'TEXAS TOWER'

The nation's first floating radar island, a 6,000-ton "Texas Tower," is shown as it was moved from its berth at the Fore River shipyard in Quincy, Mass., early Monday. The weird looking island is being towed to Boston for further outfitting. Eventually it will be towed 100 miles east of Cape Cod where it will stand on stilt-like legs 87 feet above the water as part of the continental radar warning system. (NEA Telephoto)

Butler Arrives As 'Peace-Maker'

LUBBOCK, Tex. — UP — Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler takes on the monumental job of trying to reconcile Texas' two warring party factions when he makes his first of a weeklong series of state speeches in Lubbock Tuesday night.

Butler arrived in Dallas Monday night on the heels of a challenge from Gov. Allan Shivers. Shivers called upon Butler to "settle" during his visit which of the two factions—conservative or liberal—will be seated at the 1956 national convention.

The two groups have been at odds since the 1952 presidential election when Shivers, as leader of the so-called conservative group, failed to get a promise from Adlai Stevenson for state control of the tidelands. Shivers turned to Dwight Eisenhower and Texas went Republican.

Sponsored by Council The Democratic Advisory Council, representing the state's "loyalist" or liberal faction, is sponsoring Butler's visit. Shivers has, therefore, announced he will boycott the dinners scheduled for Butler and so have National Committee woman Edda Weinstock of Seguin and State Democratic Chairman George Sandlin of Austin.

Shivers, calling the Democratic Advisory Council an "appointed, bestow group," charges it doesn't represent a majority of Democrats in Texas. "It is most regrettable this bestowed, appointed group has seen fit to conduct it (the tour) in the fashion it has to promote their own views and desires," Shivers told newsmen.

Guaranteed Wage Idea To Be Pushed In Talk

DETROIT — UP — The CIO United Auto Workers opened preliminary contract talks with American Motors Corp. Tuesday in an effort to extend the guaranteed wage principle it won from Ford and General Motors to the remainder of the automobile industry.

The union's talks with American Motors, the Nash-Hudson combine which is one of the industry's three smaller auto makers, won't reach a climax until August but the firm already has served notice it doesn't want a "pattern" settlement.

CIO President Walter Reuther had indicated he would not try to force the "big three" pattern on the smaller companies but he left little doubt that he expected even the smaller firms to guarantee wages of their employes.

Reuther, smiling over his victory over GM, outlined what probably will be the union approach to the guaranteed wage among smaller companies.

He said the smaller firms may be asked to contribute to a central "pool" from which they could draw during periods of layoffs.

He said the combined contributions of the smaller companies would insure a properly-funded guarantee.

Reuther pointed out that this plan would apply only to the industry's "little three" and not to Chrysler Corp., the last of the "big three."

He said flatly that he expected the same kind of settlement with Chrysler as the union obtained from Ford and GM. The Chrysler contract expires Aug. 31 and negotiations for a new contract are expected to begin early next month.

Meanwhile, some of the 550,500 workers who have been assured of the guaranteed wage were not satisfied with the new contracts the union obtained from Ford and GM. GM was lobbied by wildcat strikes despite the settlement just as Ford was lobbied by 5,000 workers, who rarely face the same hazards of unemployment as the industry's assembly workers.

They should have received a higher pay increase in the new contracts.

Mr. Eisenhower made his appeal for re-instatement of the two projects at his weekly conference with Republican legislative leaders. Senate GOP leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) said the consensus of the conference was that the atomic ship "program is constructive and will serve a very useful purpose for promoting atoms for peace."

Knowland said he believes congress will approve the nuclear merchant ship before the session is over. The joint committee vote against it was 9 to 7.

The atomic committee strongly endorsed, however, Mr. Eisenhower's new atom - sharing program and voted him $270 million for atomic construction not including the nuclear ship.

Atomic Projects Urged

Ike Asks Solons To Push Plans

WASHINGTON — UP — President Eisenhower appealed strongly Tuesday for congressional support of two recently-rebuffed projects — his proposed nuclear-powered atom-for-peace merchant ship and the Dixon - Yates electric plant.

Republican congressional leaders promised to try in both houses to get the two projects back on the legislative track.

The Congressional Atomic Energy committee turned thumbs down on the atomic "showboat" Monday. And last week the House Appropriations committee rejected a $6.5 million item for building a transmission line to the Dixon - Yates power plant site to the Tennessee Valley Authority. This transmission link is the heart of the whole project.

Chuckle Corner

By HAL COCHRAN A couple in South Carolina was married on a locomotive. Sounds just choo, choo exciting! You'd never know by the way some couples act that marriage is a civil contract. When the average girl hates to return a diamond, how can she make a good bride partner? The end of a tannery strike in the South sent all of the workers back into hiding. At the race track most people are habitually poor guessers, and habitual guessers often wind up poor people.

'CINDERS' IS TAKEN AWAY, BUT NEW PUP PROMISED

Another chapter to the story of the three 'lonesome' boys who wanted a pup came yesterday as J. Lloyd Laramore was showing his boat to a prospective buyer. The prospective buyer of the boat and his children came by the house and 'Cinders' recognized the children. It seems 'Cinders' was a 'lost' dog. The boys are still going to have that pup, though, because Mrs. H. F. Dulaney has promised the boys their pick from a litter of English bulldogs.

Has China's Rise Tempered Soviets?

LONDON — UP — Western diplomats said Tuesday Russian uneasiness over Communist China's sudden rise to power in the Far East may be the reason for the Soviet's new campaign of friendship in the West. They suggested that Peiping has risen toward the status of a world power far faster than the Kremlin expected and that the Soviet is tidying up its relations with the West to keep her hands free for future dealings with her huge Asian neighbor.

Girl Of Thaw-White Murder Works Near Movie Of Story

By ALINE MOSBY
HOLLYWOOD—UP—On a rich, elegant movie set actress Joan Collins is portraying the fabulous Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, the "Gibson Girl" of the gay '90s over whose love millionaire Harry K. Thaw shot playboy Stanford White.

Twenty miles across town from the movie fantasy at 20th Century Fox, the real Evelyn sat quietly in her simple art studio.

Forty-nine years ago next week—June 25, 1906—Evelyn's husband killed White in fit of jealousy at the Madison Square Garden Supper Club, and the beautiful showgirl became a national figure.

Mrs. Thaw, now 70, moved here six years ago from New York to teach sculpting.

Instead of diamonds and velvet, she usually wears an artist's smock. In her small studio, on the edge of bustling downtown Los Angeles, are several statues of female nudes she has sculpted.

"The only signs of her glittering past hang in the bedroom—drawings of her by famed Charles Dana Gibson, when she was 16, and the 'Gibson Girl' of Broadway in 'Flora Dora' and 'The Wild Rose'."

"But friendly, frank Evelyn has been yearning for her past glory."

"I wish I'd never gone into show business," she said. "I never belonged in it. I was miscast in life. I could have risen to heights as sculptress."

"Most of my life I've been dressed in fancy clothes like a horse."

Superiority Feeling Hit By Radford

WASHINGTON—UP—Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said Monday it would be "a dangerous misconception to assume that our superiority in modern weapons has reduced our need for allies."

Testifying before the House Foreign Affairs committee on behalf of President Eisenhower's $3,408,000,000 foreign aid program, Radford said, "We need each and every one of our allies."

He said foreign aid cannot be labeled "a giveaway program." It is, he said, "an integral part of our own national security program."

The United States can most effectively bolster other nations to resist communism marshaling our own "complex technical weapons and equipment, modern air and naval power and highly mobile offensive combat forces backed up by ready reserves," he said.

Our allies, he said, "can most effectively provide in their own and adjacent countries the bulk of defensive ground forces and local naval air power."

Parr Loses Dismissal Motion

AUSTIN—UP—Federal Judge Ben H. Rice Jr. Monday overruled a defense motion for dismissal of charges that South Texas political boss George Parr evaded some $85,000 in income taxes.

Arguments were to be heard later in the week on a defense plea that trial of the income tax evasion charges be transferred to Laredo.

Thomas E. James, Austin attorney representing Parr, argued the indictments returned in the western division of federal court should be dismissed because trial had already "commenced" on similar charges in the southern federal district of Texas, and that Judge Rice's court does not have jurisdiction.

Parr was indicted early this year by a federal grand jury at Houston, but that indictment was dismissed by Federal Judge T. M. Kennerly after the later indictment was returned May 3 by a San Antonio grand jury.

Parr pleaded innocent to the indictments, which allege income tax evasion for 1949, 1950 and 1951. James T. Dowd of Houston, special assistant U. S. attorney for the Parr case, argued the motion to dismiss should be thrown out because the later indictment is in regular order and was properly filed.

James argued that trial on the earlier indictments had commenced because Parr had pleaded innocent to them.

The defense has appealed from the Houston dismissal of the earlier indictments, contending Parr would get a fairer trial at Laredo than at Austin.

The defense motion for dismissal of the later indictments said the government moved to dismiss the earlier indictments because of "dissatisfaction" over Judge Kennerly moving trial from Corpus Christi to Laredo.

The Berrys

In Amarillo Nab Fugitive

HOBBS, N. M.—UP—A 36-year-old ex-convict wanted in connection with the shooting of his estranged wife and mother-in-law has been arrested in Amarillo, Tex., Police Chief Earl Westfall said Monday.

Westfall said he understood the ex-convict, Woodrow W. Riddle, had refused to return to New Mexico to face the charges and if so he would start extradition proceedings.

Riddle was charged with two counts of assault to murder after he allegedly broke into the trailer home of his mother-in-law last month and began firing.

The two women, Nettie Riddle, 34, and Hattie Grogan, 64, both suffered several bullet wounds but have since recovered.

Westfall said Riddle was arrested as he walked from an Amarillo home Sunday. He surrendered peacefully, Westfall said.

Texans Purchase $16 Million Bonds

DALLAS—UP—More than $16 million in U. S. savings bonds were purchased last month by Texans, a report showed Monday.

Sale of the bonds the first five months of this year in Texas total $87,163,000 for a gain of 2 per cent more than the comparable period last year.

Hoover Group Suggests U.S. Cut Realty Holdings

WASHINGTON—UP—The Hoover Commission recommended Monday that the federal government shrink its "vast realty empire" and run it more efficiently to save the taxpayers $185 million a year.

In addition to that annual saving it might be possible, the commission said, to return $1,225,000,000 to the Treasury "through disposal of plants and other properties which might be determined to be surplus if all occupied space were fully and efficiently utilized."

In a report to Congress on real property management the commission found that the government:

1. Owns 400,000 properties, buildings, and facilities controlled by 27 different agencies and representing 2,475,000,000 square feet of floor space—"the equivalent of 1,250 Empire State buildings."
2. Uses 370,000 federal employees to operate and manage these holdings under a "decentralized and wasteful system."
3. Has $40.8 billion tied up in original acquisition and construction costs. The defense department alone has $21.4 billion worth of "working space."

The report recommended that the Budget Bureau be "staffed and strengthened to carry out its full function" of coordinating agencies and advising the president on management within the executive branch.

The commission, headed by former President Herbert Hoover, was set up to look into all activities of an executive branch and recommend better and cheaper ways of doing them. It concluded in Monday's report that there is "little in the nature of modern property management in the government."

Other Recommendations
Since no one agency is charged with overall real property management, the report said, "new property is acquired without consideration" of what may already be available in the government.

The commission also recommended:

1. That the state department be placed in charge of all multi-purpose buildings owned or leased abroad by the U. S.
2. That management of industrial defense production properties, including the Army's arsenals and similar holdings of the Navy, be placed directly under the Defense Secretary.
3. That the national industrial reserve review committee be abolished and all standby machine tools and equipment—worth about $3.8 billion—in the reserve be transferred from GSA to the Defense Department.

United States population has doubled since 1900 and the number of persons over 65 has quadrupled in the same period.

Matusow Weds Artist

NEW YORK—UP—Harvey Matusow, the turnabout Communist witness, was married Monday in a private ceremony to Miss Ellen Raskin, 27, an artist, of Milwaukee Wis.

Matusow was reluctant to discuss his marriage which was performed at the Hotel Chelsea, where Albert Kahn, publisher of Matusow's book, "False Witness," maintains a suite.

"All I can say is that as of today I'm married," Matusow told a reporter. "I'm in love, I've got a wife and I'm quite happy."

He said he had met Miss Raskin in New York and had known her "for quite some time."

Matusow, now at liberty under bond following his conviction of contempt of a Texas court, was married previously to the ex-wife of Alvin Bentley, Republican representative from Michigan. They were divorced once, later remarried and then were divorced a second time.

Optimists Install Officers

The Pampa Optimist Club held its first installation banquet since the Charter party in Poole's Dining Room last night. John Schoolfield was named president, Buck Francis and Johnny Campbell were named as the vice presidents.

The banquet, an informal affair, got underway at 7 p.m. with Campbell as toastmaster. Campbell gave high praise to the officers who directed the work of the club for the past 15 months and assured the membership that the new officers would see more growth in the coming year.

He pointed out that "The club began last April with a membership of 30 and has grown to 88, a good growth for any organization."

Lt. Governor, Wade Johnson, of the Borger Club, conducted the installation.

He said he felt sure the club would realize much progress in the coming year.

Schoolfield, accepting the presidency said, "If I could pick the club to be a member of, to work with or to be president of I would pick the Optimist." He concluded with a brief rundown of the growth of the local club. He said he was proud to be president of such an organization and hoped he would be able to fill the post as well as his predecessor, John Clark.

Talk of organizing an Opti-Mrs. Club was brought before the group by Andy Anderson, newly elected president of the Borger Optimist Club.

McNeely stated that the children in the outlying areas near Pampa and those who live south of the Santa Fe railroad will play on Monday, Wednesday and Friday on one week and swim on Tuesday and Thursday of the same week. The next week the schedule will be reversed and the remainder of the children enrolled in the program will swim on Tuesday and Thursday while playing on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. A schedule of activities will be given each child when they register for the program.

Registrations are continuing and any child interested may enter the program at any time during the summer that the program is being carried on.

Johnny Baggerman, Jr., of Claude, was fined $1 and costs on a Swindling with Worthless Check charge yesterday, according to County Attorney Don Cain.

Baggerman also made restitution on the checks after pleading guilty to the charge.

Gray Officers Help Catch Suspect

The Gray County Sheriff's office was instrumental in apprehending a man in Amarillo Sunday who is wanted in Hobbs, N. M., as a suspect in the shooting of his wife and mother-in-law.

The man, Woodrow Wilson (Roy) Riddle, is 26 years old and was arrested in Pampa in May of 1954 on an assault charge. He previously lived in Pampa for a year and three months.

He was arrested at 5th and Lincoln in Amarillo about 10:15 p.m. Sunday as a result of pictures and other identifying information sent to the Amarillo force from the Gray County Sheriff's office. Sheriff John and his deputies, who worked in close cooperation with the Amarillo law enforcement officers, also gave other leads on the whereabouts of the wanted man.

Negro Killed In Shamrock Shooting

SHAMROCK, June 14 — (Special) — Bill Friend, Shamrock Negro, was shot and killed this morning by a shotgun blast, and another local Negro, Pete Davis is in county jail. Officers pieced together the story:

The shooting occurred over an argument over house rent. Davis and a small son lived in a house owned by Friend and Friend went to the Davis home with a 12-gauge shotgun at 9:30 a.m. today to collect some rent.

Davis then sent his son to contact local police to tell them that Friend was threatening his life. It was while the boy was gone that the shooting took place.

Deputies Gene Martin and Herbert Callan were summoned to the scene by the Davis boy but Friend was dead when the officers arrived.

Friend was shot in the right chest while standing in the doorway of the front door of the Davis home.

District Attorney Bill Waters of Pampa was expected to arrive here Tuesday afternoon.

Davis is being held in the Shamrock jail pending Waters' investigation.

Friend was a long-time resident of Shamrock. He was about 65 years of age.

Davis, who moved here from Panhandle 3 1/2 years ago, is also about 65.

Davis' wife and 10 other children were visiting in San Antonio at the time of the shooting.

Pampa Rules Out Home, Farm Show

Pampa will not sponsor this year the South-west Fair and Home Show and Plowing Contest, though plans will be undertaken holding the second annual Achievement Days in the city next 2.

At a meeting of the agriculture committee of the Chamber of Commerce Monday it was voted against holding the show here because present facilities are not adequate to take care of the contest in a manner felt necessary for so extensive a show. Chairman Jim Strawn said it would be particularly difficult to obtain land or the plowing demonstrations.

Achievement Days held here late August last year, will feature the competition of 4-H and FFA boys and girls from six counties. Gray, Carson, Hemphill, Ochiltree, Roberts and Wheeler. A committee composed of Strawn, Jerry Mobley and Paul Payne has been set up to work out the details of the program which will include a barbecue and an awards presentation to outstanding area youth.

Following the meeting, the committee met with the Gray County Commissioners Court requesting the funds be appropriated in next year's budget for a cattle wash rack in the county building at Recreation Park. Estimated cost is not to exceed $5,000.

Tax Group Hears Oilmen On Rates

The Gray County Board of Equalization, consisting of the commissioner from each precinct, began its hearings on the tax rates for oil and allied industries today in the County Court Room.

The group will be in session this week as tax experts for the various companies and for the county establish a basis for tax rates in the various industries.

The industries represented which pay approximately 75 per cent of the county taxes, were to present their number of depletion or reports of decreased production to the group in order to equalize the rates of taxation for the production.

Pampa News Women's Editor

THE YOUNGER SET is featured in today's column of fashions, but that doesn't mean we older ones should ignore it. Although the column specifically describes some teenage fashions for the beach, the styles for the more adult woman reflect the same trends. In many cases, the only difference is the size. Since we all have swimming on our minds these days, I thought you'd like to know what bathing suit and beachwear fashions are being featured.

THE OLD-FASHIONED poncho is making fashion news. And it looks no more like the poncho of yesterday than a sweater looks like a skirt.

In a recent issue of Seventeen Magazine, four handsome new ponchos were shown — each designed to be the gayest cover-up on the waterfront. Made to wear over shorts, these new ponchos can be many things — sleeved or sleeveless, plain or printed, swinging low over your hips or stopping short at your last pretty rib.

But, if it's a poncho, it's free, it's easy and it never ever tells where your waistline is.

Shown was a middy-look "horn-piper" poncho of sailcloth. Trimmed in white piping, the light blue poncho sports a middy-collar of navy. A long-line poncho, slit at the sides, is featured in red cotton poplin with a white fill-in. White stitching runs down the center of the sleeves and around the V-neck.

A striking new interpretation of the old-fashioned poncho is seen in a bateau-necked poncho blouse of gay polka-dot handkerchief cotton in navy-white or red-white. It comes with a white cotton twill cap with matching bandanna.

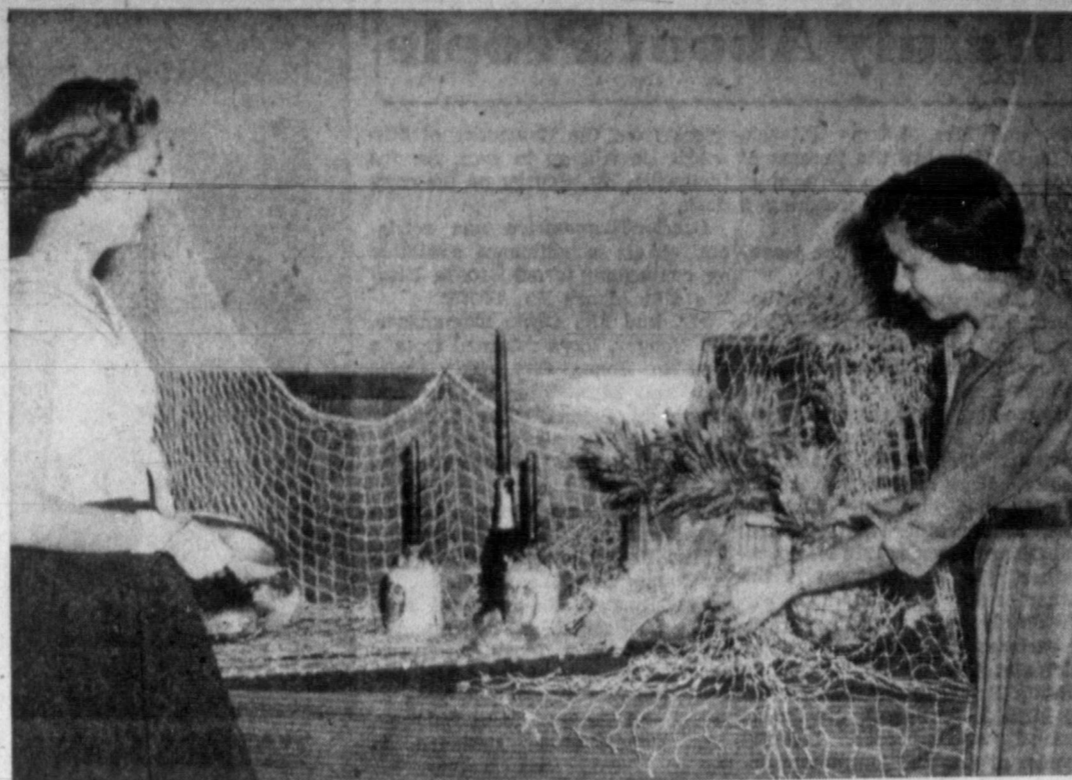

A pint-sized pink poncho of crisp chambray denim has a white-striped yoke. The shortest poncho shown, it's chopped off just below the waist.

BLAZING A NEW TRAIL on warm sands everywhere this summer will be one-piece bright bandanna print swim suits and two-piece suits in bold tartan plaids or femininely fussy.

A sarong suit in tones of blue, red or gold bandanna-print offers these figure-flattering features: a bodice that's boned at the sides and shirred elastic pants that are half-hidden in front by the tapered skirt. A dirndl-skirted suit in red bandanna-print cotton fills in its lowered bosom line with eyelet-trimmed cotton. Under the skirt, a pair of bloomers in the eyelet-edged cotton are worn.

The highlands come down to the sea with the appearance of tartan plaids in bathing suits. A two-piece version is handsomely tailored, with a skirt that sweeps into kilts below the torso band. It comes in red and green or Black Watch plaid cotton. Another two-piece cotton suit is charmingly feminine with ruffled bra-top (shirred with elastic in back) and a ruffled-tiered skirt. It's plaided in red, blue or turquoise and bloomers are attached.

Tomboy and torso suits will also appear on the summer sands: sleek-to-the-figure little-boy suits and long-bodied sheath suits, derivative of the torso-molded dress.

RUTH MILLET

Young Mrs. Smith is right in the middle of the busiest years of her life. She's running a home, helping her husband on the success ladder, taking care of children and trying to do each job to the best of her ability.

Middle-aged or elderly, but active and alert, Mrs. Jones has her big job done and has to try to fill her days with bridge parties, putting and sometimes by interfering in the lives of her grown children.

But when there is school or community work to be done, who gets asked to do it — the busy young mother or the older woman with time on her hands? Usually it is the busy young mother who is called upon. And it is hard for her to plead that she just doesn't have the time because having children to care for isn't considered any sort of an excuse for not taking on outside activities.

This is the kind of situation Dr. Herbert Ratner must have had in mind when he recently gave a mental health lecture to young parents and told them:

"We're raising a generation of latchkey kids. They come home to find that mama has gone out to improve the school system or the police force. Civic and community organizations should be left to older women who already have raised their families."

Why don't we women take Dr. Ratner's advice? Next time we need to call on someone to work on a committee or help with a campaign — don't call a busy young mother and ask her to assume the responsibility. Look around your neighborhood and among your own acquaintances and find an older woman who has plenty of time for outside activities. Ask her to do the job — and you will be relieving some young mother of an added chore and perhaps giving some older woman a sense of being needed and useful.

Country Club Has A Treasure Hunt

Members of the Pampa Country Club held a Dutch lunch, followed by a treasure hunt, Saturday in the club. About 80 persons attended the dinner and about 90 participated in the hunt.

First place honors went to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Malone. Runners-up were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Federer and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Braly.

Hosts for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Z. B. Deer, chairman; and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Curry, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Veale Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Jarrett.

Individual tables were covered with green or white cloths and centered with candles in a Chianti-bottle base. Napkins were brown. Hung from the candleholders were fish on which "warm-up" clues were printed. On the walls were colored replicas of fish, a life saver and a fisherman's straw hat.

First of the three serving tables was covered with a green cloth, over which green and brown fish nets were draped. At one end was a gold "treasure chest" filled with pineapples. Decorations included green candles in brown bottle-holders and sea shells. The second serving table was covered with a green cloth, draped with a brown fish net. At one end was a yellow taper in a huge brown bottle resting on a wooden keg. Other decorations were wicker baskets and brown jugs.

The third serving table was covered with a pink cloth draped with neutral-colored fish net. The centerpiece was a pink mermaid-form to which a fish and a string of pink beads were attached. The backdrop — as a screen, draped with net, to which multi-colored fish were attached.

Re-Styling Clothes Gives A New Look

By adding simple touches to tired dresses hanging in the closet, you can quickly get a "new look" and new wear into your wardrobe.

The Pfaff Sewing Institute recommends that you keep these points in mind during your alterations and you can't go wrong.

Keep dresses as sheathed looking as possible between the hips and collar bones. Carry out bolder alteration work below the hips, bringing all decorative accents away from the natural waistline.

The quickest way to de-accent waistline is to use narrow self-belts made from the hem facings of dresses. They can be made in a jiffy on the new Dial-A-Stitch sewing machines. As for the "suppressed bosom" look, it can be achieved simply with the addition of a wide satin or taffeta bow, fastened with a clip or decorative button to the center of a collar.

Just make sure the bow streamers fall at least two inches below the natural bustline.

A very easy way to transform a full gathered skirt, advise the Pfaff home economists, is to "anchor" the gathers by sewing them down as far as the hips. Then for the belted hipline look, make a wide band in contrasting material or ribbon to pull in the skirt firmly at the hips. The bottom of the skirt will flare dramatically.

Shades of drindl days: wall-paper stripes with winding ivy in a glazed chintz make a fresh-as-paper summer cotton.

Summer need not mean loss of texture interest. Add to the sheer favorites cotton satin, which is lush and cool all at a breath.

Has anyone forgotten a favorite dotted swiss dress, from just before the days we perished for that black satin job? Well, dotted swiss is as charming as ever on a full-skirted cut with a wide, ladylike collar.

A favorite movie star, a red-head, loves to wear red. And why not? Pink for Auburns, bright coral for the titlans.

Don't forget texture contrast for hot weather. Here's a nigg combination: smooth silk dress, jersey duster, shiny plastic handbag, matte leather gloves.

Rayon erupts in a linen-like finish very often this season. It's very handsome and co-ol.

For fun with color, try tangerine tweed with a touch of polka-dot linen.

CHILDREN EAT BETTER breakfasts when the family sits down together. Importance of the meal can't be overestimated.

COOK'S NOOK

Breakfast Is Poor Meal For Practicing Your Diet

By GAYNOR MADOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Many woman have the mistaken idea that to go without breakfast is a good way to keep their hips down. You need a balanced breakfast, one that provides 1/4 of your day's food, just as much as your husband and children do, according to medical men and nutritionists.

Students of family eating habits and family relations state that children eat a better breakfast when the family sits down together. Furthermore the basic breakfast pattern of fruit, cereal with milk, bread, butter or margarine and a beverage is adaptable to all ages.

For Junior who is growing rapidly, the glass of whole milk supplies important protein. If father is a sedentary worker, the basic cereal fills his needs. If he does strenuous physical work add an egg or two. Junior can use an egg, too.

This summer menu follows the basic breakfast pattern:

Breakfast: Cantaloupe with sprigs of mint, oven-toasted rice cereal with milk, flaky bran biscuits, butter or margarine, milk and coffee.

Flaky Bran Biscuits (Yield: 10 to 12 biscuits)
One cup whole bran, 3/4 cup milk, 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 3/4 cup shortening, 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine.

Soak whole bran in milk. Combine dry ingredients; sift into mixing bowl. Cut shortening into flour mixture with pastry blenders or knives until it is finely divided and mixture resembles meal. Add bran mixture; stir with knife or spatula just until ingredients are mixed. Turn dough onto lightly floured surface. Knead lightly 6 times. Roll dough 1/2-inch thick. Cut into rounds with biscuit cutter or into diamonds with sharp knife. Brush tops with melted butter or margarine. Place 1-inch apart on ungreased baking sheet. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) until done, 10-12 minutes.

The mother trying to keep her figure trim can eat smaller servings of all the foods on the menu.

JIM CRACKS

By JIM DEAN

The lovers of poetry will know that last week's quotation in The Post's Nook came from the pen of John Keats.

His sensitive soul had an appreciation for love and beauty that was incomparable even in that age of tenderness which spawned romantic verse in profusion.

The use of Keats' opening lines in the memorial "Endymion" was prompted by two bronze goddesses which stand majestically in a little confectionery on Cuyler Street known as The Crystal Palace.

Efforts to learn the history of the two antique pieces have produced little.

The present operator of The Crystal Palace, Jo Anstlin, tells me that the Goddesses were purchased by Jimmy Matinas who ran the place here for many years.

MATINAS BROUGHT the pair to Pampa from Kansas, and originally he imported them from Germany in 1923 at a cost of $800 plus freight. However, it is obvious that the fair damsels were created in Italy, and the date of their coming no doubt goes back further than the 30-odd years of their "life" in the United States.

But things of beauty, they are indeed, and hardly a perception of perception will enter, for the earthly cup of coffee, without remarking on the unusual beauty of the two — well, let's face it — light fixtures.

Jo remarked that when she took over the Palace, she did considerable decorating including the changing of the light fixtures which are entwined round the arms of the two Goddesses.

SHE SAID that shortly after opening the place under her management, one of the merchants since gone from Pampa, remarked that "everything looked fine except those two ugly statues."

"Well," said Jo philosophically, "you can't please everyone."

I agree, and herewith register my complaint.

I would have those two bronze lovelies perform no such menial task as serving like lamp posts.

I would strip from them the yoke of artificial illumination and then turn them around to face the tables and booths . . . coffee with cream and sugar and art . . . what a combination!

REV. CARROLL RAY the distinguished pastor of the Central Baptist Church recently paid a fine tribute to the newspapers of the country when he said he felt the press played an important role in the development of Evangelist Billy Graham.

Rev. Ray and this writer both labored recently in the muggy environs of Houston where Graham's magnetism accomplished unheard-of feats.

The "sin-seething city," as the phrase-makers of the Houston Press wrote it, produced standing-room-only crowds throughout Graham's revival in the huge coliseum there.

Rev. Ray, in discussing Graham's beginning as a top-billed preacher, recalled that at his first big revival in Los Angeles several years ago, Graham got an assist from Roy Howard, head of Scripps-Howard Newspapers which he noted "for their sensational treatment of the news, especially crime, sex and violence matters."

It was the "Chief" who suggested to his colleagues that something mighty significant was about to take place in Los Angeles. He believed it would preserve priority treatment in the Scripps-Howard newspapers. And so, as the days preceding the opening of the Los Angeles revival wore on, the event drew big headlines and special treatment not only from the Scripps-Howard press, but from other newspapers as well.

Consequently when the revival opened, the place was jammed, and it served as a springboard that vaulted the young North Carolina preacher to world-wide prominence.

THE POET'S NOOK

If you are a writer of poetry and would like to contribute to this 'nook,' the hower is open and the welcome sign swings invitingly in the breeze. But until some local creator gives forth, let's content ourselves with such as this:

"The Moving Finger writes; and, having writ,
Moves on: nor all your Piety nor Wit:
Shall lure it back to cancel half a Line,
Nor all your Tears washout a Word of it."
Recognize that?

Scelba Wins Party Battle

ROME —UP— Premier Mario Scelba Monday night won the first major round of his struggle to stay in power.

The victory came when the parliamentary group of the disension-wrecked Christian Democratic party voted almost unanimously for continuation of the four-party governing coalition.

El Paso Mine Workers Vote Out CIO Union

EL PASO —UP— Union workers at the American Smelting and Refining Co., rejected a CIO union Monday to remain under control of the independent International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, a union charged with Communist leanings.

Workers of Local 509 of Mine-Mill, by a 441 to 256 margin, rejected the United Steel Workers of America (CIO), which had waged a vigorous campaign the past six weeks to woo the workers away from the independent union.

Nine workers voted for no union at all, three ballots were challenged and nine were voided by Harold Hudson, NLEB supervisor in charge of the election. The 718 votes cast were from 775 workers eligible.

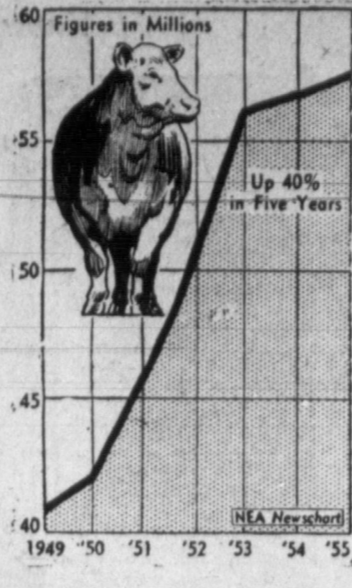

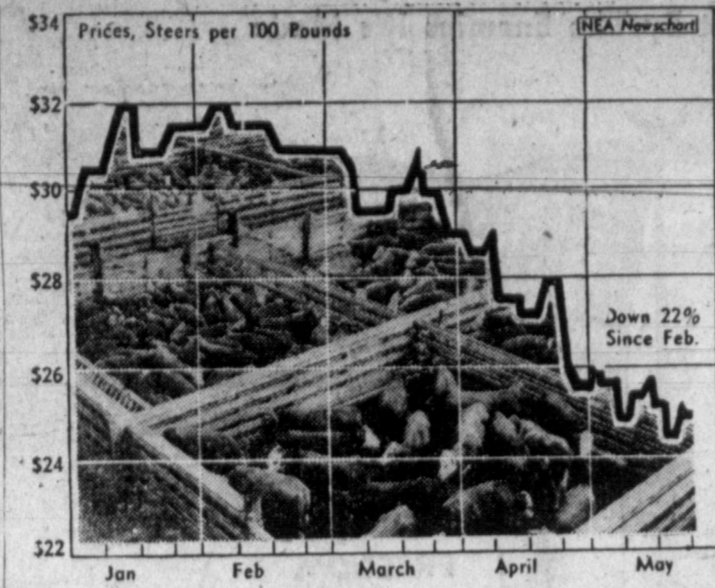

Mine-Mill, which was expelled from the CIO in 1950 on a charge it was Communist dominated, has held bargaining rights for American Smelting and Refining Co. workers for 13 years. Ninety percent of the men are Mexican nationals who live just across the border.

In the heated campaign for votes, the steel workers hurled charges of Communism against Mine-Mill while the independent union claimed credit for pay raises and charged the CIO with discrimination against alien workers.

The charge fitted in with a proposal advanced by U. S. Rep. Francis Walter (D-Pa.), who has urged Attorney General Herbert Brownell to close the Mexican and Canadian borders to alien workers who belong to what he called Communist-dominated unions.

Several officers of Mine-Mill have been charged with falsifying non-Communist affidavits. One of them — international representative Clinton E. Jencks — was convicted in El Paso federal court on that charge and drew a five-year prison sentence which he has appealed.

MAKING A GO OF LIFE

Read I Chronicles 28:5-10

We make our own world. The book of Genesis is correct in saying, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." (1:1) But there is a sense in which it almost every evil ancestor he ever in which we actually live. The ancient warning concerning the relative importance of heredity and environment has lost much of its interest for the modern man, for he has discovered that he can do a very great deal about his environment, and that he can outwit had.

Mark Twain's classic remark to the effect that everyone talk about the weather and no one ever does anything about it sounds strange to a generation accustomed to their most heat control and air conditioning.

The ancient book of Proverbs is entirely scientific, even in the modern sense, when it says: "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life" (4:23); and: "As he thinketh in his heart, so is he" (23:7).

God has furnished us with the raw materials out of which we are at liberty to build the world we prefer, but having built it, we must live in it. We can populate it with tears or with faith, but we must live with whichever we decide upon. We can fill it with unbridled appetites, or we can keep it clean and live in it in decency and self-respect. We can turn emotions and desires loose in it to run wild, or we can police it with holy purposes and make it a safe place in which to develop character. In every case we make the decision.

O God, thou hast paid me the supreme compliment of creating me capable of making choices. I tremble at the responsibility such creation imposes, but I crave thy spirit and presence to guide me that I may fulfill the destiny thou has provided for me. Amen.

Go back over your experiences of today and try to estimate the effect of your own thinking upon your own life. What have your thoughts done to you? Did anyone compel you to think the way you did? Have today's thoughts become your jailers?

Turncoat's Mom Wants Back Pay

OKLAHOMA CITY —UP— Mrs. Carley Jones, mother of a former American soldier who refused to return home from a Korean war prisoner camp, disclosed Monday she is seeking to collect her son's back Army pay.

Mrs. Jones said other mothers of turncoats POWs have hired legal counsel to attempt to collect pay due their sons before they decided not to return home.

Former Pfc. Samuel David Hawkins, Mrs. Jones' son, is now a university student at Peiping, China. He was dishonorably discharged from the Army after refusing to return home.

Mrs. Jones said she believes the Army owed Hawkins $3,000 or $4,000 before he accepted Red China's hospitality.

More than 40 million persons used the forests as recreation areas in 1954, more than double the prewar high set in 1941. Sketch shows a breakdown of 1954 forest visits by purpose.

East Germans Are Polite To Adenauer These Days

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Foreign Analyst
The East German Communists are being very polite to West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer these days. Newspapers in East German cities refer to him as "Herr Konrad Adenauer, Chancellor of the Federal Republic."

Even if Adenauer did agree to such an incredible concept, the facts of life would prove too strong to permit its consummation. Germany is a world power, as much of a world power as Russia. It can't not be released to the status of a minor nation. As long as Adenauer's chancellor, its alignment with the West seems certain.

What happened, it developed, was that the Kremlin had failed to notify the East German government and the East German Communist party in advance that their arch-enemy's favor was to be courted.

They are puppets and lackeys of the Kremlin while Adenauer is the head of a sovereign nation and the honored guest of President Eisenhower.

No Advance Notice

It was suggested three weeks before the Kremlin invitation to Moscow that the Polish Reds probably were a worried bunch of people. They must be more worried now. There can be no doubt that the Soviet government would betray both the East German Communists and the Polish Communists if necessary to make a deal with Adenauer.

Ghosts In White House Scared Worker In 1920s

"We'd rather get OLD CHARTER for Father's Day than anything else!"

"Please don't try to be 'different' when you choose our Father's Day gift. I mean things like gold candle-snuffers and cuff-links made of driftwood or something. We'd rather get a bottle of good old (seven-year-old!) Old Charter."

Trying to guess a man's size and taste is a pretty tricky business, as you know. Why risk it? Give him a bottle of seven-year-old Old Charter—the gift that suits any man fine. He'll thank you for your thoughtfulness and your impeccable taste!

"Father's Day comes but once a year, so just this once give us something we really want, please? I mean a bottle of seven-year-old Old Charter. The only thing that's better than a bottle of Old Charter, in fact, is two bottles. (But who's hinting?)"

"You know how proud you are when you serve something extra good at your canasta parties? Well, we men feel the same way when we serve Old Charter. This is fine whiskey and every man knows it and serves it proudly. It makes a great gift!"

A Long Ball Hitter Will Win Open - Ben

SAN FRANCISCO—UP—A long, straight hitter off the tee will win off in the big event Thursday, the 1955 U. S. National Open golf tournament.

That's what Ben Hogan, who has accomplished the feat four times, said Tuesday after looking over the wet fairways that limit ball roll to a very few feet.

In the field of 162 who will tee off in the big event Thursday, there are only a half dozen long, straight hitters.

Follow professionals—consider Mike Souchak, Sam Snead, Hogan, Dr. Cary Middlecoff, Ed Furgol and Byron Nelson in that class.

If Hogan's prediction holds true, that will limit the men who have possibilities of winning.

"To win this one," said Hogan, "it will take a long, straight hitter off the tee. That's where the championship will be won—off the tee."

Young Al Mengert, playing out of Mamaronck, N. Y., who qualified automatically because he finished high up in last year's competition, amplified Hogan's statement.

"There isn't a possible chance of a scrambler winning this tournament," he said. "Every little mistake costs at least a stroke on this course."

Fog keeps the course wet and limits ball roll.

There are quite a few straight hitters in the field, who may have trouble getting enough distance to have accuracy on their approach shots. These include amateur Harvie Ward, Gene Little and Billy Maxwell.

Snead, with his booming tee shots, has had four rounds of 70-71-68 for an even-par 280.

The consensus of opinion remains that a 284 or 285 will win the coveted crown—But Snead, Hogan, Harvie Ward, Nelson and Furgol have been doing somewhat better than this.

Auto Race Rescheduled. READING, Pa.—UP—The 100-mile Mike Nazuruk Memorial auto race, postponed Sunday because of a wet track, has been rescheduled for Sunday, June 26, it was announced Monday.

CLEVELAND—UP—Carroll Hardy, star football and baseball player at the University of Colorado, Monday was assigned to Reading (Pa.) in the Eastern League by the Cleveland Indians. The 22-year-old outfielder turned down a bonus to sign a minor league contract, the Indians said.

Bums Fatten Up Lead At Home

BROOKLYN—UP—The Brooklyn Dodgers, who open a western road trip Tuesday, really widened their National League lead during their just-concluded 16-game home stand.

The Dodgers won 13 games, lost three. They opened the home stand six games ahead of second-place Chicago, nine ahead of third-place New York.

They closed it 10 1/2 games ahead of Chicago and 14 ahead of New York.

Bobo Goes Three. ASBURY PARK, N. J.—UP—Middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson sparred three rounds Friday with Benny Walker, Bull Halsey and Henry Hooks in preparation for his light heavyweight title bout with champion Archie Moore in the Polo Grounds in New York, June 22.

France Bans Road Racing

PARIS—UP—France banned all automobile road racing Tuesday in swift answer to the Le Mans disaster.

But the toll of that tragedy Saturday continued its climb. Authorities at Le Mans counted the 82nd fatality early Tuesday. Hospitalized still held 73 injured persons, some in critical condition.

Premier Edgar Faure's cabinet, meeting till after midnight to study the disastrous crash of a racing car in the Le Mans "24-hour endurance race," suspended further auto racing until the rules can be amended.

For France, the drastic action amounted almost to an American ban on football. Road racing is a major sport.

Le Mans paid its final respects Tuesday to the dead of the worst accident in racing history. Memorial services were held in the ancient cathedral of Le Mans.

French Minister of Transportation Edouard Corniglion-Molinier, whose ministry authorized the race, told the cabinet Monday night that there was no precedent for halting a race in the event of death.

France came under heavy international criticism for not stopping the weekend race immediately after the disaster.

The minister appealed to amateur cameramen who might have filmed the accident.

There were already at least two film records of the tragedy, one by a French television cameraman and the other by a spectator who immediately turned his film over to police.

Shreveport Buys Wayne McLeland

OKLAHOMA CITY—UP—The Oklahoma City Indians Saturday sold pitcher Wayne McLeland to Shreveport and released infielder Joe Damato.

The sale price of McLeland was not disclosed. McLeland's pitching has improved lately, but he has an anemic 1-7 record with the seventh-place Indians this season. Last year he had a 14-7 record.

Damato, who was playing his fourth season with the Indians, was hitting .230 this year. His release will make room for Bobby Howard, who came here on option from Los Angeles.

The final conquest of polio has not yet been achieved. For many the vaccine came too late and many more will not be vaccinated in time.

All Little League managers, coaches, officers and parents are urged to participate on June 14 and help the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis finish the job.

Pampa Observing National LL Polio Day Today; First Half Races End Tomorrow

Pampa is observing "National held to a 1-1 tie last week by their Little League Polio Day" today.

All collections taken for today's games in the Eastern and Western Little Leagues will be turned over to National Polio fund. If today's games are postponed, National LL Polio Day will be observed tomorrow.

Meanwhile, first half of play in the Pony and Little League will end this week. The regular first half schedule will end tomorrow but several postponed games will likely be made up the latter part of this week.

The postponed games will be made up only if first place in the first half races will be at stake.

The current holders of first place in each of the three leagues can all clinch at least a share of the first half crown by winning their final scheduled games today or tomorrow.

San Angelo Takes Over Longhorn Lead

By UNITED PRESS. San Angelo vaulted over Artesia into first place in the Longhorn League Monday night with a 9 to 3 win over Big Spring while Carlsbad set back Artesia 7 to 6.

The Colts thus took their sixth straight victory and moved a half game ahead of the second place Numexers. Roswell unloaded a late inning rally to beat Hobbs 5 to 3 and Odessa downed Midland 3 to 1 in the other two games Monday night.

A new series begins Tuesday night as Carlsbad moves to Big Spring. Midland goes to Hobbs. San Angelo travels to Roswell and Artesia plays at Odessa.

Orval McElrath went the distance for his second win of the season for San Angelo, setting down the Odesa Coos on eight hits. The loser was Mike Rainey, who gave up seven hits to the Colts, one a 391-foot homer by Jeff Williams with one on in the sixth frame.

Artesia out-hit but couldn't outscore Carlsbad as winning pitcher Bob Weaver survived 14 Numexer hits. The winning blow for the Potashers was Regis Burns' solo homer in the top of the ninth inning, which was the 11th and last hit off a pair of Artesia pitchers.

Second baseman Dub Woodbright got three for five to lead Roswell at the plate as the Rockets scored three runs in the eighth inning to beat Hobbs. Dean Franks won his 13th game of the season for the Rockets on an eight hit performance while Bert Marquez, the second of three Sport hurters, took the loss.

Four straight Odessa hits in the fourth inning provided three runs and the winning margin as Frank Rickens set Midland down on eight hits. The only home run of the game was by Midland's Glen Burns with none on in the sixth. Jerry Tucker went the distance and was tapped for 15 hits in losing.

Parisian Model Hits The Silk Two Ways

JUMP DRESS -- Colette holds equipment she designed.

By ROSEETTE HARGROVE, NEA Staff Correspondent
PARISH — (NEA) — When she was a little girl in Normandy, Colette Duval was considered an irrepressible tomboy. For six months during the war, she was the mascot of a French infantry unit. At 18, she took up gliding; at 20, she made her first parachute jump. Today, at 24, Colette holds the women's world record for delayed drop jumping and the record for jumping with an oxygen inhalator, both accomplished in a free fall from almost 22,000 feet to 1,500 feet, where she pulled the rip cord. Since parachuting is a luxury sport, Colette earns the money to pay for it by modeling Paris creations in a swank Avenue Matig non salon in Paris. Every Sunday

AS A MODEL -- Colette Duval gets ready to go to work in a Paris fashion salon to pay for hobby she loves.

AS A CHUTIST -- Here, Colette gets ready to collapse her parachute on which she rode to a women's record delayed drop.

Colette has no interest in clothes. Nor is she interested in domestic life. "If I married I would have to give up parachuting," she explains. Her parachute, which has seen her through 150 jumps, is her best friend. She has designed and patented a new friend — an apparatus she carries with her on jumps that combines chronometer, altimeter, oxygen tank and spare parachute. A year ago she turned professional and gets from $78 to $100 per jump at meetings all over France. But her big dream is to jump from 32,500 feet so she can break the world record, now held by a Russian. "It's so much freer up there than on the ground," says Colette.

Editor Expected To Testify Today In Land Fraud Trial

CUERO, Tex. — UP — A newspaper editor whose stories helped set off the veterans land scandals in Texas, resulting in wholesale indictments, was expected to testify again Tuesday in the first land trial. R. K. Towery, editor of the Cuero Record, was on the stand five hours Monday as defense attorneys sought a change of venue for Cletus P. Ernster, who is under 53 indictments in connection with the land scandals. Towery won a Pulitzer prize for outstanding journalism in uncovering land sale irregularities in the Cuero area. He defended the stories he wrote as defense attorney Everett Loomney of Austin couldn't get a fair trial in Cuero because of unfavorable newspaper publicity.

Delay in Ruling Expected
Towery's prolonged testimony Monday indicated District Judge Howard P. Green might not rule on the change of venue motion for a day or two. Ernster is a World War II veteran from Minnesota. He settled in Texas, where he served in the fully to quash the indictments against Ernster or to delay his trial. That having failed, they asked for a change of venue. Subpenas were also issued for the back issues of the Yorktown newspaper besides the issues of the Cuero Record. However, Towery was the only person to testify Monday.

More than 300 indictments in eight counties have been returned in connection with fraudulent transactions under the veterans land program. Former state land commissioner Bascom Giles has been indicted in three counties, mostly in connection with alleged bribery and conspiracy to commit felony theft.

Bad Timing
OTTAWA LAKE, Mich. — UP — Mr. and Mrs. Christian J. Schmitt are the parents of girl twins but they could claim only one as an exemption from their 1954 income tax. Catherine Jean was born at 11:30 p. m. last Dec. 31; Candice Jean arrived at 12:58 a. m.

Solon's Mother Visits And Cleans Up His House

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
WASHINGTON — What's new in Washington? William S. Millard, Republican congressman from California, had a visitor from his district. A voter — his mother. The law-giver is a bachelor, and after his mother returned reported in his newsletter back home that "as usual, she (his mother) left my household in far better shape than she found it."

Luke Gallegos got stopped for speeding by a couple of police in nearby Alexandria, Va. Luke wasn't at all sore about it. When he showed up to pay a $10 fine, he made a little speech. "These fellows," said he, "were so polite, I decided to bake them a cake." And so he had. A layer cake with butter cream icing.

Sen. Alben W. Barkley, the former "veep" from Kentucky, apparently is making a bid for the nomination of the best-dressed man in congress. He has a little competition from fellows like Rep. Cliff Hope of Kansas, the former chairman of the House Agriculture committee, who always is pert and proper in his dress and always wears a posey in his lapel. Barkley draws the line on flowers, but he has sports jackets with pants of complementary colors to match. His preference is gray and brown for the jackets with beige hitches to go with the brown coats, and blue pants to go with the gray. Like other smart dressers, the old timer buys a bunch of jackets, and then gets pants that look well with them — doubling his summer wardrobe.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration asked for volunteers among its employees to play guinea pig in a study of how people can be rescued from crashed sea planes. The demonstration will be held June 16 at Thimble Shoals, Va. The test will be safe enough, all the folks will have to do is to "climb out of the above water escapes, or jump off the wings and swim a few feet to inflated rafts. Ninety persons volunteered and 49 were accepted, with a guarantee of transportation, a nice time, a dunk in the water and meals. As one official said, "just goes to show you what some people in the government will go through for a day off."

Rep. Elizabeth Kee, the Democrat from West Virginia, in her newsletter to constituents, is worrying about the $3,000 persons who streak through the White House each day and mess up the premises. "To the horror of all concerned," the congresslady says, "the cleaning crews have been finding wads of chewing gum squashed on the gleaming floors."

The Proof
FALLS CITY, Neb. — UP — Visitors here used to smile to themselves when Bill Copeland would tell them of the dividend checks he received from several large corporations. After all, Copeland was only a restroom attendant in the local hotel. Copeland died recently and left stocks and bonds valued at more than $50,000.

Stop Thief!
SCOTTSBLUFF, Neb. — UP — Police received a good description of a shoplifter, but even if they find him, he can't be prosecuted. The culprit is a large black dog that wandered into a store and took a pair of gloves from a rack. The store manager pursued the thief, but four legs proved better than two.

Lewis Denies Break-Up With Martin

LOCH SHELDRAKE, N. Y. — UP — Film comedian Jerry Lewis Monday denied reports quoting him as saying he was about to "break up" with singer Dean Martin.

Lewis, spending a week's vacation here after attending the premiere of a picture he made with Martin, said he had made no comment whatsoever on his relationship with the singer. Lewis said about movie critics and friends were on hand at the premiere of "Never Too Young" Saturday night, but "apparently realized that I have a cross to bear and did not question me."

He declined to describe what sort of "cross" he was bearing, and refused further comment to questions.
