Iraqi Troops Are Reported In Jordan

By WALTER LOGAN
United Press Staff Correspondent
Egypt's semi-official Middle East News Agency reported today that Iraqi troops had moved into Jordan opposite Syrian troops, but Iraq flatly denied the reports.

The news agency, owned by the Egyptian government, also said president Shukri al-Kuwatli of Syria had warned King Hussein of Jordan of the possibility of a clash.

After hours of silence Baghdad issued a denial. Khalil Ibrahim, director general of national guidance, said the reports were "categorically untrue."
Egyptian newspapers carried the agency report in headlines across the top of the front page and told of rioting and demonstrations in Jordan today and Sunday.

A Major Crisis
It was clear that a major crisis existed in Jordan, but its nature was not clear. Jordan itself imposed an iron censorship on all military moves.

Israel was studying the situation closely, but Israeli sources said reports of troop movements into Jordan often were exaggerated. It was noted that the agency is an Egyptian one and that keeping the pot boiling in Jordan would be of advantage to Egypt.

Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir has warned that it will take action if foreign troops entering Jordan change the status quo in a manner detrimental to Israel.

touched off fear and apprehension in Washington where officials said they believed the Jordanian situation represented the greatest possible danger to world peace. They expressed fear the situation might degenerate into an Arab-Israeli war.

The Egyptian agency said Kuwattli telephoned Hussein to ask the young pro-Western monarch "to give special attention to the question for fear of clashes occurring between Iraqi and Syrian troops."

An earlier dispatch from Cairo told of the supercharged atmosphere in Jordan and the possibility of open fighting.
Jordan itself imposed a firm censorship. The last dispatch from Amman Sunday night told of a rift in the new cabinet between Premier Hussein Khalidi and Foreign Minister Suleiman Nabulsi, who was ousted as premier by the king.

Newspaper Executives To Hear Address By Dulles

By FREDERICK M. WINSHIP
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (UP)—Some 1,200 daily newspaper executives from the United States and Canada gathered here today for four days of meetings and technical discussions which will be highlighted by "Value Days" set this week.

Charles Cook, chairman of the merchants activities committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce has reminded Pampans of the "Pampa Value Days" being observed by the committee on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Cook pointed out that on these three days all Pampa merchants will give away tickets for a chance on an $800 television set to be given away on Saturday evening at 7:15 in front of the LaNora Theatre.

While there is no purchase necessary for the obtaining of tickets, Cook said, no chances will be given to persons under 18 years of age.

All local stores will mark the first day of this special value observance by staying open until 5 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, however, they will close at regular hours.

If it comes from a Hardware Store, we have it. Lewis Hdw.

a major foreign policy speech by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.
Dulles was to make a televised address at the annual Associated Press luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel this afternoon. The luncheon is one of several events held in conjunction with the 71st annual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. which opens at the hotel Tuesday.

Outlines Foreign Policy
Dulles was to fly here from Washington this morning for the speech which he wrote in close consultation with President Eisenhower. The speech was the secretary's first major address since he offered American economic assistance to rebelling Iron Curtain countries in a speech at Dallas, Tex., last October.

A White House announcement said the speech "will outline the broad principles of American foreign policy and will deal with our country's efforts for peace in the field of collective security, mutual security and the efforts the United States has made to maintain justice and law in the world."
The announcement said the address was not continued as a reply to recent Russian criticism of American foreign policy.

The ANFA labor relations conference met this morning for an all-day series of executive sessions. Special discussion panels were to be held on topics including labor negotiations and labor problems growing out of the operation of photocomposing equipment.

Discussions Set
The conference will be devoted Tuesday to question and answer sessions in three separate groups (See NEWSPAPER Page 2)

ephoned Jordan's King Hussein asking the pro-western monarch "to give special attention to the question for fear of clashes occurring between Iraqi and Syrian troops."

Explosive Situation
Observers in Cairo said if the agency report is true it would bring an explosive international element into the Jordan picture. Israel warned last week it would "not look on indifferently" if foreign troops interfered in Jordan.

Split Is Reported
(Total censorship was clamped down on western correspondents in Amman. Censorship apparently also was in effect in Iraq and Syria, the two nations whose opposing loyalties westward and eastward posed the greatest threat to Jordan's uneasy peace.)

(Syria is closely aligned with Soviet foreign policy in the Middle East and is Egypt's closest ally. Iraq and Britain are defense partners in the Baghdad pact; Iraq's King Faisal is a cousin and close ally of Jordan's King Hussein.)

(There have been firm reports that Faisal promised his cousin military support in the new Jordanian crisis. The last dispatches received from Amman indicated the crisis was worsening, with the cabinet split over policy matters.)
The Middle East news agency said Iraqi motorized units took up positions near Syrian troops stationed at Mafraq, 45 miles north-east of Amman and less than 10 miles from the Syrian border.

About 3,000 Syrian troops were reported to have entered Jordan at time of the Israeli invasion of Egypt's Sinai desert; a similar number was reported to have entered Jordan from Saudi Arabia.

approached by John J. Gebbia, 18, and another youth, who threatened him and demanded $5.
Raymond gave them the money and they returned three days later with another youth to demand $15. This time, they said, they threatened to kill his mother, Esther, 37, and his 14-year-old sister, Guonnes.
The four youths so terrified Raymond that he regularly paid them on three days of every week, he told police.

Raymond's father, Raymond, 40, told the family at breakfast Saturday that he was nearly bankrupt and would have to sell the store. Raymond realized his payoffs had caused the family's financial difficulties so he went to the police.
Two detectives accompanied him to the store Saturday night and gave him marked bills to pay the extortioners. A 15-year-old boy showed up to make the collection. He was arrested outside with two other 15-year-olds.
They were booked as juvenile delinquents and named Gebbia as the leader. They also admitted the shakedown, police said.

Easter Egg Hunt Draws Over 2,000

Better than two thousand children scammed over fields one and a quarter miles west of Highland General Hospital Sunday, braving the muddy roads, and wet grass to find the eight thousand eggs which were hidden by members of the local post of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Lester Jones, post commander of the legion, described the affair as having been very successful, adding that "if we had had another two hundred kids, we wouldn't have had room for them."
Plans have already begun for next year's Legion and VFW sponsored Easter-egg hunt, Jones said, with more room to be provided. The turnout proved unusually high

South Plains Town Of Littlefield Is Hit

By UNITED PRESS
A tornado hit Jacksonville in East Texas today and new thunderstorm-tornado warnings went up on the South Plains and Panhandle, across which at least a dozen destructive twisters roared Sunday.

One person was reported dead, two missing and at least 34 hurt in an epidemic of tornadoes and floods that started last Friday. The extended forecast predicted heavy rain and thunderstorms until Saturday.

The Jacksonville tornado struck at 7:25 a. m. None was reported injured but it knocked the plate glass windows from the Cherokee Motor Co. and sucked out the back window of a 1957 automobile.

See Funnel Hit
Raymond Grimes, who works for the motor company, saw the funnel hit his employer's building, take a roof from a building across the street, damage other automobiles, bounced into the air again and disappeared.

The body of Carrie Davis, a Negro, who was drowned in her automobile by a flash flood in Fort Worth was found Sunday.

A Mexican-American, so far unidentified, was reported missing at Shallowater. Willie Caldera, 23, a Branchville farm worker, who rode into Little River 19 miles east of Cameron Saturday, was missing, though his horse came back home.

All of the injured were reported in tornadoes that ripped across the South Plains Sunday at the border of New Mexico Sunday. At least 27 tornadoes have been reported in various parts of Texas since last Friday.

The worst of the tornadoes Sunday hit Lamb county, isolating Littlefield. Six homes were destroyed and 30 persons injured. Ten of these had to remain in hospitals and two were in serious condition.

Terrified residents tried to flee to Lubbock and Clovis, N. M., in their automobiles. Roads out of town were packed bumper-to-bumper with automobiles.

The fleeing residents didn't get far, because conditions outside of Littlefield were worse than in town. Flash floods had cut the roads outside of town.

In town, houses and automobiles were pelted with hail as big as eggs. Low streets filled with water up to five feet deep. The water rose to the windows on one automobile in which a whole family was riding.

John Rogers and Ross Short, Lubbock newsmen, were washed off the road in their automobiles. "It sounded like a thousand trains going by," Short said of the tornado.

Homes Destroyed
The Red Cross reported 12 homes destroyed or damaged in Hockley county. Several automobiles were destroyed and a Mexican seriously injured.

Five homes were destroyed or damaged in Hart Camp and a cotton gin was destroyed. Two homes and a scale house were destroyed in North Spade.

Four persons were injured in Shallowater and several homes destroyed or damaged. Several houses were damaged in Roundup.

The Trinity River crested at Dallas just short of flood stage of 28 feet early today, but the U. S. Engineers warned that lowlands between Rosser and Longlake south of Dallas will be flooded in the next four days.

Flood Warnings Issued
The Engineers issued flash flood warnings for the McGregor-Temple area west of Waco, where the heavy rains fell during the night. Far to the south, Eagle Pass reported 3.85 inches of rain with hail that damaged fruit trees.

Conditions were improved in (See TWISTERS, Page 2)

Optimism Expressed On West-Red Disarmament

MOSCOW (UP)—Diplomatic circles expressed cautious optimism today that some measure of agreement could be reached between the Soviet Union and the West in the London disarmament talks.

The prediction came as Russia made public its latest proposal. The Western Big Three proposing a four-power declaration renouncing the use of force in settling disputes in the Middle East.

The return to Moscow from the London talks of Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin was regarded as an indication the Russians may be ready to accept

Man Falls To Death From French Plane

ISTANBUL, Turkey (UP)—Jack R. Nash, 32, of Memphis, Tenn., plummeted to death Saturday night when the window of a pressurized French airliner blew out 18,000 feet above the wastes of northern Iraq.

A power dive to low altitude preserved the other passengers in the Istanbul-bound plane from injury in the sub-zero upper air.

Nash was sleeping with his head against the window of the U.S.-built Super-G Constellation when the glass gave way 25 miles south of the Iraq "oil capital" of Kirkuk. The rush of air out of the pressurized cabin sucked him with it into the icy stratosphere.

The window blew out with a shattering crash, and the 40-below zero temperature of the outer air caused a dense fog in the 70-degree warmth of the cabin.

In the excitement, no one noticed immediately that Nash was missing. His seat-mate was in the washroom when the window failed.

"We discovered that Mr. Nash was missing only afterwards," the stewardess told investigators here. "Other passengers could say only that 'we saw nothing.'"

The only traces of Nash remaining in the cabin were a shoe, two cameras and a fez he had bought in Iran.

Nash was on a leisurely world tour. He had spent several days in Karachi, Pakistan before boarding the plane that carried him to his death.

Payoffs to Teenage Bullies Nearly Bankrupts Father of Young Victim

NEW YORK (UP)—A 15-year-old boy, terrified by threats to his mother and sister, took so much money from his father's grocery to pay four teenaged extortionists that he almost bankrupted the business, it was revealed Sunday.

When Raymond, 40, a Quinones learned that the $60 to $80 a week he paid the four bullies for a year had all but broken his father he went to the police. The payments had totalled more than $4,000, he said.
Raymond said the shakedown began a year ago when he was rupt and would have to sell the store. Raymond realized his payoffs had caused the family's financial difficulties so he went to the police.

Two detectives accompanied him to the store Saturday night and gave him marked bills to pay the extortioners. A 15-year-old boy showed up to make the collection. He was arrested outside with two other 15-year-olds.
They were booked as juvenile delinquents and named Gebbia as the leader. They also admitted the shakedown, police said.

certain Western disarmament proposals.
The Soviet press has not yet indicated Soviet reaction to these proposals, but observers believed there was more than a 50-50 chance that Zorin was returning to the London talks with instructions to accept or at least suggest constructive modifications to the plans.
In any case they feel that the Soviet Union will agree to some sort of reduction in conventional arms and armed forces.

Local Club Hears Mrs. W. R. Ewing Give Speech On "Panhandle Pioneers"

El Progreso Club met in the home of Mrs. Elmer Fisher, Mrs. Bob McCoy, president, presided during the business session. Mrs. Harold Wright gave the Council of Clubs' report, and the Federated Clubs' report was presented by Mrs. Knox Kinard.

Mrs. W. R. Ewing was the speaker for the afternoon, and presented the program entitled "Panhandle Pioneer." She said that with wide-eyed wonder a little girl gazed at the vast expanse of land visible from the high seat of the swaying hack. Behind lay Ft. Worth and ahead the fenceless ranges and dim trails which led into the almost unknown Panhandle and Mobeetle, its first town.

She stated, "Only an occasional small village broke the desolate monotony of the November landscape. These few small homes were built along the railroad under construction west from Ft. Worth. A solitary cowboy was a sometimes seen riding the range. These cowboys were the only ones to give directions to the traveler in the virgin and unmarked land."

The hack, drawn by a pair of sorrel horses, continued its slow progress into the Panhandle. Weary and tense with ceaseless worries about this pioneer trek, the mother and father regarded this alien soil. The little girl looked on with childish wonder, and the baby slept peacefully in its mother's arms.

"After many days of traveling, they decided they were approaching Indian territory, and hastened on their way. Short of rations, hunger was added to their growing discomforts," Mrs. Ewing continued. This group of pioneers was Robert C. Fitch and his family who came to Mobeetle in November, 1882. The small girl was Lulu Fitch who, many years later, married the late W. R. Ewing, and so it was the story of Mrs. Ewing's own family that she related to El Progreso Club.

Mrs. Ewing went on to say that when she thought of things which are outstandingly good, she always remembered that red-hot stove in Huselby's Hotel, which felt so satisfyingly hot when they were so cold. With the hope of improving her father's asthma, the family moved to the Panhandle.

She stated that there were no fences at all between Ft. Worth and Mobeetle and almost no houses. Mobeetle was first called Sweetwater, but couldn't keep that name because there was another city in Texas called Sweetwater, so they changed to name to Mobeetle, an Indian name for "sweet water."

Mrs. Ewing said, "The very best houses in those early days were made of adobe, but there were very few of them. The most outstanding thing she remembered was the discomforts the women suffered. Her father was deputy sheriff after he came to the Panhandle."

The people who lived in the "flats" had houses made out of five gallon oil cans which had been split open, flattened out and soldered together. Mrs. Ewing went on, and said that a short distance out of town is one of the oldest, if not the oldest, buildings in the Panhandle. It is a rock house located southeast of the cemetery.

In recalling past experiences, Mrs. Ewing said that one of the worst storms they had was a hail storm.

Mrs. Ewing said that she met her husband while he was teaching at Mobeetle. They were married, and went to Canada to establish their home. Judge Ewing continued in the capacity of District Judge for 30 years until his retirement in 1947.

Mrs. Ewing recalled one episode in the early days of Gray County when two little girls were stolen by the Indians, and then were left near McClellan Creek to starve except for the timely arrival of a company of soldiers who rescued them.

Among the early settlers of Gray County are the Lanes, Casse, Thuts, Schneiders, Riders, Bueckers, Browns, Ledricks, Popes, Hobarts, Wynnes, Walsteads and others whom Mrs. Ewing said she could not recall.

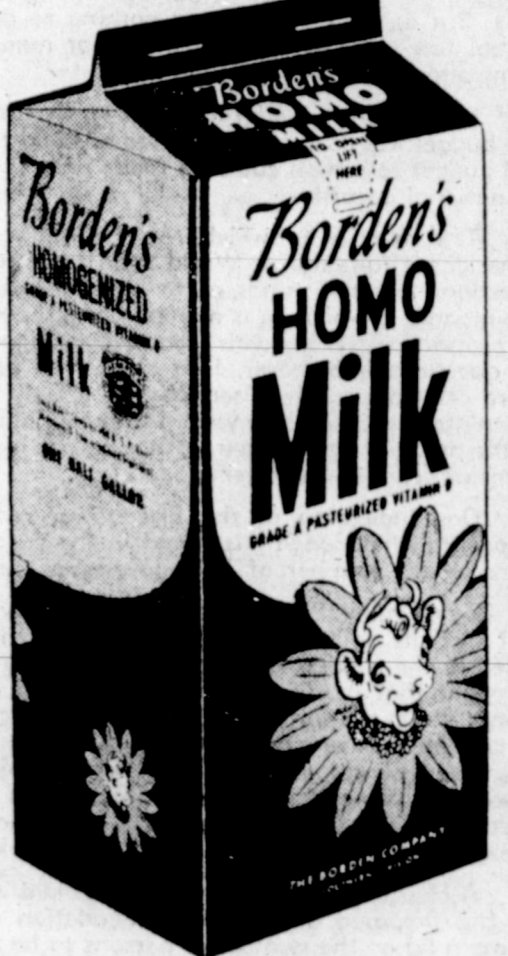

"It has been said that the Panhandle is a great place today Mrs.

White Sox And Braves Lead Pennant Chases

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

The 35-year-old wings 'n Jim Wilson and Warren Spahn enabled the Chicago White Sox and Milwaukee Braves to remain unbeaten today and soar into undisputed possession of first places in the major league pennant races.

Wilson, who turned 35 on Feb. 20, pitched the White Sox to their fourth straight victory when he outduelled ex-Yankee Tom Morgan in a 1-0, 10-inning thriller over Kansas City Sunday while Spahn, who'll celebrate his 36th birthday Tuesday, scattered nine hits in the Braves' 3-1 win over the Cincinnati Redlegs.

The White Sox took over the top rung in the A.L. when the Boston Red Sox dealt the New York Yankees their first setback, 5-4, and the Braves achieved a similar pinnacle in the N.L. when the previously unbeaten Brooklyn Dodgers split a doubleheader with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Wilson Comes Close
Wilson, who pitched a no-hitter in 1954, made a bid for his second classic with a perfect game for seven innings and a no-hitter for eight. Hector Lopez finally broke the hitless spell in the ninth and the Athletics collected two other hits. Wilson struck out eight and walked two for his first win.

Pinch-hitter Sherm Lollar, who knocked in five runs on Saturday, delivered a sacrifice fly in the 10th to send home rookie Jim Landis with the decisive tally, 5-4. Morgan, who pitched a four-hitter on opening day, yielded only one hit in the first nine innings and was touched for only three in all. Spahn settled down after a shaky four frames to hold the Redlegs to one hit in the last five innings and chalk up his second win of the year. Del Crandall singled home two runs in the fourth and Hank Aaron doubled and Joe Adcock singled for Milwaukee's other run in the eighth. The loss was the fourth straight for the disappointing Redlegs.

Dick Groat and Bob Skinner walloped homers as the Pirates beat the Dodgers, 6-3, in their opener but five runs in the second inning enabled the N.L. champions to breeze to a 7-4 decision in the nightcap. Don Newcombe was routed by the Bucs in the first game, but Clem Labine relieved 20-year-old Don Drysdale to save the nightcap.

Jack Dittmer, ex-Brave second baseman, singled with the bases filled in his first A.L. appearance but five runs in the second inning victory over the Cleveland Indians and the Baltimore Orioles beat the Washington Senators, 11-9, in the other A.L. games. The Senators led the second game, 2-1, after five innings when a power failure shut off the Griffith Stadium lights and the umpires asked A.L. President Will Harridge for a ruling on the "contest."

Two other N.L. doubleheaders wound up in splits. Sam Jones struck out 11 of his former teammates as the St. Louis Cardinals gained a 6-3 triumph after the Chicago Cubs won their opener, 5-3, in 11 innings and the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the New York Giants, 8-5, after Johnny Antonelli out-duelled Robin Roberts, 2-1, in their first game.

Oilers Open At Midland Tuesday Night

The Pampa Oilers' much-needed final work-out before play opens in the Southwestern League was bogged down today. The Oilers open the season at Midland tomorrow night.

Manager Allan Cross' biggest headache today was expected to be the chopping of his roster to 16 players, not including the NDS players. At present, 21 players are on the roster and more may be added if the Brooklyn Dodgers give the Oilers some promised player help.

Rain hampered Oiler drills over the week-end. The team went through a short drill Saturday morning before the rain and the players had to settle for some running yesterday and today. The field is still under water.

The Oilers will have Tuesday morning for the Midland game to-morrow night at 8. Pampa plays in Midland Wednesday night and then moves over to Ballinger for games Thursday and Friday night. They move back here to play Midland Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

Cross will probably start either Tommy Harrison or Roberto Martinez on the mound against Midland.

Marlene Hagge Wins At Lawton

LAWTON, Okla. (UP)—Marlene Bauer Hagge, last year's top money winner on the ladies professional golf circuit, continued her current tour today with a second tournament victory to her credit, the $5,000 Lawton Open.

Mrs. Hagge, a Del Ray Beach, Fla., product playing out of Dallas, Tex., won the $800 first prize Sunday with an uncomplimentary 38-36-74, two over par and poorest score of the top four finishers. However, earlier rounds of 70 and 72 gave her a 54-hole total of 216, three strokes better than her nearest opponent.

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Bettering their own world mark in winning the quarter-mile relay in 39.9 seconds, University of Texas sprinters featured the 32nd annual Kansas Relays.

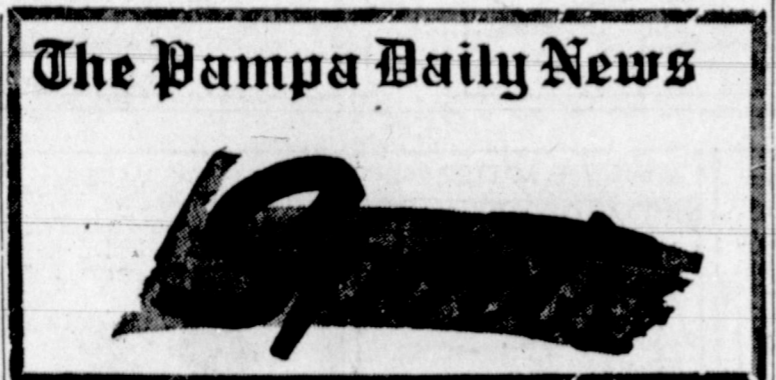

LAUREL, Md. — Inaswept, a 5-1 shot, showed her heels to live Kentucky Derby eligibles in winning the $25,450 Chesapeake Stakes.

LAWTON, Okla. — Marlene Bauer Hagge, with a 54-hole total of 216, finished three strokes ahead of Betty Rawls to win the $5,000 Lawton Women's Open golf tournament.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Gene Littler won a thrilling down-the-stretch duel with Dick Mayer and walked off with top honors in the $40,000 Tournament of Champions golf title for the third straight year.

HAMILTON, Bermuda — Pancho Gonzales beats Pancho Segura, 7-9, 6-4, 6-2 in the finals of their two-day professional tennis tournament.

PAU, France — France's Jean Behra powered his Maserati to first place in the second trial run before the Grand Prix de Pau race Tuesday.

What Happens If The Lights Go Out?

CHICAGO (UP) — American League President Will Harridge promises to dig up an answer today to baseball's biggest riddle so far in 1957 — what happens when the lights go out?

Everybody was left in the dark at Washington's Griffith Stadium Sunday when a short circuit prevented eight arc-light towers from functioning. The incident occurred when umpires ordered the lights turned on at the end of five innings of the second game of Senators - Baltimore Orioles twin bill, with the Senators leading, 2-1.

The umpires waited an hour and, when nobody could fix the lights, called the game. But what happens now? Is the game finished or isn't it?

Umpire Joe Paparella, Ed Hurley, Ed Runge, and Frank Umont admit they don't know. They said this was the first time such an incident has occurred.

There doesn't seem to be anything in the rules that covers it and there is no such thing as a "suspended game" in the American League.

Harridge, at his office here, said, "We don't want to make any official statement until we get the full facts of exactly what happened — and what made the lights go out. However, we expect to have a decision ready today."

As far as Charley Dressen, the outspoken manager of the Senators, is concerned, he thinks "the game is official" and his Senators should be credited with a 2-1 victory.

But manager Paul Richards of the Orioles said he will request the game be resumed "at the point of interruption."

Richards claimed that to give the Senators a victory because of a light failure in their own ballpark would "establish a dangerous precedent."

"I'm not saying this was deliberate on the part of Washington officials," said Richards, "I'm merely pointing out the dangers such a decision would involve in the future."

Gene Littler Wins Third Las Vegas Golf Tourney

By HAL WOOD
United Press Sports Writer
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UP) —

Horses for courses, they say at the race tracks. And the same adage applies to golf courses.

Gene Littler, who had not won a tournament for a full year, annexed his third consecutive $10,000 jackpot when he won the $40,000 Tournament of Champions here Sunday.

As the touring brigade headed for Louisville, Ky., and the Derby Week Open there, the blond young swinger from San Diego again vaulted into the ranks of "men to beat" for the money on the summer tour.

Badly off his stock for the last eleven months, Gene went to work with a vengeance a month ago preparing to defend his title here.

It paid off—because he won by three strokes from four men who tied up for second—Jimmy Demaret, Dow Finsterwald, Billy Maxwell and Billy Casper. Par for the 72 holes was 288 and Littler, playing in rains, high winds and cold was three under par for the distance with a 285. Last year he won by four strokes and in 1955 he made a run-away of it with a 13 stroke lead.

The only man possibly happier than Littler at the triumph was singer Frankie Laine, who had purchased Gene again in the big Calcutta pool. The triumph was worth $95,000 gross ($80,000 net) this time to Laine. In the three years, Frankie has netted $190,000 off the superb playing here by Littler.

The four men who tied for second each collected $2,230, while Dick Mayer, Don January and Ed Furgol each got $1,326. Seven strokes behind the lead came Masters champion Doug Ford and Arnold Palmer, each with 292, good for $1,270.

The Bulldogs have won one game in district play while losing three. Their only win of the season has been over Berger.

ST. LOUIS (UP)—Walker Cooper, 42-year-old St. Louis Cardinals coach, has been reinstated to the active player list because of an injury suffered by first string catcher Hal Smith. Smith suffered a split index finger in Sunday's first game with the Chicago Cubs.

Coach Dick Woldt's Harvesters will be seeking their second district victory. Pampa now stands 1-2 for the season to tie with Berger for fourth place. Palo Duro leads the district race with a 3-0 record. Amarillo's Sandies are second with a 2-0 mark and Lubbock stands 2-2.

The Harvesters have lost to Palo Duro and Amarillo in conference play while beating Berger for their only win. Pampa has won three of eight in season play.

Woldt will probably choose between Ray Stephenson and David James to start on the mound against Plainview. Other starters will probably be Mike Conway, second base; Bill Brown, shortstop; Benny Sparks, third base; Robert Langford, first base; Bill Conway, right field; Larry Cruise, left field; Gary Wilhelm or David James, center field; and John Lee, catching.

Safest Way To Kill Roaches, Ants, Other Crawling Insects

need breathe no contaminating vapors as you must when you spray. Johnston's No-Roach does not contain thallium or any such dangerous poison. No-Roach contains miracle malathion, the newest insecticide for use against roaches and ants. It was featured in a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post.

Cockroaches
Apply No-Roach to cupboard walls, baseboards, near sink and cabinets on pipes and wherever you see cockroaches.

Ants
Brush No-Roach around table legs and counter tops, across window sills and door sills and across ant trails. Ants will not cross the coating. Pour a few drops into ant hills.

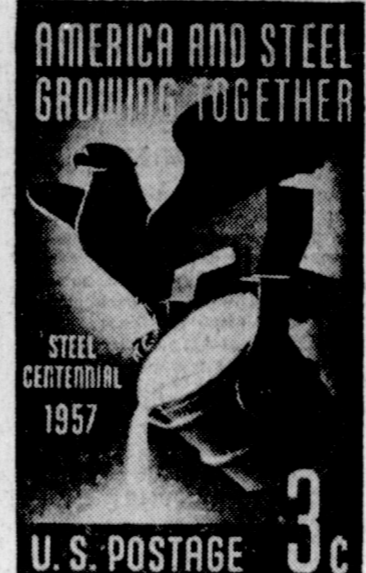

No-Roach is also effective against resistant roaches, bedbugs, silverfish, waterbugs, spiders, and other crawling insects.

Common Sense Way
Remember, when you use Johnston's Super No-Roach, you don't have to move dishes, pots and pans, or breathe harmful vapors, as you must with contaminating sprays. Apply No-Roach just where you want it, the invisible coating stays effective for months.

Guard against crawling insects this common sense No-Roach way. Just brush No-Roach across window and door sills to stop ants, and on food cabinets and baseboards to kill cockroaches. It is the safest and most effective way to control crawling insects. No-Roach costs only 89 cents for 3 ounces and $1.65 for pint, and is available at Perkins, and your local food or drug store.

have made the rest of the tricks by a simple cross ruff.

As it was he had only two trumps left in each hand, and while he was able to make them separately, he had to lose the last trick and go down one.

It will be noted that a trump opening followed by perfect defense would have set the hand two tricks. It will also be noted that it would have taken a seventh son of a seventh son to have the vision to open a trump and not the singleton of a suit bid so enthusiastically by a partner.

City, county, and state health officials have been greatly concerned for the safety of small children in households which have used an insecticide containing a dangerous poison called thallium. This year, alone, at least three Texas children have been killed by this insecticide and dozens more have suffered physical damage ranging from brain injury, loss of eyesight, loss of hair, and other serious afflictions. There is no need for anyone, especially parents, to purchase such dangerous poisons to kill cockroaches and ants.

There is a product called Johnston's No-Roach available. It is a colorless, odorless liquid that is applied with a brush just where you want it. There is no need to move dishes or pots and pans, and you many aimed at proving an alleged vice protection payoff system involving high police officials and a news reporter existed for nine years.

The jury heard four days of sensational testimony from bootleggers, police officers and other witnesses last week. U. S. Attorney Hayden Crawford said he planned to call about 85 witnesses in his attempt to prove the nine-year plot.

Among the 20 defendants that government witnesses have pointed out as being part of the alleged payoff scheme are Police Commissioner Jay L. Jones, suspended Police Chief Paul J. Livingston, suspended vice squad chief Jack Gott, and Tulsa Tribune Crime Reporter Nolen Bulloch.

The government contends bootleggers in northeastern Oklahoma brought liquor into the state, which is constitutionally dry, and sold it while making protection payoffs that were split up among police officials, Bulloch and local vice lords. Bulloch is accused of receiving money in return for not writing unfavorable news articles about anyone involved.

First round of testimony came mostly from bootleggers who testified they turned over part of their profits to certain collectors who in turn passed it on to Bulloch. One alleged contact with Bulloch was Mrs. Cleo Epps, known as the "Queen of the Bootleggers" in this area, who said Bulloch made a deal with her in 1948.

Two former bootleggers also testified Bulloch had indicated to them he had influence with the police commissioner.

East's three heart jump overall was intended to make it difficult for his vulnerable opponents to find their best contract. Such bids are effective on occasion although this time North and South had no trouble in getting to the normal spade game.

West opened his singleton heart and South won East's nine with the ace. Dummy's ace of clubs won the second trick and the five of diamonds was led. East played the eight and declarer's king fell to West's ace.

Now West led a trump. Declarer won in dummy, ruffed a low club and led the deuce of diamonds. West played the three and East's ten spot took that trick.

East laid down the king of hearts and now West came up with a brilliant play to set the contract. He trumped his partner's trick in order to lead a second trump.

This was the only play to set the contract at this point. Had West failed to trump East would have been forced to lead another red card whereupon declarer would
