DRAMATIC RESCUE AT SEA—A U.S. helicopter rescues crew members from a foundering Japanese fishing boat off Hachinohe, a port on northern Honshu island. The Tonda Maru was whipped by a severe wintry gale, which ripped through southern Hokkaido and the eastern coast of Tohoku. Some 200 fishing boats sank or were washed away in the rough waters. U.S. Air Force planes and naval ships joined Japan's Coast Guard in rescue operations.

Shamrock Couple Has Visited State Capitols

SHAMROCK — (Special) After ten years and some 60,000 miles Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hill realized a goal this fall when they stood looking at the capitol building in Carson City, Nev.

It was the last on their list of state capitols.

They first visited a state capitol together in Austin in 1919. Hill recalls, "We had arrived in Austin for the regular session of the state legislature of which I was a new member."

In 1945 they suddenly realized they had been to more than half of the state capitols. After that they planned a visit to every state capitol within a reasonable distance on any trip they expected to take.

They took a zig-zag course through the east two states, which took in nine states. In addition to the state capitols they saw both houses in session in Washington, D.C.

"It might be interesting to say we visited the United Nations, which may be said to be a sort of international capitol," Hill said.

Only three state capitols were still unseen after the eastern journey — North Dakota, California and Nevada. In the fall of 1954 the couple took Highway 82 out of Shamrock and drove to Bismarck, N.D. The same Highway brought them home after they had covered 1,050 miles.

A train trip to California in October, 1955 landed them in San Francisco. The next morning they spent about five hours in and around the capitol building in Sacramento. Their tour through the capitol included sitting briefly in the governor's chair in his private office.

On the road to Carson City, Nev., they spent a night in fabulous Reno. They found the gambling houses almost unbelievable but the courtrooms where many famous suits are presented looked much the same as many others seen by Hill during his long career as a lawyer.

Carson City, Nev., long sought "last capitol," is the smallest capitol city in the nation. It may have grown some since the 1950 census listed a population of 2,700 people. All principal business buildings, including the capitol, are located on one long street. The capitol, built in the '80s, has been well cared for and shares the duties of governing the state with a new supreme court building which is the last word in architecture. It was Hill's privilege to have his picture taken while sitting in the chair of the chief justice, wearing one of the judicial robes.

On each visit to a capitol Mr. and Mrs. Hill tried to discover something unique. They consider the grounds in Olympia, Wash., the most beautiful. The capitol building and the supreme court building sit to each side of a beautiful flower garden.

In Montgomery, Ala., they stood on a bronze plaque marking the spot where Jefferson Davis took the oath of office as President of the Confederate States of America; they voted the capitol at Dover, Delaware as the smallest and most common place. It is old and revered with trim painted gray as it was originally.

The oldest capitol is in Maryland, built in 1772. Three other states use their original capitol buildings. They are Kentucky, Mississippi and Arkansas. They got to the New York State capitol building in Albany, N.Y., too late to see the "million-dollar stair." They have seen the skyscraper capitols in Louisiana, Nebraska, and North Dakota.

They have also visited two foreign capitols. The first in Monterey, Mexico, capital of Nuevo Leon, Mexico where the guide showed them the chair President Franklin D. Roosevelt sat in on a visit there. The other was to Winnipeg, Canada where they visited the parliament building.

When they turned from the capitol in Carson City, Nevada, their ambition realized Hill asked his wife where they would go on future trips.

She replied "Let's begin all over again."

The Hills have tried to find others who have seen all the capitols in the United States but so far, have found none. They would like to compare notes.

A picture story of their capitol travels is now underway. Under a picture of each capitol they will give their remembrances, refreshing their memories from the diaries they have kept on their trips.

Man Shoots 2, Kills Self

KAUFMAN, Tex. —UP— A 36-year-old man shot his wife and a neighbor Friday and then killed himself.

His wife and the neighbor were reported in good condition in Kaufman hospital. The shooting was done by Jesse Smith with a .38 caliber revolver.

Mrs. Smith was in shock in the hospital and had not been able to explain the shooting.

Deputy Sheriff Bill Baker said Smith shot his wife in the leg. She managed to run across the street where Steve Hart was in his front yard.

Smith, standing in the window of his apartment house, fired across the street and hit Hart in the leg.

Baker and two other deputies approached the house cautiously since they didn't know Smith had already killed himself. They slipped in the back door, took a baby from its crib in a downstairs room and then went upstairs.

They found Smith's body with a bullet in the head.

Probe Set On Military News Control

WASHINGTON —UP— A House subcommittee investigating "freedom of information" announced Saturday it will conduct an exhaustive study of the Defense Department's control over news.

Subcommittee Chairman John E. Moss (D-Calif.) said during questioning of a former top department official Friday demonstrated there is an "attitude of reluctance" at the Pentagon to disseminate information.

Rep. Dante B. Basore (D-Calif.), a subcommittee member, said he is not aware of "the tremendous scope of information controlled" for security reasons. He said it poses a "danger" to the American people.

The subcommittee Friday challenged the claim of R. Karl Honoman, former deputy assistant secretary of defense in charge of public affairs, that the press corps is "satisfied" that a controversial Pentagon security directive is not being used to suppress news.

The directive, issued by Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson last March, bars release of information not deemed to "constitute a constructive contribution to the primary mission of the Department of Defense."

Subcommittee counsel Jacob Scher told Honoman that the department last November refused to allow a newspaper access to the 30-year-old transcript of the court martial trial of Gen. Billy Mitchell. Moreover, he said, the subcommittee has received other complaints from newsmen of news suppression by the Pentagon.

Honoman said he doesn't know anything about the incident. He refused to say whether he thinks the transcript should have been made available.

Admiral Vows To Defend Formosa

TAIPEI —UP— Vice Adm. Stuart Ingersoll said Saturday his U. S. Seventh Fleet will defend Formosa and the Pescadore islands "on, over and under the sea" in the event of Communist attack.

"I have a mission to defend Formosa and Penghu (the Pescadores) between here and the Red-held China coast," Ingersoll told a press conference. "If the point comes, I will do it—and I don't intend to lose."

The admiral declined comment on the fleet's reaction to Communist attack on the Chinese Nationalist islands of Quemoy and Matsu, except to say "I would carry out orders." He also refused to say whether his ships have or would use atomic weapons.

Stuart said an attack on Formosa or the Pescadores is "always possible," but added that he knows of no reason to expect one soon.

Home Service Workshop To Be Held Here

The Pampa Chapter of Red Cross will be host to 17 surrounding towns in Home Service training workshop to be held next Thursday in the Red Cross office.

Miss Lou Morton, National Home Service representative from St. Louis, Mo., will speak before the group and conduct a class for the new members. Workers will be instructed in all phases of the Home Service program. James Patterson, field representative, who has called the meeting, will preside over the session.

Registration will begin at 9:30 a. m. in the Red Cross office. Discussion groups will be held from 10-12 and again in the afternoon from 1-3.

Any person interested in Home Service work on a volunteer basis is invited to attend the meeting. Displays of Jr. Red Cross work from the local chapter, including fund supplies and disaster supplies, will be exhibited.

Tallulah To Support Stevenson

By RON LEVITT

MIAMI, Jan. 14 —UP— Tallulah Bankhead, actress, political deponent and offspring of Alabama's famous politician, cast her energetic support to Adlai Stevenson for the presidency Saturday and said the Democratic candidate "can't lose."

"Adlai could run on any party and I'd vote for him," Miss Bank-

head said. "He's got brains, humor and humanitarianism."

Lounging in a bright red slacks outfit and flitting from one chair to another, she conducted one of her famous private interviews that lasted from 10 p. m. to 3 o'clock the next morning.

"If anyone wants me to campaign for Adlai, I'll do it. I've always had time for a good cause."

Discusses Issues

She said if President Eisenhower does not run, the Republicans will probably choose Sen. (William) Knowland of California or vice president Nixon. She said one of the main issues in this year's elections will be foreign affairs.

"Dah-ling, let's face it," the husky-toned actress said, "think of the animosity of our action in Jordan. We've lost friends around the world. John Foster Dulles is an honest, patriotic man... but he just doesn't have that Democratic party twist of mind which makes for good foreign relations."

Miss Bankhead said other issues in the elections would be the Republicans' attempt to "mend fences with the farmers" and the "disgraceful handling of the Salk vaccine."

Miss Bankhead opens here Monday in Tennessee Williams' "Streetcar Named Desire." After a three-week run, she goes to New York for rehearsals of the "Ziegfeld Follies" in which she'll do a "lot of singing."

She criticized her home state of Alabama for its "stupidity in going Dislecrat." But she said Alabama could make amends by supporting Stevenson.

The spritely actress, who just "adores" former President Truman Margaret Truman, Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon and Republican Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, said Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt will always be "the nation's first lady."

Poultry Price Declines During Week

AUSTIN — UP — Texas poultry markets closed out the week with prices unchanged to two cents down for the seven days, the State Department of Agriculture reported Saturday.

South Texas closed at 20-22; East Texas, 20-21, heavies 19; Waco, 20 1-2 to 21, mostly 21, and Corsicana, 22 cents f.o.b. plant. The prices compared with closing quotations for the same week one year ago of 22-23, mostly 23 cents, for all areas.

South Texas markets, opening steady to firm, held steady through mid-week trading, grew weak and closed barely steady. The undertone was unsettled and weak, and supplies were adequate for a fair demand. Late trading was light to moderate and a few processors were off the market. Closing prices were unchanged to two cents lower.

The East Texas markets closed about steady, with the undertone unsettled and supplies adequate on light weights, plentiful on heavies. Heavies were being discounted one cent. Demand was mostly fair, and trading for the week heavy. Closing prices were unchanged to one cent down.

The Waco-Corsicana markets held steady through the close. The undertone was unsettled and supplies were adequate for a fair demand. Trading was normal. Closing prices were mostly unchanged to one-half cent off at Waco, and one and one-half cent lower f.o.b. plant at Corsicana.

The Bureau of Agriculture Economics reported 1,742,000 chickens placed on Texas farms for the week ending Jan. 7, a gain of 2 per cent for the week and 24 per cent ahead of placements for the corresponding period last year.

WEEKLY GRAIN ROUNDUP

FORT WORTH — UP — USDA — Weekly grain:

Very dull trading ruled south-west cash grain markets this week. Prices recorded by the Agricultural Marketing Service were mixed. Milo gained 1c per 100 pounds. White corn went up 1c a bushel and wheat 1/2c a bushel. Barley held steady. Yellow corn lost 1 1/2c. White oats slipped 1 1/2c on the low end of the range and 3/4c on the high.

These price changes are based on wholesale carlots, Texas common freight rate points, from Friday through Friday. Not much milo was offered this week. Although demand was limited, these smaller offerings helped push prices up a cent. They closed Friday at $2.16 to $2.21.

Continued drought in the winter wheat belt had a strengthening influence on the market. However, it seemed to be more of a factor in northern markets than in this area.

Some flour business was reported in southwest wheat, helping to firm up demand. So the market closed Friday slightly higher than a week ago. No. 1 hard wheat, ordinary protein content, was quoted at $2.37 1/2 to $2.47 1/2.

No. 2 white corn inched up a cent a bushel to bring $1.63 to $1.68, but No. 2 yellow declined. It closed at $1.57 to $1.60. No. 2 white oats brought 85 1/2 to 87c a bushel.

At Oklahoma elevators, wheat was steady to 1c higher. It closed Friday at $1.99 at Guyton and Hooker, $2.02 at Lawton, $2.04 at Hobart, $2.05 at Enid and Oklahoma City and $2.06 at Hennessey.

Milo was unchanged at $1.57 at Guyton, $1.75 at Lawton, $1.80 at Enid and Hobart, $1.85 at Oklahoma City and $2 at Ada.

CHIMP ON ICE—"Jinx," 2 1/2-year-old chimpanzee, tries to cut a figure-eight on ice skates, but his ankles just won't support him. So pretty Margie Lee of an ice revue playing in Chicago, Ill., lends a hand. Jinx recently lost his job on a TV circus program when the program moved from Chicago to New York.

Haynes Gets Office — WASHINGTON — UP — Joe Haynes, former American League pitcher and a brother-in-law of club President Calvin Griffith, has been elected a vice-president and a member of the board of directors of the Washington Senators baseball club. Haynes starred for the Senators and Chicago White Sox during the 1940s.

Airline Sued For $25,000

WICHITA, Kan. — UP — A $25,000 damage suit against Braniff Airways was on file in federal court Saturday growing out of a crash at Chicago last July 17 in which an 18-year-old Wichita Naval reservist was killed.

The suit was filed Friday by Lee R. Meador, court appointed administrator in the case. He charged negligence of the pilot and co-pilot in the crash which killed 22 persons, including Gerald Allen Startzman of Wichita.

Startzman was enroute to Norfolk, Va., for two weeks training when the Convair 340 hit an advertising sign at a Chicago airport and burst at the end of the runway.

Cull to good slaughter ewes 6.50-7.50, shorn feeder lambs 14-15.50, wooled feeders 17 down.

Cotton Futures Show Increase During Week

By WILLIAM T. FLUNKETT — NEW YORK — UP — Cotton futures this week picked up a little more speed on the uptick track as traders focused attention on Washington developments.

In the fifth straight week of advances, the list at Friday's close ruled up 33 to 102 points, or up $1.65 to $5.10 a bale, compared with the preceding week.

Twin factors generating the price lifting power included: 1. A tightening situation on "free market" supplies because of the giant-sized part of the 1955 crop now held under the government loan.

2. Washington farm price-propping and agricultural surplus disposal plans unveiled by the administration in the President's special farm message to congress.

Could Mean Smaller Crops — The overall result of the new proposals, if adopted, commentators thought "could mean smaller crops and marketings, with the attendant chance of higher prices than now exist."

Nearby March contracts reached 34.09 cents a pound, the highest price since last March 4. The spot month closed on the week's pinnacle, but gains for the new crop months are whittled down during Friday's trading as traders cashed profits pending further Washington developments.

Returning activity in the textile

More Freedom

On the export program, observers felt that with a better indication of what prices might be acceptable to the government, shippers are apt to operate with more freedom. On the first bids, opened Jan. 3, the government sold only 18,742 bales. But on the second opening of bids—Jan. 10 — sales jumped to 122,878 bales.

Agriculture Secretary Benson advised congress the "cotton carry-over could be reduced between 6 million and 9 million bales in the next three years under the administration's "soft bank" plan.

Holiday influences reduced the rate of impoundings under the government loan over the past few weeks, but despite the pause, the new stock of 1955 crop cotton held by the government, at last count, reached 5,681,868 bales.

Looking ahead, statisticians anticipated the mid-January party price report, scheduled for Jan. 31. They felt the report would aid in trying to determine what the loan rate might be for the 1956 crop, and facilitate a price evaluation for the new crop months.

Santee Enters Three Events

NEW YORK — UP — Wes Santee, the United States' premier mile eventer, has been entered for three events in Thursday night's metropolitan AAU handicap track meet. Santee will start from scratch in the mile event, but whether he runs in the 600 or 800 yard events depends upon the time schedule for the meet at the 102nd Engineers Armory.

Smoking Hit In Address To Church

"Fear alone should never stop a person from smoking, but good common sense should," declared Francis A. Soper, Washington, D. C., Editor of LISTEN magazine, in an address Friday night at the Central Baptist Church, host of the Seventh-day Adventists sponsoring Soper in a lecture tour of the southwest.

"A downward trend in smoking would mean an upward trend in health of the nation," the visiting editor affirmed, "in view of increasing medical and scientific evidence linking heavy smoking with such prevalent killers as lung cancer and heart disease."

"In recent months there have been at least fourteen scientific investigations into smoking and lung cancer alone," Soper pointed out, "all of them without exception showing the same results, a definite and causal relationship between smoking and cancer. The findings tying smoking in as a cause of heart disease are becoming even more significant," he added.

"Young people especially," he emphasized, "should think twice and weigh all the factors before becoming tied to a habit that is in such manifestly bad company."

Man Killed In Auto Crash

HOUSTON—UP—John T. McNulty, 35, was killed and his wife was severely injured in a three-car collision on the Gulf freeway late Friday. McNulty, an oil scout, and his wife, Sammie, 34, were en route to International airport to meet a plane when a car jumped the freeway, splashed and crashed into their car. A third car, behind McNulty's, skidded and slammed into both cars but the driver, James E. Nicholson, 40, was not injured. Airman L.C. Edward L. Scott, 21, Mineral Wells, driver of the second car, escaped with cuts and bruises. Mrs. McNulty was hospitalized with fractures of both upper and lower jaws and possible internal injuries. Police said a negligent homicide charge would be filed against airman Scott.

28 Companies Offer To Carry Policies Of Closed Firms

DALLAS—UP—Twenty-eight insurance companies offered Saturday to make good the policies of any legal reserve stock life insurance company which the State Insurance Commission closes between January 1, 1956, and January 1, 1957. The offer was announced simultaneously Friday in Dallas and Houston by the 28 companies, which include the biggest in the state. Among them is American National of Galveston, one of the major life insurance companies in the United States. The offer includes only life insurance policies. It does not include stockholders. The policies must have been taken out before last January 1 and the companies issuing must be put out of business by the insurance commission during 1956. J. Ralph Wood, president of Southwestern Life of Dallas, who acted as spokesman in Dallas when the announcement was made, said he didn't anticipate having to reinsure many policies. If it turns out that many policies have to be reinsured, he said, the 28 companies will handle them under a pool plan. The 28 insurance companies adopted the plan January 11 in Waco. Waco is the home of U.S. Trust and Guaranty, whose collapse touched off the current insurance scandals. The companies released a letter to the State Insurance commission, which said: "The undersigned members of the Texas Life Convention are desirous of cooperating with you in protecting innocent life insurance policy holders and maintaining the long and enviable record of no loss to holders of policies in Texas life insurance companies, which record the many sound and well-managed Texas Life Insurance companies have achieved. "To this end, it is believed that a feasible plan can be worked out whereby these well managed and financially sound Texas life insurance companies, as a public service, can reinsure the life insurance policies issued prior to January 1, 1956, by any legal reserve stock life insurance company chartered under the laws of Texas which the board may find to be improperly managed or insolvent within 12 months from this date and thereby protect the owners of such policies from loss. "If this offer appeals to you, representatives of the below-named companies will appreciate meeting with the board at its convenience for the purpose of formulating such a plan which would reassure these policy holders that they would sustain no loss." J. Byron Saunders, chairman of the insurance commission, said he had not received the letter, "but I have discussed the plan sufficiently to know that this is a most laudable step and one which is certain to help relieve much public anxiety and concern." As of 1954, there were 237 stock legal reserve insurance companies in Texas. A few have sprung up since then. There is a total of more than 1,200 insurance companies of all types with home offices in Texas. The 28 companies include: American Casualty and Life Insurance Co., Dallas. American General Life Insurance Co., Houston. American National Insurance Co., San Antonio. American Hospital and Life Insurance Co., San Antonio. Amicable Life Insurance Co., Waco. Austin Life Insurance Co., Austin. Century Life Insurance Co., Fort Worth. Combined American Insurance Co., Dallas. Commercial and Industrial Life Insurance Co., Houston. Securites Firm Is Barred From Business

AUSTIN—UP—American Atlas Corp. was barred from doing business Wednesday in a suit filed by Attorney General John Ben Shepherd alleging the Dallas securities firm engaged in operations "designed to perpetrate a fraud upon the public." District Judge Charles O. Betts issued a temporary restraining order halting the firm from operating under its charter to sell securities and from disposing of any of its assets. The restraining order also was issued against J. A. Irwin Inc., a real estate firm, Joe A. Irwin of Dallas is president of both corporations. "Scheme to Defraud" Shepherd's petition, seeking to place the two companies in receivership, alleged Irwin "while serving in such capacities did endeavor to enrich himself and his family in utter disregard of the rights of the stockholders of American All Corp."

Man Killed While Testing Used Car

AMARILLO—UP—A 48-year-old Darrouzett, Tex., man left his wife in the family car at 105-105 lot while he went to try a second-hand car. He died Friday when it crashed into a Santa Fe train. Marvin W. Woods, 48, had stopped at the lot to look at some of the models. When one of them failed to start, 17-year-old A.C.L. Duchesne of Amarillo APB got behind the wheel. The car finally started, and the two men agreed Duchesne would drive the first half of a test run. Duchesne told highway patrolmen the brakes failed at a level crossing around the corner. The automobile plunged into a passing Santa Fe train. Woods was found dead between the two sets of tracks. Duchesne was thrown clear and rolled down an embankment with the car. He was not hurt.

Man Killed While Testing Used Car

The state alleged that in sale of stockholders of America Atlas Corp., a holding company, the corporation "has employed device scheme or artifice to defraud or obtain money by false pretense, representation or promise." Shepherd also alleged the corporation "has made fictitious and pretended purchases of assets and securities; and has engaged in a course of conduct or business designed to perpetrate a fraud upon the public, as well as the purchaser of a security." Irwin was president of American Atlas Life Insurance Co., which was barred from doing business last week by the State Board of Insurance Commissioners. Testimony at a board hearing linked American Atlas Life and Dallas Fire & Casualty Co., also barred from doing business, with Irwin formerly headed All American Home Lloyds.

Borger Boxers Win G-G Tourney

Pampa Glove Tournament Set For January 23-25

The Borger District Golden Glove Tournament came to an end Friday night with Borger fighters taking 11 championship trophies in the 18 divisions while the Pampa Optimist boxers tallied for six and Dumas one. Most of Borger's victories came in the Pee Wee division with only three wins in high school division and three in open. Pampa counted for four championships in the high school class and only two in the Pee Wee weights.

Larry Byrd, Dumas, and Larry Jones squared off in the first bout of the finals Friday night to give the crowd one of the fastest bouts of the night. Jones, with the advantage of the reach kept his left jab going good which was usually followed by a right cross. Byrd came out strong in the third round but the decision went to Jones.

John Ironmonger, Pampa, and Agee Green, Borger set a fast pace in the first round of the 65-pound bout. Ironmonger was aggressor most of the way and won the decision.

Just as in the previous two bouts the pace began fast with Donnie Shipp, Pampa, and Carrol Hudson, Borger, fighting for that win. Hudson scored good with a straight right several times to the head which gave him the decision.

Kenneth Powell, Pampa, and Don Malone, Borger faced each other in the 75-pound bracket. Powell scored with a vicious left to Malone's chin early in the first round and scored repeatedly to the midsection. The southpaw from Pampa had Malone hanging on in the second and went on to win the decision, and take the second trophy for the Pampa Optimist Mittmen.

Two Borger boys squared off in the 80-pound class with Carson Watt and Donnie Leslie exchanging blows. Watt, with several years of experience, seemed to be more confident than Leslie who was fighting for his first year. Watt took the decision.

Dickie Willis, Pampa, and Durwood Williams, Borger, took up the fight in the sixth bout. Both boys have several years of experience and presented a match that looked more like high school boys. Willis was the aggressor most of the time as he kept pressing in. Willis scored most of his points from outside while Williams scored from inside. Williams was the winner by a decision.

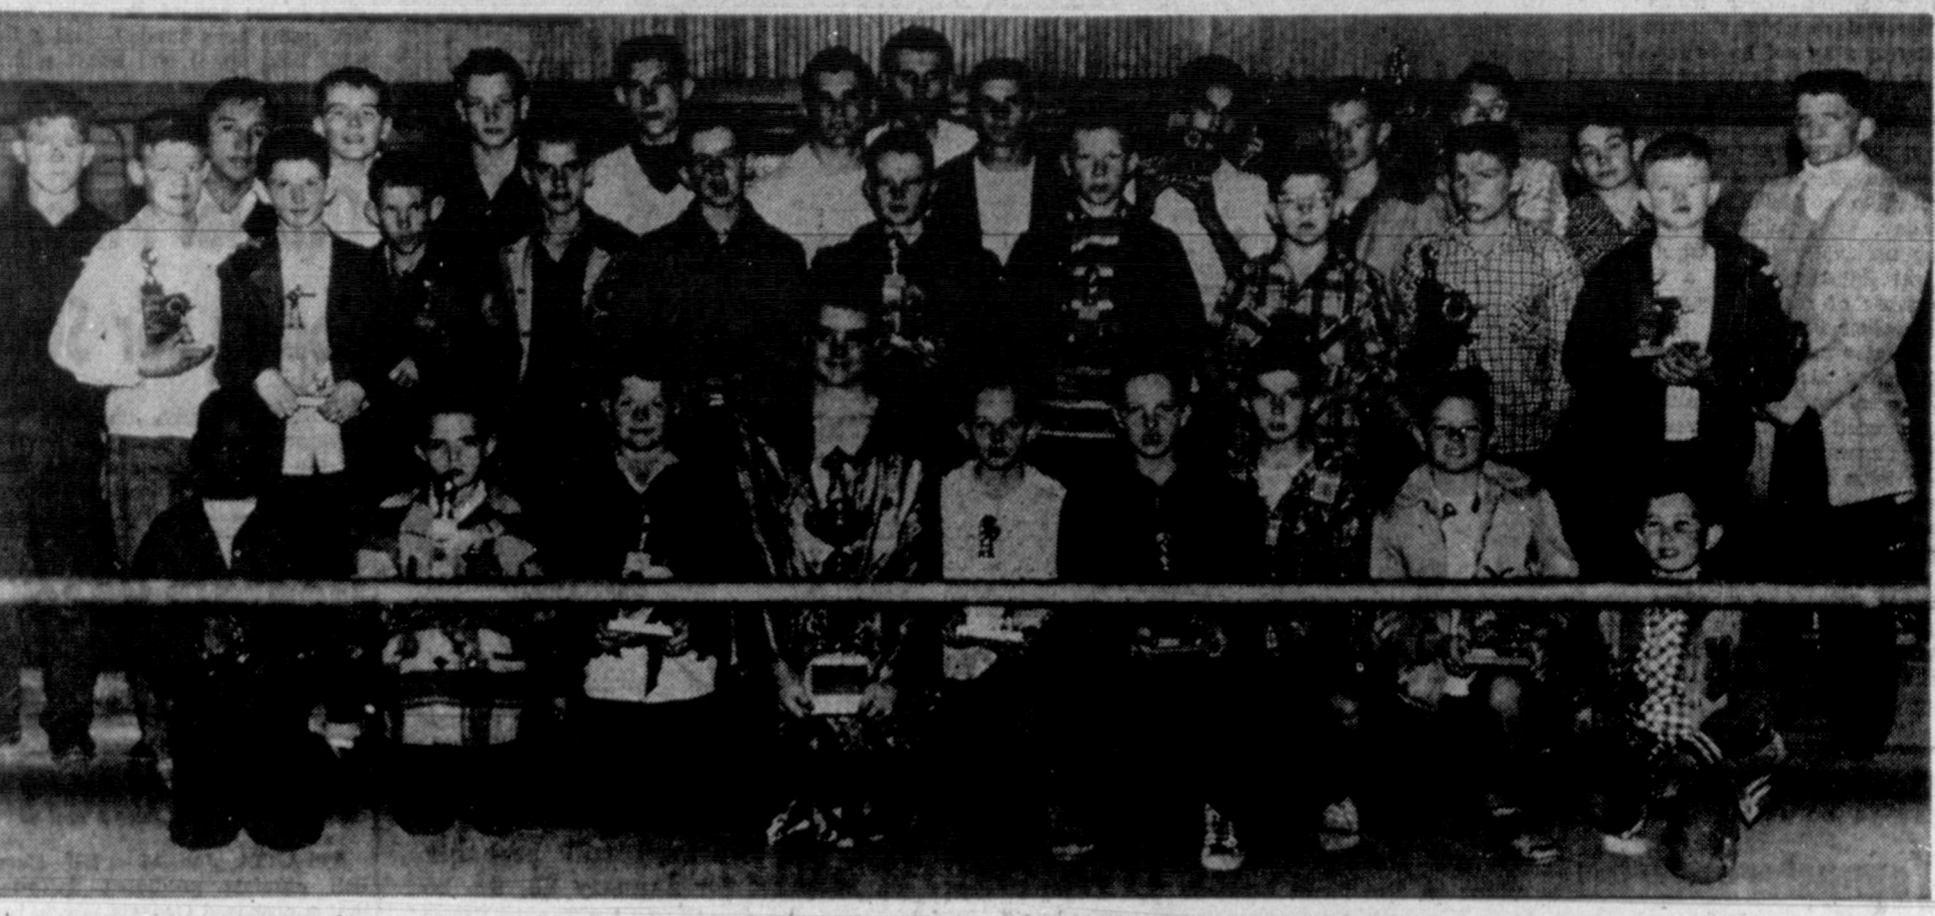

Jerry Argovitz, Borger, and James Smith, Canyon, lined up in the 155-pound class and slugged it out in a short but fast and furious bout. Argovitz won by a TKO in 1:40 of the first round. He counted the telling blow as he landed one up from the floor and caught Smith on the chin.

Lucky Dunham, Pampa, and Leroy McEwan, Dumas, met for the championship of the 90-pound class in the eighth bout of the card. Dunham landed good with combinations in the first round but both boys looked good. McEwan had the reach and kept his left jab in Dunham's face while Dunham scored well with his right to the head. The crowd booted the decision as McEwan took the championship.

Dickie James, Pampa, and Leon Sutton was the aggressor as his lousiness at a crowd pleasing pace as both boys landed good punches. Sutton was the aggressor as his left hook did telling damage to the face James. James came through in the final round and blocked almost all of Sutton's punches and landed good with his own but not enough to take the decision.

Two Borger boys paired in the 100-pound division as Robert Francis and Joseph Johanson squared off in a counterpunching exhibition. The two boys started a good slugfest in the second standing toe to toe. Francis came out with several good flurries in the last but Johnson was too far ahead and took the decision.

Pampa's Gary Wills had to stay back and come in fast to get by the long arms of Charles Sunday, Borger, as the rangy lad had several inches longer reach. Wills moved in quickly to land good to midsection and relied mostly on his counter punching throughout the bout. Wills had trouble getting to Sunday in the final round but took the 105-pound division to give the Pampa squad its third bout.

TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS — Shown above are the champions and runners-up of the Borger district Golden Gloves tournament which concluded Friday night in the Jr. High gym. The final contestants were John Ironmonger, Donnie Shipp, Dickie Willis, Lucky Dunham, Dickie James, Gary Wills, Clovis Shipp, Raul Ramirez, Gary Wilhelm, Charles Snyder, Kenneth Woods and Larry Powell, all of Pampa. Borger mittmen in the finals were Larry Jones, Agee Green, Carrol Hudson, Don Malone, Carson Watt, Durwood Williams, Jerry Argovitz, Leon Sutton, Joseph Johanson, Robert Francis, Charles Sunday, Phillip Wiggins, Wayne Tedder, Gary Watt, Scooter Darden, Earl Young and Gary Braden. Don Ward of Borger won his weight uncontested. Canyon's entry was James Smith while Dumas' fighters were Larry Byrd and Leroy McEwan. Guymon entered Chuck Moller.

U. S. Loses Woman Skier In Olympics

KITZBUHEL, Austria, Jan. 14 —UP—Katy Rodolph suffered a neck injury during a tumble at the Hahnenkamm ski classic Saturday and was lost to the U. S. Women's Olympic team in an American setback that offset a remarkable second-place finish by Bud Wenzler in the men's downhill race.

Miss Rodolph, from Reno, Nev., broke a bone in her neck when she fell during the women's downhill event on the bumpy Streifels course, one of Europe's toughest ski tests. Dr. Erwin Lehner of the Salzburg hospital said the 25-year-old star, one of the most experienced international competitors on the U. S. women's squad, escaped serious injury because the broken bones did not cut into the spinal cord.

But he said she would miss the Olympic competition beginning Jan. 26 at Cortina d'Ampezzo, Italy, and would not be able to ski again this winter.

The loss of Miss Rodolph climaxed a disappointing day for the U.S. feminine skiers. Sonja Speri of Germany zipped down the 2,500-meter (8,200-foot) course in two minutes, 48 seconds to win the women's race. Gladys Werner of Steamboat Springs, Colo., finished 34th in 3:00.3 and Olympic champion Andrea Mead Lawrence of Park City, Colo., was 47th in 3:11.1 for the "best" American performance in the field of 58.

It was a different story in the 3,200-meter (10,496 foot) men's race. Toni Sailer, a 20-year-old Kitzbuehel plumber, won it, but Gladys Werner's brother, Bud, boosted Yank Olympic hopes by whizzing down the course faster than all of Austria's other "wonder racers" and finished second.

Pampa Basketeers Defeat Childress 70-60; Shockers Win By 12 Points

Pampa's Hustling Harvesters defeated the Childress Bobcats 70-60 on the local hardwood Saturday night and the Shockers dropped the Rams 62-50. The Harvesters led the Childress five most of the way after the first minute while the Shockers had to come from behind in both the first and second quarters for their victory.

The Green and Golders let the Bobcats sink the first field goal as their first attempt at the basket rolled off.

Tom Higley counted for the first two points but Dickie Mauldin and Jerry Gee teamed up to give the Harvesters a 4-2 lead. Then F. A. Davis was called for fouling Gene Brown and Brown got three shots as Davis was given a technical following the personal.

Brown counted for all three shots to put the local five ahead 7-2. The Harvesters counted for 23 points in the first frame as they held the Childress five to only 19. Buddy Sharp, Dickie Mauldin, Jerry Gee and Tommy Gindorf each counted for one field goal while Gene Brown paced the local squad with 11 points on the three field goals and five free throws.

The Harvesters led at half time by a 36-29 score as Dickie Mauldin got hot and counted for seven points in the second frame. Brown counted for four more and Gee sank two free tosses.

The Green and Golders and the Bobcats each counted for 17 points in the third but the team of Sharp and Mauldin did most of the scoring for coach Clifton McNeely's five. Sharp counted for five points on one neat hook shot and three tosses. Mauldin sank three field goals for six points while Brown was held to two free tosses.

In the last frame the local cagers were again paced by Mauldin as he racked up eight on four from outside. The starting five were replaced by Jerry Pope, Sam Condo, Jimmy Enloe, Gerald Clark and Corroll Cole with two minutes left. Tommy Murray and Bennie Sparks then came into the game with one minute left.

Clark scored the last two points of the game on a lefthanded hook shot after he gathered in a long pass from a team-mate.

Dickie Mauldin led the Harvesters scoring with 23 points which was the highest score of the game. He was followed closely by Brown with 21.

Jim 'Dusty' Rhodes Hopes To Make The Grade In '56

TODAY'S SPORTS
By RAY LACKNEY
MONTGOMERY, Ala. — UP — Jim (Dusty) Rhodes, a sometime hero now basking in relative obscurity, has great hopes he will "make the grade" this year as a regular outfielder for the New York Giants.

Rhodes, whose ability to belt the ball as a pinch-hitter never earned him a regular position with the Giants while Leo Durocher was manager, thinks he has a better chance under Durocher's successor, "nice guy" Bill Rigney.

The 25-year-old outfielder says he found the trips and public appearances he made after his astounding success in the 1954 World Series "tiring," but after a less brilliant 1955 season he feels free to relax.

"This is about the best I've ever had it," he said. "I hunt or fish just about every day, and I've got a job (as representative for a scrap metal company) where I meet a lot of interesting people."

But comfortable as his ease may be, Rhodes longs to nail down a starting position for the Giants and he's counting on his own ability and Rigney's open-mindedness to give him a fresh start on his baseball career.

"I'm supposed to play regular in the outfield this year if I can make the grade," he said. "It wasn't that way with Leo. He had his mind made up a year ahead of time."

But Rhodes laughs at any suggestion that "making the grade" would depend principally on improving his fielding.

"I don't need to work on my fielding," he said. "I only made two errors in the last two seasons. That stuff about me not being able to field was something Leo started for a laugh."

Rhodes says Rigney is temperamentally entirely different from the fiery Leo.

"He's a nice guy," Rhodes says, "and I'm going all out for him. I think Rigney and the Giants will do all right this year."

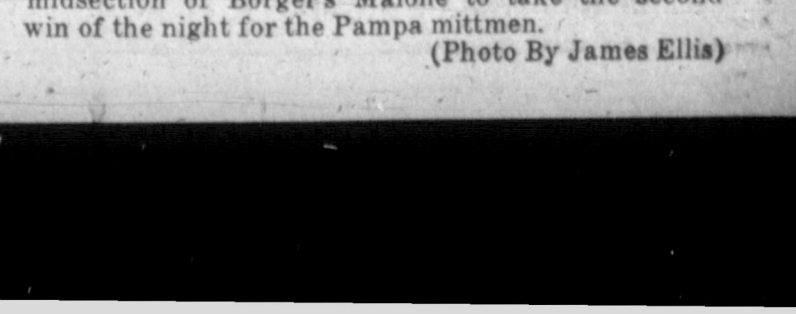

Rhodes says he hasn't signed a contract for the coming season yet, but foresees no difficulty.

Durocher retired from baseball last year to enter television work, but Rhodes thinks the major leagues haven't heard the last of him.

"I think he'll be back later in the year when somebody will start looking for a new manager," he said.

Joe King, 6-4 1/2 forward for OU, collected 16 points.

A sharp eye at the free-throw line insured the game for Iowa State. The team hit 22 of 29 shots from the charity line. But OU bested the winners from the floor with a 35.8 field goal percentage. Iowa State hit 31.6 from the field.

Cary Middlecoff, Bob Roseburg Lead Crosby Tourney

By HENRY RIEGER
PEBBLE BEACH, Calif., Jan. 14 —UP—Dr. Cary Middlecoff and crenaut pro Bob Roseburg won out over the elements and some 250 other celebrity golfers Saturday to take the lead at the end of the second round of the Bing Crosby $15,000 golf tournament with 38 hole scores of 134.

With winds whipping the coastal Cypress Point course and strong rains lashing both Cypress Point and Monterey Country Club from mid-afternoon on, the pair had a stroke advantage over the first-day leader, Mike Souchak of Durham, N.C. The ex-Duke footballer booted an opportunity to take over sole leadership as he bogied the final three holes for a 71, which added to his 64 of Friday gave him 135.

It was nearly 6 p.m. and full darkness when the final man of the day came in — Mike Fetchick of Yonkers, N.Y., who had a second-place 65 Friday and a 78 Saturday, round as he moved Shipp to third for a way-off-pace 143. Playing under miserable conditions he bogied the last six holes.

Roseburg, who once hit a hole-in-one at the ripe old age of eight, posted a 65 Saturday over easier Monterey. He had a 69 at treacherous Cypress Friday.

Defending champion Middlecoff had one of the more consistent rounds of the day—putting together six birdies and one double-bogey for a 68 to add to his 66 of Friday.

TREE TOP HIGH—Horst Lasser has that forward look afloat on the Rieslern Ski Jump, hard by Oberstdorf, East Germany. He will represent Germany in the Winter Olympic Games at Cortina, Italy, Jan. 26-Feb. 15. Divided Germany is unit here.

NCAA Accused Of Monopolizing TV

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—UP—Rep. Patrick J. Hillings Saturday urged a congressional investigation to determine whether there is a monopoly in the televising of college football games.

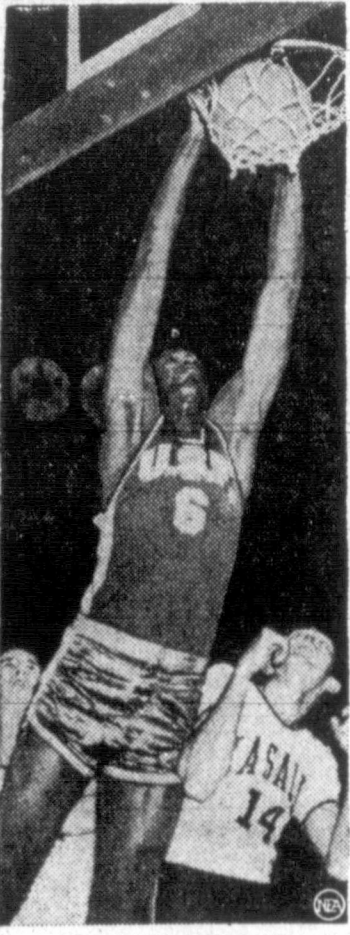

The California Republican asked the House Monopoly subcommittee to investigate charges that the National Collegiate Athletic Association is exercising "monopolistic control over football television."

He said that fans who own TV sets have protested that the NCAA's policy "prevents them from seeing the best football games." Hillings said some colleges also have complained of the arrangement under which NCAA "determines which football games may or may not be televised."

In a letter to Emanuel Celler (D-N. Y.), chairman of the House Judiciary committee, Hillings noted that the NCAA in its convention at Los Angeles during the past week voted to continue its present TV policy. That policy in 1955 called for nationally televised games in eight Saturdays and a restricted number of regional games on the five other Saturdays.

He also noted that Celler, who is chairman also of the House Monopoly subcommittee, already has announced plans to investigate alleged monopolistic activities in the television industry. He urged that the investigation be broadened to include an inquiry into "certain practices" of the NCAA.

Hillings said the subcommittee should determine whether NCAA's control of football television "amounts to a monopoly and if so whether the anti-trust laws are being violated."

Hoot Evers Proves Youngsters Can Hit

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Jan. 14—UP—Outfielder Hoot Evers of the Cleveland Indians showed the old timers Saturday that the modern era sluggers can still deliver when it's needed.

Evers hit a three-run homer in the last inning to give American Leaguers an 8-4 victory over the Nationals at Al Lang Field. Some 3,000 fans saw the game played for the March of Dimes.

Evers' blow-off righthander Floyd Brown, formerly of the Cincinnati Reds, came when the National Leaguers were leading, 3 to 2.

Such all-time greats as 62-year-old Dazy Vance, Sam Rice, 63, Edd Rousch, 60, Zach Taylor, Paul Wamer, Rip Sewell, Spud Chandler, Wes Ferrell, Al Lopez, Johnny Allen and Jimmy Foxx played the five-inning game as if they were 30 years younger. They usually hit the first pitch and didn't let up in throwing.

ALL COVERED UP

Larry Powell, right, seems to be covered up completely as Raul Ramirez measures off the distance with a left jab. The action above was the only match where two Pampa Optimist mittmen met in the finals. Ramirez won the fight by a TKO and the championship of the 118-pound high school division of the Borger Golden Glove tournament Friday night. The two boys will probably meet in the final bout in the Pampa Glove Tourney set for January 23, 24, 25 in the Jr. High gym.

Guild Ban Is Supported By Nat'l Boxing Association

CHICAGO, Jan. 14—UP—The National Boxing Association executive committee Saturday voted full support of New York's ban against the Managers' Guild and recommended recognition by members of all suspension imposed under the ruling.

However, the action was only a recommendation to the NBA membership and will not become compulsory until approved by the annual convention, scheduled in Havana, Cuba, next fall. Further Henry Lamar of Massachusetts, acting secretary of the meeting, pointed out that the convention could reverse the action.

The resolution, proposed by NBA President Lou Radzinski of Illinois, was approved unanimously by the 14 members attending the meeting. It called upon the NBA and all members to give "full support to the New York State Athletic Commission ruling" and to "recognize all suspensions pertaining to the same."

Two additional resolutions to "put teeth" into the support also were approved. One requested members to require that a promoter, manager, boxer, trainer, second or matchmaker must be licensed in his home state before he can obtain a license in another state, and the second called up "every state in the country" to uphold any suspension, revocation or denial of a license in any other state.

The committee did not recommend any action against the International Boxing Guild, with which the New York Guild is affiliated, and said that applications of Guild members from other states for licenses would be handled on an individual basis.

Red Sanders To Head West In Pro Tilt

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14—UP—Henry (Red) Sanders, coach of the Pacific Coast champion UCLA Bruins, will head the West coaching staff for the 32nd annual East-West Shrine football game, it was announced Saturday.

W. M. Coffman, managing director of the San Francisco Classic, also announced that Otho (Abe) Martin from Texas Christian University and Dallas Ward of the University of Colorado will serve with Sanders for the game Dec. 29.

Sanders, whose UCLA teams have won three successive PCC championships, was a member of the West staff in 1952.

Martin graduated from TCU in 1932 and coached in high schools for 10 years before returning to his alma mater as assistant to L. R. (Dutch) Meyer. He became head coach three years ago and in 1955 produced a Southwest Conference championship and played in the Cotton Bowl.

Ward was a member of the West staff for the 31st Shrine game.

John Landy Better His Previous Mile Mark 21 Seconds

MELBOURNE, Australia, Jan. 14—UP—John Landy, holder of the world mile record of 3:38.0, bettered his previous best time for the three-mile run by 21 seconds Saturday while scoring an easy triumph in 13 minutes, 39 seconds at Olympic Park.

Les Perry, former Auszte three-mile champion, finished second. He trailed Landy by 250 yards.

Landy's time was 7.2 seconds off the Australian record held by Dave Stephens. Sanford Iharos of Hungary holds the world three-mile mark of 13:14.2.

Baylor Coach Asks To Leave

WACO, Tex., Jan. 14—UP—Baylor Assistant Coach Steve Owen asked Saturday to be relieved of the balance of his Baylor contract so he could become a member of the staff of new Philadelphia Eagle coach Hugh Devore.

Owen's two-year contract, calling for his presence in Waco only during the fall football season and spring training, ran through February, 1957.

By mutual agreement, Owen will be paid through February, 1956, the end of the first year of his contract.

West Is Touchdown Favorite In Pro-Bowl Contest Today

By HAL WOOD
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 14—UP—The West was installed as a one-touchdown favorite to shellack the East in the annual Pro Bowl football game here Sunday—and if the odds hold up, it will break a jinx for home teams on western grids—East defeated West in the Shrine game, Cleveland beat Los Angeles in the pro playoffs and Michigan State whipped UCLA in the Rose Bowl. This one could be different.

West Coach Sid Gillman thinks his team will win, and a lot of fans think the same way.

Expect 40,000
In fact, about 40,000 will traipse into the coliseum to witness the battle of the titans. There will be no radio or television of the game.

Coach Joe Kuharich of the East team originally had announced he would start a backfield without two of his favorite people in it—but he had a last minute change of mind. Now he will go with his own Washington Redskins star, Eddie LeBaron at quarter; Frank Gifford of the New York Giants at one halfback spot, and Ollie Matson, whom he coached in college, at the other half; and Curly Morrison of Cleveland at full.

Gillman will start with his own Norman Van Brocklin of the Los Angeles Rams at quarter; Ron Waller, also of the Rams, and Dick Caares of the Chicago Bears at halfbacks; and Don (The Horse) Ameche of the Baltimore Colts at full.

Gillman predicts that Van Brocklin will have a big day.

Finals for Walker, Flies
"He quarterbacked us to the division championship," says Gillman, "and I think he can win this game for us. Sure, he had a bad day against Cleveland in the playoffs, but I'm sure he'll be in shape again against the East."

In five previous meetings, the East has won three times, the West twice.

This game also is the swan song for two of the all-time greats of professional football: End Pete Pihos of the Philadelphia Eagles; and halfback Doak Walker of the Detroit Lions.

Official Practice Underway Today For Seventh Olympics

CORTINA, Italy, Jan. 14—UP—Olympic athletes from all corners of the world, including the first Russians, trooped into this winter games site Saturday night and work gangs put the finishing preparations on Cortina's $4.8 million worth of tracks, rinks and slides.

With the seventh Winter Olympics only 12 days away, official practice will get underway Sunday morning when eager bobblers from bobbed federations abroad nine other countries match their skill and courage on the precipitous Olympic slide.

The one-mile slide, described as the "most beautiful and safest I've ever seen" by Swiss four-man world title holder Franz Kapus, was closed Friday. American and Italian teams had drawn protests from bobbed federations abroad when they had staged unofficial training sessions.

Arrivals Saturday included two more American bobbeders—Charles Butler of Albuquerque, N.M., and William Dodge of New York. The Russian hockey team, the first nine members of Japanese ski team lead by Prince Tsuneyoshi Takeda and two Swiss bobbed champions.

The only discouraging part of Saturday's picture was the weather.

The temperature rose after heavy snowfall that lasted until early Saturday morning. Water was dripping from roofs and trees, and the snow on the roads began to slush.

Named to Wisconsin Staff
MADISON, Wis., Jan. 14—UP—Thomas Hearden, Green Bay Packers assistant coach, was named by Wisconsin Athletic Director Ivan Williamson Saturday to the university football coaching staff. Hearden played with Notre Dame teams in 1924-25-26 that won 26 games, lost 3 and tied 1.

Georgia Race Ban Could Wreck Minors

ATLANTA, Jan. 14—UP—Baseball officials predicted Saturday that a proposed Georgia law to ban the mixing of races in athletic events could wreck the state as a minor league stronghold and a prime training ground for major league stars.

The law, which is pending action in the Georgia House of Representatives, would also eliminate the state as a site for any major boxing events, track meets or major league exhibition baseball games.

However, the law would probably have its greatest effect on the baseball system.

At the present, two leagues operating in the state, including the Class A South Atlantic League with teams in Savannah, Macon, Columbus and Augusta, are using Negro players. The Georgia State League has also crossed the color line.

The South Atlantic League, which also operates in Columbia, S. C., Charlotte, N. C., Jacksonville, Fla., and Montgomery, Ala., would probably be hardest hit by the proposed legislation. Last season, six of the eight teams in the league used Negroes.

Young Mom Takes Lead In Tourney
SEA ISLAND, Ga., Jan. 14—UP—Mrs. Kathy McKinnon Cornelius, young Lake Worth, Fla., mother playing her first competitive golf since her baby was born, took a big four-stroke lead Saturday in the Sea Island Women's Invitational golf tournament with an even par 72.

Mrs. Cornelius, 23, dubbed "Smiley" by her competitors, wore an extra broad grin Saturday after overcoming an 11-month layoff, and strong, chilly winds over the ocean-bounded Sea Island course designed as a test of champions.

Playing the first competitive golf since finishing out of the money last February in the Sarasota (Fla.) Open while pregnant, Mrs. Cornelius became a lot favorite to come in Sunday to win top money in the two-day, 36-hole $3,500 tournament. She shot a 38 going out and a 34 coming in.

Her 72 in this first big money tournament of the year for women golfers was four strokes better than the 76a fired by Miss Fay Crocker, Montevideo, Uruguay, Miss Mary Lena Faulk, Thomasville, Ga., and Alice Bauer, Sarasota, Fla.

Tied at 77 were Mrs. Peggy Kirk Bell, Patty Berg and Mickey Wright. Following at 78 were Marilyn Smith, Joyce Ziske and Betsy Rawls. Louis Suggs, Gloria Fecht, Beverly Hanson, Betty Hicks and Marlene Bauer Hage had 79's, and Gloria Armstrong, Nadine Granick, Betty Jameson, Marlene Stewart and Ruth Jessen 81s.

Pirates Sign Shortstops
PITTSBURGH Jan 14—UP—Gair Allie and Dick Barone, a pair of promising shortstops, returned signed contracts Saturday to become the ninth and 10th Pittsburgh Pirates signed for the 1956 season.

Mize To Aid Giants
NEW YORK, Jan. 14—UP—Johnny Mize, the old home run hero of the Polo Grounds, was signed by the New York Giants Saturday as a spring training coach of hitters for their base at Phoenix, Ariz.

Texas A&M Wins Southwest's Pre-Season Swimming Meet

HOUSTON, Jan. 4—UP—The Texas Aggies won the Southwest Texas Aggies won the Southwest Conference pre-season swimming meet Saturday, beating Texas in the final event, the double medley, to come from behind.

Texas and Southern Methodist were tied with 54 points each and the Aggies had 52 points, going into the final event. The final team standings were Texas A&M 66, Texas 64, Southern Methodist 62 and Rice 30.

The Aggies put the pressure on the Mustangs and Longhorns in the distance medley when A&M's Tetsuo Okamoto outdistanced Pedro Galvao of Southern Methodist in a final desperate lunge at the finish line.

Okamoto is formerly from Brazil and placed third in the 1,500-meter event of the 1952 Olympics for Brazil. Galvao is from Peru and Argentina and finished fifth in the 100 meters at the 1952 Olympics, when he was competing for Argentina.

Both Okamoto and Galvao finished the medley in the same 7:21.5, a new meet record—but the race was decided by the judges.

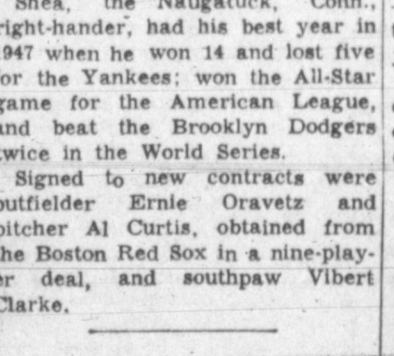

Rice is in only its second year of varsity competition. All of the events established new meet records.

Washington Senators Release Frank Shea
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14—UP—The Washington Senators unconditionally released veteran pitcher Frank (Spac) Shea, one-time New York Yankees fireballer, Saturday and signed three players and Coach Cookie Lavagetto to 1956 contracts.

Shea, the Naugatuck, Conn., right-hander, had his best year in 1947 when he won 14 and lost five for the Yankees; won the All-Star game for the American League, and beat the Brooklyn Dodgers twice in the World Series.

Signed to new contracts were outfielder Ernie Ovatets and pitcher Al Curtis, obtained from the Boston Red Sox in a nine-player deal, and southpaw Vibert Clarke.

ALL HANDS — Iowa State's Don Medsker finds the last thing he needs is a hand as he watches a rebound bounce away during contest at Kansas City. One of the paws surrounding him knocked the ball away.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14—UP—The New York Yankees disclosed Saturday that American League home run king Mickey Mantle will fly to New York soon to undergo a tonsillectomy at Lenox Hill Hospital. The operation will be performed by Dr. Ernest Weymuller either Tuesday or Wednesday.

Musial Signs 6th Straight Contract With Cardinals

By UNITED PRESS
Slugging Stan Musial of the Cardinals has signed his sixth straight contract for $80,000, and as a result, that's a mighty fine one to fall into.

At the same time, Musial's room-mate and sidekick, Al (Red) Schoendienst, signed a $40,000 pact for the third straight year, and that can't exactly be called a bad habit, either.

Neither had a particularly good season last year. Musial skidding from a 1954 batting mark of .330 to .319, and Schoendienst falling from .315 to .289.

Bob Considine, reporter and sports columnist, has been appointed National Sports Chairman for the 1956 March of Dimes. He has asked sports editors, TV and radio sportscasters, promoters and athletic directors to help in the future victory over polio.

Panhandle Outdoor Life

By S. V. WHITEHORN
Falcon Lake, at the upper end of the Rio Grande Valley, is the largest in the entire basin of the Rio Grande. This river makes its start high up in the mountains of Colorado and the Chihuahuas (Rio Grande and Rio Conchos).

Schoendienst ranks third in the National League behind Musial and Pee Wee Reese of Brooklyn with 1,853.

While Musial and Schoendienst were the "big ones" to agree to terms Thursday, several players on other clubs also signed their contracts.

Gus Zernial, who batted .254 but slammed 30 home runs last season, became the eighth member of the Kansas City Athletics to sign. No terms were announced.

Battle Royal Turns Into A Mixed Up Wrestling Match

Pampa wrestling fans at the Sportsman Club were treated to a six-man "battle royal" Wednesday night. It all started very peacefully when Dizzy Davis, Billy Weidner, Gene Denton, Mark Lewin, Big Train Clements and Dangerous Bob Geigel, along with one referee entered the ring.

THE BOSTON POPS — Shown above is the famous Boston Pops Orchestra which will be presented in Pampa at 8 p.m. Thursday by the Pampa Community Concert Association. This is the orchestra's third American tour, Arthur Fiedler is leader of the group.

Pampa Community Concert Association To Present Boston "Pops" Orchestra

Record collectors have been familiar with Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops Orchestra for twenty-five years, and these recordings have not only contributed substantially to the success of the Pops, but have led to the organization of the Boston Pops Tour—Orchestra which appears here at 8 p.m. Thursday. This is the organization's third American tour. The Orchestra will be presented here by the Pampa Community Concert Association.
The Boston Pops is famous and familiar wherever light music is loved and appreciated, from radio and TV appearances, and more than 150 best-selling RCA Victor recordings of marches, waltzes, overtures, opera excerpts, ballet music, concertos and concert pieces. Fiedler and the Pops have more listings in RCA Victor's catalogue of "The Music America Loves Best" than any other Red Seal organization, and he in 1951 became the first Victor symphony conductor to sell more than a million copies of a single record. ("Jalousie", coupled with the "Ritual Fire Dance" of Manuel de Falla).
Last season their tour included 45 sold-out concerts in 14 states and the District of Columbia.
Critics—everywhere—have been quick to approve the carefully planned programs and musical good taste which for the past 26 seasons have made enjoyment of music synonymous in Boston with Fiedler, the Pops and their spritetime season, which opens in Symphony Hall each May at the end of the Boston Symphony Orchestra's regular winter concert series.
Critic-composer Virgil Thomson summed-up the charms of the Pops when he declared: "The Boston Pops are really a lovely success story. They have no budget troubles. They have no program troubles. They just play everything and play it beautifully and everybody loves them."
Probably the word "Pops" first

MISS SUE VAUGHAN Engaged To Marry

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Vaughan of Briscoe announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sue, to Quentin Hancock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hancock of Mountain View, Okla.
Miss Vaughan is a student at Oklahoma A & M College, Stillwater, where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi.
Hancock is a graduate of Oklahoma A & M where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
The wedding is scheduled to take place at 3:30 p.m. Jan. 29, in First Baptist Church of Shamrock.
Sue has no patience with anything less esoteric than a Scarlatti sonata. For more than a quarter of a century, Arthur Fiedler has been of enormous help in spanning the gap in between.

Some states have passed laws requiring that paint that contains poisonous lead must be so labeled, in large letters. But if you aren't sure about the paint you've bought for Baby's furniture, exchange it for the special-lead-free infants' paint.

meant "popular" and continued to be used because of something appropriate in its nonchalant, explosive jauntiness.
They have given first class performances and recordings to a whole sheaf of likeable compositions which are usually neglected by the major orchestras in the course of their serious winter seasons. By playing music that even the least arduous listener finds it easy to like, and even to love, they have widened the horizons of thousands who might never have been attracted to a concert hall in the first place if the musical bill of fare had been limited to "difficult" moderns like Hindemith, Bartok and Stravinsky, or even to the comparatively complex structure of Bach fugue, a Beethoven Concerto or a Mozart sonata.
The world of music is a big one, and it is one of the virtues of a democratic society in which we live that there is room enough in it for everybody—from those who prefer the latest confessions of the juke-boxes all the way to those who

Wanda J. Williams And Billy Williams Say Wedding Vows

Miss Wanda J. Williams of Pampa and Billy Williams of Sturgis, Ky., were united in marriage Dec. 23, in Pampa, with J. F. John Andrews officiating for the double-ring rite.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wright of Pampa, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Williams of Sturgis, Ky.

The bride wore a royal blue dress with white accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

Kenneth Williams, brother of the bride, was best man, and other attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Wright, parents of the bride.

The couple took a wedding trip to Alexandria, La.

The bride was graduated from Letora High School and is now a senior student at Texas Technological College, majoring in physical education. At Texas Tech, she was a member of the Rodeo Association, Rifle Club and Major and Minor Club.

The bridegroom was graduated from high school in Sturgis, Ky., and is now serving with the Air Force in San Antonio.

MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Southard, 209 N. Faulkner, announced the recent marriage of their daughter, Jeanette, to Albert Stribling, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Stribling of Miami. The couple is residing in Miami where the bridegroom is associated with a grocery store. The bride was a student in Pampa High School, and the bridegroom was graduated from Miami High School.

Ike's Life Now Told In Fabric

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

President Eisenhower's notable achievements recounted many times in word and picture, are commemorated now in yet another way which will have special interest for the homemaker. This is a new fabric design made up of pieces and symbols that are particularly significant in Ike's career.

The Eisenhower toile, or printed cotton, is 36 inches wide, and the pattern repeats every 36 inches. Within this square yard limit, the designer, decorator Elisabeth Draper, has skillfully told the story, Miss Draper, by the way, knows her subject well. For many years she has worked with Mrs. Eisenhower to help combine the many Eisenhower possessions into settings which reflect the First Lady's ideas and preferences.

On the fabric, set into medallions, are easily recognized pictures of Ike's childhood home at Abilene, Kans., West Point, the home in Denver where he was married. The insignia of the invasion forces, Columbia University, the White House, the Gettysburg home and the Seal of the President are included.

Also worked into the design are pictures of the battle flags of conquered nations and reminders of his hobbies of golf and painting. Twined around the pictures are symbols of the states which have been of personal importance to him. Here you can pick out the bluebonnet of Texas, Colorado's columbine, Kansas sunflower, the laurel of Pennsylvania and the rose of Washington, D. C. You'll also see the acorn, symbolizing strength and fruitfulness.

This guided tour of the President's life is available in ten different colorings on an off-white background. One of the colorings I like the best is a soft Colonial pine yellow. You can size up the fabric yourself in the decorating departments of stores. Such a fabric is suitable for draperies or for upholstery.

Are the Eisenhowers using this personalized fabric in their own home? In answer to this question, the cautious reply was, "It has been specified for use in the Eisenhower home."

Talks On Common Sense Living Given To Twentieth Century Culture Members

Mrs. J. R. Donaldson and Mrs. J. L. Chase spoke on "Common Sense Living" at the recent meeting of Twentieth Century Culture Club in the home of Mrs. Myles Morgan, 1329 N. Russell.

"Mental health has to do with the everyday lives of all of us in our families, in our clubs, in our community, in our world," Mrs. Donaldson pointed out. "It is not a phrase to fear or shun. It has to do with healthy personalities and happier, more satisfying relationships with others. Bickering, gossip, jealousy, intolerance, self-pity are all tools of maladjustment. Friendliness, cooperation, compromise, mutual respect and sincere understanding are attributes of mental health."

Mrs. Donaldson suggested a person choose his own speed and accept his own limitations in his daily work to avoid some of the stress of daily living.

Mrs. Chase's talk was based on a "recipe" for a life's credo that is good for a homemaker. The recipe included "to have integrity the basis for all thought and action; to remember that thoughtfulness and consideration for others adds to the fullness of living; to value and appreciate the ways of nature, taking time to know the birds and the bees, the flowers and the trees, the storms and the stars; to find joy in work and pleasure in small things, while a sense of humor livens the daily tasks; to have courage and fortitude for the inevitable shadows along the way; to give grateful thanks to the Unseen Power who has abundantly blessed this land."

Mrs. Chase explained that "recipe" was quoted from Dr. and Mrs. Royal F. French.

During the business session, led by Mrs. L. J. Zachry, reports were given on Christmas boxes prepared by the club. A short devotional was given by Mrs. J. R. Stroble. The program was introduced by Mrs. Warren Hasse, who was also co-hostess with Mrs. Morgan.

Those attending, not already mentioned, were Mmes. Jeff Bearden, E. R. Eaton, J. W. Edminster, Frank Fata, H. H. Hahn, L. H. Hart, E. L. Henderson, V. L. Hobbs, Rufe Jordan, Doyle Osborne, E. E. Shelhamer, N. Dudley Steele and Michael Wilson.

Manners Make Friends

A receptionist in a carefully decorated office says it is amazing how much unnecessary damage is done by persons who obviously wouldn't treat their own furniture and possessions carelessly. Ashes are flung on carpeting, children allowed to stand on upholstered furniture, cigarette burns ruin upholstery etc. Take as good care of your better care of the possessions of others than of your own.

It's a measure of good breeding.

KKI Sorority Plans Benefits For MOD

Kappa Kappa Iota sorority held a Coke party and business meeting in Johnson's Cafe recently. Mrs. Espar Stover, who is planning to spend the winter months traveling in the South, was presented a gift from the group.

During the business session, members were reminded to pay their poll tax. Next meeting will be Jan. 30, in Johnson's Cafe, and will be a benefit for the March of Dimes.

Attending were Mmes. F. M. Dial, W. L. Parker, Fred Brook, Floyd Smith, B. G. Gordon, Roy Sparkman, John Evans, Herbert Coker, Truett Ross, Ben Ogden, W. A. Rankin, O. H. Odum, C. W. Stowell, B. R. Nuckols, A. R. Nooncaster, Fay Dellis Adams, Espar Stover; and Miss Oleta Martin.

Boys Like Dates To Be On Time

Beauty is fine and careful makeup is excellent, but teen-agers seem to add a liberal dose of dawdling at the crucial moment.

Here's a letter from a teen-age boy who has something important to say on the subject. Teenagers who find themselves guilty of the habits he describes may well assume that their dates have the same feelings.

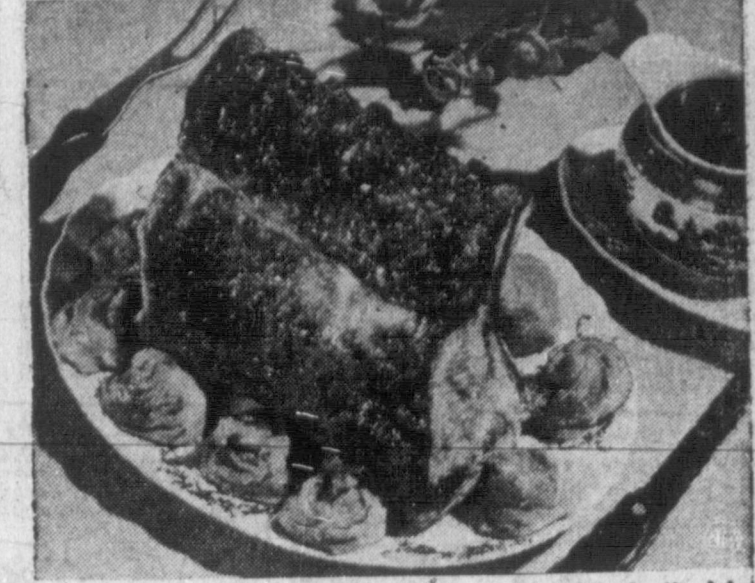

"Sure," he writes, "we like to go out with girls who look pretty and smell nice, and go to some effort to care for themselves. But why does it have to take so long?"

"After all, my friends and I like to look nice, too. We worry about our complexions. We are concerned with our fingernails and our teeth. We get haircuts on schedule. We take baths and clean shaves. And we do it all in enough time so that when we are supposed to call for our girls at 8:30, we arrive at 8:30.

"But what do we find? Well, we find that we are late for the movies or the meeting with our friends or for most of the things we've planned.

"And why? Because our dates are still taking care of their appearances when they should be trotting down the stairs to put on their coats and go out with us.

"Don't get me wrong. I like feminine logic most of the time.

REGAL FARE is provided by the king of all pork cuts, the loin roast. Its toasty crust adds to the deliciousness.

COOK'S NOOK

New Style Of Trimming Makes Loin Even Better

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Good eating goes hand-in-hand with penny-saving when pork is on the menu. The low prices on this nutritious and flavorful meat provides first-aid to strained budgets.

The pork loin roast is the king of the fresh pork roasts and is selling at economy prices. Some budget-minded homemakers have found even greater economy in purchasing a whole loin and having first cut chops cut from the rib end.

The center cut is prepared as a handsome pork loin roast and the loin is boned for chop suey, mock chicken legs or for casserole dishes.

The center cut of the loin usually sells for slightly higher price per pound, but by purchasing the entire loin, this choice section is available at the overall low price.

Meat packers are trimming pork these days to make it an even better buy. You will find a "new look" in pork chops and loins, with the fat trimmed to no more than ¼ inch, just enough for juicy, flavorful eating and to avoid a too-dry cooked product.

Sage can accent roast pork. Here's a new sage sauce for basting the roast. For a special week-day dinner, serve the sage pork roast with mashed sweet potatoes, buttered peas and a tart-and-crisp apple - orange - cranberry salad. This honey, delightful meal is a real invitation to good eating.

SAGE PORK ROAST

Three pounds pork loin roast, 1 tablespoon cornstarch, ¼ teaspoon sage, ¼ teaspoon black pepper, 1 10-ounce can consommé.

Place pork roast on racks in open roasting pan. Roast in slow oven (325 degrees F.) for approximately 2 hours to 185 degrees F. internal temperature as indicated by roast-meat thermometer. Mix cornstarch, sage, and pepper in a saucepan. Gradually add consommé. When blended, stir and simmer over low heat for 5 minutes or until clear and thickened. Spread sauce over roast during last 45 minutes of cooking time. Any remaining sauce may be used as a dip.

Texas Rangers On Guard At Strike-Bound Iron Works

CORSICANA, Tex. —UP—Three Texas Rangers from Dallas were on guard Saturday against any further violence in the 12-day-old strike against the Oil City Iron Works.

Some 140 of the company's 170 workers are on strike, and there have been reports of fire bombs being thrown, a shot gun being fired at a house and a striker hit by a company bus.

Mayor Walter Irwin called in the Rangers yesterday. They are Capt. Bob Crowder and Rangers Renest Daniel and R. L. Baggett.

The Rangers held a secret conference with Irwin, Police Chief Pete McCain, Police Commissioner Walter Weems, Herman Roberts, an executive of the steel company, and J. J. Robinson of Dallas, district representative of the United States Steelworkers.

Will Maintain Pickets Robinson said after the meeting the union does not condone violence and will maintain its picket lines. Roberts said the company doesn't want to make any accusations and hopes for a satisfactory settlement.

Crowder said the Rangers will stay two or three days and won't call for any reinforcements unless worse violence is reported.

Truman Says He's Neutral

ST. PAUL, Minn.—UP—Former President Harry S. Truman said Saturday he would remain neutral this year in selection of a Democratic candidate for the presidency.

Mr. Truman made the statement at a Minneapolis press conference during his visit to speak at a testimonial dinner here Saturday night for Gov. Orville L. Freeman. He will speak on the farm situation.

"I am anxious that the Democratic convention should be free and open," Mr. Truman said. "We certainly need a Democrat in the White House."

The former chief executive declined to answer any questions on the farm issue. He also dodged a question on the stand the Minnesota Democrats - Farmer - Labor party has taken in pledging delegates to presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson, saying Minnesota should decide its own affairs.

Mr. Truman also was asked whether he thought President Eisenhower would run for reelection. "That's something only the President can answer," he replied. "The best way to find out is to go the White House and ask him."

Cody's Record

When he was only 14 years old, Buffalo Bill Cody established a record for the Pony Express, riding the same horse for 24 hours and covering more than 200 miles.

Ike May Cut Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON — UP—Informed Senate sources said Saturday the Eisenhower administration may abandon its long-term foreign aid plan because of determined congressional opposition.

Chairman Walter F. George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee warned the administration only Friday that bipartisan foreign policy may be threatened if it insists on the long-term aid plan.

The program possibly would cost $1 billion over a 10-year period. George has been strongly opposed since the idea first was proposed. The administration was understood to be carefully weighing the importance of opposition by George and several other powerful legislators, sources said.

George told newsmen after a meeting with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles that it is "far more important to maintain a bipartisan foreign policy on essential foreign policy matters than to force an issue of long-term commitments."

Alimony Claim Nets $208,000

LOS ANGELES — UP—A $208,000 settlement has been reached on alimony claims by Mrs. Gertrude Netcher, 60, first wife of Chicago department store heir Townsend Netcher, against his $473,800 estate.

Superior Judge Clyde C. Triplett Friday approved the settlement submitted by Security-First National Bank, executor of the estate.

Netcher died a year ago at the age of 61. Afterward, Mrs. Netcher sought continuation of payments of $1,250 a month for life under an agreement reached at the time of their divorce in 1928. She has received $15,000 for the year since his death the bank said she now had agreed to the lump settlement approved Saturday.

"Our ELECTRIC water heater is an important partner to our other work saving electric appliances!"

says MRS. KEITH HALL 120 E. 18th STREET PORTALES, NEW MEXICO

A modern water heater is fast, safe, clean and economical . . . so, of course, the modern water heater is electric.

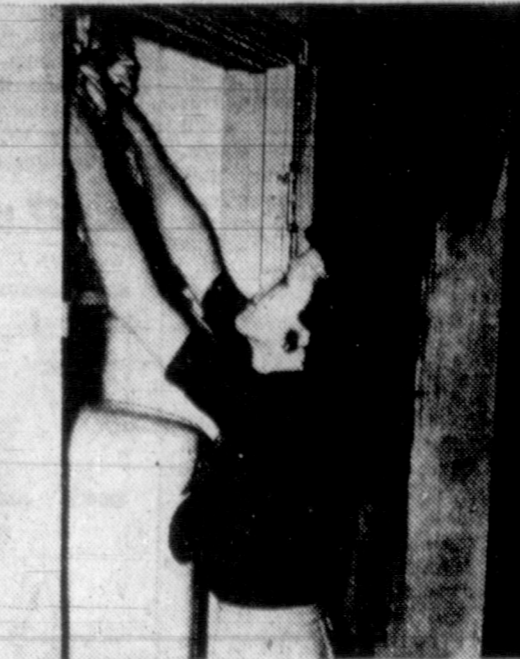

Mrs. Hall says: "I like for the water to be really hot when I use my dishwasher and my washer-dryer combination. Our busy family makes many demands for hot water, and our electric water heater does a perfect job."

Mrs. Hall enjoys the exclusive plus value of extra storage space, which electric water heating offers, too. "Even our linens can be stored above our electric water heater."

The supreme test for a water heater? Keeping up with the needs of a growing boy. "Our son, Jimmy, like most young athletes, requires a dependable supply of hot water."

And the father looks to safety. Mr. Hall, immediate past president of the New Mexico Junior Chamber of Commerce, says: "I often find it necessary to make out of town trips in my business, and I appreciate the fact that our electric water heater is absolutely safe."

For every member of your family there's a modern way to heat water. Of course, it's electric.

The Aiming Stake

Sgt. WAYNE ANDERSON
Top of the news from the National Guard this week is the arrival of Major Warren Beale in Pampa. Major Beale has just returned from a tour of active duty in Korea to take over the job of Regular Army Advisor for the 47th Field Artillery Battalion. Major Beale and his family will live in Pampa.

We have some visitors with us this week. Chief Warrant Officer Carl Leach along with his maintenance crew, all of them from Brownwood, have been in Pampa the past week, doing the regular yearly heavy-duty maintenance on the battalion vehicles. Of course all the vehicles are being inspected at the same time, and the entire procedure should be completed in about another week.

Last Sunday was a busy day for Headquarters Battery. The unit had a multiple drill and the day's training schedule was really full. There was a complete check of small arms and equipment which of course included maintenance, a 25 mile motor-march under the command of the Battery Motor Officer, 1st Lt. Loyd Zmotony in which the Battery's communications were also checked. The men also attended Church Services Sunday afternoon, conducted by Chaplain Richard Cwgs of the 8th Field Artillery Group. Chaplain Cwgs is pastor of the 11th Christian Church of Pampa.

One of the highlights of the day was the meal served by the Battery Mess Section. . . every body

Residents Used To Missiles

-COCOA BEACH, Fla.—UP—The first, man-made moon to be launched from the guided missile test center near here next year will be just another "bird" to the residents of this ocean-side area.

For more than five years, the coastline "crackers" from Titusville southward to Melbourne have been conditioned to the mysterious "thumps" and flashes that come at any time, day or night, from around Cape Canaveral.

It is the launching site for the nation's most secret weapons, guided missiles, commonly referred to as "the birds."

The announcement from Washington Friday that the guided missile test center near the Patuxent Air Force Base would be the launching point for "project Vanguard" came as no surprise.

"It's been sort of an official rumor" around here for more than two months," Carl Collins, manager of Cocoa radio station WKJK, said.

City boosters in all the small towns dotting the area said they were "delighted" that a major part of the satellite project will be conducted here.

The federal government has spent $192 million so far on the missile test center and the range that stretches through the Bahamas to Puerto Rico and beyond toward Africa.

In five years the population of every little community has more than doubled. Residents do not worry about rockets huzzing overhead. Their chief concern is providing water for the thousands more that the satellite project will bring.

Girl Scout Executive Board Installed At Banquet Friday

Members of the executive board of the Top o' Texas Girl Scout Council were installed at the annual GS Association banquet Friday in the Pampa High School cafeteria.

Installing officer was Senior Scout Barbara Goodnight. Installed were E. L. Layne president; Ken Meaders, vice-president; B. M. Behrman, office and staff; Mrs. Euna Lee Moores, secretary; Mrs. J. G. Crinklaw, treasurer; Mrs. Lewis Belanger, organization chairman; Mrs. Herman Brown, training chairman; Mrs. W. A. Dow, program chairman; Mrs. Nicholas Kadingo, public relations chairman; Mrs. Earl Champion, Juliette Low chairman; H. O. Darby, finance chairman; Joe Wells, Camp Mel Davis and GS Little House; and Joe Gordon, legal advisor.

During the installation, Miss Goodnight likened Girl Scouting to a song, with its necessary harmony, and compared the adults in Scouting to a director of a song.

Another highlight of the banquet was special recognition given to two Scouts and three adults. E. L. Layne, council president, was given a Girl Scout statuette, the highest honor in Scouting. "Thanks" badges, another high GS honor, were presented to Mrs. Burl Lewter and Mrs. Marian Osborne. Scouts honored were Misses Barbara Goodnight and Martha Skelly. The presentations were made by Misses Jeneane Price, Martha Skelly and Jo Crinklaw.

Toastmaster of the banquet was Senior Scout Martha Skelly. The flag ceremony was led by Miss Mary Ann Wright, and Miss Pat Dial gave the invocation. Group singing was led by Miss Celia Fowler.

During the business session, led by Layne, members of the nominating committee were voted on as well as the distribution of funds from the sale of GS cookies.

A short talk on the Patrol Troop Encampment, held during the summer near Medina, was given by Miss Martha Gordon.

The program, "Songs Around The-World," included Girl Scout songs from Burma, Columbia, Switzerland, France and an American Indian song, by Troops 42, 23, 22-24, and 54. A trio, composed of Misses Martha Skelly, Celia Fowler and Jo Crinklaw, accompanied by Miss Mary Ann Wright, sang "Our Chalet Song" in French. "Taps" in Spanish, French, German and English was read by Misses Martha Gordon, Becky Skelly, Vicky Osborne and Jo Crinklaw. Pat Dial gave the benediction.

Arrangements for the banquet were under the direction of the Senior Scouts with Miss Mary Ann Wright as chairman. Other committee heads were Miss Heidi Schneider, menu; Miss Wand Skelly, program; Miss Jo Crinklaw, banquet theme; Miss Vicky Osborne, tickets; and Miss Jeneane Price, publicity.

More than 450 persons attended the event.

GSA Chief Denies Brokers Got Fee

WASHINGTON —UP— General Services Administrator Edmund F. Mansure emphatically denied that he recommended the insurance brokers who received a fat fee from federal expansion of a nickel plant.

However, Mansure said he wanted "a Western firm and someone friendly to the party-friendly to the administration" to get the brokerage fee for the contract. Balmer and Moore, a Chicago firm, fitted these specifications.

Mansure said he had known William Balmer, a member of the firm, for years through friendship, business and politics. Balmer was chairman of the GOP executive committee in Chicago, he said.

Randall Cremer, vice president of Frederick Snare Corp., which shared the $43 million building contract with Merritt Chapman and Scott, said Mansure recommended the Balmer and Moore Co.
