BERLIN, April 29 (AP) — Two Russian jet fighters attacked Air France commercial airliner with cannon and machine-gun fire in the Allied air corridor over the Soviet Zone today. Two German passengers were wounded and two crew members nicked by bullets.

The airliner, enroute to Berlin with 11 passengers and six crewmen aboard, ducked behind a cloud cover after the fighters made four passes. It reached Berlin's Tempelhof Airfield safely half an hour after the attack.

The fuselage was riddled, but fortunately none of the shots hit a vital part of the plane. None of the passengers or crewmen was an American.

The Allied High Commission at Bonn sent a stern protest to the Soviet control commission immediately.

Commercial flights between Berlin and Western Germany were cancelled temporarily by Allied officials, but the embargo was lifted gradually a few hours later.

Air France's four-engine Douglas plane arrived at Tempelhof from Frankfurt with five cannon holes the size of a fist in the fuselage and wings. Inspecting crews said they counted 20 to 25 holes in the plane altogether. A first report by U. S. officers that there were 89 bullet holes was discounted later as exaggerated.

There was no immediate accounting for the attack. Since the 1948-49 Berlin blockade, traffic through the air corridors linking Berlin with Western Germany has been relatively free from alarms. The French pilot said he was flying precisely in the center of the air corridor over the Russian zone, when the two jets made four passes at him and unloaded bursts of cannon and machinegun fire. The co-pilot and steward also were nicked by bullets. "The attack was a complete surprise," said the pilot, "but there was no panic among the passengers."

Clark Criticized For Italy Efforts In World War II

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Matthew Ridgway's appointment to succeed Gen. Dwight Eisenhower drew mostly applause today, but Gen. Mark Clark, who gets Ridgway's old command, faced criticism in Congress.

In the Pentagon, the top-level reassignments—Ridgway from Far East commander to head of Allied forces in Europe, and Clark from chief of Army Field Forces to Far East commander—were viewed by some officials as:

1. Results of a decision by President Truman to side with Gen. Omar Bradley instead of Eisenhower in choosing the new commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) forces.

2. Rewards to both Ridgway and Clark for past jobs well done.

The criticism of Clark came from Sen. Long (D-La.), a member of the Armed Services Committee. He told a reporter he wants to review previous congressional investigations of Clark's World War II record and may ask for a new inquiry.

Clark's crossing of the Rapido River during the Italian campaign has been under previous congressional fire. Bitter criticism of the maneuver was voiced by members of the Texas National Guard, which suffered heavy casualties.

"I was in that area with the Navy at the time of the Rapido crossing," Long said, "and I know that many of the officers with whom I associated did not think

Testimony Ends In One Narcotics Case

Testimony was concluded this morning in 11th District Court in the trial of Manuel Hernandez, who is charged with possession of narcotics.

Four other trials, all of them involving pleas of guilty were completed Monday.

Hernandez, who entered a plea of not guilty, was arrested on the night of March 14 during raids in the northwest part of the city. Twelve other individuals were indicted as a result of the same raids.

Officers testified this morning that they entered a house occupied by Hernandez and found a quantity of marijuana.

The case was being heard by a jury composed of Kenneth Mandle, Byron McCracken, W. E. Napier, S. E. Peurifoy, S. C. Rhoton, Jack McKinnon, T. W. Neel, Carl H. Peterson, Dan A. Oglesby, W. A. Peeler, D. S. Riley, and Elmo Phillips.

The defendant is represented by Thomas and Thomas of Big Spring, while District Attorney Elton Gililand and County Attorney Hartman Hooser are prosecuting. Monday afternoon, Joe Nunez, who was charged with possession of marijuana, drew five years on a plea of guilty. He accepted sentence immediately.

Willie Murphy pleaded guilty to four counts alleging possession and sale of marijuana. Judge Charlie Sullivan announced a judgment of five years for each count. Murphy has not been sentenced, however.

Aberlardo Hilaris, who entered a plea of guilty to one count, drew five years, and is awaiting sentence.

A hearing on a guilty plea entered by Adlenia Woolfolk Zubiate was halted Monday afternoon when the defendant requested permission to change her plea to not guilty. Judge Sullivan had not ruled on the request this morning.

Transfusions Aid Injured Woman

ODESSA, April 29 (AP)—Pretty Grace Marie Olliff, whose father and two brothers didn't want her to have a blood transfusion, was given her third transfusion today and was reported "much improved."

The 20-year-old Midland office worker was critically hurt in a car wreck. The first transfusion was given Sunday after the three relatives were arrested and fined on charges of disturbing the peace. They had been guarding Miss Olliff's hospital room and had said they would not allow a transfusion to be made.

The father, William Olliff, 51, of Midland, and brothers, Ben, 23, and John, 27, both of Brooklyn, N. Y., said they were Jehovah's Witnesses and that it would be a violation of the scriptures to tamper with blood. Hospital attendants said they have made no further move against treatment of Miss Olliff.

GENERAL MARK CLARK

too highly of Clark's ability as a field commander.

"What we need in Korea now is a field commander, not a diplomat, and I have some reservations about the Clark appointment."

However, Sen. McFarland of Arizona, the Democratic leader, said he does not look for any serious Senate attempt to block either Ridgway's or Clark's new assignments. The Army believes no Congress action is needed for the shift.

Neither Texas senator, Democrats Connally or Lyndon Johnson, would comment on Clark's appointment.

Gen. Bradley, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, reportedly favored Ridgway as NATO chief. Eisenhower, who steps down about June 1 amid a boom for his nomination as Republican candidate for President, is known to have wanted his chief of staff, Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, as his successor.

Gruenther will stay on as Ridgway's chief of staff. The idea that Truman was rewarding Ridgway and Clark was explained in military circles this way: Ridgway's handling of the Korean War helped quiet the storm, kicked up by the dismissal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur as Far East chief, which threatened to drive the administration into serious political trouble. Clark's adroit withdrawal as Vatican ambassador nominee did much to quiet the rumors over proposed creation of that post.

Quick approval of Truman's choice was expected in other NATO nations. Except for the Communists, praise for Ridgway was widespread in Europe. Reds in France called Ridgway "the man of germ warfare" and said his appointment was "a brutal defy to European public opinion."

No strong objection to Ridgway's appointment was voiced in Congress. Generally it was applauded, although some lawmakers—like Sen. Wiley (R-Wis)—seemed disappointed that Gruenther did not get the job. Gruenther favorably impressed Congress members when he testified on foreign aid.

Wiley, senior Republican on the Foreign Relations Committee, said: "With his intimate contacts at Lisbon and other NATO conferences and as an understudy for Eisenhower, Gen. Gruenther fitted into the position ideally."

Rep. Shafter (R-Mich.) of the House Armed Services Committee, commented that Clark was more familiar with European conditions and Ridgway with Far Eastern affairs "so they shift them just the opposite way." Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio) and Rep. Smith (R-Wis) voiced similar criticisms.

French Troops In W. Germany Bid Adieu To Ike

COBLENZ, Germany, April 29 (AP)—French forces in Germany said goodbye to Gen. Eisenhower today. Fifteen thousand troops turned out in a tribute to the retiring NATO chief.

Eisenhower looked tired and drawn but he flashed his famous grin as photographers swarmed around him. During an inspection of troops drawn up before the French headquarters building, the general was presented with the badge of the Legion of Lausson. This regiment, now the Fifth Hussars, has as its ancestor the Legion of Lausson which fought alongside American troops in 1776.

50 On Board Lost Pan Am Luxury Plane

BUENOS AIRES, April 29 (AP)—A Pan American Stratocruiser carrying 50 persons was overdue today on a flight from Rio de Janeiro to Trinidad, on route to New York.

Pan American's office here at one time this afternoon said the plane had landed safely at Belém, Brazil. Later Pan American said this report apparently was untrue.

(Pan American in New York likewise said it had no confirmation of the Belém landing report.) Several hours had passed since the plane was first reported missing. It was due at Port of Spain, Trinidad at 8 a. m. CST. The 146-million dollar, double-decked plane left Rio de Janeiro last night on one of its "El President" flights, originating in Buenos Aires.

The Stratocruiser, one of the most luxurious planes in world-wide service, offers passengers berth service and fancy meals with drinks. Pan American operates 23 of the Boeing planes.

The missing plane, named the Clipped Good Hope, was on a non-stop schedule for the 2,600 miles from Rio de Janeiro to Trinidad. It carried 41 passengers and a crew of nine.

UN Offers Plan To Reds; Talks Now In Recess

Over-All Solution To Secure Truce Presented Enemy

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN MUNSAN, Korea (AP) — Korean truce talks were in complete recess today for the first time in five months. The United Nations Command waited for Communist reaction to a secret Allied proposal for an armistice.

It is up to the Communists to set the date of the next meeting.

Presumably the Reds will make no move until a decision has been reached in Beijing and Pyongyang, and possibly in Moscow, on what to do about the plan the Allies delivered Monday.

The proposal was described officially only as "an over-all solution for the remaining unresolved issues standing in the way of a military armistice."

That means it wrapped up in one package the dispute over how to exchange prisoners of war, the Red demand for the right to rebuild their war-wrecked military airfields and Communist nomination of Russia as a truce supervisor.

There was widespread belief that the proposal centered on prisoner exchange.

The Chicago Sun-Times, in a copyright dispatch from Washington, said Tuesday the Allies offered to approve rebuilding of airfields in North Korea during a truce if the Communists would be satisfied with the return of three out of five prisoners of war.

The dispatch, written by Frederick Kuh, said: "Allied experts in Washington think there is better than a 50-50 chance that after further tough bargaining an armistice will be agreed to on lines close to the new U.N. offer."

There was no official comment from U.N. truce negotiators. The Communists have insisted that all prisoners be returned. The

Murder Charges In Villa Death Filed

Murder charges have been filed in the office of Justice of the Peace W. O. Leonard against Enrique Ortega and Enrique Sanchez.

They are charged with the beating of Francisco Villa, 50, on the night of April 19. Villa, who was severely beaten, died at a local hospital Sunday morning.

Ortega and Sanchez have been in custody since last Tuesday when they were arrested by city police.

Refineries Set For Wednesday Strike

Union (CIO) has called for a strike at 12:01 a. m., local time, tomorrow to enforce its demand for a 25-cent hourly wage boost and higher differentials for night work. Oil workers pay now averages $2 to $2.10 per hour.

O. A. Knight, OIUW president, said yesterday the strike—originally set for March 3 but postponed three times at government request—will take place this time "unless collective bargaining produces a satisfactory settlement of the wage dispute before the deadline hour."

In Washington, meantime, top mediation service officials said they were "optimistic" that the strike could be averted.

The OIUW group, which heads a coalition of 23 CIO, AFL and independent unions, has not disclosed an over-all list of refineries which would be involved in the strike.

Along the Texas-Gulf Coast at least five refineries reported they have received notice that the strike deadline will be observed and the companies will be given 48 hours to stop operations.

Navy Launches Disaster Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy arranged today for a formal inquiry into the mid-Atlantic sinking of the destroyer-mine sweeper Hobson with an apparent loss of 174 lives. It was one of the worst peacetime disasters in American naval history.

Meanwhile, the 27,000-ton aircraft carrier Wasp, damaged in the Saturday night collision that sent the Hobson to the bottom, steamed slowly homeward. She carried 61 of the mine sweeper's survivors, some of them injured seriously.

Traveling between eight to 10 knots, the carrier was expected to reach Brooklyn Navy Yard for repairs on Friday or Saturday.

The original list of 176 missing in the tragedy was reduced by two when two sailors whose names appeared on it turned up safe. They had missed their ship's last voyage—one man being home on leave, the other in a Naval hospital. No casualties were reported aboard the Wasp.

There still was some confusion over the exact number missing because of a duplication of at least two names.

Adm. Lynde McCormick, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic Fleet, announced in Norfolk that a formal court of inquiry would "make a full investigation of the facts and circumstances surrounding the sinking."

A demand for a congressional probe came from the father of one of the missing men, who said his son had told him all the enlisted men aboard the Hobson feared she "would crack up, either in heavy seas or by hitting something in the water."

Ervin S. White Sr. of Lynn, Mass., said his son told him the ship broke down several times while on cruises and was in dry-dock last March and again in April.

"I intend to have my congressman ask the Navy some questions to find out why it continues to operate ships in such poor shape,"

Condition of T. S. Currie Sr., chairman of the board of the State National Bank, was regarded as extremely serious Tuesday.

He had sustained a heart attack Monday at the Big Spring Hospital where he is under treatment. Tuesday morning, he experienced another attack which caused grave concern for his condition.

Mr. Currie retired from active affairs of the bank in January, being succeeded in the presidency by his eldest son, Robert W. Currie. He has been under treatment for several weeks and was to have been returned home before his condition took a sudden turn for the worse this week.

Files Statement In Steel Dispute

WASHINGTON, April 29. (AP)—The government's chief attorney in the steel seizure case said today he does not claim that President Truman holds unlimited powers.

Assistant Attorney General Holmes Baldrige asserted in a statement filed with the Federal District Court here, that if that court had understood such a claim to have been made, he desired to correct it.

Baldrige represented the government last week in arguments before District Judge David A. Pine on the plea of steel companies that the court nullify the presidential seizure of the steel industry.

Pine's ruling could come today, but court attaches said it might not be ready until tomorrow.

Baldrige argued before Judge Pine that Truman had acted properly to protect the public welfare under "inherent powers" held by the chief executive. He said then that the Constitution limits the legislative and judicial branches, but not the executive authority.

This argument drew a storm of protests from steel company lawyers—as well as many in Congress later—and Baldrige was subjected to close questioning on the point by Judge Pine.

The House Judiciary Committee, meanwhile, met to consider a batch of Republican-sponsored proposals for Truman's impeachment or

Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, normally in charge of the seized industry, was expected to notify steel firms today they may apply for an average 20-cent price increase if they wished.

That is the limit the government says steel prices can be raised under stabilization rules. The industry says $3 is inadequate to pay for the 26-cent-an-hour, over-all cost of wage increases and other benefits recommended by the government's Wage Stabilization Board.

The 13 Republican members of the House Judiciary Committee were represented as solid in their demand that the committee take some action today on the proposals to impeach Truman or at least censure him.

Chairman Celler (R-NY) would make no predictions on the outcome. He said the announced decision of the Republicans to stick together in their demand "shows that they are playing politics with something that should not be a partisan matter."

Three of the 10 proposals before the committee are impeachment resolutions, the latest having been introduced yesterday by Rep. Shafer (R-Mich.). The others range from demands that the steel plants

Deductions Charged In Loans To Demos

WASHINGTON April 29 (AP)—Sen. Williams (R-Del.) today told the Senate today three wealthy citizens have been permitted to charge off their income taxes 90 per cent of $410,000 in "loans" made to Democratic committees in the years 1940 through 1948.

Williams named the three as Marshall Field of Chicago, Richard J. Reynolds of Winston-Salem, N. C., and David A. Schulte of New York.

The Delaware senator, whose charges helped spur the congressional investigation of Internal Revenue Bureau scandals, displayed what he said were copies of bureau letters authorizing the three to charge off as non-business debts, the major share of loans he said totalled $310,000 from Reynolds, $50,000 from Field and $50,000 from Schulte.

Describing these as "contributions," Williams said:

"A summary of these decisions shows that the Democratic party has, through these favorable rulings, been financing a part of their political campaign indirectly out of the federal Treasury.

"I am opposed to either political party financing its campaign either directly or indirectly out of the federal Treasury.

"However, if the Treasury department is going to allow large contributions to the Democratic party to be classified as loans, and thereby become legitimate income tax deductions, then I shall insist that the same consideration be given to contributors to the Republican party."

As Williams explained the transactions, Reynolds lent the Democratic state committee of New York a total of $300,000 in the period of 1940 through 1948.

Williams produced a Dec. 30, 1948 letter from E. I. R. McLarny, deputy commissioner of Internal Revenue, listing four notes Reynolds had received and saying these covered transactions "extending back to year 1940."

The notes were for $75,000 and $100,000 dated Feb. 27, 1947; $26,000, dated Oct. 14, 1944; and a note to the Democratic state committee of New York from the Democratic state committee of New Jersey,

Wilson Views Sought Over Steel Dispute

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (U)—The Senate Banking Committee called in Charles E. Wilson today to tell under oath "the inside story" of why he quit as defense mobilizer in a row over administration handling of the steel dispute.

Wilson contends the White House bypassed him "nine ways from Sunday" in handling the dispute and embarrassed him by a sudden switch in policy.

Sen. Maybank (D-S.C.), the committee chairman, announced Wilson "undoubtedly will be asked about the details of that contention and a variety of other matters."

A Republican committee member, Sen. Schoeppl (Kan.), told a reporter he wants Wilson's "sworn views on whether he believes a settlement of the steel strike on the terms now proposed will precipitate new rounds of wage increases, price increases and inflation."

Wilson's appearance at a closed-door meeting of the committee took place on Capitol Hill, where congressional wrath over seizure of the steel industry has set off a move to impeach President Truman and sparked a variety of investigations.

Maybank predicted "some very frank talk" between Wilson and committee members. He promised to make public a transcript of the question-and-answer testimony, which he said would be given under oath. He said he hoped the printed record would be ready by tomorrow.

The committee plans to question Wilson before the CIO steelworkers' union tomorrow morning, and steel industry officials in the afternoon.

Maybank told a reporter the group may call off plans for a May Day public session Thursday at which spokesmen for the industry, the union and government agencies would be free to question one another before the committee.

"It would produce nothing but a row, I feel confident of that," Maybank said. "I'm going to ask the committee whether it cares to reconsider the vote calling the round-table meeting. Nothing can be gained by pouring oil on fires of controversy already blazing to the skies."

South Plains Farmers Get Rain Enough For Planting

By The Associated Press
Farmers in the Central and Eastern portions of Texas' South Plains had just what they needed Tuesday—enough rain to start planting a planned record crop.

Rain showers peppered a 5,000-square mile section of the plains country Monday night and continued early Tuesday. Hail which accompanied much of the rain did little, if any, damage.

The squall line which brought the rain missed the most arid part of the sprawling plains between Lubbock and Lamesa, but light showers fell even there.

Farmers said they had a definite go-ahead now for planting the cotton crop. Agriculture officials have estimated about 3,850,000 acres of cotton will be planted this season in the South Plains.

The Heaven-sent rains began about 30 miles south of Lubbock at nightfall and moved slowly to 60 or 70 miles northeast of Lubbock over an area 90 miles long and 45 to 60 miles wide.

Lubbock had more than a half-inch of rain. Balls—23 miles northeast—had 1.31 inches. Slaton had 1.20. An estimated 3 or 4 inches fell at Woodrow, about 10 miles south of Lubbock.

Near midnight rain fell at Matador and Floydada and before dawn Childrens and San Angelo were getting rain. Big Spring, Midland and Amarillo had rain earlier Tuesday.

More rain was in the forecast for the area Tuesday.

The rains came after blowing dust annoyed citizens at Childrens and Lubbock earlier yesterday.

East Texas had almost clear skies Tuesday with widely scattered thundershowers expected Wednesday. Central Texas, partly cloudy before dawn, expected thundershowers late Tuesday.

Cool Sailor Uses Finger, Halts Tragedy

ABOARD USS BOXER OFF KOREA (U)—A cool sailor averted possibly a tragedy on this carrier recently by sticking his finger in a live bomb to keep it from exploding.

This is the official story:

A Panther jet returned from a mission over North Korea with a $50-bomb the pilot couldn't release. The bomb jarred loose and went bouncing and sliding up the deck. It jammed against a parked plane.

The arming propeller on the nose spun ominously.

Two flight crewmen grabbed its tail fin and began dragging the bomb to one side, oblivious of the danger.

Ralph V. O'Dell, an aviation ordnance man and an expert on bombs and fuses, rushed up. He jabbed his finger into the space between the striking pin and the fuse body to prevent accidental discharge.

O'Dell held his finger in place until the bomb had been carried to one side.

Youth's Future Up To Shivers, Pardons Board

SUGARLAND, April 29 (U)—The State Board of Pardons and Paroles and Gov. Allan Shivers held the future of a 15-year-old Iowa farm boy today.

Herbert Fletcher of Osawa, Ia., who robbed three filling stations and drew a ten-year prison sentence when he told officers he was 17 instead of 15 years old, may have to serve the sentence unless pardoned by executive action.

His mother, Mrs. Edna Fletcher, was told yesterday that her son could not be freed by habeas corpus action as had been planned.

Judge R. W. Willford of Fairfield, who gave Herbie the ten-year sentence said, "There are several clear-cut high-court rulings which show that a youth can waive his juvenility and must remain in prison after conviction."

"However," the judge said, "I will be glad to appear before the Board of Pardons and Paroles and explain that the boy is under age."

County Attorney Elmer McVey of Freestone County said "It is a shame the law apparently offers no other remedy since other statutes forbid sending of youths under 17 to prison."

Herbie's case started six months ago when he left his prosperous farm home and hitchhiked to Kansas City. He worked in a saw mill and then came to Texas. He robbed three filling stations, at Fairfield, Cameron and Georgetown, of a total of $104.

A Brownwood nightwatchman caught him in a dark alley and Herbie admitted the robberies.

His parents thought him dead after his bicycle had been found on the banks of the Mississippi River near his home, but a letter from William Herbert Adams, inmate of a Texas prison farm came to the Iowa home.

Mrs. Doswell Pictured As A Jealous Wife

DALLAS, April 29 (U)—Prosecution testimony was to continue today in the murder trial of Mrs. Rebecca Doswell, charged in the Aug. 20 slaying of her oilman husband.

Mrs. Doswell heard herself pictured yesterday as a jealous wife who threatened to kill her husband and the secretary she accused of being "the other woman."

The former secretary, attractive Florence Wyatt, testified she quit working for wealthy Thomas Doswell because the defendant "threatened to kill both me and Mr. Doswell."

The tall, pretty young woman said Mrs. Doswell came into her husband's office last August 2 and told her "that I could not work for her because she owned the business."

"She told me she had made it a point to keep up with me, that she knew everywhere I went and everything I did. I told her there was no need to continue the conversation because I had resigned," Miss Wyatt testified.

The young woman said she had been going out with Doswell's brother, Houston, for years, but had never been out with Thomas Doswell.

The Doswell brothers reputedly had heavy oil holdings in New Mexico.

On cross-examination by Defense Attorney Maury Hughes, Miss Wyatt said she resigned about a week after going to work for Doswell on July 19—several days before the conversation she had described.

"She had been in one time before," Miss Wyatt said. "I'm frankly—I'm afraid of her... she threatened to kill both me and Mr. Doswell."

Doswell was shot to death as the couple sat in their Cadillac sedan behind the Dallas residential hotel where they lived.

Mrs. Doswell, who wiped at her eyes yesterday as the state attempted to weave a web of circumstantial evidence around her, has maintained the shooting was accidental. She is 52.

Warm Weather Is In Store For Nation

By The Associated Press
More summer-like weather appeared in prospect for the central part of the country today but rain was the outlook in many other areas.

The rain and cool weather of the past few days continued over much of the Middle Atlantic states and in the New England region. Cooler weather and showers and thunderstorms moved into the Rocky Mountain states and extreme Western Plains. It was fair and cool in the Pacific Coast states.

SET FOR MAY 3 Precinct Meetings In State Stressed

By The Associated Press
Approaching grass roots action—precinct conventions—and a flurry of activity in the state Supreme Court campaign took the stage front in political activity today.

Judge A. R. Stout of Waxahachie and Glenn R. Lewis of San Angelo announced they would be candidates for the state's highest court.

Their announcements came after Associate Justice John H. Sharp said he was withdrawing as a candidate for re-election due to his health.

The precinct gatherings—which put politics on a neighborhood basis—come May 3.

Most Texas newspapers are pushing drives for record turnouts at the grass-roots meetings. Some are carrying front-page "boxes" reminding readers of the conventions; others are publishing the time and place of the various meetings.

In Wichita Falls yesterday, 15 persons filed for election to precinct chairmanships in vacancies announced by county GOP Committee Chairman O. R. Hart.

At the same time, backers of Gen. Eisenhower charged that Hart stacked the original list of 39 precinct chairmen with supporters of Sen. Taft (R-Ohio). The "I Like Ike" men were Joe Jackson and Ben Lovell.

They described the 15 names filed as persons not "down-the-line Eisenhower" supporters. They said they were "just interested citizens."

In Austin, so-called "Loyal Democrats" sounded their voice in a Republican party fight.

Fagan Dickson, "Loyalist" leader, filed a brief as friend of the court arguing that both Democrats and Republicans operate under the same law and have the same right to require party loyalty pledges.

The suit involves the validity of the Republican party membership declaration to be required at Republican precinct conventions.

The suit was brought originally by Charles M. Dickson, San Antonio attorney, who wants to run for Congressman-at-Large as a Democrat and support Eisenhower for the GOP presidential nomination.

In another development Taft and MacArthur backers formed an alliance for a joint campaign at GOP precinct conventions. It was a "Stop Eisenhower" move that has been brewing in Texas for weeks.

Chrysler V-8 Saratoga Sedan, gasoline economy winner in Class "F", entered and driven in the 1952 Mobilgas Gas Economy Run by Chrysler Dealer Mel Alsbury, Hollywood, It was one of three Chrysler FirstPower V-8's to win in their respective classes.

180 HP CHRYSLER V-8 FIRST IN 3 CLASSES IN ECONOMY RUN!

Here is truly dramatic proof that Chrysler's great new FirePower 180 HP V-8 engine design sets an entirely new standard of efficiency among American passenger car engines!

In this annual economy test, rigidly supervised, and limited strictly to stock car entrants, cars competing are divided, by price and size, into 11 standard classes. The route, from Los Angeles to San Valley, covered 1,415 miles of every possible kind of driving. Average speed for all cars was just under 41 miles per hour.

And in 3 of the 11 classes, the Chrysler V-8 engine was best for gasoline mileage.

In Class "F", this magnificent new engine won first place for a Saratoga 6-passenger sedan (125 1/2-inch wheelbase, 4010 pounds).

In Class "H", it won first honors for a Saratoga model 8-passenger sedan (139 1/2-inch wheelbase, 4510 pounds). And in the top price and size, Class "I", it was again first, in a Chrysler Crown Imperial Sedan (145 1/2-inch wheelbase, 5360 pounds).

To travel these substantial cars at this speed under these conditions gives additional proof, we believe, that here in the FirePower V-8 engine is the finest and most efficient engine ever put into an American passenger car!

WE INVITE YOU TO DRIVE THIS ENGINE, YOURSELF...

The same engine which has just scored these remarkable accomplishments is no farther from you than your own Chrysler Dealer. ### No Point In Writing If Meaning Isn't Made Clear To The Reader

"Poor writing wastes time," observes the Texas Edition of the Progressive Farmer in an editorial. It goes on to say that "we looked through a college geography textbook recently, and it was amazing how the author had been able to build words into sentences in such a way as to make simple facts hard to understand." It calls the authors of college and high school textbooks among the worst offenders. "Anybody who writes in such a way as to confuse his reading audience is a poor writer, regardless of the big words he uses."

Asked if he agreed with Charles E. Wilson, former defense mobilizer, that all-out production of aircraft now might be a costly error because of quick obsolescence of planes, General Whitehead said he did not, that a single atomic weapon could knock out a plant if there were not enough planes to head off a raid. In consequence of the cutback in production (by spreading it over five instead of the original four years), Senator Russell Long commented that we are "still just as wide open to attack, in fact more wide open to attack," than at the time Wilson stated his views.

Aerial Defenses May Be Better But They Still Aren't Enough

Senator Lyndon Johnson's Preparedness Subcommittee has heard testimony from Lt. Gen. Ennis C. Whitehead, who commanded the Continental Air Command until his retirement from the Air Force nine months ago, that should shock congressional economists to a sense of urgency, if anything can.

There is nothing in the recent conduct of Congress with regard to appropriations for defense to ease the public mind with respect to the ever-present threat of an atomic sneak attack on this country. Congress apparently is ignoring the fact that Russia has A-bombs, and that Russia's aerial strength is vastly greater than our own at this time.

Truman Won't Change His Mind About Running For Presidency

WASHINGTON. — A lot of people are still speculating that President Truman may change his mind and consent to be drafted by the Democratic national convention at the last minute—especially if the Republicans nominate Taft whom the President does not like.

Some time have been arguing in the United Nations for complete freedom of the press. Not all Latin American governments agree with the United States on this point. Several have joined Middle East and Asiatic countries in trying to get the U.N. to adopt an amendment which would require newspapers to print statements by governments "correcting" supposedly erroneous news.

Chip Bohlen, State Department counselor, walked in to the State Department staff conference at 12:30 last Thursday with perturbation written over his usually suave visage.

The Massachusetts primary today will be a tougher test of the American voters' intelligence than even that in Nebraska. In Nebraska it was necessary for write-in voters to spell correctly the full name of "Dwight Eisenhower." If they misspelled either name, or used "Ike" instead of "Dwight," their vote was ruled out.

WASHINGTON. — The White House apparently thought a good public relations job was needed when the President seized the steel mills. It started with a bang but must have stopped to pick apples.

more at a news conference he tried to explain presidential powers. The result was just as bad. This time, to illustrate his powers, he said he sent an ultimatum to Stalin. A few hours later his White House aides had to explain he didn't mean an ultimatum but a diplomatic note to the Moscow government.

That was the White House's highwater mark in public relations in this case. The tide has been running out ever since. The next night the steel industry produced Clarence B. Randall, president of Inland Steel Company, on TV. He blasted the President.

Neither man was exactly impartial. The President told his listeners the industry could raise wages without raising prices because, he said, it was making a profit of $19 a ton.

The White House's public relations in the steel dispute haven't been planned. They've been ad libbed.

If the years that have blown a lot of the top of my head down to the hardpan and then bordered this bare spot with a silver fringe among which there ain't no gold— if these years have brought me a firm conviction about anything, it is that old Father Time has a cure for all the world's ills, and that there are things that the reformers will do better to leave to be harvested by the Old Man's scythe.

Ernestine Gilbreth Carey Has Completed First Novel

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor

The woman who concentrates all her efforts on getting ahead in a career is likely to wind up at middle age lonely, dissatisfied, unhappy—and something of a phony.

So says Ernestine Gilbreth Carey, co-author of the two best-sellers, "Cheaper by the Dozen" and "Belles on Their Toes," who has just written her first novel, "Jumping Jupiter."

"Sometimes I look out my kitchen window in Manhattan, Long Island, and see a smartly groomed career gal leap into her shiny roadster and zoom off to work. As I go back to my dish washing, I'm inclined to sigh 'Ah, that's the life.'" hilarious story of the hectic life of a department store toy buyer and of "Jumping Jupiter," the galloping goat on which she rode to success. But she says:

"The politics of big business, the jockeying for position, the jealousies and the cut-throat competition among executives are not conducive to warm, human traits. Unless a woman has a strong character, built up from childhood, she's likely to become ruthless, insincere and something of a phony under such pressures."

Mrs. Carey is not one of those, however, who preach the inflexible doctrine that 'woman's place is in the home.' Says she:

"A married woman with a family is in no danger of being engulfed by any job. She has so many other things to think about that the job never gets too important. It's the unmarried girl who passes up every chance of normal happiness to get ahead in her career who stirs my sympathy."

"I think the most successful career women are those with a normal family life—and I hold no truck with those who claim that a smart woman can't hold down a job and run a household at the same time without sighting either."

Mrs. Carey has two children, Jill, 13, and Charles, 9. Both are normal, happy, well-adjusted youngsters who do not feel neglected because mom held down a full-time job for most of their lives, and now has a full-fledged career as a writer.

DESIGNING WOMAN Too Many Identical Pairs Create Room Monotony

By ELIZABETH HILLIER

Are there too many twins at your house? Too many pairs, that is, of identical furnishings? The idea of pairs is a good one because the easiest way to make a balanced arrangement is to use two of the same thing, and there's no question about their belonging together. But too many twins can be monotonous. A pair of chairs in the room with a pair of tables beside them and twin lamps on the tables—plus more pairs on the wall and the mantle—has a Noah's ark two-by-two effect that is like seeing double. As is so often the case, so much of a good thing is too much. Watch out for it when you plan a room, and check rooms you live in now for acute twin-tins. Separate twosomes if they become too numerous. Formal balance is soothing and pleasant but it can also be achieved by balancing objects which are the same size, but not identical in outline. The trend today is away from pairs even in lamps, and in tables at either end of a sofa. Pairs should not be abandoned, but they should be used with restraint.

Sweet Potato Rolls Create New Interest

Every homemaker likes to show a spark of originality in her meal planning. Many homemakers are not aware that sweet potatoes offer one means of making hot rolls that will bring new interest to their meals. Try this sweet potato recipe and see for yourself what superb rolls result.

Sweet Potato Rolls

3 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons margarine
2 cups mashed cooked warm sweet potatoes
8 cups sifted enriched flour (about)
1 cake yeast
1½ cups lukewarm, scalded milk

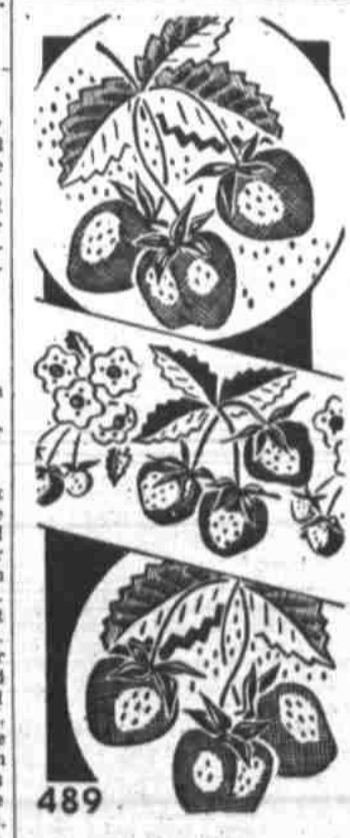

Add sugar, salt, and margarine to mashed sweet potatoes. Blend thoroughly. Add one cup of flour and mix well. Dissolve yeast in milk. Add to sweet potato mixture. Beat until smooth. Cover and let rise in a warm place for one hour. Gradually add remaining flour and work into a stiff dough. Knead well. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Shape into rolls. Place on a margined cookie sheet. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in a 375 degree oven for 12-15 minutes. This recipe makes two and one-half dozen rolls. Serve hot with margarine squares.

Pork Chops Dry Out When Broiled

You can broil beefsteaks and lamb chops, but whatever you do, don't broil those pork chops! Furthermore, keep other fresh pork cuts, such as pork shoulder steaks, away from the broiler.

Fresh pork never should be broiled because this method of cooking tends to dry it out before it is thoroughly cooked. Braising pork chops and steaks (cooking them slowly in a covered skillet with a little added moisture) develops their fine flavor and makes them juicy and tender.

As for larger cuts of pork, these should be roasted. A loin roast requires 25-30 minutes per pound in a 325 degree F. oven, while chunkier cuts, such as shoulder butt and a half pork leg, require 45-50 minutes per pound.

Disposable Cups

Handy paper cups with handles are making a big hit with television hostesses. These are said to have several advantages—they make no noise when the show is on, and Mom does not need to wash them after the guests leave. All she does is toss them in the waste paper basket.

Food Prices In South Declined During March

Retail food prices in Southern cities continued decreasing slightly during March, except in Dallas and Washington, D. C., according to Brunswick A. Bagdon, regional director of the U. S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics in the South.

Price declines ranged from 0.1 per cent in Jacksonville, Little Rock, and Savannah to 1.7 per cent in Memphis. In Dallas and Washington prices rose 0.4 per cent during the month.

Meats, poultry and fish prices declined during March in all cities with substantial decreases reported in Atlanta (2.1 per cent), Norfolk (2.7 per cent) and Memphis (3.0 per cent). There was a general decline in prices on all types of meat, with the only sizable increase reported on pork in Jackson (2.2 per cent).

Fruits and vegetables rose generally in March because of higher prices for fresh, canned and dried varieties. Frozen varieties decreased in most cities. Seasonal shortages were responsible for the higher prices on fresh tomatoes, sweet potatoes and onions.

Without controls, he added, there would be another wave of scare buying and speculative inflation such as followed the Korean outbreak. He predicted a rise in prices and said the cost of living would boost wages because it is the most significant factor affecting the wage level.

Foreign Policies In Dispute Among GOPs

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—There was ample evidence today that Republican leaders are far from agreement on foreign policy.

Sen. Wiley of Wisconsin called on GOP colleagues in the Senate yesterday to support the administration's foreign policy in Europe. But, asserting that Republicans weren't consulted about Asiatic policies, he proceeded to attack some of them.

On the other hand, Gov. Earl Warren of California voiced general approval of some of the Truman administration's actions in the Far East.

The governor, an active candidate for the GOP presidential nomination, thus put himself so flatly on record against some of the positions taken by Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio as to raise doubts that he ever could support Taft if the Ohioan won the nomination.

Wiley, top Republican in service on the Foreign Relations Committee and in line for its chairmanship if the GOP wins control of the Senate, defended a speech he made to the American Society of Newspaper Editors on April 19.

In that speech he said Republicans should take a "constructive approach" on international matters adding that "there is a good deal of which every American can be proud" in the country's policies.

"This brought some pointed comment from Sen. Cain of Washington and others who said Wiley himself had criticized many of the actions he seemed to be defending in general.

Wiley told his colleagues yesterday that, while he wants to see a Republican sweep in November, "I will not, however, compromise with principle in my desire for victory for my party."

"I believe that the Republican party would be greatly mistaken," he declared, "if it were to assume that by simply pointing out the shortcomings of the opposition . . . that the American people will automatically put Republicans in office."

"On the contrary, we have two responsibilities—one to point out shortcomings and the second, more important, to make our own constructive suggestions to overcome those shortcomings."

"Moreover, where no shortcomings exist, it is up to us to close ranks as Americans."

Warren said in a copyrighted article in U.S. News & World Report that, while Republicans might not approve the way it was accomplished, "we can't complain about getting into the Korean situation."

Taft has been highly critical of the Korean development, calling the conflict "unnecessary" and labeling it "Truman's war."

Warren said he is opposed to giving Chiang Kai-shek American support to invade Communist China, and that Taft said should stop only short of involving American troops.

The governor said he doesn't believe the Korean War should have been formalized by the President's asking Congress for a declaration of war. Taft has suggested that Congress should have been consulted in advance about Korea.

THE GRUB LINE With Franklin Reynolds

Martin County has a new agricultural agent, according to Joe M. Glover, district agent at Fort Stockton.

The new county agent at Stanton is Ray Hastings, former assistant county agent at El Paso, who has been promoted to fill the vacancy brought about when Ralph Jones, former agent at Stanton entered the military service recently.

Hastings is a graduate of Texas A&M College and in El Paso County has had 175 boys enrolled in C-H Club work. There he has stressed sewing, reading and feeding programs.

Purebred Hereford breeders from eight states have presented a foundation herd of 14 females to Father Flanagan's Boys Home, and the presentation was a complete surprise.

The event climaxed an outstanding year for Boys Town and their Herefords. They won the grand championship at the Great Jones County Fair at Monticello, Iowa; the grand championship at the Bourbon Beef Show at Louisville; had the grand champion carload of fat steers at the National Western Livestock Show at Denver and won several other top honors in the show ring.

Among those breeders contributing to the presentation were George Nance of Canyon; Dudley Brothers of Comanche; Jim Herling of McGregor and Frank Jones of Dallas and Rhome.

The National Hereford Congress to be held at Fort Worth May 12th and 13th will be concluded with a ranch tour on May 14th. Several hundred cattlemen from over the United States, Mexico and Canada are expected to attend.

Among the Hereford ranches included in the tour are the Northwoods Stock Farm; the Frank Jones Ranch; the George Keight Ranch; the W. H. Hammon Ranch; W. B. Hamilton's T-Boys Ranch; the Tom Meders Ranch; the J. S. Reddell ranch and the Henry Arledge Ranch.

Dinner will be served in the 4-H Livestock Building at Wichita Falls when the tour reaches that point about noon.

All women are invited to both the Congress and to join the tour.

Texas A&I College at Kingsville has established a breeding herd of Santa Gertrudis cattle, the only beef breed ever developed in the Western Hemisphere.

The foundation herd of 15 Santa Gertrudis heifers has come as a gift from Richard King of Corpus Christi, and the King ranch has agreed to furnish the college farm with a suitable herd sire. As the herd increases surplus stock will be sold at auction and the proceeds used for improvement of the farm. The Santa Gertrudis, developed by the King Ranch, is a Brahman-Shorthorn cross, and they have done particularly well under South Texas range conditions.

The present demand for these cattle far exceeds the supply, according to Dr. J. W. Howe, director of the Division of Agriculture at A&I College.

The American Poultry Association will hold its 79th annual convention in Fort Worth July 14-17. Alex Warren of Oklahoma A&M College, who has been in Texas making arrangements, says that about 300 of the Association's 3,600 members from all parts of this country and Canada will attend as well as some from foreign countries.

TEXAS BRANDS WILS

By JOHN M. HENDRIX
WILS was the brand started by the father of M. B. Pulliam who was in the cattle business in the San Angelo section for many years. The brand was first run in Uvalde County and later moved to Irion County.

The brand ran on 10,000 to 15,000 cattle with ranch headquarters on Rocky Creek. When M. B. Pulliam inherited the brand, he changed it to the Three S when he moved to the Pecos country.

Wednesday Deadline For Social Security

Wednesday is the deadline for social security payments for household workers for the first quarter of 1953.

The Federal law bringing household workers under the old-age and survivors insurance system went into effect on Jan. 1, 1951. However, lawyers say that many persons who employ help in their homes are still in the dark about requirements of the law.

Household workers covered by the law include maids, laundresses, housekeepers, cooks, nurses, gardeners, handymen, valets, footmen, grooms, chauffeurs of privately owned cars, practical nurses and others.

Whether or not a household worker is included in the law depends on how many days the person works and how much money he or she is paid. If the person works 28 days and earns $50 during any one of the three-month periods into which the calendar year has been divided, a tax report must be filed and payment must be made.

Only cash wages are considered, which includes bus fare if paid in cash, but does not include bus tokens, clothing, room and board, or other non-cash items furnished the employee.

However, a domestic worker does not have to put in a full day to count on the 28 day rule. Any portion of a day worked counts as a full day.

The rule is different for domestic workers on farms operated for profit. In such cases the domestic is considered a farm worker and is covered only if he or she meets the test for farm labor.

The tax amounts to three per cent of cash wages paid. The employer must deduct one and one-half per cent from the worker's cash wages if the worker meets the 28-day $50 test. Then, the employer must include another one and one-half per cent as his own share.

Following the close of each specified three-month period, the tax, along with a report of the wages paid, should be filed with the Collector of Internal Revenue.

The three-month periods, or quarters, end on March 31, June 30, Sept. 30 and Dec. 31. Reports and payments are due by the last day of the month following the close of each quarter.

Pravda Lets Loose At Int'l Red Cross

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda published a vitriolic, half-page blast today at the International Red Cross, which the United States had proposed should investigate Communist charges that U.S. troops are waging germ warfare in Korea.

The Communist party newspaper termed the Red Cross an "obedient weapon in the hands of the State Department" and said the U.S. proposal for the inquiry was an "attempt to cover up the crimes of the American interventionists in Korea and China."

Soviet U.N. Delegate Jacob A. Malik told the U.N. Disarmament Commission last month that the Red Cross is not an international organization and is not competent to make an impartial inquiry into the Communist charges against the United States.

It's Illegal To Pay Bonus To Landlord To Get Housing

Tenants in the Howard County Defense rental area have been reminded that it is illegal to pay a bonus in cash or other valuable consideration, or to render some service to a landlord to obtain rental housing.

The unauthorized collection of a security deposit constitutes an over-charge, it was explained.

Under the 1951 Housing and Rent Act, no person shall demand, receive or retain a security deposit for or in connection with the use or occupancy of housing accommodations, except those deposits which were in existence on Dec. 1, 1951, or where the landlord had an established practice with respect to security deposits on that date.

The term security deposit, in addition to its customary meaning, includes any pre-payment of rent except payment in advance of the last periodic installment of rent for a period no longer than one month. It does not include rent voluntarily prepaid subsequent to possession by a tenant under a written lease for his own convenience.

It is illegal for the landlord to require a tenant to purchase furniture or any other property to obtain a place to live, unless the prior written consent of the area rent director has been obtained. However, landlords may file an application for authority to request a security deposit of not more than $10 on movable objects.

It was also pointed out that regulations state that no payment of rent need be made by a tenant unless the landlord tenders a rent receipt showing the full amount of rent paid, and the tenant may not be evicted for refusal to pay rent without receiving a receipt.

Any landlord or tenant who is in doubt about any of the provisions of the housing and rent act should contact the local area rent office at 104 1/2 East Third Street.

Dallas Negro Due Execution Stay

DALLAS, April 29 (AP)—Judge Sarah T. Hughes' use of a seldom used statute probably will get a Dallas Negro a stay of execution.

Booker T. Reed is scheduled to die May 1 for the June 9 slaying of cabinet maker Boyd Adrian Lovelace, 42, of Irving. But yesterday Judge Hughes set a habeas corpus hearing for Reed on May 5.

Governor Allan Shivers was expected today to get a request from the State Board of Pardons and Paroles asking a new execution date for Reed on May 22.

Judge Hughes' action is the latest move in a controversy between lawyers since Reed was convicted of murder last July 12. Earlier this year, a committee of the Dallas Bar Association contested the trial on the grounds Reed was not given fair legal representation. He had been defended by a court-appointed attorney after his regular lawyer died of a heart attack.

But a specially-appointed committee of the Dallas Bar found last March that Reed received a fair trial.

Judge Upsets Ruling Favoring One Of 10 Unfriendly Witnesses
LOS ANGELES (AP)—A federal judge has upset the ruling of a jury which awarded $84,300 damages to writer-producer Adrian Scott, one of Hollywood's "Unfriendly Ten." He granted RKO studios motion for a new trial.

At the same time Judge Ben Harrison termed the refusal of the 10 to state whether they were Communists a "definite conspiracy to defame Congress."

Baez Pitches, Bats Broncs To 4-2 Win

Reggi Cerales Opens Uprising

Bertie Baez, exercising some of the mound mastery that made him a 17-game winner in 1947, pitched the Big Spring Broncs out of their losing streak here Monday night when he beat Vernon, 4-2.

To achieve victory, though, the slim right-hander had to stroke a two-run single in the eighth inning. Until that time, the Dusters had fought the locals on even terms and were threatening to win their third straight game from the Big Springers.

Big Spring got 11 hits in all but the Broncs left 11 runners stranded. Lloyd Wallace, Vernon leftie, did a great job of staying the Big Spring power until Reggie Cerales left off with a long double in the eighth.

Ossie Alvarez and Al Valdes followed with singles that loaded the sacks and set the stage for Baez's smash, a well massaged single that landed comfortably in front of the left fielder. Jesus Marino had gone in to run for Cerales and counted the first run.

Big Spring went ahead in the first when Ricky Gonzales counted on an erratic throw by Catcher Joe Neidson to second base. Neidson was trying to catch Witty Quintana off second. Gonzales had singled with one out in that frame.

Vernon tied it up in the second on a single by Elgin Kell, a double by Ernie Klein and a long fly by Pompeyo Carreras to center only to have Big Spring move out in front in the second on successive hits by Baez, Al Costa and Gonzales, all after two were out.

The game rocked along until the sixth when Vernon deslacked the count on a walk to Neal, a stolen base and a lousy triple by Kell.

Neidson doubled to open the seventh but was left stranded on some nifty pitching by Baez.

ROUNDING THE SACKS—Threatening weather and a snap in the air kept the Ladies Night crowd down to about 600. The game was played in one hour 49 minutes. Manager Chet Fowler of the Dusters kept Eddie Baski warming up in the late inning but never saw fit to use him. After Big Spring had scored its two runs in the eighth, the Broncs proceeded to load the sacks again but Wallace got out of the jam nicely by forcing one runner at the plate, getting Quintana on a pop-up and striking out Pat Stacey.

THURSDAY LAST DAY
To Enter A Team
In City League

Deadline for entry into the City Softball League has been set for Thursday.

Representatives of seven teams met at the YMCA Monday evening and agreed on the deadline for filing. The latest hour is 5 p.m.

Rules and schedule will be drawn up over the weekend and plans are to start league play on May 5. Any organizations or firms planning to have teams entered should contact the YMCA immediately.

COOK DECISIONS
McDonald Motor

Cook Appliance defeated McDonald Motor, 4-3, in a hotly contested softball exhibition at City Park Monday night.

Speck Franklin and Cotton Mize divided time on the mound for Cook. Billy Tubb crashed out a seventh inning two-run homer for McDonald to push the Motormen to within one run of the Cook aggregation.

Johnny Burns wielded the big bat for Cook, driving in three tallies with a double and a single. James Bradley was the losing pitcher.

LIONS CONCENTRATE On Aerial Game

VERNON—Emphasis has been put on passing in spring football workouts of the Vernon Lions.

Gordon Harvey, Bob Namplin and Dale Dillingham have been doing most of the passing for the Lions, who are running from a Single Wing formation.

The training period will end Tuesday, May 6, with a Lions-Exes game.

WEST AND TROSS

ODESSA—Bobby West, an outfielder who won 'rookie of the year' honors in the Longhorn League while with Roswell last year, has been sent to Odessa by Corpus Christi of the Gulf Coast League.

West hit .359 for the Rockets in 1951. He's a native of Denver, Colo.

Dick Tross, veteran hurler, has joined the Oilers on a "look-see" basis. He opened the season with Roswell.

JOHNNY JONES... In Local Appearance

HERE TONIGHT Famed Diamond Comic In Show

Popular Johnny Jones, one of the best-traveled baseball clowns in the country, pauses in Big Spring tonight to stage his act at Steer Park.

Jones, who has made two previous appearances here, will begin his act about 7:30 p.m. and continue through the first two innings of play, or so. Vernon's Dusters wind up their series against the Broncs.

This marks the seventh annual nation-wide tour for Jones. He conceived his idea for becoming a baseball funny-man while touring with the House of David and since that time has appeared before thousands of people.

As props, Jones uses out-sized gloves, collapsible bats and wears a top hat and tails, at times. He served 57 months with the Armed Forces and perfected much of his act while in military uniform.

Last year, his tour included stops in 85 cities in 25 states and Canada. Jones was on his way up the baseball ladder as a player when injuries cut him down.

Jones has a simple philosophy. "Making people laugh is a perfect way to make a living. I'd rather see people laugh than eat—it's not nearly so expensive and is very thinning."

His famed exploding bat, his umpire baiting technique and his coaching from the first base line are all incorporated into the show.

Jones, a native of Oklahoma, lives in Bakersfield, Calif., now. He works every winter to perfect his act.

Jayhawks Meet Badgers Twice

The Howard County Junior College baseball team at long last gets its 1952 season underway this afternoon, meeting Amarillo in a double bill at Amarillo. Both games are down for seven innings.

Howard Jones will probably hurt for HCJC in the opener. Either Clarence Jones or Donnie Barnes will probably pitch the afterpiece for the locals.

The Hawks play Clarendon in a double header here Thursday.

Indians Smack Roughies, 5-3

Associated Press Sports Writer
Oklahoma City, the Texas League's cellar club, rose up and smacked Beaumont out of its tie for the lead Monday night with Bob Raney sparking the Indians' win on a two-hit pitching job.

Elsewhere in the loop, three-hit and five-hit hurling jobs were registered. But even those hurlers had it rough as batters made the loop forget its "pitchers' league" designation for a night.

The lowly Indians backed Raney with nine hits to club Beaumont 5-3, the Roughies netting two runs on a walk, a triple and an error, then their other run off the stingy Raney on Joe Sabatella's double.

San Antonio's two hurlers, Rye Duren and Bill Black, gave up only five hits but Fort Worth had little trouble winning from the Lions 6-3 to regain undisputed possession of first place.

NEW ERA AT HAND

Lou Moore Soups Up Cars For Indianapolis Classic

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Lou Moore, who built three of the last five winners of the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race, has decided to go along with a trend for more speed.

He has beefed up and souped up two front-drive Blue Crown Specials, Mauri Rose of Los Angeles, now retired from racing, won the 1947 and 1948 Memorial Day events in one of them. Bill Holland won the 1949 race in the other.

Holland has been under suspension from the American Automobile Association for the last two seasons for competing in non-AAA races.

So Moore is putting two first-time competitors at the speedway, Johnnie Tolan of Denver and Leroy Warriner of Indianapolis, aboard the hopped-up four-cylinder cars. Both are veterans of the dirt and asphalt tracks.

He also is shifting from gasoline to alcohol as fuel for more speed, although it meant installing bigger tanks to compensate for alcohol's lower mileage.

Lubbock Plays Bovines Here

Lubbock's Westerners, champions of the Southern Half of District 1 in baseball, tangled with the Big Spring Steers here this afternoon. Game time is 3:45 p.m.

The Steers will be playing their final home game of 1952. They have yet to win a game this year but have been showing decided improvement in recent games and could give the visitors quite a tussle.

After tripping Odessa to win the Southern title last Friday, the Westerners dropped a twin bill to Amarillo. Amarillo is the titlist in the Northern Half of the district and will meet the Westerners for the right to play in the state meet.

Charley Rose, who did an excellent job of pitching against Odessa, will probably hurl for the locals. Charley Wright, who tossed a no-hitter against Odessa, may go moundward for Lubbock.

Critical Period At Hand For Major League Frosh

By RALPH RODEN, Associated Press Staff

The critical period is at hand today for major league rookies as Eastern and Western teams clash for the first time in the infant 1952 season.

Within the next fortnight the strategists must decide on the players they will retain for the long haul.

The ax will fall from now until May 15, JIM RIVERA the final day for trimming the rosters to the required 25 players.

The battle for survival among the greenhorns and the early season upstarts—the St. Louis Browns, Boston Red Sox, Cincinnati Reds and Chicago Cubs—will command the fans' attention during the next 10 days.

Whether the four teams are "morning glories" or pennant contenders should be determined during this first extended road trip of the campaign.

American League teams invade the East, hoping that the rain which has kept the clubs on the Atlantic Seaboard in drydock for virtually a week, will subside.

Meanwhile, the National League's Eastern teams gladly left their water-logged parks for the West.

Manager Roger Hornsby's St. Louis Browns head the Eastern invasion. Their first port of call is the Yankee Stadium. The Browns, boasting a 7-3 record, have what many believe will be the rookie of the year in Jim Rivera, 29-year-old outfielder up from Seattle.

Lefty Bob Cain (2-0) has been selected to pitch against the Yanks. Vic Raschi (2-0) today, Cain, a Yankee tamer of note, has allowed only one run in 18 innings.

Boston's frisky Red Sox entertain the resurgent Detroit Tigers while Cleveland's highly regarded Indians invade Philadelphia and the Chicago White Sox, last year's spring sensations, take on the Senators in Washington.

The Yanks will say goodbye today to Gerry Coleman, their popular second baseman and the league's top hitter, and the Red Sox will bid adieu to Ted Williams, their slugging left fielder tomorrow. Both Coleman and Williams depart to return to the Marine air arm on May 2.

In the National League, Brooklyn's pace-setting Dodgers clash with the Cards in a night game at St. Louis while New York is at Cincinnati, Philadelphia at Chicago and Boston at Pittsburgh.

David, Goliath Meet In Derby Warm-Up Today

By ORLO ROBERTSON LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The giant and the midget of the 7th Kentucky Derby, both financially and physically, meet for the first time in the mile of the $10,000 added Derby Trial at Churchill Downs.

And it isn't likely to be another David and Goliath story although more fantastic things have happened in a sport once reserved only for kings.

Hill Gail, pride of Mrs. Warren Wright's fabulous Calumet Farm in the Blue Grass of Kentucky, is the giant. He is not only the largest Derby hopeful at well over 16 hands, but is the 6 to 5 favorite to measure 11 other 3-year-olds in the Trial and establish himself as the public's choice in Saturday's $100,000 mile and one-quarter run around the Downs' flowered-bordered racing strip.

One of the 11 is Gift Silver, a mile of a horse owned by Odie Newell, an Ottumwa, Ia., railroad engineer.

Unlike Hill Gail, this little product of an Iowa equine romance never has heard the roar of a crowd such as will greet today's winner.

In fact Gift Silver never has faced unless you call it a race the time his mother, Nylon Lady, finished second on an Iowa hush league track while carrying the son of Drift Silver. It was only a few weeks ago that the smallest Derby candidate knew what a starting barrier looked like.

The contrast does not end there. Hill Gail's dam, Jane Gail, was brought to the court of Bull Lee, one of racing's outstanding stallions. Gift Silver's mother while still only 2 years old carried on a clandestine affair with the little known Drift Silver. It was some time later before Newell found his mare was in foal.

West Turns Back Morrison, 8-7

West Ward's Sixth Graders nosed out Kate Morrison, 8-7, in a Waril School Softball League game played on the West Ward diamond Monday.

The defeat was the first of the season for Kate Morrison, which had won six straight games.

Bowen buried for the West Ward team while White was the receiver.

Airport upended Central Ward, 16-9, in a Sixth Grade game played last weekend. Airport banked five runs in the sixth to widen the gap.

Billy Missing, Bobby Fires 70

Bobby Maxwell of Big Spring fired a medal score of 70 but his North Texas State College team took a 3 to 2 1/2 drubbing at the hands of Hardin-Simmons in Abilene Monday afternoon.

Maxwell defeated George Smith of HSU, one-up.

Bobby's twin brother, Billy, did not appear in the match. He reportedly is on his way to Athens, Ga., where he will compete in the Southern Intercollegiate Golf Tournament, an event he won in 1951.

'Ma-Taishi' And 'KuTaisho' Meet The People Of Japan

By JOHN RANDOLPH
TOKYO (U-P) Japanese newspaper readers met a sample of new characters on the front page this morning.

One is "KuTaisho" and the other

"Ma-Taishi." That's Japanese headlines for Gen. Mark W. Clark and Ambassador Robert D. Murphy. The Japanese spoken language has five vowels and about 50 combinations of vowels and consonants. All together they don't add up to half the sounds in English.

When Japanese pronounce English names, the results can be fearful.

Clark, in full, comes out "Ku-ra-ku." Murphy is "Ma-f." But even that isn't bad enough. Japanese newspapers are short of newsprint. Their headline writers, like headline writers all over the world, are always short of space.

So Clark comes out in three squiggly Japanese characters — pronounced "Ku" for Clark and "Taishi" for general. That makes him "Gen. Ku."

Murphy's name comes out "Ma-f." But in the headlines he is "Ma-Taishi" or "Ambassador Ma."

Other world personalities get the same treatment. Truman, spelled out, is "To-ru-man." The headline writers make him "To-Daitoryo," which means "To, the big territorial governor."

Roosevelt was "Ru-Daitoryo." Stalin used to be "Su-tarin." But, when he made himself a generalissimo the Japanese tagged him "Su-Genul," or "Field Marshal Su."

This puts Stalin in the same phonetic class as Gen. MacArthur (Ma-kassa) who was "Ma-Genul," and Gen. Eisenhower ("Ai-zen-ha-wa") known here as "Ai-Genul."

Gen. Ridgway's name is especially hard to pronounce in Japanese. It comes out "Ri-ji-u-el," and gets trimmed in the headlines to "Ri-Tajsho" or "Gen. Ri."

Secretary of State Dean Acheson is "Ah-che-son Kokumo Chokan." That means "Acheson State Department Chief." Headlines cut that to "Ah-Chokan," or "Chief Ah."

Pronunciation of Winston Churchill's name is fantastically difficult — "Chi-ya-chi-hi-ru." So he seldom gets his name in a Japanese newspaper. He's usually given the dignified title of "Ei-shu-sho."

That's "English-country prime minister."

Harry Enjoys Opera's Return To Washington

By ED CREAUGH
WASHINGTON (U-P) — Mrs. Harry S. Truman took her husband to the opera last night. He seemed to like it fine.

The Trumans—the President's wife is the boxholder of the family—joined a first-night audience of 3,400 at the Metropolitan Opera Company's glittering performance of "Aida," marking the return of the "Met" to Washington after a 91-year absence.

And the first family joined enthusiastically in the waves of applause that swept the Capitol Theater for magnificent sets, spectacular ensembles and glowing performances by Zinka Milanov, Mario del Monaco and others on a stage too small for the purpose.

Men folk, in a tradition kept alive by comic strips, are supposed to hate opera. Not Harry Truman. After all, he has a daughter in the singing business.

The President leaned well back in his box seat, rested an arm comfortably on the brass rail and gave every evidence of thoroughly enjoying Verdi's finest work.

It was a little hot in the jam-packed theater. Mrs. Truman, wearing a sleeveless gray gown, on one occasion took the haphazard chief from the breast pocket of her husband's dinner jacket and gave his shining face a few wife-like pats.

Taylor Selected For Sears-Roebuck Post

NEW YORK, April 29 (U-P)—Richard L. Taylor has been named vice president of Sears, Roebuck & Co. for its southwestern territory.

Taylor, at present manager of Sears retail stores in Dallas, succeeds Charles B. Roberts, who is retiring after 40 years with the company.

Cotton Growers Hear About Better Production Methods

Thirty cotton growers representing a total of 18,000 cultivated acres were dinner guests of the Howard County Farm Bureau at the Settles Hotel last night to hear an explanation of the more improved methods of cotton production and harvesting being worked out by Texas A&M College's Agriculture Extension Service.

County Agent Durward Lewter presided at the meeting at which the speakers were Fred Elliott, cotton specialist; Allen Gunter, entomologist; Bill Spicer of the U. S. Bureau of Entomology, and W. H. Jones of Lubbock, district agent for the Agriculture Extension Service.

The speakers used color slides to illustrate their remarks, and these included pictures of all mechanical equipment; weed and grass-control chemicals, and insects and insecticides. Color enlargements were shown of both the beneficial and harmful insects.

At the conclusion of the program Lewter asked all those present to discuss the 1952 cotton program with at least 20 other farmers in order to get the information to all cotton growers in the county.

Elliott told the gathering that cotton will be supported a 90 per cent of party and that the quota is approximately five per cent less than was planted last year.

In explaining that the insect control program has been drastically changed with the development of the new chemicals that have come on the market since World War II, Gunter told the growers there are plenty of insecticides and that these are now down at rock-bottom prices. They will not be any cheaper, he predicted and explained that they are now 25 to 30 per cent cheaper than last year. As to young cotton he advocated the use of a spray because he said it is easier to get the desired coverage on the plant with the liquid. There is no difference in the insect-destroying qualities of the spray or the dust, he said.

He stated it is true that flies have built up a resistance to DDT, and that it is probable they can and will build up a resistance to other chemicals. In such cases he advocated the use of a different chemical, or a mixture of chemicals and suggested that the livestock breeder with fly control problems discuss them with the county agent.

Spicer discussed principally the menace of grasshoppers and seemed to be optimistic that they will not become an important factor this year. With color slides he showed how their breeding places may be discovered and discussed control methods.
