

Mother Mary Zinn Stands On Eve Of Reaching Her 100th Birthday

Mrs. Mary Zinn, known and loved by a host of friends as simply Mother Zinn, today is only one day from her cherished ambition to live to be 100 years old.

Members of the First Methodist church, which she helped to organize in 1883, plan a quiet and informal party Monday evening on the church lawn in her honor.

Since Mother Zinn's health will not permit undue excitement, there will be some motion pictures of her projected, her favorite hymns sung and a gift presented to her.

Intimate friends have suggested that one good way to observe the occasion would be to send her birthday cards, which she can enjoy at her leisure.

With the exception of Mrs. Wil- PROCLAMATION Whereas, Mrs. Mary Zinn will have attained the age of 100 years on Monday, Aug. 19, 1946, and

Whereas, her life has been fruitful as well as long, exemplifying the highest attributes of Christian character; and Whereas, Mother Zinn's years among us have been an inspiration to goodness and have richly earned her the love of all citizens.

Now, therefore, I, George W. Dabney, by virtue of authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Big Spring, do hereby proclaim Monday, Aug. 19, 1946 as "Mother Zinn Day" in Big Spring and urge citizens to give thanks that Mother Zinn has been spared to attain the age of 100 years.

lie Mae Paul, Roswell, N. M., her grand-children will be here for a birthday dinner. Included are Mrs. Guy Cravens who cares for Mrs. Zinn, Mrs. Roy M. Mason, Ft. Worth, Mrs. Gladys Mitchell, Dallas, and Frank Baggett, Houston.

Mrs. Zinn has only one member of her immediate family living—her "baby" sister, Mrs. Laura Coleman, 82, Portland, Ore. Among her relatives are 14 great grand children and five great-great grandchildren.

Mrs. Zinn's lifetime covers an epochal century in which she has shared such varying experiences as riding in an ox cart and an airplane.

Despite the fact that she was reared in the section of Missouri which produced the historic Jayhawk raids and the James brothers, Mrs. Zinn has always been the epitome of serenity and meekness. Her chief enjoyment in life has been her religion.

"I enjoy my religion," she once said. "Sometimes, I get almost shouting happy here all by myself."

And she gets almost shouting happy, too, as she sits in her cane bottom chair outside the chancel rail below the altar box and looks up intently at the minister.

On those occasions when members recognized her birthday, she would invariably be beside herself with joy, characteristically ending her remarks with: "I love everybody."

Mrs. Zinn was born in Pettus county Missouri on Aug. 19, 1846 when the war with Mexico was getting underway, and slavery was becoming a burning issue. Missouri was a border state and was subjected to undue bitterness, for when the Yanks and Rebels were not fighting in the area, the Bushwhackers and Jayhawkers were terrorizing the country. On more than one occasion she saw homes of Southern sympathizers burned. She knew, too, of the James brothers, who retaliated against these raids and carried on a historic program of robbery.

It was in 1869 that a young cattleman, R. B. Zinn, drove a herd to Missouri and met and fell in love with her. He married her and carried on a historic program of robbery.

She saw full storehouses of food and supplies depleted during the Civil war and, being the eldest child, hauled the rails which her father split.

Rioting Renewed In Calcutta; Death Toll 270

Moslems and Hindus Clash Two Days; Army Brings Order

CALCUTTA, Aug. 17 (AP) Rioting Moslems and Hindus fought a pitched battle in central Calcutta tonight and casualties mounted steadily from two days of bloody clashes.

Reuters said the toll was estimated at 270 killed and 1,600 injured. Other reports said more than 2,000 had been hurt.

British army units, some using armored cars, helped hardpressed police attempting to restore order.

Gunfire sounded in the streets. Many victims were stabbed. Some shops were burned and others looted. Time and again police opened fire to break up angry crowds of Hindus and Moslems.

The rioting started yesterday during the Moslem league's observance of a "direct action day" in protest against British proposals for Indian independence and the Indus viess on the plain. Rioting and street clashes continued through the night, abating somewhat by early morning, and then burst out anew today and this evening.

The governor of Bengal, Sir Frederick Burrows, in a broadcast urged persons to keep off the streets and declared it was "discreditable that, on the eve of self-government, the largest city in India should become a victim of mob rule."

Police published a stern order prohibiting the assembly of five or more persons who carried dangerous weapons. But Indians roaming the center of the city defied the order, arming themselves with heavy sticks and clubs. Looting of shops continued unabated.

Some sources said it would be a week before the trouble subsided fully.

GASOLINE TRUCK BLAZING FUNERAL PYRE FOR DRIVER, BUILDINGS BURN

POST, Aug. 17 (AP) — A gasoline tank truck with a capacity load, which was in collision with a light automobile at the intersection of Highway 84 and Main street here early this morning, crashed against a service station, turned into a flaming inferno and a funeral pyre for its driver, and started a raging fire that destroyed buildings in the vicinity.

The blaze left a trail of seared destruction along both sides of the town's main business street as a roaring fuel-fed fire coursed down gutters.

Cecil Wisdom, 36-year-old Lubbock man and driver of the truck, owned by a Lubbock gasoline distributing company, was trapped in the cab and died in the inferno, his body burned almost to a crisp.

The truck was being driven north on the highway when it was in collision with a car driven by Jesse Dale Windham, about 28, of Post.

A woman who identified herself at the Post Clinic, where she was treated, as Evelyn Jennings, of Southland, was riding in the truck, but miraculously escaped with injuries, and burns that required only first aid treatment.

Windham suffered only a slight bruise on the forehead. The truck went out of control, jackknifed into the air from the own weight and momentum, rolled over, snapping a telephone pole in its path, and landed upside down against the wall of a service station.

Gasoline, pouring from various openings in the big tank, burst into flames, believed set off either from a friction spark or from electric current.

Parley Rejects Red Objection; Iran Invited

PARIS, Aug. 17 (AP) — The European peace conference, turning down Russian objections, voted 15 to 6 today to invite Austria to present its views on the draft treaty with Italy, and then approved unanimously a Soviet suggestion that Iran also be invited.

Championed by Britain and supported by the United States, the Austrian proposal provided that the former enemy state be invited to explain its point of view on the Italian treaty "on the same terms as Albania, Mexico, Cuba and Egypt."

All six Slav nations opposed the move, which a Russian delegate said was intended to air Austria's claim to the south tyrol.

The debate prompted a suggestion that the Big Four hold meetings outside the plenary sessions to speed the work of the conference, which has not yet gotten down to the task for which it was summoned—the drawing of recommendations to the foreign ministers' council on the treaties for Italy, Finland and the Balkan nations.

The conference wound up its third week today, and impatience over delay has been manifest among the smaller nations.

Soviet delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky declared the object of the proposal was to bring up Austria's claim to the south tyrol "which was rejected by the council of foreign ministers."

Hector McNeill of the British delegation asserted that failure to hear Austria on the future of the Italo-Austrian frontier would be "discrimination" by the peace conference because it had established a policy of "permitting both sides to be heard here."

Two highway crashes in this vicinity Friday afternoon brought injuries to 10 people, one perhaps seriously.

Ben Shrader, 27, operator of the cafe at Ranch Inn, and his two and a half year old son, Connie Ray, were hurt when their car was struck 1.7 miles west of the city limits by one driven by John A. Singleton, 21, according to Highway Patrolmen Bill Beeson and John Strother.

Extent of Shrader's injuries had not been determined Saturday evening and the child had a broken leg. Singleton was badly shaken and his brother, Chubby Singleton, 20, who was picked up by Sheriff Bob Wolf six hours after the crash, had a deep scalp wound. Homer Williams, 19, a soldier who lives south of Lamesa, where the Singleton's reside, was hospitalized. Beeson said a driving charge would be lodged against John Singleton, who was going west when his car collided with the eastbound Shrader vehicle.

Doubt about the recovery of Joe Thorpe, 20, passenger in a car driven by L. J. Lynch, 22, Colorado City, was expressed Saturday at a Colorado City hospital, where he was being treated. Thorpe had a broken thigh and arm and other injuries, sustained in a collision Friday at 2:55 p. m. near the Mitchell county line.

Beeson said one driven by 1st Lt. Jack Isaac Gross, 23, Williams Field, Ariz., when Lt. Gross, who was westbound, veered to the left to avoid a car approaching on his side. Eoe Barnfield, 40, who had facial cuts, and Perry Ratliff, 31, who was shaken, were passengers in the Lynch car. They were all from Colorado City. Charges of no drivers license were filed Saturday at Colorado City against Lynch, said Beeson.

No one was hurt in a collision in the 2200 block of Scurry Friday at 9:30 p. m. between cars driven by Harold J. Johnston and Orville O. Robinson, both of Big Spring.

Hijackers Hold Up Lubbock Food Mart

LUBBOCK, Aug. 17 (AP) — Two hijackers, at least one of them armed with a .45 calibre pistol, entered a big super foods market here about 10:15 o'clock tonight, gathered up about $5,000 in cash and checks and escaped with it after firing one shot into the floor when an employe made an attempt to stop them.

Neither of the hijackers was masked, although one was reported to have black on his face.

Jews Aroused; Bombing Warned

HAIFA, Palestine, Aug. 17 (AP) A mystery voice harangued crowds of angry Jews today, urging them to "be prepared for anything" as the entire port city of Haifa stirred restively to ominous mutterings against deportation of more illegal immigrants to Cyprus.

British officials were hopeful that the new shipment of 1,400 refugees could be carried out tonight without a new outburst of violence in the tense port. A first attempt to get the operation under way last night was abandoned in the face of opposition from the immigrants themselves.

A high police official said the immigrants aboard the illegal ships "23" and "Fenice" in Haifa harbor first had promised to cooperate in the transshipment operation.

Thousands of Jews gathered early in the day for a demonstration called to protest the new transshipment.

The "Voice of Israel," clandestine radio of Hagana, Jewish underground organization broadcast calls at 15 minute intervals throughout the morning for the meeting, but warned Jews against going into the harbor or against making "useless sacrifices." It told them that there was "nothing you can do just now."

The tense war of nerves which has kept Jerusalem on edge for days was continued in that city, meanwhile, when two more mysterious warnings were received this afternoon that the postoffice would be bombed. The building promptly was evacuated and searched each time, but once again nothing was found. A sentry once fired a shot during the second incident but no one was hit.

Meanwhile, much cooler weather was moving down from Canada where fears of possible frost damage were expressed for the wheat crop in Alberta. A half inch of wet snow fell at Calgary.

Violence Ruled Out In Baseball Scout's Death In Dallas Hotel Room

DALLAS, Aug. 17 (AP)—Justice of the Peace W. L. Sterrett said late today that the death of Edward Leslie Wilson, 37, baseball scout for the St. Louis Cardinals, was "apparently not due to violence."

Wilson, whose nude, blood-streaked body was found by a maid in his fourth-floor room of a small hotel here today, was at first believed to have been the victim of a beating.

Sterrett said he based his opinion on the results of an autopsy conducted by Dr. Charles T. Ashworth, chief pathologist at Parkland hospital and Dr. Morton Mason, chief toxicologist at the hospital.

The justice of the peace said the doctors reported that no marks of violence capable of causing death were found on the body. Both medical examiners reported they found evidence of drinking, Sterrett stated.

Fritz said three persons taken into custody at the hotel would be held for further questioning but that there was no evidence to indicate they had any knowledge of the cause of Wilson's death.

One of them, a porter, said he took some ice to Wilson's room at 3:10 a. m. today and found him staggering about the room with blood on his face and body, Fritz stated. The porter said Wilson told him he had fallen and cut himself. The two other persons held were a 33-year-old man, who Fritz said had been arrested many times before by Dallas police, and a 30-year-old woman, both guests at the hotel.

The body was in a sitting position with the back against a wall and the right side supported by a rocking chair. A phone book was under the right arm, in the air. All the man's clothing was scattered throughout the room. The covers from two small beds were on the floor and both mattresses were bloody.

Race Riot Pends In New Jersey

Swedesboro, N. J., Aug. 17 (AP)—Two hundred negroes and white persons scuffled in a restaurant and New Jersey state police were called in to assist local authorities as restless groups of men gathered on the streets.

The groups were quiet but appeared to be "waiting for something to happen," the state police said.

The disturbance started in Andro's restaurant, a state police spokesman said, after negroes had entered a section of the restaurant normally reserved for white patrons.

Escapes Sought

STEPHENVILLE, Aug. 17 (AP)—All county and city peace officers and the state highway patrol from this district, reinforced by Mineral Wells officers, were searching the highways and the Bosque River bottoms late today for three fugitives who escaped from the Erath county jail here early today.

Reviewing The Big Spring -Week-

Joe Pickle

The rumor that a city ordinance has been passed, due to abnormal hot weather, prohibiting citizens from carrying matches is strictly a rumor. It may come to that if something doesn't happen.

Perhaps you have noticed a powdering of the ground in streaks or welts. The experts tell us that this is caused by small ants. Why is not explained. Perhaps it is either too hot for them to walk on top of the ground without some shade or too hard to dig their holes underneath. Even an ant gets to where he doesn't care after so long.

It now appears that the Howard County Junior college housing problem is near solution. At any rate, with proper assurances, officials are taking steps to convert the hospital area at the post into a temporary college. With this clincher to back up the opening announcement, an encouraging amount of interest is being manifested by prospective students. The enrollment may surprise us.

The year 1946 is taking a heavy toll on pioneer residents, perhaps heavier than any single year. L. F. McKay and Mrs. Annie Marie Davies—with residences of more than half a century, died last week.

Still very much alive and on the threshold of her 100 birthday (Monday) is Mother Mary Zinn. She has been nominated for and may receive the orchid on the Tom Brenneman program Monday.

Big Spring Consumes Enough Water To Equal Four Inch Rain In City

Although Big Spring is languishing in one of the most serious droughts in history, the city has managed for its share of water during 1946, according to pumping records of the water department.

The total volume to date is equal to a four and one half inch rain within the corporate limits.

The city water consumption has increased steadily during the year from 39,235,000 gallons in January to 104,083,000 gallons in July, and if the current daily average is maintained until the end of August, the total will be approximately 547,644,000 gallons.

This total represents 1,345 acre feet of water, which would be sufficient to cover 226 square blocks to a depth of three feet. Allowing 3.5 feet a year for evaporation, it would require a 150-acre lake filled to a mean depth of 12.5 feet to supply the city with water for eight months. Moss Creek lake has a maximum of 2,308 acre feet of water, with a total area of 142 acres. Based on the above figures, if Moss Creek lake were full on Jan. 1 and no rain replenished the supply during the year, it would not be sufficient to furnish the town for more than about nine months.

Total area of the city is 3,031 acres, or slightly less than five square miles. Therefore, with the city using 1,345 acre feet of water in eight months, it would require 4.5 inches of rain fall over a five square mile area to replenish the supply.

Mrs. Annie Davies Rites Set Monday

Last rites for Mrs. Annie Marie Davies, widow of W. S. Davies and resident of Big Spring since 1889, will be held at Eberley chapel Monday at 5 p. m.

A daughter, Gertrude Davies Taylor, is due to arrive from Los Angeles, Calif., this evening. A son, Courney Davies, and a grandson, Charles Gordon Davies, reside here.

Mrs. Davies succumbed Thursday evening following a prolonged illness.

Services will be in charge of the Rev. P. D. O'Brien and the Eastern Star will be in charge at the graveside.

School-Bound Vets Advised To Study In Junior Colleges

Administrators of large colleges, seeing their facilities overtaxed by the flood of veterans and knowing that, with swollen enrollment, these veterans cannot get the attention they deserve, are recommending that the ex-servicemen study the advantages of the smaller junior colleges.

Week's Business— Building Activity At Lowest Ebb Of Heavy Year

Building took another nose dive last week, with activity apparently at its slowest ebb of the season. Ten permits were issued by the city, but nine of them were for repair work and they averaged less than $500 each. The total for the week was $5,045, which leaves the year's record in a stalemate within sight of the million-dollar mark for another week. The current total for the year is $925,621.

Cattle began moving to market again in unusual numbers for this period of the season, as the drought continued to pinch on the ranchers. More than 3,200 head were sold at regular auctions in local commission barns. The market for some grades was off slightly the previous week's scale, but animals of lighter weights showed up prominently in receipts.

Property valued at $35,842 was involved in real estate transfers in the county last week, according to warranty deeds filed in the county clerk's office. The total for the year is $2,380,725.

Such a recommendation has come to E. C. Dodd, president of the Howard County Junior College, which is scheduled to open its doors for the first time on Sept. 30. Dodd received a letter, from an official of a large Texas college, which said in part:

"It will be so much better if many of these veterans will take advantage of the splendid opportunities of junior college until we get over this emergency, and then transfer for the junior and senior year. An intelligent choice of courses for a given curriculum, such as engineering, should enable the junior college student to transfer to the senior college without loss of credit."

Dodd and his staff plan on making the courses offered at the local college of interest to veterans and to be such that transfers at the end of the two years can be effected without loss of credit.

In Ryde County, N. C., a man tried of lying on his invalid's bed directed that he be buried standing up.

Four Divorces Given In District Court

Four divorces were granted in district court proceedings Saturday morning.

The suits involved Eva Ruth Patterson vs. T. C. Patterson, Jr., Opal Mayer vs. J. F. Mayer, Lena Jacks vs. Roy Jacks and Albert Ray Pachall vs. Eve Pachall.

CAA Headquarters To Be At Airport

The City of Big Spring is remodeling a building at the municipal airport to provide office space for the Civil Aeronautics Authority, which has moved district headquarters here from El Paso.

The building was used to house

Link trainer operations while the bombardier school was in operation. The city is installing partitions and remodeling the space into private and general offices. The work is expected to be completed by the end of the week.

Britain Needs US Backing To Block Russian Influence In Middle East

By JOSEPH ALSOP
LONDON, Aug. 17.—The present mess in the Middle East and especially in Palestine has two main underlying causes—the inadequacy of present British resources and the pressure from the Soviet Union on the British position. The long-range British-Middle Eastern policy is to put "people ahead of pashas." The purpose is to raise the level of life of the Middle Eastern masses; to create a healthy economic, social and political climate and thereby attach this vital area to the Western rather than the Soviet system. If strongly implemented, this policy should provide sound solutions of the Palestine and other Middle Eastern problems.

But, because of the British Treasury cupboard has been bare, the policy has only been adopted in principle. It cannot be put into immediate effect without US aid. Meanwhile, the Soviet Union is actively working to capture the Middle East and threaten to succeed—which would mean the end of Britain as a world power. With insufficient resources to meet this danger, the British are responding excitedly, almost hysterically, to local emergencies. Among the results have been the more inexcusable events in Palestine.

From any standpoint, it is impossible to defend such episodes as the mass arrests and the letter of General Barker. But it is also important to understand the severity of the Soviet pressure which causes the British to fear the Arabs and therefore to deal wrongly with the Jews.

This Soviet pressure first manifested itself in the Iranian crisis of last winter. It is now known beyond much doubt that the Soviet and forcible transformation of Iran into a Soviet satellite, followed fairly rapidly by an advance on Turkey. They were halted by the strong hand of Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, but having been halted, they merely changed their tactics and pressed less brusquely to the same objective.

Three lines of attack were adopted. In Iran, support of the Tudeh party was increased and other means were used to domesticate the government of Premier Qavan es Saltaneh. In northern Iran, minority groups such as the Kurds, the Armenians and the Assyro-Chaldeans were encouraged with arms and other aid to start nationalist movements intended to spread to the south. And at Beirut in Syria, where dispossessed Arab intellectuals congregate, headquarters were established for an orthodox underground Communist network spreading into Iraq, Lebanon and Egypt.

The third of these methods soon proved the most promising by reason of the Middle Eastern social and political pattern, which Russia, of course, blames in part on past British policy. The basic pattern is simple—a decadent feudal class supported on the backs of an improvised Western industrialism has added two new elements—the workers in such enterprises as Anglo-Iranian oil and the dispossessed, Western-trained intellectuals. Thus the old feudalism had long ago begun to weaken. The wartime influx of allied forces, spending heavily, relocating labor, disrupting wage rates, increased the strain tenfold. And the rise of Arab nationalism put the finishing touch on the situation.

Last Vanderbilt House Bows To Avenue Growth

By ALLEN FISHER
AP Newfeatures
NEW YORK — A venerable brownstone mansion, its Victorian dignity now in sharp contrast to the crowded commercialism of busy Fifth Ave., will be razed soon to make room for a $4,000,000 office building. Thereby will end another chapter in the story of one of America's great family dynasties, the Vanderbilts.

Kings and presidents, the tycoons of a bygone era and the social arbiters of a day long past once walked through the marble vestibule of the fabulous house at Fifth Ave., and Fifty-First St., now overshadowed by the towers of Rockefeller Center.

Built in the 1880's, it was opulently furnished by William H. Vanderbilt, son of stern-visaged Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt—who pyramided a mediaeval empire on railroads and real estate.

The house soon will be reduced to rubble and on its site will grow a 19-story building to be built by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company for occupancy by the Crowell-Collier Publishing Company and a bank.

And so will pass the last of seven imposing Vanderbilt mansions that once were on fashionable Fifth Ave.

Curious tourists even now stop and gaze at the $20,000 bronze doors which were copied from Ghiberti's in the Baptistery in Florence.

The mansion once contained $1,500,000 worth of art treasures. No two rooms were alike. There was a Japanese parlor, a boudoir of ebony inlaid with ivory, a bathroom of silver and mahogany—but interiors and furnishings were auctioned off years ago for $35,000.

Among the great visitors who once were entertained there were Winston Churchill, Theodore Roosevelt, Gen. John J. Pershing, Herbert Hoover, the king and queen of the Belgians and the present Duke of Windsor.

It was originally a twinhouse. The northern house was demolished years ago and a department store stands there now. The late Brig. Gen. Cornelius Vanderbilt sold the remaining portion in 1940 to the English branch of the family and the site is being leased from the William Waldorf Astor Estate.

The place reputedly cost William Vanderbilt $4,000,000. A brilliant reception for 2,000 guests opened it in the Mauve Decade—and the sledgehammers and bulldozers of a wrecking crew will erase it from the Manhattan scene before this year ends.

License Bureau Temporarily Closed

The driver's license bureau of the Department of Public Safety will be closed from now until Aug. 26.

C. B. Strain, who operates the department, starts his vacation today and will not return until around Sept. 1. In the last week of his absence, however, the bureau will be maintained by Bobby Clark of Sweetwater.

The function will operate here on Monday, Aug. 26, and again on Saturday, Aug. 31. The remainder of the week Clark will be in Lamesa, Stanton, Sterling City and Garden City.

Clean-Up Campaign Planned For Fall

Another city-wide clean-up campaign for fall is being planned for the first part of September. City Manager B. J. McDaniel has announced.

McDaniel, who also serves as chairman of the chamber of commerce health and recreation department, said his C-C committee will be called together Wednesday night to complete arrangements for the clean-up.

Statistics show that more polio cases occur in September than any other month of the year, McDaniel pointed out, and the fall campaign will be carried out in efforts to preclude any outbreak of the disease here. Tentative plans are to begin pick-up work on Sept. 8.

Albert Jones Killed In Windmill Fall

Funeral will be held at 4 p. m. today at the Nalley chapel for Albert Jones, 46, tenant farmer, who was fatally injured Friday in a fall from a windmill.

Jones died in a local hospital at 7:15 p. m. Friday, approximately nine hours after he fell from the tower of the mill on the Jewel Tipple farm, 14 miles south of here. Apparently he lost his balance when weight of sucker rods, being pulled, jerked on a rope secured to him.

Surviving are his wife, two daughters, Elizabeth and Lilly Mae Jones; and three sons, Jimmy, Gene and Vernon Ray Jones. He also leaves four brothers, Jodie Jones and Floyd Jones, Big Spring, and Glenn Jones and Lloyd Jones, residence unknown; and five sisters, Mrs. Evie Guinn, Mrs. Effie Potter and Mrs. Callie Belle Murphy, Oklahoma City, Okla., Mrs. Allie Fant, Terrell, and Mrs. Mandy Pasley, Arkansas. Rites will be in charge of Dr. P. D. O'Brien, First Baptist pastor, and burial will be in the city cemetery.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. today at the Nalley chapel for Albert Jones, 46, tenant farmer, who was fatally injured Friday in a fall from a windmill.

Rain Or Shine, Stadium's Best Seat Is In The Smiths' Own Living Room

AP Newfeatures
SEATTLE — Dwelling seekers in this city, where housing is at a premium, envy Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Smith, their cozy five-room apartment for more than one reason.

The apartment is in the headhouse of the University of Washington stadium where Smith can relax in his sitting room and take his place in the choicest seat in the stadium.

The headhouse is built above the bleachers in the closed end of the bowl. The Smiths' second story living room presents one of the best possible vantage points of the stadium.

Smith is the stadium caretaker. His job is temporarily finished.

S'No Use In Summer

BATAVIA, N. Y. — Summer-time observation: The city's 12-ton snow plow, ordered two years ago and badly missed during that winter's blizzards, finally arrived as the mercury hit a sizzling 97 degrees.

Small wonder then that the Beirut headquarters could soon boast of successes. It had hardly begun its organizing drive before substantial gains were scored in Egypt.

Events in Iran emphasize just as dramatically, although less conspicuously, the British determination which has been seen in Palestine to retain their Middle Eastern position at all costs.

While willing under pressure, to adopt such drastic emergency measure, the British had still not abandoned their long-range objective. In appreciation for the time when they can finance great projects of economic betterment on the T. V. A. pattern, they are constantly pressing on the Iraq government and on King Farouk in Egypt with the urgent need to undertake the most far-reaching reforms. They are both warning of disaster if the reforms are not launched and promise the immediate technical assistance and large scale financing later on.

Appealing to the better nature of the pashas does not promise much, but it is all the British can do. Against this background, events in Palestine become more comprehensible if no more admirable. But that does not answer the question of who is to control the Middle East.

into love with Mary Moon. When he returned to Texas, he brought his bride back with him to live at the little village of Fort Worth, which didn't even have a railroad. Drouth the scourge of cattlemen, wiped away the family's accumulation in 1879, and prospecting for new opportunity they turned to Big Spring, a town of a few tents and shacks, arriving on April 16, 1883. They moved out to "the edge of town" to the location of her present home, 503 Scurry.

The water system consisted of Frank Baze and his wagon, which served customers at 25 cents a barrel. Dr. W. W. McIntyre was the only physician and there were no churches or schools, but an abundance of saloons.

Her strong religious character was inculcated in her. Mrs. Zinn's grandfather, Jesse Moon of Virginia, was a Baptist minister. Her father, Isaac Moon, was a Baptist deacon and her husband the son of a Presbyterian minister. She was baptized after a revival meeting on Jan. 3, 1865, driving through snow to Knob creek where two-foot ice was chopped for the ordinance. When they came to Big Spring and there were no churches she and Mr. Zinn "boarded" with the Methodists and helped them charter the church.

She has remained in all these years with an imposing array of service. For 30 years she was president of the Women's Missionary Society, worked with the Women's Christian Temperance Union for 40 years, and taught a Sunday school class for 25 years. Several years ago, in an interview, she did not think it remarkable that she got about as well as many half her age. Mrs. Zinn said: "I have worked all my life. I used to spin and card and weave, I made my husband's and my children's clothes. I don't ask any woman any odds when it comes to cooking. I sleep well, never have a pain."

Her health has broken some since then—but not one whit of her remarkable spirit. Mother Zinn will be on shouting ground Monday.

Pastors To Meet

Regular monthly meeting of the Big Spring Pastors association will be held Monday at the First Baptist church, it was announced Saturday by the Rev. Edwin Spears, Airport Baptist pastor, secretary of the association.

Completions In Winkler County Top Oil News

By JOHN B. BREWER

SAN ANGELO, Aug. 17—Winkler county dominated West Texas oil news the past week with the completion of Stanolind No. 8 Sealy-Smith, a wildcat discovery in the Holt formation, a dual completion from the Devonian and Ellenburger by Stanolind and Shell No. 2-C-R. A. Wheeler, and the staking of Ralph Lowe of Midland No. 2 Sealy-Smith, a new wildcat.

Three other wildcats were also staked in the area, one each in Andrews, Concho and McCulloch counties.

Stanolind and Shell No. 2-C-R. A. Wheeler was completed for 555 barrels of 45 gravity oil on a 24-hour flowing potential from the Ellenburger pay between 10,556 feet and 10,596 feet. The well was treated with 500 gallons of acid with the gas-oil ratio being 1,747-1. The well had previously tested from the Devonian, flowing 292 barrels oil per day from Devonian pay section of 8,475 to 8,625 feet after treatment with 4,000 gallons of acid. Location is 1,980 feet from the south and west lines of section 12-7-psl.

Stanolind No. 8 Sealy-Smith, 1 1/2 miles south-southwest of the North Monahans (Tubb) field, was completed with a 24-hour flowing potential of 422 barrels of 27 gravity oil from a pay section of 5,180 to 5,215 feet. The flow came through a 16-64th inch tubing choke after the well had been treated with 2,000 gallons of acid. Gas-oil ratio was 1,216-1. Location is 1,986 feet from the north and 7,660 feet from the west line of section 48-8-G&MMB&A.

The wildcat in Winkler county is the Ralph Lowe No. 2 Sealy-Smith, 660 feet from the north and east lines of section 89, block A, G&MMB&A survey, one location diagonally southwest of Lowe No. 1 Sealy-Smith. The test will go to 6,500 feet.

The same company's No. 1 Sealy-Smith, appeared to have failed in an attempt to complete dually from the Holt and the Clear Fork. A drillstem test from 5,200 to 6,312 feet with tool open one hour recovered 800 feet of salt water with no shows of oil or gas. Operator has not identified the exact formation. The test is going ahead to contract depth of 6,500 feet. It had earlier received good shows and some oil flow in the Holt formation. It is in the C SW 71-A-G&MMB&A.

The location for the new wildcat in southwest Andrews county was staked by Vennox Oil Co. of Texas. It is the No. 1 State of Texas with location being 660 feet from the east and north lines of the northeast quarter of section 22, block 12, University survey. The test on the southwest side of the block 12 area, will go to 7,300 feet with rotary.

The wildcat test in McCulloch county will be the Mid-Tex Oil Co. Inc. of Brownwood No. 1 W. H. Jones, 990 from the south and 3,840 feet from the east line of the lease in section 839. The test, which will be 1 1/2 miles southeast of Winchell, will go to 1,250 feet with cable tools.

Richards, Patton and Greer of Dallas staked the wildcat in Concho county, the No. 1 Frank Smith, 5/4 miles southwest of Paint Rock. The test will be 330 from the north, 2,310 feet from the west lines of section 608, German Immigration Co. survey. It will be drilled to 4,200 feet with cable tools and will begin Aug. 25.

Markets
NEW YORK, Aug. 17 (AP)—The stock and bond markets again faltered during the past week while assorted commodities lost some of their recent buoyancy. As in the preceding week the stock list moved sluggishly with no day hitting the million-share mark. There was only one rising session, that of Tuesday, when the day's aggregate expanded to 930,000 shares, largest since July 31. From then on volumes were negligible and Thursday the turnover dwindled to 620,000 shares, lowest since July 5.

Bombing Tests Made
LONDON, Aug. 17 (AP)—American army Super-Fortresses have completed bombing tests on the submarine pens at Farge, Germany, but RAF Lancasters will continue the peacetime missions there, the air ministry announced today.

Livestock

SUITS AND COUNTER-SUITS STARTED WHEN PIG FOUND NEIGHBOR'S GARDEN

It all started over a pig Ray Harlen allegedly shot for molesting the garden of his place near the city limits. The swine belonged to Dalton White, who promptly filed a complaint against Harlen for killing his stock. The accused tempered the charge by maintaining he was within his rights, since the hog was unwelcome and had pushed his snout amid his vegetables all too often.

Apparently, White reckoned the machinery of the law moved too slowly, for he returned to his neighbor's house, where an argument ensued.

Next, Harlen popped up at the Justice of Peace's office to accuse White of starting trouble. White was halled into court and fined $1 and costs on the strength of that accusation.

White countered by filing a cross complaint against Harlen on the same grounds. What happens now, the law hasn't yet decided.

4-H Awards Presented At Amateur Program

Two dozen awards, won by Howard county 4-H club members during the past season, were presented by County Agent Durward Lewter at the city park amphitheatre Friday night when club members appeared on the weekly amateur program sponsored by the chamber of commerce.

In the amateur competition, the Anderson-Moore quartet of Stanolind and Rosalee DeVaney, both 4-H club members, placed second and third, respectively. Echoes gave a brief talk entitled "My Achievements from 4-H Club Work" and Miss DeVaney presented a reading.

Several other club members appeared on the program, which featured music and other talks concerning 4-H work.

Old Settlers Reunion Slated August 29

Aug. 29 has been fixed as the date for the annual Howard County Old Settlers reunion—an event which also embraces adjoining counties.

Under rules of the reunion, persons who have resided in the area 20 years or more are considered old settlers. Families, of course, are eligible to attend.

Plans call for the traditional picnic luncheon and each family is urged to bring its picnic basket. Mrs. John Tucker, president, and Mrs. Maggie Richardson, secretary, have mailed cards to committee members urging them to make preparations for the event.

In addition to the informal visitation and the picnic luncheon at the city park, there will be old time dancing for two evenings—Aug. 29 and Aug. 30, it was announced.

Final plans for the reunion will be developed at a meeting of all committee members at the district courtroom on Saturday at 3 p. m., Mrs. Tucker announced.

Court Asked To Hurry Election Decision

AUSTIN, Aug. 17 (AP)—The supreme court was asked today to force quick trial of a Jim Wells county election contest in district court.

Halsey Wright of Jim Wells county asked permission of the court to file a mandamus, seeking to force Judge L. Broeter of the 79th district court to proceed immediately with trial of suit in which Wright contested nomination of H. T. Sain as sheriff.

An Open Letter To A Lobbyist

Involved as I am in a political race that involves one of the highest offices of honor and responsibility that the State has to offer, I have come to the well considered opinion that as a candidate for that office I would be lacking in courage, fight and spirit, and remiss in my duty to the voters were I to fail to disclose every important issue in the race. It appears that Burke T. Summers will not disclose the true facts, so it devolves upon me to make an expose of an old political trick played in a new way.

Burke T. Summers has become my unrelenting and determined adversary in Cecil H. Barnes' quest for a second term as State Representative—not in name but in fact. I consider him more my opponent than my nominal opponent whose name he is using to defeat me. Summers has spent time, effort and money all over my six county district to encompass the defeat of Cecil H. Barnes. He would not come into self but he would accomplish my defeat for his own professional gain by hiding his real purposes behind the curtain of another man's service record. He is the active, militant and subscribing campaign manager of my young opponent, and it is not for love but for power.

What makes this highly significant to the people? Burke T. Summers, after making proper contacts during his term in the State Legislature, got a job with the liquor interests as a full time lobbyist at full time pay during the full session of the 49th Legislature to the open knowledge of the Legislature and as a matter of record. I was there and have the record. Should Burke T. Summers deny this in a public statement I am prepared to bring the facts about him and his work as a lobbyist in more lurid detail.

My young 21 year old opponent has accepted Summers as his campaign manager and fellow traveler. Professional lobbyist Summers is with my opponent continually over all six counties, working, spending, and leaving copy with newspapers over the district. The public should know this to the last voter, and to demand that though it may not be denied it should be explained, if possible.

It is not fair to the integrity of the high office of trust which I now hold, knowing the tactics that some lobbyist will stoop to in order to defeat someone they cannot control, to permit lobbyist Burke T. Summers to fight me all over my District before

As your Representative, Cecil H. Barnes accepts public service seriously. I have served you one term faithfully, honestly and conscientiously. I am and shall remain 100% independent of everything and anything but my conscience and the public welfare. I invite you to find this out in my home county. I consider it a distinct and outstanding compliment to my independent service in the Legislature that lobbyist Summers is trying to encompass my defeat. My record is clean and he cannot question it. I do not attempt a whispering campaign, but I face my real opponent in this race, Burke T. Summers by openly proclaiming against him. Cecil H. Barnes appeals for a vote of confidence, without discounting or detracting from the good service record of my nominal opponent.

Small Yield Of Cotton Expected Even With Rainfall Coming Soon

Another week of unbroken heat and drought put more skids under Howard county agricultural prospects.

With the cotton acreage reduced to little less than 20,000 acres—and a part of this with poor stands—ideal conditions from here on out could hardly produce as high as 10,000 bales. Estimates are that the yield may be in the neighborhood of 5,000 bales, and it will take a change in the weather trend for the better to do this.

Cotton was holding on until the August heat wave took over, and during the past two weeks had gone downhill rapidly. Plants not only have withered but have actually shrunk in some fields. Farmers are pulling in pickers to gather scant yields to salvage what they can.

Feed, also drastically reduced in acreage due to lack of planting moisture, is twisting in many localities and will have to have moisture generally if it is to make. Added to the woes of the farmer is a frontal attack on cotton by bollworms and spiders. The Lomax area has been hit now by a third generation of bollworms and the infestation of red spiders is showing up in widely separated sections.

County Agent Durward Lewter said that a five per cent DDT dust, with about 15 pounds to the acre, was effective against the bollworms, and that a mix of one pound of five per cent DDT and nine pounds of sulphur dust was effective against the spiders. But, since the cost would probably get above $2 an acre in either case, the farmer is confronted by a hard choice.

Ranges are worse than parched. The ground has been powdering, and tight land sections are in serious condition.

SA Schedules Recreation Hours

The senior hour will be held from 8 p. m. to 9:30 p. m. Monday and the junior program will follow on the same schedule Tuesday. Group games, music, Chinese checkers, ping pong, dominos, etc., will be featured, climaxed by refreshments.

Capt. Sheppard said that plans were to secure committees from the young people for the recreational program. Last week 214 youths participated in the programs.

Man Found Driving Stolen Automobile For Traveling Agency

A Dallas man, arrested by Big Spring police at 1:45 a. m. Saturday, found a way to start a business without capital, but it didn't last.

Officers took him into custody on West 4th street, and after a thorough questioning learned that the automobile the man had been using as a travel bureau vehicle for the past six weeks was stolen. The man, who had sought employment at a local firm as a mechanic, said he took the machine from a man in Dallas to make repairs, but never got around to completing the work. Meanwhile, he had several trips to various points in Texas and Oklahoma, making expenses by carrying travel bureau passengers.

Dallas police have indicated that they wish to question the man concerning other misdeeds there, local officers said.

To The Voters OF COMMISSIONER'S PRECINCT NO. 3:

I want to thank you for the support that was given me in the First Primary, and solicit the vote of those who voted for me in the First Primary in the coming Second Primary and to solicit the vote of all of you in the Second Primary that did not vote for me in the First Primary.

All of the people of Commissioner's Precinct No. 3 know that I am a candidate for re-election in this primary. All of you know me. I have lived in Howard County forty years and have been right here in Howard County all the time except two years that I spent in the Army in World War I. Eighteen months of my service in the Army was spent in France and Germany. Therefore, you know me and know what I have done.

I am running for this office upon my record as a County Commissioner. If I have made you a good Commissioner in the past, I think I can make you a better one in the future.

Much has been said about the County Library. This library was established by the present Commissioner's Court about two years ago. We told everyone at that time that we would have to start on a small scale, and that the space for a library would be limited for the reason that we have been furnishing offices for six Government agencies, including the American Red Cross. We hope that in the future, additional accommodations can be furnished to the library, and we also anticipate that in the future we can give it additional funds.

The County has had to bear many different unexpected expenses during the war, and who would deny that our war efforts should have come first? We have expended $30,000 as our contribution to the purchase of grounds for the Veterans Hospital that is to be constructed in Big Spring, and I think that the construction of this hospital is a great thing for our town and county and for the welfare of our veterans of both World War No. I and No. II.

The highway and lateral roads question is not a new question to be considered by the Commissioner's Court, for we have done everything that could be done to further both highway and lateral roads, and as actions speak louder than words, I invite you to get in your car and ride over the roads of Precinct 3, and then vote as you find the facts to be.

If I am elected as your County Commissioner, I shall continue to do my duty to our Nation, State and County, as I have tried to do in the past.

Upon this basis, I am asking you for your vote.

If you're inclined to fret because the good news hasn't come that your Buick's ready, just remember this:

The best is never easiest to get. And top-notch goods always pull the biggest buy-lines.

So it isn't just parts and material shortages that keep our waiting list long, though they have plenty to do with it.

It is also the plain fact that Buick stands today as the most wanted car in America.

It's wanted for style that puts you right out in front of the motorcar fashion parade.

It's wanted for the abundant power of big Fireball straight-eight engines, built to precision standards not even Buick ever achieved before.

It's wanted for the matchless comfort of BuicCoil springing, three-person seats, Foamtex-covered cushions—and for the good, husky, time-defying bulk that means a car that's good for years.

It's wanted because it's a car that is solid Buick character all the way through—a standout performer that's right to the last fine detail and complete in every way when you get it.

Fact is—every new Buick delivered seems to bring in more orders.

Demand is actually growing—not just because new cars are needed, but because this Buick is so far, far ahead of what people expected.

So it's smart to act quickly. We can't deliver cars faster than the factory can make them—but the sooner your name's on our order sheet, the shorter your wait will be.

WHAT OTHER CAR HAS SO MUCH THAT CLICKS FOR FORTY-SIX? SMARTNESS—that sets the style pattern with car-length Airfoil fenders and bob-on rear wheel shields. POWER—from a Buick Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight engine.

OIL SAVINGS—from non-sealing Ann-rite cylinder bores. FLASHING ACTION—of Filtraweight piston. STEADINESS—from full-length torque tube drive in a sealed chassis. GLIDING RIDE—from Panthorgil oil-shield springing.

COMFORT—of soft Foamtex cushions in roomy Body by Fisher. SURE FOOTING—of Broadrim wheels. CONTROL—through Pan-firm steering. CONVENIENCE—of high-leverage Step-On parking brake. PROTECTION—of Buick-originated fender shielding front and rear bumpers.

When better automobiles are built BUICK will build them

School Budget Hearing Slated Wednesday Night

Public hearing on a $321,920 budget will be held Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. in the administrative offices of the board of trustees of the Big Spring Independent School district.

The budget, as proposed, represents an increase of approximately $88,000 over the past year and $77,000 over actual expenditures for the 1945-46 term.

Salary increases, voted last spring, are responsible for the vast bulk of the increase. Teacher salaries will be up by about $50,000. Roughly another $5,000 is represented in administrative, tax, maintenance and other salary increases.

Anticipated revenue for the year is $310,534, but W. C. Blankenship, superintendent, said that the current budget would be under-run by about $11,600. Too, actual receipts during the past year totaled $296,280 against a budget estimate of $254,478, the gain being in tax collections in excess of estimates, supplemental census payments, and a $6 additional scholastic apportionment payment. The last item alone netted the district about $22,500.

Provision is made for operation of the tri-school cafeteria in the proposed budget. The tentative figure for this item is $8,000 although sponsors of the project expressed hope that it might prove self-sustaining.

Sums set up for various purposes, with current expenditures in parenthesis, follow:

Educational administration $5,425 ($4,786), business administration $6,475 ($6,123), assessments and collections $3,285 ($2,761), reimbursable expenses $5,050 ($6,078).

Instructional service, teacher salaries, elementary $134,319 ($100,535), high school $75,181 ($61,234), total $209,500 ($161,769).

Special instructional supplies $4,500 ($2,452), usual instructional supplies $2,800 ($1,999), Negro schools $6,935 ($3,920), plant operation $29,300 ($24,338), maintenance $2,500 ($3,590), auxiliary agencies, including cafeteria, $9,400 ($1,085).

Fixed charges, insurance, etc., $2,800 ($2,541), alterations $1,000 ($488), equipment $4,900 ($5,356), debt service $27,500 ($27,257).

Under budget estimates, revenues are about equally divided between local sources and federal and state sources. Local taxes for operational purposes are estimated to yield $138,843 and state and federal funds (principally the $134,995 from the $35 apportionment) $135,526. The debt service will draw an estimated $32,100 in local taxes.

Scouts Return From Water Camp

H. D. Norris, boy scout executive, and several Big Spring scouts returned Saturday from Fort Stockton, where they attended a water activities camp sponsored by the Buffalo Trail council during the past week.

Attending from Big Spring were Paula Mays, B. B. Lees, Amos Jones, Jerry Houser, Bobo Hardy and Eddie Houser. Bobo Hardy and Eddie Houser served as instructors in canoeing and rowing, respectively.

In addition to qualifying for a number of merit badges and Red Cross life saving certificates, the scouts staged a water carnival Friday night, which was open to the public. The program featured exhibitions of diving and swimming and several novelty stunts.

Attending the camp were 96 scouts from throughout the council.

A large percentage of the local police personnel has enrolled in the course, which includes instruction on rules and regulations, police courtesy, traffic ordinances, drivers license and accident investigations, laws of arrest, mechanics of arrest, laws of evidence searches of persons and patrol methods and procedures.

Capt. Thompson, who is a graduate of two FBI schools in Fort Worth, a traffic school in Fort Worth, a Texas A&M college extension traffic course and a Fort Worth police department school, is using materials available at the local department and others furnished by Capt. Rowland Howerton of the Fort Worth police schools.

Trench Silos Paying Off As Drouth Insurance

The doctrine of drouth insurance through trench silos is paying off on farms and ranches where they are in existence.

Police, Fire Departments Stress Stricter Notice To Warning Signals

A closer observance of warning signals of emergency vehicles and traffic control devices in Big Spring is being urged by both the police and fire departments.

In efforts to lessen the possibility of accidents during emergency trips by fire engines, ambulances and police cars, a strict enforcement program of the city ordinance concerning authorized emergency vehicles will be launched, the police department has announced.

The ordinance makes the following provision: "Upon the immediate approach of an authorized emergency vehicle, when the driver is giving audible signal by siren or bell, the driver of every other vehicle shall yield the right-of-way and shall immediately drive to a position parallel to, and as close as possible, to the right hand edge of the curb of the highway, clear of any intersection, and shall stop and remain in such position until the authorized emergency vehicle has passed, except when otherwise directed by a police officer."

Another section of the ordinance prohibits any vehicle other than one on official business from following fire apparatus travelling in response to a fire alarm closer than 200 feet, or to drive or park closer than one block when the fire apparatus is stopped to answer an alarm.

Motorists here also were warned against laxity in observance of amber signals on traffic lights when emergency vehicles are responding to calls. When the traffic signals are "frozen" on the amber light, vehicles must remain stopped until normal signals are returned, police said.

Violations of these regulations are subject to fine of $1 to $100.

Grid Men Arrive Soon To Begin Autumn Work

Veterans Upset Doc's Redcaps At Park, 8-6

Doc's Redcaps hit the dust in Mundy softball league play at the city park Friday night and all but lost their chance of overtaking the Cosden Oilers in the race for second half honors.

Veterans of Foreign Wars, using hitting at their long suit, put the Redcaps to rout by an 8-6 count. Half the Vets' runs were manufactured in the initial round.

The Redcaps came right back to tally four times in their part of the frame but the ex-GI's found a cousin in Morris Crittendon and went on to win.

The reversal left the Wilkinson gang 14 games off the Oilers' pace and virtually tied them with Big Spring Motor for the second slot.

Behind Leon Glenn Bredemeyer, the Motorists pushed aside ABC in Friday's other contest, 6-3, to maintain an outside chance for the flag.

Lloyd "Pat" Patterson hit a home run for the losers but otherwise Bredemeyer was in command of the situation. D. R. Gartin, Club hurler, tossed one ticketed for an excursion in the last round but the Fordmen's left-fielder took the ball while running toward the tennis courts.

Pete Cook, appearing in Dyke Tolbert's lineup for the first time, drove home a pair of runs with a double and single.

Molasses is shipped by tanker, and is heated a day or two before the ship reaches port to facilitate its discharge.

Bovines To Suit Out For Initial Drill Sept. 2

John Dibrell, coach of the Big Spring high school football team, is due to arrive here about mid-week, Walter Reed, high school principal said Saturday.

Dibrell will at once begin plans for opening of football training on Sept. 2.

Two members of the coaching staff, Conn Isaacs and John Malaise, are here, and Herschel Stockton, third member of the staff, will arrive in time for the opening session.

A fourth member, who may help at the outset, is Drate Cathey, who will serve later in the season as junior high coach.

While the team will be heavier than last year, it may be light compared with some other teams in district 3-AA, but with a dozen lettermen back, the experience should give the Steers a better start than in several years.

The first game is booked for Sept. 20 against Cisco, which, from all accounts, will be stronger than in several seasons. For the second game Big Spring draws Lubbock, rated along with Amarillo in district 1-AA. The third game is the district opener against Odessa, picked by some scribes in pre-season guesses as among the four most promising teams in the state. All three of these games will be at home.

All Indications Point To Finest Meet In History

What gives prospects of being the best Big Spring Invitational Golf tournament of them all will get underway at the country club Friday, Aug. 30, and continue through Monday, Sept. 2.

The entry list not only threatens to be the most auspicious ever to compete here, but will rank with any amateur tournament held in the state this year.

In telephone conversation with Bob Satterwhite of the tournament committee last week, Iverson Martin of Fort Worth—captain of the "foreign" team in the Hall and Bennett Trophy matches—said he had contacted Earl Stewart of Dallas, who promised he would play in the cup contests as well as the tournament proper, if he could take leave of his duties.

Stewart is perhaps the No. 1 simon-pure in the state. He was the leading amateur at the Tam O'Shanter Open in Chicago. He's the one serious contender to Frank Stranahan as the nation's best in that class. If more background is needed, consider the fact that he's a former National Intercollegiate champion.

Martin is bringing along Derald Lehman and possibly Royal Hogan, both of Fort Worth. He relates that Bill Skeeters of Dallas may come down for the show.

Other linksmen expected are Al Holton, Chick Trout and Kay Bradshaw, all of Lubbock; Billy and Bobby Davidson, both of Lubbock; L. M. Montgomery, Red Covington and Red Cruz, all of San Angelo; and Doug Jones and Jimmy Dixon, both of Abilene.

Trout won last year's medal with a three-over-par 75 and wound up in the finals with Jones. Jones fanned him out, 2 and 1, to sack up the title.

It is expected a 74 or better will be needed to raise the championship flight, since the course is in good shape. Last year, a 79 made the select company.

The tournament committee is sparing no expense to give the entries and spectators a commendable show. They put something like $450 into the kitty for prizes and the ante may go higher.

The four-day schedule will run something like this: Friday, Aug. 30, 1 p.m.—Hall Bennett trophy matches; 7:30 p.m.—Dinner for visiting trophy team, at which time certificates will be presented members of the squad.

Saturday, Aug. 31, 8 a.m.—Qualifying begins; 5:30 p.m.—Long driving contest; 7:30 p.m.—Barbecue at club house; 9 p.m.—Calecuta Pool.

Sunday, Sept. 1, 9 a.m.—First round matches; 1 p.m.—Second round matches; 8 p.m.—German dance.

Monday, Sept. 2, 9 a.m.—Semifinals; 1 p.m.—Finals; Presentations of trophies will be made immediately following the final matches.

The public will, of course, be welcomed to the gallery. Non-members, too, may take part in the Saturday barbecue. Tickets for the feast will be available through club members for $2 each. The duets must be obtained by Sunday, Aug. 25, however.

Jack Free and his Orchestra will supply the music for the German dance.

Fifty special invitations have been mailed out to golfers of other towns by Satterwhite and the other members of the tournament committee. Any amateur is eligible to compete in the meeting upon payment of the $5 entry fee.

Howard's Dove Season Opens September 1

A 60-day Mourning Dove hunting season will open up in Howard and other counties of the state's "north" zone Sept. 1 and reports from outlying sections say the game bird is plentiful.

Whether or not the nimrods have the armament and the shell on hand with which to hunt the winged creatures is another matter.

Some gauges of shells are, and have been for some time, comparatively easy to obtain. However, other shot has not appeared on the markets and gives no indications of showing up.

However, the hunters are expected out in numbers, even if they are armed with nothing but sling shots.

The habitat of the dove has been changed in some instances by necessity. Water holes which the fowl frequented have long since dried up and the dove has moved on.

Bag and possession limit is 10. The season terminates Oct. 30.

For white wing doves, the open season will be Sept. 13, 15 and 17, with shooting permitted from 4 p.m. until sunset. Possession limit is 10.

The white wing season was cut to about nine hours compared with last year's 35 hours because of the dwindling supply of these game birds.

Directors have put more than $450 into premiums for the Labor Day show. These, the Hall and Bennett trophy for the cup matches and other prizes are on display in the window of the Empire Southern Gas Co.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART Word that the Big Spring high school basketball team would take a trip into Ohio and Kentucky which reached mid-western readers via several newspapers in that area, influenced one Mrs. R. S. Thompson, Sr., of Wilmington, Ohio, to write Our Town's H. C. Campbell about moving to Big Spring.

In her letter, she asked about the living conditions here, saying she had long entertained the idea of moving to this section because of her daughter's health. . . . Campbell returns to Ohio shortly, where he will try to book at least two additional games for the Steer cagers. . . . They are now committed to play once in Kentucky and three times in Ohio. . . . A coaching school will be held at McMurry college, Abilene, the coming weekend, but it is doubtful if any local mentor will attend, since most of them will be trying to get the machinery in order for the coming season. . . . The first 40 mentors who enroll at the McMurry clinic will be given free lodging at the school's athletic dormitory. . . . Sessions will be conducted in football, basketball, baseball and track during the five-day school, according to Vernon Hilliard, director of the course. . . . Woody Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Logan Baker and a former Big Spring high school athlete, has turned into one of the better hitters in the service baseball league at Fort Sill, Okla. . . . Playing for the Infantry Battalion Doughboys, Woody rapped out a triple, double and single in one contest and came back to collect a triple and a two-bagger in another as his club swept to two victories. . . . He's playing third base. . . . His pappy was a catcher for the Cosden Oilers of ten years ago and, though he always wanted Woody to be a ball player, Logan discouraged him from backstopping. . . . Mileaway's busted digits are evidence to his claim that a receiver's life is a tough one.

Twin Colts Born Here Cheat Odds, Are Destined To Race

Genealogists are authority for the statement that human twins occur approximately but once in every 100 births. Animals twin less frequently and the death ratio among multiple birth of quadruplets is always high.

A blue-blooded mare belonging to Mr. and Mrs. John Marchbanks of Big Spring gave birth to two colts quite casually at their former home on North Gregg street around noon last April 7, however, and the frolicsome youngsters are healthy and growing like weeds.

In the past several years, something like half a dozen sets of twins have been born to Marchbanks horses but the offsprings never before lived for very long.

By "Lawyer" out of the ebony-coated "Chancevine," the yet unnamed colts are of racing stock and both are destined to hit the nation's tracks around 1947, barring mishap.

The sire and dam of the twins come from celebrated track families. Lawyer was by Tryster, who won a flock of purses in his day. Chancevine won her first two races as a two-year-old but was retired when she injured a knee. She comes from Nedvive, a high-stepping filly that earned $8,305 in three starts, and the respected

Chance Sun, who ran away and from the field in a rich Arlington Futurity some years ago. There's also a tie-in with the Man 'O War stock on the mother's side of the family. Chance Shot, a near relative of the dam, was by Fair Play, sire of the famed "Big Red."

The handsome mare, which stands about 17 hands high and weighs around 1250 pounds, is also related to Armed, second leading money winner of the year. Nedvive, grandmother of the twins, has gained a noble reputation throughout the racing world as a dam of stake horses. The Marchbanks' stable has been very active in recent years at such racing strips as Tijuana, Hot Springs and New Orleans. Among their better known horses are "Slow Joe," "Ideal Beauty," "Memory's Best" and "Midget Store."

According to Mrs. Marchbanks, the colts will not be named until they are registered. At the present time, they are being kept on the Marchbanks' place but will be sent abroad for training as quickly as they are old enough.

TWIN SPEEDSTERS of the future are these two colts held in tow by Mrs. Nora Pearl Spence. Mrs. Spence, daughter of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. John Marchbanks, says she hopes to see the youngsters racing at the nation's top tracks by 1947. Conspicuous in the background is Chancevine, daughter of a famous racing family, who mothered the colts. (Photo by Jack Haynes).

Moore has just completed a course at Midland where 37 people received certificates for the 10-hour course.

The YMCA has granted permission for use of its headquarters facilities, said Mrs. Eubanks, and classes tentatively have been set for 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. daily starting Aug. 26. Mrs. Eubanks urged others interested in the special credit training and refresher to contact her office by calling 1222.

Bette Davis Plays Twins In Dramatic Ritz Feature

A twin's love for the same man her sister is in love with constitutes the central problem in Bette Davis' latest starring vehicle, Warner's "A Stolen Life," currently playing at the Ritz Theatre.

Miss Davis plays both twins whose love for the character portrayed by Glenn Ford ends in tragedy for one and happiness for the other, and the actress has an excellent opportunity to display her unlimited abilities.

An unusual story, rife with conflict and rivalry, the film is based on a novel by Karel J. Benes adapted by Margaret Buel Wilder and made into a screenplay by Catherine Turvey. It presents an acting challenge well met, for the one twin, Kate, is extremely lovable and selfless; whereas Pat is thoroughly hateful and contemptible. Kate loves Bill for his simply and modest ambitions while to Pat he is merely another engaging admirer.

Others in a generally excellent supporting cast include Dane Clark, winner of the award for this year's most promising young actor, as Karnok, an artist under whose strict tutelage Kate works in an effort to forget Bill; Walter Brennan as a cantankerous New England lighthouse-keeper; and Bill's best and most understanding friend; Charlie Ruggles as cousin Freddie, the twins' humorous benefactor; and Bruce Bennett, in a dramatic role on which the picture's exciting climax hinges.

With New England as the principal locale, the film's production is distinguished by authentic sets and realistic photography. The picture was directed by Curtis Bernhardt. Max Steiner wrote the picture's original music score.

Ritz Newsreel Shows New Developments In Atomic Energy

More pictorial revelations in connection with the development of atomic energy are featured in the newsreels, which recently have been outstanding in coverage of the Bikini tests.

Latest subject is one called "Inside Oak Ridge," to be seen in the news issue at the Ritz theatre today and Monday. This topic shows how atomic energy is being put to use for the benefit of mankind. A part of the resultant products from the Clinton Laboratories at Oak Ridge, Tenn., are being developed for the fight against cancer.

Truman's political trip to Missouri and the Paris peace conference are other items in the Ritz newsreel offering.

of good western drama. There are rowdy frontier saloons; a bitter conflict between the homesteaders and cattle drovers, impressively staged against the wide open plains of Kansas, and Ann Dvorak, briefly bedecked in feathers, to render several catchy tunes for the entertainment of the cowhands and male patrons.

Scott and Miss Dvorak become involved in a hectic romance, with the latter tossing crockery and biting phrases with a vengeance. This adds a lift to the proceedings without encroaching on the story theme.

Scott gives a good portrayal of a two-gun, two-fisted town marshal, who risks his life to bring law and order.

Edwin Marin directed the picture, and Rhonda Fleming, Lloyd Bridges, Helen Boice and Howard Freeman contribute supporting performances.

Lasses Have Good Chance To Become "Date Bait" With The New Fall Styles

By LEATRICE ROSS

Lasses, if you would be date-bait you've got plenty of opportunity this season. Not since the prewar "good ole days" have there been such luscious colors, or styles so svelte, or fabrics so soft and smooth to your summer-tanned skin.

From the big cities comes word that turtle-neck sweaters are the rage. These little affairs are short in sleeve and length, and long in flattery. They come chiefly in the charming pastels that will go so well with the browns, greys and beiges of your suits. Suits are on the upswing, calculated to out-sell dresses this fall.

Coats for the college girl are no longer the room-for-a-dozen-more variety. Instead they are three-quarter length and tied about the middle. For the girl who likes a little flash, these numbers can be had with nail-head trim. The fitted coat is predicted for the teen-age girl's dress-up wardrobe.

Slacks are practically alien to the fall shipments of merchandise. In their places we'll find pedal pushers and short slacks in scotch plaids and stripes. . . . And of course those wonderful ski sweaters, with designs ranging from elephants to ducks, are in to stay. Here in town the trend in smart black frocks seems to rup to drapes and bows . . . these for the fancy affairs in your life, of course. If you never wore hats you'll want to now, when you see the latest creations. They are just one solid mass of some pretty chicken's or ostrich's native cloak. Come in shining deep colors, too.

Manager of a local store whispered to us that gay shoes would out-sell the old stand-by saddle oxfords and moccasins. Felt models with beaded designs and loose flaps, such as observed in magazines, should be bigger than ever, he opined. . . . The very newest thing to come to the fad-rating are elbow length bell sleeves—especially sharp in plaid. . . . Belts will be corset-tight and practically as wide.

New designs run on the ostentatious side. Witness a heavy brown teddy bear coat with simulated leopard skin lining and a three piece companion suit in water-clear aqua . . . with a battle-jacket instead of suit-jacket. The down-town stores know what's what and so are stocking on all these things so close to a girl's heart. This is your season to howl. And so will the 'wolves'!

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Feather of Stillwater, Okla., is visiting here with Herbert Feather.

TOKYO BOUND: Pictured above is Mrs. Esther Carrington, former Big Spring resident, who left Tuesday for Tokyo, Japan, where she will be employed by the civil service commission. Mrs. Carrington was formerly employed at the Big Spring Bombardier school before going to Midland where she worked at the air field and the Air Transport Command. She planned to board a plane at Suisan Fairfield, Calif., and fly to Tokyo. Her three children will reside here with their grandmother, Mrs. Mary Cooper, while their mother is overseas.

LATIN AMERICANS SELECT QUEEN FOR INDEPENDENCE CELEBRATION

A spirited beauty contest that ended in the selection of Lus Munos as 1946 queen of the Latin American Festival, September 15-

16, is one of the features of the annual celebration which will be observed here by the Latin American population.

Lus, 17-year-old daughter of Angela Roman, walked off with the honors in the contest which was held last Sunday. She will be crowned as queen of the celebration at ceremonies to be held at the dance pavilion on the evening of Sept. 15. The coronet will be placed on her head by Juan Antonio Merigo, member of the Mexican consulate at El Paso, who will be here for the festivities.

Lus stands five feet tall and weighs 106 pounds. She likes to dance but isn't fond of jitterbugging and someday hopes to become a nurse.

The winner received a total of 9,941 votes, and running second was Isobel Gonzales, 16-year-old daughter of Jesse Gonzales, who received a total of 7,510 votes. Placing third was Eloiza Puga, 16-year-old daughter of Jesse Puga. She is a sophomore student at the Big Spring high school. She received 3,424 votes. D. M. Carmona, assisting with plans for the celebration, stated that votes were sold at two cents each, and that funds from the contest would be used to buy costumes for the queen and her two princesses.

TRY THIS AMAZING HOME RECIPE TO TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Right in Your Own Home, You Can Lose Pounds of Excess Weight Without Starvation Diet or Strenuous Exercise

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drug-gist and ask for four ounces of Liquid Baracstrate (formerly called Barcel Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two table-spoonful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy-way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active. Perhaps you are overweight due to over indulgence in food or the wrong kind of food. With the Baracstrate home recipe method, you do not have to starve yourself or go hungry. Just follow the simple instructions given on the label and you should get satisfactory results quickly. The very first pint you make up should show results. Why not slim down your figure without a lot of fuss and bother? Try the Baracstrate way. Wear your streamlined frocks and slacks gracefully. Remember, if the very first bottle of Baracstrate doesn't show you the sensible way to lose weight, your money will be refunded.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

By LEATRICE ROSS

Strolled the other day into the sanctuary of E. C. Dodd, president of the Howard county junior college, and found Ladd Smith and Ed McLaren talking with Dodd over the prospects of that institution. . . . Just thought you might like a snatch preview of the things to come. . . . The HCJC looks plenty good from all sides. . . . Variety in sports is planned for the coming year, minus football, which Dodd tabbed as too expensive and impractical for just now. . . . Sororities and fraternities will be discouraged—but definitely. Instead there'll be a host of well organized scholastic interest groups. . . . Class courses are prescribed and given with a personal concern toward the students' future training in a four-year college. . . . If French can be marshaled in, a genuine French mademoiselle will teach! . . . Inquiries into night school courses almost equal those of regular day classes. . . . A diversified occupational course will be offered, will be coordinated with the high school system. . . . Some 35 have indicated interest in that line. . . . Vets are greeted with open arms. . . . Even Ladd and Ed were. Those two, by the way, were talking in terms of a pre-law course.

While thumbing through Dodd's files (with his permission) we discovered that most everybody on the tentative enrollment list has already selected his subjects. . . . Some of these and their proposed majors: R. L. Heath, engineering; Hank McDaniel, agriculture; Dann Mayfield, P. E.; Barzie Fletcher (Cochoman) business administration; Harry Middleton, animal husbandry; Tip Anderson, major not designated; Bobbie June Bobb, pharmacy; Charles Buckner, business administration Norma Burrell, secretarial training; James Cass, radio; Jim Bob Chaney, agriculture; Paul Christine, P. E.; Ray Dunbar, (Note: honor grad from Forsan), business; Bobbie Green, business; Harry Haug, electrical engineering; Charles Hodges, petroleum engineering; Jack Merrick, Beans Miller, Jimmy Peden, majors not given; Brookline Phillips, medical technician training; Donald Simpson, engineering; Olney Thurman, business administration.

Tip Anderson is reputed to be a one-man publicity agent having rounded three-four students into the college. . . . Rendezvous in the State drug one fine evening: Jimmie Black, A. J. Cain wasting money on a pinball machine. . . . Wilma Jo Taylor and Robert Swan Lee leering with disgust at such foolishness. . . . Benny O'Brien trying to get somebody to give him a welcome home party. . . . Benny was 17 months with the USN, much of which time was lived in the Philippines. . . . Billie Anderson, Pat Curry, Kathleen Little snazily decked out for a conflag somewhere. . . . Pat and Kathleen do not plan to return to Columbia University (Mo.) for school this fall.

Billy Chrane and Gil Barnett left last Saturday for a Maritime Service base. . . . France Meier was discovered working with the city water department. . . . Various reasons, ranging from excess heat to a yen toward Arturo de Cordova, lured numbers to the movies Wednesday afternoon. Just for a few—Elynn Wright, A. J. Cain, Darmond Hill, Wiley Stewart, Dickie Cloud, Janet Robb, Mary Lou Partridge. . . . Grady Kelly is in Pennsylvania now, sort of getting acquainted with the state. He will be going to a cosmetology school there this year.

Jimmy Wilkes is spending the rest of the summer in cool spots of Colorado. "Red" will enter A&M in the fall. . . . James Brooks and Culin Grigsby munched popcorn noisily and shifted seats numerous times in the show Monday night. . . . Also-there: Don Richardson, Zac Gray, Billie Bob Fallon, Evelyn Green. . . . Out one Saturday evening lately: Anna Claire Waters, Jimmie Black, Legs

OLD TASCOSA LIVES AGAIN IN JOHN McCARTY'S NEW BOOK

A new Texas book written by a busy Amarillo newspaper man and published this week with a record advance sale announced, will round out for many a Texan the adventurous story of the far Panhandle country where in "Maverick Town," the story of Old Tascosa, the history of 400 years—from Coronado to Boy's Ranch—is telescoped into four swift decades of the rise and fall of the capital of an early day cattle empire.

As raw, rough and ready as any settlement of American frontier days, Tascosa boomed and busted within the memory of men now living and today is a ghost town with the winds whispering through the cottonwoods and around the old stone courthouse. But Tascosa is a maverick ghost town—still in the Tascosa tradition—with an epilogue as romantic as its frontier days. Old Tascosa now is Boy's ranch, where Amarillo businessmen and ranchers under the leadership of Cal Farley provide a ranch home and school for 80 underprivileged boys of the Panhandle area.

"Molded Sex" Costumes Leave More To Guess

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—Girls, if you think you could fit into the "Molded Sex" of Barbara Stanwyck's garments, there may be a chance for you in pictures.

Whence comes this "Molded Sex"? Let Edith Head, the brittle, bright fashion designer, explain it:

"Molded Sex is what I call the postwar clothes I designed for Barbara's next picture, 'The Other Love.' We have been through a strong period of undressing our women, cutting away on materials. It's time we realized the value of subtlety in dressing."

"For Molded Sex we follow the Greek method of fitting clothes to the body beautiful. There's a great deal more charm and sex in what you can't see than in what you are forced to see."

Now the gimmick is that Barbara would have to model 39 gowns. She wants a vacation, so Enterprise Productions is seeking an exact double, who also will get a part in the picture.

The Stanwyck measurements (and interesting ones they are, too): Head 22", neck 13", bust 35", waist 25 1/2", hips 33 1/2", lower part of hips 36", shoulder to floor 60", waist to knee 22", shoe 5-C, glove 6 1-2.

If you come close, send your photograph and measurements to Billy Selwyn, Enterprise Studio, Hollywood, 4. For Heaven's sake, don't send them to me.

The boll weevil is presenting the third, and what may be the final, step in the curtailment of the Howard county cotton crop. With the acreage down to only a small fraction of normal, farmers who have been fortunate enough to bring their cotton through the drouth are finding more tough sledding caused by insects and pests. Although it still has not spread to general infestation, the red spider is taking its share of the cotton on some farms, and the weevils are bringing more complications. The drouth itself has controlled the weevils in most sections of the state, according to recent reports, but apparently the crop in Howard county's Lomax community, is a major exception.

DDT still is a very new story, particularly in connection with feed and food crops. For household and livestock insects, DDT is the best insecticide that has been found, says C. A. King Jr., entomologist for the extension service. But in general entomologists are going slowly on recommendations until they know more about how the insecticide reacts on different plants under different climatic conditions. For houseflies, mosquitoes, fleas, roaches, bedbugs, and lice DDT is deadly, the entomologists say. When it fails to control these insects the trouble may be that too low a percentage of the insecticide is being used in the spray. A five percent mixture is recommended for houseflies and the spray must be applied thoroughly on the walls of the house.

The entomologists have set forth several precautions which they urge DDT users to practice. When spraying vegetable and truck crops the crop residue should not be fed to livestock. For stored grain insects, a three percent dust may be used if the grain is not to be used for food. Despite extensive investigation, the use of DDT on fruits is not yet recommended and the entomologists say it should never be used on animals in an oil solution.

The state 4-H dairy cattle judging contest will be held in connection with the state Jersey show at Waco on Sept. 5-7. The purpose of the contest is to select a team to represent Texas in the All-American junior judging contest at Columbus, O., Oct. 9-12. The four high-ranking boys in the state contest will make the trip to Columbus.

Texas ranks second only to Alabama in the number of boys and girls engaged in 4-H club work, according to nation-wide figures just released by the US Dept. of Agriculture. The census was based on club enrollment figures for 1945. Texas had 100,820 club members last year, while Alabama was in first place with 115,751. Mississippi's 100,239 members placed a close third. During 1945, 20.7 percent of all Texas rural farm youth were engaged in 4-H club projects.

Mother Zinn Has The 'Secret'

Big Spring rejoices with Mrs. Mary Zinn on the eve of her 100th birthday and joins in prayers that she will live to attain her ambition to be 100 years of age.

It couldn't happen to a finer and more deserving person. Everybody loves Mother Zinn and the reason is simple. In her own words: "I love everybody." In that she has captured the secret of life that many of us never learn. He who would be loved, must love; he who would be happy, must be inwardly happy by making others so. The joy of living is the product of one's own making.

Mrs. Zinn's life has had packed into it a multitude of experience, of heartaches, of happiness. It would have been interesting to have seen as she did the gathering storm of the Civil War, to have been on the scene during the strife when Jayhawkers and Bushwhackers plundered, Union and Confederate forces clashed, when the James brothers shot their way through a career of robbery and revenge.

It would have been engrossing to have followed the rise of an obscure, gangling lawyer who was raised up in the hour of crisis to hold the Union together; to have seen the struggle for reconstruction; the clamor for the Spanish-American war.

It would have been an unforgettable experience to take part in the settlement of a frontier; to spin and weave; to fight back against an unproven and sprawling country.

Indeed, it would be a wonderful thing to stand on the threshold of 100 years on this earth.

But best of all would be to live as Mother Zinn has lived and to possess the serenity and joyful spirit that comes only to those who live for others by living close to the Creator.

Indeed, A Spade Is A Spade

By FRANK GRIMES
Herald Special Writer

We note with growing alarm and distaste that many candidates for popular favor refer to themselves by full Christian and surnames, including middle initials if any, instead of simply hauling off and saying "I." They speak their own names as if they were referring to some chance acquaintance, with an elaborate detachment that wouldn't fool a talking dog.

This exercise in false modesty, we regret to note, has been indulged in by candidates of all degrees in this year's campaigns. We hope the successful candidate for governor, as an act of public renunciation and expiation, takes this custom into the back yard of the executive mansion and gives it an indecent burial, topped off with a bouquet of scallions or forget-me-nots.

We have no idea who invented this euphemistic gambit; possibly the inventor thought it would sound more modest to call his own name than to say "I." But our guess is that the radio boys, who depend on constant repetition to drive home a point, have convinced the new crop of politicians that they should mention their names at least twenty times in each 15-minute broadcast. Selling names and individualities, they argue, is like selling soap or toothpaste. Constant repetition is the soul of salesmanship. Also the acme of borseness.

But after you've heard a candidate mention his own name, initials and all, about forty times in a 30-minute speech, you cease to be amused and start looking for a good wild screech to relieve the tedium.

Perhaps this growing custom of self-naming is part of the general semantic debacle which has overtaken the sons of men. A prominent British writer not long ago remarked that when villages are bombed, women and children driven into the woods, and the countryside devastated, it is referred to as "pacification." When millions are robbed of their possessions and driven like dumb cattle out of their immemorial dwelling place into some new place of settlement, it is referred to as "transfer of population" or "restification of frontiers." If they are shot in the back or put in concentration camps, it is called "elimination of undesirable elements."

The point is that if these horrid practices were called by their true names, such as cold-blooded murder or massacre of innocents, or plain robbery or piracy, the world would better understand their true meaning and implication, and take heed of its dangers.

Half the words used in politics have no meaning. They are devised, like the Frenchman said of language, to conceal thought. Thus anyone who disagrees with our political and economic beliefs, howsoever slightly, we denounce as a fascist or a communist as the occasion demands.

The Englishman says we are not trying to make our political meaning clearer. We are, on the contrary, "entering into a world conspiracy to humbug each other by dressing up facts in fancy dress words."

Even so. We use weasel words, execute fancy verbal steps, and twist meanings with corkscrew phrases, as unintelligible as a bowl of alphabet soup.

A big war contractor did not steal from the taxpayer; he simply "executed an advantageous contract." Advantageous, that is, to himself. The man with a swollen income did not cheat Uncle Sam, he merely took advantage of certain loopholes in the law, the lucky stiff. And the pillar of the church who went to Mexico City did not go there to paint the town red and make whoopee; he merely went there to relax from the strain of being a decent citizen.

Marriages no longer go on the rocks as a result of pure cussedness on the part of one or both parties to the contract. The high contracting parties are merely temperamentally unsuited to each other—fortuitously discovered just in time for the spring term of court.

The brilliant young student and model Sunday school boy who strangles and dissects a child isn't an abysmal brute who ought to be hanged, but a hapless victim of a frustrated childhood or misunderstanding parents. Something has bruised his psyche, and we ought to feel sorry for him, not for his victim. Instead of calling in the lord high executioner, we ring for the psychiatrist.

What good are facts if we're not going to face up to them, but insist eternally that things are not what they seem?

A spade is a spade.

The Nation Today—James Marlow

Some Scientific Facts About Polio

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Reporter
(Substituting for James Marlow)

WASHINGTON, (AP)—If you have a child under 10 years of age, the chances are only three in a thousand that he will suffer a severe attack of infantile paralysis. There is one chance in a thousand he will be crippled for life.

The risk of a severe attack lessens sharply after a child passes 10. Beyond 20 there is only about one case in every 100,000 population.

These facts about infantile paralysis—or poliomyelitis—are set forth in "Hospital" magazine by Dr. Howard A. Howe of Johns Hopkins University.

Howe acknowledges there is small comfort in them.

"In 1944, the severe polio epidemic permanently handicapped some 5,000 American children."

Dr. Howe says that science believes the vast majority of people must have had a mild case of infantile paralysis and gained a practical immunity without ever being aware of it.

Thus persons apparently immune to severe attack themselves may harbor for a time the organism that causes the disease and possibly convey it to others.

Howe says it is virtually certain that the disease is transmitted by "human contact."

Flies and other insects have been suspected as possible transmitters, but no insect has been definitely incriminated.

Polio is caused by a virus, an organism too tiny to be studied even under the new electron microscope. And researchers have not been able to grow the virus in a test tube, which would make study easier.

No one so far has produced a safe vaccine. The most effective vaccines must contain "live" virus, which is potentially dangerous.

But Howe says various researchers are now intensifying studies along that line. They have been encouraged by recent discoveries indicating that viruses may be "inactivated."

After entering the body (probably through the nose or mouth), the virus strikes primarily the "groups of nerve cells in the spinal cord which control the use of the voluntary muscles in the head, trunk and limbs."

"Deprived of impulses from these nerves, the muscles are limp and useless. The damage may range from temporary suspension of function to complete destruction."

In earlier times, doctors kept affected limbs encased in splints. The Australian nurse, Sister Kenny, was largely responsible for the wide use of treatment that accents gentle motion of affected parts.

Roland Berg of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in a new book, "The Challenge of Polio," says:

"Even those medical men who are bitterly opposed to Miss Kenny readily admit that her treatment is good and should be used. The main point of disagreement between Miss Kenny and these doctors is that her treatment methods have been developed by her to treat a disease which Miss Kenny insists is a disease primarily of the muscles and skin. The medical men know that the disease is primarily one of the nervous system and that the muscles are only indirectly and symptomatically involved."

Shanghai Lost Her Glory

By SPENCER MOOSA
(For Hal Boyle)

SHANGHAI (AP)—Confused and expensive Shanghai, once the queen city of the orient, is not what it used to be, and many an old China hand sheds a quiet tear as he predicts that it never will be again.

The tolerant minority say the Chinese inherited many new and different problems when they took back a city which had been occupied by the Japanese for eight years and which before that was famed for its smoothly-run international settlement and French concession.

The Bund, famous waterfront street along the Whangpoo, is no longer a clean, orderly thoroughfare. Peddlers spread their wares in the street. Touts importuning passersby offer all sorts of merchandise and services.

In the central district, business heart of this metropolis of 4,000,000, portable restaurants line some of the finest streets.

Open-air stalls make traffic impossible in others, notably Blood Alley, which derived its name from the number of fights spawned in its dancehalls and bars. In Blood Alley's stalls overflowing with sidewalk wares, now have spilled out into the street. The proprietors offer a wide variety of goods: Cosmetics, chocolate bars, cigarettes and mosquito nets. They do a thriving business.

An importer who had brought in some winter raincoats to retail at $80 US found that before he could get his cargo cleared through customs, some of his coats were on sale in these stalls at half the price. They came, as did much other merchandise, from Shanghai's busy thieves.

Stealing of ship's cargoes is one of many Shanghai racketeers, but strictly in the big-league class. Importers estimate their losses from theft run into hundreds of millions of Chinese dollars monthly.

Automotive Patents For Sale By WAA

The War Assets Administration has offered for sale the government's limited interest in 71 automotive patents, according to an announcement received here.

The patents, declared surplus by the War Department, will be sold in one unit to the highest qualified bidder, subject to approval by the Dept. of Justice. They relate to motor trucks and other vehicles embodying multi-drive axle units.

The WAA will accept sealed bids until Oct. 15.

Advisory Committees Named To WA Agency

Establishment of a national committee on metalworking machinery and equipment to stimulate sales of this type of surplus property needed for industrial re-conversion has been announced by Hamilton Morton, War Assets regional director in Fort Worth.

A committee will be established in Fort Worth and each of WAA's 33 regional offices. These committees will serve in an advisory capacity.

The functions of the committees will be to discuss and make recommendations concerning all aspects of problems relating to increasing the volume of sales.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Backstage Plans For Another War

WASHINGTON—Back in 1919, right after the last war, the Philadelphia Public Ledger hired a special correspondent named E. J. Dillon to cover the peace conference. Mr. Dillon was a good newspaperman. He told the truth.

But as a youngster living near Philadelphia and reading Mr. Dillon every morning, I vividly recall how I and others who had built up high hopes for permanent peace did not like the truth. Eventually the Ledger got so many reader protests against Mr. Dillon's frank and pessimistic reporting that it had to run a special editorial defending him.

The trouble with Mr. Dillon was that he was telling his readers that the 1919 Paris peace conference was going to lead to another war and his readers at that time didn't want to think about war.

Having returned to the USA a few days ago from the present Paris peace conference, I suspect that some of my own readers also have been cussing me out as a pessimist, a kill-joy, and a belittler of modern diplomacy.

If so, I don't particularly blame them. The weather is hot, the vacation season beckons, the headlines are playing up the intriguing question of whether Mrs. Lottie Lockman did or did not poison her neighbors in Dupont, Indiana, and whether a Fairfield, Ill., grandmother poisoned her three-year-old grandson with a sandwich. Congress has gone home, government workers sweat out the humid August sunshine, we have just finished celebrating the first anniversary of our great victory over Japan, and on the surface there seems no apparent reason for worry about war.

led rockets eventually calculated to hit England or perhaps cross the arctic circle.

British scientists know that the Russians may wind up with the atomic bomb or even the more deadly cosmic ray if the Soviet is given another year to experiment. The British also know that the United States is not ready to wage a joint Anglo-American war against Russia; but they are convinced that, if Russia and England should clash, the USA would soon come in on the British side.

5. The British general staff has moved three crack divisions into Iraq for a showdown with Moscow over Iran. The British fleet is poised in Mediterranean waters. At least nine other British divisions and the entire Royal Air force are ready to support Britain's determination to dominate Iraq. Baghdad, capital of Iraq, is being heavily reinforced by the British.

6. The US army is now spending increased amounts to fortify Alaska and is working in close cooperation with Canada on defense of the entire arctic northwest. The Russian spy trials in Casablanca revealed that Moscow was collecting all possible information regarding northwest Canada and Alaska; also that all details of US troops were reported back to Moscow, even including the movements of regiments in the southern United States.

Red Army Alerted

7. The Russians are heavily fortifying the coast of Albania. This gives them partial control of the entrance of the Adriatic and might keep an allied fleet from rescuing US-British troops at Trieste. Moscow also has been shifting the Red army in Europe, has replaced war veterans with fresh men. In Germany the Red army is 750,000 strong. In Romania 90,000 Red soldiers have been increased to 350,000 men. Four Russian divisions are in the Czech Sudetenland. A total of 6,000 Russian planes are in Poland and Roumania.

8. Twelve factories in Russian-occupied Germany are pouring out munitions of war. The old Skoda works in Czechoslovakia, once used by Hitler, is turning out quantities of arms of an interchangeable type for use in either the Czech or Red army. Poland and Yugoslavia also are manufacturing standardized Russian arms. The armament race once more is on.

Army Maneuvers for War

Beneath the surface, however, certain ominous developments are setting in the Near East which could plunge us into a war more horrible than anything ever envisaged by the mind of man. Behind the scenes, the top military men of Russia and England and, to some extent, the United States, are now maneuvering for positions for a war which some of them think could come in a matter of months—even weeks.

Here are some of the secret moves which, only one year after a war to end war, make the world so laden with dynamite:

1. Intelligence agencies have learned that Stalin now has three giant airborne armies, totaling 120,000 men each, poised along the Black Sea. They are alerted and prepared for action—presumably against Turkey.

2. The Soviet politburo has decided on a showdown with Turkey over the Dardanelles—at once. Last week all the Russian field marshals met with members of the politburo for three days in Odesa. Afterward, Russia sent Turkey a demand that the Montreaux treaty covering the Dardanelles be revised at once—and be revised only by the Soviet satellites.

3. The Russian navy is now concentrated in the Black Sea ports of Sevastopol and Feodosiya.

4. The British foreign office and the British general staff have decided that the time for a showdown with Russia is at hand. Their intelligence reports indicate feverish Soviet experiments with the atomic bomb and the cosmic ray. The presence of rocket bombs over Sweden is known to be Russian experimentation with radio-control.

Sisal, Henequen, Jute Rope For Sale

Approximately 10 million pounds of sisal, henequen and jute rope, which cost the government nearly $3,000,000, are being made available by the War Assets Administration to agriculture, transportation, marine and industrial users, the Fort Worth Regional WAA office has announced.

The sales are being conducted by the WAA regional offices at fixed prices. The rope is being sold in pounds, based on diameter, except jute rope which is being sold at 11 1-2 cents a pound regardless of size.

Dollar Up Haircuts

MIAMI, Fla. — A recent survey found that 45 per cent of all the barbers in Florida work between Fort Pierce and Homestead and of that number about 80 per cent work in the Greater Miami area. Probable reason for the barbers' migration—haircuts in Miami cost a dollar and up. Mostly up.

Brassy Jive Becoming Reconversion Casualty

By TOMMY HART
Peace-time 'conversion' is influencing a drastic but inevitable change in our nation's music.

the war years. The demand for noise became greater and greater as the national emergency lingered.

Houston Barber Saves Souls While Shaving Faces

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff
The scene is Houston. You discover you need a haircut. You step into a barbershop and wait.

Locally, only the hobby-sox set is holding out for the brassy music. Take boxes still feature the discs but operators insist they are dying in popularity.

John Pipes, who keeps most of the local juke boxes equipped with up-to-date records, reveals that the most popular band with local listeners is, and has been for a long time, Bob Wills and his Texas Playboys.

The evangelistic barber says quite a few of his customers have promised to lead better lives. They seldom resent his interest in their future welfare, he says.

Wills features nothing but Western-type music or music done in the Western manner. Gaining in popularity is Spade Cooley, who also features the corny but likeable type of 'cowboy' rhythm.

The crooning-type vocalist is on the wane, from all indications. Bing Crosby maintains his popularity because his voice is versatile and he can handle any type of song but the Sinatras, the Haymes and the Eberleys are past their peak.

The Texas Poll - -

Shivers Gaining Lead Over House In Election

By JOE BELDEN
Director, The Texas Poll
AUSTIN, Aug. 17.—Allan Shivers appears to be pulling well ahead of Boyce House in the contest for lieutenant governor to be decided August 24.
A Texas poll completed last week found that state senator Shivers at that time held a majority of the voters. Results of the sampling taken from one end of Texas to the other, however, emphasize that the race for the lieutenant governorship is marked by a high degree of indecision, just as it was during the campaign for the first primary in July. Last week 18 percent would not choose between Shivers and his journalistic rival, House. That is a large number of undecided voters in any survey.
Results of the poll follow, including the undecided:
Allan Shivers . . . . . 52
Boyce House . . . . . 30
Undecided . . . . . 18
Omitting the undecided (which is what will have to be done in the final pre-election poll next week in order to compare the results with the election:

Allan Shivers . . . . . 64
Boyce House . . . . . 36
Shivers led House in the first primary by less than 10 percentage points in a five-candidate ballot. Now, as may be seen above, Shivers' margin has increased to better than 20 points, either way one takes it. But just what will happen in the home stretch in a race where there are so many people without a choice is anybody's guess.
A geographical analysis of the interviews collected for this poll reveals that House may give his opponent a good fight in the Panhandle and South Plains section, in Central Texas, and perhaps in West Texas. But elsewhere Shivers seems well ahead at this stage of the runoff campaign.
Beginning next Monday The Texas Poll starts its last political survey for this summer on candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor and lieutenant governor. The twenty-five newspapers including the Herald, will publish results of the final poll just before election day.
These polls are taken by a staff of more than fifty interviewers especially instructed for this job. All opinions for The Texas Poll are gathered through personal interviews to make sure that the voters included are truly representative of the entire electorate.

Milland Would Quit Acting For Directing

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—"Directed by Ray Milland"—that billing may soon be emblazoned on movie screens.

Most actors talk about directing, but few (Orson Welles, Robert Montgomery) ever do anything about it. Ray Milland is beating his gums on the matter these days and he is the kind of guy who usually gets what he wants. (Remember what happened to last year's Oscar?)

"Do you think I want to be an actor for the rest of my life?" He asked. He is currently in "Golden Earrings," going strong in his 13th year with Paramount. "I've always thought of directing," he continued, "in fact, I mentally direct every picture I'm in." His problem is in finding the right story.

"And when I find it, I'll pop into the front office and tell them I want a chance. I know I can do it."
Among the things he would like to do are a Welsh story and a picture of the ballet world. His musings were interrupted because he had to make up for the next scene.
"Another thing," he added, "directing would mean I wouldn't have to look at myself in the mirror any more."

Den Pack Seeking Funds For 'Home'

Den No. 2 of Cub pack No. 29 is attempting to raise funds for a meeting place and four families have subscribed to date.
The pack has a 16x16 tent, and the project calls for a 4-foot siding and floor. Gifts of $5 each have been made by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Early, Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parks and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Bluhm. Letters are going to other parents appealing for aid.

Thursday the den meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Bob Satterwhite, den mother, and an outing followed at the city park. ### Colorado Prepares Frontier Roundup

COLORADO CITY, Aug. 17.—Purses totaling $2120.00 plus entrance fees have been announced for Colorado City's 11th annual Frontier Roundup and rodeo to be staged here Sept. 4, 5, 6, and 7, according to Pat Bullock, president of the Roundup association, and John R. Baze, publicity chairman. For the first time in the history of the yearly event there will be four night shows.
Sponsored by the Roundup association assisted by the local Chamber of Commerce, the rodeo will again be produced by Earl and Jack Sellers of Del Rio, professional rodeo stagers and members of the RCA. Sellers Brothers have recently informed the local sponsors that they have three carloads of new rodeo stock—mostly from Nebraska and the Dakotas—which will be used in the show here.
Matched roping contests between outstanding ropers of professional caliber will be included in each performance and there will be contests for Mitchell county ropers only. Books will close at 1 p. m. Sept. 3 and no entries will be accepted after that date, Bullock states.
