Red Satellite Purge Is Just Beginning

Danger Of War In Mid-East Lessens

By DONALD J. GONALES
WASHINGTON, April 28—UP—The Big Three western powers believe the danger of imminent war in the Middle East has been staved off by United Nations action, diplomats reported Saturday. Their guarded optimism was disclosed as diplomats prepared for important talks on the Middle East in Paris next week by the 15-nation North Atlantic Treaty Organization. There also will be side talks by the Big Three foreign ministers in Paris. These conferences will coincide with a secret report to be filed with the United Nations Security Council by UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold on the results of his Middle East peace mission. Of key interest will be whether Hammarskjold discovered any middle ground between Israeli and Arab views on peace.

A month ago, Washington, London and Paris were pessimistic about chances that war could be avoided in the Middle East. It looked then as though major fighting might start any time and there were predictions it was almost sure to come some time this summer.

The Israeli-Arab flare-up also brought dissension between the Big Three powers on what to do. Britain wanted stern action. France wanted a quick Big Three meeting. The United States said it would oppose aggression in the area within constitutional limits but otherwise held back in favor of UN action.

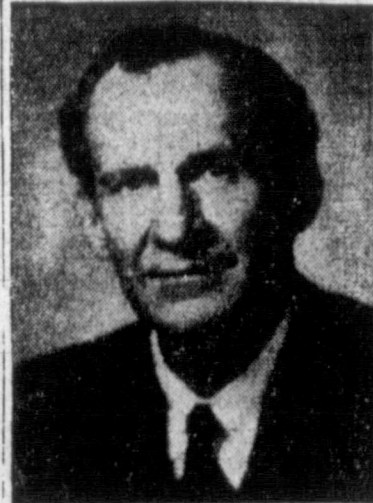

The latest administration estimate on peace and war prospects in the Middle East was given by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles to Chairman Walter F. George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee at a private meeting Friday.

It was learned that Dulles, who takes off for Paris Tuesday afternoon, told George that the situation in the Middle East is "a bit more stable" at this time than it has been. He said a longer range forecast must hinge on Hammarskjold's report.

Diplomats are encouraged by recent Russian statements expressing willingness to co-operate in the Middle East, if for no other reason than that it is good to get peace.

But the United States is suspicious of the recent statements in Britain by Communist leaders Nikita Khrushchev and Nikolai Bulganin avowing interest in a Middle East arms embargo.

In private talks with the British, according to diplomatic reports received here, the Russians avoided any outright guarantees that Red arms shipments to Egypt would be stopped. Pressed for such assurances, the Russians switched the subject to the anti-Communist Baghdad pact, blaming its existence for Middle Eastern tensions.

Court Judge In Visit To Pampa

Judge W. A. Morrison of Milan County, presiding judge of the court of criminal appeals, was in Pampa Saturday on his tour of the state seeking re-election.

Judge Morrison said that he was seeing as many people as he could campaigning for re-election. The applicant judge runs only on his record, he said. "... of course, we don't have issues."

"Since I've been a member of the court," he stated, "I've written 1,150 opinions (decisions of cases). From those, the lawyers determine whether or not I've been a capable judge. They in turn tell their clients and their friends."

Judge Morrison became presiding judge on Jan. 1 of 1955, making him the youngest presiding judge in the history of the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas. In October, 1955, he was elected by the judges in Texas as chairman of the Judicial Section of the State Bar.

From 1951 through 1955 he served as chairman of Lone Star Boys State, the American Legion program of youth training in government.

Both Government, Communist Party Shakeups Are Predicted

By RUSSELL JONES

FRANKFURT, Germany, April 28 — UP — The purges in Soviet satellite nations as a prelude to bigger shakeups to come in both government and the communist party.

So far, purges in Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia and Poland have ousted known pro-Stalinists. But experts believe that as the cleanup process continues, anti-Stalinists too may fall.

The experts think some of both varieties of political thinkers will be affected.

Molotov May Be Out

It is believed that in Russia itself, Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov, one of the few Bolsheviks who successfully struck with Stalin through the years, may be on his way out. Sources pointed out that Molotov was not included on the recent trip of the Soviet's leaders to Britain, and that the biggest foreign affairs speech made recently in Moscow (See REDS Page 2)

It Might Help A Little

ELGIN, Ill., April 28 — UP — The 70 million Americans who will turn their clocks ahead for daylight saving time Sunday won't lose an hour's sleep after all. They'll only lose about 59 minutes.

Experts of the Elgin observatory explained Saturday that the second, the keystone of time, isn't what it used to be.

Last year when the International Astronomical Union met in Dublin, Ireland, it shortened the second by .000018 per cent.

The second used to be calculated as a certain fraction of the mean solar day, but the high domes discovered that the earth is revolving more slowly these days. They changed the second to a fraction of the year.

196 Vote Absentee On Wet-Dry Issue

Absentee votes on the wet-dry election were coming into the County Clerk's office Saturday morning, bringing the total number of votes cast up to 196 at 11 a.m.

A total of 32 ballots have been mailed out, Charlie Thut, County Clerk, said, but only three returns have been made to date.

Election judges for the 18 precincts of Gray County were announced Saturday morning.

The judges in each precinct and the number of possible votes in each one are as follows: 1 — D. M. Jones, Lefors school, 488 votes; 2 — John Schofield, Baker, 1199; 3 — L. B. Johnson, Bankview, 151; 4 — Marvin Hall, Alanreed, 90; 5 — Charles Cousins, City Hall, 287; 6 — Ennis Jones, Laketon, 46; 7 — Clyde Carruth, residence, 27; 8 — Oil Crossman, Hopkins, residence, 53; 9 — W. B. Franklin, Woodrow Wilson School, 1,378; 10 — D. E. Holt, Court House, 2,357; 11 — Marv Webb, Kingsmill, 119; 12 — N. P. Brown, Oddfellow Hall, 1,393; 13 — R. B. Brown, Phillips Camp, 266; 14 — O. A. Davies, Horace Mann Elementary, 1,122; 15 — Ott Shewmaker, Carpenter Hall, 490; 16 — E. L. Anderson, Tom Ross Ford garage, 628; 17 — Eric Cubine, McLean Ford garage, 254; and 18 — Charlie Webb, residence, 27.

This makes a total of 10,244 possible votes that may be cast in the forthcoming wet-dry election.

Voters will cast their ballots in the precinct in which they live.

Residence Changes Should Be Noted
Eligible voters who have moved from one city precinct to another in Pampa should have their residence addresses changed or the county clerk's records in order to qualify to vote in the May 5 local option election.

Arms Meet Fizzles
By K. C. THALER
LONDON, April 28 — UP — The five-power disarmament conference here appeared to have all but fizzled out Saturday. Sources said it probably would break up soon without agreement.

Despite a series of proposals by the United States, Russia and Britain and France, sources said there was not enough progress to warrant continuation of the talks which now are in recess until Wednesday.

Canada is the fifth member of the conference, and the delegates are expected to report to the United Nations in New York for further instructions.

Saturday, American delegate Harold Stassen conferred privately with Soviet delegate Andrei Gromyko for one hour and 45 minutes in the third of their two-power sessions. Stassen will meet with the delegates of the other three powers Monday to fill them in on the side talks.

After the London talks end, it is considered likely that the Soviets will try to reap a propaganda harvest by trimming their 4-million-man armed force to approximate the 2.9-million-man force of the United States.

At the London parley, Stassen proposed that both Russia and the United States trim military manpower to 3.5 million apiece. There was no takers.

Strike For Higher Pay Hits South's Biggest Steel Firm

By KENNETH BEENE
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 28 — UP — A strike for higher pay by 250 railroad men paralyzed the South's biggest steel works and this city's major industry Saturday, affecting some 100,000 citizens.

Most of the employees of the Tennessee, Coal, Iron and Railroad division of the United States Steel Corp. crossed picket lines Saturday. But they did so only to help bank the network of blast furnaces open hearths and other installations that pump the pulse of the Pittsburgh of the South.

A complete TCI strike costs more than $1 million a day in lost wages and steel production. This is the second within a year, and the first also was started by railroad men.

Throw Up Picket Lines
Members of the Local Brotherhood of Locomotives, Enginemen and Firemen walked out and threw up picket lines at midnight when the company failed to meet their demands for 37 cents an hour pay raises. TCI had offered 10 cents an hour and called the 37-cent figure "exorbitant."

The brotherhood operator coal, iron-ore and molten metal trains linking the huge steel operation's plants and captive mines.

The brotherhood members make $2.33 an hour on the average now. Most of the rest of TCI employees are members of the United Steel Workers, numbering some 25,000 whose payroll supports 100,000 residents of the industrial western section of Birmingham and adjoining Fairfield.

"We met with the brotherhood last night and agreed to go along with the strike," said a steelworks spokesman. "But first we are going to help the company get the plants closed down." He said this would take about 72 hours.

Once the furnaces are banked it will take three additional days to get them heated up again even if a settlement is worked out.

Arthur V. Wiebel, president of TCI, said that the strikers were demanding other benefits even more costly than the wage hike.

Spectre Of Drouth Stalking Southwest Again

CHICAGO, April 28—UP—The spectre of drouth is stalking the Southwest again this spring, with some officials predicting it may be more serious than the dust bowl days of the 1930s.

For large areas of the southwestern plains dry cropland has become almost a way of life. The drouth has been going on for as long as six years.

This year from West Texas to Illinois rainfall is again deficient, less than 25 per cent of normal in many areas. In much of Texas rain has been less than 15 per cent of normal in the last month.

Watch Wells Dry Up
Many farmers were watching their wells and ponds dry up and keeping a close eye on their crops. It was a little early to tell how spring crops would fare, but some damage already was reported.

In hard-hit Missouri, the state commissioner of agriculture, L. C.

Carpenter, said that "spring crops are looking as poor as I have seen them in 27 years."

Early-seeded oats were making a poor stand in Missouri and wheat was five or six inches tall instead of a foot.

Carpenter said he feared a worse drouth than in the 1930s unless there is immediate and abnormal rainfall. The Missouri state geologist's office reported surface water supplies at an all-time low.

In Texas officials said lack of rain and recurring dust storms have reduced crop prospects to a new low.

John White, Texas agriculture Commissioner, said that, as usual, farmers in the Panhandle have been the first to feel the effects of drouth, now in its sixth year.

"The wheat crop is deteriorating rapidly and, at this moment, we can expect only a half a crop at best," White said.

Some Texas wheat land has been converted to grazing because "hopes are gone for a crop," White said. Rice farmers along the Texas coast bend faced the costly prospect of re-planting many thousands of acres because of lack of moisture to germinate their early seed.

In its most recent bulletin the U.S. Department of Agriculture said dust storms this spring in Texas were, in spots, worse than in the '30s.

Since last November an estimated 3,850,000 acres of Texas crop and rangeland have been damaged by dust storms in degrees ranging from mild to severe.

Kansas once again battled a drouth that has been almost unbroken for 4-1/2 years. The state officials said it "did not by any means replenish Kansas' subsoil moisture."

State and federal experts reported the moisture content of the soil in the Kansas wheat country has declined to its lowest level in 16 years. They said the prolonged drouth has cut soil moisture content to 13.8 per cent in the western two-thirds of the state, where the bulk of wheat is grown.

Still, the April 1 estimate of the wheat condition in Kansas was "fair to good" and the crop forecast was for 143 million bushels, an increase over last year but well under the 10-year average for the nation's No. 1 wheat state. But officials said there would have to be timely rains for the rest of the growing season until harvest starts in June.

Many Kansas farmers were reported trying to beat drouth by switching to new and improved varieties of wheat which are better adapted to withstand dry spells.

Shortage In Colorado
A "critical" shortage of moisture also was reported in southwestern Colorado, while both drouth and dust storms reduced crop prospects in western Oklahoma.

What was reported in critical condition in two Oklahoma counties and federal experts said rain was urgently needed in extreme western and southwestern counties.

In Illinois the area of dry cropland switched this year from the southern part of the state to the northwestern part. There has been little rain in the northwest since December and almost none in April, usually the wettest month.

Illinois officials said crop prospects would be poor unless there is abundant rain soon. Many farmers reported dry wells and some already were hauling water for their livestock.

Pampa's Third Ideal Store Sets Open House Today

The newest supermarket in Pampa, the Ideal Food Store, located between Hobart and Purviance on W. Francis, will be open for a preview showing this afternoon between 1 and 5 o'clock and will open for business Monday morning.

With the opening of the new store the Ideal Food Store system will have three of the 28 stores in the chain located in Pampa.

At the preview opening this afternoon store manager John Schlumbohm and meat market manager Hansford Ousley will be joined by 23 full-time employees of the store and supervisors, department heads and executives of Blakemore Brothers Grocery Co., the parent organization, in handing out orchids to the ladies and gifts to the children, and in guiding, explaining, and describing.

The new store represents an investment of over a quarter of a million dollars by Blakemore Brothers.

The store, 90 by 140 feet, has approximately 12,000 square feet of floor space, making it one of the largest in the Ideal group.

A meat counter 82 feet in length, of the self-service type, is located across the back of the store. In addition to the self-service feature, special cuts of meat will be immediately prepared by the seven employees of the meat market. Refrigerated produce counters total 104 feet and include three new type island counters.

Frozen food cases, containing several new items, are 80 feet in length and of the latest style. The dairy case is of double decked construction and is 35 feet long.

4-H Club Rifle Team Takes Win

The Gray County 4-H Club Rifle Team took first place honors at the District One elimination contest held in Canyon Saturday.

Members of the team are Glenn Newman, John Carson, Bob Coombes, and Paul Howard. Robert Adamson, assistant county agent, is the team coach and Pete Coombes and Tom Veale are instructors.

The team made a total score of 955 out of a possible 1200. Four other teams were entered in the contest and the team from Wheeler County placed second with 915 and the team from Randall County placed third with 726.

Bob Coombes was high individual scorer. John Carson was second and Glenn Newman fourth.

Roland Miles, of the Wheeler County 4-H Club Rifle Team, was third in the individual scoring.

The Gray County team will go to the state contest to be held at College Station May 12 to 14.

In another phase of the contests held at Canyon yesterday, Paul Eakin, a member of the Pampa 4-H Club, placed second in the tractor operator's division of the contest.

The Rifle Team received checks for $100 from the Amarillo Globe News to help defray the expenses of the team at the state meet.

Mrs. Addie May Bond, who lived at 1015 E. Francis, died at 5:15 p.m. Saturday in Highland General Hospital.

Mrs. Bond was born May 9, 1899, at Bowie and had been a resident of Pampa for 26 years, moving here from Pontotoc, Okla.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. M. R. Snyder, Borger; and Mrs. C. L. DeLoe, Corona, N.M.; one son, Dewey A. Bond, Borger; four grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Raymond Neal, Wadley, Okla.; and Mrs. M. P. Moore, Houston; and one brother, Jinx Martin, Tulsa, Okla.

Funeral services are pending at the Duemmel - Carmichael-Funeral Home.

Polish Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz even criticized himself in a speech last week and warned against the "rampant cult of Stalin."

All of the purged Polish officials had been directly connected with repression of the people or keeping party members within the grasp of iron discipline.

Mass "rehabilitation" of prominent generals may be announced, according to Warsaw cables. Already 30,000 prisoners have had their sentences canceled.

Communist East Germany said Saturday in its official newspaper that it will not purge leaders who came to power under Stalin. Nevertheless, the East German Communist party has been shaken, and has admitted splits in its ranks over the Stalin issue.

Oil Firm To Up Purchases

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., April 28-UP—Cities Service Oil Co. officials said here Saturday the firm will increase its crude oil purchases about 30 per cent May 1.

Purchases will increase to about 80 per cent of normal. The company curtailed purchases to about 60 per cent of normal on April 1 as a result of a strike which closed its East Chicago, Ind., refinery. Meetings between company and union negotiators are continuing.

Cities Service buys crude oil in Oklahoma, Kansas, Texas, New Mexico and Louisiana.

Eisenmenger Rites Set

Funeral services for Herman Eisenmenger, a pioneer resident of Wheeler County, will be held at 3 p.m. this afternoon in the First Baptist Church at Mobeetie. Rev. L. T. Field, pastor of the church, will officiate.

Mr. Eisenmenger was born Nov. 3, 1877, in Fayette County and moved to Wheeler County from there in 1900. He had lived on the same farm, located five miles north-west of Mobeetie, since moving to this area.

Survivors include his wife, Rhoda; one daughter, Mrs. Edith McLaughlin, Mobeetie; one grandson; Keith McLaughlin, Mobeetie; one nephew, Herbert Eisenmenger, Mobeetie; two sisters, Mrs. Bertha Schwartz and Miss Clara Eisenmenger, both of Deanneville; and one brother, Charlie Eisenmenger, San Antonio.

Burial will be in the Mobeetie Cemetery under the direction of Duemmel - Carmichael Funeral Home.

Knife, Fork Club Sets Meeting

The last spring meeting of the Ton o' Texas Knife and Fork Club will feature John Morley, international correspondent, as the featured speaker Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

Tickets may be purchased at Clyde's Pharmacy until Wednesday noon. The dining room will open at 7:10 p.m. Thursday.

Morley is an author and lecturer who has completed his third trip around the world in four years. His life has been full of exciting adventure and packed with important incidents ever since he was graduated from college in 1923 and abandoned a budding legal career for the more active one of newspaper reporter and foreign correspondent.

During World War II, Morley was appointed by the War Department as Director of a United States Military Intelligence campaign against foreign spies.

He has written "I Believe" and other books and has been a frequent contributor to the "Saturday Evening Post," the "Reader's Digest" and the "Ladies Home Journal."

meet Ethan Allen...

Out of the night rang the famous cry, "I capture this fort in the name of Jehovah and the Continental Congress!" Stunned by the daring surprise attack, the British garrison commander surrendered Fort Ticonderoga that night of May 10th, 1775, and the immortal words of Ethan Allen belonged to History.

Patriot, firebrand, author, statesman — Ethan Allen symbolized the rugged determination of our leaders in the American Revolution. His famous capture of Fort Ticonderoga was but one highlight in a brilliant career. He fought tirelessly to win Freedom and Independence for both the United States and his native state of Vermont. Ethan Allen was a man among great men: sincere, strong, dependable—the type you associate with New England Colonial times, the quality you look for and find in the colonial furniture that bears his name.

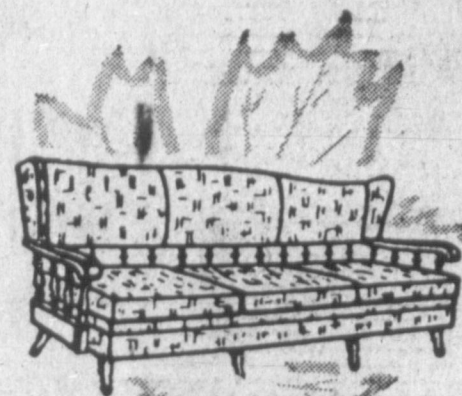

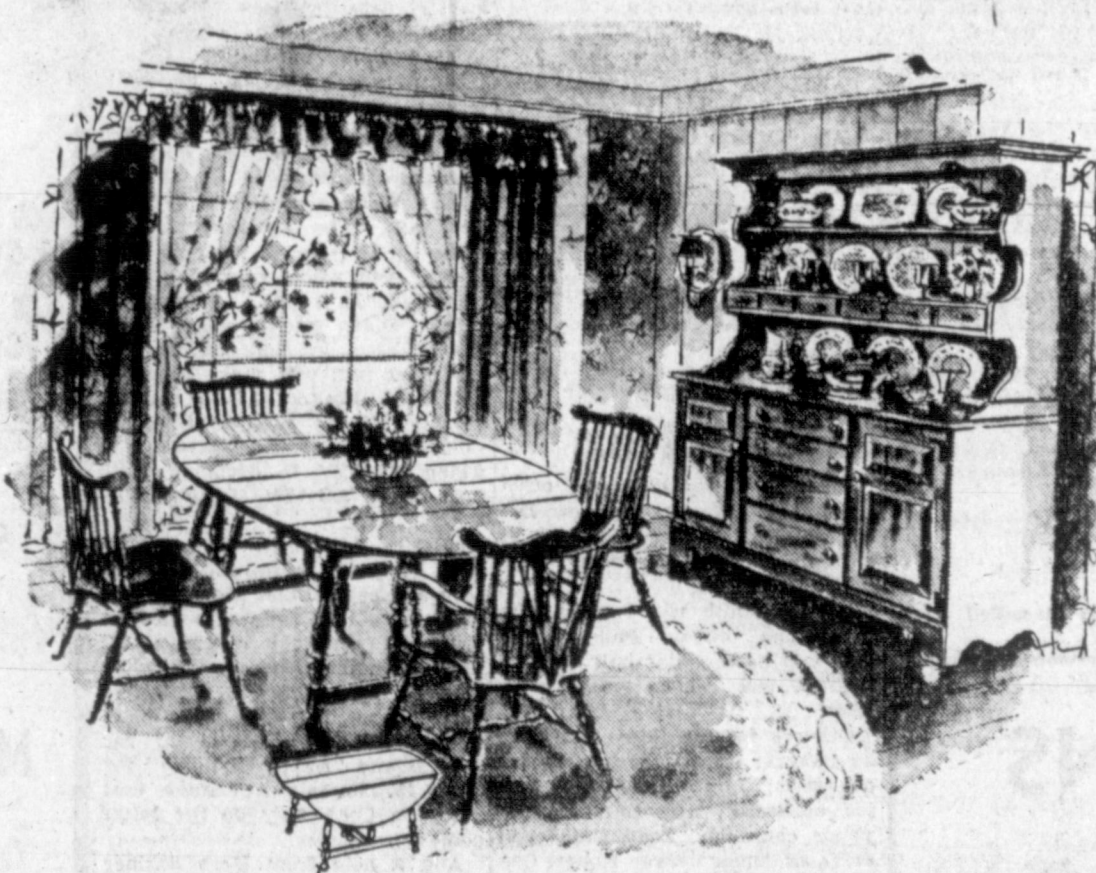

Authentically Reproduced...

Imagine what warmth and charm this Ethan Allen nutmeg maple will bring to your home. Select the pieces you need from more than 200 pieces of Ethan Allen open stock — the largest open stock collection of hard rock maple in the world.

LADY BULL (DOG) FIGHTER—Little Marion Leeds, 15 months old; does a take-off on lady bullfighters as Brookhollow's Captain Kid, 10-month-old English bulldog, plays the timid bull. The action took place in New York City prior to the Bulldog Club of America's annual judging for champion bulldog. Captain Kid is owned by Ernest Hubbard of Red Bank, N.J.

Red Cross News

By RONALD WATERS
Public Information Chairman
James Patterson, field representative for 20 counties and 22 chapters in this area, says that about 83 per cent of the fund goal has been received.

Due to active disaster expenditures last year, the fund campaign has been extended to May 19. The Pampa Chapter has raised $10,564 of its set goal of $12,245.

The National Convention of the American Red Cross will be held in St. Louis, Mo., June 4-6. "Meet Me in St. Louis" is the slogan to be used in all chapters this year.

Sam Houston and Woodrow Wilson Junior Red Cross members are collecting funny books to take to the Amarillo Air Force Base Hospital.

If anyone has good clean funny books they are urged to bring them by the Red Cross office.

Mrs. Libby Shotwell, executive secretary, was out of the office last week due to illness.

Mrs. Hugh Morrow and Mrs. Sam B. Cook have worked in the office, taking care of all business. The boys of Amarillo Air Force Base need an old church bell. The squadron that wins in a contest will use the bell to ring out their victory.

Let's help these boys to have some fun.

If you have a large bell, or know where you can obtain one, call 4-7121.

A group of ladies recently completed their orientation for Gray Lady work and will receive their caps at the annual meeting on Tuesday, May 8.

They are Mrs. Roy Kretzmeier, Mrs. W. J. Ladd, Mrs. Ted McGuire, Mrs. Hupp Clark, Mrs. Hugh Morrow, Mrs. Hardy Pitts, and Mrs. C. R. Hoover.

Eight members of the Junior Red Cross of Pampa High went to Amarillo Air Force Base Hospital Wednesday evening with a program of music.

Presenting the program were Malcolm Brown, Judy Neslage, Ted Swindle, Ramona Hudgins, Ed. They were accompanied by Mrs. H. O. Darby, service groups chairman, Mrs. Paul Crouch and Mrs. H. E. Schwartz, Gray ladies.

Special gifts were given to those having birthdays in April.

Jaycee Officers Installed

Incoming officers and members of the board of directors of the Pampa Jaycees were officially installed Friday night in the Palm Room by the state vice-president, Jim Ferguson of Amarillo.

Ferguson briefly explained the duties of each officer as he installed Ray Duncan as president, W. A. "Pat" Patton as first vice-president, Charles Wilkerson, second vice president; Kenneth Rotan, secretary; Max Hukill, treasurer; and John Jones, state director.

Other directors are: Johnny Campbell, Solon Blundell, J. C. Hopkins, and George Neef.

A "Jake" award, a gold cowboy representing the symbol of the Texas Jaycees, was presented to Bob Carmichael, outgoing president, by Ferguson for an outstanding public health program conducted by a club in the state during the past year. The trophy was awarded on the basis of the welfare dental clinic, sponsored by the Jaycees, and judged on the basis of a scrapbook which will be sent to the national convention.

Carmichael presented Duncan with official Jaycees mallet and Dr. Harold Meador extended the club's appreciation to Carmichael, who was presented with a button and desk set.

Patton was presented with the Key-Man award for being the outstanding Jaycee of the year. He was selected by a secret committee for working on every major project of the year.

A summary of the year's activities was given by Horton Russell, master of ceremonies.

Sheriff Rufe Jordan was presented with a door prize of a block of ice, with a red ribbon tied around it.

Betty Lou Hogsatt sang three selections and Dr. Neely Jo Ellis also sang three songs. Rev. Richard Crews and Rev. Ronald Hubbard, who also appeared on the program, gave an impersonation of Homer and Jethro, pantomiming "Let Me Go," dedicated to the Sheriff.

The introduction of guests was made by Solon Blundell.

TELEVISION CHANNEL SWIM

By WILLIAM EWALD
NEW YORK — UP — The channel swim...

Peggy Lee, Frankie Laine, "Gunsmoke," and "Joe and Mabel" are all being mentioned as possible replacements for the Arthur Godfrey "Friends" show on CBS-TV. There's talk, too, that Martha Raye may switch from NBC-TV into Godfrey's old Wednesday night slot.

ABC-TV is sharpening the ax. The network will drop "Outside U.S.A." and Dean James Pike's show on May 27 and "Tomorrow's Careers" on May 29. June 7 is the last date for "Down You Go" and June 14, the probable last date of "Stop the Music."

Jan Murray's "Dollar a Second" will have its last showing on Aug. 24 on ABC-TV. It'll be replaced by another Jan Murray quizzer, "Treasure Chest."

Mike Wallace of NBC's "Weekday" and "The Big Surprise" is ailing — he poked a stick in one of his eyes while gardening and scratched the retina.

Janet Blair, who'll replace Nanette Fabray in the Sid Caesar cast next fall, will make a move with Red Skelton this summer, "Public Pigeon Number One."

"Screen Directors Playhouse," which NBC-TV is dropping, will turn up on ABC-TV starting July 8.

NBC-TV has lined up a whole flock of special shows for the next several weeks. Ethel Merman will participate in a salute to George Gerahwin program on May 12. There's another Maurice Chevalier show on tap for May 20, "Bloomer Girl" is set for May 28, "Fossilinda" with Cyril Ritchard for July 23 and "Happy Birthday" for June 25. There's a chance that Imogene Coca may do the latter comedy.

And a note from Herb Shriver about the fickleness of women. "Knew one bride who was really fickle," says Herb. "She threw out her bouquet all right, but then she ran out and caught it herself."

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower on Adlai Stevenson's proposal that the United States ban H-bomb tests:

"It is a little bit of a paradox to urge that we work just as hard as we know how on the guided missile and that we stop all research on the hydrogen bomb."

Small Auto Makers In New Approach

By LEE LINDBERG
DETROIT, April 28 — UP — Studebaker-Packard and American Motors have taken a "Mr. Inside and Mr. Outside" approach to meeting the hot competition from the automobile industry's big three.

The two smaller companies, now standing up alone against General Motors, Ford and Chrysler, are fighting for their financial lives against the giants. The going has been rough.

Studebaker-Packard, a product of the merger of Studebaker and Packard in 1954, has not declared a dividend since the consolidation and last year reported losses of nearly $30 million.

American Motors is faring better in the competitive struggle. It announced this week it cut its losses to less than $1 million for the first six months of its current fiscal year.

Cornered 95 Per Cent
AMC President George Romney said Studebaker-Packard's financial picture is darker because it tried to meet General Motors, Ford and Chrysler head-on in the marketplace.

Romney said his company is making no attempt to compete directly with the big three, which accounted for more than 95 per cent of U.S. automobile production during the first quarter of this year.

"We seek to outflank them with distinct products," Romney said.

He admitted American Motors was pinning its hopes on the Rambler in an effort to catch the "fringes" of the market. He said the car was designed for a special group of buyers who want the larger passenger space of big American automobiles and the "minimum exterior dimensions" of European cars.

There are rumors, still unconfirmed, that American Motors plans to discontinue producing larger Nash and Hudson cars and concentrate solidly on its Ramlers.

Studebaker gave up its European design last year. Studebaker-Packard President James Nance said the move was designed for Studebaker to "hit the middle of the market."

Ran Into Big Ones
But Studebaker, with its more conventional styling, hit smack in the middle of the competitive race among Chevrolet, Ford and Plymouth.

The industry's "little three" dwindled to the "little two" of American Motors and Studebaker-Packard when Kaiser-Willys announced earlier this year it was quitting the automobile business.

Unconfirmed reports still in the rumor stage say there's a chance American Motors and Studebaker-Packard might merge and become the "little one."

This would leave only four survivors out of more than 2,700 companies which at one time or another have engaged in making cars for the American public.

Pitcher Is Spiked
BALTIMORE — UP — Relief pitcher Harry Dorish of the Baltimore Orioles was expected to be out of action for two or three games until spike wounds in his right heel are healed. Dorish was spiked by Washington catcher Clint Courtney in a play at first base Sunday and the injury required 12 stitches.

Goodrich Announces Scholarships

AKRON, Ohio, April 28 — A program of financial aid to higher education which it describes as one sponsored by a private company was announced today by The B. F. Goodrich Company.

John L. Collier, Chairman of the Board, and W. S. Richardson, President, said that the Company will make available approximately $300,000 in 1956 for student scholarships, employee tuition sharing, grants and other forms of financial aid to colleges and universities.

"The purposes of the program," Collier said, "are to encourage young people to seek higher education and to assist them in obtaining it, to assist colleges and universities by contributing financial aid above and beyond the added incentive for outstanding teaching and research talent to remain in university positions."

SAN JACINTO, Calif. — UP — Midweight champion Ray Robinson will resume sparring Friday for his title defense against Carl (Bobo) Olson at Los Angeles, April 18. Robinson opened the second phase of his training at his new camp here Thursday.

RESERVIST — Frank Carter, the only member of Battery B, 330th Field Artillery Battalion who has volunteered under the six-month active duty training program of the Army Reserve, is shown standing beside a recruiting poster used by the local reserve unit. Frank was also one of the first in Texas to enter the program. (News photo)

Pampan Explains 6-Month Training

By FRED M. PARKER
Pampa News Staff Writer

How does the Reserve Forces Act of 1955 effect men between the ages of 17 and 18½?

According to Lt. Ed Callahan, commanding officer of Battery B, 330th Field Artillery Battalion, Pampa, men falling in this age range stand a 99 per cent chance of seeing military service under the present laws.

By joining a reserve unit a young man can limit the time spent away from home on active duty to six months and then spend 7½ years in the reserve unit nearest his home.

The training during the 7½ years is composed of 48 drill sessions, one each week lasting for two hours, and two weeks training with the unit at a military installation.

Frank Carter, the only member of the local unit who has enlisted under this program, received his basic training at Ft. Bliss.

He stated that the training during the six months active duty period is divided into three phases of eight weeks each. The first of the phases is basic training, which is the same for all those volunteering under the present laws regardless of the branch of service.

Carter then went to Camp Chaffee, Ark., for the remaining two cycles of his training.

The second cycle was broken in to two types of training. The first, which lasted four weeks, consisted of training on the 105 mm. howitzer. He learned how to fire the weapon and the maintenance of it. During the remaining four weeks of the cycle he underwent training in communications, learning how to operate field telephones and army radios.

The first two phases of the training was the same as that received by members of the army that had volunteered for regular army duty.

"During the final phase of training, Carter joined other men who had signed up for the six-months training under the Reserve Act. They were formed into an artillery battalion and underwent training under simulated combat conditions.

Carter stated that during this period most of the time was spent in the field in digging in the artillery pieces and firing during various simulated combat conditions. They averaged moving the weapons about three times during the day and one time during the night.

When asked what he thought about the opportunities available to young men under the Reserve Act, Carter stated, "I think it is the best way to put in military service for those that want to spend as little time away from home as possible."

Carter stated that he would be glad to answer any questions that young men in the area might have about reserve duty.

If you are interested in duty with a reserve unit you are invited to attend the weekly drill of Battery B, 330th Field Artillery Battalion at 7:30 p.m. Mondays, at the Armory at 308 W. Browning.

Building Permits Issued

Building permits have been issued for two new businesses this month, according to records in the City Engineer's office.

Continental Oil Co. plans to build a business building at 1336 N. Hobart, in a semi-commercial zone, with dimensions of 28 by 52 feet. It will have concrete foundation with a flat roof, and suspended furnace heating. Panhandle Engineers and contractors are the building contractors.

A second building permit has been issued to F. W. Woolworth Co. for a 75 by 140 foot building to be located at the corner at Kingsmill and Chrysler. The building will have exterior mats of brick, a concrete foundation, 11-inch plaster walls, and a flat roof with steel joists. J&K Construction Co. are the contractors.

Two Xavier Players Signed

OTTAWA — UP — Don St. John and Francis Sweeney of Xavier University of Cincinnati have signed professional football contracts for 1956 with the Ottawa Rough Riders of Canada's Big Four Union. Rough Riders Coach Frank Clair recommended the players after seeing both in action for Xavier last fall.

STANDING UP TO LIFE—Seventeen-year-old Sheila Price had to make a decision. Due to abnormally formed hip sockets from birth, an operation to immobilize her hip sockets was necessary. For the rest of her life she would remain either in a sitting or standing position but not both. Sheila chose to stand. Scores of friends in Berne, Ind., are waiting to learn if the operation is a success. They raised her $300 medical expenses in a whirlwind two-week campaign, selling candy and washing cars. Above, in St. Vincent's Hospital, she holds a gift from her high school chums.

Stewart, Stevenson Firm Expands

Stewart & Stevenson Services, the nation's largest distributor of diesel engines, has been awarded additional sales and service territory in Texas by the Detroit Diesel Engine Division of General Motors, Joe Manning, Stewart & Stevenson vice-president and general manager, announced.

R. E. Hunter, general sales manager of Detroit Diesel Engine Division of General Motors, notified the Stewart & Stevenson organization that the new territory would include the balance of the Panhandle Area of Texas and Eastern New Mexico. Stewart & Stevenson Services now services all of Texas except the El Paso area as the GM Detroit Diesel Engine distributor in Texas.

"We are very proud to announce this extension in our sales and service territory," Manning said. "We will bring the same high quality service facilities to this new area that has enabled our organization to attain its position as the nation's largest distributor of diesel engines," he added.

A new sales and service office is to be opened soon in Amarillo, which will function as a part of the Stewart & Stevenson Lubbock Branch operations, Manning said. In addition to the main plant at Houston, Stewart & Stevenson has other Texas branches and offices at Corpus Christi, Dallas, San Juan, Odessa, San Antonio, Pecos, Tyler and Longview.

Stewart & Stevenson Services was originally named a franchised General Motors Diesel Engine distributor in 1938. Since that time, the organization has grown steadily from only three men in the En-

WHAT'S your pleasure when it comes to cars?

What gives you the greatest kick? Lovely new lines? Luscious new colors? Lively new handling? A ride that's soft and steel-steady?

Those things, good friend, are here in plenty—but there's something else that tops them all, and its name is action.

You simply can't imagine how much pure, unadulterated action has been packed into Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

There's no way to tell you how it feels to press down an inch or so on the gas pedal of a '56 Buick and get greeted by a gas-saving response that's quick as a wink and twice as sassy.

You can't possibly picture how much smoother and safer and downright spectacular a car's take-off can be—until you actually switch Dynaflo's pitch for full-power performance like never was in earth-bound travel.

Nor—in advance—can you sense the soaring sweep and unstinting obedience of this big new 322-cubic-inch Buick V8 engine. At a legal 50 m.p.h. it literally loafs along at only 10% of its full power—barely ever breathing hard, and so saving gas, staying young, lasting longer.

It's a continuous thrill—that's for certain—mile on mile, in traffic and out, at sea level or climbing toward the clouds.

So—how about giving this a try?

How about running the gamut of Buick excitements at the wheel of a '56 Buick SPECIAL, CENTURY, SUPER or ROADMASTER?

And how about the ultimate thrill—when you hear what your present car is worth in trade?

Want to make it here—and now?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Grasshoppers May Strike Texas Farms

COLLEGE STATION — Farmers should be alert to the possibility of severe grasshopper infestations this spring and summer and be ready if necessary, to take the proper control measures in time to stop heavy crop damage, says Freeman M. Fuller, Jr., Extension Entomologist, Texas A&M College.

USDA reports indicate that farmers will need to be on the lookout for hoppers in the Panhandle and southward along the caprock and from the Red River into deep central Texas.

If conditions are favorable, young, wingless grasshoppers will begin hatching during this month, and during May and possibly June. Applications of insecticides should begin as soon as possible after hatching, and if the insects are numerous, several applications may be necessary. In applying insecticides, farmers should look for hatching grounds on roadsides, field margins, ditch banks and unused land bordering croplands. Treatment of these areas will prevent hoppers from coming into the fields where such operations as plowing and disking may already have cut down the numbers of hatchable eggs.

In the use of any insecticide the instructions of the manufacturer should be carefully followed to avoid harmful residues on crops. County Agents are a good source of information about specific measures to be used in any particular region or situation.

A number of insecticides now available are effective in grasshopper control. Aldrin, dieldrin, heptachlor, and toxaphene are among those listed.

Students At White Deer Take Wins

WHITE DEER — Marilyn Kotara, freshman student at White Deer High School, was chosen Amarillo District F.F.A. Sweetheart in a district meeting recently.

Marilyn was chosen over 12 contestants in the meeting, which was held at Boys' Ranch recently.

On May 12, Marilyn will compete with other district winners at the Area F.F.A. Convention in Lubbock. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Kotara of White Deer. The poultry judging team from White Deer High School is also a winner.

The team, composed of Travis Cook, Richard Gordzelik, and Orville Phillips, placed first in district competition in a contest at Canyon recently.

GRAY COUNTY Soil Conservation District News

Soil Conservation Districts, as local units of government managed by farmers and ranchers themselves, are a highly effective device through which the people and their government can team up to get the conservation job done, without the Federal Government becoming the dominating member of the team.

The major responsibility for carrying out a sound, vigorous program of soil and water conservation rests with the people who own and operate the land. A nationwide program however urgent is need, cannot have force in our democracy unless it is accepted as the individual responsibility of the people.

The Soil Conservation Service's primary function in conservation operations is to provide technical assistance to farmers and ranchers through Soil Conservation Districts. The effectiveness of our work depends directly on our working relationships with the Districts and their leaders.

Teamwork is essential if our efforts are to be most effective.

June To December, '55, Most Rapid Hog Price Drop

By GAYLORD P. GODWIN
WASHINGTON, April 28—UP—The most rapid drop in hog prices ever recorded in the United States for any six-month period occurred from June to December last year.

The average price of good butcher hogs at Chicago during June was $19.59. In December it had dropped to $10.73, a difference of about $9.

have taken 1.8 per cent of the consumer's dollar in October, 1954, and two per cent in October, 1955.

Weekly Grain

FORT WORTH —UP—USDA—Weekly grain:

With practically no demand, there was little trading at South-west cash grain markets this week.

Prices recorded by the Agricultural Marketing Service showed a mixed trend, comparing Friday's close with a week ago.

Wheat dropped 7/8¢ a bushel as most interests were letting stocks run down while awaiting new crop harvesting to begin in about 30 days. No. 1 hard wheat was quoted Friday at $2.49 to $2.57 per bu., the lowest since March 19.

Oats slipped 1/8¢ a bu. to bring 86 1/2¢ to 88 1/2¢. The lower trend reflected the approach of the new oat crop.

No. 2 white corn declined 1/4¢ a bushel. It closed at $1.93 to $1.95. No. 2 yellow corn drifted 1/8¢ to 1/4¢ lower. It closed at $1.85 to $1.86 1/2.

Milo reversed this downward trend, gaining 3¢ per 100 lbs. under improved demand for light offerings. No. 2 offerings closed Friday at $2.40 to $2.45, the highest since last June.

Barley picked up a penny, following the upward price swing in northern markets. It was quoted at $1.39 to $1.41.

All these price changes are based on wholesale carlots, Texas common freight rate points.

In Oklahoma, wheat markets were weaker. No. 1 hard wheat brought $2.01 at Guymon, $2.06 at Blackwell, $2.07 at Enid and Oklahoma City and $2.09 at Bison.

Milo held steady in Oklahoma. It closed Friday at $1.80 at Hobart, $1.84 at Guymon, $2 at Enid and $2.10 per 100 lbs. at Oklahoma City.

The Agriculture Department has worked out some examples of margins and costs for marketing hogs from farm to retail.

Two Hogs as Examples

Among the examples in the progress of two hogs from an Indiana farm, a heavy corn-hog producing area, to retail in New York, a heavy consuming area, for October, 1954, and October, 1955.

This example assumes that a farmer in Indiana shipped his butcher hogs, averaging 230 pounds at the farm, by truck to a terminal public market at Indianapolis. Each hog would have lost about three pounds as "shrink" in transit. The hogs were slaughtered.

The 124 pounds of fresh and cured wholesale cuts of pork, excluding lard and inedible products, derived from each hog were sold to a retail food chain store in New York, where 120 pounds of retail cuts were sold to customers.

After allowing for the inedible byproducts, not sold at retail, and for lard, consumers in New York city would have spent $56.36 for the 120 pounds of retail pork cuts in October, 1954, or an average of 47 cents a pound. One year later they would have bought the same pork cuts for $52.55, or for an average price of 43.8 cents a pound.

Marketing Costs Increase

The department study showed that total marketing costs, expressed in cents per retail pound of pork, increased from October, 1954, to October, 1955, from 17.6 cents to 20.7 cents. The return to the producer, however, declined during the same period from 29.4 cents a pound to 23.1 cents.

Percentage-wise, the producer would have received 62.4 per cent of the consumer's pork dollar in October, 1954, and 52.7 per cent a year later. The packer-wholesaler would have received 21.6 per cent of the consumer's dollar in October, 1954, and 25 per cent in October, 1955. The retailer's margin rose from 14.2 per cent to 20.3 per cent, and expenses of selling and shipping the live hog would

Ag Department In Dairy Farm Boost

WASHINGTON—UP—The Agriculture Department has moved to give dairy farmers a multi-million dollar bonus by cancelling seasonal reductions in fluid milk prices in 37 major marketing areas.

The action Friday restored cuts already in effect in many areas and cancelled other reductions scheduled for May 1. It will boost dairy farmers income by pegging prices at up to 50 cents per 100 pounds above scheduled summer rates.

Officials said they did not know what impact the action would have on retail prices. However, similar recent orders resulted in cancellation of scheduled retail price cuts ranging from 1 to 1.5 cents a quart.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE SEVENTH SUPREME JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF TEXAS

state and federal courts until I became District Judge in 1927. When I went on the bench at the age of thirty-two I was the youngest district judge in Texas. For nineteen years now I have served the people of my district in this capacity. During this time I have tried hundreds of cases of every type and character, and take justifiable pride in saying that my record of service is not excelled by any district judge in the state.

Now, at fifty-one years of age, after nineteen years service on the district bench trying cases in a completely objective manner I know myself to be qualified to write law without favor or prejudice. I feel too that I am justified in asking the people of this district for a promotion to the next highest office in the judiciary of this state.

In 1932 I married Louise Barntanier, a Spur High School Home Economics teacher from Falls County, Texas, and we have three sons. Our oldest son, Brooks, is a senior in Baylor University, and a pre-medical student. Our second son, George, is a freshman in Texas University, taking pre-law. Our other son Jerry, is a sophomore in high school.

The only promise I have ever made or shall ever make to any lawyer or litigant is that if I am elected I'll write the law as I see it, without favor or prejudice to anyone. I pledge to all the people that my public and private life will always be of the quality befitting the office I seek.

Your help in any manner will be deeply appreciated.

Respectfully Yours,

MEET THE NEW BOSS in the Performance Department!

Come In and Drive the Surprise Car of the Year!

The word's getting around fast—the big handsome husky you see here is the big surprise that caught the industry a year or so off balance!

But it didn't come as any surprise to Pontiac engineers that they had the year's performance sensation.

They knew all along that it would be, because they started from scratch and designed the most modern high-compression, high-torque V-8 in America!

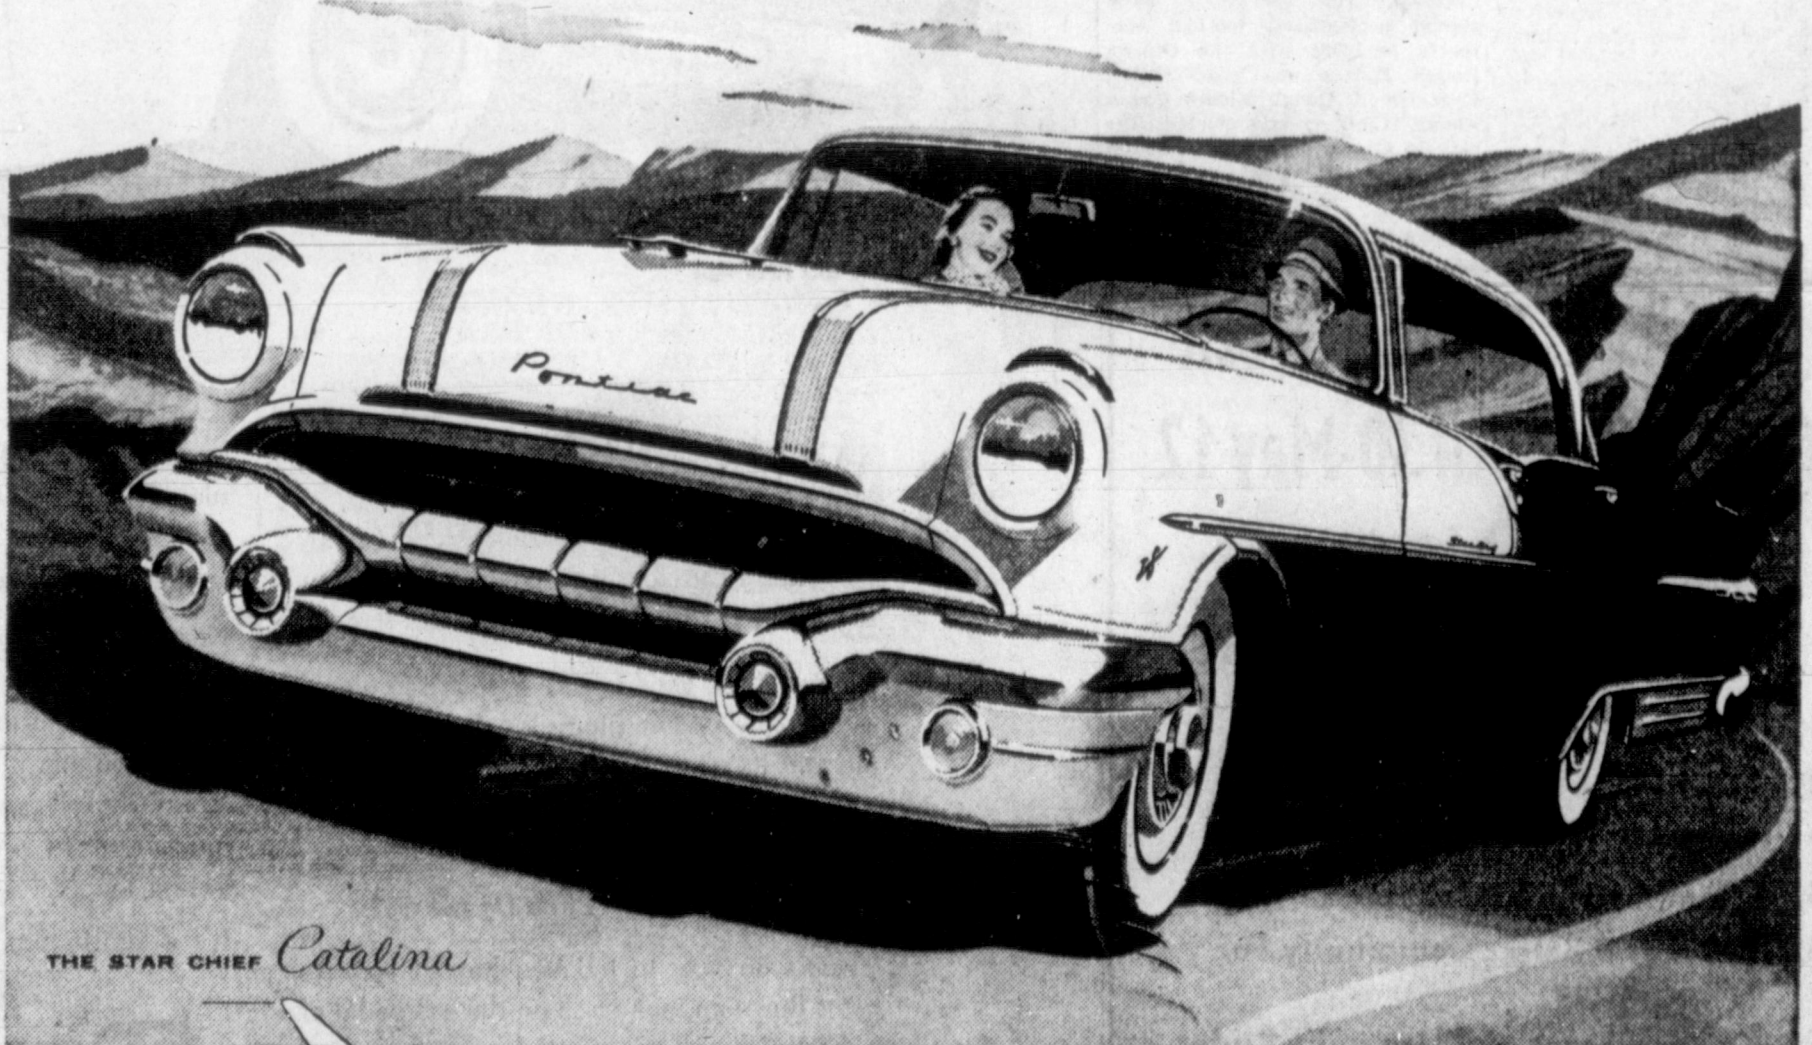

Then they tailored an all-new Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic* especially for Pontiac's high-stepping Strato-Streak power plant—and for nothing else! The blazing action of 227 horses is yours in a flash with the positive, no-lag action of gears—plus an amazing liquid coupling for a smooth, uninterrupted flow of power to the wheels.

Bring yourself up to date—come in and pilot the surprise car of the year—you'll soon see what the talk's all about! And don't be afraid to ask about price, for that's another pleasant surprise—the one that will let you boss the best on the road for a great deal less than you probably think!

*An extra-cost option.

The car says 60 and the price won't stop you!

Harvesters Edge Plainsmen, 7-6, In Extra Inning Game

Cecil Reynolds Picks Up Fifth Victory Of Season

By TOMMIE ELLIS
Pampa News Sports Editor

Pampa's fighting Harvesters came from behind again Saturday to edge out the Monterey Plainsmen, 7-6, in an extra inning. The Plainsmen commanded the ballgame throughout the first six frames as they held a 6-2 lead with only three outs to go.

In a "do or die effort," the Harvesters pushed four runs across in the seventh frame to tie up the game at 6-6 and send the game into one extra frame.

Five of the Harvesters first six runs were as a result of bases on balls. Rob Hill walked in two runs in the third with five straight passes. The next three runs were put on base via base on balls but with the bases loaded Buddy Sharp doubled in a pair and John Lee sacrificed to bring in James Evans for the tying run.

In the eighth, Jerry Blair popped out to second, but Mike Shipman singled, Fred Parsons hit a grounder to Herr, who tagged Shipman for the second out. Preston Davis flew out to Bill Hogan to end the Plainsmen's half of eighth.

The first man up for the Harvesters, Bill Hogan, doubled off the fence and Gary Herr struck out. Buddy Sharp hit a line drive to the second baseman, Preston Davis, who let the ball get through his legs. David Marlar, who was running for Hogan, came in with the winning run.

Don's Hill gave up only three hits but allowed 10 Harvesters to take first on balls for six runs. Fred Parsons gave up the other hit but allowed one run to score. He took the loss for the Plainsmen.

Cecil Reynolds, Harvester fast-baller, picked up his fifth win against one loss. He defeated Tom S. Lubbock and Berger in two games each and Monterey Saturday. Otis White, Harvester starter, allowed four runs on four hits in 2-3 of an inning. Neither starting pitcher was credited with the game.

The Harvesters now boast an 8-2 district record.

Harvesters Start Grid Work Monday

Spring grid workouts are scheduled to get underway Monday afternoon with approximately 80 boys reporting.

Coach Jack Lockett will be assisted by Dwayne Lyon, Weldon Trice, Bob Fields and the newest addition to the Harvester coaching staff, Kay Keller.

All coaches will work with the Harvesters during the spring grid training although Trice and Fields are the regular Shocker coaches.

Nine lettermen are returning this season. Two halfbacks, Bobby Dehls and Dicky Mauldin; two tackles, Don Jones and Bill Kirbie; two centers, Jerry Bonsal and Jim Hopkins; one fullback, Jesse Ring; one guard, Gene Devers and one quarterback, Gary Dearen will be the only experienced boys on the squad.

The prospects look good according to one of the coaches but the "boys will have to work if they want to win very many games," he said.

All Pampa teams will run from the "Bud Wilkinson" formation again this year and should be better acquainted with it in their second year.

The new formation was introduced in the Pampa schools last year by head coach Jack Lockett, who studied under the master. His newest assistant, Kay Keller, was also a student under the Sooner mentor.

Dicky Mauldin To Enter State Meet

LUBBOCK, April 28—Dicky Mauldin, Harvester trackster, took fourth place in the 220-yard dash in the Red Raider Relays here today. He is the only Pampa boy who will be entered in the Athletic division of the 46th annual Texas Interscholastic League meet which opens Thursday in Austin.

Some 1,700 high school students are scheduled to compete for state laurels in literary and athletic events.

The competition opens with registration at 1:30 p.m. Thursday and closes Saturday night.

More than 400 schools were represented at last year's meet, and league officials predicted an equal number or more will participate this year.

During the three-day tourney on the University of Texas campus, the students—winners of regional meets—will vie for honors in golf, tennis, debate, slide rule, type-writing, shorthand, number sense, one-act plays and track and field events.

In addition to the meet about 500 additional students will participate in the 29th annual session of the Interscholastic League press conference, running for two days and starting Friday.

The league's annual breakfast and state meeting of delegates is set for Saturday morning. Voting on amendments to the league's constitution and rules will be announced at the gathering.

A league spokesman said several amendments to the rules will be studied. A graduate rule amendment, if passed, will allow students to complete six semesters of eligibility in a three-year high school or eight semesters of eligibility in a four-year school, even though the student may have enough credits for a diploma.

The present rule bans students from participating in league-sponsored activities once they earn sufficient credits to graduate, even though the student may not have been in high school the full term of semesters.

The following boys are assigned to the Tom Rose Ford team managed by Bill Stephens and will work out at Lions Club Park Tuesday 5:30: Robert Hammerschmidt, Gary Bolick, Bobby McCain, Danny Mahaney, Michael Mahaney, Kevin Romines, Larry Johnson, Donald Kelly, Jeffrey Lynnins, Jon Pitts, Freddy Howard, Roy Lynn, James McPherson, Garry Hill, John Hubbard, Richard Mackie, Ronald Woodward, Roy Harper, Ricky Frasier, Harold Fuller, George Henderson, John Brown, Jimmie Cowan, Garry Johnson, Bobby L. Whitley, James Senter, Billy Ray Coffee, Maurid Cross, Jerry Roberts, Lyle Payne, Larry Eckroat, Terry Frasier, Danny Ray Cowan, Trent Olson, Dwayne Sanders, Larry Steele and Mike Stillwell, Walter Ross, Chuck Luther, Gary Laramore, Charles Harper, Chuck Cauthorn, Eddie Dean, J. D. Hinzinger, Max Taylor, Butch Reeves.

Following boys are assigned to the Cabot team managed by R. L. "Gabby" Chase and will begin workouts at Baker school Tuesday at 5:30 p.m.: Kenneth Williams, Roy Davis, Dickie Powell, Larry Rogers, Larry Sturdivant, Rickie Crews, Lee Mitchell, Doug Fricke, Jack Strickland, Jack Kelly, Donnie Shipp, Gene Bates, Johnny Winboms, Roy Webb, Ira D. Bettis, Gordon Dodd, Eugene McConnell, Jerry Wright, Loyd Hamilton, Doug Pickle, Leland Finney, Don Halley, Billy Maderia, Larry Veal, James Strickland, Jerry Bates, Trenton Burns, Thomas Rice, Ben Woodington, Raymond Gee, Danny Robbins, Ronad Rice, Patrick Fraxzell, James Burke, Billy Tucker, Danny Hall, Ronald Deigen, Bobby Grant and Don Bennett.

Littler Leads Champs

By HAL WOOD
LAS VEGAS, Nev., April 28—UP—Gene Littler clipped far for the third consecutive round in the Tournament of Champions Saturday and only a fast-closing performance by Dr. Gary Middlecoff kept the $38,500 event from being a one-man show for the second straight year.

Littler, who won this tournament by 13 strokes last year, fired a three-under-par 69 Saturday for a 54-hole total of 210. Middlecoff had a 68 and a 215 score—the biggest advantage that the 25-year-old San Diego man has had.

Gunning for his second straight title in the most select tournament in the country—where a man has to be a champion to qualify—Littler had two birdies on the front side and two more on the back. His lone bogey came on the seventh hole—the third straight bogey he has had there.

"Have to Back Up" Littler had started the day with a four stroke lead over Gardner Dickinson, Lloyd Mangrum, Shelley Mayfield and Ted Kroll. But these four all fell by the wayside—leaving only Middlecoff in any kind of a threatening position.

And as Middlecoff said after his second straight 68: "Littler is going to have to back up faster than that for me to catch him."

The golfing dentist got behind by shooting a 79 the first day.

In third place, seven strokes back of the leader, came young Gardner Dickinson of Panama City Beach, Fla., with a 72 and a 217 total.

There was a four-way tie at 218 between Frank Stranahan, Toledo, Ohio (72 Saturday); Doug Ford, (73) and Kroll (73).

Mangrum had a 74 for a 219 total.

Winger Max 89 Dick Mayer came in with a 74 for a 220 total; and at 221 were Bo Winger, Oklahoma City, who had a good 69; Arnold Palmer, Latrobe, Pa., 71; and Al Balding, Toronto, Can., 75.

The 222 bracket included Dow Finsterwald (72); Bedford Heights, Ohio, and veteran Henry Ransom, St. Andrew, Ill., (75).

Mike Fetick came in with a 77 for a 223 total.

Don Fairfield, Casey, Ill., had a 72 for a 224; and Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N.Y., had a 73 for a 225. Julius Boros, Mid Pines, N.C., had 74 for 226; Chandler Harper, Portsmouth, Va., had a 79 for 231.

Bolt was so disgusted with his game that he smashed two clubs, kicked at his golf ball when it refused to go into the hole and then gave the wrong score to the scorekeeper on the ninth hole when he four putted the green.

Ben Hogan Not Entered In Colonial Tour

FORT WORTH, April 28—UP—For the first time in the event's 10-year history, Bantam Ben Hogan won't go to the post as the favorite when the $25,000 Colonial National Invitation golf tournament begins next Thursday.

Twenty-eight sports writers, radio and television sportscasters have awarded that pre-tourney distinction to Cary Middlecoff, the Memphis dentist who plays out of Dallas and who is leading the 1956 money winnings to date.

Asked to rate their choices in 1-3 order, the "experts" gave Middlecoff an 8 to 5 edge over Hogan, who has won this event over his home course four times.

Ten voters picked Middlecoff to win, 12 named him as runner-up and three chose him for third. Under a 3-2-1 point system, that gave him 57 points.

Reapers Take Third In District Meet

Pampa's youngest tracksters, the Reapers, captured third place honors in the district meet Saturday with a total of 29 13-18 points.

The Reapers were led by two Amarillo schools. Austin garnered 36 2-9 points for first place honors while Horace Mann totaled 30 1-9 points for second place. Berger placed fourth with 22 1/2 points.

Paul Brown led the Reapers as he picked up 10 1-9 points by taking first place in the 120-yard high hurdles, first in the shot put and tied with eight boys for fourth place in the high jump.

Ronnie Eckroat was second high point getter for the thin clads as he placed first in the pole vault and third in the 440-yard dash for seven points.

Gary Heiskell counted for 4 1-9 points with a third in the shot put and fourth in the 220-yard dash and the 440-yard dash.

Demy Carmen placed third in the 50-yard dash and third in the 880-yard run or four points. Dwayne Glover was second in the high jump and fourth in the shot put. Gary Matlock was fourth in the discus.

Oilers Edge Colts 6-5 In 11 Innings

Take Two Of Three From Top Rated San Angelo

By TOMMIE ELLIS
Pampa News Sports Editor
The Pampa Oilers outlasted the San Angelo Colts in an eleven-inning affair here Saturday night and took the sugar game of the current series 6-5.

The winning run came in the bottom of the 11th frame after two were out. Frank Kempa, leadoff man for the Oilers, doubled down the right field line and Lamar Cagle doubled him in off the right field fence.

Both teams were scoreless until the third inning when eight runs crossed. San Angelo pushed four over on two doubles, two errors and a single but the Oilers came back to tie it up on five singles and two sacrifices.

Grover Saitz's Oilers went ahead in the fourth as pitcher Red Dial doubled and Frank Kempa singled him in. The Colts retaliated in the fifth as they picked up three hits and one run.

The game remained tied at 5-5 as both pitchers turned in brilliant performances. Dial gave up only three hits in the final five frames to hold San Angelo scoreless.

But Bagwell, the loser, gave up five hits the rest of the way but the Oilers were unable to score until the 11th frame although they threatened in the tenth with a pair of singles.

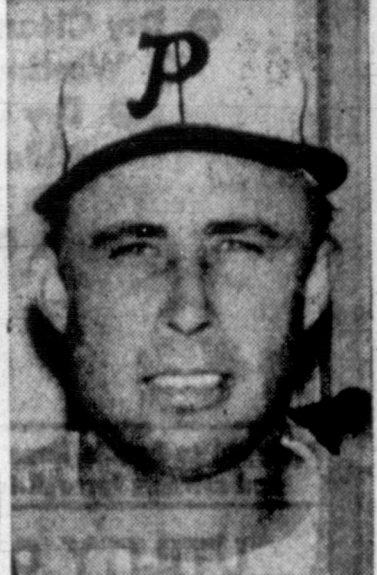

Two were out in the 11th as Frank Kempa stepped into the batter's box. He doubled down the rightfield line and Lamar Cagle followed with a double that forced Kempa in with the game ending run.

The Oilers took two of the three games with the Colts.

Pampa will move to Midland Sunday where they will play a night game.

Dodgers Score 4 In 7th To Trim Pirates, 5-2

BROOKLYN, N.Y., April 28—UP—The Brooklyn Dodgers scored four runs in the seventh inning Saturday to come from behind and beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-2, behind the nine-hit pitching of big Don Newcombe.

It was Brooklyn's fifth straight triumph and marked the fifth consecutive complete game by a Dodger hurler; the first time the Brooklyn staff has turned the trick since September of 1951.

Trailing 2-1, going into the seventh, Junior Gilliam slammed Dick Hall's first pitch for his third home run of the season to tie the score.

Jackie Robinson followed with a walk and advanced to second on Duke Snider's sacrifice. Hall worked a pickoff play with second baseman Johnny O'Brien and had Robinson caught off by about 10 feet. But in the rundown that ensued, Robinson succeeded in getting back to second and that was the break the Dodgers needed.

After Roy Campanella filed out and Gil Hodges was intentionally passed, Carl Furillo slammed a two-run double off the right field screen. Charley Neal knocked in the final run of the inning with a single through the box.

Sime Cracks Oldest Record In Drake Relays Saturday

By CHUCK KROUSE
DES MOINES, Iowa, April 28—UP—Dave Sime of Duke cracked the oldest record in annual competition at the Drake Relays Saturday with a sensational 9.4 seconds in the 100-yard dash on a wet track.

The 39-degree temperature and soggy footing combined to slow an outstanding field of 800 athletes from 75 colleges and universities in the 47th annual track classic.

But Sime, flashy Duke sophomore, blitzed across the finish line two steps ahead of Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian to erase a record of 9.8 first set in 1926 and tied twice since then, once by Jesse Owens in 1935.

First Defeat In 31 Tries It was Morrow's first defeat in the 100-yard dash in 31 starts.

Joe Savoldi of Michigan State, running into the stiffest downpour of the afternoon, failed by 1-10th of a second to equal the Drake record of 14-1 second in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Most of the favorites in relays competition came through as expected, but no record was seriously jeopardized.

Phil Coleman of the Chicago Track Club won the invitational mile run in 4:19.

Abilene Christian's crack college relay team anchored by Morrow won both the 440-yard and year-old Cuban right-hander, struck out 12 batters, drove in two runs and collected four hits Saturday to lead the Washington Senators to a 5-3 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Pascual, who scored his second victory of the year with a nine-hitter, has struck out 30 men in three starts. He fanned nine Yankees in six innings on opening day and then struck out nine more in beating Baltimore last Sunday.

Ashburn Homers NEW YORK, April 28—UP—Richie Ashburn, known as strictly a "singles hitter," exploded two home runs Saturday to help the Philadelphia Phillies snap a four-game losing streak against the New York Giants, 6-2, and Robin Roberts to gain his third straight victory.

The "goal" in the Giants' defeat was third baseman Hank Thompson, who committed two ninth-inning errors after being put into the game for defensive purposes in place of Foster Castleman in the eighth. Southpaw Johnny Antonelli, trying for his first major league victory over Roberts in nine meetings, was the victim of four errors which helped the Phillies to five unearned runs.

With the score tied at 3-2 and one out in the ninth, the Phillies scored four times with the help of Thompson's errors, a walk, Stan Lopata's single and Ashburn's second homer of the game.

Sox Take Yanks BOSTON, April 28—UP—Mickey Vernon belted a two-run homer in the seventh inning Saturday to rally the Boston Red Sox to a 6-4 victory over the Yankees in a game played under protest because of an official decision on a Mickey Mantle hit.

Trailing 3-0 going into the home half of the seventh, Billy Goodman hit a lead-off single, was sacrificed to second and scored ahead of Vernon's blast into the right field bullpen. It was Vernon's second homer of the year and came off starter and losing pitcher Bob Turley.

In the top of the eighth Jerry Coleman drew a lead-off walk and went to second on an infield out. Then Mantle hit one of relief pitcher Dave Blazer's throws into distant center field, scoring Coleman.

Second base umpire Eddie Rommel ruled the ball bounced off the wall and Mantle was held to a triple. That led to a general charge off the Yankee bench led by Manager Casey Stengel who was ejected from the game after a violent tirade against Rommel. Yogi Berra filed out to end the threat.

Sub Stars CINCINNATI, April 28—UP—George Crowe, booted roundly for weak batting and poor fielding Friday night when he started sabbings at first base for Ted Kluszewski, was cheered loudly Saturday when he helped the Cincinnati Redlegs beat the Chicago Cubs, 9-1.

Crowe drove in five runs with two homers and also hit a triple. He hit a three-run homer in the first inning and a two-run wallop in the eighth.

Wally Pitt hit a solo homer for the Redlegs right after Crowe's first one while Frankie Robinson homered for two runs in the second inning. Monte Irvin kept Brook Lawrence from a shout by hitting a home run in the second inning.

Fast Pace; 77 Games?

CHICAGO, April 28—UP—At the rate he's going, Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox will be the first 77-game winner in major league history.

The 155-pound southpaw already has won three games and the White Sox have played a total of only six.

Reason: Early rainouts which often produce odd records at this stage of the season.

Pampa Harvesters Clip Borger, 7-4, In Second District Game

By TOMMIE ELLIS
Pampa News Sports Editor

The Pampa Harvesters took a commanding 4-0, lead in the third inning and went on to defeat the Borger Bulldogs, 7-4, Friday in the second district meeting of the two clubs.

The Harvesters scored one run in the first, two in the second and another in the third to take the early lead.

Cecil Reynolds pitched perfect ball until the fourth inning when he gave up his first hit. The Bulldogs failed to score, however, until the sixth frame when they pushed across a single run on one hit, a walk and an error.

The leadoff man, Langen, hit a line drive to third baseman Buddy Sharp, he was unable to get the ball to Jerald Clark in time. Reynolds walked Hill for the third time of the day and Max Miller singled to drive in the run.

Bill Hogan singled and Cecil Reynolds tripled to drive in the single run in the first inning. The second inning found John Lee walking, Jerald Clark sacrificing and James Evens singing and Billy Borger, who hit three for three, driving in the second run of the day. Brown later came in to score after Gary Herr and Buddy Sharp singled.

Pampa's best frame came in the sixth when four hits, one walk and an error—accounted for three more runs.

Borger's Bulldogs accounted for three of their four runs in the seventh. Cecil Reynolds, slightly wild, gave up two walks and two hits for three runs. Floyd, batting for Hughes, and Langen walked. Don Locke led off with a single but Bob Cherry popped out to Robert Langford. Ray Dyke singled to drive in two runs and Buddy Hill hit a long fly to centerfield to push in the third and final run.

The final out came when Roy Temple drove a long fly to Jim Parrish in left field.

Mustangs Hopeful Of Winning Third S'west Golf Title

By UNITED PRESS

Defending champion Southern Methodist has all but wrapped up its third Southwest Conference golf team title in four years.

Texas A&M still has an outside chance to nose in ahead of the Mustangs and Texas has a mathematical chance for a tie—but the chances are very slim.

SMU whipped Baylor 5-1 Friday for a season point total of 25½ to 4½, while Texas defeated Texas Christian 4½ to 1½ to put the Longhorns at 19½ to 10½.

Texas A&M, which plays Rice at College Station today and Texas next Tuesday at Austin, would have to just about sweep both matches without loss of a game while SMU was being blanked by Rice in its season finale at Houston Monday.

Gulf Coast Fishing Reported Excellent

Gulf Coast anglers who may have been getting an idea there was a shortage of fish especially trout — developing just haven't been looking in the right places.

For instance:

Galveston — Scouts report gaff-top cats biting and trout in East and West bays, Wind calmed. Surf sandy. Live shrimp best but not too, plentiful.

Freeport — Reds, trout, flounder and gafftop, latter two plentiful around old river and canal intersection. Most camps have live bait. Reds, trout in Christmas bay, Tarpon in New River.

Matagorda — Big trout in Colorado River, near mouth. Bays clearing and nearly ready.

Turtle Bay — Big flounders at Shell Beach.

Port Aransas — Gulf calm but muddy. Fishing poor last few days but scout Bill Ellis is looking forward to more favorable conditions weekend. Bait available.

Rockport — Bay good. Trout on flats. Bait plentiful.

Lake Houston — Water good. Bass deep, hitting bombers. Crappie taking minnows in shallows.

Fair weather is expected to hold over the weekend.

Forecaster Ted Swaim at the Houston weather bureau says the weather will be partly cloudy and with little change in temperatures — in short, warm.

Winds will be from the southeast and moderate — 15 to 18 miles-per-hour tomorrow (Saturday) and Sunday.

No rain is indicated over the weekend.

Tides are favorable — with the highs tomorrow (Saturday) at 7:41 a.m. and 3:39 p.m. and one low at 1:52 p.m.

There'll be only one high and one low Sunday — the low at 12:09 a.m. and the high at 8:36 a.m.

Bass fishermen can really show their skill — and luck — next month in the state's first bass tournament to be held at Lake Whitney May 3rd through the 6th.

The tournament promises to be just about the biggest ever in Texas' history. And anybody's welcome. A field of between 125 and 225 teams — of two men each—is expected to compete.

BEAUTIES—If this big bass had to be caught, it's nice being landed by such a pretty young miss, casting in Lake Eloise, Cypress Gardens, Fla. The fish didn't even put up a fight.

Transplanted Game Totals In Thousands

AUSTIN, April 28 — White-tailed deer have been transplanted in Texas with greater success than other species, reports the Director of Wildlife Restoration of the Game and Fish Commission.

In compiling restocking statistics for the last fifteen years, he said roughly fifteen thousand white-tailed deer have been trapped and released with "generally successful results."

The Director added that the "only complete failures" of white-tailed deer had been in a comparatively small part of the state "where public thinking did not favor game conservation." But under the impact of educational programs, he explained, that "even this section is slowly being stocked with whitetails and practically all good white-tailed deer range in Texas is now occupied."

During the fifteen year period, 6,952 wild turkeys, 3,311 antelope and 1,075 mule or black-tailed deer were transplanted to new range.

"Mule deer transplanting," said the Director, "was successful to a far lesser degree and many plants were complete failures. It was found that mule deer, which are found mainly West of the Pecos, were more difficult to establish in new areas than whitetails, had a greater tendency to wander from the selected restoration area and showed a tendency to return to the trap site if liberated within a one hundred mile radius of their home range."

PANHANDLE OUTDOORS

Dog Restraint Urged Now

H. D. Dodgen, Executive Secretary of the Texas Game Department, has a timely word in regard to wildlife.

"Pet owners are urged to restrain their dogs, especially in wildlife areas, for the next few months while deer does are bearing their young and while nesting birds need protection."

He said the Commission has been receiving "many complaints" about dogs running deer, many of them heavy with fawn, particularly in the wooded areas of the state.

The executive pointed out that "it is natural for most dogs to want to roam around at all times of the year, but they are most harmful in the spring and summer procreation periods." He suggested that canines "be kept either in yards or buildings of be tied up."

Texas law provides no particular law for dog's depredations but some states have laws calling for both fines and jail terms for permitting pooches to prowl around and prey on wild game.

Night Hunts Yield Fines

The overhead for illegal night hunting in Texas continues to climb as Justices of the Peace levy substantial fines for assorted nocturnal raids on wildlife.

The Director of law enforcement for the Game and Fish Commission said that the monthly arrest report is the best evidence of the courts' stern attitude.

Eleven persons charged with night hunting of deer paid fines of $100.00 or more, plus costs.

According to the monthly arrest report, fishing violations involved more than half of the 266 individual prosecutions. One hundred and six persons were fined for not having proper license. A Fort Worth man paid a $10 fine and costs for permitting another person to use his license. The same levy was made against the fisherman, himself.

A Lubbock man was fined a total of $70.00 plus costs on three counts of using a hoop net using an illegal trotline and not having a license.

Have you ever fished next to or near someone else, usually a stranger, and watch him haul in a large one every few minutes and you not even get as much as a nibble? This is a common experience with fishermen. Especially in catfishing this is true.

Usually the type or kind of bait employed is the main reason for fish not biting.

One of the best, if not the best, catfish bait used anywhere, that I know of, is the decayed or cured minnow type. The method used is usually drying out of a gallon or so of minnows out of reach of flies for a day or so, usually in the sun.

These minnows are then buried in a gallon jug and left in the ground for a few days, taken out and sprinkled with a small amount of various chemicals, usually oil of anise plus a few more ingredients. I once observed one angler and his wife catch a tubful of channel cat while I was using live minnows, shrimp and earthworms and not catching anything.

The fisherman was using the kind manufactured in Quannah, Texas, which is about the best available.

Noticed that Wick has a good supply of this bait on the counter.

Frank Addington of Pampa also has a special kind of bait that he prepared himself. I think, on the market. Mr. Addington stated that his bait will catch catfish practically anytime and anywhere. According to Jack Woodford, State Game Warden stationed at Miami, this bait really gets results.

Coastal Boat Safety Urged

C. W. Reid, Director of Coastal Fisheries of the Texas Game Department — Inland fishermen bringing their own boats for Gulf Coast angling trips should be wary of the many hazards, councils the Director.

He said, "tricky weather and unfamiliar waters plus faulty equipment and poor seamanship sometimes combine to endanger lives."

The director suggested that land lubbers using their own boats should check weather forecasts and get local advice about possible danger before going into coastal waters.

Batters Star For Yanks

NEW YORK — UP — Bill Skowron and Mickey Mantle, two muscular lads whose slugging prowess helped make the New York Yankees heavy favorites to retain the American League pennant this season, ranked 1-2 Friday in the circuit's batting race.

Skowron, the former Purdue halfback who has clinched the first base job with the Yankees, led with a .364 percentage on 13 hits in 28 times at bat. Mantle, the center fielder whose 12 hits in 26 at bats includes four homers, was second with a .462 mark.

The figures included all players with 20 or more times at bat through Wednesday's day games.

Clint Courtney of the Washington Senators was next with .455 and Yogi Berra of the Yankees was fourth with .417. Karl Olson of Washington rounded out the American League's top five with a .412 average.

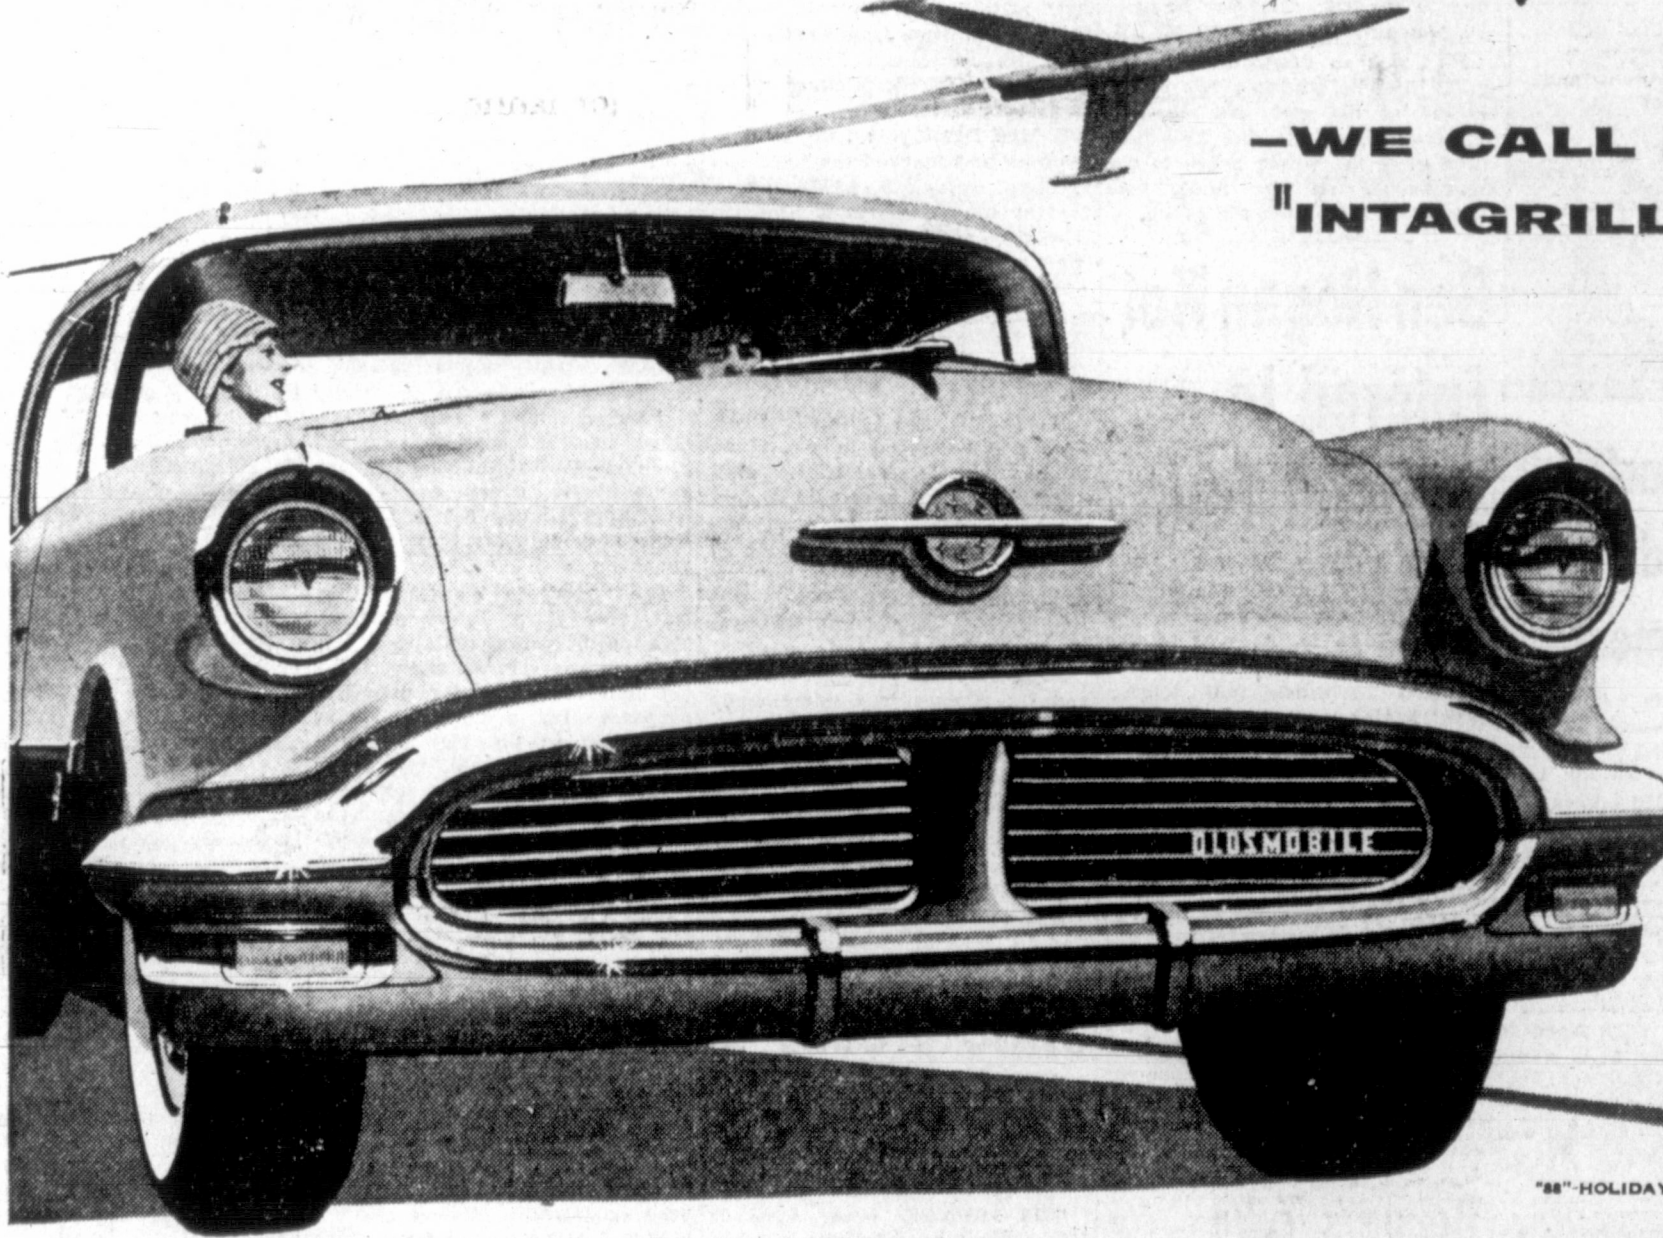

Ken Boyer, the St. Louis Cardinal infielder who ended the 1955 season with a .264 average, topped the National League with a .556 mark on 15 hits in 27 at bats. Boyer's teammate, catcher Bill Sarni, was runnerup with a .440 average on 11 hits in 25 at bats.

Bill Bruton of the Milwaukee Braves was third with a .429 average. Dale Long of the Pittsburgh Pirates was next with a .391 mark. Ray Jablonski of the Cincinnati Redlegs and Wally Moon of St. Louis were tied for fifth with .385 averages.

Richie Ashburn, Philadelphia Phillies outfielder who won the 1955 National League batting title, was 21st with a .269 mark. Al Kaline, young Detroit Tiger outfielder who won the American League crown last year, ranked 41st to underline one reason for that team's poor start.

Mantle and Berra led the majors in runs-batted-in with 18 each.

Pampa's professionals collected a total of 12 hits and picked 10 runs against the San Angelo Colts Friday night before the best crowd of the season but still were defeated as Art Bowland's charges pushed across 12 runs.

Pampa led the Colts 1-0 through the fifth inning after Jettin Joe Fortin homered in the second. The "walks"; three singles and a home run broke the game open as four Colt runs crossed in the sixth. The Oilers tied the game up at 4-4 in their half of the sixth but four more San Angelo runs crossed in the next inning.

Pampa picked up three singles, two walks and a sacrifice to score three runs in the sixth.

With a new game in the books, Whitley Diehl came in to relieve Marvin Schwein in fifth and got credit for the loss as he gave up two more runs in the seventh before a man was out. Buddy Padgett relieved Diehl in the seventh and allowed a pair of runs before he got out of the frame.

Padgett gave up two runs on a single, a triple and a homerun as two were out in his eighth. Three strikeouts accounted for the Oiler putouts in the frame as the Colts' righthander had them swinging.

Red Dial batted for Padgett in the eighth frame and Bill Hair relieved him in the ninth. Hair fave up two more runs which gave the Colts a final score of 12-10 over the Oilers.

Senators Fooling Experts; Still Up In A-League Race

By UNITED PRESS

As it turned out, those runs decided the ball game.

The White Sox remained in first place by outlasting the Athletics in the last four starts in the American League cellar again, were breezing along in fourth place Saturday by mixing a little nerve with a lot of youth.

Minnie Miñoso led the White Sox onslaught with a double and a single which drove in three runs. Teammate Walt Dropo homered. Big Don Larsen pitched a six-hitter and aided his own cause with a double and a single in leading the Yankees to a 5-2 decision over the Red Sox. In handling Boston its fifth consecutive setback, Larsen pitched his way out of three jams, including a bases-loaded, none-out situation in the first inning.

Bobby Avila's two-run homer with two out in the 10th inning off Frank Lary gave Cleveland a 4-3 victory over Detroit and stretched the Indians' winning streak to four straight games.

Half Dodger Hits Homers
Roger Craig pitched his second four-hitter against Pittsburgh in a week while leading Brooklyn to a 7-2 conquest. The Dodgers collected only six hits but three were homers by Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella and Gil Hodges.

A six-hit pitching effort by Alan Worthington and two-run homer by Daryl Spencer in the sixth inning paced the Giants to a 5-3 victory over the Phillies.

Cincinnati snapped a four-game losing streak by defeating Chicago 7-4, despite two homers by Walt Moryn which drove in four runs. Johnny Klippstein went the route for the Redjags and was furnished with the winning margin when Ed Bailey hit a three-run homer off Russ Meyer in the fifth.

Rain washed out the scheduled game between Milwaukee and St. Louis.

Instead of stopping at third, a Yost high-tailed it all the way to home and Tettelbach tore around to third, from where he scored on a sacrifice fly by Karl Olson.

Yanks To Improve Olympic Games Summer Showing
UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — U.S. — Tom Maloney, coach of the U.S. Military Academy gymnastic team and doubling as mentor for all Armed Services competitors in the national AAU championships, predicted Friday the United States will substantially improve its showing in this year's Olympic games.

The veteran coach, who piloted United States gymnasts to a seventh place finish in the 1952 Olympic games, said there is "better talent" among the 170 entrants in the AAU tournament which opens Friday at Pennsylvania State University. American Olympic competitors will be picked from the AAU tournament, which also included Canadian entrants.

Trojans Set Six New Marks In Dallas Invitational Meet

By ED FITE

DALLAS — UP— Seven new marks stood Saturday in the Dallas Invitational track and field meet after an onslaught by the University of Southern California.

The talent-laden Trojans set six of the new records in rolling to an easy victory in the quadrangular meet Friday night. USC, a favorite to win its eighth straight NCAA championship, tallied 80 1/2 points to 56 for the University of Texas, 29 1/2 for Texas A&M and 8 for Southern Methodist.

Most of the new records were in the field events, with only Bob Whilden of Texas, with a 20.4 clocking in the 220-yard dash, and Max Truex, USC sophomore distance star who ran the two-mile in 1:18.3, establishing new running standards.

Whilden Only Double Winner
Whilden became the meet's only double winner when he took the 100-yard dash in 9.5 seconds.

A 20-mile-an-hour cross wind hindered the cindermen, and the wind-record holding Texas 40 yard relay team had to overcome both it and two bad baton passes to post a credible 41.8-half a second under their world standard.

While USC dominated in the field, the well-balanced Trojans thrived in an upset victory over favored Texas in the mile relay in the slow time of 2:14.9.

Coach Jess Mortensen's West coast team in every case had to break one of its own old records. Truex ran the two-mile 9.7 seconds faster than teammate Fernando Ledesma in establishing the running mark.

One of Best Broad Jumps
One of the best broad jumps in the nation this year was turned in by Jon Arnett of the Trojans, who broke his own broad jump mark by 21 inches as he turned in a 26-foot leap before the 5,300 Da-Hi Stadium track fans.

Rink Babka tossed the discus 173-feet 1 1/2 inches to break the old USC-owned record set by Des Koch with a 170 foot heave; and Doug Majjala hurled the javelin 214-feet, two-inches to beat the old mark of 208-10 set by USC's Bob Voiles.

Walt Leveck of USC raised the pole vault standard to 14-feet, six inches.

Championship Tag Match Set Monday

Bob Geigel and Dory Funk, who thought they had won the world's tag team wrestling championship last Thursday night at Amarillo, have been fouled up by the state wrestling commission and will have to wait until tomorrow night here to try again.

Funk and Geigel were battling Rip Rogers and Art Nelson for the world's crown and had won the first fall. But the champions took the second fall by beating Geigel so badly he couldn't return for the third round, so Dizzy Davis substituted for him in the third fall. Funk and Davis took the final decision, and with it, they thought, the title.

But the state wrestling commission said "no," that Davis was ineligible to help.

So tomorrow night at the Top of Texas Sportman's Club Funk and Geigel will try again for the world's tag team championship, in what will really be a grudge match to end all grudge matches. In the semifinal event two out of three falls, forty five minutes. The Golden Terror returns, with his manager to offer outside the ring assistance, against durable Sonny Myers.

Nelson and Geigel will meet in a one fall warmup prelude to the main event to round out the night's card.

Advance tickets are available at Modern Pharmacy.

Dick Gray Leads Texas Batting Race

By UNITED PRESS

Fort Worth third baseman Dick Gray took over the top spot in the Texas League batting race this week despite a drop of seven percentage points to a lousy 45%.

Official averages through April 25 released Saturday show Gray also tied for the most runs and home runs, with 12 scores and 4 homers to his credit. Gray was fifth last week.

Oklahoma City's Fred Marolewski shares the home run lead with Gray while another Indian, Earl York, has also tallied a dozen.

Two more Oklahoma City players rank right behind Gray in the batting average race. Joe Buck is swatting at a .452 clip for the runner-up place and Matt Sczesny, who has the most hits to his credit with 24, boasts a .444 average for third place.

Buck and Shreveport's Bill Lynn have the most doubles with five each, while Gray and Wilcy Moore of Dallas have a pair of three-base hits apiece to lead in that department.

Nigel Patrick of Dallas, with four decisions against no losses to his credit, rates the title of the winningest pitcher in the early season.

Ernie Groth of Oklahoma City, who has struck out 17 men in 21 innings, is ahead in that department. Roy Lary of Tulsa has the most innings pitched with 25 in three games.

Champion Rocky Marciano Ducks Away To Begin His Retirement From Boxing

By JOHN GRIFFIN

NEW YORK — UP— Rocky Marciano ducked secretly away to a mountain retreat Saturday to begin his retirement, leaving behind him a boxing world already battling over how his heavyweight championship shall be filled.

A few hours after the 31-year-old unbeaten champion announced to the world that he was quitting "because this is what my family wants," he left quietly for a resort in the Catskill Mountains to escape the glare of publicity.

Marciano's father said Rocky probably would not go to his home at Brockton, Mass., until Monday or Tuesday.

By then, the aching void left in boxing by Rocky's retirement may be even more painful. As soon as his retirement was announced, "title claims" were promptly declared on behalf of Archie Moore and Floyd Patterson and just as promptly ignored by the National Boxing Association and promoter James D. Norris.

Elimination Tournay Planned
Both the NBA and Norris contemplated elimination tournaments leading to the crowning of a new champion. But apparently a lot of work remained before agreement could be reached among all parties to such a tournament. And then there is the problem of foreign recognition for the winner.

Boxing men felt there probably would be no clear-cut claimant to the crown until the fall, and it might be longer than that until one man has attained international recognition.

Moore, the very vocal light-heavyweight champion who was kayoed by Rocky in nine rounds in Rocky's last title defense Sept. 21, 1955, did his own "title claim." In Seattle, Moore, rated me, "As for who is going to replace me," he said. "I think Moore has the No. 1 heavyweight contender as good a chance as anybody with Marciano's retirement might possibly Patterson and Jackson be a "hoax" but he would claim the crown, if true.

Marciano is the fourth heavy-weight champion to quit while they could replace the "Brock" still on top, the other being Gene Tunney, Jim Jeffries, and Joe of the ring.

Status Of Major Bills

WASHINGTON, April 28 — UP— Status of major legislation in Congress:

FARM

Chairman Harold D. Cooley (D-N.C.) of the House Agriculture committee introduced a bill to put into effect President Eisenhower's $1.2 billion soil bank. It does not call for advance payments to farmers, as requested by the President.

HIGHWAYS

The house passed the 13-year $31.5 billion federal-state highway construction program, largest in the nation's history. Senate approval is considered certain.

CIVIL RIGHTS

The House Judiciary committee approved a "moderate" four-point Civil Rights program sponsored by Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.).

HOUSING

The Senate Banking committee is considering a catch-all housing bill calling for construction of 810,000 low-cost public housing units in six years and a special program for elderly persons.

APPROPRIATIONS

The House Appropriations committee voted $1.3 billion to run the Commerce Department and related agencies next year. It approved more money for highways, aviation safety and weather research.

SOCIAL SECURITY

A showdown vote is expected Tuesday by the Senate Finance committee on a House-passed bill to liberalize Social Security for women and the handicapped.

MILITARY

Senate action pending on a House-passed bill to authorize a $2 billion military construction program.

FOREIGN AID

House foreign affairs committee continues consideration of $4,672,475,000 foreign aid request. Economy bloc hopes to cut it by $2 billion.

POSTAL

House Commerce committee still considering bill to raise most postal rates.

MEDICAL AID

Senate Armed Services committee considering $75 million House-passed plan to set up hospitalization program for military dependents.

SCHOOLS

House rules committee still debating floor consideration of $1.6 billion federal school aid bill.

THERE IS SUCH A SPECIAL CHARM about spring . . . everything that's been so brown and drab during the winter suddenly turns green . . . and flowers begin to blossom . . . Have you noticed the lilacs beginning to bloom around town? . . . It gives Peg all sorts of longings . . . like making as many excuses as possible to get out-of-doors and flaying out . . . hankering to take long rides around the countryside . . . and a complete lack of ambition to do anything constructive . . . Peg must run around to see Mrs. William Castleberry's garden . . . it certainly is a fairy wonderland . . . and she puts so much care into it! . . . Yes, in spring Peg gets such a feeling of contentment . . . of being at peace with the world . . . It reminds her of this poem . . . this wonderful poem that helps you escape all the tensions and anxieties of today's world . . . makes you want to trust in the future and "be a friend to man." . . . Peg doesn't have room to print the whole poem . . . so here are some of her favorite verses.

THE HOUSE BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD

There are hermit souls that live withdrawn
In the peace of their self-content;
There are souls, like stars, that dyell apart,
In a fearless firmament;
There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths
Where highways never ran;
But let me live by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.
I see from my house by the side of the road,
By the side of the highway of life,
The men who press with the ardor of hope,
The men who are faint with the strife,
But I turn not away from their smiles nor their tears—
Both parts of an infinite plan;
Let me live in my house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.
Let me live in my house by the side of the road
Where the race of men go by—
They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong,
Wise, foolish—so am I.
Then why should I sit in the scorners' seat
Or hurl the cynic's ban?
Let me live in my house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

— Sam Walter Foss

BIGGEST EXCITEMENT of the week was the fire Wednesday on Cuyler Street . . . seems like a lot of people went to see it . . . including Peg . . . but Peg didn't see anyone getting in the way of the firemen . . . and the traffic didn't seem bad . . . in fact, it seemed to Peg every one was very careful not to interfere with the fire-fighting operation . . . understand a lot of people pitched in to help, too . . . saw Aubrey Jones with camera flung over his shoulder helping a fireman with a hose . . . saw another non-uniformed man stop a building helping firemen . . . don't know if it was a volunteer or an off-duty fireman . . . sure was a terrible thing, the fire . . . caused so much property damage . . . speaking of Aubrey Jones . . . he's quite the camera bug . . . He's always on hand at some happening in Pampa . . . Peg keeps wondering if he is making a history of Pampa in pictures . . . think it would be unique and real interesting.

I shall feel until I die a desire to increase the stock of harmless cheerfulness. (Charles Dickens)

ENCORE . . . last week Peg told about her Easter ducks . . . and her desire to get rid of them . . . never dreaming anyone would take her up on it . . . so she gave them away this week to a fellow duck-lover . . . seems, however, there are several more duck-lovers in Pampa . . . In our waterless area, Mrs. Gid Windsor has really taken the welfare of her little duck, "Missie," to heart . . . she wrote Peg she'd take her duck as a sister or mate for "Missie." . . . she's sending Missie to northwest Arkansas "where she will have a nice home and plenty of water" . . . Peg's sorry she gave her ducks away now . . . but some other duck owners might take Mrs. Windsor up on that . . . after all, the poor little things will be much happier around water . . . of course, if you've a pond or swimming-pool in your backyard, that'd solve the water problem . . . wonder if such a pet wouldn't get a migration urge during cold weather? . . . guess they're not the same kind as them-there migrating ducks, though.

The path to cheerfulness is to sit up cheerfully and to act and speak as if cheerfulness were already there. (William James)

POTPOURRI . . . Pampa's visiting dignitary for the week . . . Ed Nash . . . has been noted strolling around town visiting all his old buddies . . . seems he's been kept quite busy making the rounds . . . Peg will have to admit the Yankees up in Illinois haven't completely corrupted him . . . Uncle Billy Frost took a vacation this week . . . up Caney, Kansas way to visit his son . . . he takes off on a visit every now and then . . . although he enjoys visiting, he says he's always glad to get back home to Pampa . . . all the lovely spring dresses are beginning to appear . . . saw Flossie Anderson the other day in a lovely pink and white checked dress . . . really becoming to her . . . and Floyd Heath in a sort of Robins' egg blue linen dress . . . just gorgeous . . . Peg might add here that on such days as Tuesday, however, winter coats began to reappear . . . at least at the opening of the Oiler baseball season . . . If you just looked over the crowd, you might think you were at a football game . . . overcoats, scarves, gloves and blankets . . . but it was fun . . . and Peg was proud of the how many Pampans turned out considering the "breezes" whipping around.

It is so easy to be good-natured I wonder anybody takes the trouble to be anything else. (Douglas Jerrold)

AROUND TOWN . . . have you seen Vivian Lafferty Jones since she returned from her honeymoon? . . . all aglow and beaming as any young bride should be . . . Another lovely bride back in town is Marilyn Adams Spoonmore . . . and don't think Walter Jr. isn't glowing, too . . . Peg heard he gave Marilyn a simply gorgeous—and unique—wedding present . . . a specially made necklace containing a Burmese sapphire . . . isn't that wonderful? . . . something she can cherish all her life . . . and pass on to her children . . . That cute little Joanie Robertson certainly has poise in front of a group . . . that and the ability to think on her feet helped her win first place in the regional extemporaneous speaking contest in Lubbock . . . she'll go on to the state in a few weeks . . . her second year to enter the state contest . . . Haven't seen Ted Hicks around, but found out the other day she's back in town . . . she's been in Dallas for a while . . . Pampa college students seem to make the news wherever they go . . . understand Gaye Nell and Lee Fraser made the Tarleton State College paper lately in a feature on young married couples attending school . . . lovely Mrs. Fraser is the former Gaye Nell Carter . . . understand she's an honor student, too . . . Saw Elaine Lively the other day . . . she is so stunning and attractive!

A stale article, if you dip it in a good warm sunny smile, will go off better than a fresh one that you've scowled upon. (Nathaniel Hawthorne)

WHO CAN BE CROSS AND CHABBY these lovely, bright, warm days? It just doesn't seem possible! . . . To those of you who haven't gotten into the swing of spring . . . here's some advice from Thomas Carlyle: "Wonderous is the strength of cheerfulness, and its power of endurance—the cheerful man will do more in the same time, will do it better, will persevere in it longer, than the sad or sullen."

Spring-feverishly yours,
Peg

Formal And Romantic Wedding Gown Makes Come-Back To Fashion Scene

By GAILE DUGAS
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—The formal and romantic wedding gown, pretty as a white-frosted cake, has come back into the fashion picture. Brides this June will be wearing elegant gowns with full, sweeping skirts and a light, misty look provided by light-weight silk, lace or silk organdie.

This trend to the classic white wedding gown look seems to come from the fact that this year's young brides want formal church weddings. They're not interested, as brides of past seasons were, in gowns that can double as evening dresses after the wedding. They want them as pretty as designers can make them.

New York stores say that wedding gowns in price brackets from $125 to $200 sell well and the head-dresses that accompany the gowns are priced (and sell) at $150 on up. The ballerina-length gown is re-

That he will have a companion whose moods will fit comfortably with his own. If he wants to talk, he'll have someone to talk to. If he wants to go out, he'll have a gay companion. If he wants to read, his companion will hold his tongue.

That he will have someone who understands and appreciates him. That he will have a home where his friends and family are welcome and where he will feel like the head man.

That he will have a wife he can always be proud of, from the way she looks to the way she does her job of homemaking.

That he will always know that someone cares what happens to him. Married life won't always be what a man expects any more than it is always what a woman hoped for. But it is well, now and then, for a woman to remember what a man expected out of marriage.

And it is well, also, for a man to remember how, before marriage, his wife talked of what their life together would be like.

Wedding Dress Industry Cleaning Up With Reproduction Of Grace's Gown

By GAY PAULEY
NEW YORK—UP—Just about everybody in the wedding dress industry is saying, "Thank you, Grace Kelly!" For two reasons. One, reproductions of the "priceless" dress worn by the now princess of Monaco are going like champagne at a wedding reception.

Two, the brides who don't want a gown similar to the one the actress wore for her cathedral wedding to Prince Rainier still are influenced by her. Industry sources said they will sell more formal gowns this summer than in several seasons.

"She's revived the elaborate wedding," said one manufacturer happily. It took some manufacturers less than a week to have on the market gowns and veils similar to the one worn by the princess in the religious ceremony April 19. Two days later, one Brooklyn shop featured an adaptation for $80.

Women's Wear Daily, the trade publication, said a spot check this week showed at least 16 manufacturers aping the gown which designer Helen Rose of MGM studios described as "one that in design and workmanship may never be equalled in the future."

Adaptations of the dress sell from $80 to $250, the publication said. The original dress and veil were ivory. Into it went 25 yards of peau de soie, 25 yards of silk taffeta, 100 yards of silk net and 300 yards of val lace. The gown featured a high-close-fitting neckline, cummerbund, and a bell-shaped skirt which fell into an elaborate train.

Apparently there has been no such mad scramble to copy the ankle-length beige dress which Margaret Truman wore for her wedding to Clifton Daniel Jr., a New York newspaperman.

Manufacturer Murray Hamburger said, "There would be less demand for it, because that ankle length is hard for a girl to wear becomingly."

But he said "all these weddings on the front pages" will influence bridal fashions and sales for several months.

The bride's mother and the groom's mother may want to select flowers together for harmony.

Favorite dress of the 1956 bridesmaid is one with cover-up, designed to go partying on many occasions when the wedding ceremony is over. Full-skirted dress with long torso line (left) in apricot color, has yoke and small sleeves of tulle. Tulle treatment is used again at neckline of dress (center) with hallow at hipline. This is in ice blue. The empire line appears achieved through soft, unpressed pleats. All three designs are by Murray Hamburger in chromsum taffeta. Best length for a bridesmaid's dress this year is the ballerina.

Ingenuity, Economy Rule In Presenting Shower To Honor Summer Bride-Elect

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

Planning a shower for a summer bride-elect? Pampans, then, like some of the rest of us, you're open to suggestions for settings that are as fancy, frivolous and feminine as such parties call for. Settings which won't require elaborate expenditures by the hostess or the guests are welcome.

Here's an idea I saw used recently that fits the requirements. A feminine color scheme of rose petal pink-and-white for the refreshment table is lovely to look at and easy to put together.

Theme of the shower is eminently practical: guests are asked to bring one or two of the small, inexpensive gadgets that they find indispensable to housekeeping.

These are wrapped in pretty paper and presented with a flourish on tiered holders. Items may include almost anything from a stapler, sharp paring knife or potato peeler to measuring spoons, glass measuring cup, tongs or what-have-you.

Makings for the centerpiece are as close as your own cupboards and the local variety stores. Tiered holders for the gifts can be improvised from three opaque white glass plates separated by a pair of short-stemmed, clear, glass candle holders.

Heart-shaped rose petal confetti pasted to a cardboard cone makes the fluttery parasol for the top of a holder. More of the petals, pasted or taped to pink crepe paper runners, trim the table center.

Low glass candle holders are dressed up for the date in pink petal-trimmed crepe paper ruffles. Perched on each napkin is a paper butterfly made with a pink pipe cleaner for the body and pink wings lightly speckled with painted dots.

To make the tiered holder you'll need three plates of graduated sizes—dinner, salad and bread-and-butter, for example. Place one clear glass candle-holder upside-down on the largest of the three plates and secure with transparent glue. Then glue the middle-size plate to the inverted base of the candle holder. Follow the same procedure with the second candle holder and the smallest plate.

Select the glue or paste according to whether you're going to leave the holder set up or take it apart after the party.

When I tried it with inexpensive plates I bought from the variety store, I used a paste that dissolved later in the dishwasher.

The effect, however, was quiet handsome and tiered holders have enough uses so that you may prefer to use a stronger, more permanent adhesive.

Bridesmaid Favors A Ballerina Length, Double-Duty Dress

By GAILE DUGAS
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Those clouds of color, provided at every wedding by the bridesmaids' dresses, tend toward the deepened pastels this year.

The 1956 bridesmaid will look picture-pretty in her ballerina-length dress. But she's practical too. Her dress is chosen with price well in mind and with the condition that it can serve in her wardrobe later on.

Unlike this year's bride, who is formal and elegant, the bridesmaid wants to know that she's buying a double-duty dress, not just a useless dress to fold away in tissue paper when the wedding is over. Therefore, she wants neckline cover-up and a shorter length than that chosen by the bride.

In New York, stores say that the bridesmaid is willing to pay about $40 for her dress.

Prayer Meet Held By Chapel's Circle

BABY

A diaper pail for home laundering of Baby's main item of clothing should be enameled and have a cover and a handle. Diapers, after being flushed, should be dropped into a solution of borax in the pail. Sun drying is antiseptic.

If mother feels safer about Baby's warmth when he wears a long-sleeved undershirt or T-shirt, she should remember that a cuff or sleeve wet from drooling is colder than no sleeve at all, and change Baby's shirt when it's needed.

Betty Lou Cofer And Kenneth Crawford Exchange Wedding Vows In Skellytown

SKELLYTOWN — (Special) — In 1951, served two years with the Army and is now manager of Skelly Service station in Skellytown.

MATURE PARENT

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Cofer of Skellytown and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Crawford, also of Skellytown.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white chertilly lace over satin. The fitted bodice that closed down the back with tiny covered buttons was designed with a round neckline, a tulle yoke and mandarin collar. The long fitted sleeves came to petal points over her hands. The bouffant skirt of tulle was accented with two lace tiers.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from ma lace tiara, accented with tiny seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Lou Ella Smith was maid of honor. She wore a waltz-length gown of pale blue net and lace over taffeta. She wore a matching Juliette cap and carried a Colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Decorations in the church included jade palms, baskets of pink gladioli and candelabra with white tapers. The family pews were marked with white satin bows.

For the wedding trip to Hobbs, N.M., the bride wore a blue slanting dress with matching duster and white accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Vows Exchanged In Double-Ring Rite By Vivian Lafferty And Robert Jones

Nuptial vows were exchanged at 7 p.m. April 14, in the First Methodist Church, by Miss Vivian Carolyn Lafferty and Robert E. Jones. Rev. Woodrow Adcock officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Loche Conard Lafferty, 922 E. Francis, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Jones of Cleburne.

Given in marriage by Frank Lard, a family friend, the bride wore a gown of imported French lace and tulle over taffeta. The fitted long-torso lace bodice was styled with a high round neckline, edged with lace appliques, and cap sleeves. The bouffant ballerina-length skirt of tulle, accented with a lace harlequin design, was edged with pleated tulle. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a lace-covered hat, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mrs. Howard Qualls of Nocona, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in a gown fashioned with a fitted bodice of pink lace and a bouffant ballerina-length skirt of pink net. She wore lace mitts and carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Marvin Jones of Pampa served as best man. Ushers were Robert S. Boyd, Bill T. Braly and Travis C. Lively Jr., all of Pampa.

Decorations in the church included arrangements of white stock and palms. Mrs. Roy Johnson, organist, played Schubert's "Serenade," "Claire de Lune" and "Liebestraum." F. L. Stone, vocalist, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

BABY

A good sized Baby who starts to walk, or rather waddle, may soon have legs that look like parentheses. This is temporary and Baby should not be discouraged from his new skill because of the development.

A creaky bathinette is worse for mother and Baby than no bathinette at all. So if you are offered one that's done good service, check to see if the aging joints can be repaired before accepting the offer.

Just when a mother reaches deprecation about newly acquired skills like climbing on the table and opening the medicine cabinet, Baby learns to understand and obey instructions about constructive things he may do such as bringing mother's shoes.

PWGA Tourney Set In Pampa Thursday

The Pampa Ladies Golf Association will host to the Panhandle Women's Golf Association Thursday in the Pampa Country Club. Close to 100 women from six clubs are expected to attend.

Tea-off time will be 9 a.m., and lunch will be served from 12 noon to 1:45 p.m. Mrs. Jean Dunsel is director of the tournament and is being assisted by Mrs. Miriam Ladders. Deadline for luncheon reservations, to be made with Mrs. Duenkel, is Tuesday evening.

Prior to the tea-off, doughnuts and coffee will be served. Association members are expected from the Amarillo Country Club, Old Tascosa Country Club, and Ross Rogers Municipal Club, all of Amarillo; Huber Country Club; Phillips Country Club and the Pampa Country Club. The women will play for a gold trophy.

Skelly Rebekahs To Attend Meets

SKELLYTOWN — (Special) — Rebekah Lodge met recently in the IOOF Hall with Mrs. Miles Pearson, noble grand, in charge. It was announced lodge members are invited to attend the North Plains District Secretary, Scribes and Clerks Association meeting, to be held May 12, in Pleasant Valley. The program for the Panhandle Association meeting, to be held in Pampa, was discussed. Judges for the individual charges of vice grand and chaplain were selected. Members were urged to attend the Tri-State Conclave, to be held in Oklahoma City, Okla., on June 20-23.

Mrs. Everett Crawford gave a report on the game night, sponsored by lodge.

The lodge was asked to give their donations to the Memorial Fund for the Old Folks Home and the Orphanage in Ennis and Corsicana as a tribute to Berta H. Porter.

Mrs. Mary Thornburg, Mounds, Okla., was a guest. Members present were Mmes. C. M. Estes, Delmar Sims, Carlos Beck, Elmer Allen, Fred Genett, Clifton Hanna, Miss Addie Fern Lick, and Everett Crawford.

The couple will be at home at 1602 Mary Ellen.

The bride was graduated from Pampa High School and attended West Texas State College, Canyon. The bridegroom is a graduate of Cleburne High School and received his B. S. degree in chemical engineering at Texas A&M College. Both the bride and bridegroom are employed by the Magnolia Petroleum Company.

New York Pianist Is Visiting Judge In Piano Auditions

Miss Aurora Ragaini, New York teacher and concert pianist who is the visiting judge this year for the National Piano Auditions, arrived in Pampa Friday evening. She has appeared many times in New York and eastern states in recital, has given four programs in Town Hall, New York City, and was appeared on various radio programs such as the Keyboard Masters Series of New York Station WNYC. She maintains studios in Carnegie Hall, New York City and in Elmhurst, Long Island, New York.

Miss Ragaini has studied at the Dana School of Music, Youngstown University where she received the degree of B. Mus. as well as the Artists Diploma in Piano with honors. In New York she has studied and coached with such artists as Maria Carreras, the late Harold Bauer and Frank Sheridan. The auditions began Saturday with pupils of Mrs. Grace Spiller of Canadian and pupils of Bill Haley of Pampa being heard. Pupils of Mrs. H. A. Yoder will be auditioned Monday and part of Tuesday. The schedule Tuesday also includes pupils of Mrs. Lillian Land, Pampa, and pupils of Mrs. Willie Boyett of McLean, Wednesday students of Mrs. Carra Perkins and of Mrs. W. H. Fuller, will be heard while pupils of Mrs. Lily Hartsfield and Mrs. Lois Fagan will conclude the auditions Thursday.

A total of 128 pupils will play

Miss Nan Ramming Becomes The Bride Of Derrell Coffman In Single-Ring Rite

In an informal ceremony at 7 p.m. April 21, in parlor of the First Baptist Church, Miss Nan Ramming became the bride of Derrell William Coffman Jr. Dr. E. Douglas Carver officiated for the single-ring service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ramming of the Rancho Motel, Pampa; and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Coffman, west of city. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white linen suit and wore white accessories. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses over a white Bible. Matron of honor was Mrs. Edd Stanford of Brownfield, cousin of the bride. She wore a floral sheath dress topped with a brown linen duster. Her corsage was of yellow roses. Candelighter was Miss Janell Crump of White Deer. G. K. Reading Jr. of Lubbock served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ramming wore a white linen sheath dress with a brown duster. Her accessories were white. Mrs. Coffman was attired in a pale blue linen dress with blue accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

For the ceremony, the parlor was decorated with baskets of yellow gladiolus backed by organ fern and candelabra with white tapers. Piano selections were played by Mrs. E. Douglas Carver.

A reception in the Rancho Motel followed the service. The serving table was covered with a brown lace cloth and was centered with an arrangement of yellow and white daisies. Flanking the centerpiece were crystal candelabra with yellow tapers. The wedding cake was five-tiered.

Mrs. Ruby Capps presided at the coffee service, and Miss Lena Grisham served the cake. Guests were registered by Miss Janell Crump.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple is at home at 722 W. Kingsmill.

The bride is a senior student in Pampa High School. The bridegroom was graduated from Pampa High School and attended Abilene Christian College. He is now associated with Clayton Dwyer Drilling Company.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ramming of Burkburnett, grandparents of the bride; Mrs. W. G. Fulbright of Mingus, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Rick Ramming of White Deer, brother and sister-in-law of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. George Tolbert of College Station, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. A. B. Coney of Eunice, N. M., bright of Ranger, aunt of the bridegroom. And Bob Paxton of Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pool and Mrs. Thelma Pool, all of Groom; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bunn of Borger; and Mrs. Pearl Hays of White Deer.

From Groom, five girls from the Corner Clover 4-H Club entered five contests, and four girls from the Junorette Club made three entries. White Deer had four girls entered in three contests.

The county high-point foods demonstration winners of blue and purple ribbons were Ellen Latta of Groom; and Mary Ann Bonifield and Carol Adams of Panhandle. A. B. Coney of Eunice, N. M., Vivian Warminski and Carolyn Peters of White Deer won the junior safety blue award.

Others placing were Margie Frayer, Sandra Clark, Ellen Latta, all of Groom; Vivian Warminski, Margaret Peters, Brenda Thornburg, all of White Deer; Sherry Hearron, Joanne Lawson and Mary Ann Bonifield, all of Panhandle.

Judges were Mrs. Glen Robinson and Mrs. George Wilmoth of Claude; Mrs. T. Johnson of Borger; Mrs. C. A. Morrow and Mrs. Jimmy McCasland of Groom; and Mrs. R. F. Surratt and Mrs. Bill J. Immel of Panhandle.

Simple Rite Unites Miss Betty Martin And William Ward

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Martin, 713 N. Gray, announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth (Betty) Margaret, to William Glenn Ward of New Castle, at 10 a.m. April 14. The Reverend Father Van Winkle of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church of Breckenridge, officiated.

Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hart of Graham. Only members of the bridal couple's families and close relatives attended the ceremony.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple is at home at 1111 E. Fourth Street, Graham, where the bridegroom is employed by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Scotch Pancakes Give Unique Dish

Oatmeal porridge and the Scottish people are a natural twosome, since many Scottish families use it as a staple at the breakfast table.

That's why the American people have coined the term Scotch Pancakes for this delightful dish using oatmeal and ground cooked pork.

Reba Staggs, home economist, comments that these pancakes are a perfect way to use the cooked pork leftovers in the refrigerator.

This may be either a luncheon or breakfast dish. Perhaps we Americans could take a lesson from the bonnie laddies and lassies of Scotland, a hard working thrifty group, but always eager to share what they have earned.

20th Century Culture Club Has Talks On Religion In Books, Music And Life

TO GIVE RECITAL — Shown above are Peggy and Billy Ragsdale, children of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ragsdale, 1709 Coffee, who will be presented in a piano recital at 3 p.m. today by their teacher, Mrs. May Foreman Carr. The event will be held in the Church of the Brethren. (Photo by Smith's Studio)

Twentieth Century Culture Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Michael Wilson, 1332 Garland. The program, introduced by Mrs. J. R. Stroble, was presented by Mrs. E. L. Henderson, Jack Merchant and Jeff Bearden.

RELIGION IN BOOKS
"Because religion cannot be taken lightly and books necessarily must be read, I should like to present these remarks with a plea for a cultivated habit of serious reading," Mrs. Henderson began. "First and foremost in religious literature is the Bible itself."

She went on to tell of "serious, but not dull" books on the Bible, which aid in understanding the Bible, and of books that have made fiction of Bible events stories that make "exciting reading." "To say you do not understand the Bible is a common complaint, but all we need is to take time to enlighten our minds and souls," she pointed out.

Mrs. Henderson explained that biography plays a part in religious literature, adding that children can be led to understand many of life's problems and joys by reading of some famous person's experiences. She mentioned biographies of Martin Luther and Albert Schweitzer as examples, and named several good religious books for children.

RELIGION IN MUSIC
"According to Biblical history, chants or songs have been used since beginning of civilization," Mrs. Merchant stated during her talk. "Many references to music, musicians and musical instruments are made in Bible. We can become more interested in the place of music in the worship of Almighty God if we can see the importance it has had through the centuries."

She went on to tell of the importance of music in the worship of Hebrew children, and of how Christ led the disciples in a hymn before he went into the garden of Gethsemane. She pointed out that Solomon's temple contained three thousand priests with harps, trumpets and psalteries, as well as many singers. She interspersed her talk with scripture readings on the types of music and instruments used. "The earliest Christians borrowed their chants from the synagogue," she explained. "History records that as early as AD 129, Telephorus, then Bishop of Rome, ordered certain hymns of praise sung at the Christmas celebration. However, many centuries elapsed before the carols, which we love so well, were written."

"The Book of Psalms contains some of the church's richest devotional literature," Mrs. Merchant continued. "It has come down through the centuries as one of the finest contributions to faith and trust that the language of men can express. To the Psalms we must go to discover the inspiration of many of the most beautiful and meaningful hymns of the church."

She went on to tell of the origin of the carol, which was used in the harvest festivals before Christianity. She explained that many carols are so old they have become legendary. There is no record of who wrote them or how many times they have been changed, as they were handed down by memory from generation to generation, she stated. She also pointed out that a carol differs from a hymn of praise in that it tells a story.

RELIGION IN LIFE
During her portion of the program, Mrs. Jeff Bearden stated that it is important to discover God's rules for living. Rules she

May Fellowship Day Luncheon Is Slated By Church Women

The Pampa Council of United Church Women will observe May Fellowship Day with a covered-dish luncheon at 1 p.m. Friday in the Church of the Brethren.

A dramatization, "They Say," on the spreading of rumor and half-truths, will be presented by representatives of the various churches in the Council. Following the play, a discussion on how propaganda starts and develops will be held. The observance is one of many annual events for the Council and is always held the first Friday in May.

The local Council is part of the United Church Women's group, which represents 10 million women of the Protestant and Orthodox churches in the United States and is a unit of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the USA.

"A true Christian still follows quite literally the advice of Saint Paul and listens to and repeats only that which is true, honest, just and of good report," says Mrs. S. W. Milner of Atlanta, Ga., national chairman of May Fellowship Day. "Before repeating any story the responsible Christian citizen asks whether this is fact or fiction, how he can find out more about it and then, if it is not true, how he can most effectively correct the error and spread the truth. Each individual's opinion is of tremendous importance — what you believe weakens or strengthens the moral leadership of our country."

Ragsdale Children To Present Recital

Mrs. May Foreman Carr will present two of her piano pupils in a recital at 3 p.m. today in the Church of the Brethren, 600 N. Frost. Slated to perform are Peggy Ragsdale, 8, and Billy Ragsdale, 9, children of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ragsdale, 1709 Coffee.

The program will include three piano duos, including "Rain" by Blake; "Ballade" by Burgmuller; and "Tumble-Town Wartell" by Weybright. Solo selections will include "On the Ice at Sweet Briar" by Crawford; "The Three Trolls" by Eckstein; "The Water Sprites" done by Fletcher; "Menuett" by Bach; "The Merry Sprites" by Eggeling; "The Star Gazers" by Rolfe; and "Hanging Gardens" by Davies.

Both Peggy and Billy have had 18 months of study. A tiny baby will take his nap outdoors in all but rainy weather, providing he's comfortably dressed and well-settled in his carriage. Let him nap on the porch or in the yard where you can hear him. He'll benefit from the air and you can get some work done.

French-Fried Onions Add To Sirloin Steak

An accompaniment for sirloin steak calls for French-fried onions. To prepare this crunchy dish, slice 8 medium-sized onions 1/4-inch thick and separate the rings. Combine 1 cup of milk and 1/4 cup of water and pour over the onions. Let this combination stand for 20 to 30 minutes turning occasionally to let the slices absorb the liquid. Dip the onion slices into seasoned flour. Fry in deep hot lard (365 degrees F.) until golden brown. Yield: 8 servings.

WD Senior Class Honored With Tea

SKELLYTOWN — (Special) — The senior class of the White Deer High School was recently complimented with a tea in the First Baptist Church, Skellytown. Hostesses were members of the Women's Missionary Society. Decorations followed a "spring-time" theme. The entrance was a white trellis entwined with greenery and artificial spring flowers. Various colors of crepe paper formed lattice work on the windows. The serving table was covered with a white cloth and centered with a bowl of spring flowers, flanked by white tapers in crystal holders. Heart-shaped sandwiches, assorted nuts and mints, cookies and pineapple punch were served.

The invocation was given by Rev. Eugene Brand. Mrs. J. W. Toms, president, gave the welcome. George Bagley, senior class president, gave the response. The quartet from the Central Baptist Church of Pampa presented two vocal numbers.

Rev. Carroll Ray of the Central Baptist Church, Pampa, gave a talk, "The Real Things in Life." Huelyn Laycock, superintendent of the White Deer High School, gave the benediction.

Musician Phases Completed
Each class group, according to its own classification, has completed two to three musicianship phases listed in the National Guild Syllabus. There are six of these phases which may be programmed and counted as pieces in the National Guild Auditions. These four of the six phases will be programmed this year by entrants: Scales, Chords, Arpeggios and Ear Training.

Recital
The formal spring recital has been scheduled Sunday afternoon, May 6th at the Church of the Nazarene, 510 N. West, at 2:30 p.m. The recital will consist of solos, two piano numbers and a demonstration of the musicianship phases by audition entrants.

Radio Program
Students to present the radio program Saturday, May 12th, over Station KPDM at 6 p.m. are: Becky Blundell, Keith Swanson, Sheron Wade, Vontell Wade, Marcia Ward, Vickie Taylor and Gail Cole.

Brownie Holiday Set For Saturday

Pampa Brownie Scouts and leaders will spend the day at Camp Mel Davis, near Lefors, Saturday, as a "Brownie Holiday." The event will also be an orientation period to acquaint Brownie leaders with the camp's physical set-up in preparation for this year's Day Camp, to begin May 30.

The group will leave the Girl Scout Little House at 10 a.m. and will return at 3 p.m. Each person will bring a sack lunch, and drinks and coffee will be furnished at the camp by the Top of Texas Girl Scout Council.

Each troop will be responsible for its own transportation, and one adult will be present for each six girls. Several first aiders with first aid equipment will be on hand.

Each girl must turn in her signed permission slip before leaving for camp. Mrs. Marian Osborne, council assistant, will be in charge. A later orientation will be set up to acquaint the leaders with the Day Camp program.

PTA's City Council To Install Officers

The Parent-Teacher Association's city council will meet at 9 a.m. Tuesday in office of Ruth Lows, Junior High School. The meeting will be led by Mrs. James Lewis, president.

The agenda includes an historian's report by Mrs. B. E. Tidwell and a report of the auditing committee. Highlight of the meeting will be the installation of officers by Mrs. Jack F. Foster.

Mrs. Lee Cockrell Feted With Shower

A baby shower honoring Mrs. Lee Cockrell was presented recently in the home of Mrs. James Gray, 1701 Duncan. Co-hostess was Mrs. J. T. Johnson of Wheeler.

The honoree was presented a corsage fashioned from yellow and white baby socks, in the shape of rose-buds, tied with green ribbon. The corsage was centered with a miniature baby doll.

Gifts were presented to the honoree in a hooded bassinette decorated with pale green nylon over pink taffeta. The bassinette was a gift from the honoree's mother, Mrs. R. F. Hefley.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth over yellow, centered with juncos in a lamb-shaped vase encircled by green crepe paper. Flanking the centerpiece were yellow and white tapers in crystal holders.

White cake, in the shape of a bed and decorated with yellow lace and small yellow daisies, punch, nuts and mints were served as refreshments. Favors were miniature yellow dispensers announcing the forthcoming arrival of the baby.

Those attending were Mrs. Holly Gray, O. D. Ingram, Eddie Gray, George Ingram, W. C. Sprowns, Rip Barrett, all of Pampa; Mrs. R. F. Hefley of Texline; and Mrs. Don Woods of Clayton, N.M. Several others sent gifts.

NEA Food and Markets Editor

When a girl has an older brother whose friends are always around the house and always thirsty, it pays to have a few beverage specialties up her borrowed-from-brother shirt sleeve.

Cindy Dodge of Madison, Connecticut, is new to her teens but an old hand as a hostess. Ever since her early Brownie Scout days, she's been fascinated by the wonders of kitchen magic and now has a very knowing way of mixing and serving "cool" drinks to her brother's gang and her own friends.

With the basic makings always on tap—her own chocolate sauce in the refrigerator, quick-frozen concentrated orange juice in the freezer compartment, instant cocoa mix on the food shelf—she can serve a soda fountain delight to one or a group in a matter of minutes. Here are three of her favorite recipes:

Instant Black Cow
(Makes 1 serving)

Two teaspoons instant cocoa mix, 2 tablespoons milk, cola beverage or root beer, ice cream (vanilla or chocolate). Mix instant cocoa mix and milk in a tall glass. Stir in little cola beverage. Add a scoop of ice cream; then fill glass with more cola beverage.

Chocolate Pineapple Front
(Makes 1 serving)

Three-quarters cup chilled milk, 2 tablespoons chocolate syrup, 1/4 cup crushed canned pineapple and juice, chocolate or vanilla ice cream.

Add milk slowly to syrup, stirring constantly. Add pineapple and beat or shake well. Pour into tall glass. Add ice cream and serve at once.

CHOCOLATE SYRUP: Place 4 squares unsweetened chocolate and 1 1/4 cups hot water in saucepan. Cook and stir over low heat until thick and well blended. Add 1 cup sugar and 1-4 teaspoon salt, bring to a boil, and boil 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; add 1/4 teaspoon vanilla. Cool. Turn into jar; cover tightly. Keep in refrigerator.

Mrs. May Foreman Carr Will Present Piano And Voice Pupils In Two Recitals

Mrs. May Foreman Carr will present her piano and voice pupils in two recitals Monday in the Church of the Brethren, 600 N. Frost. The first will begin at 7 p.m. and the second at 8 p.m.

Pupils of all grades will be featured in both ensemble and solo numbers.

FIRST PROGRAM

To be featured during the first program will be a flute solo, "Sonatina No. 2" by Handel, played by Miss Tommie Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Kelly of White Deer. She will be accompanied by Miss Peggy O'Neal of White Deer. This number was given recently in the inter-scholastic league contest in Canyon.

Two five-year-old girls will perform during the first program. One will be the Penelope Payne, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Payne and granddaughter of Mrs. Carr. She has had one month of instruction and will play "An April Song" by Bilbro. The other is Sylvia Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Graham, 1031 E. Browning. She will play "Swinging Lanterns" by Eckstein and "Distant Bells" by Burgmüller. She will also present a piano duo, "The Guitars Serenade" by Blake, with Mrs. Carr at the second piano. Sylvia has had one year of instruction.

The first recital will be concluded with the first movement of Haydn's "Concerto in D Major" by Miss Sue Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack P. Foster, 2123 Williston. Mrs. Carr will play the orchestra part at a second piano.

SECOND PROGRAM

Highlight of the second recital will be a piano duet arrangement of "Les Preludes," a symphonic poem by Liszt, to be performed by Mrs. Ralph McClure and Mrs. R. V. Johnson. Miss Roy Day Thompson, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson Jr. of White Deer, will sing "Where the Four Leaf Clovers Grow" by Brownell. She will be accompanied by Miss Peggy O'Neal of White Deer. Miss Thompson won first place honors in the inter-scholastic league contest in Canyon. She was the youngest contestant in her group, the others being of high school age.

The concluding number will be a piano duo, "Malaguena" by Lecuona, which will be played by

Girl Scout Activities

Brownie Troop 46 met recently in Lamar School cafeteria. The girls paid their dues and sang the Brownie Song. They worked on supplies for Day Camp and discussed the Brownie Holiday, to be held Saturday. They also made plans for Mother's Day gifts. Leaders are Mrs. A. E. Kahler and Mrs. James School.

Intermediate Troop 17 met in the home of its leader, Mrs. Joe Wells. A book report was given as part of a badge requirement. The girls worked on Mother's Day gifts and discussed Day Camp, to begin May 30.

A training course for the Scout leaders and committee women was held in the Skellytown Girl Scout house, with Mrs. Marian Osbourne of Pampa, council assistant, as the instructor.

A nose bag lunch was eaten during the noon hour. Arts and crafts, laashing and rope tying were taught. Several films and slides were shown on camping skills.

The group made plans to set up an all-day practice camp at the Bob Harlan Ranch.

Attending the meetings were Mmes. C. V. Biggers, Paul Hinton, Fred Wall, Calvin Duncan, R. E. McAllister, R. C. Heaton, J. C. Jarvis, F. C. Horner, Cecil Shipley, and Richard Payne.

Day Camp registration forms are available in the GS office and Intermediate and Brownie leaders are urged to pick them up as soon as possible. Deadline for their return to the office is May 10.

A skating party for the Brownies is planned for 5:30 p.m. Thursday at the Pampa Skating Rink.

Meeting Is Held By Fidelis Class

Mrs. W. A. Breining presented the opening prayer at the recent meeting of the Fidelis Class of Calvary Baptist Church in the home of Mrs. Roy Jones. The devotional was given by Mrs. D. E. Wiley. During the social period, gifts were exchanged and refreshments were served.

Attending were Mmes. D. E. Wiley, W. A. Breining, D. B. Golden, C. L. Thompson, A. A. Dunn, Leo Davis, W. K. Harley, W. E. Twigg, Roy Jones and E. E. Porterfield.

Deaf Man Perfects Cordless Hearing Aid Worn Entirely on One Ear

PEORIA, Ill. (Special)—H. A. Lyons, who himself has been hard of hearing for over 25 years, today announced the perfection of a miniature electronic hearing aid that is so small it is all worn on one ear.

It weighs but a fraction of an ounce and can be slipped on and off easier than a pair of eyeglasses. Wearer gets all-directional pick-up and normal use of telephone. There is no clothing interference because it is worn at the ear, which is the natural way to hear.

Since the aid is tiny and is worn tucked behind the ear, it is practically invisible. Mr. Lyons stated that, although it is powerful enough to fit the most severe hearing loss, it can also be adjusted for the millions of slightly hard of hearing who feel they are not deaf enough to bother with the more cumbersome aids.

It is suggested, if interested for yourself or a friend, to write to Tonemaster Mfg. Co., 128 S. Monroe St., Dept. 4019, Peoria, Illinois, and he will be glad to send information at no cost or obligation to you.

48th Year THE PAMPA DAILY NEWS SUNDAY, APRIL 29, 1956 19

LADY — Walter Brennan and Brandon de Wilde return home from the Bayous after finding "Lady," an African Basenji hound, in a scene from Warner Bros. "Goodbye, My Lady," a Batjac production by William A. Wellman.

Famous Child Star To Take His Final Bow

News that child star Brandon de Wilde was going into retirement upon completion of his role in William A. Wellman's "Goodbye, My Lady" came as something of a shock to observers of the entertainment scene from Hollywood to New York.

Why, they wondered, would the talented youngster want to leave motion pictures and the stage at the height of his career?

As a child star, yes. As an actor, no.

That, at least, is the opinion of his parents, Fred and Eugenia de Wilde, who must be complimented not only for their excellent handling of Brandon's career to date, but for the sensible and realistic manner in which they have raised the youngster.

"Brandon is 12," Fred explained. "And like most child actors is gradually outgrowing the kinds of roles that would take the greatest advantage of his age and ability. The main thing right now — and Brandon agrees — is that he acquire a good education in the normal way — not in special schools or under tutors. We want him to attend high school and college like any other boy, and gain the advantages of mixing with and knowing other lads in the same age group."

Mrs. de Wilde added that the only thing they request of Brandon is that he continue to take some dramatic courses throughout his prep school and college years. "Then," she pointed out, "if Brandon decides to continue with his theatrical career after college he'll be in a position to re-enter his profession without too much difficulty."

In addition to this, Brandon will continue to get expert advice from his parents, both of whom are theatrical people. Mrs. de Wilde being a former actress, and Fred a stage manager of several top Broadway productions, among which is William Inge's "Bus Stop."

The only factor that would interrupt the de Wilde's plans, as far as the boy is concerned, is the possibility that Brandon may want to do a play or a film that he likes.

"If Brandon really wanted to do a certain play or motion picture," Fred explained, "perhaps arrangements might be made for him to do it. But it would be another one of those long run-of-the-play deals like 'Member of the Wedding'."

Of his film portrayals, Brandon's parents — as well as the boy himself — think that his best performance to date is in "Goodbye, My Lady," which arrives at the Lanora Theatre Today. They like to think of "Goodbye, My Lady" as an Academy Award contender in several categories.

William Wellman directed the film, a Batjac production for Warner Bros. It stars Walter Brennan and Phil Harris.

Floydada Man Seeks Justice Post

Judge Alton B. Chapman of Floydada, brother to W. C. Chapman, parts manager of Reeves Oldsmobile Co., and to Mrs. E. H. Ousley, Pampa, recently announced his candidacy for associate justice of the Court of Civil Appeals of the Seventh Supreme Judicial District of Texas at Amarillo.

He is past president of the District and Appellate Judges' Association of Texas, past district governor of Rotary International, and is presently serving as chairman of the constitution and by-laws committee of Rotary.

Judge Chapman is a member of the First Baptist Church of Floydada and is presently serving as Sunday School Superintendent. Gaining his license to practice law in 1929, Chapman did active court room practice in both state and federal courts until he became district judge in 1937.

Perryton Rodeo Set

PERRYTON — The sixth annual FFA rodeo at Perryton is scheduled for this coming Friday and Saturday featuring two night shows and a Saturday night dance.

All proceeds from the rodeo are for the benefit of the Perryton FFA club, to enable them to continue operations for another year.

Two night shows are scheduled in the arena, according to word received here from Dempsey Gyger, secretary of the Perryton FFA Chapter.

He was the youngest district judge in Texas in 1929.

Judge Chapman says, "The only promise I have ever made or shall ever make to any lawyer or litigant is that if I am elected I'll write the law as I see it, without favor or prejudice to anyone. I pledge to all the people that my public and private life will always be of the quality befitting the office I seek."

Ike No Economist

We would like to say "Amen" to the column appearing elsewhere on this page today by Betty Knowles Hunt and add to it a footnote of our own.

Mrs. Hunt has struck a stout blow at one facet of the American giveaway program and the viewpoint of President Eisenhower but there is another we would like to point out.

Briefly, it is that the apparent belief of President Eisenhower—that the creation of wealth, as shown by his illustration, comes at the expense of someone else in a free economy. In other words, Eisenhower apparently thinks that when someone creates great wealth he does it at the expense of or through depriving of another of what the first has gained; as in a crap game, when one man wins, another loses or as in a war when one nation wins and another loses.

Yet the fact is that in a free economy, the gain of one is the gain of all. The creators and producers of great wealth, real wealth, could not, even if they wanted to, do other than to assist everyone else through the wealth they have created. And the same applies to nations. Through creation of great wealth and production in the United States we have added to the wealth of the world—we have improved to some degree the welfare of every inhabitant of every nation.

It is no secret that Eisenhower is by training a military man, a soldier, and apparently a soldier who has not yet learned the economic facts of life. He apparently views economics as a soldier under a system by which when he was appointed General of the Army he was able to get that appointment only because someone else lost the appointment.

It is precisely for the reason that the gain of one is the gain of all in a free economy that we are so unhappy about giving away our national wealth for we are actually making all the world poorer, including the United States. Had all of the wealth that has been dumped into other nations been retained to this country and turned into more and more tools to provide more and more things for more and more people, all of the world, including the United States would have had just that much more to share. Instead, we have impoverished ourselves to the tune of $50,000,000,000 more or less, have taken that wealth from channels wherein it would have been put to producing more wealth, and to some degree made everyone in the world that much worse off.

Right now there are millions throughout the world who will die of cancer. Would the United States and the rest of the world be worse off, or better off, if a sure-fire cure and preventative for cancer were discovered? Of course we would all be better off—and it wouldn't matter whether the discovery were made in this country or some other country.

We wish there were some method of getting this great and fundamental truth across to Eisenhower and the other millions in his country and elsewhere who feel that the creation and accumulation of wealth can only be accomplished at the expense of another. If sufficient people could understand this economic truth—and easily demonstrated one—we would not halt the free flow of goods and commerce across borders for we would realize that the creation of wealth anywhere can only result in making us all better off.

THE NATION'S PRESS

THIRD PARTY HINT IS ISSUED HERE BY EX-ISSE SUPPORTER
(Jackson, Daily News)

A hint of a third party movement sprouted in Mississippi today as President Eisenhower announced he would seek re-election.

This came from Circuit Judge M. M. McGowan of Jackson who is said to be the only elected state official in Mississippi who openly supported and actively campaigned for President Eisenhower in 1952.

In his statement, Judge McGowan quickly added: "I want it known that I will not support him (Eisenhower) in 1956."

Judge McGowan said: "He simply has not kept the promises relied upon by millions of conservatives who swept him into office in 1952. He has followed the sickening old party pattern—painting after the black voters who fought him so fiercely."

"The other party is run by a similar crowd of politicians—the ADA-Americans For Democratic Action. That means Adlai Stevenson, Walter Reuther, and other like socialists.

"I raise my voice, humble and obscure as it is, to warn the people of Mississippi at if they follow either of these groups of politicians, they will only trudge down the tragic road to defeat and despair.

"I also bring tidings of good cheer. Throughout the entire nation powerful forces are at work, seeking to bring out a strong independent candidate for President, not beholden to either of the parties, not a socialist captive; a man who will preserve constitutional government and States Rights.

"Complete party re-alignment is the goal. The socialists should be stopped from running two parties. Let them found their own. Our present party names are mere empty symbols. We should have a Conservative Party, and a Socialist or Socialist-Labor Party.

READING, WRITING AND RHETORIC
(Cleveland Plain Dealer)

The other day we heard the story of a young man finishing junior high school in one of Cleveland's "better" suburbs who received a request to have one of his parents visit the principal. His mother paid the call and found it wasn't caused by anything her son had done; it was just that he couldn't read, and his teachers didn't feel they could, with justice, pass him along to senior high school.

The University of Illinois has announced, according to the Chicago Tribune, that, beginning in 1960, it will cease offering a remedial course in freshman rhetoric with which, since 1943, it has been attempting to overcome the deficiencies brought to the university from elementary and secondary schools.

A colleague of ours who formerly taught a college journalism course was reminded recently that once when he mentioned to his class something about "disgracing sentences" less than half knew what he was talking about.

We wonder how some high school pupils and college students can get through years of "study" without their parents realizing that they don't know how to read properly and that they don't know grammar from grandpa.

Could it be that the parents don't know how to read properly, too?

A Great Democrat's Fight Against Income Tax

This is the last installment of William Bourke Cockran's great speech in 1884 defending the tradition of the Democratic party and opposing an income tax.

Those people who have read the history of the Democratic party are pretty well convinced that Cockran was one of the last great defenders of the ideologies of the Democratic party.

Cockran puts it in this manner:

"So we see the Democratic party in the throes of a great struggle, apparently anxious to drive from their ranks the men who have been faithful in battle and in peace, in storm and in sunshine. I beseech you to pause before you enter upon a course which will prove disastrous to yourselves. You, gentlemen who surround me have at stake in the success of the Democratic party than we have who warn you of the danger which is involved in this legislation. You may pass this bill without our assistance, but you will not maintain the supremacy of our party if you array against it the sober, conservative judgment of the productive masses of this country. We have defended you in the past when your rights as citizens were imperiled, and we enemies. We are anxious to win fresh victories for you and with you. We stand firmly and squarely for every question of policy upon which the party has ever pronounced. In the attitude which we have taken to this amendment we stand with the apostles of Democracy who have given the law to the party for over one hundred years.

"In our opposition to this legislation we stand with Thomas Jefferson, who was opposed to internal-revenue taxation. I have here the declaration of Thomas F. Bayard made in the Senate, that an income tax is abominable, because it is a tax on property 'per se'. I have here the language of Allen C. Thurman, spoken January 23, 1870, in the Senate of the United States, holding the same views. And, lastly, I present here to gentlemen from the South the words coming to us as it were from the grave, of Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, who declared an internal-revenue tax indelible in this country.

"Mr. Pence. Any kind of an internal-revenue tax?

"Mr. Cockran. Any kind of an internal-revenue tax. If you cast it out of the party you must cast out with it the men whose words have been accepted as the final interpretation of party doctrine by the people of this country. Where are the men, three or thirty among you, who will announce themselves the leaders of this new Democracy which is to be built on the ruins of our ancient beliefs? Where are the men, three or thirty among you, whose hands will pull the figures of Jefferson and of Bayard, of Thurman and of Stephens, from the niches which they have occupied for generations in the temple of our common faith, trample them under feet and replace them by—

"Mr. McMillan rose.

"Mr. Cockran. Perhaps the gentleman from Tennessee. (Laughter.)

"Mr. McMillan. Does the gentleman, in pursuance of the doctrine which he has just quoted from Alexander H. Stephens, advocate here and now the repeal of all internal-revenue taxes?"

"Mr. Cockran. Mr. Chairman, if that proposition were before the House I would not hesitate to say yes. (Applause.) I would be glad to see every gauger and every internal-revenue collector in this country turned out of office and sent back to the ranks of citizenship. I have always believed this Government should be supported by a tariff levied for revenue only. I oppose this income tax because it is not imposed in the interests of all the people but for the oppression of a part of the people. I oppose it because it is a violation of the principles upon which our institutions are founded by which this country has achieved a material prosperity which has astounded the world, and a moral influence which has edified and dignified the human race. I oppose it because it is a tax on industry and thrift and is therefore a manifestation of hostility to that desire for success which is the mainspring of human activity.

"Where, sir, is the Democrat who will stand upon this floor and declare that he is ready to displace the venerated exponents of our party doctrine? What son of Georgia, for instance, will declare that the teachings of Alexander H. Stephens are heresy?"

"With what swelling pride and conscious merit may we go before the people and declare, 'Behold our progress. See how the Democratic party has grown.' (Laughter.) When the long line of leaders from Jefferson to Bayard and Thurman shall have been displaced and discarded, when the new leadership of the gentleman from Georgia and the gentleman from Tennessee shall have been established, then in order to keep within the party lines we must discard every tradition and principle which as Democrats we have always cherished. We must accept a new gospel of Democracy at the hands of these new leaders; we who have received the ancient gospel from the apostles of the Democratic faith."

Equality Before Law As Before God

"Sir, I protest against this betrayal of our ancient principles. I protest against this treason to our faith, to our platform, to our traditions, to our heroes. I protest against partial laws, which-er they be intended to favor the few or the many. I demand for all men the same equality before the law which they enjoy in the sight of God. In the name of that one God whom we all worship; in the name of that one party which the majority here supports I demand now, as I have always demanded, one citizenship, one country, one law, one Democratic faith, one common plane of equality for all the people, without distinction of wealth, of birth, of race, or of creed. (Prolonged applause on the floor and in the galleries.)"

Few Big Differences Between Ike, Demos

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — Few major differences on broad foreign policy will separate President Eisenhower from his Democratic opponent in the Presidential campaign, regardless of the identity of the opposition's nominee. Although the Democrats must denounce the Administration's record in this field, a realistic appraisal of the opposing viewpoints shows that they are not far apart.

In their recent speeches, candidates Adlai E. Stevenson, Senator Estes Kefauver and Governor Averell Harriman have revealed their line of attack. Although they differ on details, with Stevenson assuming a more moderate attitude than his noisier competitors for the nomination, they agree fundamentally on what they think is wrong with the Eisenhower-Dulles program.

They charge that the Administration has relied too heavily on "over-militarization," and that it has failed to meet the new challenge of Russian economic penetration. They say that the United States has given too strong support to France and Britain in their disputes in Asia, the Middle East and North Africa, thus provoking the suspicion that the U.S. has abandoned its historic, anti-colonial rule.

The point to the existence of a still divided Germany, Korea and Indo-China. We have lost, they insist, our moral, military and economic prestige and supremacy. In short, we are losing the "cold war," in their opinion.

In disputing this indictment, President Eisenhower notes that we have checked the Communists' aggressive military thrusts in Korea, Indo-China, the Balkans and the Middle East. Although the counteroffensive was initiated by Harry S. Truman, he left the fulfillment of the arresting program to Eisenhower. Not until the military front had been made relatively secure could Washington prepare to meet Russia on the economic battlefield.

Eisenhower has shifted his policy to cope with the Russian's challenge, and with the Democratic criticism. He has agreed to participate in the economic activities of the Baghdad Pact, although refusing to make the U.S. a military member of the Northern Tier Alliance in the Middle East. He has offered financial aid to many nations now dealing with Russia, including Yugoslavia, Egypt, India, and Afghanistan.

He has asked Congress for a more generous, long-range program of foreign assistance in recognition of Moscow's offers to friendly and hostile regimes. It is the Democrats who want to reduce the amount he has requested, and they are intended to favor the few or the many. I demand for all men the same equality before the law which they enjoy in the sight of God. In the name of that one God whom we all worship; in the name of that one party which the majority here supports I demand now, as I have always demanded, one citizenship, one country, one law, one Democratic faith, one common plane of equality for all the people, without distinction of wealth, of birth, of race, or of creed. (Prolonged applause on the floor and in the galleries.)" to keep the plan for international co-operation on a piecemeal, year-to-year basis.

Stevenson's proposal that the development of backward lands be handled by the United Nations, and with Russian as well as American funds, was first advanced by Christian A. Herter, the Republican Governor of Massachusetts. Ike has already agreed to grant or lend money without regard for the recipient's ideological allegiance. But it is extremely doubtful that Democratic majorities on Capitol Hill will delegate management of American capital to the U.N. organization.

Although criticizing the statesmen in Korea and Indo-China and Germany, no Democratic candidate has offered a constructive solution. Would they approve a new war to unify the Korean and Indo-China Peninsula, or to unite the two Germanys? In view of Truman's refusal to permit General Douglas MacArthur to bomb beyond the Yalu River, it appears unlikely that Capitol Hill Democrats would support such a military adventure.

Finally, almost every problem before Eisenhower and Dulles are legacies from the Roosevelt and Truman Administrations. In India, Indo-China, Indonesia, Israel and North Africa, it was they who lighted the flames of nationalism and anti-Americanism which Ike now seeks to extinguish.

It is extremely doubtful if any of his ambitious critics on the Democratic side would dare to alter the Administration's foreign program, if he should be burdened with the awful responsibilities of the President of the United States.

The Dangers Of Social Security

By Thurman Sensing

In dealing with the question of social security, let it first be understood that anyone who believes in the responsibility of the individual rather than of the individual himself is condoning socialism.

It is the privilege of anyone to believe in socialism, of course, but if he does believe in it, he should realize it is his responsibility to show that socialism is the best system. He will find no instance in history to help him prove his point — and it has been tried time and time again.

That is the broad aspect of social security. Now, let us get down to the practical aspects of social security as it was established in the United States in 1935. It started off with rates of 1 per cent each on employer and employee contributions on the first $3,000 of annual earnings. It is now 2 per cent each on the first $4,200.

But a bill was passed in the last session of Congress that liberalizes and broadens social security benefits — and would at the same time boost social security taxes. A similar measure is now in the hands of the Senate Finance Committee in this session of Congress. Under this revision, the present rate of 2 per cent on the first $4,200 of the worker's annual income would go up to 2 1/2 per cent. On self-employed workers, the present rate of 3 per cent would go up to 3 1/2 per cent. There would be a steady increase in this rate until by 1957 the worker and employer would each be paying a 4 1/2 per cent tax while the self-employed worker would be paying 6 1/2 per cent.

Considering the heavy federal income tax and all the other taxes the individual must pay, this social security tax is quite an additional burden. In fact, the impact on low-income individuals would be startling.

Take, for example, a self-employed person with income of $4,200 in 1955. Assuming he takes the standard 10 per cent deduction and has a wife and two children, his federal income tax bill, under present rates, will be $276. On the other hand, his social security tax — which is computed before exemptions and deductions — will under the proposed bill be $283.50. Even more startling is the tax that would be imposed, under these assumptions, on a family of four — an income level that political leaders treat as the "poverty line." Such a family is exempt from income tax but would have $135 a year of social security taxes to pay under this new bill!

All this is assuming, too, that the benefits to be paid out under social security during these coming years will not be more than now estimated. Yet now look at it — when the bulk of the tax comes from the small wage earners and the tax on the highest incomes is almost confiscatory!

In addition to this aspect of social security, the great cloud that hangs over the whole system is fact that all social security taxes are considered as part of the general income of the government and are spent just as fast as they are received. Any so-called reserve is nothing more nor less than a bookkeeping entry — and the big fact that we should never overlook is that all social security benefits must be paid for out of taxes collected during the year in which they are paid.

It could very easily happen that a younger and wiser generation will come along that will decide the whole system is too burdensome and abolish this socialistic venture altogether. If that happens, it will then become quite clear to everybody that the social security taxes paid in up until that time are nothing more than exactly what they are — spent money.

Before The Dishes Are Done

By BETTY KNOWLES HUNT

AMERICA HANGS HER HEAD!
This columnist is proud to be an American, and not ashamed to say so out loud, in public. Perhaps, therefore, it is high time we did exactly that. There is something inherent in writing a regular column like this which seems to make criticism a more natural function than the compliment. Thus, the danger develops that readers may get the impression that the writer doesn't really admire the United States very much.

Nothing could be further from the truth, at least, for this columnist! It is precisely because we DO love and admire America's principles, traditions, and history so deeply that we become so concerned and agitated when they show signs of being ignored or sabotaged. We have seen enough of other countries, and read enough of their histories and records to be firmly convinced that no other people in all the world has a greater right to be proud.

Thus — it comes as a shock to observe our current leaders adopting an apologetic and hangdog attitude in their public speeches. This is particularly true of President Eisenhower's recent statements. "The United States," he says, "cannot live alone — a paragon of prosperity — with all the rest of the world sinking lower and lower in its standards of living." Perhaps he thought such a statement would persuade Congress to support his new increased foreign-aid bill, but it seems more likely to do just the opposite. For — if "all the rest of the world" is really "sinking lower and lower in its standards of living," as he suggests, then it must mean that the nearly fifty billions we Americans have given away all over the globe since World War II, has done nobody the slightest bit of good, and if this is so, then we certainly ought to quit giving away any more!

The President's statement sounds like a national "apology" — to the world. It pictures our nation as a selfish miser, wallowing greedily in our wealth, and too insensitive to care a hoot about anyone else's needs. Such a picture is ludicrous, unjust, and untrue. No nation in all history has ever been so "internationally generous." Indeed, the major fear of Congress right now, as it faces the new foreign-aid bill, is that we have gone haywire for too long, placing the wants and needs of all other nations ahead of our own national self-interest! Surely, the President does not seriously expect any American taxpayers to develop a guilty conscience on this score of selfishness, for every face in our post-war history denies it categorically.

Yet — what other interpretation can we make of the President's speech? He even emphasizes this theme with an irrelevant story. "There is an old story," he said, "about the man who owned the factory in a town on which the living of the community depended. He built a great house on the hill and all the rest of the people lived in the plain below in fairly meager circumstances. The climax of the story was that when things began to go bad, the man on top found that he was not safe except when the people below were contented and believed that they were advancing. When they became depressed and lost their morale, and the company began to fail, this man fell further than the others, because he had a greater distance to go."

Is America somehow to be condemned because it followed the right political and economic principles which led to happiness and prosperity? Is the President suggesting that we somehow owe all the rest of the world an equal standard of living out of our own pockets? Even if he could make a moral case for this, which he can't, it would be totally impossible economically. We could give away our entire income, and all our resources, and still make hardly a dent in the world standard of living. This is the Socialist approach — "dividing up the pie," and not the American approach of spreading the atmosphere of individual freedom and incentive so that everybody — everywhere can produce more. Subsidizing people and governments is the surest way of creating dependence and poverty, not of spreading happiness and prosperity!

A good and wise parent teaches his child how to stand on his own two feet and make his independent way in the world alone. A good and wise government can do no more. It can aid in a temporary emergency. It can make sensible loans to sensible, self-paying projects, but it cannot subsidize whole peoples, or governments, or the world, or win a single friend with dollar bribes. If it tries, as we seem to have been trying, it can only encourage others to envy and hate us, and in the end, reduce an American Santa Claus to a miserable pauper!

PICTURE SPORTS NEWS

AROUND THE WORLD

GIANTS' YEAR?—Bill Rigney, left, new manager of the New York Giants, lines up four of his stalwarts at the club's training camp in Phoenix, Ariz., to underscore his hope that 1956 will be a big year for the team. He's counting on Davey Williams (1), Wes Westrum (9), Len Jackson (5), and Ray Murray (6) to make it a big season.

UP AND AT HIM—Larry Richards, 60 pounds of fighting man, is being restrained by the referee as he prepares to bombard his fallen opponent, Benny Warren. The lads were taking part in the Greater Atlanta, Ga., Boys' Boxing Tournament.

LIKE OLD TIMES—A's manager Eddie Joost has donned the uniform of the San Francisco Seals, the Pacific Coast League team he'll pilot this season. It's familiar territory for Eddie, who left the San Francisco Missions for the major leagues away back in 1936.

WORKING OUT—Middleweight champion Sugar Ray Robinson has his six-year-old son, Ray, Jr., for company these days as he does some road work through the snow at his training camp at Greenwood Lake, N. Y. Robinson is training for a return bout with Bobo Olson, from whom he took the title not long ago. They're slated for a return match in Los Angeles on May 18, where the weather should be a little warmer.

ARCTIC ARENA—Up near the North Pole, winter sports are a natural and Canadian GIs have year-round fun at the Resolute Bay RCAF station. Inside this tunnel, the men have constructed a rink for playing curling, a sort of bowling game on ice.

WATER LILLI—She's pert Cuban dancer Lilli Valli and she's making quite a splash for herself in Miami Beach. She's doing it in two ways; in the Atlantic Ocean, as shown here, and in the night club circuit, as well.

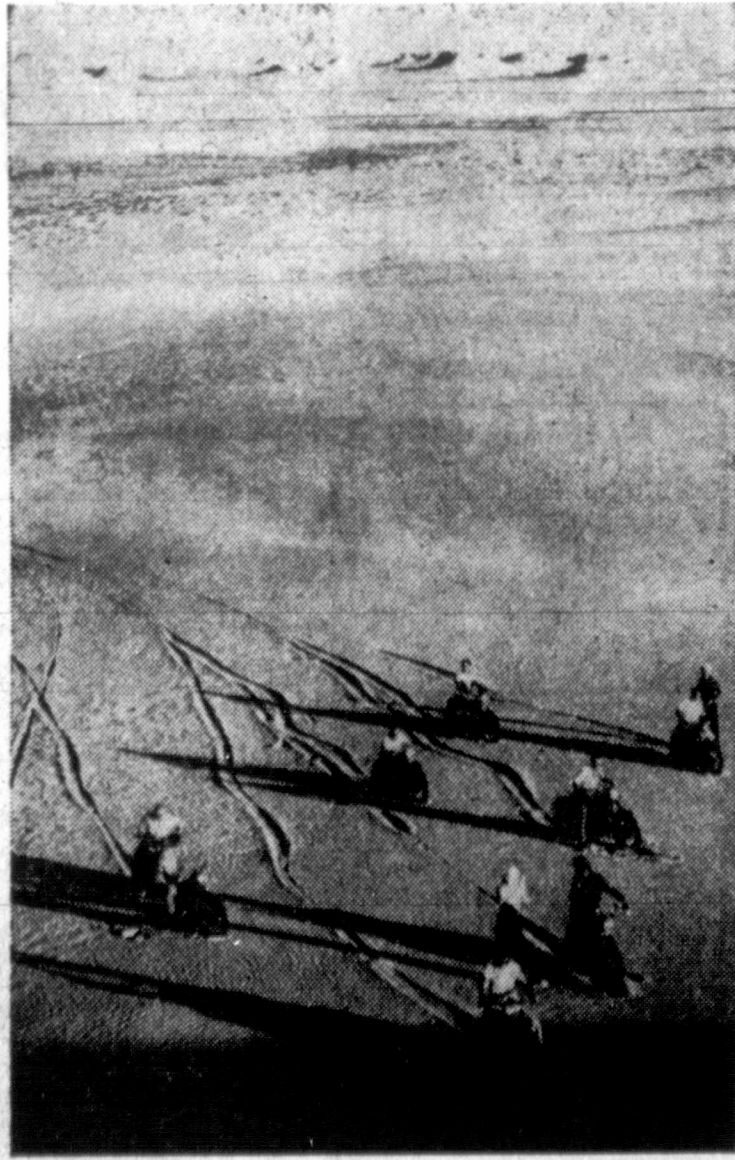

FROM INDIA—Turning its gay back on Western design, this print cotton sport shirt adopts a distinctive India pattern in either black or navy and white. Called Bombay, the shirt is worn here with a walking short made of a woven rayon stripe which is comfortable and smart.

THE WINNER!—Tom Thumb, a burro, won the Special Plug Horse Derby held at Gulfstream Park in Hallandale, Fla., with overweight "jockey" Ed Townsend finishing in second place. Townsend was bucked off the animal in the stretch and finished the race on foot.

GET THE POINT?—Here's a puncture-proof method of running over a nail. French fakir Nadia Jo, lying on a bed of nails, doesn't seem to be getting stuck as author Daniel Sauvage and his wife run their scooter over her in Paris. The whole thing was a publicity stunt for Sauvage's new book, and Nadia Jo should have been well paid for her "pains."

WHAT NEXT?—Employees of an oil company in Saudi Arabia are taking up sand cycling, in which they race motorcycles across the desert and up and down 60-foot-high sand dunes. Skill is needed to enjoy the desert sport, as some of the dunes break sharply beyond the crest. Jumping from small sand dunes down a dune where sand is soft is another sport.

TWO FIRST PRIZES—Paulette Nelson, 19, of Los Angeles, Calif., won the title of Miss U.S.A. of 1956, in Los Angeles, when Bill Pearl, 25, of Sacramento won the title of Mr. U.S.A. Paulette seems full of admiration for her male counterpart who also won the same title in 1953.

BATTLING A SHARK—Film star Victor Mature isn't entirely acting in this fierce battle with a shark on location at Cuba's Isle of Pines for a new picture, "The Sharkfighters." While the doped shark in the background, fin showing, behaved according to the script, the eight-foot bull shark in the foreground came out of his coma. Mature, who might have resented the scene stealing as much as the danger, had to do battle with the shark, but emerged with only scratches.
