'HORRIBLE CRIMES'

Convict-Author's Chances Are Dim

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (U)—Faint hope glimmered today for the life of Caryl Chessman, condemned genius, author and rapist scheduled to die Friday, Gov. Goodwin J. Knight agreed to look over the record of his Los Angeles conviction of kidnapping with bodily harm. Knight earlier dismissed plea for clemency for Chessman filed by a criminologist and a noted author. He said Chessman's crimes—kidnaping, attempted rape, sex perversion and robbery—were "horrible and there were 17 of them." And he said one of Chessman's female victims is still in a mental hospital as a result of his attack. California law makes no exception of "people who write books." Knight added. He referred to Chessman's "Cell 2455, Death Row," a best seller. However, after a half-hour closed-door conference late yesterday with Chessman's attorney Berny Rice, Knight said he will review one point of the 32-year-old convict's 1948 conviction—whether the court reporter's notes were sufficient. The original court reporter died during the trial. Rice contends his replacement was not fully able to translate the first reporter's notes for the appeal record. Chessman's chances of avoiding San Quentin's green-painted gas chamber seemed slim, however. Before talking with Rice, the governor said he had no intention of setting himself up as a "super supreme court" to judge issues already decided. Chessman, who acted as his own attorney until he hired Rice with a $1,000 advance on his book, already had fought his case up to the U. S. Supreme Court and was turned down all the way. Before Knight became governor, Gov. Earl Warren, now chief justice of the United States, had refused clemency. Pleas to spare Chessman grew this month with publication of his book. First author Niven Busch asked clemency, saying Chessman has become "in a sense" a useful citizen by writing the story of his life of crime and imprisonment. Then Dr. Negley K. Teeters, a Temple University criminologist, suggested Chessman be spared to "serve as a guinea pig for science."

IT HAPPENED

Lady, It's No Tank

MILFORD, Conn. (U)—Police said this is what happened when Mrs. Phyllis White moved over yesterday to let her husband drive the car: She accidentally stepped on the accelerator. Her husband was thrown out, injuring his leg. The car roared across the street, narrowly missing other cars, bounded up on Joseph Benedoso's lawn, smashed through his concrete-block garage, tearing a 10 by 10-foot hole in it, and tore down two doors before stopping. Mrs. White wasn't scratched. Not Time Or Place COLUMBUS, Ohio (U)—Joseph Deluca, 44, of Columbus crashed into the rear of a police ambulance cruiser at a stop light yesterday. When the jarrad patrolmen ran back to talk to Deluca, he greeted them with a polite nod and inquired sociably, "What street am I on, please?" He was charged with drunk-and-driving.

Lutheran Laymen Set Zone Session

Several men from St. Paul's Lutheran Church will participate in a western zone Lutheran Laymen's Retreat this weekend at San Angelo. In charge of the sessions, which start Friday afternoon will be F. G. L. Snow, Big Spring, president of the zone. In charge of local arrangements is K. L. Thompson, San Angelo, zone vice president. Around 100 men are expected from congregations at Big Spring, Midland, Odessa, Monahans, Pecos, Sweetwater, Abilene, Brownwood, Sagerton, Cisco, Brady, San Angelo, Eden, Kola, Ballinger, Menard, Albany. Prior to the western zone establishment here last September, retreats were held in the Davis Mountains and at Sweetwater for the Midland, Odessa, Monahans, and Pecos congregations. Henceforth, the meeting will be held at different points in the zone. H. E. Baumann, Abilene, is pastoral advisor for the Christian fellowship gathering designed to equip and inspire men for greater work in their own church.

Border Patrolmen On Temporary Duty

Border Patrol Inspectors Walter Edwards and Marvin Butler of Big Spring left Tuesday for Yuma, Ariz., on temporary duty. They are scheduled to work with other immigration officers in that area for the next 45 days. Remaining on duty here are Inspectors Elmo Rainbolt and Charles Henderson.

Old Longshore Union Draws Fines, Terms

NEW YORK (U)—Fines totaling $2,500 have been added to the woes of the old International Longshoremen's Assn., now locked in a life struggle for control of dock workers in the Port of New York. The fines, plus jail sentences for three ILA local officials, stem from March 5 to April 2. They were imposed last night by Federal Judge Harold P. Burke shortly after a jury decided the union had violated a no-strike injunction and was guilty of criminal contempt. The penalties were far less than

Egyptian Refugee Calls For Check On Ban Of His Paper

BEIRUT, Lebanon (U)—Mahmoud Abul Fath, co-owner of the Egyptian daily newspaper Al Misri, called yesterday for the world's free press to investigate Al Misri's suppression. He said he would accept the verdict of any American or international press committee which would visit Egypt and investigate the suppression by the revolutionary tribunal. "The world's free press should regard the struggle of Al Misri as its own—a struggle for the sacred right to live and express opinion," he said. Abul Fath was sentenced in absentia to 10 years in prison on charges of conspiring against the regime. An Egyptian law states that a person under sentence cannot publish a newspaper.

Dental Plate Break Brings Legal Worry

ENDICOTT, N.Y. (U)—Legal eagles here are trying to figure out whether a woman's $230 suit for damage to her dental plate falls under "personal injury" or "property damage." The woman is suing the village on the ground the sidewalk where she fell and broke her plate was of faulty construction. In reviewing the suit this week, village trustees discovered the village had no insurance to cover property damage suits. Village Clerk Ralph Jackson said insurance men contended the woman had suffered "property damage." The trustees referred the problem to Donald Fuller, village attorney.

Rhee Purges 100 From His Party

SEOUL (U)—President Syngman Rhee has purged 100 "renegade" members of his Liberal party who disobeyed orders and ran for South Korea's National Assembly, a party spokesman, said yesterday. Those purged are running against Rhee-backed candidates in the May 20 election. There also are about 80 candidates of the opposition Democratic Nationalist party in the race for 203 Assembly seats. Indonesian Official Asks Asia-Only Pact JAKARTA, Indonesia (U)—Indonesian Foreign Minister Soenarjo says any defense pact for Southeast Asia must be limited to Asian nations if it is to be effective. Soenarjo told a meeting of Indonesian university students here last night that the presence of "foreign" elements in such a pact is not desirable.

those asked by the National Labor Relations Board, which brought court action against the Union. The board asked a $25,000 fine for the parent ILA for each day of the month-long strike and $100,000 fines against eight of its locals. Defense attorneys announced they would appeal the case today. The strike flared up in the midst of tense rivalry between the old union, which had long held firm control over dock workers, and a new ILA set up by the AFL. Overthrow of the old ILA was sought by the AFL after it kicked out the union and revoked its AFL charter last September on grounds that it was dominated by racketeers. An NLRB bargaining election last December between the two unions was voided because of strong-arm tactics by the old ILA, and a second vote had been set for May 26. The strike, which hit the port during the uneasy period after the first election, brought a fine of $50,000 against the parent ILA and $5,000 each against seven of its locals. The judge set a heavier penalty of $7,500 on an eighth local, No. 824, which ruled the uptown Hudson River docks of luxury passenger liners and had been dubbed the "Pistol Local" because of its reputation for violence. A six-month jail sentence was ordered for Harold Bowers, secretary of Local 824. Three-month terms were given to William P. Lynch, secretary-treasurer of Local 791, and William Ackaltis, secretary of Local 874. The ILA specifically was found guilty of violating a March 4 court injunction against interfering with unloading of trucks driven by members of the AFL Teamsters Union, which had been backing the ILA-AFL.

Baby-Sitting Bill Proves Expensive

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (U)—Mr. and Mrs. Julius Shabus have received the bill for baby-sitting services rendered them the night of Jan. 15, 1953—more than $6,250. What made the bill so high was that the Shabus' 5-year-old son Barry shot the baby sitter accidentally with his father's 30-30 deer rifle. The sitter, Mrs. Lulu Mae Williams, spent 10 weeks in a hospital. Justice Howard A. Zeller of State Supreme Court yesterday approved settlement of a $6,250 damage suit brought by the 20-year-old Mrs. Williams and her father, Glenn D. Shapley, of Smithville Flats. Mrs. Williams contended that Barry got up suddenly and left the living room of the Shabus' home in nearby Greene and returned holding the rifle. It discharged, wounding Mrs. Williams in the thigh.

Home Ruined By Winds

School Trustees Take Action On Long Agenda Tuesday Night

Members of the Big Spring Independent School District Board of Trustees ran up against one of the most formidable schedules of business in months Tuesday evening. They battled the list for four and a half hours before chopping off the list unfinished. Taken under advisement was a request submitted by Mrs. Shelby Read and a group of mothers from Park Hill and College Heights schools asking that some sort of supervised athletic program be installed in the fifth and sixth grades. They said that they would like to see the supervision provided first, then equipment if possible. O. E. Bowman, high school science teacher, whose contract was not renewed recently by the board, made a statement to the board in which he said that "I have tried to build one of the best science classes under conditions in a district which I have labored. I have clear conscience. I have done as good a job as anyone would be pleased for it to be taught." He said he had disciplinary problems because at least one-third of his class were not on the "receiving end," i.e. weren't interested. Why, if it (physics) were an elective course would there be disinterest, asked Dan Conley, board member. Clyde Angel, board president, said that re-election had not been recommended by the administration and that the board considered the matter closed. He thanked Bowman for visiting the board meeting. Bill French, member of Puckett & French, architect-engineers on the Washington Place, Airport, and North Ward classroom jobs, said satisfactory progress was being made. The board decided to stick with RCA equipment for service reasons in new plants. The board was asked about a permanent name for "Airport" school in order it might be inscribed on a plaque. A drainage problem in front of the school was referred to a committee of Angel, R. E. McKinney, Omar Jones from the board together with French and Pat Murphy, business manager. Carl Coleman, athletic director, and Supt. W. C. Blankenship said that applications were being received for a basketball coach since John Ulrey, who had been hired, had not signed his contract. Ulrey has gone to Bryan as a member of that system's staff. A letter was read from the Band Boosters' Club finance committee chairman, Clyde McMahon, who read: "I expressed appreciation for the board support in the successful campaign for junior high band uniforms. Authority was granted Clyde Rowe, band director, to conduct a four-week summer band school on a tuition ($6) basis for individual students. These individual classes would be held in the band rooms and would be a prelude to the traditional clinic for all band students. Rowe estimated that there would be 250 youngsters in school bands (50 in senior high, 100 in junior high, 50 in beginning juniors, 50 in elementary beginners) and asked that consideration be given hiring of an assistant director. Murphy was asked to confer concerning an application to erect a sign on a 200 x 200 school parcel at W. 4th and San Antonio. First refusal and then reconsidering, the board picked up the ditch-digging tab for $132 on 855 feet of ditch for hedge at Kate Morrison School. The board had told the school's P-TA it would dig the ditch four feet from the fence. The ditch, unbeknown to the board, was dug 18 inches from the fence. A request for seed for grass at the school was declined on grounds that the board was unable to seed and maintain grounds on all elementary playgrounds. General science was made a required course for ninth grade students upon recommendation of Blankenship. Home economics and vocational agriculture students may use these credits instead. J. O. Hagood, tax collector-assessor, told the board that 93 percent of the current roll had been collected, that it was on a $50 million instead of $25 million upon which the original budget was based. Delinquent collections stood at $11,800, just $3,200 off the year's estimates, he added. He predicted a roll of $31 1/2 million when completed in October. The board granted permission to Participants included Mrs. Inez Woody of Stanton, Don Anderson, Webb Air Force Base field director, and Mrs. Moore Sawtelle, Big Spring. The home service phase of Red Cross work is in connection with servicemen, veterans and members of their families.

$25,000 Is Asked In Suit Filed Here

Werner Robinson asks judgment for $25,000 in a suit for damages filed in 118th District Court against James H. Hardwick. Robinson alleges he was disabled with injuries to his neck, shoulders and back resulting from a highway accident just east of Big Spring on April 15, 1953. The plaintiff says he was a passenger in a car operated by Jessie Brooks and that the defendant was operator of a truck which collided with the car. Negligence on the part of Hardwick is alleged.

Adams Swears Cohn Said 'This Is War' Before Lab

WASHINGTON (AP)—Army counsel John G. Adams swore today Roy M. Cohn exploded "This is war" when Cohn was barred from a secret radar laboratory at Ft. Monmouth, N.J. last Oct. 20. Telling of the incident from the witness chair of the McCarthy-Army hearings, Adams said: "He became extremely upset. He said 'This is war,' and 'We'll really investigate this place now.' " "He said 'They let Communists into this place but they keep me out—I've got security clearance to go any place in the world.' " Adams was supporting the Army's contention that Cohn, 27-year-old counsel to Sen. McCarthy's investigations subcommittee, made threats against the Army. The Army charges also that Cohn used the subcommittee's power in seeking preferential Army treatment for Pvt. G. David Schine, wealthy New Yorker who was an unpaid consultant to the subcommittee before he was drafted last fall. Ray H. Jenkins, special counsel for the inquiry into the row, asked whether Cohn had had access to FBI files. "He didn't say that to me but he said that to other persons," Adams replied. Leading up to his story of the Monmouth incident, Adams testified: "I. He was under instructions from Secretary Stevens to cooperate 'completely and wholeheartedly' with the McCarthy subcommittee's investigation of alleged subversion at Ft. Monmouth. The McCarthy camp contends Secretary Stevens gave Adams the assignment of trying to halt the Monmouth inquiry. "2. McCarthy once told him G. David Schine was 'not much use' to the McCarthy subcommittee and McCarthy hoped Schine would be drafted. Adams said as he recalled

W. A. Miller Dies Tuesday

By ironic coincidence, Walter Anderson Miller, 74, died here Tuesday seven years from the day he had suffered a disabling stroke. Mr. Miller passed away in a local hospital. He had started a railroad career at the age of 17 in his native Tennessee. Services have been set for 2:30 p.m. Thursday in the Eberly-River Chapel with the Rev. G. W. DABNEY

OUR C-C Support By All Citizens Is Required

Mayor G. W. Dabney would like to see more laborers and farmers hold memberships in the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce.

"When a Chamber of Commerce is composed entirely of business men, it has a lop-sided view," the mayor said.

Dabney believes we have one of the most progressive Chambers in West Texas, and points to the growth of the city as proof.

A number of projects have been supported here in recent years by the Chamber, but Dabney is of the opinion that these projects would not have been successful without cooperation and work of churches, schools, governmental bodies and civic organizations.

Mayor Dabney is ticket agent at the T&P station in Big Spring. He has been a railroad employee since 1903, when he went to work for the L&N Railroad in Tennessee as a telegrapher.

Mayor Dabney came to Big Spring in 1931, and he and his wife now reside at 806 Runnels.

GOP Official Sees No Good In Hearings

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Chairman Leonard W. Hall of the Republican National Committee says he hasn't heard of anyone who thinks the McCarthy Army hearings "are doing anybody any good."

Hall talked with reporters at the White House yesterday after visiting President Eisenhower in company with members of a special GOP veterans committee.

House Panel Okays Drought Area Loans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Agriculture Committee yesterday approved legislation authorizing 15 million dollars of emergency loans to farmers and stockmen in areas where agricultural credit cannot otherwise be obtained.

Similar legislation has been approved by the Senate Agriculture Committee. Its immediate purpose is to aid farmers and ranchers in dust-swept areas of the Middle West.

THE GRUB LINE

With Franklin Reynolds

Just who A. M. Clark was, I have no way of knowing, and since he was born 98 years ago the presumption is that he is no longer living.

Anyway, he must have been a very interesting person, and while he did not live in Texas for any great length of time, so far as I have been able to learn, he did come here, as did many another of his day and time to "look over the prospects."

I have been able to know Mr. Clark only through inspectors Elmo Rainbolt and Walter Edwards, who found an old ledger, up near Seminole, in which Clark undertook to write, in an easily legible hand, the story of his life.

The following record of events and transactions in the life of A. M. Clark is begun on the above date (March 15, 1881) while I am in the thirty-fifth year of my life. The events that have already occurred are written up from memory.

According to the diary he was born in Van Buren County, Tennessee, the son of James and Rebecca Clark.

"Fortunately I was possessed of a strong, vigorous and healthy constitution," he has recorded. "I am the youngest of a large family of children and I am perhaps the most vigorous and robust."

He grew up, he has written, on the family homestead "about two and one-half miles west of Spencer, Tennessee," and notes that this homestead was purchased by his father before the Civil War.

"My education is limited and defective, my opportunities being very poor to go to school. I went a few times to free schools in the Fall season and four months at Burrill College in the Fall of 1879 in 1885."

In spite of his comment on his educational opportunities, his penmanship is good, as is his sentence construction, the use of words and his spelling. He was, we might say, a self-educated man and a wide reader.

Mentioning something that happened when he was 11 years old, he says: "At that early age, with hoe and ax on my shoulder, I had to go into the woods, clear land, fence it and make a full hand. This I had to do in the hills and woods of the Cumberland Mountains. Few boys of that age are called upon to go through such an ordeal, and those who are have my sympathy. Things went on as above outlined until I was married, which event took place in Spencer at the residence of James A. Hill on Sunday morning January 25th, 1880, when his daughter, Julian Anna Hill became my life partner."

"In the year 1882" the Clarks moved to River Hill, Tennessee, where he became partner of his father-in-law in a mercantile business Mr. Hill operated in partnership with T. L. Mitchell. In a few months Hill bought Mitchell out and in June of 1883 the store business was moved to Doyle. In the meantime two children had been born to the Clarks, a daughter, Flora, on July 12, 1881, and a son, James Walter, on March 12, 1884. A third child, another son, John and making policy decisions," he said. "I'll give it everything I have." Tompkins, known as "Tommy" to his friends, has an engaging sort of dimple in his cheek when he laughs, which he does often. He has dark, wavy hair, receding a bit at the temples, and bushy eyebrows. He took a look at his driver's license to confirm that his eyes are blue.

A descendant of one of the men who helped found Newark, he lives in an old farmhouse in suburban Maplewood with his wife Jane and 10-year-old son William Jr.

As U. S. attorney, he says he worked 10 to 12 hours a day, many nights and weekends, but "I was so interested in the work in this office that I honestly haven't considered it work."

He gives much of the credit for his success in handling important federal cases to his hand-picked staff of "young men on their way up."

Pondering the question of how he spends his leisure time, he said he had to admit he spent all his free time with his family. Like any other father, he gets his exercise romping with young Bill, he said. A carry-over from his college days, he still plays sandlot baseball.

AS PROSECUTOR

Tompkins Is To Hit Hard Against Spies

By FRANCES LEWINE
NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—William F. Tompkins, a man with the lean and hawklike look of a Sherlock Holmes, is ready to "hit hard" as the nation's new prosecutor of spies and subversives.

He thinks the government should "expedite" action against Communists and subversives on the old legal theory that "Justice delayed is justice denied."

Tompkins, 41, a hard-working, hard-smoking New York lawyer, jumped into the New Jersey political scene fresh from law school and a stint in the Army during World War II. He served three years as a state assemblyman and was rounding out his first year as U. S. attorney for the New Jersey district, when he was named May 10 to head the new Internal Security Division of the Justice Department. He will hold the rank of assistant U. S. attorney general.

He made it clear today that the new job doesn't involve any investigating on his part. "The FBI will do that, while the Internal Security Division gets the cases before grand juries and into the courts for prosecution, he explained.

Tompkins' nomination by the president must be approved by the U. S. Senate. He said he suspects his appointment came as a result of the good work of his office here in cracking down on gangsters and racketeers and "some successful income tax evasion" cases.

"And what a time for it to come," he said, "right in the middle of the Zwillingman thing." He referred to an income tax case involving prohibition era rumrunner Abner (Lonnie) Zwillingman of Newark, which his office now is presenting to a federal grand jury. Zwillingman was linked with big-time racketeers during the Senate Crime Investigating Committee hearings in 1951.

Tompkins, a Republican, said he wants to clear up the Zwillingman matter before he goes to Washington, which he expects will be about June 1.

Leaning back in a swivel chair with his feet propped up on a desk in his impressive Federal Building office here, he viewed the assignment as "a really great challenge." It will involve "analysis of cases, evaluating information

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The Senate has passed and sent to the House a bill adding the words "under God" to the pledge of allegiance to the flag. The revised pledge would read: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Howard, was born March 21, 1890, and he, according to the diary, "was very small and poor and had but little prospects for physical strength and vigor."

During the winter and spring of 1891 Mrs. Clark's health grew worse and worse and at midnight or about 12:30 a.m. April 7th, 1891 the issue came. The death angel came to accompany her to that bright Spring land from which no traveler returns."

This broke up the family. "Flora went to Doyle to stay at her grandparents. Howard went to Mrs. Summers to be taken care of by her... Me and Walter started boarding at Mrs. J. S. Cooper's."

On August 11, 1891, Clark was united in marriage with Eva Malloy "at 10 o'clock and thirty minutes."

On June 3, 1892, he wrote: "This is my birthday and I am 36 years of age. It is Friday and a rainy day. My health is bad and I fear I will never be well again."

But just one year later, on June 3, 1893, the diary recites: "This is my birthday and I am 37 years old. I have spent the forenoon at store. When I went to the house I found that the loving hands of my wife had the following bill of fare for dinner — Corn bread, fried meat, stewed meat, green beans, green peas, pickled beets, onions, syrup, cherry pie, white cake, yellow cake, butter, clabber milk and sweet milk."

In the spring of 1891 the Clarks moved to Greer County, Oklahoma and established a home on a farm near there. They lived here from May of 1891 until November of 1894, and Clark wrote in the diary: "No human will ever know how homesick and heart sick I was during this stay." One June 3, 1904, another birthday, he had recorded: "I am blue and homesick. The awful drought here is really unbroken and there is very, very little grass and shrubby poor prospects for crops. I wish I was somewhere out of this drought."

Later the Clarks lived in Arkansas and New Mexico, according to the diary, and then again returned to Oklahoma. By now three sons had been born to Clark and his second wife, Eva. One of these sons died while a baby, but the other two were Otis Everett Clark and Ennie Bryan Clark.

In detail Clark describes fruit trees he planted at his new home near Hollis, Oklahoma, also gooseberry bushes and grape vines. He returned to New Mexico and bought a place near Mesilla Park.

"On Oct. 6, 1923, in a Chevrolet car, we left Corpus Christi to look for a location."

They stopped at Kerrville and San Marcos, and then went to Seguin and San Antonio. He bought 180 acres 10 miles west of Seguin and planted another fruit orchard of peach, apple and plum trees, and dewberries and grapes.

Doubtless there are descendants of A. M. Clark living in West Texas, yet and I am pretty sure they would like to have this old diary, which I believe Inspectors Rainbolt and Edwards would like to deliver to them. It was found in a good state of preservation in a field near Seminole, probably uncovered by the winds that have moved so much topsoil.

Col. Dean Is Rotary Speaker Here Tuesday

Scope of the "Communist conspiracy" and steps the free world is taking to combat it were outlined by Col. Fred Dean, Webb Air Base commander, in a talk at the Rotary Club meeting Tuesday.

A numerically superior ground force, naval and air forces second only to those of the United States, and a powerful, expanding industry were described as the weapons of the Russians.

Col. Dean said the Soviets have the additional advantage of "being under no moral restraint" and attempt to topple the free world by "limited war," espionage and propaganda.

Geographic location of Russia makes it a threat in both Asia and Europe, he declared. Pointing out that the industrial and military potentials of western Europe, added to those of America, gives the West a superiority over the Communists, Col. Dean said that the North Atlantic Treaty Organization is designed to consolidate this advantage.

An attack on free Europe would result in world conflict, he stated. The Air Force officer said 47 divisions (with 50 others available on a month's notice), 5,000 operational planes and 120 air bases stand against the Communist threat of 20,000 planes, a strong navy and the large land army.

Col. Dean's address was in connection with Armed Forces Day which is to be observed at Webb

Saturday, and the colonel reminded that the local field is one of many at which European as well as American pilots are trained to defend the free world.

Special guests at the luncheon program were A-C Jacques R. Leschneve, of France, and Johannes Brook, of Holland.

Lt. Dennis McClendon, public information officer at Webb, also spoke briefly, inviting Big Springers to attend the AF Day program at the base Saturday.

Also featured on the Tuesday program were Jane Blissard, Lomax 4-H Club girl who told of her club activities, and County Agent Durward Lawler. Jane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doris Blissard, were guests.

Other visitors included Jim Hamblon, Sweetwater; Howard Crawford, Lamesa; C. F. Lanter, Fort Worth; and Harry Danciger, Jim Lewis, Fisher Mays, Jim Smith and Dick Clifton, Troop No. 1 Boy Scout leaders.

Plymouth

Is your "best buy" In the lowest-price field!

Recently a 1954 Plymouth and current models of the other two best-known low-price cars were taken apart by Plymouth engineers and compared, part by part. Standard "stock" models were used. We've listed some typical findings below.

Plymouth is "best buy" in many ways. Here are just a few!

	low-price Plymouth	low-price car "A"	low-price car "B"
Front Wheel Brakes Plymouth engineers provide two hydraulic brake cylinders in each front wheel brake to ensure smooth, controlled stops without "grabbing." The "other two" in the lowest-price field have only one.
Seat Springs Plymouth uses coil seat springs since they give longer-lasting support. The other two cars have a zigzag platform type. Also, Plymouth's front seat "springs-on-springs" design adds more comfort.
Piston Rings Plymouth engineers use four rings on each piston, resulting in decreased carbon deposit, more consistent power output. Top ring is chrome plated to give greater oil economy, allow faster "break-in" driving.
Body Mounts Plymouth's thick live-rubber body mounts prevent metal-to-metal contact and protect body from shock and vibration. Just look at the difference between Plymouth's mounts and the thin type used by the "other two!"
Micronic Oil Filter This unit, standard on most Plymouth models, keeps abrasive dirt out of the engine, thus reducing wear and achieving greater oil economy. This feature is available at extra cost on the other two low-price cars.

And dozens of other part-by-part comparisons prove Plymouth is your "best buy"! See us today... and get the facts!

Ask us for the big illustrated booklet that shows how Plymouth leads in frame construction... engine design... performance... economy... comfort... safety. Then...

Congress Considers What Might Happen To Laws In Atomic War

The men on Capitol Hill in Washington have naturally been thinking of some of the consequences of atomic attack on this country's constitutional processes. The results of this thinking will be taken up Friday of this week by the Senate Judiciary Committee. Suppose a majority of both Houses of Congress should be wiped out in an atomic attack on the capital, what then? Easy, insofar as the Senate is concerned; the governors of the 48 states have the constitutional power to fill vacancies by appointment. But the House is different. Its members must be chosen by popular election. Governors are not authorized to fill vacancies by appointment there.

Mitchell Pulled Boner In Refusing Recognition To Wright Morrow

Southern Democrats, conservatives and liberals alike, who believe the Democratic Party is best for the South in particular and the nation in general must view the seemingly dictatorial methods of national chairman Stephen Mitchell with grave misgivings. Mr. Mitchell seems more interested in creating a greater gulf between the two wings of the party than in unifying them. His latest divisive tactic was to refuse recognition to Wright Morrow of Houston, who showed up at the gathering of Democratic congressional leaders and candidates in Washington Wednesday, and tried to take part in the committee meeting. Mitchell ruled him out of order and no longer a member of the committee. While a member of the committee in 1952 Morrow voted for the Republican nominee, but submitted his resignation to the state committee, sending a copy to the national committee. The state committee twice refused to accept the resignation, but Mitchell in behalf of the national group snapped it up.

Business Outlook—J. A. Livingston

Effects Of Late Snow Felt On Dining Tables Across Country

PUEBLO, Colo. — They call it the million-dollar snow. But that's undoubtedly a gross minimization. It fell when men customarily go around open-necked and women show bare arms. In May. The snow and rain checked the drought in eastern Colorado, parts of Kansas, Nebraska, New Mexico, and even helped out sections of thirsting West Texas.

The beneficence will stretch to dining room tables in New-York, Philadelphia, Washington, Buffalo, Portland — wherever beef and lamb are eaten. It penetrated at once stockyards in Omaha and Denver, and auction markets in smaller towns in Nebraska, Kansas, and Texas. It made its way to steel mills throughout the country, but most particularly to the Colorado Fuel & Iron Corp., with its main plant and big wire mill at Pueblo, and its executive offices in Denver. And it created a new social and economic climate.

Gaiety and gladness replaced worry and fretfulness. Cattlemen would smile and say: "Friend, did you bring the snow? You're mighty welcome. We needed moisture bad. Come again, come often." The moisture stopped the slaughter of livestock. Offerings at stockyards promptly dried up. Cattle prices rose 50 cents to a dollar a hundredweight — two per cent to four per cent. On a $200 steer, that's $5 to $10. On 50 head, that's $250 to $500. On a herd of 500 to 1,000, that's big money.

"Why?" the Easterner asks. "Why the drop in offerings and the rise in price?" "Pastures, man, pastures," is the cryptic answer. At Colorado Fuel & Iron, the explanation of the jubilant mood is the same: Pastures, man, pastures. The snow and rain granted new life to fields planted to alfalfa and other hays. Fallow land sprouted green. This was forage for gaunt cattle. Wells and water holes filled up. This was drink for cattle.

Ranchers gained a reprieve. They could graze their flocks instead of dumping them—rushing them to slaughter. They could hold steers and heifers for the feed lots, where they'd be fattened—pumped full of corn, maize, and other meals. Then later, after 60, 90, 120 days or longer, they'd be rich red beef with that marble stamp of quality running through it. And the price—well, presumably, the price will be lower than it otherwise could have been. Herds won't be decimated now—before their prime. Supplies will be more plentiful. Better feeding for cattle means better eating at lower prices for us—this fall.

But to grass herds, you need fencing. And because the rain improved hay prospects, orders for baling wire are likely to spurt. Hence, the satisfaction at C. F. & I. Orders ought to perk up.

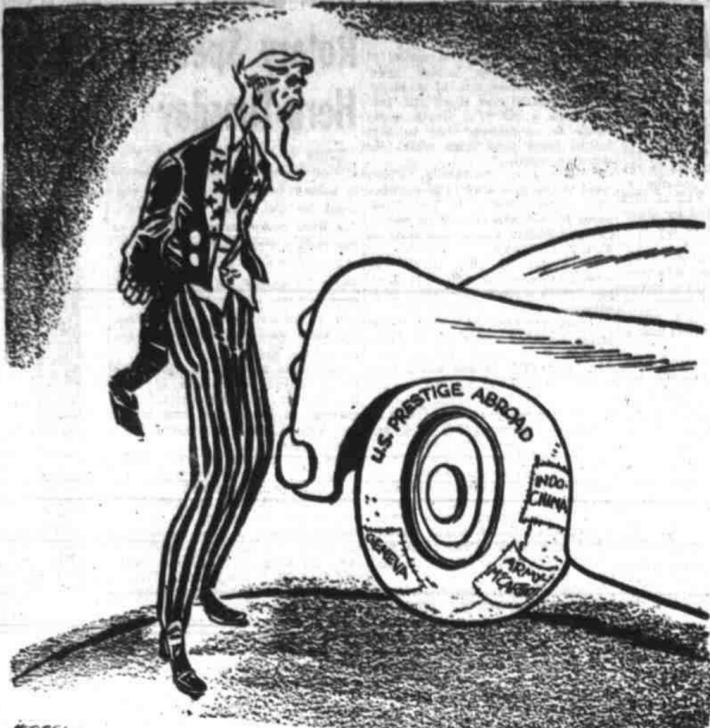

The wheat speculator got the biggest belt of all. He's the man who rents cheap, irrigated land at perhaps a dollar an acre, sows it up, seeds it to wheat, and then looks to the skies. If it rains, he makes a killing. And this rain has made many such a gamble a like to pay-off. Yet, this speculation is bad for the land. Plowing these sparsely grazed acres to wheat leaves them naked against the weather — against the winds. Wheat doesn't send down earth-binding roots. When the moisture leaves, the surface—the time-enriched topsoil—goes with the wind.

Some conservationists blame this gambling on the government, on support prices. They'll say: "Let wheat seek its own level in world markets and the wheat plunger will disappear." But so long as the price is $2 a bushel or thereabouts, there will always be wheat speculators — and not just in the grain pits.

Thus, high support prices mean more than big crops, big Treasury deficits, and high retail prices. They mean—and they'll say so in curse words — waste land. But this, of course, is cattle country!

Conservation Grows

LOUISVILLE (AP)—Interest in Kentucky's Junior Conservation Clubs, is becoming nationwide. The state's program, developed during the past eight years has moved into secondary schools, with the sanction of the Department of Education. There now are more than 500 school clubs with a membership of 25,000. About 4,000 of these attend one of the two camps maintained by the conservation department, for one week hours that include short courses on various outdoor activities.

McCarthy-Army Hearings May Become Really Rough Before Climax Is Reached

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ugly. It's probably the best word to describe what to expect now in the Senate hearing on Sen. McCarthy's row with Pentagon officials. Secretary of the Army Stevens by a cold decision has made this a finish fight. McCarthy has tried to minimize the importance of the hearing, calling it a burlesque and a circus. Now that it's due to go on to the bitter end his political life may be at stake. Stevens was willing to put his public career on the block. He refused to agree to shorten the hearing by letting the whole business disappear from public view once McCarthy had testified. If he had agreed, witnesses who testified after McCarthy would have done so behind closed doors, with the public, the press and television cameras excluded although a transcript of what they said would have been given out. Stevens, on the receiving end of McCarthy's questions for most of his 14 days on the stand, chose to let the hearings run their full course out in the open. He took the position that not only McCarthy but the senators' two aides in the case, Roy M. Cohn and Francis P. Carr, should have to face the same kind of cross-examination he did. This meant, of course, the same treatment for the other two principals on his side of the case, Army Counselor John G. Adams and H. Struve Hensel, assistant secretary of defense. So far the cards have all been in McCarthy's hands. It's Stevens who had to answer questions from the seven senators making the investigation. Ray H. Jenkins, their special counsel, and from McCarthy and Cohn. McCarthy, simply because Stevens was the witness, nailed him to the chair day after day with questions. Yet, more and more as the days passed, McCarthy has been acting like a man who thought he was surrounded by enemies. He accused two of the senators—Democrats Symington of Missouri and Jackson of Washington—of trying to obstruct his hunt for Communists. He turned on a fellow Republican on the committee, a man he himself had nominated to be there, Sen. Dworshak of Idaho, and told him he was sorry he had chosen him. He repeatedly insinuated Stevens was lying and belittled the secretary's intelligence. Twice he accused Joseph N. Welch, counsel to Stevens and Adams, of breaking agreements which Welch said never existed. And he tried to humiliate Hensel, who hadn't said a word, by suggesting that Army officers sitting near him were lending him a dignity he didn't deserve and should move away. His tactics have become rougher as the days pass. If he has reached this point while the cards were still all in his hands, what's his mood going to be when he and Cohn and Carr have to stand up, maybe for weeks, under Army cross-examination? Did Stevens himself make the decision to go on with the hearings? His boss, Secretary of Defense Wilson, said late yesterday Stevens did. It is not known whether Stevens had President Eisenhower's okay or asked for it. One thing the administration can be sure of: so long as McCarthy is forced to spend all his time at the hearing, he won't have time to bang away at the administration from other directions, as he did in the past. Yet Stevens had to consider, before rejecting them, some good reasons for bringing the televised hearings to a halt. He and his aides could have gone back to their appointed tasks in the Army. McCarthy and the other seven senators could have gone on to other work. And the Republican party, which faces the congressional elections benefited by a quick end to the inquiry. This prolonged spectacle of a strictly Republican family fight can hardly be helping the party.

Food Engineers Obtain All Sorts Of Odd Facts

NEW YORK (AP)—How can you get bananas to stay ripe longer by making them breathe less? How tough should a jelly bean be? What is the correct wall thickness of a piece of macaroni? How can you tell whether canned peas are young, middle-aged or elderly? These problems would baffle the best of housewives, but a man—one man anyway—finds them quite simple. He is George Garnatz, a pioneer in the rapidly expanding field of food engineering. "I've been stuck with food problems for 32 years," said Garnatz, every since I wrote a graduate thesis on the soda cracker when I was studying to be a chemical engineer. Nobody before had ever written a thesis about soda crackers. Chemical engineers then didn't pay much attention to the study of food processes. Today, as director of the Kroger Food Foundation in Cincinnati, Garnatz and a staff of 25 work in a laboratory full of weird machines developed to see that mama gets what she pays for at the grocery store. With a simple micrometer Garnatz can measure a piece of macaroni to be sure that it has the proper wall thickness. "A quick-cooking macaroni should be about 261,000th of an inch thick," he said. "Slow cooking macaroni can be up to 4,000th of an inch. We can allow up to 2-1,000th of an inch variation and still guarantee uniform cooking quality." How do you tell young peas from old peas? Simple. By the difference between sinkers and floaters. "As peas get older they get more dense, because they are converting their sugar to starch," explained Garnatz. "In a can of top grade fancy peas not more than 2 per cent of them should sink more than 2 inches in a 13 per cent salt solution in 10 seconds." There is also a "cookie torturer" called a shortener. The cookie or soda cracker is placed across two parallel bars. A third metal arm then swings down and meas-

This Day In Texas

By CURTIS BISHOP

Born in Kentucky on this day in 1795 was James Love, eminent Texas lawyer and successful planter. Before he moved to Texas in 1837 Love had built up a successful law practice in his native state and had also served as a state legislator and a member of Congress from Kentucky. He made his first Texas home at Houston, but moved to Galveston the next year and lived there for the rest of his life. In politics Love showed fierce partisanship. He admired Mirabeau B. Lamar intensely and distilled Sam Houston with equal fervor. In a letter he once described the Raven as a "bloated mass of corruption" and referred to his possible return to the presidency as a "scourge." His Galveston home frequently served as a sort of headquarters for anti-Houston elements.

Toward Lamar Love exhibited quite different feelings. In fact he once sent Lamar two barrels of whisky, one excellent, the other only fair—the poorer barrel for "those who profess to be your friends but are not." After annexation Love served for a time as a district judge and later as clerk of a Federal district court. Though he was 66 years old, he volunteered for service with Terry's Texas Rangers during the Civil War.

Guessing Game With Weather Is A Bit Too Enticing To Pass Up

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald.—Editor's Note.

There is very old, and very wise saying that runs like this: "Only fools and new-comers predict weather in West Texas." The longer you stay around, the more you are convinced of its sagacity. . . and like wet paint or the business side of an electric fan, you ultimately touch your finger to see if what you have seen is really so. Thus, as an old timer I classify myself by hazarding that our record-breaking drought may be in the process of breaking up. This is not based upon the soaking showers of Tuesday morning. On the contrary, it really goes back to last October when 3.2 inches came at the start of the month and another series of showers toward the end of the month ran October's total to 7.04 inches. This was one of the best months in years. Coming as it did, the moisture went into what we call "seasoning" in this country. It had little vegetation to suck it from the ground. On the strength of this moisture, farmers were able to put their land up, that is they were able to deep break, list or contour furrow the soil. While this finally capitulated to repeated and almost unprecedented assaults of the wind, the preparation of the soil did delay the worst of the miserable sand and dust storms by a month or more. And surprisingly, in spite of tremendous wind erosion damage, a considerable portion of the ground managed somehow to retain some of its seasoning. When the inches (and more in places) which fell in April, conditions generally were ripe for taking full advantage of two and a half inches (and more in places) which fell in the middle of the month. About the time some of the area stuff came up to a stand, another shower came along to hit most of the area and give cause for pitching in and fighting the weeds. And now, another downpour of 2 1/2 inches or better, has come just at the time when, once farmers can return to their fields, it will be almost ideal for putting cotton into the ground. It begins to look as if we're on the way to getting a crop up for a welcome change. But prospects of a crop do not spell end of a drought within themselves, though they certainly would be proof. The encouraging thing is that we are no longer going a year at a time without any heavy precipitation. We are getting a little background of underground seasoning. Showers are tending to fit into recurring patterns. And most important of all, that confounded wind has seemingly been edged out of its stubborn hold on the west. Finally, we have, the weatherman tells us, cabbaged on to some Pacific moisture. That hasn't happened in appreciable degree since the historic glaze storms of four or five years ago. So, with my fingers crossed, my heart full of faith, and my head light with recent rainwater, I say it begins to look a wee bit like we are on our way out. —JOE PICKLE

These Days—George Sokolsky

Education Puzzle Differs From The Type Earlier Parents Knew

President William F. Russell of Teachers College of Columbia University has written a handbook for puzzled parents and tired taxpayers. It is entitled "How to Judge a School." Parents are, of course, puzzled by their children these days, as they undoubtedly were when I was a child and had parents. But mine were happy that there was any school to go to, which was very different from the country whence they came, schools there being the special privilege of special people. It was enough that the youngsters could go to school, that they learned English and to count and that the report cards were good, especially about deportment. Some children were already bums and did not get good deportment. And some parents were always going up to school to tell the principal why their children did not show up. With such simple problems, President Russell does not deal. The schools have become so complicated that the parents ought to go back to learn how to understand their children. The three "R's" are old fogey stuff. Who needs to know how to write? for writing you use a typewriter. Who needs to know how to add? for adding you use an adding machine. As for reading, some do and some don't. It is not so much a matter of a quarrel between progressive education and traditional education as that the child may come out of our schools prepared not only for mileage but for life. I like President Russell's book, although as a parent I am more orthodox than this educator, because he poses the problems that parents face. The other day, my 13-year-old daughter told me that she had to write a composition on Marxism. A little surprised at the immensity of the topic at her age, I handed her "The Communist Manifesto" with an introduction by Harold Laski. Her product pleased me no end because she described accurately the basic Marxist principles and their application in Russia as Marxism-Leninism. Where she got the second part, I do not know. But of this I am sure, her statement of the case was superior to that of many senators I have heard. If the type of education she receives can produce the ability to focus on the facts and to clear away tons of verbiage and prejudice, it is not a bad job at all. I tried to recall what I was told to do at that age, and if my memory serves me, Mr. Jenkins is a given Edgar Allan Poe's "The Raven" to memorize and to recite.

I must say that all my life I have earned my living by the use of English and I am sure that, considering that we did not speak English at home when I was a child, the language could not have become a tool had I not memorized poetry and prose, the Bible and the Declaration of Independence. They now say that such memorization is a waste of effort, but this I doubt. There is much philosophy in Russell's handbook which explains, in a measure, what he has been trying to do at Teachers College, which has had such an influence on American education. He makes a point about liberty, without which our society has no meaning. He says: "... the fathers did not give a precise charter to us, their successors. They knew what they did not want; precisely what they did want was not so clear. Thus religious freedom seems to stand somewhere between religious direction from the central authority and atheism and God-odd foggy stuff. Who needs to know how to write? for writing you use a typewriter. Who needs to know how to add? for adding you use an adding machine. As for reading, some do and some don't. It is not so much a matter of a quarrel between progressive education and traditional education as that the child may come out of our schools prepared not only for mileage but for life. I like President Russell's book, although as a parent I am more orthodox than this educator, because he poses the problems that parents face. Ghostly Voice

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP)—Mrs. J. A. Gregory was practicing on the organ at St. Paul's Episcopal Church here when, suddenly, a voice boomed out of the instrument. "I got to thinking about all the funerals I had played for," said Mrs. Gregory, "and it scared me plenty." Investigation showed that the organ's amplifier had acted as a receiver to pick up an amateur radio broadcast.

Refund Wanted

COLFAX, Wash. (AP)—One day when he was 15, Harold Doolittle slipped a dime into a cornerstone concrete of the rising Hamilton School. Doolittle is now 78, but when he heard they were tearing down the old building he traveled the 60 miles from Spokane to put in a claim for his dime. The contractor told him to come back later; that it would be several months before the wreckers get to the cornerstone.

Realism Overdone

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Morris Ford, a Coopersville, Mich., youngster and Henry Lieffers, his grandfather, were deeply absorbed in a television jungle show when a tiger appeared in the play. "Don't worry," Lieffers yelled, "I'll get that tiger." He grabbed his grandson's air rifle, thinking it wasn't loaded. Lieffers got his tiger—and the television set, too.

Long Memory

BURLINGTON, Mich. (AP)—Abe Lepper, 24, stopped his car alongside another to ask directions—then did a double take. "Why you're the same—that hit me in 1945," Lepper roared. Ernest Lux, 50, rolled up his window and snarled away but Lepper gave chase and rammed into Lux's fender. Justice Court received Lepper's $61.50 fine on charges of assault and battery.

Fora Hears Dr. Harrison

The juvenile delinquent is the forerunner of the adult psychopath," emphasized Dr. Preston Harrison of the State Hospital at a meeting of Spoudas Fours Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. L. W. Graves.

The program was on "The American Clubwoman's Health" and Mrs. Ladd Smith was in charge.

Dr. Harrison dwelt on juvenile delinquents who come from "good" homes. He explained that he thought such cases could be blamed on parents who force children into abnormal behavior because they have the unconscious desire to see in the children things that would like to do themselves.

"Learning difficulties are induced by subconscious or conscious motives of the parents," he added. "Conscience in the child is born not made," he said.

Mrs. Ray Clark presided in the absence of Mrs. Glen Brown. Plans were made for the picnic May 29. Guests were Mrs. W. L. Wimberly and Mrs. Gerald Harris.

Bannister Arrives In Country Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Roger Bannister, the first human to run the mile in less than four minutes, was scheduled to arrive here today—but strictly for speaking purposes.

The 25-year-old British medical student, who electrified the world with his 3:59.4 effort last week, left London by plane last night, was due in New York at 6:05 a.m. (CST). The British Foreign Office said he would do no running while here.

In fact, the New York office said, Roger will be back home on Saturday for the royal homecoming when Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh return from their around-the-world journey.

The Foreign Office asked Bannister to make the trip which is being underwritten by United States television interests. His first scheduled appearance will be on tonight.

"We thought it a good idea and a good publicity undertaking," said a Foreign Office spokesman. "He will talk on how he ran the 3:59.4 mile."

Roswell Kayoes Cayuses Again

ROSWELL (SC) — The Big Spring Broncos moved over to Carlsbad today to begin a two-game series after losing their fourth straight decision to Roswell here Tuesday night.

Gene Nalley pitched Roswell to its ninth straight loop victory as he handuffed Big Spring of a seven hit performance.

The big righthander received terrific fielding support from his three twin killings at key points. It was a 3-1 game going into the eighth but a base on balls by loser Aramis Arencibia to Joe Bauman, a triple by Ossie Alvarez and a home run by Weldon Day led the issue.

Noble White Sets Kegling Record

Noble White shattered all scoring records for single game activity in Men's Scratch Bowling League activity here Tuesday night when he swept the boards for a 242.

White went on to score an aggregate of 522, which didn't place him among the top three kegglers.

Jake Douglass set the pace in total scoring with 593, followed by Ray Osborne with 553 and Jim Petroff with 545.

White's held on to first place by nudging Engstrom's bunch, 2-1; the same margin by which Weaver's aggregation won over Becker's boys. In the evening's other match, Douglass' 14 prevailed over Brown's contingent, 3-0.

White's now has a 19-11 record; followed by Weaver's, with 18-12; Becker's, 14-16; Engstrom's, 14-16; Douglass', 13-17; and Brown's 12-18.

Six Cities In Bid For Horse Events

ATHENS (AP) — With the International Olympic Committee's biggest battle of the year happily settled at last, delegates today began studying qualifications of the six cities that would like to stage the 1956 equestrian events.

The committee had hardly finished removing the horse competition from Melbourne when four European and two American cities took the lead in the competition to become host for the tests.

Los Angeles, Rio de Janeiro, Brussels, Stockholm, Paris and London all made their bids. Several other cities will be considered but these are the ones that will try to get serious consideration.

The committee yesterday voted 30-18 to take advantage in a loop-hole in Olympic rules and shift the equestrian events from Melbourne. A six-month quarantine on all horses entering Australia caused the shift.

All the committee meetings are closed and Athens police stand guard, but the conference developed leaks.

It was understood that Avery Brundage of Chicago, president of the committee, favored moving the events, but only after saying that such a split in the program would never happen again.

The French, Greeks and a few other scattered committeemen led the scrap to take the entire program away from Melbourne. This attempt has been going on all year.

Only now can Melbourne consider itself safely over the hump. "This clears the way for Melbourne to move ahead," said Brundage. "I don't look for anything more along this line."

One spot of unpleasantness still hovers over Australia, however, and it concerns the political break between that country and Russia because a Soviet diplomat was given alexis last month.

Lewis Luxton and E. J. Holt, the Australian committeemen, said, however, that they don't foresee any difficulty with the Russians.

"We won't make up our minds until Thursday, when the weights are out for the Massachusetts Handicap at Boston," said J. E. Ryan, who trains British-bred Royal Vale for Mrs. J. R. H. Thouron. The Massachusetts is a $50,000 race at a mile and one quarter.

"He won that one at Boston last year, and we might try it again."

Blaine will run Mile In SW Meet

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Texas A&M will enter Jim Blaine in the mile race at the Southwest Conference track meet in Waco this weekend.

Blaine is the defending two-mile titlist and has been the conference cross-country champion for three years.

He's entered the mile event this season because an ankle injury has kept the defending mile champion, Dale DeRouen, of Port Arthur, out of competition.

Blaine ran the mile in 4:18.4 against Abilene Christian and North Texas last week. The conference record is 4:17.2.

Teen-Age Girl Holds Spotlight In Meet

By MERCER BAILEY BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Two veterans of tournament campaigns and an amazing teen-age school kid who has been playing golf only 30 months held the spotlight in today's second round of the Women's Southern Golf Tournament.

The veterans were National Amateur Champion Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga., and Polly Riley, four-time Southern winner from Fort Worth. They clashed in the feature match of the round.

The winner is favored to capture the championship. But Mary Mills, the 14-year-old eighth grader from Gulfport, Miss., was the girl who had the spectators buzzing with excitement.

The chunky youngster jumped into a sentimental favorite's role yesterday when she upset Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore 1 up in 23 holes.

Her distance off the tee—she won the tourney's driving contest with a 223-yard slam—and ability to get long puts down at the right time enabled her to oust her tournament-wise opponent, a former school teacher in her mid-40s.

The youngster, a protégé of Johnny Revolta, withstood pressure like a pro when Mrs. Glick won the last two holes and sent the match into a playoff.

Mary never faltered on the first four extra holes and calmly closed out the match on the fifth when Mrs. Glick hooked her drive into a trap and came out short.

Miss Mills' second round opponent was Minnie Lee Ashley of Gadsden, Ala.

Miss Faulk, tourney medalist for the third straight year, and Miss Riley, who lost to Mary Lena in the National Amateur finals last year, made short work of their first round opponents.

Miss Faulk ousted Mrs. Harry Webb of Huntsville, Ala., 6 and 5, and Polly defeated Mrs. Carl Robbins of Fort Smith, Ark., 8 and 6.

Colts Cast Two Players Adrift

SAN ANGELO (SC) — Johnny Tayoan, veteran infielder, has signed a 1954 contract with the San Angelo Colts of the Longhorn League.

Charley Watts, another classman infielder, has been returned to Dallas and Curt Borrett, limited service outfielder, has been sent to Harlingen of the Big State League by the Colts.

Tayoan hit .327 for San Angelo last year. Borrett was hitting only .260 when he was taken out of the lineup.

SAN ANGELO, (SC) — The Outfielder Mike Cherry and Pitcher Merv Christensen have been cast adrift by the San Angelo Colts of the Longhorn League.

The moves were made in order to cut the Colt squad to 15 players, the legal limit. Christensen was obtained from Harlingen in a trade for John Margerlin. He had won one and lost two decisions since arriving here.

Cherry, a rookie, has been sent to Pampa Valley in the Sooner State League. Gene Muller, who hit .255 for Muskogee, Okla., last year has joined the Colts and will probably play shortstop tonight against Sweetwater.

Preston Hollow Pro-Am Is Scheduled, Rain Or Shine

DALLAS (AP) — Sixty-one teams brave the elements today in the inaugural Preston Hollow pro-amateur golf tournament which offers $3,100 in cash and prizes to the best mudders.

Reduced to one day of competition by the heavy rain of the past two days, the tournament will be run off, Chairman Tom O'Dwyer said, "come rain or sunshine."

Preston Hollow will pay the full cash and prize list, including a luxury car or $5,000 for the first hole-in-one.

The tournament will have a starting field of 201 players. Several teams withdrew, including the highly-regarded duo of Bo Winger and Charlie Coe of Oklahoma City, and moved on to Abilene where they will compete in the 54-hole Abilene Open starting Friday.

Late entries included Buster Reed of Fort Sam Houston, a former North Texas State star from Dallas; Iverson Martin, veteran

Colts Cast Two Players Adrift

SAN ANGELO (SC) — Johnny Tayoan, veteran infielder, has signed a 1954 contract with the San Angelo Colts of the Longhorn League.

Charley Watts, another classman infielder, has been returned to Dallas and Curt Borrett, limited service outfielder, has been sent to Harlingen of the Big State League by the Colts.

Tayoan hit .327 for San Angelo last year. Borrett was hitting only .260 when he was taken out of the lineup.

SAN ANGELO, (SC) — The Outfielder Mike Cherry and Pitcher Merv Christensen have been cast adrift by the San Angelo Colts of the Longhorn League.

The moves were made in order to cut the Colt squad to 15 players, the legal limit. Christensen was obtained from Harlingen in a trade for John Margerlin. He had won one and lost two decisions since arriving here.

Cherry, a rookie, has been sent to Pampa Valley in the Sooner State League. Gene Muller, who hit .255 for Muskogee, Okla., last year has joined the Colts and will probably play shortstop tonight against Sweetwater.

The Champ

Parry O'Brien, 22-year-old former USC star, was all smiles after he electrified the track and field world at the Coliseum in Los Angeles by catapulting the 16-pound shot put 69 feet 5 1/2 inches to better his own globe standard and shatter the myth of a 60-foot limit. O'Brien, who weighs 220 pounds, will enter the Fresno Relays and announces that he will try for 62 feet. (AP Wirephoto).

Sports Defeat Missions, 5-4

By The Associated Press
The Shreveport Sports had stopped their slide toward the Texas League cellar today with a victory that knocked San Antonio out of the circuit leadership.

The Sports won a rain-shortened game, 5-4, from the Missions Tuesday night with a 5-run first inning. Jim Ackert's three-run homer featured the big inning.

Before the game was called at the end of the sixth, San Antonio had pecked away the Sport lead and narrowed the margin to one run. Ed Miceeson doubled in two Shreveport runs in the first.

In the only other game played, Willard Schmidt of Houston's last-place Buffs stopped the Beaumont Exporters on two hits, struck out six and walked four to win, 5-0.

Kenny Boyer hit a grand slam home run in the fifth and played brilliantly arfield for the Buffs. He made a great play off a grounder off the potent bat of Buzz Clarkson and turned it into a double play to end the game.

Fort Worth at Dallas and Tulsa at Oklahoma City were rained out for the second straight night. A doubleheader had been scheduled at Oklahoma City.

The night's brief action left Fort Worth a half game ahead of San Antonio and a game ahead of third-place Dallas. Oklahoma City trailed the Cats by 1 1/2 games and Tulsa and Beaumont were 2 1/2 games back. Shreveport, three percentage points above the cellar, and last-place Houston were four games out.

The Wednesday night schedule:

Tulsa at Oklahoma City, Fort Worth at Dallas, Beaumont at Houston, Shreveport at San Antonio.

Wallace To Meet Gilliam Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tonight's nationally televised fight matches a pair of better than average heavyweights, Coley Wallace of New York and Bill Gilliam of Newark, N.J.

Wallace is ranked 6th among the big boys. Gilliam is 10th. The 10-round fight will be televised (8 p.m. CST) by the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS).

Both Wallace and Gilliam are hoping for a chance at Rocky Marciano's world title and the winner of tonight's bout figures to get into the scramble, should Marciano successfully defend his crown against Ezzard Charles.

Wallace is the only boxer ever to defeat Marciano. He won a close decision in 1948 when both were amateurs.

Parra Obtained By Odessa Club

ODESSA (SC) — Corpus Christi of the Big State League has optioned Danny Parra, veteran hurler, and Orestes Hernandez, rookie outfielder, to Odessa of the Longhorn League.

Parra formerly played with Roswell of the Longhorn League.

Clippers Twice Take Licking

By The Associated Press
Fine pitching performances—including a one-hit shutout in the second game—had brought the Waco Pirates a sweep of a twin bill at Corpus Christi Wednesday.

The Pirates scuttled the Clippers, 2-1, in the first game of Tuesday night's twin Big State League bill and followed it up in the nightcap with a 7-0 whitewash.

Waco gained a half game on league-leading Tyler with the double win and was just a half game back of second-place Austin, idled by rain at Bryan.

In the other two games, Galveston whipped Temple, 8-3, and Tyler edged Harlingen, 2-1.

Don Kildoo hurled the one-hit shutout in the nightcap at Corpus Christi after another fine pitching performance—this by Bob Swanson—brought the Pirates a 3-1 first-game victory.

Chill Bigham's double in the second inning ruined Kildoo's no-hitter. The Waco ace fanned five and walked none.

Swanson lost his shutout in the sixth inning of the second game when Jack Wilkinson's single followed a walk and an error. Hamon

Eagle Linksters Colorado Bound

DENTON (AP)—Six North Texas State golfers left today for the Colorado Invitational Tournament at Colorado Springs.

It will be the Eagles' last major competition before the NAIA and NCAA tournaments in June. Making the trip are Stan Mosel, Marion Hickey, Ray Ferguson, A. J. Triggs, Benny Castillo and Paul Ransom.

Mejias tripped for the Pirates in the third inning to score two men who had walked. Temple outbit the White Caps, but the Islanders got more mileage and took their second straight win from the Eagles. Galveston made six runs in the fourth inning on four hits, a wild pitch, two walks and an error.

Sooner State Loop Games Washed Out

By The Associated Press
For the second straight day, the entire Sooner State League schedule was washed out Tuesday night, May Sunday, only one game has been played.

The clubs will try again Wednesday night to get in some baseball action. Seminole, current league leader, is at Ada; Ardmore at Gainesville; Pauls Valley at Lawton, and Shawnee at McAlester.

Donna Zimmerman of Ashabula, Ohio, was the only woman to bowl a 300 game in league competition in the 1953-54 season.

YMCA City League Entry

The Piggly-Wiggly softball team, pictured above, has its sights set on finishing among the first four teams in YMCA City Softball League standings. If the Grocers can land among the first four, they will be eligible to compete in the Shaughnessy playoffs. Top row, left to right, they are Granville Miller, Donald Hale, Jimmy Byers, Johnny Moore, Jimmy Daylong and D. A. Miller. Front row, Cal Buetler, Melvin Byers, Dewey Byers and Tom Osman, manager.

Milwaukee Laughs At Ebbets Jinx

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

If times get tough, Charlie Grimm may be able to sell his secrets on how to win in Ebbets Field. The Brooklyn Dodger ball park, graveyard of many pennant hopes last season, proved surprisingly friendly territory to Grimm's Milwaukee Braves.

They won six of 11 games there. No other visiting team won more than three. The St. Louis Cardinals didn't win any.

Now the 1954 edition of the Milwaukee wonders are trying to do the job even better. They invaded Brooklyn last night for the first time this season and walked off with a 2-0 triumph. The pitching chores were handled superbly by Gene Conley, a king-sized rookie struck out seven while walking nobody, the 6-foot-8 side-arm specialist pinned the first shutout on the Dodgers since June 11 last year, when another rookie, Allan Worthington of the New York Giants, turned the trick.

The Braves won even though they lost one of the most prolonged arguments of the season. A seventh-inning drive by Eddie Mathews bounced off a railing atop the center field fence and fell back on the field.

Umpire Bill Engelia ruled it a double since Mathews got only as far as second before the Dodgers tried to make a play on him. Umpire Bill Stewart called it a home run and waved Mathews in.

The Dodgers screamed. The four umpires huddled. The Braves screamed. But in the end Mathews was sent back to second. Despite the ruling, the drive scored Danny O'Connell from first base with Milwaukee's second run. The first came on Joe Adcock's home run.

Elsewhere in the National League the New York Giants defeated Cincinnati, 5-4, and Philadelphia edged Chicago, 5-7, in 10 innings. The St. Louis-Pirates game at Pittsburgh was rained out.

In the American League Joe Coleman of the Baltimore Orioles allowed his former Philadelphia teammates only two hits, both singles, as the Orioles beat the Athletics, 2-0. New York defeated Cleveland, 5-3. Chicago shaded Boston, 2-1, and Washington beat Detroit, 5-3.

The Giants beat Fred Bacreswaki for the first time in his career. The Cincinnati left-hander had whipped the New Yorkers five times ranging until Monte Irvin slammed a 400-foot triple in the eighth inning with Al Dark on first base. Ted Kluszewski for Cincinnati and Whitey Lockman and Willie Mays for New York hit home runs.

After falling two runs behind in the eighth because of poor defensive play, the Phils rallied to tie the Cubs in the eighth and won in the 10th as Del Ennis singled home Richie Ashburn. Ennis earlier blasted a bases-loaded double, good for three runs, and Ashburn drove in one in the eighth with a triple.

Coleman struck out four and walked only two in registering his second victory and the first shutout of his Baltimore comeback. The two hits off him were by Bill Renna and Forrest Jacobs.

A double by Yogi Berra with two on and two out drove home the runs the Yankees needed to beat Cleveland for the first time this season. The Indians had won three in a row from the world champions. Allie Reynolds pitched out of a jam in the eighth when the Indians tied the score and loaded the bases with none out only to hit into three easy force plays.

Bob Keegan won his fourth game against a single loss and scored the winning run for the White Sox against Boston. He tripled in the seventh and rode home on Nellie Fox's single. The victory was Keegan's fourth complete game.

Detroit used four innings against the Senators but Bob Porterfield slammed the door as he finished with 3 1-3 hitless innings. Porterfield homered in the ninth after Washington had scored the tie-breaking run in the eighth.

Southpaw pitcher Fred Bacreswaki of the Cincinnati Redlegs started four games against the New York Giants in 1953 and won all four.

SWC Netters And Golfers Open Meet On Thursday

WACO (AP)—The spring meet of the Southwest Conference opens here tomorrow with 15 golfers and 22 tennis players, seeking individual championships, first to swing into action.

The 72-hole golf tournament runs two days and tennis three. Track preliminaries are scheduled Friday afternoon with finals Saturday.

There also will be meetings of the school and conference officials with the athletic directors and football coaches in session tomorrow night, the athletic directors, coaches and business managers of athletics Friday morning and the faculty committee, governing body of the conference, starting its sessions Friday afternoon.

It is an important meeting for the faculty committee since Texas Tech, Oklahoma and University of Houston are to be brought up for a vote on the question of invitation to membership in the conference.

The number of entries allowed in golf and tennis is governed by the way the schools finished in the team round-robin schedules. Texas won team championships in both sports.

The Longhorns will have four men in golf and so will Southern Methodist, which finished second. In tennis, Texas will have five. Arkansas has an entry in golf and none in tennis.

The golf tournament to determine a singles champion starts at 8 a.m. at Ridgewood Country Club.

The tennis meet to decide singles and doubles champions, will be at the Baylor clay courts and will open at 10 a.m.

Machine crushing bricks—National Bureau of Standards.

Yesterday I spoke briefly about a machine called the "comparator." With this, an expert can measure a space as tiny as one millionth of an inch. The human eye could never see a particle that size without the help of the most powerful microscope.

We may wonder why anyone should want such a fine measuring instrument. In everyday life there is nothing which we need to measure so closely. Extremely accurate measurements, however, is of help to scientists. Many factories measure products to a very fine point. It is important to know whether some pistons are a thousandth of an inch too thick or too thin. The parts of a watch must be of just the right size if the watch is to keep good time. If a hairspring is a thousandth of an inch too thick, it may spoil the watch.

Many other instruments, or machines, measure things in a most delicate manner. Certain scales will tell the difference in the weight of a piece of paper after a pencil mark is made!

One important institution which has delicate measuring instruments is the National Bureau of Standards at Washington, D. C. This bureau also has machines which can test the strength of various materials. We see bricks of various kinds, but how can we know their exact strength? When a large brick building is to be set up the builder should know what load the bricks will support. To answer such questions, a crushing machine is employed. This can apply a pressure as high as 10 million pounds. Brick walls are made and then are crushed by the machine. This makes it possible to tell the strength of the sample wall. From the facts gathered, builders and others learn which type of brick wall will provide the proper margin of safety to support a heavy roof.

A model of the Empire State Building was prepared at the National Bureau of Standards before the building plans were approved. This model was tested in a wind tunnel to learn whether the full sized building would stand fierce winds.

Forced Marriages Reported In Korea

J. M. Williams
Candidate For Constable Post

J. M. (Jimmie) Williams has made his formal announcement as a candidate for the Democratic nomination of constable of Precinct No. 1. In so doing, he made this statement to help voters in consideration of his qualifications:

"I first came to Big Spring in 1930 and have resided here at various times since that date. For the past eight years I have been employed as a fireman for the Texas & Pacific Railway Company, and am a member of Big Spring Local No. 372, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen & Enginemen. I am therefore familiar with conditions and the problems that exist in our county.

"I have spent most of my life with the railroads and as a law enforcement officer after having been educated and licensed to practice as an attorney in 1925. I served six years as a deputy sheriff of McLennan County and five years as a Police Officer with the City of Corpus Christi. During this time, I have had occasion to work on many types and kinds of cases and to make extensive investigations to secure evidence that could be presented to the courts in an intelligent, fair and impartial manner. This wide experience coupled with a working knowledge of the criminal laws will better enable me to represent the good people of Precinct One.

"The voter should consider several factors before casting that all important ballot, and to me, the most important factor is qualifications of the candidate. It is an honor and a privilege to hold a public office, but that honor and privilege carry with it an obligation to exercise the utmost skill, energy and intelligence to perform the duties of that office as laid down by our Legislature. My experience, education and energies are the qualifications which I am offering to you for the honor and privilege of serving as your constable of Precinct One.

"An efficient and energetic constable, together with honesty and integrity make the office of constable an important cog in the law enforcement machinery of our county and state. Since the constable has the same authority within his precinct as the sheriff, the constable should have qualifications that will enable him to be an independent, as well as a necessary branch of law enforcement. I believe that I have qualifications to fulfill such requirements. I can and will give due and just consideration to the rights of each and every person; and to exercise the greatest skill, knowledge and ability I possess to halt crime and to reduce juvenile delinquency, which is at an all time high and steadily increasing. I sincerely ask that you give earnest consideration to my experience, education, honesty and integrity.

"Do not consider the office of constable as insignificant, but give me the opportunity to elevate the office to its rightful place as a law enforcement agency. I will not be able to see all of you personally, but I shall try. I invite you to ask those who know me, and I shall be happy at all times to answer any questions you may have as to any phase of the office or of my qualifications."

Confidence Vote Tomorrow May Toss Out Laniel

PARIS (AP)—Premier Joseph Laniel's government today faced the gravest threat of its 11-month career. It marshaled support to meet its second vote of confidence in a week, a ballot in the National Assembly tomorrow on Laniel's refusal to set a date for debate on Indochina.

Outcome of the vote was uncertain.

Laniel won a confidence vote on the same issue of debate-timing last Thursday 311-262. But the fall of Dien Bien Phu the following day touched off widespread criticism that the government had not done enough to help the defenders of the Indochinese fortress.

It will be much more difficult for Laniel to have his way this time. Many of the deputies who met last night had the complaints of their constituents about Dien Bien Phu's fall ringing in their ears.

Many feared that if they voted confidence in Laniel again, the people back home would interpret it as approval of the Dien Bien Phu situation.

Other considerations acted in Laniel's favor. A defeat for the government would force it to resign. Probably it also would end the Geneva conference on Korea and Indochina by removing France as an effective participant. Laniel hoped the prospect of a Cabinet crisis at such a critical time would rally the deputies to him.

As an alternative to immediate debate on the Indochina setback, Laniel agreed last night to establishment of a special Assembly committee to study all aspects of the Indochinese war. He appealed for postponement of debate until after the group completed its report.

After numerous deputies rejected this compromise, Laniel called an emergency Cabinet meeting and got authorization for the vote of confidence.

Rhee Rejects Allied Korean Unity Plan

SEOUL (AP)—A high government source said today President Syngman Rhee had rejected a new Allied plan for unification of Korea.

The source said the plan called for U. N.-supervised general elections throughout the country, before the withdrawal of Communist Chinese troops.

The source reported that talks between Rhee and U. S. envoy Arthur H. Dean reached a deadlock Sunday after Dean broached the new plan. He quoted Rhee: "As long as any Chinese remain in North Korea, it would be a Communist election."
