warpath so much. So within the bounds of the camp itself is found one of the most interesting and educational things in the vicinity. Then the scout which comes to camp really does get some educa-tional value from it. He learns of the Red Maa who came before him, of the curious formations of the earth which are older than civiliza-tion itself, and last but not least. the learns of the spirit of the from-tiersman and the brave which has been instilled into his oath and laws; the code of all good campers. WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (P) -

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (P) ---Chairman Eheppard (D-Tex) said today the sentate campaign expen-ditures committee may ask Bena-tor Guffey (D-Pa) to show it a mailing list used in requesting Pannsylvania campaign donations. The committee was called togeth-or to consider charges which Shep-pard said were made in a Philadel-phia paper that such a request, ad-dressed to "fellow democrat," had been sent to state and federal of-fice holders.

Guffey is treasurer of the demo-ratic campaign committee support-ng Gov. George H. Earle for sena-tor and Charles Aivin Jones, Pitteor and Charles Alvin Jones, Pitte-urgh stiorney, for governor. The committee also had on hand reports from its investigators who neve been studying the Tennessee, Arkanas, Illinois, South Dakota and Kentucky primaries. Sheppard and co reports had been received and the tention of the tention of the LOS ANGELES, Aug. 15 (P)-Jerry J. O'Connell, renominated democratic congressman of Montana, asserted today that Presiden Roosevelt will be forced to run for a third term, whether or not he wants to, because "there is no one now in sight who could successfully carry on his program." O'Connell said the president is determined to pass measures for government use and control of money in credit, and a plan for in-dustrial expansion through cooperation of government, busines
