Reunion Date Set By Ex-Students

The Pampa High School Ex-Students group has set the date for next year's reunion, according to John Schofield, president. The reunion will be held on Nov. 29 and special guests will be members of the 1931-32 football team. Other activities are also being planned to assure ex-students of having a good time at the reunion. Schoolfield said that further announcements will be forthcoming on plans of the group. Those who are working on the reunion include Schoolfield, Mrs. Elmer Fite, vice president; Johnny Campbell, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Ruby Capps, Jack Edmondson and members of the student council, Cameron Marsh and Mrs. Virginia McDonald.

Tourist Group Meets Tomorrow

The tourist development committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce will meet tomorrow morning in the conference room of the chamber at 10 o'clock, according to Oliver Trimble, chairman of the committee. Trimble said that some local business relating to the handling of traffic over roads in the Texas Panhandle involving some detours will be discussed. All members of the committee, he said, are urged to attend.

Poppy Day Tomorrow Will Honor This Nation's Heroes

Bright red flowers of memory will be worn here tomorrow in salute to the nation's war dead as Pampa observes annual Poppy Day. The flowers, artificial poppies made by disabled war veterans, will be distributed on the streets throughout the day by volunteer workers of the American Legion Auxiliary. Contributions will be received by the auxiliary for support of its rehabilitation work for disabled veterans and its child welfare activities for needy children of veterans, according to Mrs. J. M. Foster, president of the Pampa auxiliary unit.

New Storm Siren Enroute To Pampa

Gray County Sheriff Rufe Jordan reported this morning that he expected the storm siren which he ordered recently for the city of Pampa to arrive no later than Monday. The siren, which was ordered from the George F. Calk Company of Berkeley, Calif., was reported to have already been shipped from that city. The siren was ordered by Jordan in his capacity as civil defense coordinator after the tornado which hit Silverton last week impressed upon many the fact that some sort of warning system should be provided for the city in the event of a similar emergency in this area. The siren ordered stands 56 inches in height, and will cost an approximate $350.

Chinese Mobs Wreck American Embassy

Formosans Protest US Acquittal Of Army Sergeant

By ROBERT BROWN
United Press Staff Correspondent
TAIPEI, Formosa (UP)—Chinese mobs wrecked the United States embassy and other buildings, burned embassy cars and beat up at least nine Americans in a series of riots today. The Nationalist government imposed limited martial law tonight. The rioters, inflamed over the acquittal of an American soldier by a U. S. Army court martial for the slaying of a Chinese peeping tom, overran and wrecked even the Taipei police station.

Legislature Ends Session

By O. B. LLOYD JR.
United Press Staff Correspondent
AUSTIN (UP)—The 55th Legislature ended at 6 p. m. Thursday night, climaxing a stormy four-and-one-half month session rocked by scandals and charges of corruption. Adjournment killed last minute efforts to pass a key water conservation proposal which would have set up a 100 million dollar program for purchase of conservation storage space in federal reservoirs.

A lobbyist control act endorsed by Gov. Price Daniel also died with the adjournment, but the governor's proposal to reorganize the Insurance Commission won final approval at the morning sessions of the House and Senate. Gov. Daniel's office claimed a record of better than 92 per cent of the administration program as George Christian, the press secretary, said his tally showed 47 of 51 recommendations passed.

The four failing were provision for a state-wide law enforcement commission, the lobbyist act, registration of persons representing others before state agencies and the water conservation bill. The final piece of legislative work in the House was 105-22 passage of a controversial bill boosting the maximum weekly payments under the workmen's compensation system from $25 to $35. The Senate spent its last hour fighting off an attempt by Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas to act on the water proposal. Simultaneously administration lieutenants sought futilely to revive the measure on the House floor explaining a resolution asking Congress to cut foreign aid when Parkhouse supporters challenged Lock's right to the floor. Dilatory Tactics

Lake McClellan Offered To Pampa

In what was termed an "exceptional" decision, the United States Department of Agriculture has offered to give Lake McClellan to the city of Pampa. The decision was revealed in a meeting last night in the County Courthouse. All members of the City Commission and County Commission, and members of the public improvements committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce were in attendance as well as representatives of the U. S. Forestry Service. It developed at the meeting that Pampa may receive, without cost, the McClellan Creek Land Utilization Project, including Lake McClellan. The project covers 1,440 acres. The decision by the Agriculture Department bore three stipulations, however. They were that the damaged spillway be either repaired or a new one constructed, the area be maintained as a recreational park for public use and the concessionaire, D. P. Killig, be retained for the remainder of his current contract with the Department of Agriculture. The direct details of the decision came as a result of misunderstanding of intentions. The public improvements committee of the local chamber of commerce had written the Department of Agriculture asking if there were a possibility either the county or city could take over the lake and make improvements to it and maintain it. Forestry service representatives took the letter to mean the city, alone, wished to take over the project and made the application with the Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson to that end. Secretary Benson gave the department's permission to turn the property over to the city. It was an "exceptional" decision. E. R. Huber, of Albuquerque, N.M., acting regional forester, pointed out because ordinarily, the department disposes of Land Utilization Projects to state agencies only through sale.

New Storms Threaten Battered Southwest

By UNITED PRESS
A nearly stationary clash of air masses threatened new storms today in the hail, rain and tornado battered Southwest. Winds up to 73 m.p.h. swept a river of rain and hail across north central Texas, causing flooding in Dallas and Fort Worth, uprooting trees and knocking out power lines. Tornadoes ripped sections of Arkansas, one shredding the roof and steeple of a church at Monticello only moments after 80 persons had fled to safety. Other twisters hit at Glenwood and Conway, Ark. The week-long onslaught of violent storms has killed at least 56 persons, most of them in Missouri. Thirty-nine persons were killed in a massive twister that struck Kansas City Monday night, and 14 persons died in other Missouri tornadoes. Among the latest victims were a Doniphan, Mo., man who drowned Thursday when his truck was swept away by floodwaters, and an Indiana man who drowned in the rain-swollen Ohio River near New Washington, Ind. Heavy rains throughout the midlands sent the Missouri, Ohio and Mississippi rivers surging toward flood crest. Floods in stream in southern Illinois forced some 100 families from their homes. The prolonged wet weather has delayed farmers from working in their fields in the Midwest and Plains states. Oklahoma authorities estimated crop damage in that state alone in the millions of dollars. Heavy rains soaked Texas, Arkansas, southern Missouri, eastern Oklahoma, southern Illinois, southern Indiana and western Kentucky. Dallas was hit by a 3.78-inch rainfall in a few hours, and Fort Worth was swamped by a 2.28-inch deluge. Power was knocked out in sections of Dallas and Marshall. Tornadoes swirled through the air over Mount Pleasant, Tyler and San Saba, Tex., and near Shreveport, La., but they apparently caused no damage. Other severe rains last night hit Little Rock, Ark., with more than 2 inches of water, while Memphis and Pine Bluff, Ark., reported more than an inch. Thunderstormers along the Gulf Coast dumped more than four inches at Mobile, Ala.

The misunderstanding, however, was expected to be solved through city-county cooperation. Engineers G. K. Reading, senior resident engineer of the Texas Highway Department, and Wayland Merriman, of a local engineering firm, inspected the damaged spillway and dam Wednesday and reported their findings to those present. They pointed out that their reconnaissance was merely visual and not extensive to the point where they could make an accurate estimation of the cost of repairing the spillway, one of the stipulations of the transfer.

They, along with the Forestry Service representatives, felt that an extensive investigation should be made to determine the approximate cost of repairs. As a result, city, county and chamber of commerce officials agreed to wait for an engineering study before taking any action on the government's offer. If the lake were to be maintained by the county, the request would have to be re-submitted to Secretary Benson for approval. As a result, some sort of a cooperative maintenance plan is being sought by city and county officials. However, Huber pointed out that the government would have to deal with one specific unit. Forestry service representative present at the meeting included Huber and W. J. Caseria, construction superintendent, of Albuquerque, and W. P. Blamey, project manager, Cheyenne, Wyo.

City Will Be Entered In Contest

Members of the publicity and general information committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce voted this morning to enter Pampa in the All-American City Awards Contest. The contest is sponsored yearly by the National Municipal League and Look magazine. Awards are given to cities in various size brackets. Members of the committee felt that Pampa had a strong bid available through the many community-interest projects which have been successful here during the past year, according to Joel Combs, chairman. To enter the contest, a city must submit reasons for entering and have a community-interest project or projects as the principal reason for entering. Members of the committee will prepare exhibits to submit to a special jury which selects the winners. Comment on the project this morning was that the city, schools and chamber of commerce each had a number of projects completed successfully last year and which would make the city eligible to enter the contest.

Highway 66 Work Nearing Completion

G. K. Reading, resident engineer of the State Highway Department, reported that the engineer's office hopes to complete work on the four lanes divided highway on route 66 between Jericho and Groom. Reading said that, weather permitting, there should be little more than three days work for the completion of the 10.051 miles stretch on Highway 66. The construction of the four lanes had started in October of 1955, with several hold-ups caused by weather conditions. All that remains, Reading said, is the laying of black top on the shoulder paving, and this, he added, should be finished by Monday or Tuesday. This is all the construction work being done at the present, with the repairing of the bridges which were washed out or damaged within the county next on the list. An agreement was reached with Gilvin and Terrell of Amarillo to work with the local engineers on two of the bridges crossing McClellan Creek. This repair work, Reading said, should begin sometime in the middle of next week. The bridges to be worked on are currently carrying light traffic on the east side of the span. Construction work will consist of the replacing of pilings on the Letors-Alanreed bridge. When this is completed, the bridge will be used as a detour until the repair work on the larger bridge on State Highway 273 between Letors and McClellan is completed. Work on this second bridge, Reading reported, should take at least a month and possibly more, and an emergency appropriation has been asked from the state for between $75,000 to $100,000 to take care of all operations.

Housing Group Meets Wednesday

A meeting of the special housing committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce will be held at Poole's Steak House Wednesday at noon. At this time officials of the Federal Housing Administration will be present to meet with the committee and to furnish complete information on regulations governing housing needed in this area within the next few months. Jake Osborne is chairman of the committee.

THE BALD BOY Chapter Three

Hair Clinic Phase For Elmer

By ELMER WHEELER

The hair tonic bottle and the comb had become Elmer's phobia. My barber was giving me another one; he had a full head of hair. So I gave him up.

Then I decided maybe a visit to one of those advertised hair clinics would solve my problem. I picked out a leading one in town and sneaked into its second-floor office.

Those "before" and "after" ads really got me. I told the man I wasn't worried much, but I'd been in the building and thought since I had a few minutes, I'd see what he had to say. Then I tried to pretend a lack of interest.

But his every movement interested me. I watched him like a country boy watches a watermelon grow. He took toothpicks. Put on pieces of cotton. He parted my hair ever so carefully. He treated my hair with great care, almost kindness. He surely showed his appreciation of the hair I had left.

He put the cotton under a microscope. He did many things that looked real scientific to me, sometimes nodding in approval, then again scowling as though he had discovered something with legs on it.

I tried to be bored about the whole thing, little knowing that a year from that day I'd be in a real panic and would be openly inviting advice, help, succor.

Finally he stopped all the testing. Took off his lenses, wiped them professionally, and after a tantalizing time, coughed and said: "Young man, within a year you'll be as bald as I am!"

Yipes — I hadn't noticed the guy was bald. "That is," he went on, "unless you are smarter than I was and catch the trouble before it catches up with you."

I signed up for 12 treatments. Week after week I'd sneak into his office, feeling like a bookkeeper who was afraid they'd soon catch up to his embezzling.

"I was so mad I kicked the dog . . ."

I now became a clinic addict. I kept it up for six months and everything was going fine, including my hair. At times hope came to me when he told me mine might be one of the cases that was curable by treatments, "expensive ones."

I became self-satisfied with myself. I was whipping badness as I had whipped calories. I'd perhaps consent now to let the vet give my dog the haircut. Up until now I just couldn't see myself standing by and watching the dog's long hair fall to the floor of the vet's place.

Life was really being good to me. I was smarter than most bald boys.

Then one night, in a bragging mood, I told the wife how I was doing something that would go down in history. I had solved the baldness problem.

"Seen the back of your head lately?" she asked. I hadn't. She advised me I had better take a good look: I did. Wow! I had a hole in the back of my hair.

A hole in my hair. I was so mad, I kicked the dog. He'd never get to that vet now. Next: Elmer Finally Goes to the Doc.

Coty May Choose French Premier

PARIS (UP)—President Rene Coty was expected to nominate a premier today. France's 23rd since World War II.

Political observers expected him to call on former Premier Rene Pleven, 56-year-old head of the Central Resistance Party, to succeed Socialist Guy Mollet. Mollet fell Tuesday night when he requested a giant tax increase to finance the costly Algerian war.

The bitter dispute over France's Algerian policy claimed another political casualty Thursday when former Premier Pierre Mendès-France resigned as chief of the Radical Party. Mendès-France quit because his party's other deputies in the National Assembly refused to allow his lead in opposing Mollet's policies.

Coty wound up the third day of his emergency conferences with the various party leaders this morning. It was considered possible he might hold on naming his premier-designate and instead appoint a "conciliator" to try to smooth political bickering in the assembly, which must approve the new premier.

Object of such a conciliation mission would be to keep from having a "strong" premier candidate voted down by a hopelessly divided assembly.

To Ask Brazil To Oust Cage

DALLAS (UP)—The Brazilian government, through the State Department, will be asked to declare playboy promoter BenJack Cage an undesirable alien and deport him to Texas to face an embezzlement indictment.

Cage, former highflying head of the defunct ICT Insurance Co., was indicted on a charge of embezzlement Thursday by a special Dallas county grand jury.

He was indicted for allegedly using a $500,000 ICT check to buy National Bankers Life Insurance Co. stock without company authority.

Sheriff Bill Decker said there was no assurance that Cage would be returned even if he was declared undesirable by the Brazilian government. The U.S. has no standing extradition treaty with Brazil.

Left Country
Cage left the country for Brazil before ICT was put into receivership by the Insurance Commission.

Two legislative investigating panels invited Cage to return to Texas and tell his side of the failure of the insurance company in which he organized labor lost thousands of dollars when it was ordered into receivership.

Cage told United Press newsmen Joseph A. Taylor in Sao Paulo, Brazil that his former associates were trying to make him the goat, by blaming him for bad decisions and taking credit for the good ones themselves.

Legislative investigators were told that Cage's outside interests went far afield while he ran ICT. Illustrating this was an $850 expense item in the name of screen actress Anita Ekberg. Miss Ekberg said she didn't know how it happened, but Cage later explained it was a short term loan. When it failed, ICT had a four-million-dollar debt.

The grand jury under direction of District Criminal Judge Henry King returned a total of 16 indictments in the first report since it was convened April 1.

Also indicted was G. M. Hammond of Physicians Life and Accident Co., a firm also in receivership; on charges of theft and conspiracy to commit felony.

Other Companies
True bills were returned against persons connected with Colonial Investment Corp., Absolute Security Life Insurance Co. of Alabama and Cassell Base Metals Co. Others named in the indictments accused Lock of "dilatory tactics" and Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, presiding, directed Lock to "stop being dilatory."

Parishhouse gave up when Rep. Harold Parish of Taft brought word that House efforts to salvage the bill had failed.

Earlier in the day the Senate put the final touches on a bill which was the key to a compromise plan assuring a $399 a year pay raise to teachers, estimated to cost some 47 million dollars over the coming two fiscal years.

The bill, sent to the governor, postpones for two years a tax credit of $3,475,000 for three natural gas companies which paid taxes under a law later held unconstitutional.

The Insurance Commission reorganization bill, replacing the present three-member agency with an entirely new governor-appointed board, cleared both chambers by substantial majorities.

The measure provides for a full-time $15,000-a-year insurance board through Aug. 31, 1958. After that — to satisfy Senate demands for a part-time board — the three members will be paid at a rate of $50 a day.

Commended Members
Gov. Daniel commended members of a House-Senate conference committee who worked out the compromise version of the bill. He said in his opinion the final draft was an improvement over the original House proposal.

The governor noted that the bill provides a new Insurance Commission building, moving the agency out of quarters now leased from the International Life Insurance Co.

Other legislative developments included:
The House approved 96-30 and sent to the governor a bill boosting tuition fees at the 18 state supported colleges and universities from $25 to $50.

The House approved a bill broadening condemnation powers in connection with construction of controlled access roads.

The Senate endorsed a House-approved measure opening the way for air conditioning before Oct. 1, 1958 of the historic pink granite capitol.

included Dallas M. Parnell, George S. McGhee, James T. Valentine and B. A. Stuart of Physicians Life, all charged with embezzlement.
James McBrayer was charged on one count of perjury and another in connection with C. M. Forsyth for conspiracy to make a false statement. Both men are with the Absolute Security Life Company, Incorporated, in Alabama.

Robert Lewallen, former president of Industrial Mortgage Investment Corp., was named on a charge of violation of securities regulations.

Walter M. Cassell and C. C. Ballard, former officials of Cassell Base Metals, were indicted on counts of forgery.

Called "Scoundrel"
Cage, the principal in the "insurance scandals," was widely discussed in the two legislative hearings, being called among other things a "scoundrel" by Jerry Holleman, former union officer in the ICT Insurance Co.

His wide ranging activities included interest in 73 other enterprises, according to testimony at the hearings.

Officials said that warrants were being prepared for services against those indicted.

The Physicians Life officers were charged with using $225,000 in company funds to repay personal notes used to incorporate the fund.

Cassell and Ballard were accused of forging and passing a $12,500 check.

Hildy McCoy To Stay In Florida

By CHARLES TAYLOR
United Press Staff Correspondent
MIAMI BEACH (UP)—Freckle-faced Hildy McCoy and the Jewish couple who took her into their home happily celebrated her first grade graduation today, knowing for the first time they will always belong to each other.

Hildy, 6, was to make the welcoming speech to parents and act and dance in a rendition of "Snow White And The Seven Dwarfs" in ceremonies at the Lear Private School.

But no fairy tale could match the real-life drama for Mr. and Mrs. Melvin B. Ellis, Thursday before Gov. Leroy Collins at Tallahassee.

Extradition Request Denied
Collins announced late Thursday after a hearing that he is denying a petition to extradite the Jewish couple to Massachusetts where they would face charges of kidnaping the blonde, blue-eyed child they have reared from infancy. They will be permitted to live in Florida and rear Hildy as a Jew, even though she was born to a Roman Catholic mother.

Hildy's mother, who put her up for adoption and changed her mind when she learned the Ellises were Jewish, sought to have Hildy placed in an orphanage for adoption by a Roman Catholic family. Massachusetts courts upheld her.

The Child's Rights
Collins, a Protestant father of four children, said he recognized the birthright of religious faith, but added:

"The great and good God of all of us, regardless of faith, grants to every child to be born: First, the right to be wanted and secondly, the right to be loved."
The Ellises, he said, had fulfilled these rights for Hildy.

The kidnaping charges filed 14 months after the Jewish couple fled Massachusetts with Hildy were legally "synthetic," Collins said.

The executive decision cannot be appealed. Collins denied Massachusetts authorities permission to file additional briefs.

The Ellises have filed proceedings in a Miami circuit court of adoption of Hildy under Florida laws.

Man Sentenced In Check Case
In the first case tried in three days in County Court, Charles L. Gilbert of 430 N. West was sentenced to 60 days in jail after pleading guilty this morning to a charge of swindling with a worthless check.

The charge was filed on a check given by Gilbert to the Boston Superette Market dated April 2, 1957, for $20.

CHINESE

a U.S. military court-martial acquitted M. Sgt. Robert G. Reynolds of Colorado, Md., of involuntary manslaughter in the death of Chinese Liu Chi-Jan the night of March 20.

Reynolds found Liu peeping through the bathroom window at his wife who was drying herself off after taking a shower. Reynolds told the court-martial he fired in self defense at Liu when the Chinese came at him in the dark as if he were attacking.

The verdict angered the Chinese and throughout Thursday they cursed and jeered Americans on the streets. It was the most violent anti-American sentiment seen on Formosa. It was the first demonstration against a U.S. embassy since the Communist-led riots in Nanking before Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek fled to Formosa.

Mrs. Liu, widow of the victim, appeared before the embassy this morning to stage a "hunger strike." She carried signs in Chinese and English proclaiming: "The killer Reynolds is innocent? Protest against the United States court-martial as an unfair and unjust decision."

Her actions so inflamed the crowd of 400 outside the embassy they began throwing stones, smashing the embassy windows. Hundreds of Chinese poured in from the side streets and the mob grew to thousands, shrieking their hatred of the Americans.

Three truckloads of Chinese police arrived on the scene with rifles but not bayonets. They remained in their trucks. Chinese Nationalist fire companies also arrived but made no effort to try to stop the mob.

Graham Calls N.Y. Crusade Success
NEW YORK (UP)—Evangelist Billy Graham said Thursday night his ambitious New York Crusade so far has "given me a feeling down deep, a glorious sensing in my soul that it will be a great success."

He said in an interview with the United Press following his ninth sermon in Madison Square Garden that "this conviction, and how it progresses or regresses, will be the deciding factor as to whether we end the crusade June 30, as scheduled, or run it through the summer."

Graham said that another great factor was "the number of decisions for Christ that come out of our meetings here." He said that so far the 5,830 "decisions" made by New Yorkers in the first nine days of the crusade has made him feel "better than I have in my life."

Thursday night, an estimated 768 persons came forward to make decisions for Christ following Graham's sermon on "The Spiritual Disease of The Heart."

Dog Show Scheduled In Amarillo

The 10th Annual Spring Pure-bred dog Sanction Match of the Panhandle Kennel Club will be held at the Amarillo Community Center, 609 Carolina, on Sunday, May 26 according to Mrs. Gordon K. Morrison, president. Two prominent judges will officiate. Capt. Will Judy, Chicago, Editor of Dog World, will judge conformation classes, and Mr. Robert Krohn of Los Alamos, N. Mex., will judge obedience classes. Judging will start at 1 o'clock.

Besides editing Dog World Magazine, Capt. Will Judy is author of the Dog Encyclopedia and a seven other books on dogs; founder of National Dog Week, General Chairman of Oldtimers of the Kennel World, an organization requiring at least twenty years of activity in the professional dog field.

He is the world's leading international dog show judge, having judged in 21 foreign countries, from the farthest North dog show in Alaska, to the farthest South in Kimberly, South Africa. He has just returned from four weeks in India and Ceylon judging dog shows. His military title dates from World War I, where he was decorated with the Silver Star for bravery.

Mr. Robert D. Krohn, Obedience Judge, a graduate Electrical Engineer is located at the Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory. He is a breeder of Belgian Sheepdogs. He helped organize the Los Alamos Dog Obedience Club, and is a licensed American Kennel Club Obedience Judge.

Mrs. Morrison said that the show is open to all pure-bred dogs. Classes are Puppy Sweetstakes, ages ranging from 3 months to 12 months; Open Classes; Obedience; Children's Handling Classes; and a Parade of AKC Champions. Entries are $1.50 for each class. Never put a steak into a broiler directly from the refrigerator. Take it out at least an hour before you light the broiler if you want a steak with flavor. Entries can be made up to 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

2 Incidents Widen U. S., Allies Rift

By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent
Two recent incidents have intensified a growing problem between the United States and some of its closest allies.

The incidents involve the extent to which local courts have jurisdiction over American military personnel stationed in foreign countries.

In one incident, Japanese authorities demanded that an Army sergeant who killed a trespassing Japanese woman on a firing range be turned over to their courts for trial.

In the Formosa incident, the question of jurisdiction does not arise. American courts martial have full jurisdiction over all American soldiers stationed on the Nationalist stronghold island of Formosa.

It's no joke when you need a bundle like $990, and you are exactly $990 short. Every man jack at S.I.C. knows all about that from his own past troubles with personal shortages. No wonder every one of us is so glad to fix it up so someone else can get the $990 HE needs—gets it quick, easy and private. And with that great big S.I.C. SMILE thrown in. And look: $47.71 a month, 24 months, repays that $990 S.I.C. loan. How about that? Come SOS-SIC mand in Japan agreed to surrender Girard. But Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson overruled this decision and ordered that Girard be kept in Army custody.

Administration Dispute Reported
Tokyo dispatches report that there is a dispute between Wilson and the State Department, which wants Girard surrendered.

On Formosa, the wife of M. Sgt. Robert G. Reynolds, of Coloma, Md., saw a Chinese man staring through a bathroom window at her home while she took a shower. Reynolds ran outside with a pistol and killed the peeping tom. He said that he thought the Chinese was about to attack him. Reynolds is on trial by court martial, charged with manslaughter.

The issue of court jurisdiction over American soldiers stationed in foreign countries has arisen previously in several countries.

The agreement with Japan is similar to that covering American soldiers stationed in European countries which are members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. But the Japanese incident has become serious.

Citizens-For-Eisenhower To Spend Big In '58 Elections

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—The politically off-beat organization known as Citizens - for - Eisenhower has money in the bank and plans to spend a lot of it in next year's congressional campaign.

C-for-E was set up in 1952 with two objectives. It reached both. They were (1) to raise money from sources which regular Republican organizations could not tap and (2) to rally voters who might not respond to regular Republican campaign efforts.

The events of 1958 will prove, of course, whether C-for-E campaigning is on the professional or the amateur beam. On the amateur beam, the organization might use its funds in an effort to defeat some of the congressional Republicans who have been opposing the President.

Wont Be So
The United Press informed that Citizens - for - Eisenhower would not be so engaged in 1958. Three notable Republican senators who often have given Eisenhower the back of their hands will be up for reelection next year. They are: Sens. John W. Bricker (Ohio), William E. Jenner (Ind.) and George W. Malone (Nev.). These men are conservatives, who spurn new party labels such as the modern Republicanism with which the President seeks to re-christen his party.

As of now, however, it is not likely that Citizens-for - Eisenhower money and efforts will be used against these senators or against any Republican candidates next year. The organization's purpose, instead, is to devote its funds and efforts solely to the election of Republicans more closely associated with the White House program.

It will be an all-out, big money effort, from which candidates such as Bricker or Jenner, for example, would benefit indirectly. For every dollar contributed by C-for-E to the election of an Eisenhower Republican candidate would free regular party funds to help any of all other Republican candidates.

Political Dollars Short
There is a political saying to the effect that money may not be everything, but it is way ahead of whatever may be in second place. Regular Republican and Democratic organizations are having trouble now raising funds. Republican regional meetings reflect that. Several Republican state chairmen reported last weekend in Cincinnati that they were having difficulty getting up the money. They attributed this in considerable part to grass roots dissatisfaction with the Eisenhower budget.

Citizens - for - Eisenhower has $200,000 banked in New York. C-for-E came out of the 1956 campaign with 141 sub-organizations throughout the United States. The combined resources of the parent and subsidiary organizations is about one million dollars with more to be raised.

That money, professionally administered, will be a campaign factor next year.

AROUND THE WORLD

FISH, BEWARE!—Joan Salvato, the national women's fly and bait-casting champion, is showing tiny Ricky Furman how to hold a rod at a lake in New York's Central Park. This took place at the free fishing clinic for children.

SMALL HANDFUL—When ex-heavyweight champ, Primo Carnera, reached a New York airport from the West Coast, he posed with part of a cargo of baby chickens. They make him look even bigger than he is.

THIS TIME OF YEAR—All is right with the world, at least in the Bay Ridge section of Brooklyn, N. Y., as it's batter up once more. To make things even better, the Dodgers are back home and neighborhood kids are all out doing their best to become future members of their favorite team. They're off to a mighty good start.

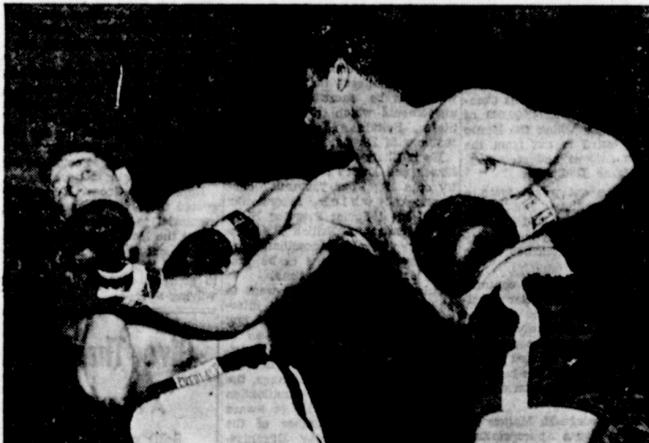

HEADING HOME—Giving it the old college try, White Sox outfielder Jim Rivera dives headfirst for the plate to score in the sixth inning of the Sox-A's game in Kansas City, Mo. Catcher Hal Smith is waiting for the late throw. Rivera scooted home while teammate Bubba Phillips was being thrown out at first. The Chicago team won, 5-3.

LUCKY OLD SUN—Ann McFadyes, an Aquamaid at Cypress Gardens, Fla., doesn't take any chances on getting too much shade from her umbrella. She's shown on the beach at St. Petersburg as she lets the Florida sun see her radiant smile. It might well try to reflect some of it.

THE UNEXPECTED—Hal McVey, left, holds a 48-pound sponbill catfish and his father, Howard, has the head of a second one that weighed 46 pounds. The elder McVey, a resident of Olathe, Kan., and son Hal, from Denver, caught them below the dam at Ocoola, Mo.

BACKING UP—Yvon Durelle, left, of Canada, is bending backward to avoid a punch thrown by Angelo DeFendis, of Brooklyn. Durelle won the fight in New York by a majority decision.

DOUBLE HONORS—Not one, but two trophies are displayed by 17-year-old Norman Twitchell, of Farmington, Maine. He had just won both the United States Eastern Giant Slalom and the Sugarloaf Giant Slalom at Sugarloaf Mountain in Crockertown. The high school athlete recorded a sizzling time of 1:18 on his run through 53 gates.

HERE'S HOW—Bob Gutowski, chemistry student from Occidental College, sailed gracefully over the bar at 15 feet 8 3/4 inches, to set a new outdoor pole vault record. This took place during the Occidental-Stanford University track meet in Stanford, Calif. Cornelius Warmerdam set the old mark of 15 feet 7 3/4 inches in 1942. He still holds the world indoor record.

THESE ARE THE DAYS—At the 35th annual convention of the National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters in Chicago, Joyce Cole showed the very latest thing. The bicycle is equipped with a radio, and the sensitive receiver is powered by dry cell batteries to give kids the kind of service their parents get in their automobiles.

TAKING IT EASY—Elmer Zucker, of San Mateo, Calif., is putting a good idea to use for son, Todd, a Little Leaguer. Zucker's swinging 12 feet of stout cord with a semi-hard baseball on the end of a two-foot pole. He swings the ball around his head and lets the lad bat away to his heart's content. When Todd connects—Wow!

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

J. E. NEELY, Pastor
First Assembly of God Church
500 S. Cuyler St., Pampa, Texas

I KINGS 8:56. "Blessed be the Lord . . . there hath not failed on word of all His good promise . . ."

This happy burst of praise came spontaneously from the lips of Solomon at the dedication of the temple, it was an occasion of reviewing the many blessings and graces that Israel had received from the bountiful hand of God. In reflecting on their national history everything reflected to God's goodness, and faithfulness. Every failure was traceable to their own human weakness, but even in these God's goodness has prevailed to their Good. Solomon said, "There hath not failed one word of all his good promise."

"All who read the Bible soon become aware it is a book full of many gracious promises. There is a promise for every human need, longing, and desire in the Bible. These promises are to taken at face value, never to be discounted nor ignored. "Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for He is faithful that promised;) Heb. 10:23

The tragedy of our day is that men have forgotten the promises of God, and all too many times have gone about trying to meet their problems without God's help. The sad commentary of the moral decline, increased divorce, juvenile delinquency, crime should make us know we need more of a God than our own desires, and pleasures can create. We need the rebirth of the knowledge of the Miracle working God who can and will keep every promise written in the Bible.

We teach our children to sing, "Every promise in the Book is mine, every chapter, every verse every line." . . . Every adult needs to experience the great truth of this chorus. Till we can leave a strong spiritual heritage to our children as Solomon did, and say with conviction to all who will hear, "There hath not failed one word of all His good promise."

A New Aid Policy For Pacific Coast Conferences

SPOKANE, Wash. (UP)—The Pacific Coast Conference had a new aid to athletes policy today along with the same old bugaboo of secession which has plagued the group since last year's disclosure of illegal payoffs.

Even while the conference's faculty members were loosening the lid Thursday on the amount of money an athlete can receive, alumni representatives of penalized UCLA were preparing to go before the regents today in Westwood and discuss the school's relationship with the conference.

A move to have next fall's crop of banned seniors at UCLA and Southern California play for half the season as was the case last year was beaten down Wednesday by the PCC by a vote of 5-4.

"We haven't decided what is the right thing to do yet," Alumni Association Director Harry J. Longway said. "If withdrawal is the right thing, then that's what we might do. We're trying to be sensible about the whole matter."

Meanwhile, back at the meeting, the following changes were made:

Bob Rosburg Takes Lead In The Kansas City Open

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UP)—Bob Rosburg, San Francisco professional regarded as one of golf's putting artists, held a one stroke edge today as the second round started in the $22,000 Kansas City Open.

The 30-year-old Californian, known for his baseball grip, mastered the Hillcrest Country Club's fast, rolling greens for a 5 under par 67 in Thursday's opening round.

Rosburg dropped birdie putts from 1 to 20 feet and was never over par, finishing with a 15-footer on No. 18. He began poorly, missing short putts on the first two holes. He hit his initial birdies on the eighth and ninth holes for a 34 on the out nine. He came home in 33.

Former U.S. Open champion Lloyd Mangrum, Apple Valley, Calif., was just a stroke off Rosburg's performance while Ed Furgo, St. Andrew, Ill., had a 70.

Defending champion Bob Wingard, Odessa, Tex., also cut two strokes off Hillcrest's par-72 as did Al Besselink, Grossingers, N.Y.; Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex.; Pat Schwab, Dayton; Tom Nieporte, Cincinnati and Gary Player, Johannesburg, South Africa.

Masters champion Doug Ford, Mahopac, N.Y., the favorite, and former U.S. Open champion Jack Fleck, Rochester, Minn., were deduced with 72's with 11 other golfers.

'Birdie' Chirping Over A Pitcher Bitter Hearing On IBC Is Expected

NEW YORK (UP)—The judge told attorneys for both sides to "leave your boxing gloves home" when they resume arguments at next Wednesday's continuation of the fight-monopoly hearing in federal court, but the battle is expected to be increasingly bitter.

Lawrence Gochberg, a vigorous young attorney for the Anti-Trust Division of the Department of Justice, charges that lawyers for Jim Norris and his boxing enterprises are "trying to undermine the findings" of Judge Sylvester Ryan.

On March 8, Ryan found the Norris outfit guilty of monopoly in the conduct of title fights. The period of anti-trust violations extended from June 16, 1949 to May 15, 1953, the government charged, before the case first came before a judge in February, 1954.

But now, Gochberg accuses the Norris attorneys of trying to prove by witnesses and evidence that changes in the Norris enterprises since 1953 have eliminated monopoly conditions and should earn very lenient decrees in Ryan's final judgment. The final judgment is expected to be handed down in two or three weeks.

At Thursday's abbreviated three-hour session, young Gochberg was up and down like a jumping-jack as he interposed objection after objection to the testimony of Truman Gibson, secretary to both International Boxing Clubs of New York and Illinois.

And he engaged in wrangles with John F. Caskey, a defense attorney who was questioning Gibson and introducing a series of financial records of the various boxing enterprises as exhibits.

Earlier in the session the judge, while listening to Gibson's testimony about how the Madison Square Garden Corp. rented the Garden to its subsidiary, the New York IBC, interrupted and said he might "throw open the doors" of the Garden to independent promoters. He said he probably would insert a decree to that effect in his final judgment.

Southpaw Don Gross Wins Fourth Consecutive Game

By TIM MORIARTY
Unltd. Press Sports Writer
Manager Birdie Tebbetts of the Cincinnati Redlegs was really chirping today over the sudden emergence of southpaw Don Gross as a starting pitcher.

Strapped for pitching talent three weeks ago, Tebbetts pulled Gross out of the bullpen and started working him into Cincinnati's regular rotation. It was a move that could lead the Redlegs to their first National League pennant since 1940.

Since getting his big chance, Gross has posted four straight victories for the front-running Redlegs, including a 4-2 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals Thursday night that enabled Cincinnati to open a two-game lead over the idle Milwaukee Braves.

What's the story behind the sudden success of a pitcher who was farmed out to Havana last year "for experience," and now has allowed only 24 hits and seven earned runs in his last four games?

According to Tebbetts, Gross, with the help of coach Tom Ferrick, has learned to throw a change-up pitch almost overnight. "The story of every unsuccessful pitcher is the story of one extra pitch he needed to win," explained Tebbetts. "Many were made by finding it. For instance, Carl Hubbell with his screwball, Eloy Face with his forkball, and Bob Friend and Hal Jeffcoat with their sliders."

"This change-up pitch could make Gross," the articulate Cincinnati manager added hopefully. "In Thursday night's game—the only scheduled major league contest—manager Fred Hutchinson shook up the slumping Cardinals by switching third baseman Ken Boyer to center field, moving shortstop Eddie Kasko to third, and using Eddie Miksis in right field."

But with Gross losing that change-up pitch, the Cardinals looked helpless in suffering their fifth straight defeat. Gross allowed only three hits until the ninth when he gave up singles to Don Blasingame, Stan Musial and Wally Moon.

Moon's single with two out scored Blasingame and extended his hitting streak through 16 straight games. Taking no chances, Tebbetts then yanked Gross in favor of Tom Aker, who retired pinch-hitter Joe Cunningham on a game-ending liner to right fielder Wally Post.

The Redlegs, meanwhile, had rapped loser Lanky McDaniel for five runs in the third inning. Post's two-run home, and a two-run single by Roy McMillan featured the big inning. Musial homered in the fourth inning, while Post knocked in Cincinnati's sixth run with a single in the sixth.

Port Arthur Is Not Ready To Fold After All

DALLAS (UP)—Big State League President Hal Vratas said remarks he made about the Port Arthur ball club folding "were misinterpreted" and that the league is prepared to operate with five clubs "as long as Port Arthur is operative."

Sayles earlier had been quoted as saying that the Port Arthur club was folding and that the league would operate with only four clubs—Abilene, Corpus Christi, Beaumont and Victoria.

At the same time he was reported to have said that Socs Vratas, owner of the Port Arthur club, had told him by phone that he was tossing in the towel—a move that caused Sayles and league directors to rescind an earlier decision to have the league operate the Wichita Falls franchise.

Sayles told United Press Thursday "We still are not going through with league operation of Wichita Falls because of the precarious position of the Port Arthur club."

"But, if Vratas wants to keep operating in Port Arthur or move the club to some other acceptable city, we'll go as a five team league."

"I made no statement that the Port Arthur club was dropping out of the league," Sayles said in reference to the Wichita Falls dispatch.

Drew Only 300
Sayles said Vratas told him the club drew only 300 people at a recent game and that if "this thing continues we can't continue to operate."

Akins, Beecham In TV Fight

WASHINGTON (UP)—Veteran Virgil Akins and young Jimmy Beecham, a pair of "stringy" sluggers, clash tonight in a nationally televised 10-round welterweight bout at Capitol Arena.

The powerfully-built Akins, fifth-ranked contender for Carmen Basilio's welterweight crown, is a 7-5 favorite over Beecham.

Bev Hanson Leads In Fem Open

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (UP)—Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif., took a three-stroke lead into today's second round of the first annual $7,500 Land of the Sky Women's Open golf tournament.

Miss Hanson fired a six-under-par 68 Thursday to set a new women's course record over the rolling, 6,200-yard Asheville Country Club course. She finished three strokes ahead of 20-year-old Wiffi Smith of St. Clair, Mich.

The tall Californian, playing with pre-tournament favorite Marlene Bauer Hage of Dallas, Tex., was in trouble early in the round but finished the front nine with a four-under-par 33. She had a 35 on the second nine.

Mrs. Hage matched Miss Hanson's powerful drives but had trouble with her irons as she finished the round with a one-over-par 75 for a tie for sixth place.

Jo Anne Prentice of Birmingham, Ala., with a 73, was the only other player in the field of 22 professionals and 10 amateurs to break par. Tied at even-par 74 were Kathy Cornelius of Dayton, Ohio, and 19-year-old Diane Garrett of Houston, Tex.

Once Upon A Time There Was A Team Called 'The Yankees'..

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UP)—Once upon a time there was a team named the New York Yankees which won three American League pennants in a row and then finished second.

Before you rush out to sell your stocks, or start practicing on a trampoline, let me advise you that in one man's opinion this is only a temporary situation and come October it will be more different than spats with sports shoes.

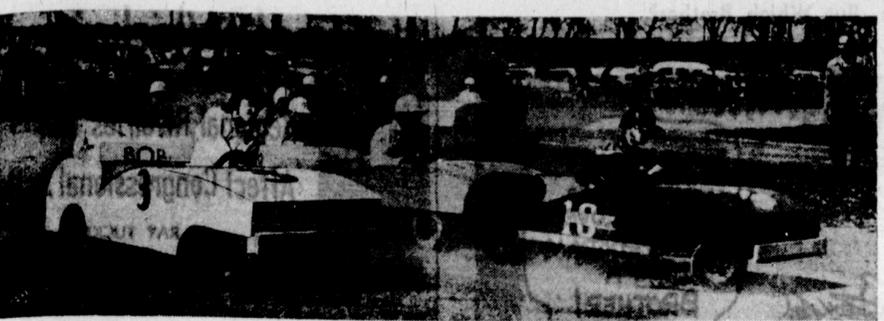

The difficulty seems to have to do with outside interests: Name-ly the Chicago White Sox, test-imonials, soft drinks, bowling alleys, the Detroit Tigers, television shows, magazine writing, the Cleveland Indians, scotch and soda, motels, shoe stores, ham- burger stands and night clubs.

One month after that miserable "collapse" the stock market crashed and people started taking swan dives from open windows. It is to be doubted, even now some 28 years later, that there was any connection whatsoever.

This brave stand is taken de- spite a current mood in Manhat- tan that the day of judgment is just around the corner of 161st St. At that site is located a once bright grassy plot surrounded by concrete known as the house that Ruth built. And the gloom there today is thicker than Turkish cof- fee.

So all of a sudden the fellows in the crisp, gray pinstripes have feet of clay. And the rest of the league starts treating them as if they are ordinary mortals.

Local Legion Agrees Carlsbad In To Lease Oiler Park 1st Division; Clovis Wins

The Pampa American Legion Post 334 voted last night to approve a lease agreement with R. Mills for the lease of Oiler Park to the Legion for $1. Included in the agreement, according to Leader Jones, post commander, would be a purchase option on the buildings and equipment.

The cost of leasing the park would actually be over $1 as the Legion would have to pay for insurance and other items.

The decision to agree to the lease was made at a meeting held in the Legion Post last night.

The local Legion Post now will proceed with organization of a Junior American Legion baseball team.

All boys 16 and 17 years old and who will not be 18 before September 1, 1957, have been urged to report to Oiler Park at 9:30 a.m. Saturday for try-outs.

Those interested in trying out for the team should also reside in the Pampa School District.

Try-outs will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, at 4 p.m. Saturday and at 3 p.m. Sunday, according to co-managers Deck Woldt, Joe Fortin and Frank Kempa.

Those boys wishing to play with the team have been urged to be present at all three try-outs.

The try-outs will be held in two-hour periods.

Boys trying-out should bring their own gloves, shoes and other personal equipment. Bats and balls will be furnished by the Legion during the try-outs. Dressing room, towels and shower facilities are available.

The team will begin an exhibition schedule early in June and will start district play the last of June. Other towns in the Panhandle are expected to have teams, also, and all will compete in the same league.

Patterson, 'Hurricane' Fight Sought

NEW YORK (UP)—Julius Helfand hopes to pair Floyd Patterson and Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson today for their independently promoted July heavyweight title fight.

"Only a last-minute snarl prevents their signing," said Chairman Helfand of the N.Y. state Athletic Commission, "and I hope to fix that quickly at today's commission meeting."

He added, "I'd like to have the signing then and there."

The snarl is a last-minute demand by promoter Emil Lence and Gus D'Amato, champion Patterson's manager, that Jackson sign a return-bout contract and permit a portion of his purse to be held in escrow as a guarantee he'll give Floyd a return title shot if he wins the crown.

"I'll approve a contract for a single return title fight," Helfand said. "But there can be only one return — not a series. However, I do not approve Jackson's being forced to put up part of his purse as a guarantee."

KNOW THE ROPES

By Gordon H. Miller

The FABULOUS MOOLAH, one of the real beauties in the wrestling world today — known as the Princess of the Mat — holds the Maryland State Championship — also the World's Championship title, sanctioned by Maryland State Wrestling Commission.

MOOLAH has met all challengers for her title and the $5,000 Gold-Diamond Studded Belt, which belongs to her. Up to date, she is undefeated. The Princess was born in the United States. She learned some of her wrestling from one of her brothers, who was a very good amateur wrestler. Then she went on a tour to South Africa. It was there, when she was defeating every opponent, that the big promoters noticed her. They gave her a Title Match with the champion of South Africa, which went to a draw. It was the talk of the country... Everyone demanded a rematch, so six months later, in Johannesburg, the match took place. 25,000 fans witnessed PRINCESS MOOLAH defeat their champion. MOOLAH decided to return home to the country she loves... Unknown to her, the promoters here were anxious to book her because of her fine record.

Today, MOOLAH is one of the greatest and biggest Box Office attractions in the business. Wrestling fans see strange and wonderful sights when the Magnificent MOOLAH appears. She is magnificent in her ring regalia and her wrestling style. Exotic, is the only word to use for her ring attire, for she never wears the same outfit in the same arena more than once. She is known as the best dressed girl wrestler ever to appear in any rings.

MOOLAH, once called Slave Girl, is never still a minute... traveling from state to state... making appearances in different cities in which she is in such demand. Every time she has a second to spare, you will find her designing a new outfit to wear in the ring, or you may find her working out, trying new and different holds for her next match.

The fans, all over the nation, know when the FABULOUS MOOLAH appears. They are sure of seeing the number one girl wrestler today. They also know that they will witness an exciting match, for she provides loads of action every second of her bout.

Don't miss this great attraction... THE FABULOUS PRINCESS MOOLAH! against Bonita White Head, 2 out of three falls or 45 minute time limit.

The opening bout will find an old favorite Farmer Jones, and his pet peg, Trooper, in a one fall or twenty minute match, going after Tommy Phelps. Did you know that Tommy Phelps has his own special way of doing road work? He walks his new born baby half the night. The main event finds "Dangerous Dory" Funk against Ivan Kola in a one hour time limit or best two out of three falls. It should be some what of an endurance battle with Funks spinning toe hold and Kola's knee type choke hold. Should be fun to see how this one comes out, with both men being of the rough and rugged type.

May I take this opportunity to let you in on a little secret? Hardly a day goes by that some crippled child somewhere somehow isn't helped to regain a more normal way of life thru Shriners of America. Your local Pampa Shrine Club is a big part of this wonderful work and it is thru the help of you wrestling fans that we are able to do our part in helping crippled children in our own area. To you we say, many, many thanks.

Actor Fights Back When Movie Attacked By Boxer

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer
HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Actor Cameron Mitchell is recovering from an ulcer operation in his bed at home today but he suffered worse pain, "a hit below the belt," he says, when he heard Boxer Barney Ross turned movie critic.

Mitchell portrayed Ross, an narcotics addict, in a movie about the fighter's life, "Monkey On My Back". The actor's enthusiastic friends raved he should "cop an Oscar nomination—but the first reaction was a blast from Barney.

In a New York interview, Barney rapped the picture as being "cheap sensationalism". He also filed a suit claiming the ads damaged his reputation.

But Mitchell rallied in an interview himself to deliver Ross a return uppercut.

"He was on the set every day of shooting," said Mitchell, talking rapidly with indignation, "Every day he saw the rushes and he'd throw his arms around me, kiss me and say, 'What a fantastic job this boy is doing.' He saw the finished picture and said it was the greatest movie ever made! He has a percentage of the profits—so why would he hurt our picture? He has no right to tear apart this labor of love."

Mitchell whipped out a newspaper clipping of an interview Ross gave here last February. "I'm doing such a great job as me I can't hardly believe it," exclaimed Mitchell with the usual pride of an actor.

"Barney said, 'I've waited so long for this picture to be made with truth and honesty'. Does that sound like a man who later would say this picture is trash?"

"Monkey on my Back" is part of a new trend for pictures about narcotics, and is more daring than "The Man with a Golden Arm" and "A Hatful of Rain". In "Monkey" Mitchell jabs a needle into his arm, a scene once taboo with Hollywood censors.

"But Barney coached me for that scene himself," Mitchell said. "He told me how your face nearly pop out, how your eye gets warm, how there's a tremendous shock."

"He made many suggestions, about the pain in the stomach, the cramps, nausea and kicking of legs. Some things we couldn't use because they were too strong—such as how he used to rip sheets and mattresses apart."

What Misery Comes From A Casual Joke

By DOC QUIGG
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (UP)—The time has come again to point out how much suffering goes on in this fair burg through the medium of the casual joke that fair weather friends thrust upon you without pity.

The awful thinearea ii ETTI once more:

The awful things are piling up like the rumor about Julie Andrews, the female lead in the tremendously successful musical "My Fair Lady" who sings the "Wouldn't It Be Lovely" number, among others. The story is that she has written her autobiography. Title: "Lady Lovely's Chatter."

And then there's the one about the television quiz program which as its grand award offered the following: First prize, a week in Chicago; second prize, two weeks in Chicago.
