Britain, France, Israel Balk At New Demand

Egypt Wants Veto Over UN Mid-East Activities

By BRUCE W. MUNN
United Press Staff Correspondent
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. —UP— Britain, France and Israel balked today at Egypt's demand for a virtual veto over the activities of a United Nations Middle East police force. The shaky truce was getting shakier.
Canadian soldiers joined Colombian, Danish and Norwegian troops today at the U. N. staging area outside Naples, Italy, but "technical" reasons again postponed their take-off for the Middle East on their peace-keeping mission.

Hungarians Free Captured Fighters

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG
United Press Staff Correspondent
VIENNA (UP) — Hungarian farmers freed more than 500 captured freedom fighters from a Sihera-bound train by blowing up a railroad bridge northeast of Budapest, a reliable source said today.
The source quoted reports from the Hungarian capital. He said the resistance fighters were liberated shortly before the train was to cross into Russia Tuesday afternoon.
Rumors that the Russians were deporting captured Hungarians have circulated in Budapest for days. Western diplomatic missions were deluged with "eyewitness reports" of mass deportations.
The source said that hundreds of notes thrown from trains by deported Hungarian youths were found by farmers in railroad stations and along the right-of-way on lines leading to the east. He said the hastily-written notes were relayed to parents and relatives in Budapest.
Rumors Sweep City
United Press Staff correspondent Russell Jones said in a dispatch from Budapest that rumors of mass deportations were sweeping the shattered city. But he said there had been no concrete evidence that deportations had actually started.
Other reliable reports reaching here indicated strongly the days of Janos Kadar's Soviet-puppet regime may be numbered if it failed to end the general strike soon.
These reports led to speculation that the Kadar government, unable to win even a semblance of popular support, might be replaced by a Soviet military government which would use force to drive workers back on the job.
Attempts To End Strike
Kadar was making desperate attempts to end the general strike, but few people even bothered to

Gray County Okays State Amendment

Only 482 Gray County voters went to the polls yesterday to cast their ballots in the Constitutional Amendment Election for assistance to the disabled.
A total of 443 persons approved the amendment while 39 voted against the amendment that would give the legislature the power to provide for assistance not to exceed $20 a month out of state funds for each needy individual, 18 years or older, who is a resident of the State of Texas and who is permanently and totally disabled by reason of his mental or physical handicap, according to unofficial returns.
The constitutional amendment was approved in 17 of the 18 precincts in Gray County but in one, precinct 8, Hopkins school, voted four to three against the amendment.
Voting by precincts was as follows: Pct. 1, Lefors, 39 for and two against; Pct. 2, Baker school, 48 for and five against; Pct. 3, Grandview, 17 for and three against; Pct. 4, Alanreed, 17 for and none against; Pct. 5, McLean City Hall, 35 for and four against; Pct. 6, Laketon, 18 for and none against; Pct. 7, Farrington, four for and none against; Pct. 8, Hopkins, three for and four against; Pct. 9, Woodrow Wilson school, 22 for and 2 against.

Amendment Carries Texas, 8-1

A proposed welfare amendment to the Texas Constitution, carried by a margin of about 81 in a "mistake election" Tuesday which cost taxpayers about a dollar a vote.
The Texas Election Bureau's final tabulation of the night showed 106,216 votes for the proposal and 13,352 against. The returns were from 169 of 204 counties, with 51 complete.
The TEB stopped counting votes at midnight and delayed its next tabulation until some time today.
The amendment sets up a welfare program for those disabled by a physical or mental handicap. Payments will be up to $20 a month and will be matched by the federal government.
The amendment would have been voted on last week, as were eight others, except the State Legislature erred by directing that the vote be on the second Tuesday of November. That meant a special election which will cost nearly $200,000. The turnout, about the same figure, was the smallest in a statewide Texas election in many years.

Pampa High Given Book On Masonry

A copy of the new volume "Masonry in Texas" by James D. Carter, Ph.D., of Waco, was presented to Pampa High School on behalf of the Dallas Scottish Rite Bodies by C. P. Buckler, 33rd degree chairman of the Pampa area membership committee.
Chairman Buckler said that "Masonry in Texas" is credited with being of great historical significance and a valuable contribution to Texas history, as Dr. Carter had explored every legend and tradition on which any lodge or Masonic personality is purported to have any connection with the history and development of Texas during the stirring days of the Republic and before.
Chairman Buckler further stated that a copy of this book would be presented to every high school and college in Texas.

'It's Up To The Home' Jordan Speaks To Jaycees On Causes Of Delinquency

At yesterday's luncheon - meeting of the Pampa Jaycees Sheriff Rufe Jordan talked to the group on juvenile delinquency. The meeting was held in the Palm Room of City Hall.
Jordan said juvenile delinquency is one of the most thought of, most talked of subjects in the country today. Everyone gives reasons why it exists, and the remedies are often as varied as the reasons, he said.
Jordan said that as far as he was concerned there was no such thing as juvenile delinquency; but rather it was, what he called, "parental delinquency."
"We are all born into this world alike but it is up to the home to decide what kind of citizens we are going to be."
He said that we were indeed fortunate that we live in that section of the country where the problem of juvenile delinquency is a relatively minor one.
"In most of the big cities throughout the country," he said, "the problem of juvenile delinquency is a truly tremendous one; and once again, it is usually the result of both parents having to work, thus leaving the home 'unguarded' whereby the children are able to organize and run wild." All delinquency can be back-dated to the parents, he remarked.
Sheriff Jordan concluded by saying that "It is up to all of us who have any kind of influence on these

TEN-CENT PHONE CALLS ARE COMING TO PAMPA

Ten-cent coin telephone service will be inaugurated in Pampa on Dec. 1 according to George Newberry, manager for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.
Beginning on that date, telephone users here will make coin telephone calls by depositing two nickels or one dime, he said.
This is the first increase in rate for calls from public telephones in the history of Pampa, and it does not affect any other telephone rates here, Newberry said.
Higher postwar operating costs have made it necessary to increase the public telephone rate he explained.
"The 10-cent rate is now in effect in 47 of the 48 states," he pointed out. "In addition, the new 10-cent rate has been authorized in more than 200 other Texas cities and will be placed in effect in the very near future."

Propaganda by Soviet diplomats in Port Said was blamed for much of the unrest that authorities said could flare up into open fighting. The city is without water or electricity.

In addition, Israeli Foreign Minister Mrs. Golda Meir and French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau were flying to New York today for talks on the Middle East crisis. Pineau gave the French position (See BRITAIN, Page 2)

Ike Says U.S. To Oppose Intervention

By MERRIMAN SMITH
United Press White House Writer
WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower said today the United States would continue to oppose, through the United Nations, the introduction of any new forces in the Middle East.
Mr. Eisenhower made the statement at a news conference at which he took a cautious attitude toward reports of possible movement of Soviet "volunteers" into the strife-torn Middle East.
The President also vehemently denounced the use of Russian forces in Poland and Hungary as negating all concepts of justice in the world.
If Soviet and Red Chinese volunteers go into Egypt as threatened, the President said the United States would not make any unilateral determination of the action. The United States would continue to support the United Nations in opposing the introduction of any new force, he said.
He said this covers munitions as well as troops.
In extensive questioning about the prospect of Chinese and Russian volunteers going into the Middle East, the President called for caution in all public statements lest delicate UN negotiations be upset in any way.
He said he did not intend to say at this point, that the United States would make a unilateral determination of what constituted offense in the Middle East, but he pledged as he has several times before, full United States support for UN actions in the matter.
Asked what form United States opposition to the introduction of any armed forces into the flaming Middle East might take beyond subscribing to the resolutions of the UN, Mr. Eisenhower said slowly and reflectively that this would depend on what the UN did in the matter.
Other highlights of Mr. Eisenhower's first news conference since Oct. 11:

ROK Forces On Alert For North Korea

SEOUL, Korea (UP) — President Syngman Rhee said today he had placed the Korean armed forces on an emergency alert because of Communist incidents in North Korea that could lead to Soviet intervention.
Rhee, in a statement issued through the government information office, said "several bombs" had been exploded recently in North Korea and there is danger of "drastic steps" by Russia to hold on to the satellite.
Rhee did not say what kind of bombs were exploded. His military staff said recently it had evidence of two atomic tests in North Korea, one last year and one this spring.
Rhee said Republic of Korea military leaders have put the 700,000-man armed forces and the national police on an alert "in order to be ready to cope with any emergency that may arise from North Korea which exploded several atomic bombs recently."

Rodeo Group Elects Officers

No definite decisions were made at the meeting, and further business was continued with the election of officers. Those elected are as follows: Bob Andia was re-elected president; John Pitts was re-elected first vice president; Jake Osborne was re-elected second vice president; Otto Mangold was the newly elected treasurer; and E. O. Wedgworth was re-elected secretary.
A meeting of the executive committee has been scheduled for this coming Friday, Nov. 18, at which time a chairman for the show will be appointed.
The next directors meeting of the organization will be held on Dec. 11.

Missionary's Faith Unshaken After Son Freezes To Death In Alaska

GLENNALLEN, Alaska (UP) — A missionary who watched her 5-month-old son die of cold when their party was stranded on an Alaskan beach in sub-zero weather said today she still has "faith in God."
"Even though my baby is dead, and maybe my husband, too, I still have faith in God; he has been good to us," said Mrs. Albert Kelly, 26, of Oceanside, L.I.
Mrs. Kelly, her husband and two children, and Jim Paulson, 19, Ellamar, Alaska, left Ellamar Nov. 7 in a 30-foot boat for a trip to Valdez.
Mrs. Kelly said the sea got rougher, and something happened to the boat's motor when the vessel reached Galena Bay.
"Swell as high as a house began pounding our boat," she said. "We began to take on water. Finally, my husband decided to take the 8-foot skiff and row back to Ellamar for help. The last I saw of him he was rowing around a point of land."
"Suddenly Jim came into the boat's cabin where I was with the children and yelled 'get ready to jump.'"
"I wrapped an Army blanket around Tommy and snatched my husband's sleeping bag. A big wave swamped the boat as we scrambled to the beach. We were stranded without shelter, food or matches. It was snowing and the wind was howling terribly. We spent the night in two sleeping bags we salvaged.
"Next morning we went to the wrecked boat and all we could find was a tin of bear meat I'd canned the past summer."
"On Friday night my little boy died. Next morning we found some mustard and ketchup in the wreckage and gave it to Debbie. Sunday we found some cereal and apple butter. Most of the time we huddled in our sleeping bags waiting and praying."
On Monday, five days after they were marooned, the fishing boat "Rustler" spotted the cast-offs and rescued them. Mrs. Kelly was in a hospital here with frost-bitten feet. Her daughter, Debbie, 3, was reported in "fine" condition and Paulson was not hospitalized.
A land, sea and air search so far has failed to turn up any clue to the fate of the woman's husband, the Rev. Albert Kelly, of Haddonfield, N. J.
A dog team was sent to scour the coastline as far as Valdez in hope the minister may be awaiting rescue somewhere along the shore.
"It's a miracle anyone survived," said a doctor at hospital.

Silent Stars Don't Fade Away They Go Into TV

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer
HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Silent stars don't fade away these days — they go into television.

Many a luminary from the silent era either suns himself in retirement or works occasionally in motion pictures. But television is happily bringing new careers to these veterans. As one casting director says, "they're trouperes who don't blow their lines. They have name value but they don't charge a small fortune like current stars."

Laura La Plante, married to top movie director Irving Asher, came out of retirement to star in a TV drama.

Clara Kimball Young worked on the Johnny Carson show and Richard Arlen starred in a recent "Climax."

Robert Warwick, Edward Earl, Jane Darwell, Elizabeth Patterson and Mae Clarke have all starred on "matinee theater." Viola Dana, Claire Windsor, Buster Keaton, Betty Bronson are other TV actors. Lillian and Dorothy Gish are regular stars in dramas for the home screens.

Jack Mulhall, a leading man of the silent screen and the Cary Grant of the '20's, is another one-time star whose career has been boosted by TV.

Today he sat in a rehearsal hall at CBS-TV and reflected on the new medium.

"It's a lot like working in the old days," he said. "I see many of the stars I used to know. Last week I was on a 'Playhouse 90' and so were the Keystone Kops Chester Conklin and Hank Mann." "I'm glad TV is here. The camera work is wonderful — it's thrilling to be on TV as it was in the early days of pictures."

SAVING FACE — Tokyo, Japan, entertainer Mitsuho Akatsuki gives a last-minute check to her make-up, just before going onstage. The diminutive star is a favorite among customers in Tokyo's entertainment belt.

Postmaster In Good Condition

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (UP)—Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield was reported in "good condition and resting comfortably" today after undergoing a successful throat operation.

Officials at the University of Michigan Hospital said they expected Summerfield to be out of the hospital "in a week or 10 days." They said he would have to convalesce at his Flint, Mich., home for several weeks.

Summerfield, 57, was admitted to the hospital Sunday night and operated on Monday by Dr. Albert C. Furstenburg.

Dr. Furstenburg said the operation was "minor surgery." He said "no malignancy was found."

Ike And Nehru To Meet Soon

WASHINGTON (UP)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and President Eisenhower are expected to meet here next month in an attempt to improve strained U.S.-Indian relations.

Informed sources said Indian Ambassador G. L. Mehta probably would discuss details of Nehru's long-postponed visit during a call on the President today.

The sources said so far no exact date in December for Nehru's visit to the capital had been set.

U.S.-Indian relations — often strained over cold war differences — suffered again last week when India voted in the United Nations against calling for withdrawal of Soviet troops from battered Hungary.

Pampan Tells Of Burning Tragedy

(Editor's Note: Sunday afternoon, two little girls, daughters of Mexican migrant laborers, were burned to death in a home five miles north of Clarendon.

My Mrs. John B. Hessey As Told To Bob Feres Pampa News Staff Writer "We had been spending the day with my sister, Mrs. Jess White at Lalis Lake and my mother, who lives in Clarendon.

"We ran as fast as we could and grabbed them just as they started to enter the flaming house through the kitchen door. I grabbed two of them and John grabbed one.

"I asked the children if there was anyone else inside the house. They just cried louder and louder. At this point, two very well dressed Spanish-speaking boys came over, and I asked them to ask the girls if there were anyone else inside.

"My husband still thinks that if he had known two minutes sooner about the babies he might have been able to break in the south window and pull them out. I didn't sleep too well that night. It was just an awful experience.

"However, as I've already said before, the one reason that I've told this much is so that there will be an accurate account of what really happened. Some of the reports had us heading south on route 70 towards Clarendon, others said that we saw the boy running and waving towards the road, and still others said that we had gone to the fire department to make a report on what happened.

Sandies Picked To Defeat Dons

Although Coach Jack Lockett's Pampa Harvesters are out of the District 3-AAAA dogfight for the championship but still interested in beating Lubbock High and Borger in the next two weeks, the personable football instructor took time to discuss the Amarillo-Palo Duro situation.

It's those two teams which will probably battle it out Nov. 24 to see who will represent 3-AAAA in the state playoffs. Although Palo Duro is now defeated after eight victories, the Dons could still represent this district in bi-district play.

Snyder Holds Down 1st In AAA Rating

By ED FITE United Press Sports Writer DALLAS (UP)—The Kingsville Brahmas made their first appearance of the season in the United Press Class AAA Texas schoolboy football ratings this week as Nederland edged closer to Snyder in their scrap for the No. 1 spot.

The Brahmas made no smashing gain in support over a week ago when they were rated 12th, but squeezed into the No. 10 spot merely because they happened to outdistance an 18-team group that has settled firmly on the top nine but scattered support from the UP coaches board after the board has settled firmly on the top nine spots.

Snyder's support went as low as sixth.

The council also placed Ohio State, the University of Southern California and the University of California at Berkeley on probation.

The council also placed Ohio State, the University of Southern California and the University of California at Berkeley on probation.

Rice's Owls Should Know Answer First

Rice will learn the answer Saturday. Meanwhile, the Owls were preparing heavily for the game. Tuesday they went through one of their longest and hardest workouts stressing the running game most.

Weekly Newsletter From Congressman Walter Rogers

SELF-SUFFICIENCY

We have all heard the question many times, "How self-sufficient is the United States?" My experience has been that no matter what individual or group you ask this question, you are likely to come up with a different answer. The truth is that our degree of self-sufficiency changes from day to day. That in which we are self-sufficient today may be that in which we are lacking tomorrow. This changing situation is due to the speed at which civilization is presently progressing. The realization of such fact should make us more alert and more vigilant, rather than to cause us to become reconciled to the theory that one country in this world could not possibly be self-sufficient.

The recent eruptions in the Near East should cause us to understand, without any difficulty, that time may come in near future when we must be self-sufficient whether we like it or not. Much has been said to effect that internationalism is a must in present day world. I will admit that it is very nice to be able to get along with all foreign governments in a fair and just manner, but we must be sufficiently realistic to understand that this is easier said than done under many circumstances. For instance, we have tried long and tediously to get along with Russia and to promote a just, fair and reasonable approach by all nations to the problems that continually beset man. Our failure in the respect is clearly shown by the continuous activities of Russians, and more especially, by their recent activities in Hungary. This failure is pointed up by the recent activities in the Near East by those nations that we consider our closest and staunchest allies.

Frankly, I think that we should face the issue of the necessity for self-sufficiency on the part of this country. There are many things that we use in our daily lives come from foreign sources. There are likewise many things that we need in the defense of this country for which we are dependent upon foreign sources. Some of these we have undertaken to stockpile and have protected the figures concerning these stockpiles under a cloak of secrecy. Many of these items we can develop in our own country, yet we have failed to do so simply because they were available from foreign sources. I speak especially of strategic minerals and metals. Minerals and metals that can be developed in this country, but are not, simply because they can be purchased at a cheaper price on the world market. Now economy is one thing, but foolish economy is another. Sometimes we find that the prices we must pay for some article cannot be measured in dollars and cents. Should the time come, and it very well could in the near future, when we could not reach the foreign sources of some of our strategic minerals and metals, we could find ourselves sorely put to meet the needs of an expanded defense program. Under such circumstances we would quickly conclude that we had been penny wise and pound foolish. The development of our local sources would require expenditures far beyond that which we had saved by permitting ourselves to depend on foreign countries.

Our country should, to the best of its ability, develop all of our natural resources. This we can do through our free enterprise system, and at the same time, provide added vigor to our economy. This country must find necessary materials and supplies or suitable substitutes therefor. We cannot run the risk, in the present world situation, of depending upon any European, Asiatic, African or Australian sources of strategic material.

Urge Private Prison Cells

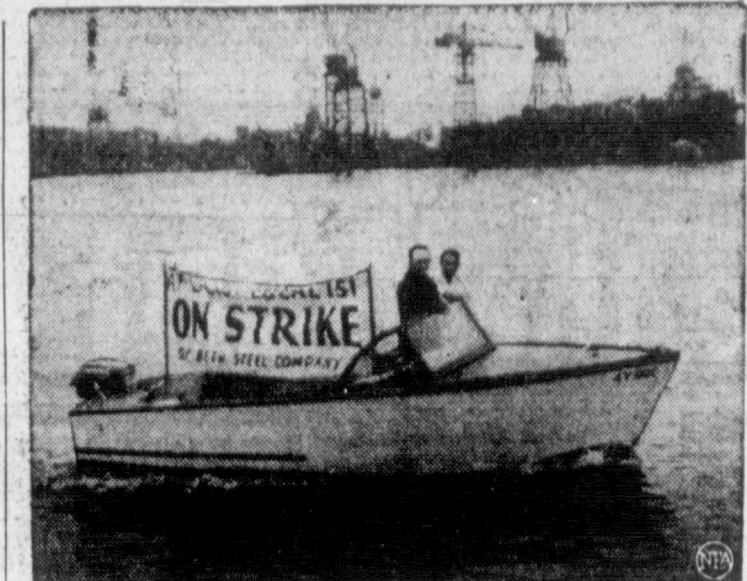

ATLANTA (UP) —Prison officials today urged shifting of hardened criminals from barracks to new individual cells to end an outbreak of leg-smashing plots at Georgia's rock quarry prison.

The latest incident occurred Monday when five convicts at the Buford, Ga., prison attempted to smash their leg bones with sledgehammers. Two succeeded before guards could stop them. The other three slightly injured themselves.

Such concerted action can be plotted easily by prisoners who are free to gather in their barracks, particularly on weekends, J. B. Hatcher, assistant state prisons director, said.

Department of Corrections Director Jack Forrester said blocks of individual cells would prevent such plotting. He appealed to Gov. Marvin Griffin for funds to build them.

Boys Go On 61 G Joy Ride

PITTSBURGH (UP) —Two teenagers couldn't understand the lites when they were arrested Tuesday for taking a joyride in somebody else's automobile.

The theft had most of the available Pittsburgh police force hunting them down.

An obliging officer explained—the vehicle they had stolen had, locked up in its trunk, $61,400 in negotiable American Express Co. money orders. Gerald McDaniels had left the money orders in the car when he went to make a collection at a company substation. Kenneth Fisher and Louis Hatton, both 18, readily admitted to a lesser charge of automobile larceny.

"We only went for a little ride," one tried to explain.

Their bodies were recovered from the river Tuesday about 20 feet from shore in downtown St. Paul.
