

Britain Sending Troops, Warship To Put Down Rioting In Eritrea

LONDON, Jan. 5. (AP) — Britain is sending troops and a warship to Eritrea to quell new outbreaks of murder and violence in Italy's former Red Sea colony.

The foreign office announced the action last night and said Italy and Ethiopia had been warned Britain would take "a serious view" if their representatives acted in a way "likely to provoke disturbance of the peace in the territory." Both Italy and Ethiopia want control of Eritrea which has been occupied by Britain since 1941.

The statement said a "series of outrages" was climaxed Dec. 12 by "murderous attacks on the innocent citizens of Asmara," Eritrea's capital 65 miles inland from the main port of Massaua.

The foreign office blamed the attacks on persons trying to "influence in their favor the decision on the future of Eritrea."

Natives have been attacking and ambushing Italians in Eritrea for months. A curfew and convoys into the interior have been instituted, suspects have been interned and the local press has been suspended.

Italy seized Eritrea in the last century and used the coastal country of 600,000 people as a base for Mussolini's 1935 attack on Ethiopia. Britain has administered the country since 1941, when Mussolini's armies were driven out.

A decision on Eritrea's future is pending in the United Nations. Ethiopia has claimed the country and its 670 miles of coastline. Most UN members supported the award to land-locked Ethiopia of part of Eritrea, to give Emperor Haile Selassie's kingdom an outlet to the sea. But a final decision has been deferred pending further investigation.

State Labor Federation Hits Wage Rates For Road Work

AUSTIN, Jan. 5 (AP)—Wage rates set by the highway commission in its call for bids on projects Jan. 11 were attacked by Texas State Federation of Labor yesterday.

Through its attorneys, the federation sent a letter of complaint to the commission asking for a public hearing to determine "true prevailing wage rates." The body also was asked to require payment of the true prevailing rates on all highway work.

The federation cited wage rates set by the commission for an El Paso County highway project, declaring them "grossly sub-standard" and without basis "in the rates actually prevailing in the locality where the work is to be performed."

Though the letter was written specifically on behalf of the El Paso

Building and Construction Trades Council, AFL, the federation said its charges generally were applicable throughout the state.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer, to whom the letter was handed for transmittal to the three commissioners, said a check of rates would be made immediately in the El Paso area.

"If we're wrong, we'll be the first to admit it," Greer said.

He disclosed at the same time that a higher wage scale will apply to all state highway projects beginning in February. He said the commission "upped wages considerably" at a Dec. 29 meeting but felt the Jan. 11 lettings "were too close for the new scale to apply."

Greer also directed attention to the fact that the commission does not say what wage must be paid by contractors, but fixes a minimum they must meet.

"Generally, contractors pay what they have to in order to get workers," he said.

The new wage scale up the lowest category of work to a minimum of 75 cents an hour. The federal wage-hour law was recently amended by Congress to boost minimum wages from 40 to 75 cents an hour.

Nat Wells, Dallas attorney, and Paul Sparks, secretary of the federation of labor, said wage scales set by the highway commission are generally 25 cents an hour to more than $1 an hour less than actual prevailing wages throughout Texas.

The law firm of Mullinax, Wells and Ball of Dallas said in a letter written for the federation that wage rates set by the commission for the El Paso County project range from 45 cents to $1.375 per hour depending on the type of work to be done.

"We are sure that if the commission will conduct even a cursory examination of the wage rates actually prevailing in the El Paso area, it will find that the actual prevailing rates are from 30 cents to more than $1 per hour above those rates set by the commission."

Hanks Removed To Hospital

CORPUS CHRISTI, Jan. 5 (AP)—Raymond M. Hanks, 43, accused of malfeasance in office while district supervisor for the state comptroller's department, is under treatment in a hospital here. He lost consciousness yesterday while being taken to the courthouse by arresting officers.

Constable Lloyd Magee said that before passing out Hanks tried to throw away a bottle. Deputy Constable Morris Gray took the bottle from him, Magee said.

Justice of the Peace B. A. Carter said the bottle was empty but had a prescription number on it. The pharmacy that filled the prescription said it was for capsules containing a "very potent" sleeping powder, Carter said.

Hospital attendants said Hanks' condition was not serious.

Hanks, a former San Angelon, was scheduled to go on trial in Austin Monday on charges of fraudulently filing refund claims on motor fuel taxes.

Bowmer Ater, now in charge of the comptroller's office for the Corpus Christi district, said an Austin grand jury had returned nine indictments containing "some 300 counts" against Hanks.

Maroons, Yellow Jackets Land 2 On All-State

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
AP Sports Editor

Twenty-six schools landed players on the 1948 all-state schoolboy football teams selected for the City Conference, Class AA and Class A by the Texas Sports Writers Association.

Hundreds of coaches submitted nominations through a poll conducted by the Texas High School Coaches Association and these together with the sports writers' nominations were used in arriving at the three teams.

Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio landed the most men — the state City Conference champions putting three players on the selection for that conference. They were both of the ends — Don Raybourn and Don Barkdale — and one back, S. M. Meeks.

In Class AA, champion Wichita Falls got only one place — versatile Jerry Fouts at end. Port Arthur, a semi-finalist, and Austin, which lost to Wichita Falls in the finals, each landed two players. They were Darrell LaFitte, a guard, and Gail Mills, a back, for Port Arthur, and J. T. Seaborn, center, and Stan Studer, a guard, for Austin.

In Class A state champion Littlefield got Jerry Cotter, tackle, and Tom Bailes, back, on the first team and Mexia, the runner-up, also landed a couple — Willie Lambert, tackle, and Derrell Carlile, a back.

Ten schools whose teams did not even get outside the district placed on the all-star outfits, proving that the sports writers and coaches see all the good ones and don't always let all the spoils go to the winners. The all-state City Conference teams:

Class AA
Ends — Don Barkdale and Don Raybourn, Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio); tackles — Morgan Williams, Paschal (Fort Worth) and Don oss, Sunset (Dallas); guards — Emil Gavlick, San Antonio Tech, and Joe Basques, San Jacinto (Houston); center — David Mays, Arlington Heights (Fort Worth); backs — S. M. Meeks, Thomas Jefferson; Glen Jones, Paschal; Dan Hart, Milby (Houston); and Carmen Hernandez, Crozier Tech (Dallas).

Class A
San Antonio Tech, Arlington Heights, Milby and Crozier Tech did not win district championships.

Class AA all-state team:
Ends — James Gist, Marshall, and Jerry Fouts, Wichita Falls; tackles — Robert Knowles, Waco, and Eddie Huges, Abilene; guards — Darrell LaFitte, Port Arthur, and Stanley Studer, Austin; center — J. T. Seaborn, Austin; backs — Jack Newby, Amarillo; Bobby Brown, Lubbock; Roy Pace, Temple, and Gail Mills, Port Arthur. Waco, Amarillo and Temple did not win district championships.

Class AA second all-state team:
Ends — Sam Ward, Laredo, and Raymond Berry, Paris; tackles — Joe Brock, Lubbock, and Jerry Clem, Texarkana; center — James Duncan, Marshall; backs — Donnie Smith, Kerrville; Bill Waggoner, Wichita Falls; Jack Gunlock, Breckenridge, and Duane Nutt, Corsicana.

Class A all-state team:
Ends — Bob Gues, Wharton, and Bennie Sinclair, Mineola; tackles — Jerry Cotter, Littlefield, and Willie Lambert, Mexia; guards — Calvin Storie, Post, and Oscar Cantu, New Braunfels; center — Royce Franklin, Overton; backs — Tom Bailes, Littlefield; Bud Rollins, Wink; Derrell Carlile, Mexia; and Phil Branch, Gaston. Wharton, Post and Overton did not win district championships.

Class A second all-state team:
Ends — Don Monasco, New London, and Alex Delney, Webster; tackles — John Gibbens, Uvalde, and Lupton Willis, Atlanta; guards — Ike Doom, Lefors, and Joe Vancil, Baltinger; center — Will Paragdeux, Uvalde; backs — Paschal Valle, Garland; Donald Crossley, Littlefield; W. L. Gaskamp, Brenham, and John Kelley, Mineola.

Coahoma Plays Forsan Friday

COAHOMA, Jan. 5.—The Coahoma Bulldogs will go to Forsan Friday night to help the Forsan Buffaloes open their new $85,000 gymnasium.

Owls, Mustangs And Arkansas Win Openers

By The Associated Press
Rice, Southern Methodist and Arkansas stepped out with the first victories as the Southwest Conference teams started scrambling for position in the 1950 title chase last night.

Rice walloped Texas Christian, 30-41; Southern Methodist beat Akht, 33-48, and Arkansas whipped Texas, 60-51.

Tonight's games give the first good basis for comparison. Southern Methodist visits Houston to play Rice, and TCU plays A&M at College Station.

TCU's sophomores ran the more experienced Rice team in circles during the first half last night. George McLeod, 6-foot, 6-inch sophomore center, paced the Port Worth team into a couple of nine-point leads. But Rice had it tied up, 40-40, at the half and never dropped behind again after the opening moments of the second half.

McLeod was high scorer with 22 points, followed by big Joe McDermott of Rice with 20.

Southern Methodist came to life in the second half to get by the Aggie. A&M led, 27-24, at the intermission. Then Paul Mitchell of the Mustangs began scoring from all angles and put the Methodist ahead, 42-40, halfway through the last half, then pulled away to a five-point lead.

A&M whittled that to 47-46 with 68 seconds left, but Jack Brown and Charley Lutz made layup shots to pull SMU out of danger.

Fred Freeman of SMU and John DeWitt each got 13 points to lead the scoring.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

It's odd to see an All-State athlete in any sport ride the bench but the Lubbock basketball team has such a situation at the present time.

The Westerners played most of Tuesday night's game here without the services of tall Jim Taylor, despite the fact that the fine-looking young cager was singled out as one of the five best AA players in the state last year and is in good health in this, his senior year.

It seems to be a case where a player doesn't fit into a new coach's style of play. David Cook assumed the coaching reins of the Lubbock basketball team for the first time this year and Taylor didn't click in Cook's offensive patterns.

The Westerners have done all right without him, having won ten decisions in 13 starts. The only teams to measure them to date are Borger (by 12 points), Abilene (by two) and Big Spring (by five).

Harold Rosson, one of the stars in Big Spring's victory Tuesday, performed with a bandaged finger. It seems he was playing with firecrackers during the holidays and elected to hold two lighted crackers at once. One had a delayed fuse, which caused him to tarry before tossing the other away. That was a mistake. He got rid of it the hard way.

McCulloch would like to use subs. Larry McCulloch, coach of the local preppers, has a ready reply for those who question his decision to play his regulars most of the way.

Mac says he'd relish the chance to get a look at some of his reserves in action. After learning his hopefuls and studying their capabilities, however, the Longhorns have played so many close games he couldn't afford to spell the first stringers.

The coach hopes there'll be a breather or two somewhere down the line so that he can make a few substitutions.

Incidentally, McCulloch says he intends to have his charges play no more than two games a week, if possible. That's enough basketball for any high school lad, says Larry.

VERNON CLUB SOLD BY HUNTLEY
Shorty Shelbourne, the Midland sports writer, chronicled recently that Bob Huntley, the Vernon baseball skipper, apparently has sold his ball club to Vernon interests.

Shelbourne says Huntley accepted $20,000 as part payment, is still owed $5,000 by the group which extended the offer. Huntley's original asking price was $22,000.

The new group apparently will have to start all over, as far as fielding a club is concerned, since most of last year's Dusters have been sold or released.

We've heard of the White Sox, Red Sox, Blue Sox, Gold Sox and Sun Sox in baseball. Now comes the Colorado Springs club of the Western league with a new hue in hoisery: The Sky Sox.

They're so named because they'll be playing their home games at an altitude of more than 6,000 feet.

KENTUCKY BOASTED BEST COMBINED RECORD
Kentucky university was the nation's most successful major college in the combined basketball-football campaign of 1949, according to a story out of New York.

Kentucky's basketball team won 32 of 24 starts last season. Then the Blue Grass gridders capped 9 of 11 starts (excluding the Orange Bowl battle).

Villanova ranks second and Notre Dame third in the listings. Rice, rated 12th, is the first Southwest Conference school in that respect. Baylor is 20th and Texas 25th.

Tulane was the 1948 leader. Notre Dame was out front in '47, Yale in '46 and Army in '45.

St. John's Wins First Position In Cage Poll

By MURRAY ROSE
AP Staff
NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—St. John's of Brooklyn today held an early edge over a large field in one of the most wide open scrambles ever for national collegiate basketball supremacy.

The Redmen of Brooklyn, with a 12-1 record, were voted the No. 1 quintet of the country in the first of the Associated Press' weekly polls on the top teams in the sport.

Second place went to Kentucky's young, improving Wildcats, who have lost only to St. John's. The Wildcats rebounded to down Villanova and Bradley, two strong clubs, and win the Sugar-Bowl Tourney.

St. John's, which was knocked out of the unbeaten class Tuesday night by a blazing CCNY team, 54-52, received a total of 696 points in the voting of 88 sports writers and sportscasters around the country. Points were awarded on a 10-9-8-7, etc., basis for 1 to 10 selections.

The other members of the first ten are No. 3—Bradley, 485 points; 4—Long Island U., 470 points; 5—Indiana, 408 points; 6—Holy Cross, 315; 7—North Carolina State, 232; 8—Duquesne, 141; 9—UCLA, 140; 10—Minnesota, 102.

St. John's twin triumphs over last year's big tourney championship, Kentucky of the NCAA, and San Francisco of the National Invitation Tourney, undoubtedly swayed the experts' in the Redmen's direction. The Brooklyn five plays a powerful schedule.

But the Brooklynites have a stern struggle ahead of them to keep on top. Kentucky, for instance, is a sophomore-loaded team which has been improving from game to game. Long Island, a tall, smart team, is rated in the metropolitan area as at least equal to St. John's.

Angelo Gains Edge In Set

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 5.—Big Spring schoolboy teams won one of four decisions from San Angelo quintets in basketball games played here Wednesday.

Lone Big Spring winner was Roy Baird's Junior high Yearlings, which copped a 39-21 victory over the Angelo Rebels. Raymond Gilstrap and Harley Long paced the victory for Big Spring. Gilstrap bucketed 11 points, Long 12.

The San Angelo Junior high reserves copped a 60 to 28 decision from the Big Spring Junior high B.

Big Spring's sophomore quintet, the Doges, were rapped by a 30-20 count despite 12 points by Scott.

San Angelo sophomore reserves edged the Big Spring soph reserves, 27-21, in that one. C. Howell and Jim Stewart were outstanding for Big Spring with eight and five points, respectively.

Irish Are Named Outstanding Team

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The Notre Dame football team, undefeated over a 38-game stretch, was voted the nation's outstanding team of 1949 in the annual year-end poll of sports writers by the Associated Press.

Thus, the Fighting Irish pulled a big double for the year, having previously been voted the No. 1 college football team in the final weekly Associated Press poll.

With 95 voting, 32 named Notre Dame as the outstanding team of the country in any sport, professional or amateur. The Irish ran up a total of 213 points.

Runnerup honors went to the New York Yankees, whose crumples fought to the American League championship, then blasted the Brooklyn Dodgers in the World Series. The Yankees had 149 points.

HCJC To Host Standout HSU Frosh Friday

ABILENE, Jan. 5.—One of the most impressive records in college basketball circles is that of the Hardin-Simmons University's freshman quintet who have established a record of six wins in as many games.

The Buttons, coached by Glen Burroughs, will journey to Big Spring Friday night for their second tilt with the Howard County Junior college eagles. The Buttons defeated the Big Spring five 46-42 earlier this season in Abilene.

In addition to the Howard County Junior college victory, Burroughs, star player with the Cowboy varsity team last year, has directed his team to two wins over Tarleton Junior college, 38-28, and 63-45; Wayland College frosh, 47-39; Cisco Junior College, 62-38. Odessa Junior college, 62-36.

Larry Roberts, Levelland, with 21 field goals and 25 charity shots, for 67 points to his credit, leads the Buttons in the scoring parade.

Arthur Aragon, Las Vegas, N. M., is in second place in the scoring column. He has hit 25 field goals, and eight free throws for 58 points.

Roberts and Aragon serve as co-captains for the Buttons. Billy Rapp, Las Vegas, N. M., brilliant football prospect has dropped in 20 field goals and 11 foul shots for 51 points and third place. He is followed by lanky Hank Green of Anson, who has contributed 18 field goals and 8 charity shots for 42 points, and Raymond Hibler, Bertram, who has meshed 38 points.

Other players on the team include Durwood Smith, Cisco; Mack Allison, Avoca; Scotty Holland, Abilene and Sherry Nell, Loving.

Sale Of Dusters Up For Approval
ABILENE, Jan. 5.—The Longhorn League will be asked to approve Sunday sale of the Vernon baseball club by R. E. and R. C. Huntley to 137 Vernon stockholders.

STARS FOUL OUT

Rams Edge Past Hawks, 44-40

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 5.—San Angelo Junior college skinned past Howard County Junior college of Big Spring, 44-40, here Wednesday night but not before two Jayhawk aces, Bill Fletcher and Melvin Norris, fouled out.

Norris exited from the game one minute after the start of second half play and Fletcher made his departure seven minutes after that.

Until those developments, the Hawks showed a superiority on the court. They held a one-point lead at the half and gave every indication they were going to hold onto that advantage.

Gene Lewellen of Angelo was top scorer for the evening with 17 points while Del Turner and Louis Stallings were outstanding for HCJC with 13 and 11, respectively.

Stallings turned in a stellar game for the visitors, both offensively and defensively.

HCJC tied the count at 35-all late in the contest but the Angelenos were up to the challenge and regained the lead.

In the final moment, the Hawks made four points only to have them removed from the scoreboard by officials' decisions. It just didn't seem to be HCJC's night.

Angelo's reserves also gained a decision in the preliminary game, romping to a 50-45 decision over the Hawk second stringers. Paul Deatherage was outstanding for the Big Springers in that one with 14 points.

Aggies Defeated By DePaul, 41-40

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—It used to be Dartmouth and Rhode Island State which upheld New England prestige in national collegiate basketball. Now it's Holy Cross.

The unbeaten Crusaders, ranked sixth in the Associated Press poll, wrecked Harvard last night, 102-71, for their 10th straight victory.

Unranked DePaul again demonstrated its hex against Oklahoma A&M on the Aggies' home court at Stillwater. DePaul edged the Aggies, 41-40.

Arkansas' Jim Catcher led the Porter scoring with 17 points. Forward Tom Hamilton got the same number of points for the losers.

Careful Cooking Basis Of Good Stuffed Eggs

Stuffed eggs, those time-honored tidbits of the picnic basket that are always in season, give almost any meal a lift, whether it's a salad plate luncheon or a winter buffet supper.

They can be made in infinite variety so stuffing them gives you a real chance to exercise your imagination. The first step is careful cooking.

It's no compliment to call a person hard-boiled, and no compliment for an egg, either. The best eggs are "hard-cooked." They should never strike a boil; simmering only will do the trick. Fast cooking will result in tough eggs. Started in hot water, you'll find that average sized eggs already at room temperature will take 15 to 20 minutes of simmering to cook hard. For extra large or very cold eggs, it takes two to four minutes longer.

Immediately after cooking, eggs should be put under cold water for quick chilling. This makes shells easier to remove and prevents further cooking. The yolks of eggs frequently develop a dark greenish color when the egg is allowed to cool slowly in the cooking water or if it is cooked too long. This is due to the formation of ferrous sulfide from the iron of the yolk and sulfur of the white.

Here are suggestions for stuffing.

Deviled Eggs With Onion Sauce
6 hard cooked eggs
1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
1/2 teaspoon vinegar
1. Remove shells from hard cooked eggs and cut in half lengthwise. Mash yolks, add remaining ingredients and blend. Fill centers of egg whites. Place two halves on each toast square and top with onion sauce.

Onion Sauce
2 tablespoons butter or bacon drippings
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 cup minced onion
1/2 teaspoon salt
Melt butter in top of double boiler; add onion and cook slightly, do not brown. Add flour and seasonings, and blend. Gradually add the milk, stirring constantly. Cook over hot water until smooth and thick, stirring occasionally. Serve over deviled eggs on toast. Makes 1 1/2 cups sauce.

Eggs Stuffed with Crab Meat
6 hard-cooked eggs
1 teaspoon dry mustard

1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup flaked crab meat
1 cup chopped celery
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
1/2 cup mayonnaise
Paprika
Cut eggs in half crosswise. Remove yolks, mash and mix with remaining ingredients. Fill whites, round over top, sprinkle with paprika.

Chesse Deviled Eggs
4 hard-cooked eggs
2 tablespoons grated sharp chesse
1/2 teaspoon mustard
Salt and cayenne
1 teaspoon vinegar
1 tablespoon butter, melted
Milk
Cut eggs into halves lengthwise. Remove yolks, mash or force through sieve. Add other ingredients, including enough milk to moisten. Fill egg whites. Put halves together or arrange them cut side up on plate. Wrap or cover with wax paper and chill well before serving.

Saled Eggs
6 hard-cooked eggs
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon cream
1/2 teaspoon mustard
Dash cayenne
1 tablespoon anchovy paste
Cut hard-cooked eggs in half. Remove yolks and mix to a paste with butter, cream, mustard, anchovy, salt and anchovy paste. Fill egg whites and place eggs in nest of lettuce or watercress. Garnish with radishes and small onions. Serves 4 to 6 persons.

Red River Arsenal Force to Be Cut
TEXARKANA, Jan. 5. (U.S.)—Some 1,234 employees of the Red River Arsenal will lose their jobs in about a month.

The plan to cut down the working force at the giant war plant 20 miles west of here was announced yesterday by Col. Selby H. Frank, commanding officer, as "part of a nation-wide economy drive."

He said notices will be given on or about Jan. 16—two weeks in advance. Col. Frank said the plant force has to be reduced because of limited funds and anticipated shop work.

About 7,000 persons work at the arsenal now. The arsenal recently estimated its monthly payroll at $1,700,000.

Spicy Applesauce Cake Is Favorite

Spicy applesauce cake was one of the favorite recipes of grandmother's day and it is still a simple, inexpensive cake for family desserts at apple season.

Apples are plentiful—eat them raw, out of hand, in salads and in fruitcup. Scallop them alone or with sweet potatoes. Fry them with bacon, sausage or ham. Glass apple rings as a fine garnish for smothered and pork chops. Serve tart and chilled applesauce or apple butter for breakfast along with crisp toast or hot breads—or applesauce cake. For variation, serve apple sauce hot on gingerbread or crisp cookies.

Vary the flavor with lemon juice or spices, such as cinnamon, nutmeg or cloves. Use spices in moderation. A pinch of salt brings out flavor. Do not let applesauce stand with nutmeg in it. That turns it bitter.

Applesauce Cake Recipe Is Given

1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup smooth, unswartened applesauce
2 cups sifted, all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon cloves
Nuts & dates or raisins may be added, if desired.

Cream shortening, sugar and spices together. Add the beaten egg, then the applesauce. Sift flour with soda, salt and baking powder and add to the liquid mixture. Beat well, then add nuts and dates (if desired) and beat well into dough mixture. Pour into a greased pan, preferably 9 x 9 x 2 inches in size. Bake in a moderate oven (325 to 350°F.) for 40 to 45 minutes.

Fight Against Oleo Tax Repeal Launched

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Senators fighting a house-passed bill to repeal federal oleomargarine taxes today opened their drive to ban the yellow product from interstate commerce.

With Sen. Gillette (D-Iowa) as their lead-off speaker, opponents of the repeal legislation hoped to rally support for a substitute that would permit yellow oleomargarine to be sold only in a state where it is manufactured.

Gillette and Sen. Wiley (R-Wis) are the chief authors of the proposal but 23 other senators are listed as co-sponsors.

Like the House bill, it would wipe out the present federal taxes on oleomargarine. These include a 10-cents-a-pound tax on yellow colored margarine, a one-quarter cent a pound levy on the uncolored variety and occupational taxes on manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers.

The Senate battle got underway yesterday with Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) calling the proposed substitute "thoroughly mischievous."

It "would disrupt the entire margarine industry and would sharply raise costs to consumers," he said.

Wiley, in turn, said the House bill represents "an attack by one segment of the economy on another."

He told a reporter that margarine manufacturers "are holding prices in check until they get a monopoly." He added that with "cut-rate prices" they could put butter out of business and then later raise prices.

Wiley declined to say whether opponents of the bill would filibuster against it. "That's a bad word, an unpopular word," he said, "but you can say we're serious about our position."

He has offered numerous amendments that would reduce or repeal excise taxes generally and he said he "assumes" an effort will be made to tie these to the repeal bill.

"This is an excise bill, isn't it?" he asked.

Administration leaders hope to stave off any attempt to write excise tax cuts into the legislation. Fulbright urged the Senate to reject all amendments dealing with other subjects.

STORIES OF Famous Hymns

by HORACE B. POWELL

Revive Us Again!

We praise Thee, O God,
For the Son of Thy love,
For Jesus who died
And is now gone above;
Hallelujah! Thine the glory,
Hallelujah! Amen!
Hallelujah! Thine the glory,
Revive us again.

All glory and praise
To the Lamb that was slain,
Who has borne all our sins
And has cleansed every stain;
Hallelujah! Thine the glory,
Hallelujah! Amen!
Hallelujah! Thine the glory,
Revive us again.

Revive us again;
Fill each heart with Thy love,
May each soul be kindled
With fire from above;
Hallelujah! Thine the glory,
Hallelujah! Amen!
Hallelujah! Thine the glory,
Revive us again.

"Revive Us Again!" written by the Rev. William Paton Mackay, was near the top of the "favorite hymns" list in all the great revivals of two or three generations ago. Even today, it is rather well known and widely used in prayer services and mission meetings.

The hymn takes its name from its popular refrain. It was almost sure to be called for whenever Moody and Sankey held one of their famous evangelistic meetings and it was used for years afterward by other religious leaders with equal success. Many gospel songsters have added interest to community singing at their praise services with Mackay's hymn, dividing their audiences into two groups and asking one section to sing the verses of the song and the other to respond with the ringing "Hallelujah" refrain.

Most hymn lovers think of the music known as "English Melody," was composed in the nineteenth century, 50 years or more before Mackay planned the verses it was to carry to fame. The same tune is used for Dr. Horatio Bonar's "Rejoice And Be Glad," written in 1874. Its author was John Jenkins Husband, who was born in Plymouth, England and who in his youth composed several anthems while serving as a clerk at Surrey Chapel.

Husband came to America in 1800, the year Abraham Lincoln was born, and made his home in Philadelphia. He divided his time for a number of years between teaching music and serving as a clerkship at St. Paul's Episcopal church in that city.

Israel Backs Foreign Policy Of Premier

JERUSALEM, Jan. 5. (AP) — Is-holders of the old city, have rejected the UN action. Earlier Foreign Minister Moshe Sharett rejected a demand from the extreme right and left that Israel break off armistice talks with Hashemite Jordan because King Abdullah had annexed Arab Palestine. Sharett said Israel remains prepared to negotiate for permanent peace with "all Arab nations with whom we have armistice agreements—without exception." Sharett said Israel hopes eventually to reach agreement on Jerusalem with the United Nations. But he reiterated Israel would not be dislodged from Jerusalem, to which his nation has transferred its parliament and most of its government offices.

"There is no force now to drive us out," Sharett said. Arab Jordan occupies the old city of Jerusalem, part of the territory which King Abdullah annexed. In it are most of the holy places of the Jewish, Christian and Moslem religions.

Claim Application Blanks For Former POW's Arrive Here

A limited supply of application blanks for ex-prisoners of war who plan to submit claims under the War Claims Act of 1948 has been received at the Veterans Administration office here, Ray Boren, VA contact officer, has announced.

Although the Veterans Administration does not handle the war claims, the local VA office will assist ex-prisoners of war, or their survivors, in filling out applications. Boren said. A few application blanks are available for both POW's themselves and survivors of deceased POW's.

Under the War Claims Act of 1948, POW's may file claims for subsistence, etc., covering periods they were imprisoned without subsistence that met international standards.

Mrs. Moore Sawtelle, executive secretary of the Red Cross here, said the Red Cross has not received a supply of application blanks, but a supply has been ordered. The Red Cross also will offer assistance to POW's in completing the claims applications.

WTCC Invites New Water Group To Meet In Area

ABILENE, Jan. 5. (AP) — The West Texas Chamber of Commerce wants President Truman's newly created water resources policy committee to hold its first meeting in this section.

The WTCC and the West Texas Domestic Water Assn. (WTCC-sponsored) wired invitations yesterday to the committee. The telegrams also said:

"Believing adequate domestic water is paramount national problem, we are hopeful that committee may give first emphasis to this problem and that committee personnel may not over-emphasize public power against drinking water for people."

Greek Premier Quits In Crisis

ATHENS, Greece, Jan. 5. (AP) — Premier Alexander Diomedes resigned today in a Greek cabinet crisis which developed suddenly over withdrawal of liberal party ministers from the government coalition.

Second Deputy Premier Sophocles Venizelos, like Diomedes a liberal party leader, led 10 liberal ministers out of the cabinet which has ruled Greece since last July in co-operation with the populists.

The reason for the cabinet split was not immediately clear. Greek political parties, however, have been jockeying for vote appeals in preparation for general elections which will be held next April.

Farmers Granted 16 More Days To File Income Tax Returns

The nation's farmers have been granted 16 more days this year to compute and file their income tax returns.

Heretofore, all farmers have been required to file either an estimate or a final return by Jan. 15, but the time has been extended to Jan. 31, Ben Hawkins, deputy collector of the Internal Revenue, reported.

Official notice of the change was received here in late December. The Howard County Farm Bureau, which maintains an income tax service for its members, will operate on its original schedule, however. In previous years the bureau has made the service available to members from Jan. 1 through Jan. 15, and the same schedule was set up this year before the time extension was announced.

AFL to Celebrate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5. (AP) — A big year of celebration, marking the centennial of the birth of AFL Founder Samuel Gompers, will be launched by the American Federation of Labor tonight.

ILLINOIS HIT BY WINTER FLOODS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 5. (AP) — Scores of persons in parts of Illinois were made temporarily homeless today by floods. The homeless families were plagued further by colder weather.

Rising waters and creeks in East Central and Southern Illinois followed several days of heavy rains. Volunteer national guardsmen and the Red Cross rushed emergency aid to the flooded areas. Schools were closed in many communities.

The main flood area was in East Central Illinois. Danville sloshed in the waters left by a 60-hour downpour. Fifty families were evacuated from homes along Stoney Creek. Flood waters of the Embarras River covered one-third of Villa Grove, a Central Illinois community of 2,500. Many families were rescued by boats from their homes. National guardsmen volunteered services in the town until the emergency passes.

Between 15 and 20 homes were flooded at Vandalia, in South Central Illinois, after the rain-swollen Kaskaskia River ripped through a levee in three places. Army engineers and volunteers worked to repair the breaks.

Cold Weather Can't Kill Off Green Bugs

STILLWATER, Okla., Jan. 5. (AP) — Wheat farmers received some bad news yesterday—the snow and ice doesn't kill off green bugs. Green bugs are those insects which thrive on wheat and damage the crops.

Farmers have been led to believe that below freezing temperatures put the crimp to green bugs. Now Charles F. Stiles, Oklahoma A&M College Extension Service entomologist, says all cold weather does is to stop the love life of the wheat renegades.

Daughter Of Stroble Is Trial Witness

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 5. (AP)—Fred Stroble's daughter and the mother of the six-year-old child he is accused of murdering testified as prosecution witnesses at his trial.

His daughter, Mrs. Sylvia Hausman, wiped away tears yesterday as she identified photographs of her home, where the 66-year-old former baker is accused of choking, beating and stabbing little Linda Joyce Glucoft to death last Nov. 14.

Mrs. Hausman also identified the blanket in which the little girl's body was found, the knitted tie used to choke her, a kitchen knife, an ice pick, a hammer and an ax which the state contends were used in the sex-slaying.

She told how on the fatal day she took her own daughter, Rochelle, also six, to a party and left Stroble home. When they returned at six o'clock, Mrs. Hausman said, Stroble had gone.

The witness trembled as she recalled that Rochelle and Linda Joyce were "little playmates" and saw each other "every day."

The little victim's mother, Mrs. Julia Glucoft, dressed in funeral black, said Rochelle was her daughter's best friend. The last words she heard Linda Joyce speak, Mrs. Glucoft said, were:

"I'm going to play with Rochelle."

Deputy Dist. Atty. Adolph Alexander said in his opening statement after the jury was selected yesterday that the prosecution will prove that Stroble took the Glucoft girl into a bedroom and choked her while she fought back and screamed.

Defense Atty. Al Matthews and John J. Hill of the public defender's office said Stroble will be portrayed as a gentle pedophile, a "whisky brain," a mentally sick man who thinks and acts like a child.

INDICTED FOR MURDER—Dr. Hermann N. Sander, physician of Candia, N. H., holds his pet dog, Taffy, at his home in Candia. The physician was arraigned on a first degree murder charge in connection with the "mercy slaying" of a cancer patient. (AP Wirephoto).

Mercy Killer Makes Plea Of Not Guilty

MANCHESTER, N. H., Jan. 5. (AP)—Dr. Hermann N. Sander today pleaded innocent in a loud voice to an indictment charging first degree murder in the so-called mercy slaying of an incurable cancer patient.

The state agreed to his freedom pending trial under a continuance of his $25,000 bond with the stipulation that he refrain from medical practice until disposition of the case.

Dr. Sander's attorney, Louis E. Wyman, said the stipulation about refraining from practice was over the protest of defense counsel because of the presumption of innocence at this time.

"I assume this agreement is without prejudice in the future," Wyman told the court.

Dr. Sander stood erect and showed no emotion while Court Clerk Arthur S. Healy read the indictment charging the country doctor: "Feloniously, willfully and of his malice aforethought did inject 10 cubic-centimeters of air in close succession into the veins of Mrs. Abbie Borroto, 50," his cancer patient.

Long before the physician entered the second floor superior courtroom with his wife and two attorneys, 250 spectators had crowded into every public seat.

Mrs. Borroto—ill a year and a half and shrunk to half her normal weight—was the wife of a Manchester oil salesman.

Dr. Sander, who said yesterday he had gone sleepless for days, was unsmiling and silent today.

It was disclosed that a trial date will be set before April 1.

Sergeant Questioned In Woman's Death

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 5. (AP)—Police questioned an army sergeant today in connection with the death of a 33-year-old woman whose slashed and battered body was found on a Topeka street.

Coroner H. L. Clark said the woman, Irene Gilbert, a basket factory employe, had been stabbed, beaten and apparently run over several times by an automobile.

The soldier was wounded in a fight with police shortly after the woman's partly clothed body was found last night.

Chief of Detectives Charles Crank identified the sergeant as John Anderson and said he had been with Miss Gilbert earlier in the evening.

Officers Ed Feaker and John Carwell sought to arrest Anderson after they saw him drive through a redlight.

Feaker said that when he got into the automobile with Anderson, the soldier started the car and began fighting in the moving vehicle.

Feaker said he shot Anderson when he pulled a knife. Anderson, following in a police car, also shot the soldier when the automobile stopped and his fellow officer was shoved out.

No charges have been filed.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 5. (AP)—The Naval Academy and Eddie Erdelatz took their time today about making up their minds if he will become the football coach of the Midshipmen.

"We are being very deliberate," Capt. Howard Caldwell, athletic director, said of the interview that started yesterday. Erdelatz is the first to be invited here to talk over being successor to George Sauer, who resigned last Friday.

Erdelatz had the same "go slow" attitude.

War-Born Town To Buy Itself

WINFIELD, N. J., Jan. 5. (AP)—This community of 700 families, which sprang out of the mud of industrial North Jersey during the war, is going to get a chance to buy itself.

The township's board of trustees yesterday was authorized to accept the government's offer to sell the community to its citizens for $1,250,000 on a 45-year mortgage.

That would amount to less than $2,000 for each of the 700 families. Residents have been leasing the 700 one, two, three and four-family frame houses from the federal government at an average of $30.50 a month.

The Federal Housing Authority set up Winfield in 1941 to house workers swarming into the booming war industries here.

'BAD BOY MAYOR' STILL LIVE WIRE

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., Jan. 5. (AP)—This seaport city's "bad boy mayor" of a few years ago—voted back to the office in November—is still hot.

During his three previous terms, Mayor Andrew J. "Bossy" Gillis amazed Newburyport residents with his antics.

Apparently, he has not "slowed down" as much as he claims. Gillis—who describes himself as "no diplomat"—became involved in two disputes yesterday—only two days after he officially took office.

The fiery mayor refused to grant the customary license for the showing of motion pictures on Sunday to a theatre and then ordered the discharge of a policeman.

He said he refused to grant the Port Theatre the Sunday license because of "political reasons." He has such authority over the issuing of such licenses. The two other theatres in the city were granted them.

But Gillis may be in for a fight over his order to discharge Policeman Michael J. Carney, 52, a veteran of both world wars.

The mayor gave no reason for his order, but described him as a "special officer."

Carney, however, has been a permanent member of the police force since 1946, and under law cannot be discharged without civil service proceedings. He said he would ignore the order and report for duty as usual.

In a third case, Gillis apparently became confused.

He appointed Aaron D. Woods as a member of the board of registrars to replace Leon F. Oliver. But when Woods went to city hall to take his oath, it was discovered Oliver's term has two more years to run.

Gillis explained: "It was an honest mistake."

Gillis, during his first term in 1928, was sentenced to two months in jail for cutting down elm trees to make an entrance for his gasoline station. He ran the city from his cell.

Later, he astounded residents even more by climbing through a second story window of a new high school to make an inspection. He had been refused a key by the school committee.

Broadway Actress Sued By Mother

NEW YORK, Jan. 5. (AP)—Broadway Stage Star Lisa Kirk has been sued by her mother for part of her paychecks.

The shapely singer and actress currently has a leading role in the musical hit, "Kiss Me, Kate."

The mother, Mrs. Elsie F. Kirk of Manhattan, claims that several years ago she agreed to provide her daughter with a "complete musical and dramatic education."

In return, she said, her daughter agreed to make her a full partner in all Lisa's contracts and earnings.

But, the mother says, now that her daughter is a big success she has backed out on the agreement.

Mrs. Kirk claims she spent $14,500 on Lisa's artistic education, and that she lent her daughter an additional $20,000 which was never repaid.

Replying through her attorney, Miss Kirk denied her mother's claims, but said she had offered to give her mother a substantial part of her earnings for the rest of her mother's life "as a token of gratitude and affection."

President's Message Reveals No Surprises, Hot Session Looms

Administration objectives have been based in the President's State of the Union message. They are, as anticipated, a continuation of efforts to enact major points in the "Fair Deal" program.

While Mr. Truman left to his budget message the matter of specific recommendations on expenditures and taxes, he indicated he will stick by his guns in asking for some new taxes and that the proposed budget will be pared substantially.

There will be an ample supply of fireworks for the current session of Congress. Several of the controversial subjects advanced by the President last year are on the agenda of his program again this year. For instance, the so-called civil rights proposals, including abolishment of the poll tax requirement and enactment of the fair employment practice act, are right at the top of the list. Everytime this has come up as a federal matter, it has produced a filibuster, and despite admonishment by the President, the same thing is to be anticipated this session.

The federal compulsory health insurance program also is a hot chestnut. So is the Brannan farm plan, which already has the major farm organizations on record against it.

These and other points contribute to a lively time for the solons. But one of the major issues of the session is apt to center around the budget, and with it, the extent of the European recovery aid program. There may be some new taxes, but there is a strong indication that they will be imposed only after one of the most earnest efforts in many years has been exerted to cut down on expenditures that are not absolutely necessary. Not even visions of wealth to come should deter this.

What To Do About Formosa Is Hot Potato For Administration

On-the-spot reporters in Formosa paint a pretty dreary picture of Chiang Kai-shek's roosting place. The 6.5 million natives are said to hate the Chinese Nationalist more than they hated the Japanese, who occupied the island with a ruthless regime for 50 years. They find their new mainland masters, the reports say, more heartless and ruthless than the Japs were.

The reports also say that most of the warlords who lost their armies to the Communists on the mainland are present in droves, some of them riding around in shiny new American limousines, all engaged in a wild scramble for places of preferment and pay.

President Truman and his council of defense advisers are supposed to have decided to give further economic and military aid to Chiang out of unexpended funds already appropriated for that purpose. This decision lacks a lot of meeting the demand from some quarters that we give active military assistance in the holding of Formosa.

Even the gentle Herbert Hoover wants an iron ring of American ships put around Formosa and other islands menaced by the Reds, and Senator Taft, whose interest in helping Western Europe with funds and arms to ward off Communist aggression was notably lacking, wants the U. S. to establish Air Force and naval bases on Formosa. Either of these actions would be a challenge to the Communists to come out and fight; and while the holding of Formosa is important to our Pacific defenses, few Americans would care to go to war over it just now, and even fewer would favor placing much dependence on Chiang.

It's a hot issue, all right, and it may dominate the first few weeks of the congressional session opening Tuesday. The sad part of it is that it threatens to weaken the bi-partisan coalition on foreign affairs.

Capital Report - Doris Fleeson

Opinions Of Smith, Knowland On China Policy Are Valuable

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—With Republican pressure on the administration's China policy mounting, Democrats are congratulating themselves on their foresight last year in changing the party ratio on the Senate Foreign Relations committee from 7-6 to 8-5.

The further precaution was then taken on adding four firm new dealers to the committee—Senators Pepper, Green, McMahon and Fulbright. As Senator Vandenberg, ranking Republican, remains notably moderate in his statements regarding China, the administration believes its peril point in that sector is still some distance off.

So far no Democrat of stature has joined in the demand for aid to Chiang Kai-shek. The Nationalist cause, however, has attracted two Republican Senators who are not members of the vocal but small midwest isolationist bloc but are internationalists who have given valuable service to the bipartisan foreign policy.

One is Sen. H. Alexander Smith of New Jersey, third ranking Republican on foreign relations and a former Princeton professor of politics with a long record of participation in international affairs. Senator Smith will be 70 years old this month but he and Mrs. Smith spent their "vacation" last fall in the humid Orient, basing on Tokyo and taking the long, hard air trips to U. S. outposts, Hong Kong and Formosa.

Senator Knowland of California, a World War II veteran, and Mrs. Knowland took the same journey after Congress adjourned and even ventured into Chungking just ahead of the Reds in their determination to see for themselves and form their own judgments.

Senators Smith and Knowland cannot be tossed lightly over the administration's right shoulder with the Jenners and Kems; they know too much and their services are too greatly needed in European policy for that. It is possible that they are not helping their cause by enlisting Herbert Hoover for public pronouncements which tends to give the affair a partisan flavor in this election year.

Nevertheless, it will be necessary to answer them intelligently and well. Sen. Paul Douglas, Illinois Democrat, has already forecast the debate and labeled it a severe test of the bipartisan foreign policy.

The key figure in the question of aid to Chiang remains in Tokyo. Gen. Douglas MacArthur has yet to be quoted directly on China policy but in his private conversations with notable visitors he has never spared his counsel. It is MacArthur's views on the importance and desirability of holding Formosa, Chiang's retreat, which are appearing in the newspapers today. It is MacArthur who says there is still time to save the island.

MacArthur sent Senator Smith to Formosa in his own plane, the Bataan, and saw to it that the Knowlands got the long, hard air trips to U. S. outposts, Hong Kong and Formosa.

No doubt the cry again will be raised in Congress for MacArthur to come home and advise them. He won't, though, unless President Truman orders it.

Poor Man's Philosopher Thinks 1950 Will Be Lot Less Jittery

NEW YORK. (AP) — LET'S DUST OFF our old $4.95 crystal ball, and see what the year ahead has in store for us.

This poor man's philosopher sees 1950 as a less jittery period than 1949.

Fear of immediate war will abate still more. Nobody will drop an atom bomb in anger, and more people will worry about losing their jobs than fret about being hit by an atom bomb.

Salesmen will have to work a little harder to make their percentages.

Pension protection will be a bigger political issue than tariff protection. Since it's an election year, Congress will repeal the taxes on fur coats and baby powder.

AMONG OTHER THINGS THE CRYSTAL ball flatly predicts these things—(But you can't put too much faith in a $4.98 mouthpiece):

Gen. Douglas MacArthur will return to America.

Both Notre Dame and Oklahoma will lose a football game. (Don't write in to say I'm crazy — it's my crystal ball that's talking.)

Don't expect a subway series in baseball. The National League winner: The St. Louis Cardinals (Brooklyn Dodgers second). The American League winner: Boston (Detroit second). The St. Louis Browns will play the full season.

Wrestling will unveil a bright new star—a 337-pound bearded savage from Brazil who eats roaches and wins matches by tying his whiskers around the other wrestler's throats. He will earn $135,694 during the year—nine times as much as Dr. Albert Einstein.

BULLETIN NEWS: THERE WILL BE 12 erroneous reports of Premier Joseph Stalin's death, and he will turn down an American offer of $500,000 for his memoirs. (Winston Churchill will offer to ghost write them for half that.)

President Truman will grow a moustache during a Key West vacation, but shave it off before the fall campaign.

That's what the crystal ball says — and you can believe it or buy your own ball. Life will be pretty much the mixture as before for the average man. He'll remember 1950 as a fine year, and if he believes himself he shouldn't feel much more than 12 months older by 1951.

'Tide Of Toys' Drive Marks New Legion Spirit Of International Responsibility

WASHINGTON—The world has read a lot of great Christmas stories from Dickens' Christmas Carol to Heywood Brown's famous column, but this year we have a Christmas story of doing which ranks with any of them.

It's the story of veterans who have fought our wars, led by the American Legion, who don't want to fight any more wars and do want to build up friendship abroad. Recognizing that wars have come in cycles of about every 20 years, they have gone out to woo Europe's children of today — who can be our best friends or the enemy soldiers of tomorrow.

That's one factor behind the "Tide Of Toys" campaign, by which American children who can spare an extra toy immediately after Christmas are urged to send it, via the American Legion, to less fortunate children in Europe.

There was a time when the public thought of Legionnaires chiefly in connection with roughhousing at annual conventions. But a new sense of international responsibility and determination to play a part in world diplomacy is growing in the Legion today. And that is one reason why Legionnaires, at this, the busiest time of the year, have been cutting short their holidays to promote what amounts to a friendship train of toys to Europe.

THE TIDE FLOWS

Here is how Legionnaires and the public all over the country are putting across the Tide of Toys: Gen. Lucius Clay's home town, Marietta, Ga., was one of the first to respond, through Commander John Roy, with a pledge of one boxcar of toys. Emperor Hirohito's white horse is being used to collect toys at Nashville, where an admission fee of one toy is being charged to get in to see the famous steed. Harry Warner of Warner Brothers, who so patriotically chairmanned the Friendship Train committee, produced a newsreel telling the story of the "Tide Of Toys." Thirty Iowa cities responded immediately to the Legion's call, with Des Moines printing special greeting cards for American children to send to European children.

Mayor Mike Di Salle of Toledo, recently returned from Europe, proclaimed "Tide Of Toys" week, while Chairman Frazier Reams arranged for the schools to be open even during the Christmas holidays, to receive toys.

In Poughkeepsie, N. Y., the Legion used the French merc train "O and G" boxcar, sent to New York by the people of France, to collect toys. Poughkeepsie Legionnaires have already adopted the town of St. Lo, France, and all toys collected in the Poughkeepsie area will go to St. Lo. Special proclamations were issued by Governors Bowles of Connecticut, McMath of Arkansas, Browning of Tennessee, Tuck of Virginia, urging support of the Tide of Toys. In Los Angeles, Mayor Fletcher Bowron has decreed this week as "Tide of Toys" week, and Chairman Louis Goff of the Los Angeles area has fixed California's goal as "a million toys for a million boys."

Largest Legion post in the world is Omaha's No. 1, with 16,000 members. But Denver's Post No. 1, with 10,000 members and second largest in the world, proclaims it will outdolet Omaha. In Merion, Pa., Editor Harold Keating is publishing in his Main Line Times the names of each boy and girl who sends a toy to the children of Europe. ... Wheeling, W. Va., Post No. 1, oldest in the U. S., got its drive started so early that even on Christmas morning youngsters set aside a toy from under their Christmas trees. In Nashville, Post No. 5 is sending toys to the St. Mary's Orphanage and the Protestant Orphanage for the children to attach notes to and then be forwarded to Europe. Letters attached to toys can help to start a chain of friendship letters across the Atlantic.

BATTLEGROUND

Most significant political battle of 1950 will be fought in Connecticut where the Republicans are lining up a glamor team to oppose equally glamorous Democratic stars.

On the Republican side, Claire Boothe Luce, blonde authoress, ex-congresswoman, and wife of the Time-Life publisher, is being groomed to run for the Senate against Brian McMahon, who has done a notable job as chairman of the Senate Atomic Energy Committee. Mrs. Luce was an A-1 congresswoman.

In Connecticut's second senatorial election, Congressman John Lodge, brother of Massachusetts' Henry Cabot Lodge, will probably run against newly appointed Democratic Senator Bill Benton, advertising executive and former assistant secretary of state in charge of voice of America.

And for governor, the Republicans are grooming the ex-mayor of Hartford, William Mortenson, a popular vote getter, to run against Democratic Governor Chester Bowles, former head of OPA and a Democratic possibility for President or vice president.

Two motives are behind Republican determination to make Connecticut a testing ground in 1950. One is that they want to knock off the ex-OPA chief, who has proved to be so right about price control. The GOP doesn't want the ghost of high prices, led by Bowles, haunting them in 1952. Second, whoever wins Connecticut in 1950, with the governor elected for four years for the first time instead of two, will probably control the state for some time to come.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

When Sherman Minton was a law student, one of his teachers was ex-President William Howard Taft, and after a heated discussion with Minton, Taft remarked: "Well, that's the law and the only way you'll be able to change it is to get on the Supreme Court." Minton is now there. The Supreme Court has before it five cases involving the right to picket, of which perhaps the most important is that of John Hughes and Louis Richardson vs. the State of California. Hughes and Richardson picketed one of the Lucky Stores in Richmond, in an attempt to induce them to hire Negro employees in proportion to the number of Negroes patronizing the store.

Texas Norther Brings Memories Of Hog-Killing Down On Farm

Hog-killing on my uncle's farm was a time of great excitement and rejoicing for us children. Personally, I hope that I am no more bloodthirsty than the average person, but I must confess that the prospect of fresh sausage outweighed any other consideration, including the dreadful things that happened to hogs.

We all were astir at an early hour on the great day, and ate together at the table in the farm kitchen. Usually there were two or three men from neighboring farms who had come to help with the killing. Although they already had eaten breakfast, the long walk through the crisp air had revived their appetites, and they rarely waited for a second invitation before joining us in our attacks upon the hot cakes, eggs and bacon which loaded the board. There was much coffee-drinking, too, and wise talk about the weather outlook.

It was still grey dawn when we sallied forth to do our dirty work. Being six or seven years old, I was allowed to accompany the men, but only after I had been bundled up like an Eskimo kid, with a wool cap drawn down over my ears and a pair of thick red mittens on my hands. Even so, I had to dash around at a pretty lively clip to keep warm.

Unaware that tragedy was in the air, the big Duroc-Jerseys in the fattening pen munched busily at the ears of corn that had been thrown down to quiet them. Generally, there were a half-dozen to be butchered at one time, and the method varied. Sometimes a .32 rifle was used, but knocking on the head was the favored procedure. Two men would open the gate of the pen and slip quietly within, one bearing a heavy hammer and the other a long, glittering knife whetted to razor sharpness. At this point I involuntarily looked away, but invariably my eyes were drawn back with horrified fascination just as the hammer was poised above the head of an unsuspecting porker. The next instant there was a dull thud and the animal was lying flat on the floor of the pen, its legs kicking convulsively. The second man bent over and made a lightning-swift movement with his knife, which was followed by a torrent of blood pouring from the cut throat.

This was the signal for pandemonium to break loose. The other hogs abandoned their corn and tore about the pen rending the welkin with their shrieks as they frenziedly sought a way of escape. In vain; that awful hammer rose and fell remorselessly, and behind it came the knife. In less time than it takes to tell, all six hogs lay dead, and the sledge came up to carry them to the scalding vat.

The two horses which drew the sledge always became unmanageable as soon as they reached the pen. They reared and plunged in their efforts to break away, and it was necessary to whip them severely and hold their heads while the carcasses were loaded upon the sledge. The men said it was the smell of the blood that drove them frantic, but in later years I have wondered if it was not rather the sight of the reproachful pig ghosts heaving in the air.

The rest of the process was routine—scalding, scraping, cleaning and cutting. As a reward for good conduct, I was allowed to turn the handle of the sausage-grinder, my mouth watering as the meat came curling out in long, pink strips. It was stirred and pounded in a wooden mixing-bowl, seasonings were added, and finally it was forced into casings and either smoked or frozen. Usually we children had to wait until breakfast the next morning to sample some of our new sausage, but if we finished by late afternoon, there would be wafted to our nostrils the heavenly aroma of frying sausage patties. And how good they were with hot biscuits and butter! It is years since I have tasted genuine country sausage, but I treasure in memory its rich, brown, crackling goodness, with exactly the proper amount of sage-seasoning. By contrast, the commercial product that you buy at the corner butcher-shop or order in a cafe is just so much sawdust.—R. G. MACREADY.

Formosa Has Had Long History As Focal Point For Trouble

AS FAR BACK AS ANNALS RUN, the strategic island of Formosa off the southeast coast of China has been a seat of trouble—and history is repeating itself.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek having chosen this big, clam-shaped isle for his last-ditch stand against the conquering Communists, the question arises as to how far the United States should go in defending this position against the Reds.

Opinions differ (and in high quarters) regarding what action Uncle Sam should take. Starting at the top, President Truman is said to have reaffirmed an American policy which would bar any use of U. S. troops to try to prevent the island from falling into Communist hands. However, this reported decision would permit a continuance of economic help, political support and advisory aid for General Chiang.

HOWEVER, THERE IS A SCHOOL which would go much further, as witness the statements by former President Herbert Hoover and Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio. Both of them advocate the use of American armed forces if necessary to keep Formosa out of the hands of Chinese Communists. They maintain that such a policy is necessary to safe-guard America's own security. Meantime Britain is worried about the American policy. Several leading British newspapers have expressed fear that it might strain Anglo-American co-operation in foreign relations. John Bull is preparing to recognize the Chinese Communist regime, while Washington is standing pat.

It seems clear that armed intervention by the United States on the side of the Nationalists against the Communists would mean war for America.

IT MIGHT MEAN WAR WITH RUSSIA, which already is powerfully installed in Asia.

THERE MAY HAVE BEEN A TIME IN the World War when the complexion of the Chinese civil war might have been changed if Nationalist operations had been placed under the close supervision of American military experts. That time is past.

Chiang Kai-shek believes that if he can hang on in Formosa, and wage guerrilla warfare against the Communists on the continent, he can in time relieve his position. He asks material (not military) aid.

That's the position pending the projected conference between General MacArthur and the American joint chiefs of staff in Japan next month. The whole question of Formosa is expected to be gone into at that time. Meantime as Teddy Roosevelt advised: "Speak softly and carry a big stick—you will go far."

Rapid-Fire Moves In Capital Follow An Unvarying Pattern

WASHINGTON — HERE'S AN OUTLINE of the rapid-fire moves in Washington this week:

Friday—He sends Congress his economic report on the nation.

Monday—He sends Congress his budget message.

It's that way every year. Until after Monday Congress will spend most of its time praising or criticizing the messages. The Democrats, mostly, will do the praising. The Republicans, mostly, will do the criticizing.

This would be unusual only if it didn't happen that way. Now take the three messages:

THE ECONOMIC MESSAGE—MR. TRUMAN undoubtedly will say the Nation is doing fine, must be kept that way, should try to do better.

He'll be on the side of higher employment, business profits, good wages.

But if he talks about boosting taxes to take care of government expenses, Democrats and Republicans alike will scream.

Since this is an election year, if they favored higher taxes they'd be as popular back home as poison ivy.

Budget message—Mr. Truman will go into details about the cost of running the government another year.

This budget message is always the cue for an outburst of congressional oratory—generally against the size of the spending.

In fact, both Democrats and Republicans already are calling for less government spending.

STATE OF THE UNION—MR. TRUMAN

MR. TRUMAN told Congress the kind of program he thinks it ought to pass into law in 1950.

This is the unfinished part of the program which Mr. Truman asked Congress to pass in 1949.

Congress may pass some of it, certainly not all.

But this is an election year for most of Congress, in November. What it does and what it fails to do will be political ammunition then.

You can call the shots now:

1. The Trumanites will blame the Republicans for failures and ask the voters to send back an even stronger Democratic Congress.
2. The Republicans will fear that the Democrats control Congress now and wouldn't put the program into effect, or they'll say the Democrats are trying to go too far too fast or are trying to bring about socialism or something else.

All this cross-fire between now and election time will only add to the voters' confusion, which is to be expected.

Southern California Feels Winter's Bite

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 5 (AP)— Southern California, once called "sunny" and "semi-tropical" in the travel folders, is pinched today by winter's icy fingers.
Sub-freezing temperatures have broken or tied low temperature records in nearly a half-dozen areas.
The area's multi-million dollar citrus crop has had some dan-age from the current freeze, despite all night-orchard-firing.

In Los Angeles County, Agricultural Commissioner Harold J. Ryan said early surveys did not indicate citrus losses anywhere near those of the previous record freeze of January a year ago. Then, the citrus loss was in the millions.

James E. Pippin of Indio, a member of the California - Arizona Desert Citrus Advisory Committee said two hours of temperatures under 20 degrees and eight hours of sub-freezing in the rich Coachella Valley had caused "considerable" crop damage there.

The freeze of early December wiped out most of the tender vegetable crops. Tomatoes, the biggest crop left untouched by the earlier cold snap, suffered heavily yesterday. Pippin said that the tomato loss in some areas is total.

In the Imperial Valley, which borders Mexico, grapefruit was hard hit along with tomatoes.

HEAVIER PRODUCTION—Walter Kelly, left, who operates an irrigated farm six miles west of Stanton, has found that level borders bring about uniform water application with gratifying results. He averaged better than a bale and a half on land so prepared, twice that on unprepared land. The yields were in the face of heavy insect damage. Terrell Stewart, SCS work unit conservationist, is shown with Kelly. (Picture courtesy Stanton Reporter).

Kelly Discovers Uniform Water Application Is Money-Maker

STANTON, Jan. 5—Uniform water application has paid well in the experience of Walter Kelly, who operates an irrigated farm six miles west of Stanton.
In fact, it paid off double in comparison to unprepared land.
Kelly produced more than one and a half bales per acre on land that was levelled for uniform watering during 1949. By comparison, land only partially levelled received water moderately well and averaged about one bale per acre. But on land receiving no special leveling, production was slightly over three-quarters of a bale per acre.

After this experience, Kelly is planning to put level borders on as much land as his well will water in 1950. A cooperator in the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation district, he will have the assistance of the Soil Conservation Service in planning and executing the program.

Last spring he drilled his well too late to do a complete job.
Only about 40 acres, half the total subject to irrigation, were given maximum treatment.
In addition to irrigated crops of mats and winter cover crops, Kelly has 11 acres to permanent irrigated pasture established in the autumn of 1949. He plans to increase this acreage, taking care to put it under level borders.

Kelly's program is one of two types of irrigation in use in the district. The SCS, according to E.
J. Hughes, district conservationist, recommends level border flood irrigation on tight to moderately tight soils that occupy gently rolling to almost flat slopes where water is in excess of 500 gallons per minute.
For weaker wells or land that is sandy, or too steep or shallow for level flooding, sprinkler irrigation is indicated.

A program similar to that followed by Kelly has been recommended to most beginning an irrigation experience in agriculture.

Ellis Says Prison System Improved

DALLAS, Jan. 5 (AP)—The manager of Texas' prison system says the job of rebuilding it along modern lines is well advanced.
Man. O. B. Ellis told the Dallas
Rotary Club yesterday that:
1. Rehabilitation of the "down at the heels" plant has a long way to go but "we have gone a long way."
2. The $4,200,000 appropriated by the last legislature is being put into new buildings. Use of prison labor will give the system $7,000,000 worth of physical properties, approved by good architects.
3. The prison will be better equipped to operate and to segregate inmates when the current program is finished.

Parts of Mexico Ban Gas Imports

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 5 (AP)—The Diario Oficial publishes a decree today prohibiting the import of gasoline into border areas when Mexican production is sufficient to fill the demand.
The decree covers the entry points of Nuevo Laredo, Reynosa, San Pedro Roma and Matamoros.
It bans ordinary and high-test gas, kerosene and fuel oil. Border areas have previously been permitted to draw these from the U. S. because of the difficulty of supplying the Mexican product there.

Europe Happy About Truman's Message

LONDON, Jan. 5 (AP)—The press of western Europe expressed pleasure today at President Truman's promise of continued U. S. aid to the world's democracies but some papers asked:
What is America going to do about China?
British newspapers in particular were concerned at the U. S. President's failure to answer that question in his State of the Nation address to Congress yesterday. Britain is expected to recognize the Communist Government in China
this week end.

Hughes advised a complete conservation irrigation plan as the first step. Logical development, he observed, is application of the program in a systematic manner to conserve water and soil.

his statement on private reports statement to the press.
