Katherine Hepburn's Versatility Put To Acid Test In Mastering Difficult Idioms And Dialect

Screen Star Portrays Character Of Head Strong Mountain Girl

The versatility and broad power of mimicry of Katherine Hepburn was put to the acid test when the star was called upon to master the difficult idioms and dialect of the Carolina mountain dwellers for her role of Trigger Hicks in her current RKO-Endia picture, "Spitfire," which comes to the Ritz Theatre Friday and Saturday.

A last minute change in production plans made it necessary that she accomplish this with but a few hours' coaching. "Spitfire" was adapted to the screen from Lulu Volmer's Broadway stage success, "Trigger," and in it Miss Hepburn portrays a headstrong and explosive hoyden of the mountains, who mixes primitive piety and faith in prayer with deep human sympathy and tenderness; who is militant against love yet succumbs to the blandishments of an unworthy man.

The characterization, according to those who have seen the picture, is radically different from anything this star has heretofore attempted, either for the stage or the screen, calling upon her to be a bewitching hoyden one moment and a battling widow the next.

It was at first thought that the Carolina vocabulary would be extremely difficult for Miss Hepburn to learn, since it is the direct antithesis of her flowing, broad "a's", cultivated for the Broadway stage, but the readiness with which she accomplished it was surprising.

In "Spitfire," Miss Hepburn has two leading men, Ralph Bellamy and Robert Young, and the cast of supporting players includes Martha Sleeper, Louis Mason, Sara Haden and many others. The production was directed by John Cromwell.

FUN PLAYED WITH HATTLER

SALEM, Ore. (UP)—Twenty thousand Chinese pheasant eggs are under hens at the two state game commission farms at Eugene and Pendleton, officials announced today. About 27,000 eggs will be set by the end of the season, the largest number since operation of the farms was begun.

Trigger Fingered

Ruth Chatterton, as the wife of a playwright, allows her jealousies to dictate to her better judgment. There is a shot in a dark theatre, and the leading lady of her husband's play falls victim. From that day on the playwright's wife loses her spirit until finally, broken under the ever increasing strain, she starts to the district attorney, a mental wreck. On the way an automobile injures her and prevents the way for a too-easy conclusion.

London Cabby Wins Pot For Sweepstakes

Manner In Which He Spends It Forms Background For Show

Comedy, action, excitement and intriguing romance, "Call It Luck" has them all, according to reports from the Coast preview.

It slips along without a lull. It has plenty of unroarious laughs, supplied chiefly by Herbert Mundin and the ludicrous situations in which he finds himself. It has lots of love interest, with "Pat" Patterson and Charles Starrett as the principals. And it has one of those hilarious surprise finishes that brings down the house. All of this comes through in the reports from the preview.

The picture will be at the Queen Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday to substantiate these reports.

Story Built Upon Pancho Villa Epic

Production Long Awaited Here; Villa Played By Beery

"Viva Villa!" Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's spectacular epic which opens Sunday and Monday at the Ritz Theatre, is the fictional story of Pancho Villa, the great Mexican revolutionary leader who was the outstanding figure in the world's history in the decade preceding the World War.

Opening in the hills of Chihuahua, it shows young Villa watching his father flogged to death. He stabs the hacienda who holds the means in virtual slavery, and flees to the mountains.

Pillage the Rich
When he emerges some years later, a man, he is leading a band of wild savages who amuse themselves by pillaging the great hacienda, robbing the rich, befriending the poor.

Villa's career of banditry ends when he meets Francisco Madero, a gentle visionary who gives Villa his "great dream" of a free Mexico. Villa organizes an army and begins the spectacular conquest of the country. He drives the tyrant Diaz, from the throne and proclaims his friend, Madero, President.

Returning to a life of peace, he is involved in a bank robbery and murder in almost executed by the enemy, General Pascual. Madero saves Villa, but betrays him. He goes to El Paso, Texas.

One night his friend, Johnny Sykes, American newspaper correspondent, brings word that Madero has been murdered by Pascual. Enraged, Villa crosses the Rio Grande into Mexico and begins to organize another army. Within a few months he begins the second revolution—a triumphant march through the country from the border to the capital, driving the federal forces before him.

En route he passes at the hacienda of Don Felipe, who introduced him to Madero. He tries to make love to Felipe's sister, is repulsed and shot, and whips the girl to death. He goes on, showing no mercy to the rich or to those who oppose him.

At the end of his spectacular campaign he marches into Mexico City at the head of 60,000 men and proclaims himself provisional President. But he knows that he doesn't belong in a palace; he has none of the social graces, no knowledge of world events or of economic problems. He fears that instead of saving Mexico, he will ruin her.

How he meets this problem, his dramatic renunciation of power and his ultimate tragic death at the hands of Don Felipe, constitutes a human document without parallel in screen history.

"Viva Villa!" is one of the truly great pictures of the past few years, a photoplay at once important and entertaining. It will take its place with such classics

Ruth Chatterton Afforded Rare Opportunity To Display Talent For Dramatic Emotional Roles

She Can Take It

An individualist of the ringered sort, "Trigger" Hicks, played by Katherine Hepburn, can take all sorts of abuse at the hands of the faithful lovers and angry mountain folks. What is more, she fights her battles all alone and refuses aid from an enduring admirer. She does, however, promise to come to him when she has solved her own emotions. Shown with her here is Robert Young.

Comedy Tempo And Mystery Are Combined

'Private Scandal' Prevent Witnesses From Telling Truth

A murder mystery with a fast comedy tempo and side-splitting laughs is coming today to the Queen Theatre. It is "Private Scandal," a Charles R. Rogers-Paramount film with Zasu Pitts, Phillips Holmes, Mary Brian, Ned Sparks and the late Lew Cody.

The film was directed by Ralph Murphy, responsible for last season's "99.99 Percent True" and "The Mystery Treatment."

The more dramatic scenes take place in the theatre during rehearsals of a musical show, which also affords an intimate insight into the backstage life of Parisian theatrical folk. Other sequences take place in a fashionable Parisian home, in the prosecutor's office, behind the grim walls of the famous Sainte prison, in the gay cafes and night clubs and on the French Riviera.

F. Hugh Herjert and Charles Kenyon adapted Deval's play to the screen while William Keighley directed it.

Heavy Rain Before Drought
ROCKWELL CITY, Iowa, (UP)—This Iowa city, in the midst of the area stricken by the recent drought, had more rainfall during the first four months of 1934 than it did during the same period in 1933. Official figures showed the precipitation from Jan. 1, 1934, to May 1 to be 7.77 inches; in 1933 precipitation was 6.08 inches.

Coach Driver Before Drought

COACH DRIVER BEHIND FLAME
CHICAGO, (UP)—Above the scene route over which he drove stage coaches 55 years ago, at least ten miles an hour, Fred Tice, octogenarian of Medford, Ore., got a new thrill when he rode leisurely along in a three-mile-a-minute, multi-motored transport on United Air Lines' coastal route.

McCraw declared that his candidacy is based upon the standard of who can really serve best all people, adding "my record is open and I have no political hymn of hate to sing whose theme is misguiding the voters."

He pointed to his wide experience as a lawyer, and said the "seasoning" which was mine as representative of the people of my home county by the lawyers, insures the ability demanded by the attorney generally.

"I can serve all Texas, playing no favorites and punishing no enemies except when the public interests are threatened."

Direct connections by air transportation over American Airlines to Chicago and New York will be put into effect June 15th, according to R. W. Fischer, local station agent for the airlines. American Airlines, recent successful bidders on the Fort Worth-Chicago-New York line, and Fort Worth-Cleveland run, are preparing to inaugurate this service on this date.

His daughter, in love with his partner, the telephone girl, the cashier, the watchman and a traveling salesman are involved. But they refuse to tell the truth, because they don't want their "private scandals" bared.

In the midst of all this confusion, Ned Sparks, as the ad-faced detective, starts his investigations. He solves the crime, brings the real culprit to justice. His characterization as a "cold-pan" detective keeps the audience laughing, without slackening the suspense of the mystery-thriller.

Disturbing Star
The story is about a London caddy who wins $125,000 on a sweepstakes ticket. What does he do with the money? Thereby hangs a tale that is filled with suspense. It's a timely subject and Mundin can be counted on to make the most of it. He's wise in the ways of London cabbies. It was as a caddy that he made his bow to America in Charlot's revue. He regards this as his greatest role since he went into the movies.

"Pat" Patterson scored a hit in "Bottoms Up" and she's said to be even better in "Call It Luck." As Mundin's beautiful niece, she goes to work singing and dancing in a night club to help him recoup his lost fortune. (Oh, yes, he loses the money.) Then Sarrett comes in, and...well, it promises to be a thoroughly amusing picture.

Sock Vs. Science -- A Fistic Paradox In Boxing Carnera-Slugger Bear Bout

By JOHN STAHR
NEW YORK, (AP)—It'll be sock vs. science—that traditional fistic "national"—when Primo Carnera defends his heavyweight title against Max Baer in the Long Island bowl June 14, but this time the sock is on the other fist!

It is customary to associate devastating power with size, while science and cleverness ride with the smaller man, yet now boxing fandom has the paradox of the most enormous physical specimen ever to hold the title forced to depend, in defense of his crown, upon skill and science against the blasting power of a foe at least 50 pounds lighter!

Of course, Maximilian Adelbert Baer is no midget. He will probably weigh somewhere between 206 and 212 pounds when he tackles the Ambling Alp in the bout that has captured popular imagination more completely than any matching since the golden days of Tex Richard's extravaganzas.

Baer Has Best K. O. Chance
But he will still be giving away a half-hundredweight or more to the champion. And in the face of this physical disparity the chances for the bout ending in a knockout—as the expert see it—are all on the side of the "little" man.

You couldn't tell by a mathematical summary of their careers that Max is Primo's superior as a knockerout, or that Primo is a paragon of boxing skill as compared to the Livermore Larruper.

Max boasts 59 knockouts in his 47 contests—against 10 wins and seven losses on decision—while Da Preem has left 59 of his 80 opponents recumbent while outscoring 15 others, losing five and having one no-decision bout.

An Even Break At Miami
It is largely on the basis of Carnera's winning bout with Tommy Loughran in Miami last February that the experts arrive at their conclusions regarding the knockout possibilities of the June 14 tiff.

The champion split even, so far as his reputation was concerned, in that battle. He lost caste as a flattener by his failure to put away his 70-pounds-lighter foe, but he gained just as much respect from those who thrill to boxing skill, by the masterful way he fended with the man long considered the most artistic layer-on of gloves in the business.

The boys who have been peering intently and expertly at fighters for many years do not deny that the Italian has plenty of manning power. He has, indeed, worn down to the knockout stage such stalwarts as Jack Sharkey, the late Ernie Schaaf, Jose Santa and Ted Sandwina, to mention only a few.

One of the most unusual angles to the heavyweight championship bout in the Long Island bowl June 14 is that Primo Carnera, bulkiest in ring history, will be depending on superior skill to defend his crown against his comparatively small adversary, smashing Max Baer.

Up From Greens Banks
But they figure his bruising ability will not be sufficient to stop the magnificent physical specimen that is Baer. What he would need, they agree is "sharpness" and snap in hitting, a knack they say Primo surprisingly lacks but which is Baer's forte.

Carnera doesn't want to be rated as a "freak" all his life. He has studied. He has learned to box.

So now we shall have a champion who graduated into the ring from a European circus side show—a man who originally had little to recommend him but freakish size—depending on diligently acquired skill and science to preserve his laurels!

A large field of golfers will start qualifying today for the city championship tournament to be held on the grass green Muny links. Qualifying starts today and will continue through Sunday, June 24. Match play will be in flights of sixteen, with as many flights as necessary to take care of all of the entrants.

The fact that a week will be allowed for each match to be played, enabling all those who play golf at all to have sufficient time to play their matches, is expected to bring forth all the golfers of the city.

It's Hole Qualifying
The qualifying round will be for 18 holes, and the match play like wise, until the finals are reached. Prizes will be awarded to the winner as well as the runner-up in each flight.

There will be no entrance fee, only the regular twenty-five cent green fee. All that is necessary is that each player signify his intention to qualify by securing a signed card from Charles Akey, Muny pro.

Greens Topped
All the greens having been topped within the last few days, the course is expected to be in tip-top shape for the fracas. Much interest is expected to materialize from the tournament.

Officials are anxious that all golfers enter, as there will be suitable flights for all classes of golf. In other words, the golfer who shoots a high score will be put in a flight with golfers who play about the same as he does.

Lady golfers will have a flight or more of their own.

only in Norge
do you get Rollator Refrigeration

NO MATTER WHAT PRICE YOU PAY

Don't let anyone tell you that "all refrigerator mechanisms are about the same." Only Norge has the Rollator cold-making mechanism. And the Rollator has vital, exclusive advantages found in no other mechanism ever built.

Look at the Mechanism
Look for beauty of cabinet design and finish—convenience features—shelf capacity. You'll find that Norge is everything you could want in a modern refrigerator. But beyond that look to the mechanism!

THE ROLLATOR—has only three moving parts—simple, powerful, almost everlasting. Only Norge has the Rollator.

Did you ever hear of a refrigerator mechanism, that after running constantly, on factory test, for the equivalent of 29 years in your home, actually uses less current today than when it was new? Did you ever hear of a mechanism which would freeze ice quickly in a room temperature of 120°? That's what you are sure of getting when you buy a Norge.

See the Norge. See its many features of convenience and economy. And certainly, don't buy any refrigerator till you know all about Rollator Refrigeration.

 What a pitiful situation. We can make room for our criminals in our prisons. We can spend millions to allegedly "correct" the criminal, but the Board of Control cannot ar-

 It is not a foregone conclusion that the three children will become odds are that if their lives are more than likely encourage crim-

 This means that the American of

PREDICTS GREAT SUCCESS FOR TRI-STATE FAIR RACING MEET

Above in the nationally known racing official, Sidney S. Bender, who will be secretary and clerk of scales for the Tri-State Fair's spring meeting at Amarillo June 15-25. Reader yesterday sent in reservations for 23 thoroughbred horses that have been running with varying degrees of success at Arlington Downs, Epsom Downs and Alamo Downs. In his letter to Manager Ted Taylor, Bender stated, "Interest in the Amarillo races is high among horse owners that I have contacted. I believe the Amarillo races will be a great success in every way. Several owners have promised me they will apply direct to you for stalls just as soon as the Hondo meet is over."

THE FARM HOME

The farm housing survey, a project of the Civil Works Administration, is producing facts and statistics that are of exceptional interest.
 The survey covers such factors as condition of walls, chimneys, roofs, etc., the age of the structure, the number of rooms and occupants, and whether or not it has ordinary conveniences and comforts. The average urban dweller will be surprised to learn that a heavy percentage of the farm homes are entirely without plumbing of any kind. The bulk of the homes are in only fair condition; many are classified as being poor. And only a comparative handful have electric or gas labor saving devices.

SOCIAL EFFECTS OF LIFE INSURANCE

The American public's growing interest in life insurance—which has been vividly demonstrated lately by large increases in sales of policies of all types—promises to produce extraordinarily beneficial social effects.
 It wasn't so many years ago that but one of the uses of life insurance was thoroughly understood—to protect dependents in case of the death of the wage earner. As a matter of fact, nowadays other uses are overshadowing that one, and in recent years more money has been paid by the companies to living policyholders than to beneficiaries. Life insurance is being looked upon more and more as an investment. It provides a means of educating one's children, of guarding against business reverses—most important of all, perhaps, of assuring oneself a definite income for

THE GUARANTEE OF DEMOCRACY

"The freedom of the press is the sole hope of freedom for the people. A dictatorship can not endure a free press, for with one it can not maintain itself continuously. A dictatorship—be it Communist, Fascist, or Nazi—always puts the press under its heel. Then the people know nothing because they can hear only what the dictator chooses to let them. A free press is the sole guarantee of a free democracy."—San Francisco Chronicle.

THREE-HUNDRED-FIFTEEN PEOPLE KILLED

Between now and 1940, 190,000 persons will be killed in automobile accidents.
 The total of fatalities for the entire decade that began with 1930 will be 315,000, and the injury record will touch 10,000,000. The fatalities will be greater than the total of the soldiers killed in battle in the entire history of this country—and will surpass the battle casualties of the A. E. F. in the World War more than six times.
 The number injured will be fifty times the number of A. E. F. soldiers wounded non-fatally in action.

Roosevelt's Popularity Declining
 In Corn Belt But Gaining In East
 "Digest" New Deal Poll Shows

The New Deal shows a loss of popularity in the midwestern agricultural regions and an increasing support in industrial states as evidenced by the 625,920 votes tallied in the fourth report of the Literary Digest's nation-wide poll on Roosevelt's acts and policies which will be published in tomorrow's issue of the magazine.
 The latest returns give 370,491 votes for the Administration to 255,429 against, which is a ratio of about 3 to 2.
 Twenty-three of the twenty-five states reported in the current tabulation vote in favor of the New Deal, Maine and Vermont only dissenting.
 The administration receives a 59.19 per cent of confidence in the week's tally, which is practically the same as it got in the previous week's vote.
 In the 1932 election the twenty-five states from which poll returns have been received to date gave Roosevelt a combined vote of 55.50 per cent which shows a post-election gain in popularity for the president of 3.69 per cent, as against slightly over 7 per cent last week.
 Incomplete but "substantial" returns are received from Harvard and Yale universities in a separate poll on the same question, which is being conducted by the Literary Digest in a number of colleges.
 Harvard votes 1,983 for the Roosevelt policies to 639 against, while Yale votes 574 for the Roosevelt policies to 640 against.
 In 1932 the Yale News and the Harvard Crimson conducted pre-election straw polls on the Presidential candidates. Hoover beat Roosevelt almost 3 to 1 at Harvard and almost 4 to 1 at Yale.
 The 1932 vote at Harvard, from which institution Roosevelt graduated, was Hoover 1,741, Roosevelt 620 and Thomas 484.
 The 1932 pre-election vote at Yale was Hoover 1,416, Roosevelt 270 and Thomas 347.
 First returns from Texas and Arkansas give the administration more than a 3 to 1 vote of confidence, the largest he receives from any states to date. In the 1932 election Texas gave Roosevelt over a 7 to 1 vote and Arkansas over 5 to 1.

SIDELIGHTS ON BUSINESS

The assertion of a federal trade commission investigator that Henry L. Doherty obtained control of the

A comparison of the 1932 election percentage for Roosevelt with those of the Literary Digest poll, in some mid-western states, shows a decline in his popularity.
 The comparison shows: Illinois: election 55.23 per cent, poll 52.57 per cent; Indiana: election 54.66 per cent, poll 52.04 per cent; Iowa: 57.89 per cent, poll 51.55 per cent; Nebraska: election 62.98 per cent, poll 52.13 per cent; Oklahoma: election 73.20 per cent, poll 69.66 per cent; Wisconsin: election 63.45 per cent, poll 61.83 per cent.
 Some of the states which indicate, by comparison, an increase of popularity for the President include: Connecticut: election 47.40 per cent, poll 57.51 per cent; Massachusetts: election 50.64 per cent, poll 53.94 per cent; Michigan: election 52.37 per cent, poll 61.24 per cent; New Jersey: election 49.40 per cent, poll 57.25 per cent; New York: election 53.32 per cent, poll 60.75 per cent; Pennsylvania: election 45.22 per cent, poll 44.03 per cent.
 Maine and Vermont, the only states voting against Roosevelt's acts and policies, also show an increase in sentiment for him over his ratios in the 1932 election.
 In fifteen states the President's ratios of ballots are greater than his 1932 election ratios in the same states and in ten of them his ratios are shown to be smaller by comparison.
 "More than half the Union is included in the fourth tally of the Literary Digest's poll to test national opinion on the New Deal," the magazine will state editorially.
 "These twenty-five states furnished three-fourths of the country's popular vote when they elected Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1932."
 "Pennsylvania holds firm with 64.03 per cent of its new total of 85,179 ballots. The Literary Digest poll to test national opinion on the 1932 Presidential poll gave Pennsylvania to Roosevelt by a majority over Hoover of 31,611 in a total Pennsylvania vote of 240,939.
 "The figures were: Hoover, 95,057, Roosevelt 124,675. The election, however, gave Pennsylvania to Hoover by 157,592 over Roosevelt, the figures being: Hoover 1,453,540, Roosevelt 1,295,944.
 "Accusations of wide-spread election frauds followed this result. In Washington the House Election Investigation committee was told by its special counsel, S. Davis Wilson that he and his deputies had uncovered 40,000 votes improperly cast in Philadelphia alone.
 "The Democratic National Committee considered demanding a recount, but President Roosevelt's victory throughout the nation was so overwhelming and the committee's funds were so low that the charges were allowed to drop.
 "There was every reason to believe that the Literary Digest poll figures had been accurate and they are now confirmed by the accompanying returns from Pennsylvania.

 "Delaware here holds up as a Roosevelt state with a New Deal ratio of 58.61 per cent. Delaware's history in the Literary Digest poll of 1932 and the Presidential election was a shadow of Pennsylvania's.
 "The poll gave Delaware to Roosevelt, with 2,546 votes against Hoover's 2,384. The election as officially announced, gave it to Hoover with 57,073 against Roosevelt's 54,319.
 "There were circumstantial stories of election frauds, but they were not pursued. The Literary Digest poll figures find confirmation in Delaware's return herewith.
 "Prevailing third party talk in Minnesota imparts interest to the fact that in the present tally Minnesota gives the President a 65.07 per cent vote, which is 5.18 per cent better than it gave him in the election.
 "The two important drifts revealed by the poll—Roosevelt voters of 1932 who now vote 2nd and Hoover voters who now vote 1st in the New Deal—still show a balance favorable to the President, for while 18.86 per cent of his election supporters have deserted him, 34.82 per cent of Hoover voters now support the New Deal.

 "Also 75.40 per cent of those who voted for minor candidates now vote for Roosevelt and so do 53.58 per cent of those who did not vote at all."
 Several museums are collecting old tools as depicting America's industrial history.

HERE'S ONE REASON WHY
 LONG DISTANCE CALLS are fast

Vast network of long distance trunk lines, operated by A. T. & T., parent organization of the Bell System, makes possible split-second journeys for your voice.

● This company, like each of the 24 Bell System associated companies, operates its own long distance system within its own boundaries, (shown by shaded area on map). But A. T. & T. trunk lines link these 24 separate systems into a nationwide unit, over which your voice can flash almost with the speed of a local call to the remote reaches of the country.

● With thousands of miles of wire at their finger tips, operators at widely separated switchboards along these trunk lines must use perfect team-work in sending your voice on its split-second journey.

Working with equipment tested to the same high standards, these girls do the job in the same way, wherever they may be. In the last decade, they have reduced the average time needed to complete a call to any part of the land from 10 to a little less than two minutes.

● At intervals of 50 or 100 miles throughout this vast system of voice-highways, skilled attendants keep constant vigil in telephone "repeater" stations. Here, powerful tubes similar to the tubes in your radio infuse new life into failing voice currents. Without the "boosts" given by these repeaters, your voice would dwindle and die within the space of a few scores of miles.

FOR YOU . . . Good Service at Fair Cost

NATION-WIDE telephone service would be virtually impossible without equipment built from the same designs and used in the same way . . . without operators trained in the same methods . . . without, in short, a nationwide organization behind it.

How effectively the Bell System meets this need is shown by the fact that long distance today is as clear as a local call; by the fact that 9 out of 10 long distance calls go through while you hold the line; by the constant pushing back of the frontiers of the voice, until 92 per cent of the world's telephones are now within your reach; by four reductions in long distance rates, made voluntarily in recent years.

Here you may see the workings of a fundamental Bell System policy . . . to give you constantly improving telephone service, at low cost to the user.

This policy has been adopted because we believe it is a policy that works. In an organization planned like the telephone service for the long pull, we feel that what is best for the telephone user becomes in the end the course that will bring us the sounder, more certain success.

 TAX PENALTIES

 Time to Save Them!

FOR EXAMPLE — Suppose that A owes $100 State and County taxes delinquent upon his property for the year 1931. If he pays these taxes on or before June 30th, 1934, the penalty thereon will be 6% and the total amount he will pay will be $106. But if he pays the same taxes on July 1st, 1934, he is legally required to pay $10 penalty and $15 interest and $1.00 cost, making his total payment $126. He will save $20 by paying now.

Suppose B owes $25 State and County taxes delinquent in 1931. If he pays same on or before June 30th the penalty thereon will be 6 per cent and the total amount he will pay will be $26.50. But if B pays on or after July 1, 1934 he is legally required to pay $2.50 penalty, $3.75 interest and $1 cost making a total of $32.25. He will save $5.75 by paying now.

Save the PENALTIES INTEREST AND COST

Interest and penalties are as provided in House Bill No. 46 of the First Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature

The penalty on State and County taxes delinquent for the year 1932 and prior years will increase on July 1st, 1934, from 6% to 10%.

After July 1st, also; interest at 6% per annum from date of delinquency will be required by law. NO INTEREST is charged on delinquent taxes that are paid before July 1st.

The following table shows the total penalty and interest upon taxes back to 1922, and the saving if paid before July 1st:

Condition No. 1 of the Johnson settlement was a countermanning of the strike order "without prejudice to the right of labor to strike" later. Mill owners are confident they won't take advantage of this clause. They say that with few exceptions the mills could close down today and stay closed until September saving the owners hundreds of thousands of dollars. The workers know this, they say. Had it not been for a dislike of bringing public opinion down on the textile industry the employers would have called the union's bluff last week and profited by it. Most observers at NRA looked on the Johnson settlement as ammunition that the conservative union leaders could take home chiefly for fighting purposes. Aside from granting cotton textile labor a representative each on the Labor Advisory Board and the Textile Code Authority, the workers got a pregnant promise of five investigations into working conditions. Johnson talked turkey when he told them bluntly their suggestion was foolish but that the price of cotton textiles be increased 23-1/2 per cent so the employers could afford better wages. He shot at the radicals when he refused flatly to rescind the NRA order restricting machine hours 25 per cent during the summer.

problems this fall is stepped up enormously. Build-Up - Skillful management of the government bond market made the 3% interest attractive. Now enough bonds will be put out to fill the Treasury's needs without satiating subscribers' appetites as a three-billion issue might have done. It is the optional privilege of converting the shorts is snapped up—the betting is 20 to 1 it will be the September and December maturities and Liberties can be refinanced at a cost so cheap it would have been ridiculed as impossible by financial chaps a few months back.

Easy - A former official who was intimately identified with the Hoover administration offers another possible slant on why President Roosevelt is planning to absent himself from the country for seven weeks at a time when conditions are acute. It is that so long as a President keeps himself tied to his desk night and day the country gets uneasy and figures something must be wrong.

Notes - A quiet but effective worker in Hugh Johnson's fancy NRA trimmings... The canned dog-food code goes into effect Monday unless the big fellows find fine weather to get together... Congress has pinched out $40,000,000 cash for new warships... The House deficiency bill opens the way for Poch-Bach Ickes to throw $1,000,000,000 of public works funds into relief channels... State's rights sticklers have been sabotaging Ickes' oil control bill, hoping for quick adjournment... Huey Long voted against FDR on the crucial tariff amendment and Cullen, La Follette and Norris stood by the President.

NEW YORK BY JAMES McMULLIN Outguessed - The June Treasury financing ($500,000,000 of 5-year 2 1/8% notes and $300,000,000 of 13-1/2 year 3% bonds plus conversion privileges into the latter for $520,000,000 June and August short term maturities) looks perfectly orthodox on the surface. Underneath it means the Treasury has again outguessed Wall Street in their perennial game of hide-and-seek. The offering differs from local banking anticipations in four important respects. 1. It makes no provision for converting the $1,300,000,000 4th Liberty bonds called for payment in October. 2. It likewise ignores $1,216,000,000 of short terms maturing in September and December. 3. It doesn't approach the advance estimate of a $3,000,000,000 issue this month. 4. It adds eight hundred unexpected million to the Treasury's cash balance—bringing the total to about $2,000,000,000 apart from profits on gold devaluation.

Consolation - Wall Streeters get one consolation from this nifty device to combine still cheaper financing—"at the investors' expense"—with more lavish outlays of Treasury funds. They figure the government must steer to the right in financial matters until mid-September at least. Otherwise half the plan would run the risk of a serious flop.

Effects - The trend toward lower yields on federal issues—forecast by Maynard Keynes last winter—should benefit all bonds—corporate as well as government. High grade industrial securities—if non-callable—should be selling at a tidy premium before the year is out. The cheaper money gets the more they benefit.

Morgan - Insiders comment that the Morgan interest in security flotations will not be entirely academic hereafter even though the house has officially abandoned the security business. Morgan's reins first rate contacts with a number of other firms which have acted as secondary under-

Kiwanians Climb In Loop Standing With Easy Seven To One Victory

Kiwanians soft ballers faced the Southern Ice boys in a League No. 1 game Friday, 7 to 1. The lone tally for the Ice men came in the fifth inning when Kinard, left-fielder, crossed the plate. The Kiwanians opened their scoring spree in the first frame with a run by Black. Another was added in the second by Rogers. The Clubmen failed to hit pay dirt in the third, fourth and fifth, but chalked up their third run in the sixth when D. H. "Tiny" Reed made the circuit. The Ice boys had a two run lead as the seventh and last inning opened, but the Kiwanians rallied to put across four runs, Black, Ezell, Gentry and Gaultley scoring.

Hokus Pokus Wins 21 To 9

Local Team Unable To Stop Midlanders Attack In Fast Game

The Robinson soft ball team was downed by Sam Warren's fast Midland Hokus Pokus team 21 to 9 at Midland Friday night. The Robinsons, unused to night play and the faster game, were lost from the start. The Midlanders started off in high speed, scoring four runs in the first inning. Three of the runs were made on errors. A complete shift in the Robinson lineup failed to stop the Hokus Pokus bunch. The Midland team loosened up considerably in the latter part of the nine inning game, coasting to victory on a big lead. The Big Spring team did most of its scoring in the fourth and fifth innings. The Hokus Pokus team will return the game in the near future.

which will visit 27 cities of the western United States as well as numerous scenic and wonder places of the Golden West, will visit Big Spring July 18th for two hours, arriving at 8:30 p. m., and departing at 10:30 p. m., according to information received by Big Spring Chamber of Commerce from Dennis Murphree, lieutenant governor of Mississippi, and general chairman of the tour. Fourteen cars will make up the special train, it was said, consisting of two exhibit cars, two dining cars, one office and observation car, and nine Pullman cars. The exhibit cars will contain a comprehensive exhibit of the agricultural and industrial products of the state as well as an exhibit of the educational and health accomplishments of Mississippi. A specially equipped observation and office car will be fitted up and will contain typewriters, mimeograph machines, and office equipment as well as a piano, radio and reclining chairs. A postoffice and telegraph station will also be maintained in this car.

One or more Pullman cars will be filled with men only. One or more Pullman cars will be filled with single and unattached ladies only.

"The Know Mississippi Better Train" is a non-profit organization of Mississippi citizens, who believe in and love their state and who seek to sell the people of other states and nations something of the wonders and the opportunities of Mississippi while at the same time learning first hand of the accomplishments and the progress made by others.

Originated ten years ago, by a mass meeting of citizens of the state called by Governor Whitfield, the idea of a special train, carrying exhibits of the state's products as well as representative citizens and traveling beyond the confines of Mississippi, was presented by Dennis Murphree, then lieutenant governor and he was named general chairman.

By and with the help and cooperation of an executive committee composed of Dr. F. J. Underwood, state health officer, W. F. Bond, state superintendent of education, and J. C. Holton, state commissioner of agriculture, as well as various organizations and individuals in the state, this train has continued to make once each year for ten consecutive years, a journey into the various states, and nations

Norge Sets An All-Time Record

DETROIT. (Special) — Norge shipments during May struck another all-time high of 27,000 units; orders received to date being 28 per cent greater than entire 1933 production. Shipments so far in 1934 have more than doubled last year's corresponding period. Orders for the first five months were 300 per cent of those in the like period of 1933. Open orders, on May 30, are over five times greater than on the similar date of 1933. This is the thirteenth consecutive month in which sales topped the total of the same month of the preceding year, according to Howard E. Blood, President, Norge Corporation, division of Borg-Warner Corporation.

"Norge Rollator refrigeration is enjoying remarkable public acceptance," said Blood, "as is evidenced by the fact that Norge's share of the competitive total has more than doubled so far this year, compared with 1933. We are planning a great summer sales drive to keep our factories at capacity production during the summer season. The country over, Norge dealers will join in a period of Cold Cookery Carnivals and a Friendship Campaign to acquaint the American housewife more forcibly with the convenience, size value, health protection and cold cookery delights of electric refrigeration during the summer period."

"Thirty Norge field representatives from all points in the country convened in Detroit on June first, to plan the July-August sales campaign which will be more extensively advertised and promoted than any other event in Norge history," Mr. Blood concluded.

SCOUT NEWS

Headlining scout activities for the week is the troop hike planned by Troop No. 2. The troop is planning on going to Moss Spring Tuesday evening to spend the night there. Accompanying will be Scoutmaster Cummings, his assistant, Peyton Wheeler, and Nat Shick, a troop committeeman.

Site of the two outdoor sessions for the scouters' camping training school has not yet been selected. Moss Spring, if it can be had, seems the most logical place since it has plenty of good water and a liberal amount of shade. The committee appointed to select the place will likely reach decision today.

There were only about twenty boys at the Court of Honor held in the First Baptist church last Sunday evening, but a majority of them were up for advancement.

Four received second class badges, many merit badges, and a star badge went to Weldon Elgony of Troop No. 4. It was the first time that a Court of Honor had been held in connection with church services, and rain arrived in time to cut attendance sharply. Rev. R. E. Day delivered his sermon to the boys.

Camp, last some of the boys forget, will be held at Merizo: July 10-24. Fees will be the same this year as last year except there will not be a cut on the two weeks stay. There will be a world of shade and plenty of clear spring water at camp. Moreover, the country surrounding the campsite abounds in Indian relics.

A. C. Williamson, area executive, has complained that Big Spring scoutmasters have not turned in their reports this month as they should have done.

A group of Big Spring scouters were to have gone to Stanton Tuesday to help conduct a board of review, but final confirmation of the date and the meeting was never furnished and the trip was called off.

Troop Meetings Troop No. 2—A good attendance was recorded Thursday when the troop built its program around water safety since summer months are bringing on swimming. Each patrol, while in its meeting, dramatize a water safety scene and presented it before the troop. Jack Dabney of the Porcupines and Ed
