Building Boom Hits Houston

HOUSTON — UP — Some $344 million in new construction in metropolitan Houston in 1955 has made deeper canyons of the city's downtown streets, spread suburbs far and wide and put new muscle in its industrial strength.
Figures released Wednesday by the Houston Chamber of Commerce estimated that by year's end, Houston citizens will have built 18,000 new dwelling units valued at $156 million, on a par with 1954 figures.
The 1955 version of the Houston skyline features new buildings such as the $11,750,000 Texas National Bank and $1,250,000 garage; $18 million Second National Bank; $3 million Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. garage; and $1 million National Bank of Commerce garage expansion; $4.6 million Houston Club building; $5 million Memorial Hospital professional building; and a "pig-sty-hole" garage.
Skyline Extended
Extending the skyline out South Main Street are major building projects such as the $3.99 million Medical Towers professional building; $40 million Asia Oil Co. center; and apartment buildings costing a total of $11 million.
Other major projects include a $10 million apartment and office building on South Main; $14 million worth of new dial buildings for Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.; a $8 million hotel building, and a $2,225,000 Federal Reserve Bank branch building.
Metropolitan Houston's 1,076,000 citizens will have new and expanded department stores. Foley's will add four stories to their $13 million downtown store, and Saks and Neiman-Marcus plan new suburban stores. Work is already under way on the $20 million gulfgate shopping center and suburban areas are being dotted with shopping centers in the $4 million class.
New Manufacturing
New manufacturing plants in the Houston area include East Texas Paper Co., a $30 million plant at Baytown; a $1 million plant of the Sulphur Exploration Co., High Island; a $7 million plant of the W. K. Mfg. Co. at Missouri City; a $1 million plant of the U. S. Gypsum Co., and another $1 million plant for Gould National Batteries.
Plants announcing expansion programs include Wright Mfg. Co. division of Masonic Tile Corp., $2 million; $8 million for Ideal Cement Co.; a $16 million catalytic cracking unit for Sinclair Refining Co. and a new polyethylene unit for Phillips Chemical Co.

2 Are Held In Shooting

FORT WORTH — UP — Two youths who shot up a lounge northeast of Fort Worth, Tuesday faced charges of assault to murder and carrying an illegal weapon.
The youths, Johnnie Lee Oliver, 20, and L. C. White, 17, both of Arlington, fired a shotgun at an employee of the Randol Mill tavern about midnight Sunday.
Oliver and White had been turned down as too young when they asked to be served beer.
The employee, Murrell Boyd, was nicked by flying glass when shooting pellets shattered window glass of an auto parked on the lot at the tavern.
Oliver and White, who fled after the shooting, surrendered at the sheriff's office late Monday and were turned over to Fort Worth police.
Oliver, a member of the Raymond (Dicky Neck) Williams gang, received a five-year probation sentence last year as an accomplice to the murder of Samuel Hunter, 67, at Arlington.
Police said they would ask that Oliver be ordered to serve the sentence.

Partial reports have been returned from 22 of these communities. The largest return has come from Gruver, with a population of about 500, which reported $1,125. Don Hart is chairman of the Gruver campaign. Keyes, Okla., with a population of about 200, has raised $516 for the fund.

Pampa Girl Candidate For US Choir

Betty Lou Hogsett of Pampa has been selected as a candidate for a national choir to be chosen by the Music Educators National Convention to sing in St. Louis in April.
Miss Hogsett, a student at Pampa High School, was chosen to enter the competition at a recent regional meeting in Canyon.
The national choir will be formed or singers from all over the nation. There will be 10 singers chosen from the state of Texas.
Miss Hogsett, who sings alto, will make a record to send to the state chairman, Charles Nelson of Edinburg. Nelson will trim the 48 state entries to 20 after hearing records of singers from all over Texas. These 20 names and records will then be sent to St. Louis where the national committee will select 10 to represent Texas.
Miss Hogsett's instructor, Bob Irby, choral director at PHS, expressed a great deal of satisfaction with his singer's accomplishments.

Rotary Club Views Film

The Pampa Rotary club yesterday viewed a film made by Don Hughes, Amarillo geologist, of the Borger area in 1926 and the early 1930's. The movie showed many scenes of Borger and the multi-stage process of shooting an oil well with nitroglycerin.
Out of curiosity, Hughes asked the Rotary membership as to how many of them were in the Panhandle in 1926 and twelve men were counted.
Twelve local and non-resident visitors were introduced during the course of the meeting.

Traffic Expert Suggests An Award For Careless Violators

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS

WASHINGTON —UP— A well-known traffic expert suggests that there ought to be an award for the driver who can violate all of the rules of traffic and still wind up alive at the end of the year. The trophy suggested by L. M. Van Noppen, vice president of a big automobile finance company, is a rabbit's foot, splashed on a field of asphalt. An appropriate symbol for the fool's luck that kept the driver alive.

There is a method to Van Noppen's brain storm. The machines that are financed by his outfit travel 30 million miles a year. His company has an investment in the cars. But it also hates to see people hurt.

can avoid it. Very little business can be that important. Don't try to make it home if you have had one too many. Best to park your car, take a nap in it, or if you are in town, hire a hack. That way you are pretty sure of getting home safely, and a nap after that last one won't kill you or anybody else.

Shepperd Warns Of County Crimes

HOUSTON —UP— Attorney General John Ben Shepperd said here Monday that any county can "turn into another Duval county" if citizens don't watch for the signs of a budding corruption.

"Maybe you think you couldn't have a Duval county where you live, but don't wait too long to find out," Shepperd warned delegates to the 11th annual convention of the Texas Association of Independent Auto Dealers.

"There is a point," he said, "up to which a young Duval county can be nipped in the bud. But beyond that point it's too late. Once you have lost control of the election machinery, then your county, too, will be a county of fear."

Shepperd listed the following signs of what he called "a budding Duval county":

- One-sided landslide elections year after year; expenditures of large amounts of money to elect non-compensated officials; excessive tax rates, unequal taxes and the obvious discrepancy between high taxes and low services; failure or refusal to publish financial statements; failure to prepare and file an annual county budget; closed meetings, too many "executive" sessions and too many bond issues.

"And above all," he warned, "look out for any county where your right to buy and sell, and your ability to prosper, depend on your affiliation or relationship with local political bigwigs."

Texas Held on Check Charges
CRESTON, Iowa —UP— Escal Swearingen, 23, of Spurger, Tex., was being held Monday on bad check charges. He and two other persons, Sterling Wayne Hill, 26, of Colton, Calif., and Mrs. Gertrude Arlyne Deposito, 17, of Arlington, Calif., admitted passing at least $1,000 worth of bad checks in 17 states, police said.

Man Given 5 Years For Mail Fraud

DALLAS —UP— Orders committing William E. (Doc) Estep, 57, to federal prison for five years for conviction of mail fraud at Abilene, Tex., were received by the United States marshal's office in Dallas Tuesday.

Estep, whose appeal from the Abilene sentence was recently rejected by the U.S. Supreme Court, has been held in the Dallas county jail since Sept. 17 of last year, after a federal judge revoked his appeal bond and ordered him jailed "immediately."

The marshal's office in Dallas said it has not yet received orders designating the prison where Estep will serve his term.

Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson, who sentenced Estep to the five-year prison term in May of 1954, ordered his $7,500 appeal bond revoked in September of 1954, and said he could make his appeal from the Abilene conviction "from prison."

Davidson said at the time that testimony of Mrs. Marie Dau- plaise Blackburn, a reporter for a Houston paper (The Press), indicated that Estep had been selling

"irradiated" water for miracle cures.

Two women testified at his Abilene trial that Estep swindled them each out of more than $5,000 by selling them stock in a firm formed to make an "atomotor."

Estep had described this as "self-energizing and fuel-less" after being lubricated with his special oil.

Step touted the virtues of his "Atomotrone," which he said would cure cancer, psoriasis and other dread diseases and make childbirth painless.

She said Estep examined her for "less than five minutes," and told her that she was "a very, very sick girl" who would die in a few months unless she began drinking water treated in his Atomotrone.

Offices Changed At City Hall

The Boy Scouts are moving into the Girl Scouts office, the Girl Scouts are moving into the Red Cross, and the Red Cross has taken up new headquarters in the basement of the City Hall.

In short, everyone is busy. Even the Police Department will be affected by all the change and rearranging, repainting, and activities of the City Hall. A new city Court Room will be set up in the northeast corner of the basement according to Jim Conner, chief of police.

The Boy Scout office is expanding to give space for a storage

Scout Count At New High

A total membership of 4,464 Boy Scouts are registered in the Adobe Walls Council according to Paul Beisenherz.

"This is the largest membership we've ever had," Paul states, "we closed last year with an enrollment of 4,210."

At present there are 1,900 adult leaders serving these boys in the council, making a total registration of 6,364.

Many have come in as a result of Fall Roundup and the surveys conducted in all the schools of the council, Beisenherz indicated.

Boy Scout membership is expected to total 4,600 by the end of this year.

New Little Whoopers Are Seen

WASHINGTON—UP—The last surviving flock of whooping cranes has turned up with at least two little whoopers nobody knew about.

Last fall when the long-legged, stork-like cranes left their Canadian nesting place for winter quarters in Texas, there were 21 adult birds and no young.

But during the summer Canadian Wildlife Service experts happily reported spotting a few young.

Last Saturday, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service reported that 13 of the majestic birds had arrived once again at the Arkansas wildlife refuge in Texas. Nine of these were adults and four were young birds.

Tuesday the service reported that 28 whooping cranes, including eight youngsters, had arrived at the wintering grounds. That's at least two more young than anyone had counted.

At least one adult still is missing, so maybe another whooping crane or two will show up to swell the small flock before the final count is made in December.

TB Seal Sale Set

Tuberculosis, one of the oldest diseases known to man, is still an enigma. A host of distinguished scientists have studied it for years, but many of the most basic and crucial facts seem to be just beyond reach, according to Sam Begert, president of Gray County TB Association.

A tremendous increase in research on tuberculosis is urgently needed. Last year the tuberculosis association spent about $500,000 on research. But this is far from enough. Everyone can share in the attack on the twin targets — prevention and treatment of tuberculosis — by giving this year more generously than ever to the Christmas Seal Sale, Begert said.

The sale starts here on Wednesday, Nov. 16, when Mrs. C. L. McKinney, seal sale chairman, sends out letters with sheets of seals. Pampa's TB control program is financed entirely through purchases of these seals, priced at $1 per sheet.

Out of the total contributions, 82 percent remains and is spent in Gray County. The other 18 percent goes toward the state associations.

Solon Hits Censorship Right Claim

By PAUL SOUTHWICK
WASHINGTON—UP—Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.) Wednesday described as "fantastic" a federal agency's claim that it has an "inherent right" to withhold information from the public.

"There is no inherent right to withhold information," he told newsmen, "and certainly not on the broad basis claimed by the Civil Service Commission. I think that is fantastic."

The commission was the first agency called Tuesday by Moss' government operations subcommittee to justify withholding of information from the public, the press and congress.

To Explain Labels
The subcommittee also called for an explanation of Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield's request for secrecy on the names of men determined to be eligible for postmaster appointments.

Scheduled to testify later Wednesday were officials of the Treasury Department to explain the secrecy imposed on applications of organizations for tax-exempt status.

Cites 'Inherent Right'
Acting general counsel Lawrence V. Meley of the Civil Service Commission insisted Tuesday that the commission has an "inherent right" under the constitution and under the Civil Service act to bar information from the public. He said it is a "question of judgment, a question of reasonableness."

Moss complained that federal agencies "don't consciously have a desire to give information. They tend to withhold information in practice. They have a proprietary interest rather than an interest as custodian of the people."

Moss said the commission's own regulations are in "clear conflict." He said one states that employees "should co-operate" with the press, and a second states "if you open your mouth you'll be fired."

Red Cross Gift Project Underway

Gifts for servicemen on the high seas are being packed and wrapped at the local Red Cross Office, according to Mrs. F. W. Shotwell, executive secretary.

A total of 64 gift packages were sent last year with four items in each package. Mrs. H. O. Darby, service group chairman, is in charge of this traditional service to the servicemen who must spend their Christmas on board ship.

Next Monday, Nov. 14, has been set as the last day for donors to contribute to this annual project. Each package should contain at least three items, with the total value not to exceed $1.50.

The following items are suggested: pencil with clip, pocket-size novels, ballpoint pen, gum, hard candy, or life savers in airtight cellophane bags, billfold, plastic identification insert for billfolds, new playing cards, photo folder, key ring, pocket-size bottle opener, or new playing cards.

Enclosure cards to be furnished by the office will carry the name of the donor to insure recognition for the individual or organization providing the gifts. No written message other than the name and address of the donor may be included. This is an army restriction.

Gas Testing Company May Sell Out

HOUSTON—UP—Negotiators for sale of Johnston Testers, Inc., to the Schlumberger Well Surveying Corp. "for an amount slightly in excess of $8 million" were in progress Tuesday.

Announcement of the sales proposal was made jointly by Pierre Schlumberger, president of the Well Surveying Firm, and V. O. Johnston, president of Johnston Testers, Inc.

The announcement said if the proposed sale receives the necessary authority from Johnston shareholders at a special meeting to be called in the near future, the Johnston firm will be liquidated and its shareholders will receive approximately $12.50 per share.

Johnston Testers, Inc., was formed in 1952 and has an outstanding record in the field of drill stem testing of oil and gas wells. The Schlumberger corporation will use the Johnston research and development facilities to improve drill stem testing tools and techniques.

Schlumberger said no change is contemplated with respect to Johnston Testers, Inc., management, personnel or policies.

MAKING A GO OF LIFE

By ROY L. SMITH
To be known as one of his friends was to expose oneself to the suspicion of the Roman government. The early church required the utmost loyalty. The first reports we have of the infant church reveal every member of the church had a little community of believers bound together by the closest possible ties in a fellowship of faith, with life in his keeping. This they did by causing in all they had, by holding nothing in reserve. Only as those in whom they had such confidence as all had implicit confidence in as a pastor, with the announcement of his hope to quell the terrors of the first recorded break in the ranks of the Christians occurred when a man and his wife who sought membership in the fellowship failed that trust. They did not commit their entire holdings to the movement. Instead they withheld a part of the money received from the sale of the land. The story as it appears in the New Testament was written many years after the event, but it appears very certain that because of their failure to trust the fellowship they suffered death. It is extremely interesting to note that this first defection in the ranks of the infant church had its origin in economics, not theology. I know, O God, that no small part of what I enjoy as a Christian is the product of the collective action of the entire Christian movement. For me to fall the fellowship is to fall Christ himself. For me to weaken the cause of the church is to strike a body blow at my own spiritual rights. I will be faithful to the church, with thy help, Amen.

For your own benefit try to estimate what kind of a person you have become because of your religious beliefs. Are you kinder, more considerate, more patient, or more critical, more censorious because of what you believe than you would have been otherwise?

NEW YORK — UP — Vern Reynolds, of New Braunfels, Tex., Monday was named eastern Oklahoma representative of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis by Basil O'Connor, director of the March of Dimes organization.
Cree said response to the invitation from Republican Party workers has been good and that word has also been received from some Conservative Democrats of their intention to attend the meet-

Political Workshop To Be Held

AMARILLO — Response to plans held here Thursday, indicates a growing active interest in precinct politics in this area. George Cree, Jr., Gray County GOP Chairman, revealed this week after a check with District Committee members W. E. R. Smith of Dumas and Mrs. G. N. McDaniel of Borger.

It is open to persons in Senatorial District 31 who are interested in two-party government and who want to participate in next year's GOP presidential campaign activities.
The workshop, scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Thursday in the Herring Hotel, will be conducted by staff member of Republican State Headquarters, they are Miss Ziggy Hunter of Austin, Field Director and Mrs. Jeanne Overbaugh of Lake Jackson, Field Representative.

The program, filled with vital information for all who are interested in good government, will help to indoctrinate the attending on campaign organization and citizenship responsibilities." Cree said, and pointed out the invitation to attend the meeting was open to all conservative thinking Texans in this area.

BEETS TO BEAT—Here is Kansas' answer to the nationwide Big Sugar Beet contest sponsored by the Idaho Farm Bureau. The two beets were grown on the farm of Tony Ochoa, near Ulysses, Kans. They weigh 16 1/2 pounds (left) and 18 pounds. Holding them are Peter Knight, of Norfolk County, England, and David Gillan, of Garden City, Kans., field man for a sugar company. Sammy Davis Jr. To Be A Guest Of Show Biz Greats

By ALINE MOSBY
HOLLYWOOD—UP—A once obscure entertainer who lost an eye but rose to become one of the hottest talents in show business will be the first Negro and youngest celebrity to be toasted by the greats of show business Wednesday night.

To Sammy Davis Jr., being guest of honor at the Friars' Club annual "roadmaster" dinner will be the realization of "one of the great ambitions of my life—and a little scary."

To Hollywood it will mark an opportunity for the biggest names in town to trot out their black ties, minks and sentimental speeches.

The list of speakers who will both kid and laud Sammy is a roster of top names: Toastmaster Jack Benny, Frank Sinatra, Gary Cooper, George Burns, Milton Berle, Pearl Bailey, Humphrey Bogart, Jerry Lewis, Tony Martin, Ronald Reagan and Jeff Chandler.

A celebrity usually has to be pushing middle-age to be toasted by the Friars, the most famous show business club in New York and Hollywood. Others who've been honored by the barbs and weepy speeches include the late Al Jolson, Burns and Allen, Benny, Sophie Tucker and Tony Martin.

Sammy is 29.

"Three years ago I told Berle one of the things I wanted to do in life was become a Friar," Sammy said Wednesday.

"Then recently they told me I'd not only be the first Negro member, but be given a dinner."

"You can't describe how you feel. It's a stamp you've arrived. It's acceptance by your own people, the people you love and work with."

Perryton FHA Office Moved

The Farmers Home Administration has opened a new office to service all of Hutchinson County FHA borrowers. The records for Hutchinson County were previously held in the Farmers Home Administration office in Perryton.

The new office is located at the Court House in Dumas, Texas.

Those of the Perryton office have enjoyed serving the Hutchinson County Farmers and will miss many of the familiar faces. However, Frederick A. Groves, County Supervisor in Dumas will take good care of the Hutchinson County Farmers and will be glad to see some old friends as well.

Groves will hold his office day in Dumas each Wednesday.

with. And when I heard who was going to speak I got a little scared.

"My other ambition in life is to win an Academy Award. One day I know I will."

Businessman Harry Merkin, in charge of the Friars' dinner, explained Benny and other club officers decided to honor Sammy "because he's one of the finest entertainers in the country and because he had the courage to come back after losing an eye in an accident."

Sammy has become a hot property around movietown. He appeared on the latest Ed Murrow and Milton Berle TV shows, opens in a Broadway musical in January and will star in two movies with Frank Sinatra.

Nearly 1,000 celebrities and civic leaders have bought $100 tickets to the Friars charity affair at the Beverly Hilton hotel.

"George Burns told me 'wait till Jack Benny raps the gavel, the speeches begin and the whole thing explodes inside of you,'" said Sammy.

"Well, here I am, and wow! It's going to happen!"

Mummified Bugs Found

MONTREAL—UP—The Arctic Institute of North America disclosed Tuesday that mummified insect specimens, 60 million years old and still in a "fine state of preservation," have been discovered in Alaska, some 150 miles above the Arctic Circle.

The find was made by two American entomology professors from the University of California, Dr. Robert L. Usinger and Dr. R. F. Smith, in a search sponsored by the Institute.

"Although fossil impressions of other insects exist, the mummified Alaskan animalcules (microscopic animals) are believed to be many millions of years older than any other actual insect specimens extant," the institute said.

The specimens were found embedded in Alaskan amber last summer in the Colville River Valley and along the Kuk River, on the northern slope of the Brooks Range.

Amber is the only substance in which insects can be preserved from the past after being trapped in the resinous matter from which amber is formed.

Tuberculosis is caused by a germ, the tubercle bacillus. It can be prevented and can be cured.

Bigger Cotton Crop Is Seen

AUSTIN—UP—A 1955 Texas cotton crop of 4,250,000 bales, up from last month's forecast, was predicted Tuesday by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

"About 89 per cent of the increase over a month ago is in the High Plains country," a USDA spokesman said.

"They are getting a whole lot more cotton up there than any indications pointed to a month ago," he explained.

The rest of the increase was spread generally over Trans-Pecos country, with some increase coming from northeast Texas, the USDA said.

The latest forecast, based on conditions as of Nov. 1, compares with last year's production of 3,940,000 bales and the 10-year average of 3,283,000 bales.

In 1949, the all-time record year, Texas produced 6,049,000 bales of cotton.

Cadillac

Beyond the Realm of Argument!

This is the season when conversations turn easily and often to motor cars.

And, in almost any gathering, you're likely to find a wide difference of opinion about the relative merits of the year's automotive offerings.

Until the talk turns to Cadillac!

Here is one car concerning which most motorists have a meeting of minds. And never before has Cadillac left so little room for argument as in 1955!

Certainly no one could behold the new Cadillac without recognizing it as the "car of cars". Its beautiful, graceful, flowing lines . . . its regal bearing on the highway . . . and its long, low silhouette are simply too significant to misunderstand.

Surely no one could ride in a new Cadillac and not agree that it is the Standard of the World. Its new fabrics and leathers are rich and luxurious almost beyond belief . . . and its interior appointments have been crafted with a jeweler's skill.

And we doubt if anyone could drive a new Cadillac and not understand that it is the finest-performing motor car of all time. Its great new engine is a revelation in power and performance . . . its new Hydra-Matic Drive is incredibly smooth and responsive . . . and the car rides and handles and moves with almost unbelievable ease.

Truly, the evidence on the side of Cadillac has never been more abundant—or more apparent—than it is today.

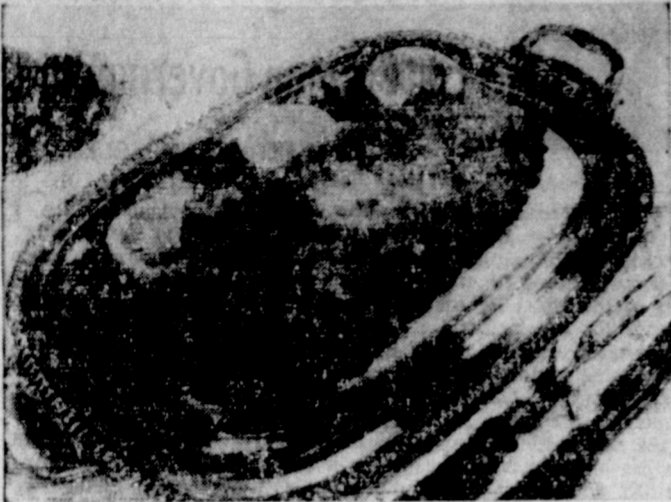

Why not come in soon—and see for yourself?

We'll be delighted to introduce you to Cadillac's great new styling . . . and to arrange a demonstration at the wheel . . . and to acquaint you with Cadillac's two new models, the Sedan de Ville and the Eldorado Seville.

You'll agree, we're certain, that Cadillac for 1955 is beyond the realm of argument!

Pork Loin Wins Holiday Vote

Late autumn or early winter weather, pork loin roast sets the mood for a favorite meal during the Thanksgiving holidays. Colorful sprigs of parsley and lemon slices act to set off the roast while the spicy candied sweet-potatoes permit a perfect accompaniment. Pork loin is roasted in a slow oven (350° F.) until golden brown on the outside, well done inside.

November begins a two-month festive party season and automatically entertaining shifts into high gear. From New York to California, homemakers will be looking for a dual purpose meat cut — one that is distinctive yet easy to prepare. With this in mind, meat expert, Reba Staggs, suggests a pork loin roast with batter pudding to fill this description.

Carefully choose a 3 to 5-pound pork loin roast and have the backbone loosened at the market.

To roast, place the pork loin on a rack; bone side down, fat side up. To be sure of the roasting time and internal temperature or degree of doneness, insert a roast meat thermometer into the roast so that the bulb doesn't rest on bone or in fat. Be sure the bulb rests in the thickest part of the muscle. Since roasting is a dry cookery method, leave the roasting pan uncovered and do not add water. Use a moderate oven temperature (350 degrees F.) and roast the loin until the meat thermometer registers 185 degrees F. Allow 35 to 40 minutes per pound for the pork loin roast if you're not using a meat thermometer.

Allow the roast to set 20 to 30 minutes before carving.

BATTER PUDDING
 2 cups milk
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup corn meal
 1/2 cup pork drippings
 4 eggs

Grease an 8 x 12 - inch baking pan or dish. Heat 2 cups of milk in double broiler. Add 1 teaspoon salt and 1/2 cup corn meal. Cook, stirring constantly, 10 to 15 minutes or until thick. Add 1/4 cup pork drippings. Mix well. Cool slightly and add 4 well beaten eggs. Pour mixture into baking pan or dish and bake in the oven with pork loin for 40 to 50 minutes, 6 to 8 servings.

Russian Schools

Homer L. Dodge, one-time head of the physics department at the University of Oklahoma, together with his son, Norton T. Dodge, has just returned from a survey of Russian schools. The two men spent a full month behind the Iron Curtain and come back with some disquieting news about education as it can be compared between the Soviet and the United States.

For, according to the Dodges, the U. S. is losing out to the Reds in the race for intellectual, scientific and engineering leadership. Figures on American government schools now show that half of this nation's high schools do not even offer courses in chemistry; 53 per cent do not offer physics.

In place of these exacting courses, have appeared such subjects as "consumer mathematics." According to the Dodges, this is not much better than "teaching you to count on your fingers."

Of course the Dodges, in their survey, haven't quite found the answer to the problem. They have been comparing two systems of education, both of which are grounded on the bed-rock of aggressive force and violence. Actually, their objections to the manner in which Americans have been falling behind the Russians scholastically, could all be explained on the basis of discipline. In the totalitarian society of the Soviet, a more efficient form of compulsion, with larger punishments for failure, insure a greater degree of diligence on the part of the pupil.

This is helpful. But the Dodges fail to advocate the abandonment of government schools, replacing them with free and untrammelled independent and private educational institutions. Instead, they appear to favor greater emphasis on courses in the sciences and the economies with government schools carrying the ball.

While we rejoice that the Dodges have seen the evils in our American governmental school system, we are sorry that they have fallen short of a truly scientific appraisal of what is wrong. Had they been able to clear their own minds of the alleged necessity for aggressive force in the school system, they might have come up with the actual solution to the problem.

For if America wishes to regain its exalted position as pioneer in a hundred fields of endeavor, it can do so. But it cannot do so by following the compulsion and the violence of European or Russian schools. If can only do so by abandoning these old world systems and replacing them with the truly American brand of scholasticism.

In this country, freedom is everything. And freedom, in essence, means freedom from the controls instituted by the politician and the Czar. So long as our school system is subject to the controls of the bureaucrats, so long will liberty languish, and so long will we slide downward in the vital race between ourselves and the slave states of the world.

A system of schools completely divorced from political control is as simple and logical as a system of churches permanently separated from the state. It is practical and highly to be desired. In such schools minds would be free to explore new fields; commercial rewards for trained personnel would be sufficient in themselves to induce more and more young people to take up the study of exact sciences. And the natural competition which would result when schools were placed in the free market place, would tend to improve all schools with the highest rewards inevitably accruing to those most deserving.

When it comes to compulsion and aggressive force, we can never compete with Russia, so why try? Why not try freedom, instead? If we do, we can quickly regain our former strength and leadership.

Brainwashing By Brain-Washed Teachers

In the last issue I was quoting from a typical brainwashing book, "American Government" by Margruer, that has been used in government schools for many, many years.

I want to continue to quote from this book to show how our youth is being brainwashed. It is hard to conceive of anything more tyrannical than grabbing children and compelling them to study text books approved by the "educational" bureaucracy.

On Page 688 this book says: "Government must continue to plan for years when manpower and natural resources are directed exclusively to peacetime good." When the government plans, the individual is restricted from planning.

On Page 738 the book advocates the Townsend philosophy that pensions increase purchasing power. Pensions only transfer purchasing power. They add no wealth to the country. They might change the things that are purchased but they do not add purchasing power any more than one man robbing another of $1,000.00 increases purchasing power. Purchasing power is only increased by producing what other people want and are willing to buy.

Here is a terrible statement to be brainwashing the children with. On page 643 this statement is made: "Drawing the line between what an individual may or may not do is an extremely difficult task."

In other words, there are no eternal principles that govern human relations. When the child is taught this, he doesn't think it serious to use many forms of aggressive force or initiating force to get what he wants on an involuntary basis.

Would the believers in government schools like this are not brainwashers like this it is difficult to tell whether an individual may or may not get what he wants on an involuntary basis? That it is difficult to tell whether he should get it on a voluntary basis? It is just that simple. But of course it is not simple for brainwashers because they contend that the majority determines what is right and just and in harmony with the Golden Rule.

Government schools have to repudiate the Coveting Commandment. The Golden Rule, the Stealing Commandment and the Declaration of Independence that says governments derive their just power from the consent of the governed. If that is not brainwashing, against Jewish, Christian American, way of life, then it is hard to conceive what brainwashing is.

On Page 638 the author writes: "By democracy we mean that form of government in which the sovereign is in the hands of the people and is expressed either directly or through elected representatives."

If the United States is a democracy, as the brainwashers would have our school children believe, then let the brainwashers tell why we need a Constitution and Bill of Rights. If the majority makes any law that enslaves the minority, what use is a Constitution?

If our "educators" were not brainwashed, they would know that the United States Government was intended to be a federal republic, and the "re" means things that are of a public nature, thus limiting the government to doing only things that are of a public nature and leaving those things that are not of public nature to be done by the individual on a voluntary basis.

The book explains that in 1948 the Supreme Court ruled that teaching religion in public school buildings was unconstitutional. Then it says that because of this ruling courses in ethics are now seldom given. If the Supreme Court had not been brainwashed in the past, they would have been able to read the Amendments to the Constitution and certainly would never have made such a ruling.

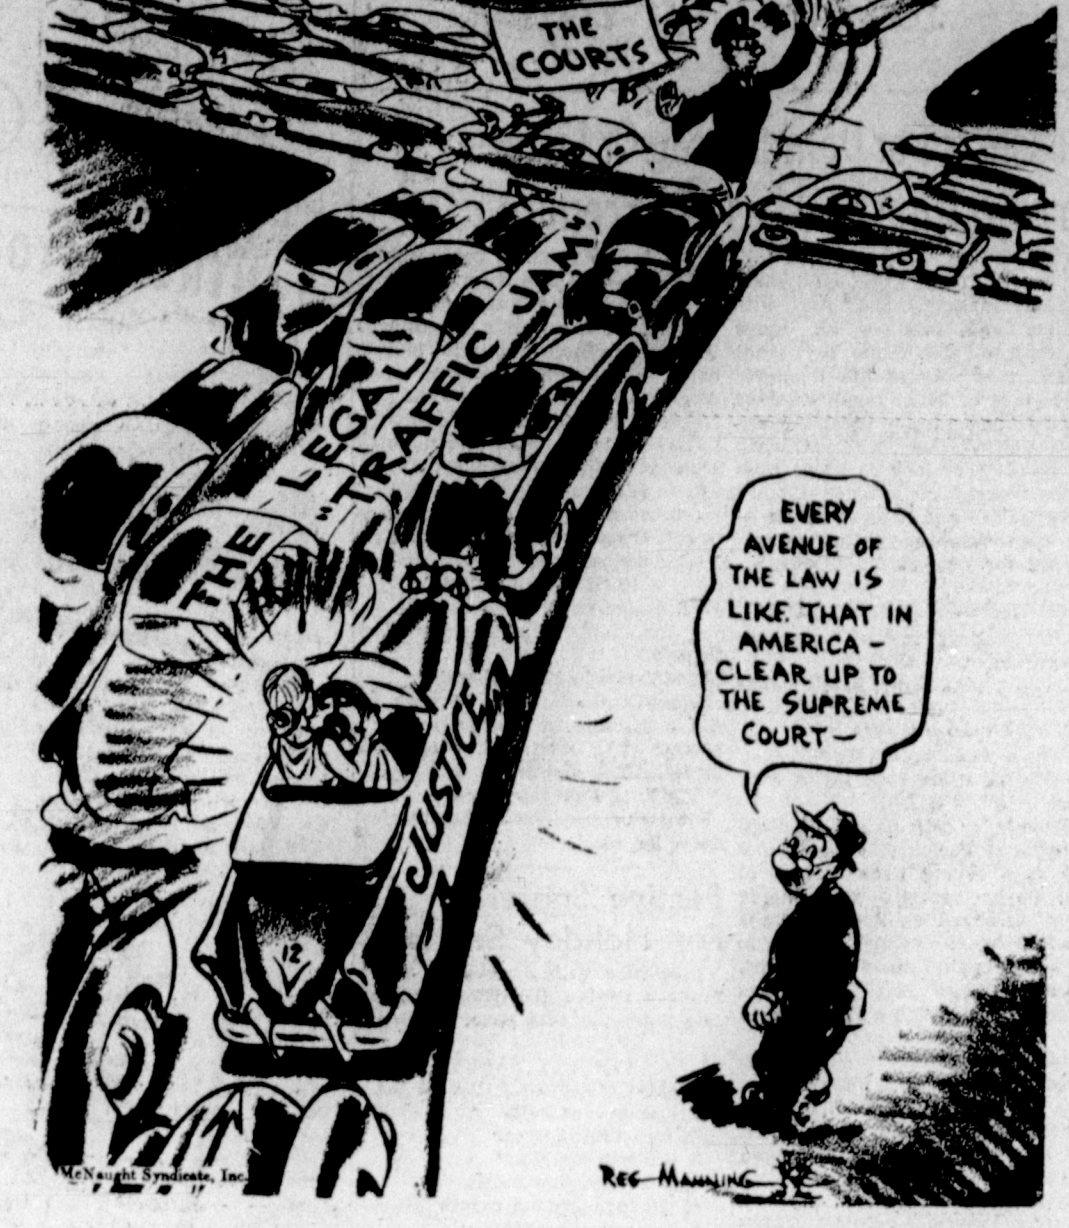

Amendment 1: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; etc. It doesn't say a word about the sovereign states not being allowed to teach religion in state-owned school buildings.

And the 10th Amendment: "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

The Supreme Court is a nice example of 75 years of brainwashing in our state institutions and even in a large degree in non-state colleges which receive their franchises from the state.

Years ago I used to think you could get these collectivists and socialistic books out of the government schools but what I did not see was that it would be embarrassing to the school administrators to teach liberty and justice when they were contending by their acts that the majority determined liberty and justice and right.

British Sentiment Divided On Margaret And Peter's Affair

By RAY TUCKER

LONDON — The British people's sentiments and sympathies were strangely divided in their attitude toward what they called the "Margaret and Peter romance." As British readers know, thanks to the American press' frank and sometimes premature publication of details about royal affairs, the national crisis concerned the romance between Princess Margaret and Group Captain Peter Townsend.

The Labor Member wanted to know whether Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden, himself a divorced man, would introduce legislation permitting Margaret to marry. Eden, at this time, did not answer. In contrast to the favorable attitude on the part of the so-called upper classes, the less favored Britishers from an economic and social standpoint, are bitterly opposed to the proposed match.

But the people in the lower income tax brackets — and they constitute about 75 per cent of the population — do not want Margaret to marry a divorced man. They say that it "would tarnish the throne and lower our opinion of royalty." They also have a very human and homey reason for their opposition. Referring to the fact that Captain Townsend has the care of two young children, they say:

"Margaret is only twenty-five, with her whole life before her. Why should she become a heavily burdened mother overnight?"

"I sometimes feel," said Morrison, "that you Americans think you have a partial proprietorship in our royal family. You certainly treat them more frankly than we do."

As a matter of fact, based on talks with Britishers of high and low estate, they like our interest in the Crown. They like the link between Buckingham Palace and the White House.

Regardless of their pride in their economic recoverer and added authority in world affairs, responsible and intelligent Britons know that their national security and safety will always depend on us. That is a fact President Eisenhower, and John Foster Dulles, our periodical visitor to Geneva and other seats of world conferences, should paste in their hats.

To return to the Margaret-Peter controversy, the so-called upper classes, including businessmen, industrialists and Members of Parliament, with whom we talked — many of them attended a reception given to our flying group at the American Embassy here, by Ambassador Winthrop Aldrich — favor the marriage.

Petersburg Is Official Hotel For German Government

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Hotel Petersberg, Konigswinter, Germany — When Bonn was chosen as the capital of the new German Federal Republic, the owners of the Hotel Petersberg got a wonderful break. Bonn is a nice little secondate University city on the Rhine and it happened to be old Konrad Adenauer's home grounds. His home is across the river from where he was down in this region of the wine country, he is selfish and he obviously did not have many years to go.

A big, rich nation has to roll out the red carpet for visiting firemen and there were not enough hotels in Bonn. Bad Godesberg and Mehlheim, which run into one another, to give up the journalists, lobbyists, spies and other routine traffic. So the Bonn government picked the Petersberg on the mountain across the river from the Blair House. Thus, the treasury pays a subsidy to the owners of the Petersberg, whoever they are. I take it that they are, if not dead friends of old Adenauer, then, anyway, not implacable enemies.

There is a constant round of festivities at the Petersberg and I have been fascinated by the billing of kangaroo-tail soup on the score-card. The price is only 2 marks, or a little under 50 cents, compared with $5.25 per dab for Russian caviar, actually measured by the grain and not the best, either. It is my own conclusion that the Australian kangaroo ranchers get nothing out of this traffic because the soup tastes no different from the vulgar but appetizing oxtail soup which is found in the lesser houses. However, the term "kangaroo-tail soup" gives the place an air and one gets restless to be home at the Sunday night buffet supper at the Country Club to mention this exotic delicacy shared with Haile Selassie.

Selassie is one of very few dignitaries who were soured here at federal government expense and possibly, in the long run, at your expense and mine, who left anything for the waiters, maids and porters. He tore up quite a spot of money for tips when he was checking out. It is possible, of course, that the British taxpayers eventually pick up the tab because he is their boy, or, anyway, their foreign office thinks he is their boy. However, the Moscowite Reds have an enormous Embassy staff at Addis Ababa, drenching the dumb, scrawny savages with exciting propaganda, so it is hard to say just whose boy the Negus is just now or whose boy any boy is among these lesser breeds. The Fascist Italians snicker and smirk at all this because they were jabbing the Abyssinians with stuff for syphilis and their cattle with juice to save their calves and make them healthy when Britain hollowed up the "sanctions" against the Duce. Now the whole country is going back to weeds and the people are again prey to hastening ills which make them break out and feel poorly.

When delegations land at the Cologne airport, the Protocol department goes into action. I have a typical program for the visit of These deputations, as guests of the government, "naturally" can't pay for anything. So the treasury sends a check up the hill with 15 per cent added for tips to Shorly Week, the upstairs waiter, and Hilde and pretty little Maria, smack up the beds and tidy up the suites. Hilde and Maria get few tips and they both want to come to America as domestics but they would be picked off and married before they could get as far as Yorkville.

Mac Says New Group Might Take Townsend's Place Now

By HENRY McLEMORE

From now on, there'll be no need to fly the royal standard over Buckingham Palace to show that the royal family is in residence. Margaret's touch for Group Captain Peter Townsend will be sufficient.

Since Princess Margaret has given up her one and only true love, it is only proper and fitting that all of us begin immediately to speculate on which one, if any, of the nasal wonders still around, she will marry.

As I understand it, there is still quite a group of them, each one quite eager to pick up a crumb from a girl's broken heart.

At the moment I lean toward Lord something - or - Other, whose favorite sport, I have read, is shooting rabbits on his thousands-of-acres estate, which is no more than a pleasant ride in a curlicue from London.

There's another Lord in the picture, too, but I can't recall his name. He is loaded, also, and is reputed to grow some of the finest vegetable marrow in all of England. Margaret would have to count time with him traveling to country fairs where, his vegetables always win ribbons. He snuffles quite a bit, and does look a little on the sheep dog side, but if Margaret married him, no girl in England could justly claim to have a more distinguished bore for a husband.

Pampa News Editor Jim Dean Speaks During Meeting Of The B&PW Club

Jim Dean, managing editor of the Pampa Daily News, was featured speaker at the meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club in the City Club Room Tuesday evening. His topic was "Your Right to Disagree."

"Whether it is obvious to you or not, the daily newspaper is a very instrumental force in helping you to exercise one of the most precious rights of our American heritage — your right to disagree," he told the women.

He went on to explain that a newspaper is a business, with capital invested and a project to sell. "Except that we deal in information, rather than in tangible merchandise, our business is similar to any other," he pointed out.

He explained that as head of the editorial department it is his responsibility to see that the news content is sufficient enough to attract and hold customers, or subscribers.

"There are many theories here," he stated. "As many, perhaps, as there are editors, for no two men think exactly alike. So, there will be something distinctive about every newspaper in the world, a personal touch, as it were, of the editor. But with all of this individualism, every newspaper has one thing in common, and that is variety."

He told the women of the various types of news stories, such as crime, tragedies, stories of successful accomplishment, humorous incidents, and "stranger than fiction" reports. Each newspaper has an editorial page where "the men whose investments have made the newspaper possible, exercise the right to voice their opinions," he explained. There are also comics and advertising space.

"Each of you who reads a daily newspaper is an editor, in a sense," he continued. "Some readers object when stories of crime and violence are published. Some object at the use of what we term 'cheese cake' pictures. Editors are often beset by individuals or groups who wish to have certain news stories left out of the paper. A small group will claim that there is no purpose served by publishing the 'funny papers.' Another group considers the sports page a waste of space."

Dean explained that there is only one way to keep from making people angry and held up a blank paper, which he added, won't sell.

"So, to sum it all up, we print a daily newspaper the way we know how," he stated. "We put enough variety into it to insure adequate sales, and we let you exercise your right to disagree with what we term. You do this by reading what you please and overlooking what you do not choose to read."

Another way a newspaper helps people exercise their right to disagree is in giving information to the people each day — giving them a tool with which to work, which can be discarded or used as desired, he advised.

"In its principal endeavor, the daily newspaper gives you, as best it can, the facts as to what is going on in the world," he concluded. "What you will do about it is entirely up to you. Time and space make it impossible for any newspaper to tell you all you would like to know about any one subject. We can only tell you something is going on...to whet your appetite...to perhaps encourage you to think for yourselves...to give you the opportunity to disagree with the pronouncements of those who make the news and thereby develop in an individual who may clearly disapprove the information which floods the public today and who may guide his course by basic principles and not be swayed by fallacious emotionalism."

Mrs. Rufe Thompson, news service chairman, introduced Dean. Mrs. Howard Patton was co-chairman. The business session was led by Mrs. Hattie Holt, president.

Jane Talk

By JANE KADINGO

Pampa News Women's Editor

EVERYONE PRIDES HIMSELF on not being gullible — the sideshow is a fake, the mystic is "poo-hooed." No one fools him here, even though he pays to be fooled. What draws us to the carnival? Probably it's the desire for the magic. The same desire leads us to believe exciting claims for some specific food. Without scientific proof, this food or food product is said to make us strong or cure our ills — that is, for a fancy price. Of such, is the beginning of food faddism.

IT IS THIS human urge to be healthy or to be slim in "one fell swoop," that opens the way for the promoter of food fads. He often is short on knowledge and long on sales appeal. Some make a fanatical play of "health foods" and "natural foods." They are foods, true enough, but not wonder foods. A good varied diet of foods that any grocery store can supply will provide just as good nutritional health and at much less price.

One of the country's eminent nutrition authorities, Dr. Fredrick J. Stare of Harvard University, recently wrote, "Refined and processed foods are a favorite target of the 'food specialist,' who would have us believe these foods are not nutritious. Actually, we get as much food value from refined foods which have been enriched as from natural foods, and sometimes more. This is not to say that enriched white bread is better than brown bread or vice versa. For all practical purposes, in typical American diets they are identical in food value. Choose whichever tastes better to you."

Whether or not a food is "natural" is not important. The nutritional value of any food as the source of a specific nutrient, as the B vitamins, depends upon the composition of that food. For example, peanuts and eggs are both natural foods, yet peanuts contain 200 times more niacin (a B vitamin) than eggs. On the other hand, the same size slices of whole wheat and enriched white bread — natural and refined foods, respectively — contain almost identical amounts of niacin, and thiamin — the whole wheat containing slightly less riboflavin.

Good nutrition is easy to accomplish when thought of in terms of a wide variety of meats, fish, enriched or refined white bread, natural and refined foods, respectively — contain almost identical amounts of niacin, and thiamin — the whole wheat containing slightly less riboflavin.

Creative Recreation Within The Family Told To Twentieth Century Culture Club

Mrs. J. R. Stroble and Mrs. Warren Hasse spoke on "Creative Recreation Within The Family" at the meeting Tuesday of Twentieth Century Culture Club in the home of Mrs. V. L. Hobbs, 1021 Christine.

"Creative recreation is creating, or originating, refreshment for the mind and body," Mrs. Stroble defined.

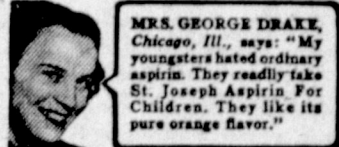

She went on to explain some of the purposes of creative recreation and how it can be used by families. "We must develop the habit of finding enjoyment in everything we do," she advised.

Mrs. Stroble suggested family projects to be carried on such as developing the seasonal and school interests of the children, holding "interesting" table conversations and games, reading and vacations.

"Anything can be fun if everyone wants to have fun," she concluded.

"An excellent form of recreation for a family is card and table games," Mrs. Hasse pointed out. "They appear to only occupy time, but they easily add to one's knowledge. For instance, Anagrams or the more recent 'Scrabble' game, or solving crossword puzzles add to one's vocabulary, spelling ability and a world of knowledge gained whenever we go to the dictionary for help." She illustrated her talk by showing

Battling To Finish Second, Bronchos Fly To Pampa Sat.

By SPEC GAMON
Odessa American Sports Editor

ODESSA — (Special) — Battling to finish second in the final District 1-AAAA football standings, Odessa's Bronchos will fly into Pampa early Saturday for their 2 p.m. engagement with the Fighting Harvesters.

The Bronchos have lost only to Abilene, in a 47-0 run-away, but would have to see the Eagles beaten twice before they could take the loop crown.

This will be the rubber game in the five-year series between Odessa and Pampa. Each has won twice in the past four encounters.

Odessa will be at near top physical condition for this one. Only defensive safety Gordon Volav is sidelined. He received a shoulder separation last week and will sit this one out.

The Bronchos will miss Volav because he and Bobby Cheek have provided Odessa with its best defense against passes in years. Either Mike McCutchan or Dick Stice will team with Cheek in the deep spots on defense.

Torrid battles were being waged on the practice lot this week to see which three backs get to open with quarterback Joe House in the offensive secondary.

Leroy Scott, Kenneth White and Bill Fawin were fighting for left half; Stice, McCutchan and Ray Stoker were battling for right half and Ed Norman, Joe Dever and James Arner were staging a three-way scrap for fullback.

The best guessers are that Scott, Norman and Stice will be the starters.

Pass defense has been the brightest light in the Odessa camp and double-wing T, using unbalanced lines throughout. The Bronchos have intercepted nine while allowing only 10 completions.

Odessa likely will open with Russell Rumbaugh and Don Hitt at the offensive ends; Jack Taylor and Charles Huckleba at the tackles; Von Ray Trotter and Tommy Reed at the guards and Harlan Scott at center.

Odessa opened with a 7-7 tie against Port Arthur, then defeated Dallas Hillcrest, 28-7 and El Paso Bowie, 70-6, in non-conference games.

The Bronchos beat Lubbock, 26-19, in district play before being overwhelmed by the Eagles in Abilene, 47-0. Since that defeat Odessa has beaten Amarillo, 14-0 and Borger, 20-12.

Odessa operates off both the T

The Bronchos will leave Odessa about 8:30 a.m. Saturday on chartered plane and will arrive in Pampa in time for a pre-game meal before settling down in the dressing room to await the 2 p.m. kickoff. They will board their plane for home immediately after the contest.

FLEET FOOTED BRONCHO — Dick Stice, 165 pound right halfback for the Odessa Bronchos will be a constant threat to the Pampa Harvesters when Odessa and the Harvesters meet on the gridiron Saturday afternoon at 2. The Bronchos are sitting in second place in the district while Pampa and Borger are fighting to stay out of the cellar. Odessa has lost only one district game and that was to the Abilene machine 47-0. (Shoopman Photo)

DEFENSIVE STONE WALL — The Odessa Bronchos attribute their defensive success to several reasons and one of them is the defensive work of guard Von Roy Trotter, 193 pound senior. The Odessa Bronchos are third in team defense bracket of the 1-AAAA district and are making a strong bid for second place in their way if they can get the Pampa Harvesters this week. The Harvesters upset the Odessa club last year 28-14 and are hoping to do the same Saturday afternoon at 2 in Harvester Park. (Shoopman Photo)

Pampa Shockers, Reapers Finish '55 Season Today

Memphis Chicks Are Home-Owned

MEMPHIS, Tenn. —UP—Sports— The two Memphis men received men Leo Burson and Nat Buring a controlling interest of 799 shares bought the Southern Association of stock, 35 players and a two-year Memphis Chicks from the Chicago working agreement with the White Sox Wednesday in a deal for "in excess of $250,000."

People can have TB in its early stages without knowing they are ill. A chest X-ray can find tuberculosis before outward symptoms appear.

Upset-Minded Reaper 11 Meets Scrappy Bullpups

The Pampa Reapers who have won three and lost four games meet the able Berger Bullpups today at 3:30 at Harvester Park. The Reapers, who were underdogs last week came through with a surprising upset of the Amarillo Rangers 29-0.

In previous games the Reapers have had to come from behind several times to win and have lost several of their games in the latter part of the game.

The halftime activities will be highlighted by the crowning of the Reaper football queen, Miss Betty Lou Smith. The Reaper band will also be on hand to perform at the final Reaper game of the season. Today coach Deck Woldt and Norman Phillips hope the Reapers will have the steam to finish the game strong. They will be weakened by the loss of several boys who are on the injured list.

Boxing Guild Opens Books To Commission

NEW YORK —UP— The New Boxing Guild will end a seven-month controversy Thursday and give the State Athletic Commission its records.

Delivery of the records will be made in obedience to a surprise order from fight manager Charley Johnston, general president of the International Boxing Guild. The commission has been demanding the records since Chairman Julius Helfand began the inquiry into conduct of the guild last May. But on May 26 a membership vote of the New York Guild forbade anyone to deliver the documents.

Announcing Tuesday that he had overruled the May vote, Johnston—manager of champions Archie Moore and Sandy Saddler—stressed: "My action was taken to bring the inquiry to a head. We have nothing to hide. It is not a bow to the commission nor a recognition that it has jurisdiction over the guild."

Underdog Shockers Host Phillips 'B' Club Tonight

The Pampa Shockers will host the Phillips Little Blackhawks tonight at Harvester park in the Shockers' final game of the '55 season.

Defense changes will probably see Henry Mitchell and Tom Pace in the thick of the action.

The Shockers are undefeated in season play this year and have been the hardest working squad I ever coached," said head coach Weldon Trice at quarterback meeting Tuesday night.

Despite the fact that the Shockers are underdogs they have hopes of winning and are looking forward to becoming district champions this season.

Kansas City Is Hunting Pro Football Franchise

CHICAGO —UP— Arnold Johnson said Thursday he was looking for a professional football franchise to put in the park of his Kansas City Athletics for the fall season.

"I would be interested in a football club on the right basis, and it wouldn't make too much difference what club it was," he said. Johnson said that as yet he had made no offers to buy any pro team, but that he would listen to any proposals concerning purchase of a team.

season use of the facilities he acquired in Kansas City for his baseball club. He purchased the Athletics from the Mack family a year ago and in its first year, 1955, the team drew more than one million fans.

Johnson got into baseball initially when he bought the Yankee Stadium and its land, then sold the land, and leased the stadium to the Yankees. He had to sell the stadium itself as a condition of approval by the American League of his purchase of the Athletics.

"If anyone had an idea about a team, I'd be glad to discuss it with him," he said.

He owned the Kansas City ball park when he bought the Athletics franchise, but sold it to the city, which remodeled it and leased it back to Johnson for the ball club.

Johnson stipulated, however, that he would not be interested in any franchise except in the National Football League.

Doug Ford Wins Golf Pro Honors

CHICAGO —UP— PGA champion Doug Ford Thursday was named winner of the annual award as "professional golfer of the year" by the Professional Golfers' Association.

Ford, from Yonkers, N.Y., received 230 votes for the trophy compared to 190 for runner-up Jack Fleck, the National Open champion. Casey Middlecoff, runner-up for the PGA title was third with 135 and Julius Boros fourth with 106.

Ends will be Frank Snow and Tommy Mullins and tackles will be David Holt and Glen Howell. Charles Peacock will play opposite Bob Holmes at left guard post. Center will be Gary Peterson or Fred Neslage. Peterson broke two Ford won two other tournaments during the year, the All-American and the Carling-Sponsors classic. He played 121 competitive rounds during the year, more than any other player in history.

He will receive the award at the annual convention next month in Atlantic City. Earlier winners of the trophy were Ben Hogan in 1949, 1950, 1951 and 1953, Sam Snead in 1949, Boros in 1952 and Ed Furgol in 1954.

national championship team. The lettermen, headed by forward Bob Williams, Dallas senior, also include guard Jerrel Logan, senior from Oklahoma City, and forward Bryan Miller, junior from Dallas.

Three more vacancies remained to be filled to round out the eight-team bracket.

A careful analysis of all NAIA basketball squads led to the selection of the first five teams. Duer said, and the remaining three squads also will be chosen on the basis of their team strength.

Lack Of Aggie Hustle Worries Coach Bryant

By UNITED PRESS
 Other coaches should have this lack of "fire and aggressiveness." "We're getting steadily worse," Bryant said. "They're acting like the season is over. I've tried resting them and working them. But they don't want to hit anybody. Except for a few players, they are acting like a bunch of guys going steady." The Aggies, who have only two more games to win to clinch the conference crown, may get some of that spirit back Saturday when they play before the largest crowd of the conference season at Houston. Possible Sellout Expected A crowd of at least 65,000, and possibly a sellout of 70,000, will see the Rice Owls and Aggies battle. The Owls, who would like nothing better than to upset the Aggies at the tail end of a dismal season, scrimmaged for more than an hour Wednesday in cold, drizzly weather. Halfback Page Rogers and end Marshall Crawford probably will miss the game with injuries. Texas star Walt Fondren was the man in mind Wednesday as the TCU Horned Frogs practiced on defense, paying special attention to the Texas running attack. Coach Abe Martin figures if the Frogs are to beat the Longhorns, which they are favored to do, they must stop Fondren, the sensational triple-threat sophomore from Houston. Bill Alexander will start at left guard against the Steers in place of Joe Williams who missed a number of workouts because of the critical illness and death of his mother. Martin also said that Harold Pollard will start at fullback, replacing Vernon Halbeck.

Time Out With Tom

By TOMMIE ELLIS
 Pampa News Sports Editor

Guest Written By JOEL COMBS
 Pampa News Staff Writer
 (EDITOR'S NOTE: Joel Combs once played football in Lefors but won't account of the Pirates' injury-struck team is strictly unbiased. In any event, the little oil field town's football team has been struck by a very unfortunate string of mishaps.)
 The Lefors Pirates, who started the season with a 3-1 record, are now 1-3. The team's only win was a 14-0 victory over the Lefors team last night against Wellington, according to their coach, H. W. Callan.
 Not making excuses for his team's won four, lost four record this season, Callan yesterday told of the worst injury string this writer has ever had the occasion to witness.
 The Pirates, who always come up with a fair team, anyway, started this season with the greatest amount of promise in some years, only to see that promise fritter away in tape and bandages.
 The entire starting lineup, with the exception of fullback Johnny Quarles, has fallen victim to the injury jinx, some of them missing the entire season. Some 19 or 20 boys have become practically immobile from layers of tape and gauze. And in little Lefors, where the difference between the first and second strings is sometimes astounding, that hurts! Some years there has been no second string.
 To start things off, first string left end Royce Gee twisted his knee before the regular season started and was lost for the remainder of the year. Then, to list the rest of the first string, not necessarily in the order in which they were injured, came left tackle Mike Nickols, one of the finest tackles in any class ball this writer has seen, who suffered a broken nose and knocked down shoulder.
 Nickols is the hardest-hitting lineman in the country, his coaches say. He recently broke a pad on his "big-boy" shoulder pads, tore loose part of his pads and busted his head gear, at different times, upon making bodily contact with some unfortunate backfield man.

 Back to the injuries, left guard Tony Maples is out for the season with a twisted knee. His substitute, Calvin Stracener, also has a twisted knee. Center Larry Rider has had bone separations in both ankles. Right guard Benzell Rippey broke his ankle. Right Tackle Gene Fulton broke his nose and is down with a sinus infection. Right end Jerry Herring broke his arm. Quarterback Ronnie Rice broke both ankles. Left Halfback Tommy Hedrick broke a collarbone. Right halfback Johnny Rowe is married and is no longer in school. Is that an injury? No. Strike him out. Fullback Johnny Quarles is the only "whole man" on the team. Other players out with injuries include Tommy Johnson, quarterback, charley horse; James Wariner, halfback, kidney infection; Joe Fields, halfback, broken ankle; Fred Kinkle, out for season with cut mouth; Milton Miller, twisted ankle; Billy Fulton, tooth knocked out and mauled mouth; Herschel Bogle badly bruised ankle.
 These injuries are all in addition to the regular aches, bruises, sprains, etc., that go with football. The Pirates are making no excuses, however. Coaches Callan and C. H. Keaton say their team will give Wellington a good game tomorrow night. This is in spite of the fact that they plan to start at least six freshmen.
 The Pirates ask no quarter and give none. It should be interesting to see how the Buccaneer "frosh" team comes out against the powerful Skyrockets.

Texas' Fondren Is Following Walker

By LLOYD LARRABEE
 AUSTIN — UP — A personable young man who'd rather not talk about his family's wealth is inspiring comparisons among Southwest Conference followers to the great Doak Walker.
 For, although Walter Fondren, University of Texas halfback, doesn't lead conference statistics in any category his name is found among the leaders in virtually every phase of the game.
 A member of a wealthy Houston family, Fondren disdains talk of his family's financial position, and is noted for his modesty. He has become one of the most popular members of the Longhorn team.
 Fondren also lets the figures speak for themselves when it comes to football.
 Walter ranks third among Southwest Conference ball-carriers with 457 yards. He's fifth in total offense, with 547 yards, sixth in punting, third in punt returns, fourth in kickoff returns, third among pass receivers, and second among conference scorers.
 And last week, to add to his versatility, Fondren kicked three conversions—the first point-after tries he has made in a game this year—to provide the margin for Texas' 21-20 victory over Baylor.
 The five-foot, 11-inch, 185-pound back has passed for two touchdowns this season—and has been on the receiving end of two markers as well.
 He has caused such veteran observers as Southern Methodist University's athletic director, Matty Bell, who coached the brilliant Doaker, to liken Fondren to Walker.
 Texas Coach Ed Price said after the Baylor game, "Walter, as usual, was remarkable."

Japan Has 'Baseball Bug'
 HONOLULU — UP — Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees claims that "Japan has the most enthusiastic baseball fans in the world." Webb, who accompanied the Yankees on their tour of Japan, says the tour was "one of the best things I ever have seen for cementing international relations."

Boxers, Parents Meet Set

All Pampa boxers and their parents will be guests of the Pampa Optimist Club at the county barn at Recreation Park Saturday evening at 7:30.
 The purpose of the meeting is to acquaint the parents and boys with the activities of the forthcoming winter boxing program.
 All boys who have registered and all boys who are interested in boxing are requested to come and bring their parents. The parents need to know what the club expects of them as well as the boys.
 The coaches of the four teams will be present and would like to meet the parents of the boys with which they will be working, especially the parents of the newcomers of the program.
 Registration of the boys who have not previously added their names to the roster of boxers will be held at this time.
 Will Miss Two Events
 CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy — UP — The United States will compete in all but two events in next year's winter Olympics, it was announced Tuesday.

Elks Line Up Activities For Year End

The Pampa Elks Club completed plans for entertainment for the remainder of the year Tuesday night at a meeting of the entertainment committee.
 The program includes two dances, a 'Husband and Wife' night and a 'Stag Night'.
 The first dance will be held Saturday night with music by "The Notables." Tickets are $1.50 each. The dance begins at 9:30 p.m. and lasts until 12:30 a.m.
 The "Husband and Wife" night will be held Saturday, Nov. 26 beginning at 7:30 p.m. The evening will begin with a "covered dish" supper, and couples may remain for dancing to "juke box" music or card playing.
 The club will furnish the meat, bread and beverage. Wives will be asked to bring vegetable, salad or dessert dishes.
 The next "Stag Night" will be held Dec. 9 beginning at 7:30 p.m. A free feed will be served to Elks Lodge members and their guests. The Christmas dance will be held Dec. 23, beginning at 9:30 p.m. "The Notables" will again furnish the music. This dance is for members and guests.

1953 for swindling with worthless checks in California.
 Goff was picked up in a local drug store for drunkenness on Nov. 3. He has been in Pampa about two weeks, but has not written any "hot" checks here, as far as the Police have been able to determine.
