'No Hope' For Reunification Of Germany

BERLIN (UP)—Communist Leader Nikita Khrushchev headed home to Russia today, ending a visit that made it clear there is no hope for peaceful reunification of Germany in the foreseeable future.

Khrushchev and his entourage, including Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan, left by train for the suburbs where they planned to board a Moscow-bound plane.

In repeated speeches and official handouts, climaxed by his address to a mass meeting here Tuesday, Khrushchev made it clear that the Kremlin is not prepared to listen to any practical proposal for German unity.

He flatly rejected Western plans for all-German elections as a prelude to reunification. He insisted—in defiance of four-power agreements—that any approach to unity must come through negotiations between the West German government and the Red regime of Soviet Germany.

Observers here believed Khrushchev's stand would help West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Christian Democrats to victory in next month's parliamentary election.

Campaigners for a socialist opposition in West Germany have been assailing the Chancellor because he is reluctant to negotiate with the Kremlin about Germany's future.

Senate Probes Labor Mobster

Proposal On Rent Housing Is Made Here

A possible solution to the housing shortage in Pampa was proposed by Robert D. Olson, commissioner of Ward 4, at the meeting of the City Commission yesterday.

In regard to the shortage of rental housing in Pampa, he proposed that local builders and other business men develop an apartment area with an adequate number of apartments to take care of the current demand.

In making this proposal, Olson stated that the housing project would be financed locally and that no federal funds should be sought. No action on the proposal was taken by the commission and the group felt it should be left up to local builders and persons owning rental housing to meet the problem.

In other action late yesterday, the commission authorized the purchase of a Conrail radio receiver for the police department. The receiver will cost $130 and will be supplied by Hawkins Radio and TV Lab.

The only other action was the renewal of the lease on office space in City Hall occupied by the Railroad Commission. The lease was renewed for another year.

described as more important in New York than racketeer Johnny Dio, to learn the role he played in Teamster Union affairs.

The committee also hoped for testimony from Samuel Goldstein, former president of a Teamster Union local who was convicted last month with Dio in a labor racket case.

Counsel Robert F. Kennedy said the committee planned to call Goldstein and Corallo after questioning three officials of Dio-dominated Local 649 of the old AFL United Auto Workers: Harry Davidoff, Joseph Curcio and George Baker.

Kennedy said Davidoff, Curcio and Baker were involved in the establishment of phony "paper locals" in the Teamsters Union in November, 1955. See SENATE, Page 1.

FBI Seeks Money Used In Espionage

NEW YORK (UP)—FBI agents searched today for a large sum of money supposedly buried in the New York area by Russian master spy Rudolf Ivanovich Abel for use in financing his espionage ring.

One high official said the Soviet intelligence officer had hidden an estimated $50,000 in New York City and in parts of Long Island. A search for additional money also was reported in Poughkeepsie, 75 miles north of New York, where Abel allegedly had sought to set up a short wave radio station for espionage purposes.

The search for the money was disclosed shortly after FBI agents Tuesday found $15,000 in cash in a safe deposit box Abel had rented in a branch of the Manufacturers Trust Company under the name of Alan Winston. When arrested June 21 at his hotel room here, Abel had $2,000 in cash, according to the FBI. Authorities have speculated that Abel was aware he was under FBI surveillance and had planned to use the money to flee the country.

Government Mixes Seizure And Promise

By ANTHONY J. CAVENDISH, United Press Staff Correspondent

LODZ, Poland (UP)—Poland's greatest strike since the Poznan rebellion ended today with government seizure of a strike-bound streetcar depot and a promise to investigate transport workers demands for a living wage. Buses and streetcars were running for the first time in two days but with "workers militia" guarding the drivers.

Polish army troops and militia occupied the suburban Dombroski Depot between 8 and 9 a.m. today and evicted the sit-down strikers there. Newsmen arrived at the scene after the action was over but saw two ambulances and a police wagon leaving the scene.

This action indicated that some workers attempted to hold out for a third day and had to be removed by force. The back of the walkout had been broken earlier when about 80 per cent of the strikers agreed to return to work.

The government rushed in reinforcements of troops and militia from Warsaw Tuesday when the situation became tense and ugly but no major outbreaks of violence erupted. There were a few scattered clashes in addition to this morning's action.

An estimated 80 per cent of the city trolleys were operating today, but service appeared slow and erratic.

Each motorman was accompanied in the driver's compartment by a burly guard with a red and white armband showing he was a member of the so-called "workers militia," the Communist Party's muscle squad.

Early indications were the strike had ended peacefully. The Dombrowski Depot incident came later. A group of about 50 men who were supposed to be working on the trolley lines sat by the roadside smoking cigarettes. They refused to discuss the strike.

Another group of 500, many of them in their motorman's uniforms, stood around talking quietly and smoking. There were reports they had been evicted by 100 army troops and steel-helmeted militia equipped with tear gas, but there was no indication tear gas was used.

Crack Seen In Opposition To 'Rights' Bill

WASHINGTON (UP)—A key House Democrat said today he saw signs of a crack in the solid wall of Republican opposition to the Senate's "moderate" civil rights bill.

This congressman, a leader in the fight for civil rights legislation, based his statement on two developments Tuesday:

1. House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. (Mass.) said he does not think the Senate bill "necessarily" must go to a Senate-House conference although he prefers that method of handling.

2. Martin released copies of a telegram from Clarence Mitchell, director of the Washington bureau of the National Association of Colored People (NAACP), saying the Senate bill is not strong enough but "we definitely want to get a bill this session."

House Republican leaders including Martin have heretofore insisted adamantly that the Senate bill, now before the House, be sent to a Senate-House conference committee for "toughening." They have maintained it would be better to pass no bill than what they call the "weak" Senate measure.

The Democratic member, who declined use of his name, said Martin's actions made it "pretty clear" the Republicans are feeling the strong pressure from civil rights groups for passage of a bill this year—even if no tougher than the Senate measure.

Sixteen leading civil rights organizations, including the NAACP, issued a joint statement last week saying in effect that while they would like a strong bill, they consider the Senate measure a "first step" and want it passed at the very least.

Man Hurt In Fall From Truck

A. L. Wright, 949 Barnard, received minor injuries yesterday when he fell from the back of a pickup truck on Hobart, 30 feet south of Gwendolyn.

The accident occurred at 3:24 p.m. and witnesses reported that Wright, who was sitting on the tailgate of the pickup, fell from the pickup as the driver, Robert D. Pinkston, 317 N. Nelson, started the pickup after stopping at a stop sign.

The truck is owned by the city of Pampa.

Reports late yesterday indicated that Wright had received only minor injuries. No report was available today on his condition.

Two collisions were also reported to the police department yesterday.

Two collisions were also reported at 1:25 p.m. at the intersection of Frederic and Hughes. A 1952 Ford dumptruck, driven by K. S. Head Jr., Pampa, and a 1934 Ford pickup, driven by Claudio Cortis, were estimated at $38 were in collision. Damages to the pickup were estimated at $35 and the dumptruck was reported undamaged.

At 4:33 p.m. the other collision occurred at the intersection of Foster and West. A 1955 Ford, driven by Mollie Ann Frisby, 2226 Williston, and a 1955 Chrysler, driven by Benjamin G. Rahn, 338 Blackmon, 820 Tignor, were in collision. The Ford met with $75 damages estimated at $75 and the Chrysler encountered damages estimated at $10.

Bill Boosting Postal Rates May Head For Senate Shelf

WASHINGTON (UP)—The administration bill boosting postal rates appeared headed today for a Senate shelf.

The half-billion dollar bill sailed through the House Tuesday night on a roll call vote of 256-128. But its chances of getting through the Senate this year were considered to be almost zero.

The bill would boost the cost of mailing first class mail one penny. A four-cent stamp would be required on regular mail, a seven-cent stamp on airmail and a three-cent stamp on postcards. Second, third and fourth class mail rates also would go up.

House passage of the bill was a victory for President Eisenhower. Backers said the big margin of votes in favor of the bill meant it has a good chance of Senate passage next year.

Rep. Barratt O'Hara (D-Ill.) suggested that a new four-cent stamp be issued bearing a picture of a pirate's flag.

Other congressional developments:

Rackets—The Senate Rackets Committee called mystery mobster Anthony (Tony Ducks) Corallo to ask him what role he may have played in Teamster affairs.

Committee Chairman John L. McClellan called Corallo a narcotics racket figure. He said dues from exploited union members supported a mob that worked for Corallo and racketeer Johnny Dio.

Rights—A key House Democrat said he saw signs of a crack in GOP opposition to the Senate civil rights bill. At the same time, the battle over the bill shifted to

BenJack Due To Begin His Grand Jury Tour Sept. 3

DALLAS (UP)—BenJack Cage will begin his tour of grand juries and legislative committees Sept. 3.

Cage will appear before the Dallas county grand jury at 2 p. m. Sept. 3 to tell his tale of how his ICT Insurance Co. collapsed. His testimony is expected to shed new light in the case and involve hitherto unmentioned persons.

After that, the affable super-salesman, free on $10,000 bond on charges of embezzling $650,000 from ICT, will go before the Travis county grand jury in Austin in addition to hastily-formed House and Senate investigating committees.

Sen. Charles Herring, who served as head of the Senate group which probed ICT during the legislative session, was chosen to lead the off-season committee which will question Cage.

District Attorney Henry Wade of Dallas, who retrieved Cage from Mexico City this week, told the Fort Worth Press he and BenJack discussed a possible guilty plea to the embezzlement charges and what sentence Wade might recommend. Wade said the sentence he will recommend will depend on "how well BenJack cooperates with us." However, he said "under no conditions would we recommend a suspended sentence."

Russia Closes Bay To Hide Activities

WASHINGTON (UP)—Russia has closed the wide area of Peter the Great bay off Vladivostok in order to screen military activities, experts said today.

Vladivostok is the chief Pacific naval base for the Soviet Union. Many of Russia's 500 submarines are reported to be operating out of it in Pacific waters.

Experts said there are indications the Russians are building up their Pacific naval forces headquartered at Vladivostok and are taking measures to protect the area from observation.

The United States made public Tuesday a strong protest of Moscow against what it called the "unlawful" Soviet Action closing the 115-mile-wide, 55-mile-long to navigation by foreign ships and foreign planes. The Soviet Council of Ministers on July 20 said Soviet permission would have to be obtained prior to any future sea-air entry into the area.

Texas Due Asiatic Flu Late In '57

AUSTIN (UP)—Asiatic flu will probably lay siege to Texas late this year, according to State Health Commissioner Henry A. Hollie.

Hollie said Tuesday an epidemic of the influenza will "almost certainly lay siege to Texas this fall and winter."

A department spokesman said there have been five confirmed cases of the disease in Texas and many more are being studied.

Hollie pointed out a goal of 60 million doses of vaccine against Asiatic flu has been set by pharmaceutical firms. Houston received enough for 1,300 doses Tuesday.

Hollie urged citizens to immunize them selves as soon as the vaccine is available, reminding physicians rather than the health department, as in the case of polio vaccine. He said military experience indicates the vaccine is 70 per cent effective.

Hollie said the disease is highly communicable. Symptoms include a sudden fever lasting up to six days, chills, aches and pains in the back and joints, sore throat and a cough.

Senate May Face Ban On Waving To Movie Queens

WASHINGTON (UP)—Congressmen today faced a burning question: Should the Senate ban its members from saluting Hollywood cuties and less photogenic citizens posing in the gallery?

Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn.), a dignified Ivy League type lawmaker, said Tuesday it is time the Senate stopped letting its gallery be used for publicity stunts.

He and four other senators proposed a new rule prohibiting senators from pointing to the gallery and introducing visiting stage and screen stars. On such memorable occasions senators customarily rise, applaud and gaze at the guests.

Bush's proposal may have come not a moment too soon. The third Hollywood movie queen of noted proportions to arrive in Washington in the last week was expected tonight.

The first two—Jayne Mansfield and Sophia Loren—did not visit the Senate gallery. But Jayne arched her back and posed on the Capitol steps after greeting senators off the Senate floor. Sophia arrived on Sunday when the Senate was not in session. She quickly went to work posing near the Lincoln Memorial for a new movie.

Jayne Russell was scheduled to arrive tonight aboard the Congressional Limited to visit the capital and push a new film called "The Fuzzy Pink Nightingale."

A Challenge To American Youth

By ALBIN KREBS, United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK (UP)—Billy Graham Tuesday night challenged America's teen-agers to "organize gangs for Christ with as much enthusiasm as you sometimes organize gangs for crime."

The evangelist said the term "gangs for Christ" may sound strange to some, but "I read the other day that one of the teen gangs causing so much trouble here in New York is called 'the Devils.'

"Why not stay in the religious field? Why not 'gangs for Christ'?" he asked his capacity audience of 18,500 in Madison Square Garden.

About half the audience was composed of teen-agers. Graham preached the second in a series of sermons tailored to teen-age problems, undertaken to combat the recent upsurge in teen violence in New York.

"Like that famous teen-ager David, who at 16 met and slew Goliath, teen-agers today face a multitude of giants," Graham said.

"One of these giants is disobedience. When you disobey authority in the home and school, when you go out into society you will also disobey its rules."

"When the State Department tells you you can't go to Red China, you'll go anyway. Just to show you can rebel."

This was a reference to Tuesday's State Department appeal to about 50 young Americans now in Moscow to reconsider plans to leave today for Red China.

Among other "giants" young people must face today, Graham said, are "anger, wrath, bad temper, smart-aleckness, jealousy, all of which rise before you like the giant Goliath, 9-feet, 4-inches tall."

"You young people face also the giant of sex," he said. "Your bodies are maturing and the sex desire is rousing now than it will ever be in your lives. You must remember it is a gift from God; use it right and it becomes a great servant; use it wrong and you become its slave."

An estimated three-fourths of the 720 persons who went forward to record "decisions for Christ" were teen-agers. A total of 45,864 persons have made "decisions" at Graham's 80 sermons since his crusade began May 15. Attendance has run to 1,512,900.

Contract For Paving Is Awarded

The contract for paving of Kentucky and Price streets has recently been awarded by the Gray County Commissioners to Ivan Deament of Amarillo.

His bid of $86,306.97 was lower than either of the bids submitted by Cooper and Woodruff of Amarillo or Ray Boswell of Pampa.

Price street will be paved from the Borger highway north to Kentucky street, while Kentucky will be paved between Hobart and Price streets. This paving will border on the north and east of the property on which the Pampa Community Hotel is to be built.

All paving is to be 20 feet in width with the exception of one half mile on Kentucky street starting at Hobart and running east, which will be 36 feet in width.

The county is footing paving costs with property owners paying the bills for curbs and gutters.

The commissioners, in their last meeting, also authorized the buying of two tractors. These are to go to Precinct 1 and Precinct 3. Bids will open Sept. 1.

Also at the last meeting, Cecil Regies of Lipscomb was named assistant county agent to replace Robert Adamson who is going to Spearman as county agent.

Teamsters Get Warning

CHICAGO (UP)—The AFL-CIO handed the Teamsters' Union a stiff warning today; show 'up for a showdown on corruption charges or be judged without further hearings.

AFL-CIO President George Meany issued the ultimatum by setting Sept. 5-6 as new dates for Washington hearings where the Teamsters will have their last chance to reply to AFL-CIO accusations.

Even if the Teamsters fail to appear at that time, Meany said, the federation's executive council will meet about Sept. 23 or 24 to make its long-awaited ruling in the Teamsters' case. The council could order the 1,400,000-member trucking union, the largest in the nation, to clean up or face ouster from the united labor movement.

In any case, Meany emphasized, the AFL-CIO will act before the Teamsters convention begins Sept. 30 in Miami. The convention could be considered a test of Teamsters' intentions to reform their union.

The union is accused of falling to rid itself of corrupt officers. The charges mainly involve discredited President Dave Beck's alleged misuse of union funds. Meany said two months ago that Beck should not be allowed to hold his office.

No Sunshine For Mr. K's Bald Spot

BERLIN (UP)—Soviet Communist Leader Nikita Khrushchev is sensitive about his bald spot, but not like most men.

He is sensitive to sunlight. A bare-headed Khrushchev addressed a mass rally for more than an hour in East Berlin Tuesday and whenever the sun came out he reached for his white Panama hat.

When the sun disappeared behind a cloud Khrushchev removed it and smoothed back his remaining hair.

CUT DOWN TO BOY SIZE—James Benjamin Malone III must have gotten tired of being called "that darling little girl." At any rate with the help of his parents, two-year-old Jimmy visited an Atlanta, Ga., barbershop to have those long, curly tresses cut down to boy size. The camera followed Jimmy through the transformation. At left he certainly makes a pretty "girl." Center, some place between "girl" and boy. At right, all boy.

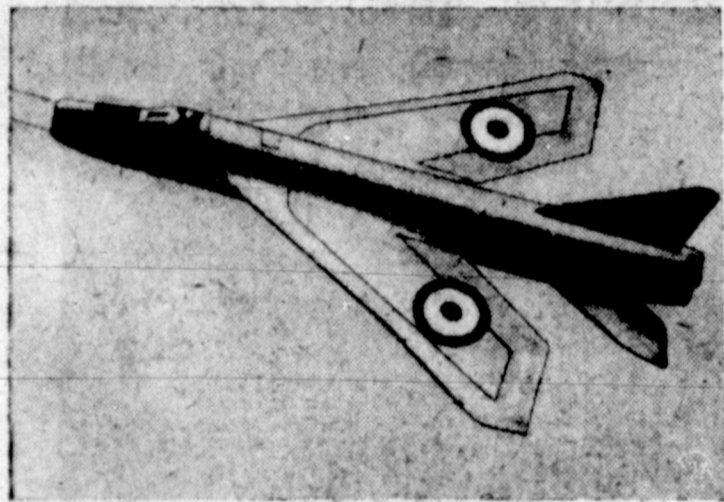

Our laws have their roots deep within our beliefs. And the laws shift as our beliefs change. Thus working backwards, you can find a people's deepest beliefs by discovering their notions of justice — about adults, children, nature, animals, and other things. Until this century, the laws held children fully responsible for crimes. Like adults, they faced trial and punishment — often prison or death. Today we seek mainly to reform child offenders, rather than to punish them. Some primitive people hold inanimate things like stones and rivers guilty of offenses. For centuries the laws held animals morally responsible for their acts, and therefore tryable in courts. "And if an ox gore a man or a woman to death," Exodus XXI says, "the ox shall be surely stoned."

AMA Lays Plans For Fight On Flu

CHICAGO — The American Medical Association has announced that it is launching a nationwide preparedness program immediately to combat a possible outbreak of Asiatic influenza in the United States. Working closely with Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney and the U.S. Public Health Service in Washington, the A.M.A. has approved a plan which will alert the nation's practicing physicians to the dangers of a possible flu outbreak. "The epidemic may never strike in this country," said Dr. David B. Allman, Atlantic City, A.M.A. president. "But the American Medical Association has mobilized thousands of persons who have been stricken with the disease in the Far East during the last few weeks and it is only good medicine to deal in probabilities now when we have the time. In that way, the American people will be best served from a medical standpoint." Dr. Allman stressed the fact that there is no immediate cause for alarm. The A.M.A. Board of Trustees has authorized a special A.M.A. committee on influenza to handle the project. Chairman of the committee is Dr. Harold C. Lueuth, of Evanston, Ill., who has been serving for some time as chairman of the A.M.A. committee on civil defense. The committee on influenza plans to "Inform all physicians, through state and county medical societies, on how to deal with any Asiatic influenza epidemic; urge state and county medical societies to prepare and develop stand-by programs and plans to cope with any epidemic should it occur; formulate plans at the national level to utilize all medical personnel, regardless of type of practice, in time of an influenza emergency, and coordinate state and local programs with public health agencies and health departments." Dr. Lueuth said that the A.M.A. and the U.S. Public Health Service public educational program with the help of newspapers and television and radio stations. The public will be given information about the particular virus — type A Far East strain — which causes the disease and how best to treat it when it strikes. The influenza caused by the new virus has been relatively mild, marked by a three-to-four day period of fever and other typical symptoms of influenza. Several pharmaceutical manufacturers are now producing a vaccine to combat the Far East strain. No verified deaths from the disease have been reported in the United States. It is estimated that the attack rate would run between 15 and 20 per cent of the population of any city where the disease reached epidemic proportions. After studying the experiences in the Far East among military and civilian personnel, Dr. Lueuth said "American medicine wants a sound medical plan and an effective organization to meet the medical aspects of any epidemic. Rapid onset of the epidemic makes it mandatory to have plans prepared well in advance and to see that the 1,911 medical societies in the country are cognizant of the magnitude of the problem before the epidemic strikes." Continuing, Dr. Lueuth said: "Reports indicate that stricken patients soon become bedridden. Great reliance therefore must, of necessity, be placed on home care because of the current high occupancy rate in civilian hospitals. Special problems will develop if the disease occurs in camps and at large meetings or assemblies because usually there are insufficient accommodations for providing bed care for large numbers of patients who suddenly become ill. Each community, Dr. Lueuth said, will be urged to make a serious study and have suitable plans to cope with epidemics that might occur. (In Pampa, doctors have formed a committee to investigate the situation and lay preliminary plans for when and if an epidemic of Asiatic flu strikes in this community or the surrounding area.)

WORLD'S FASTEST?—This English Electric P.1, supersonic jet fighter, photographed streaking through the air over Warton, England, has unofficially broken the world air speed record with a speed nearing 1,200 m.p.h. and, according to reports, not at full throttle. Production of the P.1 has been ordered by the Royal Air Force. It reportedly will be Britain's last manned fighter aircraft.

Females Can't Stay Glamorous While Trying To Be Comical

By ALINE MOSBY
 HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Women who try to be the life of the party by acting like comical shouldn't, says Danny Kaye. He thinks few women can be funny and feminine, too. Danny sat on a set at MGM where he's working in a movie, "Merry Andrew", his first film in two years, and reflected on the state of the funny folks who happen to be female. "There aren't many female comedians because — well, how would you like to put on a red wig and a funny nose and make people laugh?" he shrugged. "A woman likes to be thought of as a woman, as being pretty and feminine. Most women are terribly embarrassed if they think they are being made to look ridiculous."

Uninhibited Clowns
 Down the years some women have decided to forget about being composed and graceful and have made their marks as uninhibited clowns, from the great and late Fanny Brice and Bea Lillie to Lucille Ball, Imogene Coca, Jane Kean (of the Kean sisters) and a newcomer, who goes in for wonderful rubbery-faced imitations, Sue Carson. Then there's another group of women who go in for light, sophisticated comedy and still maintain a halo of glamour and beauty while they're taking pies in the face and pratfalls. Kaye thinks Carole Lombard was a queen among these funny — but glamorous beauties. Others he picks are Rosalind Russell and Eve Arden. He also names as one of the big new stars of the year Kay Kendall, the English star and wife of Rex Harrison who's the only new sophisticated comedienne to appear in the movies since Miss Russell. Kay's drunk scene in "Les Girls", her first Hollywood movie, ranks her as a master at being funny but feminine.

(Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.)
 By UNITED PRESS
 NEW YORK — Movie producer-composer Boris Morros, on his 12 years as an American counter-spy: "I have never been a spy before. I don't know where I found the courage to do it the first time, but believe me, to tell the truth, I don't think I could do it again."
 WASHINGTON — Anthony Doria, former secretary-treasurer of the United Auto Workers Union, on the union activities of racketeer Johnny Dio: "If Dio had one failing, it was the inability to say no to anybody."
 NEW YORK — Elder statesman and financier Bernard Baruch, on his career in Wall Street: "As I moved into public life I was to find that what I had learned about people from my speculator days applied equally to other affairs. Human nature remained human nature, whether it stood bent over a stock ticker or spoke from the White House."

Three Grizzled Confederate Veterans Still Hale, Hearty

ATLANTA (UP) — Three grizzled southerners, last living reminders of a bloody Civil War, appeared hale and hearty today more than a year after saying farewell to the last Union Army veteran.
 When Albert Woolson died at the age of 109 on Aug. 2, 1956, in Duluth, Minn., the three Confederate Army survivors joined the nation in paying tribute.
 Walter Williams, 114, of Houston, Tex.; John Salling, 111, of Slaton, Va., and William Lundy, 109, of Crestview, Fla., appear to be in about the same state of health as a year ago.
 None of the three did much, if any, fighting. Williams was a drummer boy with Gen. John Hood's Texas Brigade, Salling a gunpowder expert who never engaged in combat, and Lundy a member of the home guard at Elba, Ala.
 Lundy Still Spry
 As the youngest, Lundy — or Uncle Bill, as everyone in northwest Florida knows him — is also the spryest. He happily participates in occasional public functions in his honor. Last month he stood bent over a stock ticker or spoke from the White House.
 BEIRUT, Lebanon — President Camille Chamoun, on Communist infiltration into the Middle East: "I earnestly believe that Communist infiltration into the Middle East is highly dangerous to the very existence of the Middle East as sovereign states."
 DETROIT — Midwest Teamster leader James R. Hoffa, in a sharp verbal exchange with Michael Novak, president of the Wayne County CIO Council: "There are certain people in labor who are bums and everybody knows what to do with them."

BULLPEN BUGGY—With his feet getting almost as tired as his pitching arm, what with trudging in and out of the bullpen almost daily, San Francisco Seals' relief ace Leo "Bones" Kieley has decided on an easier road to pitching success. He now makes his trips to the pitching rubber on the back of groundkeeper Shorty Schnurr's handy vehicle. Kieley is undefeated in his last 10 relief appearances.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Burch Celebrate 50 Years Of Marriage In Mobeetie

(Special to The News) MOBEETIE — Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Burch were honored recently in their home with an open house, celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary.

The serving table, covered with a white linen cloth, was laid with a crystal and silver service with candles flanking the arrangement. The bride cake was white with pink and green decorations. The center piece was made of gold leaves, making an archway for the figure "50". Gold punch was served.

At the serving table were Misses Carol Johnson of Big Spring; Edna Sackett, Pampa; Blynda Beck, Mobeetie; and Mrs. Floyd E. Sackett of Sweetwater. Mrs. C. W. Burch registered the guests and two of the daughters, Mrs. L. E. Kieth and Mrs. O. G. Beck welcomed the guests.

Mrs. Burch was dressed in a navy blue and white nylon dress and her corsage was of golden daisies. Mr. Burch wore a gold daisy.

Fifty Relatives At Pounds' Reunion

(Special to The News) MOBEETIE — The annual Pounds family reunion was held recently in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Burch and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burch in New Mobeetie.

Only four of the eight living children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Z. B. Pounds were able to attend. They were Mrs. Maryetta Speck of Rochester, Mrs. Vera Gross of Big Spring, Mrs. Dore Treweek of Dublin, and Mrs. Burch.

Those not present were Mrs. C. Callie Speck, Howard Pounds and Brittan Pounds, all of California, and F. S. Pounds of Bovena.

All of the Burch children were present for the event. It was the first time all of the family had been together since January of 1944.

More than 50 relatives attended the occasions. Since 1928 the family has enjoyed more than 20 reunions.

Buffing of nails is important. It increases circulation of blood in tissues around the nails. If your nails are brittle or soft, peeling or splitting from a vitamin deficiency, you may want to buff on a paste polish, rather than an all-liquid nail polish. This is fine while you are rebuilding yourself with a proper diet.

The girl who dotes on French perfume but doesn't like to splash it around can have it in toilet water form for spring. This girl uses an atomizer to create a cloud of fragrance.

Use Spray Scent For Budget Beauty

By ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor. The girl who loves really good perfume but knows quite well that her budget won't stretch to cover it, can find her solution by using toilet water in the scent she dotes on.

A cloud of scent that moves with her as she walks, without overpowering either her or the people near her. She can back up her budget-wise investment in toilet water by using dusting powder in the matching scent. This will reinforce the toilet water and help it to linger. And, like the toilet water, the powder can be used luxuriously. There's no reason, of course, why a girl should turn shy when someone asks her what she'd like for her birthday. She can always name her favorite perfume.

The teen-ager who wants to look like a girl is the one who confuses the blue jean, sloppy sweater routine to her room (left). She's caught on to the fact that boys prefer girls who look as if they took some trouble about dressing, girls who are feminine. Shopping for spring shoes (center), she picks good-looking, high-style flats in soft leather for both school and dressy wear. Ready for Friday night at the movies, she wears (right) a slim leather flat that's soft as a glove on her foot. It has the new tapered toe and trim of open white buckle. Flats are ideal for her shoe wardrobe since they give her both fashion and comfort.

The Teenage Sloppy Look Is Going Out In Its Place Is Good Neat Grooming

By ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor. Not too long ago, a peek through the window at any gathering of teen-age girls would make you wonder where the scrubbing brushes and pails were hidden.

Club meeting, party, dance — it made little difference. Everyone looked like a member of a clean-up crew. The uniform was a sloppy sweater, rolled-up jeans, and dirty saddle shoes. Somewhere along the line, you teeners missed learning about the fun of dressing to look pretty, and good grooming was considered the badge of the "square."

But recent surveys show that teeners are developing a sincere interest in being attractively dressed and well groomed.

There are many smart-looking separates that can be mixed and matched for school wear or an informal date at a friend's home or a movie. Their use is unlimited when a gay scarf or pretty costume jewelry is added. And no one can deny that they're nicer to look at than blue jeans.

Foot doctors are pleased to see saddle shoes and sneakers relegated to occasional wear, for their shape became distorted from constant use. Since bones aren't fully formed until the age of 21, these distorted shoes, in turn, caused distorted feet.

You don't have to give up "flats" in order to look attractive. But this year they've been dressed up for you in smart styles. As a matter of fact, they're not exactly flat. Most of them have a small heel — about a half inch. And all will keep their shape.

When you shop for shoes remember that health authorities advise that all shoes for steady wear should be leather throughout.

Make Friends Manners

When swimming in a public pool, be sure your manners are good. It is not good manners to monopolize the diving board, splash water on others, jump into the water close to someone who is swimming, or yell and scream and push and shove around the pool.

Oil in the skin keeps it supple and well-nourished. Some persons have to help their supply of oil along. Still others must keep it under control to halt a greasy look. When using cream on an oily skin, apply very little and for a very short time. Dry skin takes a thicker coating and works best when left on for a longer period.

Added beauty care often gives a happy lift during a busy week. A good lift for the face is a mask. You can concoct your own at home, too. Slightly moistened oatmeal, buttermilk or an egg will do. When using an egg, alternate applying the yolk and the white to your face. The mask should cover the face except around the eyes.

Bridge Club Plays In Episcopal Hall

The Pampa Duplicate Bridge Club met Monday evening in the Episcopal Parish Hall with six tables playing the Mitchell Movement.

Taking first place on the North and South side were Mrs. Jim Nation and Ted Harriman. Second place winners were Mrs. Ted Harriman and Jim Nation.

The club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Episcopal Parish Hall. The public is cordially invited.

Willing Workers Sort Clothes At Meeting

A combined meeting of Circles one and two of the Ladies Willing Workers of the Church of God was held in the Church of God Wednesday at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Shelby Ruff was in charge of the business meeting in the absence of general president, Mrs. John Tschirhart. Mrs. Joe Slater gave the scripture reading, Psalms 95.

The group sorted and divided rummage. Circle two will hold a rummage sale on Aug. 23 and 24. A prayer dismissed the eight members and one visitor who were present. Each circle will meet separately this week.

Braves Take Eighth Straight With 12-4 Win Over Redlegs

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Mickey Mantle won the first run in his private batting battle with Ted Williams and wound up knocking out the Red Sox at the same time.

Mantle, bent on retaining his American League batting crown, enjoyed a perfect night Tuesday night as he collected three hits in as many times up and drove in all of the Yankees' runs in a 3-2 victory over Boston.

Mickey's performance, which included his 32nd homer and a pair of singles, raised his batting average five points to .384. He still trailed Williams, who boosted his league-leading mark one point to .388 with a single and two walks in four trips.

Big Frank Sullivan was the victim of Mantle's homer which came in the eighth inning with one on and wiped out Boston's 2-1 lead. The blow not only enabled Mantle to take over the league leadership in runs batted in with a total of 83, but also helped the Yanks retain their 5 1/2 game lead. It marked Mickey's first homer in Boston this season.

Mickey's performance, which included his 32nd homer and a pair of singles, raised his batting average five points to .384. He still trailed Williams, who boosted his league-leading mark one point to .388 with a single and two walks in four trips.

NOW AND THEN—When Casey Stengel, right, was traded to the Giants in 1921, little did the outfielder dream that 36 years later he would be writing, out batting orders and trying to win an eighth pennant as manager of the Yankees at the age of 67. Ol' Case broke into majors with the Dodgers at 22.

Louis' Views On Patterson Mismatch

By DAN HANLEY JR.
United Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UP)—Former heavyweight champion Joe Louis said today the "worst" thing ever to happen to boxing will be the Aug. 22 meeting between heavyweights Floyd Patterson and Olympian king Pete Rademacher for the "championship of the world."

Louis, who holds a place in the boxing "hall of fame," said the bout "is the worst mismatch in boxing history," out-doing Patterson's first title defense against Hurricane Jackson "for bad matching."

Louis, who was the most victorious heavyweight title defender in history, said Patterson was bringing "shame to his crown" by agreeing to fight the 28-year-old Rademacher, who'll be making his professional debut at Seattle.

"I would never have done a thing like that," said the Brown bomber of the 1940's, "and neither would any other champion in boxing."

"The Nat'l. Boxing Association should withdraw its recognition of the Washington state Boxing Commission," said Louis, who is here to plug Mercury records. "The NBA will be a sorry body of men if they recognize that fight."

Fred Saddy, chairman of the NBA's rating committee, said the association has "not right to interfere with Washington's state autonomy" in this matter.

"Besides," said Saddy, "if Rademacher would accidentally win, and it would have to be by accident as far as I can see, the NBA would look foolish by condemning Washington's 'Boxing Commission.'"

Saddy said the NBA was on record with its opposition to the match, but explained that when a champion goes into the ring his crown is at stake.

Louis said that no matter what the outcome of the fight, Patterson would look ridiculous.

"If he scores a quick victory, everyone will say that's how it was bound to be. And if Rademacher goes more than three rounds, people will say Patterson carried him," said Louis. He would not concede that Rademacher might win.

Garland Leads Putting Tourney Tomorrow Night

LUBBOCK, Tex. (UP)—Brownsville became the first team eliminated from the Region 7 Pony League tournament Tuesday.

Garland knocked out Brownsville 8-1, and in the other contest Corpus Christi clubbed seven home runs to sink Denver City 15-1.

The tourneys, held each Thursday night, are sponsored by the Ladies Golf Association. Last week's contest totaled 48 entries.

Larry Ethridge slapped four singles, Ronnie Green drove home three runs and John Shipley homered to pace Garland over Brownsville. Loser Billy Tallack allowed 11 hits.

Ballinger, Hobbs Battle For Lead

By UNITED PRESS

Ballerger and Hobbs meet tonight for the Southwestern League lead.

Lamesa set the Westerners back 8-5 Tuesday night while Hobbs edged Carlsbad 7-6 and moved to within half a game of pacesetter Ballerger. The second game of the scheduled Carlsbad-Hobbs twinbill was rained out.

While the Westerners are at Hobbs, Carlsbad goes to Lamesa tonight.

Joe Valmos gave up 10 Ballinger hits, including three home runs, but the Sports backed him with 15 hits for the victory. Potato Pascual picked up four hits and Carlos DeSouza three to pace Hobbs.

Walt O'Neill, Ron Kiser and Bill Stenger homered for Ballinger.

Irv Sharp singled with two out in the ninth to bring home John Spicuzza with the run that stopped Carlsbad. Don Risinger and Glen Rediger homered for the Posters.

Pastrano, Harris Bout Postponed

MIAMI BEACH (UP)—A cut eye will postpone Willie Pastrano's second fight with Roy Harris, scheduled here Aug. 20.

The fight was postponed indefinitely Tuesday after Pastrano cut his eye sparring with Jimmy Beacham. The cut required three stitches.

Harris, of Cut and Shoot, Tex., recently won a decision over the highly-regarded Pastrano at Houston and Pastrano has been training hard for the rematch.

Frick Relives Past Moments Of Notable Sporting Events

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE (Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.)
By FORD C. FRICK
Commissioner Of Baseball
Written for the United Press

NEW YORK (UP)—It is a pleasant feeling to again sit down at the typewriter to turn out a newspaper story, and even more wonderful are the memories that come racing back from the days when I did it every day.

They were wonderful days, and it seems hard to believe that more than 30 years have passed since I came east from Colorado Springs to write for the New York Journal.

How well I remember the first World Series game I covered, the Yankees and the Giants playing in the brand-new Yankee Stadium. They came into the last inning tied 4-4, and then a light-hearted, young Giant outfielder hit a home run off Joe Bush to bring McGraw's team a victory. The sight of that fellow joyously running the bases I will never forget. Nor will anyone who saw Charles Dillon Stengel beat the Yankees on that October afternoon.

Also, I recall the many fabulous stories I had heard in the West of the Washington fireball pitcher, Walter Johnson. I had my misgivings that anyone could be that

Classy Array Of Golf Stars On Hand At St. Paul Tourney

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UP)—A classy aggregation of golf stars lined up at the $24,000 St. Paul open which starts its 72-hole stand Thursday.

Included in the field were defending champion Mike Souchak, the bulky former football player, and wealthy Sam Snead, a former champion.

Also entered were Doug Ford, the Masters champion, and Lionel Hebert, PGA king.

Souchak, who finished with six straight birdies last year to edge little Jerry Barber by one stroke, headed a list of younger players expected to be in the running all the way. Other "youngsters" who will be after the titles were Gene Littler, Ken Venturi, who almost won the 1956 Masters while an amateur, Arnold Palmer, and long hitters Paul Harney and George Bayer.

Bayer captured the galleries' fancy last year when he equaled the Keller course record with a 10-under-par 62. In this year's tournaments, he's been among the top finishers when ever he managed to keep his amazing tee shots out of trouble.

Snead, always tourney's most popular player, won the title in 1947 and finished in a first-place tie with Jim Ferrier in 1950. Other former champions on hand are Tommy Bolt, 1935 winner, and Porky Oliver, the 1940 champion. Hebert, who plays a trumpet almost as well as he swings a golf club, came of age with his PGA victory and is considered a top title threat.

Ford has shown a liking for the Keller course and has always been among the leaders. His fans say this might be the year he finishes on top for the first time.

Other top professionals entered were Jackie Burke, 1956 National Open and Masters champion; Peter Thomson, three-time British Open winner; Dow Finsterwald, runner-up in the PGA; Fred Hawkings and Ed Furgol, both former National Open champions; Jim Turner, Jay Hebert and Fred Haas.

Union Leaders Meet To Discuss Erring Brothers

CHICAGO, Aug. 9 — My address at this writing is room 862 in the Drake Hotel. George Meany's address is rooms 527, 529 and 530 and Dave Dubinsky's is 942. They and about 150 other union leaders are just now pondering the problems of Erring Brothers accused of unethical conduct.

Rooms in the Drake cost about $25 a day, average. Some cost more and the dignitaries of this grand racket will occupy all of those. The executive council, starting with Meany, a fallen-away plumber who for many years has never wiped a joint, that master swipec of the consummate scoundrel, are carried on a confidential roster as "very important persons."
