Senator Wants Soil Bank Mandatory

By DAYTON MOORE
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 — UP — Sen. Allen J. Ellender said Saturday that farmers should be deprived of government price support benefits if they do not participate in a soil bank program.

Without such a mandatory feature, he told the United Press, the program would not take enough surplus acreage out of production to ease the farm price depression.

The Louisiana Democrat, as chairman of the Senate Agriculture committee, is a key figure on farm legislation.

Outline Monday
President Eisenhower's new farm program, which he will outline in a special message to congress Monday, is built around a soil bank plan. But Republican congressmen who have had a glimpse of it, said farmer participation would be voluntary.

The farmers would be paid in cash or "in kind," the same commodity from the present huge surplus, for taking out of production acres of corn, cotton, rice and wheat. Such land would be planted to conservation crops such as grass.

Democrats and Republicans in congress generally are agreed on the desirability of a soil bank but they differ on details.

Democrats Primed
Congressional Democrats were primed in a special memorandum from the Democratic National committee to claim the administration's tardy proposal of the soil bank concept has been costly to farmers.

The memo says the soil bank idea is the "revival of a pre-World War II Democratic program" conducted under a 1938 law.

The memo also comments that twice in 1955 the administration opposed bills to establish a soil bank. Since then, it continues, the parity ratio, has dropped 4 per cent and farm income has fallen by some $700 million a year.

"The administration's delay in adopting these Democratic proposals has been costly to farmers," the memorandum asserts.

Democrats and Republicans in congress differ particularly on the amount of cash payments farmers should receive under the soil bank program.

Ellender contends such payments should be at least $750 million a year, about twice the reported administration figure. However, the big fight is shaping up over Ellender's proposal that price supports be raised to upwards of 90 per cent of "fair income" parity for high quality corn, cotton, peanuts, rice and wheat.

Israeli Mob Hits U. S. Consulate

JERUSALEM, Israel, Jan. 7 — UP — Rioting mobs stormed the United States consulate in Jerusalem Saturday in a new outbreak of anti-western violence that forced Jordan's caretaker government to resign.

First reports reaching the Israeli sector of Jerusalem said the demonstrators ripped down the American flag before troops restored order.

Strikes and demonstrations rocked both the old city of Jerusalem and the capital of Amman, according to reports received here. There were no reports of casualties.

In Amman, it was announced officially that the caretaker government of Premier Ibrahim Pasha Hashem had quit.

The anti-western demonstrators were protesting possible Jordanian membership in the Baghdad Pact defense alliance, and the government's about-face on the dissolution of parliament. The United States is not a member of the pact ringling Russia's southern frontier, but is a strong supporter of it.

The collapse of Hashem's regime threw Jordan into a crisis that has threatened Anglo-American planning for the Middle East. President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden have scheduled talks later this month in Washington on the Middle East situation.

Turnout was spreading through the strategic area.

In the Arab-Israeli dispute, an authoritative Cairo newspaper reported that Egypt's army on the Palestine front has now received new Communist arms and is "ready for action."

In Jordan's neighbor Lebanon, the cabinet was expected to quit Sunday in a crisis sharpened by differences over western aid.

The proposals will be coordinated with American suggestions in preparation for the talks between Eden and President Eisenhower in Washington starting Jan. 30.

Evelyn Shuckburgh, foreign office chief policy advisor, will present a blueprint based on a two-day secret meeting here between Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and British Middle East ambassadors this week.

Center piece of the project is a tentative plan for a fully coordinated system of financial, economic and technical assistance grants to the Middle East countries. This might be linked to existing aid programs in the area.

The plan provides further for a strong warning against aggression in the area, and a pledge of assistance to the attacked party, informed sources said.

This amounts to a re-affirmation of the 1950 tri-partite declaration (Britain, the United States, France), but with possible additional safeguard against aggression or change of the status quo by force. The 1950 declaration deals with arms shipments to the Middle East with an eye towards maintaining a balance of power. The plan envisions a complete review of the present arms supply program to Middle East nations, with new safeguards against arms race in the explosive area.

President Health Talk Set

Ike Will Tell Of Future Plans
By MERRIMAN SMITH
KEY WEST, Fla., Jan. 7 — UP — President Eisenhower, winding up an 11-day Florida vacation, will report personally Sunday on his health and his plans for the "immediate future," a White House aide said Saturday.

But the informal conference with reporters Saturday was not expected to produce any announcement as to Mr. Eisenhower's political intentions in this election year.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerly said the President would discuss only the "immediate future...the condition of his health, how he feels and what he is going to do when he gets back to Washington about resuming the regular routine of the presidency."

Will Meet Newsmen
Mr. Eisenhower, who arrived at this naval base Dec. 28 to follow a program of rest and recreation while recovering from his heart attack last September, will meet with newsmen about 9 a.m. and will fly back to Washington about two hours later.

He will be in the Capital city when his special farm message is delivered to Congress on Monday. The President worked out final details of the program at a conference with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson here Friday.

During his stay here, Mr. Eisenhower has followed a daily schedule of activity and rest which brought an expression of satisfaction with the President's health from his physician, Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder.

Hits Golf Shots
Hagerly quoted Snyder as saying the President has slept "very well" here, averaging eight hours sleep a night as well as napping during the daytime.

"The President has accomplished his administrative duties without the slightest fatigue," Hagerly said. "It has been to the satisfaction of the doctor that even on the cooler days here, they have been crisp and stimulating and served the purpose of helping the President's health."

Mr. Eisenhower again went to the baseball diamond across from his quarters this morning to get in some licks with his golf clubs.

Party Leaders Vow No Delay For Congress
By RAYMOND LAHR
WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 — UP — Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson and Republican Leader William F. Knowland agreed Saturday that election year politics won't stall the congressional program this year.

Johnson predicted, "Congress will hammer out a program that meets the needs of the nation," without getting bogged down in political warfare.

Knowland agreed that congressional debate can be carried on "without indulging in personalities and name-calling."

"Part of Our System"
"We sometimes have partisan debate and sometimes the debate cuts across party lines," said Knowland. "That goes on whether or not it is an election year. It's part of our system. I think Congress is going to function and not be stalemated in its legislative responsibilities."

Johnson foresaw farm and social security legislation as the major business coming before the Senate after the natural gas bill tentative set for week after next.

"Even though this is an election year," Johnson told reporters, "members of congress have the sobering realization that action on these problems is essential."

'BARE BOTTOM' BRAND GIVEN GOVERNMENT OK

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 7 — UP — The bare facts came to light Saturday. Ludwig J. Mayer, head of the Fresno Wine Co., of Milwaukee, said Saturday the government has ruled the labels on his "Bare Bottom" won't have to be retouched.

Earlier, the government ruled something would have to be done to cover a little boy's bare posterior on the label signifying a good tanning by an innkeeper for sampling the wine.

LEADING CITIZENS POLLED
When Is President Ruled Disabled?

The question is: What did the founding fathers mean when they provided in Article II of the Constitution that the vice president shall take over in case of the President's "inability to discharge executive powers?"
Never invoked
The clause has never been invoked, although many historians believe it should have been when President Woodrow Wilson suffered a paralytic stroke that left him an invalid 17 months before his term expired.
Immediately after President Eisenhower's heart attack last Sept. 24, there was talk in political circles about the possibility of Vice President Richard M. Nixon assuming the chief executive's powers under the "inability" clause. But this was quickly quelled by a White House announcement that the President's regular "team" of advisers and cabinet officers would carry on the government's business.

Mr. Eisenhower's subsequent rapid recovery has, of course, eliminated any consideration of applying the clause at present. But his illness nevertheless has underscored the necessity of defining the clause to avoid future constitutional crises.

Survey by Celler
The survey was the brainchild of Rep. Emanuel D. Celler (D-N. Y.), chairman of the House Judiciary committee. Celler hopes to make it public by the end of this month.

Questionnaires prepared by Celler's staff went out on Dec. 30 to a list of prominent citizens headed by former Presidents Harry S. Truman and Herbert C. Hoover. Others polled were former vice presidents John Nance Garner and Henry Wallace, all living former secretaries of state, and a cross-section of leading constitutional lawyers.

Damage Suit Filed In Auto Mishap
W. J. Lewis filed a $2,975 damage suit in 31st District Court Friday against Groninger and King Trucking Co. Lewis is seeking damages for injuries suffered by his son, Harold, and compensation for damages to the Lewis family car in July of '54.

He is asking $1,400 for his car, which was rated as a total loss, and $1,500 damages for injuries suffered by Harold, plus $75 hospital and medical bills.

Harold Lewis, former high school football star, suffered leg and chest injuries in the accident as he was traveling east on State Highway 152 when the truck is alleged to have cut in front of him west of the city limits on July 3, 1954.

Social Security
He said social security "cannot be postponed much longer" and reminded that the Senate Finance committee plans to start work on the House-approved bill as soon as it acts on a sugar quota bill. (See LEADERS, Page 2)

Insurance Co. Chief Found Shot; Still Alive

WACO, Tex., Jan. 7 — UP — A. B. Shoemaker, whose life is insured for $1 million payable to depositors of the collapsed U. S. Trust & Guaranty Co., which he headed, was found shot in the head Saturday night.

Shoemaker was found shot at his home at 7:15 p.m. He was rushed to Hillcrest Hospital and taken into an x-ray room.

The shooting came only a few hours after Shoemaker was named as defendant in another suit in the spreading insurance scandals in Texas.

Placed in Receivership
Just before New Year's, it was learned that Shoemaker held a $1 million life insurance policy, payable to depositors of U. S. Trust & Guaranty.

The policy was written by Occidental Insurance Co., of Los Angeles, Calif. Occidental was understood to have reinsured Shoemaker with 120 other companies to reduce risk.

U. S. Trust & Guaranty was placed in receivership last November after it was learned the Waco firm had a $7 million deficit as of last Oct. 31.

Investors Holding Bag
U. S. Trust & Guaranty, a Waco headquartered firm with 13 branches in almost every major Texas city, collapsed, leaving 5,500 investors holding a $5.3 million bag. More than 140,000 other persons hold U. S. Trust insurance policies.

The shooting came even as creditors of the defunct company held a mass meeting in Houston Saturday night with Austin Attorney Ralph Yarborough and State Sen. Jimmy Phillips as speakers.

Yarborough called for the resignation of all three members of the Texas Insurance Commission, saying the board should be replaced by "men of the tallest possible stature." (See INSURANCE, Page 2)

Judge Orders 3 Firms To Halt Business
AUSTIN, Jan. 7 — UP — District Judge Charles O. Betts Saturday issued temporary restraining orders placing in receivership the U. S. Life Insurance Co., of Waco and the Dallas Fire & Casualty Insurance Co., of Dallas.

The receivership action was sought in petitions filed by Attorney General John Ben Shepperd alleging that officers and directors of the companies were "not worthy of the public trust."

The restraining orders bar the two companies from doing further business, or disposing of any of their assets. The state's petitions were filed pursuant to an order by the State Board of Insurance Commissioners Thursday barring the companies from doing business.

The state alleged that the officers and directors of U. S. Life Insurance were the same as those of U. S. Trust & Guaranty Co., whose collapse touched off the mushrooming insurance scandals.

Shepperd's petition named as defendants A. B. Shoemaker of Waco and others who also were officers of U. S. Trust and Guaranty.

In the Dallas Fire & Casualty case, the state named Joe A. Irwin of Dallas and others as defendants and cited an insurance finding that the officers "have recklessly abandoned and concealed all public records and have closed the business office of said company with complete disregard of the rights of policy holders, creditors, stockholders and other claimants."

Testimony was offered at Thursday's board hearing linking Dallas Fire & Casualty with management of All American Home Lloys and Home Service Casualty Co., both now in receivership.

No question of insolvency was involved in either the Dallas Fire & Casualty or U. S. Life Insurance cases.

Life Insured For $Million, Payable To His Depositors

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 7 — UP — Charles A. McCormick, president of International Life Insurance Co. of Austin, disclosed Saturday that he gave former Insurance Commission Chairman Garland Smith and his wife an expense-paid trip to Hawaii last spring.

Smith was not available for comment. At his home, it was reported that he was gone for the weekend and could not be reached by telephone. Smith stepped down as chairman of the Commission Wednesday and was succeeded by J. Byron Saunders.

Smiths Invited
But Smith remained as a member of the three-man board. He was chairman at the time that McCormick said he gave him the trip. He said he and Mrs. McCormick invited the Smiths to go to Hawaii with them as their guests.

He said he saw nothing wrong with such an invitation or having it accepted. He said Mrs. McCormick and Mrs. Smith "are very close friends, practically like sisters and Dorothy (Mrs. Smith) was in very bad health at the time."

McCormick said he and his wife had been to Honolulu the year before and that Mrs. McCormick wanted to go back.

Wants to Go Again
"She likes it there, and wants to go again this year," he said.

Last spring, he said, Mrs. McCormick "wanted Dorothy to go along."

"We invited them to go as our guests," he said. "We talked it all over and they did."

International Life Insurance Co. has an 11-story home office building in Austin. McCormick said that of the 11 floors, State Insurance Commission offices occupy "about eight-and-a-half floors."

Screen CPA's
Saunders announced Saturday that certified public accountants will be screened by the Insurance Commission before they are allowed to audit the books of any insurer. (See COMMISSIONERS, Page 2)

INSURANCE (Continued from Page One) ture of experience, integrity and public confidence. Yarbrough, a two-time unsuccessful candidate for governor and leading critic of Gov. Allan Shivers' administration, said a new commission should be formed from a list of nominees prepared by a "state-wide panel or committee of recognized economic and professional leaders."

Expense Paid Trip Under law, the three commissioners are appointed by the governor.

Shortly before Yarbrough ripped into the commission, the president of a Texas insurance company revealed at Austin he furnished an expense-paid trip to Hawaii last spring for insurance commissioner Garland A. Smith and his wife. Charles A. McCormick, president of the International Life Insurance Co., said Mrs. McCormick and Mrs. Smith are "very, very close friends, practically like sisters," and that it was at Mrs. McCormick's suggestion the Smiths were invited to accompany them.

'Very Bad Health' He said Mrs. Smith was in "very bad health at the time," and it was believed the trip would be beneficial.

International Life Insurance Co. maintains an 11-story home office building in Austin. McCormick said "about eight and a half" floors were occupied by State Insurance Commission offices.

At his residence, Smith was reported gone for the week-end and not available for comment.

Yarbrough said a new commission should be composed of "the most highly-respected and best-equipped men for the job that can be found within Texas' borders."

Porter Asks Probe His call for a change in the commission came as Jack Porter, head of the Republican party in Texas, revealed in Washington he has asked that federal authorities step into the state's insurance scandals.

Porter, of Houston, is the Republican National Committee chairman from Texas. He specifically asked postal authorities to see whether the mails were used to defraud in the case of the U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co.

By ousting the commission's present membership, Yarbrough said the "sound insurance companies of the state—and they constitute the overwhelming majority of companies—can be protected against serious harm."

A Black Eye "Its acts and its failures to act have given the Texas insurance industry a black eye nationally, a tragedy as serious in its meaning as the tragedies of lost savings and policies," Yarbrough continued.

Former commission chairman Garland Smith stepped down, resuming his seat as a member, and was succeeded by Commissioner J. Byron Sanders earlier this week. "But while one commissioner has traded places with another, the character and complexion of the commission has not changed at all," Yarbrough charged.

An immediate resignation by all three members, he said, would be a "good faith demonstration that when (the commission) says it wants to clean up the Texas insurance industry, it intends to start in the place where every job should be started at the beginning."

Screen CPA's Meantime, in Austin Saunders, chairman of the insurance commission, said certified public accountants will be screened by the agency before making an audit under the commission's mass examination of all Texas home-officed companies.

"In no event will any of these examinations be out from under the supervision, direction and authorization of our offices," he said.

House bill would make women eligible for old age insurance benefits at the age of 62 and disabled persons at 50, instead of the present 65 minimum age.

With the Agriculture committee already at work on a farm bill, Johnson voiced belief that it and the social security measure would be the first ones taken to the floor this year.

He said postponement of the highway bill last year did no harm but that the subject is on the "must" list of legislation in 1956.

Of water conservation, he said it has passed the point where it was only a problem for a few people in the west.

"From the standpoint of the future," he said, "one of the strongest criticisms that can be made of the present administration is that it has dragged its heels on this subject."

Johnson insisted that controversial bills, including the natural gas measure, can be handled "without resort to personalities or bitter debate."

"Intelligent and prudent men," he said, "can go through vigorous discussion and accept the final verdict realistically."

the supervision, direction and authorization of our office," Saunders said.

Saunders said an "unfortunate statement" was made by Fladger F. Tannery of Dallas, president of the Texas Society of CPA's who told newsmen at Houston that insurance companies would be allowed to be examined by CPA's of their own choosing.

"... We would not assign a CPA who had been employed by or retained by the company," Saunders said.

The week's developments saw State Auditor C. H. Cavness link the name of State Sens. Kilmer Corbin of Lubbock and Rogers Kelley of Edinburg with the U. S. Trust & Guaranty Co.

Cavness said records showed Corbin received a check for $500 from the company in December, 1954. The auditor said the Edinburg law firm in which Kelley is a partner received a total of $4,800 in two checks of $2,400 each. Cavness said one check was dated Jan. 14, 1955 and the second March 17, 1955.

Both denied any personal dealings with the company, and Corbin demanded a special legislative session be called for purposes of impeachment after accusing the insurance commission of "utter incompetence, if not official corruption."

Corbin said he never received any money from U. S. Trust & Guaranty, but represented a medical and hospital firm before the Insurance Commission in 1954, not knowing it was an affiliate of U. S. Trust & Guaranty.

Kelley said he had "never represented these people" and had never accepted a retainer from them. "But he said his firm represented U. S. Trust & Guaranty in "general legal business" in connection with property near Edinburg and other loan business.

Shivers said he had no intention of calling a special session of the legislature to investigate the insurance scandals. He praised the Insurance Commission for doing "one of the finest jobs" ever done by that commission.

CHESS CHATS

By GEORGE KOLTANOWSKI
International Chess Master

CAN YOU SOLVE THIS?
Problem No. 4

White to play and mate in two moves.

Solution to Problem No. 3 is: 1. B-B3.

Solutions should be postmarked not later than Friday, and should be sent to "Chess," c-o Pampa Daily News, Texas.

REMARKS FOR BEGINNERS (2)

The King is a powerful piece in the end-game. The lone King cannot be checkmated by two Knights (and opposing King). And if the Knight is foolishly placed at the corner of the board, the King can stalemate such a Knight (e.g. the Knight at Q1 is stalemated by the opposing King at Q2). The King can approach any piece except an opposing King or an opposing Queen. It is important to remember this if you are a beginner, because then you may be able to fork two of your opponent's men with your King. Some of the masters (e.g. Steinitz and Bogolubov) have made daring maneuvers with their Kings even in the openings. The beginner is advised against this enterprising play in the early stages of the game.

If you have ever pulled the game out of the fire with a stalemate giving yourself a draw instead of a well-deserved loss, you may be interested in knowing that grandmasters have tried this resource now and then.

In remembering the basic checkmating positions (with a lone pawn, with Knight and Bishop, etc., etc.) it is well to remember the basic stalemating positions also, so that you won't fall into them while trying to checkmate the opponent.

Chess Notes

Here are the results of the first three problems, as the solvers rated in total points earned: Joe Davis — 6; Tony Welker — 6; H. T. Varnum — 6; C. P. Buckler — 5; Richard and Joe Welker — 4; Ken Anderson — 3; Lee Barry and Dr. R. H. Rutledge — 1; and A. B. Manning of Hart — 1. Solutions sent in to the last problem varied considerably, however, a careful study of the board will reveal that the Black Pawn may become a Queen or Knight, thus offering a threat to the Rook or White Bishop. So, possibly the best solution would be: B-B3; 2. K1R2 or P-N3; 3. R-R2 check mate.

"How about getting more members of the club to send in answers to the problem?" asked Koltanowski in a recent letter. In order to receive more solutions, replies to the problem will be accepted at each meeting of the Pampa Chess Club, Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., in Lovett Memorial Library. Each solution should contain the name and address of the solver.

The Executive Committee met with Dr. Andries Voet, president of the Tri-City Chess Club of Borger, last week to discuss the possibility of retaining Koltanowski as director of the Panhandle Open Chess Tourney in August. Dr. Voet indicated that he would be willing to act in either capacity, as tournament director or assistant. Final choice of director, which appears to be either Koltanowski or Voet, will be made by club members next Tuesday night.

A new round-robin tournament will start this week to run simultaneously with the present tournament. Results of each tourney will be kept on two different colored papers, according to Tournament Director Tony Welker. A deadline for the present tourney was set for Feb. 1, at which time most of the tournament games should have been played.

New H-Bomb Tests Foreseen

WASHINGTON —UP— Look for an official announcement soon that the United States will stage new H-bomb tests in the Pacific this year.

President Eisenhower made it clear Thursday that this country will not be duped by foreign propaganda into calling the tests off.

Atomic sources saw in his State of the Union message assurance that the United States will continue to perfect nuclear weapons for defense of the free world.

A congressional authority said the new tests will be held this spring at the Eniwetok-Bikini proving ground in the Marshall Islands. The last tests there, in the spring of 1954, were of "super H-bombs" comparable in violence to 15 million or 20 million tons of TNT.

"This year," the congressional authority said, "we are thinking in terms of 40 million to 50 million tons."

Perryton Plans Mausoleum

PERRYTON — (Special) — Lee Vineyard of Pampa was in Perryton this week, making arrangements for the building of a community mausoleum in the Ochiltree cemetery.

Vineyard secured an option on a tract of land in the cemetery several months ago and will meet with the county commissioners soon regarding the purchase of the land.

The site is located in the south west part of the cemetery and Vineyard said present plans are to construct a mausoleum of concrete, steel and stone.

Burial is made above the ground in individual crypts in a mausoleum. This type of burial is not common in this area, but a mausoleum is under construction in the Wheeler cemetery, Vineyard said.

Danger Of Forest Fire Is Critical

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. —UP— A state forestry service official said "hell may break loose Friday" because of an extremely critical forest fire situation in East Texas.

Andy Anderson of the forestry service said 12 forest fires are raging out of control in Northeast Texas. He said all available forestry personnel are trying to put down 18 other fires.

The critical area extends from Linden to Longview, Anderson said. He said the forests are just "stacked dry fuel" and the situation is completely out of hand.

"If things progress like they did Thursday," Anderson said, "hell may break loose Friday."

Ike Says Odds Against War With Russia

By DONALD J. GONZALES
WASHINGTON —UP— The Eisenhower administration believes the odds are against Russia or Red China starting a big war in 1956, officials said Friday.

They said that Red tactics instead will be aimed primarily at "quiet aggression" through stepped-up political, economic and subversive programs.

Experts put this interpretation on President Eisenhower's statement in his State of the Union message that "Soviet and Chinese communism still poses a serious threat to the free world."

Mr. Eisenhower also said that the October Big Four foreign minister's conference at Geneva "demonstrated conclusively that the Soviet leaders are not yet willing to treat the indispensable conditions for a secure and lasting peace."

These passages raised a question as to inside administration thinking on war-peace prospects, and whether the President meant the Chinese Reds would strike at Formosa in the next few months.

High-ranking strategists said the Communists might suddenly attempt a quick strike in the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Middle East. But Allied forces, they said, are not letting down their guard.

The administration, however, is betting that the Moscow-Peking Communist leaders will gamble this year on making Red gains outside the war arena.

MILLER-HOOD PHARMACY Monthly News

A Message from Your Neighborhood Pharmacy

THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE has changed greatly since the days when Doctors visited their patients in a horse and buggy. Physicians then used to carry a few drugs in their bag which they would give, even though the same medicine seemed to be used for almost every ailment.

IT DIDN'T MAKE TOO MUCH DIFFERENCE because there were very few drugs known then that could accomplish a positive result. The most important things a physician could do were to diagnose the condition, offer some medicine to ease distress, and give his valuable advice on how to take care of one's self while slowly waiting to get better.

BUT NOW WE HAVE THOUSANDS of new medicines, unknown then, that can be depended upon to not only give relief, but often, almost a miraculous overnight cure. Slowly, but surely, we are perfecting specific drugs that will treat specific disease. It would take a physician's bag, the size of a prescription department to hold all we now have.

ONE OF THESE MEDICINES, your physician knows which, will help you most if sickness invades your home. In our prescription department are these thousands of different medicines. Your modern physician knows he is no longer limited by the few drugs he can carry in his bag at an office.

Poll Of Doctors On Ike Attacked

CHICAGO — UP — The Journal of the American Medical Association Friday attacked a poll of heart specialists on whether President Eisenhower is physically able to run for a second term.

The journal urged specialists who receive the questionnaire in the mails from the American Research Foundation, Princeton, N.J., to throw it away without replying. "This type of questionnaire," whatever the source, should be discouraged, and, to prevent the hysteria that such information could foment, the questionnaire should be tossed in the wastebasket," the journal said editorially. The publication quoted a "well-known cardiologist" as saying the questions were "slandered political-ly" and the information obtained "could be used in almost any way to the disadvantage of the profes-sion."

GUEST WRITTEN THIS WEEK BY ELDER C. HERBERT LOWE

"The Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers," by LeRoy Edwin Froom, is the product of 20 years of intensive and careful research in all parts of the world, and is already in the classrooms of a number of leading universities and seminaries.

In compiling the material contained in the four thousand page, four volume treatise, Dr. Froom visited more than hundred libraries from Maine to California in the United States, and 80 of the greatest libraries of Europe, also Argentina, Mexico, Trinidad and Jamaica—all of which yielded secrets of the past. Perhaps the most valuable to the doctor in his research was the "Preussische Staats Bibliothek," in Berlin, which contained precious documents from Reformation times.

At the University of Cambridge the search for the prophetic faith of our fathers was instrumental in the rediscovery of some missing documents of rare worth. The Waldensian treatises which he was seeking had been transferred in times of persecution to the library, but were found, after a vigorous search, catalogued as Spanish books.

Probably the oldest document used in the writing of Prophetic Faith of Our Fathers was the work by Beatus, a Spanish monk. This was found in the Bibliotheca Nationale of Paris.

Photostats of hundreds of rare and priceless documents are to be found in Froom's volumes. Among them are originals of Luther's Ninety-five Theses, Tetzel's Indulgences, and the Bull of Leo X.

At the library of the University of Geneva there were no facilities for making photostatic copies. At this point the project became somewhat of an international one. The League of Nations came to Dr. Froom's rescue and made the necessary photostats.

While the guns of World War II were booming and bombs were falling, Dr. Froom was going quietly through libraries of Nazi Germany. Many of the photostats secured then, and prior to that time, are now the only existing copies of books and manuscripts lost or destroyed during the war.

Microfilming original documents and making photostats for the 20 year project cost nearly $27,000. The value of these documents now however is incalculable in view of the loss and destruction of originals through the war.

In recounting his experiences, Dr. Froom says that, in associating so long with the pages of the past, it was but natural that he should come across some interesting sidelights of history beyond the immediate realm of his research. One of these was the actual proof of the story of Luther's experience in the Lateran Church in Rome, which some theologians have been inclined to doubt.

"In this massive work Dr. Froom has traced the beliefs of Bible scholars back to the third century before Christ, finding in them amazing agreement. Of them the author says, "We have simply recovered what the successors to the Reformers had let slip. And the Reformers simply recovered what the early fathers had long held."

It's Colonna's feeling that the possibilities of the tag-line have not been fully exploited by TV.

Colonna, who has just taken over the amusements job on ABC-TV's revamped Super Circus, explained: "The tag-line can give intimacy to an act. It gives the audience a chance to participate in the comic's routine. People feel that they're kinda in on the whole thing."

The super-eyeballed comedian, taking note of such TV whimsies as George Gobel's "You can't hardly get them no more" and Jackie Gleason's "Pow! right in the kisser," conceded that the life of a catch-line in the new medium seems to be pretty short.

"I used 'Who's Yehudi?' for about three years on the Bob Hope show," recalled Colonna. "And most of the other lines stuck around almost as long. I doubt whether any tag-line would remain as popular now after constant TV exposure."

Italian Model In Indian Film

Not so long ago, a Hollywood producer announced that he would make a picture called "Montana," to be filmed in Italy. This gent, who may or may not be apocryphal, joking, will probably be interested in knowing that Elisa Martinielli, a beautiful 20-year-old Italian model, makes her film debut in the role of an Indian princess.

The vehicle which has the honor of supporting this enchanting bit of casting is "The Indian Fighter," Kirk Douglas' first independent production, filmed in Cinemascope with print by Technicolor, opening Sunday at LaNora Theatre through United Artists release. Douglas is starred in the title role.

The post-war Italian Renaissance, which has included movies, art, textiles, sports, fashions, typewriters, women's haircuts and sewing machines, has also included such a covey of voluptuous dames as has not been seen since sex was first invented. The list includes such lavishly endowed girls as Gina Lollobrigida, Anna Magnani, Silvana Mangano, Rossana Podesta, Silvana Pampanini, and others too beautiful to mention.

Elisa Martinielli is the newest name on that gorgeous roster. A native of Florence, the tall, dark-haired, dark-eyed Elisa had been in this country a scant five months before she was signed for "The Indian Fighter." A top Roman model, she trans-shipped to New York, where, in short order, she rose quickly to the top of the modeling profession, asking—and getting—forty bucks an hour posing for Vogue, Harper's Bazaar, Town and Country and other leading fashion magazines.

Elisa was the 87th candidate considered by Kirk Douglas for the role of Onahiti in "The Indian Fighter," and she was the first and only one to be chosen.

Bitter Fight For Natural Gas Bill Seen

WASHINGTON—UP—Senators Friday formed battle lines for a bitter struggle over the controversial natural gas bill.

Both Democrats and Republicans were expected to split over the bill. And the fight may turn into an even tougher one over civil rights.

Some northern Democrats who oppose the gas bill have threatened that in an attempt to kill it they may introduce civil rights legislation—possibly as an amendment. Some of the gas bill's principal backers would be certain to oppose the civil rights legislation.

The Senate Democratic Policy committee set the stage for the battle Thursday when it cleared the gas bill for early debate. Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) indicated the measure may reach the Senate floor week after next.

The policy committee acted after hearing five supporters of the bill. The committee also heard an opponent, Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.), assert that action on the bill is not in the interests of the public, "party harmony," or Democratic "electoral success" in the presidential campaign.

The bill, passed by the House in somewhat different form last summer, would exempt independent natural gas producers from direct Federal Power Commission regulation despite a contrary supreme court ruling.

Opponents of the bill contend that it would hike the gas prices of consumers. Supporters say the public is well protected under the terms of the bill.

Two Fined In DWI Cases

Two driving while intoxicated cases were heard in County Court Saturday morning with both parties entering pleas of guilty.

Cleta Mayes, 27, 535 S. Henry, pleaded guilty to the DWI charge and was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail. She was arrested by city police at 12:40 a.m. Saturday in the 900 block of W. Wilkes St., after running into the corner of a vacant rent house at 935 S. Dwight in a '54 Ford.

The Ford met with approximate damages of $350, and property damage to the house was estimated at $1,000.

Virgel Kenneth Smith, 26, of 517 Purvis, also entered a plea of guilty and was fined $100 and cost and sentenced to three days in jail. He was arrested by city police in the 1100 block of Ripley at 12:49 Saturday morning.

Written for NEA Service
The bidding of today's hand was fine, which is rather more than can be said for the play. Perhaps this proves that it doesn't pay to bid a delicate slam if the hand is going to be played indelicately.

West opened the king of clubs, and declarer properly ruffed this in the dummy. South noted that the nine of spades was missing and that he therefore could not plan to take two finesses in the trump suit. He therefore planned to cash the ace of spades and then lead a low spade in the hope of catching a singleton honor or of finding the spades divided 2-3. This was a reasonable plan for South to make at this moment.

When declarer led a low spade from the dummy, East followed suit with the nine. This card should have persuaded South to change his mind. Instead, however, South continued with his plan. He put up the ace of spades and returned the suit, with unfortunate results.

East was able to take both the king and queen of spades, exhausting dummy's trumps. East then led the ace of clubs and continued that suit, as a result of which the defenders took two trump tricks and three clubs, defeating the contract four tricks.

South should have realized that East would not have played the

County Agents Meet Here

County agents from this region met Friday with Jack King, of the Texas Extension Service at Lubbock, in the Court House to discuss the hybrid grain sorghum program for 1956.

King explained methods of planting grain sorghum and ways to produce hybrid seed, outlining the program for the year. He pointed out that little hybrid grain sorghum will be on the market this year, but the supply should be more plentiful in 1957.

Grain sorghum on experimental plots will increase the yield by between 25-35 percent, as demonstrated in area counties. Attending the session were: County Agent Ralph Thomas, Robert Adamson, assistant; and County Agents Victor Joiner, Ray Slegmund, Wheeler, H. M. Breedlove, Clarendon, J. W. "Lefty" Thomas, Wellington, Warren Pickens, Canadian, Foster Whaley, Armstrong County, H. M. Nichols and assistant, George Roberts, of Fanhandle, and Charles Brown, Lipscomb County.

Chemical warfare was known as early as 500 B. C., when sulphur and pitch were mixed together, set afire, and hurled at besieged cities. The German use of chlorine gas, in 1915, marked the beginning of modern chemical warfare.

nine of spades if he had held king-nine-deuce or queen-nine-deuce of the suit. There could be nothing wrong with finessing the jack on the first round of trumps. If East had started with a singleton nine of spades, the slam was doomed to begin with. If East had one honor with the nine of spades, South would have his chance to play the ace the next time. Finally, if East had both of the missing honors with the nine of spades, the jack of spades was the only play that would assure the slam.

... resigns position

Moore Resigns School Post At Shamrock

Elmer J. Moore, superintendent of Shamrock Public Schools for the past 10 years, tendered his resignation to the board of trustees Wednesday afternoon.

In his brief letter of resignation, Supt. Moore stated:

"It has been a pleasure to have had a small part in the progress the Shamrock Schools have made during my tenure. I am proud that the district is now in a position to have better school facilities, and I sincerely hope that, under proper leadership and guidance, schools will continue to improve."

Moore asked that his resignation become effective as of Jan. 20, or Feb. 1.

Moore became superintendent of the Shamrock Schools in 1945.

In the fall of 1945, the school first accepted Equalization Aid which enabled teachers to receive the minimum salary. Many repairs and alterations made the buildings more functional and attractive.

In 1947, the Dunbar school was moved from the McLean Prisoner of War Camp. The Dunbar school has grown from a one-teacher, eight-grade school to a 12-grade system with four teachers.

In 1948, after working for two years the school was successful in having $141,000 in bonds refund and refinanced which resulted in a saving of approximately $40,000 to the district.

Moore was reared in Lubbock, and was graduated from Lubbock High School. He received his B.A. in geology and M. A. in education at Texas Tech, Lubbock, with minors in English and social studies. He attended short courses, work shops, etc. at the University of Texas, Texas Tech and West Texas State College.

Gideon Camp Discussed For Shamrock

SHAMROCK (Special) — Plans for a Gideon Camp in Shamrock were discussed at a meeting Sunday afternoon in the First Methodist Church in Shamrock.

Several men of the Amarillo-Gideon Camp were present including Burl Callaway, state Gideons president, Rev. Edwin Kerr, and Norris Ewing.

The Gideons have 11 or 12 church services booked in Shamrock and surrounding towns at this time and the organization has been supplying free Bibles to motels and hotels of this area for many years.

Norris Ewing, Amarillo insurance executive and active Gideon member, explained the purpose of the Shamrock meeting is to get Shamrock people to thinking about the establishment of a Gideon camp. The camp could not be formed immediately but those who might be interested, could make application for Gideon membership and, when they have sufficient strength, form their own Shamrock Camp.

Ewing spoke at the Presbyterian church in McLean Sunday morning and they drove to Shamrock for the meeting at 2 o'clock.

Ewing and others made a brief visit in Shamrock Dec. 28. Local ministers and laymen told them they felt a Gideon Camp could accomplish wonders in Shamrock and the Amarillo men came to render what assistance they could in organizing one.

Year's Moisture Low In Shamrock

SHAMROCK, (Special) — Even though no rain fell in Shamrock during November and December of 1955 the records show that the moisture total was less than an inch below normal.

Roe Davidson, local representative of the U.S. Weather Bureau, reports that moisture totaled 21.85 inches during the year. The unusual fact is that all but 3.08 inches of that amount fell in four months of the year with more than half the total received in two months, May and June.

Davidson recorded 17.06 inches of moisture in 1954. The total in 1953 was 18.64 inches, and only 14.07 inches fell in 1952. Records here go back through 1930 with the lowest rainfall recorded in 1945 when 13.77 inches fell.

Port Neches, Alice, Garland Place Two On AAA Grid Team

Harvester Golfers Defeat Sandie Five By 35 Strokes

The Harvester Golf team, coached by Weldon Trice, defeated the Amarillo team five Saturday for the first time in many years on the greens at the Pampa Country Club Golf Course.

The local team, composed of Leslie Howard, Don Prigmore, Bill McCleod, Melvin Chisum and Bert Watkins, toured the 21 holes with a total score of 274 while the Amarillo team coached by R. B. Norman totaled 408 or 35 strokes behind the local five.

Leslie Howard took the medalist honors with a 38-32 score while Pampa team-mate Don Prigmore, took the runnerup honors with a 38-35.

Other scores for the Pampa club were Bill McCleod, 37-39; Melvin Chisum, 39-38 and Bert Watkins with a 41-38.

The Sandies shot good golf but weren't up to defeating the Pampa team. Shooting for the Amarillo team were Phillip Mathis, 41-36; Eddie Taylor, 42-42; Robert Tennant, 39-37; Russell Mathis 43-43; and Ben Lane Jr., 38-37.

This was not a district match and has no bearing on the district outcome. The district tournament will be held on the Country Club sometime in April with teams from Borger, Amarillo, Palo Duro and Plainview competing for the district crown.

DALLAS —UP— Gordon LeBeauf of Port Neches' championship team and Bobby Boyd of runner-up Garland were the unanimous choices for the Texas Sports Writers Class AAA All-State school-boy football team.

It was the second straight year the flashy Boyd had been a unanimous choice for the mythical team, while LeBeauf moved up from last year's second team and his backfield teammate, Bobby LaBorde, dropped down from first to second team rank.

The Sandies won the district title last year with the Green and Golders second. The local team should be a top contender for the crown after once beating the tough Amarillo five.

Washington Club Honored Williams

WASHINGTON —UP— Ted Williams, overlooked while most of the silverware was being passed out this winter, will be honored Saturday with a trophy by the Washington Touchdown Club — of all people.

Williams, who came out of retirement to hit .356 in 88 games for the Boston Red Sox last season, will receive the first annual Griffith Memorial Trophy for the outstanding contribution to baseball in 1955. The trophy was created in honor of the late Clark Griffith, former owner of the Washington Senators and a co-founder of the American League.

The second team, with point totals: Ends Milton Ham of Snyder 18 and Paul Alexander of Sherman 20; tackles Ramond Martin of McAllen 10 and Wayne Shirley of Port Neches, Garland and semifinalist Alice each placed two men on the mythical team, while Grand Prairie, Snyder, Temple, Big Spring and Harlandale players won the other five berths.

Rounding out the backfield with Boyd and LeBeauf were Ronnie Capps of Alice, who gained 29 of a possible 40 points, and Clifford Grubbs of Harlandale, who got 26 points.

The line was anchored around center Jerry Graves of Big Spring, who lacked only one vote of being unanimous and who was a second team member a year ago.

Others along the first team line were ends Lowell Baker, Garland Wingman who likes Graves polled 38 points, and John Goodwin of Port Neches 25 points; tackles Charles McKenzie of Grand Prairie 28 and Jimmy Franz of Alice 25 and guards Shorty Grimmert of Snyder 29 and Lee Benner of Temple 28.

Letter postage on the old Pony Express, from St. Joseph, Mo., to Sacramento, Calif., was $5 for each half-ounce, and tissue paper was used for letters.

Ring Managers To Break Away From NY Guild

NEW YORK —UP— A band of disgruntled fight managers will break away from the Boxing Guild of New York and form a new "alliance" that will try to wreck the guild, probably with the blessings of promoter Jim Norris, it was learned Saturday.

Norris unexpectedly defied the guild Friday by announcing he would continue to stage his Friday night TV-radio fights in New York state and support chairman Julius Helfand of the N.Y. State Athletic Commission.

Under the circumstances Norris would welcome a split that would weaken the N.Y. guild and prevent a rumored boycott of his New York fights. He alerted his network sponsor to have a stand-by TV show (not a fight) ready to substitute for his next TV fight in New York state on Jan. 20 at Syracuse — in case managers pull out their fighters.

Charley Johnston, president of the International Boxing Guild — parent organization of the New York chapter — said a New York meeting would be called soon to discuss the situation.

Chairman Helfand, admittedly "very gratified" by Norris' defiance of the guild, said he had not yet set a date for the hearing of Tex Sullivan and Willie Gilzenberg, promoters of Monday night TV fights at St. Nicholas Arena.

Sullivan and Gilzenberg have done an about-face and now desire to continue their promotions at St. Nick's instead of taking their fights "on the road" because of the commission's ban against the guild, effective Jan. 15.

Officials of the International Boxing Club insist Norris motives were purely righteous and not the least financial when he decided to defy the boxing guild and keep New York fights in N.Y. state.

Pampa Tops Hawks 57-55 With Seven Seconds To Go

Jerry Gee, who had nursed a cold all day, drove in under after the Harvesters had played 50 seconds of ball-control to dump in a field goal and break up the 55-55 tie with the Phillips Blackhawks in Harvester fieldhouse Saturday night.

Tommy Newman knotted the score with one minute left after he stole a pass and drove in for a layup with his team mates behind only two points.

The Harvesters, with a six point lead, tried playing a ball-control game with two and one half minutes left. They got careless and let the fighting Blackhawks play "catch-up."

The Harvesters controlled the game in the first three periods as they stacked up a 16-10 score at the end of the first period and had a safe 33-24 lead at half-time.

Jerry Gee and Gene Brown paced the Green and Golders in the first two periods with Brown counting for 14 and Gee 13.

Gee counted for only one field goal in the first frame while Brown dumped in four. He came back in the second frame and sank three from outside while Brown garnered only one. Gee dumped in five free throws and Brown four in the first half.

Carl Mitchell seemed cold in the first quarter as he counted for only two of each Bill Eubank's points. The 6-2 guard had counted for an average of 22 points per game prior to the Saturday night tilt.

He counted for 28 in his last game but was held to only 18 by Pampa's Gene Brown while Brown managed to count for 21 to lead the scoring. Jerry Gee was second with 18 while Mitchell garnered third place honors.

Dickie Mauldin, Harvester forward, Ronnie Holder and Judge Perry, forwards for the Blackhawks, each counted for 12 points. Perry was the only man of either quintet to foul out of the game and that came in the last quarter after he had counted for one field goal.

The Harvesters held a comfortable lead of 46-38 going into the final stanza and played the game their way until they started "ball-control" with only two and one half minutes left. At that time they lost their coordination and allowed the Phillips boys to steal the ball for six points that tied the score at 55-55 with one minute left.

Under the pressure they settled down and held the ball for approximately 50 seconds and ran most of the time out. Jerry Gee found an opening and laid one in with only seven seconds left.

Phillips made one last effort to score but it bounced off the rim. Dickie Mauldin took the rebound and tossed it to Gene Brown who made a long shot just as the buzzer sounded.

The Harvesters won 57-55 to make their mark for the season 12-4.

The Shockers, after defeating Boys Ranch in the North Plains Cage Tournament Saturday afternoon, came through with flying colors to drop the Phillips "B" team by a 72-33 mark.

Coach Terry Culley's cagers fell to Sunneta's A team in their first game at Claude but came through and defeated Borger 73-63 to advance into the consolation finals against Boys Ranch who they dropped 89-57.

Dickie Mauldin, Harvester forward, Ronnie Holder and Judge Perry, forwards for the Blackhawks, each counted for 12 points. Perry was the only man of either quintet to foul out of the game and that came in the last quarter after he had counted for one field goal.

South Edges North 12-2

MOBILE, Ala., Jan. 7 — UP— Fullback Joe Childress of Auburn cracked the North's goalline defenses in the first and final periods Saturday to clinch two marches and give the South a 12-2 triumph in the seventh annual Senior Bowl game.

A capacity crowd of 35,000 fans at Ladd Memorial Stadium saw Childress, a hard-running 195-pounder who carried Auburn to the Gator Bowl, buck two yards to cap a 56-yard scoring drive in the first period. He also smashed two yards for the second touchdown in the closing minutes of the game.

In between Childress' two scores, it was a stubborn South defense that earned the honors. The South's line, led by tackles Don Goss of Southern Methodist and Auburn's M. L. Brackett and all-America guard Bo Bolinger of Oklahoma, time after time stopped the powerful North running attack, often deep in Southern territory.

Childress Went Over An alert Rebel secondary also broke up the passing of quarterback Jerry Reichow of Iowa and Jim Haluska of Wisconsin when it counted most. Paul Brown, coach of the Cleveland Browns, guided the winners. Buddy Parker of the Detroit Lions coached the North.

The North failed to move following the kickoff, and the South started off with a bang.

Carver Basketeers Defeat Borger To Take District Lead

Frisco Dons Shoot For All-Time Mark

The San Francisco Dons, after digesting home food for almost a week, swallowed their 37th straight opponent Friday night and now are only two victories away from college basketball's all-time winning streak.

Returning to action for the first time since they climaxed a coast-to-coast tour by winning the Holiday Festival tournament at New York, the darting Dons turned back Pepperdine College 62-51 at San Francisco.

Maryland Offensive Coach Takes South Carolina Job

COLUMBIA, S.C. —UP— Warren K. Giese, the offensive strategist for highly ranked Maryland, took over the head football coaching job at the University of South Carolina Saturday under a three-year contract at $2,000 a year.

Temple, one of the East's surprise powers, remained on the unbeaten trail by rolling to a 90-60 victory over the University of Scranton. Hal Lear and Guy Rodgers each scored 17 points for the Owls.

In a doubleheader at Philadelphia, Villanova upset West Virginia 54-53 when the Mountaineers missed five free throw attempts in the final minute, while Pennsylvania opened its Ivy League campaign with a 69-66 triumph over Dartmouth.

UCLA bounced back from its Holiday Festival defeat by San Francisco to defeat Idaho 92-73 in the opener of a weekend series. Morris Tart led the Uclans with 31 points.

Elsewhere, Terry Tibbs and Ed Argenbright each tallied 21 points in leading Brigham Young to a 73-67 victory over Montana. Washington defeated previously-unbeaten Stanford 54-42. Wyoming beat Denver 66-51. California edged Southern California 52-51, on two free throws by Dave Arrillaga, and Oregon State whipped Washington State 59-40.

San Francisco and fifth-ranked Illinois were the only members of the United Press' top 20 teams inactive Saturday night.

PHILADELPHIA —UP— Connie Mack, the grand old man of baseball, was discharged from the Presbyterian Hospital Tuesday after undergoing X-ray and general examinations for the past five days of the hip he broke in a fall last October. Mack, who will observe his 93rd birthday Friday, is reported to have passed the examinations satisfactorily.

The Carver Wildcats came through Friday night when the game really made a difference and copped the lead in their basketball district by defeating the Borger Dragons in a hard fought 63-58 contest before a good crowd. The Carver girls held their district lead with a tough 29-26 win over Borger.

The Wildcats started the scoring early and took a five-point lead when Don Proctor dumped in two quick field goals and one free toss but the Borger Dragons then took over and made a good game of it with Larry Bowie, Thurman Hall and Cecil Ray—counting for two points each to put the Borger five ahead.

The entire first half found the two teams swapping the lead with the Wildcats taking the longest lead with their early 5-0 mark.

The Pampa "B" stringers took their contest with a 44-22 victory over the Borger "B" string cagers and the Carver girls held their district lead by dropping the Borger girls 29-26 in a hard-fought contest.

The Carver girls held the lead most of the way and after their halftime lead of 17-10 they never were headed.

They had their lead cut to three points at one point midway of their frame but stretched it to 10 before the final stanza. Then with the pressure on the Borger girls dumped in three quick field goals and one free toss to cut it to three points as the game ended.

The Carver girls are undefeated this season in district play and have beaten Borger each time they have met.

The Wildcats, on the other hand, have won only one game with the Dragons and it was the first and only game that made a difference. The first five tilts between the two teams ended with only a few-point difference in the score but with the Pampa Cagers on the short end.

In the final minutes of the contest, Borger put forth an extra effort to gain control of the ball and was guilty of fouling. The fouls gave the Carver cagers the added points they needed to keep out in front.

The Borger five threw a scare into the local five as they cut their lead to four points before the final gun, although the score stood at 47-38 going into the last quarter.

Boston Red Sox Sell Louisville Club To Cubans

BOSTON —UP— The Boston Red Sox have sold their Louisville, Ky., farm club to a group of Cuban businessmen.

Sale of the franchise of the American Association is subject to the approval of the association which holds a meeting today in Chicago.

Red Sox General Manager Joe Cronin announced the Louisville deal Saturday night. He said that Edward F. Wheeler, leader and representative of the Cubans, would meet in Washington Saturday with President Calvin Griffith of the Senators. The Colonels would become a Washington farm club, if approved by the association.

Wheeler is superintendent of Western Union operations in Cuba.

CARVER CAGERS CELEBRATE

The Carver Wildcats, after having dropped five non-conference games to the Borger Dragons, came through Friday night when the contest made a difference and downed the Borger quintet in their first district tilt. Shown above the Carver students storm on the court after the game to help celebrate the 63-58 victory. The game placed the Wildcats out in front as district leaders. The Girls also won their contest and are still undefeated in district play. (News Photo)

Braves Need Left Handed Hurlers For Next Season

Editors Note: This is another of a series of interviews with the major league managers on their 1956 prospects.

By BOB PARKIN

GRAY SUMMIT, Mo. —UP— Manager Charlie Grimm of the Milwaukee Braves said Saturday he would give his banjo-plunkin' left arm for some good left-handed pitching.

The National League's senior manager said his second-place Braves were set for the 1956 pennant battle with the exception of lefties in the bullpen and a possible replacement at second base.

Grimm expects a "helluva" battle from Toledo's Frank Torre for the first base job.

"I like my ball club," the affable Grimm said. "If we stay intact and Gene Conley comes through, we've got as good a chance as Brooklyn or anybody else."

Conley, the big right-hander who suffered an injured back after compiling an 11-7 record, is the club's big if. He went out when the Braves were only about 10 games behind the championship-bound Dodgers, against whom his record showed consistent mastery.

"The picture of 1955 to me was good balance in this league, except for Brooklyn," Jolly Cholly said, "and I don't think they'll get off as good, which means even better balance this season."

"They took it all because they were terrific... but this is 1956."

Grimm, basking in the glow of the fireplace at his hilltop farm home, foresaw a lack of left-handers as a weakness on the Braves, but for a team with a dearth of southpaw hurlers, Milwaukee has one of the best in 17-game winner Warren Spahn.

"Spahn, Lew Burdette, Bob Buhl and Ray Crone proved last year they can carry the load," he said. "The bullpen hinges about this fellow (John Red Murf), Chet Nichols and Conley and, maybe, (Lou) Sleater."

Sleater and Nichols are the only left-handers on the list. Sleater was just "drafted in the search for some southpaw relief."

"Our ball club will be very much the same, unless some hot, young fellows can beat someone out," Grimm said. "As a result, we'll spend more time in spring training giving the kids a chance to make the team."

Ted Williams isn't saying. MIAMI, Fla. —UP— Ted Williams isn't saying "definitely yes" yet but it looks like he'll be playing for the Boston Red Sox next year. "I can't say definitely but I'd say the odds are I will play baseball next season," Williams told reporters.

Ready Any Time PARIS —UP— French middleweight contender Charles Humes said Tuesday he is ready and willing to fight champion Sugar Ray Robinson "anywhere" for the world title. Humes is the world boxing committee's No. 1 challenger of Robinson's crown.

Major Problem Of 50th NCAA Meeting Is 'Recruiting Evils'

Panhandle Outdoor Life
By S. V. WHITEHORN
January 15 marks the closing date for our duck and goose season with the quail season closing on the following day. While there has been hardly a drop or moisture during the quail hunt the hunters have had much better luck than in the two preceding years of '53 and '54.

quail season Doctors Frank and R. A. Duncan do not permit any hunting whatsoever on the Duncan ranch but this season there have been several week ends of hunting on the ranch with all the hunters getting their ten birds on all but a few occasions. Since the stock was in such a critical state in 1953, and the birds on the Duncan spread were saved over it appears that this is the main reason why the birds are so plentiful in that area.

Some of the other ranches in the general area, where the birds were heavily hunted last year, are still in short supply at this time. In fact we observed three hunters on Jan. 4 who hunted on one of the best game ranches in the Panhandle and these fellows ended the day with exactly two quail, one blue and one bob.

The coyotes are coming back at a fast clip in the Pampa-Borger area. Pleas Harrison and myself noticed five in one bunch over on White Deer creek the other day. About three years ago the Federal Predator Control men moved in and poisoned out these animals to the point where they were seemingly extinct. These fellows used a poison called 1080 which is one of the most deadly poisons. We understand that horses (soapers) were used.

These animals were filled with the drug, then cut into about four pieces and placed at certain areas throughout the coyote range. In a few weeks the coyotes just disappeared.

Myron Blackburn, Canadian bird dog enthusiast, reported that the 1080 program has started in that area with several bait stations located east of Glazier in Hemphill County, in and around the Lockhart ranch.

While coyotes do a certain amount of damage to game, the greater amount of wolf damage comes from these animals killing young calves. The wolf eradication campaign will assist the wild life to a degree but if the bobcats could be exterminated, or rather controlled, the wildlife in the top part of Texas would be more relieved.

Lions in the Panhandle? We recently heard a fellow say that a few days ago he had planned to spend the night in camp on the river near the Pipeline bridge, while hunting in that area. About that time he heard a loud noise that sounded very much like a woman screaming, not only that but he could hear the footsteps of an animal walking in the woods and brush nearby. This hunter related that as lions begin to age and when they get to the stage that they are no longer agile enough to catch smaller animals for food that they will readily attack a human. In fact he stated that not many months ago this sort of thing happened in the Rockies. "Well," he said, "there was a cloud in the north and it appeared as if there might be a norther blow in during the night" so he just rolled up his bed-roll and made his way back in to Borger.

Latest report on the Dumas lion, (there was one, or something that resembled a lion seen in that area last summer) is to the effect that this animal was seen along the Pringle highway some ten miles east of Sunray accompanied by a smaller one six weeks ago.

This Dumas cat is sort of elusive to people, just seen here and there every five or six months. Last summer two hired hands almost stepped on the animal while it was napping in a silo at the Huff farm.

Not too many years ago these huge animals actually prowled the Panhandle creeks and rivers and were seen quit frequently.

Safe and Sound
One factor in the unexpectedly large showing of the 1955 Whooping Crane apparently was the decision of the Texas Game and Fish Commission to keep the goose season closed for two weeks after the duck season shoot opened. This decrease-

ONE LESS BOBCAT

This 30-pound bobcat was killed Saturday on the Grover Copeland farm, five miles east of Shamrock. The big cat was shot by Wayne Copeland of Cleburn as it attempted to free itself from a trap. The animal was almost free of a trap which the Copelands had set in a shinnery patch near their home after some of their house cats had disappeared. Wayne Copeland was visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Copeland.

Player Ineligible for Sports
COLUMBUS, Ohio.—UP—Ken Sidle, a forward on the Ohio State University basketball team, Tuesday was declared ineligible for sports competition because of scholastic difficulties. The suspension will become effective Jan. 2.

West Choses Baylor Player
SAN FRANCISCO.—UP—Half-back Weidon Holley of Baylor Tuesday was named as a substitute for Dick James of Oregon on the West team for the annual Shrine East-West football game, Dec. 31. James recently broke his wrist in a swimming pool accident.

Don Mueller Signs Contract
NEW YORK.—UP—The New York Giants announced Tuesday that outfielder Don Mueller has signed his contract for the 1956 season. Mueller, who reportedly signed for $20,000, batted .306 last season.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 7.—UP—The age-old problem of combating recruiting evils and the comparatively new puzzle of television hold the spotlight as the 50th annual convention of the NCAA gets officially under way here Sunday. From the resolutions that have been drafted by committees during the past year, it appears that there is a general satisfaction with the regional and national television programs.

But the perennial sophomores who do some of the recruiting for major "football schools" may run into some trouble if the amendment proposed by the committee studying recruiting is accepted.

This is the one that would make so-called "booster" clubs—the lads who scour the interlands looking for football talent—just about obsolete.

The proposal states: "No NCAA member institution shall permit an outside organization or agency to utilize or administer funds for the purpose of transporting prospective student-athletes to its campus, it being understood that the pooling of resources by two or more persons for this purpose shall constitute such a fund."

If this amendment is accepted, it would appear that wealthy individuals would have to take over the costs of recruiting promising athletes.

Among other proposals to be voted upon by the membership:

1. A proposal that the 10-game football limit be extended to allow an alumni varsity game in the spring.

2. Three basketball suggestions, having to do with earlier fall practice, elimination of spring practice—or both.

3. Refusing to allow college coaches from coaching in high school all-star games.

4. Propose a national television program for the 1956 football season to be directed by a television committee of the NCAA pretty much along the same lines as the one used in 1955.

Peg O' Pampa

IF EVERYONE DOESN'T HAVE a favorite poem that has influenced him sometime in his life to be a better person, he should... Here is one Peg had tacked on her wall from childhood to adulthood.

A PRAYER FOR EVERY DAY

Make me too brave to lie or be unkind.
Make me too understanding, too, to mind
The little hurts companions give, and friends,
The careless hurts no one quite intends,
Make me too thoughtful to hurt others so,
Help me to know
The inmost hearts of those for whom I care,
Their secret wishes, all the loads they bear,
That I may add my courage to their own,
May I make lonely folks feel less alone,
And happy ones a little happier yet.
May I forget
What ought to be forgotten; and recall
Unfailing, all
That ought to be recalled; each kindly thing,
Forgetting what might sting.
To all upon my way,
Day after day,
Let me be joy, be hope! Let my life sing!

By Mary Carolyn Davies.

PAMPA GIRL SCOUTS... leaders and workers... are busy getting ready for the Girl Scout banquet... it's to be held Friday... the girls prepare for it and it's always a lot of fun... and very nice... it's for all adults registered in Scouting... songs around the world will be emphasized this year... and members of the executive board will be installed... last year they had such a big crowd it was hard to move in the First Methodist Church basement... this year they are having it in high school cafeteria... promises to be a wonderful affair.

No person will have occasion to complain of the want of time who never loses any. (Thomas Jefferson)

IF YOU'RE OUT TO PLEASE the men in your family for the new year now underway... here is a wonderful recipe for barbecued ribs... the sauce... unlike so many... calls for few ingredients... in combination with onion and lemon slices, it gives the ribs a perfect barbecue flavor and a wonderful glaze.

BARBECUED SPARERIBS

- 3 to 4 pounds pork spareribs
- 1 lemon, sliced
- 1 large onion, sliced
- 1 cup catsup
- 1-8 cup Worcestershire sauce
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3 drops Tabasco
- 1-2 cups water

Have spareribs cut into 3-rib sections. Place ribs meaty side up in shallow roasting pan. Top each section with an onion slice and a lemon slice. Bake in a hot oven, 450 degrees, 30 minutes. Combine remaining ingredients in a saucepan and heat to boiling point. Reduce oven heat to 350 degrees and continue baking until ribs are tender, about 1 hour. Baste ribs with sauce every 15 minutes, adding more water if sauce becomes too thick. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Laziness travels so slowly that poverty soon overtakes it. (Benjamin Franklin)

SURE HOPE YOU'VE ALL got a good start in the new year... understand the E. E. McNutt family did... held open house in their new home in Meadow Creek Village... near Houston... and about 20 former Pampans came to call... we Pampans sure stick together wherever we go... understand the afternoon was spent in reminiscing about Pampa and Pampans... anyone's ears do a slow friendly burn... Among the ex-Pampans at the open house were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gee... they were here from 1927 to 1943... Mr. and Mrs. Howard Neath... 1931 to 1944... Mrs. H. F. Martin... 1928 to 1948... Misses Marlene and Charlotte Leder... and Lynn Cornelius... Dr. and Mrs. Wilks Chapman... Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Reno... he was with The Pampa Daily News from 1926 to 1932... Mr. and Mrs. Forrest P. McKimpping... 1926 to 1943... Mrs. A. R. Sanchez... the former Willetta Stark... 1926 to 1943... Mrs. Henry Dennard... formerly Elizabeth Graham... 1926 to 1943... she was there with her hubby, Henry, a former Pampan from 1936 to 1943... and last but not least, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Putman... understand the group had so much fun... and everyone knew of so many other Pampans in Houston that it was decided to do it more often... sounds like a good idea... those Pampa reunions in California draw crowds of several hundred people... Houston ought to be able to do as well.

Our todays and yesterdays
Are the blocks which we build.
(Henry W. Longfellow)

HERE AND THERE... Understand Vernon Lawrence is back in Pampa... or was recently... to move his family to Glendale, Calif... understand he likes it there real well... sure hate to see them go... Mr. and Mrs. George Friauf are all smiles over the birth of their granddaughter... parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Friauf of Fort Worth... glad to see Marjorie Magee out and around again... and feeling well again... she's been doing a lot of work at the orphanage in Panhandle... a lot of Pampans are getting ready for a big week end at Santa Fe ski basin... they plan to leave Friday... mostly young married couples... Joe Rogers is organizing the trip... sounds like they should have a lot of fun in all that snow and cold... overheard some of the Sub Deb girls blushing and giggling over their escorts having to kiss them during their presentation dance... Ah, me... lakes Peg back so many (too many) years... certainly was a big occasion for the girls... and their parents are as proud as punch... and rightly so... congratulations to Maynette Loftus on being chosen "best pledge."

If one would be successful in the future, let him make the most of the present. (Mary Baker Eddy)

THE BETA SIGMA PHI table setting contest is almost upon us... if your club hasn't entered yet, you'd better get busy... they've extended the deadline, but they may close it Monday... glad to see some men's groups entering... Now fellows, why not do the decorating yourselves?... not put your wives to work... you ought to be able to prove that men have as much talent along those lines as women... Peg also glad to see they are having two categories this year... informal and formal... when there was only one, it was hard to vote... the formal are so gorgeous, but the informal were tops in their field, too... there is such a big difference in the two types... Peg just knows it will be as good as ever... in fact, it seems to get better each year... it's going to be Jan. 21, in the high school field house.

The Present, the Present is all thou hast
For thy sure possessing;
Like the patriarch's angel hold it fast
Till it gives it blessing.

Circles Of The First Methodist Church Shower Presented For Dorothy Zhanel

Miss Dorothy Zhanel, bride-elect of Richard Waldron Brainerd of Amarillo, was complimented with a shower recently in the home of Mrs. Jack Merchant, 2217 Charles. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Merchant were Mrs. Richard Batoon, George Martin, Harold Schwartz and Oscar Theisen. In the receiving line were the honoree, her sister, Mrs. O. B. The honoree was presented a corsage of blue carnations with miniature wedding bells. Mrs. Worley and Mrs. Denton were given white carnation corsages. Gifts were displayed on a table covered with a white net cloth over blue, decorated with a Madonna centerpiece and Madonna holders with blue tapers. The serving table was covered with a white organdy cloth over blue. The centerpiece was an arrangement of blue and white carnations featuring a sheet of wedding music and a miniature violin. Pink finger sandwiches, individual cakes and coffee were served. Miss Ruth Ramsey, who was given a corsage of white gladioli, presided at the table. Approximately 50 persons attended or sent gifts.

CIRCLE ONE—Circle one met in the home of Mrs. Ed Williams. The circle chairman, Mrs. G. F. Branson, led the business meeting, and Mrs. Williams introduced the new study. A report was given on Islam by Mrs. Glenn Radcliff, and Mrs. W. L. Rowntree talked about Buddhism. The devotional was given by Mrs. Williams. Refreshments were served during the social period. Nine members attended. Next meeting will be Jan. 18, with Mrs. Coyie Ford.

Vows Exchanged In Chapel Service By Barbara Baird And Jerry Bruce

Wedding vows were exchanged at 4 p.m. Dec. 30, in the chapel of the First Methodist Church by Miss Barbara Baird and Jerry Bruce. Rev. Glen Ford, pastor of the Foursquare Gospel Church of Pampa, officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baird, 724 N. Sumner, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bruce, Cities Service camp.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white fallie sleeveless dress, styled with a sweetheart neckline, long - torso bodice and bouffant street-length skirt. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a coronet accented with seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds over a Bible. Her jewelry included a white gold cross, a gift of the bridegroom.

She carried out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue. She carried a lace hanky carried by the bridegroom's mother in her wedding, and her dress was new. She borrowed her headpiece and Bible, and she wore blue shoes. She also placed a penny in her shoe.

Miss Sally Bruce, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a blue fallie dress styled similar to that of the bride. She carried a colonial bouquet of blue carnations, and her accessories were white.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth over blue, and the bridesmaids' bouquets formed the centerpiece. Flanking the centerpiece were tapers in crystal holders. The four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with pale blue rosebuds and was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Miss Sally Bruce, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Judy Goettsche of Higgins, cousin of the bridegroom, registered the guests. The cake was served by Mrs. M. O. Burreas, aunt of the bride.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goettsche, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom, and Miss Judy Goettsche, all of Higgins; Mrs. H. D. McAlooe, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Lawrence Briggs and Larry, and Mrs. Irene Hardin, all of Canadian; and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Bennett, aunt and uncle of the bride, and Harold K. Bennett.

Mission Study Held By Brummett Group

The Brummett Group of the First Christian Church met recently in the home of Mrs. Homer Kessinger, 1020 E. Fisher, for mission study.

The program, "Rocks That Cause Whirlpools," was presented by Mrs. H. J. Pickett and Mrs. C. L. Mason. The devotional was given by Mrs. J. R. Moore, assisted by Mrs. J. R. Moore, Oscar Shearer, Roberta Talley and J. F. Meers. The subject was "The World Turned Up-Side Down."

Refreshments were served during the social period. Attending were 12 members.

MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rittenhouse, 1200 Garland, announce the marriage of their daughter, Beverly Ann, to Thomas Henry Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Johnson of Brags, Okla. The ceremony took place Dec. 23, in the pastor's study of the First Baptist Church. Dr. E. Douglas Carver officiated. (Photo by Clarence's Studio)

GRACE FRIEND

Dear Grace Friend
I understand that there are quite a few women with a problem similar to mine. Perhaps if you could give me some advice, it would help others too.

I am 21 years old, a divorcee, and have a 2-year-old baby to support. I could put her in a day nursery but I love her very much and I believe that it is important that a child be with its mother if at all possible.

I have tried leaving her with someone else for a day or so at a time but she cried all of the time, refuses to eat or cooperate in any way.

I would like to get a job house-keeping or taking care of children where I could still keep my baby but there are very few people who will employ a woman with a baby.

Also, since I am young and divorced, they think that I am not experienced and do not have good judgment.

I am qualified as a practical nurse or nurse's aide and I know that I could make more money in that line but I don't think it's worth while if I have to give up my baby. Please help me.

Desperate
I know of a circumstance similar to yours which was solved by two young women, both of whom were left with small children. They decided that rather than let the children be cared for by others that they would rent a house and live together. One worked during the day and the other at night. Thus the children had a home and security—really came to feel as if they had two mothers instead of one as the arrangement lasted for years.

Since you are a practical nurse you probably could work at night and be with the children in the daytime. I am sure that you would not have trouble finding another woman to share a home with you as you mention in your letter that yours is a common plight.

With such an arrangement your little girl soon would be used to the other woman and since she would not be moved to strange surroundings, would soon adjust to being without you for the few hours you would be away.
Some young woman who reads this may be the one you are looking for. If you will send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope, I'll be happy to forward any inquiries.

TO BE MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Patton, 921 S. Banks, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jeanette, to Clois Lyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lyon of Chillicothe. The ceremony is slated for Jan. 20, in the home of the bride's parents. (Photo by Koen Studio)

Club Council Has Business Session

A business session was held Thursday morning in the City Club Room by the Council of Clubs, with Mrs. Julian Key, president, in charge. Mrs. H. H. Butler reported on the refurbishing of the Club Room. She explained the furniture has arrived and the draperies are being made. She announced the committee and other members of the club in the Council will meet at 9:30 a.m. Friday to prepare the room for the new furniture. She explained that an open house will be held later when the Club Room is refurbished.

Mrs. A. D. Hills, president of the League of Women Voters, announced there are 26 more days in which to pay poll taxes. She asked the representatives to urge their club members to pay their poll taxes and to vote.

Mrs. Thelma Bray, representative of Beta Sigma Phi, announced the table-setting contest entry deadline has been extended. She told the women the contest will be held Jan. 21, in the high school field house.

Mrs. Key announced Mrs. N. G. Kadingo has been appointed representative to the Girl Scout board.

Presentation Dance Held By Sub Deb Club

The Sub Deb Club held its annual presentation dance recently in the Pampa Country Club. Girls presented were Misses Mary Bullard, LaJean Caldwell, Karla Cox, Jo Ann Jones, Maynette Loftus, Linda McDonald, Cora Mann and Dianne Zachry. Miss Maynette Loftus, chosen best pledge, was presented a dozen red roses from the club. During the presentation, each girl emerged from a large white box covered with silver glitter and tied with red ribbon and a red bow. The escorts presented the girls with orchids as they emerged from the box. During the presentation, the Frank Phillips orchestra of Amarillo, which played for the dance, played "White Christmas."

Theme for the dance was "An Old-Fashioned Christmas." Appropriate pictures decorated the walls, and three large chandeliers were decorated with icicles and Christmas balls.

First Presbyterian Association Meets

Mrs. Ronald Hubbard led a question and answer period. During the business session, led by Mrs. J. B. McCreary, president, it was announced the Council of Church Women will hold a tea and installation service at 2:30 p.m. Friday in the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. J. O. Miller explained the purpose and importance of the "Yearbook of Prayer." Annual reports were presented by each chairman, and the attendance count was won by Circle 4. Prior to the business session, Mrs. W. B. Colwell presented the devotional.

About 40 women attended the meeting. The program was followed with a leftover meat, broth, gravy and stuffing should be refrigerated immediately after the meal is served. It is a fallacy that placing hot foods in the refrigerator will cause them to spoil.

Plan the holiday dinner schedule so that the turkey will be out of the oven 20 to 30 minutes before serving. The meat will be juicier and carve more easily.

Baptist WMU Has A Service Program

The executive board of the Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church met recently with Mrs. R. L. Edmondson presiding. Mrs. Edmondson gave the opening prayer and reports were given by Mrs. Ernest Arey, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Shirley Nichols, mission chairman. Mrs. C. L. McKinney gave the closing prayer.

Following the board meeting, a royal service program was presented, with Mrs. Bob Stroble, stewardship chairman, in charge. Mrs. Harold Craddock led the opening hymn, with Mrs. Douglas Carver at the piano. Scripture readings were given by Mmes. O. V. Bailey, Charlie Powell, Robert Hogan, S. T. Halpain and D. Skeith. A special prayer was given by Mrs. Owen Johnson.

The program was presented in a newspaper office setting, with Mrs. Stroble as editor. Reporters were Mrs. Rex Jones, reporting on Africa; Mrs. Ernest Arey, reporting on Florida; Mrs. H. M. Stokes, reporting on Japan; and Mrs. Paul Turner reporting on Cuba. South America and Chile. Mrs. Minor Langford gave an editorial, "It's All God's."

In addition to program, several letters from missionaries were read. Closing prayer was given by Mrs. R. W. Tucker. Approximately 50 persons attended.

Mrs. Kirby Walters Plans For Opening Of Dancing Studio

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Conley Of Booker Feted On Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Dan R. Conley of Booker were honored recently on their golden wedding anniversary. They are the aunt and uncle of Mrs. Coy Palmer of Pampa.

The event was held in the Fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church of Booker and was given by members of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Mrs. Conley was presented a corsage of gold mums, and Mr. Conley was given a carnation boutonniere.

Decorations followed a gold and white color scheme. The serving table was centered with a hand-painted punch pitcher filled with gold mums. The pitcher was a wedding gift of the bridegroom to the bride. The four-tiered wedding cake, decorated in gold and white, had the gold numerals, "50" on the side and was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Individual white cakes were topped with gold wedding bells.

Decorate Nursery For Baby Carefully

If you're about to become members of the "proud parents" set, here are a few tips on decorating baby's nursery.

Make it just as dreamy as you like, but keep it flexible. After all, the cuddly wee one is going to grow. And if the room doesn't grow with him, it's going to cost you quite a bit of time and money later.

Choose the simple tones that are easy to live with. Remember, children soon learn to smudge and crayon, so stick to washable paint for the walls.

Of course, you need a sturdy crib with a good, firm mattress to support a growing skeletal structure. But to give the child a feeling of the adult world into which he'll grow, include at least one piece of adult furniture.

You might try a convertible love seat or sofa bed, covered in a material that resists spots and stains. You'll have a place for visitors to sit and admire your offspring and for yourself to rest if he's not well and needs constant attention.

As for the floor, stay away from rugs. They're hard to keep clean and, if not fastened down, can prove dangerous to an adult carrying a squirming infant in her arms.

The gift table was covered with a white and gold cloth, centered with an arrangement of gold mums. Flanking the centerpiece were gold tapers.

During the reception, a program entitled, "This Is Your Life," was presented, interspersed with appropriate musical numbers. The narration told of the life of the couple. Mr. Conley was born in Maysville, W. Va., and Mrs. Conley in Paducah, Ky. The couple met in 1904 when both went to Beaver County, Okla., to file claims. They were married Dec. 10, 1905, with Rev. T. L. Ogilvie, father of the bride, officiating. Rev. Ogilvie was present for the couple's anniversary celebration.

The couple lived on Mrs. Conley's claim, where Mr. Conley moved his house from his claim. They hauled lumber and supplies from Higgins or Liberal.

Although the couple has no children, they reared nephews, both of whom were graduated from Booker High School and served in World War II.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Conley are life members of the Order of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Conley is active in the Women's Missionary Union, and Mr. Conley is a member of the Masonic Lodge.

Attending the reception from Pampa were Mr. and Mrs. Coy Palmer, Bruce and Mike; Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Jones, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Phillips and Phyllis, and Mrs. Louis Sampson.

"Universal Unit" Is Discussion Held At Meeting Of 20th Century Allegro

Sixteen members of the Twentieth Century Allegro met recently for their first study of the new year in the home of Mrs. James Evans, with Mrs. David Price as co-hostess.

Mrs. Bill Waters and Mrs. Jerry Thomas led the discussion, "Universal Unit (Family)," after playing an Adult Education record, "Home Sweet Home," which compared the organization of a Chinese peasant family with that of an American family.

It was brought out that while the Chinese family emphasizes unity and gives strength and support to its members, the freedom of each person is lessened by the demands of the family ties. The American family is discontinuous, it is small, and it offers less strength and support to each member. If a man dies, his widow may be put entirely on her own, and children do not regularly support their aging parents. But the system does give more freedom of action, particularly to the youth, and allows them more opportunity to find their own way and serve their own interests.

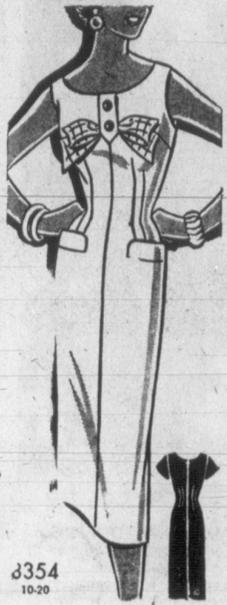

Mrs. Waters stated that the American family pattern is better adjusted for life in America, with its rapid changes and need for free movement.

Mrs. Thomas said that it is also important to appreciate that the family organization is influenced in many ways by the economic life of the people. Nearly everywhere that farming is carried on as an activity, we find a lineage system held closely together by its landholdings. In these families, work is carried on by the larger family group as a single enterprise. In our society usually only one member earns the living. Where two or more family members are working, they will usually be working for separate wages or salaries. This tends to divide their interests and make them more independent of each other.

Mrs. G. M. Walls, president, conducted the business meeting. She reminded committee chairmen that Federation reports are to be mailed by Jan. 15. Mrs. James Leverich reported on the Christmas project. She also announced that the table-setting contest, sponsored by Beta Sigma Phi, will be held Jan. 21. Mrs. Walls stated that Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. John Adams were hostesses Thursday at the Children's Story Hour in the Lovett Memorial Library.

Coffee and banana fruit dessert were served. Those present were Mrs. Ray Duncan, Bob Karr, Jimmy Thompson, Jack Miller, Bill Davis, Don Cain, Creel Grady, John Frisby, Charles Hickman, Price Dosier Jr., Walls, Leverich, Thomas, Waters, Evans and Price.

Miss Joy Moore And George Cannedy Marry During Double-Ring Ceremony

Miss Joy Moore became the bride of George E. Cannedy at 7 p.m. Dec. 30, in the Church of the Brethren, with Rev. Don Speaker officiating for the double-ring service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Moore, 1129 N. Starkweather, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Cannedy of Paris.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin dress, styled with a square neckline and bouffant ballerina-length skirt. Her headpiece was a tulle band from which fell a shoulder-length veil of illusion. She wore a rhinestone necklace and carried a bouquet of orchids and carnations over a white Bible.

Miss Dorothy Johnson was maid of honor. She was attired in a light blue dress and carried a bouquet of blue carnations. Candelighters were Miss Shirley Moore, sister of bride, and Miss Jeanne Lee.

Lloyd D. McMinn of Borger served as best man, and Joe Burton of Pampa as an usher.

Decorations in the church included candelabra with blue tapers and baskets of white and blue mums. Miss Barbara King, vocalist, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Miss Virginia Irwin played the traditional wedding marches.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Moore wore a brown dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church, social room. The table was covered with a white lace cloth over blue and was centered with an arrangement of blue and white flowers. Flanking the centerpiece were blue tapers.

Miss Sue Rich presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Leona Ataway served the cake. Guests were registered by Mrs. Lloyd McMinn of Borger. Others assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller and Mrs. Wayne Irwin.

For the wedding trip to Paris and the Coast, the bride wore a brown two-piece dress with gold accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid with blue and white ribbon.

The couple will reside in Bay City, Texas.

The bride was graduated from Pampa High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Paris High School and is now employed by the Austin Bridge Company.

Opportunity For South

Our lively interest in the government school system in the United States has promoted a more than casual attention to the problems of the Southern states in complying with the United States Supreme Court decision banning "separate but equal" schools for Negroes and whites.

What happens in the state of Virginia in the next four or five months is likely to have great influence on what happens in the rest of the South — and that in turn will have great influence on the question of federal aid to education.

Actually, what the newly proposed Virginia law does is to set up a complicated system under which the old system of segregation can be continued and the implications of the Supreme Court ruling voided.

First of all the voters will ballot on Jan. 9 on whether there shall be a repeal of a law that provides that no state funds shall be paid for tuition or other expenses of students in private schools. If the voters approve of the repeal, and it seems likely, then the following program of legislative action is scheduled.

The General Assembly (state legislature) meets in regular session Jan. 11. Its first task will be to pass a law setting the date and the methods by which delegates to the convention shall be chosen.

If the delegates can be named by, say, Feb. 15, the convention might complete its work by March 1.

It would then be up to the General Assembly to pass a dozen laws recommended by the Gray report. They would greatly alter the Virginia public school system.

In those areas that voted for them in local option elections, publicly supported but private, segregated elementary and high schools would be set up. Here, in oversimplified outline, is what the laws would provide:

- 1 — No child would be required to attend an integrated school.
2 — Local school boards would be authorized to assign pupils to parochial, segregated schools.
3 — School boards could pay for transporting pupils to the assigned schools.
4 — LOCAL SCHOOL BOARDS would be authorized to assign teachers to schools.
5 — Localities would be authorized to levy school taxes for support of schools and to receive grants from the state for aids to education.
6 — Tuition-grants would be authorized to prevent enforced integration for those children whose parents object to their attendance at mixed schools. These grants could not exceed the average school cost per pupil in the previous year.
7 — The state would be authorized to pay one half of any additional costs which might be incurred in some areas.
Five additional measures would provide legal powers for state and local officials to carry out the above program.
It seems strange to us that all of this business of going around Robin's barn is required to arrive at a point so simple. The real point is that nowhere have we seen in the South any voice cry out against the Supreme Court ruling on the basis that there should be no public schools in the first place — and all of the fight could be avoided on segregation.
It seems odd there have been no leaders in the South who, having before them the bugaboo of no segregation in the schools, have seen the inherent wrong in the system which is that the schools are government schools and governmental activity in a field better left to private enterprise.
Virginia is only one of the states of the South struggling with the problem of getting around the Supreme Court ruling. A recent article in the Saturday Evening Post by Hodding Carter on the problem in Mississippi indicates that while the question may be "hot" in Virginia it is really boiling in Mississippi with Alabama and Georgia not far behind. Yet in none of these states has there been any attempt made to show that government schools are an expression of a socialist-communist viewpoint and that as such are inimical to the best interests of Americans. Carter points out that there have been beatings, killings and other acts of violence and that the tension between the whites and colored people is growing steadily, rather than diminishing. And he adds that it is to be a fight to the finish with no compromise.
Why is it so difficult for the South, especially, to see that attempting to fight the battle on the grounds of the opposition can only end in difficulties and defeat for the American idea?
With the object lesson of the inter-racial fight before them, how can they point that government interference in the field of education and ideas is no different than government interference in the field of medicine, distribution of news, religion or any other field be so overlooked?
With the current turmoil and dissatisfaction over the operation of the schools in the South in conformity with the Supreme Court decision on segregation, these states have a golden opportunity to throw off the chains of government schools and re-affirm their faith in the free enterprise system. We wonder if they will take advantage of it.

BETTER JOBS

By R. C. HOILES

Answering Union Member's Question

I am always glad to get letters from readers who have a different idea than I have as to how to arrive at an honest day's work for an honest day's pay.

The only way I know of better understanding how to arrive at an honest day's pay for an honest day's work is to have my beliefs challenged. My beliefs are that all men, not just the majority, must have the right to help establish what is an honest wage.

Most members of labor unions have an entirely different opinion as to whether or not labor unions can establish an honest day's work for an honest day's pay than I do. An example of this is a letter to me reproduced below.

"Dear Mr. R. C. Hoiles:

"I would like to make a few comments to clear up much misunderstanding about labor unions. It is not the first and only purpose of a labor union to raise wages.

"The first duty of a union member or any other employee is an honest day's work for an honest day's pay, and the first duty and main purpose of a labor organization is to maintain high standards of workmanship.

"This results in better working conditions and a better product from a more stable organization. Would these purposes keep profits or wages down? Thank you. Russell C. Thomas, Member Local 489, 15225 Newhope, Santa Ana, Calif."

Comments And Answers

Every person I know wants real wages to increase as rapidly as possible. But they do not want them to increase so rapidly as to cause unemployment.

Anything that can raise real wages is a splendid purpose provided it does not lower someone else's real wages — living standard. The main purpose of business is to raise real wages levels — that is, to raise the standard of living. Real wage levels can only be raised by more production. But that is entirely different than raising real wages of certain workers by conspiracy to create a monopoly and thus lower the real wages of those that are excluded and those that buy the product.

Mr. Thomas contends that the first duty and main purpose of labor organizations is to maintain a high standard of workmanship. But even that might be harmful to society.

Why

Having a highly skilled man do common labor jobs that require little skill would keep both profits and wages down. It is obvious that the total wages paid cannot be more than the total production of the workers. Thus, having skilled workers doing work that could be done by unskilled workers would cost more and require the loss of production that could have been accomplished had the skilled workers been permitted to do work that required skill. If production is reduced, real wages are reduced. And since profits are the wages for efficient production, it would keep profits down and reduce the wealth that might be put into new and better tools.

Mr. Thomas makes a statement of an honest day's work for an honest day's pay. But he does not tell how to measure an honest day's work or an honest day's pay. In fact, there can be no honest measure of pay or work if part of the workers are excluded from having the right to help establish the wages as is the practice of all labor unions I ever knew.

Questions For Any Union Man

But I know of no union whose first purpose is to maintain a high standard of workmanship. Their main purpose is to get a higher wage than other men could get for the same skill and production. In other words, to get a special privilege, a monopoly wage. A wage not based on an honest day's work for an honest day's pay.

Arriving At An Honest Wage

What makes Mr. Thomas or any other believer in labor unions believe that the majority in a labor union should have the exclusive right to establish an honest day's work for an honest day's pay? When they have the exclusive right and are the beneficiaries, how can they establish an impartial, honest wage? Would they not be inclined to be prejudiced in their own favor?

Why should not other workers outside of the union have also a right to help establish an honest day's work for an honest day's pay? In fact, how can there be an honest day's work for an honest day's pay unless each employee, each worker and each employer has a right to determine what is an honest day's work for an honest day's pay? And an honest day's work for an honest day's pay is certainly one that both the employer and the employee believe they are benefited by accepting. And they must be accepted without threats on either party's side; that if the wage is not accepted the party will not attempt to prevent the employee from getting another job or the employer from getting another employee.

Will Mr. Thomas or any labor union answer this question: "If

Rumor Has More Taxpayer's Money Going To Foreign Aid

By Thurman Sensing

It is disheartening to hear rumors of increased foreign aid appropriations for the next fiscal year beginning July 1, 1956. We have apparently now reached the point where the American taxpayer can expect neither of the political parties to act as spokesmen in his behalf.

Since the beginning of the Second World War we have furnished aid to foreign countries in excess of $100 billion, better than half of that amount having been furnished since the end of the war.

When Marshall Plan aid was started in 1946 it was supposed to be on a temporary three-year basis. However, this temporary emergency never ended — in the minds of those who went along with it — and successive agencies have continued to pour out the American taxpayers' hard-earned dollars for foreign aid.

How heartening it would be to see one of our major political parties come out just once with a strong statement in support of aid to the American taxpayers!

Proponents of foreign aid tell us, of course, that without this aid the world would be in lots worse shape than it is now. The burden of proof is on them — and they cannot prove it.

Opponents of foreign aid can just as justifiably make the statement that the world would be much better off than it is now if we had never handed out one dollar of this aid — and they have much to support such a statement.

We know from experience as individuals that continued aid does two things. First, it serves to bleed the donor dry. Second, it serves to destroy the initiative and incentive of the recipient.

And nations are no different from individuals in this respect — for in fact nations are nothing but groups of individuals — and it is true of both nations and individuals that the more you give a man, the more he wants, and if you give it to him long enough he will finally consider it his by right. As long as he is taken care of, he will make no effort to do anything for himself.

The Doctor Says

By EDWIN J. JORDAN, M. D.

One curious disease, which I have discussed several times in the past but about which I continue to receive many inquiries, is infectious mononucleosis or glandular fever. This is a disorder more common in children and young adults than it is in the older years of life.

The cause of infectious mononucleosis is still uncertain though it is probably a virus. It is the case it is curious that most experiments aimed at transmitting the disease from one person to another or to monkeys have failed. This, I think, answers the question from a reader who recently inquired whether infectious mononucleosis was contagious. It is not contagious, or at least it is the dangers of catching it by direct contact seem to be remarkably slight.

GLANDULAR FEVER seems to be somewhat more common today than in the past. It is possible that more people used to have it than we know about because it is often mild and perhaps it simply was not identified so frequently years ago as it is now.

The symptoms of infectious mononucleosis are variable and often unimportant. Vague pains and slight loss of appetite are common and moderate fever is usually present. Some youngsters complain of lack of pep or headaches.

IN MORE SEVERE CASES nausea and vomiting are common. The lymph glands in the neck, groin, and under the arms are often enlarged and it is for this reason that the disease is sometimes called glandular fever.

All of these signs, of course, can be found in other disorders so that the diagnosis depends on the results of special tests. One of these is the identification of an increase in certain cells in the blood known as the mononuclear cells. In addition, there are laboratory studies of the blood which greatly aid in reaching a diagnosis.

Things are beginning to buzz again, out at the National Guard Armory on the Miami Highway, now that the holidays are over.

All of the units are really getting to work on vehicle maintenance, training and all of the other things that go to make up the National Guard. A quick trip to the Armory, any day would probably find the men of the Service Center hard at work on two or three vehicles and the Administrative personnel wearing out the keys on their typewriters.

The men of the 474th will be able to do little long-range planning of their own now, the camp dates for 1956 have been announced. Members of the 474th FA Bn will attend two weeks of summer training from Aug. 5 through Aug. 19, at Fort Sill, Okla. Once again the local units will attend camp with 41st Corps Artillery and 8th Field Artillery Group. These will be the only Texas Units to spend summer camp at Fort Sill this year. Most of the others will spend their two weeks at Ft. Hood.

Some of the officers of the battalion will do a little traveling before the summer camp session gets under way, there will be a Pre-camp Conference held at Ft. Sill, 14 April 1956, which at least a part of the Battalion Staff will attend.

There'll be a "New Look" the next time any of the batteries meet here in Pampa, the new specialists ratings have been assigned and the men will be wearing their new insignia. These new insignia have been in use by the regular army for some time, but are just now coming into use for the Guard.

One of the members of Service Battery has been just a little busy the past week. Pfc John Willis has just re-enlisted for his second hitch in the guard and it was just last week that Willis announced he was a candidate for State Representative from this district.

Service Battery also welcomes a new man, he is Pfc Kenneth Wood who is transferring from Battery C in Shamrock.

To you young men who are wondering about your Military Obligation and how you can retire it, there was an excellent article in the Wednesday, Jan. 4, edition of the Pampa News. It will explain how the National Guard can help you. If you would like to know more about the Guard, talk to a Guardsman or drop by the Armory sometime. The men there will be glad to explain it to you.

By the way, don't be surprised if you see a lot of men in uniform today. Headquarters Battery is holding a multiple drill in line with a temporary battalion policy it's one more way to keep your Guard Up.

The following paragraph, which I call my daily prayer, hangs near my desk and bolsters my courage when I need it. Will pass it on with the hope that it will work equally as well for you.

"May the power that directs the destiny of my life give me the courage to accept the things that I cannot change; the wisdom and determination to avoid anxiety and worry, and the fortitude to live an adventurous life, rather than take rank with the timid individuals who never experience victory nor defeat."

I never lack the courage and fortitude to try to sell you property for you at a reasonable figure or to assist you "fast operator" deals but wish to conduct my business on a policy of fairness, honesty and good will. On this basis I earnestly solicit your listings and inquiries during 1956.

To start the year, I have two trades I want to make. We have an extra nice nearly new 3-bedroom brick home about two blocks west of the high school that we will trade the $5,000 equity for a well located 2-bedroom home. Also have a clean 2-bedroom home on Murphy Street for $3,800.00 that we will sell to a reliable party and take a small down payment.
