Second Soviet-American Radio War Reach New High In Static

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The second Soviet-American radio war, now more than two years old, has reached a new high in static between Moscow and Washington as transmitters of both countries jam each other's broadcasts.

The first radio war began after World War II, when the United States created the Voice of America as its official radio voice overseas.

Stalin did not approve, and the Soviet Union built immense transmitters that broadcast shrill noises on American frequencies to prevent the Soviet people from hearing Washington's side of the news.

Radio Retaliation
The United States retaliated by putting one VOA broadcast on the same frequency used by Radio Moscow, jamming it out of Communist Eastern European states.

On June 19, 1963, the Soviet Union abruptly halted its jamming operations for no apparent reason. In August, 1968, when Soviet troops led an invasion of Czechoslovakia, the Russians resumed their jamming of VOA frequencies.

U.S. officials believed this was only a temporary expedient. But a year later it was still going on, so the Americans counterattacked by resuming VOA transmissions on a frequency of 173 kilohertz to interfere with Radio Moscow.

CLAIMS RECORD
GILLINGHAM, England (UPI)—Barber Gerry Harley claimed a new world's record for instant shaves Friday after scraping whickers off 80 men in an hour.

JOB TOO WELL DONE
WREXHAM, Wales (UPI)—Window cleaners at All Saints' Church did their job too well, Vicar Oliver Hill said Friday. They rubbed the color out of several valuable stained glass windows.

BUYS MORTGAGES
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corp. will begin later this month to buy up to 75 per cent of the outstanding value of conventional mortgages in a move

And there the situation remains.

U.S. Offers to Quit

The million-kilowatt VOA transmitter in Munich, West Germany, overrides Radio Moscow broadcasts in Eastern Europe but not in the Soviet Union itself, where Radio Moscow's half-million-kilowatt transmission still holds sway.

The State Department has declared its willingness to take VOA off Radio Moscow's frequency if the Soviets would end their jamming, and has offered repeatedly to discuss the issue with the Russians.

The latest such offer was made in July, but the Soviets replied that jamming was an internal matter. The Communist party newspaper Pravda recently attacked U.S. Information Agency Director Frank Shakespeare, who oversees VOA, charging him with peddling anti-Soviet propaganda.

Jamming Theory
While the Americans interfere with only one Soviet frequency, the Russians have been jamming all 36 frequencies on which the Americans beam Ukrainian, Armenian, Georgian and Russian language broadcasts eastward.

The United States claims the Soviet jamming is illegal under the postwar Copenhagen Convention, which the Soviet Union to increase the supply of money for such loans.

Conventional mortgage loans are those not backed by a government agency.

The corporation, authorized under a law signed by President Nixon in July, earlier announced plans to buy Federal Housing Administration (FHA) and Veterans Administration (VA) mortgages.

NEAD Executive Airs Views On Economy Of Mexican-American

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The only way Mexican-Americans will advance economically is by controlling their own financial institutions.

This is the belief of Benjamin Fernandez, board chairman of the National Economic Development Association (NEDA), a government-sponsored nonprofit organization.

Fernandez also is president of a Southern California-based firm called Research Inc., which like NEDA, is attempting to help Spanish minorities gain financial momentum.

For a fee of $13,000, Research will steer a savings and loan application through the necessary steps before submission to the Federal Home Loan Bank for approval. Research presently is working on seven applications from groups in California and Texas.

Opposition has risen, however, from established money institutions in Texas' Rio Grande Valley.

BUY — SELL — TRADE WITH CLASSIFIED ADS

"It's a fear of competition, that's all it is," explains Fernandez.

Public Schools Advised To Provide For Reasonable Recognition Of Christmas

By LOUIS CASSELS
UPI Religion Writer

The safest prediction that can be made about the holiday season at hand is that nasty hassles will develop in some communities over what the public schools should do about Christmas.

Some Americans feel strongly that public schools should celebrate Christmas with nativity pageants, creche displays, and other ceremonies which reflect the Christian belief that Jesus was the Messiah.

Others feel just as strongly that the First Amendment to the Constitution forbids any instrument of government, including a tax-supported school, to take special cognizance of the holy day of any particular faith.

Court Rulings Uncertain

Neither of these views is supported by the rulings which the U.S. Supreme Court has handed down on the place of religion in public schools.

In the Engel vs. Vitale case of 1962 and again in Abington School District vs. Schempp in 1963, the high court made it clear that public schools may not deal with Christmas as if their student bodies were composed entirely of Christians.

On the other hand, the court did not suggest that public schools should ignore Christmas or the religious beliefs associated with it. On the contrary, indicated that schools have a duty to offer their students objective instruction in the tenets and customs of the various religions that have played a part in the history of America.

Suggested Guidelines

Trying to derive practical guidelines from these legal dicta, the American Association of School Administrators (AASA) has advised public school principals to provide for "reasonable recognition of Christmas in the spirit of exposition of the differing rites and customs of families, cultures and creeds."

The National School Public Relations Association offers even more explicit advice in a booklet entitled "Religion and the Schools," prepared under the direction of one of the nation's most respected authorities on the subject, Richard Upshur Smith.

Washington Window

By RAYMOND LAHR
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Congress and the White House have kept wheels spinning for years without progress toward reform of federal elections laws.

Now Congress is preparing for another effort because of the multimillion dollar television campaigns of 1970 and President Nixon's veto of the bill to set limits on broadcast campaign spending in future years. The President, who said the bill would plug only one hole in a sieve, has promised to help get a broader reform bill enacted.

By proposing limits on broadcast spending, the vetoed bill reversed the thrust of measures which have received most of the attention in Congress over the past 12 years.

Supporters of those bills wanted to repeal the obsolete and meaningless spending limits of the Corrupt Practices Act of 1925 and the Hatch Act provisions of 1939-40. They favored greater and more up-to-date disclosure of political contributions and spending, and tax incentives to encourage small contributions.

Many Committees

No federal law now touches a political committee operating in only one state. Committees functioning in two or more states can spend no more than $3 million a year, but a party can set up as many committees as it wishes, each with a $3 million ceiling.

No contribution can exceed $5,000, but a "fat cat" can contribute $5,000 each to as many committees as he wishes.

Primaries and pre-convention campaigns for nominations are immune from federal laws.

Starting in 1959, the Senate has passed four bills to repeal the meaningless limits on lending and require more enlightening reports on contributions and spending.

Red Cross News

By LIBBY SHOTWELL,
Executive Secretary ARC

Thanks to those who have mailed checks to the Red Cross office for the victims of the terrible disaster in Pakistan, $115.35 has been sent to the National Red Cross for the distribution of funds to the people in Pakistan who have a great need by the International Red Cross. Chapters all over the United States are sharing with the people who have suffered so great a loss.

The SS class of 4th and 5th grades at the Episcopal Church with Mrs. Sam Hulseby teacher took up a love offering of $1.35 for the children of Pakistan. Thanks boys and girls!

Chairman, D.V. Biggers urges all members to be present. The program will be on the change in our organizational plan. Mr. Bill Jean will be present at the breakfast.

A new class of Hospital Volunteers was held Friday morning in the Red Cross office. Names of the group will be in next week's paper. The ladies who work at Highland General Hospital on assigned days will have someone to help them during the bad cold days of winter. The Hospital Volunteers serve juice to the patients, deliver magazines and take cards and flowers to the patients for the hospital.

If you are interested in a course teaching people in Pampa to better furnish their homes, contact Jimmie Lou Wainscott, Home Demonstration Agent in Pampa. Jimmie Lou has told us that the class is open to our community and the course would run from 2 weeks to 12 weeks at a minimum cost.

Thanks also for the kind people who have given baskets to the ones who needed help for Thanksgiving and if you plan to keep the families at Christmas, won't you call the Red Cross office and let us know. Churches should clear with the Index so that an overlapping of names will not be done and all can share in our giving instead of a few.

Mrs. Jackie Marlar, WSI Trainer has completed a class in Beginner Swimming with the following receiving certificates: Steven Brown, Danny Davis, Kimberly Rogers, and Alice Gilbert. Mrs. Marlar completed a Swimmer class with the following receiving cards: Gary Dumas, Floyd Baxter, and Mike Crippen. Come by the Red Cross office and purchase your patch to wear on your bathing suit for both beginners and Swimmer patches. All patches are only 25 cents.

The Red Cross Board will meet December 8th at 7 a.m. in the Coronado Inn. Chapter

Television In Review

RICK DuBROW
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—The Andersonville Trial was the first offering of the Hollywood Television Theatre last season, and was immediately acclaimed the finest home screen drama when presented on video's noncommercial network.

This season, the Hollywood Television Theatre, hereafter referred to as HTT, will offer five major productions, including a rerun of "The Andersonville Trial"—also on the non-commercial network, which changes its name every 20 minutes and is currently known as the Public Broadcast Service.

The five full-length plays will be presented the first Tuesday of each month from January through May.

Contemporary Overtones
 On Jan. 5, the production is "Montserrat," which Lillian Hellman adapted from a French play by Emmanuel Robles, and which was seen on Broadway in 1949. It is said to have important contemporary aspects, with psychological confrontations similar to the current dilemmas posed by airline hijackings and political kidnappings.

On Feb. 2, HTT presents "Big Fish, Little Fish," a 1961 Broadway comedy by Hugh Wheeler. It is described as a wry tale about ambition, friendship and love—the people who make it and the people who don't.

"The Andersonville Trial," Saul Levitt's play about individual moral responsibility—and specifically concerning a Civil War prison camp commandant charged with the deaths of many inmates—will be repeated March 2.

SOVIET'S CARRY MAIL
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Postmaster General Winton M. Blount says the Soviet Union has agreed to carry Christmas parcels and mail for American prisoners directly to North Vietnam on its new nonstop Moscow-Hanoi flight.

The direct Aeroflot flight, just inaugurated, avoid a stopover in Peking and speeds delivery. The Soviets have cooperated in getting mail to U.S. prisoners since 1968.

Hanoi has indicated it will accept Christmas parcels up to 11 pounds this year, provided they were mailed via Moscow.

CHECKS WORTHLESS
MANILA (UPI)—Five men Friday shot and killed two bank messengers, seriously wounded a bank guard and then fled with $166,666 in worthless checks the messengers had been carrying.

A spokesman for the bank said the checks were for clearing purposes only and were not negotiable.

NO MORE PINUPS
BANGKOK (UPI)—Police Commissioner Monchai Phankongchuen said Friday that from now on "pornographic and obscene pictures," including calendars with nudes, will not be allowed in police booths.

The commissioner said this would make the booths look more official.

Had your ad been here it would have been read. You are reading this one!

'U.S.A.' On Screen
 On April 6, the play is "Poet Game," an original work by Anthony Terpiloff about "a self-doubting Irish poet on tour in America, fighting for his confidence and his life with alcohol and women as his chief weapons."

On May 4, HTT presents "U.S.A." by John Dos Passos and Paul Shyre—"a kaleidoscopic view of the first 30 years in 20th century America." Dos Passos, of course, wrote the famous trilogy of the same name, and the play was originally produced off-Broadway in 1959.

With the tight economy, the loss of cigarette ads and a cutback of prime time causing the commercial networks to reduce the number of their drama specials, viewers can be grateful for the HTT productions, which are underwritten by a grant from the Ford Foundation.

Suit Filed To Oust 3 Bachelors Living Together
RIVER FOREST, Ill. (UPI)—What's in a family? Not three bachelors, say the city fathers of this wealthy Chicago suburb. The village has filed a suit to oust three single men living together in a $38,000 Georgian-style home on grounds they are not related "by birth, adoption or marriage" and therefore do not constitute a household.

This violates the village's zoning ordinance, which allows only single-family residences, village attorney Charles L. Michod Sr. said Thursday. The case will be heard in Circuit Court next against Joseph N. Hernandez, 36, a lithographer; Paul S. Ranier, 30, a union electrician; and James P. Rountree, 30, a hospital business manager. Judge Samuel B. Epstein was expected to rule.

Michod said the village found out about the trio during a building inspection. He said neighbors have complained the men do not keep the property in good condition and have paved the backyard for parking.

Michod said, however, that there have been no complaints of wild parties, though the men have female visitors.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI)—One of the most notable developments on the international scene this fall has been the way that Red China has suddenly become more recognizable. For years, you may recall, Red China was probably the least recognizable country on earth. Hardly any of the countries in the Western Hemisphere recognized it, and recognition was spotty elsewhere.

Countries that were able to recognize Red China would try to help other countries recognize it. Poland, for instance, might take Canada by the elbow and direct its gaze in Red China's direction. "That's it over there," Poland would say. "Its that big piece of land just beyond the Formosa Straits."

Shielding its eyes, Canada would squint hard and peer into the distance, then shake its head. "I can see something over there all right," Canada would say, "but I can't recognize it."

International Clarity
That situation is abruptly changing. Within the past few weeks, Canada, then Italy and now Ethiopia, found Red China recognizable, and several other countries may be on the verge of recognition. "You must be the Red China I've been hearing so much about," Canada said when recognition dawned.

"Red China, I presume," Italy said, and Ethiopia said: "Don't tell me, let me guess. Red China, right? I'd know you anywhere. You look just like your picture." Curious about the change, I called up my foreign affairs adviser, Dr. Henry Kissandtell. "Is this the result of something Red China did to make itself more recognizable, or have Canada, Italy and Ethiopia been taking Red China recognition lessons?" I inquired.

The Two-China Focus
"Mainly it is a change in perspective brought about by the passing of time," Kissandtell explained. "Some countries that once found Nationalist China easy to recognize wouldn't know it now without a nameplate."

I said, "Do you believe the time will come when Red China will be recognizable to the United States?" "Not in this light," Kissandtell replied.

I said, "Is it still possible for a country to recognize two Chinas simultaneously?" "It's possible," he said, "but it probably requires bifocals."

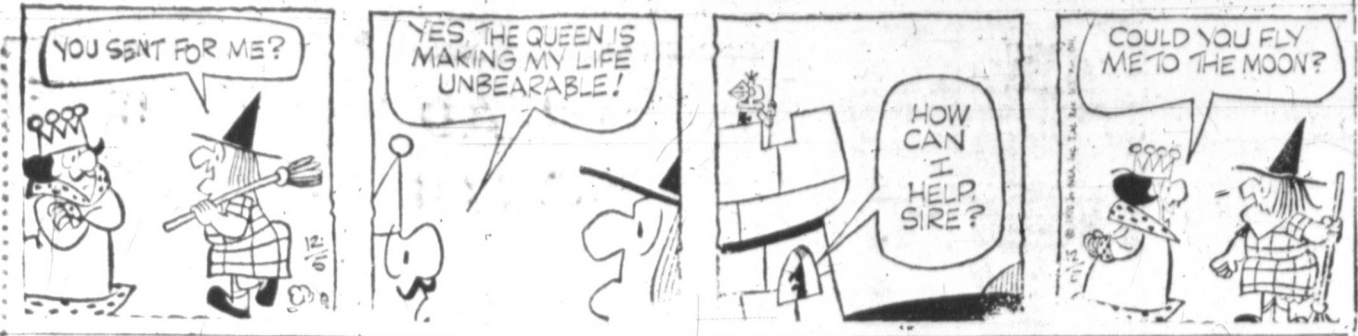

JAPAN SUICIDE ATTEMPT
SAPPORO, Japan (UPI)—A 17-year-old student attempted to commit hara-kiri with a knife in disappointment over the lack of interest in the suicide of Yukio Mishima last week, police said. Mishima committed suicide by hara-kiri Nov. 25 after a speech to an army garrison appealing for a coup to restore what he called traditional Japanese values. The youth was not seriously injured.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—A rosy future for the stock market is predicted by Wright Investors' Service. The firm anticipates a larger than usual market year-end rally, a sharp advance early in 1971 and the attainment throughout that year of successive new recovery highs.
The rally in the credit market reflects confusion of the business lull with a lull in inflation and a total ignominy of the inflationary consequences of the GM strike, says the Janeway Service. The bond market rally is consequently now as excessive, as rigid and as ripe for a shak-out as the stock market was at the worst of its overbought excesses. In addition, the bond market's euphoria is now spreading back to the stock market, compounding the "huge bear market trap being built for unwary believers."

Caroling Begins In Nativity Play To Relate Story Of Christ's Birth

NEW YORK (SpI)—Called carols in France, "Le Pastoral" in Italy and Weihnachtslieder in Germany, carols are everywhere the welcome sound of Christmas. Groups of friends and relatives gathered around a piano as they sing Christmas carols are a 20th-century tradition. Yet few of those who hear and sing them know their surprising history—a tale well worth giving ear to.

When was the first carol sung? Scholars think caroling probably began in the early church when Nativity plays, accompanied by songs of joy, told the story of Christ's birth. One of the earliest choruses of praise, gloria in excelsis deo (glory to God in the highest) is still sung by carolers at Christmas time. Early Latin-speaking worshippers must have shouted it forth with a magna vox (also Latin, for "great voice").

Though many people don't realize it, carols were originally connected not only with song but with dance: The Old French word carole meant "a ring dance accompanied by song." An English carol dating from 1350 has a refrain which refers to a round dance:

"Hond by hond we schulle take and joye and blisse schulle we make."

Early carol composers didn't confine themselves to Christmas themes — a collection of Carolles newly Imprinted (1550) contained more Crucifixion than Nativity carols! On the other hand, quite a few carols of this time were not sacred in mood, but simply light-hearted invitations to feasting and toasting. The Boar's Head carol, a big hit in 16th century England and still sung annually by the students of Queen's College, Oxford, actually celebrates the course of a Christmas dinner, in these words:

The boar's head in hand bear I
Bedeck'd with bays and rosemary.
And I pray you masters, be merry...

The custom of outdoor carol singing is many hundreds of years old. It seems to have started in the Middle Ages when groups of people went from house to house to sing by torchlight.

Yet despite these joyous beginnings, the Christmas carol eventually ran into some rough weather. As the Puritan influence grew strong, carols became gloomy and grim; finally the Puritans made it a crime even to print them or sing them publicly! After Puritanism waned in England, carols made a comeback — but in the 17th and 18th centuries were considered a rustic, socially inferior form of song!

By 1882, a writer named William Hone was predicting that carols were dying out and in a few years' time would be heard no more!

Even as he spoke, a new upsurge of interest in carols was beginning. Today, Christmas carolers enjoy the music all the more when they experience the excellent tone of a fine piano. These instruments, like the songs themselves, are enduring.

When you hear your favorite carols sung in church, outside your window, or on a precision phonograph, can you tell which of them are ancient and which are comparatively recent?

Some authorities think that "The Twelve Days of Christmas" originally belonged not to Christmas but to the turn of the year; its roots may go far back into pagan times. "Good King Wenceslaus," a British favorite, was borrowed from a Swedish songbook of 1582. "God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen," may also date back to the 16th century. Some say "Adeste Fideles" was composed by St. Bonaventura before 1274 — but the earliest surviving manuscript is dated 1790 and signed by John Francis Wade, a music dealer in France.

"Joy to the World" was taken from a hymn written in 1719 by Isaac Watts; its current music was adapted from Handel's "Messiah." John Wesley wrote "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" in 1737; its musical accompaniment was adapted in 1855 from one of Mendelssohn's works. "O Little Town of Bethlehem" is less than 100 years old; it was written in 1868 by Phillips Brooks.

The most beloved carol of all — "Silent Night" — has an interesting story behind it. According to information supplied by a piano company researcher, it was hastily written in 1818 by an Austrian parish priest, Joseph Mohr, as a surprise for his parishioners. Mohr feared they would be disappointed when they learned that the church organ had broken down! He took the poem to his friend, church organist Franz Gruber, who completed the famous melody in a few hours. At midnight mass that evening, the two of them sang the masterpiece — to a guitar accompaniment.

Some of the most popular Christmas music of all times has been composed in the 20th century. The greatest seller of any phonograph record to date is Irving Berlin's "White Christmas;" first recorded in 1942, it had sold 40,000,000 copies as of Dec. 31, 1963, — and is still going strong. "The Little Drummer Boy" is another recent record best-seller that promises to become a Christmas classic.

Ancient and traditional or up-to-the-minute modern, Christmas songs play a vital role in setting the mood of the season. For after all, "Tis the season to be jolly."

Santa Suggests Whimsical Gifts For Teenagers

NEW YORK — When you go Christmas shopping, pick flowers, fashion, whimsy and glitter.

That's an idea for teen girls from a December teenage magazine, which spotlights "La Giftique Fantastique" of unusual accessories and handicrafts ranging from a hand-made, papier-mache' trimmed contact lens case to a felt checker set with flower "men."

Vivid flowers bloom on whimsical items such as a felt sewing kit with tape measure, scissors and ruler in the "stem" and a pin cushion as the center of the flower; lined straw mules; felt-flowered in front; and a jewel box covered in floral-patterned vinyl.

Jewelry gems include clinging ladybugs with adhesive backs for a pierced-ear look; a "gold" brick ring, and a chain belt-necklace hung with bells.

In conversation piece fashion accessories, a golden lace discotheque bag hangs on a shoulder chain — which might turn into a belt at midnight, stockings make snappy legwork, and a fine feathered boa strikes a dramatic note.

Other unusual pieces include a festive sun from Ecuador, crafted from bread dough, then colored and varnished; a "mod boy" pierced earring stand of stained glass and gilt; and cardboard hangers decorated with pictures of silver-screen heroes and heroines.

The club works out on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Fridays from 6-7 p.m. Come to one of the workouts and we will be happy to indoctrinate you into the club.

TEEN DANCES — The activity most loved by the young people is the teen dance. This is held on Friday or Saturday nights during the school year and on special nights around holidays. The dances are from 9-12 on Friday nights and 8-11 p.m. on Saturday nights. All dances are well chaperoned by adults. Many parents come out to help chaperone and we would extend a cordial welcome to any who would like to come and get some first hand knowledge of what a teen age get together is really like.

The dance schedule for the month of December looks like this. On Dec. 11 Midwest will play followed by Mechanical World on Dec. 18; Dec. 22 Midwest; on Dec. 24 Number One and hopefully a Battle of the Bands on New Year's Eve. We have invited several bands to participate in this Battle and will know more about this in the next several days.

JUDO CLASS — The Center's judo class is really progressing with several new members added to the roster. We have now allowed the girls and women to start participating in this class. If you are female, 12 years of age or older, you may join the class. The class is still open to boys and men who are 8 years of age or older.

All classes meet on Monday and Thursday nights from 7-8:30 p.m. under the direction of Paul Moot assisted by his father Sam Moot. Paul just this summer studied in Japan under the direction of the people who invented this sport and he was well received by the Japanese Judo experts. If you are interested in joining the class, please come to one of the sessions and the rules will be explained. You need only be a Center member to participate.

MEMBERSHIPS — If you are interested in losing weight and toning up your body the Center's new health facility is the place to go. This was opened just last year and people have really had good results from their participation in the program.

The health facility houses all the bicycles, vibrator belts, barrel rollers, health walkers etc. that is needed for a well rounded program. You can lose inches off of your waist in no time and with special care can lose weight very easily. Paddle ball courts and a sauna are also available.

Memberships in the facility is only $65 for six months for an individual and $90 for a husband-wife combination. We have an easy pay out plan for the six months program. Come by now and join up.

Insurance Costs Motorists More Than Car Value

NEW YORK (UPI)—Annual automobile insurance now costs many motorists more than the market value of their cars.

The $1,000 a year premium is commonplace for penalized drivers in the big cities. Rate tables of insurance companies show the possibility of premiums as high as $7,400 in Philadelphia for minimum protection for very risky drivers.

"Of course, no one is really paying $7,400 for minimum insurance," said the Insurance Information Institute. "It's just a statistic's idea of how much a company would have to charge certain risky drivers."

Prof. Herbert S. Denenberg, who teaches insurance at the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Finance, warned in a recent speech that insurance rates are going to keep going up unless a fundamental reform is achieved soon.

An in-depth study made recently for the American Insurance Association by Mathematica, a Princeton, N.J., research bureau, reached much the same conclusion.

The problem, the Mathematica report said, is that property and casualty insurance is a service business that has not found any way to increase its productivity. Its costs keep going up. It also is tied to the medical hospitalization and auto repair businesses which also have been unable to increase productivity to offset spiraling wages and other cost increases.

New Books On Shelves

FADEOUT — Joseph Hansen; a folk singer disappears and murder is suspected. Follow the footsteps of Dave Brandsetter, A-1 insurance investigator, to his thrilling clue-by-clue solution!

THE MAKING OF AN ASTRONAUT — Brian O'Leary; an uncensored account of what is going on behind closed doors at NASA by a planetary astronomer as one of the eleven new astronauts. He resigned when he learned the facts.

THE ADVENTURESS — Santha Rama Rau; postwar Tokyo, old-guard Manila, and Shanghai just before its fall to the Communists are the settings for this novel of an Eurasian woman who is without family, friends, fortune, or passport, yet is determined to have a future.

TAU ZERO — Paul Anderson; a space adventure of epic proportions which takes fifty people to the end of the universe, infinity, and the beginning of a new eternity.

THE GARDENS IN MY LIFE — Mabel Barbee Lee; reflections of the author as a lonely young bride, a mother, widow, and a career woman, and how she turned to her garden in times of crisis.

BATTLE OF THE APRIL STORM — Larry Forrester; an account of this final episode in the career of H.M.S. Glowworm. From this bloody encounter comes a moment when humanity prevails—and there are no winners.

DEADLY PATTERN — Douglas Clark; faced with five murders, all obviously committed by the same hand, Masters starts looking for a pattern, and a deadly one he finds—which leads him quickly to the uncovering of the fifth body.

HOTEL BELVEDERE — Elizabeth Corbett; for lovers of romantic fiction, this is a gentle, charming story of a woman's successful search for happiness.

FAMILY PORTRAIT — Catherine Drinker Bowen; written with extraordinary candor about the author's own family and her place in it.

STRANGE BEDFELLOW — KERKRADE, Holland (UPI) — On a tip by neighbors, police searched the home of a 79-year-old villager looking for what was described as "a hidden hand grenade." They found it in his bed, where he had kept it, defused, for 25 years.

ST. HELENS, England (UPI) — David Cardus "simply did not know what he was doing" when he stole a sample of his own blood from a police station following a traffic accident, his lawyer said Friday.

He had given the blood and submitted to a breath test, both for alcohol, after the accident. Cardus, 28, was fined $120 for the theft.

Shell Dredging May Be Harmful To Marine Life

AUSTIN (UPI) — Recent biological studies show continued shell dredging in the upper San Antonio Bay area could do serious harm to young marine life, according to sources in Austin.

It was learned Thursday the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department plans to order a large part of the bay closed to dredgers by around Jan. 1.

The bay is located just north of Aransas National Wildlife Refuge, 65 miles up the coast from Corpus Christi. The area to be closed is in the northern part of the bay, within three miles of where the Guadalupe River empties.

Shell dredgers are now allowed to dredge as close as one mile from the river mouth, but the new order is expected to move them three miles back into the bay.
