On Gas Bill Senate Censures 'Influence' Try

By JOHN A. GOLDSMITH
WASHINGTON, April 7 — UP—Senate investigators Saturday censured Superior Oil Co., attorney John M. Neff and Elmer Patman for "galling irresponsibility" in allegedly trying to sway the vote of Sen. Francis Case (R-S.D.) on the natural gas bill. But they said that "there was neither a bribe nor an attempt to bribe" involved. The blue-ribbon committee added in its final report on the sensational incident that Superior Oil President Howard B. Keck must share whatever blame attaches to his two employees because he was "remarkably lax" in directing their activities. "This is a case of irresponsibility run riot," the committee said. Reached at his office in Austin, Tex., Patman said, "I have not read the committee's report. I therefore have nothing to say." Ends Phase of Turmoil Issuance of the report ended one phase of the turmoil which began during Senate debate on the gas bill when Case disclosed he had rejected a $2500 campaign gift from Neff. The Senate passed the bill, 53 to 38, and set up the committee to investigate. But President Eisenhower vetoed the measure with a blast at "arrogant" tactics of lobbyists supporting it. The Senate then set up another eight-man committee to conduct a broader lobbying inquiry. The gas bill affair will be its first business. The report said Neff, lobbying "in an inept fashion" for the bill, clearly made the $2,500 campaign contribution offer for Case for the purpose of influencing the senator's vote. But there was no bribe attempt. No Reflection on Case It said it had "some difficulty" in determining what Case was complaining about when he brought the incident to the Senate. (See SENATE, Page 3)

Benson Indicates He Might Ask Ike To Veto Farm Bill

By VINCENT J. BURKE
WASHINGTON, April 7 — UP—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson indicated Saturday after a conference with President Eisenhower that he will ask him to veto the election-year farm bill unless it is revised. "The legislation is not acceptable to me," Benson told White House reporters. "There will have to be some changes to make it a good bill." It was the third time in less than 24 hours that Benson had gone to the White House to discuss with Mr. Eisenhower and his advisers what the administration should do about the politically-explosive bill. The measure, approved Friday by a Senate-House Conference committee, contains many features objectionable to the administration. ### Gaza Strip Fighting Spreads To Jordan, Syrian Borders

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector, April 7 —UP—Egyptian "suicide squads" invaded Israeli territory Saturday near the Gaza Strip wasteland in the fourth straight day of border warfare, Israel charged. The fighting also spread to the Syrian and Jordanian borders.

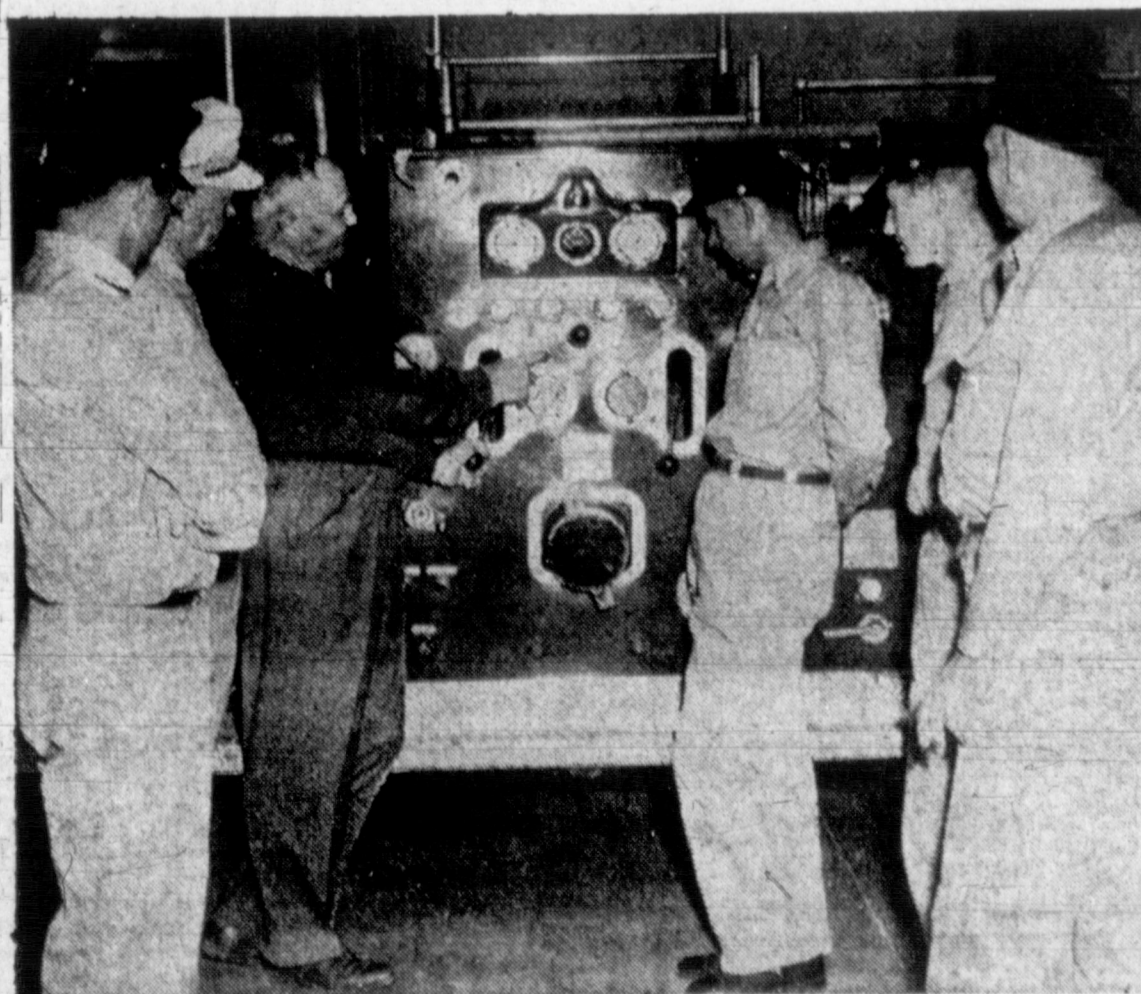

An Israeli military spokesman reported several Israelis killed or wounded by the Egyptian raiders who, Israel said, were spreading terror north of the bloody strip. A general alarm was sounded throughout the Israeli western Negev desert. The report was the first one to mention infantry attacks in the sporadic fighting which each side accused the other of starting across the Gaza demarcation line. The danger area spread beyond that of the past three days when artillery shelling killed at least 67 persons and wounded 108. Israeli Army spokesman Col. Nehemia Brosh said the Egyptian "suicide" (suicide) squads attacked a dozen settlements on the Israeli side of the border. For the first time since the current flareup, gunfire rattled Saturday in the north. Israeli accused Syrian guns of opening up on fishing boats in the Sea of Galilee before dawn. Israel also protested to the UN Mixed Armistice Commission Saturday that Jordanians fired on Israeli hikers in the Esan Valley Friday and that Jordan snipers opened up on a guard at an Israeli dam. The most dangerous front still was the narrow Gaza Strip separating Egypt and Israel. Claim Israeli Fired First An Egyptian spokesman said Israeli guns fired first on a position at Beithanoun or Damra. The Egyptians were "forced to retaliate" in a violent firefight that lasted from 6 a.m. to 10 a.m. he said. A short time later, Israelis cut loose with automatic weapons on an Egyptian position guarding a refugee camp at Bureij, the spokesman said. He said the fighting went on into the afternoon.

Benson Indicates He Might Ask Ike To Veto Farm Bill

By VINCENT J. BURKE
WASHINGTON, April 7 (UP) — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson indicated Saturday after a conference with President Eisenhower that he will ask him to veto the election-year farm bill unless it is revised.

"The legislation is not acceptable to me," Benson told White House reporters. "There will have to be some changes to make it a good bill."

It was the third time in less than 24 hours that Benson had gone to the White House to discuss with Mr. Eisenhower and his advisers what the administration should do about the politically-explosive bill.

The measure, approved Friday by a Senate-House Conference committee, contains many features objectionable to the administration. It would set aside the administration's flexible farm program with a one-year restoration of rigid high support prices for basic crops and would boost 1954 supports for half a dozen other farm products above levels already fixed by Benson. But it also would authorize the administration-sponsored $1.2 billion soil bank.

Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La.), accused Benson of putting "American agriculture in the middle of the political arena."

"At almost every turn now," Dr. Benson has been sticking his hypodermic needle filled with gall and bitterness, half-truths, politics and electioneering into the farm bill," Ellender said in a radio speech.

Ellender reiterated his belief Mr. Eisenhower will sign the bill. Benson's "unsympathetic administration... has been a major contributing factor in any failures in the present farm program."

In his brief encounter with newsmen Benson shed no light on what kind of price support compromise the administration would propose in an 11th hour move to revamp the bill when it comes to a showdown vote in the House and Senate next week.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerity indicated this will be decided Monday when the President meets again with Benson and with congressional Republican leaders.

A training school for firemen of the Pampa Fire Department began Friday afternoon with L. O. "Doc" Bynum, field instructor in firemen training, of the Texas Engineering Extension Service, as instructor.

Bynum will conduct five three-hour classes for each of the two shifts of firemen at the local station. He will instruct the men in the latest methods of fighting fires and show them how to use the equipment to obtain the maximum benefits from it.

When asked what he hoped to accomplish in the school, Bynum stated, "I hope to be able to show the men here how to put out a fire with the least amount of damage."

Fire Chief Ernest Winborne stated that three men from the local department will attend a Firemen's Training School at Texas A&M, July 8 to 13. By attending this school the city is given a five per cent credit on the fire insurance rate. This will mean a saving of several hundred dollars to the community, Winborne added.

"The firemen are constantly training and drilling in order to be a more efficient department," Winborne said.

WHAT DO YOU MEAN, "JUST FACE LIFTING"?

EVERY NOW AND THEN, we run across someone who seems to think that 1956 cars do not offer anything really new — just a little face lifting from the year before.

We won't try to speak for the automobile industry. But we certainly can speak for Buick.

And let us announce in no uncertain terms—it's the newest thing on wheels.

The Styling is New

Sure, it looks like a Buick. But it has a new V-proved grille that says 1956 and no mistake. The hood's new—the fender ports are new—the sweep-spear is new—and it all adds up to a new sweep-ahead look that ends in a sassy new slant to the rear contours. But that, friends, is only the beginning.

The 1956 Dynaflo* is New

It introduces what the engineers

call "double regeneration"—which means a double-action take-off. It gives you new, split-second response in the first inch of pedal travel—plus the "switch the pitch" at full acceleration, which no one else has yet approached.

The Ride is New

To coil springs on all four wheels, a brawny X-braced frame, and torque-tube drive, the engineers have added deep-oil shock absorbers to give new softness, new buoyancy, new comfort, and a brand-new "sense of direction" handling response.

The Power is New

All 1956 Buicks have new 322-cubic-inch V8's—with record highs in power and compression—with unique new double "Y" manifolding to step up efficiency—with new carburetor "deicing"—and a host of other new features to make owning a Buick pure pleasure.

The Thrill is New

And the surest way for you to find out how right we are, is to sample a 1956 Buick yourself.

As we said before, this is the best Buick yet—by a wide measure—and when you learn the prices we're quoting, you'll know why this Buick is one of the three best sellers in today's market.

It takes a lot more than face lifting to produce such a winner as this.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at moderate extra cost on the Special.

Knife, Fork Club Enjoys Swiss Troubadour's Talk

Toni Gauer, the Swiss troubadour, demonstrated his yodeling and singing abilities along with some feats on several Swiss instruments, led the audience in yodeling and singing Swiss songs, and kept a large crowd entertained with his talk, "Folklore, Yodels and Facts," during the Top of Texas Knife and Fork Club meeting Friday night.

Gauer was introduced by Charlie Cook, past president of the organization. Aubrey Steele, outgoing president, recognized the work of directors and officers of the club and introduced in coming president, Dr. Joe Donaldson.

The native Swiss speaker punctuated his talk throughout with melodies and folk tunes from Switzerland. He would let out stimulating yells and yodels at points, explaining that the Swiss felt so good at high altitudes that they had to shout it.

Making his entrance playing an accordion-like instrument, Gauer sketched the country 17 times smaller than Texas. He said that Switzerland is a nation speaking five languages and the natives wear 700 different types of costumes for special events. It is a country of fast music and joy, a peaceful nation, "the heart of Europe," a modern and progressive country with the highest standard of living in the world, Gauer said.

First and foremost Switzerland is a modern business nation, a sober and industrial country, a manufacturer of huge machinery and precision parts, the producer of 75 percent of all wrist watches made in the world. It is also famous for its cheese. It depends upon three factors for its source of income, Gauer indicated, the tourist, international banking, and international business.

It is a country with no illiteracy whatever. Gauer demonstrated the use of the black flower hat worn by the men, the typical Swiss skull cap (which he wore), several Swiss instruments resembling accordions, a wooden cow stool with one leg, and a hand-carved milk pail. He illustrated the basic yodel with one finger in his right ear and the hand cupped over the mouth. Then he sang the original Swiss song from which "My Heart Cries for You" is taken, leading the audience. After showing the group how to yell and yodel, leading them in song, Gauer said "You make me home sick, you do it as nicely as groups in Switzerland."

"It would be far better to let people be different and appeal to the things they have in common," he said. He said that although the people are different from each other they are entitled to maintain these differences and realize their basic unity. For Switzerland is a nation of complete freedom and democracy, he added.

In a question period later, Gauer explained how the nation stays out of wars: by maintaining the spirit of neutrality, and by retaining a strong nation with a strong military force. The country can be brown to bits at any time a foreign invader takes over, he said.

Rule Changes Made For '57 Stock Show

The agriculture committee of Chamber of Commerce made plans for the Top of Texas stock show, slated for Feb. 18-20 of '57, and made several changes in regulations Friday afternoon.

They set the program of events for next year as follows: Monday, judging of pigs in the morning and calf judging in the afternoon; Tuesday, Top of Texas FFA livestock judging contest and judging of the Hereford breeders show; Wednesday, junior livestock sale and Hereford breeders sale. Col. Walter Britten was retained as auctioneer for the sales. Judges have not been selected.

Rule changes, to go in effect next year, concern the weight divisions. In the fat stock show, hereford steers will be placed in three classes as follows: Class I, 900 pounds and under; Class II, 901-1000 pounds; Class III, 1001 pounds and over. Angus steers will be placed in three classes with the same weight specifications.

In the swine division, the light weight division of the hogs was changed from 190 through 220 pounds to 180 through 210 pounds. In the heavy weight division, weights were changed from 221 to 260 pounds to 211 through 240 pounds for all classes of hogs.

In addition to cash prizes running through six places in the fat calf division, ribbons will be awarded for 10 places instead of the six places as in the past. Cash prizes remain the same.

ate's attention. Case was "unclear" about it, the report said. But the committee said it "does not intend to cast any reflection upon Sen. Case."

The select committee, after examining the witnesses and evidence under the revealing light of public scrutiny, has concluded that "the objective of the individuals who initiated and carried out this chain of events was to influence, by political contribution, the vote of a member of the United States Senate," the report said.

"The select committee condemns such activity," Veteran Sen. Walter F. George (D-Ga.) headed the committee. The report traced testimony which allegedly showed Keck "delegated his judgment and responsibility" over campaign donations to Patman who hired Neff. Neff was then active in Iowa, Nebraska, Montana, Wyoming and South Dakota. He made a second $2,500 contribution to Nebraska state GOP funds which later was returned.

"Covered Five States" "Mr. Neff, in a space of four months, covered five states and sought out the attitude of 10 senators concerning a single piece of legislation," the report said. "A sum totaling $10,000 was at least considered and spoken of by Mr. Neff as contributions and $5,000 of this was actually contributed.

"He exercised incredibly poor judgment," Mr. Patman was responsible for the direction of Mr. Neff's activities and directed this activity either expressly or impliedly.

"Both Mr. Patman and Mr. Neff are severely censured for their failure to act as responsible citizens in these circumstances." The group recommended careful congressional study of laws on lobbying and campaign spending. It said the Justice Department should screen the committee transcript for possible law violations, including perjury by any of the 22 witnesses heard in public hearings.

LA CRESCENTA, Calif. — UP — James Edward Inwood, 87, told police that two "faith healers" he met on a street corner promised to cure his physical and spiritual ills by patting his body.

They also helped themselves to a $35 payment by lifting his billfold, he said.

Group Will Survey Youth Activities

The steering committee of group taking a survey of Pampa Youth activities decided to take a survey of youth activities among junior and senior high school students here during a meeting Saturday morning.

The committee discussed the functions and objectives of the survey and decided to tabulate the returns in statistical form. The results will be published for community organizations and civic clubs, as well as for the directors of the Pampa Youth and Community Center.

From information obtained, the youth program in areas needing attention will be determined. Recommendations as to the structure for continued correlated activities in town will be made by the report.

The committee is particularly interested in receiving comments from other interested persons. Cliff Whitney, chairman, said. The community project results will be made available to the public.

The survey will be presented in questionnaire form, entailing youth organizations, church activities, school activities, sports, and other activities. It will survey the hobbies and interest of youth, the means of entertainment, recreational facilities, reading habits, TV, and radio habits, and library usage.

Dog Obedience Class To Start

Man's Retirement To Cause Tears In The Animal World

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
 WASHINGTON — UP — There isn't a monkey, a lion, a gazelle or a frans which won't shed salt from the eye if Dr. William M. Mann retires as head of the Washington zoo.

Law says he has to be 70, summer on account of he will be too old.

Age doesn't mean much to the ape, Leo, the gazelle or "Lilly" the crane from S. Africa. All they know is that old Doc Mann has fed 'em well.

It is hoped that the Congress may relax a bit and ease through a resolution, allowing the good doctor to stick around a little longer. Since 1923, when he took over, he has made the Washington zoo one of the world's best. The animals know the good doc for the peanuts and the cabbage leaves, and the tid-bits animals love. But most of all they know him by his beat up old felt hat, which is a cross between brown and gray. It has been his trademark for 30 years. Creased and bent and wrinkled by the weather.

Anyhow, on July 1, Bill Mann will be 70. And the law says he has to set aside his bananas and grapes for the apes and stay away from the lion cage.

It's a mighty sad thought.

I have known the doctor for a long time. When you walk into his some across from the zoo, you had best tread lightly, lest you step on a cub lion's tail, or a baby snake.

Lucille, the good doctor's wife, loves animals as much as Mann does. She has been known to sit up until sunrise to nurse a sick cobra or a bald eagle with a belly-ache.

Dr. Mann himself loves animals almost as much as he does people. Sometimes more.

"I was taught long ago by a professor that I should be careful about remembering the names of people," he once told me. "First thing you know you'll be forgetting the square name of a snail or an elk. In our business that is bad."

For many years, the wonderful lover of animals called me "Mr. Pickels."

It was close enough. At least he recognized me on sight. Same kind of beat up hat.

Dr. Mann perhaps is the best Trainer Horn in the animal field. Once he had as his guest a zoo man from a jungle country. They haggled. Dr. Mann wanted a pair of rare animals and said he would be glad to part with a pair of "eyonyms" in trade.

His guest said: "Sure."

The visitor later got a couple of prairie dogs. Dr. Mann got a couple of rare things never before seen in captivity in this country.

We ought to hold onto Dr. Mann, rare animals are pretty hard to get these days.

Laws Of Soil Conservation

By JACK DOUGLAS
 Work Unit Conservations
 V. million acres of good cropland left and with our population of more than 150 million people, we have approximately three acres to produce the necessary food and clothing needed for each person.

What condition is your share of America's farm land in now? About half of your three acres is being done up by erosion. The other half is less effected by erosion but it can be hurt by hard farming. It needs better management to keep it productive.

The most encouraging fact about this situation is that we have recognized the danger. The solution is in learning to use the land efficiently and at the same time protect the soil. This is soil conservation, using the land to produce the most without waste.

But conservation means more than that. It means holding more rainfall on the land, to save moisture for crops. It means farming on the level around the slopes to prevent soil washing, and keeping grass in waterways lest they become gullies. It means growing more soil-building grass and more livestock to use it. It means planning for each acre on each individual farm to meet the needs of the land as well as the farmer. It means research work to develop and test new methods. It means research work to develop and test new methods. It means convincing the farmer, who is the custodian of the soil, of the urgency of conserving it. And it means telling YOU about this problem.

In all forty-eight states, the local unit of government devoted to soil conservation is the Soil Conservation District. These districts are organized by farmers and operated by farmers. It is through soil conservation districts that farmers get the technical assistance of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service.

The district decides what work is to be done, and when. It is a good example of democracy at work — of farmers planning and running their own program. Soil conservation districts include more than three-fourths of the farms and ranches of the United States.

In addition to the conservation plans for individual farms, each soil conservation district works out a long-time plan for the whole district. From the land inventory made by the Soil Conservation Service, the service determines what land should no longer be cultivated, what land should be in permanent grass or trees, and how much the livestock can be increased. When these plans are put into effect, the farm land of America — your land — will be as secure against erosion as conservationalists and farmers know how to make it.

4-H Club Activities

By PATRICIA BROYLES and ROBERT ADAMSON
 The Land Judging Team and Food Demonstrators of the 4-H Clubs of Gray County will be active this Saturday.

This week the Gray County 4-H Land Judging Team will be getting in their last practice sessions before the Land Judging Contest that will be held at the Panhandle Plains Dairy Show in Plainview, April 14.

If this team places first, or if they place higher at Plainview than any of the other teams from District 1, they will be eligible to participate in the state contest at Texas A&M, June 13.

The team members are: John Dial, Sam Condo, David Miller and Jim Greene, all of Pampa. The first three were members of the team that won second place in the state contest at Texas A&M last year.

The five high teams in the state contest last year were invited to the National Land Judging Contest in Oklahoma City, May 3 and 4. The Land Judging Team attended this contest last year and this year's team is looking forward to this contest in May.

Land judging is soil evaluation.

Reduction In Feed Grain Crop Won't Bother Feeders

By GAYLORD P. GODWIN
 WASHINGTON, April 7 — UP — Despite early indications of a reduced feed grain crop this year, feeders need not worry about adequate supplies for their livestock.

The Agriculture Department reports there is a carryover of feed grains — corn, oats, barley, and sorghum grains — large enough to maintain total feed at near the record level of 1955-56. Department economists, writing in "The feed situation," figured the combined carryover of the four grains for feed grains would be about 1,952 million acres. This is six million acres less than in 1955-56 and about 2.5 million less than in 1954.

The total acreage, however, would be about four million above the 1945-54 average.

These reductions were estimated without consideration of any further reduction that might result from enactment of a soil bank plan. The soil bank idea still is tied up in congress.

Other Highlights
 Other farm-front developments: Working farm wives — a review of census figures show that farm wives are becoming wage earners more rapidly than town or city wives. Married women job holders total 10,423,000 — or more than one-fourth of the wives in the nation. The department said farm wives generally have been slower than town or city wives to become wage-earners. But in the last few census figures indicate they have become job holders at a faster clip than other groups.

Homemaking hours — a recent study by the Wisconsin experiment station shows the modern homemaker works at her house-keeping job about the same length of time as the homemaker of 25 years ago.

All slaughter classes in good demand, supplies at time short of trade requirements. Slaughter steers and heifers strong to 1 higher, most sales 50 or more higher. Cows fully steady to 25 higher as an average, bulls firm, stockers strong. Part load high - good and choice 650 lb fed heifers 20. Majority 17-18.50. Few medium and good 50-70 lb feeder steers 10-11.50; bulk medium and good stocker steers yearlings 14.50-17.

The report indicated a 3.5 per cent reduction in corn acreage, 4 per cent in oats, 8 per cent in barley, and practically no change in sorghum feed situation. # Chemical Use Can Be Big Help On Farm

College Station — Research and practical on-the-ranch use of chemicals for controlling mesquite, post and black-jack oaks have proved the value of this practice. A. H. Walker, extension range specialist, says the job can be done more cheaply because less chemicals are needed for the aerial spraying job. Too, in many counties ASC will share the cost with the producer. The specialist lists five points which make for a successful control job. Use the proper chemical at the right time and amount. Secure qualified personnel with experience to do the flying job. Use chemicals with caution. They are nonpoisonous but drift can cause damage to susceptible crops. Rest the treated area after spraying and do not expect a miracle. This is a control, program, points out Walker, and retreatment may be required but it will pay dividends if properly done.

For post and black-jack oaks, he says to spray after the leaves have fully developed, usually from mid May through June. Use one and a half pounds of 2,4,5-T or one and a quarter pounds of silvex per acre in the 3:1 water oil emulsion given for mesquites. Two sprayings in consecutive years or skipping a year is advisable on oak. Under favorable conditions a single application may be 85 percent effective. The cost should run about $11.50 an acre for the two treatments. The second application should be either one pound of 2,4,5-T or three-fourths pound of silvex an acre. Goats can be used profitably in controlling underbrush on sprayed oak areas. They will lengthen control period and often make a good return.

Weekly Grain

FORT WORTH — UP — USDA
 Weekly grain:
 Cash grain prices advanced sharply this week in Southwest markets, the Agricultural Marketing Service reported Saturday.

Milo jumped 7c per 100 pounds and white corn 7c a bushel. Wheat gained 5 1/2c a bu.; white corn 5 to 5 1/2c; barley 4c and white oats 2 1/2c a bushel.

These are net price changes from March 29 through April 6, based on wholesale carlot quotations.

Behind this upward swing in cash grains are several factors: the drought and the pending farm bill.

As prices have advanced in northern markets, so have they in this part of the country, but sales are few. Demand is practically dead for the ample supplies of all grains.

Here are the closing prices at Texas common freight rate points: No. 2 yellow milo $2.3 to $2.37 per 100 lbs. No. 2 yellow corn $1.89 1/2 to $1.91 1/2; No. 1 hard wheat $2.50 1/2 to $2.67 1/4; No. 2 white oats 87 to 89 and No. 2 barley $1.35 to $1.38.

In Hi-Fi, You Get What You Pay For

By PRESTON MCGRAW
United Press Staff Correspondent

It has gotten to be almost axiomatic in the hi-fi trade that a person gets out of a speaker just about what he puts into it money-wise.

This is one of the reasons that the price of the Cadillac class of speaker systems runs from $550 to $750. The majority of hi-fi fans, however, settle for less.

Ed May and Jack Frazier, who have a company called International Electronics Corp., in Dallas, have taken a new approach to the speaker system and the result is hard to believe.

The radical part of their approach is the taking of two eight-inch speakers, which do not look very expensive, and a simple tweeter for the extremely high frequencies and putting them into a system which they say delivers uniform sound from 30 to 15,000 cycles.

All for $165

The whole thing — the system is complete with cabinet — retails for $165, which is about the price of the best co-axial, 15-inch speaker, without a cabinet.

It looks like a junior-sized Klipschorn, which many audiophiles consider the Cadillac, if not the Continental Mark II, of speaker systems. The Klipschorn costs nearly $600 more.

The secret of the Frazier-May system is in the cabinet, and more specifically in basswood bungs which fit into the cones of the speakers with less than a quarter-inch of free space on the sides.

May and Frazier speak of a "radial slot radiator... a speaker er coupled into a slot with a loading plug."

Without getting into further technicalities, May explains that it "changes sound from high velocity, low volume sound to low velocity, high volume sound."

These speakers come in two units. One, which furnishes an 80 to 15,000-cycle response, has a tweeter in the plug. This one, May says, can be used by a beginner in hi-fi to start his system.

When he wants to complete it, he buys the bottom part, which covers the range to 30 cycles, and takes the short legs from the first unit and sets it on top of the first unit, making a complete system. What comes out of the complete system is almost incredible to persons who have come to believe that it takes at least a 15-inch woofer, mid-range speaker and tweeter to produce really top-grade sound.

Free From Hangover
May and Frazier gave one of their units a workout with every kind of material — symphony orchestras, pipe organs, voices and Dixieland. To show its freedom from hangover and its faithful reproduction of percussion, they used a drum piece called "Skin Deep," by Duke Ellington's drummer Louis Bellson.

They guarantee that it will not distort on 25 watts and claim they have run 50 watts into it without undue distortion. Their factory has been in production on that model since last October.

May and Frazier report a wide spread acceptance by hi-fi fans. They had four dealers in Dallas before the February hi-fi WRITER — Fred Wills is busy directing his third play, "Something Soft, Something Pink", at West Texas State College, a comedy now in rehearsal. It is tentatively scheduled to be presented on Tuesday, April 17. Wills is a writer and accomplished director, who has also played bit parts in several plays.

Pampan Directs His Own College Plays

By RONALD WATERS
Pampa News Staff Writer

When the growth of a community extends itself to the point where it wants to broaden its outlook on the arts, it never ceases to amaze the person, who looks for talent, to find it swarming all over the place — just waiting to be recognized.

With the advent of the Pampa Little Theater, a good deal of talent has been discovered in all phases of the theater.

One talent-laden Pampan is Fred Wills, who lives at 1144 Huff Road, a writer who modestly calls himself a dabber. He is a junior at West Texas State who is directing his third play, a comedy at the college, and now has a part in "The Hasty Heart", a farce-comedy by John Patrick scheduled for showing during the first part of May at the school.

He has written, among his many stories, three plays, of which, one was produced on the stage of the Branding Iron Theater, called, "A Midway Incident." From the standpoint of local talent, it caused a mild sensation. Produced in the spring of '51, the play contains the central theme of loneliness on the Midway Islands, with an underlying theme of racial prejudice. The show went over very well and the applause was deafening.

His third play, "Something Soft, Something Pink", is a comedy now in rehearsal, being prepared for an informal showing at Buffalo Masquerade meeting at the college. The curtain is scheduled to open for that production on April 17, however, it may postpone the show for two or three weeks. Besides writing the one-act comedy in one scene and using six characters, Wills is also directing the play. This is no easy task.

Briefly, here is the story of the play: A Texas boy from Pampa goes to New York City as an artist determined to set the city on fire. He becomes home sick and doesn't want to come home because everyone at home thinks he's a big success. Later he is offered a position at West Texas State as an assistant art instructor and this affords him a honorable way of coming home. Underlying this plot is a love story. A girl wants to force him into marriage but he resists as long as possible, later they make up in everything commensurate with the end.

Another one of Fred's one-act plays, "Seeds for Granite Orchards", has attracted the attention of Mrs. Dolly Lynch, connected with the Amarillo Little Theater, and she has expressed an interest in his plays. This play is a western drama in one-act, consisting of 12 characters. The plot was taken from a Greek tragedy with a modern setting and theme. The main character is schizophrenic, a man with two personalities.

Fred has acted in about seven plays at West Texas State, including drama, comedy, and tragedy. "I think I'm in the biggest production right now," he says, "and have the largest role." He is playing Blossom in "The Hasty Heart" and says only one word in the whole play. Now this is more difficult than it sounds because the play requires a great deal in the way of pantomime and expression with the face and hands. The actions of interpreting a colored basuto from Southern Africa become especially important in a close-knit comedy.

Wills is working on a 30,000-word novel at the present time. He has written numerous short stories and had part of an article printed in the December issue of Mademoiselle. It is an open letter to a woman that had written a previous letter against young marriages.

When asked about today's theater, he said, "With the TV set going full blast, and with the comforts of home, and informality, I think the theater has a challenge. It should offer what the TV set is unable to give in order to draw the people out of their homes, and go to a theater."

Play the South hand at six hearts, assuming that you can see only your own hand and the dummy. You win the first spade trick, draw two rounds of trumps, cash the ace of spades and then lead a diamond.

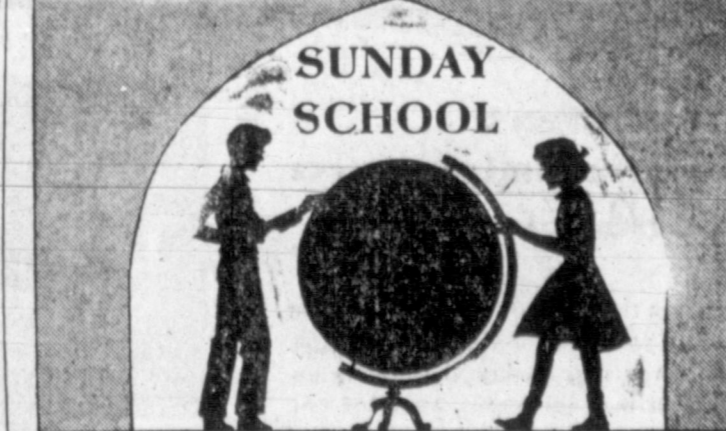

West follows with a low diamond. If you cannot see the hands of the defenders, which diamond should you play from the dummy — the king or the jack?

This may seem like a sheer guess, but there is really a logical answer. The king is the correct play.

If the king happens to win the trick, you are safe. You can afford to give up one club trick, for you can ruff your last club in the dummy.

If the king happens to lose to the ace of diamonds (if East had the ace), you must then rely on a choice of finesse. You may play East for the queen of diamonds or for the queen of clubs. Given the chance you will play king and ace of clubs in the hope of dropping the queen; after which you will lead the jack of diamonds through East with the intention of discarding clubs if East plays low.

Now see how you stand if you play the jack of diamonds on the first round of that suit. Even if the finesse succeeds, you still need another finesse in clubs. That is, the best you can hope for is to drive out the ace of diamonds, and you will get one trick short of safety unless you can win a club finesse later on.

The big difference between the two plays is simply that you are safe if the king of diamonds was the first trick in that suit.

Split Germany Starts Plans To Arm On Both Sides

By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Foreign Analyst

Free West Germany and satellite East Germany have really started at last to raise their rival armies.

President Theodor Heuss of West Germany has signed the constitutional amendments which legalize the building up of a 500,000-man bundeswehr—federal defense force.

The East German government has formally begun the formation of its "people's army," which is expected to total about 250,000 men.

West Germany's army will be a part of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces. The East German army will be incorporated in the new Iron Curtain military bloc in which the military forces of Soviet Russia and its satellites are being unified.

West German Defense Minister Theodor Blank has promised firmly that the Bonn republic will have 96,000 men under arms by Dec. 31. The target date for the full 500,000-man army is Dec. 31, 1958.

The East Gets Head Start

The East Germans got off to a head start. All they had to do in the first stage, was to start calling their highly militarized "barracks people's police" force of about 120,000 men an army.

It is beginning to look as if the two German armies may be built up completely before any serious attempt is made to unify the country.

Russian leaders are talking more and more about keeping Germany divided. The latest pronouncement came Tuesday from Communist party leader Nikita S. Khrushchev. He said at a reception in Moscow that it was possible to have a European peace agreement without unifying Germany first.

Russian leaders do not want Germany unified except on their own terms. No. 1 term is that Germany shall be disarmed and neutralized. No. 2 is that any unified German government shall be a weak one, in which the Communists play a big if not dominant part.

But the Reds are on the defensive. They dislike intensely the thought of a strong, free Germany. They know, too, that the West German army will fight loyally on the side of the Allies if there is a war—and that they can not depend on the East German army.

West German Chancellor Konrad faces a fight with the Socialists over his plan to draft 250,000 men for his army. There is little doubt, however, that he will have his way.

Has 200,000 Volunteers

But about 200,000 men already have volunteered for service in the West German army, 150,000 of them World War II veterans. Adenauer plans to accept only about 150,000 volunteers in all and to draft youths to make up the total of 250,000.

On the contrary, the East Germans have no chance of getting any considerable number of volunteers. Their "people's police," in fact, are really raised by draft. It's not an official draft. Men are impressed by coercion and threat.

Thousands of "people's" policemen have fled to West Germany. The overall picture in Germany is this: 1. Real European peace can not become a fact until Germany is unified. 2. West Germany, allied with the West, is strong and becoming stronger. 3. East Germany, held under the week.

Kremlin's heel, is more of a threat to Russia than it is to the Allies.

Elks Officers Installed In Services Here

The newly elected officers of five Elks Lodges were sworn in Friday night in a five-Lodge, bi-state installation service, hosted by Pampa Lodge, 1573.

Perhaps one of the first services when such a large number of Lodges are represented at an installation was highly enjoyed by men from Elks Lodges in Pampa, Amarillo, Borger, Childress and Guyton, Okla.

Highlight of the evening was an address by Earl James, past grand exalted ruler, B. P. O. E., U. S. James told the Elks that a good functioning Lodge must not be halfhearted about its rituals, its services, and the members should take an active part in running the organization. The principles and purposes of the Elks Lodge deserve one's best work, he added. James is from Oklahoma City.

The highly impressive installation ceremony was conducted by Earl McCroskey, past grand exalted ruler of the Oklahoma Elks Association.

Elks from all the cities represented complimented the Pampa Lodge on their hospitality and congeniality.

It was learned at the services that the occasion would, in all likelihood, be publicized in the Elks national magazine and photographers were on hand to supply pictures for the monthly publication.

A capacity crowd also enjoyed a barbecue, prepared by Paul Crouch and John Gikas, preceding the installation services. Ladies of the Pampa Lodge served the meal.

Newly installed officers of the Pampa Lodge include John White, exalted ruler; Kenneth Huey, leading knight; John Gikas, lecturing knight; Joel Combs, secretary; Joe Tooley, treasurer; Bill McComas, H. W. Morrow, Bill Burleson, W. L. Heskew, and Earl McConnell, trustees; J. W. Foster, tiler; Kay W. Lewis, chaplain; J. A. Marsell, inner guard; and P. V. Davis, esquire.

Franco Bids For Big Role In North African Affairs

By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Foreign Analyst

Generalissimo Francisco Franco of Spain is bidding for a big role in North African affairs.

Franco's negotiations with Sultan Mohammed Ben Youssef of Morocco, starting Wednesday in Madrid, open a new phase in the entire North African situation.

These negotiations, specifically, will cover only the 18,000 square miles of Spanish Morocco.

But Franco intends to make them his first move in an attempt to build up Spanish influence and prestige in North Africa generally.

Franco is pridefully mindful that Spain's ties with Arab North Africa extend back 450 years. France took over the dominant role in North Africa later.

The surge of nationalism compelled France to grant independence to French Morocco and Tunisia and to offer it to Algeria.

Forced His Hand

Franco thus forced Franco's hand in Spanish Morocco. He is now compelled in turn to offer independence to that protectorate. But Franco hopes that any concessions he makes will prove, in the long run, to be a gain and not a loss.

Franco's attitude on Spanish Moroccan independence has changed radically in the last few months. Only last Dec. 15, Franco said forcefully the time had not come to grant Morocco freedom.

But France concluded an independence agreement with Sultan Mohammed on March 2 as regards French Morocco. Mohammed started demanding at once that Spanish Morocco be given independence also, with the two zones united.

Franco, according to dispatches from Madrid, is ready to do business with Mohammed.

But he wants to keep close ties with Spanish Morocco and also to make Spain a potent influence in the affairs of North Africa generally.

Especially he sees Spain as an effective foe of the spread of communism along the entire southern coast of the Mediterranean.

An Expert on Area

Franco may properly be called a real expert on North Africa. His career, up to the time he took the leadership of the Nationalists in the Spanish civil war in 1936, was centered largely in Morocco.

He went to Spanish Morocco first, as a 20-year-old second lieutenant, in 1912 to command a company of Moorish troops. He quickly established a reputation for bravery in fighting rebels. He became Spain's youngest brigadier general in 1926, when he was 23.

Also, at a time when under the monarchy the Spanish army in Morocco was ridden by graft and inefficiency, Franco won a name for complete honesty and for hard-headed efficiency.

It was from Morocco that Franco set out to lead the revolution of 1936 in Spain. The republic had "exiled" him to a minor command in the Canary Islands off West Africa. Franco flew to Morocco. He made a landing on the Spanish south coast with Moorish troops, was given the supreme Nationalist command, and led the rebel forces to victory.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 7—UP—A 13-year-old girl waiting for her mother in a supermarket parking lot let her curiosity get the best of her.

Sandra Beach wondered how the automatic shift on the car worked.

The car was finally stopped after hitting five cars.

AMES, Iowa, April 7—UP—Iowa basketball star Bill Logan didn't fare too well among 1,300 university co-eds here.

The co-eds named a 19-year-old sophomore, James Newsome, as "the most eligible bachelor on the campus" while the senior idol of the basketball court had to settle for second choice.

Newsome was crowned at the annual spinster's spree dance.

WHAT MAKES "THE ROCKET" ROCKET?

Here's why the engine that started the high-compression era still tops the field today!

THE ROCKET BROUGHT HIGH-COMPRESSION performance to motoring... set the standards... broke the records.

Today it's the same. With a high in compression of 9.25 to 1 and a displacement of 324 cubic inches, the Rocket packs a potent new wallop.

THERE'S AN EFFORTLESS SMOOTHNESS that tells you this one is a masterpiece of balance and precision. What's more, this power plant's big-bore, short-stroke design means shorter piston travel for less friction, wear and longer life.

You'll rarely use the full 230+ horsepower under the hood. But you'll go for the Rocket's high torque—the force that makes the wheels go 'round. Even at medium speeds, your toe can call a hefty 340 pound-feet of torque into play — to move you away from a light or pass by any emergency. Add Jetaway Hydra-Matic* and you meet Rocket action at its smoothest.

VISIT OUR SHOWROOM TODAY! We invite you to "Rate the Rocket" on the road. You'll get out of the ordinary... into an Olds!

1240 h.p. and 350 lb.-ft. of torque in Super 88 and Ninety-Eight models. *Standard on Series Ninety-Eight; optional at extra cost on all other series.

Pampa Wins First 1-AA Golf Title

Harvesters Down Sandstorm 27 Strokes For Title Win

Coach Weldon Trice and his Harvester golfers made history Friday as they wrested the 1-AA golf championship from the Amarillo Sandies. The Amarillo foursome has controlled the links game since it became a part of the district athletic program.

Another figure who helped in the win was golf pro Hart Warren of the Pampa Country Club. He has encouraged the boys during their workouts and has had a part in training the boys. Playing for Pampa was Melvin Chisum, Don Prigmore, Leslie Howard and Bill McLeod.

Shamrock's Irish took 1-A district title. Four schools were competing for that honor. Hereford placed second, Dumas third and Canyon fourth. The Pampa Junior high golfers turned in a score of 405.

Amarillo placed second in the 1-AA division with the Borger Bulldogs third. Amarillo's "B" team was fourth and Plainview was fifth. Palo Duro and Borger's "B" team placed sixth and seventh.

Leading the Harvesters and taking medalist honors was Bill McLeod. He turned in a 36-hole score of 152. He was followed closely by Don Prigmore who boasted a 153, just one stroke behind.

Other scores for the Harvesters were Melvin Chisum with a 156 and Leslie Howard with a 166. The Harvesters' total was 627.

Top scorer for the Sandies was Phil Mathis with a 159. He was followed by Ben Lane Jr. with a 160 and Robert Tennant, who shot a 162. The Sandies' fourth man, Russell Mathis, turned in a 175.

Facing the Irish in their win was Don Dogen, with an 18-hole score of 77. He was followed by Jim Teegerstorm with a 78 and Tom Ryan shot a 79. The fourth man for the Irish was Jim Shackelford with a 94.

Hereford turned in a total score of 386 while the Irish total was 328. Dumas recorded a 415 and Canyon shot a 479.

Madalist in the 1-A division was Shamrock's Don Dogen and Jim Teegerstorm was runnerup with his 78.

The third place Borgans were paced by Elgie Seamer with a 36-hole score of 157. Second was Vance Moxom with a 160 and third place went to David Houck with a 163 while Donald Howack shot a 193 for fourth.

The Harvesters and the Sandies will meet again next Saturday in the Sandie Relays and in the Regional Tournament to be held in Lubbock April 20-21. Brownwood is rated as the top team entered in the Sandie Relays this week while the Odessa Bronchos are the boys to beat in the regional go.

The Odessa four defeated Pampa by only two strokes in the Fort Worth meet recently but stroked to an easy 20-stroke win in Odessa.

The total scores of the teams entered was as follows: Pampa 627, Amarillo 656, Borger 673, Amarillo "B" 685, Plainview 693, Palo Duro 751, and Borger "B" 751. 1-A scores were Shamrock 328, Hereford 366, Dumas, 415, and Canyon 479.

Jayhawks Dominate T. Relays

By LLOYD LARRABEE
AUSTIN, April 7-UP—Kansas' flashy Jayhawks dominated the Texas Relays Saturday as they swept the weight events for the first time in the 29-year history of the meet and breezed to two relay crowns.

Coach Bill Easton's trackmen won outstanding team honors and massive Bill Nieder was voted the top athlete in the two-day meet, wound up Saturday before a record crowd of 14,000, for his performance Friday night in which he set a national outdoor collegiate record in the shot put.

The Jayhawks' Al Oerter won the discus throw crown with a heave of 165 feet, 3 inches, to chalk up Kansas' third weight title, along with Niadene anchoring shot put display and national collegiate champion Les Bitner's meet-record performance in the javelin throw.

Morrow Shares in Glory
Kansas also registered victories in the four-mile relay Saturday, combined with titles in the distance medley and Kent Floerke's broad jump victory Friday night. Abilene, Tex., Christian College's Bobby Morrow also shared in the glory as he raced to his second straight meet crown in the 100-yard dash with a time of 9.5 seconds and anchored his team's winning efforts in the college class 440 and 880-yard relays.

Kansas' six championships included the four-mile relay, with distance star Al Fraime anchoring the Jayhawks to victory for the second time, after Friday night's distance medley relay crown. Frame's teammates on the four-mile team were Harold Long, Bernie Gay and Jerry McNeal.

Record-breaking performances dwindled as the trackmen faced a strong headwind which cut times for many events.

Robert Best's Curtis Oklahoma A&M's Eddie Roberts outstrode Bill Curtis of Texas Christian to take the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.5 seconds, while Jim Bailey, national collegiate champion, miler of Australia, running for Oregon, gathered in the 1,500 meter run crown in 3:54.0.

Texas' Eddie Southern paced high hurdles in the junior collegian division in a slow time of 15.1 seconds, a time slower than that posted for the same event in the high school division.

Donald Beard, a high school hurdler from Ulysses, The Dalles in Central Texas, sprinted to victory in his division in 14.8 seconds, a full half-second ahead of Southern's time.

Pulled Leg Muscle
Texas had to be content with a second-place finish in the freshman section in the quarter-mile relay when anchorman Hollis Gainey pulled a leg muscle within 20 yards of the finish line, and Rice's Tim Lundy breezed across for Rice.

Abilene Christian posted a new record in the college mile relay, running the event in 3:14.1, shattering the old mark of 3:14.5 set by North Texas State in 1955.

Altogether, 11 meet records were set in the two-day show, but three of them were in new events.

Baseballers Lead 1-AA District Race

Locals Shutout Lubbock; Blast Plainview, 7 To 1

Coach Deck Woldt's Harvester baseballers jumped to a quick lead in the 1-AA district baseball race when they blasted out a 7-1 victory over the Plainview Bulldogs Friday afternoon in Oiler Park. The win gave them a 2-0 district record as they trounced the Lubbock Westerners, 9-0, in their Thursday contest. The baseballers downed Sayre, Okla., 11-4, Saturday in an exhibition game to pick up a 6-4 season record.

The Green and Golders will be meeting the Borger Bulldogs Tuesday in a road game and they will journey to Monterey, Lubbock, Friday in an attempt to stretch their district lead.

The first three Harvesters faced by Plainview's Sophomore hurler, Jesse McGuire, bounced out but Bill Hogan got on an error in the second inning and stole second. He was brought home for the first run of the game when Jerold Clark slipped out a single. Pampa took advantage of two hits and a walk in the third frame and pushed across three runs. Jim Parrish, helping his own cause, got a single. Buddy Sharp got on a hard hit ball to shortstop Davis Foster. David Marler singled then to drive in a 3-2 of 1. The spry Marler, advanced to third on a walk, stole home for the final run of the frame. Plainview picked up their lone run in the top of the third when Dan Jones, leadoff man, sliced out a single. Tommy Atkins walked and Darvis Foster hit but forced Jones at third. McGuire singled and moved Foster around to third. He scored as Bill Cayce, Bulldog first baseman, got on an error by Gary Herr. The capable second baseman Pampa 4, Plainview 8; WP — McGuire; HO — Parrish; L — McGuire. Time of Game 1:40; Umpires Otto Mangold, Joe Fortin. Pampa picked up its sixth win of the season Saturday by blasting Sayre, Okla., 11-4, in the Pampa PONY league park. Bob Dehls worked on the mound for the locals and racked up his first win of the season.

The locals picked up only 10 hits but pushed 11 runs across. The Oklahomaans hit for five singles and a pair of doubles but scored only four runs.

LSU Won't Ban Mixed Athletics

BATON ROUGE, La., April 7-UP—The Louisiana State University board of supervisors refused to act on a move Saturday made by a pro-segregation leader to ban mixed athletic events of LSU at home or away.

The board unanimously tabled a resolution proposed by board member J. Stewart Slack of Shreveport, La., executive of the White Citizens' Councils Association of Louisiana.

Although Slack agreed to defer action, he promised to bring up his resolution again at the next meeting of the board, probably in May.

Slack said if the university goes through with present policy of playing racially mixed teams, the University of Wisconsin will send Negroes to play in the LSU Stadium.

At its Feb. 18 meeting, the board adopted a policy which okayed a home and home football match with Wisconsin.

Slack charged that Wisconsin had Negro players and said, "the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is sure to bring one of them to play in LSU's stadium, if only to play for two minutes."

Slack was not present at a Feb. 18 meeting when the board agreed not to ban mixed athletic contests.

Offered Color Clause
Before Slack offered a "color clause" proposal, the board heard Troy Middleton, president of LSU, read a statement on segregation policy at LSU, approving contests with teams using Negro players.

Later the board accepted the statement as a "fair and correct statement of LSU's policy."

Middleton said the board, so far as its policy is concerned, believes that an intercollegiate athletic program is important to the university's athletic program.

"The decision to maintain its long-standing athletic policy was based on the conviction that a major university should carry on a program of intercollegiate athletics against major competition."

"Changing conditions elsewhere made it inevitable that Negro students representing other institutions will compete infrequently in athletic contests with LSU students if a strong athletic program is to be maintained," Middleton said.

DETERMINED — Donald Bridges, Hereford golfer, was determined to play in the 1-A division of the Panhandle golf tournament at the Pampa Country Club Friday. He hitched seven rides between Canyon and Pampa after he developed auto trouble. He made it in time. (News Photo)

Venturi Regains Lead In Masters Tourney Saturday

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 7-UP—four strokes behind, Ken Venturi, a San Francisco amateur with a heart as stout as a giant redwood, lost a four-stroke lead to Cary Middlecoff Saturday but grabbed it back in a near gale to go into the final round of the Masters golf tournament still very much the top boy.

The wind was blowing 40 miles an hour but neither storm nor the terrific pressure on the tortuous Augusta National backstretch dismayed the 24-year-old Californian. He saved his lead with a 75 although he had jumped up to 40 on his first nine.

And in the end it was Middlecoff who cracked, coming up to the 18th hole after a labored round and needing only a par to sixty within hot breath distance of Venturi in Sunday's playoff. Instead, he miserably three-putted after getting out of a trap for a double bogey six and again fell four strokes back.

Has Four-Stroke Lead
Middlecoff also wound up with a 75 although he had gone out in 35 to Venturi's 40 and early in the second nine was tentatively two strokes ahead. He wound up total of 228 or better.

But under windy conditions called "impossible" the lithe amateur, bidding to be the first of his class ever to win the classy Bobby Jones tournament, was the only one to find a solution. He began putting his drives on a clothesline under the wind and reeled off three straight birdies, 13 through 15, that will become a Masters legend.

It appeared mostly a two-man contest again Sunday but several of the pack crept a little closer in the turmoil of scoring brought on by the wind.

Only Two Under Par
Venturi now stands at 210 for 54 holes, six strokes under the Masters par of 216. Cary Middlecoff had 214 and they were the only two under par.

Doug Ford of Mahopac, N.Y. was in third place with a 75-good for 217.

Lloyd Mangrum, Apple Valley, Calif., shooting a 72, had 218 as did Jack Burke Jr., of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., with a 75. A total of 21 golfers were back of them with

Six-Man Bout Is Scheduled Wednesday

One of the best main events ever presented in Pampa is slated at the Top of Texas Sportsman's Club this Wednesday night. The Pampa Shriners have booked a six-man tag-team match for the final Wednesday night wrestling card.

Dory Funk and Bob Geigel team up with Sterling Dizzy Davis and take on The Masked Golden Terror and his manager, Marc Anthony, and Tokyo Joe.

The match will be a three-fall one-hour time limit bout.

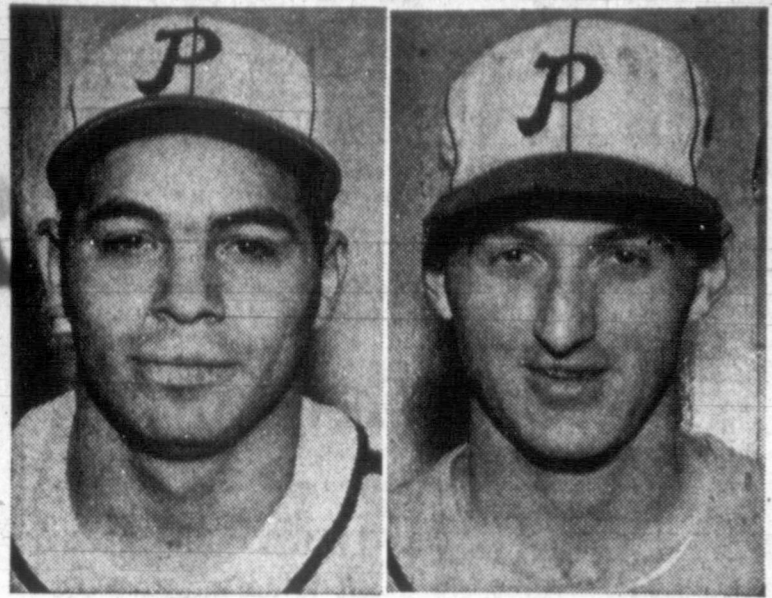

All of these wrestlers are well known in the Pampa ring and Funk and Geigel will be the crowd favorites. This will be the one time Pampa fans will be asked for "Diszy" Davis.

Tokyo Joe and the two masked wrestlers will have a battle with the crowd as well as a good scrap from the Panhandle's favorite sons and Davis.

Other matches will be scheduled later this week and the full card will probably be announced Monday or Tuesday. Don't wait for the final bout to be announced if you want to get a ticket.

Modern Pharmacy will have the tickets on sale first thing Monday morning.

Wrestling next week will be scheduled for Monday night. Pampa can secure more and better talent for the Monday night card.

NEW FACES — Oiler field manager, Grover Seitz, has picked up several good ball players recently and two of them are standouts. Bob Flores, left, hit a home run in his first game as an Oiler. George Tomecek, right, was previously with Borger and Idaho Falls. He is an addition to the pitching staff.

Oilers, Pioneers Play Second Tie Of Season

The Pampa Oilers and the Clovis Pioneers battled to their second tie game of the season yesterday in Oiler Park. Pampa had a five-run lead going into the last inning but the Pioneers picked up four walks and a pair of hits to tie up the contest in their half of the ninth.

The game was the fifth exhibition for the Pampa professionals this season. They now have a 2-1-2 record for the year. The games with the Pioneers are an indication of what Pampa baseball fans can expect to see during the coming season.

Allan Cross led the Oiler hitting attack with four for four. He laced out a pair of doubles and also a pair of singles. He picked up a pair of rbi's in doing so.

Johnny Yanchura and Lamar Cagle also rapped out a good average for the day with three hits each. Cagle picked up one triple, one double and a single but was unable to account for an rbi. Yanchura slugged out two singles and a double and scored a pair of runs but his hits came with the bases empty also.

The Oilers picked up two runs in the first frame after the Pioneers pushed across one. Pampa scored again in the third and fourth with a single run in each frame. Allan Cross, Bob Flores and Johnny Yanchura came in with a run each in the fifth for the Oilers best inning, although they scored a pair in the eighth. The Pioneers scored five in the ninth to tie up the ball game.

Another game with the Pioneers has been scheduled for today. Game time is set at 2:30 at Oiler Park. The locals will probably start Red Dial on the mound and Clovis will probably use Parker for the Sunday contest.

Admission price for all exhibition games is 75 cents. Season tickets will not admit fans to the pre-season games although several persons will be at the gate and in the stands if anyone wants to buy a season book. The price of the 75-cent ticket book is $35, which figures 45 cents per ticket. These tickets are good for any home game of the

Indians Drop Giants, 8-3

DALLAS, April 7—UP—Rocky Colavito broke a 3-3 tie in the eighth with a double off the left field fence and the Cleveland Indians went on from there to defeat the New York Giants before 8,533 here Saturday, 8-3.

Victory in the first of a two-game series here gave the Indians a 9-6 edge over the Giants in their annual homebound tour. The Indians took an early 3-0 lead with Mike Garcia out-pitching Jim Hearn during his five-inning stretch on the mound. Garcia gave up only three hits for his finest performance of the spring.

Gail Harris tied the score in the sixth against Don Mossi when he hit his seventh spring homer after Bobby Avila had bobbled AJ Dark's grounder and Willie Maya had singled.

With two out in the eighth, Gene Woodling and Larry Raines drew walks from southpaw Don Liddle, and Colavito then slammed his tie-breaking hit off the fence, scoring both runners.

Kaline Hits Homers; Tigers Beat Houston

HOUSTON, April 7—UP—Al Kaline, back in the Detroit lineup after missing two exhibition games, to have three teeth extracted, smashed two bases-loaded home runs Saturday as the Tigers crushed Houston of the Texas League 10 to 1 before 2,727 fans. Wayne Belardi also homered for the Tigers with the bases empty.

The Buffaloes got their only run when Kaline passed up a throw to the plate because of his ailing flipper.

Brown Signs Intent Letter To Play With WTS Buffaloes

CANYON—(Special)—In 1941, Clifton McNeely, Pampa High School basketball coach, gained national recognition as a scoring star while playing for Coach W. A. "Gus" Miller at Texas Wesleyan College.

Now, 15 years later, one of Coach McNeely's prize catches is casting his lot with the same Coach Miller, head basketball coach and athletic director at West Texas State.

Brown, 6-1 forward who averaged 33 points in Pampa's two 1-AAAA district playoff games with Odessa in the third outstanding Plains athlete to sign a West Texas State letter of intent. Last week, Junior Fitts, 6-5 Tahoka flash, and Larry Corbin, 6-6 Leveland star, joined the Buffalo ranks.

"He's the best out shot I have ever coached," remarked Coach McNeely, who guided Pampa to state championships in 1953 and 1954. Exceptionally deadly with a jump shot, Brown scored 502 points in 27 games — an 18.6 average — to lead Pampa to the 1-AAAA Northern Division championship.

The winner of his school's "Hustling Harvester" award last season, Brown hit his peak in the district playoffs against Odessa scoring 39 points the first night and 27 in the second game.

Planning to major in physical education, the Pampa senior has his eye set on a coaching career. However, he added that he would like to play a few seasons of professional ball first, if he has the opportunity.

Statistics Prove Dons As The Best

NEW YORK, April 7—UP—NCAA figure-filters came forth with some strong statistical arguments Saturday to support the already well-accepted claim that the University of San Francisco team was the best in college basketball history.

In the 30 years the NCAA Service Bureau has kept tabs on college teams, the 1955-56 Dons were the first ever to play a representative major schedule during which no opponent ever came closer than seven points in the final score.

This was only one of the many arguments backing up the "best ever" claim for the Dons, who won 35 consecutive games and two straight NCAA championships during the past two seasons. Here are a few more:

For the second straight season, San Francisco led the major colleges in defense. The Dons yielded an average of only 52.2 points in sweeping through their 29-game schedule.

Coach Phil Woolpert's men out-classed their 29 opponents by an average of 20 points per game. They averaged 72.2 points per game on offense while holding their rivals to 52.2. Marquette had the smallest margin of defeat against San Francisco, losing 65-58.

Only the undefeated 1953-54 Kentucky team approached this season's record set by All-American Bill Russell and Co. Kentucky breezed through 25 games that campaign with nothing tighter than a six-point "squeak."

Dayton's 18.1-point average margin of victory was second-best this season.

NEW YORK, April 7—UP—Southern Methodist's Southwest Conference championship team led the nation's major colleges in free throw accuracy, while Rice ranked fifth in the nation in rebound recoveries, final NCAA basketball statistics showed Saturday.

The SMU Mustangs, fourth place finisher in the NCAA championship tournament, hit 701 of 917, gratis shots for a 764 percentage, well ahead of runner-up Murray (Ky.) State, which had 746. Texas Western of the Border Conference ranked third with 741.

Rice recovered 1,294 of a possible 2,181 rebounds during the season, or a 593 percentage. That ranked the Owls fifth behind George Washington (.616), Niagara (.597), San Francisco (.595) and St. Louis (.594).

None of the Southwest Conference teams was among the leaders in offense or defense, but Oklahoma A&M, New Mexico A&M and Tulsa ranked 2-3 behind national champion San Francisco on offense. While the Dons allowed the opposition only 52.2 points per game, Oklahoma A&M allowed 52.9, New Mexico A&M 59.0 and Tulsa 59.1.

Bosox Beat Barons Of Southern League

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 7—UP—The Boston Red Sox pounded 11 hits and received 15 bases on balls to defeat the Birmingham Barons of the Southern Association 14 to 1 Saturday before 4,414 fans at Rickwood Field.

Bob Porterfield pitched four hit ball over the first seven innings to record his fifth exhibition league season. Ike DeLoek finished up.

Jackie Jensen cracked a two run homer in the fourth and knocked in three runs altogether. Faye Throneberry, who replaced him, also drove in three.

SMU Gets Two Letters

DALLAS—UP—Southern Methodist football Coach Woody Woodard said Thursday he had signed end Gene Moore of Roswell, N. M., and back Rudy Powell and tackle Charles Terrell of San Angelo to letters of intent.

Four letters for Baylor WACO—UP—Baylor University announced Thursday tackle Bert Lauek of Wichita Falls, guards Joe Glass and Art Proctor of Baytown and halfback Austin Conzulin of Port Arthur had signed letters of intent.

Texas Hurler Balks To Give SMU 3-2 Win

DALLAS, April 7—UP—Texas sophomore Jerry Taylor balked in the winning Southern Methodist run in the eighth inning Saturday as the Mustangs defeated the Longhorns 3-2 in a Southwest Conference baseball game.

SMU scored single runs in the first two innings and coasted on southpaw Don Presley's steady four-hit pitching. Texas picked up Lowrey's double, and no more were scored until Taylor's balk with SMU catcher Bryan Bush on third base gave the Mustangs what turned out to be the winning run.

Taylor doubled with two out in the ninth and scored on Marvin Dunaway's single for Texas' other score. The victory gave SMU a 3-2 conference record and left Texas with a 1-3 mark.

Weather Hampers Leatherneck Meet

QUANTICO, Va., April 7—UP—Participants in the Leatherneck Olympics, first big outdoor track meet of the eastern season, placed well behind the weather Saturday.

Driving rain which covered the track to a depth of five inches in spots, prevented championship times, distances, and heights. The meet, officially known as the Marine Corps School Relays, was loaded with talented athletes, but their efforts were hampered by weather.

Jack Davis, a Navy lieutenant and former star at the University of Southern California, produced the only time that was close to a record. He ran the 120-yard high hurdles in 13.8 seconds, three tenths of a second off the world mark. Davis was lucky.

Dodger Rivals Talk Brave To Subdue Run-Away Fears

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE
By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK — Fearless Fraley's facts and figures: Rival National League teams are making brave statements about their prospects but every club is fearful the Brooklyn Dodgers may make another run-away start such as they did in 1955.

"Maybe if every club in the league concentrates on the Dodgers we can stop 'em," said Giant Captain Al Dark, putting the probable secret plan of action into words.

"We don't intend falling behind this time," grimly insists Milwaukee Manager Charley Grimm.

National League President Warren Giles figures it can't happen because such miracle starts are made infrequently and all the clubs have improved. This may be wishful thinking, but Brooklyn's current pitching woes have given all the other clubs new heart.

So you think your golf course is tough? The Darwin, Australia, layout had to post a notice: "When a hawk, lizard, crocodile, snake, or wallaby takes your ball, another may be dropped without penalty."

And there's a nine-hole course in Singapore, surrounded by a jail, hospital, mental asylum, lunatic asylum and a Chinese graveyard, which takes care of any type of golfer.

Joe Savoldi Jr., son of "Jumpin' Joe" of Notre Dame football and rascal fame, is captain of the Michigan State track team. He is looked on as a certain decathlon star because of his all-around track and field ability.

The leopard doesn't change his spots: Proof is the early spring boast of the Brooklyn Dodgers that the "new" Jackie Robinson wouldn't be popping off anymore. Last spring, you'll remember, he got into a feud with Manager Walt Alton when he charged that he wasn't being played enough. Now, the "new" Robinson comes north with the statement that "Randy Jackson is a good ball player but off what I've shown who can say I haven't won the third base job?" Alton, that's who...

If you like Career Boy in the Kentucky Derby there's a bit of superstition to back you up. This will be the third time in the modern era that the derby runs on May 5. Both previous times, the winner was a colt whose name started with "C." They were Cavendish in 1934 and Count Turf in 1951.

Happy birthday: Saturday, Bobby Doer 38; Sunday, Kirby Higbe 41 and Sonja Henie 43; Monday, Claude Passeau 45 and Curly Lambeau 58; Wednesday, Jim Hearn 33, Sam Chapman 40 and A. A. Stagg Jr., 57; Thursday, Johnny Antonelli 28.

Coach Al Onofrio of the Arizona State College golf team was surprised when freshman Bill Davis shot a 71 to beat the coach by six shots while trying out for the team.

"I think he'll help us this year," Onofrio said.

What's so startling about that? Well, Davis is a retired Lake Forest, Ill., furniture executive—and he's 60 years old!

Giambra Beats Sullivan; Wants Middleweight Title

SYRACUSE, N.Y. — UP — Middleweight Joey Giambra of Buffalo, N.Y., a polished "book" fighter, said Saturday his 10 round victory over John L. Sullivan of England gave him new stature for a climb-back into title contention.

"I've shaken off the rustiness from two years in the Army, and I'd like to have a title shot by the end of the year if I make a good showing in my next fights," the flashy 24-year-old boxer said after a unanimous decision Friday night over Sullivan of Preston, England.

"I was a little too light for the fight and I felt the difference," Giambra said. He weighed 156 1/4 to Sullivan's 161.

Giambra used a style, described by Sullivan as "right out of the book" in the nationally televised bout at War Memorial Auditorium.

Giambra, using a strong left hook and a stand-up style, won the first round on the cards of the referee and judges, but Sullivan's pressing attack to the ropes cost Giambra the second round on all three cards.

Referee Harry Kessler, who scored it 6-3-1 for Giambra, had to separate the fighters only a couple of times during the fight although Sullivan mixed it in close and was willing to take a punch to land one.

Judges Richard Fazio and Paul Cummins agreed on their cards, 5-4-1 for Giambra. The United Press card had six for Giambra, four for Sullivan.

The fight Friday night was Joey's 43rd win in 48 professional fights.

Sullivan, the former British middleweight champ, began professional boxing in 1949, and since then has rolled up 68 wins, 18 losses and three draws.

Fish Grabbers Risk Their Lives

If you've ever done any "grabbling" for catfish, says Ewart A. Aulry in the May issue of THE FISHERMAN Magazine, you'll understand what the expression "I Hear Him Thundering" means. Grabbers are men (and women) who risk body and soul reaching under sunken logs and such to wrestle catfish from their dens.

Many nesting catfish will instantly attack anything which enters their door. Of course, when they do that, they establish their identity at once. They might as well have a sign on the outside which says, "A catfish lives here." When the anger of a catfish begins to rise, he shows it by shaking himself, which produces a sound much like distant thunder. "I hear him thundering" is a common expression among grabbers.

The viciousness of the fish's attack or the obstinacy of his defense depends to a great extent on which branch of the catfish family he belongs to. In Mississippi, grabbers catch representatives of three branches of the family: the slender, streamlined blues, the bullheads, or big-headed blues; and the yellows, locally referred to as the "willows."

A big man in water up to his armpits is no match for even a twenty-pound catfish. Unless there is someone near to brace him, the fish will turn him heels over head, and if shallow water isn't close, he will never be able to right himself. Occasionally, an experienced grabber will work along until he locates a big fish, but unless he has a hankering for suicide, he won't stick his hand into the fish's mouth until he has summoned help.

PANHANDLE OUTDOORS

By S. V. WHITEHORN

What is the average life expectancy of the bob-white quail? From all reports the average age of these birds is something over fourteen months. Not very long for a bird to live but considering the everyday dangers they face in order to survive, it is surprising they live to reach this age.

Have you ever wondered about the results of the study of all the wings you mailed last fall? According to Senior Biologist A. S. Jackson of Canadian there were 487 wings sent in to be analyzed last year. These were from the Panhandle and lower Plains.

Of the 5845 analyzed there were 840 wings from old or mature males, 401 from mature females, 2438 from young males and 2426 from young females.

Broken down this shows 15.9 per cent old birds and 84.1 per cent of young. It also shows for each old hen there were 12.1 young.

If we have a good hatch this year or at least an average hatch, we can expect the figures to be about the same, 85 to 1. With the amount of quail in the bird areas at this time that means we might have a large amount of birds to hunt this fall.

Counties sending in the most wings to the Game Dept. were as follows in the Panhandle: Hemphill county — 787 wings including 412 wings collected from the public hunts on the state game refuge. Second place was Hutchinson county with the cooperating hunters sending in 646 wings, Roberts with 216 and Wheeler county with 213 wings.

In 1950, according to the wing report, we had a 15 per cent hatch after Sept. 1. This last year showed 3.4 per cent after August 1. The latest date of hatch was October 4 with three wings being sent in for that date.

The blue quail report was something of the same as the Bobwhite with the tally running 17.9 per cent old birds and 82.1 per cent of young out of the 796 wings sent in. As far as I found out there is no way of telling the age of the young by the wings but the old can be recognized from the young. Also the cocks cannot be told from the hens.

Most common foods according to trap analysis, was found to be croton or dove weed, 2nd was caneless weed, 3rd rag weed, 4th day flower, 5th wild bean and last was sunflower. Different foods probably varied with the localities of the birds. Usually rag weed is the best if there is a great amount available.

Turkey Kill

According to the figures and reports there were 90 turkeys killed; 210 were gobblers while there were 299 hens killed.

Last year there was a surplus of hens on hand but with the removal of these in all probability we will have only a gobble season for the coming fall hunt. How often do turkeys have to mate in order for the eggs to be fertile? According to the authorities only once for each clutch of eggs.

Last year the deer hunters were asked to send in the weights of their kill to A. S. Jackson at Canadian. There were fifty six weights mailed in. All were carcasses that were "hog dressed". Ten of these deer weighed 130-139 lbs. Seven weighed 140-149 while eight went from 160-169 lbs. The lightest deer was 90 lbs. while the largest went at 203 lbs. All of these were white tail deer.

We will probably have another ten day deer and turkey hunt here in the Panhandle this fall.

Barbary Sheep Report

Members of the Game Dept. and sportsmen were looking forward, several months ago, to seeing the Palo Duro Canyon area stocked with barbary sheep. Probably we would have missed a shipment if the California weather had not interfered. Due to the large and unusual amount of rain in that area the natural food was so abundant that the sheep wouldn't move into the trapping areas. It was planned at that time that we would receive 30 of the exotic game animals as a start.

According to Jackson, Canadian, the New Mexico Game Warden claim that in a few years that area will become so well stocked that the animals will move into Texas along the Canadian River break.

New Mexico had a supervised hunt last fall of these sheep.

Man and Dog

Have you ever had a dog that you were very fond of, stolen? Well a few months ago D. T. Fuller of Borger had a liver and white registered pointer either stolen from him or it strayed. The female disappeared from the old Gulf camp about 5 miles south of Borger on the Panhandle highway. If you have any information concerning this pointer please contact Fuller or S. V. Whitehorn, both of Borger. There has been several ads in the paper about this prized dog. Your information will certainly be appreciated.

Photo denotes the good cooperation of Panhandle hunters in the wing collection of quail. Representing 487 wings, Panhandle and lower Plains.

Yanks Talk Trade With Orioles, A's

SAN ANTONIO — UP — The New York Yankees have made trade propositions to both Baltimore and Kansas City, one of which could bring them pitcher Jim Wilson from the Orioles and the other pitcher Art Ditmar from the Athletics.

Bill DeWitt, assistant general manager of the Yankees, Orioles and A's manager, and A's general manager Lou Boudreau, all conferred here Friday regarding a possible trade.

Boudreau, who came here from Austin, admitted he was "looking for a catcher," and the one he wants is Darrell Johnson of the Yankees, Johnson being 306 with Denver of the American Association last season.

The Yankees would give up Johnson plus another pitcher to obtain the right-handed Ditmar, who had a 12-13 record with Kansas City last year.

Champions Gather For Marine Relays

QUANTICO, Va. — UP — One of the most brilliant track fields ever assembled in this country opens competition Friday in the brand-new Marine Corps Relays, but Marine mile star Wes Santee is not among them.

Five world record holders, nine American record holders, 15 members of the 1952 Olympic team, five Olympic champions, 11 AAU 1955 outdoor champions, 11 "All-Americans," and five 1955 Pan-American Games champions are among the more than 1,000 entries.

Santee, the most famous Marine track man, is sidelined in these so-called "Leatherneck Olympics," because of his lifetime suspension on charges of accepting excessive expense money.

If this were a military service meet, Santee would be eligible to run despite his suspension. But it's an invitation meet including mostly civilian athletes and the meet is sanctioned by the AAU—unlike Santee's.

Although the two-day meet has been styled "relays" and will include baton-passing events from 440-yards to four miles, there also is a full slate of individual events. A 200-yard dash field 40 makes this perhaps the first ma or outdoor event of this Olympic year.

Gulf Fishing Reports Are Encouraging

This may be the weekend when Gulf Coast anglers can really open up on that weather-delayed spring fishing.

Reports from up and down the coast are encouraging, in spite of the unsettled weather. The Gulf is calming, the bays are looking good, and trout are swimming in the waters off Port Isabel.

A Houston man, Martin Hazard, reports a catch of 981 specks and a few reds—all on live bait—at Port Isabel in the last 10 days. Two other Houston parties totaled more than 200.

Trout, drum, gafftop cats, mackerel and jackfish are turning up in Gulf and bays at Port Aransas and Bill Ellis says there's plenty of live bait available.

Tarpon are in the New Brazos River—although the big fish are still coy—and snapper is plentiful in the Gulf out of Freeport.

Big bass and crappie are hitting artificials and big minnows in Lake Houston.

The weather picture isn't bad. Houston forecaster Ted Swain expects moderate variable winds in the Gulf area Saturday but there's a chance the wind may freshen up again late Sunday.

No rain is indicated over the weekend.

The tides are favorable—two highs and two lows both Saturday and Sunday.

High tides Saturday will be at 1:27 a.m. and 2:19 p.m., and the lows will be at 7:57 a.m. and 8:12 p.m. Sunday's highs will be at 2:25 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., and the lows at 8:30 a.m. and 8:33 p.m.

Texas League Opens 61st Year Of Play

By UNKED PRESS

The storied Texas Baseball League, 69 years old but in only its 61st season of play, opens its 1956 campaign during the coming week with its first franchise change in 18 years and with five new managers.

Austin returns to the league after a lapse of 42 years in place of Beaumont, which gave up the club after being in the league continuously since 1912.

The Houston Buffs, under the guidance of Harry Walker—one of the new skippers, shaped up as the team to beat for the championship, but last year's full-season leader, Dallas, again is expected to be in the thick of the scramble.

In addition to Walker, the other new head man are Connie Ryan at Austin, Clay Bryant at Fort Worth, Joe Schultz at San Antonio and Al Widmar at Tulsa.

John (Red) Davis at Dallas, Mel McGaha at Shreveport and Rudy Laskowski at Oklahoma City are the three returning managers, although Laskowski came out of the scene in mid-season succeeding Tommy Tatum.

The first round of opening games comes Friday with Dallas at Fort Worth, Houston at Shreveport, San Antonio at Austin and Oklahoma City at Tulsa.

Next Sunday, the clubs switch sites for the season opens in Dallas, Houston, San Antonio and Oklahoma City with the clubs vying for the President's Trophy for opening day attendance.

Fort Worth has won it the past two years with crowds of 12,128 and 8,223, and again is expected to be a serious contender along with Dallas and Houston for that honor this season.

President Dick Butler again predicted the league would exceed the one million mark in total attendance for the 11th straight year, but it wasn't expected to approach the boom years of 1948-49 when the gate went over two million both times.

Tennis Promoters Vote To Abandon Table Point System

CLEVELAND — UP — Promoters of the professional tennis tournament Saturday decided to abandon the table tennis point system under which Dick (Big Pancho) Gonzales won his third and fourth straight world titles.

The California net king won his fourth in a row by defeating Francisco (Little Pancho) Segura Friday night, 21-15, 13-21, 21-14 and 22-20.

Fans indicated after the tournament they favored the traditional tennis rules rather than the 21-point table tennis scoring system used in the pro competition for the first time last year. Promoters said they would return to the regular tennis rules next year.

Tony Trabert defeated Rex Hartwig, 21-11, and 21-13, in the consolation game.

Landy Breaks Four-Minute Mile Again

MELBOURNE, Australia, April 7 — UP — Australia's John Landy, running with virtually no opposition, broke the four-minute mile barrier for the fourth time Saturday with a 3:58.6 clocking that equaled the second fastest performance ever recorded for the distance.

Immediately after his feat, the 25-year-old school teacher said he planned to run in the 5,000-meter event in the 1956 Olympic games here and that he would compete in the mile "only if I have enough speed left." The mile is scheduled after the 5,000 meters in the Olympics.

Landy's time Saturday, over a track slower than normal because of an overnight rain, was only six-tenths of a second off the world record of 3:58.0 he set at Turku, Finland, on June 21, 1954.

The lanky Australian's performance was remarkable, considering the fact that he has had little time to train since injuring his ankle in the national championships March 10. Landy's competition, consisting of 19-year-old E. O. Clarke, John Murray and Geoff Warren, also did little in the way of pressing him to his fast clocking.

Landy whipped around the soft Olympic Park track in a speedy 58.6 seconds on the final quarter-mile lap to win by 100 yards over Murray.

Thus, the feat that escaped the world's greatest distance runners for centuries, now has been achieved nine times. Dr. Roger Bannister of England was the first man ever to run a "miracle mile" when he clocked 3:59.4 at Oxford, England, May 6, 1954.

Landy now owns the three fastest mile clockings ever recorded. He also was timed in 3:58.8 last Jan. 28 here. In addition, he ran a losing 3:59.6 to Bannister's 3:58.8 in the British Empire games at Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 7, 1954.

Dallas Eagles Expected To Repeat As Champions

Editor's Note: This is another in a series devoted to prospects of Texas League baseball teams.

DALLAS — UP — The Dallas Eagles, who captured the straightaway championship in the Texas League last season with a team composed largely of hustling youngsters, are going to have the same kind of a club this year.

Whether the Eagles will be as strong at the start remains to be seen, but recent additions to the roster—certainly had boosted Dallas' stock to where it must be considered a hot contender.

In the mound department, the key to a team's success, the Eagles seem to be well fixed, despite the loss of two stars in Red Murf and Pete Burnside.

Four Holdover Pitchers — Holdover pitchers are Tommy Bowers, Joe Kotrany, Hiel Patrick and Jim Tugerson, Newcomers that are expected to prove big winners are Jim Singleton and Murray Wall. In addition, the Eagles have promising prospects in John Fitzgerald, a lefty, and Jim Mazzola, a relief pitcher of proven class in Bert Thiel, from Toledo.

Wall, from Atlanta, and Singleton, from Sioux City, have shown most impressively this spring, and both are considered starters. Singleton is a lefty and it is hoped he will plug the gap left by Burnside's departure.

Hal Holland and Mickey Sullivan are fighting it out for first, and it isn't likely either man will quite fill Bill White's shoes. At second Frank Murray and Alex Cosmidis, holdovers, are battling for the starter's job. Andre Rodgers, a tall Negro shortstop, could develop into the best in the league. He's green, but he can room right or left, and he can hit. Jim Davenport, a rookie, is straightaway championship in the Texas League last season with a team composed largely of hustling youngsters, are going to have the same kind of a club this year.

Wiley Moore and Art Dunham, holdovers, are back in the outfield, with Bobby Prescott, from Hollywood, and Ray Maurer, in the service last season, but from the Minneapolis roster, likely to complete the quartet. Don Tausig, a long ball hitter from Sioux City, has a chance to break in. As the Eagles stand now, Bob Schmidt, a youngster from the New York Giants system, and Ray Dabek, a seasoned backstop, will divide the work behind the plate. There is a possibility that Ray Murray will be returned by the Giants, but since he was injured this spring, it might be several weeks before he would be ready for action.

The New York Giants, with whom the Eagles have a working agreement, have promised to patch up any weak spots with additional material, so the outlook is bright for the Eagles.

At present, they look every inch a contender, perhaps as strong a club, overall, as the 1955 champs.

Cardinals Sign Joe Huske

Roses To Woman Of The Year

BSP Presents

Mrs. A. D. Hills

Pampa's Woman of the Year will be honored by Beta Sigma Phi during a tea this afternoon. This will be the 11th annual award made by the sorority. Selection was made this year from a list of 11 different women nominated by 17 local women's clubs.

A Pampa native since 1937, Mrs. Hills was born and reared in Pennsylvania where her father worked in the oil fields. She met her husband at Tionesti, Pa., where they were married in 1915. Her husband is also in the oil business.

"We hit most of the boom towns in Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas," she stated. "I certainly was glad when we settled in Pampa. We've always been glad we moved here."

A member of the First Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Hills centers many of her activities around her church. She is a member of the Women's Association for which she served as president. She was a circle chairman for two years and has held various other offices. Because of church activities, she was awarded an honorary membership in the National Board of Christian Education by the Association.

She has served as president of the United Council of Church Women for two years and as vice-president for one year. Her other offices include leprosy chairman and social chairman. She was one of the moving spirits behind the Council's project of providing a wading pool for Negro children built last year.

She also holds memberships in the Civic Culture Club, serving that group twice as president; the Modern Study Club, formerly Gamma Delphinian Society; the League of Women Voters, of which she was president this year; and the Pampa Art Club, serving as president in 1954. And she serves in Pampa's hospitals and homes of shut-ins as a Gray Lady.

Mrs. Hills has three children, all living in Pampa. They are Forrest Hills, Mrs. Harold Gregory and Carl Hills.

Mrs. Hills At Home

A day at home with Mrs. Hills includes a variety of activities. She is shown at the upper left at her hobby, art. She does china painting, oil painting, pastels and some water colors. She says she's done a little bit of everything in the past few years, adding that she didn't have much time for her hobby until her family was reared.

Pictured at center left is Mrs. Hills busy in her kitchen. She does all her own cooking and especially loves preparing a family meal. "I guess baked beans and apple pie are my specialties as that's what my kids always think about," she stated.

"I get lots of baby-sitting jobs," Mrs. Hills laughed, explaining she has 9 grandchildren, with a 10th expected soon. Shown above listening to grandmother read a story are, left to right back row, Keith Gregory, Shaun Hills and Larry Gregory, center row, from the left, Dawn Marie Hills, Shannon Hills, Cindy Hills and Dietra Hills; and in front, Marilyn Sue Gregory, left, and Rocky Hills, right.

Well-read and well-informed on current events, Mrs. Hills likes to read, mostly non-fiction. She is shown at the lower right by the attractive magazine case in her new home at 1911 N. Russell. Her favorite reading materials include U. S. News & World Report, Life, Readers Digest, and National Geographic.

Working in her yard and growing things are more of Mrs. Hills' favorite pastimes. She is pictured at center right watering the lovely African violets in a window of her home.

And for relaxation, Mrs. Hills can often be found at her piano (upper right) which she says she plays only for her own pleasure.

Peg O' Pampa

OUR WEATHER THIS WEEK certainly has been reminiscent of spring, although it is supposed to get colder this week end... when ever Peg thinks of spring she is reminded of her favorite poem of William Wordsworth... although the climate of the poem is elsewhere - England, Peg believes - it still seems to mean spring to Peg... whatever it means to you, it's still a pretty poem.

DAFFODILS

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd -
A host of golden daffodils
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the Milky Way,
They stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay:
Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Toasting their heads in sprightly dance.

The waves beside them danced, but they
Outdied the sparkling waves in glee;
A poet could not but be gay
In such a jocund company:
I gazed - and gazed - but little thought
What wealth the show to me had brought.

..... William Wordsworth.

EASTER CERTAINLY began as a beautiful day, although our Pampa breezes really began blowing later... Everyone's spring costumes were lovely, although Peg was surprised at the lack of real colorful costumes... most of them were light blue, grey, tan or beige... noticed Jean Brady's cute sailor hat with a navy blue velvet band that ended in a long down-back streamer... really cute... and looked just like Jean... Dotty Overton was lovely in a sort-of-royal-blue suit with a matching hat set with just a touch of red... Johnnie Sue and Bill Derrington's little girl was quite the belle of the Easter parade... had on the cutest little white or pinkish sailor hat with little pink flowers on it... Frances Fatheree was absolutely stunning in a sort of beige suit with matching hat... and Betty Whitney was more chic than usual in a large rose hat accented with a large rose.

A star is beautiful: it affords pleasure, not from what it is to do, or to give, but simply by being what it is. (Thomas Carlyle)

AROUND THE TOWN... Peg's eagle eye spied Bill McComas, Evert Carmon and Kay Fancher strolling along the street the other day... enjoying our spring breezes... on a coffee break, no doubt... understand everyone had a scrumptious time at the Kwanis party the other night... heard Ken Meaders moaning... seems he gave his bingo card to Rilla-Jarrett... and she won a prize with it!... better luck next time, Ken... unearthed a hidden talent this week... seems Dudley Steele can really tinkle those ivories... those busy beavers, Virginia McDonald and Hattie Holt, made the long trek to Lockney this week for a B & P.W. banquet... seems Virginia was featured speaker... her topic was National Security, no less!... If you miss the P. V. Rows it's cause they're in Florida... a place called "Weehatchka"... don't ask Peg to pronounce it... where they're visiting their son, Mitchell, and his wife... and their two adorable daughters... Dean Radtke was all aglow last week over the visit of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Fosshee of Austin... here for Easter and a time afterward.

The sun, the moon and the stars would have disappeared long ago, had they happened to be within the reach of predatory human hands. (Havelock Ellis)

.....

POTPOURRI... Peg believes everyone has been on the go this week... bet many Pampa men suffered through thrown-together suppers... the League of Women Voters had a lovely tea... Azelle Loftus was stunning in a natural colored linen sheath with a matching duster... and Mrs. P. T. Randall was smart in a tan and orange new-look chapeau... had been drooling all week over Ted Curtis' hat... a frothy white creation... reminds Peg of whipped cream... very dainty and so feminine!... looked like Mary Hills had on a bright red suit... really set off her blond loveliness... don't know how she did it, but Shirley Morgan served luncheon to quite a crowd the other day... a benefit for the Youth Center... Peg didn't envy her having to prepare food for that many... Wanda Campbell looked like a little rosebud in a rose suit with a white collar... Katherine Steele gave a marvelous review of "Snips and Snails"... and Sue Johnson entertained with piano selections... spied Helene Huff, Mack Hubbard, Jean Duncan... Peg Haase... Hazel Hahn... Lois Marsh... to name a few

.....

It is Love which paints the petal with myriad hues, glances in the warm sunbeam, arches the cloud with the bow of beauty, blazes the night with starry gems, and covers earth with loveliness. (Mary Baker Eddy)

.....

TODAY'S THE BIG DAY... and it is really big for the women in Pampa... it's the day the Woman of the Year is named... Peg's not been enlightened yet on the lucky gal, but she's sure it is someone worthy... everyone's been buzzing for several weeks now... whispering to each other: "Who do you think it is?"... Peg thinks Beta Sigma Phi is to be commended for making this award each year... in Peg's humble opinion... it is the highlight of the year!

Bright star, would I were as steadfast as thou art. (John Keats.)

.....

WHILE HAVING COFFEE the other morning in a local cafe with one of her working pals, Peg spied Rufe Jordan sharing a booth with Joe, Tooley, Roy Bourland, Paul Keim and Mrs. Clifford Vincent of Lefors... after making several guarded inquiries, Peg discovered they were planning for the Cancer Crusade... a very worthy project... one in which every Pampa should cooperate... the disease strikes so many and with such little warning... the cancer group... small but active... is really doing a fine job of education too... one of its main purposes... so let's help them out by cooperating in any way we can.

The fault, dear Brutus, is not in our stars, but in ourselves, that we are underlings. (Shakespeare)

.....

PEGS MUST MOSEY along now... see you at the tea this afternoon... and congratulations and the best of wishes to our Woman of the Year!

As ever,
Peg

"Nationalism In Music" Is Presented During Meeting Of Treble Clef Club

Treble Clef Club met recently in the City Club Room, with Mrs. Mack Hiatt Jr. presiding. The program, "Nationalism In Music" was led by Mrs. Al Metz. "Of the utmost significance to musical Romanticism was the upsurge of nationalism that manifested itself throughout Europe during the 19th century," she stated. "Grieg became the musical voice of Norway; Tchaikovsky, Rimsky-Korsakoff, and Moussorgsky, of Russia; Weber and Wagner of Germany; Liszt of Hungary; Chopin of Poland; Dvorak and Smetana of Bohemia; Albeniz of Spain; Elgar of England; Debussy and Ravel of France; and Sibelius of Finland."

A composer used his gifts to glorify the national heritage in various ways, she pointed out. He could utilize folk-song and folk-dance idioms of his people, or weave his music around the life of a national hero or king, she stated. He could glorify the scenic beauties, the rivers and forests of his native land. He could use an historic event that had great emotional significance to his countrymen or he could set his music to

Goodwill HD Club Given Food Hints

A program on desserts was presented by Miss Helen Dunlap county home demonstration agent, at the recent meeting of the Goodwill HD Club in the home of Mrs. Boyd Maule. Desserts were originally used after the table had been completely cleared, she told the women. Suggestions she gave for easy desserts were fruits such as cantaloupe, strawberries, grapes, oranges and bananas; shortcake; tokay grapes served with pumpernickle bread; salads, baked peaches or pears with sugar and spice; stewed or canned fruit; or custards.

She gave hints on making custards and puddings. She told the group frozen desserts are very nutritious and are a good way to use milk or fruit juices. She suggested using cream to prevent a grainy appearance in frozen desserts, and cornstarch or flour to prevent this in custards. She closed the program by demonstrating how to make gingerbread and a "fluffy" lemon sauce to serve with it. This was served during the social period. The business session was led by Mrs. Johnny Johnson, president. Mrs. A. P. Coombes gave the council report, stating that April-May is the Nation Home Demonstration Club Week. # TV Emcee Would Wrap Up Films For Adventure Series

By WILLIAM EWALD
NEW YORK — UP — Jack Barry, a TV emcee who ordinarily specializes in money-winning questions, believes he has come up with a money-winning answer. The problem—what to do with neglected pilot films.

Barry's solution—Collect a batch of them and wrap them up as an adventure series for TV. A pilot film, it might be pointed out, is a kind of sample show. It tries to give a taste of a projected series. A pilot can be made by a network or an outside producer. The object is to show the pilot to prospective sponsors.

Many pilots are rejected for obvious reasons—they're just plain shoddy. But there are many others that have employed top artistic and technical talent. "Nobody knows for sure just how many pilot films there are around," said Barry. "It may sound high, but it's rumored that about 4,000 of them are just sitting on shelves.

What Barry hopes to do is gather a bunch of the better ones and package them as a kid's show. "Since I started working on this thing, I've been snowed under with horse stories and dog stories," said Barry. "I could build whole series out of the horses alone—there are pilots about white horses and black horses and Royal Canadian Mounted and their horses.

Actor Wants To Be A Producer

By WILLIAM EWALD
NEW YORK — UP — John Newland, an actor who recently graduated to TV directing, admits quite frankly that he's gunning for the big job—he wants to be a producer.

Newland, a product of Cincinnati, began acting on TV when the medium was in its neanderthal period. He notched a solid reputation as an emcee before transferring a major share of his energies to directing about 18 months ago.

Right now Newland directs every other Robert Montgomery show on NBC-TV, "The Long Way Home," a recent Montgomery offering about a man who suffered a heart attack, carried the Newland brand. So will "Pistolero" next week.

Property taxes are assessed against the person who is the record owner of each piece of real and personal property on the first day of January of each year. Individuals purchasing property during the year should make sure that the taxes for all previous years have been paid. Otherwise, the purchaser may be forced to pay hundreds of dollars in delinquent taxes to protect his property.

Under the Texas Constitution, each family is entitled to claim one piece of real property as their homestead. This claim must be established by an affidavit filed with the county tax assessor on or before April 30, each and every year. This affidavit must be filed by the owner himself. A lending agency cannot do so, even though it may actually pay the annual taxes thereon from a fund created by the owner's monthly installments.

IT'S THE LAW IN TEXAS

Many Texans have the mistaken impression that their homestead cannot be seized and sold for delinquent taxes. In many cases, this idea has led to considerable grief and monetary loss which could have been avoided. A homestead should be rendered to tax assessors like any other property, and taxes assessed against it should be paid as faithfully as those on any other taxable property.

As a previous column, it was indicated that the deadline for rendering property for taxation is April 1, so far as most city taxing agencies are concerned. The last date for rendering real and personal property for state and county taxes is April 30. State taxes are collected by the County Tax Collector.

When taxes are not paid by the deadline prescribed for the particular taxing unit (city, county, state or district), monetary penalties and interest are added from month to month. In addition, the property becomes subject to seizure and sale to satisfy the tax lien. This lien applies to all property, whether homestead or not.

This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.

Read the News Classified Ads

Thursday. "Sometimes I find myself thinking that I'm out of things. But since I was a kid my only goal in the theater has been to be a producer.

"I have no great connections and I'm not rich so the only logical way for me to make it is by directing."

Newland collared Montgomery about two years ago and announced his intention to direct. "He asked me if I was ready and I said no," recalled Newland. "And so he said, 'When you are, let me know.'"

Newland let Montgomery know about a year later. "I had done a lot of listening and watching in that time," said Newland, "and I was sure I was ready, but I wasn't as ready as I thought I was."

"They gave me a play called 'Grass Roots' and I think if the crew hadn't helped me I would have landed on my back."

Newland now has reached a comfortably perpendicular point in his directorial manner but he has no intention of making his present job a resting point.

Economics Course Is Set Up

The Chamber of Commerce economic study course has been set for Wednesday, April 18, at 7 a.m. in the Pine Room of Pampa Hotel.

Arthur Teed, chairman of the chamber's legislative affairs committee, presided over a meeting of the group in their chamber offices this morning.

Cameron Marsh was elected moderator of the course. Horace Prince will be vice moderator and Roy Smith was chosen secretary.

The initial group has reached minimum enrollment for the course, however, such a large number expressed interest in the course, that another group will be formed if enough persons desire so. Those interested in starting another course should contact E. O. Foster, Pampa Chamber of Commerce.

Halliburton To Purchase Site In Perryton Industrial Area

PERRYTON — (Special) — The Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Co. of Duncan, Okla., has signed the contract agreeing to purchase a five-acre site in the new industrial area located at the east edge of Perryton and the Chamber of Commerce is going ahead with plans to survey the area.

The Chamber of Commerce has signed the contract to C. A. Sooter, Chamber of Commerce president, along with a $500 escrow check. Total price of the five acres is $5,000.

The contract contains the provision that the Santa Fe Railway must make a crossing with a spur track to the new industrial area. To date no signed commitment has been received by the Chamber of Commerce, but Santa Fe officials have given verbal assurances that the crossing will be made.

The Chamber of Commerce Industrial committee, composed of F. B. Sumpter, John Sammons of J. B. Whigham are proceeding with surveying of the new tract. The Chamber has 18 days in which to survey and plat the site, buy the land and give a merchantable title to Halliburton.

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce directors and the industrial committee, several proposals for handling the sale of lots and property in the industrial area were discussed. It has not yet been decided whether or not to form a separate corporation and sell stock to finance the purchase of land or to amend the Chamber of Commerce charter and borrow an option to buy 45 acres of land.

The Chamber of Commerce has an option to buy 45 acres of land from Ray Wright, and will buy the first acre with the next few days.

Acquisition of this property and the agreement with the Halliburton company is a milestone in the growth of Perryton, most observers believe. The company plans to build a bulk cement plant, offices, maintenance building and other buildings on their site. It is estimated that the company will eventually have 50 developments and the cost of the construction will be in the neighborhood of $500,000.

Boyd and other employees in Gulf's Fort Worth Production Division receiving Service Awards for 25 or more years of service will be honored at a dinner to be held in Fort Worth later this year.

Another Pampa employee to receive recognition of his service with Gulf is Thomas J. Hill, who will be presented with a 20-year service award April 21.

Cities Service Transfers Announced

To Help 150 Refiners
No one could estimate what the development will mean in dollars and cents to the small refiners but it eventually could be millions. More than 150 refiners will benefit.

"More important at the moment," O'Hara told the United Press, "is that the plan will give the refiner a second bite at the cheese. He can submit bids along with the major competing companies for the big orders. If the big companies outbid him, he can come back and bid on so-called set-aside orders from which the set-firms are excluded."

All refiners qualifying under the Small Business Act are eligible to bid on the set-aside orders. These include companies with less than 500 employees. But others, with more workers, can ask the Small Business Administration to classify them as small businesses. That will be up to the SBA.

FAREWELL TO YAK-YAK—Marion Arleen Vere, 26, had a profitable beauty shop in Dayton, Ohio, with three employes and a steady stream of customers. She sold it because "I just got tired of fiddling with ladies' hairdos and listening to them yak under the dryer." She went to Cincinnati and enrolled in the Moler Barber College, where she's seen above. She's one of two coed neophyte barbers among 51 men students. Practicing the snip-shave-and-shampoo routine all day, the female Figaro, says "I'm not bad with the clippers, but a little weak on baseball." She commutes daily, two hours each way, to her Dayton home. For homework she practices on her poolie and her husband, Herman.

The Aiming Stake

K. L. FANCHER
Things have settled down to a pretty steady routine out at the National Guard Armory on the Miami Highway. Everyone is working steadily towards summer camp, to be held in August this year at Fort Sill, Okla.
For the past couple of weeks, much of the training time at the Armory has been taken up by sectional classes. Each one of the sections within the batteries going over its duties and responsibilities. Of course the regular maintenance cannot be ignored during all this activity, so the sections are also keeping that equipment in shape for any possibility.
The officers of the battalion have been attending classes also, brushing up on procedures and getting ready to fire those 155 mm howitzers this summer. They have been working at fire direction procedures and forward observer problems along with taking care of their regular duties.
Last week we mentioned that we had been glad to see some of the college students around the armory during the week, and there were a number of them out to the Monday night drill of Headquarters Battery. Many may have noticed the change in uniform that we mentioned last week. The officers and men of the 47th Field Artillery Battalion have changed over to their summer uniforms and they looked real sharp for their first time out.

We would like to repeat the invitation we made last week for all you young men to come on out to the armory and look on during a drill. There'll be someone that will be glad to show you around any time. Headquarters Battery drills on Monday nights and Service Battery and the Medical Detachment drill on Thursday night, so take your choice and come on out. If you would like to know more about your military obligation, you can find out about it then or, you can come out during the week. If you haven't the time to get out to the armory, you can call 4-9841 and there will be someone glad to tell you "How to Keep Your Guard Up."

Gas Turbine Engines To Be Headache For Auto Industry

By REW W. BRUNE
DETROIT, April 7—UP—Gas turbine automobiles will result in some king-sized headaches for the industry and allied fields which might make the problems of developing the turbine seem small by comparison, if and when the day of gas turbine cars arrives.
The industry has used the piston engine for its basic power package since the birth of automobiles early in the century. Much of the industry and allied fields has been geared to use of piston engines in automobiles.
Any drastic change in that, of course, must produce a corresponding revolution in the industry.
Fuels a Problem
Fuel for cars will present one problem. Gas turbine cars run on any fuel that burns. Kerosene, white gas, and the like are practical. In fact, engineers say the high-grade, anti-knock, special additive gases developed for piston engines actually "don't work well" for gas turbines. The fuel industry geared for refining today's high-grade gasolines will have to make some major adjustments in its business.
Gas turbines don't use water cooling systems and wouldn't need radiators. Factories producing radiators for cars will have to find something else to make.

No radiators mean no radiator antifreezes are needed. That in itself is a huge business.
The spark plug business can't help being seriously affected.
Uses One Instead of Eight
The modern, high horsepower V-8's need eight sparkplugs. The eight sparkplugs need changing at more or less frequent intervals. But a gas turbine uses only one spark plug — to start the turbine. That will mean a big cut in the spark plug business if cars are powered by gas turbines.
Changing over production methods to turn out turbines will also mean scrapping machinery used to make transmissions. Gas turbines will use merely a reduction system in place of transmissions.
There will probably be new products for factories now producing parts not needed in gas turbines to manufacture. All the various problems undoubtedly will be solved.
But the development of gas turbine engines for automobiles will be a major revolution for big portions of the automobile industry and allied businesses.

BATHE YOUR WAY to HEALTH

Millions have taken the baths at Hot Springs—America's only health resort with natural thermal waters under the regulation of the Director of the Nat'l. Park Service, U.S. Dept. of the Interior—and, countless people have testified to the magic qualities of these world-famous baths. You, too, can find relief for jangled nerves, aching muscles, stiff joints, hardening of the arteries, and, yes, even rheumatism and arthritis.
