LIKE 'SOUP PICKLES' Unidentified Odor Covers Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, May 3, (U)—In Philadelphia these days if it isn't one darn thing, it's an odor.

For three out of the last seven nights, a major portion of the city has been blanketed by fumes variously described as sour, disagreeable and a few things we can't print.

It's not just a run-of-the-nose odor that can be tracked down in a jiffy—like the aroma of a skunk. This is a sort of mysterious odor. No one knows exactly from whence it comes or what causes it.

Nor do any two sniffers describe it exactly the same way. One person may take a deep breath and comment: "Smells like sour pickles."

Another connoisseur offered this suggestion: "Somebody must be burning an old mattress."

John L. Hodges, chief of the city's air pollution control, was a little more general. "It smells sour," he said after sampling last night's odor. "It's something caused by fermentation."

Whatever the origin, Hodges said, the fumes are definitely not harmful to the public health — just unpleasant to put it mildly.

The condition was observed first April 25 — last Tuesday. Then the odor reappeared Monday night and again last night.

It is strictly a nighttime odor—it hasn't been noticed in the daytime at all. Hodges says this is because the damp air after dark holds fumes while the sun-warmed air serves to draw them off.

TO CLEAN UP CRIME New Police Board Starts KC Action

KANSAS CITY, May 3, (U)—A new police board, armed with orders to clean up crime, stepped into power in Kansas City today.

The action came only a few days after a federal grand jury reported a $34,500,000-a-year Midwest gambling ring was operating out of Kansas City. Gov. Forrest Smith appointed three police board members yesterday. The fourth member was named last week.

Before the governor made his latest appointments, he ousted two remaining members of the old board. They had refused to resign.

The police board has been under fire ever since the assassinations April 5 of Charles Binaggio, north-side political leader, and his ex-convict associate, Charles Garotta.

Binaggio and Garotta were among those named in the federal grand jury's report on gambling. Both had testified before the jury which has been investigating underworld activities for seven months.

Four men, described as gamblers, were picked up for questioning in the Binaggio-Garotta slayings at about the same time the governor was taking action on the police board.

Police also conducted three raids on alleged gambling enterprises but made no arrests.

The newly appointed police board members are Kearney Wornall, a banker; Albert F. Hillis, a former chamber of commerce president, and George Flake, a former police board member. The previously appointed board member is Elmo Hunter, a young lawyer.

Acquisition Of Rights Delays Drainage Project

Delay in the city-county-T&P drainage project east of town is caused by difficulties encountered in securing right-of-way for the ditch, City Attorney Walton Morrison said this morning.

Morrison is handling details involved in obtaining the right-of-way for the drainage ditch. He explained that part of the land to be crossed has recently been sold, making it necessary to run new surveys and prepare additional contracts.

The city is cooperating with the county government and the T&P railroad in an attempt to open the drainage ditch to the east of the city along the railroad.

County commissioners expressed readiness to go ahead with the project Monday. T&P officials have also indicated they are ready to do their part of the work as soon as right-of-way is secured.

Castelman & O'Neill No. 1-B Griffin, two locations south of the operator's No. 1-A which extended Reinecke pay a mile and a quarter west, was at 6,000 feet. This puts it in the southeast quarter of section 31-25, H&TC. Rutherford No. 1-B Griffin, a north offset to the extender and in the southwest corner of section 33-25, H&TC, was at 5,730 feet in lime. In the Good pool of southwest Borden, Condon No. 4-38 Good, southwest corner of the southeast quarter of section 38-33-4a, T&P, drilled to 2,396 feet. Seaboard & Pan American No. 14 Good, 1,999 feet from the north and 1,999 feet from the east lines of section 37-33-4a, T&P, was at 6,180 feet. Seaboard & Pan American No. 16 Good, two locations south of the No. 15 Good, was bottomed at 8,145 feet. It had a top of minus 5,498 (corrected) on the reef as compared with 5,627 on the No. 15. Location is 1,092 feet from the west and 660 from the south lines of section 36. In section 48 and on the south side of the field, Seaboard & Pan American No. 17 Good was at 4,510 feet.

Eastern Glasscock county reported Shell No. 2-TL in the Ellenburger at 9,746 feet but no top was picked. Previous reports that this test had hit the Ellenburger, were erroneous. The section, which had some gas and salt water, likely was the Fusselman.

Waco Negro Dies In Electric Seat

HUNTSVILLE, May 2. (AP) — Lee Everett Bunn, 27-year-old Waco Negro convicted of murder died in the electric chair at the state prison at 12:09 o'clock this morning.

In a recent statement, Bunn said he killed a Negro man with a piece of iron and a woman with a car jack at a New Year's Eve party in Waco Dec. 31, 1948 following an argument.

The Negro was convicted of murdering William Criner. He was not tried for the slaying of the woman, Vonnie Pearl Bell.

Bunn had a smile on his face as he was strapped into the state's electric chair. He was strapped into the seat at 12:02 o'clock and pronounced dead seven minutes later.

As his straps were being adjusted, Bunn looked at a reporter and said, "please tell my mother not to worry—everything's going to be all right."

RANKS LOWERED IN NUMBERS FOR THREE OFFICERS OF 'MIGHTY MO'

NORFOLK, Va., May 3. (AP) — Three key officers on the Battleship Missouri have been punished by reduction in numbers for the grounding of the ship in Chesapeake Bay Jan. 17, the Navy announced today.

This punishment lowers the officers in their respective grades on the Navy's promotion list and retards their advancement to the next higher rank.

Capt. William D. Brown, 47, of Frostproof, Fla., the Mighty Mo's former commanding officer, was reduced 250 numbers. Brown had shouldered sole responsibility for the grounding.

Cmdr. John R. Millett, 38, of Waterloo, Iowa, the ship's former operations officer, was reduced 100 numbers.

Lt. Comdr. Frank G. Morris, Jr., 34, of New York, former navigator, was reduced 350 numbers.

Sheriff M. F. Rickenbrod said there were only two bodies in the wreckage.

The other, a woman, who carried a card bearing the name "Nirma Helmer."

HE HAS BEES IN HIS BASEMENT

DICKINSON, N. D., May 3. (AP) — Earl D. Hubbard laughs out loud over the old "bats" in the "belfry" gag — he's got bees in his basement.

Going by the calendar, Hubbard recently had ordered 21 swarms of bees, 15,000 to the swarm. When they arrived, additional May flowers were covered by snowdrifts. Temperatures were near freezing.

Hubbard now is busily stoking the furnace to keep his insect charges warm. Instead of collecting honey, he's feeding it out at the rate of 21 pounds per day to keep the 315,000 bees alive.

Today's North Dakota forecast: Moderate to heavy snow.

Prison Board OKs Boosted Budget

HUNTSVILLE, May 2. (AP) — The Texas Prison Board has approved a $5,444,256 1951-52 budget for submission to the state legislature in January.

This is an increase of $608,000 over the current budget and all of the hike is earmarked for salary increases and new personnel.

Board Chairman W. C. Windsor of Tyler said yesterday salary increases for guards and picket men will be worked out on a sliding scale. The proposed increases would range up to $50 a month.

Guards now are paid a flat $1,800 per year. Picket men receive from $135 to $150 a month. Under the proposed budget, guards would start at a $1,800 a year minimum and scale up to a maximum $2,400.

May Day Celebrations Dramatize Conflict Between World's Forces

May Day celebrations throughout Europe served to emphasize the division between the East and the West, between the Right and the Left, and everywhere the conflicting ideologies are making faces at each other. In Moscow's Red Square, Josef Stalin mounted the steps to Lenin's tomb and smiled broadly for the assembled multitudes. The AP correspondents on the scene reported the boss Bolshevik mounted the steps "nimbly." This contrasts with recent (personal) stories to the effect that Stalin is in bad health, is in semi-retirement, is on his last legs. There is an old saying: "only the good die young."

Violent Death Flares During Weekend, Traffic Claims Most

Twenty-three Texans died violently over the weekend, and as usual most of them died in traffic—thirteen. Of these, three died in a head-on collision near Ranger, and four in Dallas and vicinity in a series of accidents. Three drownings were significant of the advancing season, when thousands of Texans go fishing and swimming. If you consider the number exposed to accidents in traffic, and the relatively small number exposed to drowning, you'd probably find that the percentage of fatalities among those who fish and swim is greater. There is no greater sport than fishing, no more healthful exercise than swimming. Certainly there are no more safer sports when ordinary commonsense is used. Yet every year a surprisingly large number of Texans are drowned in avoidable accidents. Most of the swimmers lose their lives in streams, lakes and ponds where no supervision is exercised. Swimming in regular pools where life guards are on duty is just about as safe as any sport can be made. Inexperienced swimmers who plunge into stock tanks, rivers and creeks where no help is available in case of accident make up the bulk of the victims.

U.S. Must Keep Formosa From Communist Hands, Dulles Says

JOHN FOSTER DULLES, REPUBLICAN adviser to the State Department, says the capture of Hainan Island by the Chinese Communists calls for American action to keep the strategic island of Formosa out of Red hands. Why? Mr. Dulles doesn't amplify that but leaves us to figure it out. One very obvious answer is that Formosa not only is Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's headquarters but is the seat of what is left of the Nationalist government—a castle with a ghost. It's about the last bit of Chinese soil Chiang has for refuge. But supporting Uncle Sam maintains the Nationalists on the island, what practical purpose will it serve? Does Chiang have a chance of retrieving his position and reconquering China?

WELL, A HORSE-RACING ADDICT perhaps would figure Chiang's chances as a long shot. However, the generalissimo maintains that he still can turn the trick if he gets support. Here are some of his reasons: While the Communists ostensibly have "conquered" the vast mainland, the Nationalists claim that actually there are many areas which still are in the hands of guerrillas who have no use for the Reds and are prepared to cast their lot with Chiang. For instance, take the great province of Szechwan, seat of the old Chinese capital of Chungking. In this province, through which runs the mighty Yangtze River, there are 140 counties and the Nationalists report that more than 70 of them are in the hands of guerrillas. One estimate places the old Nationalist troops still in the Yangtze Valley at 200,000. AND WHY HAVEN'T THE CHINESE Communists liquidated all these pockets of guerrillas? Probably for the same reason that the Japs were unable to mop them up in all the years of the China-Japanese

Death Of Two Douglas Trees Like Seeing Death Of Heroes

VALSETZ, ORE. (U) - IT IS A SAD and stirring sight to see a great tree die. It gives you a lonely feeling as if you were watching God or your father or something else you revered go down in solitary protest. On a high hill here in the coastal mountain range I watched two sky reaching Douglas firs sawed down within a half hour, and it was like seeing the death of old heroes. EACH HAD STOOD FOR A CENTURY or so before the white man came to blight these mountains with his need for wood, his desire for shelter. These tremendous fir trees are strangely like American people. They are great advocates of free enterprise; they reach for the life giving security of the sun.

State Department Is Alarmed About Public Apathy Concerning Cold War

THE STATE DEPARTMENT is reported alarmed over public apathy concerning the cold war. The difficulties are due to: 1. The use of words. Nobody can sell any people war, cold or hot. American policy unfortunately coined the phrase "cold war," leaving the "peace" campaign to the Russians. The United Nations has furnished a platform from which to champion a genuine system of collective security, with controlled limitation of armaments, but, except for the Baruch Plan, the opportunity has not been used. Whether or not Russia would agree to practical strengthening of the UN, it is a bad tactics not to press for it. 2. The people of the United States cannot clearly see against whom the cold war is directed. UNDER ROOSEVELT THERE was no integration of post-war policy. It was made, in various areas, by whomsoever caught the President's ear. Throughout the war, and during the early post-war period, it involved intimate collaboration with Russia and Communists everywhere. Under President Truman this policy was reversed in Europe; but never, to this moment, in the Far East, except in Japan.

Census Taker 'Jolted' As He Polls Interne

HARTFORD, Conn., May 3 (U) - The census taker had gotten the routine answers to all his preliminary questions. "How many hours did you work last week?" "Last week?" asked the other with a slight pause for reckoning. "12 hours." The census taker did a double take and asked what the job was. Hospital intern. Pay, none. "Hard job, isn't it?" asked the young intern conversationally, as the census taker closed his portfolio with an audible sigh and prepared to leave. "You look tired. What do you usually do?" "Me?" said the census taker with a faint grin. "I'm a medical student."

Rich Recluse Dies In Boston

BOSTON, May 3 (U) - A former fruit peddler who became a multimillionaire through shrewd stock and real estate investments was found dead yesterday in his Beacon Hill hideaway. Police said John Deferrari, 56, apparently had been dead several days. The body was found by the manager of the Beacon Chambers—a small hotel—where he had occupied a room for 25 years. Death was due to natural causes. Deferrari, who gave a million dollars in trust to the Boston public library a few years ago, refused to allow anyone in the room. He made his own bed and hid the place himself. He had no automobile, radio or telephone. He walked miles every week end to collect rent for valuable business and investment property in the Back Bay and north and west end sections of the city. Deferrari, the son of an Italian immigrant, never married. The eldest of eight children, he leaves only one sister.

Corsican Man Found Dead In Creek Area

CORSICANA, May 3 (U) - Webb Lee, 56, was found dead yesterday in Chambers Creek Bottoms after a search of several hours. Judge W. H. Johnson returned a verdict of death from natural causes after an inquest. Lee had gone fox hunting with a son, Gordon Lee, of Dallas. When he failed to return to his car, the son notified police.

3. In Germany our policy, largely influenced by Henry Morgenthau, Jr., has never been drastically revised. We continue to fight a cold war against the German nation, without whom no European solution is possible. 4. Our foreign and domestic policies have little integration. Western Europe, deprived of its colonial possessions and its East European markets, is a deficit economy, which could only be made solvent by economic integration of the whole West. The alternative is some form of permanent subsidy. But against all western integration every pressure group in America is mobilized. 5. Any popular foreign policy must show victories. Our Asiatic policy has shown only defeats. has resulted from injections of billions of free dollars, which productions but created the overwhelming problem of markets. WESTERN EUROPEAN POLITICAL and economic integration has made little progress, not comparable with the integration accomplished (by force) by the Communists. National jealousies have abated in oratory but not in deeds. Military integration includes the United States. But it falls to solve the problem of Russian-supported civil war, or to design a land force—without the German—capable of halting Russian-led armies. The atomic bomb, on which our air strategy was based, is cancelled out by Russian capacity to exercise atomic reprisals against Europe. 6. The American people have learned how little they have to say, or are permitted to know, about foreign policy. They only learned, years after the events, of the secret agreements made at various wartime conferences, and possibly not until now have all the secret clauses of Yalta been revealed. AND THE PEOPLE ARE BESET by unofficial agencies conducting their own propaganda: The atomic scientists; Communist sympathizers; anti-Communists; pacifists; Zionists; the "Committee to Prevent World War III," who seem to propose a permanent wilderness in Germany; and many others too numerous to mention. These, I think, are the reasons for confusion, distrust, and disillusionment. The American people can only support a policy when they can relate it to principle. This they are unable to do.

Director Names Five Top Movie Lovers

HOLLYWOOD. Director Clarence Brown, celebrating his 35th anniversary in films, today picked the five greatest lovers in movie history. It was 35 years ago this week that Brown took his first job in Hollywood. Rising to fame as the director of Greta Garbo's pictures, he is one of the industry's most distinguished creators. Since romance has been one of his specialties, I asked him to name the five greatest lovers of the screen. After thinking it over, he came up with these selections: John Barrymore—"He has a great theatrical flair for love. His name would add class to any list." Charles Boyer—"The suave lover. His love scenes with Garbo in 'Conquest' were terrific." Clark Gable—"The man any girl would love to get beaten up by. The tough lover." John Gilbert—"The dashing lover." Rudolph Valentino—"The Latin lover." Brown, who has directed all five, wouldn't say which was the greatest. "But I can tell you which one will live the longest in history: that's Valentino," he said. "He has been dead 25 years, and his name is still magic. Look

Despite Singing Commercials, Radio Does Have Good Shows

Radio is not all singing commercials. Occasionally it throws off the yoke of such low marks as the mausoleum salesman who once asked: "Is seepage spoiling the rest of your loved ones?" It frequently rises above those wretched sounds proclaiming B. O. R. It can even lay aside those seelot appeal from laxative companies to keep regular that very special way. There are numerous level-headed and fair-minded commentators who do good jobs of analyzing current developments of dishing up worthy background material. There are those who plan and execute creditable musical programs which serve almost every range of good taste. And there are even a few really good comics. But my personal nomination of a particularly good job being done at the moment is a weekly show for the children. It's called "No School Today." Each Saturday morning this record-party—and that's how it is plainly billed—keeps the kiddies entertained thoroughly, wholesomely and purposefully. If you haven't listened, you should. Perhaps your first impression, upon hearing the chief character, will be to wonder where in the world the ABC system drug out a creature like Sparky. Sparky has a voice unlike most any voice. It is vibrating, high-pitched affair, chattered in staccato tones, and punctuated with occasional periods of effectual silence or a laugh that makes you want to climb the wall. But the kiddies love Sparky. He's got a lot of spunk without being a smart-alec. He always catches the point, although sometimes slowly, when a story is told. Down underneath all his chatter, he's got a heart of gold and is a thoughtful youngster. When Big John, who sort of masterminds the show, draws a subtle conclusion or moral, Sparky accepts it sincerely and without gushing or grumbling. Sparky remembers little things like birthdays. Sometimes he plays tricks like singing all parts of a quartet. He's a funny little vocalist, too. Backbone of the program, of course, is the assortment of children's records. There's Bono the Clown, Elmer Fudd, Bugs Bunny, Hypocritose the Turtle, and scores of others who have become almost institutions within themselves. Whatever these characters do—and they get into some of the queerest situations and into practically all areas of the globe as well as under the water and in the air and even on other planets—they manage to either inform or create some moral or I think "No School Today" is a credit social lesson in the minds of young listeners while in the process of entertaining, to radio as a public service. — JOE PICKLE.

GOP Appointment To UNESCO Aids Bipartisanship Cause

WASHINGTON—President Truman is placing Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, Maine Republican, on the U. S. delegation to the United Nations Economic, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO). The appointment represents another gesture in the direction of a bipartisan foreign policy. In making it, the State Department and the President have overruled the politicians who said the administration should not participate in the build-up of the woman senator now being mentioned for the 1952 G.O.P. slate. But bipartisanship needs all possible Republican transfusions. In addition, women have established a vested interest in UNESCO and the Democrats could not furnish a candidate with Senator Smith's special qualification of that all-important vote in the Senate. Democratic women are being soothed with promises that ere the fall election, some of their leaders will be holding important jobs, one in the fiscal structure of the government, that never have been held before by women. Like former Senators Dulles and Cooper, who have been brought into the State Department to bolster bipartisanship, Senator Smith accepts Sen. Arthur Vandenberg as her party's lead in foreign affairs. In general, she sides with the G.O.P. progressives from New England and here was one of the dozen or so votes cast last year against Senator Wherry of Nebraska as G.O.P. floor leader. But Senator Vandenberg's ill health continues to keep him from the floor and there is no clear G.O.P. leadership on the issue. The far right has taken its stand: Senators Jenner and Malone have warned that the cooperators do not speak for them. The others are scattered all over the long distance that separates the Jenner-Malone stance from the Vandenberg steers at the Wardman Park hotel here. When Senator Vandenberg wrote the letter which stimulated the new bipartisan efforts, he considered that not only the foreign policy for which he had spent himself but also his party's future were endangered. No mean politician himself, the senator felt that Republicans, no matter what their views, could not afford to play politics with Senator McCarthy's charges. He could, he said, just see President Truman standing on the back platform of his special train at the whistle stops and telling how he was fighting for peace but being stabbed in the back in Congress. Yet Mr. Dulles, in a radio interview, has given credit to Senator McCarthy for an assist to bipartisanship. McCarthy woke up the administration to its danger, Dulles said, and got it back on the track. This kindly view of McCarthy's usefulness is not going to endear the New Yorker to the State Department. The critical events abroad which are expected in May perhaps will help to clear the atmosphere. But right now the capital cannot see its way out of the confusion short of more exhausting, politician-ridden argument.

Communist Party Fortunes Here At Low Ebb And Getting Worse

WASHINGTON, (U) - THE AMERICAN Communist Party has never been able to stak its roots in American life. It has no broad base, no mass following. The party proclaims itself the champion of the workers. But it has never been able to get its ideas across to the mass of the workers. The party big-wigs speak and write a special jargon, Marxian jargon, over the workers' heads. This may be deliberate. If so, it's an expression of contempt for the workers. If not, then it's due to inability to speak or write any better. Perhaps the party doesn't want a mass following but wants only a tightly-knit, well-disciplined, small membership. That in itself would be contempt for the workers. AT ANY RATE, AFTER 30 YEARS ACTIVITY in this country, the party's fortunes now are at a low ebb. Getting worse. How much of that is due to the kind of leadership the party has had through its history here? Future scholars will be better able to answer that when they come to write the history of our times. But if Eugene Dennis is an example of the party's top leadership — he's right to be, since he's been one of the very top — it's small wonder the party has missed the boat a mile in getting its ideas across. Dennis came to Washington in March, 1947, as a voluntary witness before the House Un-American Activities Committee which then was getting very hot and bothered about communism. DENNIS WANTED TO STATE A CASE for the Communists. With him he brought a 19-page statement which he wanted to read. Just to be sure the press wouldn't miss a line of it, he brought a bundle of copies along. The story was going to get a lot of publicity. If Dennis had been clever, he might have turned the hearing into a sounding board for his party. But he snuffed his chance, made a mess of his appearance and wound up in jail. There were two things strange about this hearing. Dennis' real name was Francis Xavier Waldron. He had changed it to Dennis in 1932. And J. Parnell Feeney was not the real name of the committee chairman. His name had been J. Parnell Feeney. His name had been J. Parnell Feeney. His name had been J. Parnell Feeney.

STASSEN DECLARES

Truman Graduated Pendergast School

NEW YORK, May 3. (U.P.) — Republican Harold E. Stassen declared in a speech last night that President Truman is "the worst President" and "the cleverest politician" ever to occupy the White House.

of the West is a political creature "to try and get a puppet Congress," Stassen added.

Calling the President "a post-graduate of the most effective political school in America—the Pendergast school of Kansas City," Stassen told a Republican meeting:

"From that school he knows the methods of attacks on opposition of claims for all improvement, of dodging blame for things that go wrong, and marshalling votes through organization.

"The tragedy for America is that the same school which made Truman such a clever politician also made him such a bad President.

"This is true because it is a school whose graduates are lacking in a sense of idealism and who minimize the importance of honesty and integrity.

Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania, former governor of Minnesota and unsuccessful contender for the GOP presidential nomination in 1948, delivered his blast at Mr. Truman in a speech before the women's auxiliary of the New York County (Manhattan) Republican Committee.

Stassen urged Republicans to "meet the 1950 situation brought about by . . . his (Mr. Truman's) use and misuse of the great power of his office."

The Republicans can do this, Stassen said, by:

(1) "Fighting back vigorously and hitting hard in the exposure of the conditions of his administration."

(2) "Bringing forward definite, sound, constructive measures to meet the problems of our country at home and abroad."

(3) "Organizing and working and voting with a thoroughness and a drive such as we have never shown before."

Stassen said Republican gains in the 1950 elections will "signalize a rebuilding" which "will not stop short of complete national Republican victory."

The Truman trip to the West, Stassen declared, is an indication that the President "will take an all-out personal part in the congressional elections."

The reason for the trip, the speaker added, is that Mr. Truman is "angry and petulant about Congress' refusal to obey his orders."

Delaware Woman Won't Be Tried For Witchcraft

WILMINGTON, Del., May 3. (U.P.) — Judge Thomas Herlihy, Jr., has ruled a young mother will not stand trial on charges of practicing witchcraft.

Instead, the jurist yesterday ordered Mrs. Helen Evans, 23, held in $300 bail for the grand jury on charges of fortune telling.

Judge Herlihy indicated last March 21 that he would have no part of a witchcraft trial.

He postponed Mrs. Evans' trial on that date and declared "it is unbelievable that a charge of practicing the 'art of witchcraft' could be brought in the enlightened state of Delaware."

He said the law, dating back to the 17th century, is "antiquated and should be repealed."

New Camera Takes Clear Pictures At High Speeds

PHILADELPHIA, May 3. (U.P.) — An Air Force officer says a new camera in a jet airplane flying at 500 miles per hour took a picture of a man playing cards on the ground so clear "you could read the ace of spades."

Col. George W. Goddard, director of photography and research development at the Air Force Center, Wright Field, Ohio, told the Philadelphia chapter of the Armed Forces Communication Assn. last night the new camera was capable of taking clear pictures from a low flying plane traveling 3,000 miles an hour—if such a speed were attainable.

EXTRA HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE MAY GIVE YOU A BETTER PERSONALITY

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE, AP Science Editor

DETROIT, May 3. (U.P.) — High blood pressure has some advantages, which were explained to the American Psychiatric Assn.

The extra pressure may give you a better personality. You may become easier to get along with. You may handle other people better, to the advantage of your business and of yourself.

The studies bringing out this side of blood pressure were reported by Drs. Nathaniel S. Apter and Ward C. Halstead of the University of Chicago School of Medicine and Robert F. Helmburger of Indiana University School of Medicine.

They examined people whose minds were affected slightly by high pressure. Why minds are involved is not entirely clear, but the condition has something to do with a change in the supply of blood to your grey matter.

So far as minds were concerned, there were both advantages and disadvantages. On the good side were little changes in personality. These did not necessarily apply to everyone, but were apparent among some of the driving, successful types.

These people became more tolerant. They were more willing to do something for people dependent on them. They made more effort to curb their own feelings of resentment and hostility.

Perfectionists were no longer so intensely interested in making themselves and everyone else perfect.

On the bad side, there was an increase in difficulty in sleeping. There was less energy. There were mild defects in judgment and memory.

The doctors did not claim that high blood pressure is desirable. But they pointed out the ability of human beings to adjust themselves to life's wear and tear to get some good of difficult situations.

KILLED BY SHOCK

Hard To Believe 'Hickory Is Dead

CAMBRIDGE, Md., May 3. (U.P.) — It was hard to believe "Hickory" Jones was dead.

So hard, that it took Cambridge more than six hours to concede the tall, rawboned power company lineman had been killed by a 2,300-volt jolt of electricity.

Hickory touched a live wire yesterday while at work along a highway project. His body stiffened, then slumped in his climbing belt.

Fellow workers lowered him from the 15-foot pole. They started artificial respiration.

A doctor pronounced him dead. But the crewman did not lose a beat in the rhythmical pumping.

The word spread through Cambridge. Fred Jones — who had picked up "Hickory" as a nickname because of his six-foot-six — was one of the most popular men in town.

Soon the road was clogged by cars. Hickory's buddies in the Veterans of Foreign Wars formed six-man artificial respiration teams to spell the linemen.

The pumping went on — one, two, three hours.

It started to rain. So a tent was put up over the spot.

Waiting in the silent, prayerful crowd of 500 outside the tent, was Mary Lee Jones, Hickory's wife.

RIBBON RAMBLINGS

By Mildred Young

Don't suppose our column yesterday had anything to do with it, but we did get in on a good club election last night. One of the women's local clubs had about the largest turnout it has had in many a day when officers were elected last night. There were a number of members there who had not attended a meeting in a long, long time. Seemed to be an interesting election as all elections should be. This matter of individual freedom and the right to choose our leaders and policies as we see fit starts in such places as local club meetings. One of the most important roles which we play in our community, our nation and our individual organizations is the act of voting. No matter who you would like to see take an office, that opinion is of no importance unless you place it on a ballot.

Last night, members of the Business and Professional Women's club heard a "blow by blow" account of the recent disturbance over the museum building.

Mamie Mayfield, club president, was commenting on the fact that as a committee chairman that any person in anyone's organization should take the interest in their project which More Sawtelle took in the museum. Talking about various people's interests, Mamie stated that she was personally more interested in the Indoor Sports club than in the museum because she had rather work with real, live people that with stuffed animals and antiques, adding that she thought every member should take an active part in the club project which fitted their interests the best.

Bengals Meet Mexico Nine Here Friday

Ynez Yanes and his Big Spring Tigers face a busy weekend.

The Bengals will don their baseball livery Friday to play a crack all-star team from Piedras Negras, Mexico. The engagement, scheduled to be played at Steer Park starting at 4:30 p.m., will highlight a Cinco De Mayo celebration here.

On Saturday, the Latin-Americans will travel to Ackery for an exhibition game. On Sunday, the Yanes troupe is booked to appear in Pecos for a game.

The Tigers broke a two-game losing streak by routing Grandfalls last week, 19-10.

Yanes announced Tuesday Isa Mendoza would probably pitch against Piedras Negras Friday.

Lamesa Romps On Pampans

By The Associated Press

Manager Grover Seitz and a Pampa player weren't around to see the awful finish of Lamesa's 11-2 victory over the Oilers last night. They got the ump's thumb in the seventh inning for protesting too long and too loud a decision.

This wasn't the only protest in this West Texas-New Mexico League game last night, and before it finally dragged to a finish had been going on three hours and 18 minutes.

For the books, the victory put Lamesa one and one-half games ahead of second place Berger, Clovis, and Lubbock.

The score books also recorded these results last night:

Amarillo 16, Albuquerque 7, snapping a four-game losing streak for Amarillo.

Lubbock 10, Abilene 6, thanks to a four-run eighth-inning rally.

Clovis 6, Berger 1, as Bill Roasin won his third game in four starts.

WILMINGTON, Del., May 3 (U.S.P.)—J. Simpson Dean, vice president and treasurer of Delaware Park race track, won the intercollegiate golf championship in 1921 while at Princeton, and still keeps his links game sharp. He is a member of the Wilmington Country club and of Pine Valley in New Jersey, and shoots in the low 70's.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

One of the better golf prospects to come along here in recent years is James Underwood, the 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Underwood.

An eighth grader in school, young James took time off last week to enter the Sweetwater invitational golf tournament. Considering the fact that it was his first big meet, Underwood did quite well. He wound up taking consolation honors in the fourth flight.

Weldon Bryant, who took Jimmy over to the meet and watched him perform, says the youth could be a world beater, once he gets the confidence that comes with experience. As it was, James was attracting a lot of attention among galleries with his booming tee shots, which usually bisected the fairway.

In Underwood's first match, he was pitted against L. B. Pribble, who at 69 years was the oldest entry in the meet. Pribble, who by the way, has made all 17 of Sweetwater's tournaments, beat Jimmy but doubts he'll ever be able to do it again. The little fellow is improving that fast.

Mike Mercado, the East Texas Teachers college half-miler who always gives Big Spring's Leon Leopard trouble in the middle distance races, became an American citizen only this year.

Mike has lived in Texas since he was six months old but he was never able to become a citizen because his parents hadn't. Up until now, Mercado has had to renew his passport.

RAMOS HAS BECOME A HARD-LUCK HURLER

Many local baseball fans keep inquiring about Julio Ramos' fortunes in Big State league competition.

The ex-Big Springer, now with Sherman-Denison, combined his talents with two other Twin hurlers, Bill Hitt and Ed Noriega, to limit Texarkana to six hits in his most recent start, yet lost a 5-2 decision. The S-D club could manage but three hits.

Joe Lenham, who has spent time with two Longhorn league clubs in the past, is now toying for Paris of the East Texas league. Lenham was with Del Rio, then a Longhorn member, back in 1947 and was with Ballinger part of last season.

Ernie Mayorquin, an ex-Bronc, has blossomed as one of Galveston's top pitchers. In his last start, the pug-nosed little fellow beat Jacksonville, the Gulf Coast league hurler, 5 and 4.

Eddie Meillo, with Midland's Indians in other years, is hitting clean-up for the McAllen club of the Valley league.

Eddie continues to get his base hits but is still making his share of errors.

FLIETAS HAS WORK CUT OUT FOR HIMSELF

The greatest first sacker the Big Spring Broncs ever had—Danny Concepcion—has come and gone. Whether Abel Flietas, his successor, can fill his shoes remains to be seen.

If Flietas hits, the Hoses have a good chance of remaining in the pennant fight. If he doesn't, then the Hoses may be hard pressed to remain in the first division.

Concepcion goes back to Abilene, where his talents were never truly exploited before. Maybe they will be this time.

Odessans Get Chance Tonite

By The Associated Press

Odessa's frustration at not being able to catch Big Spring in the Longhorn League may be relieved somewhat by events tonight.

The Oilers start a series with Ballinger's last place Cats, while Big Spring squares off with the Rowell Rockets.

There's only one game difference between pace-setting Big Spring and third place Rowell, but there's a lot of difference between second place Odessa and cellar-dwelling Ballinger.

Big Spring last night sighted Patalo Pascual's ninth-inning home run to nudge Vernon, 5-4, and keep its narrow lead.

Al Sokolowski pitched Odessa to a 13-2 victory over San Angelo; Rowell bunched ten of its 13 hits in the first three innings to build a lead that paid off with a 9-8 win over Midland, and Ballinger dropped a couple to Sweetwater, 15-2, 5-2.

Speaker Named Top Baseball Hand By Texans

DALLAS, May 3 (U.S.P.)—Tris Speaker, who went to the big leagues for 3400 in a forced play, is Texas' greatest baseball player of the half-century—1900 to 1950.

Texas sports writers had difficulty choosing between the famed "Gray Eagle" and Roger Hornsby, the games' greatest right-handed hitter, but Speaker finally won, 51 points to 42.

Jerome (Dixie) Dean, whose syntax has become a national sensation and whose homey phrases intrigued New York enough that he landed a fabulous television contract, wound up third. Dixie didn't make much of a race out of it, however. He got only nine points.

No other baseball player was mentioned in the voting.

Speaker, native of Hubbard City, a town near Hillsboro, broke into professional baseball at Cleburne in the Texas League in 1906. He was a pitcher—or at least that's what he thought. But he had trouble getting anybody out and lost seven games. Ben Shelton, manager of the Cleburne team, knew Speaker could hit, so instead of releasing him he shifted Tris to the outfield.

The next year Speaker was at Houston but still was the property of Deak Roberts, who had owned the Cleburne franchise. The Boston Red Sox wanted George Whiteeman, another Roberts chattel, but Deak wouldn't sell Whiteeman unless the Sox also took Speaker. They finally grudgingly paid $400 for him.

Tris got in seven games with the Red Sox, then was farmed out to Little Rock. It wasn't long though until he climbed back to the majors to play 21 years and become known as the greatest center fielder of all time.

Hornsby grew up around the ball park at Fort Worth. J. Walter Morris was manager at Fort Worth in 1914 when Paris of the Texas-Oklahoma League asked him if he could recommend a shortstop. Recognizing Hornsby's intense interest in the game and his budding ability, Morris sent Rogers to Paris. Hornsby didn't stay long but went to Hugo, Okla., then to Denton where a St. Louis Cardinals scout saw him. Hornsby became a mighty figure in big league baseball as player and manager. Today he's manager of Beaumont in the Texas League.

Dean got his start in pro ball with Houston and was one of the greatest pitchers in major league history with the Cardinals and Chicago Cubs. Burellis ruined his career, however, and he turned to Texas. Dean was the last big league pitcher to win 30 games in a season.

Daylon Hurls No-Hit Game

Hawk Daylon pitched a no-hit, no-run game as Roundout turned back Phillips 66, 3-0, in a city softball league game played here Tuesday night.

Daylon was given good offensive and defensive support by his mates as Daylon bested Wimpy Cunningham in a seven-inning struggle.

Daylon led the Roundout five hit attack with two blows.

Racers To Keep Busy This Year

NEW YORK, May 3 (U.S.P.)—Auto race drivers will have nine 100-mile races, and one test each at 150 and 200 miles in addition to the 500-mile Indianapolis Speedway Memorial Day race, to speed for during 1950.

First 100-mile championships test is slated for June 11 at the Wisconsin State Fair in Milwaukee. Other 100-milers will be staged at Langhorne, Pa.; Springfield, Ill.; Duquoin, Ill.; Syracuse, N. Y.; Detroit, Mich.; Coshen, N. Y. and Sacramento, Calif. A second 100-mile will be run in Milwaukee on Aug. 24. Milwaukee also will be the scene of the 150 mile race for stock cars, and the 200 mile championship.

In addition, 67 dates have been set aside for shorter races over half-mile tracks throughout the nation.

Frick Says Third Big League 'Must'

TORONTO, May 3 (U.S.P.)—Ford Frick, president of the National League, says a third major league is an "inevitable" as "tomorrow."

"It may be the National and American leagues will first jump to 12 teams before splitting into three leagues," the executive added. "But it has to come."

Frick addressed a baseball dinner last night in honor of the Toronto Maple Leafs of the International League.

Spud Pascual's 9th Inning Smash Fells Vernon, 5-4

Luis Gonzales Wins Decision

Carlos (Pato) Pascual, who has a flair for the dramatic, saved his best for the last in Tuesday night's baseball encounter here, delivering a home run with one out in the ninth to give Big Spring a 5-4 victory over the Vernon Dusters.

Pascual picked the first pitch delivered him by Bill (Cotton) Russell to write him in as a pitcher's duel between the newest addition to the Duster mound corps and Luis Gonzales, who seemed to get better as he went along.

More than a score of the fans hung around to tempt the little Big Spring shortstop with greenbacks stuck through the screen. Needless to relate, Spud had a great time harvesting the cabbage.

Big Spring had numerous chances to win the game before that but Russell, acquired only Monday by Vernon in a trade with Lubbock, was especially tight in the clutch. He left three runners stranded in the seventh frame and another in the eighth.

A hit by Arnold Davis and a misplay by Felix Gomez in center gave the Dusters a tally in the first frame.

Big Spring came right back to go ahead when Gomez and Julio Delatorre were plated on Pat Steer's long one-baser but the Dusters were up to the challenge.

They combined three hits with another misplay and a balk on Gonzales' part to count twice and go ahead in the second.

A home run powered by Delatorre tied the count for Big Spring in the fifth and the Steeds went ahead in the sixth when Manny Junco walked, went to second on a bobbie by Arthur Neal at second and home on a fielder's choice.

An error by Junco on a pop fly set up Vernon's final tally. LeRoy Veal, who gained the life on Junco's bobbie, eventually found his way home on a fielder's choice.

GLEANINGS—Gonzales threw three balls to seven different batters, yet walked, but one man during the engagement. The first two batters in the first inning, Veal and Peeler, worked the count to 3-2 on Luis, then rolled out to Jorge Lopez in succession. Bobby Barron, Duster short stop, was struck in the eye by a batted ball before the game and Dr. M. H. Bennett had to take a stitch in it.

Bobby, who gained the life on Junco's bobbie, eventually found his way home on a fielder's choice.

Flietas dropped the ball but recovered it in time to retire Peeler. Going for a sacrifice in the sixth, Luis Gonzales sacrificed so expertly he got credit for a base hit. Art Herring, Vernon catcher, singled in the seventh but was out at second on a nice throw by Gomez. Gomez crossed up the opposition when he scooted to second in the eighth after Delatorre had been retired by Lou Ehlinger in the eighth.

Yankees Taught Sox's Leftie Valuable Lesson

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Credit the New York Yankees with an assist should Maurice (don't call me Mickey) McDermott fulfill his promise of developing into a winning hurler with the Boston Red Sox.

A Red Sox official, who shall remain unidentified, would have you believe that the unmerciful trouncing the Bronx Bombers handed McDermott at the Yankee Stadium a week ago today was a blessing in disguise.

During the recent spring drills, when McDermott was causing Manager McCarthy to spend sleepless nights with his indifferent performance, a Sox official confided:

"That McDermott could become a great pitcher if only he gets serious about his job. The trouble with him is that he's too cocky. He believes all those flowery words written about him in the papers. He hasn't spent a full season in the big leagues and already he is convinced he's a second Lefty Grove."

"What he needs," the club spokesman continued, "is a good pummeling. If some club could pin his ears back—but good—he might get some sense into his head and realize he must produce fire and strut later."

McDermott got his pummeling all right. The Yankees took care of that last Wednesday. A dozen men faced McDermott in less than two innings and eight reached base. Four solid hits including a pair of home runs produced four runs in the first inning. A hit and three bases on balls furnished another run in the second and sent McDermott to a quick shower.

It seems that was the lesson McDermott needed. In his very next start, Maury pitched one of the best games of his big league career. That came yesterday when he hurled the Red Sox in a 6-1 triumph over the Cleveland Indians.

The gangling 21-year-old left hander from Schenectady, N. Y., allowed only four hits and missed a shutout when Joe Gordon slammed a ninth inning home run.

Maury had a no-hitter for six innings. An infield single by Larry Doby in the seventh ended his dream in that direction. Another scratch single by Jimmy Hegan in the eighth was the only other Cleveland hit until Gordon's first round tripper of the season. Doby followed with a line drive single to right. McDermott fanned eight and walked five.

Red Williams helped Boston ring up its fifth straight triumph with his fourth home run.

The Brooklyn Dodgers gained revenge for Monday night's loss to the Braves when they won a 10-3, Preacher Roe returned to form with a well-scattered 10-hit effort. Four hits, an error and a couple of walks helped the Dodgers to a big six-run inning against Howie Pollet.

Pittsburgh shelled Warren Spahn from the mound in the first inning with a four-run outburst and went on to defeat the Boston Braves, 6-1. The Braves' lefthander had won his first three starts.

The Cubs outlasted the Philadelphia Phillies in Chicago, 10-8. The Cubs tied off on Lefthander Ken Heintzelman for seven runs in the first two innings and staggered through despite four errors.

Once again, rain played havoc with the schedule, washing out four games. Postponed were the New York-Chicago, Detroit-Philadelphia and Washington-St. Louis games in the American League; and New York-Cincinnati in the National.

mino and Bob Hamric hit for the circuit for Del Rio.

Bobstown squeaked past Donna Westaco, 7-5, and Laredo made it two in a row over Brownsville, 5-1, in other games last night.

Longhorn Exes Star In Game

By The Associated Press

The West Texas-New Mexico League used to be the circuit where all the home runs were hit, but it looks like the Rio Grande League is the new haven for over-the-fence sluggers.

In one game last night there were seven home runs, four by Harrington and three by Del Rio. Del Rio's homers came in more impressive moments and the Cowboys won, 10-4, to move into a tie for first place as Corpus Christi bowed to McAllen, 7-5.

Ted Squillante hit two homers for Harrington, his eighth and ninth; Jack McCallin and Don Patechaw one each. Bill Gimler, Frank Mor-

Spud Pascual's 9th Inning Smash Fells Vernon, 5-4

Luis Gonzales Wins Decision

Carlos (Pato) Pascual, who has a flair for the dramatic, saved his best for the last in Tuesday night's baseball encounter here, delivering a home run with one out in the ninth to give Big Spring a 5-4 victory over the Vernon Dusters.

Pascual picked the first pitch delivered him by Bill (Cotton) Russell to write him in as a pitcher's duel between the newest addition to the Duster mound corps and Luis Gonzales, who seemed to get better as he went along.

More than a score of the fans hung around to tempt the little Big Spring shortstop with greenbacks stuck through the screen. Needless to relate, Spud had a great time harvesting the cabbage.

Big Spring had numerous chances to win the game before that but Russell, acquired only Monday by Vernon in a trade with Lubbock, was especially tight in the clutch. He left three runners stranded in the seventh frame and another in the eighth.

A hit by Arnold Davis and a misplay by Felix Gomez in center gave the Dusters a tally in the first frame.

Big Spring came right back to go ahead when Gomez and Julio Delatorre were plated on Pat Steer's long one-baser but the Dusters were up to the challenge.

They combined three hits with another misplay and a balk on Gonzales' part to count twice and go ahead in the second.

TEXAS BOB, A TEXAS VERSION OF JOHNNY APPLESEED, PAYS A VISIT
 A visitor to Big Spring Tuesday and one who intends to come back was Alfred H. (Texas Bob) Lang, a Texas version of the famed Johnny Appleseed.
 Lang, at one time a cowboy, has for the past decade been traveling about the state selling Bluebonnet seed, from which grows the state flower.
 Texas Bob, who quit punching cattle when he had to have his leg amputated in 1939, says Bluebonnets will grow anywhere in Texas. He gets 50 cents a package for the seed and orders can be placed for them by writing him at the Roosevelt hotel in San Angelo, his permanent headquarters.
 He does a brisk business, not only in the state but out of it. He's received orders for the seed from all over the nation.
 Lang started as a cow waddie when he was 14 years of age. He lost his leg after a horse fell on him for the third time. He now gets around with the aid of crutches. He was born in Fredericksburg but moved to Mason at the age of one year. He spent 16 years of his life as a cow puncher in the employ of the Martin ranch near Mason.
 Lang says he'll be back in Big Spring shortly to promote the sale of the Bluebonnet flower.
Colorado City Lets Contract For New School
 COLORADO CITY, May 3.—Contract for the building of a new primary school building in Colorado City was let by Colorado City Independent School board in a special session Monday.
 A previous public opening of bids on the 18-room one-story structure resulted in no contract, according to board members, because all bids were "too high."
 Calling for the expenditure of $325,000, the new contract was awarded to Balfanz Construction company of Abilene, lowest bidder in the call for new bids. The building is to start at once and is to be finished in approximately seven months.
 A modern new primary building is the major project proposed when the newly expanded and consolidated district voted $500,000 in school building and improvement bonds.
 Contracts for the improvements at high school and for addition to Hutchinson school have not been let to date.
 The town proposes to build a new football stadium by selling $20,000 worth of shares in a football bond planned to take care of gradual expansion and addition in the town as the school system grows according to predictions of school and civic leaders.
 Frank H. Keller, school board president, is leading the drive to sell the stadium shares which will be sold locally.

Fly Control Is Emphasized During May
 Special emphasis will be placed on fly control during May by the city county Health unit, C. W. Masson, sanitarian, indicated this morning.
 Efforts will be directed toward encouraging sanitary disposal of garbage and other refuse as a means of eliminating breeding places of the disease-spreading insect, Mason said. Co-operation on the part of all residents is urged as a follow-up of the city-wide clean-up program.
 "Streets and alleys are generally in good condition following the clean-up, though some residents continue to store garbage in open barrels and boxes," the sanitarian declared. "Fly population is directly proportional to sanitary disposal of garbage. Conditions here have been greatly improved since the drive for covered garbage containers was started last September, but 100 per cent efficiency is our goal."
 Horse lots, pit privies, open kitchen sink drains, and other decaying matter also provide fly-breeding places, and should be regularly cleaned or closed as a fly-control measure, Mason said.
 Refuse which is cleaned up should be placed in fly-tight containers and hauled away promptly.
 Livestock pens and shelters should be cleaned daily to prevent propagation of germ-laden insects, he indicated.

GALVESTON PROGRAM

Splash Day Revolves Around A Helicopter

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff

If anything goes wrong with Wayne Sleschinger's helicopter, Galveston's splash day program will go into a spin.

For the whole program revolves around that helicopter.

Sleschinger, of Houston, will use the lawn of a beach hotel on May 7 when Galveston ushers in its swimming season. First thing, he will land C. H. Stanton of Athens on the city's pleasure pier. Stanton is general manager of the Texas Fiddlers Assn. and when he arrives on the pier he will officially start the 15th annual meet of the association—a 12-hour jam session of fiddle tunes.

Then the helicopter will soar away, presumably to find and bring King Neptune to the beach where a court of bathing beauties will be waiting.

This is reminiscent of a stunt pulled in Corpus Christi about 12 years ago. That city decided to open its Buccaneer Day's celebration by having a small gang of pirates land on the bayfront and capture the city.

The Pirates, in a rowboat, were pulled out into Corpus Christi and left on their own. The big crowd, waited to be captured, could see the pirates straining at the oars. But the bay was unpleasantly choppy that day and the pirates were inexperienced oarsmen. After 25 minutes or so it became obvious the invaders weren't making any headway at all. Instead, they were rowing in confused circles. Finally some friendly motorboats went out and gave them a tow into shore. When they landed, the pirates didn't swagger in the good old tradition, but looked embarrassed and a little seasick.

King Neptune will judge the bathing beauty contest. The queen will be given the timely title of "Miss Flying Saucer of 1950."

After the contest, the hard-working helicopter will pace swimmers in a five-mile swimming race, hovering over their heads the whole time.

And then will come a very popular part of the program, a jackpot for the bathers along the shoreline. Every year objects, good for cash and merchandise prizes, are dropped on the bathers, causing quite a scramble. This year Sleschinger will drop the objects—colored bits of plastic which will be called flying discs.

MADRID CLOVER PLANTED IN 1949 FURNISHES GOOD GRAZING LAND

Madrid clover planted last year has furnished good grazing for his livestock Dr. W. B. Hardy reported last week. Dr. Hardy will take his cows off the 15-acre patch of clover soon on his farm in the Morgan Soil conservation group and will let the clover make seed for harvest. He plans to plant 15 acres more to clover next spring as a part of his coordinated soil and water conservation program in cooperation with the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District.

M. M. Edwards made application to the district supervisors for planning and applying a conservation program on his ranch southeast of Coahoma last week.

John H. Loyd planted 15 acres of blue panic grass last week on his farm northeast of Big Spring. Loyd used cotton seed hulls mixed with the small panic grass seed to plant about a pound of seed to the acre.

R. C. Reed planted 2 1/2 acres of KR bluestem on his farm southwest of Elbow last week. Reed planted the KR bluestem for a seed plot. He will harvest the seed to plant on his sandy land to get a good cover on the land and furnish grazing for his cattle.

G. W. McGregor and Roy Prather completed a conservation plan on McGregor's farm at Coahoma Friday. McGregor and Prather based their coordinated conservation program on the needs of the land. They included soil management measures to improve the soil by adding organic matter and nitrogen and help control blowing and washing.

T. M. Robinson of the Soash conservation group is going to plant feed in his poor producing land and leave a good stubble. Dixie Wonder winter peas will be planted in the feed stubble to build up the soil. He plans to cover his entire cultivated land in the next five years or sooner with stubble management and soil improving crops.

Hollis Puckett, district cooperator in the Richland soil conservation group, is planting some twenty acres to blue panic grass. Puckett used ground cotton seed, mixing 4 to 6 pounds of cotton seed to 1 pound of panic grass in making and small opening plowing the planting. He used a large dragging small bags of dirt for covering.
