Commiss Refuse Food For Hungary

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG
 VIENNA, Nov. 10 (UP)—Hungarian Communists today turned back a shipment of Western food and medicine for the wounded starving in Budapest.

The puppet Hungarian regime set up "terror courts" to deal with captured rebels whose 18-day-old revolt was dying out amid starvation and chaos.

Thousands of Hungarians from southern and central towns fled through bursts of bullets at the border to find haven in free Austria. Entire villages risked death to flee.

BULLETIN
 UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Nov. 10 (UP)—Hungary's puppet government informed the United Nations Saturday night that it is weighing the UN request to send an investigating team into the country.

Civilian support for the dying rebellion was reported waning.

No fighting was reported today in Budapest where apparently only isolated rebel snipers held out against Soviet tanks.

Set up Flying Courts
 The government of puppet premier Janos Kadar, who was reported to be purged for failing to restore order, issued a series of decrees establishing "flying courts."

Radio Budapest said they would deal with murder, arson, theft and "all crimes resulting from unauthorized possession of arms."

The radio continued to broadcast appeals for workers to end the general strike. Calling off the strike, the radio said, was a condition to the government promise to try to arrange for a Soviet troop withdrawal.

The radio said some Soviet aid was being flown into Budapest for the needy. But a Western shipment was rejected on technical grounds.

Refuse Red Cross Aid
 Despite the admitted lack of food in Budapest, the Communists at Klingenbach on the road between Vienna and Sopron, Hungary, refused to let a convoy of 30 international Red Cross trucks go through with food, medical supplies and doctors for the city.

The guards insisted that all Red Cross aid would have to be channeled through Yugoslavia and be inspected for arms or "fascist agents."

An international Red Cross spokesman said the Hungarian legation at Vienna had agreed to appeal to the Budapest government to change the order. Shipping through Yugoslavia would require a long detour.

The Budapest radio said the Russians themselves were bringing in relief supplies and that 10 plane-loads had arrived today.

However, recent dispatches said the Russians were using starvation as a weapon. Soviet armor blocking all roads to the city prevented farmers from bringing in food.

But it was reported that the Soviets, unable to end the general strike by 8 million Hungarian workers, finally were forced to hand over 100 trucks to bring in some supplies.

The Communists said looting was rampant in the city, particularly in the shattered eighth district where the rebels made two valiant stands in the Kilian barracks against Soviet tanks and artillery.

The chaos was driving refugees across the border at many points. Austrian authorities reported 2,200 made it to freedom Friday. By late Saturday afternoon, another 1,700 had reached safety.

The government apparently was unable to stop the flights, despite orders to border guards to shoot. Indications grew that Moscow was fed up with the activities of the Kadar regime and would purge him.

His name has not been mentioned by Budapest radio in several days.

Suez Canal Police Force Is Assembling In Naples

Military Masses In Red Korea

SEOUL, Nov. 10 (UP)—The Republic of Korea reported a Communist military buildup along the truce line in North Korea Saturday and government leaders met in emergency session to decide whether a new attack threatened.

Gen. Lee Heng Kun, South Korea's army chief of staff, reported trucks had been moving southward in North Korea for two weeks carrying weapons and ammunition for the 700,000-man Chinese-North Korean army.

South Korea's army, navy and air force stayed on war-alert for the fourth successive day. All leaves have been cancelled for the armed services and national police.

The republic's state council met with the chiefs of staff to study intelligence reports. They refused to comment afterward but high officials took Saturday afternoon off, apparently indicating they did not expect an immediate attack.

A spokesman at U.S. Eighth Army headquarters said he had no official information of the North Korean buildup reported by the POK army.

In Tokyo, a spokesman for the Far East and United Nations command said no special alert orders had been issued and regular work schedules, holidays and leaves are continuing.

(At Yokosuka, Japan, a spokesman for the U.S. Far East naval headquarters said no alert has been ordered but the Western Pacific fleet is being strengthened by moving up the sailing dates of ships leaving the United States to replace ships in the Far East on regular rotation schedule.)

In Panmunjom, the United Nations Armistice Commission met to hear North Korean charges that two ROK planes violated North Korean air space.

Airlift Speeds Move Of Advance Guard

By DANIEL F. GILMORE
 LONDON — UP — The first units of a United Nations police force began assembling in Naples Saturday on an urgent mission to occupy the Suez Canal zone and prevent a general war in the Middle East. An American airlift sped the advance guard of the 6,000-man international police force to a staging area in Italy.

The movement began as Russia warned it would send "volunteers" to Egypt unless Britain, France and Israel pull their troops from Egyptian soil in favor of the UN armed force.

Giant U. S. "Flying boxcars" airlifted 100 Danish and Norwegian soldiers to Naples. From there, Swiss planes were expected to fly the advance contingents to the Suez Canal zone as soon as Egypt gives formal clearance—probably Sunday. The Egyptian government today accepted the police force in principle.

Touchy Situation
 Officials said the American part of the airlift would end in Italy because the arrival of U.S. transport planes on Egyptian soil might create a "touchy" situation.

Additional contingents for the international force were expected to follow within the next 48 hours from the Scandinavian countries, Colombia, Canada and India.

(Big U. S. troop carriers flew from Charleston, S. C., today en route to Bogota, Colombia to carry the first of an estimated 1,000 Colombian troops to Italy.)

Britain, France and Israel have promised to withdraw their troops from Egypt as soon as the international police force takes over effective control.

Report New Landings
 But a Soviet statement, broadcast by the official Tass news agency, said reports of fresh Anglo-French troop landings at Port Said "indicate the British and French governments do not intend to withdraw their troops from Egypt."

The Soviet warning followed a series of reports that Russian warplanes were being supplied to Arab Middle East nations.

United Nations Ends Session

By BRUCE W. MUNN
 UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Nov. 10 (UP)—The United Nations General Assembly ended its unprecedented dual emergency sessions Saturday with prospects of success in averting a major war in the Middle East.

At the same time the world assembly's efforts to help free Hungary were balked by Russia's refusal to get out of the embattled country.

The assembly placed both the Hungarian and Middle East crises on the agenda of the regular 1956-assembly session, which opens Monday. By labeling them "matters of priority" the assembly made it possible for debate on the two problems at any time without preliminary discussion in committee.

The action was routine. But the session that produced it brought a new denunciation of Russia from the United States and others, a Soviet charge that the Hungarian revolt, and a warning from Israel about the reported buildup of the Kremlin's military strength.

Two Hectic Weeks
 In two hectic weeks of nearly continuous sessions and consultations involving both the assembly and the Security Council, the United Nations had:

1. Achieved a cease-fire in the Israeli-Egyptian fighting in which Britain and France intervened.
2. Obtained agreement of Israel, Britain and France to withdraw their forces from Egypt.
3. Established an international police force, comprising initially troops from seven countries, to be stationed in Egypt from the Suez Canal to the Israel-Egypt frontier. First units of that force began moving toward Egypt today.
4. Laid the groundwork for a new appraisal of the Palestine question with hope of negotiating (See SESSION, Page 3)

Hotel Sales Kick-Off Is Friday Night

The general sales campaign for a modern community owned hotel in Pampa will be kicked off at 7 p.m. Friday in the Palm Room when all members of the general sales force and the executive committee will meet for dinner.

It is the plans of those directing the sales campaign to complete the general sales phase of the campaign by Nov. 23.

It is hoped that Pampa citizens will purchase stock in the hotel as early as possible so that the goal of $800,000 in stock can be sold by the final date to assure a modern hotel in Pampa in the near future.

Stock in the hotel can be purchased on a time payment plan. A payment of ten per cent can be made with the signing of the stock purchase agreement and ten per cent will be payable the first of each month beginning in January.

If the campaign is not successful and the executive committee decides that it is impossible to build the hotel all money paid in on stock subscriptions will be refunded.

The executive committee announced at its meeting last Friday that a total of $217,500 in advance stock subscriptions has been received. This is lower than a figure previously reported but it was explained that this figure was only those subscriptions on which a signature had been obtained. The earlier figure included prospective subscribers that had not signed agreements.

A meeting at noon Monday in the Palm Room by members of the executive committee is expected to raise the amount of stock sold as members of the group report on the progress of their sales efforts of the weekend. The executive committee hopes to account for $500,000 of the stock sales.

Group managers of the general sales force will meet at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday to reserve names of prospective subscribers for sales people in their group to contact. A final check-up rally of the sales group will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Palm Room.

'Harmony Week' Is Proclaimed By Boyd

Mayor Lynn Boyd signed the proclamation Friday afternoon which proclaimed this week as Harmony Week in the City of Pampa.

The Mayor signed the document at a meeting with James Evans, president of the Society For The Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing In America, Inc.; Howard Buckingham, vice president of the organization; and John C. Schwind, chairman of the annual "Parade of Quartets".

The "Parade" is the tenth one sponsored by the Top O' Texas chapter of the SPEBSQSA, and is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 17.

The proclamation reads as follows:

WHEREAS, for the past ten years the City of Pampa has been active in the field of barbershop quartets, and

WHEREAS, such barbershop quartet harmony has furnished many hours of recreation and entertainment to the participants and inhabitants in Pampa, Texas, and

WHEREAS, it has become a custom for the local quartets to sponsor a show in Pampa, Texas, and

WHEREAS, their tenth annual show in Pampa is scheduled for November 17th, 1956.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lynn Boyd, Mayor of the City of Pampa, Texas, do hereby proclaim the week beginning November 11th as HARMONY WEEK in the City of Pampa, Texas, and do urge every citizen to take time out from their duties to observe the same.

Given under my hand at Pampa, Texas, this 9th day of November, 1956. s-Lynn Boyd, Mayor

Included in the entertainment, to be provided by the Society at the "Parade" this coming Saturday night, will be "The Big Four", from Chillicothe, Ill. This act is comprised of four women who together comprise over 500 pounds of harmony. Also included will be "The Desertines" of El Paso, the Caprookers from Lubbock, and Pampa's own Million Trio.

The program will be held in the Junior High School Auditorium and will start promptly at 8 p.m.

Navy Aircraft Reported Lost

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Nov. 10 (UP)—A U.S. Navy flying boat carrying a crew of 10 and powerful enemy detection equipment was reported missing over the Atlantic Saturday during a routine patrol.

Navy officials said they did not know whether the missing plane was the same aircraft a Liberian freighter reported had exploded and crashed in flames into the storm-tossed sea Friday night.

The flying boat disappeared a few hours after the "very mysterious" crash of the Navy's second four-jet seaplane Martin long-range Seamaster bomber in Maryland.

Six naval planes were sent out to search for the missing Martin. The "Desertines" of El Paso, the Caprookers from Lubbock, and Pampa's own Million Trio.

The program will be held in the Junior High School Auditorium and will start promptly at 8 p.m.

Three Cases Filed In District Court

A suit was filed in 31st District Court yesterday morning for the amount of $35,500, by J. W. Helbert against Claude Ridens of Canadian.

The suit is the latest development in the collision Oct. 18 of two cars of which one was driven by Helbert and the other by Ridens in which one man was killed and several others, including Helbert, were injured.

In his petition, filed Nov. 9, Helbert stated that as a result of injuries sustained in the Oct. 18 accident on Highway 60, just west of Pampa, his entire body was injured and that he has been unable to work and earn money since.

The accident occurred while both cars were heading west on 60 when the car driven by Ridens hit the one driven by Helbert from the rear.

As a result, Helbert claims that he suffered a broken leg, fractured pelvis, and other multiple bruises, adding that he has since suffered excruciating pain both physically and mentally.

No date has been set for a hearing.

Two other cases were filed in District Court and one was a dismissal of a suit for $2043.50 by F. E. Bull against the West Texas Construction Company. The case was settled out of court.

The other case was a default judgement against the P. K. Supply Inc. of Amarillo by Homer Doggett.

Farmer Finds $35,000 In Counterfeit Money

WEATHERFORD, Tex., Nov. 10 (UP)—Thirty-five thousand dollars in counterfeit bills that a dairy farmer discovered in a ravine turned out Saturday to have been printed on the same press as nine phoney $100 bills that were found in the pocket of a dead Fort Worth lawyer.

The lawyer was Robert Keller Jr., 31, killed with his bride and a pilot last August when a plane crashed near Fort Mansfield. Keller and his bride were bound for Monterey, Mexico, and a second honeymoon.

Secret Service agents thought that whoever dumped the $35,000 in counterfeit bills on the farm of Oscar Womack, a 27-year-old dairy farmer, may have been scared by the finding of the counterfeit money in Keller's pocket. They believed the money was made around Fort Worth.

Keller's name cropped up again when the River Oaks State Bank collapsed in mid-October. Bank examiners said at the time they were interested in Keller's financial affairs.

Estimate By Banker
 Fred Measures, vice president of the First National Bank at Weatherford, said he counted $35,000 worth of the counterfeit bills. (See FARMER, Page 3)

Borgan Sentenced On DWI Charge

James Elbert Lemons, 34, of Borger was fined $100 plus costs and given 3 days in jail in County Court Friday afternoon on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Lemons was arrested by the Sheriff's department at 8:45 p.m. on Nov. 8, about four miles west of Pampa on Highway 152 after he had been involved in an accident with a 1951 Cadillac owned by Earl Wall of Skellytown.

Damage to Wall's car is at this time unknown, while that of Lemons' car, a 1949 Ford, was almost a total loss.

Before being tried, Lemons had entered a plea of guilty.

Firemen Answer Two Fire Calls

Two alarms were received by the local fire department Saturday.

The first of the alarms was at 12:50 p.m. in answer to a call reporting a fire in the 800 block of S. Russell. A bull wheel from an oil well pumping unit was on fire and flames answering the call reported that no damage resulted from the fire.

The second fire was reported at 2:30 p.m. A grass fire at 118 S. Purviance was put out without any damage to surrounding buildings.

Policeman Shot By Fleeing Carpenter

FORT WORTH, Tex., Nov. 10 (UP)—An Arlington carpenter was charged Saturday with shooting a police officer and then running over him twice with a pickup truck.

The charges, of assault with intent to murder, were filed against Hollis G. Thom.

The officer was Motorcycle Patrolman Eddie J. Kellher, 28. He was still alive Saturday but his condition was described as very critical.

Detective Sgt. T. M. Woods said Kellher was shot twice Friday after he stopped Thom for speeding. He was wounded in the left shoulder and in the back.

Then, it was alleged, Thom backed his truck over the officer as he lay wounded on the ground, and then shifted gears, ran over the officer a second time and sped away.

Thom was arrested by a police unit following a chase in which officers fired into the truck.

State Department Issues Warning

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 (UP)—The State Department warned Americans Saturday against volunteering for service with foreign forces in the Middle East.

The penalty, the department said in answer to inquiries, is loss of citizenship. Officials said they had received inquiries from a number of citizens who have asked whether they could join military forces either of Israel or Arab nations.

Russia Will Help Egypt

By HENRY SHAPIRO
 MOSCOW, Nov. 10 (UP)—Russia Saturday threatened to put "great numbers of trained volunteer pilots, tank and artillery reservists into Egypt unless Britain, France and Israel withdraw from the country."

A statement issued by the official Tass news agency repeated the Soviet determination to use force if necessary to crush "aggressors" in the Middle East.

It said "appropriate authorities of the USSR would not hinder the departure of Soviet citizen volunteers" for Egypt if the three powers refuse to heed the United Nations appeal to quit the country.

The Soviet Union said it would use both volunteers and would carry out the action signalled by Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin in his Nov. 5 letters to Britain and France warning that Russia was prepared to resort to force to end Mideast aggression.

It charged that only two days ago, "the situation in the Near East was such that military action against Egypt could spread to other areas as well." It singled out France for special denunciation for waging a "colonial war" against the "unarmed people of Algeria."

Conducting A Hotel Campaign Takes Experienced Personnel As Leaders

By FRED M. PARKER
Pampa News Staff Writer

The idea of a community owned hotel in Pampa is not a new one. As far back as 1949 work was begun by the Chamber of Commerce on plans to build a modern hotel somewhere in Pampa to adequately serve the people who visit our community.

In 1949 a survey was conducted by the Hockenbury System of Harrisburg, Pa., and the results of that survey proved that Pampa was in need of modern hotel facilities and that citizens of Pampa believed that it could be built through community cooperation.

The Korean conflict brought an end to plans to build the hotel at that time due to the world situation and the shortage of materials.

About the first of this year the idea of a community owned hotel was brought up again by businessmen of Pampa and the Chamber of Commerce appointed a special committee to check on the possibilities at that time.

After much study it was the opinion of the committee that the plan for building a hotel should be further studied by the Hockenbury System, Myron D. Hockenbury, head of the firm, was requested to make another survey to bring the facts up-to-date.

As a result of this new survey it was decided to retain the Hockenbury organization for the purpose of conducting a stock raising campaign in Pampa for the purpose of securing funds to build a modern hotel, adequate to serve the needs of Pampa.

Why did Pampa businessmen hire a professional firm to conduct the campaign? Why spend this money instead of having local people head the campaign?

The answers to this question are varied and have been obtained by this writer from various places. Most of the answers have been obtained by listening to members of the executive committee of the hotel group discuss various topics at meetings of the group. Other answers were obtained from those men who are heading the local efforts for the Hockenbury System.

By compiling over a period of time these answers it is impossible to remember the names of all of the persons who have given the answers.

One of the main reasons given by local leaders of the hotel movement to the answer of why they hired a professional firm is that of "We wanted a tried and true method."

In explaining this they stated that they knew that the method employed by the Hockenbury System would work, it has been used successfully in over 200 hotel campaigns, and that if local personnel conducted the campaign many mistakes would probably be made that would result in the loss of time and considerable money.

The solution was the hiring of Hockenbury for the conducting of the campaign.

At this point we should explain that local representatives of the Hockenbury System will receive no salary for their work unless the stock selling campaign is successful and the executive committee decides to build the hotel. If it is the decision of the executive committee that the campaign was unsuccessful the only expenses that will be paid for by local people will be the actual local expenses incurred by the campaign. All expenses will be paid for by members of the executive committee.

If the campaign is unsuccessful all money paid in by people buying stock will be refunded in full.

So much for what will happen if we don't get a hotel. If those local men and women who are working on the stock sales campaign have their way it will be a success. It all depends on the rest of us if it is a success. We must buy stock in this thing if we ever hope to have a hotel we can point to with pride.

Other reasons for hiring a professional firm to conduct the campaign are: local business men do not have the time to devote to the campaign to the extent needed, it is a full time job and must be necessarily have someone spending 100 per cent of their time on the campaign; conducting of a campaign of this nature is highly specialized and needs someone with training to conduct it, what person in Pampa has the technical training and experience to conduct a campaign of these proportions?

Some of the bigger tasks involved in preparing for the campaign are:

1. The compiling of a list of between three and four thousand names of prospective subscribers so that workers on the general sales campaign will have people to see.

2. Mailing information and printed matter to this list of people to acquaint them with the plans for a community owned hotel for Pampa.

3. Making arrangements for the necessary printing and planning the layouts of this printing.

4. The working out of facts and details concerning the cost of construction, operation and probable profits of a hotel in Pampa. This phase of the work needs someone who has had experience throughout the United States to know the overall picture of hotels in general.

5. The process of forming a sales organization and the training of the sales personnel once the group is formed. Again experience is needed so that mistakes will not be made.

6. Developing plans for the sales campaign and arousing the interest of people in the community to the needs of a hotel.

Philo C. Dix, director of the local campaign, has been associated with the Hockenbury System for over nine years and has conducted 15 successful campaigns. When this writer asked him how many campaigns have failed since he has been with the firm he answered, "None that I know of since I have been working with Hockenbury."

Dix began fund raising campaign work in 1908 and has been active since that time. If the number of successful campaigns he has conducted for various types of groups is any indication, he has learned all of the pitfalls by personal experience and should be able to set up a campaign here that will mean success to this community venture.

The proof of the pudding is in the eating. We have secured a group of directors who are experienced in this type of work and have a group of local citizens who are spending many hours each day on the hotel.

Another rich man faced a similar situation in 1928. Herbert Hoover had just led the Republican Party to an election triumph which reduced the Democratic Party to impotent minorities in Congress. Mr. Hoover won the White House. There had not been a Democratic president or Congress elected since 1916.

Mr. Hoover had defeated Alfred E. Smith of New York. Smith's choice for chairman of the Democratic National Committee was John J. Raskob. Raskob was rich, possessor of large quantities of General Motors and DuPont stock. His committee, after the 1928 campaign, was just about bankrupt.

Raskob put up the preliminary funds with which the Democrats began in 1929 a smartly engineered campaign. That campaign enabled them to come back a long way in the 1930 election and to sweep to triumph with Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1932. Raskob put up the money, enabled the Democratic National Committee, for example, to hire the late Charles Michelson as publicity director.

Michelson did not, however, direct publicity so much as he set a new pace for hard-hitting attacks on the Republican Party in power. Michelson was so good that senators and others soon were competing for the privilege of delivering as their own the speeches he wrote.

Raskob may have been less interested in who got the 1932 Democratic presidential nomination than he was in unhooking the Democratic Party from its paralyzing commitment to the 18th Amendment and national prohibition. He did not obtain Smith's renomination in 1932, but Raskob had the satisfaction of seeing the Democrats go into that presidential campaign with a wet candidate and a wet platform.

Raskob in 1929 contributed to the Democrats both money and shrewd political know-how. The next couple of years seem to offer a wonderful opportunity for somebody, especially somebody with money in hand. Gov. Harriman has it in abundance.

Demo National Committee Is Busted-Financially

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Democratic National Committee is busted financially, that is—and there sits Gov. Averell Harriman up there in Albany, N. Y., with all of that Union Pacific stock. Moreover, the governor would like to be president of the United States.

Their various facts seem to have some relationship to each other. For example, Harriman is reported to believe that his 1956 reach for the Democratic presidential nomination was frustrated to a considerable extent by the Democratic National Committee. Some persons believed the committee was stacked for Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois.

However that may be, it was not stacked for Harriman, although former President Harry S. Truman was loud in his corner. It is reported now that Stevenson shortly will book himself for a series of fund raising speeches, the proceeds to go to the committee. That could make up the 1956 campaign deficit, but another campaign is coming in 1958, preliminary to a general congressional election.

Another rich man faced a similar situation in 1928. Herbert Hoover had just led the Republican Party to an election triumph which reduced the Democratic Party to impotent minorities in Congress. Mr. Hoover had defeated Alfred E. Smith of New York. Smith's choice for chairman of the Democratic National Committee was John J. Raskob. Raskob was rich, possessor of large quantities of General Motors and DuPont stock. His committee, after the 1928 campaign, was just about bankrupt.

Raskob put up the preliminary funds with which the Democrats began in 1929 a smartly engineered campaign. That campaign enabled them to come back a long way in the 1930 election and to sweep to triumph with Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1932. Raskob put up the money, enabled the Democratic National Committee, for example, to hire the late Charles Michelson as publicity director.

Michelson did not, however, direct publicity so much as he set a new pace for hard-hitting attacks on the Republican Party in power. Michelson was so good that senators and others soon were competing for the privilege of delivering as their own the speeches he wrote.

Raskob may have been less interested in who got the 1932 Democratic presidential nomination than he was in unhooking the Democratic Party from its paralyzing commitment to the 18th Amendment and national prohibition. He did not obtain Smith's renomination in 1932, but Raskob had the satisfaction of seeing the Democrats go into that presidential campaign with a wet candidate and a wet platform.

Raskob in 1929 contributed to the Democrats both money and shrewd political know-how. The next couple of years seem to offer a wonderful opportunity for somebody, especially somebody with money in hand. Gov. Harriman has it in abundance.

A Historical Likeness

Another rich man faced a similar situation in 1928. Herbert Hoover had just led the Republican Party to an election triumph which reduced the Democratic Party to impotent minorities in Congress. Mr. Hoover won the White House. There had not been a Democratic president or Congress elected since 1916.

Newest Buick Yet

WE'VE introduced a lot of new Buicks to the local scene—but never before one as new as this.

Inside and outside, top to toe, end to end—this is the newest Buick yet.

And it's not just new for newness itself—but new in ways that make driving more comfortable, safer and more fun.

You'll see what we mean when you study these gorgeous new Buicks close up.

They're inches lower and stunningly styled from stem to stern—yet each is wondrously roomy inside.

They bring a wide-eyed new visibility of the road ahead with a rakish windshield that adds hundreds more square inches of glass area.

They're new in ride, with a new contour frame chassis that "nests" your going—giving new roadability with a lower center of gravity—yet road clearance is unchanged.

They're new in handling with a new Buick-developed ball-joint suspension that makes steering and cornering easier while it levelizes braking.

But above and beyond all else—these 1957 Buicks are brand new in performance:

—with a V8 engine that's new from the crankshaft up, to give you the highest power and compression in all Buick annals.

—with an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo* that brings you such instant response, such smoothness, such a full range of fluid motion in "Drive" that the need for "Low" is all but eliminated.

All this covers only the big advances in the 1957 Buick.

There are other wonderful new things—the new safety instrument panel—the new color-mate interiors—the new counterbalanced brake pedals—well over a hundred and fifty new features in all.

As your Buick dealer, we're ready to show you these newest Buicks yet—and how easy you'll find it to call one your own. Stop in and see us this week.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick built today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Ruth Adcock Elected Harvester Band Queen

By BILL ATKINSON
Little Harvester Editor

Highlighting the half-time activities at the Pampa-Plainview football game in Harvester Park yesterday was the crowning of the 1956-57 Pampa High School Band Sweetheart, Ruth Adcock, by Kenneth McWaters, band president.

All senior girls were eligible for the title of Band Sweetheart. The recipient of the honor was chosen by a secret ballot of band members last week.

Girls receiving the highest number of votes were Euleen Moore, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Waldon Moore; Betty Lou Overall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Overall; and Ruth Adcock, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Adcock.

Escorting the girls between the Green and Gold band ranks were members of the band. Miss Moore was on the arm of Charles Bowen; Miss Overall was escorted by Jerry Carlson; and Miss Adcock was escorted by Kenneth McWaters.

Kenneth presented the Sweetheart with a musical lyre bouquet and the traditional kiss. The other attendants were presented Harvester Mums, compliments of the band.

The PHS Band is under the direction of W. E. Tregoe and is led through its half-time activities by Jimmy Goff, drum major.

- Called on Russia thrice — with no response — to get its army out of Hungary and cease intervention in the free Hungarian revolt.
- Authorized an investigating team to determine actual conditions in Hungary.
- Called, with little prospect of getting them, for free elections in Hungary under UN auspices once peace and order are restored.
- Set up a program of humanitarian assistance to supply food and medicine to the beleaguered Hungarians and to aid the thousands of refugees fleeing the country.

in good shape and perhaps $10,000 more in fragments.

He said the money was brought in by Womack and his mother, Mrs. Annie Womack, 50.

Mrs. Womack had the money tied in a yellow scarf and put it on Measure's desk. "What do you think of this?" she asked as the ends of the scarf came loose and the money scattered over the desk.

Measures turned over one of the bills. "I think it's counterfeit," he said.

Measures said Womack, a quiet reserved person, didn't blink. "Well, I've got to buy some hay and get back to milking," Womack said.

Bills Found in Mud

The dairy farmer found the bills as he walked along a ravine. He picked up one $100 bill, partly buried in mud. Then he spotted another. Soon he had an armful and called his mother.

They found $100 bills all around. Gathering up perhaps two gallons of the bills they drove to Weatherford and presented their find to Measures.

The bank vice president said the money was printed on good grade paper and the face side bore a good impression. But he said the green was smudged and serial numbers were duplicated.

Money was unloaded by someone in a hurry. He said the ravine was 100 yards from a highway.

Fire Burned Itself Out

It was believed the money was piled on top of debris and set on fire. But the fire, probably left unattended, went out after partly burning the bundle of counterfeit bills. Recent rains stirred the money up and spread it along the bank of the ravine.

Measures turned the money over to Leo Williams, Secret Service agent from Dallas Saturday. Williams said it was printed on the same press as the bills Keller had.

The banker said the discovery stirred up a ripple of excitement and that many persons went out to the farm and hunted money Friday night by flashlight.

But he said Womack remained among the least excited and seemed more concerned about getting home and taking care of his cows than in unraveling the mystery of the bogus money.

PORT SAID, Egypt, Nov. 10 (UP)— Papette is a sailor lady with a boy friend in every port. The black and white terrier mascot of the French destroyer escort Soudanais is as salty as the Tars she sails with. She swims in the Mediterranean with them, and never misses the final leave boat when in port.

En route to the Port Fuad invasion, Papette gave birth to two puppies—now named Nasser and Naguib. All three made and survived the invasion.

Texas Game Time Coming Up Soon

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 10 (UP)—An estimated 100,000 deer, about double previous predictions, will be bagged in Texas' big game season opening Nov. 16, Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission, forecast Saturday.

Other estimates placed the state's combined deer population at 750,000 animals.

Dodgen said surprisingly well-conditioned deer herds will offer prime hunting.

Field reports reflected the fleet footed animals' characteristic ability to withstand extreme drought. The deer were reported "getting fat" on a substantial acorn crop and green growth resulting from recent bountiful rains.

Kiwanians Hear A Cappella Choir

The A Cappella Choir once more presented the highlight at Friday's noon luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club.

The music was highly enjoyed by all the members in attendance, and the hope was expressed that they might come back in the near future.

This month's Junior Kiwanian, Johnny Nutting, was introduced by Clifton McNeely.

Melvin Clark, chairman of the Back-To-Church campaign, reported that the number of church attendants is at the present time $1,800. This is 1800 over the goal set which was 50,000. Last year's goal was 45,000.

Tag Team Bout Slated Monday

A tag team match will be the headline attraction of the Pampa Shrine Club's weekly wrestling show at the Top o' Texas Sportsman's Arena Monday night.

Matches get underway at 8:15 p.m. Admission is $1.50 for ring-side seats, $1.25 for reserved seats, 90 cents for general admission and 50 cents for children. Tickets are on sale at Modern Pharmacy and will be on sale at the arena Monday night.

Tommy Phelps teams up with El Diablo to take on the dangerous duo of Roger Mackay and the Golden Terror. It will be a two out of three falls event with a one-hour time limit.

In the second event, Bob Geigel battles big Bob Orton in a two out of three falls, 45-minute limit bout. Roger Mackay and El Diablo will go at it in the opener in a one-fall, 20-minute limit match.

Review Board Held Friday

An Eagle Board of Review was conducted Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the City Commission room to review Billy Neslage, Boy Scout from Troop 14 on the requirements of becoming an Eagle.

W. A. Morgan, serving as chairman of the review, started the review by introducing members of the reviewing committee.

Rufe Jordan reviewed the citizen responsibility and its meaning throughout life.

Kay Fancher reviewed the leadership responsibilities and emphasized the need for leaders in all phases of activity. Don Cain reviewed the Scouting Spirit with emphasis on the Scout Oath and Scout Law. He pointed out the importance of self analysis through meaning behind the Oath and Law, that every Scout should live by.

Rev. Ronald Hubbard reviewed the Scouts future in pointing out the application of the Scouting spirit in all future activities.

Bill Neslage will join with Scott Hahn who recently was reviewed in the same manner for the Eagle rank.

The presentation of these Eagle Awards will be made at a District Court of Honor to be held in Pampa on Monday Dec. 10 at 7:30 p.m.

All troops are requested to turn in their advancement by Dec. 5th who wish to participate in this Court of Honor, according to W. A. Morgan, advancement chairman of the Santa Fe District.

Texans Go To Polls Tuesday

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 (UP)—The Defense Department kept a close watch on the Israeli-Jordan border Saturday night as the next potential explosion point in the Middle East.

A spokesman said tension is so acute the department "would not be surprised if shooting broke out there in the next few days" even though the Suez Canal zone situation is less ominous.

Checks Mailed To Texas Youths

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 10 (UP)—Checks totaling $210,140.22 have been mailed to Texas boys and girls who participated in junior livestock and poultry auction sales during the 1956 State Fair of Texas, officials said Saturday.

The total was the largest in the history of the junior auctions at the fair, topping the previous high of $176,975 last year.

A total of 1,146 4-H Club boys and girls and Future Farmers of America took part in the livestock shows and sales.

Aline Gives Oscar To Unusual Star

By ALINE MOSBY
HOLLYWOOD (UP)—My Oscar for the best supporting actor of the year goes to a beautiful blue-eyed star with a backside that outwiggles Marilyn Monroe and a temper more fiery than Anna Magnani's.

This star is so temperamental she is living outdoors in a cage where she hisses and honks like an antique taxicab in London.

Samantha, a big white goose with a yellow bill, almost stole one of the year's best pictures, "Friendly Persuasion," from under the well-trained noses of Gary Cooper and Dorothy McGuire. After the critics commented on Samantha's brilliant acting job (via director William Wyler), I looked up the famous bird.

The goose actress lives at Comport Animal Rentals, that rents livestock to the movies and is one of the more interesting fringe businesses in movieland.

Like Lassie, Samantha has a double who did many scenes in the picture, and both geese actually are male. One was bought from a farm in Glendora, Calif., and the other in Bellflower, Calif., after a long talent search.

"The part called for a mean goose who was good-looking and that's not easy to find," explained Lionel Comport as he conducted a tour of his pens and cages in suburban San Fernando. "Then the goose is supposed to like only Dorothy McGuire, so for the scenes in which she feeds the bird I had to find a gentle goose that looks exactly like the mean one."

Comport painstakingly taught the two Samanthas simple "tricks" that enabled them to "act." For example, one goose was taught to waddle after anybody who runs and thus appeared to be hurrying home in the movie. The scenes in which the goose attacks little Richard Eyer were accomplished by teaching the bird to nibble grain hidden in the boy's pocket and trouser cuffs.

"The goose was supposed to be in just a few scenes but after Wyler saw what the bird could do he added many more scenes," beamed Comport.

Samantha's fellow residents are all barnyard types, Comport leaving dogs, cats and jungle beasts to other trainers. He rents cows, a comedy swagback horse, pigeons, rabbits and geese to movies and TV shows. His best customer is the "Lassie" show.

Margaret Leighton Is Three People

BROADWAY
 By JACK GAVER

NEW YORK, Nov. 10 (UP)—There are three Margaret Leightons visible in New York.

In real life, this top British stage and screen star is a very, very attractive, slim blonde of slightly above average height.

On stage at the Music Box in the first of the two plays that make up Terence Rattigan's "Separate Tables" she plays a model and looks like an outstanding beauty.

In the second play she becomes the most miserable-looking, sex-repressed, mamma-dominated female you've ever laid eyes on.

There's no mystery about the first two Leightons—the natural equipment is there. But that third one...

Vexes Star
 "It vexes me a little," said the star, "When people comment to me about that part and say what a wonderful job of makeup I do to get myself to look that way. It vexes me because I don't use any makeup at all—not even nominal street makeup."

"I just go back to the dressing room after the first play and clean off my face completely. That's all."

There is, of course, considerable more to the characterization than that. Miss Leighton slumps a little both mentally and physically, adopts an odd form of locomotion and generally gives the impression of being ready to come apart at the seams.

Dress Helps
 "The dress helps, too," she commented, referring to an almost indescribably drab affair that has less form than a gunny sack. "I looked all over London for that; finally found something that a customer had stored for a generation or so. I'm worried about it now."

You see, I wore it for two whole seasons during the London run of "Separate Tables" and we seem to be set for a good engagement here. The dress is beginning to disintegrate and I have nothing to replace it."

NEXT WEEK
 Next week Broadway gets: Guy Bolton's "Child of Fortune" Tuesday at the Royale; Robert Alan Aurthur's "A Very Special Baby" Wednesday at the Playhouse.

The musical "Li'l Abner" Thursday at the St. James.

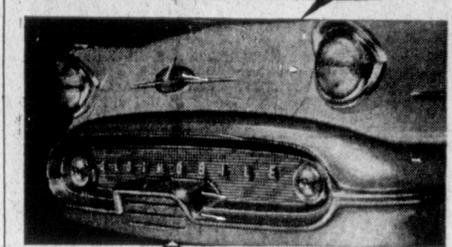

"Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?" is scheduled to close Saturday night after a run just short of 13 months.

DEATH POSES A CHALLENGE—If the usually heavy monthly traffic accident toll happens this December, the United States faces a new all-time traffic death record. The death toll (black line on Newschart) would skyrocket to more than 41,000 for the first time in history. Accident curves on Newsmap are projected at present rates for 10 years, to 1966. By then deaths will have reached 54,000, despite the fact that the death RATE, in relation to mileage, is likely to remain unchanged. Data are from National Safety Council, which is launching a traffic safety drive—"Back the Attack on Traffic Accidents"—in an effort to soften the grim picture.

Pampa Pulverizes Plainview For Smashing 54-6 Victory

Knocks Bulldogs Into 3-AAAA Cellar

By DICK COLLINS
Pampa Daily News Sports Editor

Pampa's well-groomed Split T attack struck with precision with a ground attack that amassed 380 yards as the Harvesters rolled with unexpected ease over the Plainview Bulldogs, 54-6, in Harvesters Stadium Saturday afternoon.

It was the first District 3-AAAA victory of the season and definitely threw the visiting Bulldogs in the conference cellar. Coach Jack Lockett's Fighting Harvesters now own a season mark of three victories in eight games with two big games, against Lubbock High and Berger, to go.

Pampa struck for touchdowns in every quarter and took a 34-0 lead before the Bulldogs could score. They made those six points against Harvester reserves who went into the game in the third quarter.

The Plainview defense, said to be one of the weakest in the district, could not stop the bull-like plunges of fullback Robert Langford and the smart ball-carrying of quarterback Dickie Mauldin. When those two carried the ball on successive series of downs, the Harvesters sent through Bobby Dehls, Gary Heiskell, Dale Lake, Gary Dearen, Don Bigham and Jesse Ring. Bigham picked up some good yardage when needed.

A strong Pampa defense completely bottled Plainview quarterback Jesse McGuire in the passing department and held the Bulldogs to only seven yards rushing in the first half to go with 78 in the first half. The Harvesters completed six of six passes for another 76 yards while Plainview completed only four of 17 for 35 yards. Scoring was fairly divided for the Harvesters. Mauldin added a touchdown, Bigham made one, Ring scored once, Paul Brown, added a marker, Dehls scored one and Harry Ward added another.

er, Dale Lake tallied and Langford completed the rout. Jerry Bonsor, Dehls and James Weathered were among the many Harvesters defensive men to do outstanding work. Weathered recovered a fumble and Dehls made a fine save of a Plainview pass in the end zone. Here's how the scoring went: Pampa took the opening kick and marched all of the way. Mauldin took the punt on the eight and trotted to the Plainview 46. In 11 plays the Harvesters scored with Bigham going over from the one. He added the point by a run.

Plainview punted after a series of four downs late in the first and Ring went 55 yards from the first play of scrimmage for the second quarter. It was one of the best runs of the game. Bonsor's kick from the 17, following a 15-yard penalty, was short.

Pampa went into the second quarter with a 13-0 lead. But the Harvesters soon scored again for Bonsor recovered a McGuire fumble on the Plainview 44. In six plays Pampa scored with Dearen going over from the two. Dearen fumbled the ball into the end zone where Brown jumped on it. Ward ran over the point.

Plainview attempted a pass on a fourth down situation deep in its own territory early in the second and Pampa took over on downs. Langford carried six yards to the Bulldog 27 and Mauldin passed to Lake for 27 yards and the six points alone and had no difficulty in taking the aerial. Langford added the point and Pampa led 27-0.

Weathered picked up a McGuire fumble on the Plainview 26 late in the second but Pampa handed the ball back to them two plays later. Then Pampa took a Plainview punt which was short and dead on the 20. Langford, Dehls and Bigham carried to the one where Dehls went over. Bigham ran the extra point. The half ended 34-0.

Plainview scored first in the third quarter on a 57-yard drive with McGuire passing to Bobby Huntington for 10 yards. McGuire's conversion try was low. Pampa took the punt following the touchdown and marched 68 yards for another marker with Mauldin going over left end for 14 yards to score. Bonsor's kick was wide.

Late in the fourth quarter Ward went over from 17 yards to score. The play was set up after Lake took a punt on his own 44 and went to the Plainview 37. Heiskell ran over the point with 3:40 left in the game. Twenty seconds later Langford intercepted a McGuire pass on the Plainview 25 and marched over untouched. Bonsor's kick was good.

Bobby Dehls is brought down after a gain for the Harvesters in their game with Plainview yesterday. Coming to help on the tackle are center Dick Hamilton (50), Aubrey Terrell (66) and Butch Hansard (80). Harvesters are Jerry Bonsor (57) and Dickie Mauldin (42). (News photo)

Field Goal Hands Baylor Win Over UT

By LLOYD LARRABEE

WACO, Tex., Nov. 10 (UP)—Halfback Donnell Berry kicked a 19-yard field goal in the fourth quarter Saturday to give Baylor a 10 to 7 victory over Texas in a Southwest Conference contest before 22,000 fans.

Berry shared spotlight honors with halfback Del Shofner, who raced 55 yards to score Baylor's only touchdown, and darted 47 yards to set the stage for Berry's three-pointer.

Shofner also stood out defensively as he halted a Texas scoring threat with less than two minutes to play by intercepting a pass by Longhorn quarterback Joe Clements at the Baylor 18.

Berry's angled field goal came on the second play of the fourth quarter, after Texas halted Baylor's drive on the 9. Berry, playing his first game of the season, kicked the game-winning goal on fourth down.

The two teams fought to a 7 to 7 draw at halftime.

Baylor opened the scoring on Shofner's 55-yard run on the opening play of the second period. Shofner, who also contributed a 14-yard run in the 75-yard scoring drive, circled right end and raced to the end zone, with halfback Arthur Beall converting.

Texas marched 63 yards in a sustained, 14-play drive to score on halfback Walter Fondren's one-yard pass to halfback Clair Branch. The drive was sparked by the running of Fondren and fullback Jimmy Welch, and a 17-yard pass from quarterback Joe Clements to Fondren. Fondren converted.

Score by periods:	Baylor	Texas
	0 7 0 3-10	0 7 0 0-7

Baylor scoring: Touchdowns, Shofner (55, run), Conversions, Beall. Field Goal, Berry.
Texas scoring: Touchdown, Branch (1, pass from Fondren) Conversions, Fondren.

Tech Upsets Frogs, 21-7

LUBBOCK, Tex., Nov. 10 (UP)—

Texas Tech, inspired by fullback Charles Dixon's 60-yard touchdown run in the opening minute, upset Texas Christian 21 to 7 Saturday.

The Tech Red Raiders scored in all but the third period, with their total more than TCU, defending Southwest Conference champions, had given up to any other team this year.

Dixon's scoring dash came just 33 seconds deep in the game. Quarterback Don Williams kicked the first of his three conversions and the raiders stayed ahead of the Horned Frogs all the way.

After the score, the Frogs threatened all the time, but a stubborn Raider defense halted every thrust. Tech threw back TCU on its eight, its 14 and 31 in the first quarter and on the eight in the second quarter. Outside of the lone touchdown, TCU never was a serious threat in the second half.

The Raiders marched 88 yards on 12 plays for their second quarter touchdown, with halfback Hugh Fewin plunging two yards over right tackle for the touchdown. Fullback Doug Duncan ripped off runs of 22 and 17 yards on the drive, with Williams hitting end Pat Harfield for 23 yards and a crucial first down on the 10.

TCU took the second half kickoff and marched 60 yards on 10 plays, with All-American halfback Jim Swink skirting right end for four yards and the touchdown. Late in the fourth period, TCU was stymied in its own end of the field and had to punt. The Raiders drove 68 yards for the final score, with Williams pitching a lateral to Fewin on the 15 and the fleet Raider halfback going the rest of the way.

The Raiders outgained the frogs on the ground 297 yards to 258, and through the air, 49 to 35. It was TCU's third loss of the season and Tech's second victory.

Score by periods:	Texas Tech	TCU

TCU scoring: Touchdown, Swink (4, run). Conversion, Poliard.

The third period went scoreless but early in the fourth halfback Rogers Overbey intercepted a Rice aerial and returned it 20 yards to the Rice 23. Six plays later fullback Jerry Ferguson scored for the Razorbacks from the three on a plunge.

Rice scored late in the game against Arkansas' third unit. Frank Ryan crashed over from the one.

Razorbacks Smash Rice In 27-12 Win

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Nov. 10 (UP)—Fullback Gerald Nesbitt

went 76 yards in 20 tries and ground out two touchdowns Saturday as Arkansas beat Rice Institute of Houston 27 to 12, in a homecoming day game before 25,000 persons.

Arkansas made sure its victory in the last period as Nesbitt crashed over from the three. Substitutes finished the game for Arkansas.

Nesbitt was the offensive star of the game. He was the Southwest Conference leader in rushing yardage before this game and his two touchdowns Saturday put him into the conference scoring lead.

The third period went scoreless but early in the fourth halfback Rogers Overbey intercepted a Rice aerial and returned it 20 yards to the Rice 23. Six plays later fullback Jerry Ferguson scored for the Razorbacks from the three on a plunge.

Aggies Take 33-7 Win Over SMU

By ED FITTE

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 10 (UP)—Joltin' John Crow and a horde of blushing Texas A&M backs ripped Southern Methodist's defenses asunder Saturday with a vicious running game that ground out a crushing 33 to 7 victory and moved the Aggies within sight of a Southwest Conference title.

The 200-pound Springhill, La., halfback who runs like a gazelle in an open field when he isn't crunching at the line, scored two of the touchdowns on runs of 15 and 13 yards and generally proved a thorn in SMU's side all afternoon when Aggie reserves weren't taking over the chore.

Darting Don Watson sped 23 yards for another Aggie score, reserve fullback George Gillar galloped 44 for another and Jimmy Wright flipped an eight-yard pass to end Don Smith for the fifth as the nation's fifth-rated Aggies scored twice in the first quarter and once each in the other three periods.

It was Texas A&M's seventh victory against one tie for the season and its fourth straight in league play, leaving them needing only a victory in either of its remaining games against Rice and Texas to clinch at least a tie for a championship that has eluded the Aggies since 1941.

While the awesome Aggie offense offered plenty to rave about, the Aggie defense deserved just as much credit. SMU was able to cross midfield but three times aside from the final desperation drive and two of those times the drive was blunted before it could cross the Texas A&M 40.

Quarterback Roddy Osborne, working the option play to perfection, was actually the top ground gainer in the 277 Texas A & M rushing attack, but he and Crow had help whenever called upon by Gillar, Watson, Lloyd Taylor and Jack Fardee.

The victors threw only four passes, but in keeping with their usual pattern, really made them count. They hit on all four and one of them was a touchdown strike.

The pass-happy Methodists threw 32, but most of the dozen they completed came in the final scoring drive when A&M coach Paul Bryant had cleaned his bench. Three of them were intercepted by the alert Aggie defense.

Score by periods:	SMU	Texas A&M
	0 0 0 7-7	12 7 7 7-33

SMU scoring: Touchdown, Jackson (5, run). Conversion, Gentry.
Texas A&M scoring: Touchdowns, Crow 2 (15, run); 13, run; Watson 23, run; Gillar (44, run); D. Smith (8, pass from Wright). Conversions, Taylor, Conrad, Wright.

Pampa's Dickie Mauldin is stopped by two unidentified tacklers after a short gain around end in the second quarter of the Pampa - Plainview game yesterday. On the ground in the background is Pampa's Jerry Bonsor. Coming up to help make the stop are Robert Dalton (75) and Gary Beasley (84). (News photo)

Panhandle Takes Easy 53-8 Victory Over Sunray 'Cats

By BOB PEREZ

Pampa Daily News Staff Writer

PANHANDLE, Nov. 10 — The Panhandle Panthers sent wave upon wave of players onto the playing field this afternoon to crush the Sunray Bobcats by a score of 53-8, and put a cheerful edge on the homecoming celebration of Panhandle High School Alumni.

This victory assured the Panthers of a crack at the championship title when they play Slatnett this Friday night at Slatnett. Both teams go into Friday's game undefeated in district play with the Panthers' only loss having come at the hands of Wellington in a non-district game which was their first of the season.

It was the same big cannons and hard hitting which Panhandle has shown all season when they tackled the Sunray squad, and tackled hard, Coach Bill Davis substituted liberally and cleared his bench of all players. However, the Bobcats were powerless even against the "B" squad which had scrimmaged hard all week in the hope that some of them might get into play.

Ted Addington, Lealon Adcock, and Jere Mohon accounted for most of the nearly 500 yards compiled against the Bobcats. Panhandle received the opening kickoff and in a matter of nine straight plays crossed pay dirt for the first score of the game, Mitchell drop kicked for the extra point. This was the only kick to be successful.

The kick was then to Sunray, but they ran short on downs, kicked, and Panhandle took over on their own 20 yard line. With first and ten to go Hedrich picked up the ball and skirled 80 yards for another Panther touchdown.

In the second period, Hirms scored for the Panthers from the Bobcats' 10 yard line on a drive from their own 35 in three plays. The scoring kept up in much the same fashion and at the half it was 33-0 in favor of the Panthers. The scoring parade was picked up again in the third quarter. However, before it did, Addington got trapped in the end zone and Sunray got its first score of the ball game, making the score 33-2.

This was followed up by Cator crossing the goal line with a first and goal to go situation for the Bobcats. The conversion was successful. This figure did not last long, with Addington making a 51-yard run which climaxed a two-play series which has started on the Panthers' own 46.

The depth of the Panther line was just too much on the still fighting Bobcats and Addington took the ball once more on a 66-yard jaunt from the 44 yard line, crossing the promised land once more, and once again for the extra point.

With the score now at 46-8, Coach Davis sent his "B" team in for the remainder of the game, and in one play Richards went around end from the 33 yard line and Roy Bonner, ran over for the extra point, and there it stayed with the final tally Panhandle 53, Sunray 8. Delvin Nonner, Bobby Cator, and Harvey Hickman were standouts for the Bobcats, but they just did not have the depth of field of their opponents and were unable to hold on to the ball long enough to offer any kind of a threat.

Pampa Boxers Win Three Bouts In Amarillo Meet

The Pampa Optimist Boxing Club and the Amarillo Boxing Club held the lead in victories in a four-way boxing match sponsored by Amarillo Air Force Base Friday night.

Both Pampa and ABC won three of five matches while AAFB won three and lost four and D&D Pharmacy Club of Amarillo lost its only entry.

Pampa victories by decisions went to Charles Snyder, 146, over Paul Sattin, D&D; Gary Wilhelm, 148, over Alfred Rosales, AAFB; Gary Wills, 130, over Richard Matthews, AAFB. Tommy Lamar and Larry Powell lost for the Pampa team. Lamar was decided by James Hobley of AAFB and Powell dropped a decision to Carl Danner of ABC.

A crowd of close to 2,000 watched the matches at the base gym.

Arrangements are being made to have the Guymon, Okla., boxing team here for matches with the Pampa team Nov. 23 for bouts in the Gray County Community Building.

ALL-CONFERENCE BILL PIPPIN, senior guard from Pampa, is playing his last season for the Texans A&I Javelinas. Pippin has been a mainstay in the A&I line for three years and is going after his third letter. He graduated from Pampa High School where he played football.

Stinnett Rattlers Roll Past Wheeler

Stinnett's 1955 state finalist Rattlers rolled to a 28-0 halftime lead and then slacked up in the final quarters to take a smashing 35-7 victory over the Wheeler Mustangs at Wheeler Friday night.

Brilliant quarterback Larry Dawson, who sparked the Rattlers to the Class A state finals last year, was the star for Stinnett as he ran for one touchdown, passed for another, kicked four extra points and passed for another.

An overflowing crowd of close to 2,500 watched the non-conference contest between the two district leaders. Stinnett's big test comes next Friday when it meets Panhandle for the District 1-A championship. Wheeler plays Mader at Wheeler next Friday in its try for the 2-B title. A win for Wheeler would put the Mustangs in a tie with Silverton for the lead. Stinnett scored its first touchdown only seconds after the game opened. Wheeler took the opening kick but bobbled the ball and Leslie Barrett picked it up on the 22 to go over untouched. Dawson passed to Ralph Hicks for the extra point. Seconds later Stinnett

Pittsburgh Wins Over Notre Dame

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 10 (UP)—Quarterback—Corny Salvaterra scored a touchdown, passed for another, and engineered a third 28-13 victory over Notre Dame on Saturday to lead Pittsburgh to the 28-13 victory over Notre Dame and smear the Irish with their worst season in history.

The classy senior from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., blended a crushing ground-attack with pin-point passing before 58,897 fans to give the Panthers their first home victory over Notre Dame in 20 years. The loss was Notre Dame's sixth against a single victory and surpassed their previous worst season in 1933 when they posted a 3-5-1 record.

The Panthers scored twice in the second period and twice in the final quarter. Salvaterra capped the first scoring march when he slashed over from the 11. The quarterback then threw a 110-yard touchdown pass to Joe Walton, enabling Walton to stay among the nation's leaders in touchdown passes caught with six.

In the final period, Jim Theodore climaxed a 91-yard march by plunging over on the four. The Panthers last touchdown came with Darrell Lewis' pass to Ambrose Bagamery, who scooted 44 yards behind a screen of blockers.

The Irish scored their first touchdown with 31 seconds remaining in the first half. Quarterback Paul Hornung, who harassed the Panthers all afternoon, took off on a 50-yard scoring jaunt after he was unable to spot the receiver.

Notre Dame scored a second touchdown when Bob Ward returned Bagamery's kickoff for 84 yards and a touchdown with a little more than three minutes left in the game.

McLean kicked the opening kick, an inside boot which the Tigers recovered on the 50. On the second play from scrimmage the Tigers fumbled with Canadian recovering. From the McLean 43 the Wildcats marched 87 yards for their first touchdown with Abraham plunging over center for one yard. Hill carried the extra point. Good gains by Krehbiel of eight, 20, five and four yards set up the touchdown play.

Canadian made its second touchdown with one minute left in the first quarter when Abraham intercepted a Crockett pass on his own 33 and carried to the McLean 46. Grist went six yards to the 40 and Krehbiel went over left tackle on a quick opener to speed the rest of the way untouched. The conversion was short.

Midway of the second quarter McLean got its first two points when Grist's punt was blocked and he recovered it in his own end zone. Following a McLean series of downs, the Tigers were forced to punt and the Wildcats took over on their own 12. Some long runs by Grist, Abraham and Krehbiel set the ball up on the McLean 39 where the speedy Grist went over center for the touchdown, untouched and unseen. Hill ran over the extra point and Canadian had a 20-2 halftime lead.

McLean took the second half kickoff and made its deepest penetration to that point, marching to the Canadian 29 before losing the ball on downs. Neither team was able to score in the third period but Grist soon gave the Wildcats another touchdown on a 40-yard scamper over the left side. He was untouched past the line of scrimmage. Schoenhals ran over the extra point.

McLean took the kickoff on their 15 and marched 85 yards for its one touchdown. Runs by Freddie Smith, Paul Garvin and Crockett, and numerous penalties set the ball up on the one where Smith went over right guard. The extra point try fell short. Smith made the outstanding run of the series a pickup of 17 yards when he faked a kick and ran over right tackle to the 18. McLean marched to the 14 yard line minutes later but failed to score when the clock ran out.

The crowd watched a humorous highlight scene by the Canadian band at halftime. Band sweetheart Gwanette Forrest and football queen Joyce Cleveland were crowned during halftime ceremonies.

Tippy Vann passed daringly out of the difficulty. Tech had too far to go in the remaining minutes of the fourth period.

Tennessee now has a record of seven straight victories. It was Tech's first defeat after six straight convincing triumphs. Tech had been a seven point choice in the final odds Saturday.

Sudden Score
The touchdown came with a suddenness that awed a partisan Tech crowd. Tech's Ken Owen, one of three outstanding kickers on the field, had just kicked to Majors who made a fair catch on his own 35.

The lithe 165-pound senior, whose father and mother and four brothers and sister were watching him, found Cruze on the sidelines for 15 and a first down at the Tech 46.

On the next play he fired to Cruze at the same spot. The lanky end from Knoxville reached around a Tech defender to grab the ball and cut for the middle at about the Tech 20. He legged it to the one before Owen caught him from behind, but Bronson scored on the next play.

Score by periods:
Tennessee 0 0 6 0-6
Tennessee scoring: Touchdown, Bronson (1, buck).

TURKEY, BACON and HAM SHOOT NOV. 10, 11 NOV. 10, 11 2 MILES WEST OF LEFORS MR. M. B. HARPER

CANADIAN, Nov. 9 — The Canadian Wildcats played like a championship team and not a third-place club, the position they now hold in the District 2-A race, by marching to an easy 27-7 victory over the once-victorious McLean Tigers here Friday night.

A well-rounded backfield, held together by 15-year-old sophomore quarterback Kenny Abraham, and a budding defensive line rolled to touchdowns in the first, second and fourth quarters to gain the well-earned victory.

The Tigers on the other hand failed to start marching until the last quarter and then it was too late to overcome the 27-7 Wildcat lead. Coach Hag Rogers' Tigers were hampered all night by numerous bad passes from center, one of the chief evils connected to the single wing offense.

Grady Burnett's Canadian club, which has won five of nine games this season, could not be stopped once it got an inside kick recovery out of its system. After that, quarterback Abraham, halfback Dell Krehbiel, Dennis Hill and Garner Schoenhals and fullback Johnny Grist let loose with a strong attack that gave them a 20-2 halftime lead.

Speedy and troublesome Charles Crockett did most of the ball carrying for the impotent Tigers and he carried it well. His bruising smashes into the line and on end-around plays handed the Wildcats their toughest obstacle of the night.

Giants, Cards Battle Today

By UNITED PRESS

The New York Giants, favored by seven points, battle the Chicago Cardinals for the National Football League's Eastern Division lead Sunday and the Yankee Stadium game will draw about 60,000 fans if the weather is good.

While the Cardinals and Giants (both 5-1) clash for the undisputed lead, the Detroit Lions are six-point choices to hold the Western Division lead and stretch the league's only perfect record to 7-0 by defeating the Redskins (2-3) at Washington.

The Chicago Bears (5-1), a game behind Detroit, play host to the Green Bay Packers (2-4) and are 14-point favorites to win the 76th game between these old rivals.

In the other games, the Browns (2-4) are four-point favorites to defeat the Baltimore Colts (3-3) at Cleveland; the Rams (1-5) are five-point favorites to down the San Francisco Forty-Niners (1-5) at Los Angeles; and the Eagles (2-4) are favored over the Pittsburgh Steelers (2-4) by the same margin at Philadelphia.

To Furnish Films

CHICAGO (UP)—Rose Bowl opponents will have to furnish each other two regular-season game films for next New Year's Day classic. The practice, which eliminates personal scouting, was tried out last year and found satisfactory to all hands.

Perryton Upset By Tigers, 25-22

By UNITED PRESS

The favored Perryton Rangers, already the winner of the District 1-AA football race, was upset by the Guymon, Okla., Tigers, 25-22, in a non-conference clash at Guymon Friday night.

The Tigers, who hold a 9-1 season mark and now meet Elk City for the district title, gained a 19-13 halftime lead and added one more touchdown in the third quarter for the victory.

Richard Dickerson, Joe Haynes, Ted Miller and Morris Lile scored for Guymon with Jim Lee adding an extra point.

Perryton's scoring came from Dan Pearson, Dempsey Gyger and Waymon Epps. Johnson added two conversions and the Rangers scored a safety in the third quarter.

Second-Ranked Engineers Tumble To Tennessee, 6-0

By WILLIAM TUCKER
ATLANTA, Nov. 10 (UP)—Two lightning passes out of a clear blue sky from John Majors to Buddy Cruze turned a classic defensive battle into a 6 to 0 victory Saturday for the nation's No. 3 team, Tennessee, over second-ranked Georgia Tech.

The Orange shirted Tennesseans will be yelling that they are No. 1 now and are a cinch to be invited to the Sugar Bowl despite three more tough games on their schedule.

Until Majors and Cruze connected on successive plays with six minutes gone in the third period, the nation's top football game had been a model of defense constructed by two coaching students of Tennessee's Gen. Ben McCallister, Bobby Dodd of Tech and Bowden Wyatt of Tennessee.

A crowd of 40,000 watched it unfold.

Punt Goes 72 Yards
And after that one offensive flurry, which set up an easy one-yard touchdown hurdle by fullback Tommy Bronson, Tennessee went back to defense. An incredible punt that carried 72 yards on the fly by Tennessee's third string tailback, Bobby Gordon, was the key play thereafter.

The kick set Tech back on its two and although quarterback

Topsy Vann passed daringly out of the difficulty. Tech had too far to go in the remaining minutes of the fourth period.

Tennessee now has a record of seven straight victories. It was Tech's first defeat after six straight convincing triumphs. Tech had been a seven point choice in the final odds Saturday.

Panhandle Outdoor Life

By S. V. WHITEHORN
The Panhandle Bird Dog Association recently staged one of the most successful field trials ever staged in this part of the country. The State Wildlife Refuge near Canadian furnished about the most ideal grounds available in the Panhandle. All the dogs running had ample opportunity to display their training on native birds on the grounds.

The weather was almost perfect for the canines to hunt and the scenting conditions were good. Some excellent bird dog work was displayed under the eyes of the two judges, Captain Jim Maggard of the Texas Game Department and Captain Arnold Purviance of the Oklahoma Game Department. A. E. Corbett of Ft. Worth was originally scheduled to ride in the judiciary saddle but due to last minute difficulties Mr. Corbett telephoned and stated that he would not be able to judge.

Since the boys of the club were at a loss, at the last minute, as to where to select a competent judge, Captain Maggard agreed to withdraw his two dogs, that would be entered, and help sit in the saddle for three full days of field trial judging.

Both of these two men deserve all the thanks they received for the job for that is all they received.

Deer and Turkey Seasons
The Panhandle deer and turkey season will open promptly at one-half hour before sunrise on November 17 and will last through November 24. Shooting hours will be from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset for the ten-day hunt. Bag limit will include one prong antlered buck and two gobblers. Turkey hens are not listed this year on the legal side due to the smaller number of turkeys on the range this fall.

Hemphill county will be, as usual, the center of the deer and turkey hunts for the general public due to the fact that many of the farmers and ranchers in that county have established "shooting preserves" thus allowing hunters to buy the right to hunt on their ranch. Usual price is about 10 dollars per day per hunter, however, some ranches charge 25 dollars per day. Warren Harrington, Riverside Courts, will be glad to furnish information pertaining to the hunt.

From the number of turkeys noticed in the Canadian area last week, most hunters should have good luck in bagging two gobblers.

If the bird (quail) population at the game refuge near Canadian was any way to guess, then the population is very good compared to quail population the last few years. Many of the natives in that area state that there are more quail this year than since 1951 in Hemphill county.

According to A. S. Jackson, senior wildlife biologist for the Texas Game Department in the Panhandle, there will be a number of permits issued for quail hunting on the state refuge. Probably about 60 permits will be issued through the Texas Game and Fish Commission at Austin. These permits are free if you are lucky in having your name drawn at the drawing. If you are interested, contact the Dept. at Austin at: Earl Walker.

There will be a drawing sometime in the near future to determine the hunters that will participate. Last year there were about 60 permits issued and some 500 quail harvested by hunters. Probably should there ever arise a great surplus of quail on the refuge there would be more permits issued to the Texas quail hunters. This public hunt is on the field trial grounds about six miles north east of Canadian. The official name of the ranch is the Gene Howe Wildlife Refuge, which is one of the game management areas of the Texas Game Department.

BARBARA SUE BELL, center, popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Bell was crowned Football Queen at half time Friday, Nov. 2, at Denver Field when Shamrock and Childers played ball. The Shamrock Irish Band formed a large football on the field and Miss Bell was escorted from a beautiful new car by Captain Gaston Tarbet. Her attendants were Sharon LeBlanc, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. LeBlanc, and Sue Ann Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Benson. Their escorts were co-captains Charley Brothers and Wilborn Tyler. The queen and her court marched under an arch made by the twirlers of the band who held their batons to form an arch. When they reached the center of the field, Tarbet placed the crown upon Queen Barbara's head.

Abilene, Snyder, Stamford Roll Onward; Playoff Berths Picked

By UNITED PRESS
The "big three" of Texas schoolboy football—Abilene, Snyder and Stamford—rolled on unbeaten and united today as 28 teams socked up berths in the state championship playoffs and scattered upsets kept still others from making the grade.

Abilene won its 31st straight game with a crushing 47-0 performance against Odessa to intensify its ranking as No. 1 in Class AAAA. Snyder booted Lake View 47-0 to keep its hold on the AAA No. 1 spot and defending champion Stamford of AA closed its regular schedule with its 27th in a row—a 47-0 rout of Seymour.

Philips, the No. 4 team in AAAA, was the only member of the top 10 in either of the two top divisions to topple, the Blackhaws losing 7-0 to Levelland, ranked No. 10.

Four Undefeated Fall
Phillips also was one of the four undefeated teams to meet defeat. The others were San Antonio Sam Houston, a 32-0 loser to Devine, in AA, Friendship, battered 40-0 by Sundown, and Pearshall, whipped 40-12 by Hondo, in Class A. Ysleta of 1-AAAA won the right to be Abilene's first round playoff foe (if Abilene doesn't fall in a monumental upset) for the only AAAA team to sew up a playoff spot.

Bryan won the 10-AAA berth and La Marque the 12-AAA slot with victories over Conroe and Bay City, respectively.

Move into Playoffs
Stamford from 4-AA headed the list of 13 AA teams joining Perryton, which won the right last week, in the championship lists. The others were Coleman in 7, Seagoville in 11, Terrell in 12, Gilmer in 15, Hillsboro in 17, Crockett in 18, Lockhart in 22, Navasota in 23, Liberty in 24, Floresville in 27, Devine in 28 and Hebronville in 31.

High-scoring White Oak in 16-A and Hondo in 28-A led the Class A parade of playoff climbers to join Henrietta and Groveton which also won last week. The others making the grade were Glendon in 2, Sundown in 5, Merkel in 6, Cross Plains in 8, Linden in 15, Kearsa in 18, Mart in 20, Beatrop in 26, Bishop in 31 and Los Fresnos in 32.

Galveston took over command of 11-AAAA when Port Arthur handed Beaumont High its first district loss; Graham took undisputed lead in 4-AAA by beating Breckenridge; Kilgore in 7-AAA by downing Nacogdoches; Nederland in 11-AAA by defeating Port Neches; San Antonio Edison in 13 as San Marcos beat Kerrville and Mission in 16 by downing San Benito.

Oklahoma's Tubbs Gives Forth Smile, Then—Wham
NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 10 (UP)—Jerry Tubbs, center and co-captain of Oklahoma's No. 1 football team, has a bashful smile and soft voice which is given to language no stronger than "aw, shucks!" If he's really upset, he says, "aw, shoot!"
But don't let the mild words or friendly conversation fool you, mister. Tubbs can snap the ball, wipe out a defending linebacker and move on for more shattering blocks before you can say "did-dicksticks!"
Tubbs, 205-pound senior from Breckenridge, Tex., showed his potential against Notre Dame. On Notre Dame's first offensive play, Tubbs hit quarterback Paul Hornung with a smashing tackle. The All-American reeled back on his haunches.
Calls Locker Room Meeting
That solid tackle set the tempo of a tough Oklahoma defense that held the Irish rushing to 1.9 net yards per carry. The Sooners also blocked a punt, intercepted four passes of which two went for touchdowns and blanked the Fighting Irish 40-0.
Insiders at the Oklahoma football dressing room give Tubbs much credit for Oklahoma's comeback against Colorado last week. Following the Notre Dame victory, the Sooners let down in practice.
"Sensing a crisis, Tubbs called the boys together in the locker room Wednesday night before the trip to Colorado, chased the coaches out and lectured them like a Dutch uncle," this source reports.
Tubbs is well indoctrinated by Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson.

Politics, Tension Put Aside As Olympics Near

By RICHARD VOUMARD
United Press Sports Writer
MELBOURNE, Australia (UP)—Politics and world tension were pushed aside here today for the first actual competition of Olympic athletes—a pre-Olympic track and field carnival that featured four-minute milers but not the favored American and Russian teams.
The U.S. squad apparently was not ready for racing yet, since it just arrived by plane Friday and was still in process of settling down.

Hungarian Olympians Get Moving Welcome

MELBOURNE, Australia (UP)—Sixty members of the Hungarian Olympic team received a moving welcome today by the free Hungarian colony. The athletes promptly snubbed a party of well-wishing Russian officials.
Several team members said they had taken part in the street fighting in Budapest and were determined to stay here—"if things do not change back home."
Mikhail Pesliak, assistant mission chief of the Russian Olympic team and four other chain-smoking Russian officials nervously waited in a back corner of the air terminal to shake hands with the Hungarians. But Hungarian team leaders, although told the Russians were waiting for them, curtly ordered the team to proceed and Pesliak left the airport without even having seen a Hungarian Olympian.
The waiting Hungarians and the team members freely mingled, kissing and sobbing, and together sang the old pre-Communist Hungarian national anthem, "God Bless Hungary," with the young team members only humming because they didn't know the words.
At the same time, the Council of Hungarian Associations in Australia, representing nearly 16,000 settlers, announced it has protested to International Olympic Committee President Avery Brundage of the United States and the Australian Olympic Committee's against Russia's participation in the games.

Groom Edges Vega, 14-6

Two last-quarter touchdowns provided the Groom Tigers with a 14-6 victory over the Vega Longhorns at Vega Friday night.
The Longhorns scored on a short plunge by Jack Cuable for the first touchdown of the game in the third quarter. Groom tied it up in the fourth with a 12-yard run by Gerald Hermeameyer and the Tigers went out front on Leon Anglin's conversion.
Anglin took a short pass in the fourth quarter for Groom's second touchdown and Anglin converted.

POLISH THROUGH PRACTICE—The expression on the faces of these members of the Senior High School A Cappella Choir clearly expresses the warmth and enjoyment that is in reality projected by their voices. Pampa Has Outstanding Vocal Group In The High School A Cappella Choir

By BOB PEREZ
Pampa News Staff Writer

Who'd have thought that the question I kept asking myself as I left last Tuesday's meeting of the Jaycees after hearing the A Cappella Choir from the senior high school for the first time. Who would have ever thought that in a town of this size there was talent which would illuminate in even the largest cities?

Here is a group which can give to an audience the same tingling euphoria so commonly attributed to the Norman Luboff Choir. Here we have an assemblage which can click into song at an instant with the first movement of the director's hand and cut itself off with the same split second timing.

The word A Cappella comes from the Italian and it means chapel style; that is, unaccompanied. This group does just that. Without accompaniment of any form whatsoever, save that of the director's guiding hands, they come out with the softness of a thousand violins or the thunder of a bass drum section.

To accomplish something like this takes time, and the members of the choir give it six hours a week of their time. They rehearse in sections, with the various groups meeting at different hours throughout the day, and they rehearse together. Sometimes there is the necessity of extra hours to be put in not to mention the time they must give up for their performances. This is done ungrudgingly, and, in fact, rather emphatically, for membership in this choir is a competitive thing and in order to be accepted for it all candidates must first try out.

There are always a large number of students who turn up for tryouts, but the number actually accepted is not usually in excess of 70. This means, therefore, that of all those who try for the choir, only a comparative handful of the best can be accepted. It can then be said, that this activity offers an amount of personal achievement, for it is, and should be, with pride that every member associates himself with as truly an outstanding group as this.

But now, a little bit on the director. Who is he who pulls his hair out trying to get the desired effect out of every one of his charges? Who is it that worries more than anyone else, just how the group will obey his hands, and what the audience's response will be, and who never wipes the last bit of sweat from his brow until the last note is sung and the audience's applause and expression shows him how well it has been accepted. His name is Bill Hunt.

Bill started with the choir this fall after coming from Killen where he was on the High School staff. He hails originally from Tallhina, Okla. and he lives with his wife Jane and a three year old boy at 1333 Garland. He obtained his Bachelor of Music degree at Texas Wesleyan College in Fort Worth, and is currently doing graduate work at North Texas State College.

Bill fell heir to all the headaches and minor skirmishes connected with the moulding of a precision-like crew such as he now has. Certainly it has been no easy job, and to do it he has had to overcome many problems which arise. The biggest job is that of getting every voice to blend together harmoniously. There can be no individual standouts, no individual performers. A good voice is essential, but that voice must be trained so that it can melt in with the others and together produce the desired effect of one instrument. And too, he must instill in the minds of the group a few basic rules in regard to phonetics; the idea that clarity of tone is more important than clarity of work. The consonants must, therefore, be pronounced clearly and uniformly so that the musical element does not give way to words.

It is an interesting point, I think, that whenever they rehearse, the entire group stands throughout. This, perhaps explains their well poised manner while performing before an audience. The problem of where to place their hands, has been solved long ago.

Bill is ably assisted by the officers of this group which can usually pitch in to help iron out small snags that might arise in one particular section. These are: Wayne Harrison, president of the choir; Cynthia Duncan, soprano section leader; Martha Shewmaker, alto section leader; Benny Sparks, tenor section leader; and John Lee, base section leader. All five are seniors, and, according to Bill, have really helped make his job a little easier; many times.

The A Cappella Choir performs as often as they can find a sponsor, and the money raised through these appearances is used to give a graduating senior a $100 scholarship. To this end they have also put on cake sales and various other fund raising projects whenever their appearance schedule was not heavy enough to guarantee the required amount for the scholarship.

This year's schedule is, so far, rather light, and the many open dates will be filled within the next month, in Bill Hunt's program of presenting his choir to as many people of the area as possible, and getting them the recognition they really deserve.

This is only the beginning, however, for it is very unlikely that a group as gifted and as well conditioned as this should remain in the sidelines for very long. They are, without a doubt the best ambassadors that Pampa can send in any field, for music does truly possess, as the old cliché goes, "charms that soothe the savage beast," and, I might add enlighten the most average heart.

Nichols Was Not Born To Be A Wrapper

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP) — There is a little pamphlet out called "it's easy, it's fun."

The people who put the thing out had in mind wrapping of packages, mostly Christmas bundles, which Art Summerfield's boys in the Post Office Department say ought to be mailed early. Maybe this early.

Well, wrapping anything never has been any fun for me. When it comes to putting something as simple as a blanket under wraps I run around wearing 10 thumbs, maybe 21.

I just was not born to be a wrapper.

How to Wrap
This cute little leaflet starts out on how to wrap a box.

First off comes the rectangular wrap. The rules say you are supposed to "estimate the amount of paper needed, and allow at least half an inch overlap on the back and sides."

In my circle that runs into calculus. Something that left me wanting in credits in higher learning.

From there, after allowing for overlap, the thing to do is to "center the design on the box, bring the paper around and secure on the back, paste and seal."

Simple as that. But try it!

Lip Wrap
Then there is the separate "lip wrap." All you have to do in this performance is to take an eight-year course and learn how to "cut the paper to a size that will fold over the ends and sides of lids. Bring the paper over the sides and secure (Fig. 1) fold the rest of the flaps up and over the ends of the lid."

This operation winds up, simply by wrapping the bottom of the box the way you wrapped the lid, if you ever got the lid wrapped.

We could go on and on about how the wrapping people say you ought to "tie a bow."

But I will spare you the pain. Me, I can't even tie a bow tie. And I'll probably never learn. You can buy those things in any tie shop; ones that come already tied and with hooks on them.

Many College Students Wed
FORT WORTH (UP)—About 45 per cent of the 6,115 students at Texas Christian University are married, a survey by Registrar Calvin A. Cumble disclosed. He said the survey indicated that more students are getting married while in college and that a higher percentage of newlyweds continue with their education.

MR. AND MRS. LLOYD L. WILLSON

Mary Kathryn Wooley, Lloyd L. Willson United In Marriage In Double-Ring Rite

Miss Mary Kathryn Wooley and Lloyd L. Willson were united in marriage at 2 p.m. Oct. 20, in the First Christian Church, Rev. Richard W. Crews officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wooley, west of city, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Willson, 1127 S. Clark, Pampa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lace and tulle over satin. The mounded, long-torso lace bodice that closed down the back with covered buttons was styled with a scalloped portrait neckline, accented with a tulle yoke. The long lace sleeves came to points over her hands. Her bouffant, ballerina-length skirt was of lace, accented with a pleated insert down the front.

Her scalloped, waist-length veil of illusion fell from a tiara embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a dozen white roses over a white Bible. She followed the tradition of "something old, new, borrowed and blue," and placed a penny in her shoe.

Mrs. Bob Peterson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina-length dress of pink tulle, styled with a strapless bodice and matching jacket. Her bandeau was of pink carnations, and she carried a Colonial bouquet of pink carnations tied with satin ribbon.

James Willson, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

The ceremony was performed before an altar flanked by baskets of white gladioli and candelabra. Miss Sue Williams was organist, and Mrs. Jim Webb sang "The Wedding Prayer," and "Always."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wooley wore a powder-blue wool dress with black accessories. Mrs. Willson was attired in a navy blue dress. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

For the wedding trip to Corpus Christi, the bride wore a gray wool suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white roses from her bridal bouquet.

The couple is at home at 810 N. Somerville.

The bride was graduated from Pampa High School in 1954 and is now employed by the Cabot Carbon Companies. The bridegroom attended Pampa High School and is now employed by National Tank Company.

Ruth Millett

An Arkansas candidate who failed to tell his wife that he was going to run for a public office not only lost the election — he lost his wife.

In her suit for divorce, the wife claimed that she was "embarrassed and humiliated" when newsman inquired about her husband's candidacy and she had to admit she didn't know anything about it. Husbands, take warning.

When you fail to keep your wife informed about your doings, your plans and your decisions, you hurt her in a most vulnerable spot, her pride.

No wife on earth likes to learn things about her husband from outsiders. She doesn't want to find out from anyone but him that he has made an investment, received a raise, been dickered for a new automobile, planned a fishing trip or even been elected to an office in his lodge.

Most wives don't consider it grounds for divorce to have a husband hold out information.

But they resent it just the same. And with perfect right. After all, a wife is supposed to be a husband's partner. Partners are supposed to keep each other informed.

On top of that, a woman just naturally assumes that if her husband loves her he'll want to share his life with her.

So when he neglects to tell her something she considers important, she figures her husband has let her down.

Hobart Street WMU Has Royal Program

The Women's Missionary Union of the Hobart Street Baptist Church held a luncheon and royal service program recently.

Mrs. C. C. Tackett was in charge of the program, "Joy From Wells of Salvation." Taking part were Mmes. R. Hedrick, H. Beckham, W. R. Brown, C. B. Barnes, E. Wright, E. Hulsey and J. B. Fife.

A short business session was led by Mrs. M. Keyser, president. Attending were 21 women.

Circles Of The First Methodist Church Have Mission Studies, Business Meets

Three circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service, First Methodist Church, met recently for mission study.

CIRCLE 1
Mrs. Coyle Ford was hostess to Circle 1, with Mrs. George Newberry, giving the opening prayer and leading the business session. Mrs. Melvin Stephens presented the devotional, "Parable of the Sower," and led the mission study, "Missions Between Town and Country." She was assisted by Mrs. Paul Bowers.

Guest speaker was Rev. D. D. Creedy of Cotton Center, who talked on rural work and churches. The meeting was closed with prayer. Next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Cleo Hoyler. Eight members were present.

CIRCLE 3
Circle 3 met in the home of Mrs. Don Cain, with Mrs. W. L. Rowntree leading the business session. The devotional was given by Mrs. H. H. Boynton, and the mission study, "Mission: USA," was taught by Mrs. Ralph Thomas, study leader. She compared city and rural churches.

It was announced the next meeting will be with Mrs. E. L. Campbell, 1129 Terrace. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Lloyd Hicks. Mrs. Ester Colvill was welcomed as a new member. Twelve others were present.

Mrs. W. R. Campbell, chairman, gave the opening prayer for the meeting of Circle 4, in the home of Mrs. H. B. Howse. During the business session, Mrs. R. I. Davis reported on the UNICEF project, sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance, and on the meeting of the Pampa Council of Church Women. An announcement was also made of the World Day of Prayer, to be observed Wednesday.

Mrs. J. W. Shelton was in charge of the study and discussed the work of the church with service personnel, students, prisoners and patients. Mrs. W. E. Abernathy talked on the "world's biggest audience" and stressed the power and influence of television. She also emphasized the need for more religious TV programs and told of those religious programs already held.

The circle decided to send supplies to the Migrant Center at Hereford as a result of its mission study.

Mrs. R. I. Davis presented the meditation. It was announced the next meeting will be with Mrs. J. W. Shelton, Mrs. J. C. Mosely was welcomed as a new member. Sixteen others attended.

Mrs. N. G. Kadingo reported on the revision of the by-laws of the Council of Clubs.

For the program, Mrs. Rufe Jordan spoke on the new hotel project, explaining its history, its proposed plan and women's participation in the project.

Next meeting will be at 8 p.m. Dec. 4, in the home of Mrs. K. R. Dodd, 1528 Hamilton.

Attending were Mmes. Clifford Dunham, Jerald Sims, Bill Garrett, James Mason, James Lewis, Ben White, N. G. Kadingo, Ed Lowrance, Sharon Haralson, Newt Sechrist and Bill Dodd.

Study Meeting Held By Brummett Group
Mrs. Oscar Shearer, 409 N. Nelson, was hostess to the meeting of the Brummett Group of the First Christian Church.

The devotional was presented by Mrs. H. J. Pickett, and Mrs. H. C. Groninger taught the mission study, "The Frontiers of Challenge and Change."

During the business session, it was decided to meet at 2 p.m., instead of 2:30 p.m. It was announced the December meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. H. J. Pickett, and the women voted to have a gift exchange.

The group was reminded to bring gifts for the Juliette Fowler Home and the old people's home to the Christian Women's Fellowship meeting Thursday.

Following the meeting, 79 dozen cookies were packed to send to the Juliette Fowler Home.

Mrs. Bertha Stiles was a guest, and 10 members were present.

Royal Service Given At Luncheon Meeting
The Women's Missionary Union of the Calvary Baptist Church held a royal service program recently, following a covered-dish luncheon and business session.

The program, "Joy From Wells of Salvation," was directed by Mrs. Lindon Sanders. The program features a recording, "Christian World News Roundup," made by Mmes. Wilda McGahan, Ennis Hill, James Goodwin, Bill Wright, C. R. McGahan, Frank Turpen and E. A. Gates; and Dale Hamilton.

Opening and closing prayers were given by Mrs. Hood Earp and Mrs. Lindon Sanders, respectively. Fifteen members were present.

MARRIED
Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Lewis, 1113 Terrace, announce the marriage of their daughter, Karen Dianne, to Floyd Dabbs Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dabbs of Draper, N. C. The couple, married Nov. 1, in Santa Rosa, N. M., is at home in Amarillo, where the bridegroom is stationed with the Air Force.

Mature Parent Miss Kay LeGrand And Bill Hammons United In Marriage

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
One evening Bert Fraser's father caught his mother passing him extra money to finance a date.

He blew up. "Broke again, huh?" he demanded. Flipping down the paper, he cried, "If you'd gotten yourself a job this summer instead of loafing around all day, you wouldn't have to come crying to your mother for two bucks! Call yourself a man, do you? Why, when I was your age, I was giving my mother money, not taking it. At night I was too tired from packing trucks all day to go on joy rides like you. Maybe what you need isn't college this fall but a little hard work in a shipping room."

Bert's response to this outburst had not been eagerness to earn his own money, but sullen, frightened recoil from the whole prospect of making any money-earning effort at all.

Why not? His father's resentment of his own working youth burned right through the words that pertained pride in it. Of course it scared Bert. As usual it hardened his normal adolescent reluctance to test himself in a first job into certainty that he'd fall in it. Without quite knowing how he felt, Bert thought, "O.K., if earning money is so tough that only a giant of endurance can stand it, who am I to try it?"

Mr. Fraser better stop swindling himself — and acknowledge how bitterly he feels about his hard-working youth. Bert's going to have to get around to a job sooner or later; and this old unjustified resentment in his father has been discouraging him.

In our country where we take such pride in "self-made" success, we don't always make allowance for the betterness that can build up in us during those old, lonely "self-making" struggles. But as we enviously see our own adolescent children spared them, we can't bear it.

Our bitterness explodes from us, not in the direct words, "Oh, how I resent my hard-working youth!" but in exaggeration of the hardships we endured. By contrasting our tough youth with Bert's soft one, we can not only boast of our great endurance, but declare our secret and bitter belief that we were badly abused.

What we need is to wake up to the way our unadmitted resentment has tricked us into exaggerating the hardships of those early jobs — and terrified Bert so he dares not seek any for himself.

To help him recover from his fear of working, we must admit our feeling so that he can see how it has been manipulating both of us.

GRACE FRIEND
Dear Grace Friend
My boy friend is always talking about other girls and I don't know if he is doing it to tease me or not. I talk about other boys but he doesn't catch on.

Sometimes he acts serious but other times he goes all out to talk about other girls.

I would like some advice.
Lucy

Dear Lucy
Don't waste your time talking about other boys to your rude boy friend. Get busy and find another boy friend who will be more courteous.

WOULD SELL JEWELRY?
Grace Friend
I wonder if it is possible for you to tell me if there is a place here or near here where a person can sell such things as their rings, watches etc. Would like to sell mine and get out of debt.

I DO NOT want to get a loan on them. I want to SELL them.
M. D.

Dear M. D.
Look in the yellow pages of the telephone book under Jewelry Buyers for purchasers of your rings and watches in your neighborhood.

GIFT FOR BABY
Dear Grace Friend
I read your column every day in the paper and thought that maybe you could advise me on "what's right."

Recently I had a baby and a girl that I went to school with gave me a baby gift. I had only seen this girl once since she was married and we live fairly close to each other. The girl is going to have her third child and I would like to know if I should get her a gift. I did not give her anything for her other two children.

What should I do?
M. M.

Dear M. M.
There is no reason for you to send a gift if you don't want to. Gifts should not be given because the giver feels it is a duty but because she wants to do something for the recipient.

Evidently the woman was made happy by remembering you and your baby.

Your only duty was in sending her a note of thanks, showing your appreciation for her thoughtfulness.

Perhaps you can send her a card when she is in the hospital, or take her a bouquet if you don't want to bother with a gift.

Manners
Make Friends

When a man and woman who work in the same office happen to sit at the same table when they have lunch, there is no reason for the man to insist on paying both checks.

In fact, the woman will probably feel much more comfortable keeping the lunch on a chance-encounter basis by paying for her own meal.

As ever,
Your Peg

Peg O' Pampa

HAS ANYONE GOTTEN out their "long-johns" yet? ... Peg sure could have used some this week ... hasn't been able to keep warm at all ... Peg was reading an article the other day that says that long underwear is far from obsolete ... in fact, more people are supposed to be wearing them than ever! ... Of course, the article was leading up to the fact that Long Underwear Week begins Wednesday ... it said that modern fabrics make the garments lighter in weight, more comfortable, as warm as their outmoded ancestors ... and that the modern "long-johns" are more "smartly styled" than ever ... So here you are! ... If you've been a little shy about getting yours out of storage, you can forget that ... now that you know they're "right in style" especially the red ones!

If any man seeks greatness, let him forget greatness and ask for truth, and he will find both.
(Horace Mann)

ABOUT TOWN ... One of Pampa's very lovely young ladies is Henri Sharp ... and did you know she was the sister of Mary Edna Tarpley? ... Peg didn't until this week ... They make a lovely study in contrasts ... Henri with her dark hair and blonde Mary Edna ... Spied attractive Marie Jamieson rushing around the other day ... she sure has been working hard on the Council of Clubs bridge benefit ... which, by the way, will be held Monday ... Another busy, busy Pampan is Kathryn Steele ... who has also been working on the benefit as well as the new hotel ... there sure does seem to be a lot to keep everyone on the run these days ... Mrs. Lynn Boyd and Mrs. Rufe Jordan have been making the rounds of the women's clubs explaining the new hotel set-up, as well as keeping up with their homes, their other club activities and their church work ... don't see how so many people have so much energy ... it's really wonderful when you can take such an active part for the good of your community ... And Clinton Evans is as busy as a bee over the United Fund ... sure would be nice if they could top their goal this year ... saw Mary Wooley Willson the other day ... as radiant as any young bride should be ... The H. O. Darbys are proud grandparents, Peg understands ... Their lovely daughter, Patsy, is the mother of a son, Peg was told ... believe Mrs. Darby is in California visiting Patsy, her husband and the new arrival ... We have some exultant hunters in Pampa ... Dr. T. J. Worrell and Chris Walsh, who bagged two bucks on a recent hunting excursion in Colorado.

Responsibility is like a string we can see only the middle of. Both ends are out of sight. (William McFee)

WELL, WE NOW KNOW all about the "hoo-hoos" ... thanks to Fred Parker of the Pampa Daily News who explained it in last Sunday's issue ... It is really intriguing ... in case you didn't read it ... the hoo-hoo organization is a lumberman's fraternity ... it's real name, Mr. Parker explained, is the "Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo" ... he explained its principles and its history ... However, it kept Peg running back and forth to the dictionary ... she has come to the conclusion that the founders of the order either pored for days over the dictionary ... or they had an almost unlimited vocabulary ... For instance, do you know what concatenated means? ... according to the dictionary its definition is "linked together; forming a chain or series, as certain unicellular organisms" ... And some of the members are called "snarks" ... which, according to the dictionary, is "a blend of snake and shark; a nonsense creature invented by Lewis Carroll in his poem, 'The Hunting of the Snark' (1876), one variety known as the 'boojum (which see)'" ... Peg can't understand why there hasn't been more national publicity on this organization ... especially when it has come up with such unusual terminology ... Well, thanks for the explanation ... it was very interesting ... Oh, yes ... the word "snark" used as a verb means "to snore, snort; to nag; to find fault" ... Peg sure has increased her vocabulary over all this!

Responsibility walks hand in hand with capacity and power. (J. G. Holland)

HERE AND THERE ... have you noticed Marie Thornburg's hairdo lately? ... it sure is stylish and so becoming to Marie ... If Peg had her druthers, there are two things of Lavinia Webb's she would love to have ... her gorgeous, dark eyes ... and that lovely singing voice ... just the right tone ... not too high ... and not too low ... and so clear ... without that exaggerated "tremelo" so many singers have ... Peg would also like to have her poise ... never outwardly ruffled or upset ... Have you attended any of the Ladies Day events at the Country Club? They sure are fun ... they have open bridge games from 9 a.m. until noon, a luncheon, and they play duplicate bridge during the afternoon ... a wonderful way to spend a day! ... Congratulations to M. K. Brown on being honored by the Masonic Lodge this week ... He was presented a 50-year pin ... the first to be awarded by the Pampa Lodge ... they made a big event of it ... had a free feed, honored the Masons' wives ... and topped the evening off with the burning of the mortgage ... it was really a nice ceremony! ... Are you ready for the Country Club tea dance today? ... Promises to be a lot of fun ... The Rex Roses and the C. R. Hoovers will be the hosts ... which reminds Peg that Jane Hoover is one of her favorite people ... always so friendly, so poised and so neat in appearance.

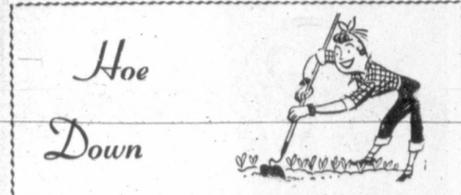

Behold the turtle. He makes progress only when he sticks his neck out. (James Bryant Conant)

IT'S GETTING to be that time, you know ... the time to be thinking of Christmas gifts ... at least that is recommended, although Peg never really gets around to it until after Thanksgiving ... But she's been looking at magazines and catalogs for ideas ... spied an intriguing gift for baby ... sterling silver safety pins ... sure to make any little one chuckle and coo with delight ... and for the teenager, you can get an exotic charm bracelet hung around the neck of a toy tiger ... Did you get to the Episcopal bazaar this week? ... they had some lovely items ... Jeweled match boxes and jeweled tool sets were among the more unusual items ... Just thought I'd give you a few suggestions to get you on your way to Christmas shopping.

As ever,
Your Peg

Success with roses depends greatly on correct planting, regardless of whether they are planted in the spring or in the fall.

For a great majority of gardeners, fall planting is practical and desirable. The plants have the advantage of getting their roots established during the winter and are in a vigorous growing condition at the break of spring.

Roses must have a good location that is well drained. If the roses must be planted in a spot where water is known to stand, a tile drainage system should be installed.

For if I wait, said she, 'Till time for roses be, For the moss roses and the musk rose, Maiden blush and royal dusk rose, What glory this for me In such a company.' —Elizabeth Barrett Browning

Fresh vegetables are essential to the perfect Thanksgiving dinner. But cook them interestingly and use them in tempting combinations, perfect for the family feast:

1. Savory Baked Onions: Place small white onions in a casserole, sprinkle with a blend of brown sugar, nutmeg and cloves. Dot with butter or margarine. Cover and bake until almost tender. Sprinkle with slivers of blanched almonds. Place under broiler to brown. Garnish with fresh parsley.
2. Turnips and Carrots with Sautéed Mushrooms. Diced turnips and sliced carrots cooked in chicken or turkey stock, drained and tossed with sautéed mushrooms.
3. Squash Soufflé: Mashed cooked Hubbard or butternut squash seasoned with salt, black pepper, a little sugar, mace and butter or margarine and blended with egg yolks into which egg whites are folded. Bake in a soufflé dish.
4. Diced Rutabaga and Potato in Sour Cream: Heat diced rutabaga and potatoes, add sour cream and minced onion and heat over low heat until hot. Garnish with fresh parsley.
5. Rutabaga, Potato and Bacon Casserole. Alternating layers of diced cooked rutabagas and potatoes in a casserole sprinkled with crumbled crisp bacon. Bake and garnish with bacon strips.

Mrs. Bob Andis Directs Royal Service Program For First Baptist WMU Meet

"Joy From Wells of Salvation" was the royal service program presented by the Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church recently in the church.

The opening prayer was given by Mrs. C. L. McKinney, and Mrs. Owen Johnson led a special prayer. The WMU hymn of the year was led by Mrs. Harold Craddock.

The program, "Christian World News Broadcast," was under the direction of Mrs. Bob Andis, who served as the announcer. She played a tape recording with Dr. N. G. Kadingo as the Moscow correspondent; Bob Perez as the Havana correspondent; Alex Schneider as the Ruschlikon correspondent; Tommy Gee as the Hong Kong correspondent; and Miss Betty Parker as the Nigerian correspondent.

A special prayer was led by Mrs. Floyd Yeager, and Mrs. Andis gave the program's conclusion. Mrs. Everett McGeehee served as pianist, and the meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. O. A. Davis.

EXECUTIVE BOARD
Prior to the meeting, the executive board met, with Mrs. O. D. Burba, president, in charge. Opening prayer was led by Mrs. C. E. Powell.

Committee chairmen giving reports were Mrs. O. A. Davis, literature; Mrs. Floyd Pennington, community missions; Mrs. Ivan Noblitt, benevolence; Mrs. C. L. McKinney, business women's circle; Mrs. Bob Andis, program.

Activities for the month were planned, and the meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. S. E. Waters.

LUNCHEON
Following the executive board meeting, a covered-dish luncheon was held. Each circle was in charge of its table decorations. The invocation was given by Mrs. E. L. Anderson.

Approximately 80 women attended.

Pop-Apart Pearls Take On New Hues for Fall

For autumn, the enormously popular poppart pearls take on an entirely new look. They're in glittering metallics: gold, silver and copper. We show them here in the 36-inch length but, of course, they pop apart to make necklaces and bracelets of any wanted length.—By GAILE DUGAS, NEA Women's Editor.

Garden Club Holds Workshop Session

A Pampa Garden Club workshop was held in the home of Mrs. S. W. Brandt, 429 N. Wells.

Mrs. S. S. Taylor spoke on poinsettias, coleus and other foliage plants. To take cuttings of poinsettias to root, take a five-inch cutting from the soft wood below a leafed joint, she said. Put it in cold water for five minutes and plant immediately. The plant should then be set in the shade for three or four days. Mrs. Taylor continued, before being moved to light and some sun.

"She advised the women to avoid use of peat moss with poinsettias as it causes delayed flowering and drooping of leaves."

Mrs. Taylor described the coleus as one of the most colorful and easily-grown foliage plants. Many different-colored plants result from planting packaged seed, she pointed out.

Mrs. Taylor announced that all Garden Club members are to bring to the next meeting a signed list of all things they have planted since the club was started. It was also announced the next workshop will be Nov. 23, with Mrs. Fred Hart, 721 N. Russell, and will deal with dried arrangements.

Attending were Meses. Tom W. Price, A. J. Mitchell, T. M. Brooks, S. S. Taylor, S. W. Brandt, W. F. Yeager and Jack Vaughn.

Treble Clef Given Musical Program

A program of vocal and piano numbers by Pampa artists highlighted the meeting of the Treble Clef Club in the City Club Room.

Mrs. B. W. Riehart, mezzo soprano, accompanied by Miss Eloise Lane, sang "One Who Has Yearned Alone" by Tchaikovsky and "Cradle Song," by Brahms; while Mrs. Everett McGeehee, also accompanied by Miss Lane, sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd" by Tchaikovsky and "Trusting In Thee" by Fichthorn.

A piano selection, "Waltz in E Minor" by Chopin was presented by Miss Ann Hutchen, pupil of Mrs. H. A. Yoder.

"Voilà ce papero" from "The Marriage of Figaro" by Mozart and "Into The Night" by Edwards were vocal selections by Mrs. E. J. Regan, soprano, accompanied by Miss Lane.

Mrs. May Foreman Carr played the piano number, "Troiseme Balade" by Chopin. Mrs. Richard Sligar, soprano, accompanied by Richard Sligar, sang "Psyche" by Paladilhe, "Voilà ce papero" from Cavalleria Rusticana by Mascagni, and "Daisies" by Samuel Barber to conclude the program.

During the business session, led by Mrs. John Gill, president, it was announced the annual organ vesper service will be presented at 4 p.m. Dec. 2, in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church. The program will be open to the public.

Hostesses for the social period were Meses. Bob Banks, Walter C. Bowen and Bill Clements.

Woodrow Wilson's PTA Has Meeting

Room visitation highlighted the fathers' night observance of the Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teacher Association Thursday in the school.

Parents visited with the teachers and looked over their children's school work.

During the executive board meeting Thursday afternoon, Mrs. T. C. Owen, president, urged members to attend the state convention, to be held Nov. 14 and 15, in Amarillo. She asked that those planning to attend contact her so available transportation may be utilized.

Mrs. Jay Lickey, study club chairman, reported seven members completed the study courses sponsored recently by the PTA city council.

H. A. Yoder, principal, reported on the recent food, fun and frolic night, announcing Mrs. Margaret Sparkman's room won the room count award. A committee, composed of Mrs. Weldon Trice, chairman, Mrs. Ross Buzzard, Mrs. Dorothy Francis and H. A. Yoder, was named to decide on a project for the unit this year.

It was announced the next general session will be at 2 p.m. Dec. 13, in the school auditorium.

Sam Houston PTA Has Father's Night

The Sam Houston Parent-Teacher Association met Thursday evening in the school auditorium for its annual father's night observance, with men conducting the meeting.

J. R. Holloway led the business session, with Rev. J. R. Strohle of the First Baptist Church giving the opening prayer. Don Cain served as secretary, and Harold Justice was treasurer. Room count was taken by Homer Craig, principal, with the third grade having the most parents present. The door prize, a cake baked by Mrs. Robert Karr, was awarded by Barney McMullen.

A pantomime of hillbilly songs was presented by Rev. Dick Crews and Rev. Ronald Hubbard, who were dressed as mountaineers. A movie, "The Greatest of These," was narrated by Rev. Hubbard.

During the social period, refreshments of coffee, punch and cookies were served in the cafeteria, under the direction of Art Aftergut.

Approximately 300 persons attended.

J. B. Lowes Feted At Farewell Party

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lowe of McLean, who are moving to Edna, were honored with a farewell party by friends and neighbors in the American Legion Hall of McLean.

The Lowes, who have lived in McLean 25 years, moved there from Pampa. Lowe worked for Danciger Company, which later became the Southern Production Company, for 23 years. He retired Nov. 1.

The event was a dinner, with the honored couple being presented a gift from the group.

Out-of-town guests were Messrs. and Meses. James Roush, David E. McGahey, Jeff Davis, and Meses. Ruth McGahey and O. E. Stephens, all of Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Lowe, Paula and Rickie, and Miss Donna Brand, all of Skellytown; Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lantz and Miss Norma Lantz, all of Lefors; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bailey and Rocky of Kellerville; and Charles Gatlin Jr. of Mobeetie.

McLean residents present were Messrs. and Meses. Felton Webb, James Barker, C. R. Griffith, Carl Meyers, Cecil Back, Joe Bidwell, Clyde Dwight Jr.; Mrs. C. E. Soris; and Billy and Kirk Webb, Janice and Jimmy Barker, Jack Back, Terry Don Bidwell and Barbara Dwight.

Others giving the party but unable to attend were Messrs. and Meses. Oscar Day, Don Crocker, Vester Dowell, Jeff Bradley, Clyde Holloway, Wayne Lyons; and R. W. Adams.

Varied Program, Room Visitation Held During Baker PTA Dad's Night Meeting

Dad's night was observed Thursday evening by the Baker Parent-Teacher Association, with 650 persons attending the event.

The program, under the direction of Mrs. R. A. Mack, opened with a reading, "Who Am I," by Mary Ann Mack. The school chorus, directed by Mrs. Flaudie Galliman, sang several selections. The chorus was accompanied at the piano by Miss Edie Seight.

The devotional was presented by Envoy H. C. Seago of the Salvation Army, who was introduced by John Evans, principal. He compared the school buildings of today with those of 50 years ago and challenged the group to work for as much progress in the realm of spiritual life as has been made materially. He concluded by urging all fathers to attend church with their children.

The meeting was also highlighted by room visitation. Refreshments of cookies and coffee were served during the social period by Mrs. Glenn Dearborn and Mrs. Ray Jones.

J. H. Trotter presided. Mrs. Warren Jackson reported $729.65 was netted from the PTA's recent fun night. The city council report was given by Mrs. C. N. Gage.

Chosen as delegates to the state convention were Meses. Elmer Darnell, Carlos Grissom, Evan Jones, Warren Jackson, Preston Wallace, R. A. Mack; and John Evans.

Attending meeting were Meses. Elmer Darnell, N. B. Broyles, George Smith Jr., Carlos Grissom, Jack Lane, Herbert Hyatt, Evan Jones Jr., J. H. Trotter, Gay Grider, C. N. Gage, Ed Johnson, R. A. Mack, Warren Jackson, L. W. Frazier, and Jack Robertson. Mrs. J. L. Stone was a guest.

Manners Make Friends

Most people find it hard to find the right words when sorrow or tragedy strikes a friend. Actually nothing more is needed than to say, "I am so very sorry. What can I do to help?"

Also the willingness to listen if the other person wants to talk is another way of showing your deep concern for him.

Japan Study Taught To Girls' Auxiliary

The Vada Walden Junior Girls' Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church met recently in the church.

The mission study on Japan was taught by Mrs. O. D. Bowman, followed by the program, "How Rich Am I."

Refreshments were served by Miss Eliene Trout. Twenty-eight members were present.

YOU... and YOUR HOME
by Jack Foster

MAKE AGE AN ASSET

If you are planning on buying one of the large old homes, or are now living in one, don't be discouraged about its decorative possibilities. Combine yesterday's space with today's furniture and equipment for easier and better living. The result will be a home in which your family can stretch out comfortably and relax. Just because a house is old is no excuse for it being humdrum and out-dated. A cheerful color scheme, up-to-date and appropriate window treatment, and imaginative furniture arrangement can produce an effect of ageless charm.

The high ceiling in the large old-style living room in the above sketch has been painted in the same muted rose as the walls to make it appear lower. Window valance boxes match the walls and ceiling. Light, filtering through the nylon panels that are the same shade as the walls, gives the effect of strained sunlight.

Note that the furniture is in scale with the size of the room.

A generous sized circular table flanked by two roomy lounge chairs occupies a large portion of the long wall. Sofa on wall opposite (not shown) grouped with lamps and tables balances this group. One end of the room has been converted into a dining area.

Whether your home is new or old, large or small, we're sure our trained decorators can give you ideas and suggestions that will help you make the most of it — both decoratively and functionally. We are here to serve you in every way that we can. Pay us a visit soon.

Roast Pig Is A Traditional Deicacy For Thanksgiving

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
Roast suckling pig with a cranberry necklace — seasoned with ground black pepper and garlic powder, plus spiced apple cider stuffing — there's a lordly dish for Thanksgiving dinner.

We enjoyed it at the "Old Sturbridge Dinner" given by the American Spice Trade Association to show food editors some 18th century back country New England spiced dishes.

ROAST SUCKLING PIG WITH APPLE CIDER STUFFING

(Yield: Approximately 12 servings)
Wash a 12 - pound suckling pig in cold water and wipe dry. Mix 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper and 1-16 teaspoon garlic powder with which rub the inside of the pig. Combine 3 quarts toasted bread cubes, 1/2 cup dried onion flakes, 1/2 cup dried parsley flakes, 1 1/2 teaspoons crumbled whole thyme leaves, 1 tablespoon whole celery seed, 1 tablespoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper. Add 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine and 1 cup apple cider and toss lightly. Stuff pig loosely. Skewer and lace opening to close it.

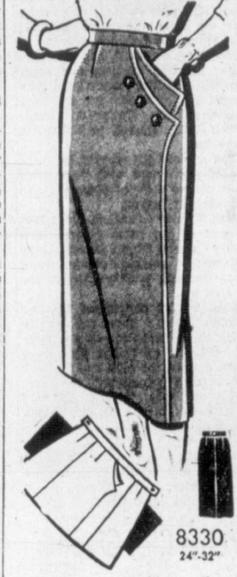

Wipe the outside of the skin and rub generously with 3 tablespoons melted butter or margarine. Place a block of wood in the pig's mouth to brace it for the apple which will be inserted later. Place on a rack in a large shallow pan in kneeling position. Pour in 2 cups boiling water and cover with aluminum foil. Roast in a preheated slow oven (225 degrees F.) 8 hours or until tender, basting every 1/2 hour with the hot water in the pan. Add more water to pan if necessary.

Remove to a large serving tray or platter. Replace wooden block with a small red apple. Insert a large marashno cherry in each eye socket. Place a cranberry necklace around the neck. Garnish platter with spiced fruit if desired. Keep warm while making gravy.

Shower Presented For Betty Sue Rook

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Miss Betty Sue Rook was honored with a miscellaneous shower in Fellowship Hall of the First Christian Church. Hostesses were Meses. J. R. Brewer, J. O. Stribling, Roy Tuck, Adde Turnbow, J. Rabo, Jack Dekle, E. J. Conner and Buri Harrington.

Receiving the guests were the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Cecil Rook, and the mother of the prospective bridegroom, Mrs. Lige Mitchell of Twitty. Miss Katy Harrington registered the guests and Miss Katrina Gray poured. The bride's table was covered with a brown cloth and centered with an arrangement of Fuji mums and gold tapers in crystal holders. Individual cakes were served with the punch. Appointments were silver and crystal.

Mrs. Ethelene Geyer played piano selections. About 50 persons attended.

BAUBY

Baby's shoes need repairing, like anyone else's. But Baby, unlike others, doesn't have a second pair. A possibility is having someone leave the shoes off to be repaired on a rainy day when Baby can stay indoors, wearing his slippers.

There is feeling in some circles today that X-raying a child's feet to fit his shoes is unwise. Other ways of fitting accurately are available. One is the footprint. Successive prints should show improvement, if the child wears corrective shoes.

Even though it's not recommended, many mothers do pass on Baby's shoes to thrift shops and charities. If you do this, be sure to remove, first, any arch cushions or pads.

Twentieth Century Allegro Club Meets

Ruth Millett

If Mama gives her consent, to a teen-age daughter's marriage, then Mama ought to step aside and let the young folks run their own lives. This includes even letting them make their own mistakes.

If Mama thinks her daughter can't get along without her constant help and advice, then Mama ought to do all in her power to keep her daughter from marrying until she is old enough to manage without help.

The mother who encourages her daughter to marry young and then continues to act on the theory that "Mama knows best" isn't giving a young couple a fair start in life.

The mother of a son writes: "I am writing about these teenage girls getting married — many of them before they are out of high school.

"Their mothers let them get married. Then, when their young husbands have taken on the responsibility of a home, the mothers still run the girls.

"Because these girls are so young and have been under their mother's thumb before marriage, the mothers often don't seem to realize that they ought to keep hands off the marriage.

"We have a son, married to a teen-age girl. We leave the young people alone, going to their home only when we are invited, letting them make their own decisions without any interference.

"But our son's mother-in-law is always around, always offering advice, always expecting her daughter to accompany her on vacations, etc. She just won't turn loose.

"I've noticed this same tendency in other mothers of teen-age wives. It certainly isn't fair to the husbands or to the marriage."

No, it isn't. And it may well be one of the reasons why young marriages so often end in divorce before they have had a fair chance.

Make Friends Manners

One of the reasons why "going steady" isn't a good idea for teenagers is that there are usually hurt feelings on the part of one or the other when a couple "breaks up."

When teen-agers are free to date anyone they choose, dating is much less complicated.

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

To Larry, the memorable thing about last summer is a certain tree in his grandparents' yard. He climbed it. As it was the first tree ever climbed, he has a special vivid feeling about it.

Tonight as his bedtime comes, he is drawing a picture of the tree. Because he wants to finish skyming in the brown of its trunk, he pretends not to hear his mother's call to put his "things" away. After a minute, she calls again. The impatience in her voice annoys Larry's father who sits at his desk. "You hear your mother, don't you? Put that stuff away — and get upstairs!"

Neither of Larry's parents shows slightest interest in his wish to draw the drawing of his tree. Why?

Because they are both victims of an idea that any interest in Larry's wishes means granting them. Unconsciously, Larry's mother and father both identify sympathy with desire to finish his picture with mission to finish it.

Many other parents share their son. They see no difference between sympathy with what children want — and giving them what they want.

Where did this destructive idea come from? I think it's a reaction from the bad advice of "permissive" theory zealots.

You'll remember that these were people who made interest in children want our first obligation. The trouble is, they also mandated that children get what

Officers Chosen By 4-H Girls Club

The Cleverette 4-H Girls Club met in the Home Demonstration office to elect new officers.

Chosen were Miss Shirley Chase, president; Miss Phyllis Newman, vice-president; Miss Judy Huff, secretary; Miss Mary Alice Coombes, reporter; and Miss Dian Huff, council delegate.

It was decided to hold a Coker party for girls interested in 4-H Club work. The event will also be in honor of the new president, who will give a talk on 4-H work and why it is important.

They want. They made interest and indulgence the same thing.

As we came to see that what children want is not indulgence but control of dangerous wishes they can't control themselves, we reacted away from the "permissive" theorists with total distrust. We felt so betrayed by their advice to grant all Larry's wishes that we wanted no part of their advice to respect his wishes.

Our biggest discipline program is disconnecting respect for children's wants — and indulging them.

However, until we have disconnected them, let's not pretend to respect Larry's desire to finish his picture. Our fear that he'll abuse our sympathy to make us let him finish it will take all the virtue out of the sympathy, making it placative and insincere.

It is only when we know that we don't have to give Larry what he wants that our interest in his wish becomes real and productive.

Five Pampans Plan To Attend GS Meet

Five hundred Girl Scout workers will meet Wednesday in the Billmore Hotel of Oklahoma City, Okla., for the opening of a three-day Girl Scout regional conference. The delegates will represent 150,000 Girl Scouts in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

Those planning to attend from the Top o' Texas Girl Scout Council are Mmes. John Holt Jr., Bob Andia and Marian Osborne and Misses Sondra Sullins and Sylvia Gridler.

Dr. Randell T. Klemme, director of the Oklahoma State Department of Commerce and Industry, will be one of the principal speakers. His topic at the general session Thursday morning will be "Beliefs to Live By."

A report will be given on the new international Girl Scout center which will be opened this year in Cuernavaca, Mexico. The center, called "Our Cabana," has been established by the World Association of Girl Scouts and Girl Guides to cement friendship ties among Scouts in western hemisphere countries.

Built around the GS theme, "Believe, Belong, Build," the conference will give delegates from local units an opportunity to voice their opinions and vote on national GS policies. Teenage Scouts in the three-state area have been invited to "speak their minds" with adults at the conference.

Few things look hotter than straggly hair. Short hair, chignons and hair pulled on top of the head and off the neck always look cool, but most important is a clean, well-brushed look. Oily hair makes one look hot.

Now, real medicated help for your troubled skin!

by Margaret Herbert
Director of Dorothy Gray Salons

I have wonderful news for you! Dorothy Gray scientists have developed a new medicated treatment to provide effective help towards clearing troubled complexion. It's called the MEDICATED SCRUB SET and the whole treatment takes just 3 easy steps:

1. You probably know that good skin depends first and foremost on a thoroughly clean skin... thus, the first step is to lather on Medicated Scrub Soap. (Massage your face with your fingers in upward and outward strokes for 3 minutes.) Made with Oatmeal, it has an amazing ability to stimulate while purifying... to rout out every trace of clogging dust, hardened oils and stale make-up. Really helps force out blackheads which might lead to blemishes, if neglected.

2. Next, put on cooling, bracing Medicated Refining Lotion. It gets at an important cause of many a troubled skin... bacteria! Also helps reduce the appearance of ugly pores... refines your skin to a smoother, lovelier look.

3. Last and essential step: Medicated Blemish Cream! Apply just before you retire. It works while you sleep to soothe and heal... rewards you in the morning with a softer, clearer face.

When you use this MEDICATED SCRUB SET conscientiously it will really pay off... with a complexion you'll be proud of!

Education Pays Off For Homemaker According To Recent AAUW Survey

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Stop worrying, Mom, it's unlikely your college-bound daughter will wind up a spinster school teacher or frustrated career woman. Furthermore, she'll probably come out ahead of the old man financially.

For the learned ladies of the American Association of University Women have recently taken a sharp look at themselves, and what they have discovered is most encouraging.

Here are the up-to-date figures the AAUW gathered from 22,000 of its members:

More than half of them have been able to find a husband.

Most of those who are married have children.

As many of them are homemakers as are teachers.

Words of cheer for the learned ladies come from Dr. Hallie Farmer, chairman of American Assn. of University Women's survey committee.

To learn more about itself, the AAUW sent out a questionnaire to a sampling of one-third of its 140,000 members. Out of the 45,000 women queried, 22,000 replied.

"We were certainly surprised at some of the things we found," says Dr. Hallie Farmer, chairman of the association's survey committee.

"People have been under the impression that there is something contradictory about being an educated woman and having a husband and family. The questionnaires show our members marry and have children like any other women."

Of the 22,000 ladies who answered, 13,000 reported that they are married and 12,000 said they have children.

The survey further indicates that the median total income of these women is $8,750. This includes the husband's earnings for those who are married. Over 9,600 listed themselves in the income bracket between $5,000 and $10,000.

Dr. Farmer, who recently retired as a professor of history at Alabama College in Montealegre, Ala., refused to conclude that an educated woman is in a better position to catch a rich husband.

She said the figures indicate that the women lead a life that is generally considered "comfortable."

She feels, however, that their economic position means they must take on more social responsibility in the community.

Perhaps the most startling part of the survey for Miss Farmer is the result showing that there are slightly more homemakers than teachers among AAUW members.

"We were struck dumb," she says. It seems that a number of persons have thought that the organization was made up mostly of teachers. She was also impressed by the fact that nearly 10,000 women said they joined the AAUW for study and intellectual stimulus.

"This contradicts what we have been hearing about the frivolity of women coming out of college," she says. "Perhaps our colleges are not turning out butterflies but serious women."

According to the responses, AAUW officials were also pleased to find that their membership is drawn from comparatively young women. For example, 66 per cent of those who replied are 48 years of age or younger. And 12 per cent received their degrees between 1950 and 1956.

Probably all that is the matter with your job. Perhaps a new one would give you more interest in life.

You are certainly not unusual at all in not having fallen in love and married by 22. Thousands of girls don't marry until much later. And believe me, it is worth waiting for the right man who, I am positive, will come along in time.

Marrying just for the sake of having a home is a pretty sure way to unhappiness, not only for you but for your husband. And marriage nowadays is more apt to mean that you'll have to keep your job for a year or two than that you can quit and just keep house. Most young men today need a little help in getting started and most young wives expect to help them for a while.

Quit worrying about not being married and try to enjoy your men friends as friends and not as prospective husbands and one day when you least expect it you'll find that you have fallen in love.

Slightly soiled fabric gloves, a suit with a button or two missing, a run in a stocking — these things give the impression of carelessness. You may know that the buttons came off at the last minute, that you couldn't find your clean gloves and that that snag finally just happened to pop a run. Your public doesn't know these were "small accidents"; it sees only the results.

Ideal party fare, this veal dish is made with a rich sauce, artfully seasoned with curry, almonds, garlic, and pimiento. After a brief cooking, arrange in the serving dish around a mound of oven-toasted rice cereal which has been mixed with melted butter. Serve with a colorful fruit salad, hot rolls and a beverage.

CURRIED VEAL
2 cups sliced onions
1/2 teaspoon minced garlic
1 cup diced celery
3 tablespoons shortening
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon curry powder
2 cups milk
2 cups diced, cooked veal
1-3 cup quartered blanched almonds

2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
3 cups Rice Krispies (oven-toasted rice cereal)
3 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted

Cook onions, garlic and celery in heated shortening until lightly browned. Mix flour, salt, pepper and curry powder; stir into first mixture. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly; cook until thickened, stirring occasionally. Stir in veal, almonds and pimiento; simmer about 10 minutes. Mix Rice Krispies with melted butter; heat thoroughly. Arrange Rice Krispies in center of serving dish; surround with Curried Veal.

GRACE FRIEND

Dear Grace Friend — I've read your column a long time and I think you are wonderful. I wonder if you would help me find out what is wrong with me.

I'm 22 years old and practically all of my friends are married. I'm not unattractive. I'm five feet seven inches tall and weigh 135. I have a good complexion and I have black hair and brown eyes. I meet lots of men and they seem to like me. I always have dates and I have had my share of proposals.

My trouble, Grace, is that I have never met anyone I want to marry.

My friends didn't have any trouble falling in love and getting married. I just can't understand why I haven't. Do you think there is something lacking in my makeup? I try my best to get seriously interested in the men who date me but somehow I just can't imagine spending the rest of my life with any of them.

Sometimes I think I ought to marry the next man who asks me and hope that it will work out. I feel this very strongly as I think that what I want out of life is to be married and run a home and have children. I am really not interested in my job and I think it is because I really want to be a homemaker. I am very good at keeping house as my mother believed that a girl should learn such things. I am a good cook and I just love to plan meals etc.

What is your solution, Grace? Katherine

Probably all that is the matter with your job. Perhaps a new one would give you more interest in life.

You are certainly not unusual at all in not having fallen in love and married by 22. Thousands of girls don't marry until much later. And believe me, it is worth waiting for the right man who, I am positive, will come along in time.

Marrying just for the sake of having a home is a pretty sure way to unhappiness, not only for you but for your husband. And marriage nowadays is more apt to mean that you'll have to keep your job for a year or two than that you can quit and just keep house. Most young men today need a little help in getting started and most young wives expect to help them for a while.

Quit worrying about not being married and try to enjoy your men friends as friends and not as prospective husbands and one day when you least expect it you'll find that you have fallen in love.

Slightly soiled fabric gloves, a suit with a button or two missing, a run in a stocking — these things give the impression of carelessness. You may know that the buttons came off at the last minute, that you couldn't find your clean gloves and that that snag finally just happened to pop a run. Your public doesn't know these were "small accidents"; it sees only the results.

Ideal party fare, this veal dish is made with a rich sauce, artfully seasoned with curry, almonds, garlic, and pimiento. After a brief cooking, arrange in the serving dish around a mound of oven-toasted rice cereal which has been mixed with melted butter. Serve with a colorful fruit salad, hot rolls and a beverage.

CURRIED VEAL
2 cups sliced onions
1/2 teaspoon minced garlic
1 cup diced celery
3 tablespoons shortening
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon curry powder
2 cups milk
2 cups diced, cooked veal
1-3 cup quartered blanched almonds

2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
3 cups Rice Krispies (oven-toasted rice cereal)
3 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted

Cook onions, garlic and celery in heated shortening until lightly browned. Mix flour, salt, pepper and curry powder; stir into first mixture. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly; cook until thickened, stirring occasionally. Stir in veal, almonds and pimiento; simmer about 10 minutes. Mix Rice Krispies with melted butter; heat thoroughly. Arrange Rice Krispies in center of serving dish; surround with Curried Veal.

Peggy Blackmore Feted At Shower

PERRYTON — (Special) — Miss Peggy Ann Blackmore, bride-elect of George Lasater of Denton, was honored with a bridal shower in the parlor of the First Baptist Church.

Hostesses were Meses. Homer Gurley, T. R. Shirley, Jack Jewel, Clyde Cofer, Ivan Day, L. C. Fortwood, Jim Gunter, Glen Smith, W. A. Reitz, MaeBelle Lawrence, and Charles Selby.

Miss Shirley Smith registered the guests, and Miss Carla Sue Blackmore, sister of the honoree, assisted with the gifts.

The table was covered with a white lace cloth over pink, centered with an arrangement of pink carnations accented with aqua net. Pink candles flanked the arrangement. Mrs. Carl Blackmore, mother of the honoree, and Mrs. John, Daniel, a cousin, presided at the table.

Probably all that is the matter with your job. Perhaps a new one would give you more interest in life.

Dessert Devotees Like This Pudding

Devotees of desserts in general will rank this luscious Steamed Devil's Food Pudding specifically as a top wintertime favorite. Unusually light and fine textured — thanks to the addition of airy oven-toasted rice cereal — this rich chocolate pudding is as simple to make as a cake, but instead of being baked, it's poured into a mold, covered tightly and steamed for about two hours. While hot, cut in wedges and serve with a topping of whipped cream.

3 cups Rice Krispies (oven-toasted rice cereal)
1 cup sifted flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup cocoa
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
1 cup milk

Crush Rice Krispies into fine crumbs. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and cocoa; combine with Rice Krispies crumbs. Blend butter and sugar; add egg and beat well. Stir in vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk, mixing well after each addition. Pour into greased 1-quart pudding mold. Cover tightly. Steam about 2 hours.

Serve hot with whipped cream. Yields 10 servings.

No U. S. Plans For Gasoline Rationing

(Weekly Oil Column)

By RICHARD C. SIZEMORE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11 (UP)—The United States has no plans for gasoline rationing because it does not plan to supply Western Europe with all the oil it will lose from the Middle East as a result of the Suez crisis.

Secretary of the Interior Fred A. Seaton said Sunday he could not "foresee the United States having to resort to gasoline rationing under present circumstances."

To date this nation has not laid down any policy for supplying Western Europe with any oil at all.

It did do some planning for supplying Allied countries after Egypt nationalized the Suez Canal. But since Britain and France moved into Egypt no move has ever been made to put those plans into effect.

Never Planned Full Supply
But "at no time have we figured on supplying Western Europe with all the oil it would lose" if the Suez Canal were blocked and the Middle East oil pipelines cut, said Hugh A. Stewart, director of the Interior department's office of oil and gas.

Before Britain and France moved into the canal area the Middle East emergency committee—made up of U. S. oil producers and headed by Stewart—made plans for Western Hemisphere nations to supply Western Europe with 800,000 barrels oil daily in event the canal was blocked and the pipelines were cut.

This still would have left West Europe with a 25 per cent cut in its normal crude oil supplies. But the planners figured Europe could stand this cut in peacetime and that Western Hemisphere nations could supply 800,000 barrels of oil daily—most of which would come from the United States—without rationing here.

Could Need Ration
Stewart said if the entire 25 per cent deficit had to be made up by this country "we would have to ration."

The committee scheduled a meeting the day after Britain and France moved into Suez but cancelled it and has made no plans to meet again to draw up any more figures on present needs of Western Europe.

The canal is now blocked and pipelines from the Kirkuk oil fields of Iraq to the Mediterranean coast have been dynamited.

Party Whirl On Capitol Hill

By PATRICIA WIGGINS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 (UP)—In the Washington party whirl: With the election over, the Capitol now can get back to business as usual—waiting for inaugural festivities to be a-whipping on top of the usual step-up in partying that comes back to town when Congress does.

Diplomats won't have to present credentials anew to the White House; realtors won't have to cope with the uncertainty that slowed sales—or with a new influx of house-hunters; hostesses can again, with less chance of explosion, mix guests of different politics; and Bertha Adkins, GOP assistant chairman, can keep wearing those "I Like Ike" stockings she carefully nursed through the campaign.

Speaking of diplomats the new British ambassador, Sir Haroldaccia, couldn't arrive at his new post at a more difficult time what with the Mid-East crisis straining Anglo-American relations.

Formerly England's deputy undersecretary of foreign affairs, Faccia arrived this week ahead of schedule to get acquainted before post-election business and social activities invaded the scene. He was enroute as the Mid-East crisis erupted.

While his diplomatic chores may be difficult, hostesses are looking forward to his presence on the party circuit. When he was ambassador in Vienna his charm in the lighter side of ambassadorial duties earned him the title "hostesses' delight."

The fighting in Egypt, especially at its start, took a toll on the circuit. Witness what happened the night the United Nations General Assembly voted on the cease-fire resolution: Marine Commandant and Mrs. Randolph Pate entertained in honor of Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson, Wilson made the party but Pate didn't. He was held up at his Pentagon desk as were the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Army and Air Force Secretaries. The military wives, not for the first time, carried on solo.

Secretary of State and Mrs. John Foster Dulles cancelled a

Workmen's Compensation Rates Up In Oil Work

Texas drilling contractors were notified this week that a 7 cent per $100 payroll reduction in the manual rate for workmen's compensation insurance was approved by the state Insurance Department at its annual rate hearings.

In a letter to members of the American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors, insurance consultant Joseph M. Shelton pointed out that the reduction in manual rate for the drillers contrasts with the 1.3 per cent increase for oil classes generally. The rates are based on the previous two years' experience.

Estimating that savings for the state-wide drilling industry will amount to $100,000 during the coming policy year Shelton emphasized that "This saving has come about through the actions of contractors themselves in becoming more conscious of insured losses."

Angus McDonald, casualty actuary to the Texas Insurance Board, commended the drilling contractors' association for its nationally-recognized safety program, which was termed instrumental in reducing drilling accidents.

As a result of the improved safety record, Shelton wrote that since December 1, 1952, there has been a "steady decline in workmen's compensation rates applicable to contract drilling from the high point of $1.05 per $100 of payroll in 1952 to the $0.98 mark reached during the last rate hearing."

Shelton's announcement coincides with the AACOD's 11th Annual National Drilling Industry Safety Clinic, being held Thursday and Friday this week in Dallas. In addition to the annual event, which attracts drilling personnel from every oil-producing state, the association this year sponsored more than 20 local safety clinics for field men.

'THE MOUNTAIN'

Brother is pitted against brother atop snow-swept Mount Blanc when Spencer Tracy and Robert Wagner climb the treacherous peak to reach a crashed airliner in "The Mountain," opening Sunday at the LaNora Theatre. The VistaVision, Technicolor suspense-drama was filmed at great hazard on the highest peak of the French Alps. Claire Trevor costars.

Good And Bad Of The Week's News

Foreign News Commentary
By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

The week's good and bad news on the international balance sheet:

Violence
Bloody violence in Egypt and Hungary roused anger and anxiety throughout the world this week.

Great Britain and France invaded the Suez Canal zone. Soviet Russia threw its Red army into a merciless attack on the heroic Hungarian men, women and children who launched an open rebellion against the yoke of Communism.

Russia's denunciation of the Suez attack was so threatening that there was fear for a time that a third world war might be near.

So alarming was the situation that the Defense Department in Washington ordered its air, sea and land commands throughout the world to be in constant readiness.

There were anti-British riots in Moscow, in the Arab countries, in the Moslem countries of southwest Asia and in India.

There were anti-Russian riots in capitals throughout free Europe. There was even an anti-Red riot in Switzerland, a country so neutral that it will not even belong to the United Nations. There were riots in Latin America. Western diplomats boycotted receptions which the Russians gave in world capitals to celebrate the 38th anniversary of their Bolshevik revolution.

The United Nations General Assembly met in New York in marathon emergency sessions on both the Suez and Hungarian situations. Action by the Security Council, the UN's executive committee, was impossible because Britain and France and Russia held the veto power.

But the assembly voted 65 to 1, to call on Britain and France to withdraw from Egypt. It then approved 64 to 0 a plan to send a United Nations force to take over the canal zone.

The assembly also, by a vote of 80 to 8, condemned Russia for its bestial action in Hungary.

Britain and France moved into the canal zone on the ground that it was endangered by an Israeli attack on Egypt.

This explanation did not satisfy even most Western Allied governments, including the United States.

Nor did it satisfy many Britons. There was a riotous demonstration against Prime Minister Anthony Eden in London. Numerous Congressmen, including some cabinet members, were reported opposed to Eden's action.

At the week end the danger of a big war seemed to have become remote. But the Suez attack had stirred up bitterness which was unlikely to subside soon. Russia's attack on Hungarian patriots had shown the utter ruthlessness and cynicism of the Soviet government — its ruthlessness in crushing any challenge to its rule, its cynicism in its pretensions to seek peace and in its protest against the Suez invasion. But the big development was that Russia can never again be certain of its position in the satellite countries.

Election
The American presidential election showed the headlines in foreign countries with Suez and Hungary. President Eisenhower's re-election was welcomed heartily in nearly all world capitals. Aside from his personal popularity, the feeling was that the best hope for peace lay in his continued leadership.

There he was in the mess hall at headquarters company, 8th Infantry, Aschaffenburg, Germany, ready to tie into a big T-bone steak. Saturday was steak day and our lad had looked forward to it.

He went to work but nothing happened. To his dismay he realized he had nothing in his mouth that would do a decent job on a steak.

Gene was plenty sore. But he got sorer when his buddies, tumbling to his plight, started to pitch GI bars.

"Gene, old buddy," said a guy from Iowa who owned a full set of choppers, "have you ever thought of going on a soup diet?"

Man from Texas, called "Tex" for no particular reason, chided: "What's the trouble, boy? Don't you want that T-bone?"

The PFC began hunting through his pockets, eight or nine of them, but couldn't find his falsies.

There was only one thing to do. He beat a retreat from his buddies and went to bed. His barracks mates said later his snoring was even more raucous than usual.

But next morning our boy Gene had a consoling awakening. There was his laundry.

False Teeth Get Laundered By Mistake

WASHINGTON (UP)—Pfc. Eugene E. Hoffman of RFD 6, Louis, Ill., isn't happy about it, but the fact is he can't gnaw a bone without benefit of his Army-supplied teeth.

There he was in the mess hall at headquarters company, 8th Infantry, Aschaffenburg, Germany, ready to tie into a big T-bone steak. Saturday was steak day and our lad had looked forward to it.
