Proposed 1971 Budget Okayed

The Gray County Commissioners Court approved the proposed county budget in a surprise move during a regular session Monday.

Months of surveys, discussions and proposals culminated when the commissioners accepted the $1,341,370.86 proposed budget.

Acceptance was made with the provision that an appraiser be retained by the county to re-set valuations on all county properties, upping the present valuation of $56 million to the needed $74 million dollars.

The court has heard proposals from industrial and utility concerns that the tax levy be equalized during a professional appraisal, which would result in a new tax basis.

The county is operating on current tax funds, and faces a $96,212.23 deficit in the newly passed budget.

Other business presented to the court included the approval

JUST NOT AIR

NEW YORK (UPI) — Consolidated Edison has asked residents near its Ravenswood, Queens, plant and across the East River in upper Manhattan not to be startled by loud noises from the plant today, Wednesday and Thursday.

Con Ed said its crippled big Allis generator will be undergoing boiler tests causing "periodic loud noises."

The noise will just be the sound of hot air from a safety valve, according to Con Ed.

Israeli Troops Shoot Saboteurs

By United Press International
Israeli troops shot and wounded two young Arabs who blew up a labor exchange office in the heart of the Gaza Strip today, military sources said.

The explosion destroyed most of the building in Gaza City and the Arabs were shot trying to flee from the scene of the blast, the sources said.

Radio Damascus today quoted Arab guerrilla spokesmen as saying new fighting had broken out in Amman between government forces and the commandos. The broadcast gave no details.

The reports of new fighting in Amman coincided with a search for dissident Palestinian guerrillas accused of trying to disrupt Jordan's new truce between the government and the guerrillas.

The guerrillas were accused of killing 10 soldiers and policemen and wounding two others in a series of raids around Amman Sunday. These involved ambushes on four separate army trucks and an assault on a hospital and killing of four policemen stationed there.

The two sides sought in a meeting Monday to defuse the situation by coming up with a peace initiative by the Arab truce team.

77 Countries Attend Conference At Hague

THE HAGUE (UPI) — An international conference on air law today approved a proposal demanding prosecution "without exception" for aircraft hijackers and severe penalties for those convicted.

A 14-day conference of 77 nations adopted the "convention for the suppression of illegal seizure of aircraft" with only Chile and Algeria abstaining.

The Hague Convention, as the agreement will be known, will be signed Wednesday by the nations who agreed on it and will be open to other nations later.

"Each contracting party nation undertakes to make the offense of hijacking punishable by severe penalties," the agreement said.

Delegates have been meeting since Dec. 1 to formulate an international agreement to make hijacking illegal. Their starting point was a draft prepared by the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO).

Participants included the United States represented by a four-man delegation originally headed by J. R. Stevenson, legal adviser of the State Department. During the conference he left for home and was replaced by J. B. Rhinelander, deputy legal adviser of the State Department.

Other participants: The Soviet Union, five men, headed by A. Semenov, vice minister of civil aviation; Britain, France, West Germany, Canada, Nationalist China, Japan, Egypt, Israel, Tunisia, Algeria, Libya, Lebanon, Iran, Ceylon, Hungary, Poland, Romania and

Seven Choirs To Perform Yule Program

Combined choirs of seven Pampa elementary schools will present their first Christmas program and Cantata at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Pampa High School Field House.

All 350 children, ranging in age from 10 to 13 years old have been working on the Cantata, "Something Wonderful," and their 10 selections of Christmas music since October.

The Cantata music was written in 1969 by A.L. Butler and lyrics by Mrs. Bobbye Altmiller, both of Ada, Okla. Butler will direct the Cantata with his wife as accompanist.

Choral music directors who will conduct the choirs will be Wathena Watt of Travis School, Hester Branham of Mann; Faye Gailman, of Baker, Elcise Lane of Houston, Sue Higdon of Lamar, Ruth Gunn of Austin and Edith Weaver of Wilson.

King Of Pool Hustlers Said Thinking Of Chalking Last Cue

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — "Minnesota Fats," king of the pool hustlers for a quarter century, says he is thinking of chalking his last cue.

The pocket billiards matches that last all week with only snatches of sleep are getting to him. And at age 57, he's not as young as he was back when the folks in Minnesota were so impressed they gave him his nickname.

"It's a tough racket, pool," he said in an interview. "It's one of the toughest rackets in the world. Ain't no tougher racket on earth. You got to never lose. I'm about ready to

Korean Ferry Sinks, Many Feared Dead

SEOUL (UPI) — A 362-ton South Korean ferry with 276 persons aboard sank off the southern coast before daybreak today, Transportation Ministry officials said. Most of the passengers are missing and feared drowned.

The U.S. Air Force in Japan said 14 persons had been picked up by Japanese Maritime Safety Agency patrol boats and Japanese fishing vessels, but the fate of the other persons aboard — including 256 passengers and 20 crew — was not known.

The boat, identified as the Namyong-Ho, left Cheju Island 50 miles off the southern coast late Monday and was due at Pusan at 7 a.m. today. Pusan is a port city on the southeastern tip of the country.

The officials said the boat had not been heard from nine hours after the scheduled time of arrival at Pusan port. "We assume that the boat sank," a ministry official said, "and we are taking all necessary moves on that basis."

WTSU Receives Cash And Cattle From Pampa Area

Ten head of two-year-old heifers valued at $3,000 were received from two Pampa area ranchers yesterday by Dr. Charles Smallwood, dean of Agriculture at West Texas State University, to be added to WTSU's Nance Ranch project.

Raymond Maddox is one of the donors of five of the prize five registered herefords. The other donor of five registered herefords is anonymous. Maddox operates a ranch 14 miles south of Pampa.

Floyd Watson, vice president of the First National Bank, presented a check for $200 to the Nance Ranch project. Other cash donations have brought local contributions to approximately $4,000.

The Nance Ranch Project was created after Mrs. George Nance donated a 2,300-acre ranch near Canyon to West Texas State University. The ranch will be used for research in all phases of the cattle business as it affects the Panhandle area.

A campaign is under way to raise $100,000.00 to stock the ranch and make certain needed improvements.

Farris Hess, McLean rancher and president of the American Hereford Association, is serving as coordinator for the Gray, Roberts, and Donley County area in the money raising projects.

Hess today urges anyone who would like to make a donation of cattle or money to contact Foster Whaley, county agricultural agent. Whaley has agreed to arrange transportation to West Texas State University for any cattle donated.

The recent cattle will be added to the herd at West Texas State University. Cull cows and other cattle will be marketed by West Texas State University and added to the fund.

Spain Declares Partial State Of Emergency For Next 6 Months

MADRID (UPI) — A partial state of emergency the government said was aimed at subversive minority groups took effect today, giving police unlimited powers of arrest and detention for the next six months.

By decree in the government gazette, Generalissimo Francisco Franco and his cabinet suspended Article 18 of the constitution, in effect cancelling the writ of habeas corpus which requires police to charge anyone they arrest within 72 hours or turn him loose.

The timing of the decree indicated the government was bracing for fresh unrest when a Burgos court-martial pronounced the verdicts and sentences on 16 Basque nationalists charged with murder and terrorism. The prosecution

U.S., South Viet Urged To Release 1,500 Able-Bodied POWs Of Enemy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Republican Whip Robert P. Griffin said today the United States and South Vietnam unilaterally should release 1,500 able-bodied North Vietnamese war prisoners, as well as all sick and wounded prisoners, before the Vietnamese new year.

Griffin told a news conference the Nixon Administration had been informed of his suggestion. "I believe that there will be some sympathetic response within the administration," he added.

The second-ranking member of the Senate GOP leadership said, however he had not talked with President Nixon about the matter and I'm not prepared to be more specific. The Michigan Republican held the news conference Monday but all information

Texas Manufacturers Support Plan Freezing Teacher Salaries

AUSTIN (UPI) — Texas Manufacturers Association officials are supporting a plan to freeze teacher salaries at their present level and shift $140 million in school costs from the state level to the local school districts.

The purpose of the plan is to avoid new state taxes for the 1972-73 biennium.

John Holmgren of San Antonio, chairman of the TMA, told a capitol news conference Monday more state taxes would jeopardize the "favorable industrial climate" in the state.

A corporate income tax, which would affect manufacturers, has frequently been mentioned as a possible source of new taxes to meet an estimated $643 million needed next year.

Quality Water Board Urging Matching Grants

Taxpayers in Lefors stand to gain $11,088 on the cost of proposed sewage plant improvements if the Texas Legislature acts promptly in approving a $25,500,000 matching grants program requested by the Texas Water Quality Board, according to Gordon Fulcher, chairman of the TWQB.

About One Million American Kids Spend Most Days Alone At Home

WASHINGTON (UPI) — About one million American children spend most days alone home because working mothers lack proper day care facilities, according to a child welfare expert.

The solution, Therese Landsburgh told delegates to the White House Conference on Children, is to make day care centers as common in the United States as public schools.

At least 3.5 million children — including one million "latchkey" children left alone at home by their working mothers — urgently need day care centers, Mrs. Landsburgh said.

Plans For Plant Construction To Be Worked Out

Detailed work schedules and plans for construction of Pampa's $14 million water treatment plant and distribution line will be ironed out at a meeting at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday in the city commission room at City Hall.

Attending the session will be administrative city officials and representatives of the two contracting firms, A. E. Mitchell Co. of Dallas and Foran Construction Co. of Amarillo.

Previous estimate on a completion date for the water treatment plant has been set for December 1971 or January 1972.

Connally's Appointment To Cabinet Adds Bipartisan Flavor To Program

By NORMAN KEMPSTER
WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon's appointment of former Texas Gov. John B. Connally as Treasury secretary adds a bipartisan flavor to the administration's economic program but probably will have little real impact on policy-making.

Quality Water Board Urging Matching Grants

The board proposed two ways in which the state could raise the money to provide the matching grants. One would be a direct emergency appropriation and the other would be to create a program for financing of state grants by the issuance of state bonds to finance loans to cities or other entities in the amount of 25 per cent of the cost of eligible projects he explained.

Connally's Appointment To Cabinet Adds Bipartisan Flavor To Program

But Connally's presence in the Cabinet was expected to be an asset for Nixon in the 1972 presidential election. Nixon lost Texas to Hubert H. Humphrey by only 39,000 votes in 1968, and in 1972 the Lone Star State will have 26 electoral votes, fourth highest number in the nation.

John Connally Will Succeed Kennedy As Treasury Secretary

By HELEN THOMAS
WASHINGTON (UPI)—In an open bid for political peace, President Nixon today named Democrat John B. Connally, former Texas governor and close friend of former President Lyndon B. Johnson, to be Treasury secretary.

Connally, who also served in the Kennedy administration, will succeed David M. Kennedy, 63, who will remain in Nixon's official family as an ambassador-at-large to deal with international finance and monetary policy.

With Connally at his side, Nixon told White House newsmen: "We have a Republican President and Democratic Congress, but the problems we have are American problems. We need to approach them in a bipartisan manner."

Connally, who served three two-year terms as a Texas governor through 1968, said he was "profoundly proud, grateful and humble with this appointment."

Nixon said he would withhold submitting of Connally's nomination to the Senate until after the new Congress convenes in January. "Kennedy," he said, "would continue in the cabinet post probably until Feb. 1 when Nixon's new budget presentation is completed."

The proposed nomination drew quick praise from Democratic leaders in Congress. Speaker John W. McCormack described Connally as a "fine man, outstanding, and a great American."

Connally, 53, served as Navy secretary under the late President John F. Kennedy and was seriously wounded by gunfire when riding in the same auto with Kennedy at the time of the assassination in Dallas seven years ago.

He has been a close political ally of Johnson's throughout the years, both in Washington and in Texas.

When Johnson was a House member, Connally served as his secretary from 1939 to early 1941. After a hitch of Navy service and a job as a radio station executive in Austin, he rejoined Johnson as his senatorial administration assistant in 1949.

He served one year as Navy secretary under Kennedy before winning election as governor in 1962.

It was the second Nixon cabinet switch in recent weeks. The President dismissed Walter

J. Hickel as Interior secretary on the day before Thanksgiving and tapped Rep. Rogers C. B. Morton to succeed him.

Connally is the first Democrat to be appointed to a Nixon cabinet post although Daniel Patrick Moynihan, a long-time Kennedy and Johnson aide, has been serving Nixon as a White House counselor with cabinet status. Moynihan plans to return soon to Harvard.

Nixon's Appointment Of Connally 2nd Honor To Texas Within Week

By United Press International
The appointment Monday by President Nixon of former Texas Gov. John B. Connally as treasury secretary was thesecond honor to come to a Texan within a week.

Only last Friday, Nixon announced appointment of U. S. Rep. George Bush as U.S. ambassador to the United Nations. Bush had run an unsuccessful race for the U.S. Senate against Lloyd M. Bentsen Jr., a Houston Democrat.

On Dec. 1, Nixon named Connally to the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board succeeding retired Gen. Maxwell who resigned. This board keeps tabs on the nation's overall intelligence operations and recommends measures to improve its effectiveness.

Rumors circulated last summer that Connally was due a cabinet post for secretly helping Nixon in his 1968 presidential campaign. Connally branded the rumor "an out and out lie."

On July 9 from Floresville, Tex., where Connally has a ranch, UPI carried this quote from Connally:

"I think I should brand (the report) in stronger language."

In a recently published book called "The Resurrection of Richard Nixon," Washington newsman Jules Witcover said Connally worked behind the scenes for President Nixon in the 1968 campaign with the understanding Nixon would appoint him secretary of defense.

The July 9 dispatch went on to say:

"Witcover claims at the last minute Connally thought former Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey would carry Texas and thus leave Connally out in the cold in a state that went Democratic without him." Witcover said in the book Connally then got on the Humphrey bandwagon and lost his chance at a cabinet post.

"I made no commitment to anybody to support President Nixon, did not support him, raised no money for him," Connally said. "To the contrary, I supported Hubert Humphrey."

PRICE SLUMPS
NEW DELHI (UPI)—The "wedding price" for engineers and medical graduates has slumped because of the lack of available positions, according to Mysore state's deputy minister of industries, A. P. Appanna.

Appanna said formerly a wealthy father was prepared to pay the rupee equivalent of $34,000 for a medical graduate to marry his daughter. An engineer could expect $10,000 for marriage.

But not any more. Appanna said growing unemployment in the two professions has resulted in a slump. Instead he advised parents to train their sons to be farmers.

Profile Of Treasury Secretary Appointee

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Treasury Secretary appointee John B. Connally worked peanuts and cotton as a boy, but with experience as governor, Navy Secretary, oilman and friend of former President Lyndon B. Johnson, he is no stranger to the management of money.

Connally was born Feb. 27, 1917 on a small farm near Floresville, Tex. He worked plowing peanuts and hoeing cotton and he eventually was graduated from the University of Texas.

While at UT, Connally joined Phi Delta Theta social fraternity and married Ida Nell Brill, who became the mother of their three children.

His political career began when he went to work for then Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson, D-Tex.

Connally became Johnson's congressional secretary in 1941 but left a few months later for active duty in the Atlantic and Pacific during World War II where he won the Legion of Merit and the Bronze Star.

He returned to work for Johnson and when LBJ moved up to the Senate in 1949, Connally returned to his law practice in Austin.

Three years later he became attorney for the late Sid W. Richardson and Perry Bass, two Fort Worth oil multimillionaires. The position made him a millionaire in the 10 years he held it.

But in those 10 years he remained close to Johnson. He nominated LBJ for the presidency in 1956 and managed his nomination campaign in 1960.

Kennedy made him secretary of the Navy in 1961 but he held the position only a few months before returning to Texas and running for governor.

He conducted the longest and most expensive campaign ever seen up to that time in Texas and defeated incumbent Gov. Price Daniel by 25,000 votes. He swept into office in his next two elections and then quit.

He held a key role in national politics during this period while acting as fund raiser for the Democrats. In the 1968 election, he helped Hubert Humphrey win the nomination and then met twice with Nixon representatives during the fall campaign giving rise to allegations he had switched sides. Connally called that idea "an out and out lie."

comfortable routine broken only by sporadic campaigning for Texas Democrats. He helped Sen.-elect Lloyd M. Bentsen defeat Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough in the primary this year and packed many local Democrats.

President Nixon announced Monday his appointment of the former Texas governor in what was seen as bipartisan politics, a political payoff or an attempt to appease budget opponents in Congress.

He entered private practice with the law firm of Vinson, Elkins, Searls and Connally in Houston, one of the largest firms in the world. He bought a home in Houston and settled into what appeared to be a

Senate Unit Approves President's $255 Million Aid Plan For Cambodia

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today approved President Nixon's proposal for a $255 million aid program to Cambodia on condition that no American ground troops be sent there.

The outlay is part of a $1 billion supplemental aid package which is now expected to be whisked through Congress.

Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, announced the committee's decision. He said four votes were cast against the Cambodia aid request in the 15-member committee.

Church said the committee attached an amendment which apparently is acceptable to the Nixon administration—to bar use of any funds for the introduction of U.S. ground combat troops or advisers into the embattled nation, which borders Vietnam.

Church said the committee also amended the request to specify that the outlay in no way constituted a U.S. commitment to the defense of Cambodia.

Chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., and several other members had balked at the aid request, fearing that it would lead to another Vietnam that eventually would require the use of ground troops. But a majority of the committee accepted Nixon's contention that the United States should give Cambodia the means to defend itself as a means of keeping American soldiers out of the country.

Washington Window

By STEWART HENSLEY
UPI Diplomatic Reporter
WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Nixon said his threat to resume bombing of North Vietnam if Hanoi increases the level of fighting in the South was necessary to insure continued withdrawal of American forces.

This went beyond previous guidelines and, naturally, has raised the question whether the "Vietnamization" program, under which Saigon's forces are supposed to be taking over most of ground combat, is really working.

This question has been raised not by the usual critics of administration Indochina policy, who have concentrated on charging that Nixon is turning back the clock and widening the war. It has been raised by several representatives here of U.S. allies in NATO, who are anxious to see Nixon succeed in extricating the United States from the war.

Until very recently, administration officials were virtually unanimous in picturing Hanoi's forces as badly mauled and incapable of mounting any significant offensive.

Now, however, intelligence reports tell of relatively heavy infiltration south along the Ho Chi Minh Trail in Laos since the dry season began in October. And the North Vietnamese have begun building to a major headquarters and supply base in southern Laos just across the border from the narrow neck of northern South Vietnam.

Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, is said by Pentagon officials to have asked President Nixon to delay any more troop withdrawals below the 343,700-man level reached this week, three weeks a head of schedule. Abrams wants to hold up on a promised withdrawal of an additional 60,000 by May 1 until he can determine the real extent of the danger.

Some high administration officials believe that North Vietnam is preparing a major assault against Cambodia.

Nixon said at last week's news conference that he could foresee no circumstances that would lead him to send American ground forces back into Cambodia. Any assistance for that country is supposed to be furnished by South Vietnamese troops. But the withdrawal of any considerable number of these from their present holding positions in South Vietnam would provide a major setback for the "Vietnamization" program.

GI Bus Hit By Terrorists In Saigon; No One Injured

SAIGON (UPI)—Two terrorists on a motorcycle threw a fire bomb at a bus filled with U.S. servicemen Monday in the latest of a rash of anti-American incidents. No one was hurt. The assailants were swallowed up in the crush of Saigon traffic.

The wave of bad feeling against the U.S. presence here began last Monday in the coastal city of Qui Nhon, 250 miles northeast of Saigon, where a 15-year-old South Vietnamese was shot and killed.

The death of the boy was blamed on a warning shot fired by a U.S. Army soldier, Pfc. Mathias Yzaguirre, 22, of Brownsville, Tex. He allegedly fired as other boys tried to take Army C-rations from his truck. Yzaguirre has been charged with negligent homicide.

The gasoline bomb—a Molotov cocktail—was thrown at the U.S. military bus Monday afternoon as it moved along a street in the Chinese quarter of Saigon.

It smashed into the windshield and exploded without causing any injuries.

Students in Qui Nhon staged two days of violent demonstrations last week, demanding that Yzaguirre be handed over to South Vietnamese authorities, and the protests then spread to Saigon.

Yzaguirre is being held in Da Nang and officials say he will be tried by a U.S. court-martial, as is the case with all Walt Chamberlain and Sammy Davis appear on NBC-TV's "Laugh In" Jan. 4.

 "Meet the New Senators," an informal hour get-together with fledgling members of Congress' upper house and their families, airs on CBS-TV Jan. 17.

"The Bridge on the River Kwai," the William Holden-Alec Guinness film will be rerun by CBS-TV in two parts Jan. 7 and 8.
 Actor-singer Theodore Bikel offers a one-man show on NBC-TV's "Eternal Light" Sunday in celebration of the Jewish holiday of Hanukkah.

CBS-TV's Merv Griffin presents a 90-minute salute Wednesday to Ross Hunter, producer of such films as "Airport" and "Thoroughly Modern Millie."
 Griffin's originally announced Wednesday outing with Gloria Swanson and other silent movie stars has been reset for Jan. 14.

ll Cosby has reiterated that he plans to become a teacher soon, giving up his NBC-TV series but continuing in show business, including television.

The Programs: American and Russian amateur boxers take each other on Jan. 23 at Caesar's Palace Hotel in Las Vegas in competition aired live by ABC-TV's "Wide World of Sports" — NBC-TV's "First Tuesday" takes a look Jan. 5 at what is going on in Japan these days — notably the build-up of a military-industrial complex.

ABC-TV's next hour of "The Undersea World of Jacques Cousteau" series, set for Jan. 11, is entitled "Lagoon of Lost Ships," and concerns Japanese vessels sunk at Truk, an atoll in the South Pacific ... Madrid's Prado Museum and its great paintings are the subject of NBC-TV's "Southern Baptist Hour" Jan. 10.

The Christmas Eve story of ABC-TV's "Bewitched" was composed by students at Thomas Jefferson High School in Los Angeles after they visited the set ... In the episode, series co-star Dick Sargent is removed from an account when a client mistakes a little black girl in his home for his daughter.

The Industry: NBC President Julian Goodman has properly taken issue with some articles that suggest the important new developments of video cassettes and cable television may result in the demise of networks ... For mass viewing at any given moment, the networks are supreme, and will continue prominently if intelligently guided ... Video's main failing is that there is just too much time to fill, which inevitably diverts attention from considerable network achievement in entertainment and news coverage.

Inside Washington

Strong Ulbricht:
 If the Russians get tired of East German leader Walter Ulbricht's feet dragging on the Berlin issue they will have a hard time replacing him. Reports reaching West Berlin say the 77-year-old Stalinist has his party solidly behind him in support of this inflexible stand on Berlin and Germany. All prominent East German Communists insist on diplomatic recognition by the west in return for East German concessions on Berlin.

Wei Out?
 Political observers in Taipei expect Wei Tao-ming, the aging foreign minister, to resign in the "very near future." Wei was blamed by the U.N. General Assembly vote on the Chinese representation issue which for the first time in 20 years gave the pro-Peking group a majority vote. Informed sources said that what damaged the 71-year-old Wei the most was a secret report to the highest government authorities that he engaged in personal business matters when the Nationalist Chinese delegation was engaged in a last minute scramble for more votes.

Korean Shuffle:
 South Korean President Park Chung-hee is expected to shake up his cabinet toward the end of the year in a bid to clean up his administration and strengthen it for next year's general elections. Observers in Seoul say the shakeup is primarily designed to replace cabinet ministers who plan for parliamentary seats next year but they note that Park ordered thorough investigations of all scandals and corruption involving government officials and say any ministers involved may go.

Vanishing Legion:
 The French government's effort to cut down the size of the armed forces since the end of the Algerian War in 1962 has cut deeply into the vaunted Foreign Legion, once the backbone of the French army in Indochina and Algeria. Official figures indicate the number of Legionnaires has dropped from 60,000 men in 1962 to only 7,500, all of them headquartered in Corsica.

Common Enemy:
 Five years ago Indonesia and Malaysia formally ended two years of military "confrontation" which was a shade short of war. Now they are beginning to cooperate against a common enemy—Communist encroachment on the island of Borneo they share. Further cooperation is expected when Malaysian Prime Minister Tun Abdul Raza goes to Jakarta Dec. 17.

Man Suspected Of Robbing Bank Nabbed By Police

BURNET, Tex. (UPD)—A gunman robbed the First State Bank of Burnet and fled Monday with just over $700.

Just over an hour later highway patrolmen arrested a man fitting the description of the robber five miles north of Johnson City on U.S. Highway 281.

The Department of Public Safety said the suspect was a 47-year-old Austin man. Charges will be filed against him, officials said.

The suspect was driving an automobile that also fitted the description of the get-away car. He had "something in excess" of $700 in cash on him when arrested, officers said.

WASHINGTON — Nicholas Johnson, member of the Federal Communications Commission, criticizing the administration's view on the broadcast industry:

"The administration has made it clear that, at least for certain purposes, it considers private television programming as an arm of the government's public information efforts."

Plant Society Has Christmas Social

Pampa African Violet Society members met in the home of Mrs. Holly Gray for the annual Christmas party with Mrs. J. E. Carlson presenting the program on "From Leaf To Show Plant."

Mrs. Carlson explained her method of plant propagation to separate small plants from the mother plant and said as the plants grow they are put in a pot two and a half inches, by three inches by four inches.

She displayed two show plants of African Violets, a "Lullaby," and a "Fire Dance."

After Mrs. Walberg read a poem, "The Shepherd Who Stayed Behind," Mrs. Gray presented the Christmas story, "Symbols of Christmas."

"What does the Christian symbols of Christmas mean to you," she asked, and said, "Has the real meaning become too commercialized? Are we in such a hurry that we fail to recognize and appreciate the significance of Christmas?"

The symbols recorded in the Bible are the burning candle, the star, angels, the evergreen wreath. The advent wreath is a traditional custom. To all Christians it should mean a period of preparation for the birthday of Jesus Christ," Mrs. Gray said.

Gifts were exchanged from a seven and a half foot Christmas tree. During the social hour, members were served from a table covered in a white cloth with small wreaths of holly. The centerpiece was a large candle.

Volunteer Workers Attend Devotional

GROOM (Sp)—Volunteer Workers met in the Methodist Church for their regular meeting and Christmas luncheon. Mrs. Margie Emery gave the devotional "The Day We Saw Angels." Gifts were exchanged and a business session was conducted by the vice president, Mrs. E. R. Hess.

Attending were four visitors, the Rev. Lynward Harrison, Mrs. George Latta, Mrs. John Baggerman, and Stevie Graig Angel; members present were Mmes. Lynward Harrison, Margie Emery, J. W. Angel, J. B. Shockey, E. R. Hess, L. L. Andrews, Cleo Schaffer, O. R. Major, Curtis Schaffer and Roy Ritter.

Agent Suggests Ways To Avoid Hectic Parties

You can plan now for the holidays ahead and avoid the last minute meal time and party preparation rush, suggests Miss Jimmie Lou Waincott, county home demonstration agent.

Just consider the number of guests you expect, and allow for a few unexpected drop-ins.

Make full use of your freezer by preparing main dishes, desserts, garnishes and party fare well ahead of time and freezing them until needed.

Start your holiday baking, too! Preparation of many of the nationality breads and cookies is time consuming, but it can be a pleasurable experience when done in a relaxed atmosphere.

One caution to keep in mind is to use moisture-vapor-proof wrapping or air-tight containers to insure good keeping of foods. Tin cans are fine for cookies and breads. If you plan to use some as gifts, you may even gift wrap them before freezing so they will be ready to give away.

Plan main dishes to include adequate meat or other protein food per serving. Be sure to pack them tightly to prevent the development of a warmed-over flavor.

Some spices and seasonings tend to become strong under freezing conditions, so it's best to season foods lightly. Add more flavoring during the heating process before serving.

Miss Waincott suggests that you store a few party foods and extra ice cubes in the freezer if you have space.

Include a variety of dips, since most will keep well for about six weeks. Appetizers and other similar dainties may be frozen in layers with a sheet of freezer wrap between them, with all the layers overwrapped.

Pie dough for both pies and tiny tarts may be rolled into the desired size, layered flat, then overwrapped. Allow the dough to thaw before shaping. You also may freeze the unbaked pie shell ready to bake in the pan.

You can also prepare various punch combinations and freeze them. Plan your meal and party menus now, and make best use of your freezer space.

Needle Club Has Planning Meeting For Yule Party

GROOM (Sp)—The Entree Nouns Needle Club met in the home of Mrs. Roy Clark for visiting and planning the annual Christmas party.

Refreshments were served to two guests, Mrs. Preston Harden of Kingsland and Mrs. Henry Merrick; Mmes. Phil Farley, Ritter, Rose Fields, Allen Knorpp, Frank Grantham, Van Earl Steed, Rudolph Tucker, Margie Emery, Liqa Hess, Glyn Kirby and C. L. Ledwig.

BUCCANEER—In fashion on the West Coast is the "easy suit" of comfortable woven cotton. This one features a tie-belted tunic and flared pants in shades of plum, blue, and brown. It's worn with a pale blue buccaneer shirt.

Families Favor Permanent Tree

NEW YORK — Is this the year you're thinking about replacing the natural Christmas tree in your home with a store-bought permanent tree?

More families are doing it than ever before. And there are several reasons for their decision.

First, the so-called permanent trees can be reused year after year if given reasonable care. Second, they offer the advantage of greater uniformity in shape. And, last but by no means least, they provide a greater margin of safety against fire.

The run on aluminum Christmas trees has been heightened by the added variety in color, sizes and styles.

Manufacturers are offering trees in gold, green, blue and red in addition to the natural silvery color. Sizes begin with table-top models and range up to seven feet in height. Styles vary from the basic tree to those where the branches end in a flower-like tassel.

Setting up an aluminum tree is not difficult. A center pole is set into the stand and tightened. Then the branches are put into the factory-drilled holes. It's best to work from top to bottom. A seven-foot tree can be assembled and ready for decorating in about an hour.

A word about decorating the tree—it's best not to put electric lights directly on a tree, aluminum or otherwise. A better approach is to use spotlights or color wheels. They create attractive and dramatic effects merely by shining the light on the tree.

a few more days till it's time to hang out the stockings and set-out milk and cookies, plus carrots for the reindeer to aid their night vision.

Everyone needs a Christmas stocking. So take a few moments now to make gay ones for every member of the family, using a fascinating new gadget to attach imaginative trims instantly.

A new button attacher, about the size and shape of a fountain pen, is equipped with a needle-pointed end which inserts a plastic thread through holes in buttons to attach the button securely and permanently to any material. It can also attach sequins, felt cutouts in holiday motifs, bows and ribbons, names and numbers in far less time than a needle and thread would require. Best of all, it can be used for jobs which a needle can't handle—attaching an eye to a straw-stuffed animal.

To make the stockings, cut stocking shapes from red felt—bigger shapes for mom and dad, smaller for the children. Cut felt cuffs to fit. Using the Buttoneer, attach decorations to stockings as shown. The buttons hold the felt cut-outs in place. Use button attacher to apply gold braid, tacker, sequins and names to felt tops.

Then, with right sides together, join stocking sections. Sew felt tops to stockings so they will form a cuff when turned. Turn right side out, hang on mantel, and wait for Santa.

If there are still last-minute gifts for you to buy, consider a shopping voyage to the sewing and notions center of your local department store. There you will find wonderful and unusual gifts for the sewers on your list.

Scissors sets, pretty tape machine attachment, attractive boxes of varicolored thread are always appreciated.

For a needlework enthusiast look for a special kit, complete with yarns.

Ever the men on your list can use a sewing-counter gift. The button-attacher makes it easy for the most inept college boy, bachelor or serviceman to "sew" on his own buttons.

Problem Solved By Storm Doors
NEW YORK — While this may be the season to be jolly, it's not always easy to laugh away the problems that winter presents.

Like keeping cold air out of the house, for example. This particular problem is getting lots of attention from homeowners. The solution, many have found, is the installation of aluminum storm doors.

Among the most popular types of storm doors are the jalousie models. They eliminate the need to remove the screen panel in winter and replace it with the glass panel.

The jalousie is made with a series of narrow slats of glass. They are installed in frames that operate from a crank or lever which opens or closes the frames, depending on the season.

DEAR ABBY: When my brother and I were young, our parents bought us a set of books called The Book of Knowledge. There were 20 volumes in all, and it was understood that when my brother and I got married we would split the set up and each get half.

Well, my brother got married first, and he took volumes one through 10. He and his wife seemed perfectly satisfied. Then I got married and I took volumes 11 through 20.

Well, volume 20 just happened to be the index. All of a sudden, my brother's wife writes to me saying their half isn't as good as our half because we got the index which is the most important book in the whole set, and it wasn't "fair."

I wrote back and told her that my brother got first pick, and he took the first 10 volumes, and I couldn't help it if we got the index. I don't want a family fight, but I don't think I should send her the index, do you? How can this be settled?

GOT THE INDEX
DEAR GOT: Since the index happens to be in your half, and your brother chose his half first, your sister-in-law can't yell "foul." Half a loaf may be better than none, but a little learning is still a dangerous thing, so if I were you, I'd start saving up for a complete set, and tell your brother to do the same.

DEAR ABBY: I recently married a woman who is a few years older than I am. She has a teen-aged daughter by a previous marriage whom I will call "Little Miss Sexpot" for obvious reasons. Little Miss Sexpot had been making her home with her father by prior agreement.

DEAR ABBY: Wives who think their husbands go on hunting trips to chase other women ought to have their heads examined. I have gone hunting and fishing with sportsmen for 40 years, and I have never known a man to get mixed up with a chick on one of those trips. First, there are no available women out in the briar patches. And second, a man who is looking for action of that type doesn't have to drive a thousand miles, and then go out in the woods looking for broads when Chicago is full of them.

Several of the songs were composed by Bobby Altmiller of Ada, Okla., formerly Bobby Tucker of Pampa.

An article entitled, "Lief Is A Menu" and a letter to Santa Claus from a Senior Citizen was read.

After the program, Santa Claus appeared with his sacks of candy and gifts from the tree.

Visitors attending were Mayor and Mrs. Milo Carlson and Mrs. Rudell Lightfoot of Amarillo. Door prizes were awarded to Mrs. Mary Maxwell, a visitor from Amarillo, and to Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Henderson.

H.C. Wilkie, Frank Carter and Mrs. Mollie Hethcock were unable to attend, but were sent gifts from the tree.

The next meeting will not be held until Jan. 7.

Even In Russia

Rostropovich is not a name you would give a hero in an inspirational book. Nor is Metelast.
But Mstislav Rostropovich, as far as extraordinary courage is concerned, is a hero.
He has bucked the Establishment in Soviet Russia.
Rostropovich is considered one of the world's greatest cellists. Like Igor Piatogorsky, also a cellist, he is Russian. But while Piatogorsky is enjoying a tranquil old age in the United States, Rostropovich is stuck in the Soviet Union.
Rostropovich produced the other day one more spark in what looks like a gathering fire in Soviet Russia. He denounced pro-government writers who criticized a Russian Nobel Prize winner. Rostropovich demanded freedom of literary and artistic expression. He dared to put this in a letter and send it to official Soviet periodicals.
When none printed his letter, he sent copies to foreign newsmen.
That's like a Jew in Nazi Germany criticizing anti-Semitism, putting it in a letter to the Volkischer Beobachter, Hitler's paper, and then distributing it to correspondents abroad.
Rostropovich's new fuse in the smouldering revolt of Russian intellectuals came soon after a writer was sentenced to three years in a labor camp. The writer is Andrei Amalrik, author of "Will the Soviet Union Survive Until 1984?" The book forecast the collapse of the Communist regime. The prosecution in Amalrik's case requested punishment of three years in a "general regime" camp. But the judge imposed the harsher penalty of a "restrictive" camp.
Before the Amalrik issue, there was Alexander I. Solzhenitsyn. This is the Russian writer who is scheduled to be given the Nobel prize at Stockholm, Sweden, on Dec. 10. When Solzhenitsyn was nominated for the prize on Oct. 8, the Kremlin viewed the Nobel announcement as an "unseemly game" of "anti-Soviet" politics. Solzhenitsyn, whose works have been banned in his own country since 1966, was accused by "Establishment" hacks of "unhealthy self-conceit".
Solzhenitsyn has spent eight years in a Stalin-era labor camp. His novel "A Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovich" was based on similar themes as in

UNIONS VS LIBERTIES

While many Americans are aware that unions exercise tremendous power in this country, the ordinary citizen rarely reads union contracts and therefore isn't fully aware of how union power is spelled out.

It would be educational if citizens had an opportunity to read the contract that the United Farm Workers Committee, AFL-CIO, submitted to farmers in California last summer. It is a blueprint for domination of business. Cesar Chavez, head of the union, was jailed recently for refusing to obey a court order in California. One of the most high-handed features of the contract is the "Recognition" section. Under the agreement, the employer promises that "neither company nor its representatives will take any action to disparage, derogate or subvert Union, nor will they promote or finance any competing labor organization." That provision assures a permanent union stranglehold on companies that are party to the agreement. Though the union may act in a tyrannical manner, the company with a contract is virtually forbidden to say or do anything about the union.

In reality, this provision most probably is unconstitutional, for it restricts an employer's right to freedom of speech, guaranteed under the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Certainly, its issue should be tested. The U.S. Supreme Court, as presently constituted, may recognize an employer's right to freedom of speech. In years past, the high court in effect took the position to equal justice under the law.

Another section of the contract submitted by Cesar Chavez, boss of the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, stated that "union membership shall be a condition of employment." It would be interesting to know how many Americans have thought through a requirement of that sort.

The requirement means, in effect, that a union owns certain jobs. It means that an employer may not hire a person who is honest, hard-working and fully qualified for the available job — UNLESS that individual belongs to a particular union and pays dues.

What such a contractual requirement sets up is a system of tribute. A man who wants a job on a farm organized by Cesar Chavez' committee must pay tribute to the union organization in the form of fees. Such a requirement seems utterly out of place in America. The requirement is in violation of the basic American right to work, to seek and obtain a job without obtaining approval from any third party. A union, of course, is the privileged third party in our country today.

Union stands for denial of opportunity, for a union strives to limit the right to work to those who are members and pay dues.
In the case of the contract submitted by the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, special political requirements were imposed on employers and union members. One provision of the contract specified that the "company during the term of this agreement (will) contribute to the Robert F. Kennedy Farmworkers Medical Plan ten cents per hour for each hour worked by all workers covered by this agreement." The "Robert F. Kennedy Farmworkers Medical Plan" has nothing to do with the business of the farm owners. They may well feel that such a plan is not in their own or the public interest or the interest of their employees. No matter, the powerful union requires that the employers pay tribute in support of this plan.

There is no end to union arrogance and power-seeking, as evidenced in the contract submitted. The agreement requires that employers use union labels on their farm products and that the union be supplied with information on the shipping of all products, the name of the shipper, name of broker, name of receiver, and date of shipment and estimated time of arrival.
Such a contract is not only a blueprint for domination of a business. It is a blueprint for a form of totalitarianism, for a systematic denial of the rights of farm owners. The union becomes a state within a state, a form of authority, with legal

Nixon Shopping Around For Some Outside Help

By BRUCE BOISSAT
Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA) — President Nixon is said to be quietly broadening the circle of men from whom he seeks judgments on issues and policies. He is talking to some outsiders, whose identity thus far has been well-guarded.
The presumption has to be that these men, and others who may be drawn into the President's widening orbit, are moderate types. That Nixon is undertaking this effort constitutes a rebuke to White House advisers who for nearly two years have been giving him basically conservative, narrowly circumscribed counsel — especially on the domestic front.
The President keeps a tough scoreboard. He did not like the mixed results of the 1970 elections, with the public stress put upon the Republicans' net loss of 11 governorships.
It is too early to say what issue and policy changes, if any, may flow from his consciously enlarged frame of reference. They may not come easily. Since his nomination struggle began seriously in 1967, he has held to a fairly narrow course, mostly reinforcing himself with conservative to moderate voting elements whose support he already had.
Labor's ranks were the one untapped area he and key aides perceived as fertile ground for gains. The whole 1970 Nixon campaign, including the use of Vice President Agnew's hard-driving rhetoric, was aimed at appealing to these workmen on the basis of their "social" concerns — crime, the welfare mess, urban and campus turmoil.
For a variety of reasons, not least the nation's economic difficulties, the strategy was a partial misfire. Labor tended to stay put with the Democrats.
If he had confidence that his limited 1967-70 approach would work for him in 1972, the President obviously would not today be talking to new people, as he is. He turns slowly, but he is not immune to events.
The word from some Nixon-watchers, furthermore, is that he is very likely to draw his 1972 political manager from outside his present stable of strategists, tacticians and organizers.
He wants Bryce Harlow, White House counselor, to take the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee. There's also talk that within six months or so, if not sooner, the President will move White House political aides Murray Chotiner and Harry Dent to the committee.
It is a well-told story that Harlow, for nearly a year means to compel adherence to an agreement. A union also has extra-legal means such as the boycotts and roughstuff which established the union in California grape-growing areas in the first place. The collective bargaining agreement that was adopted clearly shows how traditional American liberties are being destroyed by powerful union bosses.

Diverticula Do Not Cause Cancer

Dear Dr. Lamb—Will you please tell me about diverticulitis — what causes such a condition and the diet one should be on. Can this develop into cancer.

Dear Reader—A diverticulum is a pouch or pocket protruding from the intestine. Occasionally, diverticula occur in the small intestine but more often they are of the colon. They do not cause cancer.
About five to 10 percent of people over 40 have diverticula. The pocket is formed when a portion of the wall of the colon weakens and gives way. Apparently, this is the result of prolonged difficulty with spasm of the bowel and unco-ordinated, irregular contractions of the colon.
Diverticula sometimes cause severe bleeding into the bowel. In one out of five people with diverticula one or more of them become inflamed. In other people they may never cause any serious problem. (In medicine inflammation is indicated by the ending "itis." Thus inflammation of the appendix is appendicitis and inflammation of a diverticulum is diverticulitis.)
The inflamed diverticulum behaves a great deal like an inflamed appendix. Since diverticula are more often on the left side of the colon, the pain is usually in the left lower side of the abdomen. Sometimes there is an associated mild diarrhea. There may be a fever and, like appendicitis, there is an increase in the number of white blood cells that can be measured by blood count.
If the inflamed diverticulum doesn't deflag a hole through the intestinal wall, antibiotics and providing fluids by vein for a few days may be sufficient treatment. A rupture, an abscess or other complications usually require surgery.
Many people who have an irritable colon are told they have diverticula. Spasm of adjacent circular muscle bands in the colon cause the appearance of numerous small pockets of the colon as seen by X-ray studies. The irritable colon also gives rise to crampy abdominal pain.
Unless a complication like inflammation or bleeding occurs, the treatment of diverticula of the colon and irritable or spastic colon is essentially the same. The goal is to decrease spasm of the colon. A good program to train the bowel is necessary. This means regular bowel habits to avoid the constipation problem. It is not necessary to have a daily bowel movement. Plenty of fluids should be taken and the diet should contain food that leaves adequate residue in the bowel — such as cereals and vegetables. Highly seasoned or spicy foods should be avoided. They are irritants and increased spasm of the colon in people with this problem.
Some people with severe problems can benefit from bulk-producing laxatives. All other laxatives should be avoided.

Red Faces As Byrd Ouster Move Fizzles

ROBERT ALLEN

WASHINGTON—That plan to oust Sen. Harry F. Byrd Jr. from the Democratic caucus and strip him of choice committee assignments has gone down the drain, but it leaves an embarrassing residue.
Among those NOT embarrassed is Byrd himself. His Virginia campaign for reelection as an independent, which prompted the talk of disciplinary action, returned him overwhelmingly to his Senate seat. Now it is all but certain that he will retain his seats on the prestigious Finance and Armed Services Committees.

Before the election there was talk that Byrd, who has strong GOP support, might vote with the GOP in what was then expected to be a close contest for party control of the Senate in January. Byrd made no public commitment, and there was some rather serious talk, after he won reelection, that there might be party reprisals.
Then Sen. Fred R. Harris, D-Okla., called a meeting of "progressive" senators to discuss reforms of party machinery in the Senate. On the morning of the scheduled meeting there were published reports which made Byrd a major target of the reform group.

Perhaps as a consequence of those leaks, the attendance at the session was itself, embarrassing. Though Harris said others were interested, only five of the Senate's liberal Democrats turned up.
After the meeting Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., let it be known that Byrd had privately advised the party leadership well before election day that he would vote with the Democrats to retain party control of the Senate. Floor Leader Mansfield has said he believes Byrd should continue in the Democratic caucus.
-CANDIDATES INVOLVED—Attending Harris' hour-long reform session were Sens. Edmund S. Muskie, Me., Bill A. Hart, Mich., Walter F. Mondale, Minn., Frank E. Moss, Utah, and Harold E. Hughes, Ia. Under the circumstances, Muskie's presence has proved to be a bit embarrassing.
Muskie is the current front-runner in the race for the Democratic presidential fact, a little too much the front-runner at this point, and all activities are being subjected to the closest scrutiny.
What Muskie, the potential candidate, does not want to foster at this point is damaging disunity among Democrats. What he does not need now is a roll in trying to reach anyone

Not attending the meeting of reformers, which was already being described in press accounts as aimed at Byrd, were two other presidential possibilities — Sens. Edward M. Kennedy, Mass., and George McGovern. Harris told newsmen that both were among those interested in the reform movement — but, apparently, not that day.
HARRIS EMBARRASSED — Harris himself, must rank first among those embarrassed by the incident. It is not only that he has seemed to spearhead an abortive and inept move against a fellow senator. His reform move is, in addition, being viewed as a rebuke to Mansfield's party leadership.

In a memorandum outlining various reform proposals, Harris has nobly stated that his effort "in no way intends to be critical of the Senate leadership — and certainly not of Senator Mansfield — but of the system itself and of its outdated and archaic rules and procedures."
The proposals espoused by Harris, however, are aimed in large part at procedures evolved by Mansfield. The procedures were, in a sense, "reforms" initiated by "nice guy" Mansfield when he took over the Democratic leadership from the "sometimes heavy-handed Lyndon B. Johnson."
Harris, for example, is trying to secure a more liberal representation on the Democratic Steering Committee, which recommends Democrats for membership on the regular Senate committees. He wants to take a seat from a retiring Southerner (Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla.) and assign it to someone — a "national" Democrat — from the Northeast.
However, it was Mansfield who instituted the system under which seats on the steering committee are apportioned to the Northeast, Midwest, West and South in proportion to the representation of those regions among all Senate Democrats.

PASSING THE BUCK FOR UNREST ON CAMPUS

Student Unrest — whose fault is it? The presidential commission directed to examine the subject has issued its report, and put a little bit of the blame on everybody: "Students who bomb and burn are criminals. Police and National Guardsmen who needlessly shoot or assault students are criminals. We must declare a national ceasefire."
But the commission threw an inordinate amount of responsibility for campus unrest into the lap of President Nixon. It is up to him, said the report, to "exercise his reconciling moral leadership as the first step to prevent violence and to create understanding." Mr. Nixon might start, suggested the report, by ending the war in Indochina. The Commission also recommended that defense-related research facilities be removed from campus locations, and that R.O.T.C. be replaced by off-campus training programs.
This underlying theme adds up to the same song, we've been hearing for some time now: Remove certain causes of dissent, and unrest will stop. As poverty causes crime, the allegation goes, so do the war, racial problems, and social injustice cause campus unrest.

Does anybody really believe that the abolition of these problems would produce campus peace? Take the war, for example. President Nixon went about as far as he could go in offering the enemy a way to peace. He suggested an unconditional repatriation for all prisoners of war, and an immediate cease-fire while the talks were in progress. The enemy declined the offer. If the war is such a prime cause of campus unrest, why didn't the unrest all rise in a loud cry of righteous indignation against Hanoi, who now surely must be held responsible for continuing the fighting?
There was — and there will be — no such cry from the campus radicals because the war is not what makes them radical. They hate America. They want our society destroyed so they can create their own utopia upon the ruins. And if their luck is so rotten that President Nixon ends the war in the middle of their unending protest, they'll figure out a way to turn the accomplishment against him. Nothing the Establishment does — end the war, integrate everybody, eliminate poverty — nothing it does will merit the radicals' applause, which is reserved for the Establishment's funeral.

Adjusting our national policies to the whim of the rabble-rousers will not quell their screams or change their purpose. As for violence, we cannot agree that responsibility for it lies in the White House. Rather, it is shared by the administrative officials of all the academic institutions who have excused, ignored or even condoned the unlawful acts performed by students on the campuses for, too many years.

Awareness Growing

That much abused word "liberal" is in danger of becoming more of a liability than an asset of aspiring politicians.
Candidates who have been quick to climb on the liberal bandwagon may change their minds when they read a Gallup Poll. Gallup finds that by a majority of three to two, Americans favor the "conservative" label. Popular understanding of a liberal ranges all the way from "someone who is generous with other people's money and liberty" and "a drug addict."
It's not surprising that "liberal" has become a misunderstood word. Politicians have reversed its traditional meaning for a long time. Under its banner, they have advanced measures that are the antithesis of liberalism — more government control over our lives.

Even advocates of socialism and communism parade their philosophies under the banner of liberalism.
Such growing awareness is a good start. Now, if people will take the next step and begin to realize that "conservative" often means the continuation of government programs once opposed, as being "liberal," before they were enacted into law, but were soon looked upon as "conservative," after being in force for a while, some real headway could be made.

Murky Waters Of Politics

He also learned what every politician, or would-be politician, sooner or later learns: You can't please all the people all the time. In fact, sometimes you can't even figure them out.
After one speech, a member of the audience came up to Wischmeyer and said, quite seriously, "If you don't like the way this country is being run, why don't you try working within the system?"
A candidate is never supposed to be at a loss for words. This time this one was,

Winterize Cars At Ogden & Son

The bad winter months are creeping up on Pampans. Driving through the slush, snow and icy roads can cause a tremendous loss of tire traction. The best of prevention of weather-caused trouble is to deal with the specialists at Ogden and Son, located at 501 W. Foster. LeRoi and Ben Ogden, owners, will guarantee all the work they do in preparing your car for the cold winter.

Ogden and Son is having a tire-clearance sale now and offers almost every type of tire. College students coming home for the holidays should look at Ogden and Son for tires at this time.

Goodyear tires are stocked in a complete line. Included is the polyglas tire which consists of layers of polyester cord to give longer tire life and a better ride.

Ogden and Son's is receiving winter tires of different types, treads and sizes each and every day. Such a large line is stocked to satisfy the needs of the customers. Shop at Ogden's for your sets of winter tires before buying.

Instead of going to all the trouble of putting chains on your tires this winter, check with Ben and LeRoi Ogden about putting studs in your winter tires. The metal studs are inserted in tires with the proper equipment. They provide traction, are less expensive than chains and convenience is another factor. Ogden and Son has the proper equipment and will do a good job on your tires.

Tune-ups and mechanical work are under the supervision of Bill Lee. Ogden states that he is the best mechanic in the southwestern area.

Ogden and Son stocks mufflers, shock absorbers, brakes, air conditioning units, batteries, fishing equipment. A muffler with a lifetime guarantee is available in the price range on most mufflers with only 90-day warranties.

Before the bad winter days get here, visit Ogden and Son's, 501 W. Foster, for the winter preparation of your automobile.

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — You may have noticed that President Nixon's televised news conference last week moved along at a rather herky-jerky pace and had a ragged ending. I noticed this too, so I asked Hathaway Scribendi, a veteran White House correspondent, what caused it.

"That was Nixon's first full dress news conference since last summer, and our timing was badly off," Scribendi replied. "A lot of us just didn't have that split-second reaction that keeps the questions flowing smoothly."

I said, "I realize a White House correspondent must continually polish his timing to function at peak efficiency, but don't you guys get a chance to practice between news conferences?"

Recognition Drills
"Sure," he said. "We usually work an hour or two a day on what we call 'recognition drills.' This involves springing to your feet and trying to attract the President's attention so he will give you the nod for the next question."

"Well, if you have daily workouts, why was your timing off?"
"No matter how often you practice leaping from your chair, it simply isn't the same as doing it under game conditions," the correspondent explained.

"Your timing depends a great deal on developing a sense of anticipation — an instinct for knowing when the President is about to finish a reply so you can be ready to hop up the exact moment he stops."

"Since each president has his own tempo, you can only get the feel of it through actual exposure. You have to sense when he is going on a short count — that is, give a terse 'yes' or 'No,' answer — and when he's going to be discursive."

Perfect Timing
"You may recall that when President Kennedy was holding frequent news conferences, we had our timing down to a T. The entire press corps would spring up in unison, like the Radio City Rockettes, and yell 'Mr. President!' as with one voice, like the Mormon Tabernacle Choir."

"We became less synchronized under President Johnson's fitful sessions and I'll be frank to say that on Thursday evening we were downright erratic."

Vintage Car Buff Attracts Attention — Driving 1936 Auto

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Ian Kiltie frequently drives a car that has traveled more than 650,000 miles and looks and runs as well as it did when it rolled off the Ford Motor Co. assembly line in 1936.

A vintage car buff, Kiltie attracts attention in the Ferndale area near Detroit when he whizzes by in the two-door model Ford with a stainless steel body.

Kiltie is district manager of the Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corp. in the Detroit area. He owns three vintage cars, but the stainless steel 1936 Ford, one of two owned by his company, is his favorite.

Originally, Ford Motor built six stainless steel 1936 model cars for Allegheny Ludlum of Pittsburgh, a leading maker of stainless steel.

Allegheny Ludlum first introduced stainless steel to the auto industry in 1931. The company originally had six cars built of stainless to demonstrate the durability of the metal and its beauty.

Still Owns Two
Two of the six Ford cars are still owned by Allegheny Ludlum. The cars are driven more than 35,000 miles a year to appear in displays at auto shows, county and state fairs and expositions.

In 1960, Allegheny Ludlum had Ford Motor build two stainless steel Thunderbirds. A few years later Ford constructed three Lincoln Continental convertibles for the company.

All had the satin finish bodies of the type 302 stainless steel.

Murrin Held, director of product information for Allegheny Ludlum, coordinates the appearance of the stainless steel cars throughout the United States and Europe.

He recalls the day when a Thunderbird was driven up to an Italian automobile plant. He said the assembly line workers stopped working to look at the stainless steel car.

Held said persons who see the cars for the first time ask: "Won't it get rusty?" "What kind of metal is that?" "Has the car been painted?"

A group of Allegheny Ludlum officials, on their way to a meeting in one of the 1936 Fords, were stopped by a policeman near City Hall in Philadelphia.

Patrolman Stops Car
For 10 minutes the patrolman held up the car while waving a stream of traffic through a busy intersection.

"Where can I buy a model like this?" he asked.

The high strength-to-weight ratio of stainless steel was demonstrated when one of the stainless steel cars slid into a utility pole.

The driver took the car to a body shop and handed the repairman a sheet of stainless steel. When the salesman returned to pick up the car the repairman said: "If more cars were built like yours, I'd be out of business."

Allegheny Ludlum can account for all but one of the six 1936 stainless steel Fords built. Besides the two owned by the firm, a Chicago orthodontist owns one, the fourth is in a Cleveland museum and the fifth was melted into an ingot during a World War II metal drive.

The sixth Ford's whereabouts remain a mystery. The company traced the car to California but there the trail ended. There are no records of that car.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 16, 1970
Your birthday: Wednesday: Adventure, either in person or vicariously, haunts your coming year. Try to keep open spaces around you, choose larger rooms, less populated areas. Relocations achieved more should involve leaving behind (convenient to cash, if possible) most of your possessions. Life is simpler, with fewer but more important issues. Except urges have less luck than ever. Wednesday's natives are imaginative, quick-witted, but optimistic. They accept help gracefully. Purchasing becomes an adventure; begin with long-term investments. Start up your list about it. Don't let the day's chores run into the evening as there is something extra there.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Your temptation is to rush out and buy what's haphazard. Make up your list about it. Don't let the day's chores run into the evening as there is something extra there.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): A small whirlwind for the more somber you know is indicated. Be in position for luck, make things happen. Early hours are good. Your persuasive powers will be much needed later.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Use your mind, pursue business deals seriously. Don't spoil relationships with a crabby mood; be nice than you really feel. Anxious people are already—give them a soft answer.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Buy new clothing, small items for the home. Imagination runs you in a collision course with associates. Think twice about what you're doing. Romantic ventures encounter snags.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): This should be a rather normal, enjoyable day. Deal with regular work in good humor; cooperate without quibbling. Gather friends for a lively evening.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Be alert; a timely word from an old friend can get you back on the track. An open money question can be turned to your advantage with diplomacy. Stub persistence.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Progress is steady but still somewhat uphill. Quiet determination to excel does succeed. Be more discreet with your friends on the way up. Deal gently with loved ones.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Give yourself a one day vacation if feasible. If you must work, start early but quit as soon as you can. Make it a picnic sort of a day.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Material things now guide you more surely than figures on paper. You are faced with serious business. Even petty deals set a pattern for the future; think large.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Nobody is going to be easily pleased Wednesday, so go ahead with what seems right for you. The more discreet your work, the better for your career. Relax early.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Pay attention to your health, change your habits if anything is owed you. Try to collect. Test ideas for improving your work, a little at a time.

During the Civil War, the nickname strawfoot was given to farm boys recruited in the Union Army who had trouble marching. This problem was solved by drill sergeants making recruits lay the left foot and straw to the right foot and straw to the right foot. The World Almanac recalls. Marching commands were then given as "Hayfoot! Strawfoot!"

Rams Still In Race For NFL Super Bowl Playoff

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Los Angeles Rams are still in the race for a playoff berth in the National Football Conference but they made it tough for themselves by losing Monday night to the Detroit Lions, 26-23. With their fourth victory in succession, the upstart Lions kept alive their chances of getting into the contention for the Super Bowl. Now with a 9-4 record, the Lions could be the best second team in the NFC if they get by their final foe, Green Bay, this weekend.

Western Division title. The Rams would then get into the playoffs because their record is better within the division than the Forty Niners is. Quarterback Greg Landry, running back Steve Owens and the tough Lion defense against rushing were the big factors in the win over the Rams. The 220-pound rookie Owens, Heisman Trophy winner as a collegian at Oklahoma last year, ran for two touchdowns — four and six yards. He carried the ball 17 times, gained 66 yards. He took the place of Mel Farr, who was injured early in the first period. Farr suffered a laceration injury. Landry was sacked five times by the Rams for 34 yards but that didn't bother him. He connected on a 26-yard touchdown pass to Earl McCullough in the third quarter and the Lions then were out in front 21-6. Roman Gabriel hit Larry Smith with a 17-yard TD pass in the fourth quarter and connected to Billy Truax in the end zone for five yards with six seconds left in the game, too little, and too late. The Rams were held to 47 yards rushing. Detroit Coach Joe Schmidt singled out Landry and Owens but had a good word for all his players. "I've got a bunch of young kids who don't know when to quit," said Schmidt. "They like to hit and that's the name of the game." Owens got the game ball.

Tech Impresses Bob King of NM

By United Press International
New Mexico Coach Bob King is impressed with Texas Tech's basketball team although he admits the buzzer at Lubbock Municipal Coliseum leaves something to be desired.

The 19th ranked Lobos just slipped by Tech 73-72 Monday night when Mike Stewart dumped in the winning shot with two seconds left in overtime. It was one of four interconference games played by the Southwest Conference and one of the two conference losses.

Iowa State provided the SWC with its only other setback of the evening dumping Arkansas 86-77. On the conference's brighter side were Texas' 72-71 edging of Oklahoma State and Texas A&M's 91-74 rout of Abilene Christian.

"The buzzer is not loud enough," King said. "I never heard it above the noise. It was a tough call for the officials. However they ruled someone would have been unhappy." Tech called timeout with one second left in overtime. This play was based on the rule someone on the court must touch the ball before the clock starts.

Hornets And Harvesters Are Spotlighted Tonight

The hustling Pampa Harvesters will be on the road tonight as they are being hosted by the Tullia Hornets. Stand-out performance is expected by 6'7" post Teel for the Tullia team. The Harvesters are expecting a tough game against the Hornets but are looking good after last week's victory over the Lamar Savages.

One member of the Harvesters has had a slow season and is going to have to start hitting the basket. Edgars is going to have to show a little more desire when he enters the court or else we won't win as many games. "He is," the coach continued, "a fine ball player who should be able to hit 25 to 30 points a game." "Our outstanding players in the ball game against Colorado were Donnie Cain and Marsh Gamblin."

Donnie Cain had 18 points and 13 rebounds in Friday's game while Gamblin hit for 17 points. The Harvesters will be facing some tough opponents in Tullia but should come out on top. Teel, the 6'7" post for the Hornet is averaging over 30 points per game. The Harvesters were looking much improved in their practice sessions this week and will be entering the courts full strength. Game time is 6:00 p.m. for the Shockers and 8:00 p.m. for the Harvesters in Tullia. Both teams need and want the support of all their fans in Pampa and the Pampa School Systems.

Blue-Gray Has Georgia Tech's Rock Perdoni On South Squad

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI)—Rock Perdoni, star defensive tackle from Georgia Tech, heads the South squad named Monday for the annual Blue-Gray football game here Dec. 28. Heading up the Gray offense will be quarterbacks Bill Montgomery of Arkansas and Tommy Suggs of South Carolina and running back David Abercrombie of Tulane.

South Carolina Coach Paul Dietzel will serve as the Gray's head coach for the 33rd football classic. Doug Hamrick and Rusty Ganas, two other Dietzel players, are on the South roster.

Center: John Boemer, Memphis State. Quarterback: Bill Montgomery, Arkansas; Tommy Suggs, South Carolina. Running backs: Ray Yaeger, Clemson; David Abercrombie, Tulane. Defense: Ends: Ron Wallace, Florida State; Rusty Ganas, South Arkansas. Interior Linemen: Mike Walker, Tulane; Rock Perdoni, Georgia Tech; Richard Harris, Grambling. Linebackers: Rick Kingree, Tulane; Dick Biddle, Duke. Cornerbacks: John Cappella, Duke; Charles Ford, Houston. Safety: Bubba Hoats, Georgia Tech; Buckley Allhouse, Rice. Kicker: Jack Simcsak, Virginia Tech.

Front Running Japan Is Moving Further Ahead In Sixth Asian Games And Should Win More

BANGKOK (UPI)—Front-running Japan will move even further ahead of the field today in the sixth Asian games and should pick up five of the seven gold medals at stake. Following Monday's fifth day of competition, the Japanese had 47 gold, 30 silver and 11 bronze medals, putting them far out of reach of second-place Iran with nine golds, six silvers and three bronze medals.

Kyoichiro Inoue should pick up the gold medal in the pole vault, and Japan also expects gold medals in the women's 400-meter relay, the women's javelin event and the 1,600-meter men's relay.

But the man who stole the show before the partisan fans was Thailand's pride, sprinter Anant Ratanapol, who won the men's 200-meter final on a soggy track in Asian record time of 21.1. Israel defeated Japan, 85-67, Monday.

Sample Claims He Was Victim Of Blackball By New York Jets

CLEVELAND (UPI)—Former New York Jets defensive back Johnny Sample told a federal grand jury he was blackballed out of the National Football League in 1965. Sample was lead-off witness Monday as the grand jury resumed its investigation of possible anti-trust violations by the NFL. The hearings were recessed last month after a week's testimony by coaches and former players.

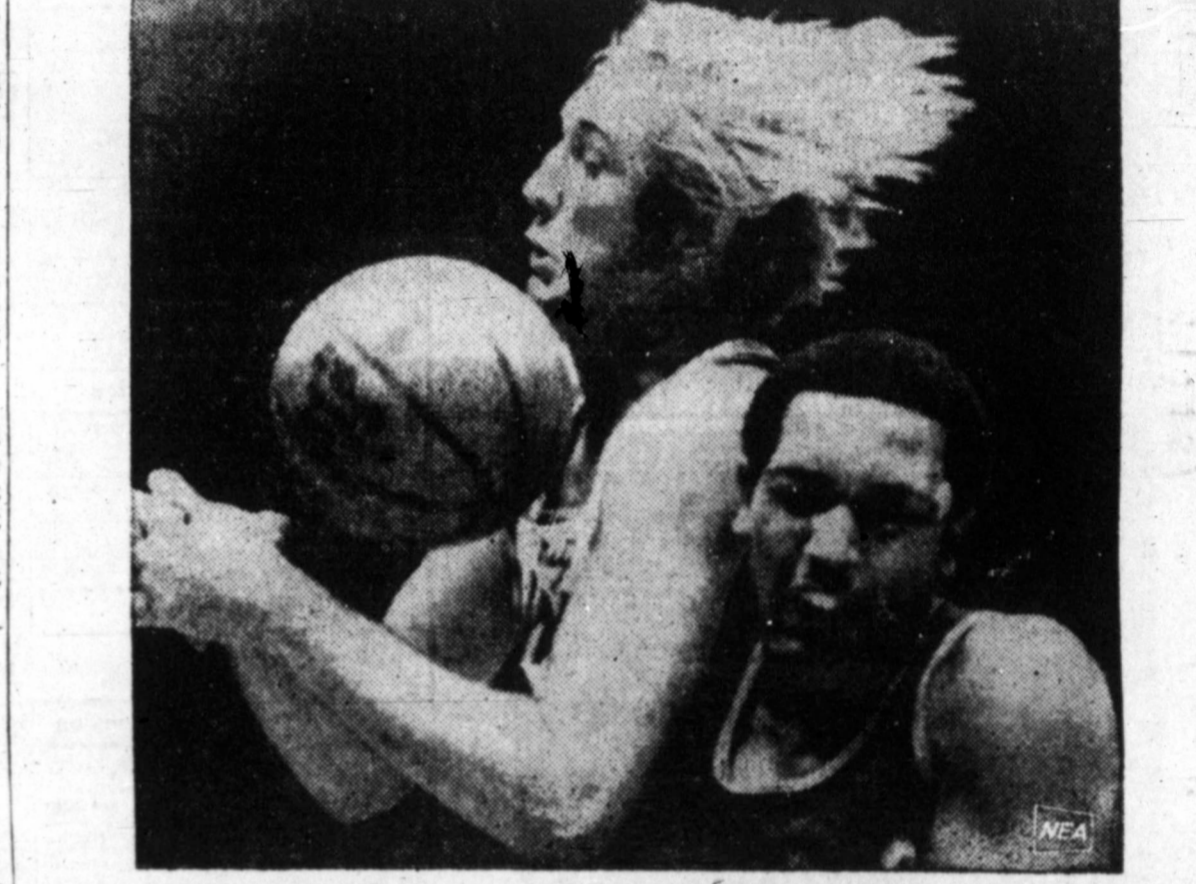

"That's when Rozelle says to do as he says," said Sample. Testimony was to continue today and witnesses this week were expected to include former Cleveland Browns center John Wooten. Wooten, executive vice president of the Black Economic Union, ended his Browns career in 1967 and retired from football a year later while with the Washington Redskins. Wooten said last month the Justice Department had interviewed him more than a year ago about racial relations in the league and possible violations of players' constitutional rights.

The investigation here is being directed by the Justice Department's Anti-Trust Division. Sample said he told the jury about "Rozelle's Rule," referring to NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

White Deer Woman In Hall Of Fame

AMARILLO, Tex. (UPI)—Cornelia Owen, a White Deer, Tex., school teacher, will become the first woman to be enshrined in the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame next Jan. 10.

Miss Owen was one of three persons named Monday to be added to the list of sports figures who have brought the Panhandle area of the state to national attention through athletic performances. She was a star of the Hutchinson Flying Queens basketball team, a dominant figure in women's AAU circles in the mid 1950s.

THERE GOES THE BALL, and eventually the ballgame, as Ronnie Kierking of the Philadelphia 76ers comes flying by. Buffalo's George Wilson obviously could just cry about it.

200 People Attend Two-Wheeler Meet

Over 200 persons attended or took part in the Pampa Two-Wheelers Motorcycle Club Family Day conducted Sunday at Lake McClellan. H. L. Neers, David Enlow, Chester Huff and Don Childers were in charge of the arrangements for contest events and directed divisions.

Johnnie Downs was named winner in the wheelie contest. Bike size determined class participation in the broad jump event which was won by Kenneth Blackwell, 100 cc; Dave Linderman, 125 cc; Johnny Downs, 175 cc; David Enlow, 250 cc; and Alvin Sharp, 350 cc. Luke Garvin won the obstacle race in the men's division and Pat Enlow copped honors in the women's class.

Greg Parks and Bruce Childers tied in the man's slalom and Sharon King won first in the women's division. A Weiner roast concluded the day's activities.

Nate Ramsey, Philadelphia Eagles Co-Captain Is Shot

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Nate Ramsey, Philadelphia Eagles co-captain, was shot and seriously wounded Monday outside a West Philadelphia bar and an 11-year-old eyewitness escaped serious injury when grazed by a stray bullet.

Ramsey was admitted to Misericordia Hospital in serious condition. Dr. James Nixon, team physician, said the slug struck the 29-year-old defensive back in the right chest and punctured a lung. Hospital authorities said no surgery was immediately planned for fear of endangering other internal organs.

Pete Retzlaff, Eagles general manager, said police knew the identity of the gunman, who fled the scene in a late model gold Cadillac. Mrs. Virginia Lacey, wife of the owner of the bar, said the player staggered in, aided by an unidentified man, and was seated in a booth while she phoned police. At the hospital, teammates stayed with Mrs. Ramsey. Lou Tose, Eagles president, was also at the hospital. "He's a serious guy, and he always led the team in prayer in the locker room," Tose said. One of the witnesses at the shooting was Tanya Williams, 11. A stray bullet passed through her coat and grazed her arm. She was released after treatment. The street where the shooting occurred, lined with lounges and music bars, is known as "the strip." It was crowded with Christmas shoppers when the shots rang out.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — "The public's Pavlovian response may yet be strong enough to retrieve the administration's economic chestnuts from the fire," according to Hoppin, Watson & Co. But the company warns that the new "Phase Two Game Plan is just as much as a gamble as was (White House economist Paul) McCracken's ill-fated Phase One." The firm says the increase in the money supply, although "obviously beneficial" for the stock market, "by no means guarantees a strong economic upswing."

Much of the market rebound "is merely a return to a more normal relationship between prices and values," International Statistical Bureau Inc. says. The company says the decline to the May low "was not justified on the basis of fundamentals" and therefore the company does not believe "that the advance thus far ... has been excessive."

"The upchannel has apparently reached its limits," Spear & Staff believes. The firm thinks the market may be "approaching an area of hesitation to be punctuated by short declines and rallies." Prices seem to be positioned as they were in late summer when they entered a period of "lateral motion," it adds.

Standard & Poor's Corp. expects "the bull market has some distance still to go." The company says the expansionary policies of the administration and the Federal Reserve Board are providing a background "conducive to further gains in stock prices." The firm urges investors to take "advantage of this hospitable environment."

WOMEN WHO CARRY handbags so they open away from their body are easy marks for pickpockets. Here, a detective shows how simple it is for thief to steal billfold from purse.

MOST COMMON pickpocket technique is demonstrated by New York policeman. Pickpocket fans back of victim's jacket with newspaper, exposes rear pocket, unbuttons it and lifts wallet.

SHOPLIFTERS often carry package with a spring door. Police officer demonstrates how box can be moved along counter while desired objects are stuffed into it during rush period.

Highlights And Sidelights

By VERN SANFORD
AUSTIN — Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr., as Texas' chief election officer, has urged complete overhaul of the state's primary election machinery and voter registration system.

Dies told the House committee studying election reform that Texas faces a crisis in election operations and must, with counties, assume financing and conduct of primaries.

Election fees, although already too high, said Dies, no longer adequately finance elections.

Texas' chief election officer said he personally favors September and October primaries to concentrate the election period, ease the strain on candidates and increase waning voter interest.

Dies also strongly recommends the junking of annual voter registration and substituting the system of re-registration-by-voting used by most states.

Both early primaries (and January 31 voter registration cutoff) and annual registration are under court attack.

If Federal judges declare both unconstitutional, Dies told the committee, Texas will be unable to hold primaries or register voters until the Legislature orders changes.

LAND-BOND SALE — Veterans Land Program, in limbo for a year, got a new lease on life with the sale of $25 million worth of bonds at a weighted average interest rate of 4.06 per cent.

Low bid was submitted by Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York and Saloman Brothers. Others ranged from 4.09 to 4.14 per cent.

Veterans Land Board apparently made low bids possible by offering the sale with eight to 18-year payoffs instead of the usual 25-year and longer-term bonds. Even though veterans have 40 years to pay off land purchases under the program, surpluses accumulated since 1949 make short-term bonds feasible, according to a land office spokesman.

Although the Board was authorized to sell some $140 million more, bonds could not be marketed earlier because they were subject to the constitutional interest rate limit of 4.5 per cent.

Latest bond offering, to the surprise of nearly everybody, brought five bids below the rate ceiling.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, Board-chairman said guidelines for applications by veterans under the revived program for purchase of land on long-term, low-interest loans soon will be released.

Applications, according to Sadler, must be filed by the middle of January.

Last bonds were marketed two years ago before interest rates took off on a long, steep climb upward.

About $115 million in bonds authorized by voters still remain unsold. This new $25 million sale is expected to meet the demands for four years.

URBAN PANEL REPORTS — Texas Urban Development Commission has recommended creation of new state agencies and programs to help make cities more pleasant in which to live.

Committee's 50-page interim report to Gov. Preston Smith gave primary attention to transportation and housing problems and the need for cooperation among state and local governments.

Group recommended that an Interagency Transportation Council be created to provide a adequate planning and assistance for comprehensive transportation systems.

Other agencies recommended for creation were: a Department of Community Affairs to aid local governments, administer planning and housing programs as well as to develop and administer economic opportunity programs; a Texas Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations; a Human Resources Council; a Texas Housing Finance Corporation; and an Urban Assistance Board.

Additional recommendations covered fields of law enforcement, natural resource management (aid for waste water plant construction), health standards, property tax administration balanced growth and strengthening local government.

DREDGERS ORDERED OUT — Parks and Wildlife Department ordered three shell dredge operations working offshore from the Arkansas Wildlife Refuge to discontinue operations in north San Antonio Bay by January 1.

Gary Sims, son of Mr. and Mrs. H.V. Sims, is home on leave from the Navy. He is stationed in San Diego, Calif., and serves as cook on the U.S.S. Gurke which is a destroyer. His ship patrols the waters around Vietnam, Laos, Philippines in Southeast Asia. When asked about souvenirs, Gary mentioned two hand-carved jewelry boxes he had gotten near Hong Kong, China. Gary will leave the 26th to go back to his base. He has two and one-half years to serve. Gary has four brothers and sisters in the Lefors schools rooting for him.

The Lefors F.H.A., has planned a Christmas Banquet for Dec. 19th. The highlight of the banquet will be the crowning of a Sweetheart. It should be a gala affair for the girls and their dates.

At the FHA meeting on Monday, Jana Cole, who is the Assistant Home Demonstration Agent, spoke to the club on "Time Management."

Our thanks to Paula Beck, club president, and Ann Thrasher, Lefors Home Economics teacher, for their work this year.

NO CLOTHES
LIVONIA, Mich. (UPI)—Several hundred children lined up in vain outside a suburban Detroit shopping center on a snowy, cold weekend morning to catch a glimpse of Santa Claus feeding his reindeer.

The jolly fat man never showed up because he couldn't find his clothes.

Somebody snatched his two pairs of red trousers, his coat, belt, spats and two stocking caps from a jocked dressing room at the Livonia Mall before opening time Saturday, store officials said. It took most of the day before they were able to find him a new red suit.

Hollywood Reports

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Doris Day is the most visible star in Beverly Hills.

Tourists need only seek out a pack of assorted dogs in a tangle of leashes, in the midst of which they will find the freckle-faced actress who walks her mutts as many as five miles a weekend.

Miss Day refuses to divulge the number of dogs she harbors under her roof for fear some official will descend on her with a show cause order why she should be keeping a kennel in the heart of Southern California's most exclusive community.

Owning dogs herself is only the beginning Doris is convinced everyone with a suitable yard should own at least one pooch.

"Do you know how many dogs they incinerate every day in the pound?" she asked with the fervor of an evangelist. "It's terrible.

Don't Admire Them
"Why do you think I have so many dogs? To save them from being put to sleep."
One must take pains not to admire any of her pets. A pat
