Kidnap Sentence Friday

Testimony Still To Be Resolved

AMARILLO, March 3 — UP—A federal judge will pass sentence Thursday on Dianne Pappas, who kidnaped 10-month-old Randy Gene Caskey because she didn't think his mother, Mrs. Wyoming Caskey, now of Hollis, Okla., was a fit mother.

Mrs. Pappas 24, pleaded guilty Monday to kidnaping Randy Gene while she was baby-sitting for Mrs. Caskey Jan. 25. She said she did it because she didn't consider Mrs. Caskey, 23, who was then living in Amarillo, a fit mother.

Mrs. Pappas and the baby, unharmed, were found by FBI agents in a Denver, Colo., bar a few days later.

The government Wednesday called several friends and former Amarillo neighbors of Mrs. Caskey, and they testified as to Mrs. Caskey's good care of the baby.

Delays Sentence

Federal Judge Joe B. Dooley had intended to sentence Mrs. Pappas Wednesday. But defense and government lawyers turned up conflicting statements by Chicago psychiatrists about whether Mrs. Pappas was legally sane, and he ordered sentencing continued until Thursday afternoon to try to resolve the conflict.

Federal agent Carl Periman testified that Dianne had been arrested in Chicago in June, 1953 for investigation and that she was confined three weeks to a house of correction there.

Periman said it was at that time a psychiatrist examined her and termed her "a pathological liar," but who knew right from wrong.

But court-appointed defense attorney S. F. Ross read to the court a telegram from a former Chicago employer of Dianne's husband, Marine Pfc. Beania Pappas in which a psychiatrist said Dianne didn't know when she was doing wrong and was in need of psychiatric treatment.

Receives Court

Judge Dooley then received court so that attorneys could try and determine whether the same Chicago psychiatrist made the contradictory statements. The names of the mental doctor, or doctors, were not given.

Dianne testified her husband was fired from a foundry job because of her. She said police arrested her while she was swimming in a lake in the early morning hours after a bartender apparently informed on her. She said the bartender ordered her out of the bar and she told him she was going swimming.

Long-Dormant Volcano Erupts Second Time

HILO, Hawaii, March 3—UP—Flaming lava surged to within one mile of the village of Kapoho Thursday when the east rift of famed Kilauea volcano on the island of Hawaii erupted with new fury after a 24-hour rest.

The 335 residents of Kapoho were evacuated to safer areas again Wednesday when the volcano exploded in a far more dangerous eruption than Monday. It was the first time the volcano had been active in 115 years.

A gaping fissure one mile long and as much as 500 feet wide spouted lava 20 to 50 feet in the air along the entire length, and poured forth red hot matter at the rate of 350 feet an hour directly toward Kapoho and the ocean.

A new outburst late Wednesday night blasted apart an old cinder cone and stretched the fissure by another 300 yards. It threatened to pour even more lava into the flow.

Another smaller finger of fiery lava pouring out from the side of the fissure missed two farmhouses by 30 feet and overran a sugar cane field.

Gov. Samuel W. King prepared to declare a limited state of emergency for the volcano area Thursday.

Police and civil defense officials expressed fear that the lava would wipe out Kapoho. Volcanologists warned that the entire area was "uneasy" and in danger of erupting.

Amarillo Woman Killed By Train

AMARILLO, March 3 — UP—Mrs. Mary E. Rubel of Amarillo was killed Wednesday night when the car her husband was driving hit the side of a westbound Santa Fe passenger train.

Her husband, Chester D. Rubel, 62, was critically injured. The engineer of the train, C. J. Wilson of Amarillo, said he saw the car approaching the tracks but it was so near he could do nothing.

Flood Waters Rage Into Ohio Valley

By UNITED PRESS
Flood waters rolled through the Ohio River valley Thursday and covered some Cincinnati streets with as much as 10 inches of water.

The swollen river was still rising in Ohio, closing parts of 15 highways in southern and southeastern counties, and flood waters from the White and Wabash Rivers closed eight secondary roads in Indiana.

Further back up the valley, the Allegheny and Monongahela Rivers were falling at Pittsburgh, Pa., after cresting at 22.1 feet, well below the 25-foot flood stage. However, Monongahela, flood waters still covered part of the parking wharf in downtown Pittsburgh.

Meanwhile, temperatures varied as much as 71 degrees in different parts of the nation and about 200 "marooned" skiers were having the time of their lives in snow-bound Utah mountain lodges.

The nation's temperatures ranged from one below zero at Glasgow, Mont., to 70-degree highs in southern Texas and Florida early Thursday. Wednesday, the mercury went to a balmy 89 at Alice, Tex.

Snow drifts left by a weekend blizzard still blocked the roads to three ski lodges in Utah's Wasatch mountains, but most of the skiers were staying "marooned" by choice.

Those who wanted to escape got out by snow tractors. Meanwhile new arrivals took their place at the snowbound Alta lodges to take advantage of the perfect skiing conditions.

Burns arrived at the truce demarcation line from Israel. He was accompanied by an Israeli military escort up to a point five miles from the line, but continued without escort across the dangerous zone.

An Egyptian military escort awaited him to escort the Canadian general to this desert town where Arabs have rioted for two days in a demand for arms to avenge the Israeli attack of Monday night.

Immediately on his arrival at the Egyptian-held perimeter Burns went to the scene of the Israeli raid in which 39 Egyptians were killed.

Egyptian authorities said there were no incidents along the frontier area during the night.

SEEMS YOU CAN'T HARDLY FIND THEM THINGS NO MORE

The Pampa Daily News had a problem Wednesday — where to find a Texas Flag in Pampa for Texas Independence Day.

The Chamber of Commerce, National Guard, American Legion-Veterans of Foreign Wars, Army Reserve units, post office, law enforcement offices, Boy Scouts, rodeo association, library, city historians, the courtyards, all were checked.

And not a one of them could produce a Texas Flag.

County Lets Bridge Work

Wex-Tex Construction Co. of Pampa and Berger today was awarded the contract for building Sand Creek Bridge, eight miles east of Letort, and a culvert, west of Letort.

The winning bid was $17,346.77. Four bidders.

The Gray County Commissioners Court opened four bids on the project. The other three bidders, all bidding higher, were Gilvin-Terrell, Inc.; Amarillo; Cooper and Woodruff; Amarillo; and Frost Construction Co., Hydro, Okla.

The court, however, did not take any action on the hiring of county doctor, county welfare officer and county juvenile officer. County Judge Bruce Parker explained that all three were scheduled to be named this morning, but that the county doctor selection bowed out at the last minute.

It is expected that the three new county officials will be named Monday, Judge Parker said.

In other action, the court authorized County Agent Ralph Thomas to purchase 10,000 pounds of birdseed for county high ways.

Parker R-ads Bids
Looking on while the bridge bids were being opened were County Auditor Ray Wilson, Senior Resident Highway Engineer G. K. Reading, County Tax Collector Jack Back and Wayland Merriman, the court's consultant engineer. Judge Parker opened the bids, Merriman read them and Wilson put them down on a tabulating sheet.

It did not take Wilson long to get the bids tabulated.

One of unsuccessful bidders.

Union May Tie Up ABC, NBC

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3 — UP—The National Association of Broadcast Employees and Technicians Union (CIO) said Thursday a nationwide strike against the National Broadcasting Co. and American Broadcasting Co. was imminent.

The union, which represents radio and TV engineers, script writers and editors, said its membership has rejected a new contract negotiated early this year.

No date for the strike was announced and Union President Cliff Rothery said an attempt would be made to negotiate the disputed issues in the contract.

Rothery said he believed the membership rejected the contract because of unsatisfactory settlement of fringe benefits. He said the contract provided an 8 per cent wage increase.

The disputed issues included the wage scales of non-technical employees, jurisdiction over film production and editing for TV, a job security provision and length of the contract.

Rothery said the membership opposed the three-year contract term demanded by the networks.

The NABET represents some 2,500 employees in the two networks and a strike would affect all network-owned stations as well as radio and TV productions for the networks in New York, Chicago and Hollywood.

Quemoy, Matsu Not 'Easy Pickings'

TAIPEI, Formosa, March 3 — UP — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles warned the Chinese Communists Thursday not to assume that they or their mainland bases were safe from attack if the Reds attack the Nationalist offshore islands of Matsu and Quemoy.

Dulles issued the warning at the end of a momentous two-hour conference with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek which was attended by some of the United States' top naval leaders. He took off for Washington at once, leaving behind his military experts to build up the Nationalist war strength.

Shortly before the meeting with Chiang on the Generalissimo's home on grass mountain, Dulles signed the final ratification papers putting the American-Chinese defense treaty into formal operation. It is under that treaty the Nationalist air force, army and navy will be built up.

Dulles told the Peiping regime to "practice what they preach" about peace and cease their threats against Formosa and stressed the United States hoped Peiping would not touch a war.

He added that the United States would welcome efforts by the United Nations and peace-loving nations to find a solution to the Formosa crisis.

To Stick With Chiang
But he made it clear the United States would "not enter into any negotiations dealing with the territories or rights of the Republic of China, except in cooperation with the Republic of China," a statement that ruled out Russian suggestion for a Geneva-type "peace conference" without Chiang.

Nationalist sources said Chiang told a secret "war session" of the Kuomintang (ruling government party) Thursday their task is to "recover the mainland and rebuild the country" and that they must redouble their efforts to overcome unprecedented hardship.

It is the ardent hope of the United States that the Chinese Communists will not insist on war as an instrument of its policy," he said.

"The United States and the Republic of China have no alternative but to stand firm."

Signs Defense Treaty
He made the statement within hours after he and the Nationalist Foreign Minister George Yeh signed the ratification papers putting the U.S.-Nationalist defense treaty formally into effect.

Dulles said President Eisenhower himself would make the decision what to do if the Communists attack the Nationalist two main offshore islands.

Formosa is the area today where the Chinese Communists most actively press their aggressive designs," Dulles said. "They openly threatened an armed attack against an area which the United States is committed to help to defend."

"It is not possible at this time to state explicitly how that defense will be conducted. The treaty area insofar as regards the Republic of China, covers Formosa and the Pescadores and an armed attack directed against those islands."

Centenarian Dies
MIAMI, Fla., March 3 — UP—Frank B. Fowler, who said that he was a boy he sold mules to the first election poured in. Leaders of Union Army during the Civil War, Prime Minister Jawaharlal died Tuesday at the age of 101. He Nehru's Congress party were jubilated here 17 years ago from Berlin over success such as they had wick, Pa., where he had been an ever anticipated even in their American Car and Foundry Co. most hopeful moments.

Some 20 American, French and Mexican Catholics gathered into his apartment-chapel Thursday where he had ministered to westerners under a special Anglo-Soviet agreement as the only foreign priest in the Soviet Union.

The kneeling diplomats and their wives and children filled the tiny chapel and overflowed into the priest's living room as he struggled to complete the rite, his face twisted and tears rolling down his cheeks.

Bissonnette was called in by police Wednesday night and informed he must leave within four days. He began packing immediately.

In Washington American officials said they expected Russia to let another priest replace him, following a pattern they set in 1949. At that time they refused to allow the American priest then assigned to Moscow to return to his post from a brief trip outside the Soviet Union.

The Pampa Zoning Commission will hold a public hearing at 3 p. m. March 21 in the City Commission Room of City Hall on the proposed zoning of the parts of the Engler-Bucklew and Jarvis-Sone Additions that were annexed Tuesday by the Pampa City Commission.

Residential Area
The zoning commission met Wednesday afternoon and called the public hearing to make the area residential according to City Director of Public Works James Cowan, an ex-officio member of the zoning commission.

Following the public hearing the zoning commission will make a recommendation to the city commission which will then call a public hearing of its own. Only after both public hearings are held will final action be taken. Cowan said. By law, letters must be sent to residents who live inside the city limits and within 200 feet of the proposed zoning areas, advising them of each public hearing. That will affect only a few people in this case.

Expert Says Stock Market Is Sound

WASHINGTON, March 3 — UP—G. Keith Funston, president of the New York stock exchange, said Thursday a man with money in the stock market has nothing to fear except himself.

The lead-off witness in a full-scale Senate investigation of a current stock boom, Funston invited millions more Americans with the cash and the sense to use it to come in and buy stocks.

The stock market is healthy, he said, and the 1929 crash isn't likely to be repeated. This is true.

Funston said, despite some people who have "paid more attention to tips and rumors" than they should have. He credited the boom to the fact that the public feels business is good and the future bright.

Other developments:
Senate leaders of both parties said indications are the Senate will reject the House-approved 20-percentage income tax cut by a margin of from five to 20 votes. They emphasized, however, the outlook could change if a new tax-cut formula is devised.

MATUSOW
Senate investigators plan to question two former friends of Harvey Matusow who said the confessed liar boasted his activities as a government informant on communism would make him a movie star. The friends, Mr. and Mrs. John J. (Ed) Edmiston, said in affidavits that Matusow talked of writing his autobiography for the movies and playing the starring role himself. He has since retracted his testimony about Communism.

HARLAN
The Senate Judiciary committee was called to a closed-door meeting for a showdown vote on the nomination of Federal Judge John Marshall Harlan of New York to be a Supreme Court justice. The committee was expected to approve Harlan, but some of the 15 members predicted a close vote.

TERMS
President Eisenhower's suggestion that House members be given four-year instead of two-year terms drew praise from Reps. Clyde Doyle (D-Calif.), Abraham J. Multer (D-N.J.) and Frederic R. Couder (R-N.Y.). All have introduced proposed constitutional amendments to set up four-year terms. But Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) doubted four-year terms ever will be adopted.

Teachers Still Out At Irving Schools

IRVING Tex., March 3 — UP—More than 200 of Irving's public school teachers and employees refused to return to work Wednesday despite the school board's ultimatum that employees would be fired unless they resumed their duties.

The teachers and other employees went on "strike" Tuesday in a growing trustee vs. faculty controversy over the firing of Supt. John L. Beard, who was let out two weeks ago without a public explanation.

A spokesman for the dissenting group, William S. Ward, said the school board had refused to meet with them. Ward, principal of the Plymouth Park elementary school, said the group wasn't going back to work until "unsatisfactory conditions" in schools were corrected.

Fire Nine Others

The school board Tuesday fired nine school officials, including Ward, as the dispute continued to grow.

A citizens' group secured 3,000 signatures to a petition Wednesday requesting that the nine school officials be reinstated or else members of the school board quit.

School employees who refused to return to work Wednesday included 126 of the system's 198 teachers; all 34 maintenance men; all 42 employees of the schools lunch rooms; 11 of 12 office personnel and six of the seven school principals.

Income Tax Forms Still Too Complex

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS

WASHINGTON, March 3 — UP—The senior senator from Wisconsin has a complaint.

But he has no copyright on it. The American taxpayer agrees with Sen. Alexander Wiley, the Republican from Chippewa Falls, that income tax form 1040 still is too complex.

"Even the new or 'simplified form' is so complicated," says the gray-haired senator, who will be 71 in May, "that it would take a lawyer, or a Ph.D. or a certified public accountant to understand it."

The Wisconsin lawgiver is a lawyer, sure. Also a businessman. Still, the new forms confuse him. He's not alone. He gets a lot of mail, not only from the home of the budget, but also from around the country.

A lot of it, he says, contains complaints against the new federal income tax forms.

"Congress," he says, "previously had written in numerous statutory changes to be of help to the taxpayer in reducing certain of his tax liabilities. But one of the results is a 'simplified' form — a form which is full of all sorts of instructions difficult to follow."

The senator fills out his own income tax forms. Then he turns them over to a board of experts hired to help members of congress. Generally he doesn't run into much trouble, but sometimes he does. The common man winds up in a sweater of confusion.

To the dairy farmer in Wis. Moffat 38, his wife, Katherine contain, whose problems are common. Louis, 31, and their four children, plighted by the fact that he buys Wayne, 11; Vickie Lyn, 8; Kana, a cow, sells her and buys a couple dice, 7, and Gregory, 3, were found of hiders. All of that has to be in the Moffat home Tuesday morning, to be sure.

But the farmer is not allowed to do such things. He has to record every sale or trade if he is to be honored. To simplify that sort of performance, naturally, would be difficult, but Sen. Wiley thinks it could be done.

"The farmer's problem is apart from that of the average taxpayer. There is no reason why the average American—with comparatively easy tax information to volver was lying near his hand, write up—should have to consult officers said.

Veterinarian Kills Family

PHEONIX, March 3 — UP—A Phoenix veterinarian shot and killed his wife and four children, then took his own life, the Maricopa county sheriff's office reported Tuesday.

The bodies of Dr. George C. Moffat 38, his wife, Katherine contain, whose problems are common. Louis, 31, and their four children, plighted by the fact that he buys Wayne, 11; Vickie Lyn, 8; Kana, a cow, sells her and buys a couple dice, 7, and Gregory, 3, were found of hiders. All of that has to be in the Moffat home Tuesday morning, to be sure.

Sheriff's deputies said the veterinarian apparently shot each member of the family, then shot himself in the head with a .38 caliber revolver, naturally, would be difficult, but Sen. Wiley thinks it could be done.

Bodies of the two girls were found on a bed in one bedroom, and the boys were on beds in another room of the house. Mrs. Moffat was lying in the entrance to the girls' room, and Dr. Moffat on the living room floor. The relatively easy tax information to volver was lying near his hand, write up—should have to consult officers said.

Physicist's Statement Hard To Believe In Light Of Reputation

By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Foreign Analyst
If scientist Bruno Pontecorvo is telling the truth he may be

IN RUSSIA -- Bruno Pontecorvo, British atomic scientist who vanished several years ago, is now in Russia, two Communist newspapers have revealed. The two papers, Pravda and Izvestia, carried an article Tuesday by Pontecorvo calling for worldwide ban on atomic weapons. (NEA Telephoto) master-minding some of those big schemes for utilizing nuclear energy of which Soviet Russia boasts. Pontecorvo, disclosing that he had gone behind the Iron Curtain in 1950, implied, if he did not actually say, that he was working exclusively on research involving the use of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes.

Of course, there is no essential reason to believe him. Italian-born Pontecorvo fled to France from the Fascists. When Germany invaded France in 1940, Pontecorvo sought refuge in Great Britain.

Bruno Betrays Secrets
He became a naturalized British subject, learned Britain's atomic secrets and then betrayed them to Russia. A man who did that might well be a liar as well as a renegade.

But taking Pontecorvo at his word, he may be doing some practical work for the Kremlin as well as engaging in pure scientific research.

Russia claims the leadership in the peaceful use of atomic energy as well as of the manufacture of the hydrogen bomb and practically everything else. It would hardly be surprising to hear from the Moscow radio a claim that some prehistoric Russian invented love.

Russians Begin Probing
But Russian science has been probing into the secrets of atomic energy for many years.

It was back in 1934 that Russian-born atomic scientist Peter Kapitza, who had become world famous in his field through years of study in Britain, went to Russia on a visit and was kept there.

Russia also captured many German atomic scientists at the end of World War II and took them to aid in its research.

The late Andrei Y. Vishinsky really startled the world when he announced in the United Nations in November, 1949, that Russia was using atomic energy on a gigantic scale.

Energy Is Utilized
"We are utilizing atomic energy for our economic needs," Vishinsky said.

"We are razing mountains. We are irrigating deserts. We are cutting through the jungle and the tundra. We are spreading life, happiness, prosperity and welfare in places where the human footstep has not been seen for thousands of years."

Vishinsky's statement turned out to be somewhat premature—it was admitted that Russia merely planned to do all those things.

Nuclear Energy Studied
But in the years since then, Russia has worked steadily on the peaceful use of nuclear energy, as well as on A-bombs and H-bombs.

Russians schemes include vast irrigation projects in which atomic energy would be used to divert the course of Arctic rivers, blast canals and operate huge power stations. These schemes would change the climate of wide areas.

Only last week Moscow quoted Soviet scientific periodicals as describing a plan to heat the soil in Arctic and sub-Arctic areas, and make it possible to harvest several crops a year.

Hoover Report Stuns Bonham
BONHAM, Tex., March 3—UP—Bonham folk don't see why it would be good sense to eliminate a hospital operating at capacity.

The Bonham Chamber of Commerce and other citizens were rallying to protest the Hoover Commission report which cites wastes in government medical facilities and lists the Bonham veterans center as one which could be eliminated.

The chamber said that the $5 million facility had always operated at capacity and that figures would be presented to show that the operation of the center was "effective and economical."

The chamber added that the 296-bed domiciliary had a population of 300 members now and that 50 of 56 beds in the general hospital were filled at all times with six being held in reserve.

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Produce the body!
That in effect is what a writ of "habeas corpus" demands of a sheriff or jailor. That means: Bring the prisoner to court on a valid charge or turn him loose.

Habeas corpus has long been a standby of the "who-done-it" writer, but it has been a standby for us and our liberties for a much longer time.

In old times, the king or tyrant could jail you on a whim, with no chance of a day in court. No one dared to question him.

In 1215 the English barons had taken all they could stand from King John. They demanded his written guarantee of their rights—the Magna Carta. Among their rights, they wanted the right to a day in court.

The English Petition of Rights asked for habeas corpus in 1628. It said, "no man should be put in jail or held without cause shown to which he may answer according to law."

The Habeas Corpus Act became law 51 years later.

Our national Constitution says that "the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it."

Let's see how habeas corpus works.

Suppose a policeman arrests and puts you in jail. You have the right to be brought to court for a hearing. In court the judge should tell you of the charges against you and your rights to counsel and a fair trial.

But what if you don't get a hearing — in a reasonable time? Then somebody is unlawfully taking away your freedom. Consequently, your lawyer may go into court and get a writ of habeas corpus on your behalf.

"The writ commands your jailor to 'produce the body.' Your jailor must show that he holds you lawfully or turn you loose. In court, the judge looks into the charges against you. He may hear witnesses. If he cannot find that you are held lawfully, he will order you turned loose. If he finds cause, you then can ask for reasonable bail.

Visiting Russ Will See A 'Revolution'

By CHARLES KROUSE
DES MOINES, March 3—UP—If the Russians come to Iowa to see how the state grows its corn they'll find themselves in the middle of a revolution. An agricultural revolution, that is.
C. H. Elder, spokesman for the Iowa State College Extension Service, said the farm experts from Moscow would also be in for a few "eye openers."
For one thing, he said, the song about Iowa and "that's where the tall corn grows" is just a "myth."
Actually, the tendency in the Hawkeye State nowadays is towards shorter corn stalks and longer ears, Elder said.
There's a lot of other things on the Iowa farm lands, Elder said—

New Voters Must Have Exemption

Pampans who have turned 21 since Feb. 1 had to apply for an exemption today if they wished to vote in the Pampa school board election scheduled April 2.
But they had two more days to apply for one if they only wanted to vote in the election April 5 for mayor and city commission.
County Tax Collectorack Back said today not a single one had applied for an exemption thus far. The law states that the exemption must be applied for 30 days before the election.

TESTIMONY

a psychiatrist hadn't told her she was a pathological liar.
"Just a Mixed Up Kid"
"The psychiatrist told me I was just a mixed up kid," she replied. Dianne left her husband after only a few months of marriage. The husband has been here all during the trial and says he wants to effect a reconciliation.
Mrs. Caskey was the first witness called Wednesday and she testified she did not abuse Randy Gene in any way. She also testified under questioning that Dianne "was very good to the baby while she cared for it."
Under cross-examination, the mother testified she had been married previously and that she had a child by a former marriage.
Still under cross-examination she said she was married to her second husband, Aug. 7, 1953 and that Randy Gene was born March 21, 1954.
She admitted that the wedding was "a forced marriage."

so many that the state has been going through "an agricultural revolution" in the last 20 to 25 years.
It still isn't decided whether Russian farmers will get a chance to see Iowa's "revolution."
The idea was suggested by the Des Moines Register and Tribune as one of the ways the Russians might solve their agricultural difficulties.
A Soviet publication, Agriculture, promptly endorsed the plan and said American farmers might like to visit Russia in return. In Washington Wednesday President Eisenhower said he would favor the plan, providing legal and other problems can be solved.
Whatever the outcome, Iowa would be a good place to start looking for Russians who want to find out about American agriculture.
The state leads the nation in production of corn, hogs market cattle and eggs. One fourth of the nation's best land lies within Iowa's borders and 96.5 per cent of it is under expert cultivation.
Although Hawkeye farmers no longer try to produce towering corn stalks they can grow 'em tall when they want to.
Last fall, in competition with Ohio, a Washington, Iowa, farmer produced a stalk that was 26 feet, nine inches tall. He won, hands down.
McGuire, a reporter for the Chicago Times and Sun-Times for 10 and a half years, played a major role in the freeing of Joe Majczek from Stateville penitentiary.
Majczek had been convicted in 1933 on charges of killing a Chicago policeman. His mother, after slaying for years, put an ad in the Times in 1944 offering a reward for evidence leading to the arrest of the real killer.
McGuire and other members of the Times staff investigated the case and obtained a pardon for Majczek in 1945.
The story was made into a 1948 motion picture, "Call Northside 777," in which actor James Stewart portrayed McGuire.
McGuire received several national newspaper awards, including the 1945 award for outstanding general reporting from Sigma Delta Chi, the 1946 Heywood Brown memorial award of the American Newspaper Guild and the 1946 National Headliners Club award for "outstanding public service."
He is survived by his wife, Betty.

Jet Liner May Develop From AF Ship

WASHINGTON, March 3—UP—A new jet plane to be designed for the Air Force is expected to lead to development of a commercial transport capable of spanning the continent in about four hours.
Air Secretary Harold E. Talbot said Wednesday the Air Force has contracted with Lockheed Aircraft Corp. to design an advanced jet tanker plane for in-flight refueling to extend the range of jet bombers.
If successfully developed for military use, the ship would certainly be produced also as a passenger transport which could fly at speeds exceeding 600 miles an hour. Such a plane would be the world's fastest commercial jet transport.
Talbot also disclosed plans to order an additional $460 million worth of jet tankers from Boeing Airplane Co., Seattle, Wash. Boeing's 550 mile-an-hour KC-135 Stratotanker already is in production and new orders will be placed over "an extended period" will bring total contracts to $700 million.
Informed sources expect Boeing to build at least 200 of the aerial gas stations which will team with the mammoth eight-jet B-52 Stratofortress to comprise a global hydrogen and atomic bombing force.
The Stratotanker was developed as a $15 million private venture and is being offered in a commercial version, carrying up to 130 passengers.
Authorities believe the Lockheed plane, a new jet tanker in tanker transport design, would be built at the huge Marietta, Ga., plant if the Air Force eventually orders production. Designed for very high speed, the plane will carry its four engines as an integral part of its fuselage, leaving its sharply swept-back wings unmarred by the familiar jet pods on other U.S. planes.

Famous Chi Reporter Dies

CHICAGO, March 3—UP—James P. McGuire, Chicago Sun-Times police reporter who gained nationwide fame by helping to free an innocent man convicted of murder, died of a heart attack Wednesday night. He was 51 years old.
McGuire collapsed in front of an elevator in the building where he lived. Efforts by a fire department inhalator squad to revive him failed.
McGuire, a reporter for the Chicago Times and Sun-Times for 10 and a half years, played a major role in the freeing of Joe Majczek from Stateville penitentiary.
Majczek had been convicted in 1933 on charges of killing a Chicago policeman. His mother, after slaying for years, put an ad in the Times in 1944 offering a reward for evidence leading to the arrest of the real killer.

Fire Guts Two Rooms Of House

Two rooms of a house, plus the furniture and clothing in them, were destroyed by fire at 10:25 a.m. today.
Fire Chief Ernest Winborne said the fire occurred in the home of Alex Holt, 720 S. Gray, where youngsters were playing while the parents were away at work. The kids were not injured, he said.
The blaze started in the bedroom, then moved on into the living room. Winborne estimated the damage — and it was a rough guess — at $1,200-$1,500.

Big Spring Composer Is Back In Jail

BIG SPRING, Tex., March 3—UP—Frank Grandstaff, the convict who won a pardon from a life term in Tennessee after composing the "Big Spring Cantata," was back in jail Thursday.

An extradition warrant from Wisconsin reached Big Spring Wednesday charging Grandstaff with violating parole in Wisconsin, where he was convicted of burglary after getting the pardon in Tennessee.
"I have committed no crimes in the state of Wisconsin and I will fight extradition down to the wire," Grandstaff told District Judge Charlie Sullivan at an extradition hearing.

Sullivan ordered Grandstaff back to jail until he employs an attorney.
Grandstaff wrote the "Big Spring Cantata" while he was serving in the Tennessee prison. He was given a week's leave of absence to hear the cantata dedicated in Big Spring in 1947. In 1950 he was pardoned. But he went to Wisconsin and was convicted of burglary. He was given a one-to-three-year sentence, and served from August, 1952, to November, 1954, when he was let out.

He came to Big Spring and played the piano in a cafe. A month ago he became manager of a Mexican restaurant named "Carlos Restaurant," which serves Mexican food with music.
Wisconsin authorities said Grandstaff was released on parole. He contends he was released unconditionally, since he had got enough time off for good behavior to cancel out the rest of his term. He said that for that reason he has not been reporting to Wisconsin parole authorities.

District Attorney Guilford L. Jones said Grandstaff may employ an attorney to fight extradition, which would be in the form of a writ of habeas corpus. As soon as the application is filed he will be eligible for release on bond.
The application will then be heard in district court, and if its decision is unfavorable he may appeal to the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. Jones said Texas courts will rule only on whether the extradition request meets requirements of the law and will not rule on whether Grandstaff is a parole violator.

Cotton Land Vote Delayed

WASHINGTON, March 3—UP—The Senate Agriculture committee has put off action on legislation increasing cotton acreage until it holds public hearings on the proposal.
Hearings will be held by a subcommittee Friday, Saturday and Monday. The committee agreed to meet next Tuesday to consider possible action.
A subcommittee on cotton headed by Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-S.C.), already has approved a bill providing a 3 per cent increase in the allotment of 18.1 million acres set by the Agriculture Department for this year. It is similar to legislation already approved by the House, but provides for a different division of the added 3 per cent among cotton-producing states.

Both House and Senate measures are designed to relieve hardships among cotton farmers caused by the sharp reduction in the cotton acreage ceiling for this year's crop.

GI's Appeal Rejected By Jap Court

TOKYO, March 3—UP—The Japanese supreme court Thursday rejected the first appeal ever brought by an American serviceman sentenced to prison by a lower court.
The high court upheld the decision of two lower courts and rejected the appeal brought by military police Cpl. Dennis Chaney of Los Angeles, Calif. He was sentenced to two and one-half years in prison for entering a private home and attacking a Japanese woman.
Chaney's appeal was based on ground that he was on duty when the crime was committed. Therefore, his attorney argued, Japanese courts did not have jurisdiction in the case.
The supreme court ruled "the crime may have been committed during the time the defendant was on duty, but the act itself had no connection with his official duties."
It was the first case of a convicted serviceman carrying an appeal to the supreme court since the U.S. - Japanese administrative agreement was signed in Oct., 1953. The pact gave Japan jurisdiction over American servicemen who commit crimes off a military post.

A two-car accident at 10:20 p.m. Wednesday at the intersection of S. Cuyler and Atchison resulted in minor damage to both cars. A vehicle driven by Vernon A. Heinrichs, 27, of 628 1/2 Somerville, was in collision with a car driven by Bobby Lee Winborne, 20, Pampa.
Earlier in the evening at Hobart and W. Foster a two-car accident involving Velma Marx of White Deer and Charles D. Gilbert, 27, of 2246 Williston, resulted in six damage to Gilbert's automobile.

Death To Be Sought In Mother's Trial

GALVESTON, March 3—UP—County Attorney Marsene Johnson said Thursday he will ask for the death penalty for Mrs. Ann Williams, admitted slayer of her two sons, Calvin, 8, and Conrad, 9.
If sentenced to death and the sentence carried out, Mrs. Williams, a slim, 28-year-old Pasadena five-and-dime store clerk, would be the first woman ever to die in the electric chair in Texas.
Mrs. Williams, whose husband, Hoyt Williams, is serving time in a Georgia prison for auto theft, confessed killing her children by strangulation and then dismembering their bodies with a razor blade.
Johnson said he has uncovered considerable evidence to support the confession and "this is one of the most horrible crimes I've ever seen," he said.
"There's no question about it," he added, "I'll ask for the death penalty."
The bodies were found in a shallow grave where Mrs. Williams helped to bury them near the community of Algoa in Galveston county. The case will be tried here.

Water Bills Flood State Legislature

AUSTIN, March 3—UP—The Texas Senate, already complaining it had so many water proposals they were confusing, had more to consider Thursday as one killed by committee was revived and two approved by the House were sent across the Capitol.
A "package" water conservation bill, sponsored by Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro, was revived in the upper chamber after being killed earlier in committee. It would create a multi-million dollar fund to bolster financing of local-level dam building projects.
Martin brought it up on a minority committee report and received the necessary two-thirds support as he warned that killing his bill might endanger all other water conservation measures. The water situation has been tabbed by the governor as a key issue before this session.
Rev. Dick Crews officiated at the services. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of the Duengel-Carmichael Funeral Home.
Mrs. Clark was born March 5, 1890, at Winsboro, and had been a resident of the Pampa-Lefors area the past 40 years. A member of the First Christian Church, Loyal Women's Sunday School Class, and the Brummett Circle, Mrs. Clark came here from Beckham County, Okla. She made her home at 315 N. Ballard.
Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Luella Kuehn, Dallas, and Mrs. Georgia Holding, Pampa; five sisters, Mrs. Orva Jolley, Bellflower, Calif.; Mrs. Elizabeth Chisum, Corona, Calif.; Mrs. Julia Woodward, Riverside, Calif.; Mrs. Margaret Heard, Costa Mesa, Calif.; and Mrs. Tommy Gray, Victorville, Calif.; and a brother, Dell Parks, Elko, Nev.
Burial was beside her husband's, Walter A. Clark, who died April 19, 1948.

Vet Land Sales Eyed By Jury

LAREDO, Tex., March 3-UP—Dimmitt county's grand jury will convene March 15 at Carrizo Springs to investigate veterans land sales.

District Judge R. D. Wright scheduled the grand jury meeting after a conference between Attorney General John Ben Shepperd, who has been investigating land sales, and District Attorney E. James Kazen.

Infant Killed In Car Wreck

SAN ANTONIO, March 3-UP—his mother's lap, was killed when a five-month-old infant was killed Wednesday in a collision of two cars, one of which was carrying the baby's ill father to a hospital. The child's father, Juan Gutierrez, 36, had suffered a heart attack and was being driven to Santa Rosa hospital. The car collided at an intersection with another vehicle and the Field bus near the Southern Pacific depot.

Fifth Amendment Pleader Upheld By Federal Judge

By JAMES FLECHUM
DENVER, March 3-UP—A federal judge ruled Wednesday that the president of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers did not have to tell a grand jury whether or not he was, or ever had been a Communist.

But before making his ruling, U.S. District Judge Jean S. Breitenstein elicited from the reluctant witness, John Clark, the fact that he was taking refuge in the Fifth Amendment on the ground that to give such testimony he might incriminate himself.

Clark Tuesday had refused to answer the federal grand jury's questions about any past or present Communist affiliations.

United States attorney Donald Kelley immediately asked that Clark, whose union has been involved in the difficulties with both the government and other labor organizations for some five years, be cited for contempt.

Attorneys for Clark argued at a brief hearing before Breitenstein that the government was attempting to use a "double-edged sword" against the stocky, 52-year-old union chief.

Possible Perjury Charge

Clark's attorneys argued that no matter how he might answer any questions about possible Red affiliations, he would be confronted in one instance by a possible perjury charge and on the other hand by prosecution under the Smith Act.

"We're damned if we do, and we're damned if we don't," Clark's attorney, Samuel D. Menin, told the court.

Before he made his ruling, Breitenstein insisted that Clark's counsel tell the court that the union president's refusal to answer the question put in the grand jury was based on the Fifth Amendment and that any such answers would incriminate the witness.

Immediately after the judge made his ruling, Clark was ordered to return to the grand jury room, presumably for more questioning.

Mine-Mill attorneys maintained that Kelley, by bringing Clark before Judge Breitenstein, had broken a pledge not to publicize anything that happened during the grand jury hearings.

Grand Jury Probes Dealings

The grand jury is investigating any dealing which the Mine-Mill union might have had with Harvey Matusow, author of "False Witness" and veteran government witness at Communist trials and congressional hearings.

Matusow, a former Communist, now claims that he told lies and half-truths in order to earn witness fees and to make himself a public figure.

He has admitted in an affidavit that his testimony against Mine-Mill official Clinton Jencks at El Paso, Tex., last year was a fabrication. Jencks, who was president of the Mine-Mill local at Bayard, N.M., was convicted of falsely swearing to Taft-Hartley anti-Communist affidavits.

New Trial Sought

He is seeking a new trial, based on Matusow's admissions.

The Denver grand jury ordered Mine-Mill headquarters at Denver to surrender records of letters, telephone calls and "payments" which passed between the union and Matusow during the past eight months.

Eight subpoenaed witnesses, including Clark, appeared before the grand jury Tuesday.

The Mine-Mill union claims about 70,000 members in western states and another 30,000 in Canada. It recently won a legal skirmish with the National Labor Relations Board.

Texas Hospital Mental Chief Is Appointed

AUSTIN, March 3-UP—Brig. Gen. Rawley Chambers, chief of professional services and head psychiatrist for the United States Army, will become mental director of the Texas state hospital system June 1.

Announcement of Chambers' appointment was made Tuesday by Dr. James Bethea, executive director of the Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools. Dr. Bethea said Chambers would retire from the Army on reaching his 60th birthday in May.

Chambers is a native of Ohio, and graduated from Ohio State University medical school in 1926.

He will assume the post held for the past two years by Dr. Sam Hoerster, who will remain as superintendent of the Austin state hospital.

Hoerster has been acting in the dual capacity of superintendent of the Austin hospital and as medical director since the resignation of Dr. L. P. Ristine as superintendent of the hospital. Dr. Ristine was appointed assistant commissioner of mental hygiene and hospitals for the state of Ohio last month.

Betha also announced appointment of Dr. W. L. Peterson as superintendent of the San Antonio tuberculosis hospital effective Oct. 1.

Betha said Chambers has served at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, prior to going to Korea about three years ago. Upon his return, he was assigned to Washington as the Army's chief psychiatrist.

"We think we have a very distinguished man," Betha said.

San Antonio Suspends Cop

SAN ANTONIO, March 3-UP—The police department has suspended San Antonio's controversial patrolman, Tom Reagan, pending an investigation of his activities in a "white supremacy" group.

Reagan heads the chapter for the "National Association for the Advancement and Protection of the Majority of White People."

Reagan's suspension, effective immediately, was announced by City Manager George Rice and ordered by Police Chief George Richmond.

Tuesday, Reagan filed as a candidate for a place on the city council in the April 5 election. He said he was running for the office to protect the interest of the "gentiles" in the city.

Nationalists Fear Trading For Cease Fire

TAIPEI, Formosa, March 3-UP—The Nationalists fear that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles will ask them to give up the islands of Quemoy and Matsu in exchange for a cease-fire in the Formosa Strait, reliable sources reported Wednesday.

Dulles is scheduled to arrive here Thursday from Manila for an important "war council" with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and top American and Chinese Nationalist military commanders on the Formosa crisis.

Vice Adm. Alfred M. Pride, commander of the U.S. Seventh Fleet who arrived here Wednesday from Japan, told newsmen the fleet is "substantially" as strong as it was during the Tachen evacuation and is prepared to meet any Communist attack.

Pride refused to disclose whether the fleet would move deeper into the strait between Formosa and China to head off threatened Communist invasion of Quemoy and Matsu and said, "I won't reveal our tactics, but I'd like for the other fellow to reveal his."

Dulles has hinted the Seventh Fleet would defend Quemoy and Matsu if a Communist attack were aimed at Formosa and the Pescadores, but has not made a clear-cut announcement.

Britain, seeking to end the Formosa crisis through "secret diplomacy," has suggested that giving up the two off-shore bases would mean an automatic cease-fire. Nationalist leaders have vowed repeatedly they will never give up these two remaining islands.

MIXING CAKE — Mrs. Dan Glaxner is shown mixing up her orange cocoanut cake, which she says is a good dish for company or during holidays. She says that if the cake will be eaten quickly, it tastes better to use fresh cocoanut. But fresh cocoanut only lasts about three days. (News Photo)

This Is My Dish

Orange Coconut Cake Good Company Treat

By JANE KADINCO
Pampa News Women's Editor

Mrs. Dan Glaxner, 701 N. Gray, has a good recipe for a company cake which her family likes very much. Mrs. Glaxner says she likes to cook, especially when she's hungry. And she has been doing it since she was 12 years old. She says she just learned herself with the aid of a cook book.

Mrs. Glaxner says her family likes "plain food"—nothing fancy. Her husband is a good cook, also, as well as her son and her daughter.

"We just all seem to take to it naturally," she advised.

Born in Arkansas and reared in Louisiana, Mrs. Glaxner has been a Panaman for 28 years. Her husband is general superintendent for the Columbian Carbon Company.

In addition to her household duties, Mrs. Glaxner is a member of the First Baptist Church. She used to be active in the League of Women Voters and in the Girl Scout organization. In her spare time, she does a lot of handwork, including sewing, knitting, crocheting and needlepoint. She also makes a lot of her daughter's clothes.

ORANGE COCONUT CAKE
 1/2 cup strained orange juice
 3/4 cup water
 1/2 cup shredded coconut
 Cream shortening. Add sugar and cream. Add orange rind and beaten egg yolks. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Add to creamed mixture alternately with orange juice and water. Add coconut. Fold in egg whites. Bake in 3 greased and floured 9 inch pans for 30 minutes at 325 degrees. When cooled, spread orange filling between layers and on top. Then cover with white frosting on top and sides.

ORANGE FILLING
 4 egg yolks
 2 Tbsp. flour
 4 Tbsp. cornstarch
 1 cup sugar
 1/2 tsp. salt
 4 Tbsp. water
 1/2 cup orange juice
 3 Tbsp. lemon juice
 1 Tbsp. grated orange rind
 2 tsp. butter

Beat egg yolks until light. Mix flour, cornstarch, sugar and salt and add to yolks. Heat orange juice, lemon juice and water to boiling point; add slowly to mixture. Cook until thick. Add orange rind and butter.

Mrs. Glaxner says she likes to make a double-recipe of filling to make thicker layers.

Tea With Honey Is Good Pick-Me-Up

A spot of tea in the mid-afternoon is a custom that we cherish. What can be more delightful than a warm drink on a blustery winter day? Tea is a great pick-up, especially when it is spruced up with a bit of honey. Honey, famous for its quick-energy sugars, blends beautifully with the hot tea, gives it a bit of sparkle, yet doesn't mask the tender taste of the tea itself. Simply stir in a teaspoonful of honey for each cup of hot tea and see if you don't agree.

This is a fine hint to remember when that unexpected company comes for an afternoon visit. Steep the tea in real boiling water, add honey to taste, then sink into an easy chair for a short five minutes.

And for special occasions here is a recipe for

HONEY SPICED TEA
 1 box stick cinnamon (1 1/4 ounces)
 1 box whole cloves (1 1/4 ounces)
 3/4 cup honey
 2 oranges, juice of 3, rind of 1
 6 lemons, juice of 6, rind of 1
 1-3 cup black tea
 5 quarts water, boiling

Cook spices, honey and grated rind with 2 cups water for 10 minutes. Let stand for 1 hour. Strain. Steep tea in the boiling water 1 minute. Then add fruit juice and spice mixture. Serve hot.

Duckling Fricassee Is Good Re-Heated

Here is a recipe for a delicious duckling fricassee with vegetables. Serve it with hot cooked rice and add a fruit salad, some rolls and forget about the dessert. Should there be any duckling left over, it reheats beautifully the next day.

1 Long Island duckling, 4 to 5 pounds ready-to-cook weight
 3 tablespoons duck fat
 1 clove garlic, minced
 3 tablespoons flour
 3-ounce can sliced broiled mushrooms
 1 1/2 cup duck broth
 3 tablespoons Sherry, optional
 1/2 teaspoon rubbed thyme
 1 teaspoon salt
 4 small white onions, peeled
 8 small carrots, trimmed
 5-ounce package pre-cooked rice

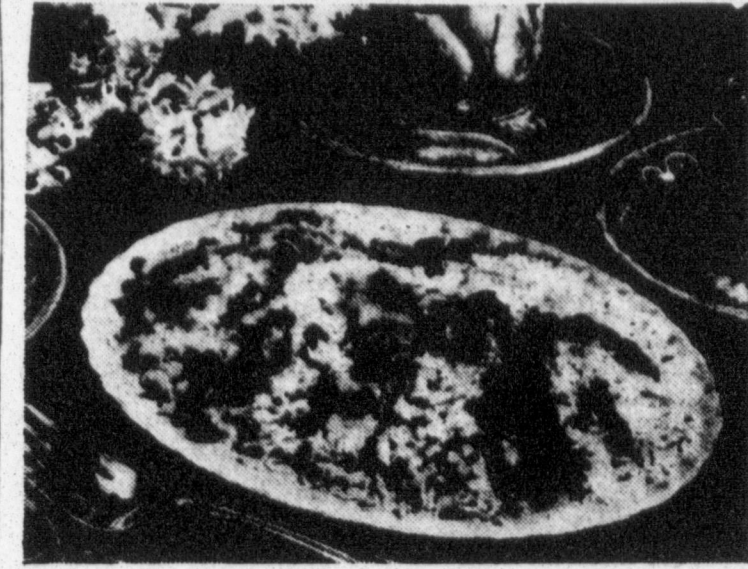

With sharp knife cut through skin of duckling along center of breast from neck to vent. Loosen skin by pulling away from flesh and at the same time running knife underneath. Cut skin where necessary, but keep flesh intact. Cut duckling in serving size pieces. Cook skin and fat with giblets and neck in 2 cups water and 1 teaspoon salt, until giblets are tender, about 45 minutes. Drain off liquid. Allow fat to rise to top, then pour it off. Place 3 tablespoons of the duck fat in large frying pan, or Dutch oven, over moderate heat. Brown pieces of duck lightly and remove to warm place. Add garlic to fat and cook 1 minute. Stir in flour. Add contents of can of mushrooms, duck broth and Sherry. Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens. Add thyme and salt. Place onions, carrots, coarsely cut duck giblets and pieces of duck in sauce. Cover tightly and cook over moderate heat until duck and vegetables are tender, about 45 minutes. Serve immediately. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Hints

Cool hot foods before storing them in the refrigerator. Foods keep longer if you leave plenty of space between containers for free circulation of air around them.

The arm sections of slipcovers usually are the first to wear out. To make them last longer, make a protective covering of the same fabric as the slipcover. Hem the arm covers for a neat look. They can be tucked in on the cushion side of the chair, and pinned or basted lightly along the outside.

Quick-Easy Lenten Treat

THIS DELICIOUS LENTEN DISH will become a favorite with both family and you. The family will like it for its fine flavor, you'll love its ease of preparation. That's because it's made with packaged pre-cooked rice. It's truly a hearty meal-in-one-dish, yet a cinch to make and a treat to eat.

TUNA AND GREEN BEANS WITH LEMON RICE
 1 1/2 cups (5-ounce package) packaged pre-cooked rice
 1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
 1/2-teaspoon salt
 1 1/2 cups boiling water
 1 1/2 tablespoons butter

Add packaged pre-cooked rice, lemon rind, and salt to boiling water in saucepan. Mix just to moisten all rice. Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 13 minutes. Add butter, mixing lightly with a fork.

Meanwhile, combine soup and milk in saucepan. Heat, stirring occasionally. Add tuna fish, green beans, and pepper. Mix and heat thoroughly. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

Serve over the rice. Arrange lemon rice in serving dish and top with the tuna and green beans.

*Use leftover or canned green beans. Or cook 1/2 package quick-frozen French style green beans or quick-frozen cut green beans. (ANS)

School Children Carry Stepping Stones Between Home, School In Lunch Boxes

A little bit of home is carried away from home — by many small hands that swing school lunch boxes. Their lunches are big stepping stones between breakfast and dinner — home and school.

To avoid slip-ups occurring in planning for the lunch box needs of the 3-R crowd, mother can follow the guide used by school lunch managers. This is the Type A Lunch of the National School Lunch Program and includes:

- 2-oz. serving protein-rich food
 - 3/4 cup serving vegetables and/or fruits
 - 1 portion bread, enriched or whole grain
 - 1/2 pint milk
 - 2 teaspoons butter or margarine
- To use this guide, mother will begin by choosing the protein-rich food which can easily be made the filling for sandwiches. It could be cooked meat or fish, (two ounces of which will be about one-fourth cup), used either in slices or chopped for blending with mayonnaise. The same measure of peanut butter or one-half cup of baked beans will fill two sandwiches and meet requirements for the protein food in the school lunch.

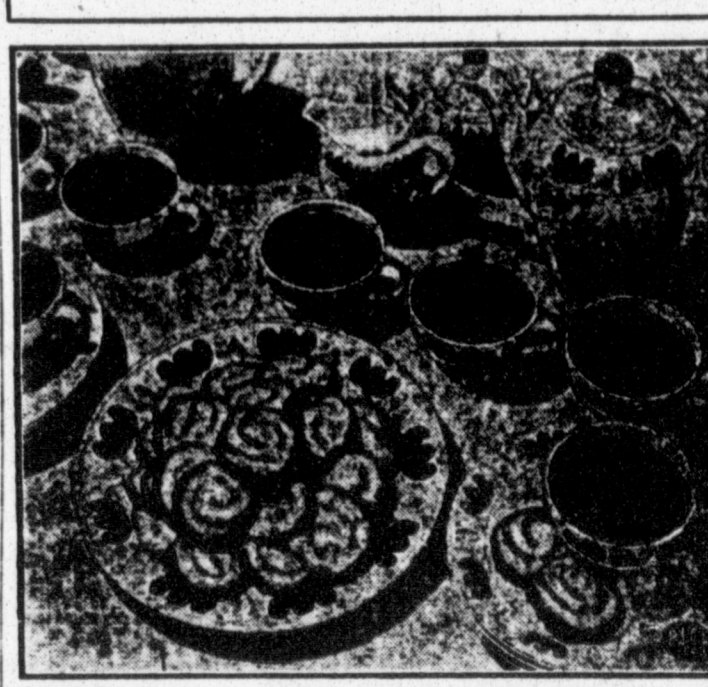

Mother can vary the sandwiches with the wide assortment of bakers' breads and rolls — enriched, whole wheat and rye plus the variety breads and buns. The butter or margarine is spread on the bread, not only for its food value but also to prevent fillings from soaking into the bread. Fresh vegetables should be wrapped separately to be eaten out of hand or included later in the sandwich at lunch time.

Additional foods may be planned to meet the high energy needs of children. These calories and further nutrients may come by way of easily carried desserts — cup cakes, cookies, or individual fruit pies. For the high school boy or girl, all servings should be increased and other foods added.

No slip-ups will occur, if eye appeal is considered and food nutrients most likely to be lacking creatures.

Robber flies feed on some of the worst pests that plague mankind but have no taste for warm-blooded creatures.

A Snack to Serve with Coffee After Church

WE DIDN'T realize, until we read a recent newspaper report, how valuable coffee has been in aiding the "back-to-church" movement in this country. But it seems that the neighborly custom of serving "coffee and" after the service has been one of the major factors in the current revival of churchgoing.

If you are an active church member, you might care to suggest that the custom be tried in your church, to help bind the congregation together and put new church members at ease. A chat with fellow-worshippers and new neighbors over a cup of coffee can mean a great deal to somebody who has just moved into the community.

If you now serve an a refreshments committee, of think you might form one for your own church, here's a recipe for easy-to-make Pinwheel Cookies to go with the coffee. They're spicy to the taste and very pretty. You just make the dough on Saturday, then roll it up and put it into the refrigerator. On Sunday morning, you slice it and bake it, and the fresh, warm cookies are all ready to go to church when you are.

 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
 1-3 cup confectioners' sugar

Blend butter, sugar and cinnamon together with fork or pastry blender until mixture is crumbly. Sprinkle evenly over cake. Yields 9 servings.

Dutch Rhubarb Pie Herald Of Spring

One of the nicest forerunners of spring is fresh rhubarb. And it's especially nice when that rhubarb is baked into luscious Dutch rhubarb pie, a pleasant combination of sliced fresh red rhubarb and a spicy-sweet milk mixture. Partially diluted evaporated milk is used to give added richness and smoothness to this liquid filling.

Over the open face of the pie is sprinkled a topping of sugar and cinnamon. The tartness of the rhubarb and the sugar and spices blend delightfully.

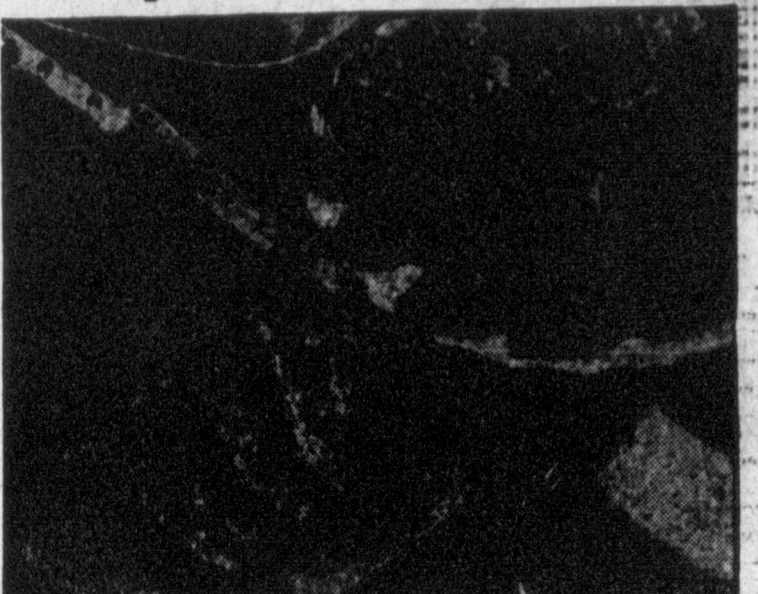

1 pound red rhubarb, cut in 1/2 inch slices (about 3 1/2 cups)
 1 8-inch unbaked pastry shell
 1 cup sugar
 5 tablespoons flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon cloves
 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
 1 cup evaporated milk
 1/2 cup water
 2 tablespoons butter, melted
 2 tablespoons sugar
 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Place sliced rhubarb in the unbaked pastry shell. Mix together in a small mixing bowl the 1 cup sugar, flour, salt, cloves, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, milk, water and butter. Pour over sliced rhubarb. Mix the 2 tablespoons sugar and the 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon and sprinkle over top of pie. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) until rhubarb is tender, about 55 minutes. Cool before serving. Makes 1 9-inch pie (6 to 8 servings).

New Upside Down Cherry Bran Bread

Cherry Bran Bread is no ordinary quick bread. It's chock-full of red maraschino cherries, fine 100 per cent whole bran and pecans. But, its delicious caramel-like cherry nut upside down topping makes it a truly distinctive bread.

A mixture of cherries, nuts, butter and brown sugar is spread in the bottom of the baking pan and covered with cherry bran batter. When the bread is baked, it is turned from the pan and cooled upside down so the cherry-nut mixture becomes a tempting topping.

To prevent quick breads from cracking on the top, try this trick of food experts. Be careful not to overmix the batter and cover the loaf pan with an inverted bread pan or cover with aluminum foil. At the end of 20 minutes of baking, remove pan or foil and continue baking.

Cherry Bran Bread
Topping:
 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
 1/2 cup light brown sugar
 1/2 cup pecans
 1/2 cup maraschino cherries
 1/2 cup chopped nuts

Melt butter or margarine in bottom of loaf pan and sprinkle brown sugar, cherries and nuts evenly over bottom of pan. Let stand while mixing the bread.

Batter:
 2 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
 2 teaspoons baking powder
 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 egg, beaten
 1 1/2 cups milk
 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
 1 cup whole bran
 1/2 cup chopped maraschino cherries
 1/2 cup chopped nuts

Sift together flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Combine egg and milk and stir into dry ingredients. Add melted butter or margarine, whole bran, cherries and nuts and mix until well blended. Pour into the prepared pan and bake in moderate oven (350°F.) for 1 hour to 1 hour and 10 minutes. Remove at once from pan onto rack. Cool before slicing. Yield: 1 loaf.

Onions With Creole Sauce Are Delicious

The lowly onion is fit for a king when it is fixed this way! Tender, yet just crisp enough to be interesting, the onions are smothered in a Creole sauce to rival any Creole sauce ever to come from a Southern kitchen.

Just imagine the taste of this very low cost dish — delicious smoked bacon, pieces of tender ham, crispy green pepper — and tender, white onions — smothered in a rich tomato sauce. But none of this wonderful sauce is lost because it is served on hot, fluffy, white rice. Yes, here's your answer to the "what to serve" question.

8 medium white onions
 2 slices bacon
 1 tablespoon flour
 1-3 cup chopped green pepper
 1/2 cup chopped cooked ham or luncheon meat
 1, 8 oz. can tomato sauce
 1/2 cup water
 1 small clove garlic, minced
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 3 cups hot, cooked white rice
 1-3 cup finely grated American or Parmesan cheese.

Method: Peel onions and cook in boiling, salted water until tender, about 15 to 20 minutes. Drain.

TV STAGE RADIO RECORDS PEOPLE

The Record Shop: If you've got a beautiful voice and beautiful technique, stay out of the recording field. That's the strange advice from Larry Grayson, whose first recording is "Because I Love You" on the new AA label.

"If you are technically too perfect, your records won't sell," Larry says. "The singers whose recordings sell gimmick up their voices. They deliberately develop a recognizable singing style. On the other hand, there are some technically great singers — far superior to the top stars — who don't sell. They are too perfect." Grayson took his own advice. He deliberately changed his well-taught baritone, and worked on a style which he hopes is "a male Joni James."

Decca is re-releasing more than 100 of Hildegard's old records and albums. She made Decca's first album, many yoo-hoos ago, and most of her standards have gone out of print. Now you'll be able to get them again. Excited?

Full up a plow and we will discuss the phenomenon of the record business, alias Eddy Arnold, alias the Tennessee Plowboy.

What makes handsome, likable Eddy phenomenal is a large dose of longevity. In a business where singers come and go (mostly go), his record record is astounding.

High Plains Wheat Crop Faces Fight

AUSTIN, March 3 —UP— Small grains prospects in the low rolling plains and eastward across the state continued favorable, but dry wheat prospects in the high plains area are poor, the United States Department of Agriculture reported Wednesday.

In its weekly crop and weather bulletin, the USDA said irrigated wheat in the high plains area had good prospects although greenbug infestations were reported.

In the Lower Valley, cotton replanting was active with some replanted cotton up to a stand. Favorable moisture over the eastern half of the state caused considerable activity in seed bed preparation for cotton, sorghums and corn.

Most South Texas flax was recovering from the mid-February freeze, the USDA said.

All commercial vegetables in South Texas were overcoming effects of the February freeze, but lettuce and broccoli showed some damage and were in limited supply. Good recovery was shown by cantaloupes, sweet corn, and tomatoes, and hardy type vegetables such as beets, carrots and cabbage were available in good volume.

The USDA reported considerable defoliation and damage to new growth of young citrus trees in the western end of the Lower Valley, but said old trees were unharmed and looked "exceptionally good." Marketing of cattle dropped off sharply over the western half of the state, and heavy supplemental feeding continued due to very poor range conditions.

(RCA), and he's made 275 records in those 10 years. "And I'm not ready to quit yet," he says, grinning.

While he's known officially as a country artist, he's almost as popular with the city, or non-country, record buyers. And he's not a professional hill-billy. He dresses in normal business suits and even in his personal appearances, he doesn't get decked out in chaps, spurs and pinto.

"Some of them," Eddy says, referring to his competitors, "get all dolled up with frizzles and spurs. I don't. I go out dressed like I am now. The suit is cut a little countryish, maybe, but not too much. And I wear these ties because I like them."

These ties he referred to are string ties, the Eddy Arnold trademark. They started out as a country-type cravat, but some of the slickest of the city slickers have copied the style.

Eddy is in the process of dropping his sub-billing. "The Tennessee Plow-Boy," especially on his new TV show. That's being filmed in Chicago, and Eddy commutes from Nashville a few times a week to step before the cameras. "I want to be remembered, when I hang up my guitar," Eddy says, "as Eddy Arnold, the singer, not Eddy Arnold, the Tennessee Plow-Boy."

Of all the country singers, Eddy sings more popular tunes than any. As he puts it, he sings "down-the-middle" songs. And down-the-middle is where a plow-boy should go. Or an explosion boy.

Jimmy Nelson, the ventriloquist, will make a children's album of Norwegian folk tales he's translating. He'll do all the voices himself. That's the advantage of being a ventriloquist — you can do a hill so-lo.

Dick's Picks: A "sleeper" is an item called "Knock, Knock, Knock-in" on RCA, with Carmen Romano on the vocal for the Noro Morales orchestra. Others: "Anything for a Friend" (Dolores Hawkins, Epic); "I Got A Sweetie" (Jo Stafford, Columbia); "I Think I'll Cry Again" (Rosalind Paige, MGM); "The Ballad of Davy Crockett" (The Voices of Walter Schumann, RCA); "I'm Lonely My Darling" (Fess Parker, Columbia); "I Should Have Known" (Bob Santa Maria, MGM).

The hands are back, and it's nice. Capitol has two of the best hand albums in many a moon — Ray Anthony's "Golden Horn" and Billy May's "Sorta-May." And they've also got "EG in Hi-Fi" which would be Benny Goodman with brand new recordings of his old favorites. Welcome.

Scientists Keep Watch On Volcano

HILO, Hawaii, March 3 —UP— Scientists kept a watchful eye over the Puuena cinder cone today lest boiling subterranean lava suddenly burst through the earth's surface in a renewal of volcanic activity.

Volcanologist Gordon MacDonald reported late Tuesday night after a seven-hour inspection tour that "all solid activity" had ceased. The cone, a remote rift of famed Kilauea volcano 25 miles away, ceased its rumbling Tuesday, 24 hours after it began. The flowing streams of lava slowly subsided into the ground along a three-mile fissure.

MacDonald said as the activity died down, he noted a "violent release of pressure, lasting about two hours." He said it was like a cinder cone heaving a last big sigh.

MacDonald said some 300 families which evacuated the village of Kapoho Monday night probably will be permitted to return to their homes.

One of the most expert brother combinations in bridge is that of Simon Becker, Philadelphia, and B. Jay Becker, of New York. The exploits of Jay, who has won just about every bridge championship known to man, sometimes cast his brother into the shade, and this takes a bit of doing because brother "Skippy" is one of the most skillful operators in the game.

I use the word "operators" deliberately because that is the word bridge players use when they talk about somebody who executes a neat and successful swindle. Skippy Becker was the hero and the operator of the swindle shown in today's hand.

Skippy opened the six of diamonds from the West hand against the quite reasonable contract of six hearts. Declarer won in dummy with the queen of diamonds, of course, and immediately led the ten of hearts for a finesse.

When the ten of hearts rode around to him, Skippy played low without a quiver. Declarer naturally thought that his finesse had succeeded and therefore repeated the finesse to guard against four trumps in the West hand. This time, of course, Skippy took the trick with the queen of hearts.

Becker then led a low spade, and dummy won with the ace. Declarer's only problem now was to get to his hand to draw the last trump. Rather naturally, South led a low club from dummy and played the king from his hand. This was just what Becker had been waiting for. He ruffed the first round of clubs with his remaining trump, thus defeating the slam contract.

When we're admiring Skippy Becker's nerve and ingenuity, let's not forget to toss a scallion to South for the carelessness with which he played the hand. After the ten of hearts had won a trump finesse, there were only three trumps out.

South could afford to take the ace and king of hearts and then give up one trick to the queen if it still hadn't dropped. If he had taken the top hearts in that way he couldn't possibly lose the slam. As the cards actually lay, of course, South would have made his slam contract with an overtrick.

Nugent Says He Was Advised To Make Propaganda Speech

FORT SILL, Okla., March 3—UP—Maj. Ambrose Nugent, charged with collaborating with the Communists during the Korean war, told a court martial board Wednesday the senior officer of Camp 12 advised him to make a speech saying the Koreans had treated prisoners of war well.

Nugent, 45-year old Merrill, Wis., career officer, testified for the second day in what was expected to be the final week of his trial. Nugent said the camp's senior officer, Lt. Col. Paul V. Liles, advised him to make the speech at a meeting just before Camp 12 was broken up. He said he told the meeting, on the advice of Liles, that the Koreans had treated POWs well and that the POWs all would go home and fight for peace.

The defendant said Liles told him the reason for the speech was that Liles had received information that the Communists were not going to send members of the central peace committee home when the other POWs were repatriated. The defense introduced as evidence a picture of Nugent taken on Dec. 1, 1953, the day he was released. An enlarged portion of the picture also was introduced, showing Nugent as very emaciated, hollow-eyed and weak looking. It was reported that Nugent weighed 126 pounds at the time.

The defense finished questioning Nugent at mid-morning and turned the witness over to the prosecution. Nugent denied offering information to the enemy and denied preventing an attempt to escape by himself and three other persons who were tied together.

Jet Crashes On Alaskan Takeoff
NAKNEK, Alaska, March 3—UP—An F-89-D Scorpion jet fighter plane of the 66th Fighter Interceptor squadron crashed and exploded on takeoff at the King Salmon Airfield near here Wednesday killing both the pilot and radar observer, the Air Force said Thursday.

Air Force officials said the jet suddenly lost its power while taking off on a routine mission and plummeted to earth near the end of the runway. Names of the victims were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Rice Support Cut Requested

WASHINGTON, March 3—UP—Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson Wednesday suggested lowering government price supports on rice, perhaps to 60 percent of parity in an effort to market more U.S. rice abroad.

Benson opposed a two-price plan which some experts have advanced as a solution to the growing rice surplus here. This scheme would mean high government price supports for rice used domestically. But exports would bring only the world market price, Benson said the two-price plan might antagonize other rice-producing nations, particularly in the Far East.

Accused Slayer Of Child Held

CHICAGO, March 3—UP—Mrs. Lola Dewitt Stewart, 26, pretty actress who confessed killing her three-year-old daughter with drugs was ordered held to the grand jury Wednesday on a murder charge.

Felony court judge George Weiss ordered her held without bond after a hearing. Mrs. Stewart, a strip teaser and theater bit-player was found unconscious in her hotel room last Saturday with the body of her daughter, Fancy, clutched in her arms. She confessed to police that she gave the child drug capsules in tomato juice and tried to kill herself.

Slight 'Quake Felt On Coast

HOLLISTER, Calif., March 3—UP—An "easy-going" earthquake rolled along the central California coast Wednesday, rattling dishes and sending excited residents running into the streets.

Reports indicated that the tremor, which lasted five minutes on the University of California seismograph, did little damage. Sheriff's offices received scattered reports of broken china and spilled canned goods.

The quake hit at 8 a.m. and was felt widely, ranging along the coast from Watsonville to Paso Robles and inland to Hollister and Seneca.

Residents who tumbled from their houses here said the quake was "hard" but "slow rolling." They said it was felt strongly for "about 20 seconds." Dishes rattled and chandeliers swayed here.

At Monterey, some 80 miles west, residents said the quake was "felt strongly," but described it as "easy-going, kind of lazy roller."

In Paso Robles, china was tumbled to the floor. A staff reporter at the Paso Robles Press described the quake this way:

"My shoes stood still, but the rest of me rocked."

Men's Garden Club Seeks Members

HOUSTON, March 3—UP—Young men throughout the nation had an invitation Wednesday to join a growing roster of masculine "green thumbs."

The invitation was extended by Harvey Sanderson, Syracuse, N. Y., outgoing president of the Men's Garden Clubs of America. The national organization, which has 8,500 members in 35 states, opened its 20th annual convention here Tuesday. Sanderson called the meeting to order with a gavel made from an apple tree.

During his tenure of office, Sanderson has urged each member to become a "Johnny Appleseed"—to plant seed and wild flowers throughout the United States.

Awards will be presented at the closing session of the four-day convention on Friday night and will be called "Johnny Appleseed Awards."

Sanderson emphasized youth—under 40 years of age—in his opening address, Tuesday.

Host for the convention is the Houston Men's Garden Club. Kenneth Bebb is president of the local group and sessions are being held at the Rice Hotel.

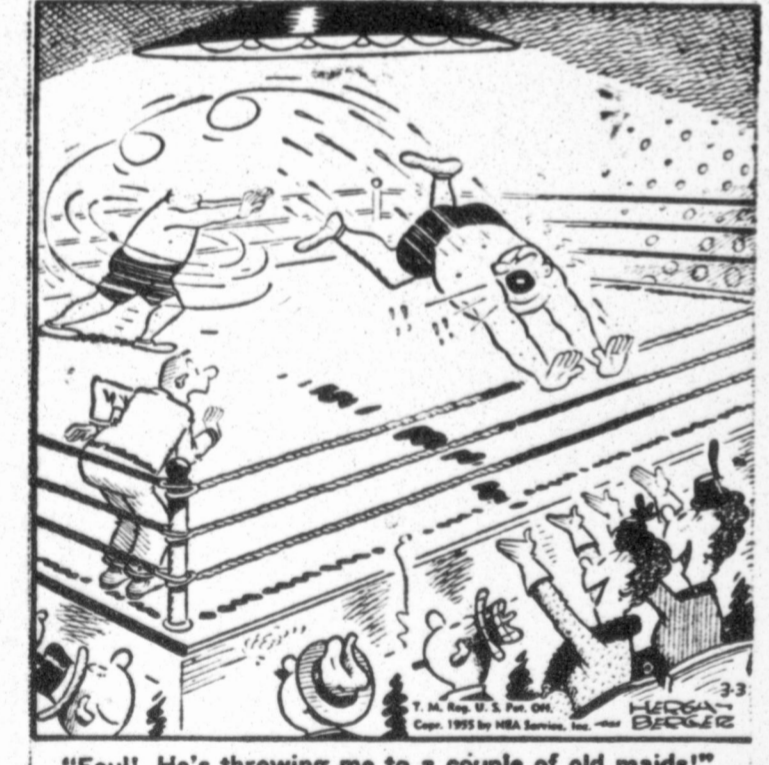

Included on the program of the meeting are tours of local private gardens. New officers will be elected Thursday and Friday, the group will visit the Houston International Flower and Garden Show.

Meditations for LENT

By DR. J. CARTER SWAIM
Written for NEA Service

It is Mark alone who tells us that Jesus, during the days of His Temptation, "was with the wild beasts" (Mark 1:13, RSV). There is a sense in which Mark can be called the Gospel according to Peter. One of the early church fathers tells us that Mark was Peter's secretary dragoman, or interpreter — the exact significance of the Greek word is not wholly clear. In any case, Mark accompanied Peter on at least some of his apostolic labors, and wrote down the Good News which Peter preached.

The first chapter of Mark looks like an account of a day in Peter's life — a never-to-be-forgotten day when the Galilean fisherman was called to leave his boats and his nets and become a fisher of men. Jesus went home with Peter, too, and healed his mother-in-law.

Early tradition places at least part of Peter's ministry in Rome. Certain words which Mark uses suggest that Peter's preaching was couched in the language of his hearers. He has a number of Latin forms not occurring in the other Gospels.

It was in Rome, too, that official action was early undertaken to exterminate Christianity. The followers of Jesus were sometimes thrown to the lions, to make sport in the arena. Couple this fact with Mark's reference to the untamed creatures that accompanied with Jesus during the temptation: "he was with the wild beasts" (Mark 1:13, RSV). Is this written for the consolation and encouragement of Roman Christians who might at any time be thrown to the lions?

Man Of 'Gestures' Is Cambodian King

By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Foreign Analyst
King Norodom Sihanouk of Cambodia is one of those men who make big gestures. In 1953, when he wanted to put pressure on France to grant independence to his little kingdom at the southeast corner of Asia, Norodom went across the frontier to "exile" in neighboring Thailand. He stayed there only a week, then set up a sort of protest capital at Siemreap in northwestern Cambodia.

Within five months, Norodom was back in the national capital of Phnom Penh in triumph, with a promise of eventual freedom.

Referendum Held
Last month, annoyed at his political critics, Norodom called for a national referendum on his policies. He won 99 per cent of the votes.

The critics were not silenced, however, so Wednesday Norodom announced his abdication. "I will live in the midst of my people a humble life like that of my subjects," Norodom said in a radio broadcast.

He complained that Son Ngoc Thanh, leader of the Democratic party, was obstructing his policies.

Western Cooperation Stressed
Among these policies is cooperation with the Western allies against Communist aggression. Son Ngoc Thanh is a "Neutralist," who wants Cambodia to sit on the sidelines like India in the cold war.

It happened, however, that Norodom announced his abdication just when the United States and France are negotiating on the training of the Cambodian Army. The United States, with Cambodian approval, wants to take over the training. France is reluctant to step aside. It seems just possible that this had something to do with Norodom's decision.

It seems more than possible, also, that Norodom will soon be induced to reconsider his decision.

Colorful King Lost
If not, a colorful country will lose a colorful king.

Cambodia, covering 69,900 square miles, is a land of rich plains and dense forest jungles, of elephants and tigers and venomous snakes and crocodiles. Its population numbers about 3,750,000. The people are nearly all Buddhists and Norodom is their spiritual as well as temporal leader.

Thirty-three-year-old Norodom is a handsome, popular monarch who keeps a herd of elephants and a troupe of dancing girls, plays the saxophone well and conducts his private orchestra. He writes, directs and acts in movies and sometimes wistfully expresses the wish that he could go to Hollywood to seek a new career.

Personal Rule Maintained

Guild, Service Discuss Contract

NEW YORK, March 3—UP—Negotiations between representatives of United Press and the American Newspaper Guild (CIO) for a contract covering news, pictures and business office employees were recessed Wednesday until 11 a.m. Monday.

At a meeting Tuesday, Ralph Novak, executive vice president of the ANG, authorized the union to take a strike vote.

A previous two-year agreement expired at midnight Monday. The Guild, in bulletins to its members said that the negotiators had agreed on all issues save those which the Guild described as the "key issues of job security and money."

The management reiterated Wednesday that it is willing to make a new contract containing a money concession, but the union thus far has refused to discuss money until the job security issue is resolved.

Here's a tasty way to use left-over baked beans. Spread the beans on buttered brown bread slices. Place half a strip of bacon on top and broil until the bacon is crisp—about 10 minutes.

Texas Kept Independent In Matters Of National Politics

DALLAS, March 3—UP—Gov. Allan Shivers, who led Texas into the Republican fold during the 1952 presidential election, chose Texas Independence Day to reiterate firmly the state's intention of staying independent in national politics.

Some 500 wildly cheering, whistling persons attending a Democratic-sponsored $50-a-plate dinner in Dallas Wednesday night enthusiastically supported the governor when he boomed "as governor of Texas, I have sworn an oath to the nation and to the state and I shall not, so long as I hold this office, swear an oath of blind submissiveness to any chairman of any political party." The speech was broadcast over a statewide radio and television network.

A number of stage and screen personalities, several of them Texas-born, entertained at the "non-political" dinner, proceeds of which will go to a new tax-free organization dedicated to stirring public interest in public affairs. The dinner was held in the Grand Ballroom of the Adolphus Hotel.

Stars Entertained
The "start-studded" entertainment included Texas-born Constance Moore, Alan Jones, Billy Daniels, Georgine Darcy and Buddy Rogers. Dallas-born Dorothy Malone, Dale Robertson and Jon Hall were introduced as honor guests.

Dallas radio executive Gordon McLendon emceed the program and Shivers was introduced by George Sandlin, state Democratic committee chairman.

Wednesday night's celebration commemorated the date when Texas declared its independence from Mexico at a meeting on the banks of the Brazos River 118 years ago, on March 2, 1836.

Shivers Only Speechmaker
Shivers' address, which was the only speech of the evening, dwelt mainly on Texas and United States history. He saved his remarks on the national Democratic party, with which he has been feuding since 1952, to the final minutes of his speech. The governor did not talk "off the cuff" as had been expected following his formal address.

Shivers' address was punctuated at times by shouts, thundering applause and whistles, particularly when he referred to Texas political independence.

He said "our loyalty is close to our nation. We cannot accept the idea that in order to participate in the affairs of the Democratic party we must swear to an overriding loyalty to the officials who temporarily hold the offices of that party."

The governor was apparently referring to his break with the national Democratic party in 1952 and his support of President Eisenhower when he said:

Texas No Obstructionists
"We of Texas and of the South are not obstructionists. We do not seek to turn back the clock. In this region more than perhaps any other we live for the future and look to the future. We believe our cause is just. The fights we have made and shall continue to make are fights for the right to participate as equals in the making of national policy."

Shivers cast off any notion of a third party. "Through the years we have made our fights through the Democratic party. It is the party of our fathers and it will continue to be our party," he said.

A large part of Shivers' speech extolled the progress of the state of Texas in the last 118 years. He praised the hospitals, highways and other virtues of the state that make it "the greatest in the nation."

A large delegation of state lawmakers attended the dinner in a body as well as most of the state executives, including Attorney General John Ben Shepperd and Secretary of State Al Muldrow. State Democratic officials also were present.

Two Top Russ Chiefs Purged

LONDON, March 3—UP—Premier Nikolai Bulganin Wednesday purged two Soviet officials who served under ousted Premier Georgi Malenkov. He fired both the minister of state farms and the minister of the coal industry for "unsatisfactory work."

The purge, which was the first openly disclosed since Bulganin assumed the premiership, was announced in a Moscow radio broadcast, monitored here.

The ministers dropped were A. I. Kozlov, minister of state farms, and A. S. Zasyadko, minister of the coal industry.

In their places, the presidium of the Supreme Soviet appointed A. N. Zademidko as minister for the coal industry and Ivan Benediktov, to be minister of state farms. The Moscow announcement said the ac-

Rayburn Blesses Gas Legislation

WASHINGTON, March 3—UP—Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) gave his blessings to a bill introduced Wednesday by Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.) to exempt so-called independent gas producers from regulation by the Federal Power Commission.

Rayburn told reporters he thought the bill was "pretty satisfactory all around."

Nine In Crew At Oil Rig Badly Burned

COLORADO CITY, Tex., March 3—UP—Nine crew members of a Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Co. crew were injured or burned, two of them critically, when oil field equipment on a site near the community of Silver exploded and burned Wednesday.

Two of the crewmen were so critically burned that Halliburton decided to fly them to Dallas that afternoon for emergency treatment.

The two most seriously burned were identified as Robert Cook of Winters, Tex., and Cecil Bentley of Silver.

The other injured and burned were identified as Lim Nations of Abilene and William Waddell of Winters, both listed as in serious condition from burns, and Joe Tilman, Abilene, M. Z. Stevens, Colorado City, A. B. Nitsch, Bob Hardegreen and Bill Tilman all three of Colorado City.

Nitsch and Hardegreen received treatment for minor burns and were released from the hospital and Bill Tilman, son of Joe Tilman was treated for a foot injury and released.

The explosion and resulting fire occurred shortly after 8 a. m. Wednesday as the crew was pumping a cleaning solution into the well with 12 high-pressure pumps.

A company spokesman at Silver said one of the discharge lines from a pump sprung a leak, spraying the highly-inflammable solution over one of the huge trucks nearby. It immediately caught fire and exploded, spraying the flaming solution over the crewmen.

All equipment around the well was destroyed. It included six big oilfield trucks, three automobiles, two 600-barrel tanks and other equipment.

Oklahoma Court Increases Bond For Suspected Burglar

By JACK HEANEY

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 3—UP

The Oklahoma Criminal Court of Appeals Wednesday approved increasing bond to $20,000 for Minneapolis racketeer Rubin Shetsky, charged with a $31,000 clothing store burglary and the attempted slaying of a Tulsa policeman.

Judge John Powell, who read the decision for Oklahoma's highest criminal court, said the three-judge court felt the Tulsa district court erred when it first fixed Shetsky's bond at $3,500 on each of the two counts.

A second member of the court, Judge John Brett, said, "It's ridiculous, the bond was set so low."

"it's no reason why we shouldn't do our duty."

Presiding Judge Dick Jones concurred that the lower court had "made a mistake." He described Shetsky, who was once convicted of a 1948 Minneapolis murder then acquitted, as a "slippery fellow."

Pete King, 300-pound Tulsa professional bondsman, sat in the back of the courtroom, and did not say whether he would post the additional bail for Shetsky, who faces trial March 8.

Shetsky, elegantly clad in an expensive business suit, surrendered to Tulsa authorities Tuesday night after a disappearance of nine days.

Tulsa District Judge W. Lee Johnson, who set the original bond at $3,500 on each of the two counts disagreed and said Shetsky was "well enough to spend the night in jail."

Page immediately began legal action to remove Judge Johnson from the case.

Shetsky's bondsman had announced last week he knew where Shetsky was and could produce him anytime. The bondsman said Shetsky had decided to disappear because he believed bond demanded by the court was too high.

The appeals court gave attorney Page until Wednesday to return Shetsky to custody, if Page wanted the court to rule on the habeas corpus petition.

Shetsky's bondsman said Wednesday Shetsky had been "in Tulsa county" during his disappearance.

Dr. Dodd said Shetsky was too ill to go to jail. A county physician

By DONNA REED
(Written for NEA Service)
Most people think of motion picture actors and actresses as wealthy people. Actually, this concept is far from the truth with a few exceptions. These are the people who have been at the top for a good many years.

For, while salaries may seem high, expenses are high, too. My husband, Tony Owen, and I are not rich people. We have three children and busy professional lives so we do have a cook. But this does not mean I leave all details of my household to others. I frequently do the marketing myself. I came from a farm near a small town in Iowa and I can still make bread, drive a tractor and milk a cow. So I know what to look for when I shop for vegetables, whether they are fresh, canned or frozen.

I buy in season and when the fresh vegetables don't seem sufficiently fresh to me, I have no qualms about buying frozen or canned vegetables. My family stays perfectly healthy on them and they fit into a diet beautifully.

Can you wash a fabric in with others? Test this way: Take a small piece of fabric out from a seam or belt and put into a small glass jar. Add warm water and shake. Let it stand. If water is colored by dye, it must be washed by itself.

If a swatch of fabric is the same color after warm-water soaking and ironing as the main piece of goods, it is fast to warm-water washing. If it's discolored or faded, the material is not washable, even in water alone.

MOST OF US are always glad of some new ideas for setting an attractive table—either for our own parties or for the club social for which we are hostess. Below are some descriptions of tables at a recent affair in New York. Although you may not think you are very artistic, if you just try, you may be surprised at the good result.

FIVE IMAGINATIVE table settings were displayed at the Irish Linen Queen's reception in New York Tuesday. The tables, all set with pure Irish linen, personified gracious living in contemporary, modern and traditional surroundings covering the art of hostessing from informal dining through a formal dinner party.

The "Dinner in Town — Black Tie" table created a mood of dramatic elegance. A classic Grecian pattern on white Irish linen damask with starkly contrasting black and white dinnerware, white candles and alternating black and white epergnes with sprays of beautiful white freesia completed the setting.

The "Town and Country Luncheon" table with handsome, tweedy, textured Irish linen mats in a brown and sand damask-type weave, are available in subtle colors and lend themselves equally well to either formal or informal appointments.

"Watermelon, Carnations and Candelight" for dinner-at-home featured a charming easy-to-do centerpiece... a scooped-out watermelon filled with yellow carnations. The round scalloped Irish linen cloth in rich green created a perfect background for centerpiece, white glass, and white Irish linen and organza napkins.

The "Carnation Tree" table was light and graceful. Seashells filled with carnations at the tree base carried out the shell motif of the embroidered Irish linen place mats. Cool and frosty, this setting could be used for breakfast, lunch or dinner with equal charm.

A colorful "Golden Violet Buffet" highlighted the unique handling of colors and textures. Set on an aqua hemstitched Irish linen cloth with matching napkins, the centerpiece was a three-tiered, violet-filled wicker basket contrasting delightfully with white china and candles. Two magnificent gold-lustre casserole added another unusual touch, while stemware tied with violet ribbon to wine bottles were the novelty feature.

"Out of your own collection of accessories, you can easily simulate these table settings," says John Hannon who designed them. "The basic themes of the five tables provide inspiration for hundreds of others. All you need is a little ingenuity and a desire to try something 'different.'"

Sunshine Club Has Speech On Cereals

Mrs. Earl Dalsing presented the program, "Cereals For Breakfast," at the recent meeting of the Sunshine Home Demonstration Club in the home of Mrs. G. H. Murrain, 1037 S. Clark.

She also showed the women how to make scrapple, a cornmeal and pork mixture.

Fire Destroys Pier Warehouses

SAN FRANCISCO, March 3-UP—A spectacular fire, visible all over the city, destroyed four abandoned warehouses on the San Francisco waterfront early Thursday.

The fire endangered the U.S.S. Merrick, a Navy attack cargo vessel tied up at Pier 72 scene of the fire. As flames licked the forward deck, the crew cast off the Merrick's lines and let her drift in San Francisco bay with the tide.

Several tugs and three Coast Guard boats stood by until the Merrick raised enough steam to navigate for herself.

Two fireboats and 31 pieces of equipment manned by more than 125 fire fighters rushed to the scene in response to four alarms. They succeeded in confining the flames to the four abandoned warehouses owned by the Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

Four-Year Term For Congressmen Asked

WASHINGTON, March 3-UP—President Eisenhower at his news conference Wednesday said he would like to see a four-year term for House members.

His advocacy of a four-year term for House members came in the course of his endorsement of pending legislation to raise the salaries of members of congress, federal judges, district attorneys and certain Justice Department personnel.

The President said that too many promising young people who should be in government decline to run for congress because of economic reasons. He said the life of a House member is particularly difficult under present pay structures because the member must maintain a residence in his native state and must run for re-election every two years.

He said he thought the two-year term was a mistake and he would like to see it increased to four years.

Youth Cleared Of Robbery Count

SAN ANTONIO, March 3-UP—Jerry Willis, 19, was found innocent of robbery by assault Wednesday by a jury that deliberated some 24 hours.

Willis was charged in connection with the same incident in which 68-year-old tavern owner Julian Vega was beaten to death with a pool cue May 21.

Hoof-Mouth Battle Ends

MEXICO CITY, March 3-UP—A $200 million, eight-year effort to stamp out hoof and mouth disease in Mexico has officially ended.

Mexico was pronounced "fully and technically proven" free of the dread livestock disease last year. The embargo on movement of Mexican cattle and meat into the United States was lifted Dec. 31, 1954.

A decree published Wednesday by the Mexican Agriculture Ministry officially cancelled the Dec. 27, 1946, order which set in motion the long and costly effort to eradicate the cattle malady, called "aftosa" in this country. The twin campaign, financed and fought by both the United States and Mexico, cost more than $200 million.

Steel Companies Delivery Boggled

NEW YORK, March 3-UP—Iron Age said Wednesday mounting pressure for delivery "is pushing steel producers against the wall" and it observed "there seems to be no prospect of a letup in demand through the first half of 1955."

"Some mills are lagging behind on delivery promises," the national metalworking weekly reported.

"Backlogs are building up. Production, processing and shipping facilities are being strained to the utmost."

"With the ingot rate already pushing toward capacity, seasonal market influences are increasing the pressure."

Steel mills this week are operating at 91 per cent capacity. Iron Age called this rate "a short skip and a jump from an expected 85 or 90 per cent."

It noted tonnage this week will fall only 6 per cent below the all-time high of 2,324,000 tons produced during the week ended March 23, 1953.

Three Navy Pilots Killed

THE LUCK OF THE DRAW was with the Harvesters in the state tournament this week when the Green and Golders drew Waco as their first round foe.

This doesn't mean that the Harvesters are going to breeze by Waco and reach the state finals the third straight year. By the time the 53 Class 4A teams are boiled down to four, then you can rest assured that the competition is going to be keen.

But, what we were referring to when we said "luck of the draw" is this:

The Harvesters have scouted Waco whereas they haven't scouted Beaumont, the Southern representative. Assistant coach Terry Culley, who scouted Waco last week also scouted Crozier Tech in one of the bi-district games with Fort Worth Poly.

However, it has been generally conceded all along that Pampa and Crozier Tech would be seeded, thereby preventing the two state finalists of last year meeting in the first round this year.

So, that left Waco or Beaumont for the Harvesters to play in the first round. Beaumont may or may not be stronger than Waco, but since we do know a little about Waco after having scouted the Tigers, then it seems that luck was with us in the first round drawing.

It's for certain the Harvesters will have to be at their very best to defeat any of the teams in the Class 4A bracket in the state tournament.

It's difficult to see how any of the teams will be able to cope with Crozier Tech, though. The Dallas team has more height than most college fives.

A. C. Black, of course, is the giant of the Dallas team at 6-9. Then the Wolves have Don Williams at 6-6 and Albert Brown at 6-3. Both Tech guards are shorties, however, each at 5-8. They are Herman Burton and Cleo Haddock.

Black and Brown were regulars last year when the Harvesters nipped the Dallasites in an overtime thriller for the state crown.

Harvester coach Clifton McNeely believes there is only one solution to beating the giant Dallas team. "The Tech opponents will have to shoot better than 50 per cent and let Black and Co. take them out of the nets instead of off the back boards."

WE'D FEEL BETTER ABOUT the Harvesters chances repeating as the state champions if they had played more games this season on court equipped with glass backboards.

The Harvesters have played only two games this season with glass boards -- the two games at Amarillo.

Gregory Gym, scene of the state tourney, is equipped with glass boards. It's somewhat confusing to a lot of teams coming to the tournament who aren't used to this type boards.

The glass boards don't bother the shooters so much in that most shots are aimed directly at the basket and not off the boards. But the ball bounces off the glass boards much differently than the metal boards.

The rebounding in a basketball game is one of the most vital parts of the game.

With all these changes being made yearly in basketball rules, it seems to us that the rule makers should make one type of goal standard.

Teams who get accustomed to glass boards are just as confused when they play on courts with metal boards as vice versa. So, why shouldn't a rule be passed to make one or the other type board standard and have all courts equipped with same type of boards?

Well, the Harvesters haven't fared too badly when the glass boards were used. They have won four out of four state tournament games the past two years in the glass board equipped Gregory Gym.

Then they've won two out of three from Amarillo the past two years with glass boards in use, one at West Texas State Field house last year and the other two at the Coliseum in Amarillo this season, the Harvesters and Sanders splitting the latter two.

Harvesters Hold Final Drill For Waco Contest

Tulsa, St. Louis Due Tourney Bids

By UNITED PRESS
Tulsa and St. Louis now are tied for the Missouri Valley Conference lead, and the eventual league winner will go to the NCAA tourney. But the National Invitation tournament announced Thursday that it will invite the loser, which will complete the NIT's 12-team field.

Both teams finish their season with games Saturday night and, if they both win, will play off next Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday for the crown.

Penn Assured of Tie
Pennsylvania was assured of at least a tie for the Ivy League championship Wednesday night when Columbia whipped Princeton, 65-58. However, Penn must face Princeton in its season finale on Saturday and a loss could lead to a three-way tie among Penn, Princeton, and Columbia.

Two more NCAA tournament berths are at stake in two big post-season tourneys opening Thursday night -- the Atlantic Coast Conference at Raleigh, N.C., and the Southern Conference at Richmond, Va. Each is an eight-team, three-day affair with the winner getting a place in the NCAA.

North Carolina State, regular season champion of the ACC, is favored in that tourney but is barred from the NCAA as a punishment for recruiting. Should State win the Raleigh affair, the losing finalist will go to the NCAA.

There is no favorite in the Southern Conference contest.

NIT Announces Pairings
The National Invitation tournament announced the pairings for its opening round, March 12, at Madison Square Garden, as follows: day doubleheader: Manhattan-Louisville and Niagara-Lafayette; night doubleheader: Seton Hall-St. Francis (Pa.) and Connecticut-Tulsa or St. Louis.

First-round winners, in the order listed, will go on to the quarterfinals, March 14 and meet seeded teams in this order: Duquesne (No. 1), Cincinnati (No. 4), Holy Cross (No. 3), and Dayton (No. 2).

San Francisco, the nation's No. 1 team, already booked for an NCAA berth, ran its victory string to 21 games by beating Santa Clara Wednesday night, 73-61.

Other leading games Thursday night include: Seton Hall-Dayton, Fordham - Manhattan, Muhlenberg, CCNY, and Wichita-Oklahoma City.

The TV committee was directed at the annual NCAA convention last January to develop a plan and submit it to the membership in a mail referendum. It would require approval by two-thirds of the institutions and conference voting.

The original plan was to mail the TV committee a program Wednesday and announce its contents Thursday.

However, Byers explained that when the TV committee approved the principles of the 1955 plan at a Chicago meeting Feb. 17-18 it was understood the editorial content of the plan would be reviewed by the committee by mail before submitting the plan to the membership. "The proposed plan represents a departure to some extent from previous plans," said Byers.

The United Press learned last Sunday that the new television plan calls for these changes:

1. Only 10 Saturday of collegiate football on television.
2. A balance between national and regional games, five of each.
3. Division of the nation into three regions -- Eastern, including the Southeast; Midwestern, including Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas; and Western, including the Pacific Coast and Rocky Mountain states.

4. Free negotiations by individual colleges for the sale of their television rights.
5. As in previous plans, each team would be limited to one television appearance during the season.

Arkansas' 46 free throws against TCU was a record, as was the combined total of 75 between them. Arkansas scored 110 points in its last game Tuesday night to beat the old record, and the two teams combined 199 points for another high throw attempt was a new mark.

But O'Neal and Krebs came within just one point of equalling Henry's 110 field goal record in conference games. Each ended up with 109.

Dopesters Predict Pampa-Tech Finals

By BUCK FRANCIS
Pampa News Sports Editor

AUSTIN — Final workout of the 1954-55 season for the defending state class 4A champion Pampa Harvesters was held here early Wednesday afternoon in the St. Edwards University gymnasium.

Coach Clifton McNeely sent the Harvesters through about a two-hour drill in their final preparation for their state tournament opener Friday night against the Waco Tigers at the University of Texas Gregory Gym.

The Harvesters arrived here at about 2:00 p.m. Wednesday from Denton where they had spent the night Tuesday. The Green and Gold was unable to obtain use of Gregory Gym for a workout upon arrival yesterday so they held their daily drill at St. Edwards' Gym.

The St. Edwards Gym is equipped with glass back boards which will enable the Harvesters to get more familiar with the type boards that will be used in the state tournament.

Coach McNeely reported that his charges were in good spirits upon arrival here and that all were in good physical condition.

The 15-player Harvesters squad is quartered at Mount Vernon Courts here, the same place the Green and Golders have set up "camp" the past two years when the Pampans walked off with the state crown.

The players will be allowed to see part of the tournament games in the lower classes that began this morning, but coach McNeely is taking all precautions against his boys getting too exhausted before taking the floor Friday night.

Three seasons which include eight games got the big 3-day tournament started today.

The Harvesters and Waco will meet in the final game on Friday's schedule, starting at 8:30 p.m. The game will be preceded by the other class 4A semi-final game, Crozier Tech of Dallas vs Beaumont at 7:30.

Crozier Tech has been established distinct favorites to capture the state title in the 4A division this year. The Dallas team brings a 26-1 record into the state tournament.

The Harvesters will pit their 25-4 mark against Waco's 23-6 in Friday's game. Beaumont, Crozier Tech's foe Friday, sports a 24-10 record.

Three of the five all-staters in the class 4A division will see action Friday night in the two semi-final games. A. C. Black 6-9 center for Crozier Tech, heads the list of all-staters, he having been chosen unanimously by the Texas Sports Writers Association for all-state honors last week.

The other two all-staters competing in the 4A division of the tournament are Gary Griffin of the Harvesters and Charles Pack of Waco.

Most of the critics here are predicting a repeat performance for the class 4A finals — Pampa vs. Crozier Tech. The Harvesters edged Tech, 47-44, in an overtime thriller in last year's finals.

But coach Roy Atkinson of Crozier Tech and Coach McNeely of the Harvesters both realize their work is cut out for them in the tournament opener Friday night. There have been too many upsets in this huge tournament down through the years for a favored team to take their opponent lightly.

Class B Play Opens State Cage Meet

AUSTIN, March 3—UP—The state's 16 best schoolboy basketball teams opened competition Thursday for five division championships in the 35th annual Texas Inter-scholastic League tournament.

Thursday's play centered in Class B, A and AA, while first round contests in the larger Class AAA and AAAA begins Friday. Finals are Saturday in all brackets. The tournament has 24 teams competing.

The hottest battle of the contest was expected Friday when Pampa, defending Class AAA champion, meets Crozier Tech Dallas. Pampa, also the 1953 champ, noised out Crozier Tech in a final overtime game last year, 47-44.

The Class AA championship is wide open, since Bowie, winner of four consecutive titles, failed to return to this year's state tournament. That makes Atlanta, with a 34-5 record, the favorite in its division.

Ten teams are in the tourney for the first time while Waco and Crozier Tech are the oldest hands with 11 past competitions.

There are no undefeated teams this year.

Thursday's schedule:

- CLASS B
- 8:45 a.m.—Bovina (28-2) vs. Rankin (12-12).
- 10:10 a.m.—Big Sandy (30-15) vs. Slidell (28-9).
- 11:35 a.m.—Medina (24-2) vs. Dilley (26-1).
- 1:45 p.m.—Maud (36-4) vs. Avoca (39-1).

- CLASS AA
- 7:30 p.m.—Atlanta (34-5) vs. Seminole (21-6).
- 8:50 p.m.—Freer (19-1) vs. San Marcos (29-2).

Ex-Tech Star Joins Baugh At H-S-U.

ABILENE, Tex., March 3—UP—Appointment of John W. Steber, 31, former All-American guard from Georgia Tech, as line coach on the staff of new Coach Sammy Baugh of Hardin-Simmons was announced Wednesday. Steber and Baugh were Washington Redskins teammates.

The new H-S-U line coach will report to Abilene some six days before opening of spring football training March 21.

Steber was a teammate of Baugh for six years on the professional Redskins, playing guard from 1949 through 1950 and returning after a second hitch as a naval officer for the 1953 season.

He was at Vanderbilt in 1941 and 1942, but went to Georgia Tech in 1943 in connection with the Navy's V-12 program. At Tech, Steber was named to the 1943 United Press and several other all-American teams. He captained the Tech team which defeated Tulsa, 20 to 18, in the 1944 Sugar Bowl game.

Steber coached Navy teams at San Diego in 1951 and 1952. Since 1953, he has been working as an engineer at Mobile, Ala., his home.

Souchak, Toski Open Play At Baton Rouge

By JIM CARBERRY
BATON ROUGE, La., March 3—UP—Big Mike Souchak and little Bob Toski opened the $12,500 Baton Rouge Open Thursday, Souchak shooting for his third straight PGA tournament win and Toski defending his crown.

Souchak won the Texas Open at San Antonio with a 257 and then moved on to Houston to win with a 273 last Sunday. If he can conquer the bayou lined Baton Rouge Country Club course to win he would be the first man to take the three tournaments in a row since Jackie Burke Jr., did it in 1952.

Seventy-two professionals and amateurs exempted from qualifying were in the field, along with the 70 low qualifiers from Wednesday's round.

Toski, one of the sentimental favorites, copped the championship here last year on a frigid, windy day that just suited his style. He went on to win the Tam O'Shanter World's championship but has not been following the tournament trail this year.

Other top golfers in the tournament are Tommy Bolt, Houston; Shelly Mayfield, Chicopee, Mass.; Dr. Cary Middlecoff, Memphis; Gene Ligtler, Palm Springs, Calif.; Ed Furgol, St. Louis; Walt Burke, Frank, Mich.; Julie Boros, Mid Pines, N.C.; Dave Douglas, Newark, Del.; Jerry Barber, All Besselink, Jim Turnesa and Bill Nary.

The 6,450-yard course, noted for its many bayous, "is real tricky and I don't think anybody will burn it up," Souchak said. "A 279 or 280 should take this one." Toski won it at 279 last year.

The field will be pared to 60 golfers at the end of 36 holes. Finals are set for Sunday.

Aggies Set For Spring Game

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., March 3—UP—Texas A&M football Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant said Thursday squads for the Aggies' spring game Saturday night have been working out this week.

Bryant divided the Aggies into Maroon and White teams for the game which climaxes Spring Sports Day. Kickoff time is scheduled at 7:30 p.m. at Kyle Field.

The Maroon team is being handled by assistant coaches Jim Owens, Phil Cutchin, Jerry Claiborne and Tom Tippy, Assistants, Elmer Smith, Willie Zapalac, Pat James, Bernie Sinclair and Lawrence Winkler will coach the Whites.

BILLY MARTIN

Billy Martin Still In Army

FORT CARSON, Colo., March 3—UP—Billy Martin, New York Yankee second baseman now sweating out his final year of military service, apparently has hope of playing with the American club this season.

Early this week, a Fort Carson public information officer told United Press that with accumulated leave, and an early discharge, Martin ought to be free to join the Yankees before mid-summer.

But Martin then said he didn't intend to report to the Yankees until his actual discharge. He hoped this would be in July, because the Army is now discharging draftees as much as three months ahead of schedule.

But ist Lt. Charles L. Snyder, the public information officer, said Wednesday that Martin's record had been checked and he could not expect discharge before Oct. 6. This is because Martin, when first drafted in 1950, served less than five months before he obtained an early discharge on a hardship basis.

Snyder said no soldier could be allowed two early discharges, and that Martin would have to serve the full balance of his two years.

10 New Records Set In SWC Cage Season

DALLAS, March 3—UP—At least 10 new Southwest Conference basketball records were written during the season just completed, as Texas Christian sophomore center Dick O'Neal set three and tied a fourth.

Tabulation of conference records was not complete. But unofficial figures showed 10 changes, with five single game records set in Tuesday night's final TCU-Arkansas contest that cost loser TCU a co-championship as SMU finished on top with a victory the same night over Texas.

O'Neal's total of 676 points in season play and 362 in 12 conference games broke old records of 604 set by Gene Schwingner of Rice last year and 280 in 1945 by Bill Henry of Rice. The TCU stars' 144 free throws in loop games was 50 more than an old record John Starkey of Baylor and James Addison of A&M had shared.

O'Neal also tied a 49-point scoring mark set in 1949 by Slater Martin of Texas.

Texas' Ray Downs made 23 free throws in one game to beat the old record of 15, which O'Neal had already broken twice earlier. Downs also set a new 12-game loop free throw record with 123 and a new total point mark with 313. In between the new and old total-point record was Jim Krebs, SMU, with 282.

Southern Methodist scored 938 points last season for a new mark, but increased to 985 this year for another record.

Arkansas' 46 free throws against TCU was a record, as was the combined total of 75 between them. Arkansas scored 110 points in its last game Tuesday night to beat the old record, and the two teams combined 199 points for another high throw attempt was a new mark.

But O'Neal and Krebs came within just one point of equalling Henry's 110 field goal record in conference games. Each ended up with 109.

Supt. A. H. Gordon gave the Invocation. After the banquet the group went to the Legion Hall for a party.

Baker, Charles Get High Rates

NEW YORK, March 3—UP—Big Bob Baker of Pittsburgh replaced ex-champion Ezzard Charles at third place among the world's heavyweight contenders in the monthly ratings released Wednesday by the Ring Magazine.

Baker's boost from fourth to third strengthened his chance of getting a September title shot. Only Nino Valdes of Cuba, number one, and Don Cockell of England, number two, are above him now. And Cockell already has been signed to challenge Rocky Marciano for the crown at San Francisco in the week of May 16. Valdes could be by-passed again in September.

Colorado Places Two On All Big 7

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 3—UP—Colorado's champion Buffaloes placed two scoring aces in the 1955 United Press All-Big Seven Conference basketball team Thursday with Missouri, Oklahoma and Kansas missing the other three berths.

Burdette Haldorson, six foot, seven inch Colorado center and the Conference's No. 1 scorer for the second straight season, was the only unanimous choice of coaches, sports writers, broadcasters and college athletic officials who participated in the balloting.

With Haldorson on the first team were his teammate, Bob Jaegerard, and Missouri's Norm Stewart at forwards and Lester Lane of Oklahoma and Dallas Dobbs of Kansas at guards.

Haldorson, Lane and Dobbs all were honored for the second consecutive year, but it was Stewart's brilliant play for runner-up Missouri that gave the six foot four inch forward the second highest point total.

Of a possible 85 points, Stewart

Feller Still Counts In Indians' Plans

By FRED DOWN United Press Sports Writer

Take it from Manager Al Lopez—Cleveland's collection of brilliant young pitching talent hasn't crowded Bob Feller out of the Indians' plans this year.

The 35-year-old Feller checked in at Tucson, Ariz., Wednesday to begin his 17th spring training season with the Indians and immediately was assured by Lopez that he figures prominently in his plans. Feller's status had become doubtful because of Lopez' hopes of working Ray Narleski and Don Mossi in addition to rookie Herb Score into the Indians' plans.

Feller, who broke in with the Indians in 1936, appeared in 19 games last season and compiled a fine 13-3 won-and-lost record in addition to a 3.09 earned run average. Lopez' decision to retain Bob as a starter gives the one-time Van Meter, Iowa fireballer a chance to reach the 275-mark in victories before the close of the campaign. Feller has won 262 games during a brilliant career and still cherishes a faint hope that he can reach the 300-mark before calling it a career. Only seven modern pitchers have won 300 or more games.

Durocher Tags Hearn
At Phoenix, Ariz., meanwhile, Manager Leo Durocher tabbed Jim Hearn as the "potential big man" of the New York Giants' pitching staff this year and accepted part of the blame for the loss of the right-hander's dismal 8-8 showing in 1952. Durocher had a "heart-to-heart" talk with Hearn and then turned him over to Coach Frank Shellenback with the prediction that Jim would be a new man in '53.

DARRELL FLOYD ... top scorer

Darrell Floyd Cops College Score Title

NEW YORK, March 2—UP—Dick Hemric of Wake Forest has scored more points than any college basketball player in history, but this season's scoring championship belongs to Darrell Floyd of Furman.

Official NCAA statistics released Thursday confirm that the book-shooting Hemric has tallied 2,539 points to better by exactly one point the all-time record of 2,538 compiled by Frank Selvy of Furman in his career ending last season.

Hemric, who surpassed the old mark by scoring 29 points against Clemson during the week, ran up his total in four varsity seasons, however, while Selvy required only three. Hemric figures to add to his mark through play in the Atlantic Coast Conference post-season tournament starting Thursday night.

However, Floyd, who is Selvy's successor as star of the Furman team and has turned in a higher average for the first two seasons than Frank did, has virtually clinched the national scoring title.

Floyd sank 90 points in his last two regular season games during the week to run his average to 38.5 points per game. Buzz Wilkinson of Virginia is a distant second at 31.8. Both players will see tournament action starting Thursday night, but Floyd appears to have sufficient "cushion" to win the crown.

Robin Freeman of Ohio State also has averaged 31.8 points per game, but Freeman ended his season several weeks ago to rest on doctor's orders.

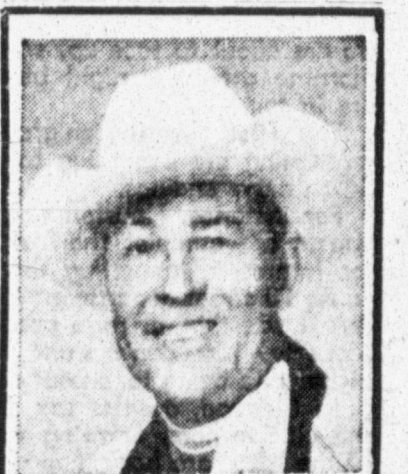

Floyd holds the season's single-game high of 67 points, tallied against Morehead State in January, and has exceeded the 50-point mark four times.

Ed O'Connor of Manhattan College, bound for the National Invitation Tournament, took over the basket shooting lead this week by sinking 19 of 27 shots to boost his accuracy mark to 59.0 per cent.

TRAINING CAMP BRIEFS

Durocher, Hearn Reach Agreement
PHOENIX, Ariz., March 3—UP—Manager Leo Durocher singled out Jim Hearn as the potential "big man" of the New York Giants' 1953 pitching staff Thursday and implied he had mishandled the powerful right-hander last season.

Hearn, a 17-game winner when the Giants won the pennant in 1951, had an 8-8 record for the world champions last season. Durocher quickly relieved him at the first crisis in early-season games and rarely used him at all late in the campaign.

"We had a heart-to-heart talk and now we understand each other the first time," Durocher said. "I believe Hearn can be our big pitcher—the work-horse of the staff. I take full responsibility for those quick hooks Hearn got last season. But I had lost confidence in him. I told him so Wednesday and I think you'll see Hearn with a brand new attitude."

Griffith Denies Trade
ORLANDO, Fla., March 3—UP—Clark Griffith, owner of the Washington Senators denied Thursday that he is preparing to trade first-baseman Mickey Vernon and third-baseman Eddie Yost.

"I've never traded a holdout and I don't intend to start now," Griffith said of the Vernon report. "Vernon will get around soon. I'm sure of that."

Griffith added he'd "be insulted" if the Chicago White Sox offered him infielders Jim Brideweser, Jim Marshall and Joe Kirrene, catcher Clint Courtney and pitcher Bob Chakales for Yost.

Redlegs Sluggers' Timing Bad
TAMPA, Fla., March 3—UP—Sluggers Ted Kluszewski reported his timing "badly off" in his first batting drill of the spring with the Cincinnati Redlegs Wednesday but predicted that he would be hitting solidly in a few days. Kluszewski hit 19 homers last season.

Red Sox to Drill
SARASOTA, Fla., March 3—UP—Manager Pinky Higgins announced Thursday that members of the Boston Red Sox will "play 3 full nine innings" in Grapefruit League games this season because "I want to give everybody a good and thorough look."

Higgins' attitude is said in some quarters to be one of the reasons for Ted Williams' reluctance to report early to spring training.

Yankee Is Overweight
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 3—UP—Don Larsen, one of the key pitchers acquired from the Baltimore Orioles, will need plenty of work before he's ready to flash his stuff for the New York Yankees.

The big right-hander, who had a

3-21 record for Baltimore last season, weighed 232 pounds when he reported Wednesday—about 18 over his correct pitching weight.

Cubs, State Game

Hack said he was pleased by the fine form showed by veteran Bob Rush and rookies Don Kaiser and Bob Thorpe in Wednesday's pitching drills.

MUSIC IN THE AIR?—Bill Miller, the nation's outstanding amusement impresario, right, is shown with conductor Walter Charles after a conference at the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas, Nev. Miller is waging a campaign to start a symphony orchestra in the Nevada gambling capital.

NEXT BEST THING—First Lt. James A. Mills, of Charlotte, N. C., is puckering up for a kiss from his Chihuahua, Senor Sabre, upon returning to Yokota Air Base after a routine patrol mission over Japan. The mascot is always lonely when Mills is flying and often perches in one of his absent master's helmets to stay as close to him as possible.

NICE GOING—Colorful sleighs replace taxis at this time of year in Negeve, France, and the traditional snow vehicles provide speedy service in the area. Automobiles are all but useless on the local slippery, winding mountain roads, but a one-horsepower sleigh delivers the passengers.

EXTRA DUTY—Coast Guardsmen were called upon to rescue a small dog from an ice floe in the middle of Chicago's Lincoln Park lagoon. One guardsman holds the animal in a lifeboat as police officers pull the boat to a pier to complete the successful rescue.

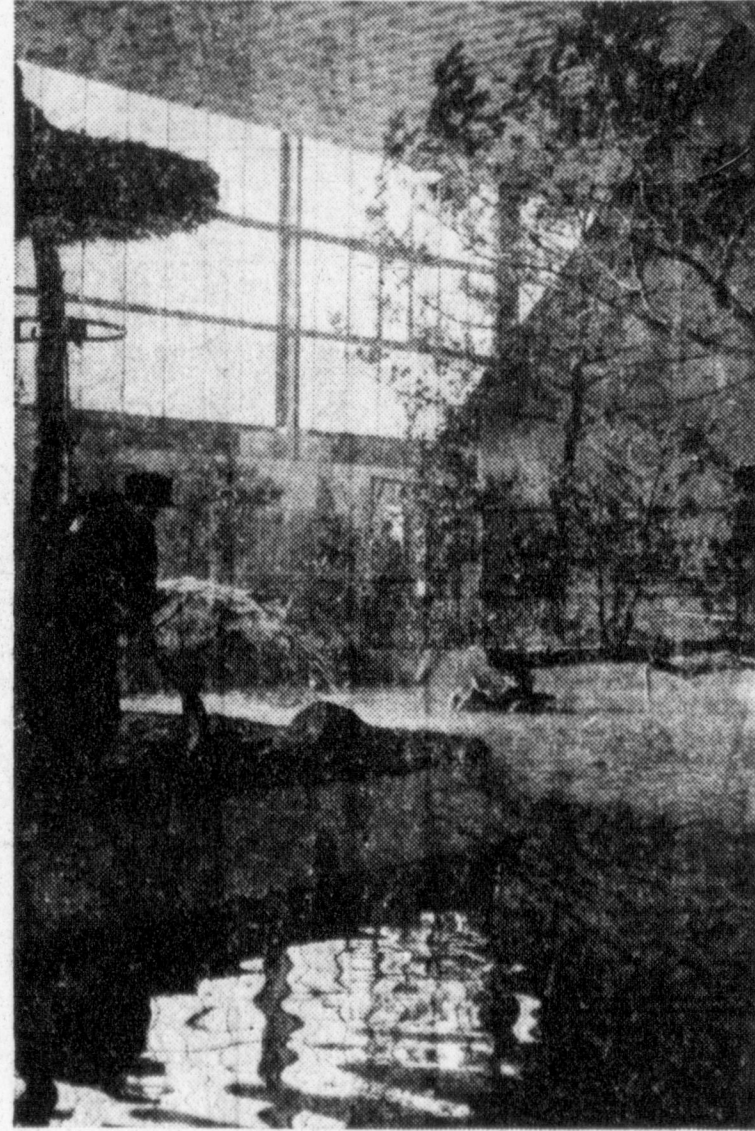

FOR A WORTHY CAUSE—As Staff Sergeant Richard Mitchell, a Marine Corps recruiter in Marion, Ill., marched along a highway, two American Legionnaires stopped motorists to seek contributions for the March of Dimes. Mitchell, a Korean vet, was on a 100-mile hike through the state to seek contributions. He was hoping to collect a penny a step.

SHE'LL BE SOMEONE'S EYES—Queenie, a handsome German Shepherd dog, is watching intently as a blind student reads Braille at Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., in San Rafael, Calif. Donated by actor Roy Rogers, Queenie has been named queen of the 1955 drive for funds for the company.

WELL COATED—And with ice, of all things. It's over the coat and cap worn by fireman Walter Koeppel at a blaze in Chicago. Below-zero temperatures froze the spray from hoses trained on a building which was consumed by scorching flames. Koeppel didn't say if his costume was warm.

RURAL VIEW IN THE CITY—As winter carries on in the icy streets of West Berlin, a gardener puts the finishing touches on a landscape surrounding this beautiful indoor lake. The setting—reminiscent of spring—was a main attraction at the annual agricultural exhibition in the British sector. It must have been a welcome sight to all.

MOPPING UP—When Mrs. R. E. Rupard wanted to drive her car in Leavenworth, Kans., she had an extra job on her hands. In order to dig out of all that snow, she had to use a mop handle extension arm to clean the windshield so she could see where she was going.

JOHNSON
★ IN HOLLYWOOD ★

By ERSKINE
NEA Staff
Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Holly-wood and GrapeVINE: Debbie Reynolds and Eddie Fisher made the big decision about their religious problems. She will remain a Protestant for a mixed-faiths union... U. S. censors again turned down "Forbidden Women," the Italian-made film costarring Linda Darnell and Anthony Quinn. Too hot even for the art house circuit... Jess Barker, who refused a mint of cash from Susan Hayward's attorneys, is working in a North Hollywood haberdashery shop between movie and television assignments.

Jane Russell sinks again? Uh-huh. Howard Hughes' plans for another underwater flicker, "Skin Divers," apparently do not include her. "I didn't even know he had announced such a film," she told "I'm still having nightmares for fear he'll cast me in a picture titled 'The Frog Women.'"

NEW GAME DEPT: Give a listen to the "Honey, Babe" song in "Battle Cry." Then try to imagine the lyrics as they were sung by a Marine regiment before studio tunesmiths cleaned them up.

Nora Haynes whispers to pals that she has plans to live permanently in Mexico City. A south-of-the-border bullfighter is the big reason... Domestic intrigue: A couple of months ago Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis announced Feb. 6 as the date of their next TV show. It was a blind designed to keep rival Toast of the Town from throwing the star talent book at 'em on the real date Feb. 13. Worked, too.

Maybe "The Brass Ring" should be billed as a picture starring Shelley Winters' ex-boy friends. Two of 'em — Farley Granger and Jerry Paris — are in the cast... Diana Wynter, the dark-haired beauty seen on TV's Studio One and the Robert Montgomery show, will wed U. S. millionaire Gerry Hertzfeld. She was one of London's most photographed dolls.

Aldo Ray's brother, ex-USC grid star Mario da Re, is about to sign a contract with a pro grid team... Leslie Caron's heart, Lt. John Lobe, tells pals he's anxious to meet Grace Kelly. "That doesn't sound like an engagement for Leslie and the lad."

LANA TURNER's latest Las Vegas talent target, Salary: Fabulous, as usual... Cornel Wilde's wife, gorgeous Jean Wallace, is said to display some surprising acting talent as Wilde's costar in "The Big Combo"... Despite rift rumors, Michele Morgan and Henri Vidal are still Monsieur et Madame in Paris.

Ballerina Jeanmaire, I can now spill it, wore a mink-lined trench coat to her "Anything Goes" dance rehearsals the other day. When a pop-eyed press agent asked if the studio could photograph her in the coat, she shrugged her shoulders and replied:

"If you like. But what's all the fuss? Doesn't everybody wear one?"

George Gobel, breaking all records at the Statler here, will be a Las Vegas attraction in July or August if he postpones his plan to make a movie this summer.

PARAMOUNT MUST BE interested in launching Peggy King of the George Gobel show as a dramatic star. She does a scene from "A Place in the Sun" as her screen test.

Short Takes: Rudy Vallee's taking over Edgar Bergen's radio job while Bergen warms up for a fall TV series... Claudette Colbert will star in "Private Worlds" on Climax March 31, a reenactment of the 1937 movie hit... The Don Taylors are having a second honeymoon in Palm Springs following their recent reconciliation.

Zippy dialog dept: Anne Baxter shows a gartered gam in "The Spoilers" and Rory Calhoun, removing a legal document held by the garter, mutters: "That's a nice filing cabinet you got there."

Now it's Linda Christian and Ava Gardner's favorite bullfighter, Luis Miguel Dominguez... Judy Garland returns to the Palace Theater in New York Oct. 16, fourth anniversary of her 1951 opening.

City Population Jump Predicted CHICAGO, March 3—UP—More than a fourth of the world's population will be living in cities of 100,000 or more by the year 2,000, the American Journal of Sociology predicted Tuesday. The Journal said the estimate was based on a trend of increasing city growth.
