Tito, Reds To Work Out An 'Active Co-Existence'

Yugoslavian Head Says Russia In 'Historic Change'

By WILBUR G. LANDREY
BELGRADE, Yugoslavia —UP— President Tito of Yugoslavia hailed Thursday what he called the "historic change" in Russia and said the Soviets and Yugoslavia will join in "active co-existence" for socialism and world peace.

But he said Yugoslavia intends to continue its independent foreign policy outside world blocs and that his mission to Moscow next month will not change Yugoslavia's friendly relations with the West.

In an hour-long interview in the rich drawing room of the white palace, once the home of Yugoslavia's kings, Tito made these other points:

1. "I believe the Atlantic pact will cease to exist one day when its members are convinced it is unnecessary, just as the Warsaw pact will also cease to exist." He said flatly Yugoslavia would join no pacts.

2. He defined "co-existence" as the constant search for solutions of world problems excluding the use of arms.

3. He suggested that future aid from the United States be in the form of long-term loans rather than outright grants and added with a trace of bitterness that there would be no fuel then for accusations he took U. S. aid and then turned toward the East. But he explained he was not decrying U. S. aid in the past when Yugoslavia's weak financial position required aid in grants.

4. He said disarmament was the next step in reducing world tension and he opposed making German reunification a condition for disarmament. His position on Germany and disarmament was close to the Soviet position.

5. He opposed formation of a new organization of Communist parties to replace the Cominform but said the Yugoslav and Soviet Communist parties would co-operate to better relations between the two countries.

"Great Historical Change"
Tito said the events in Russia since the death of Premier Joseph Stalin marked "a great historical change." He added, "it is a development in the direction which undoubtedly will have tremendous importance in easing world tension and for preserving peace and international co-operation."

It is "absolutely impossible" that this could be a mere maneuver, he said.

Tito said he would discuss the next steps toward strengthening peace when he meets with the Soviet leaders. He said the talks also will deal with "minor" misunderstandings and settle the future of Yugoslav-Soviet relations.

Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist Party Secretary Nikita S. Khrushchev came to Belgrade last year to make peace; this will be Tito's first visit to Moscow since he was ousted from the Cominform in 1948.

One of the big stumbling blocks to continued unity in the party is the gubernatorial race. There was one big issue in the state convention: Shivers. The party could easily break out into a monumental argument over whom Johnson, or other big Democratic leaders, support for governor.

To Support Yarborough
The liberal element of the party, for instance, will almost surely support Ralph Yarborough. Liberal delegates at the state convention twice started "We want Yarborough" uproars.

Yarborough came to the stage once, but declined to speak at length lest he hold up the convention. Johnson has never said whom he will support for governor, if any candidate, but it is doubtful that his support of any one candidate will please a majority of his party.

The precinct conventions in July and the September state Democratic convention are other possible intra-party battlegrounds, particularly since they will determine the inclination of the new state Democratic executive committee.

Capitol Hill Roundup

By GAYLORD F. GODWIN
WASHINGTON —UP— A top Agriculture Department official indicated Thursday President Eisenhower would sign the re-authorized farm bill approved by Congress Wednesday.

"Department technicians are pushing ahead vigorously to determine just what our responsibilities are under the new bill," the official told United Press. "We want to be ready to administer it — if the President signs."

He left no doubt that he expects the President to sign the legislation. It includes provisions for an administration-requested soil bank to reduce production of surplus commodities.

The new legislation won't affect the 1956 farm program much except for corn and feed grains, the official, who did not wish to be identified, said. He doesn't expect effects of the soil bank to show up much until acreage reports are received later this year on fall-seeded crops, particularly wheat. The soil bank won't be in full effect until the 1957 harvest, he said.

"There is no way to determine what the dollars and cents effect will be on the 1956 crop," he said. "Right now, the biggest influence to consider is the weather and how the crops will shape up."

He pointed out that most of the 1956 crops already have been planted and some—in the extreme southern areas—are being harvested.

The corn situation for 1956 is an enigma to department officials. Under the legislation, price support for corn is tied in with a 15 per cent acreage compliance with the soil bank. That is, if a farmer takes an acreage equal to 15 per cent of his corn base out of production, he will receive $1.50 a bushel price support. If he exceeds his allotment he will receive only $1.25 a bushel support.

Other developments:
PASSPORTS
The House Committee on Un-American Activities summoned three witnesses to testify how they obtained passports to attend so-called international peace conferences — one in Red China. Two of the three witnesses are alleged Communists.

HOUSING
The Senate planned to begin debate on a bill calling for broad revision of the housing law. The bill provides for construction of 135,000 low rent housing units during the next fiscal year. Republicans want to reduce the figure to the 35,000 units.

DEFENSE
Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.), chairman of the Senate GOP policy committee, said he supports a congressional investigation of military feeding. However, he said he saw no reason why Congress should have competing inquiries as proposed. He said one committee should handle the job.

Next comes June when, after a lot of cooling has passed, there will be a lot of billing.

Worried About That TV!

LANSING, Mich. —UP— A Lansing, Mich., man reported Thursday his wife and television set were missing. Police said he asked them to get the TV set back if possible but made no mention of his wife.

Ike To Meet 'The People' After Speech

By UNITED PRESS
President Eisenhower is going to delay his departure from Waco Friday, after delivering a major foreign policy speech, to "meet some people," The "people" may be Texas political leaders.

Gov. Allan Shivers, who led a Democratic bolt into the Republican camp in 1952, GOP National Committeeman Jack Porter, and Former Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Oveta Culp Hobby will be in Waco Friday.

Assistant White House Press Secretary Murray Snyder, in response to the questions of news men, said Wednesday that he had no details on whom the President will see. But he left open the possibility that he may meet Texas political figures.

Declines GOP Invitation
Shivers has lost so much power in Texas Democratic politics that only 130 delegates of 1900 in the state Democratic convention Tuesday were for him. At last report, he had declined invitations to join the Republican party.

But he still likes Mr. Eisenhower as a President and indicated in recent news conferences that he might support him, if the Democratic candidate for president does not please him.

Attorney General Herbert Brownell visited the Shivers family in April at their home in Woodville. Shivers said afterward that it was a visit from an old friend, but his political opponents insisted that politics was involved.

Johnson Back in Washington
Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson, the new leader of the Democratic party in Texas was back in Washington. The emphasis in state politics was about to shift back over to the race for governor, which will be culminated in the primary election in July.

But though the Democratic convention ended with Johnson in control, the probability remained that he may have tough going in the future to hold the parts of what actually is a coalition party together.

One of the big stumbling blocks to continued unity in the party is the gubernatorial race. There was one big issue in the state convention: Shivers. The party could easily break out into a monumental argument over whom Johnson, or other big Democratic leaders, support for governor.

To Support Yarborough
The liberal element of the party, for instance, will almost surely support Ralph Yarborough. Liberal delegates at the state convention twice started "We want Yarborough" uproars.

Yarborough came to the stage once, but declined to speak at length lest he hold up the convention. Johnson has never said whom he will support for governor, if any candidate, but it is doubtful that his support of any one candidate will please a majority of his party.

Turkish Cypriots Stone Greek Ships

NICOSIA, Cyprus —UP— Turkish Cypriots stoned Greek ships Thursday in the cities of Nicosia and Paphos, and British security troops moved in to prevent the riots from spreading into civil war.

The Turkish rioting was touched off by the slaying of a Turkish policeman in Paphos Wednesday night.

A Turkish leader called the shooting a declaration of "civil war" by the Greek Cypriots against the Turkish Cypriots on this British-ruled island.

Tough British paratroopers used tear gas on the rioting Turks in Nicosia. The Paphos mob was composed largely of students and was dispersed more easily.

Overturn Auto
The shouting Turkish mob in Nicosia overturned a luxurious automobile owned by a wealthy Greek and set it afire.

British Sgt. Maj. John Martin led a jeep patrol rescue of a Greek photographer in danger of being lynched by the Turks.

The angry Turks stormed along Nicosia streets uprooting signs and waving them as banners or clubs.

The British rushed riot squads into Hermes street which divides the Greek and Turkish sectors of Nicosia.

They hoped to prevent the Turks, who had massed in Attaturk Square, from marching into the Greek section for wholesale revenge.

Capture Six in Gun Battle
At the same time British troops were reported to have captured six men in a gun battle in the northwest part of the island. They were believed on the "wanted list" for past acts of violence.

Nicosia is the capital of Cyprus and has a population of about 145,000 persons. Paphos, a city of 5,800, is about 80 miles to the Southwest.

The atmosphere throughout the eastern Mediterranean island was charged with the long-hanging threat of a war between the two nationality groups.

Dr. Fazil Kouchouk, leader of the "Cyprus is Turkish" party, told United Press the slaying had touched off a critical situation.

ending segregation. However, their failure to sign the manifesto has been the major issue, although not the only one, stressed by their opponents in their campaigns for renomination.

Other developments:
Sen. Estes Kefauver attacked his rival for the Democratic presidential nomination, Adlai E. Stevenson, on two fronts Wednesday in Florida, where both are seeking votes for that state's May 29 primary. Kefauver denounced as "scurrilous" and "vicious" statements made about him by a Stevenson Florida delegate-candidate, former Gov. Millard F. Caldwell. Kefauver said he was "surprised" Stevenson did not repudiate the statement.

Caldwell, in introducing Stevenson at a Tallahassee appearance, read from an editorial in the Richmond, Va., News-Leader which called Kefauver an "integrated... a far-left liberal... a sycophant for the Negro and union vote."

"Not Responsible for Caldwell"
Stevenson replied, "I am not responsible for what Governor Caldwell said about Sen. Kefauver and certainly I am not responsible for what the Richmond newspaper said."

There was considerable disagreement Tuesday when the term "squirrel head" crept into a conversation about the World War II landings at Salerno.

Mr. Truman apparently was referring to that furor Thursday when he gave newsmen a knowing look and commented, "It's a hell of a word."

But a benign smile accompanied Mr. Truman's remark. Both he and the newsmen accompanying him appeared hopeful that the Tuesday incident over "squirrel headed generals" had been forgotten.

There was a brief return to concern Thursday morning when the former President picked up a copy of the English language Rome Daily American in his Naples hotel and found a bannerlike dispatch on the controversy over whether he did or did not call the originator of the Salerno landings a "squirrel head."

He left the hotel dining room without speaking to correspondents. But on the train back to Rome he was smiling again. That is when he called it "a hell of a word."

He added later that he was enjoying his European tour "very much."

Army Likes 'Nike'

By MICKEY TOPPING
WHITE SANDS PROVING GROUNDS, N. M. —UP— The U. S. Army rested on the Nike's laurels Thursday, after convincing demonstrations of the missile's ability to knock fast-moving, small targets out of the sky.

A two-day demonstration of Nike's killing power for 115 newsmen and photographers — with firings of surface-to-surface missile Corporal and artillery ballistics missile Honest John thrown in — ended impressively Wednesday on Red Canyon range, on the edge of this vast desert testing center.

The press saw Army launching crews with only four weeks of training fire six nikes at tiny, propeller-driven drone targets, and score three hits and two "lethal" near-misses. The sixth Nike blew up aloft when its radar mechanism failed.

On Monday, two Nikes were fired at a 500-mile-an-hour drone target at 15,000 feet, and brought it down. Monday's firings of Corporal and Honest John were also flat on the ground targets.

Traveled Higher
Wednesday's drone targets traveled at only 150 miles an hour, but ranged from 10,000 to 20,000 feet and bobbed about in the wind to make their seven-foot wing span and 10-foot length a very slippery target.

But the newsmen saw Nike, a missile 20 feet long and one foot in diameter, climb with incredible speed to 10,000 feet and then home tenaciously on the small, wind-tossed targets with deadly effect.

Army spokesmen made these claims for the controversial anti-aircraft missile, which the Air Force has compared unfavorably with its Talos, developed by the Navy.

Nike I, the present model, is "faster and more versatile than any plane with which we are familiar," and can be made to do figure eight aerobatics.

Nike II is the only operational anti-aircraft missile now deployed on an operational basis, and is protecting 18 industrial centers in this country.

Will Stay Ahead
It can speed as far as 70 miles in 102 seconds to intercept targets, and will be improved to stay beyond the capacities of new aircraft.

The White Sands demonstrations apparently were limited, not by the Army's desire to make a good showing for the press, but by the performance limits of the propeller and jet drone targets.

Lt. Gen. Stanley Mickelson, commander of Army anti-aircraft, said Nike's possibilities are "practically unlimited" and the missile will be made "longer (in range), faster, more accurate and more powerful."

Nike B, now in development, will be able to intercept the 1,400 mile-an-hour F-104 Starfighter jet interceptor, he said, and its altitude range will "far exceed that of any known bomber."

General Mickelson would not confirm another Army spokesman's statement that Nike B would be able to carry an atomic warhead. A small, controlled atomic device in Nike's nose would permit "scatter shots" in the sky, so that one missile might bring down a whole formation of aircraft.

Court Docket To Be Called
Judge Bruce Parker will call the County Court docket Monday June 11, and both civil and criminal non-jury cases will be tried during the week.

All jury cases, both civil and criminal, will be set for Monday, June 18, and tried during that week.

The petty jury will be named 10 days prior to the trials.

Mollet May Ask For Vote Of Confidence

PARIS —UP— The resignation of Pierre Mendes-France from the French cabinet may force Premier Guy Mollet to, ask the national assembly for a vote of confidence on his Algerian policy, informed sources said Thursday.

Mendes-France, leader of the Radical Socialist party, resigned Wednesday in what amounted to a vote of no-confidence in Mollet's African policies. He cushioned the blow to Mollet by permitting 13 other radicals to remain in the cabinet.

Informed sources said Mollet would seek the vote of confidence as soon as possible in order to bolster the government. The vote could come during the debates on Tunisia and Morocco scheduled for May 31 and June 1.

The sources said Mollet would doubtless prefer to go over the whole Algerian question with the assembly. He told the Socialist party bureau Wednesday night he hoped to have a debate on Algeria itself shortly — a move that would show how much support he actually has.

Indications were the Communists were about to withdraw their 150 votes in support of Mollet and that he would have to seek additional support from the right and center. The Mollet - Mendes-France coalition government is left-of-center.

Some political observers believe that the center and right deputies would be likely to vote for Mollet, even though they are his bitter enemies — nobody else wants to take over the responsibility for leadership.

explain the planned bond issue and feel out opinion.

A break-down of the items included in the issue shows a total of $280,000 to be allocated for the Hobart St. underpass. A sum of $170,000 is proposed for fire station buildings and equipment and $250,000 is to be set aside for street improvements. Proposed street work will include new bridges to be constructed on Cook, Cuyler and Duncan.

A sum of $50,000 is to be allocated for a swimming pool in the park immediately south of Carver school and other park improvements. Approximately $250,000 is designated for water and sewer development.

The total of the general obligation (tax) bond will be in the amount of $1,000,000 plus $2,000,000 which would be revenue bearing for water and sewer improvements. Of the latter figure, $347,000 will be used for refunding outstanding revenue bonds against a gross figure of $2,157,000.

The water and sewer system revenue bonds will be set up on a schedule from 1957 through 1982. The first sale is planned to be in the amount of $1,147,000 for new and refunding bonds. The second sale will be $1,010,000 and is planned in either 1957 or 1958.

Included in the issues to be voted on will be the transfer of $63,000, originally voted for storm sewers on Cuyler St., to the Hobart St. underpass.

Approximately $250,000 is designated for water and sewer development.

Heavy rains along the entire little river basin in Oklahoma might cause floods, the U. S. Weather Bureau reported. Near Adrian, Tex., six to eight inches of hail knocked several hundred cars on U. S. 66.

In the Rocky Mountain States, officials ordered $100,000 worth of emergency repairs for dikes and levees on the Snake River around Jackson Hole, Wyo. Steady sunshine and warm temperatures are melting the largest mountain snowpack on record faster than expected in the area.

The western storms included 3.5 inches of rain at Derby, Colo., and 4.5 inches at Bradshaw in the heart of Texas' parched Panhandle. Four tornado funnels were sighted over Texas and Oklahoma, but none caused damage.

Panhandle recorded 1.14 inches of rain and Perryton reported .12.

was acting for you. His acts while performing those duties are, in the eyes of the law, your acts, in legal terms, you are the "principal". You may be liable despite the fact that you may have cautioned him to be extremely careful.

The average individual expects to answer for his own actions. He does not usually consider that he may be responsible for the actions of other persons. That, however, is frequently the case.

Suppose you ask another person to do something for you, that is frequently the case.

Suppose you ask another person to do something for you, that is, to act as your agent. You may pay him, or he may be doing it without compensation.

You may ask him to buy or sell property for you. Or, his responsibility may be to negotiate an agreement for you with a third person.

If representations or warranties are made by your agent in performing the task which you assigned to him, you are responsible, in a like manner, you are responsible for the contract made by him while he was acting for you. You may be held responsible for the acts of a person who customarily represents you even though he entered into a contract for you without your consent or approval.

For example, you may have a partner in a business, and you and he have agreed that certain contracts shall be made only upon the signature of both of you.

When the merchandise is delivered, you can not refuse to accept it because you can be bound by the contract of your partner. This is true in many situations, and the law, is written to inform — not to bind you by your advice. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Insurance Sales On Border Studied

AUSTIN — UP — The Texas Insurance Commission Tuesday continued an investigation into possible illegal practices in sale of insurance to braceros on the Texas-Mexico border.

the agency's securities division, presently is in the Rio Grande Valley area conducting the investigation.

Saunders said a preliminary inquiry was made last month by C. E. Wimberly and George H. Martindale.

However, Saunders pointed out, "present evidence would not justify filing any type of complaint."

Saunders said it appeared, from reports made to him by the investigators on April 27, that "some cotton growers associations and certain other people" have made a "common practice" of obtaining power of attorney from farmers to write accident and life insurance for Mexican national workers for the time they are in this country.

He said reports indicated the insurance would be carried without payment until the bracero was paid by the farmer at his first pay period.

Saunders said there were two possible violations of the law in this practice. One is that such insurance cannot be sold on credit, and the other is a possible violation of the licensing law. Saunders pointed out that a person can not write an insurance policy for anyone but himself unless he is licensed.

Pampans Going To Camp School

In order to assure the best possible camping program for Boy Scouts and leaders from the Adobe Walls Council this summer, two men have been enrolled in the National Camping School operated by the Boy Scouts of America and opening on Sunday, May 27, at Camp Constantin near Graford, according to George Newberry, chairman of the camping and activities committee.

Men who will attend from here, all members of the council's camping staff, include J. D. Ross of Borger and J. G. Bemson of Canadian.

Scout Executive Forel Harris stated that word has been received from regional office in Dallas that men from seven states and Puerto Rico will be among the 100 men slated to attend the annual camp school.

"Camping is an important phase of Scouting, and our local council is determined to offer the best possible program for the scout troops and explorer units of this area," stated Harris. "In our purpose of character building, citizenship training, and physical fitness it is most important that every scout master and explorer advisor have the advantages of a well-operated camping program which he may attend with his boys, and to operate such a camp is one of our council's main desires."

The camping school will be operated in three main sections, and in addition to major subjects it will be possible for each man to take an elective session in either conservation archery, riflery, handicraft, or fishing skills.

Pampans Return From Convention

A Pampa delegation returned this morning from the national convention of the US Highway 80 Association in Springfield, Mo.

Making up the group were E. O. "Red" Wedgeworth, manager of the Chamber of Commerce; Jack Vaughn, director of the Texas branch of the association; and Frank Laird, who was re-elected to serve as a member of the national board of directors of the association.

The group in session voted to employ a full-time executive secretary to promote the highway in general. He will work from coast to coast — from Riverside, Calif., to Virginia Beach, Va. — on the promotion of traffic through travel bureaus and advertising campaigns.

A special committee was appointed Wednesday by the executive secretary and to set up a program of work for him.

Re-elected officers for the coming fiscal year are Harry Harville of Tonkawa, Okla., president; Bill Husso of Sholow, Okla., vice president; and Hollis McGinnis of Tonkawa, secretary.

The convention will meet next year in Globe, Ariz.

Delegates attending from this region included Warren Harrington and Charlie Callaway from Canadian and three Amarillo delegates. About 75 registered for the convention.

Non-Workers Still Issue

DETROIT — Gov. G. Mennen Williams and President Walter P. Reuther of the giant United Auto Workers Union expressed dissatisfaction Thursday with the government's handling of the unemployment problem.

The government Wednesday declared Detroit and Flint, Mich., and three other cities as serious unemployment areas and eligible for aid in getting government contracts.

Williams said he has ordered his emergency industrial production commission to take "immediate advantage" of the listing but added he may send President Eisenhower another telegram asking him to place Fort Huron, Escanaba, Iron Mountain, Marquette and Benton Harbor on the labor surplus list along with Detroit and Flint.

The only other cities classified as eligible for aid by the government Wednesday were Kenosha, Wis.; South Bend, Ind.; and Knoxville, Tenn. All are suffering from growing unemployment in the auto industry with the exception of Knoxville which was given a similar listing because of layoffs in the apparel industry.

The Labor Department said a survey indicates further cutbacks in the auto industry between now and mid-summer. Unemployment in the auto plants is expected to reach 184,000 by this weekend with many of the firms on short work weeks.

Reuther took issue with the reclassification of the auto-building cities and said the ruling is "of no practical importance unless it is followed by vigorous and determined effort to channel defense work into such areas."

"What we need in the current situation is less generalities from Washington and more specific and tangible action that will produce immediate results and provide job opportunities for the tens of thousands of people who have been laid off," he said.

Just a swimsuit won't be enough for the beach this year. You'll also need a beach jacket, a shirt and possibly a cotton-knit pullover. Incidentally, the brief two-piece swimsuit is back.

Actress Creates A Sensation With Jewel-Covered Cadillac

By ALINE MOSBY
HOLLYWOOD —UP— The most eye-popping sensation in Hollywood since Pola Negri sported a leopard on a leash: Debra Paget in her jewel-covered Cadillac.
Debra is now the world's only actress who can take her car to a jeweler for a 5,000 mile check-up and oil change.
She is the owner of a special strawberry-colored sedan encrusted with hundreds of fake gems.
The pink and crystal "jewels" are glued on the bumpers, the chrome and hood ornament on the front of the car and over the entire top in a sunburst design. Inside the dashboard is upholstered in gold leather and be-sprinkled with more glittering baubles. The steering wheel, clock and instruments also are sparkling with the phoney jewels.

The whole effect is like one of those jewel-covered ladies' plastic handbags on wheels.
Every time Debra ventures out on the streets of Los Angeles in this vehicle, traffic comes to an astonished standstill. The other day she drove onto the Paramount lot and the entire studio, from secretaries to stars, quit work for a look. One member of the awe-struck crowd observed, "Jayne Mansfield could walk by now with no clothes on and nobody would notice."

The shapely Miss Paget explained she had the car decorated to match her boudoir.
"I had it painted strawberry just like the velvet bedspread and drapes in my bedroom, and then added jewels like I have on handbags," she said.

"I don't believe in this business of actresses staying in the kitchen and wearing aprons. Hollywood is known as a glamorous spot but people usually are so disappointed when they see film stars."
Debras has blossomed out as one of the more colorful filmville inhabitants. She has a two-year-old gibbon ape as a pet in her home, the former abode of glamorous Constance Bennett. She started wearing three-inch long earrings before they became a general fad. And she claims to have been the first owner of an orchid-colored Cadillac.

"I had that car painted orchid four years ago to match a dress," she said. "People stared and some thought it look horrible. But now I notice automobile manufacturers are coming out with orchid cars. There are so many, in fact, that I sold mine and decided to start a new fashion."

Info For Those Wanting Tour Of Bedrooms In Hollywood

By ALINE MOSBY
HOLLYWOOD —UP— Anyone wishing a tour of Hollywood bedrooms now can know that Zsa Zsa Gabor's is very French, Jennifer Jones' has a refrigerator and Doris Duke sleeps in Valentino's canopied bed.
This revelation comes from one of Hollywood's top interior decorators who installs everything from cloth-covered walls to old doors from Italian palaces in movie stars' homes.

Tony Duquette, also a movie set designer, was the protégé of the late Elsie Mendel, the international socialite. Currently his style, described by Tony himself as do-it-yourself-addict, is the darling of the celebrities and he is busy redoing their mansions.

His main triumph was remodeling the old Rudolph Valentino home in Benedict Canyon for Doris Duke. The heiress has refused to let the press have a peek at the palace. But Tony reveals it looks like "a small Venetian palace."

Doris sleeps on Valentino's bed, covered with a blue and white lenin canopy. The old bed was painted gold and black.

The library of the Italian-style house has walls covered with gold cloth. Tony installed an old Spanish coat-of-arms on the terrace and antique doors from an Italian palace in the dining room. The living room features walls covered with pale purple silk, huge blue silk so afand gold silk drapes and a Spanish pirate chest made into a bar.

"But she is constantly changing the house. As fast as I finish one room she ships everything in it to one of her other houses," the decorator sighed. "We've done the house over four times."

Jennifer Jones' bedroom is done in "carnation colors" because Tony believes in matching a house to the woman in it. Her bedroom has white damask walls with drapes and furniture in pink, red and lavender. There is also a refrigerator for husband David Selznick, who likes snacks late at night.

Producer Selznick is famed for sending long memos to his directors. Decorator Duquette received one, too — 20 pages long.

For Agnes Moorehead Tony designed a bedroom in shades of lavender to compliment her red hair — amethyst walls, white bed, pink taffeta drapes, "completely for an actress." Zsa Zsa's boudoir also suits her personality: "18th Century French for a woman born to attract men." Her large bed is upholstered in rose-covered chintz. The rest of the room is in white including a statue.

No Sunshine For Nichols; Lamp Will Do

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
WASHINGTON —UP— One way to prevent sunburn is to stay away from old oil.

Another is to dab several ounces of prevention on sections of your anatomy you aim to expose to the hot rays.

Personally, I don't intend to do any prolonged outdoor sitting. I've discovered like a lot of others that some soda parlors around the country have lamps for sale that will give an artificial tan.

On my annual leave, which is coming up presently, I intend to look into this method in the interest of science.

With this in mind, I went down to the government printing office and, for a nickel, picked up a public health service pamphlet called "Sunburn and Suntan."

The little four-page booklet starts out by saying that a lot of folks ruin their vacations by trying to build up a brown look too many layers at a time.

The health service has some suggestions. First off, you should know from experience how much sun your hide can handle. Even if you're sure, watch out for the noonday sun.

"Some of the worst cases of sunburn," the pamphlet goes on, "are collected on the beaches and on the snow-covered mountains. Even when the sun is overcast, the sun can burn cruelly."

The health service has found that kids burn more easily than big folks. Babies under age two and delicate children of any age need a watchful eye. It is deemed advisable for the very young to start out in spurts of five minutes at a time.

Most grownups can weather 15 minutes under the rays the first day. On each succeeding day, the exposure may be extended by 15 minutes.

West's opening lead today was a poor choice. When you lead a singleton in dummy's bid suit, you risk helping establish that suit. You may do so if you can develop a ruffing trick with an otherwise worthless trump. In this case, West had a sure trump trick regardless of whether he ruffed. He had nothing to gain and everything to lose by helping South develop dummy's suit.

Ambrose Casner of New York took full advantage of the favorable opening lead. He covered with dummy's jack of diamonds, capturing the queen with his own king. He led out the ace and a low spade to avoid the danger of a ruff.

West took his king of spades and shifted to a heart. Had he led a heart to begin with, West almost surely would have defeated the contract. East took the ace of hearts and returned a heart,

AN UPMARINE—A new "Arrow-of-the-South" ferry boat, that rides with its keel above the water, is shown during a test run in the Straits of Messina near Sicily. The 12-ton boat, designed by Hans Von Scherdel, consists of hull resting on two pontoon-like structures fore and aft. Reducing friction to a minimum, the vessel is reported to be capable of whisking 72 passengers from Sicily to the Italian mainland in a breath-taking five minutes. The trip by conventional ferry takes an hour.

 John Marshall was secretary of state in John Adams' cabinet when the government moved to Washington in 1800. After his appointment as chief justice, he continued both as secretary of state and chief justice until March 4, 1801. He is the only man in the history of the U.S. government ever to occupy those two offices at the same time.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.—UP—The North Carolina Merchants Association Tuesday backed down on a resolution to slap a statewide embargo on Japanese textile imports. Post Office People In Hot Water With Massachusetts

By HARMON NICHOLS
WASHINGTON —U— For the first time in many a moon, no U.S. postage stamp honors a son of Massachusetts.

Understandably, the good folks of the Bay State are worked up about it.

In fact, Secretary of State Edward J. Cronin was moved to send a complaint to Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield. He reminded the head of the mails that Massachusetts' most illustrious dad and son team have been "pushed" around, postally speaking.

That team was made up of John Quincy Adams, our first vice president and our second President, and his boy, John Quincy Adams, the sixth President.

Cronin told the PM general that the people of Massachusetts want to know why the combine of Adams and Adams disappeared from the latest list of general stamps, issued on April 15, 1956.

"John Adams and his son, John Quincy Adams," he wrote, "have been on the two and six-cent stamps for untold years."

The new general list contains stamps of 18 denominations.

The Bay State secretary wanted to know why Virginia got seven listings - Washington, Jefferson, Monroe, Wilson, Robert E. Lee, John Marshall and Patrick Henry - and Massachusetts none.

Cronin pointed out that the homes of two Virginians (Mount Vernon and Monticello) are included. He said, in effect, that this added up to making the Com-

The "Dr. Deayer," right, is director of the children's division of the NYU-Bellevue Institute of Physical Rehabilitation in New York. ### Jane Talk

By JANE KADINGO
Pampa News Women's Editor

WEIGHT WATCHERS! Give yourself a "calorie salary"! A special new Calorie Counter Kit created by "Seventeen" magazine makes "allowances" for dieting teen-agers via a purseful of colorful calorie money. Designed as a diet game, the kit is filled with blue, green, red, white and yellow chips, in varying calorie values, to be "budgeted" and "spent" at meal and snack times. Coins add up to a daily diet income of 1400 calories.

THE PLASTIC "see-through" purse contains two pockets — "income" and "outgo." Girls transfer chips from one side to the other as the calories are "eaten up."

For quick and easy bookkeeping, a folder listing the calorie value of commonly-served foods is in the Calorie Counter Kit.

In addition, the magazine presents these diet "do's" to make scale-scanning easier:

1. Stay on the 1400 calories-a-day diet no longer than a month.
2. Make between-meal nibbling nutritious rather than fattening.
3. Eat sweets but control quantity; one apple, one or two cookies, a piece of hard candy are energy producers and appetite-curbers.
4. Soda fountain date? Order a non-caloric beverage or carbonated water with a squeeze of lemon and non-caloric sweetener.
5. Make breakfast and lunch heartiest meals. These calories are consumed in daytime activity. Budget evening calories which are harder to burn up.
6. Weigh yourself once a week.

Piano Pupils Completing Theory Course Honored At Tea By Mrs. W. H. Fuller

Mrs. W. H. Fuller honored a group of her piano students and their mothers with a tea in the parlor of the First Baptist Church. Purpose of the annual event is to recognize students who have completed the Dunning Theory Course of Improved Music Study.

"Scientists tell us that the brain is reached more quickly and more permanently through the science of touch than through seeing or hearing," Mrs. Fuller told the group in explaining the value of the course. "Pupils remember 10 per cent of what they hear, 30 per cent of what they see, 70 per cent of what they say and 90 per cent of what they do. Interest is the first step necessary to progress. Children naturally love the class spirit, and progress is greatly accelerated through friendly rivalry."

Following Mrs. Fuller's talk, a recital of solo and ensemble numbers was presented by the students.

Highest award of the year went to Miss Jane Bates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bates of White Deer, with an average of 95 1-5; and Miss Willetta Lowther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lowther, west of city, received the second highest grade, with an average of 91 1-5. The final grade is compiled from scores on six-weeks' tests given throughout the year and final examination papers, which are filed at Dunning headquarters.

Other students who completed the course and received Dunning theory pins were Elaine Hawkins, Ronnie Roach, Ann Qualls, and Myrna Pope. Certificates and the two highest awards will be presented during a recital of Mrs. Fuller's pupils Friday in the Church of the Nazarene, the last of two recitals. The first recital is set for 8 p.m. today.

Background music for the tea was furnished by Shane Wilbanks, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Stedum, 1024 Charles, and Billy Lowther entertained with two vocal selections, accompanied by Miss Willetta Lowther, Harold Fuller presided at the guest register.

Celanese And Sinclair Win

Celanese eked by Magnolia, 10-9, and Sinclair romped past Panhandle Packing Company, 26-13, in industrial softball games played Tuesday evening at the Lions Park.

Celanese scored their winning run in the sixth with the game being called at the end of that inning to the time element. Esperson, Abbott, 6th and West were the batteries for Celanese with Hardin and Cox for Magnolia. Hitting homers for Magnolia were Lewis and Cox with Keel collecting a four bagger for Celanese.

The Sinclair - Panhandle Packing game was also limited to six innings due to the time factor. Sinclair's up rising came in the sixth when they shoved across big 13 runs. Both teams were tied at 13-13 at the end of five innings. Chum and Addington combined for Panhandle Packing with Flanagan and Brown the batteries for Sinclair.

PCC To Probe Southern California

VICTORIA, B. C. —UP— The Pacific Coast Conference, reeling under blows that threaten to knock the West Coast clear out of the football picture, girded itself Thursday for an investigation into alleged proselyting at the University of Southern California.

The Trojans, always a powerhouse in PCC football, came under the unwelcome glare of the PCC's investigative spotlight when a deputy district attorney from Los Angeles charged USC athletes had received $71,235 from a secret fund over a two-year period.

Already two members schools have suffered severe penalties for permitting athletes to accept under-the-table payments. Washington was hit early this year with a $53,000 "fine" and probation. UCLA, at the PCC meeting here, was clobbered with a $5,000 "fine," three-year probation and loss of one year eligibility for all athletes who accepted the illegal payments.

J. Miller Leavy, the attorney and prominent UCLA alumnus, charged Wednesday a booster club, which he refused to identify, "by its own records shows that in a two-year period... $71,235 was distributed to no less than 80 named University of Southern California athletes."

Leavy said he had mailed "documentary evidence" to substantiate his charges to Victor O. Schmidt, conference commissioner.

The PCC fathers did not actually name USC as their next target. However the commission issued a rambling statement shortly after Leavy made his charges known which was widely interpreted as serving notice USC would come under investigation.

STRIDE IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION

Maglie Almost At Home Now With The Dodgers

By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK —UP— The baseball world looks on the arrival of Sal Maglie with the Brooklyn Dodgers as one of the weirdest events in the history of the game.

Not even the days when Brooklyn made a habit of putting three men on base—the same base—holds a candle to the "Barber" taking over a Flatbush chair. The inference was that he'd better keep his razor handy.

But to Maglie, once one of the most detested of the hated Giants, it's "just like coming home."

"It was a much stranger feeling when the Giants sold me to Cleveland in mid-1951," Maglie explained as he sat in the Dodger dressing room with that unfamiliar lettering across his chest. "That was really a startling feeling."

Sal had a faraway look in his eyes as he ran a hand across his famed five o'clock shadow, the ever-blooming stubble which resulted in his nickname when he came up to the Giants in 1950 after playing in the Mexican League.

That was when Leo Durocher took one glance and grunted: "He looks more like the barber handling the end chair."

After which, in more than five seasons as a Giant, Maglie "shaved" a lot of rivals — with the closest razor jobs held in reserve for the Dodgers. Through that period he won 22 from Brooklyn and lost only six, hurling five shutouts at the club he most loved to beat.

But then he was sold to Cleveland and there, among a wealth of pitchers, Maglie got lost. Last season he pitched only 26 innings for the Indians. This spring they used him for only five innings in two games before taking Brooklyn's cash last week.

"Going to Cleveland was the tough jump," Maglie insisted as he looked around at his new Brooklyn teammates. "It was a case of strange parks, strange hitters and nothing but strange faces."

There was a satisfied grin on the lean, saturnine face which glowers habitually when he is on the mound.

"This is almost like coming home. After all, I've known all these guys for years. I know all the National League parks and I know the hitters. Even when I walked in here, in the Dodger clubhouse, I felt like they all were old friends of mine."

Maglie's hopes are high as he contemplates pitching with that famed Dodger power behind him. "I wasn't pitching well for a while because of a bad back," he explained. "Favoring it gave me bad pitching habits. But I'm straightened out now and I feel okay. I think I can help Brooklyn."

Which, whether he admits it or not, are words you never thought you'd hear from "The Barber," the man who paced the dramatic Giant pennant march which unseated the Dodgers in 1951.

Now, if the Dodgers can only get Bobby Thomson from Milwaukee the scenario will be complete.

Owens Helps Kist Defeat Bank, 5-4

The First National Bank edged by Kist, 5-4, in a Pony League contest Tuesday evening at the Pony Park. First National collected eight hits while Kist managed only seven. Both teams had four errors. Owens was credited with the win with Williams receiving the loss.

Musial To Eye Hits

PITTSBURGH —UP— Stan Musial has temporarily put aside his ambition of equalling the late Honus Wagner in the number of National League batting championships and set his sights on another goal — 3,000 hits.

The Donora, Pa., Dandy had 2,697 hits as he went into his 15th major league season this spring.

"With no injuries and a little luck perhaps I can reach 3,000 sometime in 1957," Musial said as he stretched on a table in the visitors' clubhouse at Forbes Field while a trainer administered to his left arm.

"You need luck to go down through the years in the big leagues without serious injuries," Stan the Man reflected. "I was hit by pitched balls eight times last season. My forearm still is sore from Sunday when Johnny Antonelli struck me."

Musial already has won six league batting titles — two under the total registered by Wagner, a fellow western Pennsylvanian.

The St. Louis Cardinal star was not concerned about his 280 batting average to date—a sub-standard mark for him.

"I'm having my usual early season struggle," Musial grined. "With the exception of two or three seasons, I've always been a slow starter."

But the records show that by all-star game time Musial is well above the .300 mark and in his rightful orbit. In 12 "dream game" appearances, Musial has been named the most valuable National League player on three occasions.

Rocky To Referee

MONTREAL —UP— It had to happen sooner or later. Retired heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, following in the footsteps of former champions, plans to referee wrestling matches in Montreal this summer. Local promoter Eddie Quinn has been given permission to dicker with Marciano's representative in Brockton, Mass., for the ex-champ's services.

Top Olympic Prospects To Be At California Relays

By HAL WOOD
SAN FRANCISCO —UP— A preview of the U. S. Olympic trials will be held in the California Relays at Modesto Saturday when the top stars of the nation compete in special 100-yard dash, 400, pole vault and high jump events.

And it is going to be a sight to see some very capable 9.3 sprinters finishes third or fourth in the century!

Could any Texan, for instance, conceive of the possibility of Bob Whilden of Texas and Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian finishing third and fourth in any 100-yard dash?

In this race it's possible! Whilden has been timed in 9.1 and Morrow in 9.2—each with a strong tail-wind. But Mike Agostini of Fresno State and Trinidad and Leamon King of California each has equalled the world mark of 9.3 for the 100 — without wind.

There's another guy running in the race, too. Fellow name of Pat Coyne, who just won the 10 and 200 in the Pacific Coast Conference meet. Pat's best time is 9.5 and you have to give him credit for even entering.

Because of his fierce competitive spirit, some of the track coaches are picking King, the Californian. "He runs just fast enough to win every time," is the consensus.

In the high jump it's going to be the same way. There's Don Stewart, the 19-year-old Southern Methodist freshman who has cleared 6-10 1-4; Bill Russell of USF and Charles Dumas of Compton College, and Herman Wyatt of the Santa Clara Youth Center, all with "bests" of 6-9 1-4.

And in the 440, J. W. Mashburn of Oklahoma, with a best of 46.4; Jim Lea, ex-USC now in the service, 46.9; and young Eddie Southern, the Texas freshman sensation, who has been timed in 47.3.

Hungarian Given Chance In Distance Olympic Runs

By FERDINAND WIMMER
BUDAPEST, Hungary —UP— Laszlo Tabori, a slim, pint-sized worker in a local leather factory, is being tabbed by track experts as Hungary's "dark horse" hope for the Olympics and, perhaps, the world's next wonder miler.

The 24-year-old Tabori has been training systematically only two years but he already has a 3:59 mile to his credit.

"Tabori is now in the best shape of his life," says his coach, Mihaly Iglol, the man who trains Hungary's legendary runners. "There is no limit to the showings he can make from now on."

Tabori is now the youngest of Hungary's "Three Musketeers" of the track, a tightly-knit group which includes 25-year-old Sandor Haros and 26-year-old Istvan Roszavoly. Haros, Tabori and Roszavoly have already set seven world records between 1,000 and 6,000 meters, and now Tabori is pointing for the mile.

Tabori and Haros share the metric mile (1,500-meter) mark of 3:40.8.

More or less an unknown quantity until last summer, Tabori turned in a mile effort in London's annual British Games that sent his name flashing across the world.

The date was May 28, 1955 and it is one which already has gone down in track history. The crowd of 40,000 at the games anticipated a brilliant mile duel between Haros and Britain's two speedsters, Chris Chataway and Brian Hewson.

Haros pulled out of the vent because he became airsick on the flight to England. Tabori, who also was sick on the flight and who admitted after the race "I was only vaguely familiar with the mile distance," decided to run.

The result was one of the greatest mile races in track history. Tabori, pronounced 'Tob-or-ee,' displayed a spectacular finishing kick to win the event in 3:59 while Chataway and Hewson were both clocked in 3:59.8. What made those times even more amazing was the fact that it had rained hard the night before and the track was slow.

Tabori, a non-smoker and a non-drinker who averages 10 hours sleep daily, credits the bulk of his success to Iglol, his coach.

As coach of the Honved Club track team, the tough, sunburned 47-year-old Iglol has Tabori, Haros and Roszavoly under his wing in addition to 41 other athletes.

Iglol, who competed in the 1936 Olympic Games at Berlin and was a member of the Hungarian national track and field team until 1944, has helped his athletes establish 15 world records, 15 European records and 42 Hungarian national records within the last four years.

His secret for success is simple. "Hard work," he says. "Hard work at the daily training sessions and a steady watch over every one of my 44 athletes — that's the main 'secret' of my education program."

Score Seeks To Better Feller's Strike-Out Mark

By UNITED PRESS
Herb Score, the rookie sensation of 1955, is taking dead aim at teammate Bob Feller's all-time strikeout mark for a single season.

The 22-year old southpaw struck out seven batters as the Cleveland Indians whipped the Boston Red Sox 8-3 Wednesday and now has whiffed 67 rivals in 60 1-3 innings. At that pace — the Indians have completed one fifth of their schedule — Score will wind up with 335 whiffs in 300 frames.

The great Feller set the major league record of 348 strikeouts in 1946 when he pitched 371 innings. Feller, Walter Johnson and Rube Wadell are the only modern pitchers who have whiffed 300 batters in one season and Wadell's 343-total in 1904 stood for 42 years before Feller broke it.

Score, who struck out 245 batters to set a record for a rookie last season, was credited with his fifth triumph of the year Wednesday although he needed help from Don Mossi when he hit a wild streak in the eighth inning. Score's current record is 5-3 but all the losses were by one-run margins and two of them were by 1-0.

The Indians supported their young prodigy with a 13-hit attack that handed Frank Sullivan his first loss of the year and enabled them to remain 2 1-2 games behind the first-place New York Yankees.

The Yankees boomed out 17 hits against four pitchers to romp over the Detroit Tigers 13-5 and score their seventh win in eight games. Hank Bauer hit a three-run homer and Billy Martin and Gil McDougald had three hits each for the Yankees.

The Chicago White Sox got two "gift" runs when Ray Moore walked two batters with the bases filled in the fourth inning and went on to snap a five-game losing streak with a 3-2 verdict over the Baltimore Orioles.

Kansas City and Washington struggled for 17 innings before the Athletics won the American League's longest game of the season, 7-6 on Camillo Pascual's wild pitch. The errant pitch enabled

What to WATCH for when selecting the most modern truck for your job!

If you're in the market for a new truck, you can start your "shopping tour" right on this page! The salesman shown here is pointing out modern features that increase efficiency on the job and give you more truck for your dollars.

So take a moment to follow him around in this on-paper demonstration. Then you'll know what to look for—and you'll find it right here, at your Chevrolet dealer's!

WATCH for advanced Work Styling
The long, low, forward-sweeping lines of new Chevrolet trucks provide modern truck beauty that's good advertising for your business. Each weight class has its own distinctive styling.

WATCH for Ball-Gear steering
Modern Ball-Gear steering, featured in all Chevrolet Task-Force trucks, makes your job easier at every turn! In this precision steering gear, scores of polished steel balls minimize steering friction.

You'll find modern features everywhere! For example, there are famous Chevrolet high-compression 6's—the world's most popular truck engines! A great new 5-speed transmission, optional at extra cost, handles tough jobs with ease in a wide range of models. New Triple-Torque tandem options for heavy-duty trucks hike G.V.W.'s up to 32,000 lbs. . . G.C.W.'s up to 50,000 lbs. Certainly, there are many things that point up Chevrolet truck modernity . . . many reasons why anything less than Chevy is an old-fashioned truck!

WATCH for modern cab design
Chevrolet truck cabs offer greater comfort, panoramic windshield for better vision and modern concealed Safety Steps.

WATCH for automatic transmissions
In 3000-4000 Series models there's famous HYDRA-MATIC. And for 5000 through 10000 Series models there's exclusive, revolutionary POWERMATIC! Both are extra-cost options.

WATCH for modern short-stroke V8's
There's a new V8—either standard or optional at extra cost—for every model. They're compact, efficient engines, too—the leaders in their respective classes for horsepower-per-pound!
