GOP Leaders Draft Plan to Halt Inflation

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Prodded by their freshmen colleagues, Republican leaders took before the Senate GOP Policy Committee today a roughly outlined anti-inflation program aimed primarily at stopping price rises by voluntary agreements.

Chairman Taft (R-Ohio) told reporters the policy group (meeting at 9:30 a. m., CST), would consider suggestions made at an earlier conference of Senate and House leaders. The idea is to draft Republican counter-proposals to President Truman's 10-point request for action to curb the cost of living.

"We will have a program if we can get a general agreement among the Republicans," the Ohio senator said. He added that all the party members in both houses will get a crack at the suggestions before any statement is issued.

Indictments on Contempt Charges Officially Filed

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Ten movie writers, producers and directors today were indicted for contempt of Congress in refusing to say at a communist-in-Hollywood investigation whether they are or have been Communists.

The 10 now must stand trial to determine their guilt or innocence. Those named in separate indictments returned by a Federal Grand Jury are Albert Haliz, Dalton Trumbo, Samuel Ornitz, John Howard Lawson, Ring Lardner, Jr., Herbert Biberman, Robert Adolph Scott, Lester Cole, Alvan Bessie, and Edward Dmytryk.

Eight of them also were indicted on an additional count alleging they were Communist agents or not they belong to the Screen Writers Guild.

All 10 had declined to answer specific questions about Communist affiliations during hearings held by the House Committee on October 22.

The maximum penalty on conviction for each count of contempt is $1,000 fine and a year in jail. The minimum is $100 and a one month jail term. Separate trials are expected to be held for each of the 10 defendants.

Those named in a second count for refusing to say whether they belong to the Screen Writers Guild were Maltz, Trumbo, Cole, Ornitz, Biberman, Scott, Adolph and Bessie, Lawson and Dmytryk were indicted on only the one count alleging they refused to say whether they were Communists.

By HENRY S. GORDON

The policemen and firemen's civil service bill was snuffed under by a final tally of 432 to 96, for a ratio of a fraction more than four to one, in yesterday's voting.

The minimum pay bill was also defeated by a vote of 396 to 125. There were no absentee ballots cast.

Of the 537 votes cast there were only three mutilated ballots. Voting was extremely light all day, but took two heavy increases between 4 and 5 p. m. and between 6 and 7 p. m. Shortly after 4 o'clock one group of approximately 20 voters left a party and came to the poll in a body.

From the time the poll opened at 8 a. m. until noon only 122 votes were cast, making a ballot-to-voter ratio of 30.5 votes per hour or one vote cast every two minutes. It wasn't until 2:20 p. m. that the vote reached the 200 mark. After that, ballots started being cast in a steady stream. The 537th vote was cast at 6:37.

Many people did not seem to understand the ballot or just what they were voting for. Some even came back twice to ask Election Judge Clyde Jones how to mark their ballots, and if they had to vote for both or just one of the questions on the ballot sheet.

Little interest was shown over the election or its outcome. When the poll closed only four men were grouped in the city secretary's office to hear the results. One of these was the husband of an election clerk and the other was a reporter.

The weather was no hampering factor in keeping voters from the poll. A clear sky and a bright sun that grew warmer by the hour, prevailed all day.

Quite a number of the voters indicated by their questions that they weren't familiar with either of the two questions up for local acceptance or rejection. Of the two bills voted on, the civil service question was the more hotly disputed yet 26 more votes were cast in favor of making $150 a month a minimum wage for police men and firemen than there were for placing the city on a service. Some voters voted only on one of the two questions instead of both.

According to the bill, the election can be called again one year from now provided a petition bearing the signatures of five percent of the voters is presented to the City Commission. Had the civil service act and minimum pay bills passed, an election to recall their effectiveness could not have been called for five years and then would have to be by a petition bearing the signatures of ten percent of the qualified voters.

A total of $4,463 has been reported in the Salvation Army drive for funds, it was reported today by Adjutant H. G. Lambrecht, of the corps.

More money is in the hands of some of the solicitors, he said, which will bolster the amount to some extent.

Adj. Lambrecht said he would be at the Chamber of Commerce office at 5 this afternoon to receive further reports on the progress of the campaign for $6,500 in operating funds.

He said that if there are those who have not been contacted and want to make a donation, they should make their checks out to Salvation Army, Box 491, Pampa.

Man Offers Chinese Elm Trees to Takers

T. B. Parker, 320 E. Brown, announced this morning that he has on his property approximately 100 Chinese Elm trees from one to six inches in diameter that he would like removed from his property.

Anyone who desires one of the trees may have same by calling at 320 E. Brown anytime tomorrow afternoon and contacting Parker.

Jester Is Urged To Drop Dispute Over Tidelands

AUSTIN—(AP)—Gov. Beauford H. Jester was urged today to drop his dispute with National Democratic Chairman J. Howard McGrath on the question of party support for legislation giving the states title to the tidelands.

W. J. Primm, Jr., of Washington, former chairman of the Executive Committee of the Young Democratic Clubs of America, told the Texas Governor in a letter dated Dec. 11.

"It is timely that we quit our bickering about nothing and concentrate our thoughts and efforts toward the election of President Truman in 1948. Therefore, I would urge you, sir, to quit riding your horse in the wrong direction, as it seems to us that you are now doing."

Primm's letter was made public a few hours before Jester planned to submit the dispute with McGrath to a meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

Jester was due to return here on today from Oklahoma City.

In the letter—copies of which Primm released to members of the Capitol press—the former Young Democratic Executive Committee chairman assumed full responsibility for the defeat of a tidelands resolution before the recent convention of Young Democrats in Cleveland.

The tidelands resolution was offered by California Young Democrats and was strongly backed by the Texas delegation.

Primm wrote Jester that he had attempted to have the resolution tabled in committee; that the Texas delegation insisted on bringing it out on the floor over his opposition.

He said the Democratic National Committee "had nothing to do" with the resolution's defeat and that if Jester had any further criticism, it should be directed to Primm. Primm said he was in favor of the principle expressed in the resolution, but did not think it was the business of Young Democrats to attempt to write party policy.

Earlier this week, Jester released a copy of a letter from McGrath in which the national Democratic chairman expressed criticism of the resolution.

Subversive Lists Termed 'Farcial'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) of the House Committee on Un-American Activities today described as "utterly farcial" the list of some 80 organizations labeled by Attorney General Clark as subversive or otherwise suspect.

"If the attorney general can't do any better than this," Thomas told a reporter, "the Committee on Un-American Activities will supply a list that will put his to shame. There are hundreds of Communist and Communist front organizations alone."

Clark got out his list last night. It named, among others, the Communist Party, the German-American Bund, the Ku Klux Klan, Columbians, American Youth for Democracy, the Civil Rights Congress, the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee and the now disbanded Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense.

The list is to be used in checking on the loyalty of government workers.

The attorney general said the list is "not complete or final." Clark said that "it is entirely possible" that many persons belonging to such organizations may be loyal to this country; that membership in, affiliation with or sympathetic association with any organization designated is simply one piece of evidence which may or may not be helpful in arriving at a conclusion as to the action which is to be taken in a particular case.

"We must be satisfied that a reasonable ground exist for concluding that an individual is disloyal," the attorney general said. "That must be the guide."

Clark broke his list down into three parts. The first repeated the names of 47 organizations the Justice Department classified officially as subversive in a 1943 report.

The second added 33 organizations in accordance with an order by President Truman several months ago directing the loyalty check on federal employees.

The Communist Party is on both lists. And seven "affiliates and committees" are included on the second. Also on the second list are two "affiliates" of the party.

Bid Accepted For Caretaker's Home at Park

The City Commission, in a special session yesterday afternoon, unanimously approved a $2,500 participation in construction of a caretaker's home at Recreation Park.

The commission met in joint session with representatives of the County Agents' Association in the office of City Purchasing Agent George Casey because their regular meeting place, the City Commission Room, was being used as a polling place for the firemen and policemen's civil service election.

The $3,380 bid of the Hughes-Pitts Company was found to be the lowest of four bids considered and was $1,000 lower than its next competitor. The successful bidder said they were constructing the house as a donation to the city and for the furtherance of rodeo and show activities at the park. The rodeo association will pay the difference between $2,500 and the building's cost, or an amount of $850. Upon completion of the home it will automatically become the property of the city of Pampa since it is on city property. The rodeo association leases Recreation Park from the city.

Efforts by both the rodeo association and the City Commission to purchase a house for the caretaker on the park grounds failed when those offered were too high in price.

The four-room house, complete with plumbing, water, gas, and electricity, is being erected on the grounds for the use of the caretaker who looks after the stables, livestock, arena and other city property.

Court Wants to Know Just Who Was Driving?

Who was driving? That's all the County Court wants to know.

Wednesday night police arrested a man on a charge of driving while intoxicated after the wreck of a truck at the Denver underpass.

This man was at the scene of the accident; his companion had departed.

Before County Court Thursday morning the man charged said it was his friend who was driving.

Before County Court Thursday afternoon the men pointed at each other and contended: "He was driving."

Reaching this conversational impasse, the matter is being investigated further.

They know the truck had no robot equipment.

Marshall Calls On Council to Drop Generalities

LONDON—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall urged the foreign ministers council today to "drop generalities" and "try to find out what each delegation really has in mind for settling peace terms with Germany."

Marshall attacked Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's almost daily demands for quick creation of a central German government and declared:

"Any German government called upon to administer a Germany divided as it is today by the policies of the occupying powers would be a sham and a delusion."

Marshall led off today's council discussion on Germany's economic future and his prepared statement of 1,000 words was heard by reporters shortly after the meeting convened.

His declaration evidently marked the beginning of the long expected American effort here to determine whether there are solid chances for agreement on the future of Germany at this conference.

"The situation in Germany is a real one," he declared. "It urgently required, now—without delay—four-power decisions on several specific fundamental matters of substance. I ask for action on these points in order to end the present division of Germany."

The United States, Marshall declared, favors "the establishment of a provisional government at the earliest possible moment but we regard it as dangerous to attempt to force the allied nations and to the peace of the world as well as cruelly misleading to the Germans themselves to pretend that mere setting up of a central German government would result in healing Germany's wounds."

The foreign ministers were able to schedule a discussion on economic questions because the heated three-hour session on Austria late yesterday failed to produce a basis for quick completion of the session.

Agent Honored At Convention

County Agent Ralph Thomas returned here last night after attending the national convention of the County Agents' Association held in Chicago, where he was one of nine delegates from Texas.

He received special honors at the convention for his outstanding work as county agent.

He and Art Braly of Amarillo were on an interview program on WLS, Chicago, at the same time a transcription of Thomas' regular KPND broadcast was being broadcast in Pampa.

Among special speakers at the convention were Ed O'Neil of the American Farm Bureau, Dr. Cyril House of the University of Chicago Adult Education Department; M. L. Wilson, director of extension, U. S. Department of Agriculture, and Joe G. Montague of Fort Stockton, Texas, who is associated with the Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

The delegates, 250 from 43 states, a hundred from the Livestock Show and were honored with many special events, including breakfast at the Marine Dining Room of Edgewater Beach Hotel given by International Harvester and Firestone Rubber Co.

Borger Man Elected President Engineers

C. A. Edmonds, Borger, last night was elected president of the Panhandle Chapter of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers to succeed Henry Mathieu, Pampa, during the group's annual banquet in Amarillo.

Dr. S. H. Condros, head of the Department of Government at West Texas State College, spoke on "Government in a Technological Age."

Other officers elected were: Lou Roberts, Amarillo, vice president; J. L. Adams, Amarillo, secretary; treasurer: Max Nuttal, Borger, and Ed Elias, Amarillo, directors. The retiring president, Henry Mathieu, will serve as a state director for the association during 1948.

Present from the Pampa area were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mathieu, Mr. and Mrs. Waldon Moore, G. K. Redman and George Thompson.

The next meeting of the group will be held in Borger on the first Monday in January, 1948.

Services Tomorrow For Crash Victim

Federal services for William Frederick Wells of Lefors, fatally injured in an automobile-truck crash Wednesday night, will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow at the First Methodist Church of Lefors. Rev. Newton Daniels, pastor, will officiate.

Interment will be in Delhi, Okla., Sunday. Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

44 Are Killed; Damage Runs Into Millions

JERUSALEM—(AP)—A double Arab attack on the Jewish city of Tel Aviv broke the Moslem Sabbath calm shortly after noon today and plunged Palestine into a fourth day of fighting in which 44 persons, 21 of them Jews, have been killed.

Hundreds were among the wounded. Damage mounted into the millions.

Arab mobs struck at the Hatikvah and Zablawi quarters of Tel Aviv a few minutes after Moslem congregations streamed from Mosques in neighboring Jaffa.

Hatikvah, the first target, was raked by gunfire which was returned by Hagana, the Jewish underground defense force. One Jew was known dead and another was wounded.

Five minutes later, shots started pouring into the Zablawi quarter homes of Jewish ex-servicemen.

An Arab was reported unofficially to have been beaten to death by Jews, who found him carrying a bomb on the West Wall Square in the center of Tel Aviv. Another Arab was reported killed by a bomb tossed by Jews into his garage at Haifa during the morning.

While the fight waxed on in the Jaffa-Tel Aviv border area, Jerusalem appeared for the most part quiet. Reports from Nablus, on the coastal plain where Jewish settlements lie next to Arab villages, said Arabs were returning to work after a three-day strike and were not demonstrating.

Recheck Shows Three in Crash

AMARILLO—(AP)—Re-examination of the mutilated remains of the victims of a plane crash at Goodnight, near here, disclosed that four instead of five persons died in the accident. Ray Vandevanter, an embalmer, said last night.

He said the discovery was made at Clarendon, where the bodies were taken, when the remains were probed for fingers from which to take prints for more positive identification.

Victims of the Dec. 2 crash were Marshall O. Searle; his wife, Dorothy; their son, Ronald, and Mrs. Searle's mother, Mrs. Edward W. Rahn.

The single-engine plane was en route from Florida to California.

Harry Womack, a funeral home director Wednesday night, said that the remains of five bodies had been found scattered over a wide area at the scene of the crash.

The fifth victim was believed to have been an army officer. Vandevanter, who reported the bodies were mutilated "beyond possible imagination," said the remains would be shipped tomorrow to Forest Lawn, Glendale, Calif.

Festivities Begin With Santa Parade

Waiting in fair weather, with the temperature around the mild and brisk 50 mark, thousands of people began to line the streets of Pampa at noon today awaiting the Chamber of Commerce sponsored Santa Day parade that was to begin at 3 o'clock this afternoon. This gigantic balloon parade officially opens the Christmas season in Pampa.

Never before have such grotesque figures been seen in Pampa as the near 50 balloon figures appearing in the parade.

Six bands, two choirs, and numerous entries from different civic organizations were to furnish the escort for Santa Claus, when he makes his first 1947 appearance in Pampa. Old Saint Nick will ride on the cowsticker of the giant balloon train.

Business houses were to close during the parade and to reopen immediately following the procession and to remain open until 7 o'clock tonight in an effort to accommodate the expected thousands of out of town visitors.

British troops still were at their posts throughout Palestine. At Haifa, a Jewish civilian employee of the British Army, Moshe Weisbrod, was felled by machine-gun fire while attempting to resist two men of "unknown nationality" who entered an office demanding money.
The Moslem Sabbath gave the Holy Land a night of silent, sullen peace, but dawn broke on a warlike scene of rolling armor, guns and deploying British troops. Church-going Arab crowds traversed lanes of khaki and machines loaded with soldiers and policemen alerted for possible new Arab outbreaks against the imminent partition of Palestine.
"We got new orders last night," one army officer said. "Today we are taking no nonsense."

MARSHALL

The Austrian independence treaty. It did, however, project the Marshall aid plan sharply into the arguments here and once again dramatized the widespread differences between Russia and the western powers over the future, not only of Germany, but of Europe.
Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov accused the U. S. and Britain of blocking settlement of outstanding problems in Austria, charged that through economic assistance they were trying to enslave that country. The latter argument was one which the Russians also have made to various European nations against the Marshall Plan.
In an immediate retort flung at Molotov across the council table, Marshall asserted that "we are all aware of the real purpose of attacks of this nature."
"Indeed it has been announced," he said, "it is to disrupt the great cooperative movement that is being launched for the economic recovery of Europe."
The strongest card in the hands of the western powers is their intention—if and when the London conference fails to produce an agreement on Germany—to go ahead with the organization of Western Germany without Russia.
Molotov has indicated several times that he is worried over this prospect.
"The Russians" trump card, on the other hand, appears to be Communist organizations in Western Europe to try and disrupt the whole Marshall program.

did not move until 9:50 a. m. The key industrial center of St. Etienne, near Lyon, was reported virtually in the hands of its 50,000 strikers, with strike committee "police" said to be in control of streets and newspapers there.
A train and 15 cars were derailed near Tours, without serious casualties.
There was no sign of an end to the strikes, although a powerful back-to-work movement among the rank and file had reduced their effectiveness somewhat. The Ministry of Industry announced the following figures yesterday:
Electric power production—80 percent of normal.
Railroad traffic—80 percent of normal.
In the great Lille coal region, the ministry said, only 37,000 of 120,000 miners remained on strike.
On the other hand, Marseille, the nation's second largest city and greatest port, remained paralyzed. A general strike was called at Nice.

lican program to meet the issue of rising living costs.
While one of these first-termers said he feels progress is being made, he indicated the freshmen would urge haste in arriving at some concrete statement of aims. The group will meet again next week to review any proposals that come from the policy group.
Taft told reporters that nothing has jelled in the way of an agreement, even among the leaders, and indicated he expects additional trouble getting the Republicans as a whole to agree on any detailed program.
But there seemed every likelihood that when it emerges in its final form, the Republican manifesto will point to voluntary price and rationing action—without the club-in-the-pocket proposal of President Truman for standby powers to enforce these curbs—as the best way to stop price rises.
This probably will be combined with demands for drastic cuts in government expenditures, in individual income taxes, and a campaign to increase savings and cut private spending by buying government bonds.
The Republicans seemed generally agreed that there must be some extension of rent controls beyond next February 29. And they seemed to look with favor on restoring authority to control the use of freight cars.

Amorous Arsonist Now Faces Charge

BYRDS, Texas — (P) — Brown County Attorney David J. Morris Thursday, filed a complaint charging arson against Jesse L. C. Renuau, 38, owner of a store and postoffice building and two tourist cabins which burned here Wednesday.

Renuau was taken off a bus by Weatherford officers Thursday morning after a widespread search for him. He had been working in Houston for a Dallas plumbing firm.

Mrs. Carrie Mae Renuau, his pretty brunette wife, sued him for divorce November 12, and Judge A. O. Newman of 35th District Court issued a temporary order against Renuau, restraining him from going on the premises here pending trial.

Deputy Sheriff Otis W. Rodgers said Renuau went to the store and instructed a girl employe to go tell his wife, who was visiting a neighbor, that he would burn the place if she didn't see him in 30 minutes.

Rodgers said Mrs. Renuau telephoned the sheriff's office, but that the property was ablaze when officers arrived.

$670 Contributed to 'Silent Guest' Plan

AUSTIN — (P) — Texans have contributed $670 to the American "silent guest" plan since its inauguration in Texas on Thanksgiving Day, Gov. Jester has announced.

Jester had asked for contributions representing the amount it would cost to provide one meal in Texas homes for a "silent guest" from war-devastated Europe.

Checks are being mailed to the Silent Guest Committee in care of the Governor's office.

FAIR ENOUGH

By WESTBROOK PEGLER
NEW YORK — Let us consider, as today's lesson in unionism, the contrast between the royal and aristocratic class of the Teamsters' Union and the rank and file, personified by Harry Mitchell who drives a truck in Cincinnati, 11 or 12 hours a day, for $56 a week, minus deductions.

In the November issue of The Teamster, the official circular of King Dan Tobin's royal court, Mrs. Mitchell, the mother of four children, the oldest 15, said they had not had butter in 18 months and that most of their days were meaningless days.

In the same issue, Otto H. Frobe, of Cincinnati, the secretary-treasurer of Local 100, admitted that this union had bound the men to work for as little as 81 cents an hour. Recently they struck to escape the starvation standard imposed on them by their union.

There we have the extreme of poverty.

Now for the riches, extravagance, pomposity and arrogance. The union bosses have opposed the Taft-Hartley law which restores to the rank and file some of the rights which the Wagner Act obliterated. The drivers have nothing to do with the appropriation of union money for politics or the content of the union publications which they pay for.

They just pay the bills.

The same issue of The Teamster reports that the American Federation of Labor adopted two bites to raise money to try to destroy the Taft-Hartley law. The A. F. of L. raised the per capita tax on more than seven million members by 50 percent and levied a $2 million special tax for the same purpose. The millions who understand and desire the Taft-Hartley law nevertheless must pay.

The cold financial attitude of the union boss toward the cattle in the pens was expressed when Tobin was opposing a proposal to the A. F. of L. convention which would have released the small and miscellaneous "federal" unions from the fold. These little cats and dogs of unions, in the aggregate, represent a lot of money on the hoof. More than $1,786,000 a year. Tobin was on his feet roaring. Release $1,786,000 a year? Hell no!

In the teamsters' own financial statement, the cost of publishing the International Teamster is stated as $243,313 a year. This garbage is strictly personal publicity for old King Dan. For several years, Lester Hunt, a professional newspaperman, was editor and imposed on the sheet some semblance of journalistic integrity. But Hunt was too refined, too educated, too ethical. An intelligent man couldn't help shaking his head or smiling behind his hand at Tobin's colossal love of himself and his attempts to "write."

Tobin named himself editor. This is a sample of the bludge that Tobin prints about himself, the cost of which Harry Mitchell and thousands of other teamsters may pay out of wages of $56 and less.

September issue, leading story — "Convention gives Tobin ovation: in a tumultuous tribute to a great leader."

I am not kidding. That is exactly what he printed about himself in his own sheet, ostensibly in the interests of the rank and file.

Another sample: "Never before did Tobin receive such a spontaneous ovation." He tells how resolutely he turned down a $10,000 raise and the Harry Mitchells and their wives are supposed to be too dumb to know that, through his unlimited expense account, he can reach into the damper and help himself to all he wants, any time.

There is no income tax on that expense raketoff. It is pure gravy. So he gives himself a tumultuous hand for his magnificent unselfishness in refusing a raise which after taxes, would be hardly worth having to a man in his brackets. Maybe the Harry Mitchells are as dumb as he thinks, but I don't see how anyone could be that stupid.

Then Dan tells how John English, the secretary-treasurer, spoke in favor of a resolution to reduce his own pay from $30,000 to $20,000. That was strictly a gag. The mob never would stand for any reduction of any official's pay. Because they all aspire to those jobs themselves. Moreover, any reduction would be a bad precedent and would be sure to give the employers evil ideas. So they finally kept English's salary at $30,000. Not that he would have been underpaid at $20,000 or even $5,000, when you recall that a Cincinnati judge tossed him off the witness stand a few years back when he tried to qualify as an auditor but admitted that he never studied auditing.

"When President Tobin's term runs out in 1952, he will have devoted 25 years of service to this union as its president," says he in another of his generous tributes to himself. And most of the time on the gravy train with his sons riding the cushions on fat salaries and with a winter place in Miami Beach, paid for, furnished and maintained by the Mitchells of Cincinnati. And most of his time on an unlimited expense account for himself and his wife and a royal retinue of courtiers and flunkys.

The financial statement does not tell the Mitchells a word about that expense account of the royal court on tour.

As though this were not enough of that for one issue, another story starts: "Interrupted by frequent applause, President Tobin made his official report—" and so forth.

There are still some matters to be reported and discussed by way of showing why the Tobins and others of his kind, seeing their luxurious rackets and royal prerogatives doomed by the Taft-Hartley law, are holding a gun

Army Officer Pensions? Here's Lowdown by James Marlow

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON — (P) — Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers, who was pretty busy during the war, retired on $600 a month. The Army suspended the pay after Meyers disclosed he was interested in a number of other things besides his regular job in the Air Force.

The size of his retirement pay, and how he got it, has caused some wondering. Here is an explanation about Meyers, his retirement pay, and Army pensions in general.

Meyers was in the Army 28 years. As a major general his base pay—straight pay without extras, such as for housing—was $8,800 a year. He was retired for disability. Which means: he was considered physically unfit for further active duty.

What kind of disability? There's been no official statement on this. W. Stuart Symington, secretary for the Air Force, indicated at a news conference that Meyers was retired for a nervous breakdown. His retirement pay of $550 a month ($6,600 a year) was 75 percent of his straight, active pay of $8,800 a year.

Unusual? No. Any general officer, an officer above the rank of colonel, can retire at 75 percent of his active pay after 20 years' service.

But no matter how short a time he had been a general officer, if he was retired for disability he'd get 75 percent of his active pay.

An Army board decides on the disability. The board could, if it wished, discharge an officer with one year's pay and no more.

What has been said so far here applies to all general officers, whether they're Regular Army men or Reserve Officers, and so on.

all but Regular Army officers: The disability must have been something that developed while the officer was in active service.

Suppose a reserve officer, who had had a kidney disorder, was called into active service. The kidney condition grew worse. He couldn't do active duty.

In that case he'd have to apply to the Veterans Administration for disability pension. Then he might not get 75 percent of his general's pay.

The VA could decide that he was only slightly disabled and give him a pension much less than 75 percent. But suppose a Regular Army man, who was a general officer, got drunk and, in an auto accident, suffered an injury making him unfit for active duty. He wouldn't go to the VA. The

Horrid Prospect

We note, with a certain amount of surprise, that next spring a gadget is going to be demonstrated which will be able to tell within its range how many sets within its range are tuned to any of its programs at any given time.

It's all done by the radar principle, it says here. A signal will be sent out in all directions and, helped by another special gadget on the receiving end, will be able to distinguish Mary Margaret McBride from Young Dr. Malone. It will then record its findings instantaneously.

This simply continues and intensifies an alarming trend which has disturbed us for some time. We refer to the silent, secret invasion, not only of the sanctity of the home, but of the privacy of one's own thoughts.

Already we have the public opinion poll. We have the tapped and recorded telephone conversation. We have the sidewalk cousin, the radio eavesdropper who records your conversation without your knowing it and broadcasts it for all the land to hear.

Our comprehension of electronics is on a par with our knowledge of paralytic. But we suspect that science has only scratched the surface of its possibilities. If engineers can soon shoot a beam into space and discover what a radio is playing, who can say that other details of private life will not become public property? The probing, invisible finger of the survey may become a constant, unwanted guest in every house.

One distressing aspect of the present rash of surveys is that it is removing the element of surprise from many individual and national activities. Time was, and not so long ago, when the outcome of a presidential election wasn't known until the votes were counted. Now the result of such a contest is about as doubtful as whether Assault could outrun a dray horse.

It's still possible to argue about who is the funniest comedian on the radio, but you can't argue about who is the most popular. The polls have already told you, just as they have cataloged so much of our thinking on serious or trivial subjects. It's all very progressive and instructive, but it's making life a series of anticlimaxes.

Now there may be added to this mass-production curiosity an element of actual broadcast. If, come the first crocus, broadcast of some kind is going to be able to tell what programs the surrounding territory is listening to, can we rule out the possibility that, in a few more years, they may be finding out what you are being listened to by several thousand neighbors?

The electronics sorcerers might even eventually devise an instrument for translating brain waves. The only way to keep a penny for your thoughts would disappear from the language. For somebody would surely come out

 news behind the news

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON—President Truman's spokesmen have so far failed to submit to the appropriate committees of Congress a responsible authentic Administration blueprint of their program to combat rising prices. Both the Republican and Democratic members complain that the apparent confusion among the presidential advisers will delay action on anti-inflation front.

When Senator Taft, chairman of the Joint Economic Committee, asked the dapper and snappy Federal Reserve Board Chairman Marriner S. Eccles whether a responsible authentic Administration blueprint of their program to combat rising prices. Both the Republican and Democratic members complain that the apparent confusion among the presidential advisers will delay action on anti-inflation front.

This was a surprise to the Missouri banker, especially as he was speaking for the White House, he replied that he was speaking only for Mr. Eccles. He explained that the official spokesman would be John W. Snyder, secretary of the Treasury.

When Commerce Secretary W. Averell Harriman appeared with his suggestions, he also explained that he was talking only for Mr. Harriman. His panaceas, too, were advanced by his Cabinet assistants.

REFUSED—The latest cause for Congressional irritation over the Administration's handling of the non-operative attitude of Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers. This agency was created under the Employment Act of 1946 and is supposed to cut out policies that will prevent cycles of booms and depressions.

Dr. Nourse has refused to give his views to any Congressional committee, although Secretary Harriman had listed him as a major witness. Dr. Nourse takes the position that he is a professional and personal adviser for the White House and that it would be unwise for him to advocate any particular measure before Congress after he has submitted his plan to the President.

Chairman Taft, however, believes that it would be helpful if Dr. Nourse and his associates gave the benefit of their background and more detailed studies to the legislators. Incidentally, the other two members of the Economic Council—Vice President Leon Keyserling and John D. Clark—are inclined to agree with Senator Taft.

DISPUTE—The Taft group insists that there is no politics involved in this dispute over procedure and that their only aim is to obtain the fullest possible information from all sources on the difficult problems they seek to solve.

As a matter of fact, there have been no clashes of a partisan nature at the Joint Economic Committee's hearings. Whether it is with a lapel-model mind probe and, once the initial cost was amortized, we should all be scanning each other's thoughts for free.

The picture of a shaken, demoralized, mentally naked people, that this possibility calls up, is too frightening to contemplate. The electronics boys will just play a longer game. We think twice before they start something that they can't finish.

Common Ground

By E. C. HOILES

How America Has Changed

I was reading the other day quotations from a great book "The American Commonwealth" by James Bryce. Mr. Bryce was a great English statesman and was many years ago an ambassador to the United States. He described our ideologies in this book written in 1885 nearly 60 years ago. I quote:

"The doctrine of Laissez faire or non-interference by government with the citizen, has two foundations, which may be called the sentimental and the rational.

"The sentimental ground is the desire of the individual to be let alone, to do as he pleases, indulge his impulses, follow out his projects.

"The rational ground is the principle, gathered from an observation of the phenomena of society, that interference by government more often does harm than good—that it is to say that the desires and impulses of men when left to themselves are more likely by their natural collision and cooperation to work out a happy result for the community and the individual alike than any that will be attained by the conscious endeavours of the State controlling and directing those desires and impulses."

The State governments of 1776 and the National government of 1789 started from habits and ideas similar to those of contemporary England. Now England in the eighteenth century was the one among European countries in which government had the narrowest sphere. The primitive paternal legislation of the later middle ages had been abandoned. The Central government had not begun to stretch out its arms to interfere with quarter sessions in the counties, or municipal corporations in the towns, to care for the health, or education, or morals of the people.

"That strengthening and reorganizing of administration which was in progress in many parts of the continent, as in Prussia under Frederick the Great, and in Portugal under Pombal, had not yet reached Canada. The British had been resisted there by men of conservative tendencies for another century.

"Everything tended to make the United States in this respect more English than England. Out of the circumstances of Colonial life, the process of settling the western wilderness, the feeling evoked by the struggle against George III, all went to intensify individualism, the love of enterprise, the pride in personal freedom.

"And from that day to this, individualism, the love of enterprise, and the pride in personal freedom, have been deemed by Americans not only their choicest, but their peculiar and exclusive possession."

Would that his beliefs were still as strong in America as it was when Bryce wrote this in 1888. Our trouble largely comes from the fact that the individualism of the individual life of the individual responsibility.

So They Say
 We should feed the starving Indians in the southwest before attempting to feed Europe.
 —Sen. Hugh Butler (R) of Nebraska.

If in the end chaos and misery and hunger result in Europe, it will not be the fault of the United States, but the fault of those who, when the door was opened, refused to walk in.
 —Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

The strength of America and its hopes for world peace depend not only on its armed forces, but on a sound domestic economy.
 —Rear Adm. Oswald S. Colclough, U. S. Navy.

Gracie Reports
 By GRACIE ALLEN
 Well, I see that a comfortable bed is the most important thing in the home according to a survey of 1,800 physicians announced by all people the National Association of Bedding Manufacturers.

The survey said that the second most important thing is a comfortable pair of shoes which seems reasonable as we spend all our lives in either the one or the other.

In recent years a comfortable pair of shoes has become more important than ever in my opinion because you certainly need them when you're out looking for a roof under which to put that comfortable bed.

However, George thinks that the most important thing is a comfortable mind. With that he says you can sleep on the floor if the bed has lumps in it and go around barefoot if your shoes hurt.

POWER OF RACE BLOCS

Some Senators and Congressmen are frankly worried about the power of racial blocs in politics.

This is a fairly new disease in American life, having moved in largely from Eastern Europe during the past 75 years. It consolidated its influence under protection of the New Deal to which it gave fanatical support. This bloc now is more powerful than any other in our history.

Public officials who have seen it grow for years have been baffled as to how to handle it. Some have compromised with it. Some have sided with it for political support. Most of those who tried to criticize its political or propaganda activities like any other group, have been driven from public life under the smug of "anti-Semitism."

So potent is this poison that it has become a principal weapon for silencing opposition. Today communists have moved in and entrenched itself under the protection of the nasty little scare word.

Now, what is driving some of our sincerest public officials into a clammy sweat is the knowledge that the time is near when something will have to be done about the organizations which have become tools of the New Deal, Marxism and communism inside racial groups.

anti-Communist files from the private gestapos.

For a long time it has been known by official investigative bodies that the two groups, the League and the Friends of Democracy, prey on Negroes and Jews by frightening them with motion pictures and talk of Ku Klux Klan and American Hitlers. These are patterns the collections based on recent circular from the league to its supporters announces that it now has agents in each of the 48 American cities. These spies, as I have previously stated, are espionage agents as well as propagandists. They are backed by a $6 million budget for 1947—according to the same circular from the league. Of this fund, $3 million came from the United Jewish Welfare Fund of $10 million which we were told was to go to rehabilitation of Jewish displaced persons.

The activity of these private OGPU's who are defaming anti-New Dealers and spending millions of dollars promoting New Deal radicalism, have driven us far toward a one-party system. We now face the danger of a New Dealer in either the Republican or the Democratic Party.

Representatives Hoffman and Busby say they are going to ask the House for a showdown with the two agencies in January. Perhaps at long last we shall see whether or not our own Congress is bigger than the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith.

Private "OGPU" Unmasked
 The daddy of these groups is the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith with the Morning Freiheit Association a running mate.

On several occasions during the past couple of years I have called attention to the tremendous political activity of the league. These statements with denunciations and the Communist smear word.

Miss Purcell and Mr. Henderson Are Wed in Shamrock, Will Live in Pampa

Miss Carnes Is Wed To Harold W. Cox

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Miss Dorothy Ann Purcell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Purcell of this city, became the bride of George P. Henderson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson of Kellon, Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents.

Nuptial vows were exchanged before an improvised altar of greenery arranged against a background of white, flanked by lighted tapers in wrought iron candleabra. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. Turnbow.

Miss Fae Jean Turnbow sang, "Near You," and "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Miss Joanne Perry of Abilene, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Mrs. P. G. George of Fort Worth, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was wearing a grey dinner dress and carried a colonial bouquet.

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Jena Kay Purcell, niece of the bride, and Miss Gloria Henderson, niece of the bridegroom. They were dressed in floor-length dresses of pale yellow and aqua taffeta. They carried colonial bouquets.

Tom Henderson, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Candles were lighted by Baxter Purcell and Harold Hink.

The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Bob Purcell, who gave her in marriage. She was attired in a dress of white silk-ponit, with fitted basque and full gathered skirt which swept into a train. The long sleeves extended to a point at the wrist. Seed pearls were embroidered in leaf design at the neckline and a beaded tiera held her veil of illusion in place.

She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for relatives and close friends. The wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom, assisted by Mrs. Baxter Purcell with the serving. Miss Bonnie Johnson presided at the bride's book.

For traveling, the bride wore a tailored suit of brown gabardine, with a lime blouse and brown accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Mrs. Henderson is a graduate of the Shamrock High School and attended a business college in Fort Worth. For the past year she has been employed at the First National Bank.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Kellon High School and served in the armed forces during World War II.

Following a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Pampa, where Mr. Henderson is associated with the Cabot Company.

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Miss Imogene Carnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Carnes of El Monte, Calif., became the bride of Harold W. Cox, son of Mrs. William Stagga of Sayre, Okla., in a single-ring service at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mrs. W. C. Rotenberry and Mr. Rotenberry. The wedding took place on Nov. 27, with the Rev. H. H. Hale officiating.

The vows were exchanged beneath an arch entwined with fern and pink and white carnations. The bride was attended by Mrs. Rotenberry as matron of honor and Mr. Rotenberry was best man.

The bride was attired in a pale blue street-length dress of light weight wool fashioned with bracelet length sleeves. She wore a gray off-the-face hat and gray accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for relatives and close friends. The wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom, assisted by Mrs. Lucille Bartz of Sweetwater, Okla., poured. She was assisted in the serving by Mrs. Rotenberry.

The bride attended school in Shamrock and El Monte, Calif., and the bridegroom was at one time a student in Shamrock High School.

Following the reception the couple left for Carlsbad, and other points in New Mexico. They will make their home near Sweetwater, Okla., where Mr. Cox has farming interests.

High School Music Club Has Banquet

LEFORS — (Special) — Glen Turnbo, president of the High School Music Club, was toastmaster at a banquet in the high school cafeteria Monday, Dec. 1.

Barbara McCullick led the club in group singing followed by the invocation given by Connie Garber. The boys quartet, composed of Glen Turnbo, Dale Rath, Gerald Fillman, and Rudy Redus, sang "Song of the Deep Blue Sea" and "Hallelujah."

The tables were decorated with runners of rust and yellow crepe paper scattered with autumn leaves and pine cones. Place cards of black notes on blue paper and napkins painted with musical terms were at each place.

Musical games were played afterward.

HEDDUP CHURCH PAGE

"Today it would seem that sinister forces have led loose directed at the very heart of our homes in every nation," says Mrs. J. D. Bragg, of St. Louis, Mo., national president of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church.

"A recent international poll revealed that there was uniform concern on the matter of inadequate housing, spiraling costs of living, high divorce rate, broken homes and post-war family adjustment, a sense of impotence, all bringing insecurity in life which reacts upon every age group. But with all of these, the mandate is clear to mothers to find a way to cut through the causes of insecurity and see that children are brought up to be citizens and have an experience of personal religion, to practice spiritual disciplines and to know that vital religion is not something tacked on to the normal business of living. With this training should also come knowledge of the universality of Christian religion and the work of the church."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
"God the Only Cause and Creator" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 7.

The Golden Text is: "Every man that he built all things in God." (Hebrews 3:4).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork" (Psalm 19:1).

Local Pianists to Appear on Program

E. M. Keller, Jr., Is Member of Honor Society at Kemper

BOONEVILLE, Mo.—Cadet E. M. Keller, Jr., son of Mrs. E. M. Keller, 1905 Ripley, Pampa, Texas, was recently redesignated as a member of the Athletic Honor Society by Lt. Col. H. C. Johnson, director of athletics at Kemper Military School.

In the redesignation ceremonies Col. Johnson pointed out the two requirements a cadet must fulfill to become eligible for the honor group. First, the cadets must letter in one of the eight major sports offered at Kemper. Second, the cadet must be a good student and maintain a satisfactory grade average.

The Athletic Honor Society is one of four honor groups at Kemper.

Panhandle News

PANHANDLE — (Special) — Plans were made to send money to feed, clothe and educate a Chinese child for one year, when the Panhandle Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star met on Monday evening. Plans were also made for a Christmas party at the next meeting, at which time gifts will be brought for a Christmas basket, sponsored by the local chapter for the lady in the C. E. S. Home.

An invitation from Stinnett Chapter to attend their Friendship meeting was accepted. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jennie Lynn Stone.

The Carson County Federation of Women's Clubs will meet on Monday, Dec. 8, at 2:30 p. m. in the Panhandle High School auditorium with the Mothers Self Culture Club as hostesses.

The Mothers Self Culture Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. I. W. Hanson with Mrs. W. E. Sherwood presiding over the business. The subject of the program was "A More Spiritual Life." Mrs. J. B. Howe and Mrs. Glen Downs presented the program. Mrs. Howe also gave a talk on food conservation.

SHAMROCK

(Special) — Three Texas Technological students from Shamrock, have recently been pledged to men's social clubs, the dean of men's office has announced.

Harold H. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Williams, is pledging College Club. Pledging letters are Fred Butco, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Butco, and E. J. Veasey, son of Mrs. Pearl Veasey.

The Epistle makes it clear in its very salutation. Gains is the beloved whom John loves "in truth." Now is this truth, in which they are bound, more intellectual correctness than the truth in which they walk? —the truth of practical Christian living and "faithful work."

"Follow workers for the truth," these are the words John uses, and they define the essential nature of Christian fellowship. What a need there is today for fellows working for the truth, and for fellowship in their working together! The world of today needs that more than anything else, but after all it left a worse world than that in which the Gospel began, and there is still hope for humanity.

By MRS. ANNE CABOT

A graceful rose fillet tablecloth that will retain its beauty and usefulness for years to come. Should you wish a 47 inch square, use size 39 crochet cotton, if your need is for a 56 inch cloth, crochet it in size 20 cotton. Whether you are having guests for dinner or not, there is no excuse for a dreary table. Bright colorful china is not necessarily expensive, silver does not have to be stamped "sterling" to shine and a gay center piece of flowers lends a festive air to everyday occasions.

Of course when you are entertaining, you do want everything to have an "exciting" look, and with this lovely fillet cloth for a background and your best china and silver you'll be a proud and gracious hostess.

It got around Carter with the speed a rumor can acquire only in a small college community that Cam's Austin was practically engaged to Professor Powell of the English Department. An Eta Mu murmured it discreetly to a Chi Zeta. A waitress at Kremloika's asked an arch question of someone in Cam's Greek Art seminar.

Curb Is Sought on 'Shady Transactions'
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department has appealed to Congress and the Internal Revenue Bureau to help stamp out shady transactions on the commodity exchanges by Americans and wealthy refugees seeking to dodge income taxes.

President Truman has asked Congress for legislation to help curb speculative trading in grain and cotton on the ground that it is a factor in the high cost of living.

Anderson's blast came while Congressional committees were hearing administration and opposition arguments on such controls. Officials of the grain exchanges have entered a vigorous denial that speculation has caused commodities to soar, blaming instead government purchases for shipment abroad.
