

French Africa Chief In Vichy

VICHY, Unoccupied France, June 5 (AP)—Presumably summoned to conferences of vital import to the defense of the French empire, Pierre Boisson, honored by Vichy as the "defender of Dakar," arrived in the French capital unexpectedly last night. Boisson, governor of French West Africa, joined General Maxime Weygand, generalissimo of Vichy's armed forces in French North Africa, who has been here since Monday conferring with Chief of State Petain and attending two urgent cabinet sessions.

The visits of these two French African leaders coincided with a steady deterioration in relations between France and Britain and with increasingly persistent diplomatic reports in Vichy that Adolf Hitler was planning a European-Africa league of nations as his next step.

OPM Will Act To Speed Defense Work

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Donald M. Nelson of the Office of Production Management predicted today that the government would act "very soon" to speed up defense production by re-negotiating many existing contracts to provide earlier delivery dates.

Nelson, OPM's director of purchases, was testifying before the senate defense investigating committee. His prediction followed a discussion in which he agreed with Senator Connally (D-Tex) that defense industry should be required to put on extra shifts.

The senate, tabled a resolution, adopted by the house yesterday, providing for a recess from June 12 to June 20.

Soldiers Have Difficult Time In Pretending They're In Combat

WITH THE ARMY IN TENNESSEE, June 5 (AP)—So far in this make-believe war, Uncle Sam's soldiers have proved themselves much better soldiers than actors, army officers said today.

Of course, soldiering is what counts, but encouraging them to be realistic in the war games here is one of the major problems in judging what the troops can do in actual combat.

"It's the hardest thing in the world to get the men to act as if they were dodging enemy bullets," declared Maj. Gen. Frederic H. Smith, Seventh army corps commander, who is directing two weeks of the month-long maneuvers in Tennessee.

This attitude among the trainees is being emphasized, he said, because the purpose of the training is to teach them proper fighting habits.

Although there were slip-ups in the first two days of the middle Tennessee war games that would not happen in actual combat, General Smith said he believed these faults would be eliminated as training progressed.

For instance, when the mock-war opened Tuesday, trucks moving to battle lines parked one up against another and in the open. Stiff reminders from commanders made the drivers change their civilian habits and spread the vehicles apart and keep them hidden under trees.

Enemy observation planes, in real war, could have spotted the trucks in the open, making them easy marks for bombers, the drivers were told.

A commander whose troops were sunning themselves in an open field while enemy planes circled overhead was reminded that such tactics were not realistic. He quickly sent his outfit to cover.

New Pipelines Are Proposed

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Stepped-up utilization of all kinds of existing transportation facilities, as well as construction of new pipelines and tankers, were recommended by the OPM's special fact-finding committee of oil men.

To alleviate an expected shortage in oil and gasoline for the eastern seaboard rising out of the transfer of 50 tankers to British service and possible transfer of more, leaders in the oil industry at the request of the Office of Production Management prepared for Petroleum Coordinator Harold Ickes a list of moves that might be taken to ease the deficiency in bottoms.

Most prominent of proposed pipeline was one to extend from the Texas fields to New York. Its estimated cost was $70,000,000. A 24-inch pipe, it would deliver a capacity load of 260,000 barrels of crude oil daily in the winter and slightly more in the summer. This would be equivalent to the capacity of about 65 tankers of approximately 30,000 dead weight tons each. A year to 15 months would be required for its construction.

Also suggested was construction of a 20-inch line parallel to the crude oil line, the smaller pipe to carry other petroleum products such as fuel oils or gasoline. This line would have a capacity of 235,000 barrels daily and also cost about $70,000,000.

The plantation line from Baton Rouge and New Orleans, La., into Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina with a 50,000 barrel capacity, could be completed by July 1942, the report added, "if the present obstructions to obtaining the right of way" were removed soon.

Speaker Race In Legislature Narrows Down

Herald Austin Bureau
AUSTIN, June 5.—The race for speakership of the next house of representatives today had narrowed down to two men—Speaker Homer Leonard of McAllen and Rep. Price Daniel of Liberty.

Until this week, there had been five additional candidates in the field—Reps. Jack Little of Amarillo, Clark Glimmer of Rock Springs, W. O. Reed of Dallas, Obal McAllister of Fort Worth, and G. C. Morris of Greenville.

These candidates drew most of their strength out of one group of representatives, while Daniel was running unopposed in another group. This gave Daniel the great advantage so long as the other votes were split among many candidates.

Then Speaker Leonard was suggested for a second term, and today this movement became a reality as Little, Glimmer, Reed, McAllister and Morris all withdrew in his favor. This will consolidate their forces solidly behind him in his second term race.

Daniel, a Baylor university graduate and newspaperman-lawyer, will draw most of his strength from the members this term are serving in the house of representatives for the first time, while Leonard will be strongest among the old members.

Only one other man—Coke Stevenson of Junction—has ever served two consecutive terms as speaker of the house, but Leonard's chances of repeating are ranked as excellent by most observers.

The re-entry of Leonard into the speaker's race came as something of a surprise because he had been prominently mentioned among the likely candidates for lieutenant governor next year—a field which may include Senator John Lee Smith of Throckmorton, former Senator G. H. Nelson of Lubbock and Rep. Dallas Blankenship of Dallas.

Policeman Tells Of Relief Found In Modern Hoyt's

Officer Thomas Of Amarillo Says Hoyt's Proved To Be Right Treatment For Complication of Ailments.

"For a long time I had severe spells of indigestion," says Police Officer W. R. Thomas, of 2303 West Second St., Amarillo, Texas.

OFFICER W. R. THOMAS

"After meals, my food soured in my stomach and there was a sour taste in my mouth. Gas caused terrible pressure around my heart. My stomach felt like there was a solid lump in it. I had dizzy spells and my knees, arms and shoulders pained me terribly.

"Immediately after I started taking Hoyt's Compound, I was feeling like new. Now indigestion is gone. I eat as I want to. Hoyt's is a wonderful medicine. My kidneys are normal; I rest well. I feel like an entirely different person!"

Hoyt's Compound is recommended and sold by the Collins Bros. Drug Store and by all leading druggists in this area.—adv.

Fun With Flowers—Tasteful Ways To Arrange The Table For The June Bride

Garlands and nosegays of lovely rambler roses grace this wedding table.

Wind long wires about the rose stems.

Bedarriended candelabra are excitingly different for that special June table!

No. 1—Brides and June are almost synonymous. June is spelled in rambler roses all over the country so—why not use rambler roses for that festive bridal or anniversary table? The natural, graceful garlands in which climbing roses grow suggest a charming way to use them. Of course, it's in garland fashion as sketched above! For a stunning and unusual table treatment select several long strands of roses. Fasten them together with light weight wire and drape the strand over the candelabra and around the cake. Tiny clusters of rambler roses wired together, the stems covered with a ribbon bow, will repeat the rose theme of the bridal table decoration. Soak the rose strands in deep, cool water several hours before arranging them, then they will last better out of water.

No. 2—The garland type of arrangement is equally effective for tables other than bridal ones. A practical usage is sketched above. Rambler roses or vines are easier to arrange in this way than other flowers because they are so well adapted for it by nature. But, gladioli and most other flowers can be used in this way if you are willing to do a little more wiring. The method of wiring the stems together is outlined above. Remember tho, the flowers will be out of water this way. Either choose long lasting types or soak them well and arrange them at the very last minute. Place mats are, appropriately, sheets of music with bridal themes: Lohengrin and Mendelssohn Wedding Marches and "Oh Promise me."

The War Today—Churchill Faces Harsh Dilemma In Question of Taking Syria

(By Herald Special News Service)
(This daily feature, conducted by Dewitt Mackenzie, is being written in his absence on vacation by Fred Vanderschmidt.)

Syria is a harsh dilemma for Winston Churchill. He must decide whether to attempt to occupy it by land and sea, in a morbid struggle with France, Britain's former ally, or he must sit tight and wary, harassing German concentrations there mainly from the air, and taking the risk that the Germans will be able to occupy it themselves and thus drive Britain from the eastern end of the Mediterranean.

It is not merely a military choice. Many of the British, at home, are clamoring for real action against Syria. They are distraught about Crete and feel, rightly or wrongly, that lack of proper defensive preparation on that island was responsible for its loss. In fact, there have been hints that another British reverse which could be blamed on lack of foresight would really endanger the Churchill government.

To meet this clamor for action authorized British sources today gave assurances that "the necessary precautions in regard to Syria" are being taken. Simultaneously it was learned from Vichy that the British have bombed oil installations in the French mandate which might feed German planes and motorized equipment.

However, nothing has been done to commit Britain to actual occupation of Syria. This could be accomplished, probably, only by concerted action by land and sea, the land action coming from both Iraq and Palestine-Transjordan borders and involving the participation of the Free French units of General Charles De Gaulle.

The fact is that Churchill knows the Germans would relish a bitter fight in Syria between the British and Free French on one hand and Vichy's army of the Levant on the other. It may be the German game to draw the British into Syria without proper preparation, to rearm the inert Vichy army there with its own French stores, which the armistice gave to the axis for disposition, and to give the Vichy army just enough German air support and other military aid to prolong the struggle.

Then, with the British air force and fleet busy in the eastern corner of the Mediterranean, the axis could strike with great force in the Egyptian desert, feeding reinforcements into North Africa across cleared seaplanes in the western Mediterranean—perhaps from such French Mediterranean ports as Villefranche, deep Riviera harbor which served as an anchorage for the U. S. European squadron just before the present war.

Such a situation, in which Britain could be pointed out as the aggressor in Syria, might serve also as the zero hour for Turkey. If Britain were up to her neck in Syria she could be of little help to the Turks in resisting a German land smash into Asia Minor to "the rescue" of Syria.

In any event, the trouble in Syria is drawing Turkey inexorably toward involvement in the war, for it is not conceivable that the Germans would permit a doubtful entity on their flank, even should they succeed in taking and holding Syria by sea and air reinforcement alone.

Army Plans Expansion Of Cantonments

WASHINGTON, June 5.—The surprise disclosure that the army was rushing a new billion dollar camp construction program led informed legislators to believe today that the war department had decided to increase the field forces to 2,800,000 men, or double their present strength.

One member of congress with close war department connections said that the new camp program meant "that the international situation is such that it has been deemed wise to prepare for this new emergency that may be approaching our shores."

The first intimation that the program was under way came from the army's construction quartermaster, Brigadier General Breton Somersell, during testimony before a house military sub-committee yesterday. He was very laconic, however.

Sewell Becomes Browns' Pilot

ST. LOUIS, June 5 (AP)—Affable Luke Sewell, veteran American league catcher and Cleveland Indian coach, stepped in the frying pan today as manager of the floundering St. Louis Browns.

He was signed to a two-year contract last night replacing Fred Haney in a swift move aimed at improving the miserable plight of the club that was expected to be the surprise team of the senior circuit this season.

A change of pilots had been rumored for several days, but the announcement by President Donald Barnes caught even newsmen by surprise. It came less than two hours after the Browns had won their second straight game from Washington to move out of the cellar into seventh place.

Democracy Lives Again In Louisiana, Gov. Jones Says

CHICAGO, June 5 (AP)—Gov. Sam Houston Jones of Louisiana said today democracy had been restored in his state after what he called "an experiment in dictatorship—an experiment which failed."

Nowhere in his address prepared for delivery before the Chicago Association of Commerce did the democratic chief executive identify by name the late Huey Long and his Louisiana regime but he said:

Senate May Put Restrictions On Property Seizure Measure

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—A well-supported move developed in the senate today to put a congressional check on the wide powers asked by President Roosevelt to requisition private property temporarily or permanently for defense purposes.

Two influential senators, who asked to remain anonymous, said serious consideration was being given by administration leaders to suggestions that the property requisition bill drawn by the war department be amended to make it simply a temporary measure under which the president could act only after congress directed such action by passage of a resolution.

This, these senators said, would meet the objection of some critics who have said that to permit the president to take over private property of all kinds for defense uses or for resale, as proposed in the bill, would be to give him dictatorial powers.

The president made it plain at his press conference yesterday that one of the prime objectives of the bill was to make it possible for the government to deal summarily with lockouts in defense industries by taking over the affected plants.

Bush action would put recalcitrant labor or management in the position of striking against the government, and Mr. Roosevelt said some time ago that this could not be done.

The property requisitioning legislation, the president said, grew partially out of the government's inability to act more forcefully to end the prolonged Alts-Chalmers strike in Milwaukee, which held up defense contracts.

World War Veteran Claimed By Death

SAN ANTONIO, June 5 (AP)—Major Gen. O. E. Roberts, World War veteran, who died in Taylor Monday night, will be buried in the Fort Sam Houston national cemetery here today.

Gen Roberts, who won the Croix de Guerre and the Distinguished Service medal, retired from the army four years ago. He is survived by his widow, a son, Jim Roberts, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Lyman.

According to census figures, the average healthy child today has one chance in 180,000 of being fatally stricken by infantile paralysis.

Seven Coahoma Students End Math Courses

Seven men have been awarded vocational training certificates for completion of a course in oilfield mathematics at Coahoma.

Those satisfying requirements of the division of industrial education, state board of education, were Lee Goswick, pumper for Owen M. Murray; R. D. Hatch, Jr., pumper for Illinois Oil Co.; W. D. Hays, production foreman for Illinois Oil Co.; Ira Kirkpatrick, lease foreman for Moore Bros. Corp.; Paul Woodson, roustabout, Illinois Oil Co.; A. G. Young, superintendent, Owen M. Murray Co., and T. B. Brown, pipeline welder.

The course, operated over a 24-week period, was under the direction of W. T. Wynn, instructor. Wynn has taught two other oil field courses at Coahoma and one here. A total of 17 originally enrolled in the class.

Legislature Tackles Jam In Calendar

AUSTIN, June 5 (AP)—The Texas senate today received an invitation from the house to recess the overtime session from June 12 to June 30.

House approval, by vote of 71 to 62, of the recess resolution yesterday climaxed a laborious day in which the legislature cracked a work calendar jam which, to some extent, had blocked adjournment.

The recess offer was the second of that type to reach the upper legislative chamber, which previously had sent the house an unheeded proposal to adjourn.

Among major legislation not yet approved were several money-spending bills for operation of the state government the next two years, a bill allocating a $2,000,000 balance in the state's county and district road bond fund and oil proration measures.

The house killed a senate-approved bill authorizing the railroad commission, under certain conditions, to permit production of sweet natural gas for carbon black processing.

A second attempt in the lower legislative chamber to override Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's veto of a bill requiring deduction of tips in wage calculations for certain workers eligible for unemployment compensation met with defeat.

After weeks of balking, the senate passed finally, with an amendment requiring house action, a house bill extending the current market demand oil proration statute two years from Sept. 1, the expiration date of present laws.

Flashes Of Life-

By The Associated Press

Richmond, Va.—Roland Warren Smith, of Richmond has a hunch he will be called to military service the Fourth of July.

On New Year's Eve he was notified of his local order number in the draft. On April Fool's Day he received his questionnaire. On Memorial Day the postman brought his notification to appear for his physical exam.

Kansas City.—Mrs. Florence Holcomb is a nature lover but she is all for forming a send-squirrel-back-to-the-country league.

A dozen or so chattering, barking and fighting squirrels have taken over space in the second floor ceiling of her home. At night the din is terrific, sleep impossible.

There'll be more noise in the dawn but Mrs. Holcomb won't mind. Her appeal to Mayor John B. Gage has borne fruit. Police have been told to shoot the furry invaders.

Antlers, Okla.—A farmer driving without a tail light and with only one headlamp was stopped by highway Patrolman Jess Faulkner and Charles Reese.

The officers asked to see his driver's license.

"There's my license tacked on the back," came the reply. "I never heard of driver's license. When did they pass that?"

The law was enacted in 1927.

Chicago.—The princess' tummy trouble is so bad she can't take a bath. She's grown so fat they had to build a ramp to her swimming pool; she couldn't make the steps. The Trincess Spearmint is Lincoln park's two ton hippopotamus.

Odd Coincidence in Death

LONDON—On the same day that the 260-foot North Towers of the Crystal Palace was felled by dynamite, the man who looked after it died. He was Sir George Wyatt Truscott, chairman of the Crystal Palace Trustees. He was 83 and had worked for the City of London for nearly 60 years—as Lord Mayor, a member of the Common Council and an alderman.
