Ike Arrives In Geneva With US Hope For Peace

President Given Warm Reception At Meet Site

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG

GENEVA, Switzerland, July 16 — UP — President Eisenhower arrived in Geneva Saturday night for next week's top-level Big Four talks, bringing with him "the good will of America, the great hope of America, the desire of the American people of peace."

The U. S. President was the last to arrive of the three Western chiefs of government who will join Russia in a quest for atomic-age peace.

His special plane landed at Cointrin airport at 7:56 p. m. (12:56 p. m. est.) shortly after the arrival of Prime Minister Anthony Eden and Premier Edgar Faure. Mr. Eisenhower is the first U. S. Chief Executive to visit Europe since the Potsdam conference which marked the splitting of East and West. The Soviet conferees are not expected here until early Sunday.

Two U. S. Air Force helicopters hovered over the airport for 45 minutes before the President landed, ready to deal with any suspicious activity or to offer aid in case of a crash in landing.

At least 30 American security agents patrolled the field while the President was there, alert for any sign of trouble. None developed.

Mr. Eisenhower said he was "deeply touched" by the warmth of the welcome he received in this temporary world capital.

"It is barely 11 years ago that I came to Europe with an army and navy, with the single purpose of destroying Nazism," he said. "I came with the formations of war, under the circumstances that were surrounding war."

"This time I come with something more powerful—the good will of America, the desire of the American people for peace."

Mr. Eisenhower said he came to Geneva "to find if it is not possible to lead the world to a more tranquil, better, fuller way of life."

The crowd at the airport listened to the President's speech in absolute silence, then roared its applause. Welcoming ceremonies at the airport, including the President's speech and the inspection of a Swiss honor guard, lasted 20 minutes. Mr. Eisenhower left at 8:16 p. m. (1:16 p. m. est.) in a 13-car motorcade bound for the lakeside villa outside Geneva where he will live during the conference.

Pampa Man Killed In Truck Crash

Henry Clifford Cain, 67, 522 S. Ballard, was killed at 5:50 p. m. Saturday about two miles north of Borger on the Stinnett Highway in a collision between two trucks.

Cain was riding in the cab of Jones Oil Field truck heading into Stinnett at the time of the accident, Donald Bolling, 21, Borger, was driving the truck and was reported in serious condition with a broken ankle, internal injuries, and multiple lacerations. Bolling was admitted to the North Plains Hospital.

A heavily-loaded lumber truck was in front of the oil field truck when Bolling collided with the rear. Both trucks were going up a steep grade, but the cause of the accident was unknown.

Cain is survived by his wife, Missie; three sons, Red of Sunray, and H. B. and H. C. of Pampa; four daughters, Mrs. Merle King and Mrs. Cecil Moore, both of Pampa; Mrs. T. B. Stone of Canyon, and Mrs. Glen Deemer of Belton, N.M.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Texas Democrats Set Special Meet

AUSTIN, July 16 — UP — Organizational plans for next year's party conventions will be drawn at a special meeting of the state Democratic executive committee on July 25, in Austin.

The question of what to do about the state's Democratic national committeeman probably also will be discussed. Committee Chairman George W. Sandlin said.

However, he added that the real purpose of the meeting is to set up area meetings which will start in the state in September. The

Mindszenty Released By Communists

VIENNA, Austria, July 16 — UP — Communist Hungary announced Saturday it has released Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty after nearly seven years of imprisonment.

Budapest Radio said the Hungarian government agreed to a "suspension" of the Hungarian prime minister's life sentence on charges of treason "because of his bad health condition and his age."

"His place of residence is a church building selected by the Hungarian bishops," the broadcast said.

The announcement indicated the Communists did not plan to let the 63-year-old archbishop who became a martyr of the Roman Catholic church resume his religious activities.

Presumably he would be carefully confined to a certain locality in much the same manner as Yugoslavia paroled Aloysius-Cardinal Stepinac in his native village.

Became Symbol
Mindszenty was the first prince of the church to face a civil court in modern times. His arrest and conviction after a five-day show trial before a people's court made him Catholicism's greatest living symbol of Communist persecution.

Mindszenty, Roman Catholic primate of Hungary, was arrested by the Communist government in Budapest Dec. 27, 1948, on charges of treason, espionage and black market dealings.

He was convicted and sentenced to life in prison on Feb. 8, 1949. All persons who took part in the cardinal's prosecution were excommunicated by Pope Pius XII.

Health Deteriorates
Since his imprisonment the health of the 63-year-old archbishop was reported deteriorating rapidly. He was believed to have suffered a serious illness in 1950.

Radio Budapest quoted a communique of the ministry of justice saying Mindszenty's sentence was "suspended" following a petition submitted by the Hungarian bishops because of his bad health condition and his age.

There have been reports that he has been suffering from heart trouble for a long time.

The communique said Mindszenty's "place of residence is a church building selected by the Hungarian bishops."

It did not say where the building is located.

Peron Resigns Party Job

Tension Grips Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, July 16 — UP — This city's slimmest papers in years gave major play Saturday to President Juan D. Peron's "swan song" speech and preliminary estimates of its effect on Argentina.

Peron announced Friday he is resigning as head of his powerful Peronist party and restoring constitutional freedom to the country, ending the restrictions imposed of liberty during his 12-year "revolution."

The president's voice was barely recognizable in a recording of his speech broadcast to the nation at 8:30 p. m. Friday. His voice broke several times during the speech, and there were several long, painful pauses.

Regime Threatened
He announced his decision to become the non-partisan "president of all Argentines" a month to the day after an abortive revolt by navy units created a major threat to his regime.

Travelers from Argentina reaching Montevideo said the atmosphere in Buenos Aires is still tense despite the failure of the revolt. They said the motorized regiment attached to the defense ministry has been re-inforced and issued extra ammunition.

Every day, the travelers said, crowds gather in front of the Navy Club in downtown Buenos Aires to cheer officers entering and leaving. Similar crowds outside the nearby Army Club cheer and shout insults. The partially-completed monument to Peron's late wife Eva in the center of the city has been camouflaged with tree trunks and an anti-aircraft battery has been emplaced nearby.

Average Six Pages
Saturday's newspapers averaged only six pages, compared to the eight usual on Saturdays in recent years. They were devoted almost entirely to reports and speculation on Peron's decision.

The big independent newspaper La Nacion received the president's speech with reserve, pointing out that opposition parties are waiting to see whether there will be "full and free play for democratic activities" in the new situation.

The Peronist organ Democracia said Peron's declaration was a plea for "peace," and the union organ La Prensa said the President's stand will be "loyally and fraternally supported" by government-sponsored labor groups.

The defense sharply accused Ruffin of making a deal for immunity, as well as a deal with Attorney General John Ben Shepherd to "smear" Giles and Sheffield in an effort to recover money posted with the Veterans Land Board in a separate transaction. This was denied.

Brady Attorney Sam McCollum testified that he listened in on an extension to a telephone conversation between Giles and Sheffield and heard Giles say he would take $15,000 as his "part" of the proceeds from a South Texas veterans land deal in Dimmitt county.

The defense moved for a mistrial on the ground that a portion of McCollum's testimony which was stricken from the record was "inflammatory" to the jury. The motion was overruled by Judge Charles O. Betts.

Testimony has been presented that veterans were paid $100 to sign blank application forms for purchase of veterans land. One veteran, Tom J. Regan, formerly of Brady and now living in Temple, said he received $100 for signing papers which turned out to be documents for purchase of veterans land.

Regan said he would not have signed the papers if he had known they involved purchase of land. Selection of a jury took three and one-half days, and seven days of testimony have been presented. The prosecution is led by Travis county District Attorney Les Procter, and leading defense counsel are C. C. Small Sr. and C. C. Small Jr.

Board Plans Two School Buildings

The Pampa school board voted to purchase 15 acres for an additional school site and to map out future plans for two proposed school buildings at a called meeting Saturday at 3 p. m. in Superintendent Knox Kinard's office.

The board will contact Jay W. Thompson, manager of Hughes Development Co., with intent to purchase 15 net acres, subject to title by September 1, with the understanding that the schools will pay one-half of the paving cost for adjoining streets.

B. R. Cantrell was designated to meet with the board at their July 29 meeting to work out preliminary plans for the school buildings, an elementary and junior high school. They will be subject to a future bond election to be called by the board of education after the circulation of petitions.

If the site is purchased, it will be the second school plot north of 23rd St. for the proposed buildings. Which building will go on which site has not been determined, but the board expressed a desire to place the elementary school so that students would not cross the Perryton Highway unnecessarily, Aubrey Steele stated. "This elementary school we're going to build isn't building for the future, it's building for the present."

Student health and accident insurance was rejected by the board, after consideration of several proposals.

A unanimous decision was made to operate the Pampa Independent School District transportation directly. An approval of bills and invoices was made.

CHICAGO — UP — The Chicago Transit Authority claims the world record for the largest single charter bus service. It says 800 buses were chartered Sept. 8, 1954, to carry approximately 38,400 passengers to the Marian Year Observance at Soldier Field.

80 Convicts Riot, Seize Three Guards

RAWLINS, Wyo., July 16 — UP — Eighty convicts rioted at the Wyoming State Prison Saturday when a convict knifed a captain of guards. They seized a cell block and took three guards hostage.

The riot was confined to one new cell block, and the rebellion was not expected to spread. Prison officials used tear gas to settle the convicts down when they seemed ready to tear up the place.

The hostage guards would not be harmed, the convicts promised. If prison officials talked over a list of grievances and did not try to overpower the rioters.

Warden Dean Miller rushed here from Encampment, Wyo., when the riot broke out. He still was conferring with the disgruntled prisoners at last report.

Got Into Scuffle
Miller said the riot was triggered when a convict got into a scuffle with Cell Capt. Ben Reeves. Reeves' hand was slashed with a knife during the fight.

Reeves got clear of the cell block in time. But guards Theodore Charter, George Earl Hartshorn and Thomas Kendall fell into the hands of the insurgent convicts.

Cabot Names New 'Chief' For Carbon

Hugh Burdette, General Manager for Cabot in the Southwest, has announced the election of William L. Loving as vice president of Cabot Carbon Company in charge of southwestern carbon black operations. At the same time C. L. Wooley, general carbon black production superintendent, announced the return to Pampa of N. D. Steele from Lafayette, La., where he has been in charge of Cabot's Louisiana operations. Steele will become Wooley's assistant.

Loving came to Cabot in the Panhandle in 1930, starting as a member of the southwestern research and development group. As a result of a series of promotions, he has been for the last year and half serving as executive assistant to Burdette on carbon black matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Loving are expected to return to Pampa this weekend from a trip to Europe. Loving has been attending a World Petroleum Symposium in Italy and a series of conferences with members of the Cabot organization in England and France.

Giles' Theft Trial Enters Third Week

By LLOYD LARRABEE

AUSTIN, July 16 — UP — The lengthy theft trial of former Land Commissioner B. A. Giles moves into its third week Monday.

Ten state witnesses have taken the stand so far, out of more than 50 who were subpoenaed before the trial opened on July 5. Indications were that at least a week more probably will be consumed in presentation of state witnesses.

Giles, 54, who resigned as land commissioner last Jan. 1 after serving 16 years, is on trial on a charge that he stole $6,800 in state money in connection with a veterans land transaction involving the Rosenow ranch in Kinney county.

The trial so far has been highlighted by testimony of two prosecution witnesses that they heard Giles was to receive proceeds of veterans land deals for getting cleared.

The defense immediately countered with a charge that one of the witnesses, himself, under indictment, had made a "deal" to gain immunity from prosecution.

L. V. Ruffin, a former Brady land dealer now living at Portland, near Corpus Christi, testified B. R. Sheffield, a Brady land promoter, told him that "he (Sheffield) was supposed to pay Mr. Giles $75,000 to get this deal through." He said it was the Kinney county transaction.

The defense sharply accused Ruffin of making a deal for immunity, as well as a deal with Attorney General John Ben Shepherd to "smear" Giles and Sheffield in an effort to recover money posted with the Veterans Land Board in a separate transaction. This was denied.

Brady Attorney Sam McCollum testified that he listened in on an extension to a telephone conversation between Giles and Sheffield and heard Giles say he would take $15,000 as his "part" of the proceeds from a South Texas veterans land deal in Dimmitt county.

Pampa Air Service Man Is Really High On Flying

By RONALD WATERS
Pampa News Staff Writer

He rises through the air with the greatest of ease, wearing a smiling and striving to please... that's Wesley Lewis, pilot and instructor of Lewis Aircraft Service. Friendly, patient, and congenial, Wesley has been flying since he was 18 years old. It started out as a hobby, but it has become more than that, it is his way of life and means of livelihood.

At present Wesley is operating a B-18 "converted" bomber spraying ranchland for grasshopper control. The plane has two spray booms under each wing with several nozzles on each which is connected with a 300 gallon capacity boost pump. The bomber is a "stripped-down" model of the type used in World War II. The 2,000 horsepower engine gives the large plane plenty of power.

Spraying Bomber

Lewis is operating the bomber for Marshall Anderson of Planes Aero Service in Amarillo. He also has tentative plans to move into Wyoming for forest spraying this summer. Recently he has been spraying in Lea County, N.M., and in Roberts County.

Wesley uses one twin-engine Cessna for cargo hauling, which includes carrying the "Daily Oklahoman" out of Oklahoma City which he helps to distribute to Elk City, Okla., Borger, Amarillo, and Pampa. His wife takes the papers into Borger on Saturdays. A Cessna 195 is used for executive charter work, or flying business men and others to their destination. A Piper cub is used for training pilots and photographing.

Pampa Pilots

A commercial pilot examiner, he passes on pilot licenses and does aircraft inspection. Wesley has taught numerous Pampa pilots how to fly including: Johnny Parker (at present, Mrs. Parker), Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Christy, Ted Gilka, Leo Mishner, and Lawrence Flaherty. At present he has about six active students.

Major overhaul on airplanes and engines take up much of Wesley's time. He rebuilds wrecked planes and run-out engines and reassembles the parts. Sometimes he will tear an engine down piece-by-piece and run a magnaflox test to inspect for internal cracks that might cause accidents. This is similar to an X-ray process.

India Transport

In 1943 he joined the Air Force, which was a "natural" for Wesley, already a competent flyer. For while he was stationed in Long Beach, Calif. on domestic ferry work. In 1944 Lewis saw duty in North Africa, India and China.

After receiving his discharge in 1946, he sold out and established the aircraft service in 1951. Wesley has lived in the Pampa vicinity since 1930. Born at Canadian, he graduated in 1929, and took a course in flying at the Amarillo airport while working there. Later he returned to Pampa and married La Vera Wilson. They now have three children — Glena, 13, Monty, 6, and Gene in the U.S. Navy.

When commenting on flying, Wesley is enthusiastic to declare, "I think it's the only thing. For one thing, you take a chance every time you run down the highway." He elaborated with, "For recreation its excellent sport and for guys who want a speedy way to travel its the ideal way."

MAKING A GO OF LIFE

By ROY L. SMITH
Read Matthew 9:10-13

Paralysis of the will is a spiritual disease. Many people live in wretchedness because of their inability to summon their highest powers to the performance of a great task. They see the thing of which they are capable, but they are never able to accomplish it because their will is insufficient. They desire the good but they are unable to accomplish it because they cannot summon all the powers of their personality to achieve it. Just when they are most desirous of measuring up to a great challenge they find their will is atrophied and is no longer responsive to their demands.

Unlike the prodigal who said, "I will arise" (Luke 15:18), they are unable to act on their good impulses. The very fact that the young man was able to take himself in hand indicates that the far country had not destroyed the core of character upon which he had to depend for the strength to get back to his father's house.

It is highly probable that there were a considerable number of other young men out there who accompanied with the swine, and who never did get back home. The far country has that effect on a great many people.

There comes a time in every moral crisis when salvation depends upon our ability to take action on our own behalf. Those who have so far sinned against their own souls that they are unable to compel themselves to act are the truly lost. They are not, however, the product of forces which have played upon them from without, but of the disintegrating forces that have warred upon them from within. Our greatest victories and our greatest defeats are always those we experience within our own souls. They are our private responsibility.

I have prayed many times expecting that thou wouldst do for me what I was unwilling or afraid to do for myself. Forgive me, O God, for expecting such mercies, for I did not deserve them if I was unwilling to make my own effort in their behalf. Amen.

There may be something in your life at this moment which you should make right. Will you take positive action within an hour to rid yourself of that handicap that peace may be restored? Why pray if you are unwilling to act? What can prayer do in such a case?

A New Udall Building From Tornado Ruins

UDALL, Kan., July 16—UP—A new Udall, in the new format of modern suburban America, was rising today from the rubble where about 80 persons died in a spring tornado two months ago. Twenty new houses stood at the townsite, which boasted nearly 200 less than 60 days ago, and 25 others were under contract. Two service stations and a bank were in full operation. A grocery, hardware store-lumber yard combination, and blacksmith shop were back in business, or ready to open their doors. The new houses, and those still in the planning stage, were one-story structures, in the modern "ranch house" manner. The storm destroyed dwellings they replaced were mostly two-story houses, built at the turn of the century. Modern business buildings were going up on sites where ancient store buildings had stood. And impressive edifices were planned to replace the humble churches that were demolished. Carpenters and bricklayers, concrete workers and plumbers, labored in 100-degree heat to speed Udall's recovery. For the first time elm and cotton wood trees left standing but denuded by the storm provided shade for workers. Like the town, the trees were "coming back"—in a spring-time shade of green strangely out of season. Perhaps the busiest man in this community of feverish activity was T. F. Hildebrand, president of Udall's only bank. He was, in fact, so busy helping arrange housing aid for others that he had had no time to make provisions for replacing his own house. Hildebrand said it was easier to build in Udall now than it was before the tragedy, when federal loans were not available. New building codes and approval of all utilities made federal financing possible.

Houston Mayor Holds Office By Court Rule

HOUSTON, July 16—UP—An uneasy peace reigned at City Hall Saturday with Mayor Roy Hofheinz, whom the city council is trying to oust, still in the saddle by virtue of a court order, and his opponents busy planning a legal battle to make the ouster stick. But breathing came easier to thousands of city employees who faced a payless payday next Wednesday as a result of the city council's suspending the mayor for 30 days in an effort to impeach him. Hofheinz said Saturday the city paychecks will be signed. Hofheinz, in a running feud with the eight-man city council which objected to his alleged "high-handed" methods of running the city, refused to be ousted in a stormy special council session Friday and went to court when Mayor Pro Tem Matt Wilson proclaimed himself "acting mayor."

Atomic Lab Opened For Newsmen

By ROBERT BENNYHOFF LOS ALAMOS, N.M., July 16—UP—Newsmen were permitted Saturday their first glimpse of the scientific wizardry of the Los Alamos scientific laboratory that produced the dread atomic and hydrogen bombs and inaugurated the atomic era. Their visit marked the 10th anniversary of mankind's first nuclear explosion. It was on July 16, 1945 that the first atomic bomb, developed here and long since made obsolete, was detonated in the southern New Mexico desert near Alamogordo. Since that fateful day, the United States has set off more than 60 atomic or hydrogen explosions, all but two of which were scientific tests. Those two were A-bombs which tumbled down on Japan and ended the Pacific war.

Two Men Fined For Bad Checks

Two men were tried in County Court Friday for swindling with worthless checks. J. D. Pinkston, Jr., 421 S. Russell, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 30 days in jail. The check was filed by Elmer's Super Market dated July 7 for $10. H. W. Tenslon, 722 W. Kingsmill, pleaded guilty to a check filed by Neef Service Station dated June 21, for $10. He was fined $1 and costs and made restitution.

Injunction Issued District Judge Spurgeon Bell issued a temporary injunction to keep Hofheinz in the mayor's chair, at least temporarily, after Hofheinz claimed Wilson could not sign city pay checks because he wasn't the legal mayor. Hofheinz claimed the council acted "illegally" in an "abortive" attempt to "take over the city government by revolution." He said city finances would be placed in a "chaotic" condition if he were suspended. Judge Bell, admitting his concern for the employees' salary problem, granted the restraining order and set a hearing for 10 a.m. Thursday, leaving Hofheinz mayor, at least till then. Set for Aug. 4 If a permanent injunction is denied, then Hofheinz will be suspended by the council action for 30 days. A hearing on the impeachment charges of "misconduct, inability and willful neglect" has been set for Aug. 4. Stymied temporarily by the court action, the eight city councilmen headed by W. Gail Reeves, an unsuccessful candidate for mayor twice, vowed to continue the fight "even if we have to do it all over again."

Pursleys Return From Mexico Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Pursley, 1801 Christine, recently returned from a tour of Mexico which they won as a result of number of cars sold. They were part of a party of 270 persons made up of dealers, factory representatives and workers. The eight-day tour began when the Pursleys flew to Mexico City from Dallas. There they visited old castles, the boating-gardens close by, the pyramids, the Shrine of Guadalupe, and took extensive tours of the University of Mexico and Mexico City. They also took in the bullfights and studied the architectural style of homes built in lava craters. The tour covered Cuernavaca, Taxaco, and Acapulco. At the resort of Acapulco, the Pursleys' trip was highlighted by watching high divers dive from the cliffs. At Taxaco they took a tour through the silver factory. Coming back on buses from Acapulco, the highway rose to 13,000 ft. at one point along the Pan-American highway. Mr. and Mrs. Pursley returned Friday from the tour.

Water Safety Program Entering Final Week

By JOEL COMBS
Pampa News Staff Writer

The Pampa Red Cross chapter's Water Safety Program, highly praised by Red Cross St. Louis area field representative James Patterson, goes into its last week tomorrow with high hopes of a large percentage of swimmers completing the course.

There have been 600 who have received training since the program began, five weeks ago.

The local program, held in connection with the summer recreation program, is one of many like it all over the nation.

The Red Cross has devised and used successfully for several years a unique system of water safety training. Outstanding swimmers are invited to participate in a training program designed to teach them how to teach swimming; they in turn work with the poorer or non-swimmers, who in many instances improve so that they eventually become instructors.

The Pampa swimmer program deals with three classifications of swimmers . . . beginners, intermediates and Junior and Senior life savers. The three classifications are taught with an assembly line instruction. The assembly line method of teaching swimming is patterned after the assembly line used in industry. The line is characterized by a series of "stations" where parts of a complete skill are taught by instructors or assistants especially trained for the work.

Students are assigned to a station and remain there for a certain period of time during which they receive information and practice the skill being taught at that station. After the period is over the students move on to the next station if they have learned the one they were practicing when the period was over. This continues until the end of the period, at which time the names of the students at the various stations are taken and instructions given to report to that station the next time they return to class.

The major skills usually taught in the beginner level include breath control, floating or resting in a floating position, the human stroke, back stroke, changing direction, turning over, jumping, and diving.

The local program, presided over by Mrs. Gene Fathree, Red Cross water safety committee chairman, is based on a 10-station breakdown. The number of stations can be modified to meet existing conditions. The skills to be taught, in the order they come in the assembly line are: (1) physical and mental adjustment to water, (2) floating and back glide, (3) sculling and flutter kick, (4) human stroke and flutter, (5) combined human stroke and turning over and changing directions, (6) floating or resting in a floating position and turning over, (7) human stroke, jumping and changing direction, (8) diving, (9) first combined test, (10) second combined test.

The Pampa water safety program has been extremely successful. One housewife learned to swim in one day!

That was Mrs. Joe Mihalaki of 738 N. Christy. She learned to back float, front float and swim in one 40 minute lesson. Mrs. Frances Holess, one of the four Pampa Red Cross water safety instructors for the project, attributed a natural ability and cooperation as the principal reasons for Mrs. Mihalaki's early success.

The other instructors, cited by Red Cross executive Secretary Libby Shotwell as "just wonderful," are John Darby, Mrs. Collette Dow and Marietta Mitchell.

Other instructors, whose authorization did not come from the Pampa Red Cross chapter, are Mrs. Georgia Patton, Mrs. Billie Buffington, and Betty Meador.

Approximately 170 of the 600 participating in the program were classified as intermediates and 40 swimmers were enrolled in the Junior and Senior life saving classes. The rest were beginners except for a special class for housewives, of which there were 187.

The town was divided into two separate groups for the program with the Santa Fe Railroad tracks the dividing line. Each group used the municipal swimming pool from 9 to 11 o'clock in the mornings on alternate days. On days not used in water safety training the groups participated in the summer recreation program.

Mrs. Shotwell, who said that illness and vacations were the principal reasons for absences also reported that the daily average attendance was 350 to 400 participants. She also reported that this week, the last, would be used for taking tests and smoothing out the rough spots in the efforts of some individuals.

Water safety chairman, Mrs. Fathree, commended several aides for their work as assistants in the six-week project. They were: Sally Chandler, Kay Sprinkle, Patsy Falkenstein, Sydna Morris, Carol Carnes, Jackie Hoyler, Judy Neselage, Ann Boosa, Dot Gantz, Ted Swindle, Buster Baird, Phillip McCarley, John Warner, Gary Dockery, Robert Collett, Harold Conroy, Dale Lake, Dale Largent, Lloyd Waters, Jerry Hunter, Marjorie Hall, Tommy Strawn, Sylvia Gryder, and Shirley Epps.

Twitty Well May Connect To Magic City

SHAMROCK—(Special)—A possible connecting link between the Twitty and Magic City oil and gas fields is being watched closely this week. Commonly known as the James F. Smith well, four miles west and one mile north of Twitty, it was bottomed at 2,245 feet and before being sandfracted Tuesday was producing about 12 barrels of oil.

Official name and location of the well is: James F. Smith-Tindall No. 1, 2,310 feet from the east line and 330 feet from the south line of section 19, block A, H&GN Survey. This is one of two wells now being cleaned out after sandfracting last week. The other is the Vaughn & Wright Tindall et al No. 3, 1,650 feet from the east line and 1,850 feet from the north line of section 5, block A-8, a mile west of Twitty. Pay zone was struck at 2,197 feet and well was bottomed at 2,244 feet. Some free oil was emerging from the dolomite and gray wash prior to sandfracting.

A deep test for Wheeler County is the Sunray Mid-Continent Oil Company No. 1 Tom Britt, 13 miles east and seven miles north of Wheeler. Official location is 660 feet from the south and east lines of section 3, block 1, B & B Survey. Proposed depth is 6,500 feet. E. C. and R. C. Sidwell well on Frank Knoll was drilled to 2,500 feet and is being plugged back to where gas production in the amount of some 300,000 cubic feet was discovered.

The well, located 10 miles southeast of Shamrock, is the E. C. and R. C. Sidwell-Frank Knoll "B" No. 1 - 300 feet from the north line and 990 feet from the west line of section 62, block 13, Collinsworth County, H & GN Survey.

More Tax for Roads Sought

WASHINGTON—UP—The House Public Works committee voted tentatively Thursday to levy $11.8 million in new taxes over the next 15 years to help finance its pay-as-you-build highway program. The bulk of the new revenue would be raised by increasing federal gasoline taxes from two to three cents a gallon.

The Republic of the Philippines was proclaimed on July 4, 1946.

Mrs. Shotwell, who said that illness and vacations were the principal reasons for absences also reported that the daily average attendance was 350 to 400 participants. She also reported that this week, the last, would be used for taking tests and smoothing out the rough spots in the efforts of some individuals.

The Good And Bad Of Week's News

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Foreign Analyst

The week's good and bad news on the international balance sheet:

GOOD NEWS
1. American, British and French leaders seemed increasingly nonplussed that the Big Four "summit" in Geneva, Switzerland, might lead to a reduction of world tensions. Optimism was tempered by caution, pending actual negotiations with the Russian. But Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, arriving in Paris on his way to Geneva, summed it up when he said: "Great hopes are in the air."

Moscow announced the Kremlin will send an unusually strong delegation, led by Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin. It was finally disclosed that Communist party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev will be a member, thus increasing the authority of the delegation. Soviet Defense Minister Georgi K. Zhukov, wartime friend of President Eisenhower, also will be a member.

2. Antonio Segni, new premier of Italy, said in his first speech in parliament that he will continue close co-operation with other members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. It was predicted that Segni would have no trouble in getting a vote of confidence in the Chamber of Deputies, probably Monday. The Chamber's reception of Segni, when he outlined his legislative program, was lukewarm.

3. The armistice situation in however, He may run into trouble soon.

3. The threat of serious delay in West German armament seemed ended. Chancellor Konrad Adenauer accepted demands that the armed forces be put under the control of parliament instead of his own government. The Bundestag — the lower house of parliament — prepared to rush through the first armament bill, to raise 6,000 volunteers.

BAD NEWS
1. Tricky Ho Chi Minh, president of the Communist state of Northern Viet Nam in Indo-China, arrived in Moscow after visiting Chinese Red leaders in Peiping. There seemed every reason to believe that Ho was plotting trouble for the free states of Indo-China. His agents are increasingly active in Southern Viet Nam and Communist guerrillas are fighting government troops in Laos.

2. Indonesia was threatened by the biggest crisis since it attained its freedom from the Netherlands in 1949. There has long been chronic revolt in Sumatra, West Java and the Celebes. Now the army refuses to accept a government-appointed chief of staff. The latest developments were that Defense Minister Iwa Kusumasumantri resigned and that the greater Indonesian Moslem party pulled its two members out of the cabinet.

3. The armistice situation in Korea continued to deteriorate. The neutral nations supervisory commission inspect North Korean territory. It is now proposed that two years ago by building up their armed forces. They refuse to let the number of inspection teams be reduced.

Fast-Growing Albuquerque Still Keeps Its Old Charm

By RONALD WATERS
Pampa News Staff Writer

Albuquerque was founded in 1706 as a Spanish villa on the banks of the Rio Grande. It was a way-station on the old Chihuahua trail, the life-line between Santa Fe, provincial capital, and Mexico City.

In March 1705, when Don Francisco Chervo y Valdes assumed the office of Governor of New Mexico at interim, he found the province in a very bad state. The Apaches and Navajos were constantly raiding the settlers and the friendly pueblos. The Moquis still refused to receive the missionaries, and the soldiers stood in great need of clothing and supplies.

In 1706 Governor Chervo informed the Duke of Albuquerque that he had founded the villa and had named it in his honor. The population at that time consisted of 30 families, whom he had moved to the new site. The Governor was taken to task by the Viceroy for founding the village without authority and he was ordered to change the name to San Felipe de Albuquerque, instead of San Francisco, in honor of the king, Felipe V, of Spain. (According to Twitchell's "Leading Facts of New Mexico History.")

The present city grew up around the Santa Fe Railroad station, about two miles east of the old villa. The new town was laid out when the rails reached this point on their way to the Pacific coast.

Old Albuquerque

Old Albuquerque remains a fascinating island of Spanish colonial architecture, time-honored folkways, art and handicraft shops, and restaurants specializing in Spanish dishes. The old town with its ancient adobe buildings skirts a traditional plaza, and facing the plaza is the famous old San Felipe de Neri Church in use since 1706.

Scores of artists and writers maintain residence in Old Albuquerque, giving the area a Greenwich Village atmosphere. The Summer Playhouse, San Felipe Players and Old Town Players conduct a theatre throughout the year, offering interesting traditional and modern plays in a historic setting.

Points Of Interest

Points of interest, besides the old town, attract thousands of tourists into the area. Some stay permanently and others pass through on Highway 66. But nearly all stay awhile to set some of the sights, or ski in the sun, or to shop in the fascinating curio shops.

Three museums offer exhibitions of historical and artistic interest. They are the Modern Art Museum (3800 Rio Grande Blvd. N.W.), the Old Albuquerque Museum (2025 Central N.W. in the San Felipe Hotel, the oldest existing hotel building in the country), and the Fred Harvey Museum (Alvarado Hotel, 1st and Central, S.W.).

The Rio Grande Park and Zoo offers an unusual variety of Western life as well as rare animals from remote parts of the world.

To the American reading public, Ernie Pyle became the country's best loved and most famous war correspondent. He lived in Albuquerque and enjoyed its healthful climate. Following his death and the death of his wife, their home was given to the city for a memorial library. Many of his belongings are still in the house.

The University of New Mexico, founded in 1889, has eight colleges, 57 permanent buildings, and a 440-acre campus. The buildings are designed in authentic Spanish-Pueblo style, and the campus is located on a high mesa overlooking the city. A cosmopolitan atmosphere prevails, as a dozen or more foreign countries are represented and about one-third of its students come from other states.

Commercial Center

Albuquerque gained fame as a health center, but its principal business has always been the distribution of goods and services. Numerous manufacturing plants produce foods, building products, novelties and curios, mining equipment, pianos, and industrial equipment. It is also a wool-marketing and cattle auctioning center.

Growth was slow until 1946, after which it climbed rapidly from a population of 50,000 to its present estimate of 160,000, which made Albuquerque the fastest growing metropolitan city in the U.S.

Main impetus behind recent expansion has been the Atomic Energy Commission's key weapons projects at Sandia Base and Kirtland A.F. Base. Sandia Laboratory is concerned with the non-nuclear "hardware" of atomic weapons, and the base is the site of the Armed Forces Special Weapons Project. More than 21,000 civilian and military personnel are employed directly for, or in connection with, the atomic energy program activities of Albuquerque.

Ten newspapers keep the area residents well informed, although five of these are weekly. Eight magazines are published within the city, and two of these are by the University of New Mexico. Six radio stations and three TV stations are located in Albuquerque.

Side-Trips

Interesting side-trips in the region offer recreation, entertainment, and education. La Madera, 23 miles northeast, has miles of cleared ski trails, a 4,200 ft. lift, a professional ski school, and good accommodations. It is one of the most popular skiing areas in the southwest, situated in the Cibola National Forest.

The sky city of Acoma, a pueblo built by Indians in prehistoric times, lies 65 miles west off of Highway 66. This rocky mesa lifts high above the plains, topped by what is possibly the strangest Indian Pueblo in the country and an old mission church.

Other side-trips of interest are the ruins of Pueblo Bonito in Chaco Canyon National Monument; Jemez state monument (a fishing and resort area); Coronado State Monument contains the ruins of Kuauaa, where Coronado camped (located close to Bernalillo); the Sandia mountains and rim drive; the mission church at Isleta Indian Pueblo; and the Laguna Indian Reservation (west on Highway 66).

This is the last of a series of articles on New Mexico vacation spots, next week we move into colorful Colorado. It is with some regret that we leave "The Land of Enchantment", the host of three civilizations—Indian, Spanish, and American. Remember, though, on the back of the welcome sign into the sunny state are three words: Hasta ja vista!

WT C of C Urges Drouth Research

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. —UP—
The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has asked Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson to intensify research leading to answers to the problems of recurring drouth.

"(We have) felt that a better understanding of the underlying problems would permit us to devise and initiate agriculture programs so that the detrimental effects of climate can be cushioned if not eliminated," the chairman of the chamber's agriculture and livestock committee said in a letter to Benson.

The chairman, J. C. Porter, said he has been informed the letter has been forwarded to the headquarters of the 10-state Great Plains agricultural council at Lincoln, Neb.

Porter said there were five general situations which need clarification through study and research if the people of West Texas are to be able to devise programs to soften the effects of recurring drouth.

1. The economic aspects of drouth on farming and ranching and small business that is dependent upon agriculture.

2. Some information on livestock and feed balances.

3. Stabilizing and maintaining the productive capacity of farm and ranch land with particular study being made on the economics of converting some of the wind-blown cultivated land back to permanent cover.

4. Systems of farming that will include rotation of legumes and grasses adapted to this area that will insure a permanent agriculture.

5. Conservation and efficient use of water resources.

No Injuries In Crash Landing

WASHINGTON —UP—Rep. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.) and 54 other passengers and crew members escaped injury early Thursday when a New York to Houston Eastern Airlines Constellation crash-landed at National airport.

The passenger were evacuated from a rear emergency door when the four-engine plane skidded for a few hundred feet and tilted on its wing while landing.

Authorities said the right wheel of the plane gave way.

Firemen's School Opens

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. —UP—
The 26th annual firemen's training school opened Monday at Texas A&M with 927 firemen and fire marshals on hand. Col. H. R. Brayton, director of the school for Texas Engineering Extension Service, has a staff of 140 instructors and expects final enrollment to exceed 1,200 men.

Blind Man Still Wants Guard Job

FORT WORTH —UP— A blind man who advertised Wednesday in the Fort Worth Press for a job as night watchman had no takers Thursday but he still was hopeful and confident of being able to handle such an assignment.

Herman Douglas, 47, who once was a Wood county deputy sheriff, declares his seeing-eye dog, Pizz, would give him an advantage most sighted watchmen don't have.

With Pizz, his constant companion, Douglas sells pencils at a downtown street corner.

Douglas lost the sight of his right eye after a piece of steel struck it while he was working in a shipyard in 1943, he said, and after that the other eye just went bad too.

Only about one-third of Alaska lies north of the Arctic Circle.

ADVENTURE DRAMA

Clark Gable and Susan Hayward rendezvous to find a man lost behind the Bamboo Curtain, in the action-packed drama, "Soldier of Fortune," now showing at the LaNora Theatre.

Gable's Poor Matrimonial Record Hasn't Hurt Career

EDITOR'S Note—The second of his clean, healthy, "he-manliness" and his friendly, honest manner.

By ALINE MOSBY HOLLYWOOD — UP — Clark Gable holds the curious position of having one of the saddest matrimonial records in Hollywood — yet being seldom criticized for it. He also is one of the best-loved movie stars around the world although for 15 years he has appeared in a string of mediocre movies. Experts have figured that Gable's appeal lasts — come divorce courts or bad films — because of Those attributes brought him a stardom which has never been equalled. They also brought him a string of unhappy loves. Gable was born in Cadiz, Ohio, Feb. 1, 1901, the son of a farm girl and an oil field worker. At 15 he was laboring in a rubber factory when he saw his first play. The boy with the outsized ears and wide grin became stage struck. He took odd jobs in theaters while working as a lumberjack and salesman. At one little theater he met director Josephine Dillon, several years older. She taught him acting and the lessons ended in marriage. Gable was an unsuccessful actor in bit parts on the stage and in movies for six years. His acting coach divorced him in 1930. Gable soon won an MGM contract and began to be noticed. A year later he again married an older woman, Mrs. Rhea Langham, 11 years his senior. "He was very insecure at that time," a close friend says. "He had a mother complex because his mother died when he was a year old. So he was attracted to older women."

After four years the couple separated. In 1939, Gable — by then a star — married Carole Lombard. At last he appeared mated with some one closer to his age, interests and personality. Gable won an Oscar for "It Happened One Night" in 1934. He scored tremendous successes in "Mutiny on the Bounty" and "Gone With the Wind." He appeared with Jean Harlow, Greta Garbo and other sirens of the screen. He was among the first 10 money makers at the box office for 10 years before the war. But he had rough sledding at home. Carole was killed in a plane crash near Las Vegas in 1942. Gable quit movies for the Army. He returned to pictures in 1945 but never equalled his past glory. In 1949 he ended his solitude by marrying Lady Sylvia Ashley. One of his ex-girl friends said then, "hope he finds happiness — he's been a lost guy for a long time." But the elegant, sophisticated Sylvia and outdoorsy Gable were no match. One day he moved her clothes out of the house and changed the locks on the doors. After more than a year of legal fights over his fortune, she divorced him in April of 1952. Gable escorted Grace Kelly, model Suzanne Godolle and other beauties. He resumed dating old-time friend Virginia Grey, who once claimed she's the only girl who jilted Gable. Finally he renewed a friendship with Kay Williams Spreckels. (Tomorrow—What is the woman like who became Gable's fifth wife?)

HOLLYWOOD TODAY! MOVIES - TV - RADIO by Erskine Johnson

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — Hollywood on TV: It's still a "We just don't know" answer from Loretta Young's intimates on when she will return to the cameras for her telefilm series. Their latest prediction is that the star, battling to recover her health and lost poundage, will be in the hospital "for at least another three to four weeks."

Jack Benny and Sara Berner, the original Mabel, the telephone operator of his shows, patched up the misunderstanding that's existed between them for the last year and a half. She returns to the Benny show in a telefilm rolling this month.

CBS is blushing over its failure to clear the TV rights to "High Tor" and "Our Town," both planned as hour-long shows for Bing Crosby. He had played both of them for musical versions.

That song and dance number used to Ballyhoo "You're Never Too Young" on the last Martin & Lewis show isn't in the picture! As a gag, Jerry was supposed to say, "And now we're going to show you a scene left on the cutting floor from our last film." But the line was left on the TV cutting room floor.

Statistic dept.: There are now 35,809,000 TV sets in the U. S., tuning in on 405 stations.

The new Orrin Tucker-Roberta Linn show on Los Angeles' KTLA is slated for a national build-up.

"Medic" influence note: Writer Dolph Sharp is headed for Africa to research a new telefilm series titled, "I Was a Witch Doctor for the Mau Mau." A series just as hair-raising could be.

"I was a Writer for Red Butons."

The word's out at CBS that the recently cancelled "My Favorite Husband" is a dead, dead turkey, not slated for a fall comeback.

TV may be a health-wrecker to stars who pop into the nation's living rooms every week but Andy Devine is bloomin' on the diet of tension and nerves. He's even doing two series at the moment, "Wild Bill Hickok" and "Andy's Gang," without the aid of an oxygen tent.

"Ah, it's not hard," he told me. "I watch my health. I feel better when I'm working. I hear actors talk about retiring. I'd go crazy. The day I retire, they'll have to haul me away."

Natural Gas Bill Dead This Session

By HARRY WILSON SHARPE WASHINGTON, July 16 — UP Qualified congressional sources said Saturday the bill to exempt independent natural gas producers from federal control is dead for this session of congress unless President Eisenhower firmly endorses it.

This is not anticipated, Mr. Eisenhower look off Friday night for the Big Four conference at Geneva. He made no pre-departure statement. He will be gone at least six days. Even if he spoke out for the bill after his return it would be caught in the adjournment jam.

This was underscored Saturday by Chairman J. Percy Priest of the House Commerce committee which drafted the legislation. "If we stick to our July 30 adjournment plan," the Tennessee Democrat told the United Press. "It's unlikely we'll get the bill through."

Senate sources added that under no circumstances would that chamber try to rush passage of the measure. They said undue haste would certainly invite a talkathon by consumer-state senators, possibly of adjournment-delaying proportions. Besides, the Senate has made clear it won't act unless the House acts first.

Speaker Sam Rayburn put the consumer vs producer issue squarely up to the President. The Texas Democrat said in effect that if the White House wants the bill passed, Mr. Eisenhower had better put pressure on some reluctant Republicans.

But House Democrats are having their own troubles. Confident at first that the bill would pass in its present modified form, leaders ran into consumer opposition in their own ranks. It was so strong the leadership ordered a poll of pro and con sentiment on whether the bill could pass.

"The poll has been indecisive," one official said Saturday. "In fact, it is rather discouraging. Many members are up in the air. They fear that if the legislation is enacted it will cost their constituents millions of dollars in price hikes."

The bill would overturn a year-old Supreme Court decision that

"The Ant Men" published this spring is one of Eric North's best accomplishments in the field of fantastic fiction. Though written primarily for teen-agers, I have no doubt that all adults with a child's craving for adventure and who are searching for the unusual will find themselves eagerly seeking the consequences of events in this somewhat harrowing tale of adventure in Australia.

When a band of geologists set out to search for unusual rock formations in the uncharted wilds of the Central Australia desert, they were sure of finding fossils, but had not counted on finding living survivors of ages long past which were to threaten their lives.

Burnt Badlands When their truck overturned in the burnt-out badlands of mid-continent Australia, the party found themselves up against giant ants and mantises in a harrowing battle for survival.

Topped with a sure-fire climax you will learn of the party's capture by insects with curious manlike characteristics, and go along with them while they investigate a city of huge ants and the part they played in an insect war. North has given them only if it has a good chance of passage.

Designed for Votes NEW YORK — UP — Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler Wednesday termed President Eisenhower's recent meeting with leading figures from the world of sports "just a public relations gimmick," in a bid for votes in the 1956 elections. The President at the sports conference, called for increased participation of American youth in athletics.

Studebaker Strike Authorized SOUTH BEND, Ind., — UP — A strike by CIO United Auto Workers against the Studebaker-Packard Corp. plant here has been authorized by union members, it was announced Wednesday. Union officials said members of Local 5 voted 85 per cent in favor of a strike, if necessary, to protest the laying off of 1,700 employes.

No wonder this Hardtop is the HIT OF THE YEAR! IT'S 4-DOOR HANDY — and priced for action! This one you'll just have to see. It's a beauty. It's a brand-new kind of car. It's a Buick Riviera with four doors. And to top it all — it's a SPECIAL — the lowest-priced of all Buick Series. Know what that means? It means you can have the newest hit in hardtops — the most advanced new body design yet — and you can have it in the price range of America's smaller cars. It means you can have a steel-roofed car with the long, low, sweeping sportiness of a convertible — with no center posts in the side window areas — and with two separate doors to the rear. And you can have all this hardtop beauty with sedan comfort and convenience at the easy-to-take modest extra cost of a 4-door model over a 2-door model. But if you think that's all — listen: This gleaming grace of automobile is a Buick through and through — a '55 Buick, from the hottest-selling line of Buicks in all history. So here you have the soft, firm steadiness of Buick's all-coil-spring ride and torque-tube stability. Here you have Buick brawn, Buick solidity, Buick handling ease, Buick styling and visibility and interior luxury. And here you have the lift and life of vigorous new V8 power of record might — and coupled to the spectacular performance of Buick's Variable Pitch Dynaflo.* Why wait a day longer — when you can come in right now and try the first true hardtop with the extra comfort, room and convenience of a full-sized 4-door sedan? Reunion Slated At Shamrock

SHAMROCK (Special) - With the Shamrock Ex-Students Annual Homecoming only a week away plans are rapidly being completed. It is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, July 22-23. President Selbert Worley has asked those interested to make a special effort to attend the final meeting of the Association Monday night, at the Dixie Cafe. Important business will be discussed at that time.

Among important things on the agenda is the decision whether to hold the reunion as an annual affair or to hold the event every three or five years.

Lapel buttons and badges to be worn at the homecoming will also be discussed.

More homes or other meeting places for the individual class reunions are needed. The classes will have their parties on Friday evening. Mrs. Winfred Lewis is in charge of the class parties.

Almost one half of the U.S. supply of electricity is generated from coal.

JIMMY WAKELY ... coming to Pampa

Jimmy Wakely Is A Versatile Singer

When Jimmy Wakely comes to Pampa to appear at the rodeo he will add another to his long list of personal appearances.

Jimmy started out on the radio in Oklahoma City and took his first motion picture "Song Of The Range."

Since that appearance the name "Jimmy Wakely" has brightened many show spots all over the country. He starred in 30 western pictures and appeared as guest on TV with Milton Berle, Bob Hope, Ken Murray, Kate Smith, Ed Sullivan and Horace Heidt.

Jimmy Wakely records have sold by the millions. One record, "Slipping Around" which he made with Margaret Whiting sold two million records. Big record sellers by this versatile singer include Beautiful Brown Eyes, My Heart Cries For You, One Has My Name, I Love You So Much It Hurts, Peter Cottontail, and his latest on Coral records, Pine Tops Boogie.

Jimmy has headlined many fine rodeos, including the "Snake River Stampede" at Pampa, Idaho and just last month the Edmonton Exposition at Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

The name Jimmy Wakely has brightened the desert sands of Las Vegas seven times. Four engagements at Hotel Last Frontier, two times at Hotel Thunderbird, four weeks at the Golden Nugget. Add all the above to the Capitol theatre in New York, Cro's in Hollywood and country western shows all over the country, plus entertaining the servicemen overseas with Bob Hope and you have the most versatile singer in show business.

Jimmy Wakely is another farm boy who saw his dreams come true; a success in show business plus a fine family. He always maintained that a fellow with horse sense can have both as they go hand in hand.

Young gentlemen callers, who at times play hard to get, are played by Bill Helton as Bingley, Don Meadows as Darcy, William Whitener as Collins and Dewain Hays as Wickham.

Bennett, an easygoing man, is portrayed by Burley Owen. Others appearing in the cast are: Sharon Green, Tillie Green, Nelda Fuiks, Sandra Richardson, and Barbara Reivous.

Two Perryton FFA Boys Due Honors At Lone Star Farmers

PERRYTON — (Special) — Two Perryton FFA boys have been selected as Lone Star Farmers and will be honored at the 27th annual Texas Future Farmers of America convention in Houston July 21. They are Marvin Flowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Flowers, and Edsel Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy McGarraugh.

They will be accompanied to Houston by Josh Hopkins, Vocational Agriculture teacher and FFA advisor.

The Lone Star Farmer award is made only to those FFA boys who qualify on the basis of their chapter projects. They must have made $400 from the projects and must have met a number of other requirements. Only two other Perryton boys have been given this honor. They were Joe Buckhaults and Dale Hoover.

Flowers, who graduated this year from Perryton high school, has been in vocational agriculture work for three years. His projects included commercial swine, purebred Suffolk sheep, feeder pigs, and purebred Angus cows. His supervised farming program included purebred Suffolk sheep, wheat, mlo, and fat barrows exhibition.

He has been a Star Chapter

Farmer, vice president of the local chapter, district candidate for state office. He also took part in athletics, making honorable mention on the all-regional football team, and speech.

He exhibited the reserve champion barrow at the Ochiltree County Junior Livestock Show in 1953.

Cole, who is also a graduate this year of Perryton High School, has been in vocational agriculture for four years. His projects have been purebred Hampshire sheep, and grade cows and calves.

His supervised farm program has included sheep feeding, mlo wheat, club lambs, feeder steers and cows, and club calves.

In 1953 he had the 8th place Hampshire wether and the fourth place lightweight Hereford in the Ochiltree county Junior Livestock Show. In 1954 he had the first place Hampshire wether, the 2nd place Southdown, and 2nd place Shropshire at the Ochiltree county show. At the Amarillo Fat Stock Show he showed the Grand Champion crossbred lamb and the 8th place Southdown lamb.

He has been a reporter in the local FFA chapter and served as district secretary for the Top of Texas FFA. He was delegate to the area convention and state convention in 1954.

In 1955, Edsel showed the 2nd place crossbred lamb and the 4th place heavy Hampshire wether at the National Western Livestock Show in Denver. He had the 1st

Farm Road Work Is Announced

PERRYTON — (Special) — The Ochiltree County Commissioners were told last week by Charles Smith of Amarillo, assistant district engineer of the Texas Highway Department, that the extension of FM 1267, northwest of Perryton, would be included in the next appropriation.

A total of about $75,000 will be appropriated to pave the road from the west end of the present highway 1267 to Epps Corner and then south to Farnsworth. There will be two projects necessary to complete the 14 miles of pavement.

Encouragement for more farm-to-market roads was received in a letter to Judge Howard Slaughter from State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer this week. It said that the State Highway Commission has directed that a careful study be made of proposed farm-to-market projects, as well as a previously presented connection to Oklahoma, and that this date be available to the commission at the time they are in position to form the new program of work from funds provided by the recent session of the legislature.

Each county commissioner keeps a mowing crew busy along the county roads; these are followed up with spraying crews. Some of the highway crews are also using chemicals to kill out patches of bindweeds, a menace which is hard to control and which causes farmers to take a sizable dock on their wheat if bindweed seed show up in it.

The farmers are mowing patches of weeds along the field borders and are continuing to use the Aldrin spray to kill and control the grasshoppers.

The extensive spraying program carried out on large tracks of grass land got a good kill and stopped the insects from going on to field crops when they cleaned up all the grass and lush weed growth along the creek beds; and in many places they had eaten the grass down to the roots.

Some of the farmers are spreading grasshopper poison which is working very well in the sorghum crops.

'Hoppers Damaging Hansford

SPEARMAN — (Special) — Grasshoppers are continuing to cause a lot of damage to crops, trees and shrubs in Hansford County. Joe V. Day, county commissioner, says the highway department and the Santa Fe Railroad have come to the rescue of individuals with their spraying equipment as well as having a plane spray the right-of-way along the tracks.

Ochiltree Spray Work Near End

PERRYTON — (Special) — The grasshopper spraying program will be completed this week in this area, and if the weather permits a total of about 400,000 acres will have been sprayed. As of Tuesday, there were about 90,000 acres yet to be sprayed. John Landrum is the government agriculturist in charge of the operations.

There have been 67,000 acres sprayed in Ochiltree county, and the spraying has extended into Lipscomb, Hansford, and Roberts counties.

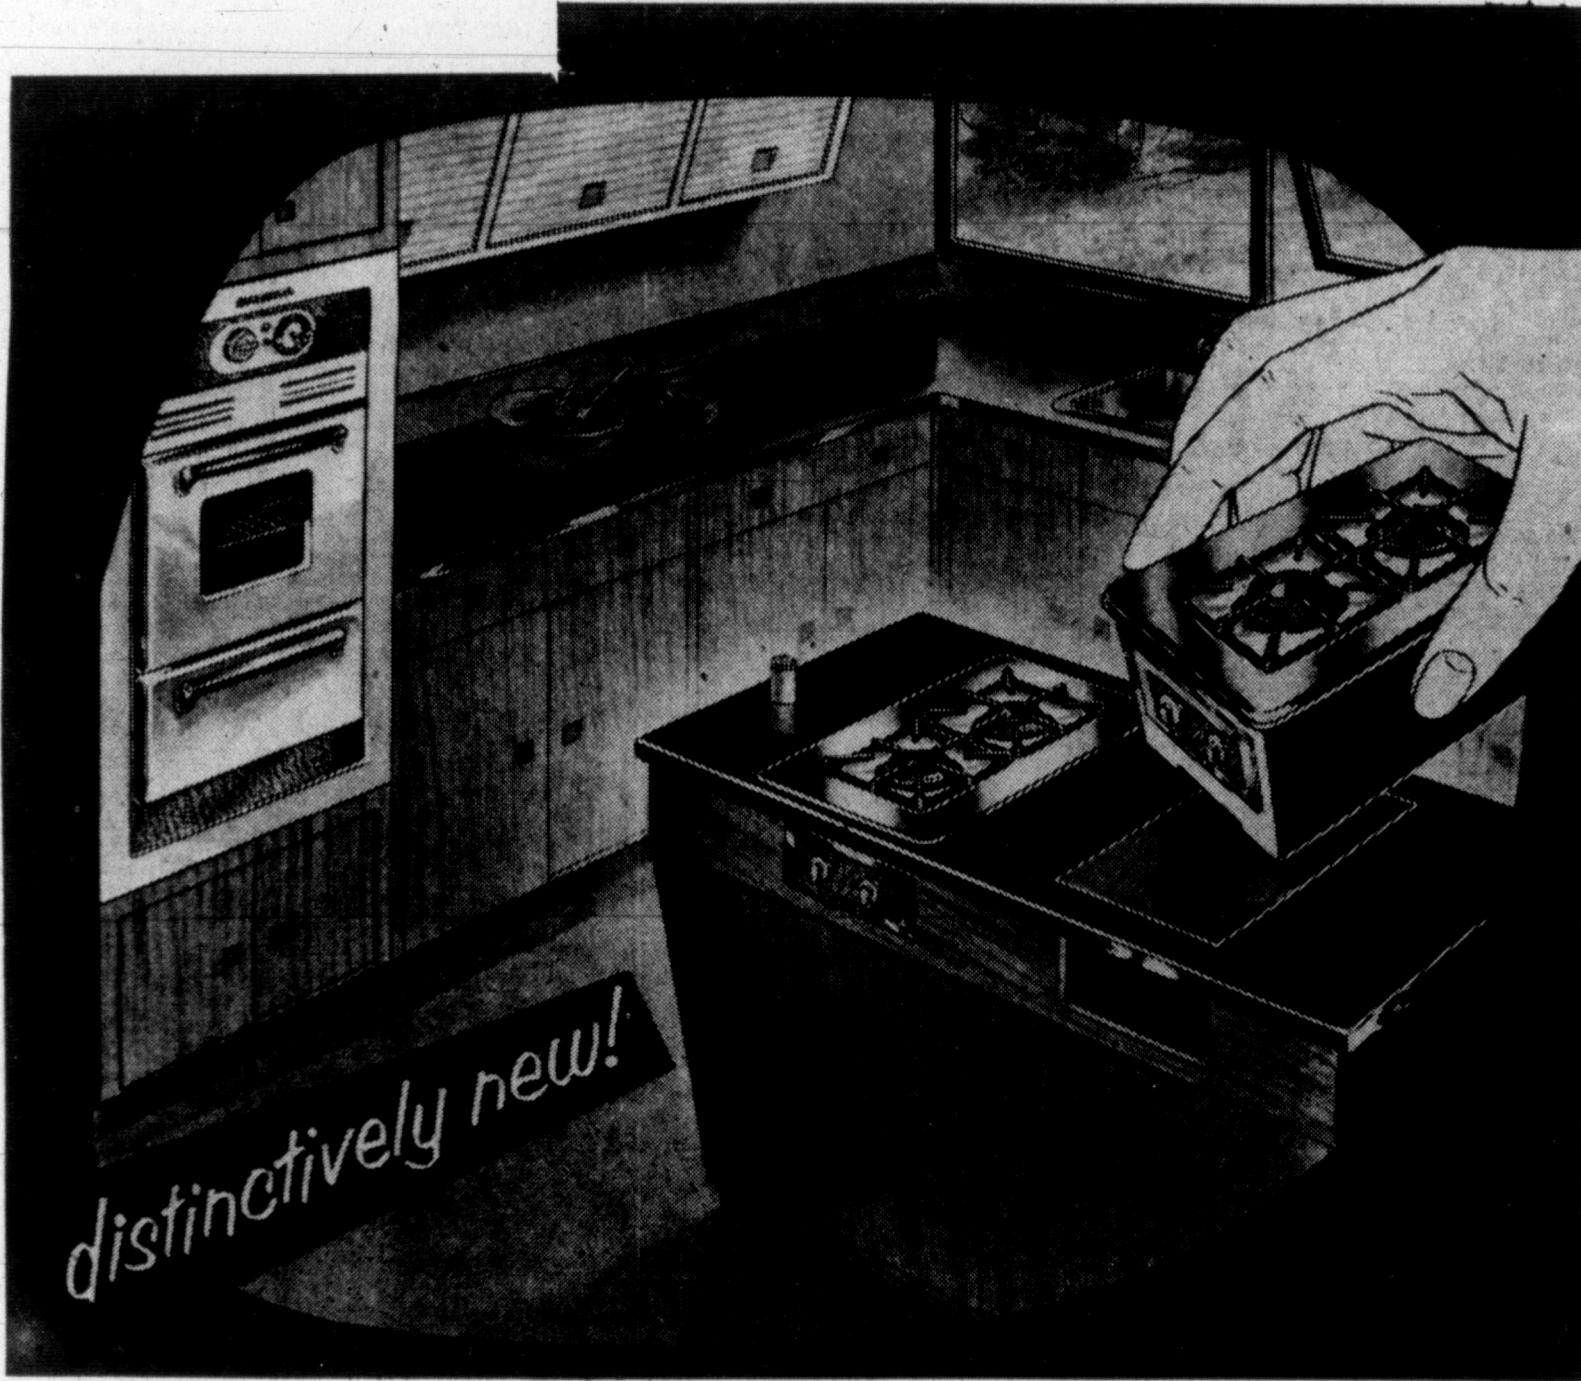

Spraying has been delayed and the results hampered by the continued high winds and hot weather. Effective spraying is not possible when the wind is above ten miles an hour and when the temperature is above 80 degrees.

The results have been highly satisfactory, however, with kills ranging from 80 per cent to 95 per cent.

Lubbock Nips Pampa In Pony Tourney; Playoff Set Today

Title Game Set At 2:30 Today

By BUCK FRANKS
Pampa News Sports Editor

Lubbock battled back last night at Oiler Park to keep its hopes alive for the Sub-District Pony League title by capturing a pair of games, eliminating Childress in the first game, 6-4, and then defeating previously unbeaten Pampa, 13-12, in the nightcap.

The second win extended the tournament an extra day. Lubbock and Pampa, now beaten once each in the double-elimination tournament, will clash today at 2:30 p.m. at Oiler Park for the tournament title.

The tournament was originally scheduled to be completed Saturday night but early evening rain fall delayed the Lubbock - Childress game almost an hour and due to the late hour of the start of the second game, it was decided by tournament officials to play the final game off Sunday if Lubbock won over Pampa.

Lubbock came from behind to down Childress in the first game last night, 6-4, and after jumping into a commanding 8-0 lead after three innings of play against Pampa, the game turned into a thriller when the Pampa All-Stars staged a rally.

Pampa exploded for eight runs in the fourth inning to tie things up at 8-8. Two-run singles by George Duke and Mike Conway featured the big Pampa fourth.

Both Lubbock and Pampa started their ace pitchers, Moose Dudley starting for Lubbock and Gary Heiskell for Pampa. Both were lifted after two innings, but Dudley, who had shifted to first base after leaving the mound, came back on in the fourth inning and finished up.

Tommy Murray took over for Pampa at the start of the third and finished up the game.

Heiskell got six strikeouts and Murray eight.

The ultimate difference of the game came on a homerun blast by Marshall McCrummen in the sixth that accounted for what proved to be the winning run.

The homer put Lubbock ahead, 13-11, with Pampa narrowing the gap to 13-12 with a run in the bottom of the sixth. Both teams failed to score in the seventh.

David Sims gave Lubbock the victory in the first game when he doubled home two runs to snap a 4-4 tie and defeat Childress who had earlier in the tournament registered a win over Lubbock.

Gallagher Stops Dial, Oilers, 2-0, For Clovis

DECIDING FACTOR — Marshall McCrummen is shown trotting across home plate after blasting a homerun in the sixth inning with the run that meant the difference in last night's Lubbock-Pampa Pony League tilt. The homer gave Lubbock a 13-11 lead and the South Plains lads staved off the Pampans for a 13-12 victory. Congratulating McCrummen is Manager Mel Earsley. The umpire is Bob Banks.

Locals Head For El Paso To Open Series

CLOVIS — Left-hander Bob Gallagher shut out the league-leading Pampa Oilers with a tight five-hitter here Saturday night as he bested the Oilers' Red Dial in a fast hurling duel that saw the Pioneers gain a 2-0 triumph.

Dial gave the Oilers only six hits, but one was a home run to Hank Paskiewicz which would have been enough to give the Oilers the victory.

Gallagher struck out 10 Oilers and gave up only two bases on balls. He also hit Paul Halter with a pitch, but otherwise was in complete control all the way. Dial walked only one batter and struck out four.

The contest required only one hour and 48 minutes.

Little Leaguers To End Second Half

Slates This Week; Pony Loop Resumes

Pampa's two Little Leagues will wind up their second half schedules this week before engaging in tournament play next week.

Word was received Saturday that the area tournament of District 1 Little League will be played at Plainview. The exact date hasn't been received here but it is believed to start July 25.

First round pairings for the tournament have been drawn up and Pampa's two leagues, the Western and Eastern, drew each other in the opening round.

Meanwhile, the two leagues will finish out their second half schedules this week.

Cabot in the Eastern and Spokesman in the Western have virtually clinched the second half titles. Both won the first half, also.

The Pony League race will resume this week with second half nearing completion. Only two games will remain after this week's play.

Junior Tourney At San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, July 16-UP—More than 20 entrants are expected to begin play Monday in the 29th annual Texas Junior Golf Championship, over the Brackenridge Park course.

For the first time, this year's champion will be decided on the basis of 72-holes of medal play.

The best 64 scorers in Monday's qualifying round will begin championship play Tuesday. Others will play in flights of matched play in the tournament co-sponsored by the Texas Professional Golfer Association and the San Antonio Light.

Billy Green of Midland defeated Frank Wharton of Dallas for the championship last year when the tournament was decided on match play.

Munger-Tabbed-Best

SAN FRANCISCO-UP—George (Red) Munger, former star right-hander of the St. Louis Cardinals, was tabbed by Manager Bobby Franigan of the Hollywood Stars as "the best pitcher in the minor leagues right now." Munger has a 12-5 record and 1.60 earned run mark for Hollywood.

King Ranch Horse Wins

By ALEX KAHN

INGLEWOOD, Calif., July 16-UP—King Ranch's Rejected, reported ailing only a few days back, closed with an enormous burst of speed Saturday to score a nose victory in the $137,100 Hollywood Gold Cup.

It took a track record performance for the five-year-old Rejected to win the Gold Cup but he had what was necessary as he ran down the favored Alton in the stretch of the mile and a quarter race and got his nose out in front at the wire. His time of 1:59.3-5 cut a fifth of a second off the track record set by Noor in 1950.

The top weighted Determine was third and Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Social Outcast, flown here from New York for the race, was fourth.

Glisson in Saddle

Jockey Gordon Glisson had the mount of Rejected, taking it over when the stewards set down Ismael Valenzuela, Rejected's regular rider.

Rejected at 6-1 was the longest price in the field of six that had but five wagering interests. He returned $14.10, $3.50 and $3.30 across the board. Alton, the 8-5 favorite of the crowd of 49,000, returned $3.00 and $2.40 for place and show, while Determine paid $3.10 for show.

The Llangollen Farm entry of Mister Gus and Porterhouse, second choice on the board, finished fifth and sixth in the short field.

Worth $100,000 to Owners

Rejected had rapped himself July 4 in the American Handicap when he finished third to Alton by a little more than a length.

For several days trainer W. J. (Buddy) Hirsch was in doubt whether the son of Revoked would get up to Saturday's mile and a quarter race. But Rejected worked well and the trainer decided to run him, a decision worth exactly $100,000 to the Texas owners.

Argentina Wins Title

NEWPORT, Wales-UP—Maria Weiss of Argentina won the women's singles title of the Welsh Lawn tennis championships Friday by defeating 16-year old Ann Haydon of England, 1-6, 6-1, 6-2.

2nd Half Softball Race Ends Tuesday

Only two games are scheduled in the Pampa Church Softball Leagues this week as the second half race comes to a close.

Single games are on tap Monday and Tuesday nights.

Then action will be suspended until the following Monday night at which time playoffs will begin in each of the three leagues, Senior Boys, Senior Girls and Junior Boys.

Two league champions have already been named for the second half. Holy Souls is the Senior Boys second half champ and Progressive Baptist is the Junior Boys champion, both teams winding up their schedules with unbeaten records.

Holy Souls owned a 4-0 record, Progressive Baptist, 6-0. Both Holy Souls and Progressive Baptist also finished first in the first half races with unbeaten marks.

First Baptist is leading the Senior Girls second half race with a 2-0 mark. The BAPTIST PLAYERS Harrah Methodist twice this week and can claim the second half title by splitting the two games.

Harrah Methodist, by winning both games, will emerge as the second half champs.

Following is the Church Softball scoreboard:

Owl Bowl Adds Albany End

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., July 16-UP—Charley Knight, spectacular Albany end was added Saturday to the Texas squad for the 18th annual oil bowl classic Aug. 19.

He is the fourth player to be named to the Texas squad. The others are guard Buddy Burt of Chillicothe, tackle Jerry Cramer of Breckenridge and back Don Meek of Phillips.

Knight, a flashy pass-grabber on the top-notch Albany team during the 1954 season, is the fourth Texas boy to be selected for the football game which will be played in Midwestern Stadium, Texas Coaches Pat Gerald and Claude Gilstrap said.

The top Texas high school football stars will meet the cream of Oklahoma's high schools in the annual fracas, which is sponsored by the Maskat Temple of Wichita Falls and the Oklahoma Coaches Association.

The games have raised more than $125,000 which is divided among the polio fund, the cerebral palsy clinic, and the School of Listening Eyes of Wichita Falls and the Oklahoma Crippled Children's hospital in Oklahoma City.

Knight sparkplugged the Albany team to the finals of the Class 1-A division. He was instrumental in the school's 26-to-21 upset over the highly-rated Paducah team in semi-final play.

Six-foot, two-inch Knight also lettered in track and basketball.

Battle For 2nd On In Teen Age Loop

Only the battle for second place remains to be settled in the Pampa Teen Age League which ends its season this week.

Atlas Tank has already clinched the title with a 9-2-1 record.

Celanese, currently in holding down second place but has to win at least one of its two games this week to claim the runnerup spot in the final standings.

Both games for the Celanese nine is against Pampa News, the only other team that has a chance to move into the No. 2 spot. The Newsmen, by winning both games off the Celanese nine, would wind up in second place.

Celanese goes into the final week of play with a 6-6 record while the News is currently sporting a 4-7-1 record.

Single games are scheduled Monday and Tuesday with the season's final games to be played Wednesday night in a doubleheader at Oiler Park, all four teams of the league seeing action on the final night.

Following is the Teen Age scoreboard:

TEEN AGE LEAGUE STANDINGS		W	L	T	Pct.
Atlas Tank	9	2	1	.784
Celanese	6	6	0	.500

Middlecoff Regains Lead In Miller Open

72-45 MILLER $8650

MILWAUKEE, July 16-UP—Cary Middlecoff, shooting them dead to the pin on rain-soaked greens, recaptured the lead at the three-quarter mark in the $35,000 Miller Open Saturday with a 13 under par 64-67-66-197.

Middlecoff moved two strokes ahead of halfway leader Jim Turnesa, who scrambled for a 69 in the third round after blasting a 63 course record in the second round.

Turnesa soared to a 37 on the front nine but recovered with three birdies on the back nine for a 32.

Tied for third at 200 were Paul McGuire, who also shot a 37 on the front nine, and Mike Souchak, golf's leading money-winner this year.

Middlecoff, former Memphis, Tenn., dentist, playing out of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., praised McGuire, of Wichita, Kan., for the "greatest comeback I ever saw."

McGuire, playing in Middlecoff's threesome, knocked off five birdies on the back nine for a 30 to give him a 67 for the day to keep him among the leaders.

Tommy Bolt, Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mike Fetchick, Lake Mahopac, N.Y., were tied for fifth at 201. Julius Boros, Mid Pines, N.C., and Ted Kroil, Utica, N.Y., trailed at 203 with 18 holes to go Sunday.

A total of 41 golfers shattered par of 210 at the three-quarter mark despite a heavy rain at one point which raised a number of scores.

The leading golfers who played after the rain said, however, it helped their play considerably by stopping the balls where they put them on the green.

Junior Qualifying At Dallas Tuesday

DALLAS, July 16-UP—A sectional qualifying round in which seven junior golfers will vie for one place in the USGA junior amateur championship has been set for next Tuesday.

The 18-hole round will be played over the Brook Hollow Golf Club course at Dallas and a silver medal will be awarded the winner.

The winner also will enter the championship scheduled Aug. 3-6 at Purdue University's south golf course at West Lafayette, Ind.

The seven junior golfers entered in the round include Michael F. Sharp, Albert L. Deal Jr. and Don Ivey, all of Dallas; Ricky Blythe and Walter B. Shive of Waxahachie, Tex.; Henry D. Wysong Jr., McKinney, Tex.; and Billy J. Dunn of Duncan, Okla.

Newk Clubbing Ball At Will

BROOKLYN-UP—The Brooklyn Dodgers insist they have no immediate plans to convert Don Newcombe into an outfielder but it took a lot less to convince Ed Barrow to do so 37 years ago with another pretty fair pitcher-hitter named Babe Ruth.

Newk slammed a record-tying sixth homer, raised his season's batting average to .406 with four hits and made his pitching mark 15-1 Friday when he beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 12-3. The way he's going, Newk shapes up as a good bet to win 30 games if he doesn't hit a batting slump.

Hirsch to Retire

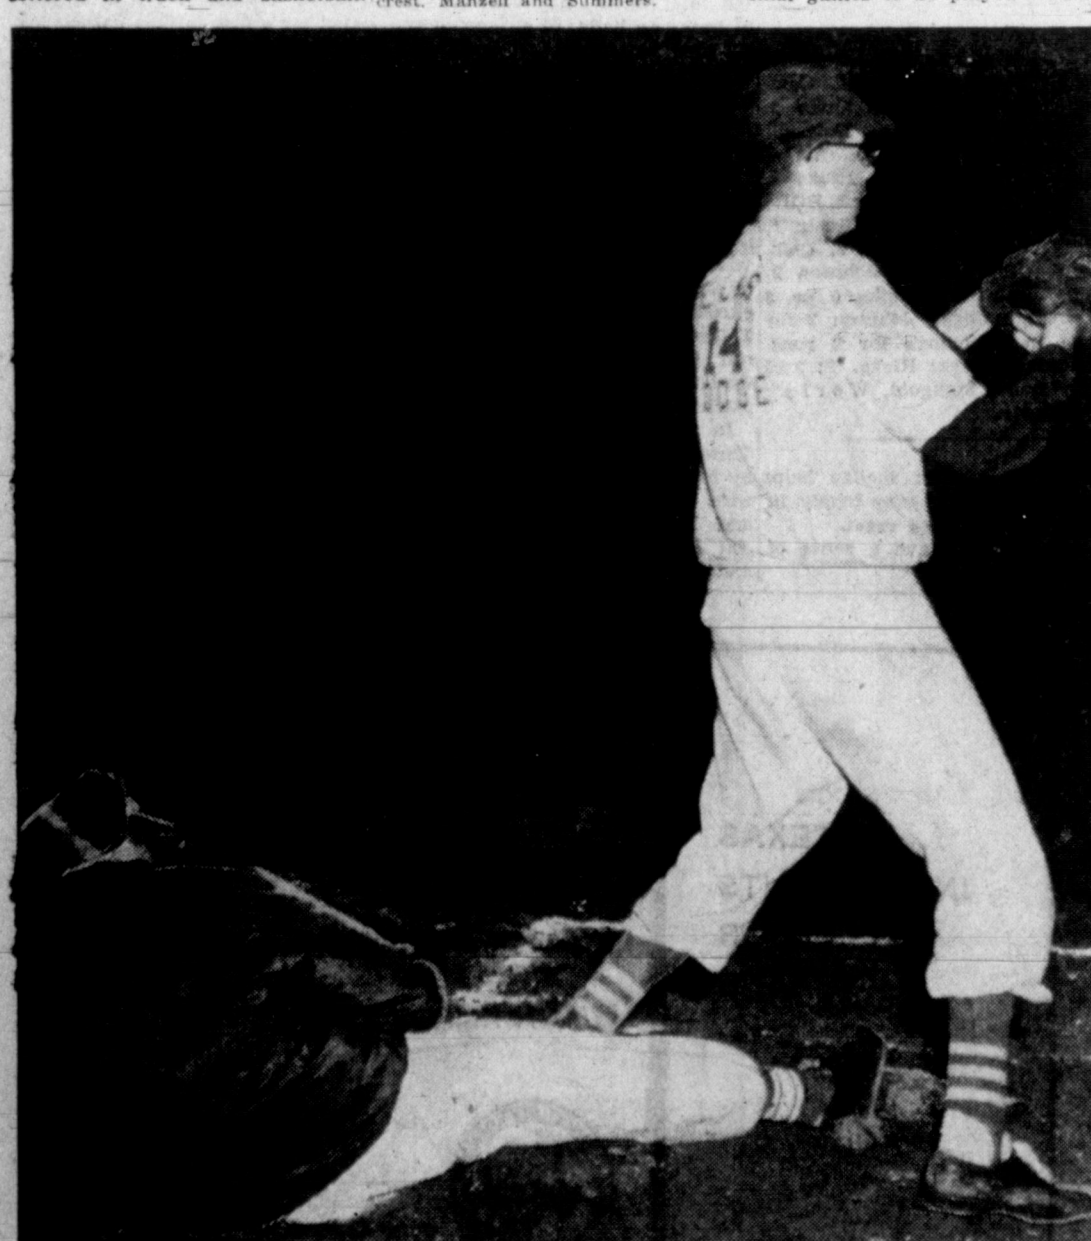

LOS ANGELES-UP—Elroy (Crazylegs) Hirsch, one of the finest pass-catchers in the National Football League, said Saturday he is retiring "unless the Los Angeles Rams get into a jam and need me."

Hirsch is a former Wisconsin halfback who turned into an end in the pro ranks because of his great speed and breakaway ability.

SAFE — Robert Murray, who pitched five innings of relief for Pampa Pony All-Stars last night against Lubbock, slides safely home on a wild pitch that reduced the Lubbock lead to 12-11. Pitcher Rucker Barrett awaits the throw from his catcher that came seconds later. Lubbock won 13-12 and thus necessitated a playoff for the tourney title today at 2:30 at Oiler Park. (News Photo)

IN WT-NM AVERAGES Fortin Leads In RBIs, Runs, HRs

Joe Fortin, Oiler first sacker, has taken over the leadership in three departments in the West Texas-New Mexico League batting averages released this week by Bill Weiss of San Mateo, Calif., league statistician.

Fortin, who has led in homers through most of the season, added two other honors this week, in runs-batted-in and in runs scored.

The averages, which include games through last Tuesday, shows Fortin leading in homers with 27; in runs-batted-in with 97; and in runs scored with 87.

Two other Oilers hold individual leads. Dick Hargston took over the base-on-balls lead with 72 while Jack Venable continued to set the pace in strikeouts with 134.

Bobby Fernandez of El Lubbock holds the top batting average with .415, and in hits, 141; total bases, 231; and doubles with 34.

Bobby Scott of Lubbock has hit the most triples with seven. Alex Gonzales of El Paso has stolen the most bases with 51 and Jim Baldacci, also of El Paso, has struck out the most times, 70.

In pitching, Jack Martin of Albuquerque has posted the most wins with 15. Ken Yoke of El Paso has the most innings pitched with 174 and Ted Shandor of Albuquerque has hurled the most complete games with 18.

Following are the averages that include all games through July 12, with exception of Abilene at Amarillo, July 12:

OUR HERO — Ronnie Eckroat, center, is being "mobbed" by his team mates as he crosses the plate after hitting a grand slam homer in Friday night's 13-5 Pampa victory over Childress in the Pony League Sub-District Tournament.

At left is Gary Meyers, who went the route for the winners, coming in to congratulate Eckroat. Others identifiable are Gary Hill (back to camera) and Gary Heiskell, far right.

Homers Spark Local All-Stars To 13-5 Win In Friday Game

Home runs were the order of the night in the Pampa-Childress game Friday night in the second round of the Pony League Sub-District at Oiler Park which was won by Pampa, 13-5.

Five homers were hit in the game with the winning Pampa team hitting three and Childress two.

Two of Pampa's homers were hit by Ronnie Eckroat while John Campbell got the other. Hitting homers for Childress were Cawthon and Partridge.

Eckroat's first homer came with the bases loaded and it erased a 2-1 Childress lead, putting Pampa ahead 5-2. Later in the inning Campbell clouted his fourmaster to make it 6-2 and the winners held the command the rest of the way.

Eckroat came back in the sixth to clout his second homer of the night with one on, giving him six RBIs for the night.

Gary Meyers went the route for the Pampans, allowing seven hits. The chubby right-hander struck out ten and walked only two. Cawthon's homer off Meyers came in the first inning with one on and it gave Childress a 2-0 lead.

Pampa, however, battled back to take command with its six-run upsurge in the third, thanks to Eckroat's grand slammer and the locals were never headed.

In the other game Friday, Lubbock eliminated Tucumcari from the tournament by winning 12-2. Lubbock poured across five runs in the first inning and was in complete command all the way through.

Art Whitaker went the route for Lubbock and allowed only three hits. Ken Rogers paced the Lubbock attack with three hits in four trips.

Top Money Winners Won't Be Around For PGA Tourney

NORTHVILLE, Mich., July 16—UP—Five of the top seven money winners on golf's tournament trail won't be around Wednesday for the start of the 37th annual PGA Country Club.

The tournament usually draws the best in the business but this year—the Professional Golfers' Association finds itself trapped by one of its ancient rules.

Eligibility for the tournament is limited to pros who have been PGA members for at least five years. Thus, such young stars as Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N. Y.; Gene Littler, Palm Springs, Calif.; Bob Rosburg, San Francisco; Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex., and Dow Finsterwald, High Point, N. C., won't be on hand to bid for the cherished crown.

That quietest has been burning up the fairways this year, stealing the thunder from the sage old pros. But not one of them has fulfilled the PGA's five-year requirement.

Souchak, the former Duke football player, currently heads the money-winning list with earnings of almost $18,000. Littler ranks third, Rosburg fourth, Maxwell fifth and Finsterwald seventh.

Dr. Cary Middlecoff, the Memphis, Tenn., dentist, and Ted Kroll, New Hartford, N. Y., are the only players among the top seven in earnings who will compete in the tedious seven-day PGA test.

Middlecoff, No. 2 in winnings this year, has been installed as a co-favorite with three-time champion Slammin' Sammy Sneed, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.; defending champion Chick Harbert of the host Meadowbrook Club and Walter Burkemo, the 1953 winner from Franklin, Mich.

A total of 12 former champions are among the 142 who will tee off Wednesday in the first of two qualifying rounds.

The others, aside from Sneed, Harbert and Burkemo, include Jim Turnesa, Briarcliff Manor, N. Y.; Chandler Harper, Portsmouth, Va.; Gene Sharzen, Germantown, N. Y.; Denny Shute, Akron, Ohio; Johnny Revolta, Skokie, Ill.; Vio Ghezzi, New York; Paul Runyan, La Jolla, Calif.; Henry Picard, Cleveland, and Olin Dutra, San Diego, Calif.

After the qualifying, the field will be trimmed to the low 63 scorers who will join Harbert in the state of match play with two 18-hole rounds on "Black Friday."

All matches for the final four days of the tournament are scheduled for 36 holes.

Dallas, Tulsa Dominate North Texas League All-Star Team

FORT WORTH, July 16—UP—Dallas and Tulsa players dominated the North All-Star Texas League team, excluding pitchers, while Houston and Shreveport have the most players on the South squad, members of which were announced Saturday.

The All-Star game will be played July 22 at Beaumont. Pitchers were announced earlier in the week by the Texas League Baseball Writers Association, which polled club managers, sports writers and broadcasters in league cities.

Four players were chosen unanimously, including two on each team. They are catcher Ray Murray and centerfielder Eddie Knoblauch, both of Dallas; and Houston pitcher Hal Smith and Jim Pisoni, San Antonio centerfielder.

Red Davis, Dallas manager, will pilot the North team, while Don Heffner, San Antonio manager, will guide the South team.

The teams, excluding pitchers: NORTH — Murray, Al Jones, Tulsa; and Phil Tomkinson, Oklahoma City, catchers; Joe Macko, Dallas, first base; Alex Comdis, Dallas, second base; Ossie Virgil, Dallas, third base; Jim Clark, Oklahoma City, shortstop; Bob Williams, Tulsa, utility infielder; Dick Wentz, Fort Worth, leftfielder; Eddie Knoblauch, Dallas, centerfielder; Dick Gettler, Dallas, rightfielder; Mike Lutz, Tulsa, utility outfielder.

SOUTH — Hal Smith, Houston; J. W. Jones, Shreveport, and Don Masterson, San Antonio, catchers; Bob Boyd, Houston, first base; Shervin Dixon, Houston, second base; Jim Ackeret, Shreveport, third base; Joe Koppe, Shreveport, shortstop; Leo Thomas, Beaumont, utility infielder; Russell Rac, Houston, leftfielder; Jim Pisoni, San Antonio, centerfielder; Willie Brown, Houston, rightfielder; Pidge Brown, Shreveport, Utility outfielder.

Vandehey Has Big State Lead

Top batter in the Big State League for the third straight week is outfielder Lynn Vandehey of Texas City with a fast 384 percentage, averages released Saturday.

The White Sox, rebounding from a recent slump, made it five victories in a row, defeating the Orioles, 4-3, with a three-run rally in the bottom of the ninth. Relief pitcher Ray Moore walked home the winning run with the bases loaded.

180 For Western Qualifying Expected

ROCKFORD, Ill., July 16—UP—Nearly 180 amateur golf players were expected to begin play Monday in the first round of the annual Western Amateur championship, slated for a new format calling for both medal and match play.

The eight low scorers after 72 holes of medal play, expected to be finished Thursday, will embark on match play over 36 holes each with the finals scheduled for Sunday.

Six Walker Cup players were in the field, including defending champion Bruce Cudd, Portland, Ore. Other Walker team members were Dale Morey, Indianapolis; Don Cherry, Wichita Falls, Tex.; Jimmy Jackson, St. Louis; Ed Meister, Cleveland, and Hillman Robbins Jr., Memphis, Tenn.

Also rated as standout contenders were Charles Harrison, Augusta, Ga.; Don Bisplinghoff, Orlando, Fla.; Rex Baxter, Amarillo, Tex.; Eddie Merrins, Meridian, Miss., and Hobart Manley, Savannah, Ga.

Robinson Out With Bad Knee

STAMFORD, Conn. — UP—Jackie Robinson propped his ailing left knee on a cushion at his home Saturday and vigorously denied he is all through with baseball although admitting he has no idea how long it will take before he is able to return to the Brooklyn Dodgers' line-up.
 "There's no use kidding myself," said Robinson, looking down at his puffed up knee. "The pain is there and naturally I'm concerned. But I definitely don't feel this is the end of the road for me."
 Reports that the 36-year-old Robinson would announce his retirement scopped up immediately after he swung at a pitch during batting practice Friday, fell to the ground in pain and had to be assisted from the field.
 "No one seems to have any idea how long I'll be on the sidelines," Robinson said, "and frankly I don't know how long I'll be out myself. I think this whole thing came about because I tried to get back into the lineup too soon. I was anxious to play and help the club."

Knoblauch's .339 Leads TL Batsmen

Veteran outfielder Eddie Knoblauch continues to pace the Texas League in hitting, and teammates Ray Murray and John Murff sure like Knoblauch—stand at the top in home runs and pitching respectively.
 They are three good reasons why Dallas leads the league. Knoblauch's .339 batting average stayed just about on course from last week when he was batting .376.
 Murray was batting .324, right at the top among hitters, but even more important to the Eagles was his 20 home runs and 63 RBIs. Lying in wait with Ben Taylor of Beaumont for the homer lead.
 Murff has far and away the best pitching record with 20 wins and five losses.
 Following Knoblauch in batting were Bob Montag, Beaumont, .325; Murray at .324; Dick Williams, Fort Worth, .320; Willie Brown, Houston, .318; Bob Van Efan, Tulsa, .316; and Les Fleming, Shreveport, .314. Beaumont's Leo Thomas actually was batting higher than Knoblauch, at .345, but he had been to bat only 165 times.

Kocsis Captures Publinx Crown

By KURT FREUDENTHAL
 INDIANAPOLIS, July 16—UP—Slender Sam Kocsis, a typical weekend golfer from Detroit, led from start to finish Saturday for a 2-up victory over Lewis Bean of Summerville, Ga., and the 30th annual National Public Links championship.
 The 35-year-old tool firm efficiency expert, won the first two holes of the 36-hole match and stayed ahead the rest of the way.
 Conqueror of defending champion Gene Andrews in Friday's semi-finals, Kocsis went 3-up at the end of 18 and was 2-up at 27.
 Trouble With Colors
 Bean, wearing pink slacks, a black shirt and green Sox, never was in contention. He had difficulty finding the greens.
 It was a great victory for Kocsis, member of a well-known golfing family and a former Michigan amateur champ. This was his first bid for the crown.
 He took the first hole of the morning round with a par five and the second, sinking a 28-foot putt.
 Bean got one hole back on six when Kocsis three-putted, but the Michigan swinger got even on eight when the tobacco-chewing Bean missed the green.
 Held On to Margin
 Kocsis went three up on 11 with a par four and held that margin

Pampan Richard Hughes On Extensive World Trip

By BILL KERR
Pampa News Staff Writer

Richard Hughes left the "Eternal City" Rome, Friday, for Istanbul, embarking on the first leg of a six-week tour of the Middle East. It is a fitting culmination to three years of theological study at Yale Divinity School that he should visit the cradle of three of the world's great religions — Judaism, Christianity and Islam.

Richard, who was recently ordained a minister in the Methodist Church at ceremonies in Brooklyn, N. Y., left by air from New York on June 26, and arrived in London 16 hours later, via Ireland. The 25-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. "Dick" Hughes, of 100 Harvesters is on a 36-day tour of Europe and the Middle East with 13 companions, under a program sponsored by Whittier College, California.

and foreign problems." He also had the opportunity of talking with Stephen Hessel, one of the French U. N. staff, at the foreign office at the Quai d'Orsay.

Superficial Prosperity

With peculiarly incisive insight into what he was observing for a mere five days, Richard turned up with some pensive observations through conversations on the scene.

"Generally speaking, France has shared in Europe's growing prosperity of the last few years. Communism is no great threat at present, though it is in a crisis. . . . Living conditions show great contrasts in clothes and housing. Dad will be interested that 10 per cent of national government budget goes into housing. Prices are higher than Britain, with the fashionable people dressing flashily in creations of Dior & Path, etc."

RICHARD HUGHES . . . touring Europe

Educators and Ministers

The group made up principally of educators and ministers, has already intensively toured England, France and Italy, with the largest part of the tour yet before them in visits to the eastern citadels of Western Civilization — Greece, Turkey, Syria, Lebanon, Jordan, Israel and Egypt.

Richard has a marked ability when it comes to penning a sentence, an ability which may lead him into theological writing later on. But for the present he has chronicled through his letters home the opening leg of his trip to London and Paris with a searching eye which bypasses the trivia. With his mother's consent, the thread of Richard's trip is picked up in the quagmire village on the banks of the Thames.

Unpredictable World

Before leaving from New York, though, he was aware that "Mom" would probably be overly solicitous about his welfare, and Richard feeling fully aware of the situation said "I hope you will not worry or get excited over the newspapers. Here again the Near East is prone to trouble. . . . The U. S. State Department through its consular service is most zealous of the well being of its citizens so the dangers seem to be only those of living in a rather interesting and unpredictable world and I intend to know a good deal more about that world from this trip."

While in London, Richard had an eye for almost everything that he was able to capture in his brief stay, including the vernacular. "To ring" means "to phone," an expletive is a lift (and) gasoline is petrol.

Following an interview with the head of British Methodism, Donald Soper, Tuesday, June 25 proved a busy day with tours of the Tower of London, Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral and in the intervening days before pushing on to Paris, Shakespeare's birthplace at Stratford-on-Avon, Oxford, home of many of Britain's illustrious sons in their under-graduate days, and Warwick Castle took up most of the time of a round-the-clock schedule.

Ochiltree Sets Contract For Bond Issue

PERRYTON — (Special) — A contract was signed Monday with the First Southwest Co. of Plainview and Dallas by the Ochiltree county commissioner to handle a $150,000 bond issue for the purpose of rebuilding Wolf Creek Dam.

The county agreed to pay a fee of $1,950 for the cost of handling bond proceedings, including attorney's market opinion. This fee is to include also the election supplies, printing of bonds and other fees in connection with the preparation of election documents.

In event the $150,000 bond issue does not carry, the county will not be liable for the fee of $1,950.

The First Southwest Co. was low bidder on the proposed issue of $15,000. They bid an average interest rate of 2.988 per cent, total interest of $80,347.32 for a 30-year lease.

Two other bonding companies submitted bids. They were the Central Investment Co., Lubbock, 3.198 per cent and total interest of $85,994.33; and the Burt-Hamilton Co., of Dallas, 3.0953 average interest rate and total cost of $85,235.00.

The First Southwest Co. will prepare all the necessary preliminary data for a bond election and within another week or so it is expected that the court will be ready to set a date and order the bond election.

Only property owners will be eligible to vote in this bond election.

Talked With MP's

On Thursday, June 20, Richard "talked with heads of financial and political sections of the U. S. Embassy, then interviewed a Conservative and Labor member of Parliament. One is amazed that the basic principles of the welfare state are accepted by both parties."

"They are very generous," Richard observed, "with their busy time for curious foreigners. Relations with the U. S. are at a high peak, says U. S. Embassy."

Summing up the British scene he finds Englishmen "very conscious of history. . . . These are a plodding but determined people. Vestiges of austerity movement mostly gone as prosperity resumes."

On this keynote which serves as thumbnail sketch which succinctly wraps up the picture in that "right little island," this world traveler was off to Paris for a glimpse of Versailles, Les Invalides, the Louvre and the Mona Lisa, the Arch of Triumph, the world's most beautiful boulevards and an opportunity to get to speak with and know something of the French people. He was the pleasure of interviewing the American Ambassador, Douglas Dillon, who Richard says "is very cooperative and gave insight into French internal.

Unfortunately for this article and his reading public, the main leg of the trip for Richard is only beginning. He will have the happy opportunity of exploring the lands which theologically have been his main concern during the past three years of his schooling. For from now until he flies from Tel Aviv, Israel, to Paris on Aug. 19, he will sojourn across some 20 centuries of history before the birth of Christ.

It will take him to Athens, Cairo, Beirut, Damascus, Jerusalem and Haifa. Almost three weeks will be spent in Israel.

This chronicle of Richard's trip across the lands of the Pharoos of Moses, Jesus, and Mohammed should gain in fascination because of his intellectual and feeling insight. Maybe when Rev. Richard returns, he will let the Pampa community in on the concluding installment of his trip through Biblical lands. It should prove a treat.

O! Summer has come!
Cold weather has went!
Folks go around
All hot and limp.
Their aim in life
(For your edification)
Is to leave at once
On extended vacations.
(With pay, of course.)

AH! VACATIONS! . . . Aren't you glad they were invented? Among the "miny miny" lucky ones going on vacations . . . returning from vacations . . . now on vacations . . . are the F. M. Culbertsons and Bonnie Roses who are still beating the heat up Alaska way . . . O! would that we were there, reclining beside them on a nice, chilly iceberg, looking at the northern light's shiver and shake over the frosty igloos. . . Bro — ther! That's living . . . the W. E. and Jimmy Jordans are lazing away the days in Hot Springs, Arkansas, on a three-weeks' vacation, no less . . . Melvin and Lois Watkins are cooling off in the mile-high city of Denver, Colo. . . Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Grady and son are also in Colorado . . . not in any definite spot . . . Just Colorado. . . George and Barbara Whitten have been in our fair city visiting relatives and friends . . . The Roy McMiliens left Tuesday for Wisconsin where they will visit their daughter Blanche and family . . . And, the first of August, Pat and Jack Nichols leave for the popular vacation state — Colorado — to do research on what sort of dry flies are appealing to the wary trout this year . . . The Joe Schroeders returned recently from a wonderful vacation in Montana . . . According to Joe, the fish are biting there, and they plan to return to Montana again in the very near future . . . Mrs. Erdine Dyer is taking a month's (A MONTH) vacation at home doing just as she pleases . . . as any old working gal can tell you — that's pure bliss, what with all the odds and ends eternally waiting to be done . . . that's a nice vacation if you can get it . . . In fact, you can't hardly get them kind no more, to quote our old friend, George Gobel . . . The Reverend Dick Crews and family are gazing at the scenery in Yosemite National Park . . . far from the wear and tear of congregations and church board meetings . . . Lucky, lucky people . . . that we're envious of all these folk, you understand . . . My goodness! No! . . . that green cast to our complexion is, no doubt, due to an atomic dust sunburn.

SOME MAY PLAY, but others must (shudder) work . . . for instance, take Red Wedgeworth . . . that gentleman is knee-deep in the Top O' Texas Rodeo and Horse Show activities . . . His energy, vim and vitality exhaust all observers . . . But Red remains as fresh as a daisy . . . And these girls on the verge of becoming brides have no minutes to fritter aimlessly away either . . . Just recently we observed Billie Mae Osborne purchasing notes to write "Thank You" for the many shower gifts . . . and dashing hither and yon doing a thousand last-minute things that brides-to-be must do . . . However, Billie appeared cool and delectable in a daffodil yellow frock . . . then there's Elsie (Mrs. Emmett) Gee industriously cutting stencils and mimeographing the year books for the Civic Club . . . It's painstaking work.

HAVE YOU NOTICED the lovelies Aubrey Jones has working for him in the City Tax office? . . . There's Laverne Bruce, a brownette . . . Betty Cook, a red-head . . . and Dorothy Gillis of the dark brown hair and olive complexion . . . Such charming girls should make the agony of paying taxes not quite so distasteful . . . That perfect set-up of beauty and brains is too good to last though, and Betty Cook and husband are leaving this week end for Lubbock . . . He will enroll in Texas Tech there and Betty has a position awaiting her . . . we hate to lose the Cooks, but wish them the best of luck.

MRS. L. E. WILLS AND MRS. REVA TOMLIN were hostesses at an informal shower for Ina Petrie recently . . . Ina will soon become the bride of G. K. Reading . . . It was a silver shower . . . meaning that the guests donated money . . . Now that's a nice thought . . . the bride can purchase just what she needs and wants . . . the floral decorations were arrangements of yellow roses and golden iris . . . and the hostesses presented Ina with a yellow rose corsage.

THE BUD ANDERSONS and family are visiting here with relatives . . . Bud was formerly Oil editor and city editor of The Pampa News . . . He doesn't look a day older than he did when he left Pampa . . . perhaps his job agrees with him . . . Bud is with the Santa Ana Register in Santa Ana, California.

THIS WEEK . . . Mrs. Vi Willis, Mrs. Ronald Hubbard, Mrs. Kirk Duncan, Mrs. Fred Hobart and Mrs. W. A. Morgan have been attending the Presbyterian School of the Southwest in Santa Fe . . . the ladies are due back this week end . . . Leona and John Woods spent last week end in Roanoke, Texas, visiting John's mother . . . and were they ever glad to get back to Pampa, and our deliciously cool nights! . . . the Woods say it is terrifically hot in that section of Texas.

WE ARE GETTING well into the canning season . . . Home canning, that is . . . Sure! . . . even in these days of frozen foods some industrious homemakers line their pantry shelves with jars and jars of their own canning . . . with an air-conditioned home, it isn't such hot work . . . and nothing is as good as the homemade variety . . . Tuesday Mrs. C. L. Mason, Mrs. James Cullpepper, and Mrs. Mid Buck went wild plum gathering on the river cove to Lefors and have industriously canned jars and jars of clear ruby red jelly . . . How'd you like some of THAT jelly on hot biscuits or waffles for breakfast?

POTPOURRI . . . We saw Mrs. Sandra Wells excited over some negatives she'd carelessly left in a store and rejoicing greatly when she found them right where she left them . . . We like Rev. Edwin Hall's and Floyd Watson's crewwcuts . . . flat tops . . . or whatever type haircut you call 'em . . . To steal a phrase from teenagers . . . they're "Cool, Man, Cool!" . . . saw Dorothy and Roy King here visiting from TCU . . . Roy is studying for the ministry . . . Dorothy is the former Dorothy Meers . . . she looked very chic in a tailored black suit and wide-brim straw hat . . . Mrs. Morris Enloe, crisp and refreshing in a dream of a white frock . . . her husband, Morris, has something new, too . . . a charcoal and pink cap . . . However, Morris isn't as "dreamy" as his wife . . . the M. B. Wardens are the proud possessors of a new station wagon . . . we've heard that Mr. Warden has an interest in a uranium mine in New Mexico . . . do you happen to have a little Geiger Counter in your home? . . . Something new is being added to the home of Rachel and Parks Brumley . . . They are building a den . . . and already are wondering how they ever got along without it . . . we heard Noel Thompson bewailing the fact that the Texas Railroad Commission officers aren't air-conditioned . . . in this heat! . . . Mrs. Marian Osborne of the Girl Scout office has a new station wagon, too . . . a fiery red . . . One of our favorite people is Mrs. Coyle Ford of the attractive grey hair and soft blue eyes . . . 'Tis said that Harvey Nensiel and John McFall have been bragging about some fish they caught recently that weighed approximately from one and one-half to two pounds . . . But it seems, the fish increase in size, with each telling . . . Mrs. J. B. Wilson has finally removed the bandage from her arm . . . she was the victim of a bad burn sustained while slaving over a hot stove.

ELMA VANDERBURG was HOSTESS to one of her delightful bridge parties Wednesday night . . . That Elma really does things up brown . . . The party was in honor of Mrs. Charles Wira of Amarillo . . . Formerly Jean Haw of Pampa . . . on the mantel was an exquisite arrangement of snapdragons and roses . . . miniature corsages of carnations were fastened to the tallies . . . jeweled numbers marked the places . . . and the bridge tables were centered with dainty bouquets of bachelor buttons and sweet peas . . . the guests were served delicious homemade ice cream topped with red raspberries and cookies . . . jeweled lipsticks and cigarette cases were given as prizes . . . and the honoree received a gift also . . . Among those attending were Va. Lue Boyle of Bellflower, Calif. . . Twoley Cone of Borger . . . Louise Rapstiens of Amarillo . . . Gwen Gray, Freda LeMond . . . Elaine Lively, Sally Bridges, Marjorie Morris, Sandra Ladd, Clarice Nutting, Betty Craig and Margaret Payne.

See ya' next week,

Jacqueline J. Merchant Becomes Bride Of Richard Harold Crossman Saturday

Miss Jacqueline Jenness Merchant became the bride of Richard Harold Crossman at 7 p.m. Saturday in the First Presbyterian Church, Pampa. Rev. Ronald Hubbard officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Merchant, 1356 Garland, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crossman, 1501 N. Russell.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported rosepoint lace and nylon tulle over taffeta. The moulded bodice of lace over taffeta, styled with a long torso line, had a scoop neckline and short, lace sleeves. The bodice and sleeves were accented with embroidered crystals and seed pearls. The bouffant, chapel-length skirt of tulle, was fashioned with a pannier of lace. Her only jewelry was a heart-shaped necklace with a diamond center, and she wore elbow-length lace mitts, edged with nylon tulle. Her fingertip veil of illusion, edged with silk lace, fell from a calotte cap accented with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade of lily-of-the-valley and white orchids. She carried out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue.

Mrs. R. E. Russell of Boulder, Colo., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jurbee Speer of Amarillo and Mrs. Ivan Martin of Pampa. All wore identical gowns of mist blue embroidered taffeta. The fitted bodices were fashioned with wide, picture-frame collars with a bow and long streamers in the back. They wore matching mitts and headresses and carried cascades of pink roses surrounded by stephanotis.

Candlelighters were Miss Thera Warner and Miss Kay Baker, both of Pampa. They wore gowns of blue nylon, styled with a long torso bodices with matching velvet bows and streamers. Their bouffant skirts were ballerina length. The carried bouquets of pink baby roses centered with tall candles.

Janet Dorman of Amarillo, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink organza dress with a bertha collar of flowered embroidery and mitts of pink organza. She carried a basket of rose petals.

Sgt. Leon Taylor of Pampa served as best man. Ushers were Airman Jimmy Baldrige, Lt. Jimmy Howard, Richard Miller and Dale Shackelford.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Merchant wore a petal pink dress of pure silk taffeta with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua lace dress with rhinestone trim and matching accessories. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

The couple was married before an altar flanked by candelabras with tall tapers, baskets of white gladioli and mums, and greenery. The pews were marked with white mums tied with white satin and lace.

Mrs. H. A. Yoder organist, played traditional nuptial selections. Floyd Stone, vocalist, sang "Through the Years," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Following the ceremony, the reception was held in the educational building of the church. The table was covered with a white organza cloth over blue and centered with an arrangement of white delphinium and pink roses in a crystal bowl. The bride's cake, a double wedding ring.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Myron R. Dorman Jr. of Amarillo, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Langdon D. Harrison of Albuquerque, N. M., cousin of the bride. Guests were registered by Mrs. Clyde Hollingsworth of Houston.

For the wedding trip to Colorado Springs and surrounding area, the bride wore a grey cotton tweed suit with white accessories. Her corsage was an orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will reside in Amarillo after September.

The bride was graduated from Stephens College, Columbia, Mo. She attended Oklahoma A&M College, Stillwater, Okla., where she was a member of Kappa Delta sorority. The bridegroom attended the University of Texas and will continue his studies at West Texas State College in the fall. He is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Even the most relaxed parents can get panicky when Baby goes on a milk strike. If it calms you, give him puddings frequently and soup up his cereal with lots of milk. But try not to fret, he'll soon be eager for milk and then will probably be bored with fruit.

Hard to tell what's going to entertain Baby: one's baby does on crawling around with a walnut in each hand. He likes the click-click noise he makes. The parents fussed for a while but finally figured — "why not?"

Between 12 and 18 months is the age when Baby will want to try to feed himself. Give him some time when he's good and hungry. Don't pay him any attention or fret if he throws his food around. He'll learn gradually if you're relaxed.

Dear Lady
Regarding the inquiry as to blankets, I have had many gorgeous ones made at two places — the Karakul in Brownsville, Ore., Brownsville Woollen Mills, and the white wool in pastel tones at the Baron Woollen Mills, Brigham, Utah.

I've had this done for many years and they have always been satisfactory. These firms send their catalogues upon request. If the lady would care to see my blankets I would be pleased to show her and tell her how to handle the matter.

How much I enjoy your articles in the paper and I like to respond when I can help someone. Being unable to walk without a chair I surely appreciate the many blessings received from kind thoughtful friends and neighbors. May our good Father continue to bless you, dear.

WORKING MOTHER

Dear Grace Friend,
First I want to tell you I enjoy your column and read it every day. Then I want to thank you for helping me once before. I have another problem I think you can help me with. It will help someone else at the same time. I tried to solve my problem by advertising but wasn't able to get results.

I would like to contact a working mother, one maybe who does not make too much money and needs a home for herself and children. I have a new home with a yard for children to play in which I would like to share. I own this home but must work to earn my living. I would like a nice woman with children to live in it and hire me to take care of the children. I also could do housework and cooking. Such a situation would be of advantage to us both.

I am sure there must be a mother who would like this sort of arrangement if she knew about it. Like to share

CARE FOR CHILD

Dear Grace Friend
I would like to find some employed mother who needs a reliable lady to care for a school age child.

While my general health is on a par with an 58 year old woman, I have some stiff joints which prevent normal activity. Therefore I'm handicapped in going out to work — but if there are no steps in a home to climb I can do light housework and some cooking. When I lived there I stayed with a lady who had two daughters. She was transferred to another city and since I did not like that climate I decided to come back to Indiana but I find the severe winters here in Indiana hard to take and I have a host of friends out there. If I can find a suitable place where I'd feel useful in exchange for room and kitchen privilege I'd be glad to pay my board or do my own cooking.

Desserts Are Last For Mature Beauty

Subtly, grace and charm, taken as a balanced diet, are the bases for real beauty after 30. Whatever "desserts" or extras a woman wishes to add are up to her. But they cannot take the place of the nutritious threesome.

No fancy decoration should be made to bear the burden of beauty that rightfully depends upon a woman's nature. A really heavy woman can be quite beautiful if she acts and feels beautiful.

But no jewelry or fancy hat is going to make her beautiful if her voice is like a foghorn and her movements like an amphibious tank.

Keeping the "desserts" and additions in proportion allows the real beauty to remain clear. For this reason, heavy, exotic jewelry looks good on very few grown women. Fantastic hats and overdone shoes are an equal liability.

But, answer the mature readers, everyone knows how old such-and-such a movie star is. And she wears all kinds of jewelry and hats that are out of this world.

This is indeed true. But these women don't forget the bases of their beauty. Their clothes are well-designed and suitable. And they wear the jewelry or hat as an eye-catching decoration on their grace. Catching eyes is their business.

Suggestions Given For Better Photos

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Oooh, those beach snapshots from last year!

They make one feel as if she ought never to go to the beach again. Squinting eyes, pot-stomach, enormous feet, open mouth — the results are awful.

But surely everyone who can will go swimming again this year and there will be pictures again. Trying to make them as attractive as possible is an important part of beauty.

First of all, if you're standing up for a "mug" shot, stand equally on both legs. Resting on one hip produces a very distorted picture.

It's easier to avoid this problem altogether by having your picture taken doing something. Pictures of people standing, just standing, make monotonous fare in an album. Be in the act of putting on a swimming cap or unpacking the lunch and the picture will seem more natural.

Posture for snapshots should be a compromise between a West Point ramrod back and a slumped look. Try to lift the head and neck out of the shoulders. This will pull the back into line without hunching the shoulders.

RUTH MILLET

She is 28 years old, unmarried, and still living with Dad and Mother.

Her parents like having her with them but she is beginning to see that the years are slipping by. She is spending more and more of her leisure time with her parents and their friends. She is making few friends of her own.

She asks: "Would I be an ungrateful daughter if I told my parents I want to get an apartment of my own? I know they would argue against it, and I am sure they would be hurt to think I would prefer to live alone. But I can't be just a daughter all of my life, can I?"

You will — because some girls are still just daughters when they are middle-aged women. They didn't have the strength and determination to live their own lives.

But it isn't right, or even necessary, for a young woman to settle for being "just a daughter."

So don't be afraid to strike out and make a life of your own. Your parents may be hurt momentarily. They will get over it.

And, if they are like most parents, they will in time come to respect you for having broken away and made a life for yourself.

Your parents had to break away from their parents when they married. They undoubtedly would not be hurt if you left them to marry

Martha Hopkins Feted At Shower

Miss Martha Hopkins, bride-elect of Harrison Bowers of Chicago, Ill., was honored with a kitchen shower recently in the home of Mrs. H. E. Schwartz, 1616 N. Russell, with Mrs. Richard Russell of Boulder, Colo., the former Harriet Schwartz, as co-hostess.

The honoree was presented a corsage of pink daisies and miniature kitchen gadgets. Other honored guests were Mrs. James Hopkins, mother of the honoree, and Miss Virginia Hopkins, sister of the bride-elect.

and make a home for your husband. Though you have no immediate plans for marrying, you still have the right to make a life of your own.

Married or single a grown woman is more than just a daughter. She is an individual who has a right to lead her own life.

If there's some leftover roast beef in the refrigerator, try this quick but very good Monday dinner recipe. We had it last night. None was left.

Roast Beef and Spaghetti
(4-6 servings)

Two tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 medium-sized onions, thinly sliced; 1 10 1/2-ounce can beef gravy or 2 cups leftover brown gravy, 1 10 1/2-ounce can condensed tomato soup, 3 cups leftover roast beef, cubed; 1 1/2 teaspoon chili powder, 1 tablespoon salt, 3 quarts boiling water, 8 ounces spaghetti, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley.

Melt butter or margarine over medium heat. Add onions and saute until tender. Add gravy, soup, beef and chili powder. Cook over low heat 15 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Meanwhile, add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add spaghetti so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally until tender. Drain in colander. Add parsley and toss lightly.

Serve beef sauce with spaghetti.

Hearty Noodle Soup
(6-8 servings)

Three tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 medium-sized onion, sliced; 2 cups diced canned ham, 2 quarts chicken bouillon, 1 No. 303 can diced carrots, 1 1-pound can onions, 1 No. 303 can cut green beans, 1/4 teaspoon thyme, 8 ounces fine egg noodles (about 4 cups).

Melt butter or margarine and add sliced onion and ham. Cook over medium heat until onion is tender. Add bouillon, vegetables, and thyme. Heat to boiling point. Gradually add noodles so that mixture continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until noodles are tender.

Couple Honored At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Patton, 1523 Williston, honored T-Sgt. and Mrs. William G. Brown of Guam with a dinner recently. The Browns are on their way to Germany.

Attending were Messrs. and Meses. Frank Hewitt and Melvin Beigle and family, all of Skellytown; and Mrs. Robert Farrow and children of Frinwood.

The women made plans for a gift box, with the bringing of a gift to each meeting to be rotated among the members. Plans were also made for a ritual practice session, to be held at 3 p.m. July 24, in the Elks Lodge.

Attending were Meses. Sam Williams, Marie Herring, Lynn Cridler, J. M. Foster, Jim Dean, John Gikas, Kenneth Huey, Jim Terrell, A. Barber, G. L. Stafford, and Bill McComas.

Conservative Touch For Mature Teens

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Older women look at teenagers with a kind of indulgent amusement when the teenagers start padding - their age with fictitious years. They know it's all too soon that the young ladies will start peeling the years off.

Realistically, it's quite annoying to be "thought too young for a job, when one is quite a responsible 17 or 18.

Adding years may help. More often than not it backfires, though. One thing that surely doesn't help is trying to add years via the beauty route. Long, garish fingernails on a gal applying for a typist's job only prove that she is foolish and impractical, not that she is "over 21." Heavy make-up only looks pathetic on a fresh young face.

An elaborate, piled-high hairdo doesn't make one look more wise and mature. And generally, it's pretty unbecoming to a teenager's face.

Here are a few simple ways to add an appearance of responsible maturity: no hollyhock socks and run-over loafers, but madrum heels and stockings; a dress or suit rather than a cotton peasant blouse and full skirt; conservative gloves and hat; under-played make-up; a quiet, relaxed voice; upright posture.

These will probably convince no one that you're a minute older than your actual age. But they will convince many people that you are quite mature and grown-up enough to do the job.

The small Balkan kingdom of Montenegro was absorbed by Yugoslavia after World War I.

In ancient times, people blamed their colds on such things as the influence of comets.

BABY

If the new pair of shoes for Baby is a full size longer than the last pair, you've probably waited too long in replacing the small pair. Keep a watchful finger on his toes so he won't wear shoes the least bit too small for him.

A group of mothers in the park discovered that all of the kids were eager to eat the crackers from a special "treasure" box one mother carried. They rejected crackers from other locales. Many now carry boxes that have no other use but the afternoon surprise.

When Baby gets to walking well it's time to store the playpen and put a gate on the door of his room. Give him some time to wander around the house, but spells in his "child-proofed" room will be relaxing for you.

Skelly Young People Presented Hay Ride

SKELLYTOWN — (Special) — Kenneth Honaker entertained a group of his friends with a hay ride to Jim Nix Lake recently. The group played games.

Attending were Regina Baker, Charlotte Welborn, Glenna Hall, Lowetta Everhart, Gloria Jones, Calvin Irvin, Kenneth Honaker, Jesse Honaker, Allan Harmon, Kelly Brown, and Skep Murrell.

Glorified, Highly-Styled Spectator Rated Summer Fashion Shoe 'Par Excellence'

What's the most popular dress of the season? The shirt dress, in everything from gingham to organdy or silk. The shirt dress goes everywhere. And what's the shoe for it? The new glorified, more highly styled spectator which again emerges as a fashion shoe par excellence and a basic in the well-chosen shoe wardrobe.

Spectators for spring tended toward monotone and two-tone effects. For summer the two-color spectator is back in the picture. But how far removed from the stodgy utilitarian black-and-white and brown-and-white of a few seasons back!

Take for instance a town spectator that combines black patent with pure white buckskins. One stunning dress model sports a high curved heel and quarter of the gleaming black, a slim pointed vamp of white. Connecting the two, an arrow band of stitched black with white perforations. Just the thing for the beautiful black and white cottons that are now accepted town fashions. In the same color scheme, a pump with graceful curved throat line banded in pinked black patent to match the high heel.

More casual, but still with the feeling for elegance, is a brown and white spectator, this time with lower heel of stacked leather in brown to match a fringed brown leather tongue, also on white buck. Gleaming white calfskin in a formal spectator has a high narrow heel of black patent for the only note of contrast. Fine perforations on vamp and quarter give a cool summer look.

A favorite trick in a high-heeled shell spectator for dress wear is heel and tip of contrasting leather, black, brown or navy with the rest of the shoe in white buck.

This is smart indeed with summer town frocks, and will undoubtedly inspire spectator fashion for the coming season in black, dark blue and soft fruitwood and neutral browns.

Photographs Called Proportion Is Key For The Tall Girl

Who's the all-out favorite subject for the portrait photographer? Why, none other than Baby, of course. Thirty-one per cent of all portrait photographs are of babies under four years of age. Today the best-loved baby portraits are informal with baby dressed comfortably and appropriately, often playing with a favorite toy. What a contrast with the stiff, unnatural poses of yesteryear when children were put into fancy dresses with starched ruffles that prickled and ribbons that tickled.

Many proud parents like to display a series of photographs of a child, at different ages, within a single frame. Cute idea for a little girl's pictures is to choose a mat or mount of pink and white checked gingham and to paint the frame pink. A boy's pictures look smart and masculine with a blue denim background and frame painted blue or with a waxed natural finish.

According to Bradford Bachrach, famous bridal photographer, the most popular wedding portrait today is three-quarter length. Though he and his photographers always take a close-up and a full-length portrait as well, and many brides order all three styles, the one that is most frequently ordered for gift-giving is the three-quarter length. Why? Mr. Bachrach believes that a bride is more relaxed, and therefore more natural in a pose that allows her to sit comfortably. This is a portrait of a bride in her wedding gown rather than stressing the gown as in the full-length of focussing just on the face as in the close-up.

Shower Presented For Pampa Bride

Mrs. William Pippen was honored with a bridal shower recently in the home of Mrs. Ivan Noblitt, 1013 Charles, with Mrs. W. A. Pippen, mother of the bridegroom, as co-hostess.

The honoree and members of the houseparty were presented corsages of pink and white daisies. In the receiving line were Mrs. Ivan Noblitt, Mrs. W. A. Pippen and the honoree.

Refreshments of coffee, punch, cookies, fruits and nuts were served. The table was covered with a white silver damask cloth, centered with an arrangement of pink and white daisies.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Dick Batson, Sam Malone, Homer Johnson, Ralph Gardner, and Misses Mary Pippen, sister of the bridegroom, and Sandra Noblitt.

Approximately 75 persons attended the event.

Young Gourmet Performs Test, Joining Food Industry's Battle Of Cake Mixes

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The battle of the cake mixes roars across the American kitchen. Stroke by stroke and minute by minute victory changes hands.

Pillsbury and General Mills plunged into the fray first and stand neck and neck. Doughty Duncan Hines threw in his defiant spoon soon afterwards. Now, almost at the same time, General Foods and Dromedary leap into the embattled mixing bowl with their newest mixes.

The winner — the cake that gets there "fastest with the leastest" strokes. The American housewife will award the prize.

Dromedary splashed into the struggle with a swank luncheon at Hampshire House, replete with waiters in a cake parade and TV stars. Next day General Foods unfurled its jiztime banner of Swansdown at the Stork Club.

Earlier General Mills' new Betty Crocker mix sounded the call to battle at the fashionable St. Regis and Pillsbury challenged all contenders at a gourmet's paradise, the Brussels restaurant.

Swansdown has nacked off five minutes from the former time, cutting it to three. Dromedary takes a little longer because of two important steps, but the time is way, way down. In either case, mama's arm will not get tired, so they shout.

Both Swansdown and Dromedary, far behind Pillsbury and Betty Crocker, are hurling hundreds of thousands of advertising dollars into the charge. By newspaper, magazine and TV ads they will defy the present leaders, claiming quicker, easier and better mixes for America's homemakers.

We called nine-and-a-half-year-old Patrick Maddox in from the basketball court to make the test. "Look, fellow, get to work," we to him. "There are two new cake mixes on the kitchen table. They both claim to be the best, the quickest to mix and easiest on the arm. All the ads say any one can make them, no one need get tired. Now go to it — you're the knight in kitchen armor to make the test."

Pat is rated as one of America's youngest gourmets and knows his way around a kitchen as well as the basketball court.

He knotted an apron over his dungarees and emptied first a box of the new Swansdown instant yellow cake mix into a bowl. He added two eggs and a cup of water, according to the directions. The clock ticked off just three minutes as his strong right arm beat the batter.

It took two more minutes to get later, got a coating of his favorite chocolate frosting.

"Well, who wins?"

"If I ask the gang," he said, rushing to the phone. Six kids hurried over. They ate slice after slice of both cakes, stuffing themselves to a crumby dark brown.

"Well, fellows, which mix is best?"

They looked up from the two cake plates in astonishment. "What do you mean — aren't they both the same one?"

Recent Miami Bride Honored At Shower

MIAMI — (Special — Mrs. Harold Greenhouse was complimented with a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. R. J. Bean recently.

Mrs. Bean greeted the guests, and Mrs. Ray Manning presided at the guest register.

Mrs. Lloyd Wilkins served individual heart-shaped pink cakes, and Mrs. S. E. Mayo Jr. presided at the punch bowl. Pink and white mints were also served.

The table was covered with a cut-work cloth over pink. An arrangement of white gladiolas and pink asters was used as the centerpiece, with pink candles in crystal candelabra on either side. Miss Sammie Jo Bowers provided background piano music.

The honoree, her mother, Mrs. Jess Lawson, the mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. A. G. Greenhouse, were presented corsages.

Mrs. Rene R. Ratliff presented the gifts to the bride. About 30 people attended and 80 others sent gifts.

New Trend Designed To Replace Bacon, Eggs, Coffee With Soup For Breakfast

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Picture this: You get up some morning, shower, get dressed and come down to breakfast. Lo and behold, pea soup.

At the moment, such a breakfast menu might throw you into a snarl for the whole day. You might even growl at your wife, or your dog. But, if certain people have their way, that picture is going to happen and you are going to like it.

These certain people are the Very Important Peasoumanufacturers. Also clam chowder, and consomme. Because we are right

In the beginning of what one big soup outfit hopes will be the Breakfast Soup Era.

It seems these tureen tycoons are looking around for new fields to conquer. With the true spirit of the American industry, they are ever on the search for new markets. And their roving, eager eyes caught sight of the average American breakfast nook. There they found such ghastly things as bacon and eggs, cereal, waffles, even an occasional kipper — but no soup.

And so a full-scale publicity and advertising campaign is under way, with avowed aim of mak### ing YOU eat soup for breakfast.

They have some pretty nice people on their side. There is, first, M. Louis Diet, former master chef at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel here, who invented Vichyssoise. He says a bowl of soup is often served in France for breakfast even "the onion soup."

That may explain the political situation there.

Then there was the late great pianist Paderewski, who is supposed to have regularly eaten a breakfast of sauerkraut soup smothered in sour cream. For one reason or another, he died.

Tallulah Bankhead reportedly dotes on cold Vichyssoise for breakfast. The Finns eat thick potato soup in the mornings. The Danes have beer soup. The Scots like breakfast barley broth.

So, you see, there is nothing alarming about the prospect of soup for breakfast. The Finns, Danes and Scots would probably shudder at the idea of bacon and eggs. All depends on what you're used to.

A normal, red-blooded American man, used to bacon and eggs, was experimentally fed a big, hearty bowl of clam chowder for breakfast. His reaction: "Biyuh!" Translated loosely, that means: "Whassa matter, you stay up all night or something?"

Of course it may take a few soup infusions for this subject, or others, to acquire the taste for early morning soup. It is conceivable that a few soups from now, this same man might confide to his friends: "You know, I just can't start the day until I have my soup."

The soup people profess to believe that soup is ideal breakfast food for reasons other than increasing the gross sales. It is hot, they say, and who will dare to dispute them? It is also, they claim, filling and it certainly is. And they trot out dictations who maintain a hot, filling breakfast is what us bacon-and-eggers need.

And it is quick and easy to make. For those among us who find frying an egg arduous, soup may be the answer.

They also suggest combining soup with other, more usual breakfast dishes. Try poaching an egg in consomme. Or sprinkling cereal bits over tomato soup. They say nothing about submerging a waffle in chicken soup.

And so, just for the sake of fairness, some morning sit yourself down to a big breakfast of pea soup. Maybe next New Year.

Golf Equipment And Proper Dress Told To Ladies Golf Group By Hart Warren

Golf equipment and dress were explained to the Ladies Golf Association Friday in the Pampa Country Club by Pro Hart Warren. The program concluded a series of three presented by Warren.

Assisting with the program were Mrs. Scott Hall, C. F. McGinnis and Lynn Boyd.

Warren showed the "bare necessities" in golf equipment which included three clubs, held together with two straps; to which a handle and a small golf ball bag were attached.

Actual "perfect golf clubs" and bags for children from 8 to 11 years of age were shown and explained, as well as those for children from 12 to 16 years of age. He stated the clubs were not toys, but good clubs. They differed from adult clubs in weight and length. The size of the clubs also depend on the size and strength of the child, he explained. He pointed out that small women sometimes use the clubs for the 12-16 year olds.

"If you're going to look like a golfer, you ought to dress like one and have the necessary equipment," Warren stated.

He then showed two sets of ladies clubs and bags, explaining that a wide "range" of equipment is available in a wide range of prices. He advised the women to "buy from a man qualified to select a club for you."

The proper golf wear was then modeled by Mrs. Scott Hall and Mrs. C. F. McGinnis and explained by Warren. He said that Bermuda-length shorts are recommended by the U.S. Women's Golf Association. He pointed out that any blouse that gives freedom of arm movement is all right, plus a hat to keep the hair from blowing. Another part of the dress is a glove to keep the club from slipping and to prevent blisters.

Mrs. Hall modeled charcoal gray Bermuda shorts, a pink sleeveless blouse and a pink "brownless" hat with a small visor. In her belt was a ball clip at the back. Mrs. McGinnis wore a charcoal grey golf skirt with a buttoned slit in the back. In her belt was a clip for golf tees. She wore a striped blouse and a figured hat with a small visor. Warren explained that there are tee clips for hats and shoes too.

Mrs. Lynn Boyd then explained how she began taking lessons after years of not being interested. She stated that the doctor said it was healthful.

"It's interesting, to my surprise," she told the women.

Warren added that it also allows a person to forget "outside" problems. He stated that the times not to take lessons is after a person has played and when he has his mind on other things. He recommended playing or taking lessons in the early morning when a person is "more alert, and not fatigued" from the day's work or activities.

The program was introduced by Mrs. R. M. Samples.

Mrs. Charles Brauchle, program chairman, announced that next week's program will be musical numbers by Miss Mary Ann Guthrie and dramatic selections by Miss Mary Wills.

Mrs. Scott Hall announced that Miss Lita Austin and Mrs. Eva Kitchens won the golf balls last week. The door prize for bridge players went to Mrs. Miles O'Laughlin. A planter was won this week by Mrs. H. E. Schwartz.

Pampa Girl Scouts Prepare For 1956 National Round-Up During Encampment

By JANE KADINGO
Pampa News Women's Editor

Girl Scouts throughout the nation are preparing for the National Round-Up in 1956, which will be gathering of Scouts from all over the country to "rough-it" in true Scout style. It will be the first to be held for girls.

Pampa Scouts preparing for the event recently attended the regional Patrol Troop Encampment, a preliminary event on the John Camp "Blue Cedar Ranch" on the Medina River, near San Antonio, with girls from other parts of Texas and Oklahoma.

Pampa girls attending were Becky Skelly, Martha Skelly, Jo Crinklaw, Martha Gordon, Marilyn Wells, Celia Fowler, Mary Ann Wright and Heidi Schneider. They were accompanied by Mrs. Marian Osborne, council assistant and leader of Mariner Troop 22.

At the ranch, the girls camped in three areas, the picnic area, the garden area and Jesus Clearing. The Pampa girls were in the garden area.

Troops consisted of four patrols. With the Pampa patrol in Troop 5 were the Houston, Dallas and West Texas patrols. There were nine troops in all.

Highlights of the camp period included a barbecue for about 400 people staged by the Camps, a rodeo, a visitors day, watching the making of charcoal, guided excavation troops to Indian mounds where the girls could dig for relics, staking game, guided hikes for the study of medicinal plants, birds and fish.

The girls published a camp newspaper and received their mail by "Pony Express" each day. They also sent messages by carrier pigeon to San Antonio, where they were relayed via air mail to their destination. They also had a camp choir for the vesper and church services, with Martha Gordon and Celia Fowler of Pampa as members.

In addition to the guided tours, the girls took hikes, held song fests and campfires. They also presented a "Scouts Own" program with a member of each patrol telling an American folk legend.

The Scouts were prepared for any emergency, such as an injury to a girl, flood or a forest fire in the heavily-wooded area. A car was placed in each area, with pre-arranged emergency signals, such as honking of a horn, set up. They also held an "evacuation drill." Each girl was to prepare a "pack" of a bathing cap, towel, water shoes, and bathing suit, to be worn around the neck. At the sound of the emergency signal the girls "evacuated" to an out-of-danger spot.

The encampment was the second of its kind to be held for girls. It was given national recognition in "Life" magazine and over television. Each girl had to master certain camping skills to be eligible. Pampa girls were chosen on the basis of their proficiency in these skills.

Self-Tortured Woman Defeats Purpose

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

The hostess is perfectly dressed. She has on a becoming dress with an obviously well-fitted girdle underneath. Her hair is crisp from the salon. Her jewelry goes with her coloring and costume.

But her face! When no one is looking, it contorts into an expression of great discomfort. The reason is obvious. Her feet are crammed into a pair of platform sandals that are about as comfortable for her as would be wooden sabots three sizes too small.

Her toe, complete with a corn, is pressing hard on a strap. Her ankles are swelling at a great rate. When she tries to walk on the platform soles, she looks as if she were walking on feet that didn't belong to her.

Taste is relative, true. But this is just plain silly. It has thrown her posture out of line. It is probably responsible for many of her backaches and headaches. It makes a relaxed woman look clumsy. It does not add to her height because she is unable to walk tall while hauling these shoes around.

Why mature women put themselves through this kind of torture is one of the more obscure points in modern life. A woman doesn't have to resort to the very com-

The young man was standing talking to an elderly woman with a cigarette hanging out of his mouth. He probably didn't mean to seem disrespectful. But no man should ever talk to a woman, of any age, with a cigarette dangling from his lips. That is a tough-looking habit.

It is often used in movies to point up the character of a gangster or a hoodlum.

Troester-Smith Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Troester of Dubuque, Ia., have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Charlotte Lavonne, to Gene K. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Emory Smith of Phillips, formerly of Pampa. The couple will be married at 4 p.m. July 24, in the Phillips Methodist Church.

The bride-elect was graduated from Dubuque High School and is now majoring in psychology at the University of Houston. She is a member of Phi Theta Kappa, national honor society.

The prospective bridegroom was graduated from Phillips High School and from Frank Phillips Junior College. He is a senior student at the University of Houston, majoring in Optometry. He is a member of the National Optometric Association.

Lawn Party Fetes Christian SS Class

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stowell, 815 N. Russell, entertained members of the Builders Sunday School Class of the First Christian Church with an ice cream social and lawn party recently.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mrs. J. B. Townsend, Norman Dulaney, G. L. Harkrader, George Neef, Roland Dauer, E. G. Gordon, Bert Jones, Loyd Kuniz, D. V. Burton, Horace Pickett, Ollie Allison, Charles Craddock, Bob Barrett; and Kenney and Steven Dulaney, Alvin Dauer, Joyce Gordon, Carolyn, Anne and Mike Jones, Connie Kuntz, Tommy Allison and Richard Barrett.

Miss Lovita Day And Jess Hagemann Are Married During Double-Ring Rite

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Lovita Malene Day and Jess Carl Hagemann at 2 p.m. July 10, in the Central Baptist Church. Rev. Lawrence E. Barrett officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Day, 600 N. Le-fors, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hage-mann, southeast of city.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of white nylon over taffeta. The fitted bodice was styled with a wing collar and short sleeves. The bouffant skirt was street length. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion fell from a lace hat. She carried a bouquet of white daisies, tied with white ribbon, over a white Bible that was presented to the bride by the church's YWA.

She carried out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue.

Miss Farrell Arlene Day, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue nylon dress over taffeta and white accessories. She carried a bouquet of white and blue daisies.

Eddie Ray served as best man. Ushers were Bobby Becker of Pampa and Edward Prince of Borger.

Pampans' Granddaughter Is Married

Miss Kay Ann Hallmark of Breckenridge, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mullins, 429 N. Dwight, Pampa, and Lt. David L. Buchanan, were united in marriage July 9, in the First Baptist Church of Breckenridge.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hallmark of Breckenridge, and the bride-groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Buchanan of Breckenridge.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white lace and tulle over satin. The moulded bodice was styled with a scoop neckline edged with scallops of lace and long fitted lace sleeves. The bouffant skirt of tulle swept into a chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls accented with sequins. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis, centered with a white orchid, over a white Bible.

Miss Dianne Darnell of Brecken-ridge was maid of honor. Brides-maids were Mrs. Houston Green of College Station, twin sister of the bridegroom; and Misses Karen Lefors High School and from Pam-pa Business College. She is em-ployed by Puraley Motor Company as assistant bookkeeper. The bride-groom was graduated from Pampa High School and from Pampa Busi-ness College. He is employed as a roustabout for Socony Mobil Oil Company.

Prevention Routine For Athlete's Foot

If you're afraid of catching Ath-lete's Foot at the swimming pool this summer, stop worrying!

A new study by the American Public Health Association reports that contrary to popular belief very few cases of the infection are pick-ed up at public pools or locker rooms.

Most people pick up the bug as children, the report adds. It lies dormant just under the skin most of our lives, coming to life when the right conditions turn up. When the environment is hot and moist, the fungus launches a full-scale itching attack — which is why Athlete's Foot rampages on our feet in the summertime.

The way to avoid an outbreak is to keep your feet as dry and cool as possible. Here's a prevention routine recommended by foot spe-cialists:

- (1) Wear shoes made of leather, top and bottom. Leather's urique fibrous structure permits air to circulate inside the shoe and evap-orate foot moisture rapidly, since evaporation is in itself a cooling process, foot temperatures are re-duced when all-leather shoes are worn.
- (2) Wash your feet once or twice daily, and dry carefully between the toes. It's best to use a corner of the towel as a blotter.
- (3) Use a foot powder after bath-ing to further absorb moisture, and sprinkle some powder in your shoes and hosiery as well.
- (4) Never wear the same shoes two days in a row — give them a chance to air out. If your feet perspire excessively, wear white socks, since the dye in colored socks may act as an additional skin irritant.
- (5) Do not wear sneakers or gym shoes, except for short play pe-riods. Perspiration won't evapo-erate through the sole and starched canvas uppers. Change back to all-leather shoes when the game is over.

"I wouldn't trade my electric range for any other type of cooking in the world. It's so easy to cook electrically. The oven bakes wonderful cakes. The deep well is keen for beans, stews, and foods like that, and everything is done so evenly when I use the broiler."

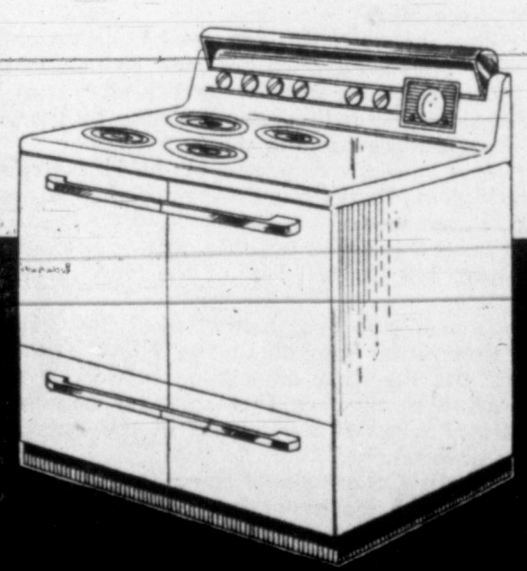

You'll eventually cook electrically, for it's the modern way. Why not now?

The Hidden School Masters

A RECENT NEWS STORY:

AUSTIN, May 9 — "Outside influences" on local districts of Texas' public school system are in for a thorough investigation by the Texas House.

The probe, to last two years, was approved 94-36 by the House today.

Special study will be given to recent school troubles in Irving and Houston.

The action came as the House approved a resolution by Rep. Floyd Bradshaw of Weatherford, authorizing a five-member committee to make the survey and report back to the legislature convening in 1957.

Bradshaw's resolution ordered the committee to check on the influence of "local" and "outside" groups to the school systems.

The resolution made particular reference to the National Education Association, check into the firing of George W. Eby as superintendent of the Houston schools in 1953 and the controversy over the attempt of the former school board of the North Texas city of Irving to fire Supt. of Schools Dr. John L. Beard earlier this year.

Bradshaw, a former teacher, pointed out in his resolution that "the State of Texas provides more than $200,000,000 or 30 per cent of its annual expenditures" for the support of the school system, and therefore had the right to check on the operation of the system.

The Weatherford representative said he had not "indicted" anyone with the resolution, but felt the House should know about any "outside groups" exerting pressure on teachers.

If you are dissatisfied with the public schools—and most people are in varying degree—don't put the blame on the local school board. The truth of the matter is the school board is almost entirely powerless to make the schools any better than they are, or any worse. School boards, by the purposeful design of an enormously powerful political lobby, have been reduced in importance and function to the point where they are "trustees" not of what is taught, and how, and by whom—but they are actually "trustees" only of the physical plants in which teaching and learning occurs. They are custodians of the brick and the buses. They are citizens who exercise the taxpayer's physical control of the school plant.

The schools of Pampa are controlled by men and women whose names you've never heard... whose names the members of the local school board have never heard... whose power is so overwhelming the school board is helpless to oppose it... yet, whose approach is so deft, the local board doesn't realize it exists...

An organization called the National Education Association (NEA) controls the schools of Pampa.

If you've heard of it at all, chances are you read about it in this newspaper. Most people, in most towns where the NEA holds power, have never heard of the NEA. One of the cardinal precepts of the NEA philosophy is to let the masses know only what has been carefully prepared for them and in doses controlled by the NEA.

What is the NEA? The Southern Conservative, published in Fort Worth, says the NEA "is an exclusive hierarchy of professional left-wing educators dedicated to the establishment of the New World Social Order which they openly propose to achieve through capturing the minds of American school children and indoctrinating them with the Socialist philosophy."

The special Congressional committee to study tax free foundations (the NEA pays no income taxes) says: "It (the NEA) thus professes itself to be a monopoly. As it is characteristic of organizations that a small group usually controls, it gives one pause to think what such a powerful organization could do if its leaders listened to voices like that of Professor Woelfel." (Woelfel says the NEA is the only group that is capable of undertaking his program of "shaping the future of our collective life... the age of individualism in economy is closing and an age of collectivism is opening... it (the NEA) should identify itself with the underprivileged classes who are the real beneficiaries of public education and who can find their adjustment only in a radically different social order.")

The NEA itself says it is "the only organization that represents or has the possibility of representing the great body of teachers in the United States." The 1935 NEA handbook says it has 490,000 members and 950,000 affiliate members; that it consists of 66 state organizations and 4,434 affiliated associations; that it has 29 departments, 14 headquarters divisions, and 23 commissions and committees.

This year, the NEA claims an increase of 70,000 members. It has a paid staff of 500 at its Washington headquarters. The departments of the NEA include special organizations of school principals, superintendents, etc. Every branch of the school industry has its niche in this vast machine.

Riding herd on the 500 paid workers is James L. McCaskill, who according to Congressional Quarterly News Service, "played a key role in organizing the 40-group coalition (plugging federal aid to schools.) He and his staff are directing a stream of wires and letters urging federal aid."

What is the NEA? Ask Allan Shivers if you can get him in an angry, or confidential mood. He once got mad enough to say, publicly, that the Austin lobbyist for the NEA is in the habit of "shaking his fist" under the nose of the Governor of Texas and demanding things.

That same year the chairman of the House education committee in Austin made substantially the same complaint... out loud.

If you don't think that is either guts or desperation, you never have felt the full fury of the NEA turned on you.

Would you like to hear further what the Congressional Committee said about the NEA? The committee went into the close association between the UN and the NEA line, the line that calls for abandoning old concepts of national sovereignty in the interest of world super-government.

Reported the Congressional committee: "It (the NEA) recommended that the teachers in our schools educate pupils into internationalism and gave specific suggestions as to objectives and methods.

"There is a grave question in the minds of this committee whether this powerful organization of teachers has any right to attempt to promote a uniform program of education on a national basis; but, if such a procedure is proper, it might well be that planning to education our children into a better understanding of the world and its component parts, and how international things work might be highly desirable. The program of the NEA, however, as expressed... went further than a mere educational program. It assumed that because the United Nations had been accepted as an intrinsic part of American foreign policy it should receive virtually unqualified and uncritical support... The intelligent observer cannot escape the conclusions that the agencies of the U.N. themselves in many instances have promoted ideas and concepts which seem antithetical to many of our basic principles... To impose this U.N. concept on our children in the schools is to teach them nonsense..."

And here is the final conclusion of the Congressional Committee.

"Putting the evidence together, we conclude that the National Education Association has been an important element in the tax-exempt world used to indoctrinate American youth with 'internationalism'."

The Congressional committee noted, tersely, that the NEA found the charges "unworthy of further examination" and declined to lower itself to defend itself against the committee's findings.

Very, very educational!

There are miles of testimony on the record, and you are welcome to read a great deal of it by asking your congressman or senators to send you House Report No. 2681, the 432-page report of the Special Committee To Organizations, Dec. 16, 1954.

The Congressional committee developed the parallel between the "international" party line of the U.N. and the program of the NEA. The Southern Conservative of April, 1955, further developed this thesis and discloses the "interlocking relationship" of the UNESCO to the NEA to the White House Conference on Education.

By controlling teachers colleges, the NEA in effect sends out missionaries to staff the public schools. These teachers, in turn, spread the word to the young students in the grade schools, high schools and in the colleges and universities.

The private schools are very little different from the large, tax-endowed universities. The presidents of these private schools very often concern themselves primarily with showing how many new auditoriums or stadiums were built during their administration. They have almost no time for education. And their supply of teachers comes from the same NEA controlled colleges which supply the state universities. They compete with the state schools for quantity, not quality, of graduates. The textbooks are Big Business in themselves. It is almost impossible to get a large textbook house to publish and promote what are called "conservative" textbooks. Indeed, where would they sell them? And they would be subjected to terrible pressure if they were to become known as publishers of non-Liberal texts.

Just as the supply of teachers is controlled by this NEA, and just as the textbook publishers bow to this most powerful lobby, so are the school curricula under the control of the National Education Association.

Like an octopus, the NEA has an arm for each of its little satrapies; but all the little ones are answerable to the Big One.

The NEA controls the U. S. Office of Education. Without the support of the NEA, no man could hold the job of Commissioner of Education. The President would not dare appoint a Secretary of Health, Welfare and Education over the objection of the NEA.

From the federal government to the state government go certain "criteria" and "suggestions" in regard to what is called "education." In order to get money for the school lunch program, you'd better pay attention. It is rather more subtly put, but it is understood, even in the ivory towers of intellectualism, that the jingle of gold is more alluring than the harp of angels.

The State of Texas, to use a typical example, is the second line of command. The state supplies over 60 per cent of the money used to operate Pampa's schools. As we accept this money, we accept also the necessity of selecting our textbooks from a list published by houses approved by the NEA, and further approved by the State of Texas. We must select from this list. By the time the selection reaches our level, the books have already met the peculiar standards of the NEA and the school politicians in Austin.

Those are your children's textbooks. The curriculum in your child's school is another function of the NEA, working through its stooges in Austin.

No school, public or private, can escape the requirements of the state. If the state prescribes two hours a week of social dancing, you will have two hours of social dancing or no money from Gilmer-Aikin, and no diploma for junior.

Who controls Pampa's schools? Are you beginning to see the answer?

The teachers who staff these schools must be licensed. They must have taken APPROVED courses by APPROVED teachers from APPROVED schools.

To emerge from this process with anything but the NEA concept of internationalism, a teacher must be an unusual person. He has, in effect, come through a brainwashing of many years duration. He must fight his way to individualism. He must regain the power of individual and logical thought.

It is the teacher's toughest job; and the gods must smile on the ones who make it! More power to those who do!

Now, actually, what can the local school board do in the realm of what is called "education"?

It cannot control the training of its teachers, nor is the board offered an opportunity to choose from teachers with varied academic backgrounds. Mass production does not make for individualism. If the board should undertake to question teaching prospects as to philosophical concepts, the board members would be subject to a torrent of accusations in which highly skilled orators and schemers from the NEA would show up to accuse them of destroying "academic freedom" and "democracy." It has happened in Texas. Remember the Houston fiasco?

The local board is in the position of a caretaker... powerless to do anything but put new paint on the boards. Utterly without power to influence what is going on inside the school house.

The buildings are the property of the school district. The "education" is the property of the NEA.

Like all big league lobbies, the NEA knows that the most effective work can be accomplished by the non-professionals who are presumed to be "disinterested." Most notable of these Mom 'n Pop organizations is the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, top echelon of the Parent-Teachers Associations. The PTAs are the local shock troops when a bond issue or teachers pay raise is called for. They are not always successful, mostly because there is a growing awareness on the part of parents that they are being made part of a national scheme which they are not always sympathetic.

The Congress of Parents and Teachers was among the groups plugging for federal aid to schools. But the PTA congress said it wanted federal money without federal control, a political version of "have your cake and eat it" which has never been accomplished. The Congress of Parents and Teachers claims 38,500 local PTA groups; and when a Congressman is urged by the Congress of the PTA to vote federal aid, he presumably is being asked by each of the individual members of 38,500 local groups. That is a patent phony, too obvious to be very effective.

The Mom 'n Pops groups, so long the Trilby to the NEA's Svengali, are beginning to come alive... and to think. The NEA does not like people who think, only those who are ready to have their thinking done for them.

Whatever the future of the public and private school in the United States, the NEA will have a heavy hand in the decision. As a lobby, it is effective. Its political shortcoming is its insatiable rapacity which sometimes overcomes tact and shrewdness; if overreaches, as in the case of Governor Shivers and the recent teachers pay raise measures. It terrifies, but it also revolts. There is, about the NEA, a dim but discernible echo of the little Austrian corporal who cried "Tomorrow the World!" This NEA is something for the American people to get to know. The handwriting is plain for all to see. Your school board does not run your schools.

Do you want the NEA to do the job, Pampa? Really?

What The NEA Says

"A dying laissez-faire must be completely destroyed and all of us, including the 'owners' must be subjected to a large degree of social control. A large section of our discussion group, accepting the conclusions of distinguished students, maintain that in our fragile, interdependent society the credit agencies, basic industries and the utilities cannot be centrally planned and operated under private ownership."—Willard E. Givens, in the Proceedings of the 72nd Annual Meeting of the National Education Association (NEA).

"It is necessary to have public ownership of banking and credit... It is necessary to have public ownership of monopolistic key industries..."—from a component of the Building America textbook series sponsored and promoted by the NEA

...with JAMES C. INGEBRESEN, President, Spiritual Mobilization

Tending, in his autobiography, "Tiger of the Snows," makes a statement that reminds me of a very similar one in the Bible, Says Tenzing, "For a chance to climb Everest I would have been willing to take on any job—even dishwasher."

As soon as I read that, I thought of the Psalmist's assertion, "I had rather be a doorknocker in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness."

It is the cause to which a person gives himself—and the way which he thus dedicates himself—that embles a person.

The apostles of Christ, being beaten and "commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus," departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

Jesus said, "Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake."

The saints and heroes, known and unknown, all down through the ages have discovered the truth of that statement. How many of us today have the moral stamina to put it to the test?

The first need of a tyrant is an ignorant public. Therefore, those who wish to betray the United States into a world State, concentrate many of their efforts on sabotaging the schools. These people deem it "progressive" to abandon the teaching of reading and writing by methods that have been successful for centuries. The result is that many students can read very little and can understand even less what they do read.

Now, in New York City schools, a "new method" of teaching arithmetic is being proposed. It dismisses the multiplication tables as being "tedious" and suggests that math should be taught in other classes, such as cooking and sewing, by encouraging students to "estimate" the amounts of materials needed. I wonder if this would leave graduates smart enough to "estimate" the amounts of their income taxes or if they would blindly have to take the word of some bureaucratic concerning them. The Good Teacher is the one who prepares the student to face the problems of life with competence and confidence. The Evil Teacher dooms him to be mentally dependent on others forever.

Reader Advocates Government Pensions, Asks My Opinion

I have a letter from a reader who advocates government pensions, and since he believes government pensions would solve the problem of booms and busts, and since that seems to be what most people believe, I want to reproduce his letter and answer his questions and comment on his statements.

I have numbered his questions so that I can answer them by numbers rather than repeating them. Here is the way the reader puts it:

"Your editorials seem to indicate that you are opposed to government provided pensions. (1) Does this include pensions to ex-presidents and their widows, judges and other high officials?"

"(2) If you had given the best years of your life to the service of your country, and had not by graft and scheming accumulated a fortune, would you appreciate receiving an income sufficient to enable you to continue your normal way of life? You may say that most public officials get enough income so that they could save enough to provide for their welfare after retirement. But we must remember that their duties and environment compel them to spend all they get and sometimes more."

"It seems reasonable that every citizen should be entitled to a pension when he retires, if he wants it, and this could be arranged through the enclosed program."

"(3) Do you not think that this program of pensions to distribute purchasing power, and taxation to prevent excess purchasing power in the hands of consumers, would keep the economy in balance and prevent either depression or inflation?"

"Perhaps the greatest difficulty would be to get the right men and women on the 'Board' to administer the law, but if the first appointees didn't succeed in keeping the economy on an even keel, others could be appointed in their place. It is a big job and would require honest and capable men and women. But they do exist—Such men as Ike, Stevenson, Hoover, Baruch and Hoiles. Please don't think I am trying to flatter you—I honestly think you would be a good man on the Board."

Sincerely,
C. Rockwell Pettes

1. Yes, I am opposed to all pensions, and that certainly includes pensions to ex-presidents and their widows, judges and other high officials. Each person should get all he produces, paid as frequently as practical. Part of what he earns should not be turned over to the politicians. The earner leaves by being a steward of his production. To deprive him of this responsibility weakens him.

2. I would not appreciate receiving a pension unless I lost my belief that man should live by the sweat of his face. If judges and legislators and high government officials are not capable of managing their own affairs so that they can accumulate savings to take care of them in their non-productive years or so live that someone wants to voluntarily support them, they are certainly not men with ability and integrity enough to hold these legislative or judicial positions. If the official job doesn't pay them enough so that they can provide for their old-age and they have no other means of supporting themselves, they should not hold the job.

The reader says "It seems reasonable" that every citizen should be entitled to a pension when he retires, if he wants it, and this could be arranged through the enclosed program."

His program is a proposal for what the reader regards as economic stability, preventing depressions and saving the free enterprise system. Evidently the reader thinks that we can save the free enterprise system by adopting some form of socialism.

Not Reasonable
It depends upon what premise one starts with whether or not pensions are reasonable. If he starts with a premise that each man should get all he produces, pensions are not reasonable. If he starts with the premise that people collectively have a right to do things that would be unjust and violate the Golden Rule, if done by an individual, then, of course, pensions are rational and reasonable.

Answer To No. 3
No, I do not believe that pensions to distribute purchasing power would keep the economy in balance nor prevent depressions or inflation. Nor do I believe that taxation to prevent excess purchasing power would bring about the results the reader contends it would. The reason I do not believe they would is because the means used predetermines the results. If the means are based on aggressive force or plunder or tyranny, which is what pensions and graduated taxes are, then the results can be nothing but chaos, degradation of character, a lower standard of living and one war after another.

I am not flattered to be classified with Ike, Stevenson, Hoover or Baruch. I believe that each man is owner of himself and all he produces and should get what he wants or voluntary basis. None of these men so believe.

I would not want the job because I know I would not be capable of administering money or wealth that was secured on an involuntary basis—that is, on a legalized stolen basis.

We are in the confusion we have been for the last 40 years because of collectivist, socialist beliefs held by the majority of the people, such as those of the reader.

U.S., Canada Rigs Dip 47

DALLAS, July 16, 1955 — A total of 2890 rigs were active in oilfields of the United States and Canada for the week of July 11, 1955, according to a report to American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors by Hughes Tool Company. This compares with 2937 reported a week ago, 2906 a month ago, and with 2749 in the comparable week of 1954. A comparison by principal areas for the past two weeks shows:

Pacific Coast, 145, down 6; Oklahoma, 320, down 16; Kansas, 175, down 13; Rocky Mountains, 279, up 6; Canada, 209, up 6; Ark-La-Tex, 156, down 3; West Texas & New Mexico, 537, down 8; Gulf Coast, 593, down 10; Illinois, 148, up 5; North Texas, 330, down 8.

Foreign Oil Imports Up

WASHINGTON, July 16 — Foreign oil imports are running 15 per cent higher than last year, the Independent Petroleum Association of America said Saturday. The I.P.A.A. said in its July supply and demand outlook that imports averaged 1,128,000 barrels daily during April, May and June — an increase of 150,000 barrels daily or 15 per cent over the same period of 1954. Imports are expected to average 1,105,000 barrels a day, on the basis of importing schedules reported to the Texas Railroad Commission. Market for domestic crude is expected to average 6,555,000 barrels daily during July, August and September. This is 165,000 barrels per day below actual production in the second quarter, but 210,000 barrels daily above the 1954 yearly average the I.P.A.A. said.

Desk And Derrick Director Speaks Monday In Boger

Miss Irma Cline, Regional Desk and Derrick Director from Wichita Falls, will be the guest speaker at a joint dinner meeting of the Desk & Derrick Clubs of Boger, Amarillo and Pampa to be held at Hotel Boger on Monday, July 18, at 7:30 p.m. Distinguished as a leader among women in the petroleum industry, Miss Cline is the present regional director of Region V of the Association of Desk and Derrick Clubs of North America. This region comprises the western half of Texas and the States of New Mexico and Arizona and boasts the largest number of clubs in any region in the association. Miss Cline has appeared personally before almost every club in Region V, and, as an able and interesting speaker on topics related to the petroleum industry, she has done much to highlight the service role of women in Desk & Derrick and the education industry. Currently serving on the Association's Board of Directors, Miss Cline conducted the Regional Club Conference held at Lubbock in March of this year. In addition to her duties as Regional Director, Miss Cline also continues to serve her home club at Wichita Falls as head of one of its most important committees handling radio and television programs, which were recently publicized in The Oil and Gas Journal. She is a charter member of the Wichita Falls Desk & Derrick Club and rendered outstanding service as the Club's president in 1954. Miss Cline is office manager for Nelson, Montgomery, Robertson & Sellers and a partner in Gose Oil Company, Ltd. Through her company's affiliation she is an associate member of the North Texas Oil & Gas Association. She was graduated with honors at the University of Texas, receiving a BBA degree. A native Texan, she is a daughter of Walter D. Cline, pioneer North Texas oil producer. The joint meeting of the three Panhandle Desk & Derrick Clubs will also be the occasion for getting the newly organized Pampa Desk & Derrick. Their officers have been elected, charter and by-laws drawn up and adopted, membership drive plans well under way and an invitation to all women in the Oil and Gas and allied industries will be extended in the very near future.

Microwave System Planned By Conoco And Sinclair

PONCA CITY, Okla., July 16 — Two oil pipeline companies Saturday announced plans to build one of the world's largest privately owned microwave systems between Ponca City and Houston. Cost is expected to be about $1 million. The system will carry up to 120 conversations at one time. Twenty-seven relay stations will dot the area from here to Houston and will link the two terminals with intermediate points including Oklahoma City, Wichita Falls and Fort Worth. The project was announced by W. L. Kygarr, president of Continental Pipeline Co., a subsidiary of Continental Oil Co., and William H. Morris, president of Sinclair Pipeline Co. The firms will own the system jointly. Subject to approval of the Federal Communications Commission, the microwave system will be built for the pipeline companies by Collins Radio Co., Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Equipment for the network will be manufactured by Collins at Dallas. Continental will operate the network between Ponca City and Hensley, Tex., and Sinclair will operate it between Hensley and Houston. Relay stations will be built at Perry, Guthrie, Oklahoma City, Polesville, Ardmore and Ringling in Oklahoma; and at Stanfield, Bowie, Wichita Falls, York, Hensley, Agnes, Fort Worth, Cleveland, Hillsboro, Tehuacana, Colon and North Houston, in Texas.

For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.
Philippians 1:21
Paul Johnston

We wish to express our appreciation for the many acts of kindness and sympathy in our time of bereavement with the loss of our husband and father, Dr. J. M. Johnston, who passed away on July 11, 1955. We are grateful to the pallbearers who were so helpful in the funeral home, to the many friends who came to express their compassion and to Dukenek-Carmichael Funeral Home, 211 N. Cuyler, for their excellent service. Mrs. Paul Johnston, Miss Dortha Johnston, Mrs. J. M. Johnston, Mrs. George H. Johnston, Mr. & Mrs. James L. Johnston.
