Eisenhower Re-Elected By Landslide

Gray County Goes For Ike, Daniel

In a heavy vote, Gray County voters went to the polls yesterday in the general election and, with 16 boxes and the absentee vote reports cast this morning, indicate they went along with the remainder of the nation in returning President Dwight D. Eisenhower to the White House for another four years.

Two boxes had not reported late this morning due to the heavy vote. The boxes are from Precincts 9 and 10. Precinct 10 reported that a record number of 1725 persons cast ballots in that precinct yesterday.

Gray County voters gave Ike 3,204 votes while they gave Adlai Stevenson only 2196 in the boxes reporting. T. Coleman Andrews, presidential candidate of the Constitution Party received 50 votes.

In addition to the above votes from boxes which completed their counts, Precinct 10 at the Court House made the following incomplete report on the Presidential election. The incomplete tally gave Ike 929 votes and Stevenson 599 votes.

Of the votes reported the following votes were cast for the three presidential candidates in the following numbers in the four commissioners' precincts in Gray County, Pct. 1, Ike, 255; Stevenson, 24; and Andrews, 31. In Pct. 2, Ike, 2192; Stevenson, 1488; and Andrews, 34. In Pct. 3, Ike, 120; Stevenson, 49; and Andrews, 15. And in Pct. 4, Ike, 342; Stevenson, 292; and Andrews, 9.

Commissioner Precinct 1 consists of the following voting precincts: 1, 6, 7 and 18. Pct. 2 consists of 2, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16. Pct. 3 consists of 3 and 8 and Pct. 4 consists of 4, 5 and 7. In the governor's race, Gray County voters overwhelmingly approved Price Daniel as their choice to be governor of Texas. Daniel received 3,747 of the votes reported while William R. Bryant received 727 of the votes. W. Lee O'Daniel received a total of 723 write-in votes.

Voting by commissioner's precincts was as follows: Pct. 1, Daniel, 405; Bryant, 24; and O'Daniel, 26. Pct. 2, Daniel, 955; Bryant, 154; and O'Daniel, 182. Pct. 3, Daniel, 156; Bryant, 17; and O'Daniel, 24. Pct. 4, Daniel, 487; Bryant, 87; and O'Daniel, 182.

The only local election in which a race developed was that for County Commissioner of Precinct 1. The race was caused by the write-in campaign of Joe Clarke for the post. Voters in Precinct 1 expressed their faith in the incumbent Artie Carpenter and returned him to the job of Commissioner of that Precinct. With all of the boxes complete in that Precinct, votes showed that Carpenter received 261 votes while Clarke tallied a total of 199 write-in votes.

Voting for other state offices was as follows:
In the race for Congressman-at-Large from the state of Texas, Martin Dies received 4,148 votes while his opponent, Fred Spangler received 137. Ben Ramsey, the only candidate for lieutenant governor, received 4,254.
Will Wilson, candidate for attorney general, received a total of 4,185 votes while his opponent, Leo N. Duran, tallied 757.

API Sets Meeting Tomorrow

The second fall meeting of the Panhandle chapter, American Petroleum Institute, will be held at 8 p. m. tomorrow in the Palm Room of City Hall.

Jim Kimbrough, Schlumberger Well Surveying Corporation, will introduce the subject, electric and radiation logging, and explain the general uses of electric and radiation logs as applied to old and new wells in the Panhandle area.

Following his introductory remarks, a panel made up of representatives of oil operators and logging companies will assemble and answer questions from the audience.

Panel members for the electrical and radiation logging discussion will be made up of the following persons:
Norman Taylor, Welox Jet Services; Henry Frazer, Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Company; Bill Lovelace, Frontier Perforating, Inc.; Loyd Walker, Perforating Gun Atlas Corporation; C. O. Wilson, McCullough Oil Well Perforating; Wayne Denny, Lane Wells Service; Kimbrough; M. G. Rogers, Stand Oil and Gas Company; Paul Wiley, The Texas Company; Walter Pung, Humble Oil and Refining Company; Max A. Bolick, Cities Service Oil Company; and Jim Trippelhorn, Independent.

All eight proposed amendments to the state constitution were adopted, some by 6-1 majorities, in Tuesday's election.

Second Term For Ike Is Assured

By RAYMOND LAHR
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—American voters gave President Eisenhower a second term by a landslide today, but apparently kept the Democrats in control of Congress.

Latest returns indicated the Democrats had elected 220 House members, two more than a majority, and led in 13 of the 38 still unsettled contests.

They also were sure of 46 Senate seats, three below a majority, but were leading in all five of the undetermined races.

Mr. Eisenhower piled up a vote which may exceed his record-breaking total of four years ago. But it was a personal triumph for him, and many Republicans who hoped to ride into Congress on his coat-tails were disappointed.

It was 12:20 a. m. est. when Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential candidate, walked into a crowded Chicago hotel room and conceded defeat.

By UNITED PRESS
The presidential popular vote at 8 a. m. est.:

Eisenhower, 29,608,422; Stevenson 21,582,121; Eisenhower was leading in 41 states having 457 electoral votes; Stevenson in 7 states having 74 electoral votes. The vote was from 125,581 of 154,885 precincts.

Eisenhower had 57.8 per cent of the popular vote and Stevenson 42.2 per cent.

He appealed for national unity to face the threats to peace abroad, then smiled and said: "Let there be no tears, for if I lost an election, I won a grandchild."

A solemn Mr. Eisenhower went before a GOP victory celebration a few minutes later and said the result was a victory for his principles and a vote of confidence in "modern Republicanism."

The 8 a. m. est. United Press count of the presidential vote gave Mr. Eisenhower 29,608,422 and Stevenson 21,582,121. The President had 58 per cent of the two-party vote, compared with 55 per cent in 1952.

This was the biggest Republican presidential victory in history.

BULLETIN
Mrs. Doty Warner told The News today that she had received word of the death of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Rodgers, near Alamogosa, Colo. Mrs. Rodgers was the former Mildred Hill, formerly of Pampa. She was Red Cross executive secretary for a number of years here. She left here in 1952. She and her husband were buried in Memorial cemetery in Santa Fe, N. M.

Mr. Eisenhower won 40 states with 448 electoral votes and led in one with 11 electoral votes. Stevenson won six with 66 electoral votes and led in one with eight. The indicated total for Mr. Eisenhower was 457 electoral votes; for Stevenson 74.

The winner needs 268. In 1952, the count was 442 for Mr. Eisenhower; 89 for Stevenson.

Stevenson won only Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina and South Carolina. He led in the incomplete vote from Arkansas.

DALLAS (UP)—Returns to the Texas Election Bureau at 10:30 a. m. from 244 out of 254 counties in the state, including 66 complete, show the following totals:

Total vote 1,579,447.
Stevenson 690,237; Eisenhower 879,236; Andrews 9,974.

Governor—Daniel D. 1,042,310; Bryant R. 217,760; O'Daniel (Write in) 84,438.

Amendments:
1. Aid to misenacted—Approved 828,324, against 135,976.
2. Tax reallocation—Approved 592,384, against 299,748.
3. College fund—Approved 691,434, against 202,530.
4. Teacher retirement—Approved 947,063, against 123,817.
5. Veterans land fund—Approved 680,626, against 233,664.
6. Oath of office—Approved 698,368, against 140,845.
7. Jury trial waiver—Approved 785,242, against 149,805.
8. Denial of bail—Approved 702,987, against 188,084.

Texans Vote For Eisenhower Again

By LESTER STROTHER
United Press Staff Correspondent
President Eisenhower's history-making sweep of Texas' 24 electoral votes grew slowly today as outlying precincts reported.

Mr. Eisenhower, who was born in Denison, Tex., also won Texas in 1952. He was the first Republican presidential candidate in history to win the traditionally Democratic state twice straight.

U.S. Senate majority leader Lyndon B. Johnson, head of the Democratic party in Texas, said it was the war crisis that caused so many Democrats to vote for Mr. Eisenhower. He said they wanted to show that the nation is still united.

"Don't Trust Republicans" House Speaker Sam Rayburn, 74, who has been in Congress longer than any other member, said the vote as a whole shows that while people like Mr. Eisenhower, they still don't trust Republicans.

He said this was proved by the fact that the same people who elected Mr. Eisenhower also gave the Democrats control of Congress.

Mr. Eisenhower grabbed an early lead Tuesday night on returns from the big city boxes and kept up a steady margin that remained unchanged as the "forks-of-the-creek" were heard from.

Returns from 24 counties out of 254, 66 complete, to the Texas Election Bureau at 10:30 a. m. today, showed Mr. Eisenhower with 879,236 votes to 690,237 for Democratic nominee Adlai Stevenson and 9,974 for T. Coleman Andrews, the Constitution party candidate.

Long Uphill Fight
Leaders of the Democratic party, now able to talk freely, if anonymously, said they were not surprised by Mr. Eisenhower's victory. One said it was an uphill fight from the time Stevenson was nominated.

When crises exploded in Hungary and the Middle East, he said, there no longer was any doubt.

"I think Stevenson's proposal to end the draft hurt us as much as his plan to stop the H-bomb tests did," another Democratic leader said. "We might have ridden out one but the two together were too much."

Only twice before in modern history had the state deviated from the Democrats. It went for Herbert Hoover, the great engineer, in 1928 and supported Mr. Eisenhower in 1952.

Mr. Eisenhower won despite the fact that conservative Democrats, who helped elect him in 1952, no longer controlled the state's Democratic party machinery.

But Gov. Allan Shivers threw his support to Mr. Eisenhower, and said that Texans went for the President because they recognized him as a strong and sincere leader, capable of seeing them safely through times of stress.

At last reports, Mr. Eisenhower led Stevenson, his 1952 opponent, by almost 200,000 votes. Four years ago, he beat him by 133,650 votes.

Regardless of how the remaining count goes, the President has won the state's 24 electoral votes, sixth largest plump of the nation's electoral college.

Other results:
Daniel Wins Easily
1. Democratic-nominee Price Daniel easily won election as governor over W. Lee O'Daniel (his write-in opponent), and William Bryant, Republican.

2. All eight constitutional amendments were approved by a 6 to 1 majority. These included: Aid to misenacted; tax reallocation; college fund; teacher retirement; veterans land fund; oath of office; jury trial waiver, and denial of bail.

3. Rep. Bruce Alger of Dallas, Texas' only Republican congressman. (See TEXANS, Page 5)

las McKay in Oregon. Democrat Kenneth Holm held a narrowing lead over Sen. Francis Case in a potential upset in South Dakota. Despite President Eisenhower's personal triumph, he could not carry Congress with him. It apparently remained in the hands of his opposition as it has for two years.

Only once before in American history—in 1848—has a president started a term with both houses of Congress against him.

The indicated Senate figures meant stronger Democratic control than the hairline margins which have prevailed for either side during Mr. Eisenhower's first term.

GOP Senate in 1955
Republicans held the Senate by a one-vote edge from 1953 to 1955, then Democrats took over with a 49 to 47 margin which they held in the last Congress.

Democrats had 31 holdover senators not up for election this year; Republicans had 30.

Three incumbent GOP senators were toppled by Democrats: James H. Duff (Pa.), George H. Bender (Ohio) and Herman Welker (Idaho). The Democrats also (See DEMOCRATS, Page 5)

Non-Voters Write The Nicest Letters

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—What's new in Washington: Some of the nicest mail has been coming into the two campaign headquarters here — from the non-voting set.

The Republicans, for example, are in receipt of a water pistol, parceled to Ike's grandson, David. "On your granddad's birthday," the 10-year-old sender said, "squirt him good." The letter was from Texas.

Some kid wrote in for "I like Ike" buttons for his mom, daddy and little baby brother and "our baby sister."

A lot of people write to the GOP committee asking for Mamie's recipe for her favorite cake and also for the President's famous nibup of a beef stew. All get an answer.

A lady ward heeler in the South wrote in and asked if the Republicans could somehow postpone the election. "I have been working so hard and have gathered in so many votes I don't see how we'll have room to handle all the people. Can't you hold off until sometime later, like March, or April?"

The Adlai Stevenson camp here was swamped, too.

A sixth-grader from New York dropped the Democratic candidate's little line, saying she was 10 and "fine" and that everybody in class was on his team. She enclosed a cardboard cutout of a shoe with a hole in the sole, labeled: "Be smart! Be bright! Vote for Adlai and your (sic) voting right!"

A little girl in Maryland said she dearly loved the Democratic candidate but wanted to straighten out one little item. "Is it true," the child asked, "that if you are elected, we will have to go to school on Saturday? I do not believe this is so, but I thought you might want to say something about it." Adlai wrote right back that little girls should not listen to rumors.

A youngster in Nebraska said: "You can have my vote in 1964. I'm only 13. If you can come to our town I can promise you a good crowd, if you come right now. For further information, contact my committee."

The fisherman publication sent out an urgent appeal to the nation's 20 million anglers to pull up the line and go to the polls on election day. "The fishing poles can wait, but the election polls won't" is the way the editor put it.

The railroad people are exercised by the fact that modern political candidates often fly instead of ride the rails. The railway progress publication was stirred up to remark that "candidates in airplanes are way over the heads of the people."

Mindzenty Lives As Symbol Of Resistance To Commies

By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

A living symbol of resistance to Communist oppression is living under the protection of the American flag in Hungary.

Members of Hungarian "Titlist" Premier Imre Nagy's government are under arrest, victims of the treachery of Soviet Russia and of their Hungarian Communist puppets.

But Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic primate of Hungary, escaped to the United States legation when the Russians crushed the Hungarian revolt Sunday.

It looks as if the Russians will not dare to do anything about it. The only way they could get him would be to take him by force.

But as long as he remains in the embassy the Russians and the puppets are not likely to be very happy.

The gaunt, 64-year-old cardinal was arrested by the Communists on the day after Christmas in 1949.

He had long been considered enemy No. 1 by the Hungarian Reds.

Mindszenty was sentenced to life imprisonment in February, 1949, as a traitor. He shocked those who saw him at his trial—weak, trembling, hollow-eyed. He "confessed" to the charges against him — he had been starved, kept almost without sleep, by his jailors.

Mindszenty knew months before his arrest that the Communists were out to get him. He had warned Catholics in published statements not to credit anything he might say if he were arrested.

Mindszenty was held in prison for a long time, finally removed to "house arrest" in a country home 20 miles north of Budapest. Hungarian rebels freed him and escorted him to Budapest.

The "Titlist" government quashed all charges against the cardinal. They admitted his conviction had been fraudulent.

Janos Kadar, now Nagy's successor as puppet premier, made the mistake of joining in the action.

It was a tribute to the Protestant United States that the Roman Catholic cardinal sought asylum at the American legation when the Russian Red army crushed the rebellion.

It was one of the many blunders the Russians have made in the surge of anti-Moscow — now anti-Communist — revolt in eastern Europe that they did not manage to arrest Mindszenty.

The stern-looking, medium-sized prelate had shown long before the Reds took over in Hungary at the end of World War II that he was an enemy of Communism, and of oppression of every kind.

Program Presented To Shamrock Guild

SHAMROCK — (Special) — The Wesleyan Senior Service Guild met in the home of Mrs. Mary Pace, with Mrs. Elsie Mae Hood, president, in charge.

Mrs. Bill Day led the opening prayer, and Miss Geneva Zeigler reported on the recent Week of Prayer program. Mrs. W. R. Wooten led the program on Southeast Asia, and Mrs. Clark Bumpers gave the devotional, "Go Ye and Preach the Gospel."

Mrs. Wooten introduced Mrs. W. J. Foster of the WSCS, who gave a talk, "Deliver us from Evil," taken from the Reader's Digest.

Guests were Mrs. W. J. Foster and her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. D. Foster of Modesto, Calif., and Mrs. R. T. Hill. Members present were Mrs. Elsie Mae Hood, Minnie Horne, Earl Hamill, J. T. Ferguson, S. L. Draper, Bill Day, W. R. Wooten, Clark Bumpers, Mary Pace, and Miss Geneva Zeigler.

Lefors Art, Civic Club Has Meeting

The Lefors Art and Civic Club met recently in the Community Center, with Mrs. R. H. Barron as hostess. Mrs. Bill Watson led the business session, in the absence of the president, Mrs. H. Callan.

The program included a speech entitled, "Segregation," by Mrs. L. R. Spence. A round-table discussion followed.

Pioneer For Chinese Women Now Holds "Million-Dollar" Place In Insurance World

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Mrs. Grace Chow didn't sell me a cent of life insurance — believe it or not.

But this stunning "Million Dollar Lady" sold herself. Sitting in sunny Lafayette Park with the White House in the background, she chatted quietly about an exciting life that still goes on at full tempo.

"This is the only time that I haven't sold in my life," laughed Mrs. Chow, who was in the capital to attend the National Association of Life Insurance Underwriters convention. "I'm taking a real holiday."

To say she deserves it is a gross understatement. In each of the last five years she has sold a million dollars' worth of insurance.

With the same success, she also helped her husband run a huge tea business in addition to raising five children — four girls and a boy.

"It wasn't easy," she explained. "I really had to pioneer because a woman's place is in the home, according to Chinese tradition."

When she first went out on the road to try to talk Chinese people into buying insurance, she was met with hostility and suspicion, especially by men.

"There were always questioning eyes," said Mrs. Chow, who lives in Los Angeles, Calif. "Often I would dress up and go out to a nice Chinese restaurant. And after a while, I was not surprised when the head waiter would ask me if the proprietor could come to my table. The owner would shoot questions at me from A to Z."

"Are you a widow?" is one question Mrs. Chow was generally asked. She always made it a point to carry pictures of her five children and her husband, however.

"They always wondered what a Chinese woman was doing galavanting around the country by herself," she says with a laugh. "But sometimes I wound up selling them insurance."

"In the end I was able to prove that a Chinese woman can be a good homemaker, wife and career woman at the same time."

"Luckily, I had a wonderful husband who was broad-minded enough to let me go out and do it."

Over 90 per cent of the insurance Mrs. Chow writes is for Chinese people, and she has been particularly successful because of her ability to speak in several Chinese dialects.

She picked up these complicated language variations during numerous trips to China when she and her husband were operating their tea and ginger business.

She made the contacts and gained considerable experience selling her tea and ginger products.

In fact, in many cities she was known as the "Ginger Lady."

Hard times came when World War II cut down on imports from China, so Mrs. Chow went into insurance to keep the family and business out of the red.

Now she's called the "Million Dollar Lady."

Is she ever planning to quit? "I don't think I'm the retiring kind," she says with a gleam in her dark eyes. "As long as I'm healthy and strong I'll keep at it."

PLAN BAZAAR LUNCH
Mrs. G. F. Richmond, left, and Miss Peggy Richmond, right, look over the number of plates on hand in preparation for the Episcopal bazaar. Mrs. Richmond is chairman of the luncheon committee and will be assisted by Miss Richmond, Mrs. William Fair, Mrs. George Rorback and Miss Ruth Huff. The bazaar will be held from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thursday and Friday in the church's Parish House.

HAVE YOU NOTICED THE CALENDAR? Time is flying and Christmas soon will be here. You've probably vowed to do your Christmas shopping early, so I won't remind you. I do suggest, though, that you enlist your husband or a high school boy in the family who's handy with tools in a home-beautifying project. Needless to say, this yuletide primping can get arduous any time now, and the sooner the better, so there'll be none of that last-minute scurrying around in a wild effort to keep up with the decorations of the neighborhood.

THERE ARE several ideas for Christmas decorations I'd like to tell you about. I'm sure your handyman will find these as easy to carry out and inexpensive, as well. All can be made from materials found in most hardware stores: masonite tempered board panels. The correct color for exterior decor is one-arter inch. A nice thing about masonite is that it is splinter-free and highly weather-resistant. Therefore, it can be used not only a year, but year after year. Your handyman won't even have to dream up designs for the Santa Claus and reindeer, if that's what you'd like on your rooftop or lawn, for you can get a free plan that has eighteen ideas for Christmas decorations, laid out against a grid for easy copying.

One which seems brand new is how to outline a Christmas tree on a masonite pegboard panel and use the panel for hanging cards or presents. If you're without a fireplace, the plans show how to build one just for the kiddies' stockings. Yard decorations, Santa and his reindeer, the nativity scene, Star of Bethlehem, various Christmas cutouts, and a cut-out named "Santa and His Helpers" are included. And there's a color chart to guide the easy painting of the masonite.

You can obtain a free copy of "Eighteen Ideas for Christmas Decorations" by sending a postal to the Home Service Bureau, 20th floor, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill. It will be sent to you immediately so you can get your handyman busy on the unusual Christmas decorations you want this year.

IF THE LAST-MINUTE Christmas dash always leaves you fresh out of holiday spirits when the Big Day rolls around, you'll want to check your gift list now, with some Teen-age girls who go downtown in a group ought not to spread out across the whole sidewalk. If they walk in pairs there is room for others to meet or pass them. And they won't be as likely to attract undue attention by loud talking.

Mature Parent

MATURE PARENT
By MRS. MUREL LAWRENCE
Mrs. O. says her husband punishes their children by refusing to speak to them. When their 8-year-old boy broke a storm window stored in the basement, his father didn't speak to him for four days. At the end of this time, Mrs. O. says the child was almost sick with suspense. She asks: "Will you please discuss the cruelty of this punishment so my husband can read it?"

The problem here doesn't seem to be this child's feelings about his father's silence, but what the silence shouts at us about his father's feelings.

I think it's telling us that he's not sure how to treat a child who breaks a window. We often treat an irritating youngster to silence not because we are "cruel" at all, but because we just don't know how else to treat him.

This is particularly true of fathers since they've been displaced as the home's chief disciplinarian. Today, fathers are away from children all day, losing the intimacy with them that home working fathers used to have. Mothers are not only more certain of children's trust; but thanks to the child-training profession, have become the home expert on discipline.

Where once a woman had to ask her man to understand her view on how to treat a child who broke a window, today she can impose it as the final authority. She can say, "If you don't do what Dr. So-and-So says is right, you will make Tommy emotionally sick."

In this situation, silence toward misbehaving Tommy becomes a man's sanctuary from female criticism. Sure of doing only the wrong thing about the broken window, a father starts nursing his natural grievance behind the safe, non-committal wall of silence.

So if Mrs. O. wants her husband informed of the psychological evils resulting from silent treatment of children, let her get someone else to parade them for her. Instead of threatening Mr. O., I think it would be more profitable to begin to feel genuine regret that carelessness smashed his storm window — and to express this sympathetic feeling in place of superior critical judgment of his silence as "cruelty."

Children would benefit greatly if parents would start using child psychology's analysis of young feelings to spot the same feeling in themselves. What Mrs. O. needs is less concern for her child's suspense and more for the same uncertainty in his father.

Heavier Turkeys Provide The Most Economical Buys

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

A bigger turkey crop this year and lower prices — that's Thanksgiving with a difference. Turkeys of all sizes, yes. But big birds will be in larger numbers. The big fellows are a better buy because they have more meat in proportion to bone and are lower in price per pound.

There will be an unusually large number of tom turkeys this year. The belief that hen turkeys are better eating than toms is not backed up by current United States Department of Agriculture research. Today, modern feeding and care and selection of better breeds, assures high quality meat in toms as well as hens. Therefore, if your family is large, if your oven is big enough, and your refrigerator

Secretary stops coughing at work

At the slightest threat of a cough, this secretary uses Creomulsion Cough Syrup for two reasons: First, it relieves coughs following colds or flu with spectacular effectiveness and speed. Second, it contains no thought-dulling narcotics or antistamines.

Creomulsion stops the tickle, comforts raw membranes, clears breathing passages, relaxes tension. Creomulsion works hard and fast to bring you welcome relief.

3 Mishaps Reported

There were three accidents reported to the police department yesterday and this morning.

One of the two yesterday occurred at the intersection of W. Wilks and S. Wells and involved a '54 Chevrolet driven by George Kenneth Fangle of 808 S. Wilson who incurred $35 damages on his car and a '51 Ford driven by Maryland Neil Turner of 908 S. Wells who claimed $75 damages.

The other accident happened earlier at 6 p.m. on E. Frederic, 30' west of Barnes when a '53 Plymouth driven by Jo Carrol Cook of 729 S. Barnes was in collision with a '55 Ford driven by J. Ross of 528 N. Hobart. Damage to both cars was estimated at $200 for the Plymouth and $250 for the Ford.

Today's accident happened this morning at approximately 7:45 at the corner of S. Cuyler and Atchison St. when a '47 Ford driven by Roy Brewer of 832 E. Campbell was in collision with a '51 Chrysler driven by Betty Pinson of 353 N. Dwight. There was no damage reported on the Ford, while $30 damage was estimated on the Chrysler.

EGYPT

The United Nations demand of Nov. 2 for a cessation of hostilities already had raised speculation that promises of Soviet help might lead Egypt to fight on.

Cairo radio said today the cease fire was "only part" of the UN General Assembly's five-point resolution aimed at restoring peace to the Middle East. It noted the five parts were:

- 1. A cease fire.
- 2. The immediate withdrawal of foreign troops from Egypt.
- 3. Withdrawal of the Israelis behind the armistice line.
- 4. UN members should not send arms to the Middle East.
- 5. Freedom and security of Suez Canal navigation.

Britain and France announced their forces halted at midnight after winning control of all the Suez Canal Zone from Port Said to Ismailia. Israel announced earlier it was observing the cease fire.

But reports from Cairo did not say flatly Egypt would accept the Mideast news agency said earlier today it had no knowledge of Egyptian acceptance.

The Egyptian radio said Egypt would continue fighting as long as any aggressor remained on Egyptian soil. It promised, "We shall wipe out every one of them. Every inch of Egyptian soil will be their tomb."

DEMOCRATS

took the Colorado seat being vacated by a Republican.

Republicans picked up Democratic Senate seats in Kentucky, New York and West Virginia. One was being vacated and two were held by short-term Democratic appointees.

Win Colorado Seat
In the Colorado Senate race Democrat John A. Carroll, a former House member, whipped former Gov. Dan Thornton, a Republican and President Eisenhower's close friend.

Rep. Antonio M. Fernandez (D-N.M.) won re-election while in a coma after suffering a stroke. He died early today but his seat is counted in the Democratic column pending selection of a successor.

Duff, one of Mr. Eisenhower's earliest backers, was beaten by Joseph S. Clark, former Democratic mayor of Philadelphia, Ohio's five-term Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche defeated Bender, Welker was unhorsed by Democrat Frank Church, 32-year-old Boise attorney who will be the youngest senator.

Republican Jacob K. Javits defeated Democrat Robert F. Wagner in the New York seat vacated by Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (D-N.Y.). Former Sen. W. Chapman Revercomb (R-W.Va.) beat Democrat Gov. William C. Marland for a seat vacated by Sen. William R. Laird III (D-W.Va.) who was serving temporarily by appointment.

And former Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky.) won a Democratic-held seat in Kentucky.

In one of the closest and most watched races, former Interior Secretary Douglas McKay slugged it out with Sen. Wayne L. Morse (D-Ore.), the former Republican who was the senator the GOP most wanted to lick.

And in Kentucky, Senate Democratic Whip Earle C. Clements fought for his political life against former Rep. Thurston B. Morton. In the other Kentucky race, cooper, making his fifth bid for the Senate, defeated Democratic former Gov. Lawrence W. Wetherby. Cooper had won two and lost two of his previous bids.

Sen. James H. Duff (R-Pa.) and Democratic former Mayor Joseph S. Clark of Philadelphia were locked in another major battle.

In scandal-ridden Illinois, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) fought it out with Democrat Richard Stengel throughout the night.

Through New England, down the East Coast and into the South. Tide Rolls On Massachusetts was in doubt for a while, but its 16 electoral votes were eventually won by Mr. Eisenhower. The same was true of big Pennsylvania with its 32 electoral votes. Stevenson almost had to have these two and, when they went against him, it was just a question of time until he threw in the towel.

IKE

races that the Democrats made their best showing.

They elected 15 to the Senate and led in five other races. With 31 holdover members, their indicated total was 51. Republicans won 15 seats, which gave them an indicated total of 45 when added to their 30 holdovers.

In House races, the Democrats had elected 210 members and led in 19 contests for an indicated total of 229. The GOP elected 178 and led in 28 races for an indicated 206. To control, a party needs 218 seats or more.

The present Senate lineup is 49 Democrats, 47 Republicans. In the House, the lineup is 230 Democrats, 201 Republicans and four vacancies.

Javits Wins New York
New York Attorney General Jacob K. Javits wrested one Senate seat from the Democrats. John Sherman Cooper, former senator and former ambassador to India, won another in Kentucky. Former Sen. Chapman Revercomb took a third in West Virginia.

But Democrat Frank Church unseated GOP Sen. Herman Welker in Idaho, and Joseph S. Clark Jr., the former mayor of Philadelphia, took out Republican Sen. James H. Duff in Pennsylvania. Democrat Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio defeated GOP Sen. George H. Bender.

In repeating his 1952 invasion of the South, Mr. Eisenhower won Louisiana, a state Stevenson captured four years ago. He also won Kentucky and West Virginia, two border states which went to Stevenson in 1952. But in a third border state, Stevenson turned the tables and won Missouri, which the President had carried in the last election.

In some of the midwestern farm belt states, Democrats gave a real scare to the incumbent Republicans in Congress. This was the area in which there had been periodic signs this year of rebellion against the Eisenhower administration farm policy.

But this situation did not damage Mr. Eisenhower, at least so far as his electoral vote was concerned. There was never much doubt about Mr. Eisenhower's reelection. He jumped into the lead with the first returns last night and the country watched his majority count as returns poured in from across the nation.

With shooting being heard in Europe and the Middle East, the voters apparently decided they wanted a president with experience in war and experience in the White House.

As early as 8 p.m. est. Connecticut, a weathervane state with a fast count, reported that its eight electoral votes had been won by Ike. When the last precinct was tallied, he had carried the state by more than 300,000 votes and had more than doubled his 1952 margin.

Applications Being Taken For Rotary Fellowship

A year of study abroad as a Rotary Foundation Fellow is the exciting possibility for some students from Pampa.

Although the program is only in its tenth year, many Rotary Fellows already have shown promise that they may well be among tomorrow's leaders; they are teaching in universities and secondary schools — they have entered the foreign and domestic services of their governments — they have been ordained as ministers of churches of various faiths — they are doing advance research work — and they are active in positions of leadership in diverse business and professional fields.

Gerre Hancock, Rotary Foundation Fellow from Lubbock, who was this District's selections in 1954, studied at the University of Paris during this last academic year, and has appeared before the Pampa Rotary Club to acquaint Rotarians and the citizenship of the area with the value of these Rotary Foundation Fellowships.

Applications for the Rotary Fellowship may be made only through the Rotary Club in the city where student has his permanent residence. In Pampa, application should be made to Mr. Brook.

Candidates must be between 20 and 29 years of age. They must have a college or university degree (or they must be in their senior year), a record of high scholastic standing, and a thorough knowledge of the language of the country in which they propose to study.

They must have the ability to make friends easily, be vitally interested in world affairs, and possess an instinct for leadership.

The applicant selected by the Rotary Club of Pampa will compete for the Rotary Fellowship with applicants selected by the other Rotary Clubs in this District, which is comprised of 40 clubs in West Texas and the Panhandle. Deadline for the receipt of applications for the 1957-58 academic year by the local Club is November 15th.

Since the program was inaugurated in 1947 in memory of the founder of the Rotary Fellowships with the Rotary Foundation Fellowships have been awarded to 327 young men and women living in 61 countries in Europe, Asia, Africa, the Americas, and islands of the Pacific, for study in 40 countries. The one-year grants average $2,500.

Ladies Day At Jaycees Observed

Yesterday was ladies day at the weekly Jaycee meeting in the Palm Room of City Hall, and it was well attended by members and their wives.

The affair was much more than a routine meeting, with the entertainment being provided by the Cappella Choir from High School, under the direction of Bill Hunt.

The business end of the meeting was taken up with the appointing of hours for volunteers to man the sound trucks which drove throughout town in an effort to get every one eligible to vote. The trucks were run from 3 p.m. until 7.

In another business report, it was announced that the recent membership drive has brought in a total of 23 new members. Ray Duncan, president of the Jaycees, thanked each member for their fine work in helping the club put this drive over the top. He also thanked the new members for having entered the organization, and complimented them on the fine attitude they had shown.

Sums Up Ike's Sweep
Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson, who won control of the Democratic party machinery in Texas earlier this year from Gov. Allan Shivers, an Eisenhower supporter, summed up the President's sweep.

He blamed the war crisis in Hungary and in Egypt.

"In a moment of peril, the American people voted to back up their President and demonstrate to the world that America is united. Every other issue faded."

"There is only one job before America. It is to save our country for ourselves and our children. Without rancor, without bitterness, and without malice we must dedicate ourselves to that task," he said.

Shivers, who led the state behind President Eisenhower in 1952, and campaigned for the President this fall, said it simply was a case of Texans recognizing a "strong and sincere leader."

"The tireless efforts of thousands of staunch Texas Democrats, who placed the welfare of our nation above all other considerations, have gone into this victory," he said.

Aviation Firm Wants Permit

Central Airlines has expressed a willingness to fight, before the Civil Aeronautics Board, for a permit to carry its services from Pampa to Dallas and Fort Worth, according to a report made at today's meeting of the aviation committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting was held to compile the findings made as a result of the recent airline survey just completed. On the basis of these findings the committee will decide what the next step should be in the obtaining of the hoped-for service.

According to the report made on the contacts with airline officials, it was said that they have agreed to start the proceedings, while asking that those engaged in the endeavor here in Pampa work along with them.

No decisions have been made as yet by the committee, until such time as they have completed all their findings.

The meeting was presided over by Leon Fain chairman of the committee.

Senior Citizens Meet Tomorrow

A showing of old cartoons and funnies, with sound track, will highlight the meeting of the Senior Citizens Center at 2:30 p.m. Thursday in the Lovett Library. The films will be shown by Earl McConnell.

Refreshments in bags will be provided to eat during the "movie."

The Center, which meets each Thursday, is sponsored by the Pampa Altrusa Club and is open to any senior citizen. Transportation to and from the meetings is provided by Grey Ladies or Altrusa members. Mrs. Frank Lard and Mrs. W. A. York are co-chairmen of the project.

Return To The Abacus

No wonder our young people are in such a sorry strait in their educational endeavors.

Dr. Nathan Lazar, who is being widely hailed as a great reformer in our government school, is advocating one of the most ancient and outmoded methods of studying arithmetic in an effort to correct current defects. And it must follow that if we can correct an error by reverting to primitive methods, then error springs from methods even worse than primitive.

A national publication has carried a laudatory article on Dr. Lazar's methods, entitled: "Why Johnny Can't Add." In it we learn that Dr. Lazar favors counting on the fingers, the Chinese abacus and children's toy cows and horses, to instill in our youth the proper concepts of arithmetic. While these may be excellent devices for the retarded, some way we can't get enthusiastic about using them for normal children of average intelligence who could learn a great deal more by a little practice with addition and the multiplication tables.

The article does us one service. It reveals that many experts have agreed that arithmetic "outsprints all rivals as the worst-taught subject in America's schools." And considering the paucity of the instruction in other subjects, this places arithmetic at the nadir.

Is it any wonder that we are having difficulty in finding sufficient graduates of scientific skill to fill industrial vacancies when arithmetic, the base of all exact sciences, is taught in pre-Neolithic style? And to improve the results we must now revert to gadgets!

Next, Professor Lazar will be recommending a return to the Roman numeral and the removal of shoes from all tots under ten so that they can count on toes as well as fingers.

We very much fear that Mr. Lazar and his followers are falling far short of the target. Admitted that the government schools are doing a deplorable job in the arithmetic line, the problem is to assay the causes, not to experiment with juggling.

And the causes stem directly from what is called "progressive" education. "Progressivism" in our schools commands that the child be entertained in a joyful manner. He must not have his capacities strained. Everything must be made easy for him. He must be happy in his studies, and standards must be low enough so that the simplest attainment can be greeted by his ego as a major triumph.

"Progressivism" is a part of the major theme played by government proponents of our present school system. A government's job is to control its subjects. And when the government holds the schools in bondage, then the students become tractable and docile under governmental management.

Thus, our government-paid and supported educators tend to favor "progressivism" as a modified form of brain-washing wherein the outstanding student is hampered and conformity to a group norm becomes the highest aim.

If we can cure these problems, the chasm in scholastic arithmetic will be bridged in short order. And not by the abacus, either.

There is one course we can take which will assure the removal of "progressivism" from our schools. That is to remove our schools from government control. If schools were operated independently and privately, while some might adhere to "progressivism" others would not. The student or his parents could choose the school which provided the type and pattern of instruction for which they were willing to pay. Competition in our educational institutions would reduce the mediocre and the unfit schools. The over-all result would be greater individualism, greater variety, greater ability, greater genius in action.

Yes, we agree that Johnny can't add. But let's get at the source of the problem and not simply clutter up a solution with gadgetry.

The Doctor Says

By EDGAR F. JORDAN, M. D.

Many readers have asked for a discussion of the disease known as infectious or epidemic hepatitis. During World War II, interest in this subject became enormously stimulated because of difficulty with it among the members of our armed forces, particularly those stationed overseas.

There are two varieties, one of which is called serum hepatitis. This results from a blood or plasma transfusion containing a virus attacking the liver.

There is also a contagious form, labeled infectious or epidemic hepatitis. Both are almost certainly caused by a virus; there may or may not be differences between the viruses causing both conditions.

IT HAS BEEN only since 1952 that hepatitis had to be reported on a national basis. During that year, more than 17,000 cases were reported; the following year, over 33,000; and in 1954, over 50,000 cases. This does not mean that infectious hepatitis is actually increasing at the rate which these figures suggest. There is a good deal of variation from year to year, from place to place and even from season to season. The figures do make it clear, however, that this is a disease of growing importance.

About half the patients stricken with the epidemic form of the disease develop a fever which generally hovers about 103 degrees. The typical yellow color of the skin and eyeballs of jaundice is often unnoticeable until after the patient has been sick for several days. The amount of yellow color, or jaundice, varies a good deal from person to person and, in some, may even be bright yellow. In cases where the yellow color is too slight to notice, the disease often escapes diagnosis.

THE TREATMENT which seems to work best includes strict bed rest as early in the course of the disease as possible. This bed rest should be continued for some time after acute signs have disappeared, because getting up too early often seems to bring back some of the symptoms. Usually, the diet must contain a high proportion of protein foods, such as milk, fish, eggs and cheese, little fat and no alcohol at all.

Recovery from a typical case of the disease often takes a long time — two months or even longer. In some, the acute form seems to be followed by a chronic variety from which recovery is even slower. Most eventually get well without serious after-effects. Complications can occur, and one always fears that a disease of this sort may get more serious as time goes on.

Results Of Eliminating Graded Report Cards

In Jones' and Olivier's book, "Progressive Education in Re-education," the authors explain very clearly the results of government schools eliminating graded cards. They put it this way:

"By eliminating graded report cards and other forms of scholastic awards and competition, the collectivist-minded educators achieve several things at once, willingly or no.

"1. The child's interest in learning is lessened and with no incentive to excel he is bored with school. Why work without a reward? Why work if you're going to pass anyway? To the middle-grades who write about 'pupil interest,' 'self-motivation,' and 'purposeful urge' Olivier wished he could ask, 'How long would you wait for your child to have a 'purposeful urge' to brush his teeth?'

"2. There is a consistent lowering of intellectual standards, followed by an acceptance, nay, an encouragement of mediocrity. Why take Latin or algebra when you can get your diploma on 'family living' and grades don't matter? Why continue high standards for college entrance requirements when very few students can meet them?

"3. There is emotional harm done the child at seventh grade, ninth grade, college, or earning his living, by suddenly pitching him into a world unprotected from failure. If institutions for the mentally ill and legally wayward young adults are bursting at the seams, as is said, perhaps this factor plays its part.

"4. There is emotional harm done to the child whose only outlet left him for competition-play-fails because he is not 'athletic.' Somewhere the youngster wants to shine, and since he can't in the gym or the schoolyard, and is not permitted to in the classroom, slow frustration builds up."

"Most teachers know that the traditional setting of standards with the attendant tests, marks, and promotions based thereon, is the only healthy manner of dealing with parent-reporting. What they do not know is that these standards for achievement are being deliberately taken away.

Russia's Example

"They do not know that in Russia when the Communists came into power in 1919 the first thing they did was eliminate report cards. Individual grades and competition were abolished as a hang-over from capitalist ideology, and ability to perform in group cooperative work was extolled as the ideal. Nor do they know that when the Communists took over Yugoslavia one of the first moves was to abolish the grading system in the schools. Their reasons, they said was that if a child were not rewarded for excelling in his work by being given a higher grade than those who did not try their best, no leader would evolve to oppose the Communist principles. They stated that 'those leveled to a group were more easily led.' Nor do our teachers and parents know that this same pattern was repeated in all other Communist-dominated countries including Czechoslovakia, East Germany and China.

"Well, we won't have to wait until a member of the Soviet Academy of Pedagogical Sciences gets here; we won't have any report cards left, by then, to abolish.

"Olivier was disturbed by the 100 per cent promotion practice, too, and the abandonment of the practice of 'skipping' grades. There was so much prattle about a 'child's doing best in his own age group.' The child, it seems, will be frustrated if he is too old or too young for his class. Suppose, then, that he is too fat for his class? He might, poor thing, become frustrated by having his classmates call him 'Tubby' or 'Fatsy.' Let us be consistent, surely, and keep the thin children and the plump children separated whilst they study.

"What about the child's mental age? Does he not 'do better' when placed in his intellectual age group rather than simply because he is so many years old? ...

"A deliberate leveling process 'to make the revolution easier' certainly appears to be under way. By using chronological age as the only yardstick by which children are divided into classroom groups the resultant intellectual level is not somewhere in the middle as might be thought. Invariably the level must be brought down to that of the duller or nearly the duller children. Olivier cried out at the further leveling of the mental ability of American youth by the questionable device of 'integration of schools.' Documentary evidence that local implementation of this federal decision will lower academic standards in this country has already been presented. (See U. S. New & World Report, 'When Schools are Mixed With Educational Standards Fall,' April 27, 1955) What reason did NEA and the 'entrenched education bureaucracy' have for forcing this issue? Are the professional educators who agitated for integration truly concerned about the 'best possible education for all children?' Do they know that, by way of its official mouthpieces, including the Daily Worker, the Kremlin wants untimely integration of the schools in the United States? Can't they see any of the writing on the wall?"

Matthews says Roy was a Trotskyite who strung along with Dave Dubinsky's present henchmen, Jay Lovestone and Irving Brown, as they cried for blood in the American gutters. According to Matthews, Roy was disappointed in his brothers because they followed the Stalin line.

Later, many copies of the same letter were struck off by mimeograph and Matthews provided such reproduction to the committee for its published official records. Walter and Victor Reuther vaguely claimed that their text had been altered, but they never specified how. The "Mel and Glad" to whom the original was addressed were friends in Michigan.

The famous tag-line which for years has been flung at "Vic and Wal," was "Carry on the fight for a Soviet America."

After 18 months in the "Workers' Fatherland" Vic and Wal came back and went straight to Detroit in the fall of 1935 where, as Matthews later wrote, they immediately went to work organizing the sit-down strikes, a Communist technique first tried in France under Premier Leon Blum.

To Adlai:

Fair Enough

Here's The Letter Asking For A 'Soviet America'

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

CHICAGO — Ed F. Stumpf, editor of the West Palm Beach Post, recently wired me that many readers there would like to see, before November 6, Walter Reuther's letter from Russia advocating "A Soviet America" (written with and signed jointly by his brother, Victor). Inasmuch as Reuther is Adlai Stevenson's chief henchman in the AFL-CIO job — monopoly and has been eulogized by Eleanor Roosevelt, Senator Lehman, Chester Bowles and others of that baffling stripe, this information is appropriate to the hour although it probably would make no difference in the political decision of any appreciable number of voters.

The time allowed me to obtain this letter from my file and transmit it may have been too short. That seems unimportant because Stevenson and Kefauver's apparent fates are doomed at this writing. However, for future reference, here is the text, somewhat abbreviated, as provided by Dr. J. B. Matthews and published in the "printed hearings" of the old Dies Committee on Un-American Activities:

"Jan. 21, 1934. Dear Mel and Glad: It seems ages since we heard from you. Because you are anxious to receive word from the 'Workers' Fatherland' I am taking this first opportunity to answer you. What you have written concerning strikes and general labor unrest in Detroit plus what we have learned from other sources of the rising discontent of the American worker makes us long for the moment to be back with you in the front lines of our struggle. However the daily inspiration as we work side by side with our Russian comrades, the thought that we are actually helping to build a society that will forever end the exploitation of man by man, the thought that what we are building will be for the enjoyment of the working class not only of Russia but of the entire world, is compensation for our temporary absence from the struggle in the United States.

"And let me tell you that we are not on the road to Socialism in the Soviet Union. Let no one say the workers of the Soviet Socialist Republics are not on the road to security, enlightenment and happiness. Mel, you and Wal (Walter Reuther) and I (Victor Reuther) were always strong to defend it against the lies of reactionaries. But we are watching a backward peasantry being transformed into an enlightened democratic, cultured populus.

"Here the workers, through their military leadership, the proletarian dictatorship, have not sold out to the owning class like the Socialist party in Germany and the Labor party in England. Here, against famine, internal strike, civil war, sabotage, capitalist invasion and isolation, our comrades have maintained power, they have won over the masses, they have transformed the 'dark masses' of Soviet Russia into energetic, enlightened workers. They have transformed the Soviet Union into one of the greatest industrial nations in the world. Eleanor Roosevelt, Senator Leh-

It's too early to know for sure the significance of the disturbances in the Soviet Union. My opinion, at the moment, seems to indicate that Khrushchev got his best foot forward so far (taking bows) that he was unable to duck. Whatever happens, Russia still is a danger to the free world, but it's probably not the greatest danger. People under Russian Communism have passed through the period of hopeless desperation to that of reckless despair. RIGHT NOW RED CHINA seems to be the real danger. The Chinese, having been stunned by Mao's brutalities, are now doing their slave labor without much apparent protest. Red China's exports of industrial goods to Southeast Asia have increased enormously during the past year and trade agreements with Japan are being negotiated. THE PRODUCTS OF SLAVE LABOR UNDERSELL THOSE OF FREE LABOR. It may be a generation before the people of China try to free themselves. That's where today's danger is.

In spite of all that guys like Walter Reuther have to say, there's a lot of difference between an idealized socialist government and a TRADE UNION government. Great Britain found that out the hard way.

Top Students At Perryton Are Chosen

PERRYTON — (Special) — According to balloting last Thursday and Friday for favorites, twelve students are "tops" in their category. From senior to freshman everyone in PHS helped choose PHS's most outstanding students. Mr. and Miss PHS this year are Sammy Carter and Kay Witt. This is the highest and most cherished honor that can be gained by a senior. Sammy Carter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Carter. He is an outstanding member of the Ranger football team, active in band, FTA, FTA and is president of Theatians. Kay Witt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Witt. She is active in chorus, FTA, FTA, Theatians and band. "Most Dependable" is the title given to two more deserving senior students. Dixie McGarrough and Gail Peterson are the winners of this award. The two chosen as being the most typical with their firm handshake and a big "hello" were Betty Mayhan and Glen Castlebury. They were given the title "Most Friendly." Betty is a sophomore and Glen is a junior. The title "Most Likely To Succeed" went to two seniors, Brenda Foote and Lawrence Elsey. Carol Thomas and Dempsey Gyger were elected "Most Athletic." Gyger is the Ranger fullback and is a senior. Carol has won many tennis matches for PHS and is forward on the basketball team. She is a junior. A junior girl and a senior boy were chosen "Best All Around." Glenda McGibbon and Mike Wright received these honors. Glenda is top-flight twirler for the Ranger band and is co-editor of the annual. Mike is president of the Senior class and is a first class teacher for the Rangers. These elections were sponsored by the Student Council. Jo Morris and Glen Castlebury have been named Mr. and Miss Future Teacher of PHS. They were chosen by their speeches entitled "Teaching — The Profession For Me." Both Jo and Glen are very active in the FTA Chapter which is sponsored by Mrs. Rose Powell. Jo is a senior and is president of the local chapter. Glen is a junior and has been in FTA three years.

John Brodie Takes Huge Passing Lead

NEW YORK (UP)—It looks as if John Brodie of Stanford now has the forward passing championship of this college football season "wrapped up," but things are far different in the battle for the rushing and total offense titles.

Weekly official major college football statistics issued today by the NCAA showed Brodie with a whopping lead over Ralph Hunsaker of Arizona in the passing derby with 91 completions to Hunsaker's 63.

But Brodie's lead in the total offense race is much narrower over Paul Hornung, the "shining light" in a dismal season for Notre Dame. Brodie has gained 1,144 yards (including a loss of one yard in the rushing department) to Hornung's 995.

The Lion Hornung, who has accounted for 34.9 per cent of his team's yardage, has a slightly better gaining average than Brodie, 165.8 yards per game to Brodie's 163.4. That could mean a close finish since Hornung has one game more than Brodie left to play.

The race appears to lie between these two men since third place Roger LaBrasca of Duke, who has gained 922 yards, completes his schedule this week and the next three players in line have only two games each left to play. Len Dawson of Purdue is the next nearest player with enough games left, and he's 352 yards off the pace.

Jim Crawford of Wyoming, who stands fourth on the total offense list, holds a precarious lead in the rushing department with a total of 912 yards gained on the ground. Bill Barnes of Wake Forest stands second with 756, but has an extra game "in hand" to make up lost ground. Jack Hill of Utah State,

Dick Collins Is Named Sports Editor

Dick Collins, a 1952 graduate of Hardin-Simmons University, has been named sports editor of The News.

Collins, whose parents live in Chillicothe, comes to The News after working on the sports staffs at the Wichita Falls Record-News and the Amarillo Globe News.

Collins is 26, stands 4 feet, six inches high, and is well known in Panhandle sports circles. His employment is consistent with The News' policy of providing the best in local and area sports coverage by persons familiar to the Top of Texas.

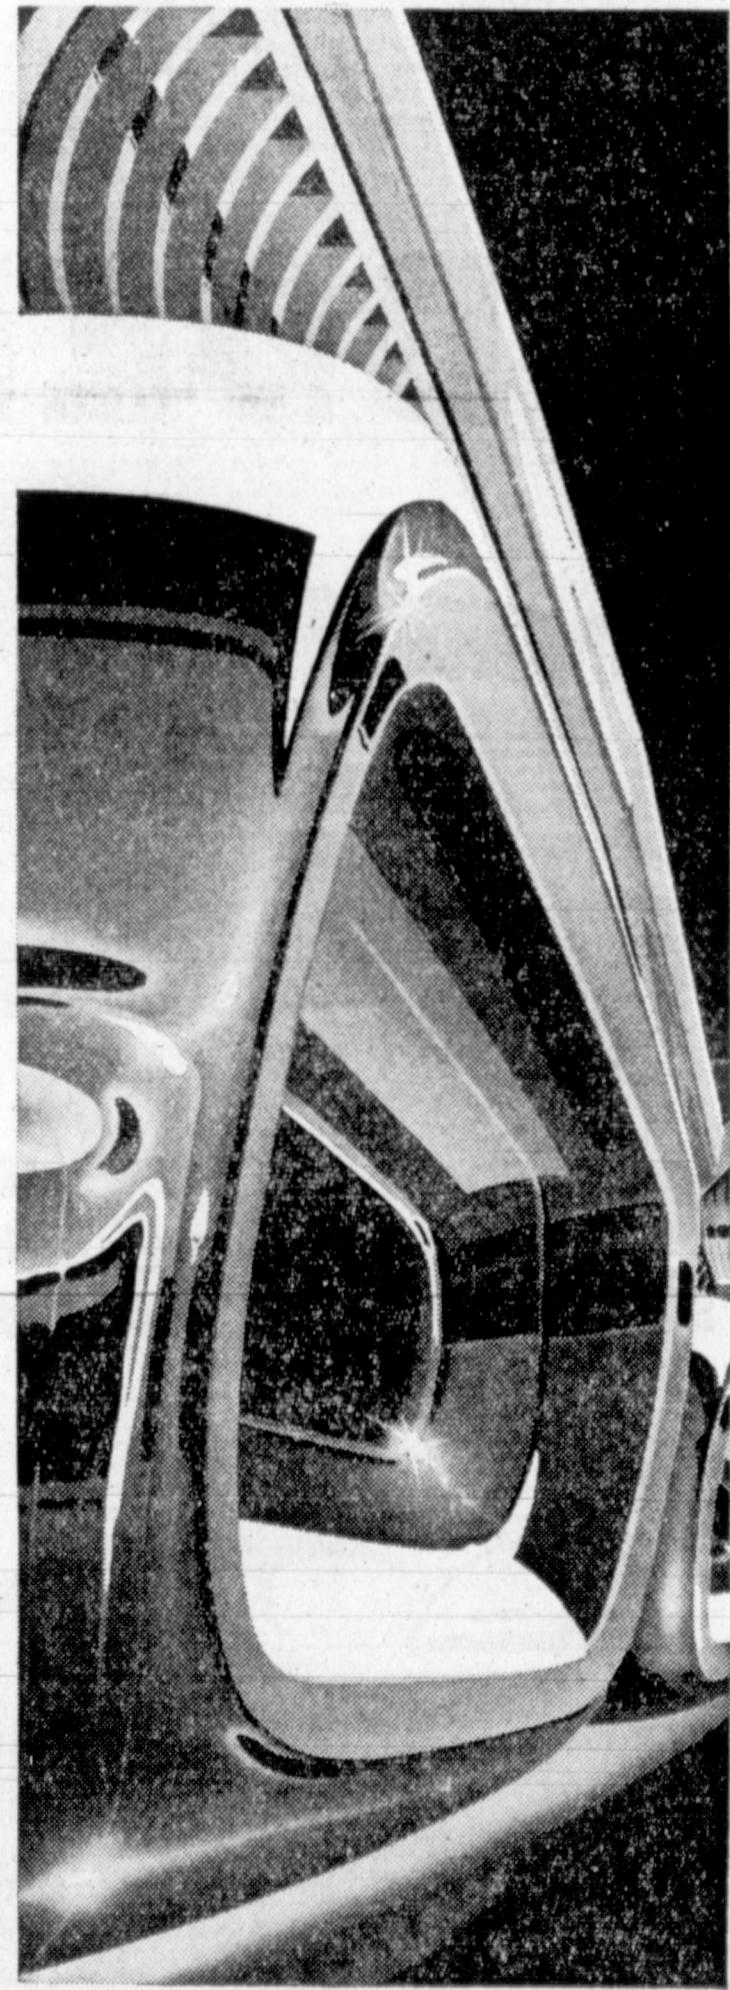

Collins is a member of the Texas Sportswriter's Association. While in school, he was sports editor of The Brand, Hardin-Simmons University campus weekly. In addition, he worked for the Abilene Reporter-News while in school as part time sports writer.

He was also assistant sports publicity director at H-SU, where he was selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

who had been second, dropped to third with 731 after being out-gained by Crawford, 132-67, in a face-to-face meeting last Saturday.

Last weekend's games saw single-game highs for the season set in both rushing and passing. Bob Kyasky of Army ran for 208 yards for the rushing mark and Colgate's Guy Martin, playing against Army, hit a season high of 24 pass completions for another season high of 259 yards.

Games This Week Could Decide Titles

By UNITED PRESS

Eighteen games could produce playoff representatives in Texas schoolboy football's Class A ranks this week to go along with Henrietta and Groveton, who served up their honors last week.

The top contest comes off in 2B-A where Pearsall and Hondo square off in the only game in the state matching perfect record teams. Hondo could clinch a playoff spot by winning, but Pearsall would still have to beat Cotulla next week to make the grade.

Henrietta, another of the division's 10 perfect record teams, could lose to Springtown Friday night and still have the 12-A berth in the bag, while Groveton is in the same boat against Grapevine in 21-A. Both clubs wind up their schedules this week.

Five Class A football games are scheduled for the Panhandle area this weekend. Four are set for Friday night with another contest to be held Saturday afternoon.

In District 1-A, Simmet plays at Wheeler and Gruver plays at White Deer. Panhandle hosts Sunray in a Saturday contest. Memphis plays at Clarendon and Canadian hosts McLean in a District 2-A battle Friday night.

Other teams which would sew up bi-district titles this week include:

Clarendon in district 2 by downing Memphis, Sudan in 3 by defeating Farwell, Hale Center in 4 by edging Crosbyton, winner of the Sundown-Friendship game in 5, Merkel by beating Roby in 6, Cross Plains in 9 by downing Mason, Holliday in 11 by tripping Munday, Linden in 15 if it gets by James Bowie, White Oak in 16 by defeating Hawkins.

Chapel Hill in 17 by defeating Lindale, winner of the Canton-Kerens game in 18, Clifton in 19 by downing McGregor, Mart by beating Franklin in 20, Bastrop in 26 if beats Thrall, Boerne in 27 if beats Blanco, Bishop in 31 if beats West Oso and winner of Los Fresnos-Rio Hondo contest in 32.

The other districts will have to wait until the final week end of the season for decisions.

Oregon State's Prothro Named Coach Of Week

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UP)—He played in the Rose Bowl game once but the Rose Bowl itself was more than 3,000 miles away.

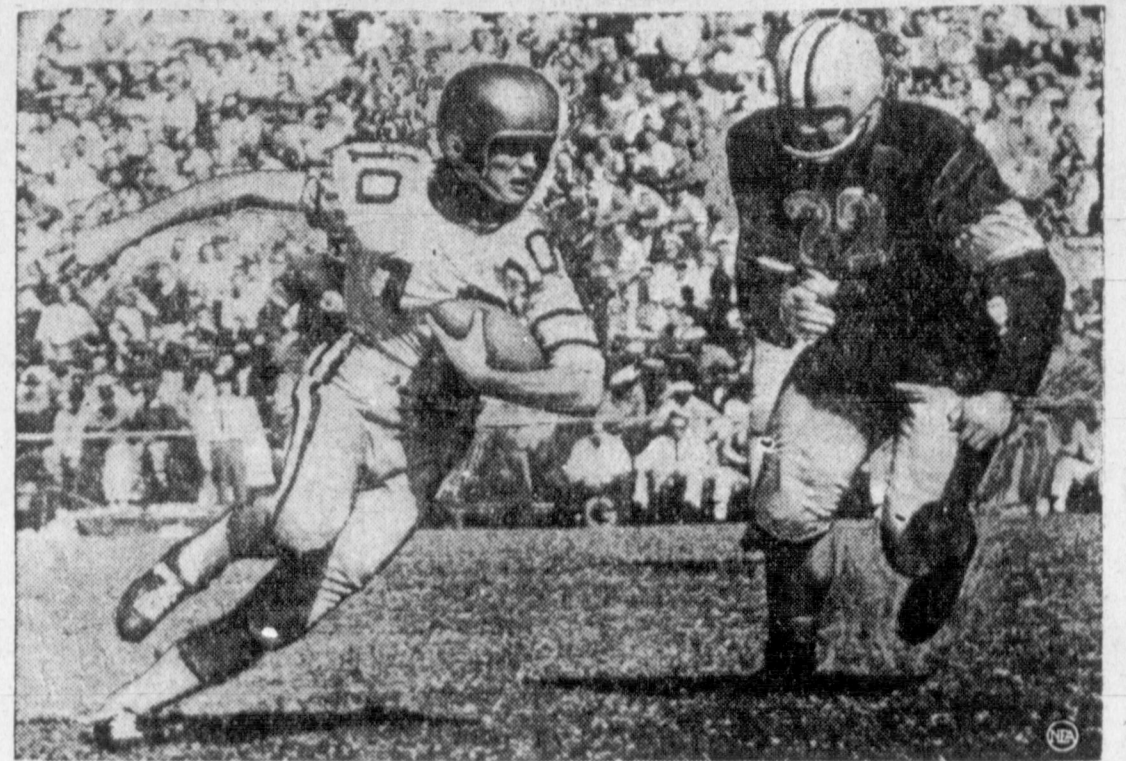

This time he'd like to get his boys at least close enough to smell the flowers, and the way they are going that fragrance could be theirs to enjoy on New Year's Day.

He's the United Press coach of the week, Tommy Prothro of those rising, surprising Oregon State Beavers.

Just a year ago when Prothro took over as head coach, he inherited the remnants of the worst football team in Oregon State history. He guided the Beavers to a 9-3 won, and lost record and this season he has steered them to the top in the tough Pacific Coast Conference. If they can get by Stanford on Saturday, they should make it to Pasadena, because only Idaho and Oregon, both comparative weaklings remain after that.

State's 28-20 victory over Washington's Huskies last week wasn't a surprise, in fact the Beavers had been favored to win. But it was just another workmanlike demonstration of Prothro's single wing efficiency.

Engineers' Benchwarming Threat To Vols

Johnny Menger came off the bench last Saturday to replace injured starter George Volkert to lead Georgia Tech to victory over LSU. Menger, who made runs of 60 and 87 yards against Auburn, eludes a tackler for 25 yards.

Fearless Fraley Predicts:

Tennessee Choice To March Past Georgia Tech Saturday

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UP)—The election is over but you can still pick football winners even though you may wind up in the poor house instead of the White House.

So without benefit of voting machines here are Fearless Fraley's ballots for the weekend football campaign.

GAME OF THE WEEK
Tennessee over Georgia Tech—It's the solid South against the solid South and something has to give. Bowden Wyatt has developed an old-fashioned single wing crusher with tailback Johnny Majors directing the hammer blows.

Tech has more depth but the Vols all season have done more than expected. So on to the Southeastern Conference championship and the Sugar Bowl for Tennessee.

THE EAST
Pittsburgh over Notre Dame—the Irish have been disfranchised. Princeton over Harvard — another landslide for unbeaten Tigers.

Syracuse over Holy Cross—don't even wait for the final returns.

Army over William & Mary — without benefit of woman suffrage.

Also Columbia over Dartmouth, Boston College over Quantico, Cornell over Brown, Delaware over Rutgers, Penn State over Boston, Yale over Pennsylvania, the Citadel over Villanova, Connecticut over Northeastern, Springfield over New Hampshire, Lehigh over Albright.

THE MIDWEST
Minnesota over Iowa — I gopher a candidate like this.

Michigan State over Purdue — looks like a case for states' rights.

Missouri over Colorado — The Tigers are Faurotious this season.

Oklahoma over Iowa State — and you should stuff the ballot box.

Michigan over Illinois — farm vote could upset this race.

Also Ohio State over Indiana, Northwestern over Wisconsin, Nebraska over Kansas, Marquette over Kansas State, Cincinnati over Wichita, Detroit over Drake.

THE SOUTH
Navy over Duke — Sailors entitled to absentee vote.

Clemson over Maryland — Oranges a campaign issue.

Florida over Georgia — An orange over a peach.

Also Kentucky over Vanderbilt, Auburn over Mississippi State, LSU over Oklahoma A&M, South Carolina over North Carolina State, Tulane over Alabama, Virginia Tech over Wake Forest, North Carolina over Virginia, West Virginia over Virginia Military, Richmond, Florida State over Furman, Mississippi over Memphis State.

THE SOUTHWEST
Texas A&M over Southern Methodist — didn't get out the church vote.

Arkansas over Rice — pork is a farm surplus.

Baylor over Texas — Longhorns not such tough meat this year.

Also Texas Christian over Texas Tech, Houston over Tulsa, Arizona State over Texas Western, West Texas over Hardin-Simmons.

THE FAR WEST
Oregon State over Stanford — big boom in Northwest territory.

Washington over UCLA — you couldn't vote if you didn't register.

Southern California over California — the returns come in late here.

Also Oregon over Washington State, College of Pacific over San Jose, Utah over Colorado A&M, Wyoming over Montana, Denver over Brigham Young.

TABLE'S TURNED

Snyder Paces Class AAA Schoolboy Elevens

DALLAS (UP)—There were no new names in the United Press Class AAA top 10 schoolboy football ratings today, but San Antonio Edison jumped four notches to fifth and Cleburne dropped four to seventh in major shifts within the select group.

Snyder and Nederland continued to run strong at the one-two positions with Kilgore moving up one notch to take over the third spot vacated by Cleburne when that club was tied by Palestine. Phillips moved up one notch to fourth, Bryan held onto sixth and Littlefield to eighth, while Garland slipped two notches to ninth just ahead of holdover Levelland in 10th.

While 25 clubs were nominated by the 16-man UP coaches rating board, the top 10 were in a class by themselves. Levelland's total support was 35 points, then there was a drop all the way to 13 for 11th place Port Neches, which headed the second group.

Nederland, which meets Port Neches in this week's AAA feature, got its strongest support of the season with five first-place ballots and a total of 133 points as compared with 151 for Snyder.

Kilgore, with 119 points, got two first place ballots and the other nine went to Snyder, which had polled 12 the week before it had to struggle to beat Sweetwater 3-0.

Phillips moved back strongly with 93 points after dropping to 79 following its deadlock with Littlefield the week before; Edison picked up 36 points to nose out Bryan 66 to 65 for fifth place, and Cleburne polled 61 points.

Trailing out weakly behind Port Neches in the second 10 were Kingsville, Sweetwater, Kermit, Gainesville, Graham, Waco University, Andrews, Robstown, Palestine, Dumas, Brownwood, San Marcos, Ennis and Breckenridge.

CHICAGO (UP)—Ray Muller, a coach with the New York Giants last year, has signed to serve as a bullpen coach with the Chicago Cubs next year.

Aussie Olympic Officials Confident Of 1956 Games

By RICHARD VOUMARD United Press Staff Writer
MELBOURNE (UP)—Australian Olympic officials expressed confidence today that the current international crisis "won't affect the Olympics one scrap," despite the withdrawal already of five nations including Communist China.

Switzerland have considered withdrawal and Israel has reduced its competing squad to three men.

Gophers Choice Of Odds-Makers

NEW YORK (UP)—Georgia Tech, Southern Methodist at Dallas, Pittsburgh was a solid 13-point favorite to hand Notre Dame another whipping at Pittsburgh.

Georgia Tech, the nation's No. 2 team, was picked by the Broadway odds-makers by that margin over Tennessee, ranked No. 3, in what could be the top gridiron clash of the weekend. Each team will be risking a perfect 6-0 record and the winner of this battle at Atlanta will have the inside track at the Southeastern Conference championship and a spot in the Sugar Bowl.

Minnesota will tangle with Iowa in a nationally televised Big Ten game. The Gophers, now the leading contender for a Rose Bowl ticket, are ranked sixth nationally to Iowa's 10th.

The odds-makers also foresaw another easy victory for national champion Oklahoma, wins for Duke, Stanford, and Texas A&M, an "even-stephen" important game between Colorado and Missouri, and more over for Notre Dame.

Casares Paces NFL Gridders In Rushing

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—Rick Casares, who reeled off 132 yards for the Chicago Bears last Sunday, continued to pace the National Football League in yards gained rushing today as all teams but Baltimore and Washington passed the season's halfway mark.

Casares, with 590 yards gained in six games, held a lead of 57 yards over speedy Ollie Matson of the Chicago Cardinals. However, Matson led in average gain, 5.2 yards to 5 even while carrying the ball only 103 times to 119 for Casares.

Eddie Brown, Casares' fellow backfield ace, retained his leadership in the passing department with a 10.31 yards average gain. He completed 40 of 89 passes for 825 yards and seven touchdowns. Lamar McHan of the Cardinals was second with a 9.27 average, keeping him ahead of Bill Wade of Los Angeles and George Shaw of Baltimore.

Logart, Harris Tangle Tonight

CHICAGO (UP)—Cuba's Isaac Logart and Detroit's Duke Harris, both ranked among the world's top 10 welterweights, clash tonight in a nationally televised fight at the Chicago Stadium.

Logart, fourth ranked, wanted a win to prove that his loss to Gaspar Ortega in his last bout was a mistake.

Harris, who never had an amateur fight, wanted a victory to "make some of that top money."

Four Teams Picked For NAIA Tourney

OMAHA, Neb. (UP)—The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) today named four of the eight small college teams that will participate in the annual "tip off" basketball tournament in Omaha Dec. 27-29.

The four teams were Texas Southern of Houston, Rockhurst College of Kansas City; Arkansas Tech of Russellville and Hamline University of St. Paul, Minn.

Executive Secretary Al O'Duier said the four other NAIA tournament teams would be named in the near future. Western Illinois of Macomb is defending champion, having defeated Texas Southern 83-72 in last year's final.

Texas Coaching Choice Unnamed

AUSTIN (UP)—Dr. O. B. Williams, chairman of the University of Texas athletic council said last night no candidates for athletic director or head football coach had been approached officially.

The council held a closed meeting to start its search for successors to athletic director Dana X. Bible and Coach Ed Price. Bible is to become athletic director emeritus. Price has resigned.

Williams said the new men, or man if one individual is chosen for both jobs, would be "a man whom everyone will rally behind."

PORTLY PROFILE—Porky Ed Oliver spends so much time lining up a putt that he makes Tommy Bolt nonchalant. The Round Man of Blue Hill, Canton, Mass., takes his time staying in among the money winners and finishing second oftener in more important tournaments than any other player.

Don Larsen's No-Windup Spreads Like Wild Fire

By OSCAR FRALEY United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UP)—Fearless Fraley's facts and figures: The no-windup technique which Don Larsen used to pitch his perfect World Series game is spreading faster than a prairie fire, the breeze having been fanned by Bob Turley's success when he "adopted it in the sixth game of the classic."

On the heels of Larsen's no-hit gem, Turley lost a 10-inning 1-0 heartbreaker—but it undeniably was his best effort of the entire season. Using the Larsen lunge, Turley went all the way in the Series after a season in which he pitched only five complete games.

In Full Swing
So already the no-windup fad is in full swing. Several pitchers are trying it in the winter leagues; Tom Morgan, Larsen's teammate, used it to strike out three batters in a recent three-inning stint at Los Angeles and Tom Poholsky of the Cardinals claims he's "going to give it a shot" during spring training. He'll have lots of company. Jim Lee Howell is keeping his

Bay City Grigger Killed In Crash

BAY CITY, Tex. (UP)—Albert Rose, 15, a junior high school football player, was killed Tuesday when a jeep he was riding in overturned and crushed him.

Another youth, Gordon Hubbard, 15, who was driving the jeep, suffered cuts and bruises but was not seriously injured.

Fight Results

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (UP)—Mans Stretz, 173½, Germany, outpointed Dogomar Martinez, 173½, Uruguay (10).

NEW YORK (UP)—Ed Hughes and Herb Rich, first-string defensive halfbacks for the New York Giants, may not be able to play against the Chicago Cardinals Sunday because of injuries, according to Jim Lee Howell, coach of the Giants.

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Pole vaulter Jim Graham of Oklahoma A&M has voluntarily withdrawn from the U.S. Olympic track and field team to make way for Bob Gutowski.

Head Coach Jim Kelly disclosed Thursday night that Graham came to him after Thursday's practice meet and said he felt he wouldn't be able to equal his qualifying form of 14 feet, 8½ inches because of an injury suffered last June.

Graham told the coach he felt Gutowski could do better at Melbourne. Gutowski, of Occidental College, qualified as an alternate.

"By the way, I'll have breakfast in bed tomorrow!"

THIRD PUERTO RICAN INVITATIONAL GAMEFISH TOURNAMENT

WHOPPER—Carlos Matos proudly poses with a 306-pound blue marlin caught on a 24-foot line and boated after 14 minutes. It is the second largest caught during the Puerto Rico Invitational Gamefish Tournament, the champion being one of 322 pounds landed by Matos' Gregorio Yacht Club team-mate, Ping Conway.

RUMORS FROM RUTH
You can't imagine what has happened to wallpaper this year! In the past, floral design has been too flamboyant for the average home, so there has been a trend away from them. They have returned with an airy delicate tracer that gives a sense of freedom and openness, and are in soft muted tones, and subtle pastels.
Miniature florals and prints are still in the foreground in new and interesting color combinations, and the matching fabrics available are beautifully matched.
Texture papers are still most important. Abstract geometrics equally so in simple design and subtle colors. Mrs. Eddie Roberts, 1602 Mary Ellen, used the "Gold Spool" design with the combination paper and matching fabrics to beautiful advantage in a bedroom, and cleverly picked up the brown in a lovely pinwale corduroy spread with turquoise dust ruffle, and the black in pictures frames and lamp.
Why don't you drop in and see the eight new wallpapers we have in stock, and look through our new exciting book, at the Panhandle Lumber Co. 420 W. Foster.

Just hit town!

Card of Thanks

In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so I would have told you, I go to prepare a place for you. And if I have not said this to you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there you may be also.
—John 14:1-3

Mr. A. A. McClrath

To all who contributed in any way to helping to ease our heartache in the loss of our loved one we wish to take this means of saying thanks. To Rev. J. R. Stroh for his comforting words, to Joe Whitten and Miss Elaine Lane for the beautiful music, to the ladies of the Sunshine Home Demonstration Club and First Baptist Church and friends and neighbors for the lovely food we say God blesses you. Also we would like to say thank you to Dr. Bertinoff for his tireless efforts in caring for him and to Duane-Carmichael for the beautiful service.

Mrs. A. A. McClrath,
