President Says He Won't Make Further Concessions To N. Viet.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has drawn the line against further concessions to the North Vietnamese until they negotiate on his eight-point peace proposal.

"The next step is up to the enemy. Our proposal is on the table and it is going to stand there until we get a reply from them," Nixon told a news conference in his White House office Thursday.

At the same time, the President appeared to hit somewhat harder at Democratic White House hopefuls who spurned his earlier plea for caution in their criticism of his Vietnam policy.

"The responsibility for the enemy's failing to negotiate may have to be borne by those who encourage the enemy to wait until after the election," the President said.

Although Nixon said the other side has not yet responded to the joint U.S.-South Vietnamese proposal made public Jan. 25, North Vietnamese leaders and diplomats have been quoted as rejecting it. The formula for peace includes a cease-fire, mutual troop withdrawal, and release of war prisoners.

North Vietnamese spokesmen have insisted the United States abandon support of the regime of South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu.

Thieu has expressed unhappiness over a statement by Secretary of State William P. Rogers that the United States remains flexible on details of a possible political settlement of the war.

But Nixon said he wanted to reassure the South Vietnamese president that "there will be no new proposals made unless it is a joint proposal."

Standing behind his desk, Nixon opened his news conference by giving a general rundown on plans for his trip to Communist China, which will start next Thursday.

The President said his visit and talks with Chinese leaders "will mark a watershed in the relations between the two governments" which have been at odds for more than 20 years.

Once again, Nixon cautioned that his groundbreaking visit, first by an American president to China, "should not be one which would create very great optimism or very great pessimism."

On other matters, brought out in questioning, Nixon made these points:

Taxes—"There will be no increases in taxes this year." He denounced the property tax as regressive and said the only way the value-added tax could be considered as a source of school revenue is if its regressive features were removed.

13 Area Women Become LVNs At Capping Rite

Thirteen area women completed a giant step in a life dedicated to ministering to the sick in capping exercises conducted Thursday night.

The simple cap of white linen marked them as licensed vocational nurses (LVNs) at the close of ceremonies and a reception in the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church.

Bill Robertson, administrator, Highland General Hospital, presided over the traditional exercises with E.L. "Smiley" Henderson, member of the board of governors of the hospital, assisting with the professional and recreational.

Dr. Julian Key, M.D., delivered the graduating address.

In his State of the Union address, Nixon promised to try to find a way to relieve home owners of property taxes. There have been reports he plans to propose a value-added tax, a form of national sales tax that opponents claim bears heaviest on the poor.

Busing—Nixon restated his opposition to busing "for the purpose of racial balance." However, he noted that some courts have differed from his views, and said he will confer with congressmen on the feasibility of a constitutional amendment to prohibit forced busing.

India—Nixon denied that he and his administration were anti-India during the recent war between India and Pakistan. "I can only say I was anti-war," Nixon said. "We did everything we could to avoid the war...."

However, Nixon said "we do not have evidence that I consider adequate... to take to court."

Each of the candidates came forward to have the cap pinned on and to receive a long-stemmed red rose.

Conducting these ceremonies were their instructors in the hospital's vocational school, Mrs. Bessie Franklin, RN and Mrs. Jackie Hartgrove, RN.

They were assisted by Miss Vermell Meador, RN, director of nursing services at Highland General Hospital.

Following capping ceremonies, the 13 new LVNs formed a receiving line for those attending the graduating services.

Junior volunteers from the hospital served as ushers for the event. Members of the Licensed Vocational Nurses Association were hostesses for the reception that followed.

Judge Refuses To Void Indictment Of Mutscher

SNOW SCENE, AGAIN!—Pampans awakened to find the city blanketed by another layer of snow from one to three inches deep. Despite the fact that it is becoming "old hat" this winter, this view across one of the rolling breaks within the city was a thing of beauty unmarred by footprint or wheel rut.

Speaker And Aides To Face Trial Feb. 28

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — District Court Judge Neil Daniel refused Thursday to quash indictments of Texas House Speaker Gus Mutscher and two associates on charges of conspiring to accept a bribe.

Dist. Atty. Bob Smith of Travis County (Austin) then said he will prosecute the trio on that charge when their case is called for trial here Feb. 28.

These developments emerged at a pretrial conference in which prosecutors and defense counsel offered a flurry of motions in the case, transferred from Austin on a change of venue.

The conspiracy indictment accuses Rush McGinty, chief aide of the House speaker, and State Rep. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth along with Mutscher, 39. In addition, a separate indictment charges Mutscher with accepting a bribe.

All the charges stem from the Texas insurance stock fraud scandal.

After questioning of four newsmen behind closed doors, the judge granted a motion to quash subpoenas for them to appear as witnesses. This defeated a defense effort to learn the sources for information in two news stories published last September before the grand jury indicted the three men.

Mutscher sat silent and unsmiling with McGinty, Shannon and their lawyers in the courtroom.

Daniel first denied a motion to dismiss the indictments and then one contending the indictment was unconstitutional and should be quashed because it was "overly broad, overly vague."

The reporters who testified behind closed doors were Robert Heard of The Associated Press staff in Austin, Glen Castleberry and George Kuepfer of the Austin American-Statesman and Don Fisher of the Dallas Times Herald.

They wrote stories last September linking Mutscher, McGinty and Shannon with the indictments before the grand jury in Austin.

Daniel told newsmen that the reporters did not disclose the sources of their exclusive information.

Mutscher's lawyers won one battle without firing a shot as the judge directed that jury selection will be on an individual basis, which is unusual except in capital cases.

At this point chief defense lawyer Frank Maloney told the judge that the newsmen subpoenaed for the pre-trial hearing could be excused.

London Workers May Be Laid Off Due To Blackout

LONDON (AP)—The government told a shocked House of Commons today that millions of British workers may be laid off because of new massive electric power cuts.

Hundreds of factories were expected to save electricity from coal-fueled power stations crippled by a five-week miners' strike.

John Davies, trade and industry minister, said "many, many people, perhaps millions" will be out of work at a time when Britain already has more than a million unemployed because of economic woes.

Under a state of emergency proclaimed after talks with the miners broke down, electricity was cut off to one in every 10 British homes, offices and factories on a rotating basis.

Broadening this limited blackout, which began Thursday, Davies ordered the biggest factories to slash their electric consumption by 50 per cent—meaning shutdowns of machinery and layoffs of workers.

In addition to these biggest users of power, a larger number of medium-size plants—more than 20,000—were banned from using electricity four days a week.

As coal stocks dwindled further, the government also banned the use of electricity Saturday for heating offices, shops, theaters and many other premises. It pleaded with everyone to voluntarily switch off as many home appliances as possible.

The power cuts brought disruption to millions of Britons in their day-to-day life.

Snow Fast Melting; Warm-up Predicted

A 2-inch snowfall that sneaked into Pampa overnight was fast disappearing as the Mercury climbed late this forenoon and the weather forecasters at Amarillo said there would be more melting this afternoon.

Last night's snow was fairly general over the Texas Panhandle, but it caused little inconvenience. Traffic was slowed somewhat but city trucks were out early sanding street intersections.

The noonday forecast called for partly cloudy and warmer through Saturday with today's high in the upper-30 range and tomorrow's high expected to reach the lower 50s. Tonight's low will drop back into the lower 20s. No new snow is in sight.

Yesterday's high in Pampa was only 24 degrees and the overnight low was 20.

Rain fell in most other sections, and it quickly turned into ice on roads and bridges across a broad stretch of Southwest and West Central Texas while threatening to spread toward the east.

While temperatures stayed above freezing farther south, rain or drizzle was widespread over Southeast Texas and the coastal plains.

Early morning temperatures skidded to 13 degrees at Dalhart, which had one inch of snow on the ground near dawn; 18 at Amarillo, where the measurement was three inches, and 21 at Lubbock, which had one inch of snow.

Other points with marks down to freezing or below included Childress 24, Marfa 26,

Texas Democrats Urged To Scan Proposed Rules

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — National Democratic party leaders warned Texas Democrats today they better take another look at a set of proposed party reform rules before the State Democratic Executive Committee.

U.S. Rep. Donald M. Fraser, D-Minn., told the Houston Chronicle from Washington, that the so-called "winner take all" rules recommended by an SDEC subcommittee might cause trouble in the future.

The rules would technically meet minimum standards. (However) it is my candid view that the Texas party would have to go to unusual lengths in the implementation process to make certain that the guidelines are fully met," said Fraser who heads the national party commission on party structure.

The subcommittee approved set of party reform rules, drawn up by SDEC member John S. Brunson, Houston, would let 51 per cent of a precinct convention select all delegates to a county convention. They have not yet been presented to the full state committee.

Defeated at the recent subcommittee session was a set of rules drawn up by SDEC member William Anderson Jr. of Corpus Christi that would have precincts choose delegates in proportion to the results of a straw poll on presidential candidates.

Gov. Preston Smith, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Tex., have all criticized the so-called Brunson rules since adopted.

The committee then announced that it would not pay the grants "until they had been explained to the bishops who, we were told, had no ability to stop them in any case." Bishop Gonnell said.

Author Reported To Have Admitted He Never Met Billionaire

The Los Angeles Times said today that author Clifford Irving and his research aide have admitted to federal authorities that they never met industrialist Howard Hughes, subject of Irving's purported "autobiography."

Meanwhile, The New York Times reported that Irving was seeking to exchange his cooperation in the federal fraud investigation for legal protection for his wife against prosecution in the tangled case in the United States and Switzerland.

stories should be given headlines." He added, "I feel there shouldn't be any further comments."

The Los Angeles Times said sources close to the federal grand jury probe of Irving's sale of the "autobiography" said Thursday that Irving and Richard Suskind, his researcher, told authorities the book wasn't written under the circumstances they had earlier claimed.

The New York Times says author Clifford Irving is seeking a deal in which he would cooperate in the investigation of his disputed Howard Hughes "autobiography" in exchange for assurances of no legal action against his wife here or in Switzerland.

The Times today quoted "sources close to the case" as saying that under the still tentative deal Irving's researcher, Richard Suskind, would be offered immunity from prosecution to testify and Irving "would plead guilty to predetermined charges."

Neither Irving nor U.S. Atty. Whitney North Seymour Jr. was immediately available for comment. A combined federal-state investigation has been probing possible perjury, forgery and mail fraud violations in the case.

Meanwhile there were these other developments: —The Manhattan district attorney's office announced that a second large-scale investigation of the case would begin today before a special New York County grand jury.

—Baroness Nina van Pallandt, the Danish folksinger and sometime travel companion of Irving, flew to New York to testify before the federal grand jury. She smiled prettily but had no comment for newsmen.

—Another reported traveling companion of Irving's, blonde scuba diving instructor Ann Baxter, was subpoenaed in Miami, Fla. to testify before the grand jury in New York.

—In Los Angeles, Robert A. Maheu, who once headed

Hughes' Nevada operations, filed a $17.5 million libel and slander suit claiming the billionaire told newsmen Maheu was "a no good, dishonest son of a bitch and he stole me blind."

Court sources in New York saw the county grand jury probe as reflecting disapproval with the federal government's apparent willingness to cooperate in a possible deal.

The federal grand jury is in recess until next week when Mrs. van Pallandt, Maheu and his son, Peter, are expected to be witnesses.

Mrs. van Pallandt, a neighbor of the Irvings on the Spanish island of Ibiza, has said she accompanied Irving to Mexico last year.

Maheu has previously sued Hughes for $50 million in Nevada state court over his firing as the $500,000-a-year head of the industrialist's $300 million Nevada holdings.

In his suit Thursday in Los Angeles, Maheu did not name Hughes as a defendant but named the Hughes Tool Co., a public relations firm and the firm's executive who handles the Hughes Tool account.

Irving has said he recorded material for the book in face-to-face interviews with Hughes in motels, and parked cars throughout the western hemisphere, but that Hughes insisted on keeping the tapes after the interviews were transcribed.

Irving and Suskind reportedly refused to spell out details of how they created the 230,000-word manuscript until they get assurances that Irving's wife, Edith, won't be prosecuted by either U.S. or Swiss authorities, the Times said.

In a story from New York by John J. Goldman and Robert L. Jackson, the Los Angeles Times said it was understood that no promises were made by U.S. officials.

Mrs. Irving is the acknowledged "Helga R. Hughes" who deposited and then withdrew from a Swiss bank account $500,000 McGraw-Hill Publishing Co. gave Irving for payment to Howard R. Hughes for his "autobiography." The checks were made out to "H.R. Hughes."

The Times said the admissions by Irving and Suskind were said to have been made during a closed-door session in New York Wednesday with U.S. Atty. Whitney North Seymour Jr. and top members of Seymour's staff.

The New York Times, quoting "sources close to the case," said that under the still tentative deal Suskind would testify under immunity from prosecution and Irving "would plead guilty to predetermined charges."

K&F Club Guest Speaker Unveils Secret On How To Get Happiness

By TEX DEWESE

Two vital characteristics are needed if happiness is to be obtained and the psychiatrist avoided, Dr. Ron Meredith of Wichita, Kan., told a Knife and Fork Club dinner audience last night in Coronado Inn.

The happiest people, the radio and TV guidance counselor said, are those who have (1) developed a capacity to make it easy for others to love them and (2) developed the capacity to learn to live in the now.

"We must believe in the permanence of truth and use our ability to think," Dr. Meredith told his listeners. "We must accept new ideas and dispense with the approach to a change by saying 'we never did it that way before.'"

"Search for the new, the real thing. This is a new day, but it is so easy to get trapped by yesterday."

Dr. Meredith pointed out that more than half of all new discoveries made in six million years since the stone age, have been made by persons still living today.

"We must not be afraid of new ideas," he said. "We must become involved in the now. Learn to live, to be conscious of yourself and those around you and always have the capacity to walk around a new idea the second time."

All past presidents of the Top O' Texas Knife & Fork Club were honored last night with the presentation of plaques denoting their year of service as president.

Beginning with 1949, plaques were presented to the following:

Roy S. Bourland, J.B. Massa, Clinton M. Evans, Fred Thompson, Charles Cook, Aubrey Steele, Dr. J.R. Donaldson, J. W. Gordon Jr., T.C. Lively Sr., McHenry Lane, Fred Brook, Homer D.

Johnson, J. E. Thompson, D.V. Biggers, Bill W. Waters, Roy Sparkman, Paul Bowers, Rufe Jordan, Leslie Hart and Harold Barrett.

Plaques were presented posthumously to Arthur M. Teed and Dr. S.B. Sybert.

Last night's program was presided over by Kay L. Fancher, K&F president. The speaker was introduced by Bill Waters. The invocation was by Mrs. James A. Poole and dinner music by Sue Higdon, organist.

14 San Antonio Priests Married In Five Years

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A Roman Catholic priest who helped found a national Mexican-American priests group has been married since November and is living in Washington, it was disclosed Thursday.

Officials confirmed that Ralph Ruiz married the former Janis Claire Ehrhart, 25, of St. Louis, Mo., on Nov. 29 in a ceremony performed by a minister at St. Louis.

Ruiz, 36, who entered the priesthood in 1965, is the 14th priest from the San Antonio area known to have married in the past five years.

He was the first national chairman of PADRES, a group of Spanish-speaking Roman Catholic priests organized here two years ago. He also was active here in causes for the poor and needy.

Auxiliary Bishop Patrick Flores of San Antonio said he validated the marriage according to church law last month in Washington.

Bishop Flores, the present national PADRES chairman, said Ruiz received a dispensation from his vows as a priest before the marriage.

The density of a fog depends upon the number of water droplets in a given volume of air; the more droplets, the lower the visibility. Droplets in a fog are so small that it would take seven billion to fill a teaspoon.

Cape Kennedy Still Considered Ideal Shuttle Launching Place

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Rep. Olin Teague, D-Tex., chairman of the House subcommittee on manned space flight, said Thursday he thinks Cape Kennedy is the front runner for the initial launching base for the space shuttle.

Teague also said Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., is a contender and the greatest political pressure is coming from Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D.N.M., who wants the site at White Sands Missile Range, N.M.

Anderson is chairman of the Senate Space Committee.

Teague said, "The shuttle site decision should be based on maximum use of existing facilities. In my opinion, Cape Kennedy is the front runner. It has the facilities, and I can't foresee a decision that wouldn't use them."

Rep. Louis Frey Jr., R-Fla., who has waged a lengthy campaign to get the shuttle to Cape Kennedy, said he is confident the Cape will land the shuttle, barring a political decision.

Teague said the space agency should announce the site within three months after carefully evaluating a report by an independent site selection committee.

The shuttle will be a reusable rocket plane which, late in this decade, will be used to ferry supplies into space and which will serve as an interim space station.

Members of the subcommittee met with Kennedy Space Center officials at Cape Kennedy Thursday as part of their preparation for upcoming congressional hearings on the NASA budget.

Chrysler Corps Reports Earnings

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp. has announced 1971 profits of $63.7 million and pledged "further substantial progress during 1972."

Chrysler had record annual sales of $8 billion in 1971, an improvement of $1 billion over 1970.

Ground Broken For New Boys Ranch Chapel

BOYS RANCH (Spl.)

—Ground was broken yesterday for construction of a new $850,000 Boys Ranch chapel.

Thirteen-year-old Mike Cutsell, student representative; Mrs. Gene Harriman, daughters of Cal Farley who founded the ranch 33 years ago, and Harold Dunn, chairman of the chapel committee, took turns at the shovel as 375 Boys Ranchers watched the ceremony.

The 770-seat capacity chapel is expected to be completed within a year. It will replace a 250-capacity chapel brought to the ranch in 1948 from Dalhart.

E.C. Sidwell of Pampa, a Boys Ranch board member, attended the ground-breaking ceremony along with other board members and Virgil P. Patterson of Amarillo, president of the ranch.

The new chapel will be located near the ranch dining hall and next to the $400,000 religious education center now under construction.

Both facilities are designed to meet ranch growth and place emphasis on spirituality, Louis Hendricks, ranch administrator, said.

Purcell To Be Here Feb. 15

Rep. Graham Purcell of Wichita Falls, candidate for reelection from the 13th Congressional District, will be in Pampa at a 10 a.m. coffee next Tuesday in the Coronado Inn Starlight Room.

The Pampa visit will be one stop on a Panhandle tour which started this morning in Dalhart with appearances this afternoon in Perryton and a scheduled visit in Amarillo tonight.

Congressman Purcell will be in Potter and Randall counties Saturday, Dumas Monday afternoon and Monday night in Borger.

Following his stop here Tuesday morning Purcell will go to Clarendon for a Tuesday afternoon meeting.

He plans to leave Amarillo Tuesday night on his return trip to Washington.

Stolen Cadillac Recovered; Three Suspects Held

A 1969 Cadillac stolen some time Sunday night at Pampa was "recovered"—at the bottom of a cliff near San Diego, Calif.

The sheriff at San Diego told Pampa police detective J.J. Ryzman he was holding three suspects, two men and a woman, but names were being withheld pending charges. One of the men was suspected to be an escapee from an Iowa correctional institution.

The vehicle was taken from the washing stall of a North Hobart St. service station along with $33 in cash between Sunday closing and start of business Monday morning.

Keys had been left in the ignition switch of the car belonging to McBroom Motor Co. but battery cables were disconnected. The thief or thieves apparently know this as they appeared to know just where the money was secreted in a storeroom without disturbing anything else to take it.

Mother worried for daughter's safety

By Abigail Van Buren
(© 1972 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: I wrote to you several months ago about a male relative molesting my 3-year-old girl. Your answer was to confront him with it, and get him to a doctor, fast. We had already confronted him, and of course, he denied everything. "She makes up stories," he said. Abby, how can a 3-year-old make up stories of this kind?

I talked with the police department, and was told you cannot accuse someone of molesting without proof. How do you get proof? When the child was younger, this relative would come over and take her out for "rides" in his car, and when he brought her home, her clothes were a mess, and her diaper pins were upside down! [Abby, do you know any mothers who put diaper pins in upside down? I don't.]

That, and a dozen other incidents, is still not sufficient proof. Will they take the word of a 3-year-old against that of a grown man who is admired and respected by all? NO!

I was made to look like a hysterical mother having hallucinations. Can you now understand why each night I pray for God to take him? Only then will I have peace of mind.

DAZED

DEAR DAZED: I believe you. And I promise to give you my prompt personal assistance, if you will send me your name and address.

DEAR ABBY: I am a middle-aged woman, just recovering from surgery. I have also had a heart attack and I am not very well. My problem is I am trying to keep from getting the flu, but I have two women friends who always want to kiss me when they greet me. And when I leave, they are in the habit of kissing me goodbye. I never minded until now. But there is so much flu around that a person can't be too careful. I would feel foolish asking them not to kiss me for this reason, yet I wish they wouldn't. How can I keep them from kissing me without losing their friendship?

Please print this. I am sure others have the same problem.

SALT LAKE CITY

DEAR SALT LAKE: When they approach you, gently give them the "straight arm" and say, "Please, no kisses. One of us may have a little bug." [True, one of you may have.]

DEAR ABBY: The idea of exchanging tapes with servicemen who find writing letters tedious was a good one. Your comment that it was a good idea for those who could "afford" it caught my attention.

I suggest that both servicemen and their families contact their local U. S. O. Many U. S. O.'s at home and abroad will provide tapes, recorders, and even pay the postage as a service to our men in uniform.

U. S. O. SUPPORTER

DEAR SUPPORTER: And this might be an appropriate time to inform those who may not be aware that the U. S. O. is NOT funded by the government! It is supported entirely by public donations as a United Way or Community Fund agency.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MASON CITY FATHER: There is little point in suddenly telling a 16-year-old son that if he ever gets into any kind of trouble to come to you first. For if the proper relationship has been built over the years, he will. And if it hasn't, the words will be meaningless.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69769, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Your Horoscope

SATURDAY, FEB. 12
Your birthday today: Organization is the open sesame for a long time to come. Not so much what line you're in but how well you put it together, how consistent your approach. Today's natives are prone to pursue abstract issues, detached from close cooperation; concerned with original or extreme ideas.

Aries [March 21-April 19]: Go politicking for social goals among people who are able to be helpful. A day of cheerful events is promised.

Taurus [April 20-May 20]: Like as not you have to deal with several different things at once. Avoiding haste and waste solves most of the problem.

Gemini [May 21-June 20]: Go-getters are active all around. Find common cause with one who agrees with you and get some chronic hindrance cleared off.

Cancer [June 21-July 22]: Close relationships thrive with very little attention. Find time for hobbies, sports, pastimes.

Leo [July 23-Aug. 22]: Give extra care and thought to your situation. Get busy and tidy up both your establishment and the accounting connected with it.

Virgo [Aug. 23-Sept. 22]: Ask for cooperation, particularly where the project is for the good of your general surroundings or change of work.

Libra [Sept. 23-Oct. 22]: In quite a busy weekend, the usual chores are short cut or neglected as you scramble to catch up on news, the people you care about and their doings.

Scorpio [Oct. 23-Nov. 21]: A friend makes a sound achievement. You also have a chance for showing off your accomplishments. Expect good news.

Sagittarius [Nov. 22-Dec. 21]: Be yourself, and as boldly competitive as you can, shunning routine. You have an interested audience. A long-sought bargain may be available fairly late in the day.

Capricorn [Dec. 22-Jan. 19]: Go ahead full steam with whatever projects and equipment you've been able to put together, ready or not, and do your best.

Aquarius [Jan. 20-Feb. 18]: Stick to your plans long enough to settle essentials, then join the swing toward fresh social contacts. Find a party or share a good show.

Pisces [Feb. 19-March 20]: An early start finds you in company you hadn't expected, doing things a little different from your long-established week-end habits. It can be great fun!

Jumping To Conclusions

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions: Any husband whose wife packs a liverwurst or baloney sandwich more than twice a week in the lunch he carries to work is entitled to a divorce. But a man is unlikely to run away from his home if his wife shows a little imagination in fixing him the meal he eats away.

A dog may dwell in luxury on Park Avenue, but he leads an underprivileged existence if never even once in his life he has the pleasure of scratching a flea.

Chopping up or sawing logs to warm his home has been one of man's commonplace chores for thousands of years. But so accustomed are we today to having other people do our work that a man who cuts up a fallen tree in his backyard feels he is a hero and equal to his pioneer ancestors. It is to him a feat of great virtue, and for a week he bores everybody at the office bragging about it.

A man is sometimes shaken to discover how quickly his physical condition deteriorates after 40. But no man needs to rush to a doctor—even at 80—if he can do a somersault easily or leap confidently over a three-foot-high barrier.

One of the pleasant surprises in marriage is how much a wife's advice to her husband improves after they have celebrated their silver anniversary. She has learned to separate the possible from the impossible.

Every man yearns at one time or another to become a millionaire, but today the achievement of that ambition is only another form of anonymity. Money still talks, but a million dollars doesn't shout—it only murmurs.

Lincoln At Gettysburg

Tomorrow is Abraham Lincoln's birthday anniversary.

It seems to be a law of communications that the larger the audience that is tuned in, the less memorable are the things it hears.

This is true of much of the fare broadcast over the airwaves. It is certainly true of advertising and is probably just as true of politics.

Even back in the 1920s, when radio was in its infancy, a president could command an audience far greater than was present in Gettysburg on November 19, 1863, to hear Abraham Lincoln.

Today, even in an unscheduled, spur-of-the-moment appearance on television, a president can be heard and seen by more Americans than were alive in Lincoln's time.

But no president before or after Lincoln ever created or uttered such a jewel as his Gettysburg Address, nor has any American document been read, repeated, memorized and loved by so many people around the world.

There are at least two legends about this famous address. The most familiar is the one which holds that Lincoln's words were poorly received and that he left the battlefield with the conviction that he had failed.

"To be sure, there were caustic comments in a few newspapers, typical of that partisan day. But at least one Chicago paper stated prophetically that "The dedicatory remarks of President Lincoln will live among the annals of man."

Edward Everett, the principal speaker, who preceded Lincoln with a two-hour oration, wrote him the next day: "I should be glad if I could flatter myself that I came as near to the central idea of the occasion in two hours as you did in two minutes."

Recently, some scholars have claimed that Lincoln's speech was actually greeted tumultuously. They cite a diary or newspaper account which records that it was interrupted half a dozen or more times with applause and cheers.

But it is as difficult to believe that this short speech—only 272 words long and taking about two and a half minutes to deliver—could be interrupted so many times that it is to believe that it was totally ignored and unappreciated.

A theory suggested by Clifton Fadiman some years ago seems closer to what really happened.

Picture Lincoln standing in the open air, speaking without benefit of a loudspeaker system to a probably restless crowd of 15,000 which had just finished listening to Edward Everett orate for two solid hours. It is likely that only a few heard what Lincoln said. The speech would have been over before the crowd could have been aware that it had begun.

This, thought Fadiman, may have been the basis for the story that the speech was considered to be a failure.

At any rate, no amount of modern electronics gear could have transformed into greatness a speech that was not great to begin with.

Freedom Vs. Utopia

A curious little story appeared on the news wires the other day. It was about a Columbus, Ohio, group that had set out to build "pure capitalism" on a network of South Pacific reefs. Among other things, this newly founded "Republic of Minerva" was to have no taxes. One editor headlined the story "Utopia...No Taxes!"

In a sense, the headline was justified as an example of journalistic hyperbole; that is, an exaggeration to bring out an essential idea; namely, it is this case what a sense of relief it brings to even contemplate the absence of taxes. However, we would not wish anyone to be misled into imagining that we suppose any kind of Utopia would result from legislation or repeal of same, including the repeal of taxes.

Nope, the freedom philosophy does not look to any paradise on earth. The most you can hope for in a free country is a lot of hard work, the opportunity to run your own life, the chance to succeed or fail by a blend of luck, providence, and your own decisions. That's a long way from any man-made Utopia which so far exists only in the imagination of planners.

With or without taxes, the world will continue to have its quota of crooking, thieving, other human foibles and just plain mistakes. Therefore, no Utopia. Under freedom, the idea is to keep the laws few so there won't be a big bureaucracy for the crooks and thieves to bore into.

On Human Needs

According to the psychologists, all human beings have at least one common trait—needs that must be fulfilled.

These needs are arranged in a standardly systematic order. The first is food. The second is security. The third is love and family, and the fourth is recognition.

According to the psychologists, the order of these needs is the same for all persons. That is to say, a man will risk his life to get food, but, after he gets it, his thoughts turn to safety. Then, when he is well-fed and safe, he begins to think about companionship; that is, a spouse and children. Finally, having all these, his desire shifts to recognition.

Some gain this recognition by helping with the Scouts. Some by writing books. Some painting pictures, making beautiful music, joining service clubs, achieving status in the business world or in sports, etc. So great is the zeal for recognition that some even resort to destructive activity in order to draw attention to themselves. You see the embryo of this in the small child that deliberately spill his milk or creates a disturbance to attract parental notice.

You see it also in the politician, a man who strives to become powerful so that other men will be compelled to look up to him.

We wonder, what would happen if people in general would come to regard politicians as persons who have taken a non-constructive route to win the plaudits of the multitude?

Of course, just as the population continues to produce a quota of those who plunder by law-breaking, so we would have a number who pursue gain by law-making. But would that number be as great if the politician were recognized for what he is—one who strives by manipulation to acquire what others get by achievement? We think the number of politicians would be fewer if the recognition attached thereto were more accurate.

Timeless and Immortal

Question Box

QUESTION: The second plank of Karl Marx's "Manifesto" (1848) calls for: "A heavy progressive or graduated income tax." The 16th Amendment to the Constitution contains one of these terms, and Article I, Sec. 8 says taxation "...shall be uniform throughout the United States." Does this mean that the "graduated income tax" is Marxist in origin, unconstitutional and therefore voluntary? Is this what the Commissioner of Internal Revenue means in his "Special Message" on 1971 tax forms: "Each year American taxpayers voluntarily file their tax returns?" Are our tax laws unenforceable in a court of law?

ANSWER: The question appears to call for a legal opinion, and that is outside the scope of this column. On the other hand, it may be that the reader is trying to point out what the Constitution says and is employing the questioning technique to find out whether his own opinion would be confirmed by the reasoning of others. That is the province of every rational person.

The U.S. Constitution says in Article I, Section 8, that Congress may collect "taxes, duties, imposts, and excises...but all duties, imposts and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States."

The terms "duties, imposts and excises" refer to certain kinds of taxes. A duty is a tax upon specific articles or transactions. An impost is a tax upon imports and exports. An excise is a tax upon home goods. In other words, the Constitution authorizes Congress to levy and collect taxes, but states that certain taxes (but not all) shall be uniform throughout the country.

The Sixteenth (income tax) amendment authorizes taxes on income, but is silent as to whether same shall be uniform. Since Article I, Section 8, does not specifically require that all taxes be uniform, but only certain kinds of taxes; namely, duties, imposts and excises, we do not see much help from the U.S. Constitution in avoiding the graduated feature of the income tax.

We do not know whether Marx originated the graduated income tax or not. The point is, he either originated or adopted it. It was therefore thoroughly agreeable with his objectives as he saw them.

The second part of the question pertains to the enforceability of the income tax laws. No doubt many persons have been coerced and sent to prison. One that we know of, A.J. Porth, was even ordered by a federal district judge not to talk against the income tax, as a condition of probation. So it is evident that the federal government uses plenty of force to make the subjects of its power contribute to the force that holds them in a degree of involuntary servitude.

But the question goes further than that. It asks whether tax laws are unenforceable in a court of law? When you add the phrase "of law," we believe a substantial question is raised. For the Tax Court of the U.S. is an Article I court, technically a part of the regular judiciary, and subject to regular judicial procedures.

Operationally, however, the Tax Court of the U.S. functions as a collection arm of the Internal Revenue Service, the same as it did before Congress gave it separate status outside the IRS. By virtue of Canon 31, adopted by the tax court but not by Congress, the taxpayer is wrong and the IRS agent is right unless the taxpayer proves otherwise. In fact the taxpayer is denied access to the tax court unless he petitions and offers to prove his claims. The burden of proof, in other words, is upon the accused.

That mode of operation contrasts sharply with American concepts of justice of which the Constitution is the keystone.

NO GOOD WAY TO GROW NEW HAIR

Dear Dr. Lamb How does a man go about growing hair on his body? Some of my friends and I are hairless, but not hopeless. We have heard that using special creams, cheeses and even eating certain herbs will produce a massive crop of hair. Our problem is that no one seems to know the complete procedure. We would like your advice. We are all in our 20s or 30s so we can't expect nature to do too much more on its own.

Dear Reader—I presume your main concern is hair on your head. The simple truth is there is no good way to grow hair on the head when you have your problem. There are a large number of men who have baldness very early in life. The claims for special creams, cheeses, foods and any number of other claims are not successful. About the only thing they will do is cost you money. I have yet to see a bona fide, successful way of growing hair on a bald head. My best advice to you would be not to be taken in by any charlatan putting out false advertisement with such claims.

There have been a few reports of producing a few scraggly hairs on the top of the head by application of cream containing testosterone, the male hormone. This has not been sufficiently successful to suggest it to anyone for practical application. In fact, most people feel that testosterone is a significant factor in inducing baldness. At least you might as well adopt this explanation and claim to have a high level of virility.

Transplants of hair follicles to the scalp have been done. This is a long, time-consuming project where hair follicles may be transplanted from the chest to the scalp. This assumes that one has hair on the chest to transplant.

Another approach has been to place underneath the scalp a synthetic or plastic type material with little attachments that stick through the skin which enables one to anchor a hair piece down solidly. Such a hair piece can be worn while swimming or engaging in another activity and look like normal head of hair. This procedure is very expensive and I suspect there are only a few places where you could have it done safely.

My best advice is to learn to enjoy it. Just think of all the problems you have escaped. If you are disturbed because of the present emphasis on hair, maybe you should think about starting a new style. Yul Brynner did it in a rather big and financially successful way.

I would like to add that if and when someone is successful in correcting baldness, it is going to be a very well-known achievement and you won't have to ask where to go to get it done. Men and some women have been searching for cures for baldness for generations.

Nixon's Timing Viet Peace Bid Impact: How Long?

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) —Some political analysts here believe it is a mistake to think of President Nixon's recently disclosed Vietnam peace plan as a new initiative. They argue it should be taken as an old initiative which failed.

In their judgment, the President would not have disclosed the long-secret private approaches to Hanoi so long as there was any real chance they might succeed. His announcement, then, may be viewed as a clear signal that private negotiations are dead.

Obviously, the fact of the talks has been a powerful weapon in Mr. Nixon's arsenal for a considerable time. He has known he could spring a big surprise, at home and abroad, whenever he felt so moved.

What explains his timing? Already dealt with in the first aftermath responses to his disclosures—the disarming of his Democratic presidential rivals by stealing their stuff, the possibility of heightening his own damaged credibility in a year when voters' trust is thin, a paving of the way for U.S. air power reaction to an expected Hanoi offensive.

There is also the impending China visit in late February. In one analyst's view, the President understandably has reasoned that he can't appear to be in any sort of weakened position when he is in Peking.

Therefore, it is argued, he would not want to be fencing with China's Chou En-lai while our ally, South Vietnam, was getting clobbered by North Vietnam—with us standing helplessly aside. Nor would he wish to sit in Peking while we are mounting air strikes that might be widely condemned in many quarters of the world.

To disclose our 30 months of peace efforts is Mr. Nixon's way, it is said, of preserving his option of responding in strength to Hanoi's offensive, without losing all sympathy at home and abroad. He can say: "Well, we tried another course, but this was forced upon us."

There seems to be no question that the President has sought to use the fact of the secret Vietnam talks for both foreign and domestic impact.

How effective this will be in the world's capitals, including Peking, only time and coming events in Vietnam may tell. As for the home front, the questions and doubts are large.

It has been suggested previously that American voters are predominantly interested today only in getting us out of Vietnam, and not in details about elections, aid to Saigon, a cease-fire, etc.

Some sources here think the President is overplaying the surprise bit on the assumption it can have fairly deep long-lasting effect. They feel that the impact from big presidential moves and announcements is shorter and shallower than Mr. Nixon imagines.

Pollsters like Louis Harris have provided the rationale for the use of the big-move tactic. They argue that a president or other top public figure who is not broadly popular (true for both Nixon and Lyndon Johnson) may get substantial benefit—for awhile—from pulling off a big one. The key is: for how long?

A veteran political appraiser thinks the President is so enamored of this approach that he won't let it go. Says this man:

"One thing you can bet—he'll do something big in October (on the eve of the 1972 election). He's got the power to do it, and he's been waiting years for just this chance. All that time, he's been watching the other fellows (the Democrats) do things in October. He's not about to pass up his opportunity!"

H.L. Hunt Writes

LOOKING AHEAD

At least one national publication has published the 1972 predictions of clair-voyants and it is interesting to note that one of the seers foresees rioting on the streets of some of our cities this year. It is to be hoped that this forecast does not come true. We, as citizens, can go a long way in preventing anarchy in our cities. Riots that have occurred in the past few years have written a disgraceful page in our history. The police and other agents of law enforcement have, as usual, borne the brunt.

Officers of the law need, in fact must have, the support of citizens if they are to prevent murder, looting and arson. For too long they have had to back away as they watched crimes committed in open view on public streets.

Much of the feeling of complete frustration on the part of lawmen can be attributed to the decisions of higher courts who are appointed by the officials we elect. Loopholes the higher courts have put into the laws through case decisions have served to intimidate the men behind the badge who are never quite sure if they are making a legal arrest.

All citizens can help overcome this problem and thwart the prediction of the seer. We can vote for those candidates who advocate strict law enforcement. And we can get behind LAW-AID, a program dedicated to the support of our officers.

Nation Has About 200 Racketeers

WASHINGTON (AP) — About 85 per cent of the nation's racketeers are engaged in legitimate business activities, with restaurants, bars and taverns heading the list, the Internal Revenue Service says.

Officials provided few details, but said there are 217 restaurants, bars and taverns in which racketeers are engaged. This figure includes both major and minor racketeers, the IRS said, and "there could be two or more racketeers in one restaurant."

The report did not define "major" and "minor" racketeers.

BETHEL, Conn. (AP) — A routine ambulance call last week has brought a pleasant surprise for the Bethel Volunteer Fire Department.

The volunteers have received a check for $20,000 from sculptress Anna Hyatt Huntington of Redding. In a note with the check, Miss Huntington said, "Buy the best ambulance you can find." She said the check was in gratitude for the "kind volunteer service rendered and the pleasantness of the attendants."

When Miss Huntington's physician wanted her to go to the hospital for routine tests, the Redding ambulance was tied up with an emergency call so the doctor called the Bethel volunteers. Their ambulance picked Miss Huntington up, drove her to the hospital, waited for her and brought her back home.

Institute Offers Look At Judaism

JERUSALEM (AP)—Christians should "look beyond their own noses" to get acquainted with their mother religion—Judaism, says Dr. G. Douglas Young. His American Institute for Holy Land Studies here is dedicated to just that.

"Our prime mission is to give future Christian leaders a chance to see who Jews are, learn what they believe and what contributions they have made and are making," Young says.

He says he views the institute as helping to right the wrongs that "the Christian church did to Jews for 2,000 years."

The institute is the only American-operated school of its kind in the Holy City. Located on historic Mt. Zion, it serves graduate scholars or junior year-level students who want to study early Christian history, Old and New Testaments, Jewish thought and modern Israel, archeology and Hebrew.

There are about 30 full-time students, mostly Americans, living in. Groups of 50 students come and go for short seminars. Credits earned are transferable to schools in the United States.

The nondenominational, nonprofit institute, functioning since 1958, is governed by a board of directors of American businessmen and evangelist leaders. The school is registered under Israeli law and also chartered in the state of Minnesota.

Young, a biblical scholar and authority on Semitic culture, is the founder and president of the institute. He is an American citizen born in Korea of missionary parents.

In an interview, he said he was motivated to create the institute during a visit to Israeli Jerusalem in 1956. "I found no American institution for Christians and I wanted to remedy this," he said.

"Combined with this feeling was the anti-Israeli propaganda and anti-Semitism I had seen all over the world," he continued. "The idea struck me as being useful to bring young American Christians over here to tell them about Israel, the Jews, and their relationship to Christianity."

Young, 61, was formerly the dean of the Trinity Evangelical Divinity School near Chicago and a professor of Semitic languages at Stony Brook College in New York City.

Politically and theologically he considers himself a con-

Baptist Leader Hits Family Laws

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Orba Lee Malone, immediate past chairman of the Family Law Section of the State Bar of Texas, blasted current laws concerning divorce, paternity action, common law marriage and child support during meetings of the Texas Baptist Christian Life Commission workshop Wednesday.

Malone said that House Bill 598, which would have amended the Texas Family Code, was shelved during the last meeting of the Legislature.

"We will be back at the next legislative session with essentially the same bill," the El Paso lawyer said.

The reforms are endorsed by the State Bar and the Baptist General Convention's Christian Life Commission.

The bill calls for three processes that at present do not exist in Texas. Malone argued in favor of discretionary readjustment allowances or alimony for divorced women in some cases; paternity action to protect illegitimate children and provision for custody of children in emergency situations.

"Only two states in the nation do not provide for paternity action—Idaho and Texas," Malone said, "and we also need a legal framework to protect battered and abused children. Most people probably do not realize this, but 'Good Samaritans' who help abused children have no legal protection."

The Baptist layman called for abolition of the common law marriage statute. He termed such marriage "a relic of frontier days. No longer relevant."

Malone advocated change in the child support maximum age from 18 to 21 so that fathers would be required to assist in higher education expenses. Also discussed were clarifications in the adoption procedure and several minor corrections in the juvenile justice system.

The three-day workshop, designed to help Christians confront social concerns, concluded Wednesday.

The Weekly Message of Inspiration

By REV. L.C. LYNCH
Pastor, First Freewill Baptist Church

Jeremiah 6:16: "Thus saith the Lord, stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls: But they said, we will not walk therein."

Here we find the Lord warning Judah of her sins and the judgments of wrath to come upon them if they did not stand in the ways of God. Verse 10: We find the word of the Lord is unto them a reproach: "They have no delight in it."

As it was in Jeremiah's day, we find the same coldness to God's message of warning now. In today's rapidly changing world, I am fully aware of the falling away from the true teaching of the Bible of how men should live and obey God, and also obey the laws of the land.

I Timothy 1:4: "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith: giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils."

Fame and fortune have caused our nation and the world to drop to the lowest moral standard we have ever known since this nation was founded. New movements are arising that say the old way is outdated and is not sufficient for the present, modern way. Hebrews 13:8 reads, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever." Men are trying to make the Bible to coincide with their way of living. Let me say now, if we go to Heaven, we will have to make our lives conform to God's Word and abide by the same.

Our sins of strife, envy, hatred, and neglect to listen to God's warning have come upon us as a nation. When our nation gets in trouble, we erect our lawmakers and political forces to correct the causes and get the wheels of progress rolling again. My friend, it will take a power far greater than man to halt the downfall of our nation.

I Corinthians 1:20 reads, "Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?" It will take a great return to God to stop the murderings, rapes, robberies, kidnappings, and dope traffic that are flooding our nation, poisoning the minds and lives of our youth, and causing a lukewarm condition in a lot of churches. All of this should be a warning that we, as Christians, need to exercise the freedom to worship God to the best of our ability by going to church on the sabbath day, expecting to receive the spiritual guidance and fellowship that is essential if we are to enjoy a prosperous, enduring Christian life.

Galatians 6:7: "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: For whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

Eposito's Theory Falls As His Scoring Slumps

BOSTON (AP) — Phil Eposito has a theory for those rare times when he falls into a scoring slump—"just keep shooting."
That's what he did Thursday night. He just kept shooting. Twelve times he shot. Nothing happened. On the 13th shot he scored his first goal in four games. The goal really didn't matter much.
The Bruins were leading the Vancouver Canucks 5-1 at the time, and went on to make the final score 9-1, increasing their lead to nine points over the idle New York Rangers in the National Hockey League's East Division.
Elsewhere, Montreal

whipped Chicago its second straight setback 7-1. Minnesota beat St. Louis 3-1. Detroit defeated Buffalo 4-2 and Pittsburgh routed Los Angeles 6-1.
But to Eposito, the league's leading scorer, the goal was simply the manifestation of his theory.
"I wasn't really worried about not scoring," he said after the game. "I just kept shooting. One of those times it had to go in. It's the law of averages."
Eposito, who has a four-leaf clover and a lucky charm hanging from the name-plate on his locker, was asked if he were superstitious about scoring on his 13th shot of the night.

"Not when it comes to shots on goal," he said. "I'll take 13 shots on goal every night."
Eposito was playing with a new linemate Thursday, and had to make some adjustments.
Mike Walton moved into the left wing spot and Wayne Cashman moved from left wing to right, replacing Ken Hodge who is out with a fractured ankle. Each scored a goal, while Walton had two assists and Eposito one.
The biggest change Eposito said he had to make was in his passes to Walton, who is a left-handed shot.
Fred Stanfield led the assault against Vancouver goalie George Gardner with two goals while Bobby Orr had one goal and three assists.
Eddie Westfall, Derek Sanderson and Don Marcotte also scored for the Bruins.
Vancouver's only goal was scored by Rosaire Paiement.
Rookie Guy Lafleur scored three goals, Frank Mahovlich contributed a goal and four assists and Ken Dryden was superb in the nets as Montreal whipped Chicago. The seven-goal explosion against the NHL's top defensive club included two assists by Serge Savard, making his first home appearance since he suffered a fractured left ankle more than a year ago.

Larry Pleau, Pete Mahovich and Yvan Cournoyer got the other Canadian goals while Chicago's Cliff Koroll spoiled Dryden's shutout bid midway through the final period.
Minnesota got brilliant goaltending from Gump Worsley in beating St. Louis. The 42-year-old goalie was beaten only by Frank St. Marseille early in the third period. By then, the North Stars had a 2-0 lead on goals by Lou Nanne and Jude Drouin.
Detroit trailed Buffalo 2-0 before a strategic move by Coach Johnny Wilson turned the tide. Wilson moved Ron Harris from defense to forward and his aggressive checking loosened up the Sabres' defense. Harris then set up the Red Wings' first goal by Red Berenson, Mickey Redmond knotted the score with his 33rd goal and Marcel Dionne got the tie-breaker.

Sports Briefs

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Bob Oliver and Al Autry signed contracts with the Kansas City Royals, General Manager Cedric Tallis announced Thursday. The royals now have 17 players signed.
Oliver has played outfield, third base and first base. Autry, a pitcher, was brought up from San Jose of the Class A California League. He had an 811 record and a 4.10 earned run average last year.
MILWAUKEE (AP) — Zeke Bratkowski, still a "super-sub" quarterback for the Green Bay Packers at 40, was named Thursday to receive the Wisconsin pro football writers Bart Starr award for a long and meritorious playing career.
Starr, the Packers longtime No. 1 quarterback, will present the award to CLEVELAND (AP) — Young Chris Evert, who set the tennis world afire last year, and 1971's woman athlete of the year, Evonne Goolagong, will compete in the first U.S.-Australia women's team championships to be played here July 28-30.
Ruth Cardoso, Brazil's chess champion, says there should be a chess board in every school "so young people can think logically."

Robinson Rewarded For His Character

NEW YORK (AP) — Performance, says Brooks Robinson, is what counts. It separates the good players from the great players on the baseball field, and it leaves a special mark on a man who cares about other people.
Robinson, the All-Star third baseman for the Baltimore Orioles, was honored Thursday for performance when he received an award from Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn as "the player who best typifies the game of baseball on and off the field."
Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants received the first such award last year. Robinson received the most votes in the balloting by a special committee of sportswriters, sportscasters and baseball executives. Others in the final field included Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs, Al Kaline of Detroit and Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota.
The award noted Robinson's involvement in drug abuse education and prevention programs, visits to hospitals, and activities with underprivileged persons. "As flawless as his work is on the field," the award read, "it is matched by his actions, behavior and manners off the field. No request is too big, no demands placed upon him are too great."

John Kelley And Weiland Are Honored

NEW YORK (AP) — John "Snooks" Kelley, Boston College coach, and Ralph "Cooney" Weiland, former Harvard coach, were cited today for their contributions to amateur hockey in the United States by being named co-winners of the Lester Patrick Memorial Trophy.
Clarence Campbell, National Hockey League president, was chosen earlier this week as a Patrick Trophy recipient for his contributions to professional hockey in the U.S.
Kelley, whose 496 victories at Boston College is an all-time record for a college hockey coach, is in his 36th season at the Newton, Mass. school. He has announced his retirement effective at the end of this season. Kelley led the Eagles to the NCAA championship in 1949.
Weiland coached Harvard for 21 seasons until his retirement last year. He previously had played 11 seasons in the NHL, pacing the circuit in scoring in 1929-30 while with the Boston Bruins. He also coached the Bruins from 1939-41, leading them to the Stanley Cup title the second year.

"Thank Heaven For Little Girls"

SAPPORO, Japan (AP) — As the song says: "Thank Heavens For Little Girls..." Without 'em the United States wouldn't have a medal to show for its efforts in the 11th Winter Olympic Games.

But with 'em, America's got six tucked away, three of them gold, which makes this its most successful winter Olympics in two decades.

The third gold came rocketing out of a heavy snowstorm Friday in the personage of Barbara Cochran, a 20-year-old skiing whiz from Richmond, Va., who mad-dashed her way to victory in the women's special slalom.

It came only two hours after Anne Henning put the third American bronze medal on the board in the 1,000-meter speed skating. The 16-year-old miss from Northbrook, Ill., who had won the 500 meters on Thursday, finished less than a quarter of a second behind West German winner Monika Pflug.

The American men remained shut out in the Games Friday night as world champion Ondrej Nepela of Czechoslovakia captured the gold medal in the finals of the men's figure skating.

Russia's Sergei Tcheteroukhin took the silver, moving ahead of Patrick Pera of France, who had been second after the compulsories.

Ken Shelley of Downey, Calif., finished fourth and John Mischa Petkevich, the Harvard pre-med student from Great Falls, Mont., was fifth, the two Americans moving up one spot as young Jan Hoffman of East Germany, fourth after the compulsories, slipped to sixth.

This marked the first time since 1936 that the United States had not won a medal in men's figure skating. Americans dominated the event from 1948 through 1960.

Miss Cochran, who managed to finish only 11th in the giant slalom, brought America its first gold in Alpine skiing—the men have never won that Olympic event—since the 1952 Games in Oslo, Norway, when the United States finished with four golds.

She did it with an all-or-nothing effort that resulted in a fastest first-run time of 46.05 seconds, when she was first down the slope, and a second-fastest time of 45.19 on the second run for a total time of 1:31.24, an incredibly scant two hundredths of a second less than silver medalist Danielle Debernard of France.

"This is definitely my mind of course," Barbara said after her triumph, which was climaxed by a kissing, hugging mob scene and a brief victory ride on the shoulders of her ecstatic teammates and coaches. "I usually do better on a steep course than a turning one."

After being the initial skier in the first run—"I liked the No. 1 start... because there was a light snow cover"—she was 15th in the second, when the snow really began coming down.

"I didn't watch any of the first 14," she said, "because I didn't want to know the times and, if they were having trouble, I didn't want to see them." She probably couldn't have, anyway, because of the downhill.

Asked how she felt about recent criticism that American athletes are too soft, she replied: "I think our skiers train as hard as anyone—and the results today prove it!"

The Northbrook crowd, which has had plenty to cheer about, was ready for more as Miss Henning and Dianne Holm, gold medalist in the 1,500 meters, prepared to fulfill their roles as favorites in the 1,000 meters.

But suddenly, there was Miss Pflug, the 17-year-old outsider, gaining the glory with her Olympic-record 1:31.40. Atje Keulen-Deelstra of The Netherlands took the silver in 1:31.61 and Anne got the bronze in 1:31.62. Dianne wound up sixth at 1:32.51.

In Friday's other finals, Poland's Wejchlich Fortuna soared a magnificent 364 feet 2 inches in the first of two runs in the 90-meter ski jump, more than enough to win the gold.

And the Soviet Union defended its Olympic title in the biathlon relay.

In the four-man bobsled, Switzerland held the lead at the halfway mark. The remaining two runs are scheduled for Saturday. West Germany was second and Italy third. One American team was disqualified in the first heat when its members fell off the sled as it over-turned. The No. 2 U.S. team was 12th after the first two runs.

Fortuna, whose second jump was 287-1 for a total of 219.9 points, captured the event which many observers had expected to go to the Japanese, who swept the 70 meters. Yukio Kasaya, took the 70-meter gold but was seventh in the 90 meters.

Second was Switzerland's Walter Steiner, who got the silver with 219.8 points. The bronze went to East Germany's Rainer Schmidt with 219.3. The best American was Ron Steele of Leavenworth, Wash., a distant 25th with 177.7.

Behind the victorious Russian biathlon team were Finland and East Germany, with the United States a surprisingly high sixth, its best Olympic finish ever.

PRO Roundup

By Associated Press

Seattle is a problem. And Baltimore, Atlanta, Cincinnati and Cleveland haven't come up with an answer all season.

The four teams which comprise the National Basketball Association's Central Division have dropped 13 straight games to the SuperSonics this season. No. 13 came Thursday night when Seattle slapped down the Royals 118-96.

The Sonics, third in the NBA's Pacific Division, were led by Spencer Haywood, who scored 28 points. The Royals, third in the Central, got 22 points from Tom Van Arsdale and were hampered by the absence of guard Nate Archibald, out with the flu. Archibald has been averaging 35 points in the last 16 games.

In other NBA games Phoenix defeated Baltimore 131-98 and Golden State topped Philadelphia 121-112.

Kentucky beat the Floridians 119-101 and Virginia downed Pittsburgh 131-111 in American Basketball Association.

Baltimore, playing without center Wes Unseld, out with an ankle injury, lost its sixth straight. Dick Van Arsdale led Phoenix with 27 points and Paul Silas 25. A strong Suns' defense held the Bullets to just 14 points in the second period. Jack Marin had 24 and Archie Clark 18 for Baltimore.

Golden State, behind the 32-point performance of Nate Thurmond, rallied in the second half to overcome Philadelphia. The Warriors trailed by as much as 14 points and 63-53 at the half. Jeff Mullins added 27 for Golden State, which record its 18th victory in the last 22 games.

The 76ers, playing without Billy Cunningham, who has a leg injury, were led by Fred Foster with 30 points and Bob Rule with 26.

Rookie Julius Erving scored seven points in 55 seconds to break an 82-82 third-quarter tie and pace Virginia to victory. With Erving scoring 30 points and Charlie Scott 34, the Squires outshot Pittsburgh from the floor 57 per cent to 36 per cent.

It was the Squires' fifth straight victory, their longest win streak of the season. Dave Lattin led the Colonels with 26 points while Mike Lewis had 20 and John Brisker 19.

The Floridians' loss was their 15th in the last 18 games, leaving them a half game from last place in the ABA East. Dan Issel scored 28 points and Mike Gale 21 for East-leading Kentucky.

The Floridians were never really in the game as Kentucky spurred to a 26-16 lead in the first 11 minutes and never trailed. Walt Simon finished with 20 points for the Colonels. Willie Long had 23 points for Floridians and Al Tucker scored 16.

USLTA Will Meet About Zone Play

HOUSTON (AP) — The United States Lawn Tennis Association says the United States will meet the West Indies in the North American Davis Cup Zone playoffs.

Should the United States, current Davis Cup holder, win then it must play all successive matches at the site of its opponent. Under a new ruling, the current cup holder must participate in the playoffs instead of meeting the winner in the final challenge round.

The USLTA, in an annual session here, announced Thursday that Canada would meet Mexico in the other North American Zone playoff match.

Pairings announced for the Southern American Zone have defending champion Brazil, seeded first, meeting Venezuela and Chile, second seeded, meeting Peru.

Other South Zone pairings have Ecuador meeting Columbia. Argentina received a bye for the first round.

The USLTA executive committee met today to discuss several subjects, some of them controversial.

The committee must approve men's and women's rankings submitted earlier this week and was to discuss a proposal to increase the sanction fee involving a woman's pro group headed by Gladys Heldman of Houston.

The United States will be forced to play all of its Davis Cup matches on its opponent's site because of a rule requiring the team who was host on a previous meeting, to become the visitor at the next meeting.

The host team also gets to select the site, type of surface played on and the type of ball used.

Walter Elcock, USLTA first vice president, said another meeting of the International Lawn Tennis Federation's Management Committee would be called to discuss the participation of South Africa in Davis Cup Competition.

The committee voted in January to readmit South Africa but Elcock said many nations had indicated they would withdraw from competition if South Africa participated.

Elcock said another meeting would be held to reconsider the vote on South Africa which has been criticized because of its apartheid policies.

Penn Clobbers Columbia 69-59

NEW YORK (AP) — Penn's fifth-ranked Quakers moved into sole possession of first place in the Ivy League basketball race by scoring a 69-59 victory over Columbia at University Gym Thursday night.

Penn, 15-2, jumped off to a big early lead, pulling ahead 30-15 midway through the first half. But Columbia, 3-14, closed the gap to 40-25 at the half and moved within nine points in the second half, but could come no closer.

The victory boosted Penn's Ivy record to 6-1, a half-game ahead of Yale.

Junior forward Phil Hankinson topped Penn with 21 points, while Bob Morse had 15. Ron Boyd netted 18 to top Columbia.

Worry Clinic

By-GEORGE W. CRANE,
PH. D., M. D.

Helene's shrewd analysis should be discussed in all teen-age Sunday School classes. And also in every young married couples' class, too! For Noah tried to run away from God. Modern sheeplike human beings use alcohol as a similar escape device. Or drugs, and even suicide!

CASE S-596: Helene F., age 20, is a coed Sunday School teacher.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "why do so many people flee into alcoholism when they face serious problems?"

"For example, a girl friend of mine broke her engagement to a college classmate a few months ago.

"He then started drinking so heavily that he was arrested for drunken driving.

"Why didn't he face up to the situation and try to win her back again?"

"Is it because most people prefer to be like sheep and run away from dangers?"

SHEEP VS. GOATS

Helene's reference to sheep is very pertinent. For goats are not much larger than sheep.

But dogs are wary of goats, though they delight in chasing sheep.

For when an inexperienced canine confronts a flock of sheep, he will bark loudly.

This is really the strategy of a bully, who hopes to intimidate his environment.

If the sheep turn and run, as they invariably do, then the dog is reassured that he is master of the situation, so he chases them till they often die of heat or torn necks.

But if that same dog barks loudly at a herd of goats, the goats will turn to face their tormentor.

Indeed, one or two of the goats may even advance TOWARD the stray dog, so he usually backs up at once.

In a conflict between feuding birds or beasts or even a dog vs. a man, the side that first shows the white feather (fear), then gives the advantage to the other.

And it isn't merely size that counts, for a smaller creature with a dominant attitude, can thus intimidate a much larger foe.

"It isn't the size of the dog in the fight which counts," runs an old truism, "but the size of the fight in the dog."

Jobless Peddlers Occupy Balcony Of St. Peter

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Ten jobless peddlers occupied the balcony of St. Peter's Dome for several hours, Wednesday to dramatize their demand for licenses to sell Vatican souvenirs and other items in the street.

After the men abandoned the balcony under the 435-foot high dome, police said they would intercede for them at City Hall to see what could be done about the licenses.

Peddlers and jobless people have taken turns on the Roman ruin since Dante Ottaviani, a young father, won a peddling license after a record seven days and seven nights on a ledge there last month.

BANGKOK (AP) — Thailand gave a traditional welcome today to Queen Elizabeth II, the first reigning British monarch to visit this Southeast Asian nation.

Girls clad in silk costumes scattered flower petals at the Queen's feet as she stepped ashore from a royal barge to a greeting by King Bhumibol and Queen Sirikit.

Overhead, Royal Thai air force planes streaked through the sky, and a Thai navy destroyer boomed out a 21-gun salute.
