Mills Says He Will Accept Nomination

By MICHAEL PUTZEL
Associated Press Writer
The latest entry in the Democratic presidential sweepstakes, Rep. Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas, says he will accept the nomination if he gets it, but he doesn't have time to campaign before the convention in July.

Mills, a congressional expert on finance, told a news conference in Concord, N.H., Tuesday he has no idea how much money is being spent by people who want to nominate him. But he hopes it's enough to win some votes and have a little cash left over to cover campaign debts.

The chairman of the powerful House Ways and Means Committee said, "This is not a Mills campaign; this is a draft-Mills campaign. The work of our Ways and Means Committee is such that I just cannot take away from the committee for sufficient time to go into the states that conduct these presidential primaries and make that kind of campaign."

But the congressman said none of the other Democrats in the race appear to be attracting enthusiastic support, and he might get the nomination on the second ballot at the convention.

In Washington, meanwhile, the Senate Democratic Policy Committee called for public censure of presidential aide H.R. Hademan for saying critics of President Nixon's Vietnam peace proposal are consciously aiding and abetting the enemy.

Haldeman's remarks Feb. 7 on NBC's "Today" show were the strongest in a series of public chastisements issued by administration figures and Republican leaders following Democratic criticism of the Nixon proposal.

"Actions of this nature," the Senate Democrats said, "should be subject to the most serious scrutiny and public censure."

Irving's Wife Edith Plans To Surrender

NEW YORK (AP) — Lawyers for Mrs. Clifford Irving say she plans to surrender today for arraignment. The wife of the controversial author of the Howard Hughes "autobiography" is charged in a warrant obtained by the Swiss government with counterfeiting, forgery and theft larceny.

U.S. Magistrate Martin D. Jacobs issued the warrant Tuesday on a complaint charging that Mrs. Irving, 36, was a "fugitive from justice of the confederation of Switzerland." It said she is charged with "counterfeiting and forgery, use of counterfeit or forged instruments, embezzlement, and theft larceny."

The charges were the first to be made in the case under investigation by two grand juries here. It involves the authenticity of the purported autobiography of Hughes as compiled by Irving.

Irving claims the book, which was to have been published by McGraw-Hill Inc. and excerpted in Life magazine, was assembled from more than 100 interviews he conducted with the reclusive billionaire. Denials of any such meetings or even knowledge of the author have been attributed to Hughes.

Expert Believes China Will Seek American Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Andre Malraux, the French intellectual called here to brief President Nixon on China's leaders, says Peking ultimately will seek massive economic aid from the United States.

"Such an undertaking, the equivalent of the Marshall Plan, this is the real issue" of Nixon's trip to China, the 70-year-old philosopher and former French government official said during a Tuesday news conference.

"The sign of success will of necessity be economic," Malraux said of the trip Nixon starts Thursday.

He first told the news conference through a translator that he "found the President optimistic as regards an (economic) agreement" and predicted a sympathetic response if Nixon believed the Chinese serious.

However, at a later session with a few reporters, Malraux said he doesn't expect Chinese Communist party Chairman Mao Tse-tung to ask Nixon for economic aid during this visit and he modified his earlier indication that economics was the paramount factor of the trip.

The White House has not provided its version of the Malraux-Nixon talks, which took place in two sessions Monday, after the administration announced a liberalization of U.S. Chinese trade restrictions.

However, the effects of easing restraints on American exports to the mainland remain uncertain and tied to the outcome of the President's trip, according to State Department officials.

"Trade follows politics in these matters," one expert said in explaining the uncertainty of the decision's impact. He also indicated it is too early to put any price tag on the outcome of easing the restraints or to discuss specifics.

Under previous policy U.S.-Chinese commerce amounted to about $4 million, entirely by way of third nations and consisting of imports into the United States.

Even though the trade liberalization is not expected by American officials as having any immediate beneficial effects beyond establishing a better climate for the Nixon trip, they indicate China does offer a lucrative market as well as holding goods wanted in the United States.

Nixon And Aides Making Final Trip Preparations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The lights burned late in a cottage atop a Maryland mountain and in the White House as President Nixon and his aides raced against the clock to complete preparations for his historic mission to China.

At secluded Camp David in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains, where he flew Tuesday by helicopter, Nixon worked into the night reading loose-leaf notebooks containing classified material on China and his leaders prepared by Henry Kissinger's National Security Council.

At the White House and in adjoining office buildings, an army of aides ate midnight snacks at their desks as they coped with the complex logistics involved in sending a president and more than 200 other Americans into a country with which the United States has had little contact for two decades.

The details of arranging a 20,395-mile, 13-day presidential journey are many.

For example, White House assistants are making certain that hundreds of suburban Washington schoolchildren, tiny American flags in hand, will be on the South Lawn with congressmen and Cabinet officials to bid farewell when the President leaves Thursday morning.

They are making certain, too, that enough American champagne is carried into China for the reciprocal banquet Nixon will give his Chinese hosts in Peking.

They are tending to details of presidential security and wellbeing: from seeing that the scores of Secret Service agents are outfitted with warm clothing for Peking's wintry blasts to making certain the presidential jet carries an adequate supply of

Russian Held In $500,000 Bail

NEW YORK (AP) — A Russian United Nations employee accused of trying to buy information on the Navy's newest fighter plane, the F14A Tomcat, is being held in $500,000 bail on espionage charges.

Valery Ivanovich Markelov, 32, a translator working under a five-year contract at the U.N. at a salary of $18,000, was suspended from his job without pay by U.N. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim, who said he was "very much concerned" about the charges.

When Markelov appeared before U.S. Magistrate Max Schiffman in Brooklyn for arraignment Tuesday, standing beside him was Leonid V. Shcherbakov, a Soviet embassy consul who had flown here from Washington.

blood the same type as Nixon's.

They also are tending to details of news coverage: assuring installation of 15 soundproof telephone booths in the Peking press center, making certain the reams of paper which will be furnished the 87 correspondents accredited for the trip actually reach China.

President's Itinerary In China

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here is the China trip itinerary for President Nixon as issued in expanded form by the White House Tuesday:

Thursday, Feb. 17
10 a.m. EST—President and Mrs. Nixon depart the White House South Lawn by helicopter for Andrews AFB, Md., after farewell ceremonies.

10:30 a.m. EST—The presidential jet departs Andrews AFB for Kaneohe Marine Corps Air Station, Hawaii, a nonstop flight of 10 hours.

3:30 p.m. (8:30 p.m. EST)—The presidential party arrives at Kaneohe where the chief executive will remain, without public appearances, until Feb. 19.

Saturday, Feb. 19
1:30 p.m. (6:30 p.m. EST)—The President departs Kaneohe for Guam, a flight of 7 hours, 40 minutes across the International Date Line.

Sunday, Feb. 20
5:15 p.m.—Guam time—President arrives at Guam International Airport and spends the night at the home of the commander of the naval forces in the region.

Monday, Feb. 21
7 a.m.—Guam time—Presidential party departs Guam International Airport for Shanghai.

9 a.m. (8 p.m. Sunday, EST)—President arrives in Shanghai for a brief rest and to take aboard Chinese navigator.

11:30 a.m. (10:30 p.m. EST Sunday)—President arrives in Peking and, after airport welcoming ceremonies, is driven by automobile to a guest house on the western outskirts of Peking.

Ziegler said, without providing specific times, that Nixon will remain in Peking for five days before flying to Hangchow Feb. 26 for an overnight stay. He will fly to Shanghai Feb. 27, Ziegler said, and spend the night there before leaving sometime Feb. 28 on a return flight via Elmendorf AFB near Anchorage, Alaska. After a refueling stop there, he will continue on the flight to Washington, arriving at an as yet undisclosed time Feb. 29.

Only 10 State Solons Facing No Opposition

CHANGE THE OIL AND CHECK THE TRIGGER—A part of the seminar on firearms for law enforcement people conducted today in Pampa is the servicing of handguns belonging to members of the police department. Bench-stripping, oiling and adjusting the guns is Chris C. Walker, Oklahoma City, (seated) representative of the Smith & Wesson Firearms Co. Standing from the left, Chief Jim Conner, Walter Eubanks, Amarillo College, instructor for the seminar and Assistant Chief George Wallace. There will be a four-hour session on the firing range this afternoon.

Ecuador's President Ousted By Military Chiefs In Coup

QUITO (AP) — Ecuador's military chiefs ousted President Jose Maria Velasco Ibarra Tuesday night for the fourth time in his career and sent him off to Panama.

The purpose of the coup apparently was to prevent the election of a radical to the presidency.

Brig. Guillermo Rodriguez Lara, who was rewarded with command of the army after putting down an attempt to overthrow Velasco last April, declared himself president. He said he would be assisted by a council made up of the three service chiefs: Rear Adm. Renaldo Vallejo, Air Force Gen. Julio Espinosa Pineda and whoever is named to command the army.

The new president pledged to respect all existing international treaties but announced no other plans or policies.

The presidential election is scheduled for June, and Velasco, now 78, had promised to hand over his office on Aug. 31 to whoever was elected. The candidate of the radical Concentration of Popular Forces, Assad Bucaram, was believed certain to win.

Velasco learned that the bloodless coup was under way Tuesday night and flew to Guayaquil on the coast, where he tried to broadcast to the country. But navy officers arrested him before he could get to the microphone and held him incommunicado until they put him aboard a military plane for Panama.

In a 13-point announcement, the new president put the country under a state of siege and martial law, suspended the schools, banned demonstrations, imposed a 9 p.m.-4 a.m. curfew, forbade transmission of news "liable to disturb the public peace and the citizenry," and put all public services under military rule.

Senate Expected To OK Successor Of John Mitchell

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard G. Kleindienst's nomination as attorney general appears headed for certain Senate approval, although some senators may go along reluctantly.

The appointment Tuesday of the 48-year-old deputy attorney general to replace John N. Mitchell was applauded by Senate conservatives but liberal Democrats were generally silent and some liberal Democrats critical.

However, members of all factions in the Senate agreed Kleindienst will almost certainly win confirmation to head the Justice Department.

Sen. Phillip A. Hart, D-Mich., said "I have the reservations to a 'knee-jerk liberal' has to any nomination of this President." But Hart said he expects to vote for the nomination if there are no disclosures of impropriety or moral defect about Kleindienst.

Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., like Hart a member of the Judiciary Committee that must first approve the nomination, said he will question Kleindienst on the administration's policy toward press freedom and other 1st Amendment guarantees he said the Nixon administration has stifled.

99 Representatives Seeking Re-election

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Politically active Texans, evidently aroused by the 1971 stock scandal, seem to have blocked all but 10 incumbent house members from winning re-election by default.

By contrast, seven senators—more than 20 percent of the total—have no opposition in this year's elections.

The figures are derived from a tentative list of legislative candidates issued by the Texas Legislative Service, a private organization.

Thirteen Democrats and two Republicans in the House have no opposition in the May 6 primaries. Ten Democrats have no challengers in either the primary or the general election.

The figures could change somewhat if candidates who filed against some other incumbents without paying a filing fee fail to obtain the required number of voters' signatures on nominating petitions by May 6.

Running unopposed in either the primaries or the general election are Reps. Will Smith, Beaumont; Carl Parker, Port Arthur; James Cole of Greenville; Bill Presnal, Bryan; Tim Von Bohlen, Goliard; Jon Newton, Beeville; Richard Slack, Pecos; Hilary Doran, Del Rio; Bill Clayton, Springlake; and W. S. Heatly, Paducah.

Ninety-nine out of 150 incumbent house members seek re-election.

The list of unopposed candidates was more than fifty times greater in 1970. Fifty-six incumbent Democrats had no opposition in either primary or general election.

None of the unopposed incumbents this year were members of the "Dirty 30," which harassed House Speaker Gus Mutscher about his stock dealings and pushed for what they called reforms.

Heatly, the House Appropriations Committee chairman; Slack, the committee's vice chairman; Clayton; and Doran were part of Mutscher's inner circle in the house last year.

Mutscher drew three opponents this time; in 1970 he had none. Rep. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth, indicted with Mutscher on bribery conspiracy charges, had no opposition in 1970; he has four opponents this year.

All four candidates to succeed Mutscher drew opponents in the Democratic Primary—Reps. Rayford Price of Palestine; Price Daniel Jr. of Liberty; Jim Nugent of Kerrville and Fred Head of Henderson. Head and Price were paired in a single

Court Reverses Porno Conviction

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Court of Criminal Appeals reversed and remanded today the conviction of a Corpus Christi theater projectionist accused of "knowingly exhibiting obscene matter."

Sgts. Jack Featherston and John McDevitt of the Corpus Christi police department sat through four films at the Texas Cine Arts Theater on Feb. 16, 1971, then arrested the projectionist, Frank George Longoria.

The officers said the films "showed nude bodies of men and women, acts of sexual intercourse, acts of oral sodomy, other sexual activity and a limited amount of conversation."

A jury sentenced Longoria to six months in jail and a fine of $1,000.

The appeals court said the films were not made part of the record and that it could not make an independent judgment on the question of obscenity without them.

Equal Rights Law Debated In Senate Unit

WASHINGTON (AP) — A constitutional amendment to guarantee women equal rights with men is up for action at a meeting today of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

The proposed amendment was approved by the House last October by a vote of 354 to 23 but faces tougher going in the Senate where, in the last Congress, it was filibustered to death.

Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., chief sponsor of the amendment in the Senate, said he hoped to win committee approval without further delay.

But a subcommittee on constitutional amendments that he heads overrode his objections and reported to the full committee a substitute proposal unacceptable to women's rights organizations.

The subcommittee vote was 6 to 4 for the substitute sponsored by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D.N.C., but Bayh said he thinks the outcome can be reversed in the 16-member Judiciary Committee.

The amendment approved by the House provides that equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any state on account of sex.

Ervin, the leading Senate opponent of the amendment, contends it would wipe out laws needed to protect the health and safety of women.

His substitute provides that "neither the United States nor any state shall make any legal distinction between the rights and responsibilities of male and female persons unless such distinction is based on physiological or functional differences between them."

Two more persons face the prospect today of testifying under oath in the Feb. 28 bribery conspiracy trial of House Speaker Gus Mutscher, his aide and a legislative cohort.

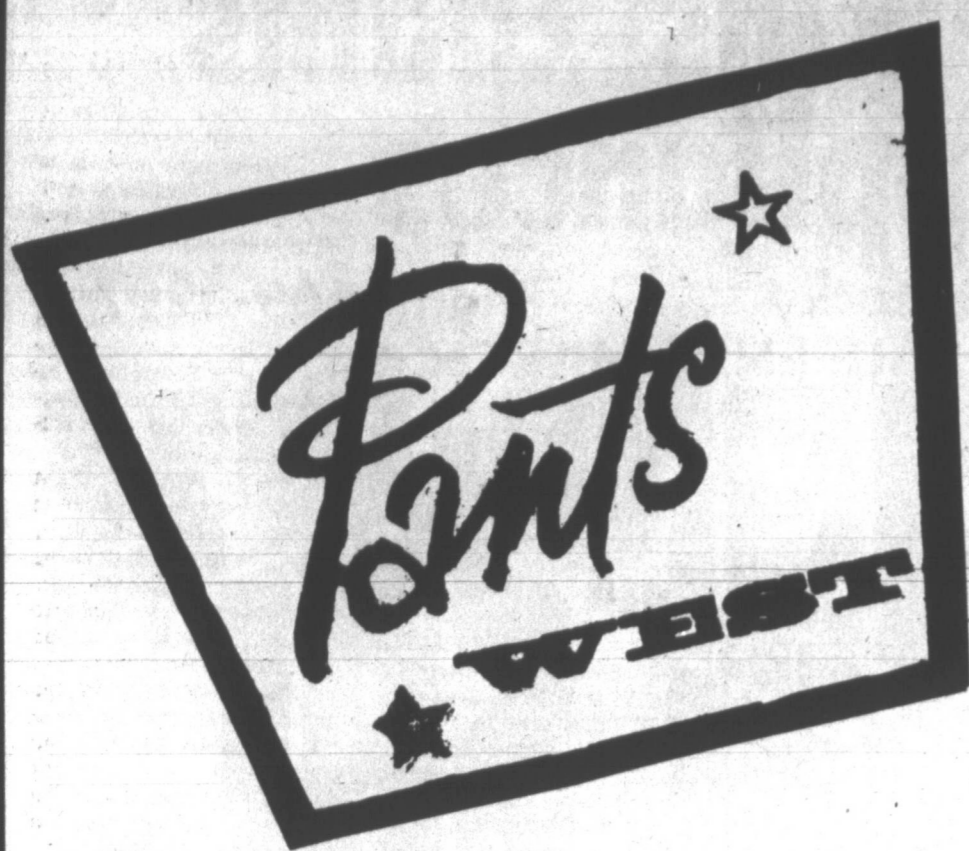

Subpoenas were issued Tuesday for Harold Lehrman of Dallas and Faye Williams of Houston. The court papers order Lehrman and Mrs. Williams to appear with various records pertaining to the case.

The subpoenas were signed by Asst. Travis County Dist. Atty. Harold Jacquet. Travis County Dist. Atty. Bob Smith is prosecuting the case, which has been moved from Austin to Abilene on a change of venue.

Lehrman's subpoena listed his address as 1800 Adolphus Towers, the offices of Institutional Equity Corp.

He explained Institutional Equity recently bought Ling and Co., a brokerage firm which once handled some stock of National Bankers Life Insurance Co.

The subpoena for Mrs. Williams gave her address as the Sharpstown State Bank. That bank is now defunct and its old quarters are now occupied by another bank.

China--Its Land And People

Editor's Note—Through the '50s politicians in Washington bounced the question back and forth: "Who lost China to the Communists?" The losing, if such it was, took place only 22 years ago but the events that led to the Communist takeover had involved Americans for much longer. That history is explored in this third of five articles tracing milestones down the road to Peking that President Nixon will travel next week.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
On May 4, 1919, disillusion with the United States contributed to a sudden explosion in China. The quiet of a Peking Sunday was transformed into nightmare.

At Versailles, the United States, bowing to an ally, agreed that in the peace settlement following World War I the Japanese should have the "rights" relinquished by defeated Germany in China's Shantung Province. That negated the bright promises Americans had held out for self-determination and rights of peoples.

Chinese intellectuals were furious. Students representing a dozen or so colleges and universities had been meeting that morning on how best to show their fury. In the afternoon, thousands of students poured into the streets. Delegations called on various diplomatic missions, including the U.S. legation.

The anger mounted. Students began crying for the blood of traitors. They meant the Chinese officials they accused of having been pro-Japanese and of having acceded to Tokyo's postwar demands. Houses were sacked and burned, victims beaten mercilessly. Police and troops moved in to restore order.

But it was not a one-day phenomenon. What began as a spontaneous eruption developed into a political force: the May 4 Movement. Under its banner of rebellion against the past, young men warred on ancient traditions, customs and habits—blaming them for much of China's troubles.

The movement would be both a school and a recruiting pool for Communist leaders. Its rise, in fact, marked a turning point in China's history.

Sun Yat-sen's republican revolution had been floundering. The enthusiasm of young radicals for the ideals of American educated Sun faded as China receded into a sea of bloody confusion and tumult.

At that moment, while the rest of the world surveyed with dismay the carnage wrought by the European war, the future of a torn and bleeding China seemed hopeless.

The nation had been freed from the rule of the decadent Ching Dynasty, but her brooding intellectuals were convinced they were witnessing the death spasms of what had been a great civilization. The morals of Confucianism, long a guide for the ruling class, had vanished. The gentry, always a stabilizing element, had lost the powerful protection of an imperial court, and was in ruins. Rival republican regimes in Canton and Peking claimed the right to rule. Warlords dominated vast areas as their own empires.

A crazy-quilt pattern of civil war developed: north against south, conservative against socialist, nationalist against monarchist, warlord against government, warlord against warlord. In addition, natural calamities tormented the land: floods, drought and famine killed hundreds of thousands and reduced millions to the edge of starvation.

Dr. Sun's government, based in Canton, had only a precarious claim to authority. He appealed urgently to the United States for help and was ignored. He turned to the Russians, newly under Bolshevik rule. V. I. Lenin, who had preached that the way to Europe lay through Peking, was eager to help.

The Comintern, the Moscow dominated Communist International, dispatched agents to advise the Kuomintang. They had another mission: to set up a Chinese Communist party, shaping it from a ragtag, down-at-the-heels group of furtive dreamers and schemers hunted by the Shanghai police. Only a handful of delegates attended the founding congress at a Shanghai girls' school.

The founders of the Kan Chan Tang—Communist parties—were Chen Tu-hsiu and Li Ta-chao, Peking university teachers. Among Li's aides was a wild-eyed, bushy-haired young librarian, an intense poet named Mao Tse-tung, son of a moderately well-off peasant. Mao went to the founding meeting as a delegate from his native Hunan Province, and was scarcely noticed.

While the party was being born, the scion of a proud, aristocratic family, Chou En-lai, was busy in Paris with French Communist help, forming a branch of the Chinese party.

By 1923, the stream of Comintern agents arriving in China became a flood. The Comintern sought to push the Chinese Communists into an alliance with the Kuomintang. In Stalin's words, the Kuomintang was to be squeezed like a lemon and eventually cast aside when the Communists would be strong enough to take over its structure. Suspicious, Sun shunned alliance with the Communists as a party but accepted cooperation from Communists as individuals. On that basis, some Communists joined the Kuomintang's ruling hierarchy, Mao among them. For a time he was an alternate member of the Kuomintang's central executive.

But the arrangement was doomed to a short life. It was a time of confusion. Though there were rival governments in Peking and Canton, most of South China was in anarchy, without any government at all. In the north, warlords fought both governments and each other. Encouraged by his Russian advisers, Sun built his own military force around a nucleus of officers turned out by the Russian-financed Whampoa Military Academy. Sun had installed as its chief a toughminded young officer named Chiang Kai-shek.

Under Stalin, the Russians wove a pattern of intrigue, evidently hoping through China to do severe long-term damage to Japan and the West. But the design was dented after Sun's death in 1925.

Chiang soon took the power in a coup. He set out on a remarkably successful military campaign against the warlords, and the Communists were cooperating. Then, early in 1927, he turned savagely against the Communists in a purge since called "the white terror." Chou En-lai barely escaped execution. The Russians were sent packing and Chiang broke with Moscow after raids on Russian installations turned up damning documents.

Communist fortunes slid downward. Chou En-lai, seeking a Communist capital for the construction of a rural-based "Soviet" in Kiangsi, joined Chu Teh in marshaling 30,000 Communist troops to attack the city of Nanchang. They moved July 31, 1927 and for two days controlled the city, but were driven out by Chiang's forces and forced to flee to the mountains where Mao Tse-tung was holed up.

Chiang re-established Nanking as China's capital. By then he could exert such leverage against the Communists that they dared not hold their sixth congress inside China. Instead they met in Moscow in 1928 while a world Comintern meeting was in progress.

Soviet Communist and Comintern leaders bawled out the Chinese for failures directly caused by Stalin's own interference. The Chinese Reds went home after naming Chu Chu-pai their new general secretary. Chu Teh assumed the job of whipping together a Red army from numerous bands of guerrillas. Widespread peasant unrest would help him accomplish much in a short time.

With Soviet-Chinese diplomatic relations ruptured, Chiang in 1929 fired Soviet officers of the jointly operated Chinese Eastern Railroad. Moscow responded with an invasion to restore the Soviet share of control. Russian troops occupied three border towns and fired on a Chinese flotilla, as Peking protested loudly. But China capitulated on the railroad issue.

Then, in 1931, Japan invaded Manchuria. That threw a new light on the whole Far East picture for the Russians. The Japanese created the puppet state of Manchukuo, installing on its throne 26-year-old Pu Yi who, as an infant, had been the last Manchu emperor. When the League of Nations censured Japan, the Japanese contemptuously walked out of the organization.

Tokyo's military strength was now a menace to both Russia and China. It was time, each felt, to close ranks and restore relations.

Nixon And Party To Be Offered Best Chinese Food During Visit

EDITOR'S NOTE—What will President Nixon have to eat in Peking? Here is a discussion of menus by a Hong Kong writer who has made two visits to mainland China, the last during the period of "Ping Pong diplomacy."

By JUDITH BRODIE
HONG KONG (AP)—Even if President Nixon gains nothing from the political pickings of Peking he will be offered the best Chinese food in the world.

The Communists have done away with much of the pomp and lavishness of the old imperial court, but the magnificence of Chinese classical cooking remains. The business of eating is still taken seriously. Big banquets given for VIPs are a stunning series of 10 or more carefully chosen courses.

If normal protocol is observed Nixon should be invited to at least one state banquet where classic Chinese dishes such as sharks' fins and birds' nests soup are highlights. He could eat Peking duck, Mongolian hot-pot and local carp and pike.

The visiting head of a country usually gets the highest honor of a state reception in the Great Hall of the People. This is a long oblong building, rather nondescript except for its size, on the west side of Tien An Men Square in the heart of Peking. The huge complex of reception rooms and vast halls is a source of pride to the Chinese. Many people in Peking will tell you they helped in its construction after Chairman Mao Tse-tung came to power.

Banquets are heralded by a simple invitation requesting each guest to arrive promptly. Everyone meets in a large reception room where soft drinks are passed around. After the chief guest goes around the room, the assembly walks across the red carpet into an enormous dining hall where up to 5,000 guests can be seated and fed.

The banquet is dominated by the top table covered in white cotton cloth. Nixon will sit on the right of his Chinese host—either Mao or Chou En-lai—and Mrs. Nixon on the left.

Chinese hors d'oeuvres are cold cuts of spiced meat, fowl, and ham arranged fan-like with slices of bamboo shoots, lotus roots or mushrooms. The portions are generous.

Another favorite beginning for a meal is "century-old" eggs with their fraudulent name and fascinating taste. They are in fact chemically preserved duck eggs seldom more ancient than 100 days. Quarters of them are eaten with tender pink ginger and Chinese pickles.

The major and minor dishes must please the senses of seeing, tasting and smelling if they are to meet the high standards of Chinese gastronomy. A balanced meal must vary fish with fowl, crisp with juicy, bland with rich and sweet with piquancy.

Service in the Great Hall of the People is carried out at a cracking pace by efficient waitresses and waiters.

It is hardly surprising after so many courses that desserts are modest afterthoughts. Popular endings are almond beancurd and lotus seeds in milk. Fruit is served in summer.

The layers of food bring several kinds of beverages. At modern banquet settings there is a large tumbler for fizzy fruit drinks or beer—both foreign influences but enjoyed by the Chinese. There are smaller glasses for the devastatingly strong Mao Tai, a fiery brew made from millet, looking like vodka. To a Westerner it may taste like a superior grade of kerosene. I am assured, however, that even an overdose is not followed by a hangover.

Background music for Great Hall banquets is provided by a band of the People's Liberation Army in full uniform. The music tends to be an unobtrusive selection of semimilitary and revolutionary airs.

Beyond the top table is a stage with banks of plants and draped with curtains. On this lonely platform, with its microphones, Nixon may address the gathered assembly. The brilliant red of the Chinese flag will hang alongside the Stars and Stripes.

Banquets end abruptly by 9 or 9:30 and everyone usually goes home, although Chou En-lai has been known to extend private talks in one of the anterooms until dawn.

Worst Deficit

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's balance-of-payments deficit was the worst in history in 1971, reaching $29.6 billion by one measurement, the Commerce Department reported today.

The department said, however, that the deficit improved in the last three months of 1971, reaching $6.1 billion by the most common yardstick compared with a deficit of $12.1 billion in the previous quarter.

ALL LOCKS CHANGED

BALTIMORE (AP)—When Mayor William Donald Schaefer took office, he ordered the locks on each door in City Hall changed.

"There's no way to tell how many keys are out," an aide explained.

Today In History

By Associated Press
 Today is Wednesday, Feb. 16, the 47th day of 1972. There are 319 days left in the year.
 Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1959, Fidel Castro was sworn in as Cuba's premier.

On this date: In 1804, a force of American servicemen slipped into the harbor of Tripoli and burned the U.S. Navy frigate Philadelphia, which had been captured by pirates.

In 1871, the Franco-Prussian War ended in a defeat for France.

In 1862, during the Civil War, nearly 15,000 Confederate troops surrendered at Ft. Donelson, Tenn.

In 1918, in World War I, the English port of Dover was bombed by a German submarine.

In 1942, in the World War II, German submarines fired upon oil refineries on Aruba in the Dutch West Indies.

Sen. Tower To Address A&M Friday

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., said Tuesday he will speak at Texas A&M Friday night on "The Impact of the University on Politics."

Tower, a candidate for reelection, will speak to the Student Conference on National Affairs.

Prior to the address, Tower and Lawrence Fouraker, dean of the Harvard graduate School of Business, will be honored at a dinner.

Housewives Attain Little From Meat Import, Butz Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz said Tuesday opening the door to more imported meat would not help the housewife much since most of it is used for products such as hamburger.

"I guess she wants a nice choice roast or a good sirloin steak," Butz said. "She doesn't like hamburger too much."

Further, Butz said, it would be "absolutely wrong" to slap government price controls on food because of recent increases in farm prices.

Mansfield, Scott Favor Legislation On School Busing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate leaders of both parties said Tuesday that legislation is a better way than a constitutional amendment to deal with the problem of school busing.

"Something should be done legislatively rather than by a constitutional amendment," Majority Leader Mike Mansfield D-Mont., told newsmen.

Similarly, Republican Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania said he agreed with Vice President Spiro T. Agnew that proposals to amend the Constitution only cloud the issue and delay a solution.

Neither Mansfield nor Scott, however, suggested any specific legislation.

Mansfield said a constitutional amendment not only would have to be approved by a two-thirds majority in the House and Senate but by three-fourths of the state legislatures.

"I don't think the question can wait that long," he said. "I think it ought to be faced up to this year."

Masons Pick Bateman Successor For McKee

DALLAS—Judge Harold A. Bateman, 33rd Degree Mason of Dallas, associate justice of the Court of Civil Appeals for the Fifth Supreme Judicial District of Texas, was selected Monday to head Dallas Scottish Rite in dual posts as the personal representative to Lee Lockwood, 33rd, of Waco, Sovereign Grand Inspector General of Scottish Rite in Texas, and as chairman of the executive committee of the four Dallas Scottish Rite Bodies.

Judge Bateman succeeds John McKee, 33rd, of Dallas, removed as No. 2 Mason in Texas.

Announcement of Judge Bateman's selection was made at the February stated meeting of the Dallas bodies by Joe B. Motley, 33rd, of Garland, Venerable Master of Dallas Lodge of Perfection. He said Lockwood had advised him Judge Bateman's appointment as his personal representative was to become effective immediately. Members of the executive committee met Monday and unanimously elected Judge Bateman as chairman.

Judge Bateman is a past master of all four Dallas Scottish Rite Bodies. He was reunion director general the past year after having previously served a number of years as assistant reunion director.

January Pay Figures Show Income Gain

WASHINGTON (AP)—Personal income of Americans increased by $7 billion last month, but a big part of the rise was attributed to the federal pay raise, the Commerce Department reported Tuesday.

The January advance brought national personal income to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $891.1 billion. In December, personal income had gone up by $9 billion.

"When a woman drives a man to drink these days, she generally has one with him."

But, if she is looking for bugs in the paper don't think she's too bent at the elbow. It's more like flat in the pocketbook and the "Bingo Bugs" will remedy that for someone who plays their cards right. And you should be able to find anyone to drink to that!

Bathing a problem in her household

By Abigail Van Buren

(© 1972 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd., Inc.)

DEAR ABBY: My husband sleeps in his underwear. He wears the long woolen kind, and he sleeps in the same underwear he has worn all day. The problem is getting him to change it. Abby, there are four suits of clean underwear in his drawer, but he won't put on a clean pair without a fight. I can't even get his underwear away from him to put in the wash. Don't tell me to grab it when he's in the bathtub. He doesn't bathe much either. Please help me. He is getting pretty ripe.

FARGO, N. D.

DEAR FARGO: Look at it this way. You don't have to worry about another woman stealing him. And he's easy to find in the dark. But if you want action, try begging, bribing, nagging, and leaving! And in that order.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been married for six months. About a week ago my husband came home with a wedding present from one of the men he works with. This seemed strange to me because I was sure that this man had given us a gift the day of our wedding. I checked my list of gifts and found that I was right.

The question is, do we tell this absent-minded gift-giver that he has given us two gifts? Or should we keep quiet and spare him the embarrassment?

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: Tell him. He could have you confused with another couple, who may be out a gift if you keep quiet.

DEAR ABBY: In a recent column you referred to the complaint of a wife that her husband had made love to her exactly the same times since January 1, 1970. As I recall, the wife signed herself "Practically Untouched in Tulsa." You advised her to see a lawyer. I am sure that many lawyers around the country were flattered by your recommendation, but you would have earned the undying gratitude of the nation's judges had you suggested instead that she see a judge, as their social contacts are considerably more limited than those of the lawyers.

ANONYMOUS ATTORNEY

DEAR ABBY: Please inform your many readers that the American Red Cross will record a family member's voice on tape, take a Polaroid picture of the family member, and mail the tape and picture to a loved one on military duty overseas or in a military hospital anywhere in the world. This activity is free and is one of the many programs available thru the Red Cross Chapter's Service to Military Families.

MRS. CORNELIUS HARRIGAN
 Volunteer Chairman
 Service to Military Families

DEAR MRS. HARRIGAN: It's done! Now so far we have the USO, The American Red Cross, and even a non-affiliated group of interested do-gooders in The City of Brotherly Love who will perform the same service. Thanks for writing.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069, for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Colonial Tea Scheduled By Pampa DAR Chapter

Las Pampas chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met recently in Furr's Cafeteria, with Mrs. George Friauf presenting a travelogue of her trip to Mexico City and Acapulco.

Mrs. Friauf told, also, of the other spots between these points visited during the bus tour. She illustrated her talk with slide pictures.

Mrs. W. S. Dixon, regent, led the business session. Mrs. J. M. Daugherty gave the invocation appropriate for the beginning of American History Month, and Mrs. Dixon led the pledge to the flag and the American's creed.

Mrs. Paul Bowers, general chairman for the traditional Colonial Tea, announced the tea is scheduled for 3 p.m. Feb. 20, in St. Matthew's Parish Hall. She explained the invitational affair will honor the DAR Good Citizens, who are high school students selected by a special committee. They are Luinda Verden of Wheeler, Cindy Youngblood of Lefors, Diane Gibson of McLean, Laurel Krezan of Groom, Martha Colville of Pampa and Sheila McAnear of Clarendon.

She announced Miss Mellie Bird Richey, selections chairman, arranged for the faculty committees to choose girls on the basis of dependability, service, leadership and scholarship.

Mrs. George Friauf announced members will attend history classes in Pampa schools this week.

Mrs. E. L. Norman was named chairman for the centennial activities of the chapter, to be carried on continuously through 1976, when the United States will celebrate 200 years as a nation.

Delegates elected to the state conference, to be held Mar. 27-29, in Houston, were Mmes. W. S. Dixon, J. B. White, Doyle Osborne and A. D. Hills. Chosen as alternates were Mmes. E. L. Norman, Henry Merrick, James Hopkins and Paul Bowers.

Miss Gretchen Skelly was welcomed as a guest. Members attending were Mmes. John McKnerney, Doyle Osborne, V. L. Hobbs, John Skelly, E. L. Norman, Glyn Kirby, J. M. Daugherty, A. D. Hills, W. S. Dixon, George Friauf, J. B. White, Elbert Walker, P. R. Britton, Paul Bowers, L. A. Barnes, and Miss Mellie Bird Richey.

Guests Honored By Varietas Club

Varietas Study Club held its annual guest-day dinner in Furr's Cafeteria, followed by games in the Flame Room of Pioneer Natural Gas Company.

Guests were welcomed by Mrs. L. B. Penick, president. Hostesses were Mmes. Ralph Thomas, J. R. Spearman and Otis Nace.

Attending were Messrs. and Mmes. W. E. Jarvis, W. A. Bohot, F. A. Cary, Cecil Dalton, Lee Harrah, J. E. Kirchner, Otis Nace, L. B. Penick, Aubrey Spraws, Ralph Thomas, and Mmes. Dow King, W. V. McArthur, H. Price Doster, S. C. Evans, R. W. Lane and J. R. Spearman.

MR. AND MRS. GORDON EARL TAYLOR

Hollis-Taylor Vows Said In Double-Ring Ceremony

Marriage vows were exchanged at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 8, in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church by Miss Karla Jean Hollis and Gordon Earl Taylor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hollis, 731 N. Sumner, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon S. Taylor, 1112 E. Kingsmill.

THE CEREMONY
 Rev. Sam B. Hulse, assisted by Rev. Richard Soxer, officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

The couple was married before an altar flanked by candelabra and bouquets of white and blue carnations.

THE BRIDE
 Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a winter-white, street-length knit dress, styled with a fitted bodice, wrist-length lace sleeves and an A-line skirt.

She wore a winter-white lace veil, and carried a bouquet of pink orchids, centered with white carnations, over a white Bible.

She carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue, and she placed a penny in her shoe.

ATTENDANTS

Miss Rolisa Carol Hollis of Pampa, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue velvet, long-sleeved chemise trimmed with blue satin. She carried a bouquet of blue carnations, accented with white ribbon streamers.

Bobby Howard of Pampa served as best man.

RECEPTION
 A small reception was held immediately following the ceremony, after which the couple took a wedding trip to Amarillo.

The couple is at home at 600 N. Sumner, Pampa.

AFFILIATIONS
 The bride, a 1971 graduate of Pampa High School, is employed by Marie Foundations.

The bridegroom, a 1966 graduate of Pampa High School, is employed by the Texas Highway Department.

PRE-NUPITAL EVENTS
 Pre-nuptial events included a household shower, hosted by Mmes. Lloyd Brummett, Robert Fick, Floyd Baxter, Carl McAnally and Jackie Hendricks.

Hostesses for a kitchen shower were Mrs. Robert Poole, Miss Shirley Hollis and Mrs. Joe Dan Brock.

Senior Center Corner

By LINNIE CHANDLER
 Forty of Pampa's senior citizens braved the winter's freezing temperatures and snow flurries to attend their weekly meeting Thursday afternoon in Lovett Memorial Library.

It was good to be "back home" at the library. We do so sincerely appreciate the Knights of Columbus for letting us meet in their hall, 500 N. Ward, for the past several months while the library was being remodeled.

Birthdays for the month were observed. Those receiving gifts were Mrs. Nina Benham, Mrs. W. R. Emmons, Jack Leshar and O. L. Ray.

Door prizes were awarded to Mrs. Elma Bailey and Matt Swain.

Valentines were signed for Mrs. Katie Vincent and Mrs. A. O. Wagner.

H. C. Wilkie is reported ill in Worley Hospital; Frank Carter is in Highland General Hospital; and Mrs. R. H. Dilley is in Highland General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bailey of Brownfield spent last weekend with his mother, Mrs. Elma Bailey, and visited other relatives while in Pampa.

Mrs. Lucy Hale accompanied Mrs. Mary McCrary to Denison and visited other Central Texas cities.

Joe Shelton spent last week in Clovis, N.M., visiting his daughter and family.

We are sorry Mrs. Lucy Herlacher is on the sick list and unable to be with us.

Mrs. Margaret Connally is visiting her niece in Panhandle.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gray and his niece, Mrs. Francis Ellington, attended the funeral of Mrs. Katy Pyatt in Midland. Mrs. Pyatt was a niece of Mr. Gray.

Mrs. Gertie McCoy returned home from a three-week's stay in Oklahoma City with her sister, who underwent surgery.

Hostesses for Thursday's meeting were members of the Twentieth Century Club. Serving were Mmes. Angela Sanford, Jackie Campbell, Elsie Cunningham, Jane McGoby and Ann Hamilton.

Sponsoring Altrusans present were Mrs. Marie Fitzgerald, chairman; Jay Flanagan; and Mmes. Lalar Wilkerson, Lora Dunn, Olive Hills, Ruth Sewell, Gertrude Barber, Lena Pearl Hobbs and Lillian Snow.

Mrs. Louise Sewell is confined to her home because of the flu. We miss you, Louise. Hurry and get well!

GRANTS TO SINGERS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Opera Institute has announced that 28 young professional opera singers will receive two-year financial grants of $5,000 per year to help in the advancement of their careers.

Auditions were held in Los Angeles, Dallas, Baltimore, New York and Chicago, with participants recommended by opera producers and educators around the country.

The National Opera Institute receives half its funds from the National Endowment for the Arts and Half from private sources. Its principal functions are to encourage and support productions of new or rarely performed operas, to commission new operas and to assist outstanding young professional singers.

Religions Of China Discussed

Texas Delta Alpha chapter of Phi Sigma Alpha met in the home of Mrs. Harry Cook.

During the business meeting, led by Mrs. Fred Symonds, president, Mrs. Bernard Organ read letters from two Amarillo Phi Sigma Alpha chapters accepting Pampa's invitation to the February social.

Mrs. B. F. Dorman presented the program on Taoism and Confucianism, the principle religions of China.

Mrs. Dorman explained Taoism is more of a moral code than a religion, and can function as a life-style within the confines of other religions.

"Like the early Muslim faith and Christianity during the Crusades, Taoism leads religious support to military conquest," she told the women.

A report on the role of women in the Christian church was presented by Mrs. Felton Webb.

Next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 17, in the Reddy Room of Southwestern Public Service company.

Other members present were Mmes. Tom Dunn, Marvin Sillyman, Huch Peeples and Lonnie R. Kenney.

Worthwhile Club Meets

Worthwhile Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Jess E. Beard, with Mrs. O.G. Smith, vice president, in charge.

During the business session, it was announced a training class in macramé will be held in the office of the county home demonstration agent, with Mrs. Ray Robertson, president, and Mrs. O.G. Smith attending from the Worthwhile Club.

Miss Jimmie Lou Wainscott, county HD agent, presented the program, "Fats and Pads on Nutritious Foods."

"Fats in foods may be deceiving, dangerous, exaggerated and expensive," she told the women. "Beware of quack diets, and check basic foods that are safe, nutritious, plentiful, economical and healthful."

She gave the women a "true and false" quiz on nutritious foods.

Eleven members were present. Next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Mina Benahams.

This Week

DANCE LIBRARY
 NEW YORK (AP) The America-Israel Cultural Foundation will give a dance library to Tel Aviv University.

It will be the first dance library in Israel and will include books, magazines, paintings, photographs, drawings, films and slides. The library will be available to the public for reference only, not on a circulating basis.

Plans Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Austin of Arlington announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Pamela Sue, to Teddy Phil Phillips, son of Rev. and Mrs. Mitchell Phillips of Allison. The wedding is set for Feb. 26, in the First Christian Church at Arlington. The prospective bridegroom is a 1966 graduate of Texas at Arlington.

Awards Made By Tops Club

SKELLYTOWN (Sp.)
 —The Texas Tops Club No. 255 met in the library with members being weighed in by the recorder, Mrs. Odell Hassler. Mrs. Sadie Lane, leader, presided.

Mrs. Pat Young was crowned weekly queen with a loss of 2½ lbs. The club reported a total loss of 6½ lbs.

Mrs. Cecile Grange was crowned queen for January with a loss of 10 lbs.

The five-week contest ended with the club losing a total of 6½ lbs. Team 1 won the contest with 7½ lbs. over Team 2. Receiving Tops charms were Mrs. Opal Gray, queen for three months; Mrs. Odell Hassler and Mrs. Juanita Porter, three months' perfect attendance.

The new contest will run for six weeks, with the winner to receive a new hair-do for Easter.

Next week after the meeting, members will hold a Valentine party and a low-calorie salad supper.

Attending were Mmes. Margaret Simmons, Gloria Frank, Fannie Coleman, Opal Gray, Sadie Lane, Cecile Grange, Gladys Simmons, Vastalee Hicks, Pat Young, Frances Stamps, Pauline White, Odell Hassler and George Frank.

KELLY TO DIRECT

NEW YORK (AP) — Gene Kelly will direct "Clownaround," described as a "family entertainment musical spectacular," featuring singers and dancers who will each take on the character of a unique clown.

Jaycee-Ette Organization Is Explained

By invitation of Mrs. Jerry Cook, president of the Perryton Jaycee-Ettes, five members of the Pampa Jaycee-Ettes presented an orientation about the organization in Perryton.

The team included Mrs. Milton Saltzman, president; Mrs. Philip Kimbley, vice president; Mrs. Buz Shelton, parliamentary; Mrs. Nathan Lancaster, and Mrs. Dan Stanley.

A "Mock Meeting" was presented to show the need for orientations. Mrs. Buz Shelton narrated the program and told the advantages of state affiliation and the Jaycee-Ette's aim and purpose.

Mrs. Nathan Lancaster gave the history of the state organization and projects.

"Through the hard work of active and interested Jaycee-Ettes throughout the State of Texas, the Texas Jaycee-Ette Organization has become one of the largest state groups in the United States," she pointed out. Mrs. Philip Kimbley presented the state and local officers' duties and qualifications by the use of charts showing the organizational structure. Mrs. Milton Saltzman explained state and local awards and set up a display showing the various plaques, trophies and certificates that are awarded for outstanding work.

Mrs. Dan Stanley, a new member of the Pampa club, concluded the program with a talk on keeping record of club projects and activities.

UNIVERSAL JOINT

Your Horoscope

By Jeanne Dixon

THURSDAY, FEB. 17
Your birthday today: Leads to a midyear shift of emphasis from fairly settled routines into pioneering or unaccustomed methods. There will be plenty of chances to do things you've thought about over many years past only to find that some of these schemes are unwise. Today's natives are cooperative, receptive to psychic phenomena, often without realizing what leads them on.

Aries [March 21-April 19]: Useful, fairly confidential information should be put to use toward getting an edge on your career effort. Neglected correspondence may have something of considerable importance waiting attention.

Taurus [April 20-May 20]: Friends are full of impractical schemes. Use common sense, draw your own definite pattern, then stick to it.

Gemini [May 21-June 20]: Be willing to try new activities, a fresh environment. Make an effort to recover whatever you've lent, collect funds you're entitled to.

Cancer [June 21-July 22]: Dispose of any legal questions. Your powers of persuasion are at a high, should be used diligently if you have something to sell.

Leo [July 23-Aug. 22]: Success today depends on your personal responsibilities, how well you carry them. Decide early on your program; schedule peak activity as late as feasible.

Virgo [Aug. 23-Sept. 22]: Get everybody talking, listen for what is left out, ask questions. The earlier you request anything you want, the better. Introductions, sharing of hobbies are strongly favored.

Libra [Sept. 23-Oct. 22]: Getting the sense of a deal quickly and settling for reasonable terms promptly makes all the difference. Make up your mind and go ahead.

Scorpio [Oct. 23-Nov. 21]: A positive approach speeds career efforts. You can bypass some corners for the moment on today's deals.

Sagittarius [Nov. 22-Dec. 21]: Discretion is suddenly crucial where any intrigue is going on. Survey your home for safety conditions, protect cherished objects from visitors who have no idea of the worth you place on them.

Capricorn [Dec. 22-Jan. 19]: New business, creative endeavors are favored, even where you may suspend something that should be soon finished. Positive attitudes, asking others to participate helps resolve any inconveniences.

Aquarius [Jan. 20-Feb. 18]: Your expertise is in demand. Reconcile the many demands for your attention; give a fair share to all that serve your purpose, let the others wait.

Pisces [Feb. 19-March 20]: Keep a tight discipline over spending as you go about making friends and doing social favors. Fresh business contacts, however, will require small investments for public relations.

For the past year, I have been involved with a university course designed to help women—particularly the over-35 housewife—set goals in life.

The women attending the course learn to examine their talents and skills, to investigate what opportunities are available in their local communities, to simply conclude which direction they want to travel.

The other day I attended an evaluation meeting and listened while the directors of the course discussed what had happened to various women who completed the program sessions.

Several women had begun working at paid jobs. One woman decided to quit working outside her home in order to enjoy what she liked most—being a housewife.

Another quit the volunteer groups she had complained about for years and is painting again—at 50. She had almost forgotten the joys she experienced when she was an exhibiting artist almost 25 years ago.

Of course, we all like to talk about success stories. But not every woman who attended the sessions was so successful in recharging her life.

As one of the directors pointed out, several women retreated. They went back to those various frustrations that had initially sent them out to sign up for the course. They chose to remain in the shadows of life, shadows that shield them from even taking a clear look at themselves, because they were too afraid to try something new.

It seemed reminiscent of stories I've heard about prisoners in concentration camps.

Food Fads Discussed

The Merten Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. T. G. Groves, 500 Powell.

During the business session, led by Mrs. L. J. Barker, president, it was announced Mrs. Ann Briden and Mrs. Jack Prather had been appointed to attend a macrame class at 10 a.m. Feb. 23, in the office of the county home demonstration agent.

Mrs. L. J. Barker was nominated as a candidate to the district meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Council, to be held in Pampa in April.

Members discussed plans to serve at the annual Hereford Stock Sale, Mar. 3-8.

Miss Jimmie Lou Waincott, county HD agent, discussed food fads and fallacies, giving the women a quiz on food values.

Next meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. Feb. 15.

First Baptist Circle Meets

The Zelma Northcutt Circle of First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Rupert Orr, 404 N. Hill. Mrs. Ed Railsback read the prayer calendar for missionaries. It was announced that the mission study book, "Catalyst in Missions," will be taught March 1; Day of Prayer will be observed March 8; the Senior Banquet, "A Roman Holiday," will be April 28. Children's books are needed at the Tulip House. Mrs. G. L. Wilson taught the lesson, "The Mission of the Church."

Attending were Mrs. W. R. Bell, W. B. Franklin, Jimmy Free, Darrell Sumpter, Ed Langford, Ed Railsback, G. L. Wilson, and Rupert Orr. Next meeting will be Mar. 7, at the Tulip House for a covered-dish luncheon and Bible study.

INVITES DANCERS

WINNIPEG (AP) — The National Council on Culture of Cuba has invited the Royal Winnipeg Ballet to visit from July 24 to Aug. 5. The company will dance in Havana, Matanzas and Cienfuegos.

National GS Team Makes Pampa Visit

Mrs. Wray Finney, a Girl Scout national volunteer, and Miss Julia Peterkin, Girl Scout Region V council consultant, made a team visit to Pampa recently.

A meeting in the Hospitality Room of Citizens Bank and Trust Company was held to discuss the ways that organized groups can better serve youth in the community.

A number of leaders throughout the community attended the meeting. Included were Mrs. J. B. Maguire, Jr., Floyd Baxter, D. B. Jameson, Frank Shotwell, Clara Rhoades, Frank White, Jr., James Crouch, Bill Mackey, Edward M. Dunigan, Carl Brugger, Don Thompson, Larry Nash, and Vaden Fowler.

Also attending were Bill Lee, Don Thompson and Jack Skelly. High school girls present were Ruth Felter, Patricia White, Stephanie Eastham, Sara Walker and Cynthia Gill. Members of the local professional staff

Pampa Garden Club To Sponsor Contest

A speech and poster contest, entitled "Action Against Pollution," is being sponsored by the Pampa Garden Club locally and state-wide, by the Texas Garden Clubs, Inc.

Chash awards will be made to all contest winners, and first-place winners will be eligible for district and state competition and awards.

Students in grades 1 through 9 will be eligible for the poster contest. The speech contest is open to students in the 10th through the 12th grades. Entries must be brought to the Carver Center, 321 W. Albert, before March 1. Winners will be presented their awards at the Pampa Garden Club guest-day tea, to be held at 3:30 p.m., March 6, in the Carver Center auditorium. At that time the award-winning posters will be on display at the Center. Other highlights of the tea will be the final presentation of the 131 volumes of the series, "People and Their Environment," for grades 1 through 12, will be made to the Pampa School System, and contributing groups will be honored.

There will be three classes in the poster contest. Class 1 is limited to students in grades 1, 2, and 3; Class 2, grades 4, 5, 6, and 7; and Class 3, grades 8, 9, and 10. The first-place winners of all three classes will be awarded $3; second place winners, $2; and third place winners, $1. The award money for the poster contest is being donated by Mrs. Paul Crouch, member of the Pampa Garden Club.

District poster contest awards will be $5 for the first-place winner; $3, second-place winner; and $2, for third-place winner.

The size of the poster must be 14 inches by 22 inches. Media may be water color, crayolas, map pencil or poster paint, collage, cut out pictures of construction paper, newspaper, magazine, or bulletin. A single cutout picture is not acceptable. Topic of the poster must be on the face of the poster. Scale points for judging will be story told by poster, 60 points; originality, 20 points; quality of craftsmanship, 10 points; neatness, 10 points; for a total of 100 points.

The posters must be the work of the contestant. The name, address, school grade, name of school, name of sponsoring club (Pampa Garden Club), and name and address of the club president (Mrs. Lee Harrah, 240. Duncan) should be on the reverse side of the poster.

Members of Boy and Girl Scout Troops, FFA, FHA, and 4H Clubs are urged to participate in the contest in which they would qualify, according to grade level.

For the speech contest, the contestant must write a 5-minute speech using the exact topic, "Action Against Pollution," delivering it without notes. Three copies of the manuscript must be furnished for the judges.

The scale of points for judging will include content, 30 points; delivery, 30 points; organization and relatedness, 15 points; poise, 10 points; audience appeal, 15 points; for a total of 100 points.

The Pampa Garden Club will award $5 to the winner, $3 to the second place winner, and $2 to the third place winner. District awards are $15 for first place; $10, second place; $5 third place.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Wallace Birkes, 665-2913, or Mrs. James Malone, 665-5416.

Worry Clinic

By George W. Crane
Ph. D., M. D.

Editors and columnists often relish emotional retorts. Indeed, we may purposely attack "Sacred Cows" to arouse the stodgy people who are coasting on "tenure." But it is fun to psychoanalyze such critics as this Instructor at Bowling Green University. Is he merely seeking notoriety?

CASE T-504: This clinical column in practical psychology and psychiatry is based on actual office cases.

But once in a blue moon, I find it interesting to quote a letter from a reader.

"Dear Mr. Crane," such a missive began, "you are, without a doubt, a charlatan."

The letter was then signed by a man who listed himself as an Instructor in the English Department at Bowling Green State University, in Ohio.

This young instructor merits a double compliment, however, for he had a lucid masculine script.

And he boldly signed his name, instead of remaining anonymous.

Why do you readers think this college teacher sent me that one-sentence missive?

Is he just immature and naive?

For example, to make a charge in writing that a bona fide American physician and surgeon is a quack (charlatan) is a libelous statement!

But I feel sure he neither realized I am a medical doctor or even appreciated the legal terms "slander" and "libel."

For young people tend to blurt out their emotional ire with little thought of the future implications.

They often are just as thoughtless with reference to their teen-age marriages, 50 per cent of which also end in divorce before the 5th wedding anniversary.

Could this man be an irate bachelor who resents my telling you girls to be wary of such suitors who have passed the age of 30 to 35?

Maybe he isn't very successful as a classroom English teacher and thus objects to my saying that 75 per cent of professors, as well as 75 per cent of clergymen, are second-raters.

For it is a truism in business (as well as in the professions) that the upper 25 per cent of salesmen dispose of about 75 per cent of the merchandise while the other 75 per cent sell only about 25 per cent of the gross volume.

Analyze your faculty members, especially those on "tenure," and see how many of them would still have jobs if our "free enterprise" competitive system applied to campus teachers.

Remember, a full teaching load for college faculty members involves but 12 lecture hours (really 50-minute periods) per week!

That is but 10 hours of actual work for a full week's salary!

And after the first year's lecture notes have been developed, the professors tend to coast the rest of their lives on the same jokes and stodgy oratory.

"Dr. Crane, we must grade papers and attend faculty meetings," argue some of the smug "tenure" professors, as they shed crocodile tears amid their faked groaning.

(Always write to Dr. Crane, Hopkins Bldg. Mellet, Indiana 47958, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 25 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Salvation Army To Hold Banquet On February 28

Major Ted Arrowood, divisional young people's officer from Dallas, will be the guest speaker at the Salvation Army's annual meeting banquet at 7 p.m. Feb. 28.

Highlighting the banquet will be the burning of the mortgage for the Corps Building, 701 S. Cuyler. The banquet will be held in the building, constructed in 1968 and now paid in full.

Major Arrowood will also install the five new board members—Dick Stowers, Dale Greenhouse, Jimmy Schuman, Ken Plotner and Gene Steel.

The banquet will be $3 per person or $6 per couple.

Then came the first Once-Ler who discovered that the foliage of the trufular tree could be used in threeds—and rhneeds could be used for just about any purpose.

This Dr. Seuss double talk requires close attention.

So the trufular trees were felled; other members of the Once-Ler clan arrived; a factory started belching smoke and spewing waste into the clear waters and soon it was a wasteland.

All through this a round little character, with a big mustache, called the Lorax was frantically screaming in defense of the trees, the animals and the fish and all the rest of the creatures of the forest and stream which were being destroyed.

It was powerful and persuasive, and its implications for the adult viewer were infinitely more disturbing than the innocent cartoon figures, the merry tunes and witty lyrics seemed to be.

A devastating and adroit half hour editorial on industrial pollution, careless destruction of natural resources and human greed was wrapped up in "Dr. Seuss' the Lorax," a half-hour children's special on CBS. If the adults did not leave their sets, it might have looked pretty controversial.

Based on Ted Geisel's children's book, it started by showing the halcyon existence of the Brown Barbalutes, merry little creatures, among

Sunray Breathing Crusaders Plan Student Forum

SUNRAY (Spc)—The Sunray Breathing Crusaders, a division of Christmas Seal Youth associated with Top of Texas TB and Respiratory Disease Association, will sponsor an area student health forum Saturday, Feb. 26, at Sunray High School.

Schools, church groups, and other interested organizations are invited to send representatives to the forum beginning at 10 a.m. with a program "Smoking and Lung Cancer," by Dr. William P. Hale of Amarillo, a panel presentation by former drug victims at 11 a.m., "H as in Heroin, H as in Hooked," and at 1 p.m. a program on "Venereal Disease Among Teenagers."

The forum is presented through cooperation of the American Cancer Society, Damascus Christian Center of Amarillo, and Amarillo College Department of Nursing.

Whirlpool TRASH MASHER COMPACTOR

Match front panel to your cabinets easily

- Slip-in panel design lets you decorate dishwasher any way you like • No pre-rinsing needed because filter constantly cleans the water, then cleans itself • Full-size revolving spray arm • Dispenser adds detergent at the start of each washing cycle • Easy to install — do it yourself

A week's worth of trash ... in a neat little bag.

The Trash Masher, a great new appliance from Whirlpool. It compacts the equivalent of 2½ ordinary 20-gallon cans of trash into a sealed paper bag ready for pick up. Everytime you discard cans, bottles, trash or garbage it automatically, at the touch of a switch, compacts it in the bag. Comes trash pickup day, simply take one or two sealed, weather-proof bags to the curb instead of 3, 4 or more trash cans. But see for yourself. Try it in your home for two weeks. If you don't agree it's the best way to handle household trash, it will be picked up and you won't owe us a cent. Fair enough? *Tsk.

NEW YORK (AP) — Ten per cent of the U.S. population lives on a California earth fault which scientists are certain will be making a major move, probably within the next 25 years.

While building codes in this earthquake country are getting tougher—particularly since the San Fernando quake of a year ago—a quake along the San Andreas Fault would cost, in the words of one expert, "Hundreds of billions of dollars in damage" and "tens of thousands of lives."

All this was wrapped up grimly in ABC's actuality special, "Earthquake," on Monday night. It was a frightening hour, with a lot of film showing last year's quake and its aftermath. It quoted earthquake experts, unanimous in their predictions of a coming quake. It showed houses still being built right on top of the fault, plus the efforts of many people to prepare for such an emergency.

The hour program consisted primarily of an illustrated rehash of rather well-known material on earthquakes. To avoid being utterly downbeat, the program's windup showed a scientist explaining an experiment for testing whether earth movement may be controlled.

A devastating and adroit half hour editorial on industrial pollution, careless destruction of natural resources and human greed was wrapped up in "Dr. Seuss' the Lorax," a half-hour children's special on CBS. If the adults did not leave their sets, it might have looked pretty controversial.

UP FOR GRABS—Harvester Donnie Cain (51) going up against tall Palo Duro player Claude Harris (44) in Pampa's defeat by the Don's Tuesday night. The Harvesters now have a 23 and 6 season record and will be playing two more scheduled games.

Pampa Cagers Downed By Palo Duro 67 To 55

By STEVE BOHLANDER
News Sports Editor

Claude Harris of the Palo Duro Dons scored the opening basket of the Pampa Palo Duro game Tuesday and the Dons never trailed as they defeated the defending district 3-AAAA champions 67 to 55 in Amarillo.

The game was watched by a capacity crowd who started quietly, silently to evaluate the tense situation before cutting loose with cheers in the third period of play.

A dark cloud seemed to hover over the courts as both teams played for the number one slot neither one eager to be too aggressive as the officials kept close tabs on every move.

Trailing at one time in the first period of play by five points the Harvesters closed in to within three under the shooting of Mike Edgar and Gary Haynes with four points a piece. Richard Bunton placed the Harvesters on the scoreboard for the first time after he was fouled, with 6:48 showing on the clock. The period ended with Pampa trailing 16 to 13.

Turnovers and lost balls seemed to follow Pampa at both ends of the court as the team couldn't seem to find their smooth spark of confidence they usually exhibit under fire. Several times walking penalties and double dribbles gave the Dons scoring opportunities that were quickly taken advantage of by a two point effort.

In the second quarter Palo Duro kept the pressure on the Harvesters by taking the opening tipoff and keying it to Fred Mitchell, 6' 5" sophomore, for an 18 to 14 lead after 22 seconds of play. After Mitchell's quick score Edgar tagged Claude Harris with a foul and Harris hit both shots giving the Dons a six point lead with 6:51 left to play in the first half.

Harris reciprocated with a foul against Cain who hit both to bring the margin back to four points with 6:34 left in the half.

Fouls and blocked shots were the highlight of the remainder of the half as the referees caught ten player misques in the eight minute period. Pampa was tapped for two of the ten mistakes.

As the gun sounded for halftime Pampa trailed by a big ten point margin, 32 to 22.

The third period of play came with a fired up effort by Pampa as they outjumped Palo Duro for the tipoff and Gambin put the score up with 7:30 remaining in the period.

Mike Martin kept the 10 point margin with a layup at 7:12 but eagerness to stretch the lead found Mitchell fouling Edgar. The foul shot and a quick basket by Richard Bunton narrowed the Palo Duro edge to seven points as Pampa trailed 27 to 34.

Martin brought the attack back to Pampa with a 20-foot shot from the side and Harris moved the Dons to an eleven point advantage with his layup as Pampa trailed 27 to 38 with 5:30 left in the third quarter.

Twelve fouls marred the third period with Palo Duro being called with six and Pampa having six.

The star of the third period of play was Bunton with a total of 13 points. Mitchell was tagged with three personal fouls during the third period and Palo Duro lead 49 to 43 when the gun sounded.

A goaltending call started a trend as Pampa was tapped for a total of six points due to the blocked baskets. Palo Duro lost a starter, Claude Harris, with 4:31 remaining after he drew his fifth foul against Cain. Cain made the basket and Pampa trailed 46 to 53.

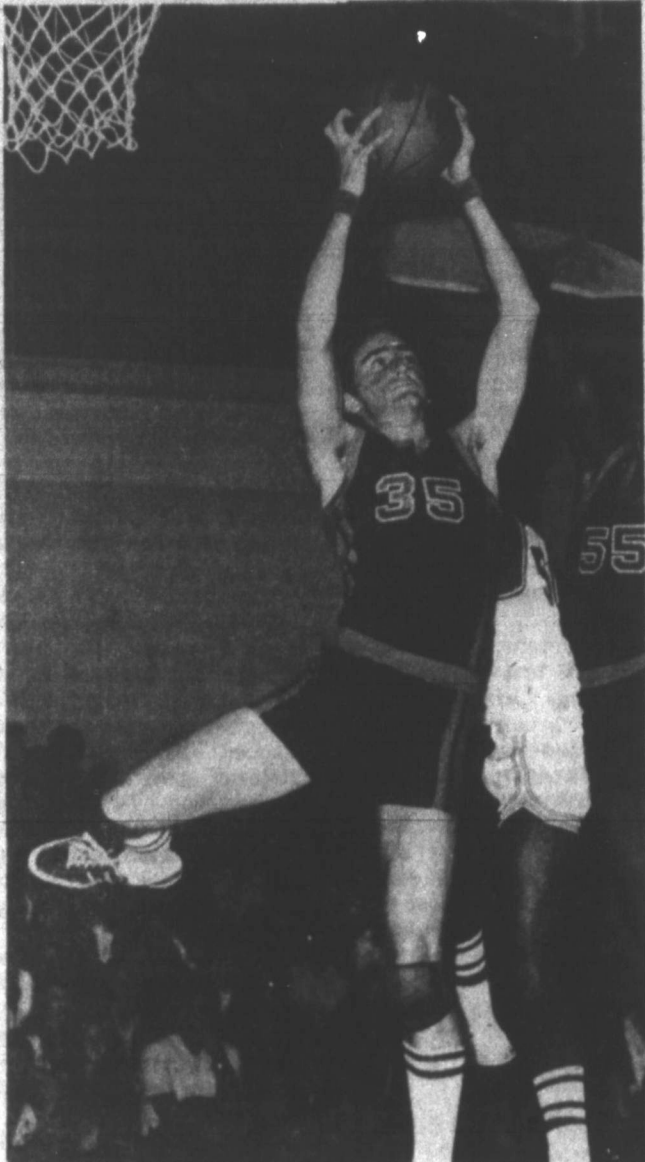

The remainder of the game was Palo Duro all the way as missed passes and turnovers kept the Harvesters going the wrong way on a one-way street of defeat.

According to coach Robert McPherson, "We just didn't play up to our capabilities. There were too many mistakes and turnovers for us to win the game."

The Harvesters will be meeting the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm Friday night in Harvester Fieldhouse at 8 p.m. for their home game. The final game of the season will be Tuesday against the Borger Bulldogs in Borger. Pampa has defeated both teams in the first round of district play and needs to have wins against both teams in hopes of sharing a part of the district title if Palo Duro is defeated in one of their last two outings.

The defeat by the Dons gives the team a 23 and 6 record.

Pampan To Play In Phoenix Open

EDITOR'S NOTE: Pampa's touring pro, Martin Reeves has qualified for the Phoenix Open.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Billy Casper was a surprise late entrant in the $125,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament and his presence helped greatly to bolster the sagging prestige of this troubled event.

"I really hadn't planned on playing," Casper said today before a practice round at the Phoenix Country Club. "I'd planned on taking a week off."

"But I'd been playing so badly for so long and then last week I kind of got it all together for awhile, I thought I'd keep on going."

The 40-year-old Casper, one of golf's three $1-million prize winners and holder of more than 40 tour titles, rallied for a final-round 67 and a tie for sixth last week in the long, tough Bob Hope Desert Classic.

His entry in the 144-man field served as a major boost to the sponsoring Thunderbirds, a local civic organization, which found themselves lacking a major television contract and most of the game's great stars.

Local sports columnists wondered in print if this was a crossroads for continuance of the tournament, one of the two western events lacking a celebrity tie-up and the only one without a major TV contract.

Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Lee Trevino, the game's biggest drawing cards, are taking a week off to get ready for next week's $260,000 Jackie Gleason Invarrary Classic.

But Phoenix, with last-minute entries helping to boost the field, has come up with the winners of five of this year's six tournaments—George Archer, Paul Hamey, Grier Jones, Bob Rosburg and defending champion Miller Barber—for the 72-hole event that starts Thursday.

First Tonto, Little Beaver: Now Riley

LOS ANGELES (AP) — There was Tonto, Little Beaver, Robin, Dr. Watson and Gabby Hayes. And now there's Pat Riley.

The sidekicks of the Lone Ranger, Red Ryder, Batman, Sherlock Holmes and Hopalong Cassidy have been joined by the guard of the Los Angeles Lakers among the assistants of the world's heroes.

Thus while Gail Goodrich, Jerry West, Wilt Chamberlain and the rest of the Lakers were attempting to dispose of the pesky Cincinnati Royals Tuesday night, Riley made his entrance to post career bests for points and rebounds in a 125-118 triumph.

Often overlooked, Riley has been a key factor in the Laker success this season, his fifth in the rugged National Basketball Association.

Elsewhere, Boston beat Portland 111-104, Baltimore whipped Houston 113-98, Atlanta downed Detroit 113-105 and Golden State shaded Buffalo 103-100.

Coach Bill Sharman

admitted Riley played well Tuesday night but said his super reserve has been consistently great off the bench.

"The key to Riley's play," said Sharman, "is the first two or three shots. If he hits them, he goes. So for him to do well, he's got to look for good shots early, hit them and that gets him untracked."

The Lakers led 20-16 early in the game when the Royals scored 14 points in a row to grab a 10-point lead. In came Riley to score eight points in 11 minutes as the Lakers closed the gap to six. And when they trailed by nine after one period, Riley stayed in and propelled Los Angeles to a 40-point quarter.

His overall statistics: 12 of 17 shots from the floor, 3 of 3 from the free throw line in 27 minutes of playing time, nine rebounds, 27 points and hustle on the fast break.

A fourth-quarter Boston explosion ignited by Dave Cowens powered the Celtics over the Trail Blazers. Cowens poured in nine of his 21 points in the final frame.

Ferguson's The Fourth To Sign Intent Letter

By RICKEY WRIGHT
Staff Writer

Alvin Ferguson is number four. He was the fourth senior Harvester to sign his letter of intent with a college team.

Al signed on at University of Arkansas.

When asked why he chose Arkansas, he commented, "I wanted to go there because they are winners."

The 190-pound blonde started his football career in Pampa's child's league playing for the Browns under Warren Smith.

He then graduated to junior high after two years with the Optimist Club.

After three years at Pampa Junior High he graduated to the tough program of Robert E. Swede Lee.

He started for the Harvesters two years and the Shockers one.

He played at offensive guard and defensive middle linebacker.

Trainer-coach Jim Bone of Arkansas visited with Alvin and his parents over the weekend after Alvin had visited the school campus.

There were about four schools corresponding with Al and looking for his letter of intent.

A couple of the schools were Texas Christian University and University of Texas at Arlington.

At this point Alvin is planning to major in forestry and wildlife.

ABA Roundup

By Associated Press

They made the game too long for the Indiana Pacers, Virginia Squires and Pittsburgh Condors Tuesday night.

The three teams blew fourth period leads and dropped American Basketball Association contests to the Kentucky Colonels, Dallas Chaparrals and Carolina Cougars.

The scores were Kentucky 101, Indiana 99; Dallas 116, Virginia 111 and Carolina 126.

Pittsburgh 113. In other games, Utah beat Memphis 118-99 and the Floridians nipped Denver 125-124 in overtime.

Kentucky trailed Indiana 81-75 entering the final period but reeled off 11 straight points to go ahead to stay. Dan Issel led the way with 31 points, Artis Gilmore had 29 and Cincy Powell 23. Bob Netolicky paced Indiana with 27.

Dallas trailed Virginia by eight points late in the third quarter but Joe Hamilton hit a 40-foot three-pointer just before the buzzer to start a rally which carried over into the final period. Virginia's Julius Erving led all scorers with 27 points while Rich Jones had 25 and Donnie Freeman 23 for the Chaps.

Carolina trailed Pittsburgh by 17 points in the first half but missed the lead to two by the end of the third quarter. The Cougars tied the score early in the final stanza and went in front for good on Joe Caldwell's layup.

Shockers Fall To Palo Duro

The Palo Duro Junior Varsity defeated the Pampa Shockers 53 to 51 in an edge-of-the-seat affair Tuesday night in Amarillo.

The Shockers trailed 17 to 19 at the end of the first period of play and dropped to a five-point edge at the half as the Palo Duro B-team led 28 to 23.

Marking an outstanding by the bench and some hard rebounding by Randy Warner, finished with 13 for the evening, the Shockers tied the ball game 39 to 39 at the end of the third quarter.

The Palo Duro cagers were too much to cope with as coach Ronnie Hearne stated, "We made too many turnovers and missed too many free throws late in the game."

Rick Beasley led the Pampa team with 13 points and assisted Warner in controlling the backboards.

Lee Rebels End Season With A Win

The Robert E. Lee Rebels closed their basketball season with a hard-fought win over Pampa Junior High winning by a score of 60 to 54.

The Rebels were led by the rebounding and scoring of Howie Lewis who placed 19 points for the contest.

Chuck Quarles followed with 18 points and he played an outstanding game defensively and offensively.

Kory Gambling had 12 points and six field goals for a 100 per cent mark before fouling out early in the fourth period of play.

Deanie Lewis scored seven points before fouling out as the buzzer sounded ending the third period of play.

Replacements Steve Edwards and Willis Price did an outstanding job for the Rebels as Edwards sank four free throws out of four attempts in the final quarter to put the game on ice for the Rebels. Mark Murphy had a field goal to round out the scoring for the Rebels.

Billy Wilbon of Pampa Junior High paced the game with his hot shooting and ended with a game high of 24 points against the Rebels.

The Rebels ended their season play with a record of 10 victories and 8 losses. In district play the Rebels won six of their last seven outings to finish with a six and four district record.

Our Capsule Policy

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces can he develop to his utmost capability.

The News believes each and every person would get more satisfaction in the long run if he were permitted to spend what he earns on a volunteer basis rather than having part of it distributed involuntarily.

Phased Confusion

The longer Phase II lasts, the more confusing it will become.

This is in great part intentional.

For Phase II is designed to bend with political pressures from all sides, then snap back like that involving AFL-CIO chief George Meany. It is structured hopefully to absorb the strains set up by the 15 per cent wage raise agreed in the coal settlement, the 7.2 and 7.6 per cent increase on tin plate products, the 8 per cent increase on some steel rails and some even higher gas price boosts in New York.

This may seem like some pretty weak defusing.

Certainly the word battles will continue as long as Phase II lasts. But the actual day-to-day working battles are over an endless number of detailed points. The strategy is for the heat to frazzle out in a long series of technical battles over individual cases.

The administration figures it can afford to compromise its stand in many of these arguments, after suitable delaying actions that are calculated to soften the impact of greater-than-guide-line wage and price boosts.

Contrast this with what the situation would have been had Nixon, Secretary Connally or a government board set down hard-and-fast ceiling on wages and prices, instead of the vague guidelines which can be argued and negotiated.

The architects of Phase II feared that if the program were definite and precise it would break in the first strong push from labor, industry, congress or protesters.

Phase II's indefiniteness is a result, too, of the fight that went into putting it together.

First, it was designed by men who did not fully believe in what they were doing. Second, the basis was and is political.

As a result, no one is satisfied with Phase II as it stands, not even those who wrote the scenario.

To one of these men, it is a compromise which recognizes "the bases of power."

To another Phase II has enough "give" so that it can be jerry-fixed as things go wrong without tearing up the whole deal and starting again from scratch.

Phase II to a considerable extent reflects Nixon's own personality. He has a predilection for the adversary approach common to American courts and labor-management contract negotiations. He shuns absolutes.

The adversary approach makes compromise possible. Hopefully, no one gets hurt too badly, no one wins too much.

It puts the burden "for getting what they want" on the men representing each segment of society—labor, business, the public, the government. It places the blame on these men when they do not achieve what their clients want. It can help the President sidestep blame.

So count on confusion until the end.

NATO Gets Red Test

Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington has likened the Soviet Union to a "common hotel burglar," who goes up and down the corridors trying doors to see if any have been left unlocked.

The senator was probably referring to the Kremlin's well-known proclivity for sniffing out political instability or social unrest wherever it may be found. But the simile is accurate in a military sense, also.

Soviet aircraft recently stepped up their probing of North Atlantic Ocean airspace, reports Aviation Week & Space Technology magazine. The brunt of intercepts by North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) pilots fell, by sheer geographical location, to the Royal Air Force.

At one point, says the RAF, Soviet penetration amounted to hundreds of probes in short period of time, many at wave-top level, and was apparently aimed at gaining maximum knowledge of NATO's ability to react while forcing the RAF and its allies to a maximum use of electronic countermeasures.

The RAF will not say how many Soviet aircraft have probed into the west nor at what distances they have been intercepted, though presumably the Soviets know. So far, NATO has managed to keep one step ahead of changing Soviet tactics.

The Kremlin is not contemplating war with NATO. The RAF emphasizes that at no time have the Russians actually penetrated British airspace nor have they ever made any hostile moves. They're just trying doors.

Inside Washington

More Critical Battering Looms In Storm Over Kennedy Center

By ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON — The controversy and deficit-racked Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts appears headed for more critical battering.

Latest storms looming over the $70 million marble edifice on the Potomac are:

—A reputed report by the General Accounting office, watchdog agency of Congress, about the Center's chaotic affairs that one knowledgeable source described as "explosive as an armed hand-grenade."

—An irate furor over the Center's grossly inadequate and apparently badly mismanaged parking facilities. Indignation over this shortcoming has become so extensive and vehement that it is being publicly aired in Washington newspapers and on the air.

A curious contradiction exists regarding the General Accounting Office (GAO) report. Accounts about it are agreed it is highly critical of the management of the huge Center. It is run by a board of trustees dominated by members of the Kennedy family, including Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., and headed by Roger Stevens, chairman.

But there is a wide difference over whether the GAO has as yet submitted a report. Some say it is not due until July 15.

An exhaustive study of the Center's affairs was officially requested by Sen. Jennings Randolph, D-W.Va., chairman of the Public Works Committee. He asked GAO to make a sweeping inquiry in preparation for a public airing of the Center's muddled operations and finances.

These include a $3-5 million deficit, waste and extravagance, high salaries, nepotism and favoritism.

Cited to Sen Randolph as one illustration of the Center's tribulations is a $300,000 loss incurred in staging Leonard Bernstein's loudly fanfare "Mass" which opened the Center last fall. Another example is weekly paychecks of more than $1,200 to stage hands.

Members of Congress keeping a close check on the Center maintain that GAO has submitted a severely unfavorable "interim report."

This has been partially confirmed by Randolph's office. But no other information has been released. If and when any will be conjunctural.

Parking Snafu

But there is no secrecy about the Center's grievous parking difficulties.

They are not only public but furiously so.

Chief reason is downright stupid and bungling planning in the construction of the giant marble structure. Those responsible for erecting it simply did not provide sufficient parking space.

It's just as basic as that.

The Center has three large auditoriums—a concert hall and two theaters seating a combined total of 6,000. But the Center has only 1,300 indoor and 300 outdoor parking spaces.

Consequently, when all three auditoriums have performances, ticket-holders invariably find themselves entangled in gigantic and infuriating parking and traffic jams—coming and going.

These anguishes are still further enragingly compounded when the weather is bad—as has occurred frequently of late, with rain, snow and slush.

That kind of treatment is not easy to take under any circumstances, and especially with tickets selling up to $20.

Several years ago, at the trustees' pleading, Congress authorized the Center to borrow $20 million to provide what the legislators presumed would be ample parking facilities. Now Stevens is talking about asking Congress to permit another loan to do what should have been done initially.

If the whole program is not stopped, the U. S. taxpayer can expect to add Red China, North Korea and North Vietnam to the international welfare rolls he is paying for.

Your Health

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I enjoy reading your column and had to make this comment on the flat chest questions. I have heard a saying, What God has forgotten, you can build with cotton.

Dear Reader—I am sure that many people will get a chuckle out of your letter. I might add that it is also safer than silicone injections, cosmetic surgery and a lot of other things.

Dear Dr. Lamb—My friend has high blood pressure for which medication is taken. I have learned that an electrocardiogram was taken but do not know the results. From this I presume there is a heart condition. My question is how dangerous is it to be carrying on a romance in this condition in an age bracket of 50 to 55? I know now what they mean when they say it is "an affair of the heart," as mine (which is normal) really beats too fast for comfort.

Nothing has been said by either of us as yet to acknowledge the affair, but I can tell by the smiling eyes, laughing at nothing, heavy breathing and occasional sigh or catching of breath that the feelings are mutual. It has been a heavy strain on my health. Can't eat, can't sleep, can't concentrate, and it shows on me. Could this be construed as emotional strain?

Dear Reader—There are an awful lot of people who have new romances and new marriages even after having had heart attacks. There is no question but what emotions do affect the heart and your observation that your heart speeds up is perfectly valid. It is an indication of the increased work of the heart and circulation in response to emotional stimulation. Don't let it bother you.

Lovemaking carried to its ultimate conclusion also causes a rise in blood pressure and heart rate and it does indeed increase the work of the heart. This is one reason why it is a good idea for individuals who are still interested in life and romance to stay in reasonably good physical condition. That means maintaining a proper sensible exercise program and weight control. But plainly, it can have an influence on one's love life.

It can be a lot more frustrating and damaging to a person's total physical health to love and be unloved. Don't forget that the psychic or emotional health is an important factor in physical health and a good satisfying healthy emotional relationship between two people is good for the psychic health.

Please send your questions and comments to Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Lamb cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

STRAIGHT TALK

TOM ANDERSON

Ashbrook vs. Nixon

This has not been stated openly, but the campaign of Representative John Ashbrook of Ohio to get the Republican Presidential nomination has two main purposes:

1. To pull Richard Nixon and the Republican Party to the right between now and the general election, and

2. On November 2, to defeat Nixon.

Ashbrook, virtually unknown to the average voter, and not even well-known among dedicated Republicans, will get at least one-fourth of the GOP vote in the New Hampshire primary and about 20 per cent in Florida, according to some polls.

Ashbrook puts Nixon's feet to the fire like this: "Candidate Nixon said in 1968 that we have to put an end to the huge federal deficits which fuel inflation and pick the pockets of every American. Today, where do we stand? The first three budgets planned wholly by the Nixon Administration are expected to show a deficit of 70 billion dollars—the largest, most outrageous string of deficits in American peacetime history!"

Conservative columnist Morrie Ryskind says: "Now, I'm a Nixon man—and have been for 25 years." Then he recounts the fairy story about Richard Nixon's conservatism, anti-communism and anti-Americanism. Then Ryskind paraphrases a famous lyric: "Won't you come home, Dick Nixon?"

Chameleon Nixon is home, Morrie.

The greatest fake of our time now appears to be the "autobiography" of Howard Hughes. Thus Richard Nixon is reduced to the second biggest fake of our time.

I used to think that once they cured cancer, the only major incurable disease would be adolescence. Fulbrights and Kennedyrea.

Certainly neither John Ashbrook nor George Wallace could save us—even if either or both could be elected. And they have no chance of being elected than Jill St. John has of marrying Billy Graham.

But we have to begin. We have to try. Some ill-informed conservatives thought the election of Nixon was a beginning of a return of conservatism. When those who really understand the Nixon game plan and know the score criticize the Kissinger-Nixon administration, the yellow-dog Republicans and ill-informed conservatives demand: "Would you rather have had Humphrey?"

Certainly. And Norman Thomas, instead of Eisenhower. The sure way to lose is to elect a phony conservative. Nixon, like Eisenhower, has sabotaged the conservative movement. Humphrey could not have tripled welfare, continued disarming, forced all-out busing of millions of children, increased trade and subsidies with all enemies, visited China and Russia or amassed Nixon's fantastic deficit. The fiscal year ended June 30, 1971. Nixon's deficit was $23 billion; the 1972 fiscal year was a $38.8 deficit. Nixon estimates $25 billion deficit for the coming year. Based on his past "optimism," the deficit will be at least $40 billion. That adds up to over $100 billion in deficits in three years. In four years spendthrift Johnson accumulated a total deficit of $34.4 billion. Humphrey could not have done this without bringing about a tremendous conservative opposition. Or maybe impeachment proceedings. And that's an idea.

When the "conservative" standard bearer is on the other side, who do conservatives support?

Uncomplicated Breeding

Unwed mothers who apply for assistance from the Tennessee Welfare Department no longer have to list the name of the father of their children, under a federal court order.

This is in order to make life more uncomplicated. Why should a woman breeding for welfare have to try to remember who did it when?

The order was signed by U.S. District Court Judge Frank Gray, a two-bit politician and a one-bit judge.

Forced Drugging

More than 150,000 elementary children in American schools are being given "behavior modification drugs." A Congressional committee on government operations has revealed this startling fact. Teachers are known to have high-pressured little children into taking these drugs in spite of the opposition of their parents. Trying to change attitudes and behavior patterns of normal children with drugs is playing God, 1964 style. Forced drugging is more diabolical than forced busing. Jesus said: "Do it unto the least of these, and ye have done it unto me."

Frenchman Starts Tests

DEL RIO, Tex. (AP) — French scientist Michel Siffre faces today the first full day of 200 during which he will be alone in a time vacuum, buried alive beneath millions of tons of Texas limestone rock.

Since he took off his watch and handed it to his wife, Nathalie, at the top of the cave shaft at 2:15 p.m. Monday, Siffre has no means of telling time.

He will remain cut off from the tyranny of clocks in a time rhythm set only by the waking, eating and sleeping needs of his body.

Aim of the experience is to show that men in space can adapt without difficulty to a 48-hour cycle of 36 hours activity and 12 hours sleep instead of the 24 hour cycle of 16 hours activity and 8 hours sleep which is customary.

Although Siffre had a couple of comrades with him for the first night to help with the installation of his camp, the last of them was to leave by evening. From then on, he will be utterly alone.

Sophisticated electronic equipment in a tent laboratory atop the mountain will monitor his health and bodily reactions.

Frozen food will be lowered to him by teammates when he is sleeping. His only contact with the surface will be daily telephone calls, during each of which he will give his estimate of the date and hour to be checked against the calendar.

Medical and biological tests will occupy much of his uneven days. He will keep a diary and prepare notes for a book. For his leisure, he has a phonograph and records and a shelf of carefully chosen books, and lots of time to meditate on future experiments.

"I'll never be bored," the 33-year-old scientist said minutes before he descended into Midnight Cave 50 miles north of here.

"I may get moments of depression, yes, that is possible, but I won't be bored," he said.

Asked if he was a religious man who believed in God, Siffre said: "Not in the strict way. But I believe there is something called God. I think rarely of God now, but hours of confinement and isolation can change a man."

Questioned about the possible danger from rockfalls, Siffre said: "In a cave you always have some danger. For example, you could break a leg. But this is an easy cave."

As his friends called "goodbye Michel. See you in September," Siffre turned and pledged: "I will not fail. I will succeed."

Ford Earnings

DETROIT (AP) — The Ford Motor Co. has reported 1971 profits totaling $657 million for its second-best year in history and anticipates that sales will continue at levels above last year.

Ford's per share earnings were $6.18, second only to the $6.33 racked up in 1965, when the company set its profit record of $7.03 million.

Ford, last of the Big Four U.S. automakers to disclose 1971 results, made its report public Monday. Sharply increased earnings also were reported by the three other major auto companies.

Guajiro Indians of Colombia and Venezuela set their own work quotas then when they feel they have done enough they return to their hammocks.
