Jim Whiteard Indicted By Wheeler Jury

The Wheeler County grand jury returned four indictments yesterday against Jim Whiteard of Phoenix, Ariz., in connection with the Saturday night shooting near Shamrock which resulted in the death of two men.

The grand jury went into session at 10 a.m. yesterday and heard evidence presented in the four charges filed against Whiteard Monday by Bill Waters, district attorney.

These charges were: murder with malice in connection with the killing of Victor Lee Stephens of Shamrock, a volunteer member of the posse hunting Whiteard and his half-brother; murder with malice in connection with the killing of Whiteard's half-brother, Junior B. Myers, whom Whiteard shot when they became separated during the night; assault with intent to murder M. N. Nix, Shamrock city patrolman; and assault with intent to murder Luke Henley, Wheeler County deputy sheriff.

Whiteard will be arraigned at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in Wheeler and will be given an opportunity to plead either guilty or not guilty. Due to the nature of the case, Waters reported, he will have a jury trial even if he pleads guilty.

The date of the trial will be set following the arraignment tomorrow afternoon and Waters reported he expected the trial to take place sometime during the first part of January, 1957.

In returning the indictments yesterday the grand jury also recommended to the court that all officers' automobiles in Wheeler County be equipped with rifles in the future.

Waters reported that the recommendation resulted from the opinion that if the officers that originally stopped Whiteard and his half-brother had been equipped with rifles the all night search might have been unnecessary and the Stephens youth might not have been killed.

Convicts Dig Way To Freedom

ANGOLA, La. (UP) — Five convicts dug their way to freedom early today from Louisiana's Angola state penitentiary.

Warden Maurice Sigler said one of the five was recaptured on the 18,000-acre prison grounds. An instantaneous search by guards and bloodhounds centered near the Mississippi River on the prison's west boundary for the remaining four.

Sigler said the convicts, sometime between midnight and 1 a.m., knocked off an air vent from a close security barracks building.

They entered a corridor and ducked beneath a walkway which concealed them as they edged toward a fence. With two garden spades, they dug holes and crawled under the fence.

Robert C. Wallace, 26, serving 16 years for armed robbery and attempted aggravated escape from Orleans, was recaptured.

The other four are: Wallace McDonald, 28, serving five years for simple burglary; Glen L. Holiday, 40, serving 24 years on five counts of simple burglary; Vernon Roy Ingram, 21, serving five years for simple burglary and Frank Gann, 30, serving seven years for breaking jail and aggravated battery.

Hotel Workers In Effort To Wind Up Campaign

Workers in the campaign to sell stock in the proposed new community-owned hotel for Pampa are engaged in an all-out effort to sell a total of $800,000 in stock in the new, modern hotel for Pampa by Saturday.

Through yesterday, a total of $653,100 in stock subscriptions were reported and the workers have until 7 p.m. Saturday to sell the remaining amount, which is nearly $150,000.

Group managers of the Men's Section met this morning in the Pampa Hotel and discussed plans for the 12 groups in that section for the remainder of the campaign. The managers discussed the prospective subscribers that salesmen in each group would contact and the possibility of the Men's Section reaching the quota set for them.

At a later meeting this morning in the conference room of the Chamber of Commerce, the group managers of the Women's Section met to discuss plans for that section. They also discussed the quota to be reached by their groups and the possibility of reaching the goal. They also discussed the workers that would be available for the all-out effort needed to wind up the campaign.

The next report meeting for the executive committee and the general sales force of the hotel campaign will be at noon tomorrow in the Palm Room. This will be the last regular report meeting of the campaign.

The final meeting is scheduled for Saturday night at the Pampa Country Club and will be a victory dinner which will be paid for by Cabot Carner Company. Prior to the dinner, a social hour beginning at 6 p.m. will be furnished the campaign workers by Lynn Boyd Lumber Co., Cree Drilling Co., and the Cabot Shops.

The executive committee has set a goal of $75,000 in stock sales by members of that group by Saturday.

Divers Probe For Clues To Pier Explosion

By FREDERICK M. WINSHIP
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (UP)—Divers probe an underwater crater today for clues to the Brooklyn pier explosion that killed 10 persons.

Fire Commissioner Edward F. Cavanagh Jr. said a team of experts who examined the wreckage Tuesday concluded that the blast could not have been caused by any of the pier cargo listed on manifests.

Col. Joseph A. Petrolino, ordinance chief for first army headquarters, said the explosion was a "high-order detonation." He said the blast which tore a hole downward through 14 inches of asphalt and steel-reinforced concrete of the pier's deck had the force of two 4,000-pound World War II blockbuster bombs.

Gauges Out Crater
The explosion, which followed a fire, blasted a 75 by 100-foot hole in the reinforced pier and gouged a crater in the floor of New York bay, 35 feet under water.

The experts agreed that the highly flammable cargo known to have been on the dock — paint, shellac, celluloid, carbide and other combustibles — could not have produced the single, instantaneous blast which was felt 20 miles away.

Cavanagh hinted that the blast, which caused an estimated $15 million damage, might have been caused by an illegal shipment of mislabeled munitions or explosives.

New Uprising In Hungary Expected

By RUSSELL JONES
United Press Staff Correspondent
BUDAPEST (UP) — Russian tanks and armored cars roared through the rubble-strewn streets of Budapest today to block a defiant demonstration by Hungarian women. The women screamed and shook their fists at the Soviet troops.

The demonstration was the second demonstration of mourning for victims of the Hungarian revolt in as many days. It occurred on the eve of a mass movement that could touch off a new armed uprising here.

Fewer women turned out today than the 30,000 which defied Russia's night Tuesday, however, and there was no repetition of the Soviet gunfire that wounded one woman Tuesday.

Women Crack Cordon
The goal of today's mourners was Petoefi Square, where the October uprising against the Russians began. A few women, in groups of three or four, got through a Soviet armored cordon to lay flowers on the statue honoring a 19th-century patriot which gives the square its name.

The new spirit of revolt was fanned by realization that the Soviet-backed Janos Kadar regime had no intention of granting the key demands of the workers. Tension was running high and Western observers said Thursday could be a fateful day for Hungary.

Federal Roundup Is Expected In Clinton

By B. F. MIDDLEBROOKS
United Press Staff Correspondent
CLINTON, Tenn. (UP)—A mass federal roundup of segregationist trouble makers was expected to begin here today.

Clinton High School was closed Tuesday after segregationists beat a young white minister who escorted Negro students to the newly integrated school. Violence erupted again Tuesday night with a dynamite blast in a Negro neighborhood at nearby Oliver Springs.

In Washington, U.S. Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. warned that the government would prosecute "all persons" trying forcefully to prevent Negroes from attending Clinton High, the first state-supported school in Tennessee to attempt integration.

It was the strongest federal move yet to back up the U.S. Supreme Court's 1954 and 1955 school desegregation rulings. School authorities here received the action with obvious relief.

It was reported FBI agents had targeted as many as 18 persons for arrest by this afternoon in connection with organized molestation of the Negro students and attempts to intimidate their parents.

U.S. District Judge Robert L. Taylor at nearby Knoxville, was expected to act today on a request from federal Dist. Atty. John C. Crawford to order arrests. He took the request "under advisement" Tuesday night.

Police said three to five sticks of dynamite were tossed from a speeding car Tuesday night into the front yard of a white beer tavern operator, Owen Long, 32, at Oliver Springs. The blast tore a five-foot-wide hole and shattered two windows in the tavern. No one was reported hurt.

Oliver Springs was the scene of sympathy rioting in September during an outbreak of violence which brought National Guardsmen equipped with carbines and tanks to the Clinton High School.

Officials unlimbered a three-month-old injunction issued as a result of those riots, which permanently prohibits interference with court-ordered integration. Integration resulted in the enrollment of less than a dozen Negroes among 700 white children at the school.

The Anderson County (Clinton) School Board ordered Clinton High closed down indefinitely after an angry pro-segregationists beat the

Shivers Gives No Hint Of His Future

DALLAS (UP) — Gov. Allan Shivers gave no hint of his future Tuesday night when some 1,800 fellow Texans gathered to pay tribute to him at the Women's Building on the State Fair Grounds.

Present with Shivers at the $10-a-plate appreciation dinner were his wife, Marialice, his mother, Mrs. R. S. Shivers of Port Arthur, and his wife's mother, Mrs. John H. Shary of Mission.

Although he did not speak of plans after retiring from the governor's chair, Shivers said he hoped he would "always find a source for my energies in protecting our freedoms."

Ben H. Wooten, president of the First National Bank of Dallas, was the first of five speakers to eulogize Shivers who has been governor longer than any other.

"Our honored guest," Wooten said, "is Texas' exhibit No. 2. No. 1 is now on Pennsylvania Avenue. (White House)."

State Sen. Otis Locke of Lufkin said Shivers "made unequalled progress in government during his administration."

Supreme Court Justice Ruel Walker made the only remark that could be taken as political during the evening. After calling Shivers "one of the most notable men of history," Justice Walker expressed "regret that his governmental career, or at least one phase of his career, is finished."

Walker added: "I come to praise Shivers, not to bury him. That has been tried by some with considerable experience in the field of political interference and with a lack of success that was spectacular."

Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor University, called Shivers a "man of conviction, a man of courage, a man of companionship, and an outstanding churchman."

Mrs. Ovetta Culp Hobby, publisher of the Houston Post and former secretary of Health, Welfare and Education, praised Shivers' wife as a "great public official, fine mother," and as "one who has never shortchanged other phases of her life to fulfill her public duties."

Moslems, Iraq In Efforts To Stop Pro-West Premier

By DANIEL F. GILMORE
United Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON —UP— The Anglo-French invasion force began a mass withdrawal today from Egypt. The Moslem world turned to Iraq in an effort to force the downfall of pro-Western Premier Nouri El-Said.

Informed sources in Port Said said all of the 11,000 Anglo-French troops will leave Suez within two weeks. One big foreign colony in Port Said was showing signs of panic as anti-Western feelings increased.

British authorities said 2,500 of their troops would be removed during the day. The French were expected to be carrying out their withdrawal in a similar fashion.

British Show Distaste
British military authorities showed their distaste for the withdrawal by nicknaming it "Operation Harridan." Webster's defines harried as a worn out strumpet.

Egyptian troops were reported moving into the Sinai Desert between Israeli troops and Yugoslav armored forces of the United Nations Emergency Force. There was no explanation of the Egyptian troop movement.

Sheikh Abdel Rahman Tag, rector of the 1,000-year-old El Azhar University in Cairo, the principal theological institute in the Moslem world, called for action against Iraq.

Split Sharpens
His appeal climaxed an Egyptian press and radio campaign against the Iraqi government and sharpened the split in the Moslem Middle East.

It coincided with new alarms. A well-sourced report today from Ankara said the four Moslem members of the Baghdad anti-Communist Pact will meet again in Ankara later this month to plan joint strategy against the campaign. They are Iraq, Iran, Pakistan and Turkey. Britain is the fifth member of the pact, which has U.S. support.

The sheikh did not refer to Iraq by name in his appeal, but his reference to Iraq's Baghdad Pact alliance with Britain was obvious. He referred to "traitors" — the word the Arab nations have used in describing Nouri El-Said's dealings with the West.

Begin Ouster Move
Both Egypt and Syria have begun a campaign to oust Nouri El-Said. And Moscow radio has backed their claims that Iraq is in league with Israel, Turkey and Britain to overthrow the Communist-influenced Syrian government.

Old-Timers' Club In Second Meeting
The newly-organized Old-Timers' Club held its second meeting Tuesday afternoon in the Lovett Library, with Mrs. C. E. Vincent of Lefors, chairman, in charge.

Guest speaker was G. H. Peterson, extension director of the Adult Education program at Texas Technological College, Lubbock. He spoke on the early history of the Panhandle.

The club is sponsored by the Pampa Adult Education group, and members are persons who have resided in the area for 40 years or more.

It was decided to hold the next meeting the first Friday in March, in the library.

Oldest in residence attending the meeting were T. V. Lane and Mrs. J. F. Meers, both of whom came to the area in 1888. Other members present were Mrs. E. E. Gething, E. S. Carr, Mrs. Katie Vincent, Dr. and Mrs. W. Purviance, all of Pampa; Mrs. E. H. Shackleton and Mrs. H. H. Talley, both of Miami; and Mrs. Vincent of Lefors.

Guests were Mmes. Lillian Snow, Clifford Jones and R. B. Reckard.

UN Demands Consent To Send Observers To Hungary

By BRUCE W. MUNN
United Press Staff Correspondent
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UP)—The General Assembly demanded early today that Russia and Hungary consent by Friday to let United Nations observers onto Hungarian soil.

The assembly overwhelmingly adopted a 14-nation resolution containing the ultimatum as Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold waited for a reply from Budapest on his request to go to Hungary Dec. 16.

Hungarian Foreign Minister Imre Horvath relayed the request to his government after a 20-minute conference with Hammarskjold Tuesday night. He had hoped to get an immediate reply but when the General Assembly broke up at 1 a.m. EST today he still did not have it.

Advance Arrangements
Hammarskjold also asked Horvath for permission to send Philippe De Seynes, U.N. deputy under-secretary for economic and social affairs, to Budapest this Sunday to make advance arrangements for the secretary-general's visit.

The General Assembly resumes general debate today. Speakers listed were from Uruguay, Canada, Denmark, Israel, the Ukraine, Hungary, Britain, Guatemala and Syria.

The vote on the resolution, which the United States co-sponsored, was 54 to 10 with 14 abstentions.

The nine-nation Soviet bloc and Yugoslavia opposed it, India and 12 other Afro-Asian nations abstained and Finland joined them. South Africa was absent.

Horvath himself set the stage for

U. S. Turncoats Are Headed Home
HONG KONG (UP)—Two American turncoats, who chose Communism China over the United States six years ago, headed home by plane today.

Both Arlie Pate, 36, Carbonate, Ill., and Aaron Wilson, 23, Urania, La., said they were "happy" to be going home in time to spend Christmas with their families.

The two left aboard a commercial airliner (Northwest Airlines) for the west coast via Formosa and Tokyo. They are scheduled to arrive in Chicago Thursday at 10:40 a. m. est.

Lassie Series Ends For Season; Question On Next

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — On a sound stage today one of TV's biggest stars is acting out her last scenes for the season's current filmed TV series, but, as with many other series, what happens next fall?

This star was too busy putting her furry white chin on Tommy Rettig's knee to worry about the future, but the fate of the Lassie series is the $4,000-bone question around the set.

The four-footed TV star, otherwise known as Greer Garson with fur, will be on TV one way or another next fall, but her TV "family" might not be.

Jan Clayton, the mother in the CBS series, has asked for a release from the program so she can get out of house dresses and back into glamorous singing roles after filming for the 1956-57 "Lassie" show ends next month.

George Cleveland, the "gramps" of the story, has plans to act on other programs where he wouldn't be upstaged by any canine.

Tommy, now 14, would like to continue the show. But his voice is changing, he's beginning to shave and he couldn't play the boy-with-dog bit much longer.

Producer Jack Wrather won't decide until next spring as to Lassie's future — whether the dog (actually a he) will acquire a new TV family, or continue only with Tommy in more adult stories.

"Lassie is under contract for 17 more years so she'll be on TV somehow," said the dog's trainer, Rudd Weatherwax, while Lassie dozed at his side in a little dressing room on wheels.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Coleman and sons, Ross and Charley, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Long in Shamrock on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wedge and family, and Mrs. A. E. Imel left on Wednesday for Houston, where they will spend the Thanksgiving holidays in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burgen and children.

Mrs. Sam Lester was in Amarillo, Wednesday, to get her daughter, Joy, who is attending Amarillo Beauty college. They spent the holidays in Wellington with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chaney Sr. were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Chaney Jr. Mike Chaney returned to Madill, Okla., with his grandparents for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hoskins and sons, Donnie and Charles, spent the Thanksgiving holidays in the home of Mrs. Hoskins' mother, Mrs. H. Eddins in Durant, Okla. Mr. Hoskins will make a business trip to Arkansas and return for the family over the week end.

Mrs. Carlos Beck was in Floyd-dad this week to help her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Ivy, move to Pampa.

The Skelly Schafer club held a Thanksgiving supper in the Schafer club house on Saturday.

Mrs. Everett Crawford, Mrs. Clarence Hoskins, Mrs. Cecil Shipley and Mrs. R. C. Heaton attended a Christmas Decoration School in Panhandle recently. The school was under the direction of Mrs. Janie Fletcher, Carson County Home Demonstration Agent.

Jacoby On Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY

An unusual defensive play is shown in today's hand, contributed by Harry Goldwater, better known as a great tournament director rather than as a player.

West opened the deuce of hearts, and declarer played the ten from dummy. Goldwater played the four of hearts instead of covering dummy's ten with his jack. This seemingly innocent play had a far-reaching effect.

South liked the idea of winning the first trick cheaply, so he let dummy's ten of hearts hold. This was exactly what Goldwater had in mind when he refused to cover the ten of hearts.

When diamonds were led, Goldwater refused the first two tricks. He took the third diamond trick and returned a heart.

South could get one further heart attack with his ace, but he couldn't get to dummy for the rest of the diamonds. South therefore wound up with only eight tricks, losing his game contract.

There would be a different story to tell if East covered the ten of hearts with the jack at the first trick. South would win with the ace of hearts and go after the diamonds. Declarer would eventually have to lead one of the small hearts to dummy, and he would surely get to dummy with the queen and thus be able to cash the rest of the long diamonds.

Senior Citizens Meet Tomorrow

A game session will be held at the Senior Citizens Center at 2:30 p.m. Thursday in Lovett Memorial Library, it has been announced. The event will also be a party for those who had birthdays in November.

For those who do not play games, a discussion on Texas will be held, with each telling about the early days in Texas.

Hostess will be Mrs. Jack P. Foster, president of the Altrusa Club, which sponsors the Center. She will be assisted by other club members. The Center has meetings open to any senior citizen who is interested each Thursday at 2:30 p.m. in the Lovett Library, and transportation to and from the Center is provided by Altrusa.

Justice Department To Back Segregation Law

WASHINGTON (UP)—The federal government stands ready to arrest and prosecute segregationists who interfere with racial integration in public schools in defiance of court orders barring such interference.

Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. made this clear last night in announcing that the Justice Department will act against "all persons" who have tried willfully to block integration in violence - torn Clinton, Tenn.

The Justice Department move was its strongest yet to back up the Supreme Court ruling which paved the way for school integration.

The department previously joined a court suit to prevent interference with integration at Hoxie, Ark. But the Clinton situation was the first time it moved on a broad scale against segregationists trying to prevent integration by violence.

In a telegram Brownell's promise of government action against the segregationists was contained in a telegram to the school board of Anderson County, Tenn., where Clinton is located.

The board appealed to him earlier for help, calling it the "height of absurdity" for the federal government to assume that enforcement of court-ordered integration is a local problem.

Brownell replied that the board was "under a misapprehension" if it thought the Justice Department did not intend to act against those violating the injunction issued by federal Judge Robert L. Taylor.

He said that at Taylor's request the FBI had conducted an investigation and would bring before Taylor those who had violated the injunction.

Calling it "Duty" "The Department of Justice," Brownell said, "has a duty to assist the federal courts by apprehending and prosecuting those responsible for willful violation of court orders, and the department will continue to discharge its duties."

Brownell reminded the board, however, that the responsibility of protecting the Negroes attending Clinton High and of maintaining order in the town is one which "rests upon state and local authorities rather than upon the federal government."

President Eisenhower has urged that school integration problems be handled on a local or state basis "to the greatest extent possible."

Heavy Fighting Is Indicated In Cuba Uprising

HAVANA (UP)—Army troops battled revolutionary forces today in the crags and ravines of the Sierra Maestra Mountains of Oriente Province in eastern Cuba.

Fragmentary reports indicated fighting was heavy. Both sides were reported to have suffered casualties.

Army authorities appealed to nearby civilian officials to rush emergency medical supplies, doctors and ambulances to the scene about eight miles from the port town of Niquero.

The Rebels are believed to be members of the force which invaded Cuba from the sea Sunday at an isolated beach between Niaguero and Manzanillo. Some 40 rebels were reported killed by straggling Cuban warplanes during the debarcation. Others escaped into the foothills of the Sierra Maestras.

Jane Talk

By JANE KADINGO
Pampa News Women's Editor

THERE IS AN OLD SUPERSTITION that says if you give your wife or girl friend a new handbag for Christmas and eat black-eyed peas on New Year's Day you'll grow rich during the year that follows. Be that as it may, any woman will be delighted to find a new leather handbag with her name on the gift tag.

FOR LATE-DAY occasions are sleek black suede leather bags with frames of gold or silver filigree, or self-overlaid frames with jeweled clips. For the resort-bound, there are extra-soft, extra-supple bags in glove or kid leather in light, muted tones such as amethyst, wisteria or mauve pink.

Daytime styles are just as elegant and offer an even wider choice. Among the rich leather textures available are broadtail kid, especially new in the blond and grey tones - a soft, grainy calf. Ostrich and the new soft alligator in natural and beige tones will provide a luxury no woman will forget. The beloved black suede leather bag looks brand new this year combined with textured leathers.

The new off-beat colors such as curry, saffron, mustard or ochre are more fashionable than the vivid hues and go with more costumes. If you want to give her a bag for the next season, grey will be a leading accessory color this spring and is particularly lovely with silver trim. The beige will also be popular.

Whatever bag size or shape you choose, make it simple, slim and geometric. Fancy rectangle of rich-looking leather with an accent of gold or contrasting leather will confirm her opinion of your good taste.

No matter how flat a woman's budget after the big Christmas splurge, the elegance of a new leather bag will make her feel rich, and perhaps that's the source of the superstition.

LOOKING for ways to support your favorite charity or to bolster your club treasury? Nothing is easier to make and to sell than fluffy, white strings of popcorn for an old-fashioned Christmas tree decoration!

Just string popped corn on nylon thread, wind string around shirt cardboards and seal in cellophane. For a novel twist, spray the popcorn with dye, food coloring or paint to harmonize with one-color trees - or spray it with "sparkle" to make it glitter under the Christmas tree lights.

Popcorn strings will stay fresh-looking for years if they are packed away in boxes or tins after the tree comes down. Because popcorn is inexpensive and expands in popping to more than thirty times its original size, the strings can be sold at a very reasonable price and yet provide an excellent profit margin for the organization which sells them.

PTA's City Council Has Business Meet
Mrs. L. L. Milliren, president, led the meeting Tuesday morning of the Parent-Teacher Association's city council in the Junior High School library.
Mrs. James Lewis reported on the state convention, held recently in Amarillo. It was decided that the council will participate in the Mothers' March of Dimes in January.
Mrs. Milliren reported on a joint meeting of PTA units, to be held in January, with the program to include a play by the Pampa Little Theater group.
Attending were Meses. L. L. Milliren, Kirk Duncan, B. E. Tidwell, R. A. Mack, James E. Lewis, A. L. Smiley, H. H. Hahn, James W. Cunningham, Siler Hopkins, J. H. Trotter, Floyd Barrett, T. C. Owen, Elmer Carnell, T. J. Worrill, W. M. Leonard, Jim Conner, George Smith, Warren Woodard and Messrs. Jack Nichols, Sam Bogert, Homer Craig and H. A. Yoder.

After-dinner coffee is not just regular coffee served in small cups. It's Italian coffee, made black and strong in a drip coffeemaker. That's the idea of the small cups; most Americans don't like to drink a lot of it. One cup is ideal to finish off a good dinner.

Canadian's WCTU Schedules Bazaar

CANADIAN - (Special) - The 49th annual WCTU bazaar will be held in Canadian Friday and Saturday in the WCTU Building, Mrs. John Jones, president, has announced.

"Since the building was erected, members of the WCTU have financed the upkeep of the building and of the public library through proceeds from the annual bazaar," Mrs. Jones said.

The two-day bazaar, which features traditional booths offering fancy work, aprons, and preserved foods - plus turkey dinners, served family-style twice each day, has become a traditional event in Canadian, opening the Christmas season each year.

Mrs. Jones this week announced appointment of committees to handle the details of the bazaar.

Mrs. E.S.F. Brainard and Mrs. Frank McMordie will be in charge of downtown solicitations; Mrs. Dan Witt and Mrs. Gladie Yokley, dining room; and Mrs. Roy Sheets and Mrs. Furman Williams, kitchen.

Others assisting will be the Canadian Women's Club, apron booth, with Mrs. E. H. Morris, president, in charge; Meses. E. S. F. Brainard, Frank McMordie and John Isaacs, fancy-work booth; PEO Sisterhood, library booth, with Mrs. Ruth Snyder, president, in charge; ESA sorority, delicacies booth, under the direction of Mrs. Glen Bill Walker, president.

Mrs. Jones announced that any food for the bazaar should be delivered to the WCTU building Friday morning.

Partners In Crime

In any business or social partnership, the actions of each partner reflect favorably or unfavorably upon all other partners. This is inevitable.

When two or more are joined in mutual endeavor, the endeavor itself is known by the merits or the demerits of each and every partner to the act.

And as we recollect this truth, we should recoil in horror. For in this year of violence and predation about the earth, the United States of America is a partner in an unholy and bloody alliance. We are brother to the Soviet by means of the United Nations.

Are you pleased with the recent actions of the Soviet Union? There are few who profess to be civilized who can express any degree of pleasure.

Were you happy when the Kremlin egged on the Egyptian dictator with promises of aid until he fell upon the Suez canal and thus lit the fuse for a political explosion in the Middle East?

Were you pleased when armored columns, emblazoned with the red star, rumbled into Budapest to blast open the homes and public buildings of a populace half mad with grief and fear?

Did you rejoice when Soviet armed men gunned down innocent victims of their craze for power, flogged them and left them lying in the cold, the blood frozen on their backs?

Do you rejoice as Russian zealots scheme on getting more troops into Egypt so that World War III can yet erupt?

Do you approve? You cannot!

Well, your government is in partnership with the villains of these acts. Our politicians' hands are red from shaking filthy paws dripping with the gore of innocents. Do you condone this?

Then, how does it happen that you are not speaking up?

For before the eyes of all the world, we share our partner's guilt. If Russia has lusted for power and used the United Nations to her purpose, then we are guilty. For in the United Nations we are Russia's partner in her crime.

If Russia has loosed her trained murderers upon a virtually defenseless populace in Budapest, then we are guilty. For in the United Nations we share Russia's acts for better or for worse.

If Russia plots now to unleash the four horsemen of the Apocalypse that they may ride rough-shod over all the earth, then we plot with them. For it is in this criminal conspiracy called the United Nations that these actions are born, nurtured and mature with nothing but our verbal protests to block the dreadful deeds.

Has Russia done wrong? By the very charter of the U. N. itself, Russia stands condemned. But what does the U. N. do about it? Is there any move to oust the villains? There is not.

The United Nations is a fearful place. It has no moral strength, no courage, no resources under fire. Its sole preoccupation is in keeping members.

Never mind what the members do. Just keep them happy in the U. N. Are they black scoundrels without a shred of decency? Never mind. Just keep them dues-paying members in the U. N. Do they plot to rule the world? Well, so what? Isn't the United Nations itself the working apparatus for such a global scheme? How can it censor Russia with clean conscience when it, and all its members, are partners in the same mad, unclean ambition?

Do you remember Korea? Who fought there on either side, save U. N. members and bloody Mao?

Do you remember the holocaust in Indonesia? Who fought there save U. N. members? In embattled Egypt there are four members in good standing, three against one.

And into Hungary — a member in good standing — march the legions of another member in good standing, Russia.

And, we say, in all these cases, the United States of America shares the guilt. For we are partners... we have aided and abetted the entire scheme, for we are up to our ears in global stratagems, as full partners in good standing.

How long must this go on? Is the United Nations so sacred that it must condone anything in order to hold its membership? What value is any kind of debating society which opens its membership roles to the very criminals it pretends to debate against?

We should never have permitted ourselves to be drawn into this un-American presidium. But now our course is clear. Let us serve notice on the U. N. that Russia's membership shall be revoked at once. If the U. N. fails to oust the reds, then, in common decency, let us get out of the U. N.

Competition

I have been quoting for several days from Frederic Bastiat's book, "Harmonies of Political Economy," from his chapter on "Competition."

It was from Bastiat I first learned that in producing wealth the gain of one was the gain of all.

I also learned from Bastiat that the government should never do anything that was wrong for an individual to do. In other words, that there was one standard of morality for the government and for the individual.

Bastiat explains these truths better than any other writer I have ever found.

This is the last installment of his chapter on "Competition." "Political Economy, we must say, has not yet exerted herself sufficiently to dissipate this fatal illusion, which has been the source of so much heartburning, calamity, and irritation, and of so many wars. This science, from a preference not very philosophical, has exhausted her efforts in analyzing the phenomena of production. The very nomenclature of the science, in fact, is evidence that it is not in harmony with its object. Agriculture, manufactures, commerce, may be an excellent classification, when the object is to describe the processes of art; but that description, however essential in technology, has little connection with social economy: I should even say that it is positively dangerous. When we have classed men as agriculturists, manufacturers, and merchants, or what can we speak but of their class interests, of those special interests to which Competition is antagonistic, and which are placed in opposition to the general good? It is not for the sake of agriculturists that agriculture exists, of manufacturers that we have manufactures, or of merchants that we have exchanges, but in order that men should have at their disposal the greatest amount of commodities of every kind. Consumption, its laws, what favors it, and renders it equitable and moral - that is the interest which is truly social, and which truly affects the human race. It is the interest of the consumer which constitutes the real object of Political Economy, and upon which the science should concentrate its clearest light. This, in truth, forms the bond which unites all classes, nations, races - it is the principle and explanation of human fraternity. It is with regret, then, that we see Economists expending their talents and sagacity on the anatomy of production, and throwing into the tag-end of their books, or into supplementary chapters, a few common-places on the phenomena of consumption. Have we not even seen a justly celebrated professor suppressing entirely that branch of the science, confining himself to the means, without ever speaking of the result, and banishing from his course everything in connection with the consumption of wealth, as pertaining, in his opinion, to morals rather than to Political Economy? Can we be surprised that men are more struck with the inconveniences of Competition than with its advantages, since the former affect them specially as producers, - in which character they are constantly considered and talked of; while the latter affect them only in their capacity of consumers, - a capacity which is altogether disregarded and overlooked?

"I repeat that I do not deny or ignore, on the contrary, I deplore as much as any one can, the sufferings attendant on Competition: but is this any reason for shutting our eyes to its advantages? And it is all the more consoling to observe these advantages, inasmuch as I believe Competition, like all the great laws of nature, to be indestructible. Had it been otherwise, it would assuredly have succumbed to the universal resistance which all the men who have ever co-operated in the production of commodities since the beginning of the world have offered to it, and more especially it would have perished under the leave in mass of our modern reformers. But if they have been foolish enough to attempt its destruction, they have not been strong enough to effect it.

"And what progressive principle, I would ask, is to be found in the world, the beneficent action of which is not mingled, especially in the beginning, with suffering and misery? The massing together of human beings in the vast agglomerations is favorable to boldness and independence of thought, but it frequently sets private life free from the wholesome restraint of public opinion, and gives shelter to debauchery and crime. Wealth and leisure unfettered give birth to mental cultivation, but they also give birth to pride and luxury among the rich, and to irritation and covetousness among the poor. The art of printing brings home knowledge and truth to all ranks of society; but it has brought also afflicting doubt and subversive error. Political liberty has unchained tempests and revolutions, and has modified the simple manners of primitive nations, to such a degree as to induce thinking men to ask themselves whether they would not have preferred tranquility under the cold shade of despotism. Christianity herself has cast the noble seed of love and charity into a soil saturated with the blood of martyrs.

"Why has it entered into the designs of Infinite Goodness and Justice that the happiness of one region or of one era should be purchased at the expense of the whole? whose religious belief is at odds with mine that they must tolerate the proposition that Jesus Christ is a divine savior, the only begotten Son of God the Father Almighty, conceived by the Holy Ghost and born of the Virgin Mary. They can believe as they please. But if they believe otherwise they cannot honestly "tolerate" my belief and it is no compulsion to me or my faith if they do. My Lord does not need and could not profit by any such hypocritical compromise with the first principle of the Christian religion.

"This saloon - keeper then says "tolerance is the generosity which concedes to others the right to their opinion and their own peculiarities." This is clap-trap and insidious because it is widely believed by lazy - minded people who thus are brain - washed of an important fact. I concede to others the right to hold erroneous opinions only as a political convenience. Not as a moral or spiritual act of generosity. Actually, as a Christian, I ought to exert myself to guide them aright for the good of their souls and mine. But religion is a great taboo among the most sanctimonious and ignorant nation of curb - stone theologians in the world so the only result of much evangelical mischief would be violent outbreaks of laudable but disorderly intolerance.

I do not know exactly what this wall - motto philosopher means by "peculiarities," but I have some in mind. One is the organized suppression of the true reasons why our glorious Western Republic is in desperate peril today. This intolerant suppression is ordered by political - religious quacks who damn truth as bigotry. That is a "peculiar" which we now "tolerate" only at ungodly risk to religion and our intellectual and political freedom.

This essay is an intolerable statement of painful truths which have been outlawed from public expression outside religious congregations by unauthorized, unseen, intolerant enemies of the precious virtues which they profess to venerate.

In the second place, tolerance is not necessarily a virtue as a few seconds of honest reflection will remind any intelligent person. There are millions of human beings whose beliefs millions of other human beings can "tolerate" only at the sacrifice of their own most sacred principles.

I do not go around telling people sufferings of another region or of another era? What is the Divine purpose which is concealed under this great law of solidarity, of which Competition is only one of the mysterious aspects? Human science cannot answer. What we do know is this, that good always goes on increasing, and that evil goes on diminishing. From the beginning of the social state, such as conquest had made it, when there existed only masters and slaves, and the inequality of conditions was extreme, the work of competition in approximating ranks, fortunes, intelligences, could not be accomplished without inflicting individual hardships, the intensity of which, however, as the work proceeded, has gone on diminishing, like the vibrations of sound and the oscillations of the pendulum. To the sufferings yet in reserve for them, men learn every day to oppose two powerful remedies - namely, foresight, which is the fruit of knowledge and experience; and association, which is organized foresight."

The Mercantile Festival Of Christmas And Brotherhood

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

That same old line is starting again about the synonymous meaning of Christmas and brotherhood. This is a little discussion to set the record straight. Christmas does not mean brotherhood and this recurring propaganda is very offensive to persons who celebrate Christmas as the feast of the nativity of Jesus Christ, our Lord, and a Holy day of great solemnity although it has been widely and deeply debauched into a mercantile festival and orgy attended by drunkenness.

It is an important and possibly deplorable fact that our retail commerce relies on a materialistic Christmas "spirit" as a major factor in the year's trade. That is as much the fault of those who adore or profess to adore Jesus Christ as to persons who worship other deities or none at all. Such persons are called Christians, but the term is loosely applied to millions of unworthy individuals whose contacts with Christianity occur only at baptism, when they are married and finally when they are buried.

There is no other occasion in the holy calendar of any other religion which has the commercial importance of Christmas. Christians may reasonably ask themselves whether or the others have not maintained a more decent respect for their holy days.

One of the reminders of this issue which has come under my sensitive observation recently is a trashy, impudent lecture printed as a supplement to the menu of an ordinary public restaurant. This epistle presumes to admonish me that Christmas means tolerance and that tolerance is the most lovable human quality. In first place, countless Christians reject the counsel of hashers and rum - sellers on theological and moral problems. So this gratuitous advice is an offensive imposition on our tolerance.

In the second place, tolerance is not necessarily a virtue as a few seconds of honest reflection will remind any intelligent person. There are millions of human beings whose beliefs millions of other human beings can "tolerate" only at the sacrifice of their own most sacred principles.

I do not go around telling people sufferings of another region or of another era? What is the Divine purpose which is concealed under this great law of solidarity, of which Competition is only one of the mysterious aspects? Human science cannot answer. CLEAR BLUEPRINT
(Industrial News Review)

Some weeks before election day, the Citizens Committee for the Hoover Report sent kits of research materials to Senate and House candidates of both parties.

It is to be hoped that those who have been elected to office will study this material with care. The recommendations, if all are followed, would save an estimated $5 billion a year, and some put the figure much higher. They constitute the clearest blueprint for increased efficiency and economy in the federal government ever made.

Frankfurter In Sharp Disagreement With Ike

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON - Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter, erstwhile New Deal "brain trustler," has expressed sharp disagreement with President Eisenhower's standards for qualifications of future members of the nation's highest tribunal.

The former Harvard professor's views, although generally unnoticed by laymen, have caused a stir in legal and judicial circles. His challenge to President Eisenhower has led to an unofficial study of the bench performance of the contrasting Eisenhower and Frankfurter type of Federal jurists. Although it depends on the viewpoint, the White House wins by the comparison.

Justice Frankfurter, who leaped from a university law school classroom to the Supreme Court as a reward for his services to F.D.R., does not believe that a Supreme Court member should have had previous apprenticeship on a Federal or State court.

President Eisenhower, apparently in an attempt to upset the Roosevelt - Truman tradition of naming political favorites and liberal ideologists, has declared publicly in favor of men who have enjoyed previous experience in the Federal judiciary or on the highest court of a state.

But writing a eulogy in a recent New York Times magazine section to the late Justice Louis Brandeis on the 100th anniversary of the latter's birth, Frankfurter takes clear issue with Ike's position. As evidence of his attitude, Frankfurter cites the brilliant career of Justice Brandeis, and, inferentially, of his own performance on the top bench.

Frankfurter also notes a characteristic of appointees like himself which is recognized by judges everywhere, but which few care to admit to publicly. It is that they cannot submerge their social, economic or political philosophy - In short, their pre-court coloration - and stick to the law and precedents in their decisions. Frankfurter has frequently been criticized in this respect.

A survey of Justice Frankfurter's Supreme Court activities, and this observation applies generally to many judicially inexperienced appointees, shows that they have several traits in common.

For one thing, they have less respect and regard for the validity of laws enacted by Congress and the State Legislatures. They are more inclined to favor a strong and dominant Federal Government, with less consideration for the rights of individuals and the states.

In cases where a Supreme Court majority of only five have upset decisions by a larger number of judges on lower courts, Frankfurter has lined up with the overriding majority nine times. Only Justice Stanley Reed, another political selection, had, with ten, more dissents with lower courts.

Ironically, for a Roosevelt New Dealer, Frankfurter also has a poor record in litigation involving civil rights. He stands fifth lowest in that regard. With the exception of former Justice Sherman Minton, the others who had a poorer record in this respect than Frankfurter had enjoyed no previous service on the bench.

Ike's two selections - Justices John Harlan and William J. Brennan - should serve to offset the Frankfurter influence. Both had previous judicial experience, and both have greater respect for laws, precedents and the reserved rights of citizens and the states.

New Twist - No Time For Sewing Machines

By HENRY McLEMORE

MANNHEIM, GERMANY - Otis McKinney of Starke, Florida, 37, two-time winner of the Silver Star in Korea, fifth from the oldest in a family of twenty-one children, and a sergeant in the United States Army, is not going to have another portable sewing machine in his house if he never sews another stitch.

I found this out today on an automobile trip with Otis, who is now a driver for USAREUR Headquarters. I didn't find it out right away, though. I had been driving for an hour, and Otis hadn't said a word, when Mary mentioned something about portable sewing machines.

This broke Otis' silence. "They're an eyesore," he exclaimed, never turning his head. "Women like 'em, though," I said.

"Yeah, they do," Otis said, steering the army sedan past a big van. "My wife wants a new one for Christmas, but if she gets anything, she'll get the cabinet kind. Those portables are an eyesore. I'd rather give up sewing than have another around."

"Do you sew, Sergeant?" Mary asked. "All the time. When I first got married my mother gave me a machine, and I spent a week looking for a pattern. Finally, I said I'd make her a dress. So I sat down and sewed her a good one. Since then I have made all the kids' overalls and things like that. And I tailor all my own uniforms."

"Can you cook?" I asked. "I bake a lot better than my wife," Otis answered. "She's pretty good, but I'm better. I'm always turning out bread and rolls. I cook faster than my wife, too. I'm not saying her cooking isn't good. I just think mine is better."

"What about fancy dishes?" Mary asked. "I know plenty of 'em," the Sergeant said, "but I don't like many of 'em. I don't reckon there is anything I can't cook if I set my mind to it."

I wanted to know how he got started on cooking and sewing. "When there's as many kids in a family as there is in mine, you have to learn to rustle for yourself pretty good. There's twenty - one of us. Nineteen boys. My old man sure wanted to be sure the McKinneys didn't die out in Florida, didn't he?"

I asked the Sergeant about his ribbons. "Got 'em in Korea," he said. "Eighth Regiment, First Cavalry, Dog Company. Heavy weapons."

"Mind telling me about the Silver Star?" I asked. "NA, sir, not particular. Got it in 1950. I believe. Got most of my stomach shot away. Half of what's left is caught, if you know what I mean."

"Bother you much?" "Sometimes. And I hafta be pretty careful how I eat."

The Sergeant got his Silver Star when his position was overrun, and with it the communications jeep that had all the artillery controls, air support controls, and the one connection with Division Headquarters.

The vital jeep had been abandoned in a small village, surrounded by Red Chinese, and the Sergeant volunteered to return to get it.

He crawled 800 yards in a ditch under fire, and then sprinted for the jeep. He was hit just as he got in, but he cracked it up and headed back for the American lines. He was seriously wounded on the way, but stayed at the wheel and made it home.

"Sounds as if you might have gotten something higher than a Silver Star," I said.

"Well, I was recommended for more, and some officers are still working to get it boosted, but I'm satisfied. I got back, and the jeep got back, and that's what matters."

"Do you sew, Sergeant?" Mary asked. "All the time. When I first got married my mother gave me a machine, and I spent a week looking for a pattern. Finally, I said I'd make her a dress. So I sat down and sewed her a good one. Since then I have made all the kids' overalls and things like that. And I tailor all my own uniforms."

"Can you cook?" I asked. "I bake a lot better than my wife," Otis answered. "She's pretty good, but I'm better. I'm always turning out bread and rolls. I cook faster than my wife, too. I'm not saying her cooking isn't good. I just think mine is better."

Phone Call Frightens Stranger
SUNLAND, Calif. (UP)—Grant L. Gould was warned over the phone Monday, "you're about to be robbed." A stranger soon appeared at the door, told Gould his car had broken down and asked to use the phone. "Sure," said Gould. "Funny thing, but I've just been warned that I'm about to be robbed." Gould told police the stranger turned pale and fled.

Truck Driver Cremated
LA GRANGE (UP)—A 37-year old Houston oil truck driver was burned to death on U. S. 71 Monday when his big fuel-laden truck overturned in a ditch. The driver, Don Harper, was cremated by the intense flames.

Kansas Atop UP Pre-Season Poll

NEW YORK (UP)—In an amazing tribute to a basketball player who had yet to appear in his first college game, the United Press Board of Coaches today chose Kansas, with Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, as the No. 1 team in the pre-season national ratings.

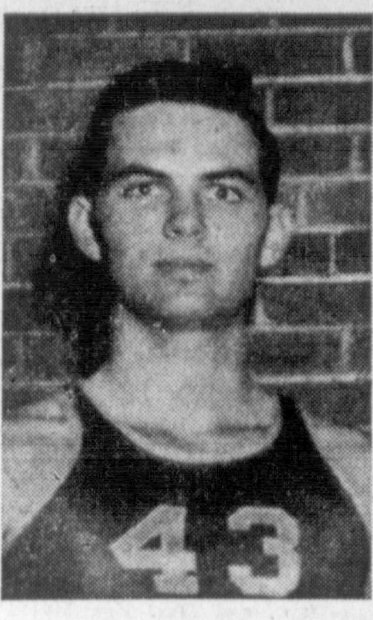

Louisville, winner of last year's National Invitation Tournament and still boasting 6-8 star Charley Tyra at center, was picked second in the ballots and North Carolina nosed out Illinois for the third spot.

The board, made up of 35 outstanding coaches whose ratings have become accepted as a standard in the game, thus put an unqualified stamp of approval on Chamberlain, the seven-foot Philadelphia who is so good that a professional team drafted him while he was still in high school.

The coaches cast their ballots before any games had been played this season—before Chamberlain made his brilliant varsity debut Monday night by setting school records of 52 points and 31 rebounds in an 87-69 rout of Northwestern.

Cardinals Close Second

With points awarded for each ballot on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for votes from first place to 10th, Kansas received 298 points out of a possible total of 350. Louisville was a close second with 279, a good margin over North Carolina's 196 and Illinois' 171. Southern Methodist, defending Southwest Conference king, rounded out the top five with 150 points.

Dayton, runner-up in last year's NIT, nabbed sixth place as the only other squad to top the century mark in points with 103. Temple took seventh place as San Francisco, national champion for the last two years, sank to No. 8 with the graduation of All-American Bill Russell and K.C. Jones. St. Louis was a close ninth and Western Kentucky edged into the top 10.

Harvesters Topple Phillips, 83-64

Take Third Cage Win Of Season

By DICK COLLINS
Pampa News Sports Editor

PHILLIPS — Pampa met its first big threat of the basketball season here Tuesday night and passed the test with flying colors as the Harvesters rolled to an impressive 83-64 victory over the tough Phillips Blackhawks.

The Harvesters, who have had two easy victories over Childress and Vernon as starters, had to play heads-up basketball to beat the Class AA state finalists who are destined to go places in Class AAA this year.

Pampa led all of the way in taking its third win of the season. The Harvesters jumped into a 6-0 lead in the early minutes on field goals by Bill Brown and Tommy Gindorf and free tosses by Jerry Pope and Gindorf and increased the lead to 21 points midway of the fourth but the willing Blackhawks fought back to narrow the bulge in the closing minutes. The game was close most of the way.

Coach Clifton McNeely's Harvesters, who have been all offense and no defense in the two prior games chiefly because they had such lopsided victory margins defense posed no problem. But against the Blackhawks the Harvesters kept the opponents off balance in trying to carry out the patterns. Gindorf, 6-6 senior center, was the top rebound maker for the game while Pope, Dickie Mauldin, Sam Condo, Carroll Cole and Brown were highly successful in the field goal department.

The Harvesters, who had been hitting over 30 percent of their field goal attempts, could make only 34 of 76 shots for a .447 average which is good considering the Blackhawks' comparable defense. Pampa also hit 15 of 21 free throws which is better than in previous games.

Co-captain Pope paced the winners with 21 points on seven field goals and seven free throws. He was 80 percent accurate in the field goal department while capping seven of nine gratis shots. Gindorf, who made several fine rebound lay-ins, had 13 points while Brown and Mauldin each had 12. Cole, who came into the game with two minutes left in the third quarter, hit from every angle to toss in 11 points, Cole, who had been ill for two days, made four of seven field goals and three free throws.

Big David Bennetfield tossed in 23 points to pace Phillips while teammate Tommy Newman had 16. Only the five starters got in the scoring column. Danny Gaines had 10, Milton Hoff made 12, 10 of them on free throws, and Ralph Smith had three. The loss was the second in as many games for Phillips. Both have been to Class AAAA schools, Pampa and Palo Duro.

Coach Terry Culley's Shockers made an even bigger dent in the scoring columns as they rolled to an easy 106-52 victory over Phillips' B team. It was also the Shockers' third win. They have amassed 236 points to their opponents 104 in three games.

Big Mac Layne led the Shockers with 27 points while Bobby Gindorf had 17 for the winners; Coyle Winborn dumped in the Shockers' 100th point. Bill Ponder led the Phillips team with 13.

Cage Roundup Tarheel Ace Setting ACC Courts Afire

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press Sports Writer

Lennie Rosenbluth, a 6-6 forward who learned his basketball in New York and perfected it at the University of North Carolina, set two school scoring records Tuesday night as a warning to Atlantic Coast Conference rivals.

Rosenbluth, called "the finest player I've ever coached" by North Carolina's Frank McGuire, scored 47 points to spark a 90-66 victory over Furman in a non-conference game. He broke the one-game school record of 45 points which he shared with George Glogmack of the 1941 team and sank 20 field goals to better the mark of 19 he set last year.

Rosenbluth ranked sixth among the nation's scorers last season with a 26.7-point average. He established the new North Carolina marks in spectacular fashion, sinking a 30-foot one-hander with just 50 seconds left in the game to snap both old records.

NCS Whips Wake Forest
North Carolina State, defending Atlantic Coast Conference champion and main barrier North Carolina must face, whipped Wake Forest in a league contest, 73-63.

John Richter, a sophomore forward, and Bob Seitz, a 6-11 center, led Coach Everett Case's North Carolina State team to victory. Wake Forest held a 27-22 halftime lead but Richter pulled his team even with a goal and followed with four free throws and another goal to put the Wolfpack in front to stay. Seitz dominated the backboards and scored 13 points in the second half to keep the rally rolling.

Indiana, warming up for the Big Ten race, also had to come from behind to defeat Valparaiso, 64-57. The losers had a 40-37 lead when Archie Dees sank a shot and Pete Obrensky followed with a lay-up to give Indiana a 41-40 lead and Valparaiso never caught up. Dees sank 12 of 12 free throws.

Vanderbilt Crushes Sewanee
Vanderbilt, ranked 10th in the country last season, crushed Sewanee 87-45. Al Rochelle and Don Bates, Vanderbilt guards, scored 22 and 20 points, respectively.

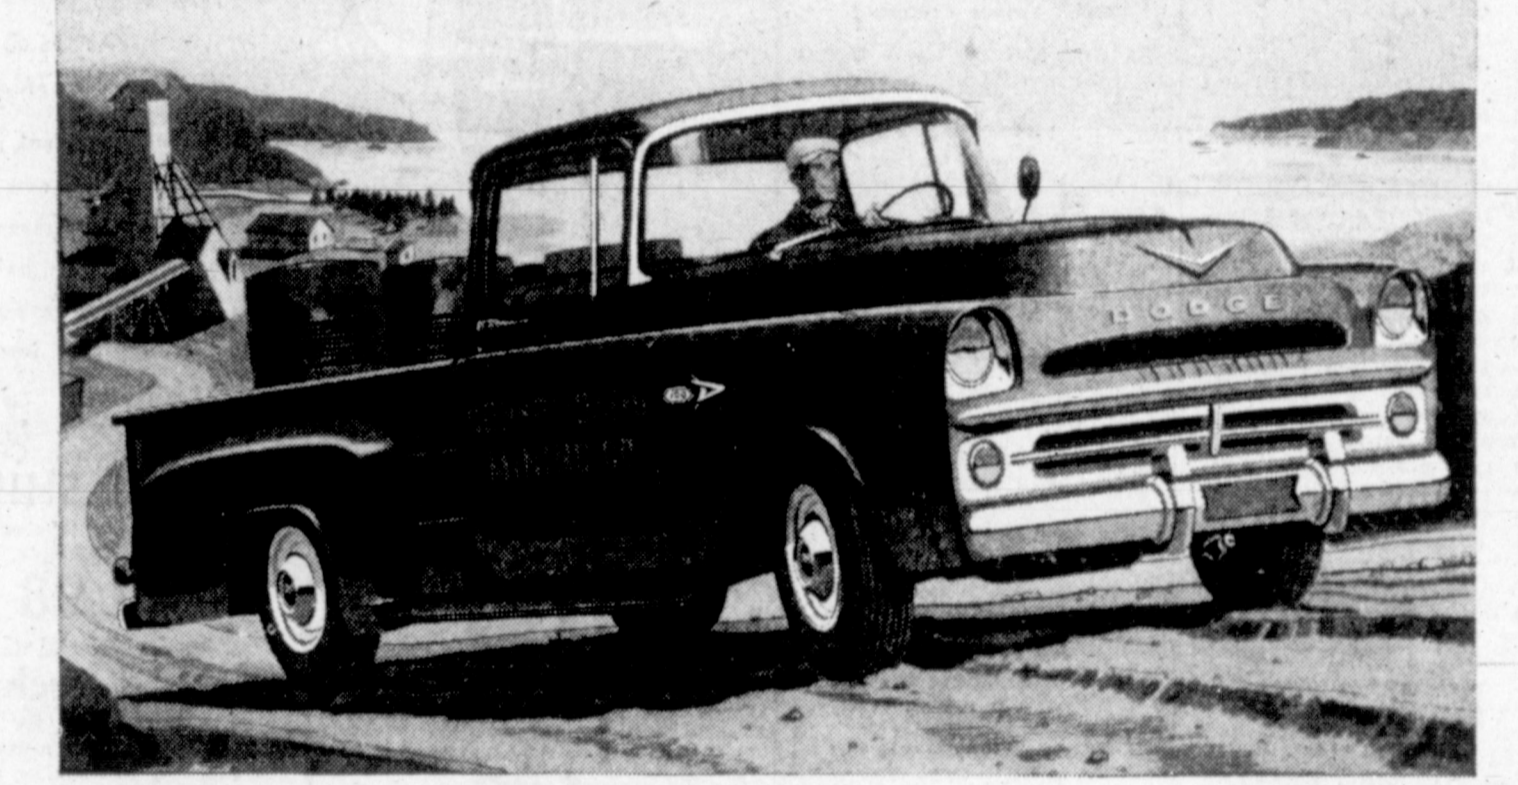

Irish Paul Hornung Wins Heisman Trophy

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UP)—Paul Hornung couldn't believe he had won the Heisman Trophy, symbolic of the nation's top college football player, because "I thought they were kidding me."

"I didn't actually think I had a chance for it in the first place," he said. "Like sometimes when you're playing a game, after it's over you know whether you played well or not."

of my life to win it. I don't think I ever received an honor which equalled this for myself or my family."

Hornung, a 20-year-old blond formation quarterback from Louisville, Ky., won the trophy with 1,066 points against 994 for Johnny Majors of Tennessee and 973 for Tomney McDonald of Oklahoma. His victory was by the narrowest margin ever in the history of the 22-year-old trophy.

TICKETS FOR THE NEW YEAR'S DAY Cotton Bowl game matching Texas Christian University and Syracuse are still available at the present but you will have to hurry to be able to get them. The Southwest Athletic Conference office announced today that an estimated 3,000 reserved tickets are on sale and will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis.

Two extra tickets were made available when Syracuse was named to play TCU in the Dallas contest. Because of the geographical location of Syracuse it is not expected that as many Syracuse fans will attend the game, thus that eastern school's ticket allotment has been cut. Tickets are $5.50 each and each order must include 25 cents for mailing fee. Mail checks to the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association, National City Building, Dallas, Texas. And for you fans who can not get tickets and would like to take a chance there are usually plenty of tickets floating around the hotel lobbies of the Baker and Adolphus before game time. Many sellers try to scalp tickets but most of those who have duceats to sell are those who ordered too many because they could get them or they are trying to peddle tickets for someone who could not make the trip.

HERE'S THE BOWL LINEUP for Jan. 1: Cotton Bowl, TCU vs. Syracuse; Sugar Bowl, Tennessee vs. Baylor; Orange Bowl, Clemson vs. Colorado; Gator Bowl, Pittsburgh vs. Georgia Tech; Rose Bowl, Oregon State vs. Iowa; Sun Bowl, Texas Western vs. George Washington; and Tangerine Bowl, West Texas State vs. Mississippi Southern. Tennessee will carry the only unbeaten record into the New Year's Day bowl attractions. The Vols, led by Paul Bryant, have won 10 games this season. TCU has the best record with a 7-3 mark all eight three, Oregon State, Colorado and Pittsburgh, have lost two and tied one.

U.S. Swimmers Win Olympic Medals

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor

MELBOURNE (UP)—Shelley Mann of Arlington, Va., America's most versatile swimmer, gave the U.S. its 31st gold medal of the Olympic Games tonight by winning the women's 100-meter butterfly event in a 1-2-3 finish by American girls.

A gold medal in star class yachting in the afternoon and 26 points in two women's swimming events gave the U.S. barely enough points to stave off the fast-moving Russians.

The Soviets threatened to take over the lead by scoring heavily in women's gymnastics and shooting.

Earlier tonight, husky George Breen of Buffalo, N.Y., set a world record of 17:32.9 in a qualifying heat for Saturday's 1,500 meter freestyle final, and that set the tempo for the rest of the night.

Hits Record

Miss Mann, holder of 13 American championships, churned to a new Olympic butterfly record of 1 minute, 11 seconds, two-tenths better than the mark she set in earlier trials.

She hit the finish two yards ahead of Nancy Ramey of Mercer Island, Wash., and Mary Jane Sears of Chevy Chase, Md., finishing third for a sweep of all three medals.

Judy Grinham of Great Britain won the women's 100-meter backstroke but Carin Cone of Ridge-wood, N.J., won the silver medal and five team points for second place. Maureen Murphy of Portland, Ore., finished fifth and contributed two points.

Miss Grinham set a new Olympic record of 1:12.9 and Miss Cone, a 16-year-old high school girl, was caught in the same clocking so will share the new mark.

Goes Into First

Dick Conner of Pasadena, Calif., third after three dives in the morning, vaulted into first place in the lower dive with a brilliant performance in the three evening dives.

Conner thus became the favorite to win the high dive in tomorrow night's final. He piled up a total of 80.24 points with his strong diving in the night session.

Breen, a burly blond, cracked the old 1,500 meter freestyle record of 17:59.5 set earlier this year by 17-year-old Murray Rose of Australia and thereby became the second in history to swim the "metric mile" under 18 minutes.

Rose set the "old" Olympic record this afternoon in 18:04.1.

Matches begin at 8:15 p.m. Tickets are on sale at Modern Pharmacy.

Dodgers, Phils Set To Complete Trades

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Editor

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers and Philadelphia Phillies were close to completing a multi-player deal today in which outfielders Richie Ashburn and Carl Furillo would be the central figures.

A Brooklyn spokesman admitted that "something is definitely cooking" and although he did not identify the club the Dodgers were dealing with, it was known that Vice President E.J. (Buzzy) Bavaud had talked at length with Phillies' General Manager Roy Hamery.

From all indications, the deal would include at least five players. Along with Furillo, the Phillies probably would receive rookie shortstop Bob Lillis, who played with St. Paul of the American Association last season, plus a pitcher.

Dodgers Want Pitchers
If the deal can be worked out, the Dodgers undoubtedly would want, in addition to Ashburn, one of two rookie pitchers—left-hander Dick Farrell. Both were with Miami of the International League last season.

The pennant-minded Braves are making an all-out pitch at the same time for Johnny Temple and Smokey Burgess but the Red-legs, with flag notions of their own, want Bob Buhl and catcher Del Crandall in return.

The Red Sox were reported to be "all set to swing a deal" which would bring them third baseman Eddie Yost from the Senators. The Indians and White Sox are also interested in Yost but Boston has the inside track and it may give up infielders Milt Bolling and Ted Lepcio for him.

Cards Want Rush
According to one authoritative source, Washington is close to another deal with the White Sox that calls for Chicago to get catcher Clint Courtney for two secondary players.

The Cardinals are renewing their efforts to land Bob Rush from the Cubs but St. Louis is facing competition from Cincinnati. The Cubs would deal Rush to the Cards for either Wally Moon or Ken Boyer but Redbird General Manager Frank Lane insists he won't peddle either.

Pittsburgh officials were huddling with the Giants concerning a possible deal reported by the United Press during the World Series. The Pirates were interested in southpaw pitcher Joe Margoneri and infielder Foster Castelman and the Giants would let Pittsburgh have them for outfielder-third baseman Frank Thomas.

Bears' Casares Holding Slim NFL Rushing Lead

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—Rick Casares of the Chicago Bears, held to only 45 yards in last Sunday's 42-10 loss to the Detroit Lions, had only a one-yard lead over Ollie Matson of the Chicago Cardinals today in the race for ball-carrying honors in the National Football League.

The speedy Matson, who gained 70 yards in his last outing, has rolled up 818 yards on 161 attempts for a 5.1 yard average gain thus far this season. Casares' 819 yards came on 192 carries for an average gain of 4.3 yards.

The Bears' Eddie Brown maintained his lead in the passing department with 1,481 yards gained on 85 completions of 139 passes thrown. He has tossed for 10 touchdowns and an average gain of 10.65 yards. Bill Wade of the Los Angeles Rams ranked second with an 8.54 average.

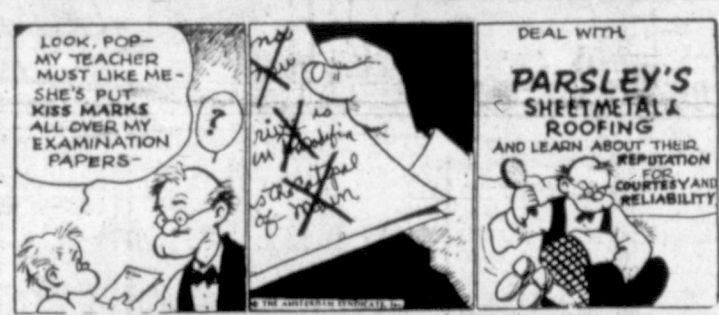

Billy Wilson of the San Francisco 49ers increased his lead as the best pass receiver by snaring five on Sunday to give him 47 for 765 yards and three touchdowns.

In scoring, Detroit's Bobby Layne held the lead with 90 points, followed by Casares with 78. The Rams' Norm Van Brocklin retained his punting mastery for the third week, averaging 42.7 yards per kick.

Ken Konz of the Browns led in punt returns with an average run-back of 16.7 yards, while Tom Wilson of Los Angeles was tops in kickoff returns, with an average of 32.5 yards.

What's New Around Nation's Capital

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP) — What's
new in Washington:
Treasury Secretary George Magoffin Humphrey is proud of a small gallery of former secretaries of treasury hung about the walls of his office. He describes them, thusly, to visitors: Over the fireplace is the first one, Alexander Hamilton. On the far wall is the one who served the longest, Albert Gallatin (1801-14). And between the windows "the smartest," (That would be Phillip F. Thomas, who served from Dec. 12 to
Jan. 14, 1861. Only 33 days).

And while we are in the section of the money bags: Descendants of William Pitt Fessenden, one of Abe Lincoln's secretaries, not long ago came up with $375 to restore the treasury's banded up painting of old Uncle Pitt. Fessenden's grand-nephew, John L. Baxter, Sr., of Brunswick, Maine, put it this way to Secretary Humphrey:
"we looked at our debts, and we looked at the government's, and we decided we could afford to pay for the job better than you could."

The death toll of lawmakers in the 84th Congress was the lowest in two decades. The first session had no fatalities at all. The second session was clouded by the deaths of four representatives and two senators. An average of 17 deaths per Congress was recorded in the last two decades.

The publication "Machinist" likes the one about the wheel who walked into a Washington woman's shop and picked up a perfume sample, squashed it himself and walked away, happily, saying:
"Like to keep my wife guessing."

The Army Times is unhappy to report that Fort Carson, Colo., had its worst football season in history. It breaks down this way:
On Oct. 6, Ford Ord licked Carson

Santa Gets His Whiskers Burned
AMIENS, France (UP) —
Raymond Dubourquet, 52, a department store Santa Claus, was hospitalized Tuesday with serious burns. He set his beard and clothes on fire while lighting a cigarette.
