

BEAUTY ON THE BEACH—The smog doesn't bother pretty Nancy Young, 16, as she stretches out on this beach in Santa Monica, Calif. That's because she's wearing a "smog helmet," which is better known to youngsters as a plastic space helmet. But though it keeps away the smog, it's of little help in keeping away men's stares.

The commissioners approved a bill submitted by W. R. Colville Construction Company for $8,799.37 for curb and gutter work in connection with the current paving program.

In other action, the commissioners passed on the third reading, ordinance number 443, which has to do with annexation of an area north and east of the municipal swimming pool. They passed on second reading, ordinance number 444, closing the hearing on paving work in the 100 block of E. 20th.

An outline of specifications for the two proposed new city water wells was presented by City Engineer James Cowan.

The appointment of an interim committee for the proposed new traffic ordinance for Pampa was delayed until next week since the list of appointments was not complete.

There were indications but no proof that Tennessee has been having a hard time on the Chinese side of the border. There were reports of a "European" sleeping in a boxcar one night. There have been other reports of a "European" sleeping wherever he could.

The Finnish embassy in Peiping called the Hong Kong government last week it had been informed that Tennessee was leaving China. The cable mentioned Dec. 1 as the release date but Tennessee did not appear. The British fired off a cable to Peiping saying they would accept him.

The New York governor singled out Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay and former Assistant Secretary of Commerce Lathair Teeter as men high in the Eisenhower administration who are unfriendly to labor.

West Germany Is Talking Tough To East German Reds

By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Foreign Analyst

The tough talk of the Communists in Berlin is getting the headlines in news from Germany these days.

That is quite natural. The Communist blustering brings with it the threat of a new blockade of Berlin.

But some tough talk is coming also from West Germany's leaders about the German situation in general.

Russia has been told firmly within the last few days that normal relations with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government will be impossible as long as the Kremlin obstructs German unification.

Spokesmen of opposition parties have backed Adenauer's stand that unification must continue to be the No. 1 goal of the West German republic.

Entire Approval
Adenauer has won the overwhelming approval of Bundestag, the dominant lower house of parliament, for his pro-Western policy.

It must be remembered also that any Communist threat to Berlin is a threat to West Germany and will serve to intensify hostility to the Communists.

Adenauer demonstrated his remarkable recovery from his recent attack of pneumonia when he addressed the Bundestag.

That was good news for the free world.

Good news also was the fact that when Mrs. Joseloff said most girls yearn for a "Hollywood luxury-type bedroom with lots of white organdy ruffles around a dressing table." She regards organdy ruffles as highly impractical from an upkeep standpoint, but says they can serve a purpose in a girl's life.

"She'll learn one important lesson in home design when she looks at those drooping ruffles a few weeks later," the designer said. "Each piece of furniture should fill a need and not just be put in a corner because it is pretty or goes with the wall color."

Heinrich Von Brentano, West Germany's new foreign minister, took the leading part in the debate and showed plainly that he is a man of strength.

When Brentano told the Bundestag on Thursday that normal relations between West Germany and Russia will be impossible until the Kremlin agrees to reunification he was making his debut in debate as foreign minister.

Brentano seemed then to be emerging more clearly as West Germany's No. 2 man, and as the probable chancellor, if anything happens to 79-year-old Adenauer. Like Adenauer, Brentano has come into international prominence only in the last few years. He and Adenauer were the co-founders of the post-war Christian Democratic party.

Trained as a Lawyer
Brentano is an exceedingly keen-looking, smartly dressed bachelor. Trained as a lawyer, he is quick-witted in debate. At 51, he seems to have a long political career ahead of him.

The Russians seem to have the whip hand in their ability to keep Germany divided. But they insist on the division only because they fear unification.

It was announced in Bonn, the West German capital, last Thursday that 204,000 East Germans fled to the West in the first 10 months of 1955. The East German government is strengthening its secret police because it fears unrest. With singular frankness, the East Germans announced they might have to introduce a draft law because they can not raise volunteers for their police army. In all, the position of the West in Germany is not as bad as it may seem.

Modern Wife Has To Be A Real Jack-Of-All-Trades

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY

NEW YORK—UP—A modern wife is supposed to have a head for figures, an eye for good design, a hand in community projects, a firm grip on her children, a sympathetic ear for her husband's business problems and a mind of her own.

She needs the iron nerves of a circus juggler and the combined abilities of chef, decorator, social worker and a movie siren, lamented a sympathetic woman who has been a consultant to hundreds of housewives in the past decade. "The worst thing about it," added Barbara Joseloff as she sat calmly in the center of a confusion of lamps, chairs and lengths of fabric, "is that a woman feels such a failure if she falls down in filling any of these roles."

An Interior Designer
Mrs. Joseloff is called to step in and rescue women from only one type of trouble. When the drapes don't go with the furniture and the chairs don't suit the family's needs and the housewife's temper is frayed from trying to remedy the mistakes—that's when Mrs. Joseloff's phone rings. She is an interior designer.

"And what kind of a reaction do a lot of wives get from their husbands when they go to a decorator?" Mrs. Joseloff asked. "The man says, 'You mean you can't plan your own home... you have to call in somebody else?'"

"We have made women ashamed to confess their own lack of ability. We've made them feel they lack good taste if they don't create a charming home. Actually, interior designing has little to do with taste. It requires knowledge of good design. Unless a woman has time to study it, we shouldn't expect her to be an expert."

Must Be Trained
"Tastes must be trained," the designer said. "If you have a daughter you train her taste in clothes. You tell her easily that she shouldn't wear a polka dot skirt with a plaid blouse. She can begin to learn home designing taste by helping plan her own bedroom."

WHICH WAY?—This confusing signpost got plenty of laughs from pedestrians, but certainly not from drivers. Located at heavily traveled Park Square in Boston, Mass., its upside-down detour sign and straight-up arrow puzzled many a motorist. The traffic commission finally replaced the detour marker, but the directions to the Mystic River Bridge may still mystify the literal-minded driver.

Big Quiz Show Dropping In Popularity

By WILLIAM EWALD
NEW YORK — UP — Television is a hungry monster. In the past, it has gobbled up such performers as Wally Cox, Imogene Coca and Red Buttons. It has boosted such programs as "Dragnet," "I Love Lucy" and the Milton Berle show to the dizzy top, then gnawed them down to a comfortable level.

And now, it seems to be nibbling on the edges of TV's most popular programs—"The $64,000 Question," "The Price Is Right" and "The $12,000 Family."

Television's most widely talked about show has now passed the half-year mark. Over its first 26 airings, it has passed out $295,584, five convertibles and sent at least seven contestants on to a fair measure of fame.

It has harvested more publicity than any other show in history, made a top star out of emcee Hal March and added several new phrases to the lexicon—"$64,000 question," "isolation booth," "the first plateau," "go for the summit" and "lovely Barbara Britton."

It has sold its sponsor's products like crazy, turned a bank vice president into a national celebrity with four fan clubs and forced other quiz shows to jack up their pots.

It has proved that ordinary citizens can be conversant with such esoterica as jazz, opera, the Bible, Shakespeare, poetry and fisticuffs.

It has shackled as many as 50 million citizens to their sets each Tuesday evening an all-time high for a regularly scheduled program.

But for some weeks now, there have been indications that it may be ready to settle to a less heady level—still one of TV's top shows, but less fantastic in its drawing power.

The trendex ratings back this up. But the ratings have been dropping steadily.

Truman At Home Slightly Ill

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—UP—Former President Harry S. Truman is suffering a "slight" illness and will remain at his home in nearby Independence for several days, Dr. Wallace Graham said Monday.

Graham said the former President became ill Friday, but is "coming along fine." He is suffering from an intestinal malady, the physician said, adding that it is in no way connected with the critical illness which Mr. Truman suffered a year ago last summer.

Graham said the present illness was not a virus infection, but declined to identify it other than as an intestinal disturbance.

Asked whether the former President was bedfast, Graham said "he was for a while."

Bible Budget Set
NEW YORK — UP — The American Bible Society's advisory council and board of managers approved a budget of $3,858,000 for its 1956 interdenominational program of translating, publishing and distributing the Bible and encouraging the reading of scriptures Thursday.

Motor vehicle registrations and travel mileage on the nation's highways are expected to increase more than 20 per cent by 1963.

Christmas Belles Shine In New Holiday Hosiery

Luxurious and whimsical stockings add to your party mood during the holidays. Rhinestones (left) are sprinkled over the ankle in nylon stockings that twinkle. Tiny sprays of golden bobbles (above left) are used at knee of these nylons just for fun. Holly sparkles with pearls and rhinestones. Appliques of black Chantilly lace appear (above right) on instep of these stockings. Tiny spray of golden pine (right) is hand-painted at knee of one stocking. Two small pearls in red and green form Christmas ornaments.—By GAILE DUGAS, NEA Women's Editor.

Goodwill HDC Has Christmas Party And Installs New Slate Of Officers

The Goodwill Home Demonstration Club held a Christmas party recently in the home of Mrs. Worth Nelson, 513 N. Hazel.

Gifts were exchanged, each woman having made the gift she brought. The children present also exchanged gifts. Miss Helen Dunlap, county HD agent, was presented a luncheon cloth, with "Gray County 1955" printed in the center. From the center extended eight "spokes" with the name of each club, the commissioners' court and the HD office staff printed on each spoke. Each person present autographed the spoke bearing her club's name.

New officers were installed by Miss Dunlap, who gave each office a red candle. She explained about HD club work and how each member can help the other and others in her community.

Installed were Mrs. John L. B. Johnson, president; Mrs. Louis Epps, vice-president; and Mrs. Bill Cox, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Dunlap explained that the president is to oversee the club activities, see that everything runs smoothly and that programs are presented in a way to benefit the most members. The vice-president, she pointed out, is chairman of the yearbook committee, and is to help and encourage the president. The secretary-treasurer is to keep an accurate account of each meeting and oversee the expenditures of the club, she stated.

During the business session, it was decided to have a family Christmas party at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 9, in the American Legion-VFW Hall. Mrs. A. P. Coombes, council delegate, announced the tailoring show and council Christmas party will be held at 2 p.m. Dec. 13, in the Lovett Library.

Attending were Misses James Baird, Louis Epps, John Johnson, Bill Cox, A. P. Coombes, Worth Nelson, Derrell Hogsett, and Miss Dunlap.

SEASON-DEFYING, SILK-CRISPED COTTONS will flash through December and linger into spring. So says the December issue of Seventeen magazine which acclaim the event of airy, part-silk, part-cotton dresses with a collection in festive stripes.

FROM CHRISTMAS past Easter, a cotton and silk shirtwaist dress will look winsome in zebra stripes of black and white. Its white collar and cuffs are fastened with red roses. Another striped silk and cotton with squared-off sleeveless bodice and full skirt looks fashionably like spring all year round. White stripings run across orange, blue or green backgrounds.

A lavish Midas has gold-spattered the season's dresses in taffeta and silk, shown for holiday wear. Both demure and dazzling is one dance dress which interprets the shirtwaist design in pure silk-sari cloth. Gilded print runs rampant on a field of turquoise. A taffeta treasure is red and gilt-speckled — its skirt topped by a high-necked sleeveless overblouse.

Fine gold stripes go round and round a dress made for twirling. Of acetate and silk, this prettily-shaped shimmer has a big-bowed bateau neck and can be had in yellow, pink or blue. Another is a boldly emblazoned dress in "royal-family" red acetate taffeta. The neckline is high and wide; the waistline low. Another striped silk and cotton with squared-off sleeveless bodice and full skirt looks fashionably like spring all year round. White stripings run across orange, blue or green backgrounds.

School Milk Policy Called Aid To Farmer

DALLAS —UP— The special school milk program started a year ago by the food distribution division of the U.S. Agricultural Department drew praise Monday as a boon to the dairy farmer.

Martin D. Garber, Enid, Okla., businessman who heads the food distribution division in Washington, was in Dallas Monday to see how the food programs he directs for the Agricultural Marketing Service are operating in the Southwest.

"The main purpose of our work is to expand the markets for our farm products," Garber, who also is a farmer and cattle grower, said.

"One of the programs making rapid strides in this direction is the special school milk program started just a year ago," he added. He pointed out that in Texas alone, more than 2,000 public schools are taking part in the special program compared with 1,377 at the peak of operation last year.

"You can see what a vast new market this is for our dairy farmers," Garber said. "Consumption of milk at school has jumped about 50 per cent, on the average, since the special school milk program started."

Man Kills Wife, Self

BRYAN, Tex. —UP—John Webb, 50, owner of a popular record shop, strangled his wife, 35, Monday, then wrote a will and two letters, and shot himself to death.

The bodies were found in the Webb home at 7:25 a. m. Monday after Webb telephoned Mrs. Webb's brother, Jack Hudson, in Houston and told him he had killed his wife and would kill himself.

Hudson immediately called another brother, Cleo Hudson, in Bryan and Cleo rushed to the Webb home only to find the pair dead.

Justice of the Peace H. L. Graham said Mrs. Webb had been strangled about 2 a. m. He said Webb died about 7:10 a. m. after placing a deer rifle trigger to his mouth and pulling the muzzle.

In his will he left his estate to two daughters by a previous marriage and to his second wife's two young daughters, Winona, 10, and Sue Watson, 8.

Webb also wrote two letters, one to his former wife and the other to a business partner.

Gas Mileage goes up AGAIN

And so does the thrill - with Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflo!

With all the big excitement of Buick's 1956 styling and power and ride and handling - it's easy to overlook this fact:

Gas mileage in the '56 Buicks takes a big step upward.

One reason, of course, is the new power plant itself.

Every new Buick cradles an advanced 322-cubic-inch V8 engine with the highest horsepower, Series for Series, in all Buick history. Yet every engine delivers more efficiency, and more usable power to the rear wheels—because each one has a new double "Y" manifold, and a new high in compression ratio.

But the major reason for the happy news in gas mileage—and for the new step-up in safety and thrills—is Buick's latest version of Variable Pitch Dynaflo.

In this airplane-principled transmission, you always had a gas-saving cruising range—and, at a switch of the pitch, a full-power getaway range.

Now Buick engineers have brought to this cruising range what they call "double regeneration." It simply means a new way to make flowing oil add to its own velocity to build up driving force.

Harvester Cagers Open Home Season Against Tulia Tonite Week Basketball Ratings

The Green and Gold Harvesters will open their 1955 home season by facing the tough Tulia Hornets in Harvester Fieldhouse at 8 tonight. The first game of the evening will get underway at 6:30 when the Shockers try for their fourth win of the season.

The Harvesters will be looking for their fourth win in four starts while the Shockers dropped their fourth game of the season to the Quinlan Indian B squad.

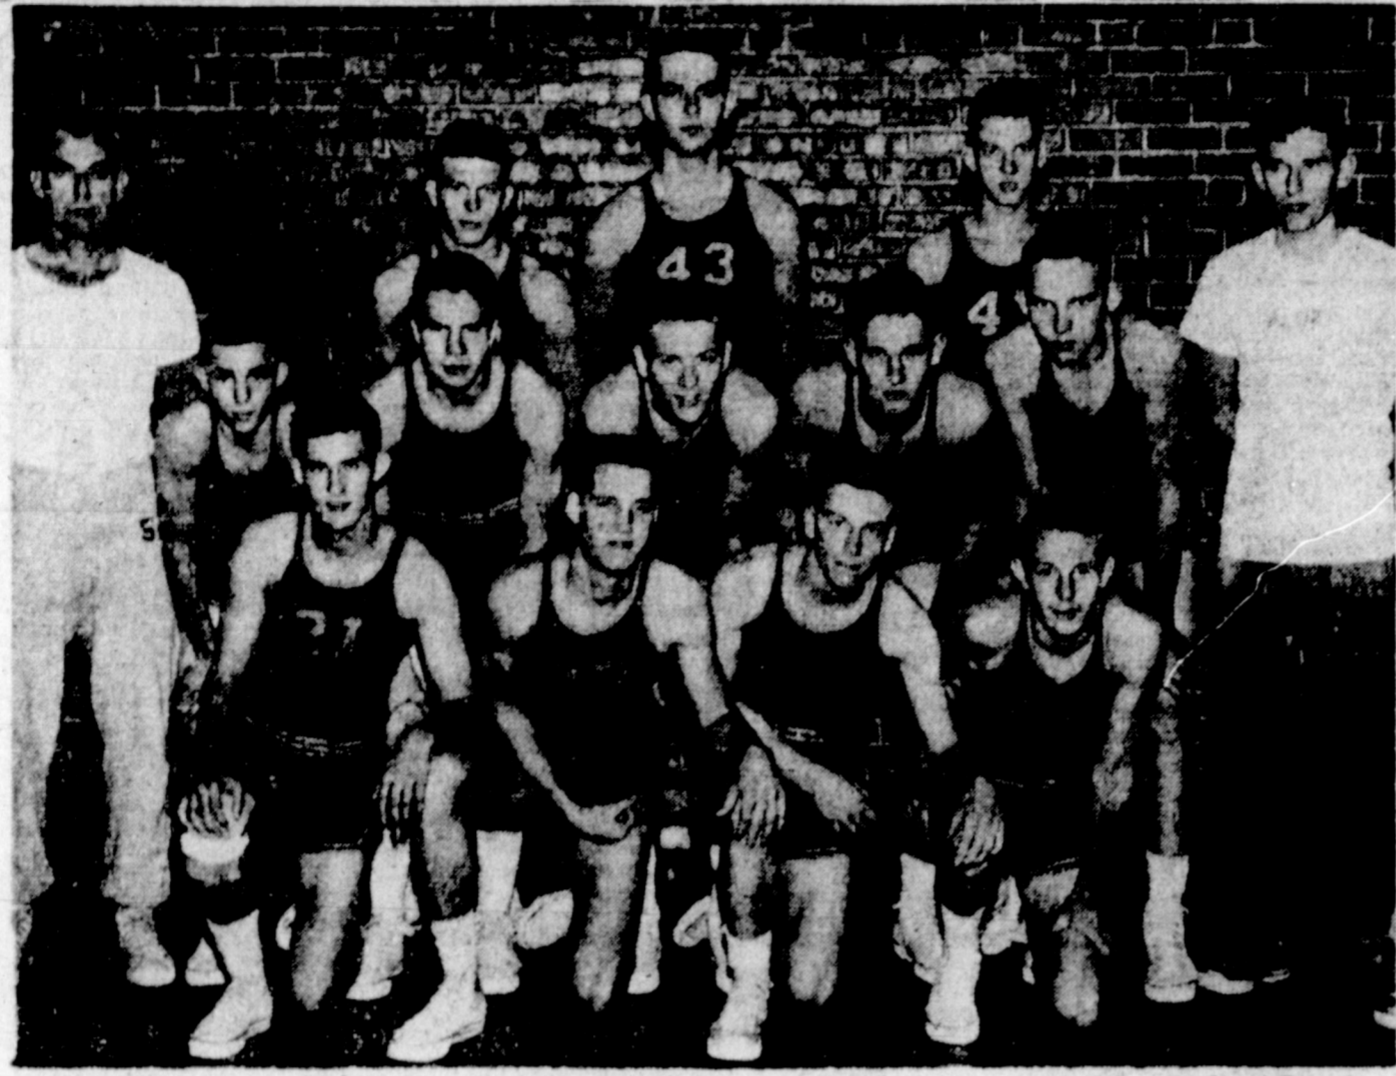

The Green and Golders, coached by Clifton McNeely who is in his seventh year at Pampa, will be trying to keep their home win streak going and try to make it 46 in a row at home. The Harvesters haven't been defeated in Harvester Fieldhouse since the Borger upset in February of 1952.

Borger came close to dropping them when they battled to a 65-64 overtime score last year after the Bulldogs downed the Harvesters by 19 points in Borger.

The probable starting lineup will be Gene Brown and Jerry Gee at the forward positions and Tommy Gindorf at the center. Carroll Cole and Dickie Mauldin will probably get the nod as starting Guards.

The remainder of the squad will probably see more action tonight in order to give them more experience and keep them in shape. Coach McNeely takes advantage of the non conference games to build basketball players for district competition.

The Shockers game will get underway at 6:30 and fans are urged to come out and give them a boost. They will be carrying the banner for the Harvesters next year.

HARVESTER CAGERS — The Green and Gold clad basketekers, coached by Clifton McNeely, will be out to make their home win streak 46 tonight as they meet the Tulia Hornets. They are FRONT ROW: Buddy Sharp, Gene Brown, Bennie Sparks and Tom Murray. SECOND ROW: Jimmie Enloe, Carrol Cole, Jerry Gee, Jerald Clark and Sam Condo. BACK ROW: Dickie Mauldin, Tommy Gindorf and Jerry Pope. S'West Cagers Get Off To A Bad Start

The South West Conference's already poor interseasonal record took a turn for the worse Monday night.

On the debit side of the ledger, Memphis State handed the Texas Aggies their third straight loss 47-11 at Memphis, Tenn.; Oklahoma kept Baylor in the winless column 65-55 at Norman; Oklahoma City University swamped Texas Christian 51-36 at Oklahoma City; and the Phillips seers downed Texas 92 to 66 at Bartlesville, Okla.

The Rice Owls won their third straight game against smaller college opposition by downing Lamar Tech 70-49 at Houston.

Defending champion Southern Methodist will be seeking its third straight win tonight when the Pipers meet Texas Wesleyan at Dallas in the only game involving a conference team.

Coach Ken Loeffler's young Aggies held Memphis State close until the Tennessee broke loose with a rash of points in the last 11 minutes of play. Ken Caldwell paced the Memphis attack with 31 points while Texas A&M's high man was George Mehaffey with 25.

Oklahoma City University slipped to an 11-0 lead over TCU and swelled it to a 40-20 halftime margin. The Chiefs were in control from the first minute and, at the time, had tripled TCU's score.

TCU's scoring ace, Dick O'Neal, had 14 points.

Coach Says Leave The Rules Alone

SAN FRANCISCO — UP—Coach Phil Woolpert of the University of San Francisco, an ardent foe of constant revisions in the basketball rules, felt Tuesday that regulations should be left alone and more attention given to teaching defensive tactics.

"I think the fans are getting saturated with high-scoring games," the outspoken boss of the nation's No. 1 team declared. "Offense has gotten far ahead in college basketball because it has been stressed on coaching. The way to restore balance would be by spending more time teaching defense and not changing the rules each year."

Boxing Terror In The Making By Flaherty

TODAY'S SPORTSMAN BY SCOTT BAILLIE
SAN FRANCISCO — UP — Remember Charlie Powell, the mammoth heavyweight who racked up 10 straight knockouts last year then went back to pro football after getting flattened himself by ringwise Charley Norkus?

Well, another "terror" is in the works now—handsome Eddie Macher of Sid Flaherty's stable. Macher has reached his quota of 10 knockouts in as many bouts since he started fighting for money last March. Does he feel he, too, is ready for Norkus? Of course.

"I'd fight him next week if Sid got him for me," the smiling Negro with a hairline mustache says.

But as for Rocky Marciano, Eddie would like to have "at least 20 fights" under his belt before that one.

The 23-year-old Macher not only is brimful of confidence but speaks fluent English, a rare thing in the Flaherty combine which boasts such grunts as Bobo Olin, Eddie Chavez and frigid old Sid himself.

Most local boxing writers are enthusiastic over Macher but temper this with caution. The consensus is that he hits hard, owns a tremendously fast pair of hands but still must prove he can take a punch.

Powell also hit hard and fast but his eyes turned glassy when he got tagged.

The toughest nut among Macher's string of obscure opponents so far has been Howard King of Reno, who lasted until the 10th round before Macher belted him out with a triphammer assault.

Macher only slugs when reminded that he has reached the point where big Powell was when the roof fell in.

"I was talking to Charlie the other day," Macher said. "He told me you can't fight and fool around the same time. He also said he is planning a comeback."

Macher's next opponent is one Ben Wise of Oakland, Calif., whom he meets here Dec. 12 in a preliminary on the Sandy Saddler-Dave Gallardo card. Supposing Wise happened to flatten Macher?

"It would be an awful shock," Macher agrees.

One of Macher's chief ambitions is to make enough money so his father, who is a mail handler in Redding, Calif., can retire.

Maryland's Bob Pellegrini Is UP's Lineman Of Year

By NORMAN MILLER
NEW YORK — UP — Bob Pellegrini, 225-pound All-America center who made what undoubtedly was Maryland's most important tackle of the season, Monday was named United Press lineman of the year for 1955.

Pellegrini, a 21-year-old senior from Yatesboro, Pa., was voted the honor in a nationwide poll of 307 sports writers and radio broadcasters. The six-foot-three Maryland star received 73 votes compared to 47 for his closest rival, All-American guard Bo Bolinger of Oklahoma.

Pellegrini was co-captain of the undefeated and untied Terrapins, and a standout both on offense and defense.

He made his most important play of the season in Maryland's most important game. That was in the second period of the Sept. 24 battle with UCLA, whom Maryland defeated 7-0.

Tackle Causes Fumble
UCLA had second down and goal to go on Maryland's two-yard line when fullback Doug Peters hurried his 200-pound frame over center. He hit a hole with one blocker in front of him. Pellegrini swept aside the blocker and jarred Peters with his heels with a savage tackle.

Peters fumbled the ball and guard Gene Dyson recovered for Maryland. That was the last offensive threat that day for UCLA.

Coach Jim Tatum's comment on Pellegrini's tackle: "It was one of the greatest defensive plays I ever saw and easily the most important one for us in the 1955 season. You might say it put us into the Orange Bowl, without it, we might not have gone undefeated."

Behind Bolinger in the lineman of the year voting, held in conjunction with the United Press All-America team, came end Ron Kramer of Michigan with 44 votes. Guard Cal Jones of Iowa with 27 and end Ron Beagle of Navy with 22. All made the All-America team.

Following them came Jim Parker of Ohio State, 15; Hugh Pitts of Texas Christian, 12; Hardiman Bruce Bosley, West Virginia, 9; Carl Nystrom, Michigan State, 7;

Scott Suber, Mississippi State, 6; Pat Bisceglia, Notre Dame, and Tom Maenta, Michigan, 4 each; Franklin Brooks, Georgia Tech, and Jerry Tubbs, Oklahoma, 3 each.

Nine other players each received two votes. They were: Mike Sandusky, Maryland; John Witte, Oregon State; All-America Norman Leggett, Louisiana State; Ken Vargo, Ohio State; John Paluck, Pittsburgh; Jim Brown, UCLA; Tony Sardisco, Tulane; and Fred Robinson, Washington.

NEW YORK — UP — It's a brand new college basketball season with the same old 1954-55 theme. San Francisco, last year's national champion, was placed in a class by itself Monday in the first weekly ratings of the United Press board of coaches.

All but three of the 35 outstanding coaches who comprise the United Press rating board picked the Dons No. 1 in the nation following a pair of weekend victories. San Francisco's point-total of 343 was only seven short of a perfect score.

Not only did Coach Phil Woolpert's men rank on top once again, but in their opening triumphs over Chico State and Southern California, they demonstrated the same remarkable defense and brilliant all-around balance with which they won the NCAA title last year.

Three Chose Other Teams
Of the three coaches who did not cast first-place votes for the West Coasters this week, two picked them second and one fourth. One of these coaches made third-ranked North Carolina State his No. 1 choice, one voted for seventh-ranked Illinois, and the other picked 13th-ranked St. Louis.

Kentucky, traditionally a strong challenger for national honors, ranked second, 94 point behind San Francisco. Coach Adolph Rupp's Wildcats, picked No. 2 in the pre-season ratings, opened their season with a 62-52 victory over Louisiana State.

North Carolina State, which won two games last week, ranked third, followed in order by Utah, Iowa and Dayton. After them came Illinois, Duquesne, Holy Cross and Brigham Young to round out the top 10.

Kentucky had 249 points, N. C. State 239, Utah 225, Iowa 200, Dayton 115, Illinois 84, Duquesne 67, Holy Cross 48 and Brigham Young 44.

Two Impressive Victories
Brigham Young, overlooked in the coaches' pre-season sizeup, was placed 10th after impressive 75-58 and 67-65 weekend victories over UCLA, a team picked in a tie for seventh place in the early forecast.

While San Francisco faces what should be an easy opponent in San Francisco State this week, a few of the other teams in the top 10 play tougher competition. North Carolina State is pitted against Wake Forest and Eastern Kentucky; Utah meets Arizona twice; Iowa faces Southern Methodist; and Dayton plays Miami of Ohio and Toledo.

George Washington headed the second 10 group, trailed in order by Indiana, St. Louis, UCLA, Marquette, Stanford, Kansas, Alabama, Seton Hall and Louisville.

In all, 45 teams received points in this week's scattered opening-week voting.

"FIGHTING PIRATE" — Lefors Quarterback Ronnie Rice receives the 1955 "Fighting Pirate" award from Coach H. W. Pirates Feted To Banquet By Baptist Brotherhood

LEFORS — (Special) — The Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church in Lefors feted the 1955 Pirate football team to a buffet style supper in the church annex last night.

Dr. William Beasley of Harding-Simmons University, Abilene, was principal speaker for the affair.

Following an introduction of the players by Coach H. W. Callan to the members of the Brotherhood, Dr. Beasley brought an address that was both humorous and challenging.

Beasley, after relating several of his favorite plays, challenged the members of the team to both have vision and be different. In his illustrations of "vision" and "difference", Beasley cited several incidents of Christian living and explained the terrific responsibility the older generations are placing on the younger.

Members of team present ending 25th year of football at Lefors included Milton Miller, Mike Nickolls, Tony Maples, Calvin Stracener, Larry Rider, "Tex" Nolan, Benzell Piggy, Bernard Johnson, Gene Fulton, Jerry Herring, Tommy Herring, Joe Fields, James Goucher, Jerry Jordan, Tommy Hedrick, Tommy Johnson, Johnny Quarles, Howard Bradford, James Waffner and Billy Joe Fulton.

Production of honey in North Dakota was estimated at 1,792,000 pounds in 1955.

JIM CRACKS

By JIM DEAN

IN THE PURSUIT of knowledge concerning history, it seemed to me that teachers overemphasized the importance of dates, though it made a course rather easy to pass. One can memorize the dates a certain war was fought, but to understand why it was fought and what were the results of the war—that was something else again.

However, when we consider current history, certain dates live indelibly in the human mind. We can quickly recall the personal events of a great day in history if it occurred during our lifetime, and the importance the day, can hardly be overplayed.

Tomorrow, incredible as may seem, is the 14th anniversary of the Japanese bombing of Pearl Harbor!

Where were you? Chances are you can recall in detail the activities of your personal life during that day, but it is doubtful that you will remember what you did on Dec. 6 or Dec. 8 in 1941. The impact of the event which altered the lives of all of us made unforgettable moments of what may otherwise have been "just another day."

LAST WEEK, I made somewhat of a long-range prediction concerning the state AAAA football playoff. The first phase of the prediction has come to pass, with Tyler and Baytown winning first round games and Abilene breezing through a mis-match at El Paso. The Tyler-Baytown game in Baytown at 2 p.m. Saturday is the top football attraction in Texas. That is the third game in a row for the Lions to be in such a spotlight, and should they win, they will have beaten three teams in a row which had perfect records. The pressure must be tremendous.

I had a chance to talk with Tyler Coach Buck Prejean in Tyler right after the Wichita Falls game, and he sent his greetings to Pampa. There are probably some ex-Harvesters around who remember playing under Prejean when he was coach here.

He is in a good position to win his first state football championship this year provided his team isn't crippled up in the contest with Baytown. The game will probably be rated a tossup with the edge to Baytown on home ground basis. But consider how evenly matched they are! Both have won 11 games and lost none. Tyler has scored an average of slightly less than 30 points a game, Baytown has scored an average of 24 points a game. Tyler has allowed 87 points to its opponents in 11 games, and Baytown has given up only 47 points in 11 games. You can hardly get a match more close than that. Prejean got to finals once before. He coached Lufkin High School in deep East Texas, to the finals and lost to San Angelo—I think that was in 1942.

West Texas sentiment will probably be for Abilene should the two teams meet a week for Saturday, but I'm sure Prejean's friends in Pampa will be pulling for him.

THE POET'S NOOK

IN KEEPING with the original thought in this week's column, I have received a contribution for the Nook from Pampa woman who has asked that her name not be used.

I am sorry she prefers not to be known, for the sentiment she has written touches the heart.

In her letter she said two sons were officers in the military service during world war II.

She wrote that one of her sons was on Bataan. The son later died as a result of imprisonment by the Japanese over the years.

This is her poem.

I remember so well, tho' 'twas years ago—
When my son to me would come,
I'd press a kiss to a bruise or bump,
Then he'd say "It's alright, Mom,"
And later, after a game of ball,
A race, or childish fight,
I'd hasten to soothe and heat the wound,
He'd say, "Mom, I'm alright."

It seems such a few short years have passed,
Since I trembled with fear and fright,
As they'd carry him off the grid-iron field,
And he'd say "Don't fuss, Mom, I'm all right."

Now, God, I'm praying and I know quite well,
It's the prayers of many mothers tonight,
That whatever befall our sons over there—
They are saying "God, tell Mom it's all right."

This was written on April 9, 1942 when the author learned her son had been captured by the Japanese.

Each married after their quarrel, and they didn't meet again until last summer, after both their spouses had died. They have nine children between them.

Eden To Visit Washington, Talk To Ike

By FRANK ELEAZER

GETTYSBURG, Pa.—UP—The White House announced Monday that British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden will arrive in Washington Jan. 30 for talks with President Eisenhower.

Diplomatic sources in Washington predicted that the talks will deal mainly with Western strategy for coping with the new cold war situation resulting from the failure of the Geneva Big Four foreign ministers conference.

The big two talks, expected to last for several days, will mark Mr. Eisenhower's return to active top-level international diplomacy for the first time since his Sept. 24 heart attack. It will be Eden's first trip to Washington since he succeeded Sir Winston Churchill as Britain's prime minister. His last meeting with Mr. Eisenhower was at the Big Four Summit conference at Geneva in July.

Most urgent reason for the forthcoming talks, in the view of Washington diplomatic circles, is the sharp change that has come over East-West relations since the July summit meeting.

The "Geneva spirit" of friendliness has all but vanished under the impact of new Communist moves, such as providing arms to Egypt, asserting a claim to sole control in four-power Berlin, and actively wooing Asian nations such as India with lavish promises of economic aid.

In London, the House of Commons cheered when Eden announced his forthcoming trip.

Eden said his foreign secretary, Harold MacMillan, would accompany him, and that they also would visit Canada.

The official announcements in Gettysburg and London gave no clue to the nature of the discussions.
