

Steam Catapult For Carriers Tested

A Cutlass jet fighter, nose high and with its tail almost scraping the deck, leaves a steam catapult during a test at the Philadelphia Naval Base. The new plane-launching device is being given extensive tests to evaluate its efficiency and safety before installation aboard aircraft carriers. It is hoped that steam catapults will reduce danger of accidents such as occurred on the carrier Bennington earlier this year. (AP Wirephoto).

Drought Threat May Bring On A Special Session

By BO BYERS

AUSTIN (AP)—A special session of the Legislature may become necessary to provide state help for livestockmen if the drought disaster continues to spread in Texas, Gov. Allan Shivers said yesterday. The governor made his gloomy prediction at a press conference after signing a state-federal drought relief contract. Under it eligible farmers and ranchers in 23 counties will be able to get hay for less money.

State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said the program should be in operation by Monday afternoon. Additional counties are expected to qualify. Shivers urged the State Drought Committee of the U.S. Department of Agriculture yesterday to do everything possible to make relief available immediately for four more counties—San Augustine, Shelby, Sabine and Nacogdoches.

Texas' only immediate contribution to the hay program will be administrative cost, said the governor.

If the program grows large enough to require state matching funds, he will make available "all there is" in the governor's deficiency appropriation. Shivers didn't know off-hand how much is in that fund, which the governor can spend for emergencies.

"The drought could become so bad, we might have to call a special session to provide funds," Shivers said.

The federal allocation for the program is half a million dollars, from which an initial grant of $100,000 has been earmarked for Texas.

Both Shivers and White urged that livestockmen qualifying for the program buy all the Texas hay available before seeking feed from out of state.

A federal-aid grain program, not requiring state participation, also is expected to start next week, Shivers said. USDA officials had advised him.

Local dealers will distribute the grain, which will come from surplus supplies, and will be paid something for handling it, Shivers said. A federal price will be set on the surplus grain in the four states where it is stored.

Loses Arm In Viaduct Crash

The left arm of Billy Thorpe Paine, 28, of Muleshoe, was torn loose near the shoulder last night when his car and a truck side-swiped on the T&P Railway viaduct on Highway 80 just west of Big Spring.

Paine's arm was completely severed from his body. The arm apparently was extended out the window of the car at the time of the collision.

His condition was described as satisfactory at Cowper Hospital today, although he lost a large quantity of blood. Driver of the truck involved, William Leroy Siente of Chickasha, Okla., and his passenger, O. G. Lynch, applied an emergency tourniquet to the arm.

Ambulance operators from Eberly-River Funeral Home also applied a tourniquet en route to the hospital in an effort to stop the blood.

The accident occurred about 11:45 p.m. Thursday. Highway Patrol officers said the side of Paine's car struck near the front fender of the truck. The side of the auto also was grazed by the corner of a semi-trailer being pulled by the truck. Door handles were stripped from the left side of the car and two windows were broken.

Nixon Backs Proposal For McCarthy Inquiry

COURT HOAXED BY LAD'S TALE TO GET NAME LEGALLY CHANGED

ABILENE (AP)—A husky 15-year-old Dallas youth, who hoaxed a 42nd District Court into legally changing his name so he could join the Air Force, was being held here after a checkup disproved his tale. The boy told recruiters he was 19, and had shifted for himself since a migrant family deserted him. He said he never had a real name, but had used the name Don Lee. The story convinced an attorney, who arranged for the necessary papers. Tuesday the court gave him the name Don Robert Lee. However, Maj. Julian LeBlanc was suspicious. The boy was 6 ft. 2, weighed 225 pounds, and looked well cared for. He did some checking and finally located the boy's father in Dallas. The father was on his way here to pick him up, but according to the court the boy will remain "Don Robert Lee" until he goes through another court proceeding to get his name changed again.

Senate's Problem: Whether To Censure

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) today quoted Vice President Nixon as saying Smith is "on the right track" with a proposal to investigate Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) as a substitute for a move to censure McCarthy. Smith told reporters that if his substitute is defeated, however, "I would feel compelled" to vote for a resolution by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) proposing to "condemn" McCarthy's Red-hunting tactics as chairman of the Senate Investigations subcommittee.

As a substitute for the Flanders resolution, Smith has proposed that the Senate create a special committee, headed by Nixon, to investigate "the alleged good or evil of so-called McCarthyism." The committee would report to the Senate early next year.

Smith said he discussed the plan with Nixon this morning and "the Vice President thinks I'm on the right track."

"I asked Nixon, 'did I embarrass you?'"

"He said 'not a bit.'"

Smith said some senators have told him they would not support his substitute because it looked like "ducking the issue," regarded as politically explosive.

"I'm ducking no issue," he continued. "If my resolution is defeated, I'm going to vote for the Flanders resolution."

He said he would feel "compelled" to do so.

"I've been compelled, much to my regret, to criticize Joe McCarthy," Smith said. "I have urged him to work with the administration but he never seems to."

Smith said several senators want to make it clear that "they are waiting to be counted" on the McCarthy issue, and seem inclined to let the test be made on the Flanders resolution. He said if they prefer that "sudden death" approach to the problem, that will be all right with him.

Sen. Flanders said he regards as "still good" the prospect that the Senate eventually will adopt his proposal to censure McCarthy for what Flanders calls unbecoming conduct. But there was general agreement that a substantial number of senators would like to avoid any showdown vote now on the politically explosive issue.

In this atmosphere there were indications Republican friends of McCarthy may come up with some compromise to shelve the matter at least until after the November election for control of Congress.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, said he will open the way for the debate on the Flanders' proposal during today's session.

He and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, agreed in separate interviews that final disposition of the matter is likely to be delayed until early next year.

McCarthy remained publicly silent about Flanders' proposal, except to say he probably won't be on hand to hear the Vermontor's speech. But he took a dig at Smith who suggested a seven-member committee headed by Vice President Nixon be set up to investigate "McCarthyism" and report back next year.

McCarthy said: "I think I will offer either an amendment to the Flanders resolution or a separate resolution providing that in view of the fact there is a difference of opinion as to whether Smith is a brilliant, average or mediocre senator. I would like to have the Senate investigate that and report back in 1970 or 1980."

More Charges Filed Against Cpl. Batchelor

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Three more charges were filed by the Army today against Cpl. Claude L. Batchelor, the young Texan who elected to stay with his Communist captors in Korea and then changed his mind.

Batchelor, 22, of Kermit, Tex., is in 4th Army custody awaiting a court martial on charges of giving aid and comfort to the enemy while a prisoner of war.

The 4th Army headquarters said two of the new charges accuse Batchelor of informing on other prisoners of war in North Korea. Batchelor always has maintained that in the North Korean prison, he was known as a "progressive" who didn't equal on his buddies.

The third charge accused Batchelor of taking part in a trial in a prisoner of war camp. The prisoner in question was reported being tried by "progressives" in the camp.

Batchelor faces trial in San Antonio next month.

Until today, he has been accused only of making speeches in which he tried to convert American soldiers to Communism, writing articles to make prisoners accept enemy propaganda and writing letters which the Army said expressed disloyalty.

Major Tax Overhaul Program Ready For Ike's Signature

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress completed action last night on the first complete overhaul of the nation's tax laws in 75 years, and both Republicans and Democrats claimed they would profit more politically.

Whatever the political effects may be in the coming campaign for control of Congress, the action sent to the White House for virtually certain approval the bill President Eisenhower had designated as the cornerstone of his 1954 program.

Before a 61-26 vote in the Senate sent the bill to the President, Democrats seized a final chance to snipe at some provisions. Only three Republicans—Dworshak (Idaho), Langer (ND) and Williams (Del.)—joined 22 Democrats and Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) in voting "no." Supporters included 42 Republicans and 19 Democrats.

The revision bill carries $1,363,000,000 in assorted tax cuts for individuals and corporations in its first year of operation, more in later years. It does not change major tax rates except to maintain the 52 per cent levy on corporation income which dropped to 47 per cent April 1 and is extended retroactively.

Republicans hailed the bill as capping a 7 1/2-billion-dollar 1954 tax reduction program—biggest for any single year. This already has been used in GOP campaign materials.

Democrats interject here that two big bones to the taxpayer took effect automatically under a 1951 law enacted when their party controlled Congress.

These include two big reductions which took effect Jan. 1—three billion dollars through a 10 per cent personal income tax cut and two billions through expiration of the corporation excess profits tax.

On April 1 various excise tax cuts totaling a billion dollars took effect. These were fought by the Treasury but enthusiastically supported by Republican congressional leaders.

Republicans also contend the big revision bill will be politically helpful to them because it contains benefits for such groups as retired persons, families with heavy medical expenses, mothers who must work to support their children, fathers with children in college who earn part of their way, and farmers with big soil conservation expenditures.

GOP leaders from the President down argue the bill will spur business by providing more funds for plant expansion and modernization through a wide variety of more liberal deductions for businesses. This will mean more jobs, they say.

Democrats, claiming they will benefit, say the bill concentrates benefits for big corporations and the wealthy, but does little or nothing for the average little man. They tried in House and Senate to put in a general tax cut, but were beaten back on close votes.

Shock Kills Three Men

GLADEWATER (AP)—Three men working on a bridge over Moody Creek at the edge of Gladewater were electrocuted today.

The drag line on which the men were working contacted a power line over the bridge.

Those killed were listed as: Clifford L. Pond, 31, Dallas; Billy Powers, 24, Paris; Carroll Grubb, 38, Cushing, Okla.

Grubb still was alive when taken to the Hancock Clinic but he died soon after his arrival.

The men worked for the Lester Watson Contractors of Dallas. The men were widening the bridge.

SESSION AT 2:30 SATURDAY

Shivers Forces Given Edge In County Demo Convention

Shivers and Yarborough factions of the party are due to clash Saturday afternoon in the Howard County Democratic Convention, with the conservative Shivers forces expected to come off winners.

The pro-Shivers group won control of three of the county's largest precincts in precinct meetings last Saturday, and the combined vote of delegates from the three precincts will be sufficient to control the county convention.

A sharp clash still is expected, however.

The county convention is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. in the county courtroom at the courthouse. Grover Cunningham Jr., elected county Democratic chairman during the election last Saturday, will preside as temporary chairman. Precinct conventions last Saturday named a total of 232 delegates for the county meeting. At least 125 of these—representing Precinct No. 1, 2, 3 and 16 in Big Spring—are due to back the conservative stand of Gov. Allan Shivers.

All four of the delegations are bound by the unit vote rule, and their precinct conventions last Saturday adopted resolutions commending Gov. Shivers.

Precinct No. 4, with 37 votes, was in control of anti-Shivers, or pro-Ralph Yarborough, forces last Saturday. No clear-cut position was taken at the Precinct No. 8 convention but it was conceded that the precinct's 33 votes would go for the liberal side.

Coshoma's 13-member delegation also will vote with the liberals, but even if the Yarborough group, which it held all other votes in the county it still would stand short of the 125 controlled by the Shivers faction.

The county convention will be entitled to name a delegate to the state Democratic meeting for each 300 votes cast for governor in the 1952 general election. This would give the county 22 state votes as Shivers received 6,390 votes—5,778 Democratic and 611 Republican—for governor in November of 1952. The State Democratic Executive Committee has ruled that both Democratic and Republican votes may be counted in computing delegate strength.

New Indictments Name McMorries

STANTON (SC)—Six more indictments charging felony theft and embezzlement against James McMorries were returned by the Grand Jury here Thursday afternoon, and warrants were out Friday for the former county judge. McMorries, who was county judge and ex-officio county superintendent for approximately five years, already was free under bonds totaling $9,000 on three indictments returned July 15.

At noon Friday Sheriff Dan Saunders had not located the former judge, who was last reported Friday evening visiting in northern Glasscock County. Friday morning Sheriff Saunders broadcast an appeal for assistance in locating McMorries.

District Judge Charlie Sullivan set bail in each of the six new cases brought against McMorries at $3,000 or a total of $18,000.

McMorries was charged Thursday in five of the indictments, with the theft of funds from the Grady Consolidated Independent School District, while the sixth indictment charged the theft of $400 of Martin County funds on May 1, 1953. According to this indictment McMorries converted to his own use a check in that amount received from the Morton Equipment Company of Abilene, payable to Martin County. This check, according to the records in the office of the district clerk, represented the proceeds from the sale of a piece of road equipment which the Morton Company had sold as agent for Martin County.

The other five indictments charge McMorries with the theft of $136.90 in Grady School funds on June 24, 1953; the theft of $835.05 on Feb. 3, 1954; the theft of $225 on April 24, 1953; the theft of $448.90 on Feb. 24, 1953, and the theft of $175.40 on May 28, 1954.

On July 15 the grand jury returned three felony theft indictments against McMorries, each charging the theft and embezzlement of county funds. Judge Sullivan also set the bail at $3,000 in each of these cases. McMorries was arrested that same day and executed the $9,000 bond.

Earlier Thursday Sheriff Saunders, accompanied by two trustees of the Grady School District, had gone to Amarillo in an effort to obtain possession of some reportedly missing school records. At Amarillo Sheriff Saunders said he was told by Billy Ray McMorries, younger brother of the judge, and a former Martin County teacher, that he had had some records but some time ago James McMorries had taken possession of them. District Attorney Elton Gilliland and County Attorney Ralph Caton said that certain records were important to the grand jury probe.

The grand jury, which started the investigation June 7, recessed Thursday afternoon subject to being recalled at any time. Members indicated their investigation is far from complete. The attorneys assisting the jury said they could not even guess at how much more time may be required to finish the job.

During the jury's recess the investigation is being carried forward by the three-man auditing committee which was appointed under a special Texas statute June 9, by Judge Sullivan. The committee reports its findings from time to time to the jury. Members of the committee are Jess M. Miles Jr., R. P. Simpson and V. E. Bearden.

Gilliland said he did not know just what day the jury will be recalled to resume its deliberations.

Cool, soaking rain fell on Lufkin, College Station, Waco and Corsicana around dawn. Houston has 1.5 to 2 inches of rain and the Beaumont and Port Arthur areas 1.20. Other morning measurements included Lufkin .75, College Station .31, Galveston .30, Corsicana .11 and Waco .08. The Weather Bureau said light showers fell at Austin and Longview.

Yarborough Raps Foe For Stirring Up Race Hatred

AUSTIN (AP)—Ralph Yarborough today accused Gov. Allan Shivers, his opponent in the run-off campaign for governor, of trying to stir up race "hate-war" in order to win the white vote.

Yarborough said flatly he favors segregation of the white and Negro races in public schools but believes they should have equal facilities.

"I am opposed to this continued effort of the governor to stir up friction and ill will," Yarborough said at a press conference.

"The way he (Shivers) has deliberately tried to stir up race trouble—I can't find out where it's happened any time before in the history of Texas," the candidate said.

American Airlines Strike Due Tonight

CHICAGO (AP)—The AFL Air Lines Pilots Assn. says it will strike against American Airlines at midnight tonight. Clarence Sayen, ALPA president, said all of American's more than 1,200 pilots would strike. The dispute involves union objections to American's scheduling of continuous flight time of more than eight hours.

Long Attacks Foreign Aid As 'The Looset Giveaway'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Long (D-La.) today called the new $3,100,000,000 foreign aid program "just about the loosest giveaway ever drawn."

Long, urging a slash of one-third in the authorization, said in an interview he would demand a roll-call vote on his move.

Long claimed more than 30 votes for his proposal. Administration leaders voiced confidence they would defeat it and pass the bill.

The Senate still has to act on a separate money bill. Long said the end of the Indochina fighting, to which this nation was contributing around a billion dollars yearly, justifies a cut in foreign aid this year.

Getting Ready For Pump Station

Workmen are getting ready at Lake J. B. Thomas for the installation of a pump station at the Big Spring-Odessa intake. Details of the project are shown graphically in this picture taken by Keith McMillin, Herald photographer, from a plane piloted by Cecil Hamilton. The pump station will be on top of a bridge which will have its beginning over the circular concrete structure. Water mains will swing below the bridge which will ride the piers now taking shape. End of the 33-inch main (arrow) to Big Spring is clearly visible. O. H. Ivy, production superintendent for the CRMWD, estimated that this project was 15 per cent of completion owing to replacement of some concrete poured two years ago. However, work will progress rapidly now, he said. The booster station on Morgan Creek is 60 per cent along and could, if necessary, be completed within two weeks. All materials for the job are now on hand.

Legionnaires In Ft. Worth For Convention

FORT WORTH (AP)—A luncheon canceled but the Texas American Legion convention moved into high gear here today. Shivers was unable to fly to Fort Worth because of threatening weather. The annual gathering of the Texas Society of Forty and Eight actually got under way yesterday with elections of most of the state officers. Still to be picked by the more than 3,000 Legionnaires and auxiliary members expected at the convention is the department commander. Three candidates for the office have already begun campaigning. They are Harlan Stone of Fort Worth, C. L. Jackson of Cisco, and Adolph Bledien of Houston. In yesterday's session, George E. Broome, retiring grand chief de gare of Texas, was named national committeeman for the Texas Forty and Eight. Broome was succeeded as grand chief de gare—head of the fun and honor department—by Joe L. Matthews of Fort Worth, the first World War II veteran to be named to the honor. Other officers picked included: R. F. McFarland Sr. of Denison, grand chief de train, first division; Charles A. Williams of Beaumont, grand chief de train, second division; Robert P. Martin of Sweeny, grand chief de train, third division; L. F. Kubbeck of Wichita Falls, grand chief de train, fourth division; Charles Hoppin of Amarillo, grand chief de train, fifth division; Les Walker of Corpus Christi, grand commissaire intendant; Walter G. Rodeo Parade Draws Seven Posse Groups

At least seven sheriffs' posses will ride in the colorful rodeo parade here next Wednesday at 4 p.m. Float entries are a little short, said Malcolm Patterson, general parade chairman, but response from the riding groups in this area has been encouraging. In addition, there will be two bands to enliven the affair with marching music. The Big Spring Cowboy Reunion is entertaining the visiting posse members and their families with a barbecue dinner at the City Park immediately after the parade. The visitors also will be guests at the opening night. Dale Douglass is in charge of barbecue arrangements. Clad in their attractive Western uniforms and riding habits, members of the Martin County, Ector County, Garza County, Reeves County, Borden County, Lynn County and Dawson County Posse groups will be in the parade. Estimates range from 140 to 200 riders. In addition, there will be a large number of pleasure riders and rodeo performers. Four floats have been entered by the Rainbow Girls, Desk and Derrick Club, and two by the Citizens' Traffic Commission. Prize awards of $25, $15, and $10 will be given in this division and Patterson was anxious to have more entries if possible. The Webb AFB band will lead the parade, and the Community Band, composed of high school handmen from Big Spring and Coahoma as well as a number of adults who have been playing for fun this summer, also will participate. The Community Band is to play at the rodeo this year. Patterson is alerting all parade participants to be on hand before 3:30 p.m. to be placed in the line

Chemical Plant Blast Injures 17

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The near South Side of Indianapolis was rocked by a roaring explosion last night that gutted an Eli Lilly & Co. chemical plant and injured 6 employees and 11 firemen. Scores of other fire fighters and policemen were burned around the feet and ankles by rivulets of diluted acid washed into the streets by thousands of gallons of water and "foam" used to smother the flames. Hundreds of firemen, Civil Defense workers and Red Cross personnel were rushed to the scene to evacuate injured and keep the fire from spreading to barrels of highly explosive compounds stored in and around the laboratory. Officials of the company, one of the nation's largest pharmaceutical houses, would make no official estimate of the damage.

Boys Who 'Hubbed' Juvenile Officer Have Special Camp

By JOE PICKLE
The shaggy headed lad with a Mickey Rooney look squinted his eyes and asked: "Hey, Doc, how do you quit smoking?" Dr. M. H. Boone, Midland, had an answer for that one. "You just make up your mind. All this other stuff about easy ways to quit is just a bunch of baloney. You simply have to make up your mind to quit." The doctor was one of the laymen who have been having informal talks this week with more than three score boys, nominated for a week's outing by the juvenile officers of Odessa and Midland. They are not necessarily problem boys, the Rev. Jim Goins, pastor of the Bellvue Baptist Church in Midland and camp director, explained. Many of them are boys with less opportunities. Most of them never went to Sunday school or church. Somewhere along the line they hubbed the juvenile officer once or several times. Baptist ministers and laymen in the Permian Basin Baptist Association thought a special camp would be helpful to these boys. Seventy, on recommendations of juvenile officers at Odessa and Midland, were invited to the camp. Laymen, some of them policemen, brought the youngsters to the Baptist Encampment grounds here. There are only two worship services a day, one at 11 a.m. and one at 7:30 p.m. "We didn't bring these boys here to try to drown them in religion," explained the Rev. Goins. "We want to help them and the Lord has blessed us in a special way." Matters haven't been perfect, but results have been extremely encouraging. Out of the 70 who started, three had to be sent home. Camp leaders worried with them until Thursday, but the three were determined to obstruct and disrupt every phase of the camp. On top of that, they ducked services and ransacked cabins while other boys were away. Five youngsters became ill, probably from cramming (they eat a phenomenal amount of food) and getting out in weather ranging up to 107 degrees. In the services there have been 47 responses to invitations by the Rev. Bill Lee, camp pastor and minister of Odessa's Northside Baptist Church. During the morning and afternoon the boys swim, play games, take part in handicraft and other activities. They also spend part of the $2 each was given at the outset for soda pop, candy and handicraft materials. In general, they cause practically no trouble. Dr. Boone talked Thursday morning on health problems for boys. Cigarette smoking came up. Unhappily, the boys asked him if he smoked. He had but was proud to say he had stopped, answered Dr. Boone. Well, the boys wanted to know, what about filters in cigarettes; what about pipes; smoking; and even chewing; and then, to show how the wind was blowing: "What about smoking grapevine?" Dr. Boone had a good piece of advice for the boys: "Don't be sorry for yourself. That's one of the worst things that could happen to you." Wednesday Delbert Downing, Midland Chamber of Commerce manager, talked to the boys on Christian citizenship. Assisting in the program are the Rev. D. K. Graham, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Penwell; Leonard Measures, Cotton Flat Baptist pastor; Anse Harton, Midland layman; three ministerial students, John Godwin, Clint Dungan, Kenneth Wright of Midland; Joe Spellers, Odessa juvenile officer, and several members of the Odessa and Midland police force who are active Christian laymen.

Prison Population Is At Record High

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Prison System has reached an all-time high population of 8,408, a visiting delegation from Dallas County has learned. General Manager O. B. Cadillac Off on an Hour's Vacation!

To be honest with you, we're not certain where he's going. He may be journeying to a branch office of his corporation . . . or he may be heading home for the day . . . or he may just be taking his afternoon "constitutional" behind the wheel. But one thing we know for certain. He's about to embark on a little vacation. And for its length, it will be one of the most wonderful interludes a man could hope to enjoy. For he's about to spend an hour in his 1954 Cadillac—and here, beyond any question, is the perfect remedy for a trying day. It will bring him physical relaxation—for his Cadillac is so comfortable and luxurious that merely to sit in the driver's seat is to rest. And the car handles and steers with such complete effortlessness that every mile is a tonic for the body. It will bring him mental refreshment—for the car is such a joy to drive and ride in that a man seems almost automatically to leave his cares at the curbside. And it will bring him renewed enthusiasm and interest—for every moment a man spends with his Cadillac serves as a stimulating reminder of his past accomplishments—and acts as a wonderful inspiration for planning and thinking out the future. All this, of course, is the very essence of Cadillac value. All cars offer transportation—and varying degrees of satisfaction. But it remains for Cadillac to provide a definite therapeutic for the mind and body of a work-wearied man. In this glorious respect, there are simply two types of cars: Cadillacs and all the others. Come in sometime—when life has grown stale with the toil of the day—and take an hour's vacation in a 1954 Cadillac. It will be the most refreshing sixty minutes you ever spent on the highway—and we'll be delighted to provide the car at any time!

Shivers, Yarborough Square Off For Tough Runoff Scrap

By MAC ROY RASOR
Associated Press Staff

Both Gov. Allan Shivers and Ralph Yarborough were squared-off Friday for what promised to be a bitter runoff battle for Texas' governorship.

Both had held meetings of their key campaign workers and each again had turned his biggest guns on the other in what sounded like echoes of first primary charges and counter charges.

At a press conference Thursday

Shivers blamed overconfidence of his workers for his failure to win in the first primary. He promised an "all-out, round-the-clock" campaign with "no mud-slinging" to win the unprecedented third elective term he seeks.

"There's no question in my mind but we can and will win this race," he said.

The press conference followed a meeting of about 75 of Shivers' key campaign managers and strategists from every senatorial district in the state. They met with Shivers behind closed doors at an Austin hotel.

The governor said they were "very enthusiastic," blamed themselves for not working hard enough to get out the vote in the first primary, and promised to do better.

Yarborough's key campaign people could not be reached for plans or comments. Office workers said they were busy mapping their work following Yarborough's meeting Wednesday with his major supporters.

Shivers flew from his Woodville home, where he has been ill with a virus infection, for his meeting and press conference. He said he still felt "rough," but did not indicate any fear that his health might curtail his campaign.

He predicted a hard race and said he would use every means of campaigning he knows—including radio, television, newspapers, personal speeches.

"We're going to pull out all the stops and work around the clock," he said.

Declaring he intends to "discuss the issues" in the runoff race, the governor had plenty to say about opponent Yarborough.

He said he thought Yarborough had polled his entire strength in the first primary and that some Yarborough first-primary supporters are already changing sides.

Shivers disclosed that he felt he was "behind considerably" two weeks ago but was gaining at the time of the primary. Had the primary been held this week instead of last week, he said he would have won.

Elaborating on why he thought he failed to get a majority, he said it was that "too many of my people were still over confident and the type of campaign being waged by my opponent of being all things to all people."

"In this run-off," Shivers said, "I think the people have a choice of the type of government they are going to have the next two years."

"It can be one of strife and discord not only among the people but with the Legislature—or cooperation, working for all of Texas, every segment of it."

"It's when you're going to attract more industry or have Texas tax rates doubled. Whether to continue middle-of-the-road type policies I have tried to guide and lead Texas since I have been governor or someone who is going to turn Texas over to specialized segments of the population, particularly the CIO and Negro groups."

U. S. Counts On Allies To Block Soviet Security Idea

By JOHN M. NIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. government is looking to Britain and France to knock the props from under a Russian proposal for talks later this year on a new European security system which would include the Red bloc.

An initial exchange of reactions among Washington, London and Paris officials, authorities said today, indicates they see eye to eye on this issue—despite evident Russian hopes that peace in Indochina might swing Western European opinion away from the United States position.

U. S. authorities still think it possible the Soviet proposition may get a little more popular support than it did before the Geneva conference produced a peace agreement on Indochina.

The Reds then gained an initiative in the cold war conflict, and their revival of the European proposal first advanced early this year was clearly an effort to use that initiative in the field of European affairs.

American, British and French representatives will meet in two or three weeks to draft replies to the Kremlin note which they received last Saturday. These probably will not be identical.

U. S. officials argue that the Russian proposal for all the European nations to get together in one big security system is a matter on which European governments can speak more properly and directly than this one. Then, too, the State Department wants to avoid the suggestion of pressing the European governments to take an unfavorable stand on this issue. The official position is it is up to them to make up their minds and to say what they think.

However, the first three-way exchanges indicate agreement that the Soviets are really aiming at destruction of the projected European Defense Community, on which action is supposed to be taken in the French Assembly by mid-August. EDC calls for the armament of West Germany as part of a six-nation army.

Nicaragua And Costa Rica In Border Scrap

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP)—Nicaragua moved armored units up to her border with Costa Rica today as the government angrily charged that Costa Rican border guards had damaged a Nicaraguan patrol plane with rifle fire.

President Anastasio Somoza said a mile-long convoy of armored cars and tanks which he sent from Managua yesterday "was going to the border to defend Nicaragua's territory."

The two Central American republics' long wrangle over border violations became tense this week as incidents and accusations mounted. Nicaraguan Foreign Minister Oscar Sevilla Sacasa declared yesterday that if Costa Rican President Jose Nigueres "wants war, he will have it. The patience of our government is not unlimited."

In its latest protest note, Nicaragua charged the aircraft was fired on while flying today along the San Juan River, the boundary between the two countries. The electrical control system of the plane's left engine was reported damaged.

Official reports said the plane was en route from Managua to the San Juan River Delta to protect an infantry patrol.

Before seeing Dulles, Rhee was to speak at George Washington University, his alma mater, and before the Overseas Writers Club.

Rhee has been seeking a strengthening of his 20-division army by adding 15 to 20 reserve divisions as a national guard. He also wanted a larger say in the disposal of some 200 million dollars a year in U. S. economic aid.

After a dramatic appeal to Congress Wednesday for a "momentous decision" to attack China with a two-million-man Free Asian army backed by U. S. planes and ships, Rhee emerged from a meeting with President Eisenhower yesterday and told newsmen his call to arms had not been discussed. He seemed more subdued than heretofore.

A State Department official said the China war point was not pressed during the talk with Eisenhower.

Rhee Hopeful He Can Get Some U.S. Support

WASHINGTON (AP)—Syngman Rhee appeared resigned today to lack of U. S. support for his plan to attack Communist China now, but the fiery South Korean president still hoped to go home with assurance of American military and economic support.

A White House statement was to be issued after a final meeting between Rhee and Secretary of State Dulles this afternoon.

It was expected to emphasize the cordial "family-style" atmosphere that marked talks during Rhee's five-day state visit, ending today. But it may not pinpoint specific agreements.

No Evidence Yet For Arrest In Cleveland Woman's Death

CLEVELAND (AP)—The solicitor of suburban Bay Village was "it" today in the tag game characterizing the shifting responsibility in the Marilyn Sheppard murder case.

Facing Solicitor Richard Weygant as it has faced others was the problem of whether an arrest should be made in the fatal bludgeoning of the wife of osteopath Samuel H. Sheppard last July 4.

After conferring with the suburb's Mayor J. Spencer Houk, Weygant declared:

"I do not have enough information to satisfy me that an arrest should be made now."

Weygant told a reporter last night he had made no decision in the matter, although he said the advisability of arresting Dr. Sheppard was discussed yesterday at a meeting with top county law enforcement officials.

Cleveland Police Chief Frank W. Story, whose men took over the investigation for a time, said Wednesday he didn't believe present findings justified an arrest.

Story complained previously his department was called into the case after the trail was cold and too late to gain the benefits of a quick arrest and questioning.

Pretty Susan Hayes, 24-year-old laboratory technician who Prosecutor Frank I. Cullitan says admitted carrying on a romance with Dr. Sheppard, is scheduled for at least two more questioning periods. Story said his men plan "just a few more questions. Then we are going to open the door of the cage and let the bird fly away. I see no reason to hold her."

Miss Hayes, who formerly worked with Dr. Sheppard at Bay View Hospital, came here from California voluntarily to testify.

The body of Dr. Sheppard's 31-year-old wife was found in her bed early in the morning of July 4 after he phoned friends that an intruder had killed her. The 30-year-old osteopath later testified at a coroner's inquest that he was knocked unconscious twice in a fight with the killer.

Cow Got In Silo By Herself; Got Out The Same Way

NEW WINDSOR, Md. (AP)—White isn't stuck in the silo any more.

Stanley Simons said he didn't know how his 7-year-old Holstein got out. He left her to her own devices overnight. When he went out to milk this morning, there she was—free.

Simons said White wandered off after he milked her last night. Somehow she squirmed her way through the 2 1/2 by 2-foot silo door.

"She's not very tall," said Simons, "but awfully broad."

Simons had checked at midnight and she was still trapped.

"She got in by herself; I figured she could get out by herself," he said. "She's in good condition. No damage."

Ridgway Plugging For More Army In The Newest Of The Looks

Newweek magazine depicts Army Chief of Staff Matthew Ridgway as slowly gaining ground in his struggle for a new look at the administration's New Look concept for our military establishment, which made "massive retaliation" by serial atomic bombing our principal reliance for national security.

so because our people have had no experience of public disaster in large and simultaneous doses. 2. The atomic bomb makes large concentrations of troops suicidal. That makes more and smaller, self-contained and highly mobile divisions a necessity, and you can't do it with fewer men. 3. Powerful ground forces will be necessary to keep the Communists from taking over the continent of Europe piecemeal. Suppose Russia decides to imitate Hitler and push powerful armies into the rest of Austria, moving with lightning speed. Such ground forces as the West can muster there would be quickly overwhelmed. Russia says, "Okay, here I am—what do you propose to do?" Do we obliterate half of the Austrian people with atomic weapons to teach the Russians a lesson? Or do we inaugurate a global atomic war by attacking Russia directly? And what will we use for an Army if we don't build and maintain one before the blow falls?

It's Been 40 Years Since Events Touched Off First World Conflict

The first World War may be said to have entered the formal and final form—the point of no return—forty years ago this week. It was on that day that Austria-Hungary declared war on Serbia. At that moment Germany had delivered an ultimatum to Russia to rescind its order for general mobilization, but having received no answer, Germany declared war on Russia August 1.

There had been bad blood between Austria and Serbia before that for many years. The Serbs had tried to win economic freedom from Austria, and to gain access to the sea, unsuccessfully. One historian traced the basic trouble to pigs. He said the Serbians had been denied a free market for their pigs, and this was one of the rankling disputes with the Austrians which finally climaxed in war.

Atomic Decision Basic To Our System Of Private Enterprise

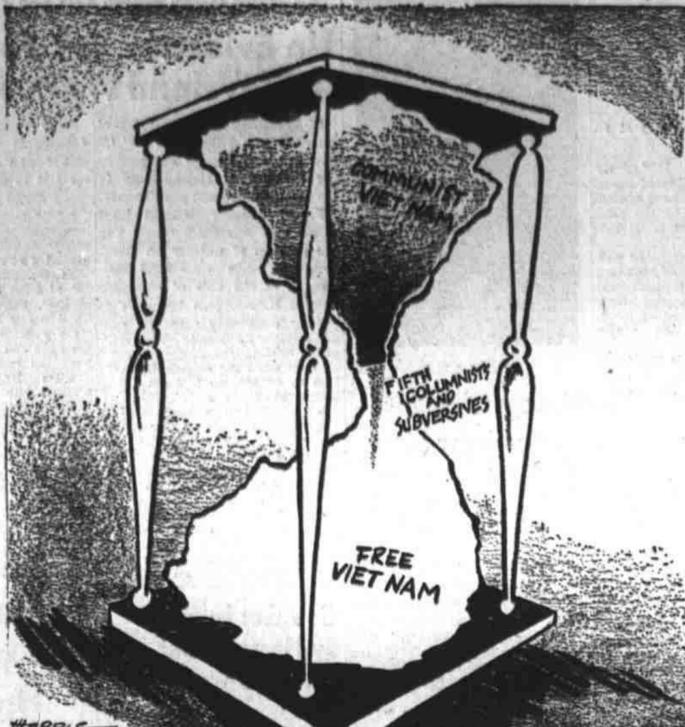

The great debate over atomic power which frightened so many politicians is, in reality, a struggle over whether the economy of this country is to remain capitalist, to become socialistic, or to be what is sometimes called mixed. A better phrase would be mixed up.

enterprises are monopolies owned by single individuals, but represent a wide distribution of ownership which amounts to public participation in the risk for profit or loss. Whatever the government owns is a monopoly, held by the political power of the state. The combination of political and economic power, controlled by a bureaucracy that is impervious to the shifts in the elected echelons of government, leads inevitably to Fascism, which is the government control of both the political and economic power.

It can be said that new inventions make old industries obsolescent; that as new ideas and new methods prevail, they take the place of existing means of production and distribution, as the automobile replaced the horse and carriage. In the changeover from one type of production and distribution, private enterprise has some opportunity for readjustment. Those who owned railroad shares could purchase automobile company shares. McCarthy's Position In Senate Action Has Him On Defensive, For A Change

WASHINGTON (AP)—The position Sen. McCarthy found himself in today—waiting while his fellow senators argued whether to censure him—was typical of the role forced on him in 1954. It's a new one for him. Ever since 1950, when he first made headlines with his charge of Communists in government, he had moved fast, kept punching. He rolled with the counter-punches, slugged harder in return. Nothing kept him quiet.

temporarily sidelined as chairman. Right there McCarthy was slowed down. McCarthy, glued to the hearings, was like a boxer with his hands tied behind his back. His field had been narrowed. In long weeks of the hearings he had to concentrate on one subject: Trying to make himself and his staff look good and the Army bad. He fought hard, he was nimble, and before the hearings ended the Army and the administration may have wished the whole thing had never been permitted to start.

congressional session, it succeeded. For even when the hearings ended McCarthy did not resume his old role. First of all, he went off for a rest of almost three weeks. Then he wanted, he said, to go after Communists in defense plants. All through the hearings he had complained they were delaying his search for Reds in those plants. He made a brief stab at holding hearings on that subject and then dropped them, at least for the time being. He has probably been more quiet since the hearings ended than in any similar period since 1950.

Note To Tourists: They're Not Really Porcupine Eggs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Leaves from a touring reporter's notebook: They have fresh hens' eggs on restaurant menus here—and 60-million-year-old dinosaur eggs in museums. But the naive tourist will do well to beware of any souvenir bargains offered him in dried porcupine eggs. They are nothing but dried cockleburs, fixed up by local pranksters to kid the visitors. The Black Hills, home of free-roaming buffalo and the famous Mt. Rushmore memorial, has had a fabulous past. The area now has become one of the nation's big tourist meccas, but a guy from out of town finds it hard to know what to believe. For the folks here still have the old pioneer fondness for a good yarn, whether it is actually a true story or only a tall tale.

he wanted—was to marry him in the cavern. But no such ceremonies have been allowed, according to the same guide, because "naturally the government doesn't want to run matrimony into the ground." Everyone recalls the tragic fate of Gen. George A. Custer and more than 200 men wiped out in the battle of the Little Big Horn River in Montana on June 25, 1876. The Indians, who always resented the fact the battle was called a "massacre," still point out that the white troops were fully armed—and they weren't packing water pistols. Few today remember, however, that Custer was sent to the Black Hills in 1874, following the financial panic of 1873, to check on reports the hills held gold. Custer set forth on his journey from a fort on the present site of Bismarck, N. D., with a force of a thousand men led by a brass band mounted on white horses. The expedition, accompanied by the son of President U.S. Grant, carried a supply of champagne in its wagons. Presumably they cooled it in mountain streams; there were no ice salesmen along the route. The strange caravan did find gold on Aug. 2, 1874 in the Black Hills, which for centuries the Indians had held to be the inviolate home of Manitou, the Great Spirit. Less than two years later Custer, neither the first nor the last American military leader to underestimate an enemy, and the men with him were washed out by waves of vanishing redskins who didn't choose at that particular moment to vanish.

Shivers, Yarborough Come Out About Even In The News Columns

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald—Editor's Note.

Students of propaganda would probably be disappointed by the results of a survey concerning the space allotted in The Herald to the two top candidates for governor during the two-month period prior to the Democratic primary election. In the first place they would find that the newspapers allotted about the same amount of space to each candidate. And in the second place they would find that the man who did get the most space did not pull the most local votes. There were 55 news stories and 556 inches of re-ting matter in The Herald between June 1 and election date which concerned either Ralph Yarborough or Gov. Allan Shivers. Of these stories, 22 were either about Shivers or lambasting Yarborough. They covered 199 inches of space. Another 175 inches of space in 14 stories were either about Yarborough or criticizing Shivers. There were 12 stories, covering 136 inches, about both candidates. And two stories, covering 26 inches, were about the factions they head up. These figures do not include articles on the editorial pages of the paper. A number of the stories on the two candidates appeared on the front page of the newspaper, but some were on the inside pages. And some of the stories had multiple column headlines, while others were only one column. On the front page of the paper, Yarborough had 10 stories—six of the one-column type, two with two-column heads, and two with three column headlines. They covered 136 inches of space. Shivers on the other hand had 15 stories on the front page. Four of these were one column headlines, six had three column headlines, and five had two columns. All covered 151 inches.

There were six joint stories concerning both candidates on the front page. These stories usually had both names in the headline or alternated in such a way that by the end of the period the names had been printed an even number of times. These stories covered 72 inches of space. On the inside pages, Yarborough had four stories which accounted for 39 inches. Two of these stories had only one column heads, but two of them had three column spreads. Shivers had seven stories inside the paper—six being one column headlines and one with two columns. They accounted for 48 inches. Six stories inside concerned both candidates, and they covered 85 inches of space. Also inside the paper were two letters to the editor which lambasted Shivers. One was 27 inches long and had a two column headline. The other was nine inches long and had a one column head. These letters were not counted in the overall totals. Two front page stories, one a two-column and the other a one column, dealt with Shivers and his friends being served subpoenae in an Austin insurance case. Both men received even treatment by local reporters when they appeared here. Possibly a little more news went to Shivers, but he did more things here and appeared in more places—creating more news. Both had three column pictures on the front page. All these figures show that Shivers got a little the better of Yarborough in the amount of space in the paper. Major reason is that the Associated Press sent more news on Shivers. And the reason for this was that he made more news in his official capacity as the present governor. —CLIFTON LAWHORNE

Robert Young Seeking Asylum From Securities Commission

WASHINGTON—Robert R. Young has appealed to the Interstate Commerce Commission for asylum for his $37,000,000 investment trust, Allegheny Corp., from regulation by the Securities & Exchange Commission. The issue comes up before the SEC in mid-September, before the ICC a bit later. SEC regulation of Allegheny Corp., under Section 17 of the Investment Company Act, would cramp Young's style. It provides that it is unlawful for an investment company to engage in the purchase or sale of securities with an "affiliate"—officers, directors, affiliated companies or affiliated persons—unless it first shall have obtained an exemption from the SEC for the transactions. Were Allegheny Corp. subject to such a provision, transactions with Young, its chairman, and Allan P. Kirby, its president, would have needed SEC approval before execution. Furthermore, it is questionable whether Allegheny would have been able, without prior ratification by the SEC, to acquire a half interest in 600,000 shares of New York Central stock by putting up all the money and receiving in return interest of 4 1/2 per cent and a guarantee against loss from Clint W. Murchison and Sid W. Richardson, the Texas oil millionaires with whom Young and Allegheny have had frequent dealings. Allegheny Corp. doesn't argue that it is not an investment company. It was registered under the Investment Company Act until 1945, when it gained ICC jurisdiction because it became the dominant owner in the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway. It argues it is still a railroad holding company, subject to the Interstate Commerce Act. In 1945, more than $65 million of its assets of $83 million were in railroad securities, including 600,000 shares of Chesapeake & Ohio stock, carried on its books at $21.5 million. Today, its investments in railroad securities amount to around $11 million, or less than a fifth of the total. Sure, Allegheny, in its brief to the ICC, says it intends to increase its holdings in Central and other carriers. But that's a promise, not a fact.

Congress gave the ICC the power to assume jurisdiction over railroad holding companies so as to protect the public against mergers which would reduce competition or financial transactions which would jeopardize railroad solvency. However, when the Allegheny Corp. sold its holdings of Chesapeake & Ohio stock, the ICC had no say about it. Similarly, when C & O acquired its holdings of Central and then proceeded to sell them, under Young's guidance, to Richardson and Murchison, the ICC learned about the deal after the fact. The ICC is powerless, cope with such manipulations. Had Allegheny Corp. been registered under the Investment Company Act, Young would have been forced, when he and Kirby purchased stock of Investors Diversified Services, Inc., from Allegheny, to get an exemption. That purchase has so far bloomed into a potential profit of more than eight million dollars, or four million each. The SEC would have wanted to know whether Allegheny investors were getting a fair break in that deal. As directors of Central, which Allegheny claims it controls, Murchison and Richardson have become Allegheny "affiliates" under the Investment Company Act definition. Murchison Brothers, the partnership operated by Murchison's two sons, also is an "affiliate" as the owner of more than 5 per cent of Investors Diversified Services, which Allegheny controls. Any future deals with his Texas associates, to establish an adequate quid pro quo in Under SEC jurisdiction Young would have to disclose them. All this is well known both to the ICC and the SEC. And the important pending question before both agencies is: Whose supervision would best serve the intention of Congress? Railroad passengers, shippers, the public and investors gain little from ICC jurisdiction that they do not already obtain from ICC's direct regulation of Central. But investors in Allegheny lose protection against transactions Congress expressly outlawed except with SEC permission. The ICC should decline jurisdiction and deny Young and Allegheny refuge from the Investment Company Act.

Trains Own Eye Dog

WINTER HARBOR, Maine (AP)—Truck Driver Truxton Coombs never had heard of a seeing-eye dog when an explosion destroyed his eyesight 20 years ago, but he trained one, and now he has trained a second. His first dog, Lady, was eight months old when Coombs began to train her. "She learned to fetch anything I wanted," he says. "I don't know how many words she learned, but it was hard to stump her. Coombs learned chair sitting and Braille at the Maine Institute for the Blind. Antique dealers and summer folks keep him busy spring and summer. He wishes they'd spread the work into the winter. During war years, he went into the woods with Lady and sawed pulp wood into cord lengths. "Lady could take me anywhere in the woods and not get lost. Then when I wanted she would help find the logs. I wanted and find my mittens for me." She died at 17. Three years ago Coombs got another dog, Judy. "She is a smart dog, but not as smart as Lady," says Coombs, rubbing Judy's head in a little gesture of apology.

Knocked out in the fourth round, he wakes up in the locker room, grabs the smelling salts—and demands a return fight. Senator Morse of Oregon speaks 12 hours despite a bad tooth. Teeth are an inconvenience to a filibusterer—they interfere with beating the gumps. England agrees to withdraw her troops from the Suez Canal. The British say this trend has got to end soon—the Empire is running out of places to withdraw from. Russia again offers the West "peaceful co-existence." It's a 50-50 deal. The Western Allies will be peaceful—Russia and Red China will do the co-existing. Republican leader Knowland fails to break the Senate filibuster. You can tell that Knowland is a high-class leader—his following is so explosive. The U. S. protests to Red China over attacks on allied planes. Britain protests to Red China. Red China protests to Britain. This war won't get very far—both sides will run out of stenographers.

Churchill Wins Confidence Vote On Egyptian Compromise

By SEYMOUR TOPPING
LONDON (AP)—Parliament got ready to close shop for the summer recess today after according Prime Minister Churchill a 10-1 confidence vote on his plan to pull British troops from the Suez Canal zone. Most Laborites abstained on the ballot.

The House of Commons backed the prime minister's historic decision by a vote of 257-26 after Churchill made an impassioned declaration that the £1-billion had rendered the billion-dollar, 75-year-old string of bases obsolete.

Both Commons and the House of Lords, which also debated the controversial Suez issue, begin their summer recess today. They will not reconvene until October.

Churchill, who in World War II remarked he had not become prime minister in order to liquidate the empire, declared yesterday the whole British position in the Suez had been outdated by "the appalling developments and the appalling spectacles which imagination raises before us."

"Merely to try to imagine in outline how to portray the first few weeks of a war as it is now... would convince you of the obsolescence of the base," he asserted.

The agreement, which has strong U.S. support, calls for the transfer of 85,000 British troops from their

Exonerated After Lie-Detector Test

BALTIMORE (AP)—George W. Eller, 49, of Parkville, Md., was cleared yesterday after gullit in the death of his wife after taking the first official lie-detector test given in Baltimore County.

His wife, 37-year-old Mrs. Myrtle Eller, was killed early Wednesday morning. Eller told police he mistook her for a prowler at their home on the northeast edge of Baltimore.

Suez base within 20 months after a seven-year pact is signed.

The pact will give Britain the right to reoccupy the base in case of attack on Turkey or any of the eight Arab nations. Civilian caretakers under contract to Britain will keep up the great installations dominating the vital waterway.

A group of 40 rebellious Conservatives had threatened to break the party traces over the prospect of seeing another portion of the empire pass out of British hands. But in the final test, only 26 Tories voted against the government.

Man Accused In Slaying Of 'Best Friend'

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—William E. Demond, charged with the murder of his "best friend," was out of jail on a $30,000 bond today.

He is accused of the slaying of Vernon Donn Frederick, 38, Scottsdale service station owner and city councilman. Frederick was shot to death in the living room of his home.

About an hour later in the early morning hours Wednesday Mrs. Faye Demond, wife of the accused, was found dead in a canal. Investigating officers said she drowned when the car she was driving plunged into the water.

Demond, 35, owner of a photo shop at Scottsdale, is charged with shooting Frederick through the heart with a .32 caliber pistol while Frederick was watching television in his home.

The Frederick and Demond families were next-door neighbors.

Mrs. Demond, daughter of a wealthy Dallas, Tex., family, was the former wife of A. Pollard Simons, widely known Dallas real estate man and builder. She was the step-daughter of the late Capt. J. F. Lucey, a multimillionaire.

Mrs. Demond was left a trust fund of $250,000.

A total eclipse of the sun can occur only when the moon is close to the earth. Eclipses which occur at times in the moon's cycle when it is far away are annular—a rim of the sun showing around the moon's shadow.

Staves Off Execution For Fourth Time In Six Years

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Caryl Chessman, convicted sex terrorist turned best-selling author, fourth in prison today after his fourth reprieve from execution in six years.

Two other condemned men whom California's law enforcement chief insisted deserved as much consideration as Chessman were scheduled to die in San Quentin's lethal gas chamber at 10 a.m. (noon EST).

Chessman — 32-year-old convict author of "Cell 2455, Death Row" — was granted a new stay of execution by State Supreme Court Justice Jesse Carter yesterday — less than 24 hours before his scheduled execution.

That reprieve prompted Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown to assert the administration of capital punishment in California is "a mockery of justice" and suggest abolition of the death penalty in this state.

Brown said his office will seek to have Chessman's stay reversed when the Supreme Court reconvenes in September—but he asked Gov. Goodwin Knight to hold up two other convicts to give them the same chance for appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court that was granted Chessman.

"There's no reason," Brown said, "why a man who can write a book should have an advantage that these two other apparently friendless people do not have."

Knight, who consistently refused to grant clemency for Chessman, said he saw no legal reason for delaying the execution of James Franklin Wolfe, 42, and Joseph Johansen, 28, condemned to death for killing another convict at Folsom Prison.

The attorney general's sentiments were echoed in Los Angeles by Superior Judge Charles Fricke, who pronounced sentence on Chessman in 1948 after he was convicted of eight counts of robbery, four of kidnaping, two of sex perversion, one of attempted rape, one of auto theft and one of attempted robbery.

Chessman, a criminal since teenage days—but with an intelligence rating just below genius level—was convicted of a series of attacks in a Los Angeles lovers lane.

The state said he flashed a red light from his auto—pretending he was a police officer to halt couples—and then dragged out his female victims and forced them to submit to acts of sexual perversion.

One of his victims is still a patient of a state mental institution.

The U. S. Supreme Court twice in 1952 declined to review Chessman's case.

IT HAPPENED

First Time At 90

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Mrs. Helen McDermott's heart stopped functioning during an operation last week but she resumed breathing when direct massage by the surgeon's hand restored the vital heart beat.

While this emergency procedure is no longer considered unusual, it was the first time her surgeon ever tried it. He's colorful, 90-year-old Dr. James P. Kerr.

Who Guards What?

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Russell Brockman and his wife moved into the home of Brockman's father last Saturday to guard the place a few days while the father was absent.

Yesterday the Brockmans returned to their own home only to find burglars had made off with a television set, radio and phonograph while they were gone.

Whole Town Sold

DELLEKER, Calif. (AP)—This entire town was auctioned off yesterday.

Irwin Friedman, San Francisco auctioneer, announced he had received definite bids for all of Delleker, site of former lumber mill activities.

Sold were 58 homes, a hotel, a dining hall, school house and several other buildings.

Delleker was founded in 1909 by the Feather River Lumber Co. The available timber supply became exhausted last November, and the town's 350 inhabitants moved away.

That's What He Said

OMAHA (AP)—Mrs. Nancy Saxon was visiting Mrs. Gladys Moline here when, she told police, a man walked in the front door.

He went to a table, picked up Mrs. Saxon's pocketbook containing $3 and walked out with the comment "I'm taking this with me."

Bride's Demand

PRATT, Kan. (AP)—Paul Crabb, a contractor, had to sing at his own wedding.

Crabb has a fine bass voice, and his fiancee, Miss Mary Ann McNamee, insisted that he sing "I Love Thee" and "Always" before marching to the altar Wednesday night.

Crabb did.

Brother's Favor

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. (AP)—There was one car that Po-

Christian Worship and Fellowship

WE ARE INFORMED HOW THE EARLY CHRISTIANS LIVED TOGETHER IN HARMONY

Scripture—Acts 2:46-47; Colossians 3:12-17; Hebrews 10:25-28. By NEWMAN CAMPBELL. THE PRESENT series of lessons seem to this writer to be particularly helpful in showing us the way Christians should live together in all their activities.

MEMORY VERSE

"And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works."—Hebrews 10:24.

It should make you happy and thankful. St. Paul emphasizes these things in his letters of advice. If this spirit is the prevailing one of our churches and Sunday schools, would not people flock to the services?

The teacher has a good point here to impress on all the classes, from the youngest to the oldest. Be thankful; be happy at home, at school, at work or in play.

Paul's message to the church members at Colosse should also be an inspiration to us: "Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any; even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye."

"And above all these things put on charity (love) which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful."

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord."

"And whatsoever ye do in word based on copyrighted outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., and used by permission. Distributed by Kinser Features Syndicate

RALPH J. NEILL (Pd. Pol. Adv.)

THANKS TO YOU

for making me your County Clerk again ... the office is dedicated to providing a service that will show our appreciation.

PAULINE PETTY (Pd. Pol. Adv.)

THANKS

To each and every one of you for the consideration that was given me in the campaign for Commissioner for Precinct 2.

I WISH TO CONGRATULATE MY OPPONENTS ON A VERY CLEAN CAMPAIGN.

P. S. I conceded the race but I will continue to fight for a Youth Center.

take place at 8 p.m. on Aug. 31 at the First Christian Church. The hostesses, entertaining in the Read home, used a white cut-work cloth, with all serving appointments in crystal. Demand For Stovepipes Predicted

Well, girls, it looks as if we've got to conjure up some kind of giraffe that is akin to a stovepipe if ole Chris Dior has anything to do with the fall fashions. Seems as if every two years somebody sends us back to the attic looking for those roarin' 20's sacks and this year Dior is going whole hog for flattened flappers. It's all over for Marilyn Monroe and Jane Russell.

According to the writers who've seen his new stuff there's no room for hips, bust, or shoulders in any of them. Always wondered what a straight jacket was like but never thought we'd find out first hand. He's dropped the waist line to the haunch line and we think that's where he should draw the line. There's just no other place for the waist line to go now, unless it's eliminated altogether.

Dior doesn't say what to do if you don't have a built-in, long, flat, boyish torso. You really don't see many such shapes and you wonder just how Dior is going to make ends meet if he can't find a market for his new "haunch line" creations. All we can suggest is that he start designing for the boys. But then what would the woman's page do for news?

The J. Y. Robb lawn was the scene of a buffet supper party given Thursday night with the Robbs, the Elmo Wassons and the R. W. Whipkeys as host couples.

Col. and Mrs. William M. Kerr and Major and Mrs. John L. Beck. Summer leaves were arranged around candles as decorative pieces for small dining tables placed around the yard. There were about 100 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Williams have returned from Livermore, Calif., where they were joined by their son, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Williams, and children, Jenny and Jerome Marcus. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Williams accompanied his parents back here to make their home.

Texas Styles Pack Plenty Of Fashion

By DOROTHY ROE They have a way with clothes, deep in the heart of Texas.

Out of the grooving garment industry in Dallas are coming some of the smoothest and smartest fashions you'll be seeing in the shops this fall.

Typical of the fashion business of the Southwest is Justin McCarty, big, booming and breezy, who looks more like a cattle baron or an oil millionaire than a manufacturer of dresses. But he is a pioneer of the Texas fashion industry, who likes to talk about the trading post days, whether he remembers them or not.

The kind of clothes he turns out are the kind preferred by the women of Texas, and the kind approved by women all over the country who like the casual, understated look. You'll find no fussiness in these Texas styles—no unnecessary buttons and bows. Instead you find simplicity of line, beauty of fabric and a knowing use of subtle colors.

These are cosmopolitan clothes, at home anywhere in the world, but they have the stamp of Texas in their uncluttered lines, their casual ease and their precise tailoring.

When you've seen them you'll agree that they do things well, down Texas way.

Texas Look

At left is a moss-green jersey coat dress with new Queen Anne collar; at right, three-piece outfit with gray jersey blouse, darker gray flannel skirt and hound's tooth checked cardigan. Both are designed for fall by Justin McCarty of Dallas.

Steeds, Odessa Vie Here On Saturday

Originally committed to play in Odessa this weekend, the Big Spring Broncs instead return home Saturday to launch a four-game stand, meeting Odessa in the first round of play. Game time is 8:15 p.m. The two clubs swapped dates in order that the Steeds will be on the road during the Big Spring rodeo. Odessa will remain over for a Sunday game, after which San Angelo checks in for games on Monday and Tuesday.

Bob Martin, Zapp Homer In Victory

SAN ANGELO (SC) — Big Spring's 13-4 victory over the San Angelo Colts here Thursday night was highlighted by Pepper Martin's 19th home run of the year and Jim Zapp's fourth circuit smash in four nights. The win enabled the Steeds to hang on in the scrap for fourth place. Midland, the fourth place team, also won. The Broncs trail the Indians by five games. Tito Arcebia, who scattered ten Angelo hits received credit for his 11th win of the campaign.

Norman Bagnardet will hurl for the Colts tonight with Al Hill going for the Steeds. The Broncs have now played 100 games, 52 of which they have won.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

The last I heard, Carl Coleman, who'll again chart the course the Big Spring footballers this autumn, was in Colorado taking full advantage of that area's wonderful air conditioning. Even up there, Carl's temperature must have risen a few degrees when he thinks how his Steers are going to looking down the barrel of a loaded gun, so to speak. There's no other way around it. The Steers went to the AAA finals last fall and the also-rans always train their sights on the champs. You can bet, though, the Steers won't be sitting ducks, not with rugged young men like Frosty Robinson, Tommy McAdams, Brick Johnson, Lefty Don Reynolds and Teddy-Bear Slate—to name a few—ready to storm the enemy's gates.

This year's Steers may not bowl over the opposition like ten-pins as they did last year. They're not as deep everywhere. In 1953, they seemed like a completely equipped Army, with an advanced patrol, infantry, cavalry, artillery and air arm to hit you in half a dozen different places. This could and should be a more versatile team, however, and, backed by the experience it gained in last year's race—for which there is no substitute—the 1954 Steers should make fewer mistakes. It should have more imagination than last year's stellar team, in addition.

Virtual Unknown Fires An Ace, Leads Kaycee Field

KANSAS CITY (K) — Youthful Mike Krak, virtually unknown on the professional golf circuit, held a one-stroke lead today going into the second round of the $20,000 Kansas City Open Tournament. Krak of Louisville, Ky., had a hole-in-one to his credit—the first of his career. He shot an 8-under-par 65. Just a stroke off pace with the late Ed Oliver, of Lemont, Ill., Earl Stewart Jr., of Dallas, and Fred Hawkins, of El Paso, Tex.

Lawton Extends Winning Skein

It took a leadoff home run, three straight singles and a grand slam homer in the eighth by Jack Brown to do it, but the Lawton Braves extended their Sooner State League winning streak to nine games last night. Lawton edged Ardmore, 14-13, to pull within 12 games of league-leading Shawnee, which dropped a 7-6, 11-inning decision to Ada when Allen Bailey—Ada's first Negro player—walked and scored on a blooper single by Walt Massefaki. Five of Shawnee's six runs came on homers by Ray Mitchell, Gene Hureby, Fred Harrison and Willard Fox. Mitchell hit two. Gainesville and McAlester maintained their third-place deadlock. Gainesville trimmed Seminola, 4-2, and McAlester picked on cellar team Pauls Valley, 7-1. The same teams meet again tonight.

Plainview Creeps Up In Struggle

The Clovis Pioneers and the Pampa Oilers are casting anxious glances over their shoulders as they tumble along at the head of the West Texas - New Mexico League chase. Just six games behind Clovis and only four behind Pampa are the Plainview Ponies. Another game and a half back are Abilene, Amarillo and Albuquerque in a log jam. Lubbock is well behind them. Albuquerque Thursday night tripped the league leaders, 5-2, the third straight over the Pioneers and the sixth straight for the Ponies, to pull into a tie with idle Amarillo and Abilene, beaten, 4-3, by Plainview. Lubbock took a 5-1 verdict from Pampa in the other game.

Woodard Heads Invasion Here

Stock car racers from Midland, Monahans and Roswell are due to compete with local drivers at the Big Spring Speedway this evening. The races begin at 8:30 p.m. The card will consist of about seven races. Woody Woodard, a veteran of about seven years in stock car racing, heads the "foreign" delegation. He's from Midland. Clyde Majors, one of the leading drivers at the track, will be in Car 444, rather than 66, this evening. All other Big Spring drivers will be in attendance. N. L. Patterson, owner of the local track, said no races will be held at the oval next Friday due to the rodeo.

Midland Indians Win 4th In Row

The Indians had a seven-game losing streak on their hands at the first of the week, with no signs of snapping out of it. Now Midland has a four-game winning skein going and has picked up two full games on first-place Artesia. Victory No. 4 in the current string came Thursday night at Carlsbad, where the Indians blanked the Potashers, 3-0. Odessa beat Artesia, 6-4. Big Spring slammed San Angelo, 13-4, and Roswell downed Sweetwater, 8-2.

'Save The A's' Move Is Dying

PHILADELPHIA (P)—A movement in Philadelphia to "Save the A's" seems to be dying as fast as the financially distressed American League team. Business and industry leaders in the city, at any rate, have turned a cold shoulder to a drive to keep the Athletics in Philadelphia. And paying fans aren't exactly flocking to Connie Mack Stadium in support of the team. A report not yet released by Mayor Joseph S. Clark's office was turned over to Clark yesterday informing him that efforts to stimulate attendance at A's games have encountered apathy and in some instances outright resistance from the public as well as from business leaders. Of the 125 letters sent to leading citizens asking them to head up subsidiary groups for the purpose of selling tickets to A's games, not one favorable reply was received, the report said. A change in present management is needed before any movement to save the A's can be successful, the report said the response indicated.

Sir Mango And Iceberg II Head Field At Arlington

CHICAGO (C)—Fourteen thoroughbreds of the 3-year-old and up class, headed by Sir Mango and Iceberg II, are primed for tomorrow's $100,000 - added Arlington Handicap. This is the world's richest grass course race, and if all 14 start the purse will total $159,000 with $102,050 going to the winner. Harry N. Eads' Sir Mango, who won his first turf effort, the recent Stars and Stripes Handicap at Arlington Park, has been assigned top weight of 125 pounds and currently is favored at 5-2. Iceberg II, W. Arnold Hanger's 1953 grass champion, is rated at 3-1. He will carry the highest weight of 121 pounds, including Jockey Jorge Contreras, who will be brought in from New York to replace Eddie Arcaro. Arcaro is under a 10-day suspension for rough riding aboard Royal Nona, winner of last Saturday's Arlington Futurity. Hanger's Sadi II and Mrs. Horatio Luro's Turgenoff are listed as a probable entry with Iceberg II. All three are trained by Mrs. Luro's husband.

Bryan Is Ahead In Legion Play

HOUSTON (H)—The second and, if it is necessary, the third game of the American Legion Area 3 baseball playoff between St. Thomas and Bryan will be played here tomorrow. The first game begins at 7 p.m. It was rained out yesterday. Bryan won Tuesday's opener, 1-0.

MAXWELL LEADS BY 3 STROKES

WASHINGTON (W)—Par-smashing Cpl. Billy Maxwell was three strokes ahead of rival golfing troops and a good bet to stuff the All-Army championship into his barracks bag today. The former national champion from Big Spring, Tex., had a 54-hole total of 211 at the start of the final round over the 7,028-yard Woodmont Country Club course. He chopped two strokes off par with his second straight 70 yesterday and at that rate could stroll in barring a sensational last fling by one of his not-too-close pursuers. That was a remote prospect, although not impossible. Monte Sanders of Marshall, Tex., shot a 68 yesterday for the best card of the tournament. Even so, Sanders was tied with Dan Sikes, Jacksonville, Fla., seven strokes off Maxwell's pace. Closest to the 1951 amateur champ was John Weaver, Houston, Tex., whose par 72 yesterday gave him a 214 total at the three-quarter mark. Three soldiers were knotted behind him at 215—Clifton Harrington, Pinehurst, N.C.; Dick West, Portland, Ore., and Claude (Buster) Reed, Dallas, Tex. L. Col. Mannie Raley, former California Legion champ, overshadowed both the steady-going Maxwell and course-burning Sanders in advancing to the finals of the All-Army senior's division. Raley shot the first tournament hole-in-one at Woodmont on the 164-yard par-3 seventh with a No. 4 iron. He still had a struggle to overcome Maj. Frederic Potts, Ft. Bragg, N.C., 1-up. The final for competitors over 45 throws Raley against Lt. Gen. George Decker, Army comptroller, who was extended 20 holes yesterday by Col. John Bohlender, Ft. Sam Houston, Tex.

Stanky Insists Cards Can Win

NEW YORK (N)—They're calling him the "new" Eddie Stanky but the only thing new about the manager of the St. Louis Cardinals is the snazzy pair of sports shoes he bought in a midtown store yesterday. He's still the same scrappy little guy with that tremendous zest for victory. He still has that same devotion to his ideas on running a ball club and if he has mellowed in any way it is not noticeable at first glance. Typical of his nature, Stanky still thinks his Cardinals have an outside chance of catching the leaders. St. Louis' easy victory over New York and Chicago's triumph over Brooklyn yesterday might have influenced his thinking, but Eddie stubbornly insists the National League race is still wide open. "I admit things don't look too good for us right now," Stanky conceded, "but we're not out of it by a long shot. Remember, there are still two months to go. Let us have one good long winning streak and the entire pennant picture might change. That goes for any one of six clubs. We haven't had a real winning streak yet. Maybe we're due for one." The Cardinals are finding it a tough task to sneak into the first division but they've been playing good ball of late.

1954 Aqua-Queen

Nancy Smith, in swim suit, is shown receiving a bouquet of flowers from Mrs. Lee Rogers after she had been recognized as 1954 Aqua-Queen. She was elected by students in the YMCA swimming classes. The presentation was made during the Y Swim Show and Water Carnival here last night.

Five Records Fall In Y Swim Show

Five records were shattered in the fifth annual YMCA Swimming Meet and Water Carnival, held Thursday evening at the municipal splash.

John Lechner accounted for three of the marks, all in the senior boys' division while Don Collins and Nancy Smith each broke one.

Lechner wiped out standards set in the freestyle, backstroke and breaststroke races, all established by Fred Bostwick in 1951.

Collins rewrote the record book in the junior freestyle, set by Bill Hanna in 1951 while Miss Smith splashed to a new mark in the backstroke, held by Kitty Roberts and set in 1950.

Miss Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith, was crowned 1954 Aqua-Queen and received flowers from Mrs. Lee O. Rogers.

Nancy was one of six girls featured in the water ballet number, planned and coached by Helen Lee Hardy.

A large crowd witnessed the show, emceed by George Oldham and directed by B. B. Lees. Lees took time to again serve as clown of the carnival and delighted the throng with his acts.

Little Bobby Dillon teamed up with Lees in the comedy routine.

Who'll Crack First, Indians Or Yanks

By BEN PHLEGAR
Associated Press Sportswriter

Today is Casey Stengel's 64th birthday but he's going to have to wait awhile longer for a present from his athletes.

The New York Yankees didn't quite make it to first place in time for the celebration. In fact, they haven't made it to first place any time this season although they've won more of their first 100 games than any Yankee club Casey has managed.

When they whipped Chicago, 10-0, yesterday, they ran their record for the year to 57 won and 33 lost. None of the past five New York pennant winners has done as well.

New York trails Cleveland by a game and a half and the day-to-day question is how long can the two

Four Teams Resume Y City League Playoffs Tonight

Second round of play in the YMCA City Softball League Shaughnessy round takes place at the city park this evening, beginning at 7 p.m.

Lesser Is Ousted In Western Play

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The semifinals lineup today in the 5th Women's Western Amateur Golf Tournament included a member and an alternate of the Curtis Cup team but teammate Pat Lesser of Seattle didn't make it.

The 20-year-old Washington girl, who set a qualifying record of 72 for the tourney, was beaten yesterday by 19-year-old Barbara McIntire of Toledo, Ohio, 1-up.

Beverly Gammon, a 1953 University of Minnesota graduate, upset Jane Nelson of Indianapolis, 1953 Western Amateur runner-up, in 22 holes and will play Miss McIntire today.

The other semifinals opponents are Claire Doran of Cleveland, the defending champion, and Mrs. Mae Murray Jones, another tourney veteran from Rutland, Vt.

Miss Doran, Curtis Cup team member, had a tight contest before winning a 1-up victory over Mary Ames Wall of Monroeville, Mich.

Mrs. Jones, Curtis Cup alternate and Eastern Amateur champion, won her quarterfinals match from 19-year-old Mickey Wright of La Jolla, Calif., 4 and 3.

40-Year-Old Kid Azteca In Bout

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Kid Azteca, the Mexican welterweight who admits to 40 years of age and who has been boxing 22 years, will meet Little Palma in the 10-round main event of a boxing show here Aug. 10.

Palma, also from Mexico, is already here working for the fight. They will headline the first fight card of promoter Boyd Smith.

In another 10-rounder, Joe Boland meets Baby Vesquez.

Charles Will Get 4th Title Chance

NEW YORK (AP)—Ezzard Charles may never go down as the greatest heavyweight champion, but he will have his own little niche in the history of the ring.

The little Cincinnati Negro will be the first ex-champion ever to get three cracks at winning back his title. He lost the crown to Jersey Joe Walcott, dropped a return decision to Jersey Joe, then lost another decision to Rocky Marciano.

Now he's going to get a second crack at Marciano, here on either Sept. 15 or Sept. 21.

Reeves And Ozee Named To Team

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—Curtis Reeves and James Ozee of Wichita Falls are the first players to be selected for the Texas squad in the Oil Bowl football game here Aug. 20.

Texas will play Oklahoma in the annual classic at the Midwestern University stadium.

Reeves, a halfback, and Ozee, a center, were picked by Pat Patterson of Lubbock and Henry Armstrong of Del Mar (Corpus Christi), coaches of the Texas team.

Record Field In Track Meet

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A record lineup of 162 women athletes from all parts of the nation and Cuba today opened competition in the Women's National AAU Track and Field Championships.

Earl Flickinger, meet director and one of two men on the Women's Olympic Committee, said he looked for at least three national records to fall during the two-day meet—javelin, shot put and broad jump.

The meet's junior competition began today and senior events will be held tomorrow. The designations are based on experience and records, not on age.

Tuskegee Institute, winner of the junior team crown last year, was favored to repeat in its title defense for 1954.

Meanwhile, defending champions in 12 senior events worked out in preparation to meet challenges to their crowns.

Only one champion, Nancy Phillips of the Brooklyn, N. Y., German-American Club, will not defend her title. Her husband was killed recently in an airplane crash.

Record Field In Track Meet

Who'll crack first? The man with the answer wins the jackpot. In 19 consecutive games with Cleveland and third place Chicago the Yankees won seven times. But two of the losses were to the Indians.

Yesterday, however, it was no contest. While the Yankees were routing the wishful White Sox, Cleveland collapsed before a Boston onslaught, bowing, 10-2. The Red Sox had lost 15 out of 16 to Cleveland before turning on the league leaders.

Of the nine games played yesterday, four ended in shutouts. Whitey Ford held the White Sox to four hits in the Yankee victory. Vic Raschi, the ex-Yankee star now working for the St. Louis Cardinals, beat the New York Giants, 3-0, on three hits. Corky Valentine of Cincinnati pitched a four-hitter against Philadelphia, winning, 3-0, and Chuck Stobbs of Washington checked Baltimore on five hits in a 6-0 triumph.

In other action Chicago defeated Brooklyn, 6-5; Milwaukee won its seventh straight, 5-3, over Pittsburgh in 10 innings and Detroit took a doubleheader from Philadelphia, 4-2 and 7-3.

Raschi was in complete control of the league-leading Giants. He gave up two bases on balls and struck out a pair. The only New York hits were singles by Willie Mays, Bobby Hoffman and Don Mueller. Ray Jablonski's base-loaded double in the fifth was the big blow for St. Louis.

Pinch hitters flopped for Brooklyn as the Dodgers lost a chance to shave their two-game deficit. Manager Walt Alton used five and not one got the ball out of the infield. The final failure was George Shuba who grounded to first with the bases loaded and two out in the ninth. Hank Sauer and Ernie Banks homered for the Cubs.

The Braves had a close call in Pittsburgh. They tied the game in the ninth on three straight singles and added two more, including Hank Aaron's 12th home run, in the 10th.

Valentine not only pitched a shutout for the Redlegs, he was the batting star as well. He doubled twice, singled once and scored two

Ex-Eagles Rip Old Teammates

By JOE BENHAM
Associated Press Staff

Nobody is taking it easy on the Dallas Eagles this year, but a bunch of former Dallas players have been even rougher than the average of the defending Texas League champions lately.

Tuesday night's play, for instance, saw ex-Eagle Howie Anderson hurl Beaumont to a 4-0 shutout. And Ben Taylor, a former Dallas first baseman, led the Exporter hitting with a home run and a single.

The loss kept the Eagles 17 1/2 games out of first place, as the league-leading Shreveport Sports also fell, 2-1, to Fort Worth.

Houston moved into third place with a 2-1 victory in 12 innings over Oklahoma City. Tulsa slapped second place San Antonio, 6-3, in the night's other game.

Friday night's scheduled is the same.

Anderson, a towering righthander, won his fourth game since joining Beaumont last month with a nine-hit performance. He left 10 Dallas players stranded as he spaced out the hits for a shutout. Beaumont got only eight hits off loser Jim Tugerson, but bunched three in the sixth for two runs and added single scores in the eighth and ninth on homers by Taylor and Ford Garrison.

Houston, which moved into a tie with Oklahoma City Wednesday night, shattered the knot with four hits good for two runs and a victory in the 12th.

Al Pappal of the Indians had pitched shutout ball for 10 innings when the roof fell in, after allowing Houston its first run in the first inning. Oklahoma City tied it in the fourth with their only run off Indians seven hits along the way.

Ted Tappe's three-run home run in the fourth inning set the pace for Tulsa's victory over San Antonio. The blast brought the Oilers out of a two-run hole, and gave Norman Camp a lead he protected with shutout ball the rest of the way.

Fort Worth's triumph squared the series between the Cats and Shreveport at a game each. Ray Coleman knocked in the winning run with a single in the eighth, one of eight the Cats got off John Andre. Mel Waters picked up the decision in relief, with a two-hit fireman's job.

Clinkscapes Out With Broken Toe

FORT WORTH (AP)—Ronald Clinkscale, senior Texas Christian University quarterback, is on the shelf right now because of a broken toe.

Clinkscale suffered the injury in a softball game and will have his foot in a cast for three weeks.

He will be recovered by the time fall practice opens Sept. 1 but will probably get off to a slow start.

CAUTION PAYS OFF IN USED CAR MART Before you buy ask yourself—"What will this dealer do about it if the car doesn't stand up?" A new car dealer can't afford to sell anything but high quality cars. We Have At The Present Time 2-1953 PONTIAC 2-door sedans and one 1952 PONTIAC 4-door sedan. Each of these cars can be purchased with utmost confidence. They are all low mileage, beautiful packages that have been checked thoroughly and found to be not wanting. FURTHERMORE, a 1953 BUICK Super. Cleanest in West Texas and carrying a new car guarantee. It is available. No joking, this is the best buy of the year. Come in and see it. AND for those who would like to join the "NO SWEAT SET" and stay cool check our 1953 BUICK Super 4-door with factory Frigidaire air conditioning. Lovely for those 100 degree days. NOW from the ridiculous to the sublime. Sublime prices. Not sublime cars. We have some clunkers that have had the clunk taken out. For instance a 1947 NASH 4-door sedan, 1941 CADILLAC 4-door sedan, 1949 STUDEBAKER 2-door sedan, 2-1950 CHEVROLET club coupes. NOT fancy—NOT perfect—NOT beautiful. BUT good "N" cheap. Town Folks Help With Cotton Crop

McALLEN, Tex., (AP)—Some 150 workers from a Rio Grande Valley furniture store chain (Edelstein's) and a group of mayors from Valley cities picked cotton yesterday to help get in the area's big crop.

The recent roundup and deportation of "wetbacks"—illegal alien—labor has left the Valley short of workers.

Reuben Edelstein, head of the furniture chain, said closing the stores wasn't a "stunt, but a sincere effort to help Valley farmers."

No figure was available on how much cotton the city folks picked.

Jury Recommends Further Inquiry Into Thorne Death

CHICAGO (AP)—A coroner's jury has decided wealthy young Montgomery Ward Thorne died of natural causes but that an element of mystery concerning his death remains unanswered.

The jurors recommended continued investigation of the case by "city, state or federal" authorities even though their verdict marked the official end of the case.

Thorne—20-year-old heir to a mail order fortune of nearly two million dollars—died June 19 in his $75-a-month one-room flat. Cause of the death could not be determined immediately.

The coroner's jury Thursday accepted a report from four eminent pathologists who exhumed the young heir's body that his death was caused by bronchial pneumonia.

Coroner Walter E. McCarron signed Thorne's death certificate, certifying the death as natural. But McCarron said he thought it would have been better if the jury had found that cause of death was not determined.

Some figures in the investigation still questioned the cause of death. A legal battle between Thorne's sweetheart, Maureen Ragen, 18, and his mother, Mrs. Marjorie Thorne, over who will get his estate appears in the offing.

A will Thorne drew nine days before his death left half his estate to Miss Ragen and one-quarter to her mother, Aileen. A previous will left the entire estate to Mrs. Thorne.

Contest Of Will Could Cost Dollar

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—W. L. Moody III, whose millionaire father bequeathed him $1 when the elder Moody died July 21, learned yesterday he may lose that dollar if he tries to contest the will.

The younger Moody was bequeathed $1 in the will of his father, W. L. Moody Jr. of Galveston, while other members of the financier's family received trust funds and cash bequests up to $250,000 each.

He says he hasn't decided whether or not he will contest the document filed for probate Wednesday. "There's an awful lot to think about," the San Antonio oilman and rancher said. "After all, it's my father's will. If it were mine, I might say something." The younger Moody said he understood that anyone contesting the will would be deprived of any and all benefits.

Escapée Returns At Bride's Request

CINCINNATI (AP)—A pastry chef who gave himself up to police after escaping from the Jefferson City, Mo., Prison Farm, today is free to start a new life with his bride.

After marrying her recently, 25-year-old Cecil W. Hamm told his bride he had escaped from Missouri with only 12 days remaining of his sentence and was wanted on two false check charges there. She pleaded with him to turn himself in so they could start over again with a clean slate. After he told police he wanted to make restitution for the bad checks, Gov. Frank J. Lausche refused to honor extradition papers for his return to Missouri. Yesterday Judge Ralph B. Kohnen dismissed a fugitive charge which had been filed against him.
