Two Youths Are Killed in Explosion

Officers Here Probe Shooting

City officers were still questioning witnesses this morning in the shooting of Lucius Dinkins, 406 Oklahoma, at the Owl Bar, 405 Maple, last night.

The shooting occurred at 11:50 p.m. when an argument allegedly took place between Dinkins and Leo "Speck" Samuels, owner of the bar.

Samuels is being held in city jail while the investigation is in progress and, in a statement made to officers early this morning, stated that he had shot Dinkins after Dinkins had pulled a knife and then lunged at him, biting Samuels on the shoulder.

Dinkins was taken to Highland General Hospital in a private car and the attending physician reported that the bullet had entered the left side of the chest and after passing through the body, had left the back a few inches above the waist. None of the vital organs were damaged, the doctor reported.

Dinkins was still in the hospital this morning and was reported to be in satisfactory condition.

Dinkins was shot with a snub-nose .38-caliber revolver at close range and received heavy powder burns from the shot.

No charges had been filed in the case late this morning and Jim Conner, chief of police, reported that the police department was continuing the questioning of witnesses this morning in an effort to learn what happened at the bar that led to the shooting.

The only witness that apparently saw the entire incident, from the beginning of the argument until the shooting, could not be located last night and was finally found about 9 this morning.

Thefts Are Reported To Police

Reports of a burglary of a private residence and of money being taken while a man slept in a hotel room were received by the police department last night.

Mrs. Minnie Kuykendall, 616 N. Russell, reported at 10:51 last night that someone had entered her house while she was watching the fireworks display at a local drive-in theatre. She reported that she left home at about 7:30 and returned shortly before making the report. She had left the front door unlocked while attending the fireworks display, she stated.

Officers investigating the burglary reported that the closets, cabinets and drawers had been ransacked and that a package Mrs. Kuykendall had ready to mail to California had been out open.

The only item that was missing was a 21-jewel Gruen lady's wristwatch.

At 3:32 this morning, Clyde Branch, who is staying at the Hillson Hotel, 302 W. Foster, reported that approximately $23 had been taken from his billfold while he was sleeping in a room at the hotel.

Officers are attempting to determine the persons responsible for both thefts.

Jaycees Warn Horse Tank Crew Ready

Top of Texas men were given warning this morning that the Pampa Jaycees plan to have a full-time crew tomorrow at the horse tank in front of the LaNora Theater to "dunk" those who have neither a beard nor shaving permit.

The Jaycees are sponsoring the beard-growing contest here in connection with the Top of Texas rodeo.

Kay Fancher, publicity chairman for the contest, reminded Top of Texans this morning to be sure to carry their shaving permits with them at all times, as he knew of one or two who claimed to have permits but weren't carrying them who ended up "all wet."

Fancher said the sale of shaving permits was "doing quite well" but the Jaycees were seeing more beards than they were selling shaving permits.

Fancher said that, in his travels seeking qualified judges for the contest, which ends the night of Aug. 6 with a street dance, he had found that beard styles varied with the different areas.

"You can usually tell what kind of fellow you are talking to by the shape of his beard," Fancher said.

"If he has a suntan under it, he probably hasn't had it long and works outside. If he has a long beard, he has more than likely had it quite a while and may not even work at all. If it's a false beard, he may be trying to avoid being thrown into a horse tank somewhere. Young ladies seem to prefer the neatly-trimmed longer beards because they say they don't scratch, just tickle. Also, I have found one other fact to be indisputable. It is, old goats seem to be able to grow better beards than young men."

Woman 'Scalped' By Boat Prop

CROCKETT, Calif. (UP)—A San Francisco woman was literally scalped Thursday when her long black hair became entangled in the propeller of a power boat.

The accident took place Thursday as Henry Galbraith was backing his 30-foot boat, Scapia, out of Dowdrell's Yacht Harbor.

His wife, Lucretia, 51, loosened some floorboards to check the bilge pumps. Her hair, which reached to her hips, caught in the whirling propeller shaft.

Galbraith shut off the motor, but by then it had pulled away much of her hair. It took him 10 minutes to extricate her.

He rushed her to Brookside Hospital in San Pablo where she underwent delicate surgery to repair the injury. Doctors said she would recover.

Krushchev's Power Gains

By DANIEL F. GILMORE
United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON (UP)—Soviet military leaders threw their support today to Nikita S. Krushchev whose power approached that of the late Josef Stalin, with his chief political opponents disgraced and stripped of office.

Krushchev was reported planning a major purge of Stalinists and old line Bolsheviks in the Soviet Union, and further purges in Russia itself appeared inevitable. American diplomatic experts said Krushchev may become Russia's new dictator.

Wild rumors swept Warsaw that three top Soviet leaders ousted by Krushchev had been arrested; but there was no confirmation in Moscow. They were Vyacheslav M. Molotov, Georgi M. Malenkov and Lazar M. Kaganovich, all staunch followers of Stalin.

Arrest Reports Denied

The Polish Communist organ Trybuna Ludu in Warsaw telephoned its Moscow office to check the wild rumors and was told there was nothing to the reports; the three were under house arrest. However, it was noted that the new presidium in Moscow was whipping up popular enthusiasm against the expellees by mass demonstrations.

Three lesser Soviet leaders were fired from their posts in the Communist Party presidium in one of Moscow's greatest political upheavals since the death of Stalin, but it still was not known whether they were brought to trial.

Marshal Nikolai Bulganin remained in power, but any doubt of Krushchev's growing importance vanished today when Defense Minister Marshal Georgi Zhukov led the Soviet high command in pledging support to the new Krushchev policies.

The military leaders, at meetings in Moscow, Sevastopol, Kiev and Leningrad, personally joined in the attacks on the Molotov group—Krushchev's greatest rival for power.

The defense leaders supporting the new Krushchev line included such famous military leaders as Marshal Ivan Koniev, chief of the Warsaw Pact forces, and the heads of the Soviet air force, armored forces and navy.

In Washington, American diplomatic experts felt that Krushchev had immeasurably strengthened his hold on the Kremlin and that the move marked a new rise in power for the Red army.

Moscow newspapers predicted the new leadership would "work more efficiently for relaxation of international tensions and world peace" but Washington sources saw little change in relations between East and West.

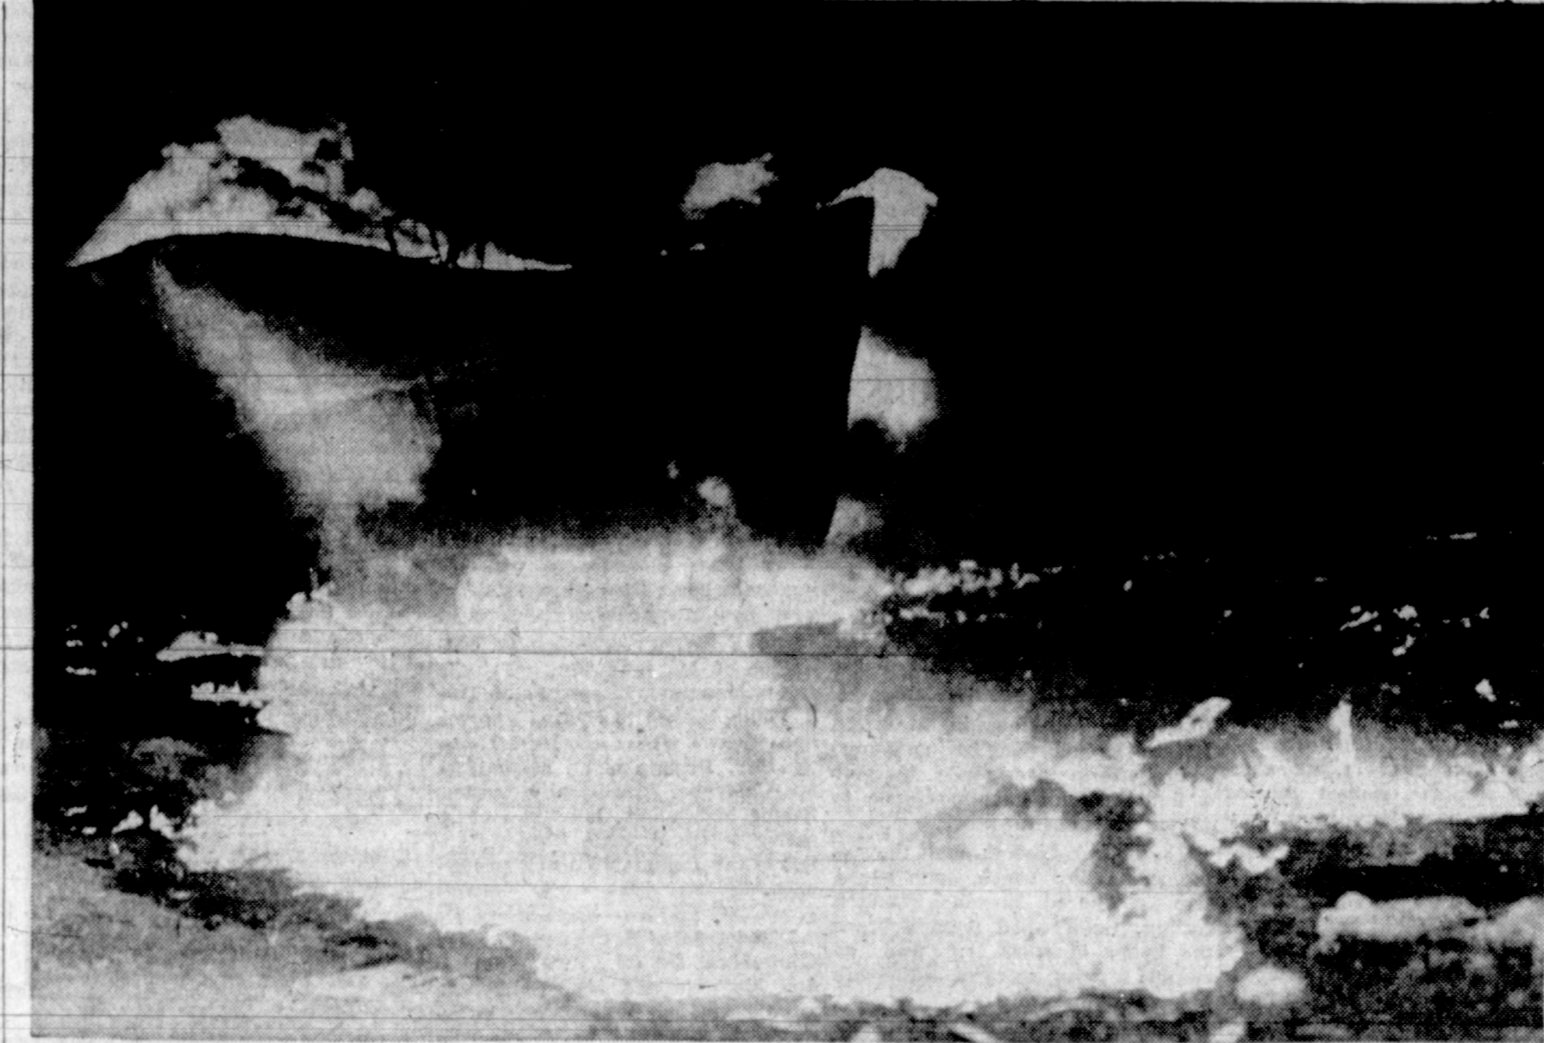

Economic Reforms Predicted

Dramatic reforms in Russia's economy were predicted—heralded by a Soviet decree that farmers no longer will have to deliver their products to the government. It was a major concession to win the support of the farmers who have chafed under the yoke of their forced deliveries.

But the most immediate effect was expected to be widespread changes in the satellites.

The Soviet political upheaval was accompanied by the demotion of two Romanian Stalinists. Informal sources said this apparently signified the start of a purge by Krushchev aimed at ridding the Red world of the last Stalinists.

The "old guard" leadership as represented by Molotov remains in power in Czechoslovakia, Albania, Romania, Bulgaria and East Germany.

Stassen Has New Plan To Offer Soviet

By WILLIAM C. SETON
United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON (UP)—U.S. delegate Harold E. Stassen is ready to submit a new European "open skies" plan which the West hopes will win the approval of the reshuffled Soviet hierarchy, informed sources reported today.

Stassen is expected to wind up presentation of the details of the Western plan for suspension of nuclear tests at today's session of the five-power U.N. disarmament subcommittee which includes representatives of the United States, Great Britain, France, the Soviet Union and the People's Republic of China.

City And County To Split McClellan Surveying Costs

In a split decision this morning, the Gray County Commissioners Court agreed to go along with the city on paying for an engineering survey to see if the dam at Lake McClellan can be repaired or if a new dam would have to be built.

The decision came late this morning in a special meeting of the county commissioners and the commissioners split the vote with Judge Bruce Parker, chairman of the commissioners court, breaking the tie in favor of the survey.

It has been estimated that the survey will cost approximately $2,000 and the City Commission agreed Wednesday to pay half of the cost if the county would go along on the survey.

An engineer secured by the two governments reported, after a preliminary survey, that a more complete check of the damage to the dam and spillway needed to be made to determine if the damage had resulted in a weakening of the base of the dam. The survey will take approximately three weeks.

The city and county have until August 1 to make a reply to an offer from the Forest Service of the United States Government on a proposal by that agency to give the lake site to either or both of the local governments.

The offer had originally been made to the city but when the Forest Service learned that the county was also interested in the offer was extended to either or both of the governments.

The original deadline for an answer was July 1 but a request by Judge Parker and Fred Brook, city manager, for an additional 30 days in which to make a survey was granted by the governmental agency.

It is felt by most of the City and County Commissioners that if the dam can be repaired at a reasonable cost, one or both of the local governments should accept the lake from the government. If the dam needs to be replaced, the offer will probably be turned down.

Search For Audrey Victims Extended To Stalled Cars

LAKE CHARLES, La. (UP)—A systematic search of marooned vehicles today was expected to extend Audrey's grim toll of 304 counted dead.

Pontooned helicopters teamed with marsh barges to check the many cars strewn beside roads and through the marshy areas. It was feared many Cameron Parish residents were trapped in their cars and drowned while fleeing the storm.

Meanwhile, refugees seeped back to Cameron and other towns and villages along the southwestern Louisiana coast. Not much more than rubble and waste, the smell of death and a few scenes of the new where the old had been awaited them.

Welcome W. Wilson, southwestern director of civil defense, said the Cameron area was safe enough for adults to return to find what 106-mile an hour winds and great rise of water had left. However, he warned that children should remain at refugee centers.

Calcasieu Parish Sheriff Henry Reid said 186 of the 304 bodies were identified. The missing list stands at 66.

Besides the Louisiana toll, Audrey snuffed out 30 lives in other states before she ended her wrath in Canada.

One of the latest bodies recovered was that of two-month-old Jack Clark, the youngest son of heroic Dr. Cecil Clark, Cameron's only doctor.

US Scientists Fire Monster Atomic Device In Nevada

By ROBERT BENNYHOFF
United Press Staff Correspondent

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (UP)—American scientists today set off a monster atomic device that appeared to be the most powerful ever fired inside the United States. It was possibly 3 1/2 times as violent as old-fashioned A-bombs which destroyed two Japanese cities.

The device was set off exactly on schedule at 4:40 a.m. p.d.—it was suspended from a helium-filled captive balloon, some 1,500 feet above the desert floor of Yucca Flat, 75 miles northeast of Las Vegas. Some 2,000 Marines were entrenched 3 1/2 miles away.

It exploded with a blinding flash more than 300 times brighter than the sun. The flash was visible for hundreds of miles in all directions as a tremendous fireball belled upward in a clear sky.

The customary 10-second countdown was repeated by the News Nob, 11 miles away, it felt

Firecrackers Ignite 500-Barrel Tank

By BILL NEAL
Pampa News Staff Writer

A deep pall hung over the City of Pampa today as residents grieved over a Fourth of July tragedy which took the lives of two young boys.

The two youths, Dearth L. Newman, 12, and his cousin, Truman Frank "Buster" Newman, 14, were burned to death when one of the boys apparently threw a firecracker near a 500 barrel distillate tank causing an explosion which could be seen for miles on any side of Pampa.

Two tanks on the property of the Groninger-King Construction Co., just east of Pampa and south of Highway 60, burned. One was blown upward and flipped over, flinging burning oil for a radius of 50 yards.

Dearth L. Newman, 12, and Truman died at Highland General Hospital at 2 a.m. today.

At first, firemen and G. E. Groninger, owner, feared others were trapped in the flames, but later found there was not.

C. Davis, owner of the C. Davis Trailer Park, 1403 E. Frederic (about two blocks away) rushed to the spot immediately afterwards.

"I grabbed the boy ('Buster') as he was screaming and running away. Firecrackers were still going off in his pocket, and only scraps of clothing and a belt were left on him."

"I grabbed him and threw him down to put the flames out."

"Dearth is still out there," the boy gasped.

Other witnesses told police that they had seen a third boy with the two youths earlier. However, a search of the area by firemen, volunteers and police later last night proved fruitless. Police had no reports of anyone missing this morning.

Truman Frank Newman was the step-son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Honeycutt of 210 E. Tuke here. Dearth Lamont Newman was the step-son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Edwards, 821 E. Gordon. His body was found about 10 feet from one of the tanks, in the flames, and was recovered by firemen T. D. Snow and Don Hendricks.

Both boys were charred almost beyond recognition.

Parents of Truman were notified immediately, but it was almost an hour and a half before Dearth's parents could be located. At the time they were at a drive-in theater.

The fire department was notified at 8:15 p.m. and they set the explosion time at 8:10.

The blaze set fire departments in Amarillo, Borger, Bushyhead, Phillips and Pampa in readiness. However, it was brought under control by the Pampa firemen about 9:30. It had burned out by around 11.

The 500 barrel distillate tank which exploded and turned upside down, was about three-fourths full. J. L. Reddell, office manager for Groninger-King, said this morning.

Monetary damage was estimated at about $3,000.

The other tank, a 250 barrel capacity container, had only a few inches of oil in it. A third tank nearby was empty.

The three tanks are located in an open area, some distance from any other structure. The entire area was fenced and gates locked.

"We've been trying to keep everyone out of there," Reddell said.

The distillate oil kept in these tanks is used in the treating of wells. It is pumped into the hole to cut paraffin.

Police and firemen reported (See YOUTHS, Page 3)

Services Set For Explosion Victims Here

A double funeral for Dearth Lamont Newman, 12, and his cousin, Truman Frank "Buster" Newman, 14, victims of the oil tank explosion last night, is scheduled for 2 p.m. tomorrow in the Bible Baptist Church.

The Rev. H. M. Hutchinson, pastor, will officiate.

The boys were burned to death when firecrackers they were shooting in observance of the Fourth of July exploded on the property of Groninger and King Construction Company.

Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Dearth Newman was the step-son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Edwards of 821 E. Gordon. He was born June 4, 1945 in Wellington.

He was a member of the Bible Baptist Church and would have been in the seventh grade at the Baker school.

Truman Frank "Buster" Newman was the step-son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Honeycutt, 210 E. Tuke. He was also a member of the Bible Baptist Church and attended school at Baker.

Dearth Newman died at the accident scene, and Truman Newman died at 2 a.m. today after being taken to Highland General Hospital.

Dearth Newman is survived by his parents; three sisters, Linda, Stella, and Sharon, all of Pampa; one brother, Jerry; one step-brother, Larry Glenn Edwards of Pampa; and two grandsons, Mrs. Leona Sturgill of Pampa and Mrs. Margaret Newman of Phoenix, Ariz.

Truman is survived by his parents; three sisters, Alice, Bonnie, and LaFonda of Pampa; three brothers, Danny, Wendell, and Michael Lynn, all of Pampa; and two grandsons, Mrs. Leona Sturgill and Mrs. Margaret Newman.

Arrangements are being carried out by Duenkel - Carmichael Funeral Home.

Highway Bridge Open To Traffic

State Highway maintenance officials reported this morning that the bridge on Highway 273, north of McLean, is now open to traffic.

Jack McDowell, foreman, said the bridge was opened to all traffic at 4 p.m. yesterday. One approach has not been "topped" yet he said, but would be soon and traffic over it is unhampered.

Rental Housing Group Has Meet

The special Housing Committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce met this morning to further plans in trying to provide additional rental housing needed in this area for personnel to move here with the Franks manufacturing Company.

Representatives of the Cabot Companies, parent company for Franks, reported that 40 additional houses were needed.

The committee is continuing its work in trying to make more houses available.

GATOR BITES BACK

LAKE WALES, Fla. (UP)—Game warden Allen Neal said today at least two alligator boys will use bigger guns the next time they hunt the tough-skinned reptiles. Neal said the two men fired at an 11-foot gator with .33 caliber rifles and he bit a chunk out of the bottom of their boat.

Traffic Deaths Climb

By UNITED PRESS

A rash of multiple fatality crashes sent the Fourth of July holiday traffic death toll soaring today toward the 200 mark.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, said the highway toll took an "alarming spurt" Thursday night after motorists had posted an encouraging safety record for the first 24 hours of the long holiday.

"Unless drivers and traffic enforcement agencies combine to halt it, the traffic toll will come near the pre-holiday estimates of 555 persons killed," Dearborn warned.

Holiday Toll Up In Texas

By UNITED PRESS

A rash of traffic accidents in the waning hours of the Fourth of July sent the holiday death toll in Texas soaring.

A United Press survey today showed Texas with the highest fatality count in the nation in point of highway deaths.

A total of 13 persons died on the highway, five others were drowned, and two was burned to death to bring the overall total to 20.

The Department of Public Safety had predicted 16 traffic deaths. Last year, there were 12 traffic deaths on the Fourth.

Kitchen Lighting Is Merten HDC Topic

Mrs. A. M. Nash was hostess to the Merten Home Demonstration Club on Tuesday evening.

During the business meeting, the president, Mrs. L. F. Watt announced that Mrs. Jack Prather would represent the club in Houston at the state meeting.

Miss Helen Dunlap gave the program on "Lighting the Kitchen." She explained that the kitchen being a central part of our home and activities, should have as much natural lighting as possible and that this is obtained by large and well-placed windows.

She went on to say that since we are more efficient where there is good lighting, we should consider how important is the paint we use. "White and yellows are best and furnished 85 per cent of light respectively. Dark colors reflect very poor light."

Miss Dunlap advised the use of 150 watt bulbs for over-head lights and 100-watt bulbs over the sink and other working areas. Milk white bulbs, she said, give the best light.

She concluded by giving three essentials for good lighting: 1) sufficient light; 2) freedom from glare; 3) absence of deep shadows.

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served to Meses Clyde Edmondson, L. F. Watt and Kathy Jack Prather, A. M. Nash, Bob Brandon and Miss Helen Dunlap.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. L. F. Watt, Merten Lease, on July 16 at 1:30.

Fall Furniture Falls Into Lush Field Of Highly Romantic, Refined Designs

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

More sophisticated tastes of consumers, backed by rising incomes, influence new furniture for fall. An unusually large variety of new designs, decorative accents and effects—previewed at the summer Home Furnishings market in Chicago—will hit the stores this autumn.

Manufacturers have pulled together the most skillful designers, the finest cabinetmakers, the choicest woods and the richest fabrics to give the little lady what they hope she'll want—and pay for. Name a country or a culture and you'll turn up an influence in new furnishings.

It's a lush field of highly decorative, romantic and refined designs. Purely practical features are no longer given top billing, although they are still incorporated. Your attention is drawn instead to the carved accent, the intricate linings and parquetry effects, the use of contrasting materials, the foreign sources for the design.

Extensive coordinated collections are more numerous and more distinguished. To avoid the possibility of monotony in such extensive groupings of bedroom, living room and dining room furniture, designers introduce variety in wood finishes, in decorative detailing and accent pieces.

For example, in John Van Koert's new Casa del Sol collection—which stems from Mexican and Spanish sources—two finishes on walnut can be mixed in one setting. Silk screen painted motifs in blue-green, taken from an early 18th century lacquered bowl, can brighten the doors of come chests if the customer so desires. Peacock blue accents appear in captain's chairs and frames for mirrors.

In a moderately priced collection designed by Ernest Hermann, variations include reversible tambour doors with wood on one side, textured plastic on the other.

New upholstered pieces aim for comfort and style but with a less bulky look. Whether the design influence is Scandinavian, Mexican, Italian, French, English, or American, effort is made to give a lighter, slimmer appearance to major pieces of furniture.

This is achieved through the use of loose pillow backs, open bases, trim-tailored cushions, button tufting. Open wood frames brace the backs of sofas as well as chairs, inviting away-from-the-wall arrangements.

Contrast is a keynote of new furnishing. Two or more woods may be combined in one table or chest. Light and dark finishes show up together. Bright tile or glass insets shine against wood backgrounds. Plain and patterned upholstery enliven the sofa.

Hardware is more restrained. Soft-finished brass, pewter, glass and tile are used. Sometimes drawer pulls are simply cut-outs—lined, perhaps, with a contrasting wood or metal.

Bride-Elect Fed Fed With Nuptial Event

(Special to The News)

McLEAN — Miss Floella Cubine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Cubine and bride-elect of Neil Quattlebaum of Hereford was honored with a bridal shower on July 2 in the parlor of the Methodist church. Calling hours were from four to 5:30 o'clock. Hostesses for the occasion were Meses Paul Kennedy, Wilson Boyd, Evan Sitter, S. A. Cousins, Clyde Magee, Bob Black and Larry Edwards.

The table was covered with a white antique linen cloth, an heirloom of Miss Cubine's grandmother, Mrs. Ella Cubine. Large double wedding rings graced the bouquet of yellow daisies which highlighted the tea table. The daisies had delicate centers of small white bows, which blended into the background of the arrangement.

Miss Monta Jean Kennedy presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Don Light of Stinnett served the cake. The guests were registered by Mrs. Bryan Closs of Shamrock. Background music was played by Meses Donna Magee, Betty Dickinson and Mrs. Don Trew.

Mrs. Wylie Quattlebaum, mother of the honoree's fiancé and his sister, Wylajeen received the guests with the honoree and her mother. Approximately one hundred and fifty guests attended the tea and sent gifts.

Welcome to Pampa

Many newcomers are moving into Pampa every day, and the News takes pleasure in welcoming them here. Below are a few of your new neighbors.

The F. W. Pringle family consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Pringle and daughter Karen, 5, of 1106 S. Wells, moved to Pampa approximately two weeks ago from Houston. Mr. Pringle is an accountant for Celanese. The family enjoys fishing and tennis, but "most of all eating," Mrs. Pringle stated. Baptist is the Pringle's church preference.

District Sales Representative for Continental Oil Co., R. L. Malone and his wife and son, Bobby, 15 months, moved to 2235 N. Williston from Albuquerque, N.M. This is a fresh start for the family since Mr. Malone returned to Pampa long ago after spending two years in the Navy. Their church preference is Episcopal. Mrs. Malone was an art major in college and is interested in crafts and working with retarded and cerebral palsied children.

Moving to Pampa from Childress are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scarbrough, 1129 Huff Rd., and one son, Steven, 4. Mr. Scarbrough is employed by Hughes Tool Co. The family said that they enjoyed watching TV and going to the show together. Their church preference is Baptist.

The Assembly of God is the church preference of newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Ben Blackmon, 829 S. Tignor. The Blackmons who came to Pampa from Odessa have three children, Davey, 10, Phyllis, 8, and Tony, 7. Picnics, swimming and fishing are the favorite pastimes of the family. Mr. Blackmon is a roughneck for Keeton.

Perryton was the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Combs 1100 S. Wells, before moving to Pampa. The Combs and their two children, J. L., 4, and Juanell, 7, aren't entirely newcomers, however, for they have lived in Pampa before. Mr. Combs is working for Johnson Testers. Fishing is one of the family's favorite hobbies, and their church preference is Baptist.

H. B. Cox, district manager of Diamond Oil Well Drilling Co., and his wife and two children, Starla Jan, 9, and Kathy Ann, 20 months, recently moved to Pampa from Wichita Falls. The Church of Christ is the family's church preference. When asked what the family enjoyed doing together, Mr. Cox said that they didn't have much time for hobbies, but that Starla liked to ride her bicycle and the baby "liked to do anything that she wasn't supposed to." They reside at 2122 N. Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Pettiflis, 408 N. Somerville, and their three children, Steve, 10, Adell, 7, and Kenneth, 2 months, moved to Pampa two weeks ago from Galveston. Even though it was quite a change moving from the Gulf to the Panhandle Mrs. Pettiflis said she liked it here fine. Mr. Pettiflis is an engineer for Celanese, and Mrs. Pettiflis is interested in dramatics and dramatic readings. She said she enjoyed most using her talent in club and church work. She also stated that she had heard that there were many talented people in Pampa and that she was anxious to meet them. Picnics and tennis are the family's favorite hobbies and their church preference is Methodist.

New lessees of the Court House Cafe are newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Byerley, 1212 Williston, from Liberal, Kan. The Byerleys enjoy all kinds of sports such as swimming, and prefer the First Baptist Church. They have two sons, Clay, 12, and Dean, 15.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Don Rahm and Ray Donna, 11 months, is 1129 Seneca Lane. The Rahms are from Harper, Kan., and Mr. Rahm is working on performing jobs for Atlas Co-operation. Mr. Rahm said the family recently took a vacation to Missouri, but when he's working they usually stayed pretty close to

Travel Authorities Suggest That Vacationists-To-Be Travel Light

As you read this article, you may be one of 5 million Americans who will be going on vacation next week—or one of another similar group that will leave the following week—and the next and the next. If you are like 90 per cent of the vacationists-to-be, you are in a state of subdued excitement and the children are chanting, "Oh, boy—only three days." (Or six days—or five or two, or whatever. They keep accurate count.)

Also, if you go along with the majority, packing will be left to the last minute when all kinds of unnecessary things will be thrown into unnecessary extra luggage and many essential things will be left-at home.

Everybody should have a check list of "what to take." The average vacationist is an amateur traveler and usually takes along too much or too little.

Here is a basic list of outer clothing and other essentials that the vacationist needs for travel by automobile. There is no attempt here to list recreational equipment such as fishing or boating supplies. This list is for the suitcase. Limit luggage to two pieces for a family of four.

Here we go for last minute packers: (Suggested by travel authorities for a two week trip to a cabin on cottage or continuous travel on the road—not for country club type resorts)

Clothes for Boys: 2 blue jeans, 1 dress trousers, 4 sports shirts, 1 heavy jacket (for North woods or mountains only), 1 pair heavy shoes, 1 pair dress shoes, 3 pairs socks.

Clothes for Girls: Same as above except substitute dress-up dress as well as sport dress.

YELLOW PAGE AD brings contracting firm 175 calls

The Bettmann Construction Company decided to try a half-column display ad in the Yellow Pages of the telephone directory, instead of a bold-type listing previously used.

Not long after the company's ad appeared in the new directory, the owner of the firm wrote the telephone company: "The number of inquiries I have received both amazed and pleased me. I have kept a pretty good check . . . and I figure that I have received approximately 150 to 175 calls from my half-column display.

"At the time that I arranged for the display to be inserted, I thought that if I got one job a month it would be well worth the cost. I have been getting, on the average, about two or three jobs each week.

"If my business continues on the present scale, this year I will double the gross business that I did the year preceding, and I attribute practically all this increase to the telephone directory display, as I do no other advertising to speak of."

Yellow Page advertising can work for you, too, Mr. Businessman. Talk it over with the Yellow Page man when he calls on you.

States, Britain, France, Canada and the Soviet Union.

The sources said that if time permits, Stassen will deliver the new "open skies" proposal. They said all the Atlantic pact partners have agreed to submit to international aerial inspection of their territories.

The informants said the plan calls for aerial inspection over a vast area of Europe, stretching from Portugal in the West to a line far to the east of Moscow. Russia, according to the sources, would be asked to open proportionately more of its territory than the West. The sources said France insisted on this condition in exchange for placing the whole of its territory under aerial inspection.

The Soviets already have agreed in principle to the "open skies" inspection plan first proposed by President Eisenhower. But they have denounced the idea of proportional areas.

considerable trouble when onlookers caused traffic jams which blocked operations.

Shift Captain Paul Skidmore of the fire department said that a fire truck was cut off by traffic and it through despite blinking red lights and a siren.

"It is certainly a deplorable situation," Police Chief Jim Conners said, "when the curious block rescue operations. People would learn more by staying at home and listening for reports."

"It was a hell of a mess," one fireman said.

Traffic blockades were thrown up about a quarter of a mile on either side of the site.

Doctors at Highland Hospital reported that "Buster" had suffered third degree burns which covered 80 per cent of his body.

Enroute to the hospital he kept saying, "Hessell, don't throw that firecracker at the oil tank, don't throw it..."

And as the ambulance pulled out with the bodies, red and green sky bombs still dotted Pampa's skyline — and unfeeling holiday celebrants returned to their play.

Fire Calls Made To Residences

In addition to the explosion last night at Croninger and King Construction Company on the Miami Highway, which resulted in the death of two local youths, two other alarms were received by the fire department.

Both of the alarms were to fires in residences but neither fire resulted in extensive damage. The first alarm was received at 10:13 last night when a mattress caught fire at 532 Oklahoma. No one was in the house at the time the fire started, firemen answering the alarm reported, and the only damage was to the mattress. At 9:20 this morning, the other alarm was received when the electrical wiring on a clothes dryer at the residence of J. R. Taylor, 1068 Varnon Dr., shorted and resulted in slight damage to the wall near the dryer. The fire was out when the fire trucks arrived.

Rites Are Pending For Mrs. Ballard

Mrs. Studie Martha Ballard, 48, died at the Highland General Hospital on July 4 at 8 p.m., following a long illness.

She was born at Erick, Okla., on January 13, 1909, and moved to Canadian when she was a young child.

Mrs. Ballard was preceded in death by her husband, Ruben Ballard, on April 15, 1944. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Mitchell and Mrs. Sue Reems, both of Pampa; one brother, Jeff McDaniels of Canadian; two sisters, Vivian Baker of Amarillo, and Iva Gordon of Takoma, Wash.; and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in the First Baptist Church at Canadian, the date and time are pending.

'Need For Revival Is Great'—Graham

By ALBIN KREBS

United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (UP)—Billy Graham said solemnly Thursday night that the need for a "true spiritual revival" in America is so urgent that he would be willing to give his life for such a cause.

The 38-year-old evangelist, probably the most emotional sermon he has preached during his New York crusade, said a great cloud of "moral deterioration" had descended upon America.

"I'm tired, weary and worn," said Graham, who has lost more than 12 pounds since his crusade began May 15. "The pressures of this crusade have been unbelievably difficult. But I'm willing to give my life, ready to die in New York to see a true spiritual revival in New York and America."

Graham's pledge, which came at the end of a sermon on patriotism and religion, seemed to affect his audience profoundly. The service took on the aspects of an old-time revival meeting.

"Are you willing to give your lives to make this crusade the beginning of a mighty revival in America?" Graham asked his 16,000 listeners in Madison Square Garden. A chorus of "yes" arose from every part of the huge sports arena.

Stand in Prayer.
Then Graham asked all those willing to dedicate themselves to his crusade's success and a "regeneration of religious feeling in America" to stand and pray silently with him. Nearly everyone stood up.

For a few moments, there was a great hush over the audience. Then the sounds of wailing and wailing and sobbing came up from several areas of the garden. A man shouted "Hallelujah!" A woman started shouting and waving her arms about and had to be subdued.

In his sermon, Graham said that America was right in fearing Russia and the H-bomb "in the hands of apychoopath and madman like Khrushchev."

"But it's our own moral deterioration we should be more worried about," Graham said. "Honesty and truthfulness have been thrown out the window in America. The nation is on a mad whirl of pleasure-seeking, licentiousness, amusement-chasing, cheating and alcoholism."

"Lying is the accepted rule in business today. There are too many men in America who care naught for the welfare of the nation but only for their personal popularity."

Moral Blight
"Our people have become obsessed with sex. You must have sex even to sell toothpaste. America is very much like Rome in its last days, when the decay was setting in."

In many other ways, Graham said, America is showing signs of moral blight. "Our future is being threatened by racial strife, one of the biggest black eyes to America abroad," he said. "It's time for us to come to the foot of the cross as brothers. We must wipe away the false idea of racial superiority."

"This is our crisis hour, my beloved Americans," Graham said. "I'm alarmed. My heart is heavy. I pray, 'Oh God, oh God, spare America.' And New York and America can be spared, but only in God."

Crusade officials said 365 persons recorded "decisions for Christ" following the meeting, bringing the total for the crusade to 27,006. More than 850,000 persons have attended Graham's sermons here.

WANTED: WRITING COPS
COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa (UP)—The city police department Wednesday hired two lady officers to patrol parking meters. The women were picked from a large group of applicants on the basis of neatness, personality — and penmanship.

start of the holiday at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday until 12 noon e.d.t. showed 158 killed in traffic. An other 91 persons drowned 6 were killed in plane crashes and 13 in miscellaneous accidents for a total of 269.

A council spokesman said the toll was running ahead of the last comparative four-day holiday, New Year's, when United Press counted a total of 412 traffic deaths.

Texas led the states with 32 killed in traffic, followed by Ohio with 31, Pennsylvania 30, Oklahoma 9 and New York and California with 7 each.

One of the nation's worst tragedies occurred near Leesville, La., Thursday when six persons were drowned in a chain of disastrous rescue attempts.

Authorities said the six, all Negroes ranging in age from 8 to 20, were fishing when one of the youngsters fell overboard. One by one the others jumped in to the water in futile efforts to save their companions.

The National Safety Council had estimated that 535 persons would die in traffic during the 102-hour holiday which ends at midnight Sunday.

Roy Cullen Dies In Houston

HOUSTON (UP)—Hugh Roy Cullen, who gave away an estimated 200 million dollars, died at the age of 76 Thursday night.

Hermann hospital announced Cullen's death was due to cardiac failure and cerebral thrombosis. He had entered the hospital last March 23.

The Houston oilman, one of the world's wealthiest men, was founder and head of the sprawling Quintana Petroleum Co., which discovers, drills for and sells oil. He was called the father of the University of Houston.

Born in Denton county, Tex. in 1881, his formal education stopped after completion of the third grade. He took his first job in San Antonio at the age of 15, wrapping candy for $3 a week.

UH Chief Benefactor
Cullen often said he gave away 90 per cent of his wealth. Close associates set the figure at 200 million dollars funneled into charity.

He donated millions to the University of Houston and the Texas Medical Center.

"I have a warm spot in my heart for those boys and girls who had to get their education the hard way," he said.

Cullen gave most of his money away through the Cullen Foundation which he set up on income from oil leases with a potential 80 million dollar value.

He became so embarrassed when city fathers attempted to thank him he doubled the sum to 160 million.

He gave millions of dollars to hospitals operated by the Methodists, Baptists, Episcopalians and Roman Catholics.

Favored One Church
He once gave more than four million dollars to a group of hospitals within one week. "Giving a million is just as easy as giving two bits," he cracked.

"I feel friendly toward all people," he said. "I don't think in terms of creed or denomination. I think we all have one common ancestor and one God. We ought to have one church."

Cullen paid small attention to politics until his later life when he became an outspoken foe of the New and Fair Deals.

He was a friend and often host to the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

His wife and four daughters were at his bedside when he died at 10:05 p.m. on Thursday.

Man Fined On Driving Charge

In the only case tried in county court this morning, Clifford Johnson of Henrietta pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated.

He was sentenced to three days in jail and was fined $125 and cost by Judge Bruce Parker.

Johnson was arrested by a city officer at 5:32 p.m. yesterday after being observed on Alcock. He reported that he had moved to Pampa yesterday.

Burial Set For Actress Killed In Auto

LARAMIE, Wyo. (UP)—The body of actress Judy Tyler, whose brilliant Broadway, movie- and television career ended tragically in an automobile accident Wednesday, will be returned to her parents in Ridgefield, Conn., Saturday for burial.

Singer Elvis Presley, who had just completed the lead role opposite the 24-year-old brown-eyed actress in a new movie, was heart broken when he learned of her death Thursday.

"All of us boys really loved that girl," Presley said at his home in Memphis, Tenn. "She meant a lot to all of us. I don't believe I can stand to see that movie we made together now, just don't believe I can."

Miss Tyler and her husband of only four months, Gregory Lafayette, were killed at 5:30 p.m., on Wednesday when their automobile collided with another just north of Rock River, Wyo., on U.S. 30. They were returning to their New York home for a vacation as Miss Tyler had just completed the movie, "Jailhouse Rock," with Presley in Hollywood.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

ROY E. CURTIS
Director Living Endowment TCU (Sub for Rev. Crews)

FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

It is recorded that just before the Pilgrims set sail for America, the Reverend John Robinson opened the Bible to the twelfth chapter of Genesis and read these words: "And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great so that you will be a blessing." This was the promise God made to Abram. Could it have been intended for the Pilgrims too? Whether or not they believed it was meant for them, probably no one not even the Reverend John Robinson dared dream of an America as great and as good and as free as the America we know today. What, think you, made it so?

One hundred and eighty one years ago yesterday the great bell in Independence Hall broadcast to all the world America's message of freedom. "We hold these truths to be self evident" it said, "that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights . . ." OUR FATHERS BELIEVED IN THEIR FELLOW MAN.

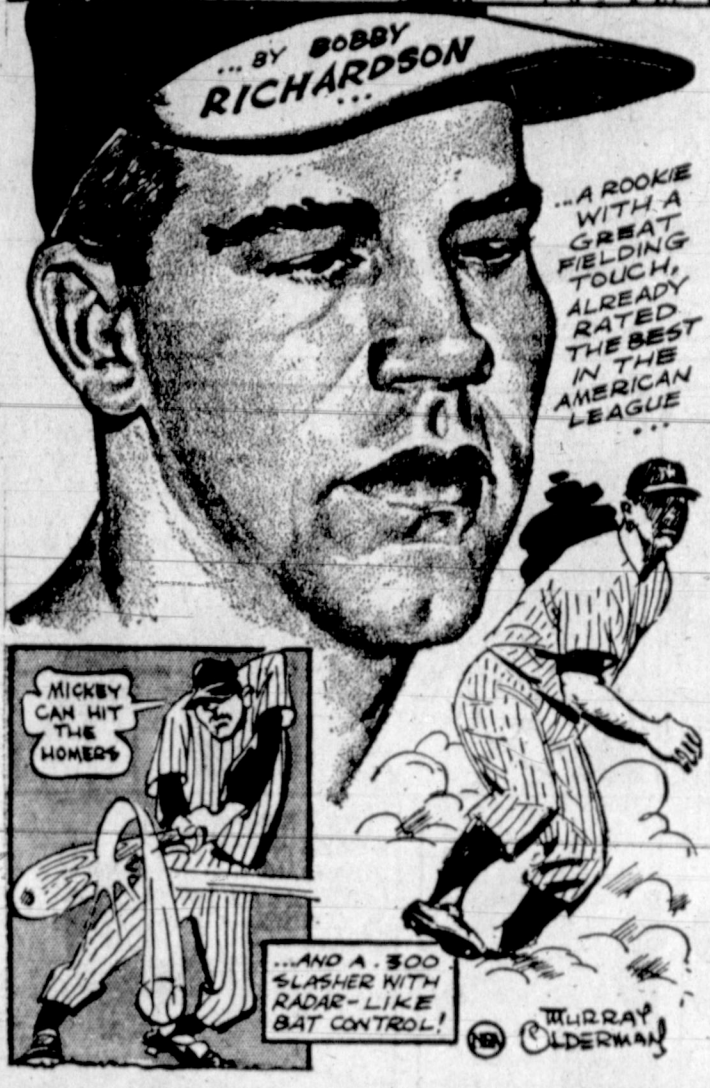

On September 17, 1787 our Founding Fathers adopted a constitution which began with the words, "We the people of the United States . . ." OUR FATHERS BELIEVED IN THEMSELVES.

Washington, kneeling in the blood stained snow of Valley Forge; Lincoln, praying as he paced the floor in the White House the long night through; our own president, as he took the oath of office, asking God to guide him; these are pictures that will never fade. OUR FATHERS BELIEVED IN GOD.

FAITH IN THEMSELVES, THEIR FELLOWMAN AND IN GOD! This is the foundation on which a nation grows strong whose builder and maker is God. This was the faith of our Fathers. God has made of us a great nation and He has blessed us and made our name great that we might be a blessing. What say you, fellow Americans?

Rebs Cinch District Tie With Win Over Borger

Play Final District Game Wednesday With Amarillo

The Pampa Rebels clinched a district first-place tie when they blasted their way to a 15-5 victory over Borger last night in Oiler Park. Scoring in all but three innings, the Rebels rolled in their runs through the power hitting of Ray Stephenson, David Marler and Terry Haralson. Childress' runs came in the fourth, sixth and seventh innings through hits by Al George and Jim Dean. Gary Heiskell, who threw the entire game for the Rebels, struck out four men, allowed only one walk and 11 hits. Dean, pitching for Childress, pitched the fourth inning, struck out five, allowed three walks, nine hits and is charged with 11 of the Rebel runs. Relief pitcher Guthrie, who pitched one inning, had no strike outs, three walks, two hits and is charged with two runs. Guthrie and finished the game for Childress, has a strike out, allowed no walks, one hit and two runs. Both teams went into the game with one district loss, and now the Rebels lead as the only team with one defeat. Pampa will play the Amarillo Chiefs Wednesday night at Amarillo, a game that will determine either a tie for

Williams Not Much In Early Days

NEW YORK (UP) — It'll come as a surprise to most pitchers but there was a time when Ted Williams could be "sucked" with low-breaking curves and was just another .270 hitter. The great Boston Red Sox slugger himself is the authority for the above statement and the record book plainly lists Ted as having hit .271 for San Diego in the Pacific Coast League back in 1936. What's more Ted didn't hit a single homer in 42 games that year! "They had me labeled as a good prospect," the 38-year-old Williams recalls. "But, looking back, I guess I wasn't much of a hitter in those days." Williams insists, however, that he never went for bad balls. "That's one thing I'd never do," said Ted with the same resentment that the average fellow would deny beating his mother. "I never swing unless the ball's over the plate." The four-time American League batting champion, who has a lifetime mark of .348 in the majors,

Kist Defeats Pampa Paint & Glass, 9-2

In correction to a story in yesterday's paper, Kist defeated the Pampa Paint and Glass, 9-2, in a Pony League game played Wednesday night. Taylor was credited with the win for Kist, and Scott charged with Pampa Paint's loss.

Middlecoff, Stranahan Gain In Second Round Of Open

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (UP) — Cary Middlecoff and Frank Stranahan, improving with the Scottish weather, were in contention for the first time today for the final two rounds of the British Open golf championship. Middlecoff, hampered by hay fever and the betraying winds that have swept the ancient and royal St. Andrews course during most of the tourney, played his best game Thursday as a warm sun broke through along with a cooling breeze. The golfing dentist from Memphis, Tenn., fired a one-under-par 71 as did Stranahan.

Sportsmen Down Cabot, 14-6

In Little League farm team action Tuesday night, the Sportsmen defeated Cabot, 14-6. Jerry Parker on the mound and Larry Vasek catching for the Sportsmen turned a good performance against the newly organized Cabot team, coached by Bob Cardin. Danny Robinson pitched and Red Foster caught for the losers. Robin Vail and George Henderson slammed the two home runs of the evening. The Sportsmen stand for the season with 3 wins against 1 loss.

Stan 4th In Extra Base Hits

CHICAGO (UP) — Stan Musial has passed another milestone on the road to baseball's Hall of Fame—he now stands fourth in the all-time list of extra-base hits. Only Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig have more extra-base blows to their credit than the Cardinals' "Stan the Man." Musial passed Tris Speaker on the list Thursday when he hit a home run in the first game of a twin bill against the Cubs, the 1,133rd extra base hit of his career.

All SW Twin Bills Are Split

All teams played doubleheaders and every doubleheader was split. San Angelo beat Ballinger in the opener 12-3 and the league-leading Westerners took the nightcap 14-6. Carlsbad edged El Paso 8-4 in the first game but the Texans came back for an 11-9 victory. Midland whipped Hobbs 7-2 in the opener but lost the nightcap 3-2. Hobbs is at Carlsbad and El Paso at Ballinger tonight in the only games scheduled. Carlsbad put over three runs in the seventh and final inning of the opener to beat El Paso and hand 18-year-old Don Barry, a June graduate of El Paso high, a loss in his first start. Barr, however, fanned 10 and walked six during his stay. Dick Hutzler poked a solo homer for El Paso. Carlsbad blew an eight-run lead to lose the nightcap. Martin Perez, who won the opener in relief, lost the last game in relief for Carlsbad. Eddie Reed of Carlsbad pitched a grand slam homer. Frank Coffone's two-run homer couldn't help Ballinger in the first game against San Angelo's 17-hit attack. However, Walt O'Neil poked two homers and Stubby Greer and Ken Jones one each for the Westerners to win the nightcap.

BEE CAREFUL—Risking a bite to remember, Charles Yoder, of Leavenworth, Kan., points to the approximate location of the queen bee amid the swarm of thousands of bees that blanketed the inside of this cigar company truck. Just what it was that attracted the buzzing creatures was undetermined. The bees were later drawn away from the vehicle via some wax in a box which attracted the queen bee and then the rest of the swarm.

Central Baptist Soon To Install Cooling Unit

The auditorium of Central Baptist Church is to be air-conditioned soon.
 The unit has been purchased and definite plans are being made to have it installed in the very near future.
 The Rev. Upshaw will lead in the services Sunday, bringing his morning message on "Stewardship," and the evening message will be entitled "Vessels of God."

NEW YORK — Mary Allen is a blue-eyed whirlwind who winters in Texas and summers in Idaho. She does what the million or more Nomadic crop pickers and their families do.
 They follow the ripening bean and berry vine orbit from southern to northern border and back. She follows them, often in a "church on wheels," to bring them worship, play, classes and unsettled life often filled with hardship, but this is her fifth year and she still "loves" her job.

Mary Allen isn't her name, but it will do. She's the prototype of 300 year-round and 350 summer staff sent by America's churches under the National Council of Churches to help the migrants have a semblance of normal life and their kids some schooling.
 Some of the Marys are Johns or Bills, for both men and women sign up for the summer — ministers, social workers, nurses, teachers, seminarians, sociology students. Our particular Mary is a year-round, so she helps train summer staff and volunteers as well as win over the community and carry games and sports and classes to the migrants themselves.
 All of the Migrant Ministry staff are starting the Big Push now, for from coast to coast the 1957 migrants are on the march, fanning out in all directions, seeking the vegetable beds and fruit lands. August sees the peak of this migration.

After the evening message a film will be shown during the youth fellowship hour. The title is "Choosing Your Vocation."
 Boys from the age of 9 through 13 will be leaving Monday at 1 p.m. to go to Pan Fork Encampment. It is located just out of Wellington. The boys will be at camp from Monday through Thursday.
 Last Tuesday night some 35 young people met for recreation and fellowship. They played ping pong, shuffle board, volley ball, horse shoes and several table games. There will be another night of recreation this next Tuesday at 7:30.
 A meeting of the building committee is set for this Sunday at 5 p.m. During last Sunday's meeting of this committee, it was decided to sell a garage and a four-room house to the highest bidder. It was also decided that bids would be received on the moving of the Fellowship Hall.

Alan Ladd Tells Of His Life In Unusual Hardware Store

(Aline Mosby is on vacation. Today's guest columnist, Alan Ladd, tells how he runs his hardware store in Palm Springs.)

By ALAN LADD
 Written for the United Press HOLLYWOOD (UP) — For the past year and a half I've been carrying on a great American tradition — that of the general store proprietor in an American community.
 I must admit the Higgins and Ladd hardware store in Palm Springs isn't quite an average general store, but then Palm Springs isn't exactly the typical American community, either.
 It's been quite a switch for me, changing from movies to monkey wrenches, from screening to screwdrivers, but I assure you it has had its merits. I'm beginning to understand why the general store has become such an American institution.
 For one thing, it's a better place to get to know people than a Lonely Hearts Club social. More people come in for gab than for gadgets.
 Also, as an actor, during an average working day you meet very interesting people, but over the year, they are the same people. You get a yearning for a greater variety of acquaintances.
 My wife, Susie, and I consulted Bob Higgins, a well-known, long-established Palm Springs proprietor. Bob was for a hardware store. The nuts and bolts market had hardly been scratched he assured me.
 But to open an ordinary hardware store in Palm Springs seemed a little banal. Glamour, we maintained, was the key to the situation. But, glamour is a very difficult thing to incorporate into a hardware store. As far as I could remember, neither Browning nor Byron had written a single ode to a double-headed nail.
 However, the Higgins and Ladd hardware store is living proof that glamour and hardware are not necessarily totally opposed concepts.
 The first thing we did was to install fountains which serve iced drinks. I cannot imagine how hardware stores have managed to exist through the ages without a soda fountain!
 Screwdrivers, we decided, are not very glamorous. Why not have sequined screwdrivers? If anybody in Palm Springs is seized with craving for sequined screwdrivers, Higgins and Ladd is the place to come!
 Dedicated to this revolutionary

Quotes In The News

NEW YORK—Mrs. Rita Steeves on greeting her bearded Air Force lieutenant husband, who had survived 59 days in the Sierra Mountains:
 "How horrible!"

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. — Dr. Alex Shipley, east Tennessee health director, on a polio outbreak:
 "There is no doubt about it being an epidemic."

TEHRAN, Iran — Red Cross Director Hossein Khatibi on the earthquake that hit Tehran:
 "I believe that around 1,000 at least are dead, 4,000 or 5,000 seriously injured and 50,000 rendered homeless."

new concept of hardware, we proceeded to stock all sorts of hardware to suit the exotic tastes. It may seem a little strange to the timid souls, but we think it's fun.
 And, if the idea of glamorous hardware is ever to catch on at all, it will be in Palm Springs.

SAN FRANCISCO—Turner of Andrew Fortuna, 31, on whether he was nervous about facing the people in his hometown of Lincoln Park, Mich.:
 "Yeah, in a way. Some will hold it against me."
