Government Gets Requests To Send Weapons To Allies

Low Bidders Tabulated On Cosden Bldg.

Local firms were listed Thursday as low bidders on the Cosden Petroleum Corp. office building project at the refining plant three miles east of Big Spring.

Contracts have not actually been closed, but those given the awards will be called upon to finish work in 45 working days.

D. & H. Electric was low on the air conditioning over five bidders with $5,355.35 and was low also on the electrical work over the same number of bidders with $1,051.57. Runyan Plumbing company was low over four bidders on the plumbing work with $1,275 while Suggs Construction company was lowest of eight bidders on the general construction with a bid of $14,071.

Cosden already has established foundations for the office structure, a move which is calculated to expedite completion of the project so that transfer of the general offices can be made from Fort Worth to Big Spring. The building will be of frame with exterior stone, sheet rock and textured walls, highly insulated walls and ceiling and fireproof vaults on the basement, main and second floors. It will be approximately 100x45 feet with around 20 rooms.

A requirement of the contract is that all materials possible be bought locally. The fact that local bidders were low presupposes that local labor will be used on the job. N. L. Peters architect firm of Big Spring is architect for the job.

Stegner New Head Of Underwriters

H. A. Stegner has been elected president of the Big Spring Life Underwriters association. It was announced by Lib Coffee, retiring president, Thursday.

Other officers named to assume their new duties July 1 are Joe Pond, vice-president; Dalton Mitchell, secretary-treasurer; W. W. Barker, Midland, C. A. Amos and H. P. Steck, directors. Coffee, Pond and Stegner were to leave Thursday for Austin to attend the annual state life underwriters convention. Coffee is to appear on the state parity program.

Lines Broken

Electric connections to two tourist camps in the western part of the city were snapped Wednesday night by a truck loaded with a dirt shovel. Police said that the shovel was high enough to catch lead lines to the Owl and Lakeview tourist camps. P. E. Mayhew, the trucker, was taking the load to Stanton.

French Claim Tank Drive Smashed As Germans Report More Gains; U.S. Told By Italy To 'Keep Out'

Mines Sown In 12-Mile Zone Around Coast

Intervention In American Affairs Would Be A 'Comeback'

ROME, June 6 (AP)—Mines have been sown in a 12-mile danger zone with which Italy seeks to protect herself as a prospective war partner of Germany, a reliable informant disclosed today while an authoritative fascist editor warned the United States to keep out of the war.

Virginia Gayda, credited with speaking the mind of the Italian government, threatened eventual European intervention in American affairs if the United States comes to the aid of the hard-pressed British and French. He wrote that such American intervention would be an "ostentatious, rash taking of sides in favor of a small part against a greater part of Europe."

The Italian minefields were intended to keep hostile warships outside highly effective bombardment range of Italian ports dotting the coast of the Italian "boot" extending into the Mediterranean. It may be that mines also have been sown in strategic stretches of sea along parts of the Italian empire, where 12-mile danger zones also have been created.

An authoritative source said that Italian authorities are notifying the United States, among other nations, of the "keep out" sign along the Italian coast.

The informant said the United States liner Washington would be safely conducted through the 12-mile danger belt into Naples where it is scheduled to dock June 10.

The bounding of the Italian coast and the coastline of parts of the empire with the danger zone was the newest major development in Italy's broadening preparations for entry into the European war.

Whether the empire coastline as well was mined was not made known. Nor was it known whether the mining of Italian waters had been disclosed to the British and French governments, Italy's prospective enemies.

Notification to countries with shipping in the Mediterranean, however, was regarded by naval circles as fulfilling Italy's obligation under international regulations to publish the limits of any minefields.

REPORTER LEAPS TO DEATH FROM BRIDGE

NEW ORLEANS, June 6 (AP)—State police today said a man who jumped to his death from the Mississippi river bridge last night was Francis Healy, 35-year-old newspaper reporter who came here with his wife recently from California.

Identification was made by the widow who said Healy had been employed on a local paper for several weeks but had been dismissed with a promise of vacation relief work.

SNEAD FIRES A 67

CANTERBURY GOLF CLUB. CLEVELAND, June 6 (AP)—Sam Snead blasted this golf course with a sub-par score of 67 today to take the leadership in the first round of the national open golf championship.

Slammin' Samuel went out on the sun-baked course in 33 and came back in 34 to slice five strokes off par.

Movie Actress Helped Diego Rivera

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6 (AP)—Diego Rivera, internationally famed Mexican muralist who says he escaped from Mexico City with his life only because Film Actress Paulette Goddard helped him, set out down in San Francisco today to paint murals stressing Pan-American cordiality.

"I hope," he said, "that when I have completed this job, someone will have completed the job of cleaning out of Mexico the Nazis and the Stalinists."

Advance Units Cut Off From Support; Nazis Relate Continued Air Success

French Channel Ports May Be The First Objectives Of Hitler Men

BERLIN, June 6 (AP)—The German high command announced today its troops, on the offensive and pushing toward the heart of France, had gained ground "everywhere" in a sweep toward the southwest.

This, however, was the only indication of the course of the Somme offensive to be given in the high command's daily communique.

The communique related "successful" German raids last night and early today on Cherbourg, big French channel port; on airbases in central France and on the east and southeast coast of England.

It reported total enemy airplane losses during the last 24 hours as 143.

The high command's terse statement of the southwesterly direction of the drive supported previous German indications that the important French channel ports of Le Havre and Cherbourg may be the first objectives.

By such an operation the German armies might turn the Somme flank, block off Paris from the west and cut off France and England from effective communication or contact.

However, it is conceivable, from the terseness of the communique, that the French defense is proving harder to solve.

The high command reported the number of allied prisoners taken at the Port of Dunkerque, France had increased to 58,000 from 40,000, and that abandoned was material "beyond estimation" had been taken.

Its communique minimized allied raids on northern and western Germany, said no "essential damage" was done, and asserted three enemy planes were downed in these raids, one of them while over Hamburg.

Nineteen German planes are missing as a result of yesterday's operations, during which troops concentrated and columns back of the French Somme front were attacked, the high command said.

In earlier, authorized reports the reinforced German armies were described as striking "into the heart of France," on the second day of major offensive.

The French armies were reported retreating today at all points where the Germans penetrated the Weingard line yesterday, and the Nazi legions were said to be making good progress.

Two of the "several" points the high command announced breaking were said authoritatively to have been at Amiens and along the Ailette river.

(The Ailette river roughly parallels the Ailette canal, linking the Oise and Aisne rivers about 65 miles northeast of Paris.)

The Weingard line, authorized German sources said, "proved on the very first day that it cannot hold out."

Supported by the air force and raining into the opposition with a great concentration of tanks, the German army was hammering at the northern defenses of Paris along the Somme river.

The assault was being carried out with furious energy by many fresh German divisions receiving their baptism of fire on the west front.

It was a forked attack, designed for a blitzkrieg victory and employing all the speed and power Germany could muster.

Other heavy bombers, the ministry added, "struck at junctions and marshaling yards west of the Ruhr while others attacked military objectives in Germany."

While Britons with rifles and guns stood constant watch at home against any attempted invasion of their tight little isle, the air ministry reported that massive and heavy bombers of the Royal Air Force "attacked enemy troop concentrations and harassed enemy movements behind the fighting front."

Other heavy bombers, the ministry added, "struck at junctions and marshaling yards west of the Ruhr while others attacked military objectives in Germany."

'Hitler Weather' Still Prevails To Be Of Assistance To Blitzkrieg

PARIS, June 6 (AP)—French "75's" and anti-tank guns caught hard-driving German tanks in a tangle of fire on the Somme front today in a battle seven miles in depth.

Other German tanks, pushing recklessly as far as they could go, fought through the battlefield and into the open only to be cut off from their support.

Nests of French machine-gunners and pursuit planes were reported to have successfully held back the main German forces, preventing motorcyclists and truck-carried infantry from following in the wake of the tank spearheads.

The main German armies, striking both directly at Paris and in the west toward Rouen, still had 70 miles to go to the French capital. "Hitler weather," fine, hot, dry, held out, as it did in Poland.

The new French tactics for meeting a blitzkrieg were said to have entangled German tanks in forward zones, permitting their destruction at will.

Germany's mobile fortresses, pushing far ahead of the main battlefront and miles from their fueling bases, were said in military advice to have found the roads barred by specially trained and equipped detachments which ringed them under full fire—especially from French 75's—till they were crumpled masses of iron and steel.

The "quagmire" defense—some of the French called it a "fly-paper" defense—called for no suicidal attempt by outposts to oppose the heavy tread of the blasting tanks but rather a yielding which permitted penetration of the defense zone and finally annihilation.

Frenchmen declared that the first results of the second day of the "battle for Paris" in which 2,000-600 men are engaged proved the efficacy of the "quagmire" defense.

Paris commentators declared that the Nazi "Panzer" divisions—warriors on wheels or caterpillar treads—had suffered heavy losses.

Twenty-five tanks were destroyed at Chalmea, nine miles southwest of Peronne, the semi-official news agency TeleFrance reported. The Abbeville region, at the mouth of the Somme, was the scene of some of the fiercest German attacks.

The Germans used one mechanized division at each of four principal points of attack as well as in at least two less important sectors. TeleFrance said, adding:

"Each must be far from the theoretical strength of 500 tanks because of heavy losses suffered in the battle of Flanders."

French positions along the battlefield stretching 300 miles inland from the Somme's mouth were declared by a military spokesman to be holding in the face of Nazi tank, plane, artillery and infantry assaults.

Generalissimo Maxime Weygand's arrangements for meeting tank and motorized thrusts by support points arrayed in depth were said to be working well.

Sources close to the government said information from Berlin was that German leaders had expressed hopes of reaching Paris within 15 days through the valleys of the Oise and Aisne.

The Germans' strongest smash on the front north of Paris apparently aimed at opening up these highways to the capital.

Fighting in the great battle opened by Adolf Hitler's great offensive yesterday was resumed at dawn today along the lower Somme river. Soon the French high command reported a slight withdrawal of advanced French units.

The principal fighting was under way over a 100-mile sector of the big northern front, that is, between the mouth of the Somme to the vicinity of Anisy-le-Chateau in the Pic-A-Forest.

LAWRENCEBURG, Ky., June 6 (AP)—Six persons, including a five-year-old boy, were killed today when an automobile swerved off a state highway and crashed into a tree near here.

Two others were seriously injured. The dead were identified as Mrs. Rosetta Trimble Sawyer, Farton, 55, Somerset, Ky.; Charles David Sawyer, 35, her son; James Joseph Thurman, 25, Charles Morrison, 25, Mrs. Ruby Lee Gaither, 21, and her nephew, Roy Everett Gaither, five, all of Frankfort, Ky.

Mrs. Vera Lee Wells of Helena, Ark., and Miss Pauline Bryant, 25, Frankfort, were under hospital treatment.

Duke In New Assignment

LONDON, June 6 (AP)—Informed sources said today that the Duke of Windsor had relinquished his post as liaison officer with the British and French armies.

More Duties To Reynaud

PARIS, June 6 (AP)—Premier Paul Reynaud became France's one-man director of the war today with lightning changes in his cabinet before dawn of the second day of the "battle for Paris."

Shortly after midnight, Reynaud announced that he had assumed the important post of foreign minister, in addition to the premier-ship and war portfolio.

Thus, the five-foot five-inch, 63-year-old premier reached a new peak of political strength, little more than two months after he had won a vote of confidence by a bare one-vote majority in the chamber of deputies.

Former Premier Edouard Daladier, who had been foreign minister and long had been a figure in the government, was dropped from the government, together with other holdovers from earlier regimes.

The dramatic move, coming at the critical moment of the new German offensive and threatened Italian intervention in the war on Germany's side, was interpreted generally as reinforcing the administration.

Senate Passes Navy Fund Bill

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—The senate sent to the White House today a $1,492,542,750 naval appropriations bill making emergency funds available immediately to speed up the production of ships, aircraft, munitions and armament and the construction of new air bases.

The chamber completed congressional action on the measure, carrying $1,308,171,138 in direct appropriations and $184,371,612 in contract authority, by accepting a conference report previously approved by the house.

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—The signature of a new British-Rumanian trade treaty was officially announced here tonight.

BERLIN, June 6 (AP)—A German crossing of the Somme river over a pontoon bridge laid in the face of French artillery fire and gaining of heights on the southern side were reported tonight in advices from the war front.

LONDON, June 6 (AP)—Minister of Information Alfred Duff Cooper told American newsmen today that if America should come to the aid of the allies even a year from now it would not be too late.

Germany, he said, apparently found it imperative to withhold attacks on England until after the offensive against France.

The minister expressed the opinion that any assaults on England would fail.

"MAXIMUM YIELD"

LONDON, June 6 (AP)—Minister of Agriculture Robert S. Hudson told British farmers today "we are faced with a peril much greater than we faced in any period in the last war," and he asked them to produce the maximum yield from the land in the coming year.

War Developments Cutting Down On Cotton Demand

ATLANTA, June 6 (AP)—War vibrations carried pessimistic echoes across southern cotton fields today in a statement by the bureau of agricultural economics that the swift spread of the fighting "has been a decidedly unfavorable development from the standpoint of world demand for cotton." Already it appears the "important manufacturing markets of Belgium, Holland and northern France may now be shut off for an indefinite period," the cotton situation review commented. Consumption in the Dutch and Belgian mills averaged about 600,000 bales over the last few years. Should Italy enter the war "markets in the Mediterranean area might be lost"—the Italian mills having consumed about 700,000 bales of cotton in each of the last two seasons.

One immediate effect of the invasion of Holland and Belgium was the decline of exports by 25 to 30 per cent from the "unusually small exports in the corresponding week of last year and the year before," the bulletin continued.

MATTRESS PROGRAM IN NEED OF $45

Forty-five dollars Thursday stood in the way of closing out a program which is designed to provide at least 120 low income families of Howard county with mattresses.

County Agent O. P. Griffin said that more than 200 applications for the mattresses, provided by a Surplus Commodities corporation project, had been received.

The money, needed for materials and equipment, must be sighted before the order can be closed for surplus cotton. Deadlines for sending in the order is June 15. If the funds are raised, plans are to make the mattresses in Big Spring and at Knott.

Test Steers Are Sold For Good Prices

Seventh annual feeding tests at the U. S. Experiment Farm have been concluded with the marketing of 49 head of fat steers in Fort Worth.

Results of the test, however, are incomplete since the crux of the feeding this year was determining the effect of varying ratios of calcium, magnesium and phosphorus in the rations. Until analysis has been made on blood, meat, bone and on bladder precipitates the results of the mineral portion of the test will not be known.

At market, the animals commanded good prices, 20 bringing 10.75, 24 commanding 10.25 and four out at 10.18, said F. E. Keating, farm superintendent, who was accompanied to Fort Worth by Jot Smythe, feeder.

One calf was slaughtered here. He was one in the lot with a heavy calcium ratio which was calculated to have produced urinary calculi. However, the fact that one animal was subjected to the condition would not necessarily mean that a similar result would obtain for all the lot.

Two interesting conclusions might be drawn from other phases of the tests, Keating said. First, a lot given ample calcium appeared to have gained maximum benefit of grain and other feed by showing a 55-per-cent net gain over a lot fed the identical ration except with half the amount of calcium. Another was the fact that a lot started gradually on cottonseed meal and with the amount increased gradually showed the greatest average daily gain and topped the lot stepped to the maximum amount of meal at the start of the test by 11 pounds per calf. The advantage in building up meal in the ration would appear on the basis of this to be principally a saving in meat costs.

During the tests, the calves were fed in three lots as individuals and three as groups with these rations:

Lot 1, ration of 80 per cent full fed on grain, regular amount of silage, cottonseed meal and one ounce of pulverized oyster shell (calcium); lot 2, same as the first except twice the amount of calcium; lot 3, same as other two except raw bonemead (phosphorus) substituted for calcium; lot 4, full fed ground meal, meal, silage with cottonseed meal built up gradually also cod liver oil for vitamin A; lot 5, group fed with same ration as lot 1, with exception of cod liver oil in ration; lot 6, same as for lot 4 except that cottonseed meal stepped immediately to maximum and held.

Here are the weight results of the lots.

Wider Circle Than In 1914

BERLIN, June 6 (AP)—The south-westerly direction of the German offensive on the Somme indicates that Hitler is aiming at Paris by a wider plan of encirclement than that of 1914.

In the World war, the Frenchmen of Joffre, after a brief defense along the line now held by the Frenchmen of Weygand, fell back to defense positions on the Marne, where the decisive battles of the war were fought.

In that war the Germans never swung their circle far enough west to take in Le Havre, the great channel port at the mouth of the Seine west of Paris.

This time, however, they already have engulfed Abbeville, at the mouth of the Somme, and have indicated their right wing is aimed at Le Havre and, perhaps even Cherbourg, on the peninsula to the east of Le Havre, across the broad Bais de la Seine.

The normal annual honey production in the United States is 160,000,000 pounds.

2,000,000 Taxpayer Would Be Added By New Income Rates

WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—All present income taxpayers will hand over more money and an additional 2,000,000 persons with small incomes will become taxpayers next March 15, if a tentative proposal of a house sub-committee becomes law.

The sub-committee, writing a defense tax bill, voted yesterday to reduce personal income tax exemptions from $2,500 to $2,000 for married men or heads of families and from $1,000 to $800 for single persons. The present $400 additional exemption for each child or other dependent was left unchanged.

Taken in connection with another provision of the pending tax bill, the committee's decision means that a childless married man whose salary is $2,500 would pay $11 annually instead of being untaxed.

That example does not allow for such deductions as charity, but it does take into account a 10 per cent "supertax," already provided in the revenue measure, which would require all income taxpayers to add one-tenth more to their payments.

Rep. Cooper (D-Tenn.), sub-committee chairman, estimated the treasury would obtain $7,000 a year additional from the exemptions, provided supertax was retained.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAIN BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, searing, backache people blame on cold or flu are caused by tired kidneys—and relieved when treated in the right way. The kidneys are Nature's chief waste organs and poisonous waste overloads them. They help most people pass about 15 miles of kidney toxins each day. If the 15 miles of kidney toxins don't work well, poisonous waste builds up in the blood. These poisons may start backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of energy, getting up at night, swelling, itchy eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Pils, used successfully by millions for years. They give happy relief and will 15 miles of kidney toxins flush out waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pils.

City's Population Placed At 12,604, 8 Pct. Decrease

Preliminary Census Figure Is Announced From District Office

Population of Big Spring Monday was announced as 12,604. The preliminary figure was announced by A. G. Boardman, Lamesa, District federal census supervisor. It represented a decline of 1,131 from the 1930 Big Spring federal census of 13,735. The percentage decline was placed at .816.

Other towns in this immediate area fluctuated, Stanton, Coahoma, Lorraine, and Westbrook showing losses while Lamesa almost doubled its population and Snyder and Colorado City showed pronounced gains.

Taking the city proper, the 1940 census figure interrupted a succession of gains since 1900. In that year Big Spring had 1,255 people; by 1910 the total was 4,102; by 1920 it was 4,273; and then in 1930 the greatest population gain on record here boosted the census total to 13,731.

Although the population count for the area enclosed by the city limits was down 1,131, Big Spring is conceded to be a vastly more substantial and sounder city than it was 10 years ago. Scores of new homes have been added, new business concerns and industries have come into the town, practically all the city paving has been done during the past 10 years. The municipal auditorium has been erected, two new school buildings and a school administration building have been added. The city park, one of the show spots of West Texas, has had all its development during the past decade. The Texas and Pacific shops building program was completed after 1930 and Coston Brewery increased and modernized its refining plant. A cotton oil mill was secured and a state hospital for mentally ill was located just north of town. Improvement of many facilities has taken place, including the recent $546,000 water works expansion and development program and the exploitation of the scenic Mountain state park. The number of producing oilwells almost doubled over the period.

INCREASES ELSEWHERE

Despite the census total, Big Spring had shown increases in the number of scholastics, telephone connections, electric customers, gas and water meters during the 10-year period.

The following tabulation shows the comparative figures for the various items:

| Item— | 1940 | 1930 |
|--------------------|-------|-------|
| Scholastics | 3,431 | 2,756 |
| Telephones | 2,488 | 1,892 |
| Electric Customers | 3,064 | 2,319 |
| (Residential) | 2,287 | 1,144 |
| Gas Meters | 2,468 | 1,772 |
| Water Meters | 2,714 | 2,319 |

Civic leaders, analyzing the returns, felt that contributing factors to the decrease might include these: (1) Suburban areas have sprung up around Big Spring proper virtually all within the last 10 years, attracting hundreds of people who formerly resided within the city limits; (2) oil activity has leveled off to production, causing scores of families connected with drilling operations to migrate to areas of new oil discovery; (3) the 1930 census may have been inaccurate, in that there are evidences that tourist camps and hotels were canvassed several times in 1930, thus adding many who were not bona fide residents of the city.

Figures for towns in this district:

| City— | 1940 | 1930 |
|---------------|--------|--------|
| Big Spring | 12,604 | 13,735 |
| Coahoma | 576 | 620 |
| Stanton | 1,247 | 1,384 |
| Colorado City | 5,187 | 4,671 |
| Westbrook | 349 | 319 |
| Lorraine | 698 | 750 |
| Snyder | 3,967 | 3,068 |
| Lamesa | 6,919 | 3,528 |

Stations Are Established By Red Cross

Campaign For Refugee Relief Funds Gains Momentum

Twenty-eight stations for collecting Red Cross war refugee relief funds have been set up in Big Spring, Shine Phillips, chairman of the Howard - Glasscock county chapter, announced Wednesday.

Workers needed, however, only seven persons have been secured to operate the stations, he pointed out in urging for more volunteers to assist the drive by manning the collecting points.

Those where workers are not serving are located in the State National bank, the First National bank, the Fashion, R. O. Jones, Robinson Grocery, Collins Drugs, Bliss & Long Drugs, and the Rita theatre.

The need for women to volunteer their services is almost as urgent as the need for money to be used for relieving suffering and starvation in invaded European countries.

Phillips described the plight of war refugees as the most tragic situation in history. Donations have ranged from six cents to $20. The American Legion post has been listed as 100 per cent service club.

New donors were A. J. Merrick, Mrs. W. R. Hall, W. F. Martin, Mrs. Helen Acuff, Anne Martin, Mrs. Ida Collins, J. H. Appleton, J. L. Sullivan, Martelle McDonald, G. B. Cunningham, A. Dan Moody Is 'Considering'

AUSTIN, May 31.—Former Governor Dan Moody said today he would give consideration to a request that he run for governor again.

In a formal statement the two-time governor declared that in a few days he would state "whether or not I shall ask the proper election officials not to print my name on the ballot."

A group of Williamson county residents yesterday filed the name of Moody as a candidate with the democratic executive committee. The required $100 filing fee accompanied the application.

Thus Moody can have a place on the ballot if he chooses to run, although he had not announced. Moody's name was not on the petition.

Moody was Texas' governor from 1927 to 1931 and before that served as attorney general.

AMERICA'S FIRST DUTY IS DEFENSE, SAYS LANCASTER

Speaking to a group gathered to pay tribute to the war dead on Memorial Day, Dr. C. E. Lancaster, pastor of the First Baptist church and an ex-service man who saw overseas service during the World war, said Thursday afternoon that America's first duty is to "prepare to defend" its liberties.

He spoke at an affair arranged by the Ray E. Fuller post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at the city cemetery where veterans decorated 120 graves with U. S. flags. Under the direction of H. L. Bohannon, post commander, and Ulnor Powell, chaplain, the full VFW ritual was read. The Rev. E. E. Bowler of the Church of God offered the invocation, Mrs. E. J. Cass represented the VFW auxiliary, and Jim Bob Chaney, representing the Boy Scouts of America, sounded "Taps."

Dr. Lancaster pointed out that a pall was over this nation on Memorial Day, the same as over the rest of the world, for "this day where 14,000 of our comrades sleep in foreign soil is being bombed from the air and strafed by fire."

Scout Camp Is Opening Next Week

Big Spring Boy Scouts are making reservations to attend summer camp of the Buffalo Trail council which opens next Sunday in Potato Valley of the Sacramento mountains of New Mexico.

There was no accurate count, but it was estimated that more than 30 already had sent in applications and 50 cents. More were due to follow before Tuesday night, deadline time for Big Spring and points east in the council.

Camping will be for 10-day periods and will cost the boys $10- or $50 if their scoutmaster makes the trip. The local contingent will return June 19.

The camp is pitched near Weed, N. M., in the virgin forest set aside by the federal government. Rich in history and scenic interest, the tract is located on a mountain range that runs from Carlsbad to the Great White Sands of Alamogordo, N. M. Billy the Kid once roamed the parts, a well-known cattle trail crossed the range at that point and Coronado is reputed to have buried a cache of gold near the springs from which the camp will get its water.

From a nearby mountain top, the lights of El Paso, 90 miles away, may be seen across the White Sands. All around are mountain streams and vast stretches of pine and fir trees. The scouts will camp in cabins and tents.

West Texas Gets Advancement With RR. Commission

COLORADO CITY, June 1.—Benton L. Templeton, whose appointment as chief law enforcement officer of the motor transport division of the Texas railroad commission has been announced by the commission, is a native West Texan and had lived in West Texas all his life until his appointment in January, 1939, as motor transport examiner for the commission.

Templeton succeeds Walton D. Hood, who has resigned to become a candidate for railroad commissioner. Born in Sterling City and reared in Lorraine, Templeton attended Hardin-Simmons university at Abilene and later taught for several years in rural schools of Mitchell county. He was an attorney at Colorado City at the time of his appointment by Sadler. He was county and district clerk of Mitchell county for four years and later served as county judge.

Pioneer In Oil Quest In Area Is A Visitor Here

H. H. Enders, Boston, Mass., who pioneered in the search of oil in this area during the fabulous Cushing boom days of 1920, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cushing.

He first came here in 1920 from Boston, helped organize and became president of the Cushing Ranch Drilling association, an institution capitalized at $72,000 and holding a 7,680-acre spread in and around the Cushing ranch 20 miles south of here.

Enders spudded an oil test Aug. 1, 1920 and kept his company working on the job one way and another until 1923 with occasional promising developments. Although the test was eventually shot with 120 quarts of 4,400-4,470, it never became a producer.

Thompson Bids Again For The Governorship

Platform Features A 5-Cent-Per-Barrel Boost In Oil Tax

AUSTIN, June 1 (AP)—Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson today announced his candidacy for governor on a 14-point platform featuring an increase of five cents per barrel in the oil tax to finance social security services.

Opposes Sales Levy
He also expressed unalterable opposition to a sales tax in any form and advocated creation of a separate oil and gas commission and a statewide soil conservation preservation program. Further, he advocated a reduction in the automobile license fee and substitution of free registration for the poll tax.

Construction activity held firm in reaching $30,565, and while down from the $37,780 for April was up over the $24,180 for May of last year. Moreover, the climb boosted the total for the year to $163,515, giving a slight edge for the first time this year over the $163,323 for the same period of 1939. During May three new homes were erected at a cost of $12,500 and one new church was raised at a cost of $2,000. Heavy part of the work was in improving business structures.

Postal receipts showed a marked increase amounting to $6,354.99, down from the $7,079.71 for April but considerably above the $5,872.76 for May of last year. This gain boosted the year's advantage over the same time in 1939 to $2,011.34.

New passenger car registrations, recovering from an April slump, were up to 87 for May, a gain of nine over April and up from the 80 for May of 1939.

Hostess To Stamford Reunion Sponsors Is Chosen By Directors

STAMFORD, June 1.—Mrs. Warren B. Tamm has been appointed hostess to the cowgirl sponsors who will represent various towns and ranches at the eleventh annual Texas Cowboy Reunion here July 2 and 4.

Selection of Mrs. Tamm, prominent Stamford woman and wife of a former mayor of the city, was made by the reunion directors.

Appointment of Miss Ethel Blum Elliott as Stamford's sponsor was announced by the local chamber of commerce. Miss Elliott is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Elliott, her father being a Stamford druggist. She is an excellent driver and is graduate of this month from Stamford high school.

Miss Elliott will not compete for prizes in the cowgirl contest but will assist Mrs. Tamm in entertaining the visiting sponsors. The winning sponsor will receive a handsome special-made saddle and other prizes will be awarded for second, third and fourth. Sponsors are appointed by chambers of commerce, or in the absence of such organization, by mayors or postmasters of towns represented (ranchers or counties also may appoint sponsors).

H. G. Andrews, chairman of the sponsors' committee, is mailing letters this week to chambers of commerce, requesting appointment of sponsors from the various towns and cities.

STORAGE CLOSET

A new and large storage closet has been installed in the office of Lora Farnsworth, county home demonstration agent, to house county cooker equipment and permanent records.

The home demonstration council, county agricultural conservation committee and the Land Use Planning committee will make use of the space.

Added Taxes, Boost In Debt Limit 'Essential'

Morgenthau Says Borrowing Power Near Exhaustion

WASHINGTON, May 31. (AP)—Secretary Morgenthau said today that "additional taxes" and "an increase in the limit" on the public debt both "are essential" to meet expanded demands for national defense.

Urging enactment of a $656,000,000 defense tax bill, the treasury head told the house ways and means committee that as things stood now, the treasury's borrowing power would be "completely exhausted" by the end of next February.

Also, he added, the working balance of the treasury—now about $1,300,000,000—would be "dangerously depleted" by that time.

"The maintenance of a balance approximating the present one," Morgenthau testified, "is distinctly in the interest of economy and financial strength and is especially to be desired in the troubled world of today."

Noting that the measure also provides for a $3,000,000,000 increase in the federal debt limit, to make it $48,000,000,000, he asserted: "The orderly financing of federal expenditures, expanded as they are by emergency expenditures for national defense, requires provision of additional taxes or an increase in the limit on the national debt."

"In my judgment both steps are essential."

School Library To Be Open During The Summer

Library at the Big Spring high school will be open for student use through the summer, it was announced Saturday by Supt. W. C. Blankenship.

He said that because of a WPA library project in effect, special workers would be in charge at the library, attending to distribution of books as well as general repair and cataloging.

Students may make use of the library for collateral reading and summer study. It will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. five days a week, and until noon on Saturdays.

NEW COURTHOUSE AT ANDREWS TO BE DEDICATED

ANDREWS, June 1.—Coke Stevenson, lieutenant governor of Texas, has accepted an invitation to deliver the dedicatory address at the formal opening of Andrews county's new courthouse, June 12th. This new structure was built without any federal aid of any sort.

A big free barbecue will be served to the homefolk and visitors during the noon hour of the celebration. Invitations have gone out to neighboring county officials and chamber of commerce secretaries.

The Andrews high school band and the Odessa high school band will furnish the music for the occasion. The famous Odessa snick wagon will help serve the barbecue.

Nazi 'Blitzkrieg' Follows American Pattern Of War Procedure

By JOHN LEAR
Copyright, 1940, By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, June 1.—There is evidence in the files of the federal government that a substantial part of the plans for Adolf Hitler's blitzkrieg were "borrowed" from the United States.

These plans would answer the most interesting question of the war in the low countries and in France—how the Germans were able to strike such repeated sledge hammer blows without serious interruption over so long a time?

For these plans are America's plan for mobilization in event we go to war, and then gear up men and machines and every other resource of the nation to win war as swiftly as possible.

They cover every conceivable factor in preparation for battle. Nothing approaching their efficiency had been devised anywhere in the world before the organizing genius of the United States began drawing them up 29 years ago.

Immediately after occupying Vienna, the Germans made a census of Austrian industries and allocated their respective share in supplying war needs—in identical the same way as the same step is outlined under the American plan.

Agents from this country, working in Germany, described it as a "concentration limitation." The similarity was sharply illustrated in the Nazi first conquest—the "Anschluss" with Austria.

Then came the invasion of the low countries, and the repeated overpowering blows against the allies which military men agree can be explained only by highly concentrated resources poured into the fighting front through ultra-efficient lines of communication.

This method of "winding up" for a "haymaker" punch and following through with all the strength the nation can muster is the very essence of the American mobilization scheme. It starts by teaming up all the factories, wire, munitions and machines are made, integrating the roads and railroads over which they must travel, allocating fuel and electric power to vital points, and keeping men flowing up to the front while putting those behind the lines into jobs where they must travel, allocating fuel war plans must follow this pattern, but this one operates on an exact timetable from start to finish.

The advantage to this country if the plan should go into effect would be that the United States has more resources than Germany has to pour into it.

More than 200 persons inspected a display of several score bedspreads displayed by the Big Spring Chenille Firm Friday evening.

Those attending looked over a wide assortment of patterns and colors and used adjectives in lavishing praise on the quality of work.

All designs were of the company's making during an experimental period to arrive at unit costs. The spreads were turned out here by two experienced women under the direction of B. B. Broca, plant superintendent.

VERDICT IN DEATHS OF PAIR AT WACO

WACO, June 6 (UP)—Dan Walden, about 44, and Mrs. Minnie Oates, about 43, were slain early today in a double shooting at the woman's residence here.

Justice of the Peace Wayne E. Lee returned an inquest verdict of murder in the death of Mr. Oates and suicide in the death of Walden. No motive for the slayings were advanced.

Lee quoted Lois Oates, 15-year-old daughter of the dead woman, as saying: "He had been threatening her for some time. When he drove up this morning and walked up on the porch, I asked mother if I should let him in and she said that I should."

"About two minutes later I heard two shots in her room and mother screamed x x x. I ran into the front yard as I heard several more shots."

No 'Mass Drive'
By Govt. Agents

WASHINGTON, June 6 (UP)—Attorney General Robert H. Jackson declared today that any inference that the justice department contemplated "a mass drive or wholesale arrests" in connection with the defense program was "wholly unwarranted."

Jackson made that assertion in reference to statements in the budget bureau's letter dealing with a request for $3,358,800 for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, chiefly to add 500 agents to the force now engaged in national defense work.

In connection with another request for $500,000 additional for salaries and expenses of United States marshals, the bureau had said:

"It is also anticipated that there will be a great number of prisoners to be handled x x x. In addition thereto marshals and deputy marshals may be called upon to guard and protect federal or seized property and to serve a large volume of process."

"We do not anticipate any abnormal increase in the number of prisoners," Jackson told newsmen. "The statement of the budget bureau does not say that an increase is expected. The number of federal prisoners has been for years increasing steadily, and the statement points out the fact that a great number require handling."

Grain Trade Is Almost At Standstill

CHICAGO, June 6 (UP)—Intricately geared machinery of the domestic grain trade, thrown into confusion by blitzkrieg on the western front, faces a state of partial paralysis, market experts said today, should prices recede much further.

Instead of the booming market activity and prices that many grain men had believed would accompany war, values have collapsed and trading has been choked almost to a standstill in some instances.

As a result, many trade experts are seriously concerned because the season of heavy grain marketing is approaching. However, John G. McCarthy, board of trade president, expressed confidence that the market would be able to work out of the situation in its own way. He said no steps would be taken by the board of trade that do not have the sanction of government agricultural officials.

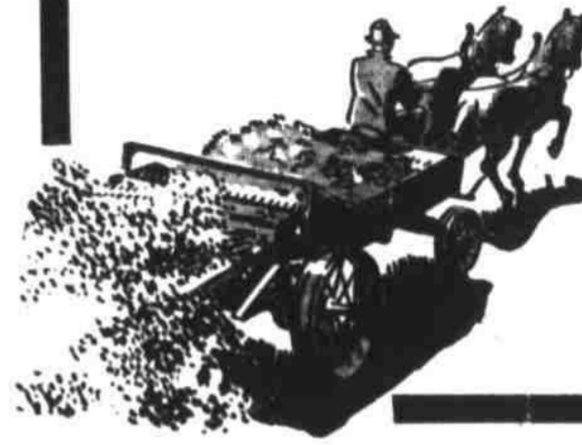

At this time of year, experts said, a large volume of speculative purchasing by trade interests and the general public usually is necessary to carry the risk of ownership of quantities of grain moving to market, especially wheat. The futures market offers the machinery for doing this job because it is through sales and purchases of contracts calling for delivery of grain at some future date that the risk of ownership is delegated to those willing and able to take it. This is important, they said, in financing the crop movement.

What has thrown the monkey-wrench into this machinery and stagnated the markets? Grain experts pointed first to the severe liquidation of market holdings in mid-May following the German invasion of the low countries. Prices of all grains plunged headlong, seriously upsetting the domestic agricultural picture at a most inopportune time because producers were making farm plans on the basis of market prices.
