a rueful smile. "He says he's a Jim Maloney fan and he's mad because I made Milt Wilcox eligible for the playoffs instead of Maloney."

That was a move Anderson made in the closing week of the season. He had another opportunity to name another pitcher as a substitute for ailing Wayne Simpson, and he picked rookie

Wilcox instead of veteran Maloney. Apparently, it didn't cut any ice with the young Maloney fan that Wilcox was the winning pitcher in Monday's pennant-clinching victory over Pittsburgh.

The midweek rest for the Reds, with time for things like reading letters, comes to something of an end today with an intra-squad game. That's sort of spring training stuff, but Anderson regards it as important to keep his champions sharp during the layoff between the end of the playoffs Monday and the start of the series Saturday.

Feller Files Suit Against Company For Using Name
CLEVELAND (UPI)—Baseball Hall of Famer Bob Feller has filed suit against a local company for using his name in their advertisements without his permission.

Feller, who pitched for the Cleveland Indians in the late 1940s, charged in his suit Wednesday that Darka Corp. named him in ads as having done business with the custom metal firm.

The suit seeks $450,000 in damages and an injunction against further use of his name. Feller, 53, is on the executive staff of the Sheraton-Cleveland Hotel.

Nicklaus Picked In Piccadilly
WENTWORTH, England (UPI)—Jack Nicklaus Wednesday was installed the 3-1 favorite to win the $44,160 Piccadilly World Match Play golf title in which all the winners of the "Big Four" championships are starters.

"The Piccadilly" is the sole surviving matchplay tournament in big-time golf and like the U.S. Masters, entry is by invitation only. Unlike the stroke play Augusta Classic, only eight men make up the Wentworth field.

In addition to Nicklaus, the reigning British Open title holder from Columbus, Ohio, the field includes Briton Tony Jacklin, the U.S. Open winner; Billy Casper, the Masters winner; PGA Titleholder Dave Stockton; Lee Trevino, the 1969 U.S. Open winner; South Africa's Gary Player, winner of all the Big Four titles during his career and three times victor in the Piccadilly; defending champion Bob Charles, from New Zealand, and Gene Littler of La Jolla, Calif., who finished second to Casper in the Masters this year.

All matches are over 36-holes with the winner collecting $13,800, the runner-up $6,280, beaten semifinalists, $3,520 and first round losers, $2,760.

Thursday's first round pairings are: Charles-Stockton, Casper-Trevino, Jacklin-Player and Nicklaus-Littler. The semifinals will be played Friday with the final on Saturday.

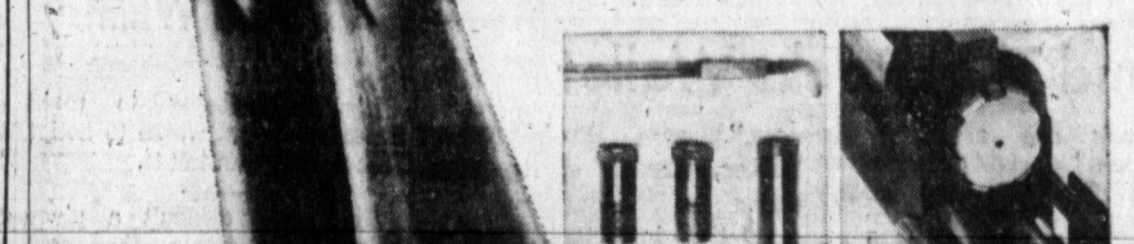

The tough 6,936-yard, par-74 "Burma Road" course is much to the liking of the visiting North Americans. Littler said: "It's good to see trees lining the fairways. My previous visits to Britain have all been to seaside 'links' where there are no trees. It makes one feel at home."

The Duck Kit

It takes a pretty rugged man to greet the cold and rigors of duck hunting and he needs a troublefree shotgun to match. That's why the rustproof aluminum receiver on the Winchester 1400 autoloader and the 1200 slide action finds such favor. Both of these fine shotguns blend fit, feel and performance with advanced engineering (such as a front locking steel bolt) to bring duck hunters the kind of shotgun they need. One of the reasons the light recoil 1400 and the fast shucking 1200 work so well for waterfowl shooters is that they are designed, tested and built by shooters — people who bring something extra to their job — the personal knowledge of what works best.

But it takes more than just a fine shotgun to bring home ducks — it takes the long range, knock-down power of either Western Super-X or Winchester Super-Speed shot shells. Made of tough plastic, formed under 35,000 pounds of compression, these advanced loads also feature the Mark 5 collar that protects shot down the barrel for full, dense patterns. So team a 1200 or 1400 with Super-X or Super-Speed — they work better together and you'll do better with them.

Marx And The Schools

Recently, one of our associates attended a gathering at which the speaker, a professor, held forth on the threat of communism to our way of life.

In the course of his dissertation the speaker pointed out that the communist ideology menacing our way of life permeated our society primarily via our educational system. Acknowledging the accuracy of his observation, our associate suggested to the professor that this, really, shouldn't be surprising since our entire "public" school system, beginning with elementary and high schools and extending clear up through our state owned and controlled colleges and universities, was in consonance with the tenth plank of the Communist Manifesto of Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels.

The statement was greeted by expressions of shocked reaction and disbelief on the part of a goodly portion of the audience, as well as a look of amazement on the face of the professor.

Our associate pressed the professor to either confirm or deny the accuracy of our statement. "Does or does not the Communist Manifesto contain such a provision?" he was asked.

"No," he replied, "the Communist Manifesto does not contain such a provision." It was then our associate's turn to be shocked and dismayed; shocked that a professor lecturing on the evils and threat of communism should be so unfamiliar with the basic document and doctrine of the communist movement, and dismayed that he did not have a copy of the Manifesto at the moment.

For the benefit of readers who may not be familiar with the document, we are going to quote verbatim directly from the Communist Manifesto itself. The extract which we quote is taken from the seventh paperback printing of the Manifesto published in 1963 by the Henry Regnery Co. of Chicago, which also contains an explanatory introduction by the noted Conservative Stefan T. Possony. However, on the chance that the Regnery publication may be out of print, interested readers will find the same text on pages 342 and 343 of "Capital, the Communist Manifesto, and Other Writings" by Karl Marx. Judge Comes On Strong

The text of Federal Judge George Barlow's sentencing of former Newark, N.J., Mayor Hugh Addonizio and three co-defendants in a $14 million kickback conspiracy should be read by all those who believe America's legal system is incapable of being critical of established officials.

Said Judge Barlow: "How can we calculate this cynicism engendered in our citizens, including our young people, by these men — and how does one measure the erosion of confidence in our systems of government, and the

Hand That Rocks Walle

There's one area of the women's rights movement where the girls are clearly winning:

Women start "liberating" the pay checks of their husbands within a year or so after marriage, reports the Survey Research Laboratory of the University of Illinois.

The laboratory interviewed about 250 newlywed couples in Peoria and Decatur, asking them about various aspects of money handling. A year later, the same couples answered the same questions again.

Comparison of the two sets of responses shows that the wives are taking over in every

H. L. Hunt Writes

PATRIOTISM AND NON-PATRIOTISM

The U.S. Constitution defines treason quite simply by stating that it consists in giving aid and comfort to the enemy. The opposite of a traitor is a patriot. So the patriot is one who does the opposite of giving aid to the enemy. He resists, obstructs, and discomforts the enemy at every opportunity.

This patriot is the American citizen who at times is scornfully labeled as "ultra," "super" and "extreme" by those who sprang into action to carry out the directive of the 22nd communist congress held some eight years ago. That communist gathering directed that all anti-communism throughout the world be stamped out.

To be non-patriotic is to give the enemy of freedom quite a bit more aid and comfort than he needs, and he needs a lot. The non-patriotic do not know what they are missing; much less do they realize what they will try to escape if the enemy takes over.

The daily life of the patriot is a 24-hour testimonial to freedom, whether expressed in the spoken word or in the very conduct of life. Two kinds of chances are given for these testimonials. One is when freedom is found in danger; it would be criminal for the patriot not to speak up and act. The other is when the cause of freedom is being promoted; then the patriot's open encouragement should be strong and immediate.

An eager willingness to work for freedom's cause is the source of the patriot's greatest strength. The more freedom is used, the more of it there is to use. Let's use it regularly.

With Some Reservation

By INJUN WOODY

We have just heard of another far-out proposal that takes the rag out of the bush. This one vouches the absurd idea that all college students put up $100 in advance, each semester, to pay for damages that might result from campus disorders.

Talk about penalizing the honest to appease the radicals! This brainstorm was apparently thought up by a dean of one University and whipped into shape by a professor of another. Every student would fork over his 100 bucks each semester and in case there was a riot the fund would be used to pay for the damages. The originators of the scheme say this would be a good way to overcome the apathy of the majority of students who are opposed to destruction.

This is stupid. Why should any innocent student be required to pay for what the radicals do. It would make better sense to keep the radicals out in the first place.

Of course, you know what a professor is. He is a stuffed shirt that is wired for sound. He went off to college and never got out. And today, some of them are more radical than students. They are easy to distinguish but hard to extinguish.

And a dean — he's a guy who is too dumb to be professor but too smart to be a president. He tries to reach the students but he don't want them to reach him.

If there is to be any 100 cent fee for damages, let the deans and professors be the ones to cough it up. I'll bet it will overcome their apathy too and mebbe they will stop expounding so much on the merits of revolution and militancy.

Wit And Whimsy

It's embarrassing to make mistakes — but worse to notice that nobody can tell it.

The more difficult a given thing is to obtain, the more highly it is held.

Wisdom suggests following the best routes, by the best means, and a 56 per cent increase in the proportion of wives deciding how much cash to get.

The proportion of wives responsible for getting cash, paying bills and keeping track of expenses rose by 38 per cent, 30 per cent and 14 per cent respectively.

All this while learning how to cook, too!

STRAIGHT TALK:

New Concept of Revolution

By TOM ANDERSON

A lightweight leftist columnist named Clayton Fritchey wrote recently: "Putting aside the merits or demerits of the Vietnam intervention, all can agree that it has provoked a civil war in the U.S. that cannot be stopped until the war in Asia is stopped."

All can agree? All who? All pro Communists? All illiterates? All fools? All Fritchey's?

Regardless of Asia, we will have civil war at home. Vietnam and Cambodia are merely excuses used by Marxists and traitors dedicated to destroying our free Republic.

Too many people, including the young revolutionists, the Nixon administration, and the Silent Majority (if they dared mention such a "controversial" subject) try to blame the Vietnam war for too many of our troubles. If there were no Vietnam war, the Communists would still be burrowing into our national woodwork to destroy our country. The blacks would still be rebelling, the pinks would still be socializing us, and the anarchists would still be burning down "the establishment."

We agniners who have predicted for 25 years the outcome of permissiveness, "liberalism," "welfare" and peace-at-any-price are now being blamed for "polarizing" the nation. Candidate Nixon, who knew better, made a lot of noise about bringing our people together — unity. The appeal is as phony as a three dollar bill. It's even as phony as The Great Silent Majority.

Imagine! With the country on the brink of chaos and civil war; with the imminent possibility of either a Communist or a Fascist dictatorship (blood brothers) and even the real possibility (as we continue disarming) of a Russian atomic attack — imagine any non-moron bragging about being a member of The Great Silent Majority.

Members of the Silent Majority profess to believe that the FBI is on the ball and can handle the Communist problem in this country. The job of the FBI is to investigate, not to prosecute. Communists are not prosecuted because so many government officials are pro-Communist. Also, prosecution of Communists is largely a waste of time because the Supreme Court these days declares in favor of the Communists in about 90 percent of the cases.

Some Silent Majoritarians excuse themselves by saying that the - Communists are "mellowing." But J. Edgar Hoover says: "In the United States, no indication is apparent that Communism has changed even in the slightest from its historic Marxist-Leninist core of a materialistic atheistic conspiracy dedicated to overthrowing the institutions of our society. Communism is not, as some claim, becoming more democratic through the passage of time." (Congressional Record, January 20, 1970)

Your Health

By Dr. Lawrence Lamb

Most Normal People Can Exercise Safely

Unless you have a serious illness or unusual problem there is no reason you can't exercise. If you have serious doubts about your health, you should see your doctor and find out exactly what you can do.

Many of life's normal situations will cause the heart to work harder than some forms of light exercise. Apprehension or excitement may cause the heart rate and blood pressure to go up — increasing the work of the heart. You can't escape having changes in the level of heart work unless you are emotionally dead.

For most people who have been inactive for a long time the right place to start is by walking. You don't need to hurry when you start. Enjoy your walk and you are more likely to include it in your living habits. Start with 15 minutes a day if you tire easily. Gradually increase your walk to 30 minutes. If half an hour is no problem, increase your level to one hour a day — or two 30-minute walks a day.

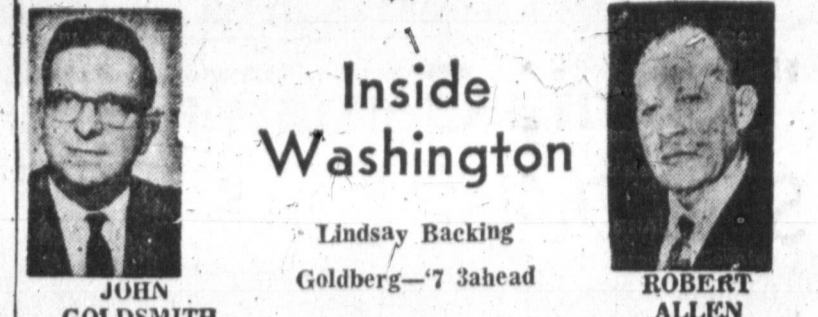

After you have reached the level of walking one hour a day for two weeks, you can consider the advisability of doing something more strenuous. If you tire with one hour of walking, after a gradual build-up program, you are not ready to go on to higher levels of exercise and probably should see your doctor. If you get short of breath or have chest pain with walking, discontinue your program until you can get a good examination.

Assuming you pass the walking phase with flying colors, if you need more exercise there is a variety you can choose from. One of my favorites is to recommend using a stationary bicycle. Get one that allows you to put some tension on the wheel, to cause some work for the leg muscles. Don't try to exercise at too heavy a load or to pedal too fast. A steady, everyday approach is the right way. You can pedal while you watch your favorite TV program. The cycle is a good way for the weekend TV sports spectator to get some exercise.

Jogging and running programs should be undertaken only by the young or those obviously in reasonably good health. Even the young need the preliminary walking period to strengthen ankles, tendons and muscles.

The key to a successful exercise program is a gradual increase in level of activity and for most adults never pushing one's self to maximum effort.

Please send your questions and comments to Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D. in care of this paper. While Dr. Lamb cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

JOHN GOLDSMITH ROBERT ALLEN

Inside Washington

Lindsay Backing Goldberg—7 Ahead

WASHINGTON — New York's politically free-wheeling Mayor John Lindsay is getting ready to drop the other shoe. Having endorsed Sen. Charles Goodell, liberal Republican, for a full six-year term, Lindsay is set to do the same for the gubernatorial candidacy of liberal Democrat Arthur Goldberg.

In both instances, Lindsay is paying off a political debt. Goodell and Goldberg backed Lindsay for a second term after he lost the Republican nomination.

Effect of his endorsement is highly conjectural. Upstate, Lindsay swings little political weight. In fact, he is a distinct liability in a number of areas where GOP leaders are openly hostile to him. Similarly, he has little, if any more, influence with Democrats. Downstate, Lindsay's standing is equally questionable. He barely scraped through for reelection last year with only 26 per cent of the vote in a three-way contest. His principal opponent, Democrat Mario Procaccino, has come out for Governor Rockefeller. Among middle-class, blue-collar workers in densely populous Brooklyn and Queens, Lindsay is intensely disliked — and his endorsement of Goodell and Goldberg is likely to hurt them more than help them.

Lindsay's plumping for Goldberg will be no surprise to Rockefeller and his campaign managers. They have been expecting it for some time — for a number of personal and political reasons. Foremost among them is that the two men just plain don't like one another.

Both are profoundly political, aggressively ambitious, and have tangled repeatedly in headline clashes that have left bruising scars. Privately, they speak about each other in caustically disdainful terms. Lindsay is particularly aggrieved because he ardently wanted to run for governor this year.

That's why he reluctantly sought re-election last year — although having little stomach for four more years as the crisis-racked and abuse-battered mayor of New York. Lindsay figured Rockefeller would call it quits after 12 years as governor, and he could switch from City Hall to the State House in Albany.

But it didn't work out that way, and Lindsay holds it bitterly against Rockefeller on top of a number of other personal and political grievances.

SETTING THE STAGE — Tip-off on Lindsay's backstage plan to come out for Goldberg was his carefully staged announcement at a press conference that he will quit public life when he steps out as mayor in December 1973.

Politicos of all parties and factions put utterly no credence in that grandstand gesture. Even Lindsay's own staff doesn't take it seriously. Said Deputy Mayor Richard Aurelio, his closest adviser, "That's his current thinking. Three years, or even three months from now, he may well have other ideas." A high Democratic National Committee official was even more skeptical. "It's an invariable rule that candidates for the White House start off by denying it. Lindsay isn't any more quitting politics than I am going to the moon."

Lindsay, himself, quickly confirmed this widespread incredulity.

Several hours after his grandiose disavowal of further political aspirations, he scorchingly berated the economic policies of the Nixon Administration. In an address to the Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Lindsay declared, "The Administration is out to replace 5 per cent interest with 5 per cent unemployment. We have ended up with both, and the final outcome is no-win economics."

City Hall insiders attribute the sudden and still-mysterious resignation of Police Commissioner Howard Leary to two principal reasons: Leary's belief that Lindsay has become so engrossed in running for president that he is neglecting the job of managing the vast and problem-plagued metropolis; that the police force was being used as a scapegoat to cover up irregularities and other failings of other municipal departments, including City Hall's "pussy-footing" handling of explosive racial complexities.

Sen. Edmund Muskie, D-Me., is taking Lindsay's secret presidential ambitions with utmost seriousness. Muskie not only rates the New York mayor as a top possible rival for the Democratic nomination, but is gearing his campaign plans accordingly.

Endorse Goldberg, and follow that by formally switching to the Democratic party. Muskie is not only running for a third term this year, but at the same time is busily promoting his presidential hopes.

Sen. Goodell, whose campaign finances are as low as his election prospects, is making a big pitch for help from the Universities Anti-War Fund, which claims to have raised $250,000 from faculty members throughout the country to be contributed to dovish congressional candidates. According to Fund insiders, most of the money is going to Democrats, with Republican Goodell a principal exception. He hopes to get $10,000.

HOW TO ADDRESS OUR LAWMAKERS

You may want to write your senators and representatives in Washington and Austin. Here are their addresses:

STATE Rep. Malott Abraham, Cleburne, Texas. Sen. Grady Haselwood, Olney, Texas. FEDERAL Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D.C. 20525. Rep. Bob Price, 507 Cannon House Office Bldg., Washington, D.C. 20515. Sen. John Tower, Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D.C. 20503.

Clearing House

Get something you would like to "get off your chest." That's what the "Clearing House" is for. It has been suggested there should be more letters to the Editor, that people should speak their mind. So, in the public interest, write to the Editor and "get it off your chest."

Editor: This is being written for the benefit of people interested in losing weight. Now to quote an old quote: if you are one of those, you will find that everything you like is either illegal, immoral or fattening.

As in the case of this observer, I talked a good diet when I was on a diet. I have lost several thousand pounds since I have been going on diets.

The thing that will impel you to go on a diet, is not a mild suggestion, made by your doctor. It is a quiet message like this — "Either you lose 60 pounds of that leaf lard, or you will die in a short time." End of doctor's quote. That gets your attention.

You put it up to your stomach in hard but fair terms. The stomach replies "Who me?" You tell the stomach, yes you. Then you get a good diet book — calories, fats, carbohydrates and all, and start looking for some good food that you really like, that has no calories, fats or whatever.

Alphabetically, you scan the list — Asparagus, but it double crosses you, with lots of fats and calories, compared to what you had hoped for. Under the B column you find something, like Bota Rug, Dominoes. I never could stand a food of that kind. Then there is fizzle popporous. That sounds good.

I think it is an alcoholic, but hard to come by if you are looking for a stock item.

You get down to the "R" stuff — you will find that reindeer milk is very good, and not so bad in calories, but you are stuck again as you try to find the stock in town.

Tiger milk, I almost passed, for two reasons — It is high in calories, very scarce, and it worries you about what the guy drinks who has to milk the Tiger.

So, if you want to get slimmer as fast as you can, just starve, or you can prepare to go to Glory quicker, like the man in the Bible.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — More bad news, folks: The government has started another campaign to reduce federal paperwork.

Man and boy, I have been witness to about 15 of these anti-paperwork drives. During which time the volume of federal forms, reports and interoffice memos has increased by heaps and mounds.

And there is no reason to suspect that the results of the current campaign will be any different.

The trouble is that the government goes about the matter the wrong way. It customarily assigns a team of its own paperwork experts to tackle the problem.

Typically, the present drive is being spearheaded by the General Services Administration, which is itself a prime producer of paperwork.

Simply is Not the Way

This simply is not the way to get things done in a democracy.

The way to get things done in democracy is to appoint a presidential commission to study the problem. Everybody knows that.

The Warren Commission, for example, dispelled all controversy about President Kennedy's assassination, and more recent commissions have brought about national unity on such issues as campus unrest and pornography. Yes.

If President Nixon were now to appoint a commission on paperwork, I'm sure it would accomplish something equally salutary. I think I can even foresee the form that the commission's report would take.

In the traditional manner, its major findings would run counter to popular assumptions and beliefs. So it would report that continued exposure to paperwork has no adverse psychological effect on "consenting adults."

Would Claim No Evidence

There is no evidence, it would say, that paperwork causes exasperation, tension, numbness, stupefaction and other emotional disturbances that lead to ulcers and nervous breakdowns.

Hence it would recommend repeal of any restrictions on paperwork, except as needed to protect innocent children.

Now here we see the advantage of a commission study as opposed to the approach being taken by the General Services Administration.

The GSA is expected to recommend measures to curb the output of government typewriters, copying machines and computers. This in itself will generate a vast amount of new paperwork, which in the long run probably will exceed the amount curtailed.

A commission, on the other hand, would merely declare the problem nonexistent. And then we could all move on to something else.

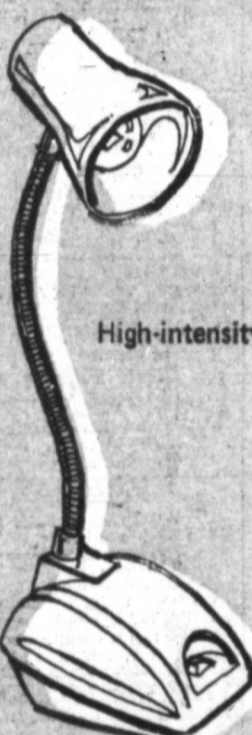

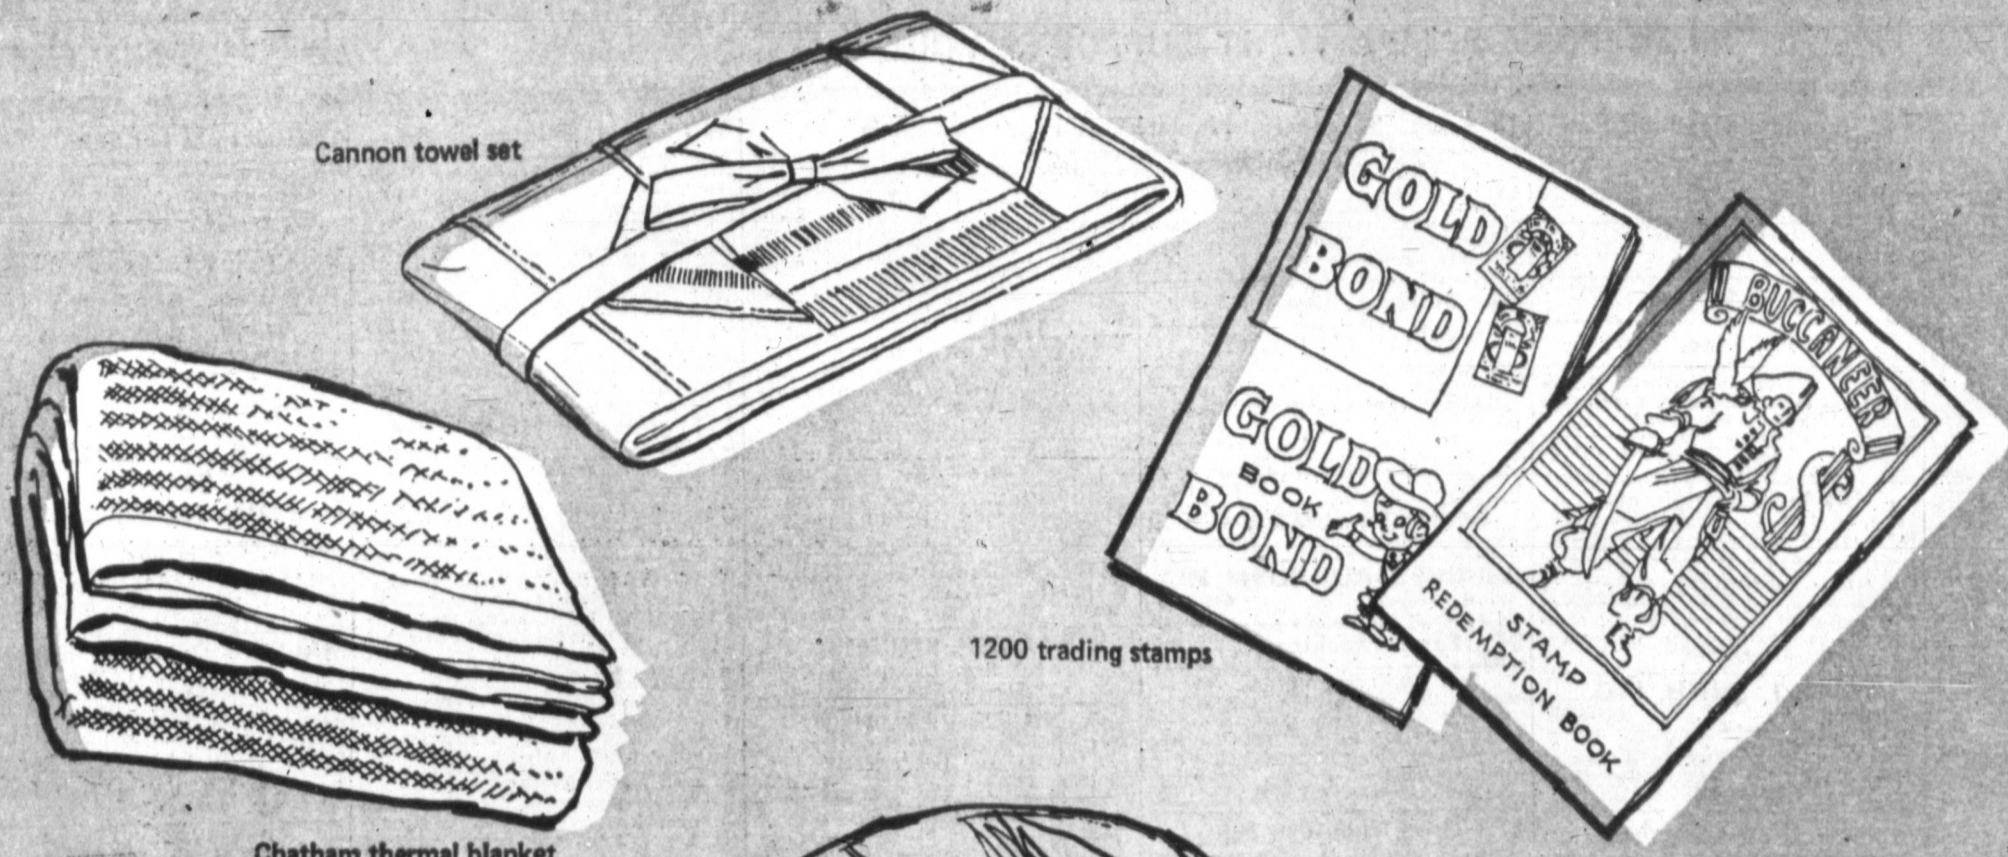

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—The last time odd lotters bought more stock than they sold was July 27, Spear & Staff observes. Assuming the odd lotter is on balance an "inverse indication" of market direction, his increasing pessimism since that date can only mean the market is headed up, the analyst adds.

One of the basic tenets of technical analysis is that once a trend is in effect it can be expected to continue until it is penetrated strongly. E. F. Hutton & Co. says. A strong up trend has been in effect now for four months without significant penetration and each reaction low which rested on the trendline has proved to be a profitable buying opportunity the company says.

With occasional time out for consolidation of gains, the stock market should work higher in the months ahead, Standard & Poor's Corp. says. For 1971, the firm sees "an economic environment that will be conducive to investment in soundly valued equities."
