Another Report On Hotel Stock Made

The third report meeting on progress being made in the intensive stock selling campaign to sell stock in the proposed community owned hotel for Pampa was scheduled for noon today in the Palm Room at City Hall.

The meeting was to be attended by members of the executive committee and the general sales organization. These two groups reported at the report meeting yesterday that a total of $291,300 in stock had been sold up till noon yesterday. Representatives of the groups reported that they expected the total to be somewhat higher today.

Recognition of outstanding achievements by sales personnel were also scheduled for the meeting today. The awards are being given to salespeople leading in amount of stock sold and also to those who sell the largest number of subscriptions.

George Cree Jr., chairman of the executive committee, will preside at the meeting today. Following the statements by Cree, the meeting will be turned over to Fred Nealgas, general sales manager, for the making of sales reports from the various sales groups.

A general discussion of problems faced by the salespeople will be held in an effort to help each other answer questions and objections that prospective subscribers might have.

"At the meeting yesterday banners which say 'We Are In' were presented to the groups with the highest total in each of the six divisions of the general sales organization. The groups receiving these banners were: Group 3, headed by

First Unit Goes Into Action At Port Said

By DANIEL F. GILMORE
United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON (UP)—The first 197-man contingent of the UN police force to go into action was ordered today from its temporary canal zone base to Port Said.

The group has been marking time with other UN troops at Abu Sweir, awaiting the order which came today to move into the Suez Canal area invaded by Anglo-French forces.

A UN spokesman said the Anglo-French governments had agreed to the stationing of a UN emergency force (UNEP) company-sized detachment in Port Said city.

He said the Norwegians who make up the first contingent will proceed to Port Said as soon as they receive clearance from Anglo-French headquarters on Cyprus.

Area Is Troubled

The Norwegian soldiers, armed with rifles and light automatic weapons, were sent into the area where Anglo-French forces have clashed twice this week with the Egyptians in what each side called a violation of the cease fire by the other.

British and French salvage vessels were reported steaming toward both ends of the Suez Canal today in defiance of Egypt's declaration that it alone has the right to clear the waterway, plugged by numerous sunken ships.

Port Said, the Norwegians' destination, is at the northern end of the canal.

UN Forces Entrain

United Press Correspondent Gerald Arathorn reported from the temporary UN base at Abu Sweir, a former RAF station near Ismailia, that the UN troops were entraining for Port Said at noon (5 a.m. est) for the first UN police force duty.

Some 800 troops from Norway, Denmark, Colombia and Communist Yugoslavia have arrived in the old British base at Abu Sweir and the number is expected to swell eventually to 5,000 to 6,000 troops. They had not been expected to go to work this soon.

But rising tension in the Port Said area, where the Egyptians accused Anglo-French troops of committing "atrocities," was believed to have led to their early dispatch. They had been expected to await the arrival late today or Wednesday of their commander, Maj. Gen. E.L.M. Burns.

Tension in the actual battle area was reflected in political developments in Cairo, London, Paris, Tel Aviv and at the United Nations.

Informed sources here and in Jerusalem reported a stiffened attitude toward Egypt despite repeated Egyptian threats to bring in Soviet volunteers unless the British, French and Israeli troops withdraw at once.

US Oil Alleviates European Shortage

By RICHARD C. SEZEMORE
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (UP)—Oil from U.S. private firms probably will begin arriving in West Europe late this week to help alleviate the shortage there caused by the blocking of the Suez Canal.

Hugh A. Stewart, director of the Interior Department's office of oil and gas, said private firms have had difficulty getting their tankers re-routed to West Europe, but the situation is about to be remedied.

Although reports filed in his office show no increase yet in U.S. oil exports to Europe, a rise is expected by the end of the week.

Two weeks ago West European countries began all-out efforts to purchase oil privately from U.S. firms. This action was taken when the United States refrained from putting into effect previous plans to supply West Europe with 800,000 barrels of oil daily should the Suez Canal be closed and access to Middle East oil cut off.

The U.S. government has not decided, however, with private purchases of oil in this country by European nations.

The government's original plan to supply West Europe with oil was made when Egypt nationalized the Suez Canal and Britain and France feared their ships might be blocked from using the waterway. But when Britain and France moved into Egypt with force and occupied the canal zone—a move this country strongly opposed—the United States held off on carrying out its plan even though the canal was blocked by sunken ships.

An official has said, however, the government will put its plan into effect once the Suez situation has stabilized—presumably when the United Nations police force is established in the canal zone and British and French forces are withdrawn.

The original government plan called for pooling the resources of 15 major oil companies to help West Europe make up its oil deficit. Stewart said the pooling plan could, through greater efficiency, assure West Europe of possibly 20 per cent more oil daily than could be supplied by the private firms on an individual basis.

The government plan also would have an advantage from a cost standpoint. At present Britain, France and other West European countries are paying cash on the open market for the oil. Credit would be advanced under the government plan.

Officials here said even if the Suez crisis were settled tomorrow, West Europe still would face an oil shortage through the winter. It will take several months to clear the Suez Canal after a settlement is reached.

BUDAPEST (UP)—Hungary's Communists warned Russia today that unlike Poland they will not accept permanent Soviet military occupation.

In a sharp editorial published in the official Communist Party organ, Hungarian Communist Leader Wladyslaw Gomulka and the Kremlin leadership which provided for the permanent stationing of Soviet troops in Poland. Nep Szabadsag described this as "disgraceful."

Heretofore, the Kadar regime had replied to workers demands by stating that it would negotiate for the withdrawal of Soviet forces after order is restored in Hungary. The editorials made no mention of this.

2 Accidents Occur; 1 Man Hospitalized

Two accidents which occurred within four miles of each other late yesterday afternoon on the Perryton highway resulted in the driver of one vehicle being hospitalized.

The injured man is Bob Jack Randall of Perryton who was taken to Highland General Hospital by a man who had been involved in the other accident. Randall's condition was reported to be satisfactory this morning, according to hospital attendants. He received severe lacerations to the head, the attendants reported.

The first accident occurred at approximately 5 p.m. about 15 miles north of Pampa, the investigating highway patrolman reported.

H. L. Ledrick Jr., 121 N. Wynne, driving a '56 Ford pickup, attempted to pass a '56 International tractor and trailer loaded with butane, driven by Raymond R. Ross of Midland. According to the statement of Ledrick, as he was passing the truck it swerved to wards his pickup causing him to lose control. The pickup turned over on the left side of the road.

Ledrick was taken to the Highland General hospital by a passing motorist for examination but was released.

He started back to the scene of the accident in his station wagon and approximately 10 1/2 miles north of town a '53 DeSoto driven by Randall, which was following him, left the road and turned over. Ledrick stopped and placed Randall in his station wagon and went on to the scene of the earlier collision where the highway patrolman was waiting for him.

They then took Randall to the hospital in Ledrick's station wagon.

Six Persons Die, 52 Injured In October Car Accidents

Highway accidents in the Texas Panhandle during the month of October claimed the lives of six persons, injured 52 others, and caused an estimated property damage of $102,807, according to a report made public by the Amarillo District of the Texas Highway Patrol Department.

The report was the result of investigations made by highway patrolmen on the number of casualties of automobile accidents and the principal causes of such tragedies.

The principal violations reported as factors in October accidents were: speeding; failure to grant the right of way; driving while intoxicated; following too closely; and improper turns.

The report on injuries and deaths, however, was lighter than the same period last year which listed eight deaths and 87 injuries. Property damage was higher, though, than a year ago with that report reading $99,299 against this October's $102,807.

The first ten months of this year had claimed 75 lives and caused 646 serious injuries with a total of $755,193 in property damages. The number of deaths last year during the first ten months was 81 with 683 injuries, but once again the damage was less than this year with a total $703,058.

This report does not include accidents investigated by other agencies. It was the result of the investigation of 124 accidents.

10 To 20 Degrees Forecast For The Panhandle Tonight

By UNITED PRESS

A slow-moving cold front brought freezing drizzle to the Panhandle today and promised increased shower activity in Central and East Texas.

The leading edge of the front reached a line bounded by Bowie, Breckenridge and San Angelo at 8 a.m. today and continued slowly southeastward.

The U.S. weather bureau said the front would drop temperatures to 10 to 20 degrees tonight in the Panhandle and Upper South Plains, 20 to 32 degrees in other portions of West Texas and 25 to 35 in North Central Texas.

Snow Promised For Panhandle

Snow also was promised for the Panhandle tonight and early Wednesday with amounts of up to five inches expected.

Showers will fall today in East and South Central Texas with temperatures turning colder tonight. Lows of 30 to 40 degrees were forecast for Wednesday.

Although freezing drizzle fell in the Panhandle and light scattered rains fell in North Central Texas there were no measurable amounts up to 4:30 a.m. today.

The cold air mass moved into Texas from Colorado where snows of up to 15 inches fell Monday. But a flow of warm moist air from the Gulf kept temperatures balmy Monday in most of the state and provided a weird weather pattern for which the state is noted.

Laredo's Hottest

While temperatures dropped to 22 degrees this morning at Dalhart, Laredo Monday was the hottest place in the nation with an 86-degree reading. Winds kicked up dust in the El Paso area; light showers fell in the central area and along the coast.

Besides the low of 22 at Dalhart, other minimums included Amarillo 27, Lubbock 30, Marfa 40, El Paso 43, Presidio 50, Del Rio 61, Laredo 68, Victoria 67, Houston 66, Galveston 70, Port Arthur 69, Lufkin 70, Austin 71, Waco 71, Dallas and Fort Worth 69, Abilene 51, San Angelo 61 and Wichita Falls 59.

Church Here To Build Addition

The Zion Lutheran Church has announced plans for the building of a new addition.

This addition calls for a parish hall, offices and a class room for Sunday School.

Designer of the building will be John Wiley, of McMorris Associates of Pampa. No bids for contracting have been let yet, but are expected to be shortly.

Ike To Ask Russia To Spell Out Disarmament Proposals

By WILLIAM GALBRAITH
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (UP)—American officials said today President Eisenhower probably will tell Russia to spell out its newest disarmament proposals more explicitly if it is sincere about them.

U.S. disarmament experts suspect that Russia may have put forth the new proposals largely as a propaganda move to divert attention from the Hungarian situation. But they said "stakes in the disarmament race are too high to leave any stone unturned."

Mr. Eisenhower and Harold E. Stassen, his special disarmament adviser, went over the Russian proposals Monday as part of a government-wide "word by word" study of the message. Stassen also met with a seven-agency governmental committee which is trying to determine whether the Soviet proposal holds any hope for successful negotiation on disarmament.

Propose New "Summit"

The latest Moscow ideas were communicated over the weekend to the United States, Britain, France, Red China and India. It called for a new "Summit" conference at which the Soviet Union would be prepared to discuss limited application of Mr. Eisenhower's "open skies" aerial inspection plan.

This was the first instance in which the Soviets indicated they might accept the aerial inspection idea in any form.

The Russians proposed creation of a 1,000-mile belt across Europe which would be subject to a test of the aerial inspection plan. The belt would run about 500 miles on both sides of a line separating Eastern and Western forces in Europe.

Blast Western Powers

But coupled with this new proposal, the Russians blasted Western powers in biting language and repeated many old Soviet disarmament ideas, including immediate suspension of H-bomb tests.

Officials said the United States is not ready for another Summit meeting on the basis of the new Soviet note. But they said the United States will want to explore the Soviet plan thoroughly through diplomatic channels before accepting or rejecting it. One likely way to do this, they said, is for Mr. Eisenhower to ask Russia for more details if it wants serious negotiations to end the arms race.

Authorities quickly turned down the idea that the aerial inspection be limited to the zone suggested by Russia. That would let Soviet inspectors check almost all the North Atlantic Treaty Organization area but would bar inspectors from seeing what goes on inside the Soviet border. Officials said this would mean the end of NATO's usefulness.

Interest Rates May Raise On Savings

By ROBERT F. MORISON
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (UP)—The Federal Reserve Board is making a study to determine whether it should authorize its 6,491 member banks to raise the two and one-half per cent interest rate on savings accounts, it was learned today.

A source familiar with the board's operations said the problem "has assumed practical importance for the first time since the 1930's." In 1936, when the nation was climbing out of the depression, Congress gave the board discretionary authority to raise or lower the interest rate which has ranged from one to two and one-half per cent.

Individual banks, pressed for lending funds, have asked both agencies to authorize higher rates. This would increase their savings deposits and provide them with more money to lend.

Effect Must Be Weighed
First it must weigh the potential effect on the economic structure—whether among other things it would draw off investment funds from insurance companies and other institutions; hurt the government securities market; what effect it would have on credit and whether it might lead to injurious competition for savings accounts among commercial banks.

sociations, which have more freedom than commercial banks, paid interest last year ranging from two and one-half to four and one-half per cent. The Federal Reserve Board said this would mean their deposits through September to $35.7 billion. This was more than double the 1950 total.

By contrast the nation's 13,208 commercial banks on June 30 had deposits—largely savings accounts—of $49.5 billion, an increase of only $15 billion since 1947.

Costly Dock Strike Ties Up Ships From Texas To Maine

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (UP)—The $20-million-a-day dock strike tied up nearly 200 ships from Maine to Texas Saturday and federal mediators failed in new efforts to get the vessels moving again.

A mediation session that lasted only a little more than an hour broke up with the strike leader declaring, "we went backwards instead of forward." A spokesman for the shippers said he did not think there could be a settlement by Monday.

A new mediation session was scheduled for 2 p.m. Monday.

The negotiations bogged down again after government officials expressed the hope the two-day, old walkout could be settled without a Taft-Hartley injunction.

Travelers had to carry their luggage off a trans-Atlantic liner in New York and two Caribbean cruises were cancelled after passengers waited aboard ship two nights to sail.

U.S. Maritime Administration officials in Washington were "distributed" by the strike of 80,000 dock workers, which came on top of the world shipping crisis caused by the closing of the Suez Canal and threatened to spread to West Coast and Hawaiian ports.

Board Appeals To Ike

The New York Board of Trade appealed to President Eisenhower Friday to declare a national emergency and invoke the Taft-Hartley law. A Labor Department source said Saturday the shutdown is "being watched closely" but that mediators will be given a full opportunity to settle the dispute before court action is sought.

The strike hit every major port from Portland, Me., to Brownsville, Tex. Friday. Two Florida ports were shut early Saturday.

"I marked the first time every Texas port on the Gulf of Mexico had been closed by a strike and brought charges from southern New York were interfering with bargaining on a local level.

Want Blanket Contract

The ILA, ousted from the old AFL several years ago on charges of being run by racketeers, recently won a collective bargaining election against a new AFL-CIO dock workers union. The key issue in the strike, called at 12:01 a.m. Friday, was a union demand for a blanket contract covering all ports on the East Coast and the Gulf of Mexico.

Contracts heretofore have been negotiated on a local and regional basis.

The strike idled at least 50 ships in New York, the nation's largest port, and 40 in New Orleans, the second largest. In Philadelphia, 25 ships, including some carrying Army cargo, were tied up in the Delaware river. Every dock facility in Houston, Tex., was filled to capacity with 23 ships. In Galveston, Tex., three ships were stranded at wharves and three were waiting to enter the port. Three ships were idle at Beaumont, Tex.

United Press Financial Editor
NEW YORK (UP) — Stocks moved through a wide arc in the past week and finished moderately lower.

Trading fell from the previous week with the dealings small late in the week as the financial district awaited further Middle East developments.

The Mid-East marked the path of the market all week. It rose on what was construed favorably and fell again when there was the least change in the trend of eastern developments.

Average Closes Off

The industrial average moved in an area of more than 12 points between the extreme high and the extreme low and closed the week at 480.67 off 4.68 points.

The week's news outside the foreign situation was construed favorably for the market.

Gross national product and personal income for the third quarter set new highs despite the steel strike. October industrial production reached a new top at 150 per cent of the 1947-49 average.

Steel Finds New High

There were many favorable corporation reports and a horde of increased dividends or extras. Steel operations moved to a new high for October and were around full capacity for the week. Auto output rose nearly 10 per cent.

Steels, oils, sugars, coals, ship-buildings, and specials made wide gains on the week. Metals were down. Selected aircrafts and chemicals also reacted. Lukens Steel, the week's star, rose 34 1-2 points.

In the oils gains ranging to 11 1-8 points were set by Amrad, Seaboard, Skelly, Continental and Shell.

Police Investigate Burglary

Local officers are checking leads and evidence in the burglary of the Frank Dial Tire Co., 300 W. Brown, which occurred Sunday night, Jim Conner, chief of police, reported this morning.

The burglars entered the building by prying a piece of sheet iron from the southwest corner of the building, which faces the alley. A small round bar was used to pry the metal off, Conner reported.

After gaining entry to the building the burglars opened one of the overhead doors and rolled several tires from the building. The first report received by the police department stated that four 10:00 x 20 U.S. Royal truck tires had been taken.

Frank Dial, owner of the firm, reported this morning that an inventory of the tires disclosed that four 6.70 x 15 white sidewall passenger tires had also been taken in the burglary.

The police are checking tire marks and footprints left at the scene in an effort to identify the persons responsible.

Where U.N. Works

At hand is a perfect example of the effectiveness of the United Nations to make trouble. Equally available for any observer is the dramatic disclosure that the United Nations is totally ineffective when it comes to eliminating trouble.

We have, from time to time, brought to our readers the facts relative to the ineffectiveness of this international bad dream. It is perfectly clear that in virtually every instance where the U. N. has sought to become an effective instrument in the preservation of peace or the useful promulgation of better understanding, it has miserably failed. So its ineffectiveness as a peace-making agency ought now to be unmistakably apparent.

However, its effectiveness as an agent of discord is perhaps, not so well understood. But if we view the present hostilities in the Middle East against a background of the other actions taken by the U. N., we will discern a pattern of inharmonious as effective and deadly as that encountered in a den of pit vipers.

You can strike off a merit badge for accomplishments for the U. N. if you believe that accomplishment can be so classed when it is wholly destructive.

Let us make no mistake about it, the present conflict in Egypt was sired by the United Nations. Today there would be no war in that area had the hired pawns of internationalism not set the stage when they partitioned the Holy Land for Zionist occupation. In all probability, without U. N. intervention, there would be not only no war, but the Suez Canal would probably still be a privately operated ditch, oil development in Arabian lands would probably be continuing on a peaceful basis, and the many problems of the French in Morocco and Algeria would not have developed as they did.

Now, let's look at Korea. There would probably never have been a war there, had the U. N. not partitioned the peninsula at a totally impractical parallel. The partitioning was fathered in the U. N., and one of the Russians who insisted on the 38th degree of latitude, after having it established, hurried to North Korea to command the troops in their violation of the boundary. Further, the outcome in Korea, had war come, could have been decisive, saving only that the U. N. is never for military victory, but always for appeasement and compromise under drawn bayonets.

American experience in Guatemala provides another example. It is doubtful, even with Russian connivance, if the difficulties there would ever have reached the pitch they did, had it not been for the hope of the Russians that American intervention could be stymied in the Security Council of the U. N. Fortunately for us, with a problem that close to home, we by-passed the U. N. and took independent action.

It was the U. N. idea, perhaps engendered in part by Gen. Eisenhower, a staunch devotee of the one-world concept, which partitioned Berlin and gave the Russians Eastern Germany. It was the U. N. idea which carved up Indonesia and has paved the way for communist expansion in the southeastern extremities of Asia.

In the Greek crisis, brought on in part by U. N. interference, the Greek nation by-passed U. N. meddling and saved their state. But the trouble was in full bloom before they thought to disavow this polyglot of perplexity.

In short, the United Nations is an effective agency. It is effective in abrogating our Constitution, in overriding our state laws, in making us ineffective and futile as a nation. But when it comes to solving our problems, it falls flat on its many-windowed face. And that is particularly noticeable in the very problems which the U. N. roises.

Instead of aiding this nation in its dealings with other nations, we find American prestige at a new U. N. low-ebb, as our independence and free enterprise are undermined, and as we become enmeshed in the spider web of confusion which the U. N. generates.

There is but one good we can see which might come out of this Middle Eastern chaos. The ineffectiveness of the U. N. as a peace-making agency may be starkly revealed. Its effectiveness as an agency of trouble may be recognized. And if these facts become generally known, this nation may yet pull out of the incubator which hatches nothing but eggs of violent socialism.

Let's get the U. S. out of the U. N. and ban it from our shores.

The Doctor Says

By EDGAR P. JORDAN, M. D.

A CORRESPONDENT writes that she has a 10-month-old son who has a slight excess of fluid inside the skull—diagnosed as hydrocephalus. The boy can sit up, play patty-cake and do many things that average children do. Her request is for a discussion of this subject.

Hydrocephalus is the medical name for a condition—not too common—involving the accumulation of fluid inside the brain. This results in a stretching of the skull from the pressure of excessive fluid. It is commonly called "water on the brain." It may be present at birth or may not become evident until some time during early childhood.

Hydrocephalus does not necessarily interfere with intelligence. In one famous case, a man lived to the age of 29, with intelligence. In one famous case, a man lived to the age of 29, with a skull stretched so much it was almost transparent. His mental faculties, however, remained excellent. The symptoms of hydrocephalus vary widely. Mental changes may or may not be present. Headaches and disturbances of vision or walking are among the possible symptoms.

THE OUTLOOK for someone afflicted by this condition depends on the cause (if known) and on the speed with which fluid accumulates. If it comes on suddenly and fluid accumulates rapidly, the outlook, of course, is unfavorable. In many mild cases, however, recovery can, and often does, occur.

In some cases, the condition can be permanently relieved by surgery. Perhaps a vicious cycle broken by removing through a needle some of the excess fluid. The chances of success are best if treatment is started early.

Competition

If people really understood competition they would believe in it. Very, very few people understand what competition is.

I believe if we in the United States understood competition we would not have been in any war save the Revolutionary War. I believe our standard of living would be much higher than it is today.

I am continuing to quote from Frederic Bastiat's chapter on "Competition" in his book "Harmonies of Political Economy." From here on Bastiat is speaking: "It is sufficient to know that Competition is nothing else than the absence of an arbitrary authority as judge of exchanges, in order to be satisfied that it is in-destructible. Illegitimate force may no doubt restrain, counteract, trammel the liberty of exchanging, as it may the liberty of walking; but it can annihilate neither the one nor the other without annihilating man. This being so, it remains for us to inquire whether Competition tends to the happiness or misery of mankind; a question which amounts to this:—Is the human race naturally progressive, or are its tendencies fatally retrograde?"

"I hesitate not to say that Competition, which, indeed, we might denominate Liberty, despite the repulsion which it excites, despite the declamations to which it has given rise, is a law which is democratical in its essence. Of all the laws to which Providence has con-fided the progress of human so-ciety, it is the most progressive, leveling, and communitaire. It is this law which brings successively into the common domain the use and enjoyment of commodities which nature has accorded gratuitously only to certain countries. It is this law, again, which brings into the common domain all the conquests which the genius of each age bequeaths to succeeding generations, leaving them only supplementary labours to execute which last they continue to ex-change with one another, without succeeding, as they desire, in ob-taining a recompense for the co-operation of natural agents; and if these labours, as happens al-ways in the beginning, possess a value which is not proportionate to their intensity, it is still Com-petition which, by its incessant but unperceived action, restores an equilibrium which is sanctioned by justice, and which is more exact than any that the fallible sagacity of a human magistracy could by possibility establish. Far from Competition leading to inequality, as has been erroneously alleged, we may assert that all factitious inequality is imputable to its ab-sence; and if the gulf between the Grand Lama and a Paria is more profound than that which separates the President from an artisan of the United States, the reason is this, the Competition (or Liberty), which is curbed and put down in Asia, is not so in America. This is the reason why, whilst the So-cialists see in Competition the source of all that is evil, we trace to the attacks which have been made upon it the disturbance of all that is good. Although this great law has been misunder-stood by the Socialists and their adepts; although it is frequently harsh in its operation, no law is more fertile in social harmonies, more beneficent in general results; no law attests more clearly the in-measurable superiority of the de-signs of God over the vain and powerless combinations of men."

"It must here remind the reader of that singular but unquestionable result of the social order to which I have already invited his attention, and which the power of habit hides too frequently from our view. It is this, that the sum total of satisfactions which falls to each member of society is much su-perior to those which he could procure for himself by his own ef-forts. In other words, there is an evident disproportion between our consumption and our labour. This phenomenon, which all of us can easily verify, if we turn our re-gards upon ourselves, ought, it seems to me, to inspire some gra-titude to society, to which we owe it."

"We come into this world desti-tute of everything, and provided with numerous wants, and provided with nothing but faculties to en-able us to struggle against them. A priori, it would seem that all we could expect would be to ob-tain satisfactions proportionate to our labour. If we obtain more, infinitely more, to what do we owe the excess? Precisely to that natural organization against which we are constantly declaiming, when we are not engaged in seek-ing to subvert it."

"In itself the phenomenon is truly extraordinary. That certain men consume more than they pro-duce is easily explained, if in one way or other they usurp the rights of other people—if they receive services without rendering them. But how can that be true of all men at the same time? How hap-pens it that, after having exchang-ed their services without con-straint, without spoliation, upon a footing of equivalence, each man can say to himself with truth, I consume in a day more than I could produce in a century?"

"The reader has seen that the additional element which resolves the problem is the co-operation of natural agents, constantly be-coming more and more effective in gratuitous utility falling continual-ly into the domain of Community; it is the labour of heat and of cold, of light, of gravitation, of affinity, of elasticity, coming progressively to be added to the labour of man, diminishing the value of services by rendering them more easy."

Would Fight Only For U. S. Medal Of Honor Winners

By WESTBROCK PEGLER

LAKELAND, Fla. — At the banquet which closed the convention of the Congressional Medal of Honor Society, General Hershey, the director of the Draft Law, have up at the tin-can mounted on a nickel pipe and, after a few premonitory whinnies, sidled into a composite of the most durable droolers of Joe. E. Lewis and Will Rogers. Hershey is an acceptable one-gallus hoosier who could book solid on the homespun, God-fearing, satan-hatin' circuit of cities where the home - guards still troop the colors and the best people lower their lids during the benediction and sing out hallelujah loud and strong.

For his whim - sock at the close, Hershey confided that the loyalty of young Americans had been ad-dressed by the teaching or, better say, guided misgiving of the educators. He put in a tentative plug for a hardening process, spiritual and physical, to cure the doubts and tone up the corpuses of the men. He would have been in bet-ter phrase if he had called for a national course of boot-training in patriotism, devotion and discipline, for that was the logical ultimate of his proposal.

But Mussolini and Hitler pre-scribed that so it must be Un-American, however tonic for soul and body.

Incidentally, two of the Medal of Honor men who lent him ears had been turned down as volunteers and then called as conscripts, a mild ignominy common during Roosevelt's war. They were Jimmy Mills, of Lakeland, a hero still honored as he walks among his neighbors, and Charlie Shea, of New York. Going to the point, I asked them and many others "What are you loyal to?"

Mr. Mills was loyal only to the United States and specifically not loyal to the United Nations. He went into the Army a mild atheist but abruptly found himself em-broiled in an unimaginable killing at Anzio, wiping out 20 German young men with his M1 in a few mild seconds of slaughter. Now he was no longer even skeptic but a religious youth slaughtering stran-gers of his own age on a foreign shore without hatred, but without sorrow, because they were trying to kill him. He didn't fear death, but he felt that if he died everything would be all right. And his mother back in Florida was driving a school bus to eke out his Army "allowance."

Sergeant Bob Kenmore, of Oakland, a third - cruise marine with both legs off at the knees and a wife and six children at home, is patriotic only to the United States and indifferent to the United Nations, which had got him em-broiled in Korea, where he lost his legs at last. He tangled recently with a world federalist and told him frankly that he suspected him of being a Communist.

Robert H. Dunlop, of Monmouth, Ill., is loyal to the American people because, in war, the whole people should be comrades against the enemy. However, he thinks the United Nations offers "hope" and therefore is not hostile but with-holds loyalty.

I canvassed about 50 Medal of Honor men, all absolutely patriotic in the "narrow" nationalistic sense so abhorrent to the cult of la boca and hostile, indifferent or, at warm-est, tolerant toward any other land or federation.

Well, the gopher has nothing on its human counterpart — the politician. Not only can the latter, like the gopher, move as easily in one direction as another but also the politician leaves behind him, like the fast - moving mound - maker, an empty trail of hollow prom-ises. And the political spellbinder is likewise as hard to pin down as the baffling burrower. Put your foot where you think he is and he is almost sure to be somewhere else. His crisscrossing of the land-scape raises havoc with your bud-get but that deters him not at all. He pursues his erratic and irritat-ing course in the full confidence that what is good for him is good for you.

To become adept at politics, it is only necessary to follow the ex-ample of the pocket gopher: re-sistance and be ready at all times to reverse yourself if you see you are getting into a trap.

FOR REFLECTION

...with JAMES C. INGBRETTSEN
President, Spiritual Mobilization

"The pocket gopher," according to a recent newspaper item, "is one of the few animals that can run backward as easily as it can move forward. Here its tail serves it in good stead as it is endowed with tactile organs, enabling the animal to feel its way around underground when it moves in reverse."

Well, the gopher has nothing on its human counterpart — the politician. Not only can the latter, like the gopher, move as easily in one direction as another but also the politician leaves behind him, like the fast - moving mound - maker, an empty trail of hollow prom-ises. Ike Plans To Match F.D.R. Economic And Social Reform

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — What can the people of the United States and our overseas Allies and neutrals expect from a Dwight D. Eisenhower who has been re-elected on his own terms by the greatest popular and electoral vote ever given to a Republican candidate for the Presidency? Washington is buzzing with admittedly speculative answers to that all-important question.

It is not enough to say that, as he has intimated, he will propose an expanded legislative program of humane social economic legislation. Nor is it sufficient to forecast that he will continue to fight against rampant colonialism and imperialism, whether it emanates from Moscow or London and Paris.

The question, uppermost in the pro-Ike people's minds today re- volves around specifics, not general- ities. Now that Ike is acknowledged to be the free world's foremost fig- ure, and the Republicans' only anchor for the political future, what will he do or ask in the way of Administration and Congressional policy in order to bulwark and maintain the GOP's stature?

For one thing, in the field of so- cial legislation, Eisenhower may suggest that Social Security ben- efits for a retired man and wife at 65 be raised to $2,500 instead of the $1,500 average. Only a small tax increase will be needed to finance this expansion. Adlai E. Ste- venson advocated a maximum of $3,150.

There is strong Congressional demand that Social Security ben- eficiaries, who may now earn only $1,200 a year without forfeiting gov- ernment payments, be permitted to collect $2,000 or $3,000 on outside work.

Ike is expected to favor that re- vision. He will again ask Congress to underwrite a Federal health rein- surance program. But instead of the $25,000,000 commitment he pro- posed at the last session, which medicos and politicians branded as a pittance, he will probably suggest $100,000,000 in Federal supports.

As he did at the last session, Ike will urge a $5 billion program for construction of new schools. His program was thwarted in a controversy over allocation of Fed- eral money to school districts which had not implemented the Supreme Court's desegregation de- cision.

On Civil Rights, Ike's position is clearer than ever. He favors equal opportunities for minority groups, but he believes that such delicate problems should be resolved on lo- cal and state levels, by community groups and by understanding courts and local officials.

In his Federal jurisdiction, he has gone the limit in extending equality to minority elements, espe- cially the colored people.

Ike is especially encouraged by the endorsement, as his personal study of sample voting districts showed, of his policy of noninter- ference with labor and industrial difficulties.

He believes that his "part- nership concept," which connotes a neutral and standoff attitude, has been well received, in view of the fact that he carried almost all the great industrial states in the North and South, as well as power-hun- gry areas.

It is too early, and events over- seas are moving too rapidly and violently, to envisage foreign gov- ernment changes. But Ike has definite- ly lined up against aggression of any kind, and may eventually win 2 billion of the oppressed and un- derprivileged peoples of the world to our side in the duel with Rus- sia for mankind's mind.

There's a bright, cozy sitting- room, with flowers, bookshelves and lounge sofas, and the fam- ily's living quarters are as spacious as a hotel suite, Mary and I have the guest room, and we don't care if the Merwesteyn takes all year to reach Mannheim.

There is no use saying that the galley is more than adequate. The Dutch wouldn't sail on a ship that wasn't provided with ample cool- ing facilities. The pantry is filled to overflowing, and since we came on board last night, the Captain's wife and her mother-in-law, with apparently no effort, have kept the dining table loaded with solid food and an assortment of Dutch deli- cacies.

We are being treated just as if we were guests in the Starren- burg's home, which we are. How do Mary and I enjoy such a privi- lege? We would like to think it is because we are so charming, but that wouldn't be the truth. It hap- pened this way:

Launched only last June, she is a far cry from most of the barges which ply the vital water high- way. Nearly as long as a football field, she is the last word in en- gineering, electronics, and com- fort.

The Merwesteyn is Captain Starrenburg's home, and it's a fine one. It is as compact a home afloat as you could imagine, and its attractive interior is the work of a well-known Dutch decorator.

The United States Army is using the Port of Rotterdam and Rhine barges to transport tons and tons of supplies to the troops in Ger- many. Rhine shipping companies — some twenty of them from Hol- land, France, Belgium, Switzer- land and Germany — have formed a combine to handle the Army business. The Army asked the combine to show me how Rhine shipping worked, and the owners of the Merwesteyn were gracious enough to arrange the trip about their newest and finest vessel.

It should be a wonderful trip — provided the officials of Rijns- dienst-R.R.B.-Koenigsfeld, and Captain and his family, don't let us with kindness before we there.

Pampa News Women's Editor

THIS SEASON, THE LUXURY OF BEAUTIFUL FUR, exquisitely tailored, is fashion unlimited. Newly inspired by the French collections, the caraco, the hip-length jacket and the pellerine capelet, plus an assortment of shoulder pieces of medium to miniature proportions, are in evidence throughout the top furriers' collections.

THE DESIGNERS have developed these charming "little pieces," that seem to carry on so beautifully throughout the season without ever going to storage, to tell a versatile story in five furs — luxurious Alaska Fur Seal, lustrous Southwest African Persian Lamb, flattering Saga Norwegian Blue Fox, newly dyed beige Otter and Mink in all of its mutations.

Basic features of the caraco jackets are the briefing to the waist, shorter, (generally three-quarter) sleeves and set-in shoulder dropped just a bit for extra smoothness.

Mock-suit jackets, perfect traveling companions for sheer wool dresses, are usually tailored with small notched reverses, or collars soft and wide set off from the neckline, sometimes detachable. The line in jackets is more often perfectly straight, however a few are slightly nipped in at the waist.

Supple handling of peltry strikes a major fashion note in the capes, pellerines and stoles. Ingeniously worked skins form bloused back treatments, while rounding contours built up by new bolster collars are set back and pleated. Ends are newly folded up in short stoles and thus are also used as new styling devices for the sling cape. The fichu, longer stoles, or bateau scarfs usually feature loop pull throughs or buttons for easy adjustment.

With furs in so many unlimited editions, there is bound to be an increase in the growing trend of fashion-conscious women of today in obtaining a fur wardrobe to flatter her individual coloring and complement her costumes from day through evening.

FROM CALIFORNIA, where the sun shines all year 'round, what could be more natural than "sunshine" colors in the new fall collection of Tabak of California?

Throughout the whole collection it is quite obvious that Designer Merl Beiting had the career girl in mind... whether she's at work, at play, or leisurely entertaining at home or dining out... these Tabak "lie-ins" are hers... but these casually elegant fashions will be found in the wardrobe of every woman whose taste in fashion parallels the well-dressed career girl.

The new collection is divided into seven groups. Scattered throughout the groups are hand-screened Hi-Bulk Orion sweaters, exclusive because of the brilliant use of five jewel-like colors in Tabak's own patterns and colors. These sweaters are hand washable, which make them even more precious to the girl who works.

Another fashion highlight is the use of knit trims... on collars, cuffs and buttons. Bulky knit sweaters carry out the important knit trend for fall.

Leather, too, finds its way into this key collection via collars and hand-bound buttonholes. The sunshine colors run the gamut from pimiento red, bitter-sweet orange, yellows, pineapple green, brilliant blues, peacock green and crimson glow. Fabrics range from typically Tabak menswear flannels, an exclusive Lura-Sil used in blouses and skirts, worsted tweeds, worsted blazer stripes and on - the - job jerseys, to, last but not least, the dinner date velveteens.

Tabak believes in the return of the vest... the continued popularity of jumper sheaths and slim, straight princess sheath dresses... the soundness of step in dresses. There's a choice of slim skirts or full skirts. Jackets are short, in most instances waist length. There are four dresses in the jersey group plus a costume suit. There are slacks, Jamaica shorts and pedal pushers.

Particularly outstanding is a tweed outfit... made up of a waist length "jacketette," leather collared and with leather hand-bound buttonholes, a slim, trouser, detailed skirt and a jersey high-crow neck-lined blouse. There is an elegant velveteen sheath, and a wonderful tweed dress with a ribbed knit collar and hand crocheted buttons.

THE POWER OF BALANCE—Italian firemen are shown as they performed with impressive acrobatic skill during a mass exercise on balanced ladders in the Borghese Gardens of Rome. Agility and control on such ladders can mean the saving of lives in addition to the pleasing of the eyes, and these men have to maintain tip-top physical condition.

PIERSALL PADDLES—Centerfielder Jim Piersall, of the Boston Red Sox, and his wife, Mary, are playing table tennis while vacationing in upstate New York. A Hollywood movie company will make a film of the ball player's life. Piersall and his wife have five children.

AFRICAN HIGH JINKS—Some natives at Michakos, Kenya, are somersaulting in the air during a spectacular dance. They flip in mid-air to the savage beat of a bongo drum as they perform the ceremonial dance that takes years of practice to perfect.

40 WINKS—Brooklyn Dodgers' catcher Dixie Howell, left, and outfielder Gino Cimoli preferred a snooze to rubbernecking on the train ride to Mito, Japan. The Dodgers are giving the Japanese a treat with a series of exhibition games.

SNOW PLODDING—A group of German skiers in Boeblingen is keeping in shape until some real snow comes along. They're using "roller-skis" during a contest that covered a distance of nearly 2,500 feet and included the usual handicaps of a conventional ski race.

DOUBLE BOUNCE—Pretty Delores Doyle looks as if she could wear out two active partners in a game of beachball. Of course, it could be that Delores is just practicing with the two balls at Miami Beach, Fla., in order to catch a doubleheader game.

LIONS' CLAUDE—Claude Benham is only 5 feet 8 inches tall and weighs 165 pounds, but he's the biggest man on the campus of Columbia University in New York. The senior quarterback has been outdoing himself lately with some spectacular gridiron work.

MORAL SUPPORT—Tiny Tim, a mighty good friend of thoroughbred Prince Khaled, is perched on the stall gate at Camden, N. J., to visit the two-year-old colt. The two animals are anything but the same size, but cat and horse enjoy each other's company.

HOPPY INDIAN—Jim Epperson, Jr., a Choctaw Indian student at the University of Oklahoma in Norman, serves as mascot for the school's grid team. Jim does a victory dance after each Sooner touchdown. And, since Oklahoma is one of the country's top-scoring teams, that keeps him busy.

TOSSING ONE—Smiley, a porpoise at Marineland in Pacific Palisades, Calif., is reputed to be a dead shot with either fin, and sure death on underwater jump shots. He's about the best swimmer ever to play basketball and, here, from left to right, Smiley shows his tossing technique. At 350 pounds, he's a trifle heavier than the usual basketball player, but his deadly shooting makes him a standout on the court. At right, he's made his shot and headed under the water.

FELINE FINE—A cat in Monroe, Wis., has a good reason for posing with an Alaskan snowshoe—it's a member of the Snowshoe contingent of felines. These cats are named for their distinctive characteristic: a minimum of six toes on each foot.

MIGHTY SAD—Retiring Columbia coach Lou Little is watching his charges warm up before a game with Cornell in New York, marking the last home appearance for Little. The popular coach retires at the end of the present season after 27 years at Columbia. The Lions' quarterback, Claude Benham threw three touchdown passes to win, 25-19.

Soviet Union's Bid For Air Supremacy Revolves Around Once-Sentenced Man

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (UP)—The Soviet Union's bid for air supremacy over the Free World revolves around a portly, balding little man who was once sentenced to death for treason, an authority on Red aviation said Saturday. Michael Gladych, aeronautical engineer and a former Polish pilot, said the latest aerial creation of Andre Nicolaevich Tupolev, 69, known as the architect of Soviet air power, is a four-jet, 180-passenger airliner.

Communist party secretary Nikita Khrushchev has boasted that the TU-114, believed already in production, will be capable of flying non-stop from Moscow to New York.

Gladych described Tupolev's 45-year career as Russia's top aircraft designer in an article appearing in Flying Magazine.

Gladych said that Prof. N. E. Zhukovsky and his brilliant pupil,

Pet population of the U.S. is estimated at 22,500,000 dogs, 26,500,000 cats, 9,000,000 parakeets and 8,000,000 canaries.

World's second largest telescope is in Hamburg, Germany.

It took Christopher Columbus 71 days to reach the New World.

Tupolev, began laying the foundations of Red air power after the Bolshevik Revolution of 1918.

Has Exceeded Goal

Since then, Gladych said, Tupolev has well exceeded his self-imposed goal of one new plane a year. His aircraft range from a primitive glider built in 1910 to the sleek TU-104, a medium-range, 70-passenger jetliner that stunned the air world when it brought Communist dignitaries to London recently. Another Tupolev creation is the badger twin-jet, medium-range bomber, unveiled in 1952.

Tupolev, Gladych said is one of the few men who ever incurred the wrath of Stalin and survived to receive an apology later from the late dictator.

Tupolev had reached the top in Soviet hierarchy before the bloody purge trials of 1938. From Stalin, he had received the Order of Lenin, the Order of the Red Banner and the Order of the Red Star. He was vice-president of the Soviet aircraft industry board, which had dictatorial powers over

"He had a passport valid for foreign travel without restriction and an unlimited account with the bank of the Soviet Union.

Protested Trial

But Stalin's friendship quickly turned to wrath when Tupolev protested the trial of a friend on trumped-up charges of treason. After letters failed, Gladych said that Tupolev went to the Kremlin and personally berated Stalin in the trial of his friend.

Stalin's reply was to order the trial of Tupolev on charges of selling aircraft designs to Germany. Gladych said Tupolev "laughed" at the charge. However, after scores of witnesses "proved" the charge, he was found guilty and sentenced to death.

Stalin commuted the sentence to life imprisonment after the dictator discovered that his top aircraft designers were idled by Tupolev's absence.

"He was brought to Moscow under heavy guard and put to work at his own drawing board," Gladych said. "Watched night and day, he directed the design and construction of his brigades. His decorations had been taken away. He lived in a cell."

But, in 1941, with Russia facing a German attack, Stalin ordered Tupolev's release from prison.

Once again a hero, the designer was made a lieutenant general of the Red air force. Gladych said Tupolev was summoned to the Kremlin "where Stalin extended his hand in apology." In 1946, he was assigned the job of building long-range bombers in keeping with Soviet plans for world conquest.

Today, Tupolev still puts in a 20-hour day at his drawing board, Gladych said—building the planes that "first broke records — and now threaten the world."

THE SPORTS CALENDAR IS LOADED DOWN this week, both locally and nationally, with everything from six-man football games to the prize of them all, the Olympic Games. Football, basketball, boxing, track and field, bowling and many others are intermingled on a calendar that generally is dominated by football.

The Pampa Harvesters' final game of the season against Borger and four bi-district football games will be the area highlight. Then there's boxing at the community building tonight and Saturday night and bowling almost every night in Pampa. Basketball season has opened in many of the area towns and the Olympic Games, which start Thursday afternoon, offer basketball, fencing, modern pentathlon, rowing, track, field hockey, weightlifting, boxing, and soccer.

The Olympics in Melbourne continue through Saturday, Dec. 8 and The News plans to give extensive coverage of every activity. An added feature which should be of interest to all Pampans is a story by Jimmy Bond on his views of the Olympic Games. Bond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Bond, 1305 Crawford, is on the United States basketball team which helps open activities Thursday night. We plan to run the complete Olympic schedule week by week. Stinnett and Clarendon play here in their Class A bi-district game Friday night, Wheeler and Groom meet in McLean Friday night and Perryton takes on Stamford at Childress Friday afternoon. Mobeetie and Bula meet in a six-man bi-district battle, possibly in Pampa Saturday.

RAUL RAMIREZ, known by scores of Pampans as Rabbit, is visiting here on a 21-day leave.

from the Marines. Rabbit, who was one of the outstanding amateur fighters in the Panhandle, is stationed at the San Diego Marine Base.

Ramirez is continuing his boxing career in the service. He's on the base boxing team and has had four matches already, winning all of them. Rabbit has been in the Marines for six months. His fights have been in San Diego, Pasadena, Los Angeles and Del Mar.

Saturday night Rabbit will represent Pampa in its matches against Amarillo Air Force Base, Guymon and West Texas State. He is scheduled to fight a representative of AAFB who has had 215 fights. Ramirez is no novice in the fight game himself. He has had 76 fights and won 56 of those, including a Golden Gloves regional title, two runner-up spots and numerous district titles.

A RECENT ARTICLE in the Atlanta Journal Sunday supplement made mention of Roland (Rollo) Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Phillips of Spearman and former Pampa resident.

Phillips, who along with his two other brothers, Warner & Bo Jack, played football on the 1939, 1940 and 1941 Harvesters teams. The article spoke of Phillips as one of the first players on the Georgia Tech football team to receive a football scholarship as a married man. It seems that he started a rush for the marriage license bureau by setting that precedent. That happened in 1947 and since then a good majority of the scholarships offered have been to married players.

Phillips played on four bowl teams while playing at Georgia Tech, including the Orange Bowl twice, Sugar Bowl and Oil Bowl. He is now employed by Humble Oil Co. in Houston.

THE PAMPA OPTIMIST Club is in dire need of help for its boxing program this year. The club has an estimated 70 boys working out daily and it would like some volunteer coaches to work with the would-be fighters, pee-wees to open divisions. Officials state that the knowledge of boxing is not the primary prerequisite, they just need someone to help them five days weekly at the community building. Anyone interested may contact Olie Wilhelm or Dr. Rutledge.

Abilene Takes Slim Lead Over Coyotes

By ED FITE
United Press Sports Writer
DALLAS (UP) — Abilene's mighty Eagles still ruled the roost in the United Press Class AAAA Texas schoolboy football ratings as they headed for a showdown with fourth-ranked San Angelo, but their lead over runner-up Wichita Falls was the slimmest of the season.

The UP's board of coaches left little doubt as to their choice of Abilene as the supreme team with 15 first-place ballots, but they gave Coach Joe Golding's jolting Coyotes 14 second-place votes and two for third for 144 points to the 150 awarded Abilene.

That was the closest any team has been to Coach Chuck Moser's defending state champs all season. The next closest was when San Angelo polled 141 votes in mid-October.

Highland Park lost a little support, but still held onto third with 121 points to 107 for San Angelo, while Corpus Christi Ray took strong command of the No. 5 spot with 96 points after knocking out Corpus Christi Miller, which had outrated Ray by three points a week ago.

Miller topped all the way to 11th and Tyler, an early-season member of the top 10, slipped into the vacant space in the No. 10 spot despite a 5-4 season record.

Only nine teams received strong backing. Besides the top five, Baytown, Amarillo, Galveston and Houston Lamar all moved up one notch to fill the sixth through a week ago. Baytown got 87 points, Amarillo 80, Galveston 48 and Lamar 37.

DALLAS UP — The United Press Class AAAA Texas schoolboy football ratings with first-place votes and won-loss records in parentheses:

Team	Points
1. Abilene (15) (9-0)	150
2. Wichita Falls (9-0)	144
3. Highland Park (9-0)	113
4. San Angelo (1) (9-0)	109
5. Corpus Christi Ray (9-0-1)	96
6. Baytown (7-1-2)	87
7. Amarillo (8-1)	80
8. Galveston (8-0-1)	48
9. Houston Lamar (7-0-2)	37
10. Tyler (5-4)	13

OTHERS — 1. Corpus Christi Miller, 11 points; 12. Houston Sam Houston 6; 13. Waco 5; 14. Midland and Houston S. F. Austin 4 each; 16. Pasadena 3; 17. Yalata 2; 18. Beaumont 1.

Looking at track and field, you find this is a handsome, finely-trained U.S. aggregation now in Melbourne.

In the 100 meters, Bobby Morrow, Thane Baker and Ira Murchison are the swiftest set of sprinters we ever have sent to the Olympics. In the 200-meter event, Morrow, Baker and Andy Stanfield stand out. Morrow, the 6-1, 165-pound Texan, should qualify as the fastest human ever seen in the Olympics. He broke records almost casually. He qualified for the 100 with 16.3, which is the world record.

In the 400-meter run we have Lou Jones, the 24-year-old GI from Manhattan College. He did 45.4 in the Pan-American Games, then 45.2 in Olympic trials, both world records.

Air Force Lt. Jim Lea, former Southern Cal star, and Villanova's Charley Jenkins, who have done 45.8 and 46.1 for the 440-yard run. Indicate we can sweep this event.

Pampa Harvesters Quicken Pace In Preparation For Borger Game

The Pampa Harvesters paced rapidly through their first drill yesterday in preparation for their annual battle with the Borger Bulldogs Saturday.

Coach Jack Lockett reported no injuries to the team following the Harvesters' 14-14 tie with Lubbock last Saturday, with the exception of a sprained ankle by halfback Don Bigham. But Bigham is expected to be in shape in plenty of time for the game.

Game time for the contest is 2 p.m. in Bulldog Stadium. The Bulldogs, who were stomped by Amarillo's Sandies last week, 47-7, will probably go into the game as a favorite. That should not phase the Harvesters. Lubbock was a two-touchdown pick over Pampa last week.

Lockett appeared to be well satisfied with the Harvesters in the second half last week in which they scored 14 points to tie the Westerners after allowing the visitors a 14-point lead in the first half. "We used the same defense in the second half as in the first but they decided to do a better job in the second," commented Lockett. He was speaking of the way Charlie Moore and Tom Roberts ran all over the field in the first half but in the last two stanzas the Westerners were allowed only 76 yards rushing.

Quarterback Bobby Page appears to be the Harvesters' big threat

Saturday. Page is deadly on the rollout from the T formation. The Bulldogs have won three of five District 3-AAAA games this season while Pampa has won one, lost three and tied one for a fifth place tie with Lubbock. Borger is behind Amarillo (5-0) and Palo Duro (4-1).

The Sandies and Dons meet in Amarillo Saturday to decide the championship of 3-AAAA. A win for Amarillo would give the Sandies the outright title but the Dons could go into bi-district play by a special league ruling should they win. A tie would give Amarillo the ti-

Mobeetie and Bula will play in Harvester Stadium Saturday night in their six-man bi-district game, it was decided late yesterday.

Officials of the two schools met in Canyon to pick the place and date. The game will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The winner meets Paschal of Fort Worth in bi-district. In other district games, Lubbock High plays Monterey and Plainview has finished the season.

Several other games are slated to be played in the Pampa area. Bi-district games match Wheeler against Groom in Class B at McLean Friday night. Perryton against Stamford in Class AA at Childress Friday afternoon and Stinnett vs. Clarendon of Class A here at Harvester Stadium Friday night.

BOWL NOTES:

SWC Teams Watch Movies, Get Set For Week's Games

By UNITED PRESS

Most Southwest Conference football players went to the "movies" again Monday to watch themselves in action prior to buckling down to hard work today for this week's contests.

There were fewer injuries reported than at any time this season with the only ones of note being at Southern Methodist and on the Texas Longhorn squad, which has nearly two weeks to get ready for its Nov. 29 date with Texas A&M.

The Longhorns reported knee injuries to tackle Charles Baker, guard Louis Del Homme and end Bob Bryant. Texas will rest again today.

Orange Bowl Committee Is Waiting

MIAMI (UP)—The Orange Bowl Committee will take a close look at how Clemson, Duke and South Carolina perform this Saturday before "suggesting" one of them as the Atlantic Coast Conference representative in the 1957 Orange Bowl game.

Apparently, whichever team makes the best showing will get the committee's nod as a New Year's Day opponent for Colorado of the Big Seven Conference. But final choice of the ACC representative still rests with the conference itself.

Van C. Kuserow, chairman of the Orange Bowl Schedule Committee, said his group has a " gentlemen's agreement" with the ACC which allows the committee to "suggest the most representative team." But the ACC "does not have to abide by our suggestion—it's strictly up to them who goes to the Orange Bowl."

Kuserow said he was informed by ACC officials Monday that ACC directors will meet Sunday morning to make their choice.

Four Teams Eyed For Cotton Bowl

DALLAS (UP) — Cotton Bowl President Robert B. Cullum says five teams are under consideration as prospective opponents for the Southwest Conference representative in the Jan. 1 game.

Cullum said they are the University of Pittsburgh, Tennessee, Georgia Tech, Navy and Syracuse.

He said no final decision would be made and no prospective visiting school contacted until Dec. 1.

gies are ineligible for it, "injuries are in better shape" his camp and that the F would be "in better shape" Rice than we've been in a long time."

TCU could sew up the bowl spot by beating Rice at Houston Saturday if Baylor trips Southern Methodist in Dallas as expected.

Coach Jess Neely reported his Rice squad in good shape with all regulars ready for TCU barring fresh injuries.

Baylor, which now figures as a strong Sugar Bowl possibility, also reported in good condition after a 45-minute kicking and running exercise.

Guard Tom Koenig; the sophomore guard who has stood out even in defeat for SMU, rehurt his shoulder against Arkansas and was a doubtful starter for the Baylor game.

Coach Paul Bryant at Texas A&M cited center Lloyd Hale and halfbacks Loyd Taylor and John Crow for their exceptional performances against Rice last week and also mentioned guards Murry Trimble, Dennis Goehring and Dee Powell after viewing movies of the game that clinched at least a title tie for the Aggies.

Coach Jack Mitchell at Arkansas gave his conquerors of SMU the day off before bucking down to preparation for Saturday's contest at Shreveport, La., against Louisiana State.

Baylor Possible For Sugar Bowl

NEW ORLEANS (UP) — Sugar Bowl officials eyed contenders today to meet Tennessee here in the annual Jan. 1 clash and named Baylor as a possibility.

The Southwest school, with a 6-2 season record, was listed as "definitely under consideration" by Paul Deblanc, president of the sponsoring Mid-Winter Sports Association.

Aggies Move Up To Third

By NORMAN MILLER
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UP) — The race for the national college football championship tightened today as Oklahoma, with its record string of 38 straight victories, lost some of its lead over runner-up Tennessee in the weekly ratings of the United Press Board of Coaches.

NEW YORK (UP)—The United Press college football ratings (with first-place votes and won-loss records in parentheses):

Team	Points
1. Oklahoma (24) (8-0)	325
2. Tennessee (9) (8-0)	313
3. Texas A&M (1) (8-0-1)	258
4. Iowa (1) (7-1)	223
5. Georgia Tech (7-1)	214
6. Miami (Fla.) (6-0-1)	117
7. Minnesota (6-1-1)	100
8. Michigan State (6-2)	75
9. Oregon State (7-2)	57
10. (tie) Syracuse (7-1)	54
10. (tie) Michigan (6-2)	54

Second 10 teams — 12, Pittsburgh, 49; 13, Ohio State, 41; 14, Navy, 17; 15, Florida, 12; 6, Yale 10; 17, Texas Christian, 8; 18, Wyoming, 5; 19 (tie), Southern California, Penn State, Purdue and Baylor, 3 each.

Others — Duke, 1.

Rose Bowl-bound Iowa jumped up to the No. 4 ranking behind Texas A&M; Miami (Fla.) advanced four notches to sixth place; Minnesota vaulted eight places to No. 7, and Syracuse moved up to a tie for 10th with Michigan in this week's most important changes among the leaders.

With two weeks remaining to decide the national championship, Oklahoma's lead over Tennessee was reduced from 28 to only 12 points. Twenty-four of the 35 leading coaches who make up the United Press Rating Board picked the Sooners tops in the nation; Tennessee was the choice of nine coaches. In points, Oklahoma's margin was 325 to 313.

Sooners Have Two Left

The Sooners, seeking the national crown for the second year in a row, play Nebraska at home next Saturday and then wind up their season at Oklahoma A&M. Tennessee, which like Oklahoma has an 8-0 season record, is at home against Kentucky Saturday and at Vanderbilt the following week. The Vols are almost sure bets to play in the Sugar Bowl.

Oklahoma now has led the ratings eight of the nine weeks this season, yielding first place to Michigan State four weeks ago. Texas A&M, which has clinched at least a tie for the Southwest Conference championship but is ineligible for the Cotton Bowl, and once-beaten Iowa each received one first place vote this week. The Texas Aggies' total of 238 points was 15 more than the Hawkeyes'.

Warm, Sunny Weather Likely For Olympics Start Thursday

By LEO H. PETERSEN

United Press Sports Editor
MELBOURNE (UP) — Fears that Melbourne's rainiest, chilliest spring in recent years would prevent wholesale record-smashing in the Olympic games were eased today with the long-awaited prediction of "warm, sunny weather" for Thursday's grand opening.

The news came as music to the ears of track and field athletes attempting to reach the peak of condition in weather that forced them to stay bundled up.

It came as an added incentive for the workers who are making feverish efforts to have the main stadium ready in time for the opening ceremonies of the games at 3 p.m. Thursday (midnight, Wednesday, EST). Hammers and saws still are pounding and one worker predicted, "the workmen probably will be going out the back door when the visitors walk in the front."

American track and field coaches have diplomatically refrained from saying much about the weather, but the athletes have found it difficult to tune up their muscles in temperatures like today's 43.5 degrees.

Head track Coach Jim Kelly, in fact, insisted, "the weather is no different here than it is at home. Our team is coming along fine and we expect our athletes to do well. We will win some and we will lose some. Certain members of our team are sharper than others and we make no excuses for the less sharp ones."

Kelly admitted, however, that 400-meter runner Jim Lea "doesn't look as though he will be ready."

And he voiced regret that he is unable to substitute Leamon King of Los Angeles for one of the other three starters in the 100 meters. King, who is along as fourth man on the 400-meter relay team, is the sharpest of all the sprinters at the present time.

Not Complaining

King said he wasn't "complaining" about not getting into the 100 meters because "I didn't have it when it counted." He predicted the three U.S. entries — Bobby Morrow, Ira Murchison, and Thane Baker — would sweep the top three places, but declined to forecast the order.

The U.S. forces suffered a blow today when defending javelin champion Cy Young of Modesto, Calif., disclosed that he suffered a twisted ankle while working out Monday. He said he will be able to compete in the games "but the time lost from training will hurt my distance."

Bob Giegengack of Yale, coach of the U.S. distance runners, admitted that any U.S. victory at distances upwards of 800 meters would be an upset but predicted, "we'll do better than expected all the way down the line."

Orton Wins Grudge Bout Over Schnabel

The grudge battle between Hans Schnabel and Bob Orton resulted in more flares of temper at the Sportsman's Club last night with the bout ending almost as it did a week ago when both were disqualified.

Last night the match went to Orton who took it in the first two falls. Schnabel, the 225-pound loser of Milwaukee, although the loser, came out of the match in much better shape than did Alex Perez, the referee.

Perez, who officiated all three matches, took plenty of punishment throughout the night and at the close of the main event he was given "the treatment" by Schnabel and his second and tag team partner, Shoulders Newman. He was finally tossed to the mat and later flung out of the ring by the two ruffians.

Orton, the 245-pounder from Kansas City, won the first fall by disqualification after Schnabel kept hitting him with both fists doubled up. Schnabel also tossed Perez across the ring in the process. The disqualification came after 3:37. Perez came out for the second fall in lights ready to fight. The first few minutes of the second fall was a show of gymnastics by the three in the ring and then Orton dealt Schnabel a jack knife and body press to end the bout in 13:31.

Newman, who replaced the missing Dizzy Davis, won the semi-final event by taking the first and third falls over the Golden Terror. Davis, who had his Southwest junior heavyweight belt stripped from him last week, failed to show and he was fined $100. Davis will have to pay the fine before he can appear in the Pampa ring again.

Newman took the opening fall with a body press in 4:05. It was in that fall that Perez lost his pants in the process, much to his red-faced dismay. The Terror came back to win the second fall in 3:19 with a body press. Newman took only 10 seconds to grab the third fall with a body press. The Terror bolted across the ring as the bell opened the third. Newman turned around quickly and put a full nelson on the Terror and then the body press.

Tommy Phelps and Gory Guerrero fought to a 20-minute draw in the one-fall opening match.

Boxing Set For Tonight

The postponed Pampa Optimist Club intra-squad boxing matches will be held tonight at the Gray County Community Building at 7:30.

An estimated six or seven fights are scheduled among the four Optimist teams. This will be a work-out for the fights with Guymon, Amarillo Air Force Base and West Texas State to be held here Saturday night.

All parents of the fighters are urged to be present. The public is invited and there will be no admission charge.

Quarterback Club Will Meet Tonight

Color films of the Pampa-Lubbock game will be shown to members of the Quarterback Club tonight at 7:30.

The group will meet in the Sam Houston Grade School auditorium. Coaches of the Harvesters and Shockers will give reports of games last week and discuss this week's game.

Americans Should Fare Well In Games

(Last of four dispatches on the Olympic Games written for NEA Service and the Pampa News.)

By FRANK SAMPSON
NEA Special Correspondent
MELBOURNE — (NEA) — Unless something unforeseen occurs, the United States should do as well in the Olympic Games which start here Thursday as they did at Helsinki in 1952.

Despite gloomy predictions about Russian strength it seems impossible for anybody to beat what Coach Jim Kelley has called "the finest track and field team we have sent to the Olympics so far."

In 1952, we took 40 firsts to the Russians' 22. In track and field we had 14 athletes winning. They had none. And track and field is the heart and soul of the Olympics. The fringe events — gymnastics or women's track — do not measure in importance. But they issue medals for these events, too — and the ever-present point system includes them.

is Sowell, the smooth and swift striding Pitt star. His main challenge was expected to come from Roger Moens of Belgium. But Tom Courtney, the GI from Fordham, defeated Sowell in the trials with a 1:44.4 American record. Now it is between Sowell and Courtney.

In the 110-meter high hurdles, Lt. Jack Davis is back and would be favored, except for the presence of Lee Calhoun of North Carolina College, who has done 13.6. Joel Shankle of Duke is also here to give us another probable sweep.

The Russians should have taken this year's 400-meter hurdles. But Glenn Davis, Ohio State, developed so quickly — doing a record 49.5 — and Eddie Southern of Texas (49.7) came from nowhere to give us the edge. They pushed Marine Josh Culbreath, our ace, to No. 3 man.

In the relays, this above group can combine to take any race they enter. Charley Dumas, the 19-year-old Compton, Calif., Junior College star, gives us the high jump with his over-seven-foot talents. We have three broad jumpers who have done over 26 feet. We have in Bob Richards, the finest pole vaulter in the universe. Parry O'Brien and Bill Nieder take care of the shot put. Rafter Johnson should win the decathlon, Fortune Goulden the discus.

Fast this, we start to run shy of talent. The longer Olympic distance events — the 1,500, 5,000 and 10,000-meter runs are out of our reach. John Landy of Australia should take the 1,500. Sandor Iharos of Hungary is 5,900 and 10,900-meter favorite.

In other events, you can look for strong — and probably winning — U.S. showings in swimming, where we always excel, boxing and basketball. Rowing and weight lifting are not beyond reach, either.

But in the bread-and-butter department — track and field — it may be reported that it looks as if always has: favorable for America.

Russia In Period Of Convulsions Following The Ravage In Hungary

(Editors note: Kenneth Brodney is a former United Press manager in Moscow. He witnessed the changeover from Stalinism to the present collective leadership. In the following dispatch he analyzes probable results inside the Kremlin of the Soviet blood bath in Hungary and the Soviet economic and political penetration of the Middle East.)

By KENNETH BRODNEY
Written For United Press

Indications now are that there will not be an immediate purge in the top Soviet leadership.

The major reason for a shakeup would be to try to recoup some of the Russian prestige shattered by the brutal crushing of the Hungarian rebellion.

Where the prestige loss really hurts most is in the Communist parties of Western Europe, which already are suffering widespread defections as a result.

There is little doubt they are now in for a period of major convulsions, as more and more once-staunch Stalinists brood over the Hungarian catastrophe. It is not merely the well-documented brutality of the Red army that is causing party cards to be turned in from Italy to England; it is the fact that the Red army was necessary in Hungary at all.

Communism Falls
It is the clear demonstration that Moscow's export brand of Communism failed completely, after a solid decade, to provide either a minimum standard of physical existence or an even barely tolerable society in which human beings could live.

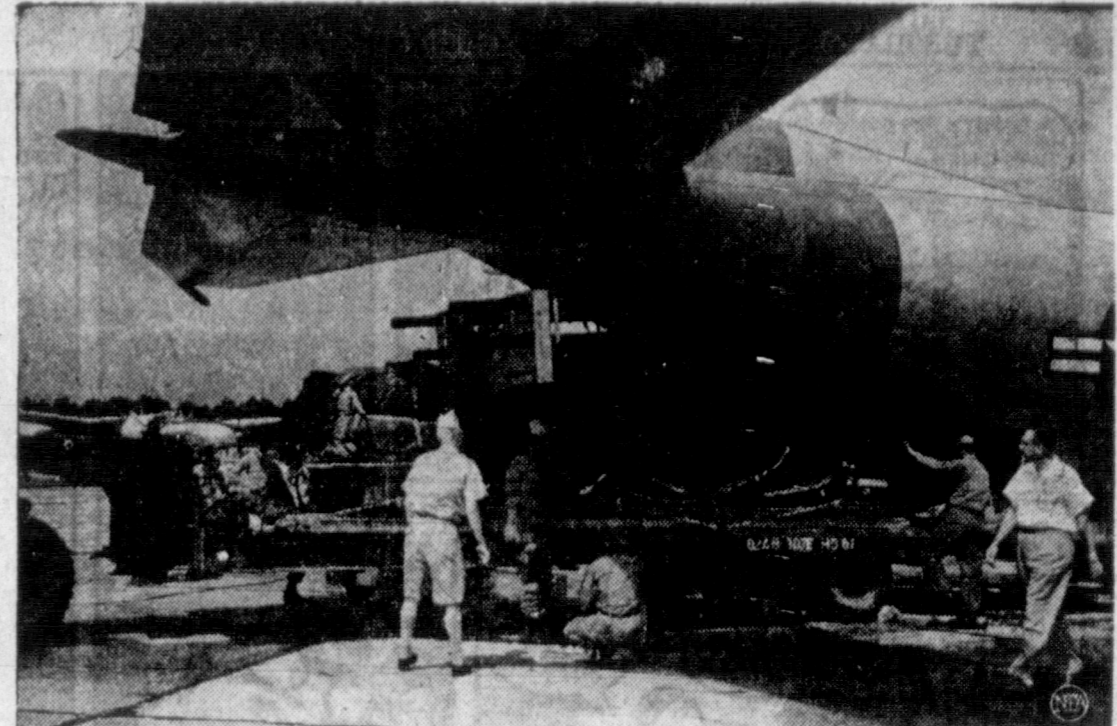

And since the mission of these parties, particularly in France and Italy, was to consummate "united fronts" with Socialists and centrists in order to drag Western Europe into the neutralist corner, the Russians could decide they must make some gesture of contrition. Such a gesture could take the form of the Kremlin's collective leadership publicly taking a bath by ousting and disavowing some of its members.

Molotov Heads List
Probably at the head of any such list of scapegoats would be Vyacheslav M. Molotov. He is publicly identified as a "hard-line" old Stalinist and has already been degraded and demoted from his job as foreign minister to appease Tito. His complete denunciation could be presented as the final end of Stalinism and his own "evil influence."

And if the Kremlin should decide on this method of trying to rehabilitate itself in the eyes of the world and its former sympathizers, but felt firing Molotov were not enough, Nikita Khrushchev himself might be forced out, as the actual perpetrator of the disastrous Hungarian policy.

Georgi Malenkov, identified in both Russian minds and abroad as an exponent of a "softer" policy and of a substantially higher standard of living, might be brought back to the top.

The C-130 can carry 20 tons of equipment or 92 fully combat-equipped troops. As a hospital ship, it can handle 70 litter patients.

Eleanor Parker Poses As Model In Hubby's Paintings

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Customers of artist Paul Clemens might not realize it, but when they buy one of his paintings they often hang Eleanor Parker over the mantel.

The beautiful actress seldom shows off husband Clemens' work. But walking into her large, elegant Beverly Hills home you can't help but notice that most of the paintings on the walls look like Eleanor.

Even before she married—the well-known portrait painter, she confessed today, she posed when she suddenly was inspired to paint a female figure or a landscape with a woman in it.

"A publisher's wife, for example, bought one of Paul's paintings that show the back of my head—but I'm sure she doesn't know who the model was," the film queen smiled.

"Edith Head, the designer, owns a painting I posed for. But she suggested that! She had a hat with pink roses and thought Paul should paint me in it. She liked the painting so well she bought it."

It's very Renoir-ish."

Some Clemens customers, however, suspect the model is Eleanor when it isn't. Jane Powell bought a landscape from the artist and was sure the woman in the background was the film star.

"But it was a professional model wearing my blouse," laughed Eleanor.

Then there's a nude hanging in Clemens' sumptuous studio that adjoins the home. That was not posed by Mrs. Clemens, but by a model with the astounding name of Kilo Watts (she has a sister named Twinkle).

Evacuation Activities Are Lauded

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (UP)—"The Marines were wonderful!"

That quote comes from an ex-bomber pilot from Derby, Iowa, who just returned from the mess in Egypt.

My friend, Donald Snook, a 22-year-old expert of the U. S. information agency, was aboard various U. S. rescue ships taking evacuees out of Egypt. I talked with him over coffee at the USIA headquarters.

He said he got quite a charge out of the way the Marines aboard ship handled the kids and the old ladies from a number of nations.

Kids Easy
"The kids were easy for the leathernecks," Don said. "But they had a little trouble teaching the older folks how to climb the ladder from the galley to the deck and balance a tray of food at the same time."

The Marines organized the youngsters, age three to 13, in a "Junior Marine Corps." They were taught to salute, to say "sir," to "pull your tummy in," and to give forth full-throated and mostly off-key with "From the Halls of Montezuma—"

Recruits Drill
The Marines, in full battle gear, marched their new "recruits" about the deck of the USS

General Patch and gave them morning drill.

"Not only that," Don said, "the Marines went beyond the call of duty."

They baby sat. They fixed formulas. They diapered. And they even came up with something from Brahm's, along about lullaby time.

LONDON, (UP)—The London Sunday Observer Sunday summed up in a headline its opinion of British actions in the Mid-East crisis and United Nations efforts to organize an international police force under Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns of Canada.
