British Troops To Hit Oman Rebels

SHARJA, Trucial Oman (UP)—A high-ranking British officer said today the way had been cleared for a ground assault against rebel forces who are providing the sharpest threat to British Middle East prestige since the Suez crisis.

British Royal Air Force jets slashed at the rebel fortress of Tanuf today with rockets and cannon-fire in the third day of a

Thousands Riot In Colombia

BOGOTA, Colombia (UP)—Police armed with tear gas and rifles routed thousands of rioters Thursday night in four hours of disorder which included an abortive march on the presidential palace and an attempt to lynch a detective accused of shooting a teenager.

There were no reports of casualties in the rioting.

The demonstrations were touched off by reports that the detective was a "pajaro" (bird), a derogatory term applied to supporters of the ousted regime of Gustavo Rojas Pinilla.

Before order was restored, a cafe believed frequented by "pajaros" was wrecked and an attempt made to storm the building where the newspaper La Paz, organ of the former Colombian dictator, has its offices.

Police beat back the attempt of the La Paz building and the rioters contended themselves with hurling a barrage of stones against the structure.

Reports of the shooting of the teen-ager—the circumstances still not explained—brought hundreds of Colombians to the scene. The detective took refuge from the threatening mob within a nearby shop. Police rescued him some two hours later.

News of the shooting spread and several hundred students massed to march on the presidential palace to register a protest. They were met by a solid cordon of police and hurried back in a club-swinging charge. The attacks on the cafe and the newspaper building followed.

Cuba Prepares For Violence By Rebels

HAVANA (UP)—The Cuban government took strong security measures today against possible violence by the revolutionary "26th of July" movement which called a nationwide "general strike" to mark the fourth anniversary of its founding.

Troops and police throughout the island were on the alert. Extra precautionary measures were taken in Santiago, capital of rebel-ruled Oriente Province in eastern Cuba, and in Havana and other major cities.

The rebels have called on organized labor to stage a 15-minute token "general strike" in opposition to the government of President Fulgencio Batista. The strike call was reinforced by a week-long rebel telephone campaign of threats and intimidation.

Nasser To Speak In Alexandria

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt (UP)—President Gamal Abdel Nasser came to this seaport city today to make a major policy speech on the fifth anniversary of the abdication of King Farouk.

It also was the first anniversary of Nasser's nationalization of the Suez Canal, an act that touched off a major world crisis and brought British and French troops to the shores of the canal itself.

Thousands of persons gathered in the city's Liberation Square for Nasser's speech following a meeting with his service chiefs and a march past of Egyptian soldiers and sailors.

Newspaper, Sheriff In Squabble

RICHMOND, Tex. (UP)—The Fort Bend county sheriff's office is on record as ready to fire any officer who gives news to the county weekly newspaper.

Sheriff R. Z. Cowart posted a notice to that effect on his bulletin board after the Fort Bend Reporter published criticism of law enforcement officers for allowing alleged vice conditions to exist in the county.

Sheriff Cowart said Thursday that the paper's publisher, young newspaperman Clymer Wright, would have to "get right" to get back in the good graces of his department.

Former Airman "All Shook Up" Over Marriage

ENGLEWOOD, Colo. (UP)—Former U.S. airman Eugene R. Muggan is all "shook up" over his British sweetheart's denial of their proxy marriage performed by a municipal judge last Saturday.

"I don't understand it at all," the 25-year-old Muggan said today, as he awaited further word from 19-year-old Jean Smith of Little Glemham, England.

Although the proxy marriage was performed by Denver Municipal Judge Henry E. Santo, Miss Smith said the first she knew about it was from a report in a London newspaper.

"As far as I'm concerned," she told English newsmen, "I'm still Miss Smith and not Mrs. Muggan."

She also refused to talk by telephone with her would-be American husband, whom she met in 1955 while he was with the Air Force in England. But Muggan still hoped today they could get things straightened out.

"I don't know why she'd do a thing like that," he said. "She must be all confused."

As for Muggan himself: "It's got me all shook up."

Dead Bill Blamed On Ike

By NEIL MACNEIL
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—House Democrats bitterly blamed President Eisenhower today for defeat of the $1,500,000,000 school construction bill.

House Republicans defended the President's role. But they admitted his failure to give strong support to the measure hurt its chances of passage.

The House killed the bill Thursday by a narrow 208-203 vote. Republicans said the close vote assured another attempt to pass the legislation next year. But Democrats said the measure is dead for a long time to come.

No Senate Action Seen
Even in advance of House action there was no expectation the Senate would get around to the school bill this year, largely because of the long civil rights debate. Therefore, any final congressional showdown on school construction was not expected before next year in any case.

On a party basis 111 Republicans voted to kill the bill and 77 to keep it alive. Among Democrats 126 voted to keep it alive and 27 to kill it.

"I lay defeat of the bill squarely at the feet of the President," said Rep. Augustine B. Kelley (D-Pa.), chief sponsor of the compromise plan to have the federal government spend 300 million dollars a year for the next five years on classroom construction.

"The general ordered the retreat," said Rep. Edith Green (D-Ore.).

The House before killing the measure added an amendment by Rep. Stuyvesant Wainwright (N.Y.) to refuse any of the funds to school districts with segregated schools. The vote was 136 to 106.

Cause of Defeat
Rep. Cleveland M. Bailey (D-W. Va.), another leading supporter of the measure, said Eisenhower could have saved the bill by telephoning a dozen Republican members.

"He didn't do anything as far as I can determine," Bailey said, "although as late as Wednesday I was promised a letter or statement."

Rep. Samuel K. McConnell Jr. (R-Pa.), chief Republican backer of the bill and an Eisenhower spokesman on education matters, blamed the defeat on "hard-rock opposition" by some House members to all federal aid programs, the economy wave and the "lingering argument" left over the bill's fund distribution formula.

This dispute remained to the end because of Eisenhower's reluctance to fully support the compromise bill.

Sen. Russell Fights News Amendment

By DAYTON MOORE
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—Sen. Richard B. Russell said today he will fight against a civil rights bill provision that would permit imprisonment of newsmen for reporting secret sessions of a proposed investigating commission.

The Georgia Democrat denounced the provision in advance of a meeting this morning of his southern bloc on a jury trial amendment.

All Republican senators also were called into a separate closed-door morning meeting on the jury trial issue.

Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland had an opportunity to get President Eisenhower's present position on it at a private White House breakfast with the Chief Executive.

Knowland and some other GOP congressional leaders conferred late Thursday with two Justice Department officials. Knowland later told a reporter "some legal points" on the civil rights bill were discussed.

But he said the meeting "definitely" did not mean administration forces might accept a jury trial amendment. Another participant said there were no negotiations at the talks, only discussion of some of the points that might arise.

PLENTY OF FISH
Over 15,000 fish were distributed to 32 Gray County farmers and ranchers and one rancher from Roberts County by the Fish and Wildlife Service yesterday afternoon near the Santa Fe depot in Pampa. FBI agents also stepped into the investigation to determine if the explosion might have been a suicide plot. The FBI disclosed that Binstock, who boarded the plane at Las Vegas, Nev., had taken out $125,000 in flight insurance Wednesday, naming his wife, Eva, as beneficiary.

The two-engine Convair made an emergency landing here following the explosion high over the California desert early Thursday. Twelve other passengers and a

Death In Airline Explosion Investigated By FBI, CAB

GEORGE AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UP)—Civil Aeronautics Board officials and the FBI today took charge of an investigation into a mysterious explosion that ripped a large hole in the side of an airliner, hurling a heavily-insured passenger 10,000 feet to his death.

The CAB planned to make an "inch by inch" search for powder marks in the shattered rear section of the Western airliner. At the same time, searchers combed the desolate desert area in an attempt to find the body of the crew of three escaped injury. "I thought someone had run into me," Western Airlines pilot Milton Shirk said. "I notified Los Angeles International Airport by radio that I was going to make an emergency landing here following Force base. We came in smoothly without any difficulty."

The explosion occurred at 10,000 feet and was centered in the lavatory of the airliner which had stopped at Las Vegas, Nev., 47 minutes earlier on a flight from Minneapolis to Los Angeles. Binstock boarded the plane in the pre-dawn hours at Las Vegas and passengers said he entered the tiny washroom shortly after takeoff.

Girl Slays Roommate With Flat Iron, Knife For $160

BURLINGAME, Calif. (UP)—A teen-age girl admitted today she bludgeoned her beautiful roommate to death with a flat iron and then stabbed her because she needed $160 to pay some "pressing debts."

Police held Elaine Soule, a 19-year-old typist from Freeport, Long Island, N. Y., on suspicion of murder after she confessed killing Catherine (Kit) Marie Elvins, 20.

Miss Elvins was the socialite daughter of a prominent Seattle physician, Dr. Richard E. Elvins of Seattle. Elvins and his wife were on their way here.

Police found Miss Elvins' battered body Thursday night in the Burlingame apartment both girls had been sharing. They said it was one of the most brutal slayings in San Mateo county history.

According to Deputy District Attorney Howard Hartley, Miss Soule smashed the heavy iron repeatedly over Miss Elvins' head as she slept in bed. Then, he said, Miss Soule stabbed her roommate with a kitchen knife.

Miss Soule said Miss Elvins spoke only once. She asked, "What are you doing?"

The coroner's office said Miss Elvins bore 26 wounds on the head from the flatiron. One blow cracked her skull. She also had 20 stab wounds in her breast, six of them deep and 14 superficial.

Hartley said the attack occurred Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock.

"Miss Soule subsequently dragged the body into the kitchen and slept in the bed in which the victim died that night," he said.

"She said she planned to put the body into a trunk and store the trunk with her furniture."

Miss Soule told Hartley her motive was money.

"She told us that Miss Elvins had received a $100 check on Tuesday from her mother, Mrs. Naomi Elvins. The check was not endorsed."

Miss Soule told Hartley, "It came over me to get that money. I had pressing debts in my home town of Freeport."

Police Report 272 Dead; Total Expected To Increase

By LEROY HANSEN
United Press Staff Correspondent
TOKYO (UP)—A deluge of 27 inches of rain in less than 24 hours hit Kyushu Island with catastrophic force today, causing floods and landslides. The known dead and missing were in the hundreds.

Official police figures said there were 272 confirmed dead and 307 missing. The figures were expected to increase and Japanese press reports said the toll may be 3,000.

Police reported 72,000 persons homeless and 46,948 homes destroyed or flooded. Weathermen predicted more rains in the devastated areas where pilots reported seeing bodies floating in the sea.

The worst hit were the cities of Isahaya, with a population of 60,000, and Omura, a city of half that size, on Omura Bay on the west coast of Kyushu and some 10 miles from atom-bombed Nagasaki. Kyushu is Japan's southernmost main island.

The Mainichi newspaper correspondent at Nagasaki called Isahaya a "city of the dead" and said police estimated 2,000 to 3,000 killed there. The newspaper Yomiuri said 3,000 were drowned in the two cities.

The Kyodo News Service reported from Isahaya today that "large numbers of persons" were still clinging to rooftops clamoring for help—and that Japanese ground troops sent on rescue missions could only look on helplessly across the swirling waters.

Dozens of landslides were reported in the mountainous area around Nagasaki and the U.S. Navy said 100 persons were missing in a landslide between Nagasaki and Sasao and that 1,500 persons were "cut off." A landslide in Tensui buried 50 more persons and these too were feared dead.

U.S. military installations apparently were in no danger.

Daniel wants to call the session for enactment of a lobby control law and to "complete the water program." He did not say it was absolutely necessary to call a special session, but he said it is "advisable."

McClellan Issue Studied By Chamber

The Lake McClellan issue was to have been discussed in a meeting of the public improvements committee of the Chamber of Commerce at 3 this afternoon in the Chamber Conference Room.

Floyd Watson, chairman, said that he called the meeting today to discuss the engineer's report recently given to the city commission on damage to the lake spillway.

Ralph Milliron, engineer, told the commission Tuesday that repair work would cost between $286,000 and $370,000.

"We have not planned any action, we are just meeting to discuss the report and see if there's anything we can do," Watson said this morning.

The city has until Aug. 1 to tell the Forest Service to accept the lake. If it is accepted, then repairs must be performed.

City and county commissioners were reported to feel that if citizens were interested in keeping the lake, then they should take the initiative and petition for a county-wide bond election which would cover repair costs.

Camp On Hands Or Care For Them, If Interested In Good Grooming

Sometime, when you're seated on bus or street car, amuse yourself by a casual inspection of the hands of women nearest you. It will be rewarding as well as amusing and a lesson in hand care, too. To begin with, you'll be able to conduct your inspection because many women won't be wearing gloves. They should, of course, to complete a costume and to protect the hands from grime, gloves are essential. But the hands? You'll be amazed to find that trim young girls, well and neatly dressed, have grubby hands and broken nails badly in need of a good cleaning. Many women do not have time for manicures, true. Or nail polish. But they do have time for a nail brush, soap and water. They do have time to use an emery board to file their nails to almond shape and keep them smooth. For grubby hands make even the prettiest girl less attractive.

a girl to start getting and keeping a figure is in her early teens. Baby fat is no longer a problem by this time and, to a degree, the figure is being "set." Posture is all-important and so is the walk you develop. Both are helped immeasurably by exercises. Swimming, tennis and walking are all excellent. To these, add exercises which solve your particular figure problems: best: exercises to flatten the stomach, trim the derriere or slim-down-things. If large upper arms are your pet peeve, go after them with exercise. Once your exercise habits are well formed, they'll stay with you for a lifetime. You'll need have no worries about being fat and flabby in your fifties.

Perfect beauty is a perfect bore. Glossy perfection is never intriguing or exciting. So, if you dislike your nose or your ears, remember that little imperfections help to make up a personality. This doesn't mean a nose that's in obvious need of plastic surgery, of course. It means the sort of imperfection that most of us possess in some degree. Such imperfections can even be endearing to people around us simply because they're part of us. Aim for good looks, yes, but not the kind of beauty that seems to be enamored.

A figure can be remolded, to some extent, at nearly any time of life through diet and exercise. But the best and easiest time for

MATURE PARENT

Chrissy's mother doesn't love her husband's older sister, a lady who believes herself divinely commissioned to make everyone as perfect as a housekeeper as she is.
 One Sunday she and her husband came to dinner. After the meal, though Chrissy's mother would have preferred to do dishes when her guests had left, Aunt Ella said, "I couldn't relax unless I knew that kitchen was tidy"—and insisted on washing.
 Chrissy's mother said all right, she'd dry. She'd just reached for the dish towel when Chrissy said, "Mother's showing off, Aunt Ella. She never dries our dishes. She says it's just as good to get them drain."
 After a brief pause, Aunt Ella gave a little laugh that was mostly snort. "I'm old-fashioned myself," she said.
 Chrissy's mother didn't hear her. She was struggling with the horrifying realization that the child of her heart had deliberately and maliciously invited another adult's strong disapproval of her.
 If the child of your heart hasn't yet invited it for you, it won't be long now. When he does, I suggest you keep still until you're alone with your young witness for the prosecution.
 Then says to him: "I don't criticize you before other people. Please try to do the same for me. If you don't like something I've done, take it up with me when we are by ourselves."
 He may not be able to do unto you as you do unto him.
 Some resentment is in the very nature of all human relationship. In the parent-child one, there's bound to be more than the usual amount.
 It is our painful duty to be perpetually telling Chrissy that she can't do things she wants to. In the process of fitting what she wants to do to what we can't let her do, she accumulates explosive material.
 When she senses herself to be in the reinforcing presence of an adult who doesn't like what we want either, she's encouraged to explode it. She takes satisfaction in what psychologists call "the feeling of belonging" to the enemy.
 To be hurt is to be as foolishly perfectionistic as Aunt Ella. The answer is strengthening Chrissy to attack us without feeling any need for reinforcement from the outside.

Kabobs Are Fast Becoming Outdoor Cooking Favorite

Picnics can adequately be described as one of the greatest pastimes during the summer months.
 Old, or young, couple or crowd, backyard, beach or patio, a picnic usually designates one central theme... outdoor cookery around an open fire, grill or barbecue pit.
 The kabob is fast becoming a leader in outdoor cookery. For those not familiar with this term, a kabob is an array of bite-size bits or chunks of meat, fruit, mushrooms or other vegetables on a stick. A kabob combination is no set recipe. Let your imagination be your guide.
 This particular recipe uses cooked ham, green pepper squares, pineapple chunks and sweet potatoes. Lamb is used frequently in kabob cookery, even frankfurters and canned luncheon meat are favorites.

PIESTA HAM KABOBS
 1 1/2 pounds cooked ham, cut into 1 1/2-inch cubes
 1 can (16 ounces) pineapple chunks
 2 green peppers, cut into 1 1/2-inch squares

 2 cans (1 lb. 7 oz. each vacuum packed) sweet potatoes
 1/4 cup melted butter or margarine
 4 large metal skewers
 Thread ham cubes, pineapple chunks, sweet potatoes and green pepper squares on metal skewers. Use 3 ham cubes on each metal skewer, alternating pineapple chunk, ham cube, green pepper square, pineapple chunk and sweet potato.
 Place kabobs on rack in broiler so the top surface of the meat is 3 to 4 inches from the heat. Brush the vegetables and fruit with melted butter or margarine.

Housebreak Your Puppy Easily

The easiest way to housebreak a puppy is to confine and "paper break" him.
 The first step is to provide a bed slightly larger than the puppy. This encourages him to go outside rather than soil his bed. says an article in the August issue of Better Homes & Gardens magazine. Confine the pup to a small area around the bed, cover it with papers, and he will soon associate his toilet habits with the newspapers.
 Soon after the dog learns to use newspapers, he should be taken outdoors. Watch for signals—sniffing and restlessness—and rush him outside to a predetermined spot. When "accidents" occur, scold him and rush him outdoors. Scrub the area to remove the odor, and sprinkle the spot with red pepper or nicotine sulfate solution.
 Choose an outdoor spot and lead the dog to it each morning. Develop a daily routine, and he will soon be housebroken, the magazine says.

40 Pound Orangutan To Swim?

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (UP)—Teach an orangutan how to swim? "Certainly," said pretty Ruth Manecke. "If we do, he will be the only one naturalists know of who has learned."
Miss Manecke, who lives in a happy world peopled with animals, is giving swimming lessons to a red-haired orangutan named Bobo. Bobo, who is three years old and weighs 40 pounds, has advanced to the rubber raft-and-paddle - himself stage, she said. Next step will be putting him into the pool with life preserver on.
Miss Manecke, 28, explained that gorillas, orangutans and chimpanzees, unlike most other animals, don't swim instinctively. If put in water too deep for wading, they just go down and stay.
Couple Owns Zoo
The experiment is taking place at New Rochelle, N. Y., home of Miss Manecke and her husband, Douglas L. Gruber, a former advertising man. The couple owns a private zoo, equipped with everything from cats to kinkajous.

If you've watched Captain Kangaroo on television, you probably have seen some of the Gruber menagerie. Their All-tame Animals Agency, with offices in Manhattan and a zoo at suburban Hastings-On-Hudson, supplies television shows, plus fashion and advertising photographers.

"The animals are tame, but not trained to do tricks," said Miss Manecke, who uses her maiden name in business. "Most of them we've reared ourselves. But we will round up talent we don't own, on call." The couple has supplied kangaroos, llamas, parrots, sea lions, mynah birds, and even cheetahs.
Animal Wages Good
Animal wages are pretty good, but the rate depends on the rarity of the animal and the hours it works. Some top talent earns $100 an hour, she said.

Miss Manecke said they acquired "Bobo" from an animal dealer, who decided the orangutan was dying. "He was just a few weeks old and had wasted away to four pounds," she said. "My father—he's a surgeon at Brooklyn Hospital—helped me feed him intravenously for several days before we could even get him on a bottle." Now his diet is bottle plus baby food—fruits and vegetables. He has the run of the Gruber household.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

REV. DWAYNE STARLING, Pastor
Foursquare Gospel Church
712 Lefors St.

"LET US COME TO CHRIST"

"Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out"
John 6:37

We read of no instance in the "Word of God" where Christ ever refused one that came to Him, nor will Jesus Christ refuse any that come to Him today. Among the lost souls in hell there is not one that can say, "I went to Jesus and He refused me."

To know that Christ will not refuse those that come to Him brings joy and peace to the human heart. Let us not entertain such a dark suspicion as to think that Christ would refuse one that comes to Him. For such a thought is only a lie of the devil.

Of Christ the Bible says, "This man receiveth sinners" Luke 15:2, but He refused none. We come to Him in weakness and sin, with trembling faith, but Christ receives us.

When we come to Christ we must come in faith, and believe Him for what ever we have need. The Bible says in Hebrews 11:6 "For he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him." It makes no difference with God what our need may be. If we come to Him sick, diseased, or afflicted, He will heal us. "By whose stripes ye were healed." I Peter 2:24. If we come to Him lost in sin and the darkness of this world He will save us. For Christ tells us in Matthew 11:28 "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

The Bible instructions in Isaiah 55:6 to "Seek ye the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near."

Let us come to Christ today!

Cards Clip Dodgers, 3-2; Reds Drop Pirates

One Game Separates Top Four Clubs In NL Race

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
Get out that shoe horn again because five clubs are all trying to squeeze into first place today. The Cardinals moved within a half-game of first place by beating Brooklyn, 3-2, Thursday night, and the Redlegs closed to within a game of the lead with a 9-1 victory over Pittsburgh.

Only one game separates the first four clubs — Milwaukee, St. Louis, Brooklyn and Cincinnati — with fifth — Philadelphia — climbing to within only 2½ games of the top as a result of a 5-3 decision over the Braves. The Cards threw a monkey wrench in Brooklyn's plans to take over the league lead when they beat Don Newcombe Thursday night for the first time in seven years at St. Louis. Newcombe and Herm Wehmer were tied at 2-2 until the Cards cracked through for the winning run in the eighth on singles by Alvin Dark and Stan Musial and Wally Moon's sacrifice fly.

Fowler Checks Back
Art Fowler of Cincinnati went the distance for the first time this year in checking the Pirates on seven hits. In addition, he drove in the Redlegs' first two runs with a bases-loaded single off Ronnie Kline, who lost his sixth straight game and 14th of his campaign. Ed Bailey and Gus Bell each homered.

Robin Roberts of the Phillies scored his first victory since June 6 in beating the Braves although Dick Farrell had to be called in to get the final out. Roberts gave up nine hits, including Hank Aaron's 30th homer in the fourth inning to post his seventh victory against 13 defeats. Ed Bouchee drove in three of Philadelphia's runs as Warren Spahn suffered the loss.

Mike McCormick, 18-year-old bonus southpaw, won his first major league game in pitching to the Giants to a 5-2 triumph over the Cubs, but he needed ninth-inning relief from Marv Grissom. McCormick struck out seven and gave up all six Chicago hits. Daryl Spencer homered for the Giants.

In the American League, the White Sox shaved the Yankees' lead to 3½ games with a 6-2 triumph over the world champions; Boston defeated Kansas City, 5-3; Washington edged Cleveland, 3-2 in 10 innings, and Baltimore blanked Detroit, 3-0.

Dick Donovan was the whole show in the White Sox victory, holding the Yankees to four hits and contributing a seventh-inning homer. Lefty Bobby Shantz failed in his fifth try for his 10th victory. The triumph for Donovan was his 10th and it followed a one-hit shutout over the Red Sox last Saturday.

Bosox Clinch Early
Bob Porterfield, making only his fourth start of the year, held the Athletics to six hits, including a homer by Lou Skizas, as the Red Sox beat Kansas City for the 14th time in 18 games this season. Porterfield also helped himself to two of Boston's 10 hits and singled in a run in a four-run rally that clinched the game in the second inning.

Ed Fitzgerald's single in the 10th scored Roy Sievers from second base with the run that gave Washington its first victory over Mike Garcia in two years. Russ Kemmerer went all the way for the Senators, giving up eight hits to register his fifth victory, Jim Lemon hit his 15th homer for Washington.

Lanky Connie Johnson of the Orioles limited Detroit to five hits in achieving his eighth victory and third shutout of the season. Baltimore scored all of its runs off Frank Lary, who absorbed his 13th loss against only four victories. Gus Triandos drove in two of Baltimore's runs with a single and a sacrifice fly.

Cards Clip Dodgers, 3-2; Reds Drop Pirates

One Game Separates Top Four Clubs In NL Race

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
Get out that shoe horn again because five clubs are all trying to squeeze into first place today. The Cardinals moved within a half-game of first place by beating Brooklyn, 3-2, Thursday night, and the Redlegs closed to within a game of the lead with a 9-1 victory over Pittsburgh.

Cubs, but he needed ninth-inning relief from Marv Grissom. McCormick struck out seven and gave up all six Chicago hits. Daryl Spencer homered for the Giants.

Only one game separates the first four clubs—Milwaukee, St. Louis, Brooklyn and Cincinnati—with fifth-place Philadelphia climbing to within only 2 1/2 games of the top as a result of a 5-3 decision over the Braves.

In the American League, the White Sox shaved the Yankees' lead to 3 1/2 games with a 6-2 triumph over the world champions; Boston defeated Kansas City, 5-3; Washington edged Cleveland, 3-2; in 10 innings, and Baltimore blanked Detroit, 3-0.

Newcombe and Herm Wehmeier were tied at 2-2 until the Cards cracked through for the winning run in the eighth on singles by Alvin Dark and Stan Musial and Wally Moon's sacrifice fly.

Dick Donovan was the whole show in the White Sox victory, holding the Yankees to four hits and contributing a seventh-inning homer. Lefty Bobby Shantz failed in his fifth try for his 10th victory. The triumph for Donovan was his 10th and it followed a one-hit shutout over the Red Sox last Saturday.

Art Fowler of Cincinnati went the distance for the first time this year in checking the Pirates on seven hits. In addition, he drove in the Redlegs' first two runs with a bases-loaded single off Ronnie Kline, who lost his sixth straight game and 14th of his campaign. Ed Bailey and Gus Bell each homered.

Bob Porterfield, making only his fourth start of the year, held the Athletics to six hits, including a homer by Lou Skizas, as the Red Sox beat Kansas City for the 14th time in 18 games this season. Porterfield also helped himself to two of Boston's 10 hits and singled in a run in a four-run rally that clinched the game in the second inning.

Robin Roberts of the Phillies scored his first victory since June 6 in beating the Braves although Dick Farrell had to be called in to get the final out. Roberts gave up nine hits, including Hank Aaron's 30th homer in the fourth inning to post his seventh victory against 13 defeats. Ed Bouchee drove in three of Philadelphia's runs as Warren Spahn suffered the loss.

Ed Fitzgerald's single in the 10th scored Roy Sivers from second base with the run that gave Washington its first victory over Mike Garcia in two years. Russ Kemmerer went all the way for the Senators, giving up eight hits to register his fifth victory. Jim Lemon hit his 15th homer for Washington.

Mike McCormick, 18-year-old bonus southpaw, won his first major league game in pitching the Giants to a 5-2 triumph over the Lanky Connie Johnson of the Orioles limited Detroit to five hits in achieving his eighth victory and third shutout of the season. Baltimore scored all of its runs off Frank Lary, who absorbed his 13th loss against only four victories. Gus Triandos drove in two of Baltimore's runs with a single and a sacrifice fly.

IT'S A BIG COUNTRY

Tommy "Hurricane" Jackson

"Couldn't Knock Off Easter Bonnet With A Baseball Bat"

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UP)—Tommy Jackson, billed in the fistic marts as the "Hurricane," will move along about 10:24 p.m. e.d.t. Monday night that he's not an ill wind.

In roughly the seventh round, the "Hurricane" will do Floyd Patterson a lot of good by blowing his chances at Floyd's heavyweight championship.

Jackson, a man who hales chopped steak and likes hamburger, and you'll have to figure out that one yourself, by the seventh round should be up to his hips in canvas and up to his eyes in Salisbury steak.

However, you can't beat the fact that this is the only heavyweight championship fight available Monday night. Or, as far as that goes, for quite a few Monday nights.

Frontier Downs Celanese, 7-4

In Industrial League softball action last night Frontier downed Celanese, 7-4. Daniels was credited with the win for Frontier with Burns catching. Cooper, who was replaced by Ford, was charged with the loss, with Kemp behind the plate. Frontier gained their runs off 9 hits, being charged with 3 errors. Celanese managed their runs off three hits with 1 error. Games were reported. No other Industrial League games were reported.

Pro-Football Making Effective Case In Anti-Trust Exemption

By TOM NELSON
United Press Sports Writer
WASHINGTON (UP)—Chairman Emanuel Celler of a House anti-trust subcommittee said today professional football is making a very effective case for some exemption for anti-trust laws.

Miteff Battles Mederos In TV Bout Tonight

WASHINGTON (UP)—Alex Miteff, unbeaten young Argentine heavyweight, is favored at 3-1 to defeat Cuban Julio Mederos tonight for his 11th straight victory. Their 10-rounder at the new Capitol Arena will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC at 10 p.m. e.d.t.

Yank Owner Tries Staking "Gold Claim" In Brooklyn

NEW YORK (UP)—New York Yankee owner Dan Topping got his knuckles rapped by a congressman today for trying to stake a gold claim in Brooklyn, and the whole matter seemed to be building into a baseball battle.

Topping insisted Thursday that Brooklyn will become "Yankee territory" if and when the Brooklyn Dodgers move to Los Angeles—meaning that no other American League team could move into Flatbush.

Bolt May Quit Golf Circuit

BALTIMORE (UP)—Colorful Tommy Bolt, who held a commanding three-stroke lead in the second round of the $20,000 Eastern Open golf tournament, announced today he will soon quit the pro circuit and limit play to the "big ones only."

Topping's claim was immediately blasted by Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.) in Washington as "outrageous and selfish." Celler, chairman of the powerful House anti-trust subcommittee, that is investigating whether baseball should be placed under anti-trust laws, warned that such statements "make it more difficult for us here in Washington to give relief" to baseball.

Hobbs Gains On Leading Ballinger

Hobbs, using only one game since the Southwestern League All-Star game last week, is rapidly overtaking league-leading Ballinger, which has won only two over the same period.

The Yankees stand to make a lot more money next year, many observers believe, if both the Dodgers and New York Giants abandon New York City—the revenue coming from increased attendance and increased fees for television and radio.

Tommy "Hurricane" Jackson

He won the vacant title from Archie Moore last November. In the succeeding eight months, Floyd has been sitting on the throne in solemn solitude waiting for somebody to come along and make a payday.

Bob Leach held Ballinger to four hits while fanning seven and walking two.

Rote Traded To Lions

DETROIT (UP)—Coach Buddy Parker of the Detroit Lions said today he was "happy" to have quarterback Tobin Rote, the key man in a six-player trade negotiated with the Green Bay Packers.

Pro-Football Making Effective Case In Anti-Trust Exemption

Commissioner Bert Bell, have been more frank and candid than those who testified for baseball. "Baseball took a holier-than-thou attitude and said 'You can't touch us,'" Celler said.

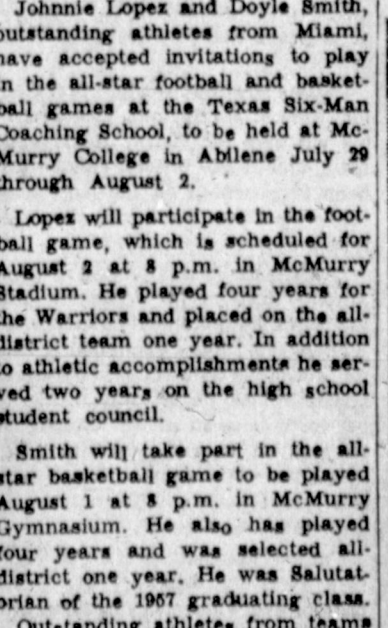

Rote Traded To Lions

Rote was the league's top quarterback last season and has pulverized the Lions on occasion. He led the league in pass completions, yardage and attempted passes.

US-Japan Relations Better Now

Foreign News Commentary
By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent
Japanese feeling toward the United States has taken a decided turn for the better.
At the same time, there is growing resentment against Soviet Russia.

The biggest development in Japanese-American relations was the decision of the United States to let a Japanese court try American GI William S. Girard for killing a Japanese woman.
This was a matter of national pride. Before the final decision came, there was heated talk that the United States was trying to trample on Japanese rights.
But there has been another development resulting from the United States decision to withdraw American combat troops from Japan.

The "Yankee go home" slogan was long popular with a lot of Japanese people.
Fishing is a basic part of the Japanese economy. Negotiations for a treaty which would permit which the GIs pour into the Japanese economy.

It has begun to occur to them also that the withdrawal of the troops jeopardizes the jobs of a lot of Japanese people.
Since the troop withdrawal decision was made, about 6,000 Japanese employed at American troop bases have been dismissed. Another 7,000 are expected to lose their jobs by the end of September.

About 127,000 Japanese are still employed by the American forces. Of these, about 70,000 work for the ground forces which are to be withdrawn.
Provincial and city authorities face the loss of the various payments made by the United States for the use of firing ranges, drill grounds and other military establishments.
Resentment toward Russia is growing largely because of the refusal of the Soviet government to enter into a fishing agreement.

Now, people in Japan are talking about the millions of dollars

Japanese fishing vessels to operate in waters off the Siberian coast have been stalled again and again.
Close Off Area
Russia announced last Saturday that an area of more than 6,000 miles off the naval base of Vladivostok has been closed to foreign ships and planes.
There has been a suggestion that the Russian decree was linked up with military security. But the area in question has been effectively closed to foreign shipping and aircraft without any de-

It appears that the decree really was intended to exclude Japanese fishing vessels from an exceedingly valuable fishing grounds.
Japanese Foreign Minister Aichihiro Fujiyama announced Tuesday that he proposed to send a strong protest to Moscow.
Japanese news-papers are denouncing the Soviet decree as a gross violation of international law.
Japanese people never forget either, that Russia still refuses to account for thousands of prisoners job for several months and wanted a place to recuperate from his efforts. Magistrate Standley Richardson obliged with a three-month sentence.

ODESSA, Tex. (UP) — Damages of about $500,000 were expected to an oil well which blew out Wednesday south of Sheffield. No one was injured.

He told her that when he returned to the car where he had parked it, and got in to start it, nothing happened. Someone had jacked up the car and stolen the drive shaft.

Movie's Senior Actor Is Character Player

By ALIN EMOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer
HOLLYWOOD, (UP) — When movie studios want to make a multi-million dollar epic, often the powerful man they turn to for the money is — a quiet, elderly character actor in his movies.
Donald Crisp, at 73, is Hollywood's senior citizen, completing his 38th picture, "Saddle the Wind", now at MGM and rounding out his 51st year as an actor and director, a record unequalled by any other featured player.
But the veteran Scotsman has another distinction seldom known to fans who remember him in the recent "Man From Laramie", back to "How Green Was My Valley", the Lassie pictures, "Mutiny on the Bounty" and "The Birth of a Nation".
Since 1907, the actor has been an executive of the Bank of America. That institution, the largest bank in the country, actually is the motion picture industry as it loans the millions of dollars that make the pictures.

For 23 years, Crisp was chairman of the Bank's film advisory board. Now he is a member of the executive board "but they still ask my opinion on pictures up for loans."
During his reign as chairman, Crisp literally held the purse strings in Hollywood. Many a studio turning out an epic still curiously to deal first with this actor-banker who might be re-jecting supporting billing in the picture.
Crisp fell into this unique position because he became a friend of the bank's founder, A. P. Giannini, in 1907.

Fast Tax Write-Offs To Get Slow Death

By ROBERT F. COLL
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP) — The fast tax write-off, a boon or a boondoggle depending on how you look at it, is headed for slow strangulation by an unfriendly administration.
Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey calls the war-born tax incentive to business "an artificial stimulus of a dangerous type."
Rapid write-offs, according to Humphrey, will cost the government three billion dollars and postpone the day "when general tax reduction can be enjoyed by all the people."
Basically the rapid write-off is a government incentive to firms that put up defense plants which may not necessarily want or need. The write-off lets them charge for the tax purposes the cost of the expansion over five years instead of the customary 20 years or more.
But by letting firms take the shorter, bigger deductions, the Treasury cuts its own current income. This means it must continue to pay interest on notes, bonds and the like which might otherwise be paid off. Hence Humphrey's three-billion-dollar figure.
The government has granted rapid write-offs in as many as 229 fields. But largely through Humphrey's meddling and a different attitude in the Office of Defense Mobilization, only four fields are now open for the tax benefits.
The many critics of the program charge that some favored firms are getting the government to do their expansion borrowing for them in a booming economy and a "tight money" market.
Business calls it "reward" that put up defense plants which may not necessarily want or need. The write-off lets them charge for the tax purposes the cost of the expansion over five years instead of the customary 20 years or more.

Business interests, led by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, claim the system is a just reward for a firm that expands along lines dictated by national security.
Humphrey conceded the write-off might have been a good device to a desirable alternative to government construction and ownership of plants private industry wasn't eager to build.
But he said this was "far different" from giving a fast write-off to "select industries for general purpose plants."
Humphrey's attitude, along with that of Defense Mobilization Gordon Gray, is to shelve the write-off except for extremely specialized lines such as guided missile production where private industry is unlikely to venture on its own.
